Chapter 101

Timothy felt his heart skip a beat. "My family's problem? What problem does my family have?"

Matthew whispered, "It's a problem that is related to your family's secrets. I'm afraid that it wouldn't be suitable to discuss it here."

Hearing this, Timothy hurriedly asked someone to arrange a VIP room and only the Wayne couple and Matthew entered the room.

"Mr. Larson, what problem are you talking about?" Timothy asked anxiously as soon as they closed the door.

"Mr. Wayne, earlier, I told your wife that your son would definitely have an accident in 24 hours."

Shocked, Timothy asked, "Mr. Wayne, I was just about to ask you this. How... How did you know that my son would have an accident?"

In a trembling voice, Mrs. Wayne said, "It... It was a really strange accident. Nothing else happened to the people in this building and only my son was hurt. If I had known that this building was made of cheap materials, I would've sent my son to other hospitals!"

Matthew shook his head and said, "The place doesn't matter. He would have still been in an accident."

Wayne couple was dumbfounded.

he asked, "Mr. Wayne, has the Wayne family been having accidents frequently as of my father-in-law's throat while he was eating and he had surgery. Timothy sensed the hesitation in her voice so he was immediately infuriated and yelled, "Tell me the truth! Did you insult the master?!"

In a soft voice, Mrs. Wayne replied, "He... He was too ostentatious so I... I said a few words..."

"Mrs. Wayne, I hope you tell me the truth. This matter involves the life and death of your husband and your son. If you continue lying, I can't help you!"

Mrs. Wayne instantly turned pale. "He... He argued with me and I was so mad that I hired people to teach him a lesson. Then... Then I captured his son and forced him to help us move grandfather-in-law's grave..."

"So that's why!" Matthew sneered. "No wonder he wants to kill you all!"

"You... You..." Timothy trembled with anger. His wife was always causing trouble.

In a trembling voice, Mrs. Wayne muttered, "Darling, I... I didn't do it on purpose. I didn't know that he would be so cruel..."

Timothy was completely pale. "What... What is that? Why is there such a small coffin? Can it be that a baby's corpse is inside?"

"There's no need to be afraid. It's only a cat's corpse."

"A cat's corpse?"

Matthew softly replied, "Putting a cat's corpse in a coffin and placing it in the ceiling is a curse to kill the whole Wayne family! Mr. Wayne, I'm afraid that your wife is not telling the truth. The grudge between her and the master is not that simple."

Timothy opened the little coffin and sure enough, it was a cat's corpse inside. Horror was written all over his face and he instantly called his wife.

Not long after, Timothy returned with despair. "The men she hired broke one of the master's son's legs and it couldn't be reconnected..."

Hearing this, Matthew sighed and said, "Mr. Wayne, I'm not trying to lecture you but I think you should keep a close eye on your wife. Otherwise, she will cause more trouble."

Shocked, Helen asked, "Wasn't it Matthew who got our money back?"

Demi shook her head and replied, "Of course not. Think about it, don't you know Matthew's abilities? He spent the last three years living in our house and couldn't even raise 300,000 to save his sister. Do you really think that he could get 300 million back?"

Helen couldn't help but frown and started to wonder.

In a soft voice, Liam said, "Helen, why are you still hoping for miracles from that loser? Other than mocking us, what else does he do? Back when we asked him to help take responsibility for the incident, he refused us!"

Hearing this, James frowned too. Liam's words made him doubt Matthew again.

Seeing this, Liam hurriedly added, "Helen and James, do you remember Matthew's promise?"

Helen asked, "What promise?"

Matthew couldn't help but frown. It's obvious that Liam is sowing discord. However, the main problem is that he is really skilled at making James and Helen like him.

Furious, Sasha yelled, "Liam, what are you implying? If you didn't introduce us to a con man and create such trouble, would we even have the need to cough up an extra 100 million to appease the shareholders? If we hadn't promised them 100 million, we would've been sent to jail. How could you make such sarcastic remarks?"

Liam smirked and said, "But we're not in jail, right? Only one day has passed and Mr. Jones was captured and we got our money back. This isn't a big deal. However, 100 million is not a small amount. I'm sure Matthew won't be able to earn 100 million even if he worked for a few lifetimes."

James and Helen had cold expressions. The thought of giving such a large sum of money to others upset them.

In the end, James couldn't hold back his anger and yelled angrily, "Sasha, stop defending Matthew! Liam is right! This incident is not serious at all. The con man was captured in a short time and there is no need for us to be sent to jail. However, because of Matthew's words, we will have to lose 100 million. In my opinion, the person who should be sent to jail is him!"

Helen nodded in agreement and said, “Your father is right! This is our family’s asset. A live-in son-in-law like him is not qualified to decide where the money goes. Sasha, tell the shareholders that if they want the 100 million, they should ask Matthew for it. The Cunningham family will not pay even a penny!”

Sasha’s body trembled in anger. “Dad, Mom, why can’t you be reasonable? In that situation where everybody was filled with anger, do you think they would have calmed down if we didn’t give them a promise? The 100 million helped us solve the problem. Otherwise, we would’ve been grabbed by the collar!”

Sasha was infuriated by Liam’s words. Bear the burden? If Matthew can’t solve this, he will be doomed!

However, the shareholders didn’t ask Matthew questions.

Instead, one of the shareholders stepped forward and pointed at James before he angrily yelled, “Mr. Cunningham, I’ll ask you one last time. Are you going to pay us 100 million?!”

“No!” James replied decisively.

Sasha was about to say something but Helen covered her mouth.

“Fine!” The shareholder nodded vigorously and gritted his teeth. “F*ck it, let’s just call the police! I don’t want your money! F*ck you! You stole the company’s official seal and embezzled 300 million of the company’s fund. This is a crime! So what if we got the 300 million back? With evidence of committing crime, you have to bear legal responsibility! I’ll be damned if you don’t get sent to jail this time!”

The group of shareholders started clamoring. “He’s right, let’s call the police! I don’t need that money! Curse this b*stard! James and Helen, be prepared to be sent to jail!”

The shareholder sneered, "So what if I carry it too far? Does it upset you?"

"You... You..." James stuttered and didn't know what to say.

At that moment, someone already pulled out his phone and was about to call the police. Seeing this, Helen hurriedly leaned close to Sasha. In a trembling voice, she whispered, "Sasha, you have to think of some way to save your father..."

Sasha was irritated. "How am I supposed to help him? The problem was already solved but he chose to cause more trouble. Now, the shareholders are provoked and they don't even want the money anymore. What else can I do?"

Helen was in panic. "Sasha, if you don't help, we might really go to jail. Your father and I are already of old age. Are you really willing to let us sit in jail?"

Matthew let out a sigh of relief and turned to look at Sasha. The matter involved James and Helen so he couldn't make rash decisions.

Sasha replied, “Thank you all for being so understanding. Once again, I apologize on behalf of my parents. In order to express my gratitude, I've decided that from now on, my parents and my sister are not allowed to interfere with company affairs!”

As soon as she finished speaking, James was the first to lose his temper. “What?! Who gave you the authority to forbid me from interfering in company affairs? The company belongs to the Cunningham family and I am your father. I have the right to manage company affairs!”

The shareholder instantly yelled at him. “Zip your mouth, old b*stard! The company belongs to President Cunningham, not the Cunningham family. She has the shares of the company, not you. What makes you qualified to mess with the company's affairs?”

James anxiously replied, “Who says that I'm not qualified? I am her father who raised her so she must listen to my orders. The company is hers, and that means it is also mine! Let me put this straight, I will not leave the company and I will personally manage all of the company's affairs!”

The shareholder slammed his fist on the table and yelled, “Bullsh*t! If you don't leave, I'll make sure to send you to jail! Why don't you try managing the company from the prison?”

James and Helen fled home and sat in the living room, looking dejected. Then, Demi and Liam entered the house.

“James and Helen!”

When James and Helen saw Liam, their blood instantly boiled.

“Liam, how dare you show your face here?!” Helen roared angrily. “Look at what you’ve done! Because of you, the shareholders were provoked, and James and I were kicked out of the company! What should we do now?!”

Ashamed, Liam hurriedly replied, “James and Helen, I didn’t know that things would turn out that way! Who would’ve expected that the shareholders would trust in the loser Matthew so deeply?! I was only thinking of helping the family save some money. I thought we could save 100 million by letting Matthew take the blame!”

Helen was overjoyed and she nodded in agreement. “Liam, the idea that you proposed this time is amazing! We can start a business without capital that will definitely gain profit! Furthermore, we are the bosses of the company so we can do whatever we want! Darling, I think we can actually do this!”

James was also delighted. “You’re right. Liam, you’re really smart! Okay, it’s decided! Once the company is founded, you’ll be the company manager!”

Liam was thrilled to hear this. “Don’t worry, James and Helen. You’ve treated me like your son so I’ll also treat you as my parents. I will definitely handle the company’s affairs properly! Once the company starts earning money, I’ll buy a Maybach for you, James, and fine jewelry for you, Helen! Furthermore, we can organize company group trips abroad. Also, the both of you are powerful people in Eastcliff now, so you should go and enjoy life. You should travel to scenic spots abroad and broaden your knowledge. That way, you’ll be able to communicate with the elites of society. In short, the two of you will enjoy everything that Jason used to have and more!”

It felt good for James and Helen to hear Liam say those things. After all, they had suffered humiliation in the Cunningham family and dreamt of taking revenge. At that moment, James was pleased with Liam. When night came and it was time to get off of work, James rushed to find Sasha so he could discuss the establishment of the herbary company as soon as possible.

Matthew and Sasha were both confused. "Dad, why did you suddenly have the idea to establish a herbary company?"

"There's no need for you to know. Just sign your name and
