

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 264

“What does this mean?”

Everyone panicked when they heard Ye Qiu suddenly laugh. Was he just acting just now? Did he deliberately lure the Pixiu Ancestor to the lower realm before killing him?

For a moment, everyone was stunned and could not figure out the situation.

That was an immortal! How could he...?

At this moment, when he heard Ye Qiu's wild laughter, Ancestor Pixiu's heart trembled and he looked over coldly. He didn't know where Ye Qiu got the confidence to be so arrogant.

Just based on this True Dragon Bone Text?

Although this True Dragon Bone Text was indeed extremely oppressive, it only existed in the suppression of the bloodline and could not cause actual damage.

The difference in strength between them was definitely not something that a True Dragon's bone could make up for. However, he must have been prepared judging from his expression.

“Interesting kid, you even dare to scheme against me?” Ancestor Pixiu, who knew that he had been tricked, only smiled faintly. He was still very calm in his heart. This was because he was only a clone. His true body could not enter this world at all.

Although this clone's strength was only a tenth of his true body's and was suppressed by the Heavenly Dao, it was not something a mere Martial Monarch could scheme against. He had such confidence.

“I want to see what methods you have to deal with me.” Ancestor Pixiu said coldly and continued to play with his high and mighty demeanor. He looked down at Ye Qiu.

Suddenly, a blood sword soared into the sky. Ye Qiu slowly raised his head. His loose hair was blown by a gust of wind, and he revealed a faint smile. “I might as well tell you that I’m invincible here.”

With that, Ye Qiu instantly leaped into the sky. A blood sword gradually condensed in the air, instantly gathering to a length of ten thousand feet.

“This...”

At this moment, Ancestor Pixiu finally revealed a surprised expression. Just this sword intent made him feel a trace of danger. He had not felt this sense of danger for countless years.

Ye Qiu seemed to have the aura of the world with the Immortal Slayer in his hand.

This strike was a strike that Ye Qiu had gathered the Cursive Sword, Killing A Person From Ten Thousand Miles Away, the Divine Punishment, Kun Peng Treasure Technique, and many other divine techniques.

It could be said that other than the one life for one life, this could be Ye Qiu’s most lethal strike so far.

This sword was called: Opening a Line in the World.

It was a move that he had created himself. Once used, it could ignore the restrictions of time, space, and laws. It was extremely powerful. The righteous energy of heaven and earth was added to his body, and the rolling divine lightning is a supplementary help.

There were no flaws.

Later on, Ye Qiu planned to teach it to Lin Qingzhu and nest her. However, on second thought, he could use the power of Ancestor Pixiu to make this move famous before passing it to his little darling. The effect might be better.

As soon he activated Opening A Line In The World, a blood screen seemed to separate the world in an instant. A terrifying sword intent erupted wantonly.

The cold aura gradually filled the sky and gradually lost its color.

“Heavens, what sword technique is this?”

“It’s too terrifying. Just one strike caused such a shocking commotion. It’s as if the entire world has been separated by one strike.”

“Is this the sword of the world?”

For a moment, the surroundings were in chaos. Everyone’s faces were incomparably pale when they saw Ye Qiu’s sword technique appear. No one expected him to be able to comprehend such a sword technique. How abnormal was his talent?

At this moment, even Lian Feng, who was far away in the Heaven Domain, revealed a shocked gaze after seeing this sword technique. She didn’t expect that Ye Qiu’s strength would increase so quickly after only a year.

She had thought that with a longevity medicine in hand, she would successfully pass the test of the Heaven Mending Goddess and inherit the status. She could widen the gap between her and Ye Qiu with such enhancement, but she didn't expect that Ye Qiu would be faster than her, even though she had broken through so fast.

Moreover, his comprehension of the Sword Dao had reached the terrifying Deva realm. His combat strength was terrifying.

"Oh... Damn it, can't you give in to me?" Lian Feng's face was filled with a smile. She pouted and complained. While she was happy for Ye Qiu, she was also very unhappy because she had to be the younger one again.

If Ye Qiu knew what she was thinking, he would probably die of laughter. He did not expect her to care so much about this so-called seniority, that she also wanted to experience the joy of being a senior sister.

Unfortunately, Ye Qiu killed her dream again.

Boom!

Suddenly, there was a loud bang. In the sky, the Nine Heavens Divine Lightning flickered.

Immersed in the pressure of this sword, Ancestor Pixiu was stunned and revealed fear. He could not imagine that a mere Martial Monarch could comprehend such a sword technique. This was not the sword of the world at all. The profundities contained within were something that even a powerful existence like him found difficult to comprehend.

But Ye Qiu had really comprehended it. Moreover, judging from the extent of his usage, he had long reached the point of perfection.

At this moment, Ancestor Pixiu panicked.

“No, that’s impossible... How can you comprehend such an immortal technique?!” Ancestor Pixiu said in disbelief. He still couldn’t believe that Ye Qiu could comprehend such an immortal technique.

It was said that experts recognize artistry. How could Ancestor Suanni not see that Ye Qiu’s sword had actually surpassed the divine technique and vaguely touched the profundity of an immortal technique?

“Haha!” His laughter echoed in the violent wind. Ye Qiu held his sword with one hand and his body trembled. A violent power erupted. Then, he said, “There are all kinds of strange things in the vast world. In this world, nothing is impossible. If there is, it can only mean that you are inexperienced.

“Tremble, Immortal! Today, I will be the number one person to be an immortal slayer.”

This was the first time Ye Qiu’s blood was boiling and he was even more excited. In the past, he had only fought small fries. Today, he finally came into contact with a true immortal from the Heavenly World who looked down on the experts of the world.

How could he not be excited?

If he killed him, Ye Qiu could brag for the rest of his life that he had successfully killed an immortal while being a mortal.

Hearing this, Ancestor Pixiu’s heart sank. He snorted coldly and said, “Hmph, arrogant! Today, I want to see how you kill the immortal.”

After a short shock, Ancestor Pixiu finally revealed a serious expression. In an instant, golden bone runes erupted from his entire body, and an incomparably terrifying power instantly swept over.

That was the might of a Deva, a supreme being. A being that could make the souls of those weak little cultivators dissipate with just a gaze. However, such methods were useless in front of Ye Qiu.

“Kid, I admit that you have something, but not much, finish your nonsense and prepare to die.”

After saying this coldly, Ancestor Pixiu suddenly roared into the sky.

“Roar!”

That deafening sound sounded, shaking the world and destroying mountains and rivers.
