Chapter 1051: Who is the number one person on earth!

It was on the day ye chen returned home.

His battle achievements had finally been completely spread out!

The cultivators of Hua nation and the armies of the West were having a decisive battle above Hua nation's waters!

When the power gap between the two sides was too great, the sacred land of China, the ruins of Kunlun, came into being, and many peerless powerhouses revered ye nankuang as the Lord of the ruins of Kunlun!

This news was like a bombshell that shocked the world so much that they couldn't close their mouths. They could hardly believe it.

Before they could react, another series of earth-shattering news erupted like a tsunami and swept across the world!

Ye Nan had killed many powerful beings from the Holy Lands and secret realms, including the heavenly Yin evil sorcerer from Japan, the Indian Saint Haris, and the second Prince of the Blood clan, Rodney ...

After that, he led the eastern Army to the West and completely destroyed the Western alliance Army, crippling more than 30 Holy Lands and secret realms.

He then charged into the Vatican's Church in Greece and suppressed the church alone, forcing the door to heaven to open. The angels descended and killed the angels. He killed five of them.

When this news spread, at first, some people did not believe it. However, countless battle videos about ye chen spread on the internet, including the video of the battle of heaven.

For a time, the whole world was shocked!

"My God, is this something a human can do? That's more than thirty Holy Lands and secret realms, and the experts in each secret realm are god-like existences!"

"This Chinese guy even killed an Angel. I can't believe it. This world is crazy!"

"Invincible, he's simply invincible. How could such a god-like existence be born in China?"

"....."

All the countries were shaken by this. All the forces and arcane realms were frightened and issued orders not to provoke ye chen.

"From now on, ye nankuang will be the most powerful man on earth!" Someone said. "This Easterner has conquered the entire world!"

"I don't think so!"

"I'm afraid you don't know this, but there's a mysterious zombie man in China. He was the first to enter the West and defeated the powerhouses from all the countries. Even the blood clan was subdued by him!" Someone objected.

"That's right, I also know this person!"

Many people agreed with his words."It is said that this man and ye nankuang went separate ways. Ye nankuang attacked the Royal Court, while he went to attack Mount Olympus!"

"What? Attack Mount Olympus? Oh my God, that's the realm of the gods!"

Countless people were shocked.

"This zombie from the East is even more brutal than ye nankuang!" Said Shi potian."Not only did he kill a dozen gods, but he also destroyed Mount Olympus! It's said that even the sacred artifact left by Zeus, the king of gods, couldn't kill him!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone trembled.

"It's one thing to have ye nankuang, but now there's Yu. This is too abnormal. How did China produce so many monstrous talents?"

"Who do you think is stronger, ye nankuang or Yi? Which one of them will become the number one person on earth?"

"It's hard to say. The combat strength they've shown isn't much different, unless they can fight!"

"I'd rather they fight. No matter who lives or dies, it'll be a huge loss for China!"

For a time, the whole world was discussing ye chen and the Christian Church. There were people who wanted to stir up trouble on the internet, including forces like Japan, India, and England.

Japan, at the Akamu shrine!

When news of ye Chen's battle achievements and the death of the evil sorcerer of heavenly Yin spread, many Onmyoji in the shrine gathered together to discuss countermeasures.

"Everyone, what I mean is that the cultivation world in China can't be dominated. We must find a way to contain the cultivation world in China!"

The Vice-priest of the godtree shrine, Iiga Izumi, said with a dark expression,""The only way is to stir up infighting in the cultivation world of Hua land. We have to target ye nankuang and Yi!"

"You're right, Mr. Ike-kun. Now that the evil sorcerer of the eastern islands is dead, we have no leader. In the long run, we'll definitely be left behind by China ..." Another person agreed.

"If necessary, we can seek help from Sir God Yamata no Orochi and the Beast Emperor from India. They are extremely ancient and can join forces to ambush ye nankuang and cruel!"

"....."

While everyone was discussing, a deafening Thunder suddenly sounded in the sky.

It was so powerful that it seemed as if the sky was about to split open. The entire godwood shrine began to shake violently at that moment.

“What happened?”

All the higher-ups of the shrine were terrified.

Before they could react, a huge foot descended from the sky and stomped down on the entire godwood shrine.

A shrine was destroyed.

Old ancestor yellow spring pulled back his left foot and muttered, “Fellow Daoist ye is right. The Japanese lack education. If we don’t beat them up, they won’t know what fear is!”

“Chinese, you’re too much!”

It was at this moment that a deafening sound reverberated in the void.

The next moment!

A giant snake soared into the sky and spoke in the human language, “I didn’t catch you last time, so don’t you dare leave this time!”

“Little friend Yamata-no-Orochi, you made me extremely tired last time. I’m here to take revenge on you!”

Old ancestor yellow spring sneered fearlessly. Then, he released his true essence and connected his divine sense with heaven and earth. “The old ancestor has prepared a great gift for you!”

As soon as he finished speaking!

The wind and clouds changed color, and lightning surged!

.....

South America!

Within the totem city, which was known as the Holy Land of the world, there were many ancient castles!

If it was in the past, there would be countless believers coming to the totem city to worship. However, it was extremely deserted today!

The high priest of totem city had died in the waters of Hua nation, and he was killed by ye nankuang!

In the face of such a situation, totem city chose to close the gate and not allow anyone to enter or leave.

Under the setting sun, a young man in white clothes slowly walked over from the horizon. He was like a legend, carrying a murderous aura.

At that moment, all the sword-type magical treasures in the totem city trembled as if they were being summoned.

“The totem city is overestimating themselves. How dare they invade our country. Today, I, ye Wushuang, am here to settle the score!”

“Get out here!!!”

The calm and cold voice reverberated through the entire totem city, causing countless sword-type treasures to make a shocking sword cry.

“Creak ...”

As the city gate opened, eight old Men in Black robes flew out. “Ignorant child, you dare to break into my totem city. You are looking for death!”

The eight of them surrounded ye Wushuang and a strong killing intent emerged from their gloomy faces!

The teenager in White’s expression did not change. “If you can force me to use my sword, I will return immediately. I will spare your lives!”

“Arrogant!”

“You’re looking for death!”

The eight of them were furious. They were all at the peak of the Supreme overlords, and one of them was even a Sage-to-be. How could they bear being looked down upon by a young man?

“Boom ...”

The eight of them attacked together.

Ye Wushuang’s white clothes fluttered even though there was no wind. An illusory sword light flashed across his eyes.

The next moment!

The eight people’s bodies stiffened and they didn’t move. Their faces still maintained the angry expressions from before.

“Plop! Plop! Plop!”

The eight bodies fell to the ground one after another, and there was not even a single mountain pass on them, as if they had died suddenly.

Ye Wushuang slowly closed his eyes and muttered to himself, “I said that if you can force me to use my sword, I will spare your lives. But you can’t do it ...”

Chapter 1052 a good man again after eighteen years!

It seemed that this scene happened in Australia and Africa at almost the same time!

All the secret realms and Holy Lands in the five continents that had participated in the Western Army’s Eastern Expedition to China had been cleared.

Old ancestor yellow spring triggered the nascent soul tribulation in Japan and killed the most ancient existence in Japan, Yamata no Orochi!

Ye Wushuang killed his way into the totem city of South America. With one sword, he killed hundreds of people and destroyed the totem city!

Luo Tianya had attacked the dark wolves of Australia and used his fists to destroy the Holy Land of the dark wolves!

The sky roaming Dragon King stepped on the wolf continent and battled with the Quan Rong giant, causing the Quan Rong giant to submit!

.....

In just one day, the power Division on Earth changed again and again, and the names of the ruthless people were remembered by the whole world.

For example, ye nankuang, Yi, old ancestor yellow spring, ye Wushuang, Luo Tianya, and so on ...

“China is indeed a big country in the East. This time, China has officially ascended to the top of the hundred countries!”

“That’s right. Let’s not talk about ye nankuang and Phoenix. Just ye Wushuang and Luo Tianya alone are enough to wipe out any Holy Land and secret realm!”

“.....”

At this moment, all the countries were shocked, and the remaining secret realms and Holy Lands sent envoys to China to express their sincerity.

However, in the face of such a huge flood, ye chen kept an extremely low profile and lived in the ye family villa.

At this moment, he was setting up a series of formations in front of him. The formations were filled with Yin Qi that blotted out the sky and covered the earth. It was as if he was in the netherworld of Mingdu.

In front of him, there were many souls. They were Ye Ming, Yang Hui, Lin tai, Niu Qingshan, and elder Chen.

At this moment, the few of them were quietly listening to ye Chen’s account of what had happened after their deaths. When they heard the critical moment, their emotions could not help but fluctuate.

Yang Tian, ye Wen, and the others looked at Lin tai, Ye Ming, and Yang Hui with excitement on their faces.

After listening, Ye Ming took a step forward and tried to touch ye chen.””Xiao Chen, I didn’t expect so many things to happen after we died. It’s been hard on you!”

However, his hand went straight through ye Chen’s body, which made him look a little lonely.

“It’s not easy for you, child. ”

“Then, do you know where your parents and Yuhan are?” Yang Hui asked with a sorrowful expression.

"I have a guess, but I'm not very sure!" Ye chen did not hide his longing at all.

As he said this, he slowly stood up and solemnly bowed to Niu Qingshan and old Chen,""Elder Niu, elder Chen, thank you!"

This bow was what he owed to Niu Qingshan and old Chen!

When the upper three heavens descended, it was Niu Qingshan who risked his life to cover the rear, giving the ye clan a chance to leave!

It was also old Chen who blocked Mount Kunlun alone and stopped the Bai family's Martial Emperor without fear of death.

"Why are you saying this?"

"You're the heir I've chosen. If you're my nephew, there's no need to thank me!"Niu Qingshan laughed.

"Not bad!"

Old Chen's old face showed a trace of relief,""Now that we've heard you say that China has become the leader of the hundred countries, we're very relieved. We've died a worthy death."

Only then did ye chen look at Lin tai.

Lin tai knelt heavily on the ground and lowered his head as he said in a trembling voice,""My Lord, I'm sorry, I betrayed you!"

The upper three heavens had controlled his woman and forced him to remove the formation of the ye family villa. This made him extremely ashamed, and it was also the reason why he chose to die in battle.

Ye chen slowly walked over and waved his sleeve to help her up. He sighed softly. "You're not wrong in this matter. When a person is born into this world, if he can't protect his loved ones, what's the difference between him and a beast?"

"Lin tai has let down the Lord's trust. I can only be your slave in my next life to repay your kindness." Lin tai said with a bitter smile.

"Who wants your next life?"

Ye chen chuckled and looked at them."This time, this ye gathered all of your souls, similarly thinking of another way of survival for you all."

"Don't tell me you can bring the dead back to life and revive us?" Old Chen's eyes widened in shock.

The rest of the people were also excited.

However, ye chen shook his head."Your physical bodies have been destroyed. Even a Daluo immortal can't resurrect you."

As soon as these words came out, the eyes of several people dimmed.

"However, you don't have to be too sad!"

Ye Chen's tone changed. "I've thought of two ways for you. The first is to reincarnate but I'll leave a mark in your souls. Eighteen years later, I'll find you and unlock the memories of your previous lives."

Everyone was afraid of death because after death, even if they were reincarnated, they would be another person and would not remember their previous life.

If he could recover the memories of his previous life, it would naturally be equivalent to being reborn in the true sense.

Speaking of this, he couldn't help but look at second uncle and second aunt Ye Ming, "Second uncle, second aunt, you two don't have spirit roots. If you reincarnate, you might have spirit roots in your next life!"

"What's the second method?" Lin tai said.

Ye chen took a deep breath. "The second method is to turn into a ghost cultivator and cultivate the ghost Dao to strengthen your soul. In the future, when you become a ghost immortal, you can rebuild your physical body!"

He paused for a moment and frowned. "However, this path is not the right one. It is extremely difficult and is the most envied by the heavens. Once you fail, your soul will be destroyed!"

As his voice fell, the room suddenly became quiet, and several people were secretly thinking.

Ye chen did not rush them. Instead, he sat down and let them choose confidently!

After a long while, Ye Ming slowly opened his mouth and said, "Little Chen, I've discussed it with your second aunt. Let's reincarnate."

"That's right. Your second uncle and I don't have much talent for cultivation. If we walk the path of ghost cultivation, our achievements will be limited, and we will also become your burden."

Yang Hui also nodded and looked at ye Wen, whose face was full of tears, with some reluctance. "The only thing we can't let go of is Wen Wen ..."

"I'll take care of Wen Wen!"

Ye chen sighed softly. In fact, he was no exception to second uncle and second aunt's choice.

"Exalt, I've chosen to become a ghost cultivator. I'm not afraid even if my soul is destroyed!" Lin tai said without hesitation.

"I'll reincarnate. Eighteen years later, I'll be a good man again. Kid, remember to come and find me ..."

Old Chen laughed calmly, then hesitated and finally said, "What if I reincarnate as a woman?"

"Don't worry about that. I have my ways to make you choose your gender ..." Ye chen laughed heartily.

"I'll reincarnate as well," Niu Qingshan finally said.

.....

That night, ye chen appeared in various places in China. Most of the places he went to were hospitals with new babies about to be born.

He sent the souls of his second uncle and aunt, Niu Qingshan, and old Chen into the stomachs of four pregnant women.

Although these four pregnant women were pregnant and were about to give birth, due to various reasons, their souls had not come to reincarnate, and they were destined to give birth to children with dementia.

However, after being injected with the souls of Niu Qingshan and the others, the cries of babies rang out in the four hospitals.

In the face of ye Wen's and the government's inquiries, ye chen kept his mouth shut and even sacrificed fifty years of his life to use a secret technique to hide the secrets of heaven.

The purpose was to prevent others from knowing where these four people were reincarnated to prevent any accidents.

And the price was that his hair turned white overnight.

As for Lin tai, he was treated as if he was in Fengdu. There was Yin Qi there that was suitable for Lin tai to walk the path of a ghost cultivator.

"Second uncle and second aunt's matter has been fulfilled. It can be considered that one of my wishes has been fulfilled. Next, I'll go and find Yuhan and my parents ..."

Ye chen looked at his own head of white hair in the mirror and listened to his daughter's even breathing. His gaze became extremely gentle.

Chapter 1053: The church's challenge!

The Great War between the East and the West had come to an end.

However, the shock it caused affected the entire world. It was like a heavy bomb had been dropped on earth, and it could not be eliminated in a short time.

As time passed, the battle records of ye chen, ye Wushuang, and the others were completely exposed.

Ye nankuang's name was remembered by countless people and forces all over the world.

The second was that he was afraid!

This person's global influence was no less than ye chen's. However, after the attack on Mount Olympus, the referee and his men had completely disappeared.

Some said that Zhai Yin was severely injured by the sacred artifact left behind by Zeus, the king of the gods, during the attack on Mount Olympus. Her injuries exploded and she died.

Some said that ye nankuang and the Christian Church fought for the position of the most powerful man on earth, and the Christian Church died in the battle.

In short, there were many different opinions regarding Chi's whereabouts. Everyone's eyes were completely on ye chen.

With China's help, ye nankuang had officially become the most powerful man in the world!

At the same time, orders to not provoke ye nankuang and China were spread everywhere.

Countless Chinese powerhouses were extremely excited about this outcome. Nothing was more exciting than their own country dominating the world.

Many small countries in East Asia worshipped Chinese martial arts and sent envoys to China to pay their respects.

Everyone thought that China would refuse. After all, this was an act of stealing, and they were competitors.

However, he did not know that all of this had been approved by ye chen.

At this moment, an extremely shocking piece of news spread all over the world. "The corpse Emperor of Hua country invites ye nankuang, the No. 1 cultivator on earth, to fight in the sky. There is no time limit!"

When the news spread, the entire world was shocked!

Many cultivation families in China were shocked. "What? Yi was still alive? And you want to challenge Mr. Ye?"

"This person is just messing around. We're all Chinese. Why should we care about who the so-called number one is?"

"That's right. This person is indeed insatiable. In my opinion, Mr. Ye doesn't need to accept his challenge!"

"....."

Countless Chinese powerhouses were furious.

On the other hand, some people in the West with ulterior motives were extremely excited after hearing this news.

"Good, very good. A battle between two powerhouses from China. No matter who dies or who lives, it will be a great loss for China!"

"It's best if both of them die at the same time. In that case, the Chinese cultivation world will lose its pillar of support, and it'll be our chance to rise!"

"Will ye nankuang agree?"

"....."

In less than half a day, the whole world's attention was drawn to it. Some were looking forward to it, while others were gloating ...

Under everyone's attention, stars Corporation finally said, "I, ye nankuang, the head of stars Corporation, will accept this battle. If you want to fight, then we can fight now!"

As soon as these words came out, the whole world was shocked.

When the crowd had traveled thousands of miles to watch the battle, they found that ye nankuang and the judge had chosen to fight in the sky ten thousand meters above the ground!

"They actually want to fight in the starry sky?"

"Oh my God, that place is more than 10000 meters above the ground. It's a vacuum zone, and all gravity will lose its effect!"

"Crazy, crazy, these two are crazy. They chose such a far place to fight, aren't they afraid of causing a spatial storm?"

"It's a pity that we won't be able to watch the battle up close and can only monitor it through the satellite ..."

Countless people were disappointed and sighed.

.....

That afternoon, Tiannan, Lincheng, outside a nearly 1000-acre Wetland Park.

At this moment, almost half of the cultivators in China had gathered here, and there were even powerhouses from the ruins of Kunlun among them!

This Wetland Park was also allocated to stars Corporation by the state. To be more precise, it was given to ye chen as his private property.

The name "Lincheng Wetland Park" had also been changed to "Star Mountain." This would be ye Chen's real territory!

Only those who were related to him were qualified to enter, and this place had become a Holy Land for cultivators in China. The spiritual Qi was like water, and there were many sacred medicines. Its status was only second to the ruins of Kunlun.

Even though there were thousands of people around, it was extremely quiet. No one dared to make a sound.

Countless pairs of eyes were fixed on the star Mountain, their eyes full of reverence and fanaticism.

"Whoosh ..."

At this moment, a sound of breaking air came from the star Mountain, followed by a huge sword light.

The sword radiance was like a rainbow that connected the sky and the earth. It was surging with divine radiance and faintly glowed with celestial light.

Above the sword light, the white-haired ye chen stood with his hands behind his back. His body moved with the sword and in an instant, he was above everyone's head.

“Boom boom boom ...”

With a series of explosions, over 10000 people knelt down on one knee. The sound shook the sky, magical and powerful.

“We’ve seen Mr. Ye!!!”

Tens of thousands of people roared in unison. The momentum was comparable to a thousand soldiers and ten thousand horses galloping over. It made people surge.

“The Imperial Sword comes with the wind, eliminating demons from the world ...”

An old man looked at the white-haired figure in the sky in a daze and said with an excited expression, “Immortal, Mr. Ye is indeed the reincarnation of an immortal!”

“Fellow Daoists, please rise!”

Ye chen looked around and sized up the crowd. Then, he gently waved his sleeve.

The people on the ground felt a strange power descend from the heavens and earth, causing them to stand up uncontrollably.

Many Western powerhouses who were hiding among them felt their scalps go numb. “As expected of the number one person on earth. With this kind of strength, I’m afraid he’s already surpassed the Saints?”

Zi qingcang revealed his Dharma form in the air and said hesitantly, “Fellow Daoist ye, have you really decided to fight the Holy See?”

As his voice fell!

The rest of them nodded!

“Mr. Ye, you’re now representing China. You can’t put yourself in danger because of your personal feelings!”

“That’s right, Mr. Ye. The reason why China is where it is today is all thanks to you. If something happens to you ...”

“.....”

For a moment, many people stood up and expressed their dissatisfaction at seeing ye chen fight.

Now, ye Chen’s status in the cultivation world of China was like a living immortal. He was supported by countless people and his status was not low.

Ye chen could not help but smile when he heard every single word of their conversation. “Everyone, you don’t have to worry. This battle is destined. I don’t want to retreat, and I won’t retreat!”

Seeing that he had already made up his mind, it was not good to continue persuading him, and they could only sigh.

Ye Wen walked out with Xiao Ya and the other girls and said worriedly, "Brother, when will you be back?"

"I'll be back in a day or three days. You all still need to guard the gate!"

Ye Chen laughed heartily. Then, with a thought, he once again set up the sword beam and shot it directly into the nine heavenly galaxies.

Her graceful bearing caused countless people to prostrate themselves in worship.

Chapter 1054: Fighting above the starry sky!

The so-called universe referred to the four directions, from top to bottom, as the universe, and from ancient times until now, it had been called the Zhou.

Since ancient times, countless people had been scrambling to explore the space outside of earth. They were all wondering if there were any other life planets in the vast universe besides earth.

In the boundless, dark, and cold starry sky of Earth, Ye Chen's sword soared straight up at a speed that was almost ten times the sound barrier!

With his mid nascent Soul Stage true essence, the so-called gravity had no effect on him. As for breathing, it was nothing.

After all, as long as a cultivator entered the foundation establishment stage, they could abstain from eating. As long as they had spiritual energy to replenish themselves, they would not die even if they did not eat or drink or breathe.

After an hour of flying on his sword, Ye Chen finally managed to break through the atmosphere and arrived at the starry sky outside earth.

This was a vacuum, silent and without a trace. It was like a dark space with no end in sight and only stars shining in the distance.

In a certain vacuum, a man in a Black Dragon robe stood quietly.

He didn't move at all, as if he was dead, or like a floating corpse wandering in space.

"Swish Swish Swish ..."

A huge sword light swept over.

The black-robed man who had been motionless suddenly opened his deep eyes. "You're finally here!"

Ye Chen leaped down from the sword light and took a step forward. "You've really chosen a good battlefield!"

"The strong are not animals in the zoo, nor are they acrobatic monkeys. They don't need to be watched by others for every word and action!"

Richard smiled faintly, his eyes as deep as a bottomless black hole, "Don't you think that this place is very suitable for the two of us?"

Ye chen smiled without saying anything.

"The Strong Are Lonely ..."

Richard closed his eyes slowly, as if he was feeling something. He opened his hands slightly and said, "The mortal world is too noisy. Only here can I find the feeling of being alone on the Dragon chair and looking down at the mortal world."

"You must remember that you are not the real Qin Shihuang. That person is still lying in the Imperial tomb!"

Ye chen interrupted him. "You're nothing but the sinful body of the First Emperor of Qin. In the end, you can only be regarded as his inner demon or the embodiment of evil!"

"No!"

Yi was not angry at all. He shook his head slightly. "To be precise, I am the ambition of the first emperor. Only I can help him suppress everything and wipe out the chaotic enemies!"

"It doesn't matter if it's an inner demon or an ambition. Since you've invited me to fight you today, what's the point of saying this?" ye chen said.

"Look!"

The referee did not seem to hear him. He looked down at the earth below with a grave expression.

Ye chen looked in the direction of the sound and saw that the entire earth was wrapped in a Halo. The Halo was like a huge piece of colorful marshmallow.

However, this marshmallow was now in tatters, as if someone had poked a few holes in it with their fingers.

"The sealing power on earth is disappearing!" Ye Chen's eyes narrowed and he frowned.

The last time the Great Tribulation of heaven and earth descended, enemies from the outer realms invaded Earth, and many of Earth's experts died in battle. Humanity was on the verge of extinction.

At the critical moment, the heavenly Dao transformed into a human and killed the great enemy from the outer realm. However, it also caused her body to shatter and turn into nine stone tablets to protect the Earth. The remaining power even sealed the barrier from the earth to the outer realm.

This was the reason why earth had been able to develop so peacefully until today. With the revival of spirit Qi and the theft of three of the stone tablets, the seal's power gradually began to disappear.

"Not bad!"

Yi nodded slowly. "Six months. If this goes on, in less than six months, the Great Tribulation of heaven and earth will befall us again!"

He looked at earth with pity. "When that time comes, earth will no longer have the power to resist. Its civilization will be destroyed. Billions of people will become the slaves of the extraterrestrial experts ..."

"What do you want to say?" Ye chen said.

The judge raised his eyes slightly and looked at him, "If I'm not wrong, you've already started heading to the ancient barren world, haven't you?"

"Not bad!"

Ye chen openly admitted it. After all, the passage to the ancient barren world was still in the other party's hands.

Do you know why the ancient barren world exists?" The referee suddenly laughed, and a hint of mockery flashed through his eyes.

Ye chen was stunned at first, then he said, "as far as I know, although the ancient barren world is an independent world, it's in the same Parallel Space as earth. It's similar to an eggshell with two yolks. And these two yolks share the egg liquid."

"You're right!"

The referee looked at him deeply, clearly not expecting him to describe it in such a way.

He stretched his neck and said indifferently, "Just as you said, the ancient barren world and earth share the same roots. But even I don't know when it was born."

Then he changed the topic. "But that's not important anymore. I'm going to the ancient barren world like you. I want to get back what I've lost. Some people must die!"

"Nine?" Ye Chen's eyes narrowed.

"Not just the nine clans!"

"There's still the remaining people from the Six Nations," Yi sneered. "I invited you here not only to fight you, but also to join forces with me to destroy the ancient barren world ..."

"I'm sorry!"

Ye chen interrupted him. "I'm not interested in destroying or ruling the ancient barren world. I just want to find my family!"

Towards his rejection, the referee was not surprised at all, as if he had already guessed it. Instead, he said with a smile that was not a smile, "What if I say that your wife is under the control of the nine clans?"

"Where did you get this information from?" Ye chen suddenly looked at him, a hint of killing intent in his eyes.

"It's naturally my guess!"

"I just want to tell you, ye nankuang, that you can't decide what to do with the world. You can't choose your own fate!"

“I control my fate, not the heavens!”

Ye chen sneered. “If the so-called fate wants to arrange me, if the so-called heaven wants to stop me, then I’ll just go against this fate and go against the heaven!”

“Very good. In that case, let’s fight!”

“I will not hold back in this battle. If you die, I will go to the ancient barren world in the future and find your wife for you!” Yi’s fighting spirit surged.

After saying that, he took a step forward!

The starry sky shook!

.....

Almost at the same time, the higher-ups of various countries were all guarding the space Administration, their eyes fixed on ye chen and Phoenix on the screen!

“They’re making a move! They’re finally making a move!”

“Increase the video quality. We can’t miss their movements!”

“.....”

Countless higher-ups gave the order!

However, to their disappointment, the moment ye chen and the referee exchanged blows, the image on the satellite screen jumped violently and then completely blurred. Following that, it became a wave screen accompanied by noise.

Chapter 1055: An explanation before leaving!

“What’s going on? Why can’t I see it?”

“Report, the satellite is unable to capture these two!”

“What? How is that possible?”

“.....”

Similar scenes were happening at the space Administration of various countries at the same time.

The battle between ye chen and the referee had disappeared from the public’s view. All that everyone could see was a rippling screen with static mixed in.

However, it was this scene that caused everyone’s hearts to involuntarily hang in suspense!

Who would win and who would lose this battle!

It had become the focus of everyone’s attention!

China was the most nervous of all. After all, ye chen carried the hopes of too many people!

“Brother, you must win!”

Ye Wen and the other girls stood quietly on the rooftop of stars building, looking up at the starry sky. Their beautiful eyes were full of concern.

“Don’t worry. Although the church is abnormal, it’s impossible for it to kill fellow Daoist ye!”

“Let’s go!” Old ancestor yellow spring said calmly and went out with the green Bull.

On the old site of Mount Olympus.

An old man smoking and an old man in a suit stood on the top of the mountain, looking into the sky.

The smoking old man smoked his pipe. “Who do you think will win?”

“I’m more concerned about whether the battle between these two will speed up the dissipation of the Earth’s seal ...”

The smoking old man looked around. “This is strange. Where did Zeus ‘Dao fruit go?’” he asked.

.....

Time passed by quickly.

A day had passed!

Two days had passed!

Three days had passed!

In these three days, ye chen and the Phoenix were still uncontactable. Various countries used all kinds of high-tech to investigate the starry sky but did not find any signs of life.

Just as everyone thought that the two had died together, a sword light appeared on the satellite video again.

The white-haired ye chen returned to earth unscathed, but Chi’s whereabouts were unknown.

Ye nankuang was back!

This news spread like thunder across the world in a short time!

All the countries were shocked!

Countless people in China were excited!

Ye Chen’s return and Phoenix’s disappearance!

It meant that ye chen had won this battle!

From now on, ye chen was officially respected in the human world. He truly deserved the title of the number one person on earth!

.....

Heavenly South, Star Mountain!

“Brother!”

“Master!”

“Daddy ...”

When ye chen returned, many of his relatives came to welcome him, their brows full of excitement!

Ye Chen’s body trembled and his face turned pale. “I’m going into closed-door cultivation for a month. Don’t disturb me during this period. We’ll talk about everything after I’m out of closed-door cultivation!”

After saying that, he disappeared!

Ye Wen and the others, who were still standing, seemed to have recalled something and their faces turned pale.

They could tell that ye chen was injured!

“Yi is indeed powerful!”

Old ancestor yellow spring gasped and said with a solemn expression, “Even the powerful fellow Daoist ye is injured. It’s a good thing that I didn’t provoke him before!”

“I’m going to kill him!” Sword intention surged in ye Wushuang’s eyes and he wanted to go out without a word!

“Where are you going to kill him?”

Old ancestor yellow spring hurriedly stopped him and said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry, “Moreover, you don’t know whether Yi is Dead or Alive, do you?”

Ye Wushuang was stunned!

That seemed to be true!

.....

Time flew by, and a month later!

After ye chen emerged from his seclusion, he immediately summoned Zi qingcang and the other Saints, elder Wang of the command division, Li Ying of the Dragon King Palace, and the core members of stars Corporation!

Everyone gathered in front of him.

Ye chen turned to elder Wang. “Elder Wang, how are the preparations for the cultivation University coming along?”

Elder Wang said, “the location has been chosen and it’s still under construction. The list of new students is still being listed. If everything goes well, it should be completed in a month!”

“It’s too slow!”

Ye chen frowned slightly. “Let’s pick up the pace. We have less than half a year left!”

Sensing the worry in his words, Li Ying couldn't help but say, "Hall Master, are you trying to say something?"

Everyone looked at him in unison!

Ye Chen met their gazes and said, "To be honest, there was a great Tribulation in the world a thousand years ago. This tribulation came from outer space!"

As soon as these words came out, some people's expressions changed, some people didn't dare to believe it, and some people were shocked.

Only Zi Qingcang and a few other experts from the ruins of Kunlun remained silent.

"The country has also paid attention to this matter, but they don't know much about it!" Elder Wang smacked his lips.

"All you need to know is that this catastrophe of heaven and earth can destroy the entire earth. No technology can withstand a single blow from it!"

Ye Chen said slowly, "Our enemies come from the distant starry sky. They have a more advanced cultivation system than us. The world they're in is of a higher level than earth."

The atmosphere in the room suddenly became heavy.

"Brother, does that mean we have no hope?"

"Didn't you just say that there was a disaster in the past? Didn't we also stop here?" Ye Wen bit her lips and said.

"Miss Ye is right. We were able to survive the Great Tribulation of heaven and earth a thousand years ago. There's no reason why we can't survive this one!"

Someone echoed.

Ye Chen shook his head gently. "The great calamity thousands of years ago was an exception. It can't be replicated. This time, our great calamity is even more terrifying than before!"

At this point, he looked at Elder Wang again. "Elder Wang, this is the reason why I asked you to accept the Western cultivators. The upcoming disaster is not something that China can deal with alone. This is a disaster that threatens all mankind and requires the collective efforts of the entire world!"

"In the days that I'm not around, I hope that you will not communicate with the people abroad. It would be best if you leak this matter, but do not spread it widely!"

"I understand!" Elder Wang nodded his head.

Xiao Ya, who was standing beside him, noticed the hidden meaning behind his words and immediately said, "Master, where are you going?"

Only Ye Wen and Yang Tian seemed to have remembered something, and their eyes flashed with excitement.

"I'm going to a very far place."

Ye chen looked up at the sky, his eyes filled with tenderness. "I haven't decided on the date of my return, but I'll try my best to come back before the Great Tribulation of heaven and earth!"

"Then I'll go with you!"

Almost at the same time, ye Wen, Xiao Ya, tangning, Yu Shasha, Yang Tian, and the people close to him all spoke up.

Ye chen was their spiritual pillar. Wherever ye chen went, they would naturally follow!

"No!"

Ye chen shook his head and refused. "This time, I won't be bringing too many people. You don't have to follow me. Just help me look after this family and work hard to improve your strength!"

Then, he looked at Zi qingcang and the other experts from the ruins of Kunlun and said, "Everyone, you're all aware of the situation. At this moment, all personal interests are meaningless. That's why I need you all to cooperate with China and try your best to pass on what you've learned to the world!"

"Fellow Daoist ye, don't worry!"

Zi qingcang cupped his fists and said, "this is a matter of life and death for us. I'm not senile yet. I also believe that no one would dare to have second thoughts!"

When he said this, he couldn't help but look at the people from the Dao sect, demon sect, and other major sects beside him.

"We definitely wouldn't dare to have any second thoughts!"

The rest of them cupped their fists.

"Then I'm relieved!"

Ye Chen's tightly furrowed brows relaxed and he muttered to himself, "Yuhan, dad, mom, and my unborn brother and son, I've brought my daughter to you!"

"Our family is finally going to be reunited!"

Chapter 1056: Waiting for news from the church!

A few days after they decided to go to the ancient barren world.

Ye chen did not set off immediately. Instead, he changed his appearance and began to tour the world with his people.

Ye Wushuang, old ancestor yellow spring, Blackie, Green Bull and of course, Mengmeng were also with them.

The group of people started from the Arctic city in the far north of China and headed towards the southernmost part of the world. Although they were not slow, it still took them several days.

On the morning of the fifth day, the group arrived at the ancient Egypt Sphinx and the pyramid.

"Dad, is this the pyramid?"

The little fellow in ye Chen's arms widened its eyes and looked at the group of golden pagodas in shock. "It's so high!"

Ye Chen's face was full of love. He pointed. "That's right, my dear daughter. Do you see the biggest one? That's the Great Pyramid of Giza ..."

The little creature struggled out of his arms and walked away, as if it wanted to get a closer look at the Great Pyramid of Giza.

Ye Wushuang quickly followed.

On the contrary, old ancestor yellow spring yawned. "Fellow Daoist ye, I was wondering why you were so free to take us around the world."

Old ancestor yellow spring had always been puzzled by ye Chen's sudden idea, so he did not show much interest.

After all, to the old ancestor, it was meaningless to look at these stones or barren deserts. He might as well look at more girls.

"This ye is waiting for someone!"

Ye chen smiled faintly!

Old ancestor yellow spring was stunned. Then, as if he had recalled something, he said immediately, "Don't tell the forefather that you're waiting for reinforcements?"

As he said this, there was a hint of shock in his eyes. "Yi didn't die? Didn't you want to have a big fight with him?"

"He's close to the undying body!"

Ye chen smiled and slowly said, "Moreover, this ye didn't say he died, right?"

"Is he going to the ancient barren world with us?" Old ancestor yellow spring drew inferences from this.

Ye chen smiled without a word. His eyes were focused on his daughter in the distance, his eyes full of tenderness.

After his battle with Chi, Chi had left with severe injuries. However, before he left, he had asked ye chen to wait for him for forty days!

This was also the reason why ye chen was not in a hurry to head to the ancient barren world. After all, the location of the passage between the two worlds was still in Chi's hands.

Moreover, his daughter was already five years old. Since she was born, she had never left China and had never experienced the vastness of the world and the customs of various places!

Therefore, he took advantage of this opportunity to travel around the world with his daughter, going to various places to enjoy a hundred different styles. In order not to be disturbed, they even changed their appearances.

Of course, there were some who were blind, but ye Wushuang had wiped them out from this world.

Even though ye chen did not nod, old ancestor yellow spring still looked at him deeply. He had guessed that the relationship between ye chen and Phoenix was not as simple as it seemed.

Ye chen walked over and picked his daughter up. He smiled. "Good daughter? Have you finished reading? We still have to go to the Citadel of Athens ..."

"Daddy, I want to see the hometown of lavender. It smells so good ..." The little guy wrapped his arms around his neck, breathing out warm air.

"Alright, alright, let's go to Provence ..."

"....."

In less than ten days, ye chen had taken his daughter around the world, leaving behind memories of the father and daughter in every place.

At noon on the eleventh day.

Yang city's Hanzheng Street was a place similar to an urban village. There was a coal mine nearby, so it was bustling with people.

At the intersection, there was a beancurd cart. An old man smoking and an old man in a suit were arguing about the smell of beancurd.

"I'm a smoker. I still think the savory tofu pudding is better. Didn't you see the young man say that it's not bad? if you lose, give me money!"

The old man in the suit grabbed a young man, rolled up his sleeves, and argued with the smoking old man beside him.

The face of the young man in front of him turned red. He obviously didn't expect the two old men to fight over a bowl of tofu pudding like this.

"Didn't he just say that my sweet beancurd tastes good too?"

The smoking old man took a deep breath of the pipe in his hand and said in a dissatisfied tone, "Hmph, moreover, you're such a scary young man. No one would dare to say that it's not delicious!"

"Since we can't determine the winner this way, why don't we find another person to taste it?"

The old man in the suit knew that he was in the wrong, so he thought of another way. "Don't worry, I won't interfere this time!"

"Let's compete then. A turtle is afraid of an iron hammer!"

The smoking old man agreed immediately. He then looked at the intersection, obviously looking for a new target.

At this moment, a calm voice came from the side, "Why don't you let me try?"

The two of them turned around and saw a thin white-haired young man slowly walking towards them.

The young man was in his early twenties, and his face was very ordinary. He was the kind of existence that would not stand out even if he was thrown into a crowd.

The most eye-catching thing about him was his white hair, which gave people the feeling that he had experienced something in the past that he couldn't get over.

The moment he saw the young man, the young man's face lit up and he thought, "Finally, an idiot has come. This time, I don't have to be stuck in the middle."

What puzzled him was that the two old men who were quarreling earlier were surprised to see the white-haired young man.

"What's wrong? You don't welcome me?"

Ye chen quietly sized up the two of them, not a trace of emotion on his face. "Since the two of you are selling tofu pudding here, you won't reject me as a customer, right?"

"No, as the saying goes, the visitor is a guest. How can we refuse a guest?!"

The smoking old man chuckled, then brought over a stool enthusiastically. "Come, sit, sit!"

Ye chen did not hold back and sat on the stool at ease. He looked up and surveyed his surroundings. "It's a good place to cultivate in a busy city. This should be what it means to hide in the wild and hide in the city, right?"

"I'm just selling two bowls of tofu pudding to find a way to survive. How can I bear to be in the realm of great concealment in the wild?"

The old man in the suit said indifferently and then said, "What kind of tofu pudding do you want, little brother?"

"What kind of tofu pudding do you have here?" Ye chen said.

The young man at the side laughed maliciously and said, "There's sweet and salty tofu pudding!"

"I'd like a serving of pickled bean with tofu pudding."

Ye chen said with a calm expression.

As soon as he said this, the two old men's expressions changed. They were clearly shocked by ye Chen's request.

"Liuding douchi mixed with tofu pudding?"

The young man beside him was stunned. "Is there such a tofu pudding? Why haven't I eaten it before? Liuding and fermented bean ..."

"Young people have little experience. Just because they haven't eaten it doesn't mean they haven't!"

Ye chen looked at him indifferently.

When the young man saw that ye chen, who was only in his twenties, called him a young man, he was somewhat unconvinced.

Ye chen then slowly looked at the two old men.””If I say there is, then there is. I also believe that the two of you can satisfy my request, right?”

Chapter 1057: The ancient teleportation formation in the ruins of Kunlun

“Why can’t I?”

The smoking old man laughed dryly.”Since we’re open for business, our purpose is naturally to satisfy our customers. Even if we don’t have it, we’ll try our best to make it.”

“Not bad.”

The old man in the suit was very friendly.

The young man was dumbfounded by this scene. He remembered that the two old men in front of him had not treated him like this just now.

The old man in the suit took out a handful of change and put it in his pocket. He was about to leave.”Then I’ll go and buy some Willow nuts and fermented bean now?”

“Wait, I’m not done yet.”

Ye chen spoke again and shook his head.”My liuding douchi mixed with beancurd. The beancurd has to be 80% done and one portion should be taken out. The remaining portion should be colored with banana paste. Taste pineapple ...”

As his voice fell!

The young man at the side couldn’t help but say,””Brother, you’re here to find trouble, right?”

He had lived for more than 20 years, but this was the first time he had heard of tofu pudding being eaten in such a way. If it wasn’t preserved tempet, it had to be colored with banana paste, and it had to taste like pineapple.

“Brother, I’m warning you, don’t cause any trouble!”

At this point, the other party stood up subconsciously,””I know someone in the nearby team ...”

However, ye chen only glanced at him!

Just this one glance!

The young man seemed to have fallen into a bottomless abyss, and then he fell straight onto the stool, snoring loudly.

The two old men didn’t seem to see the whole process, and they were still smiling.

“Forget it. I’ll have an ordinary tofu pudding. Ye chen shook his head slightly.

“Alright, just you wait!”

The smoking old man called out and turned around. He used a soup spoon to scoop out three pieces of tofu pudding from the wooden bucket and brought it to ye chen. He even added a portion of chili oil with water.

Ye chen picked up his chopsticks and gently picked up a small piece. He looked at it quietly and suddenly said, "Don't you guys think this tofu pudding looks like a human brain?"

Tofu pudding was a local specialty snack in Sun City. To put it bluntly, it was actually tofu pudding. However, in the local area, tofu pudding was just a unified name. It was also divided into old tofu pudding, young tofu pudding, and young tofu pudding was the tofu pudding.

"You're so funny," the old man in the suit joked. "It's obviously tofu pudding. How can it look like a human brain?"

"Yeah, do you think that the banana peel is a common field?" The smoking old man also smiled.

"Yup!"

Ye chen nodded. "It's clearly tofu pudding. How can I see it as a human brain? that's strange."

"For example, I once planted two seeds and waited for him to ripen. Who knew that in the middle, it would become two different people!"

At this point, he couldn't help but look up at the two old men. "Don't you guys think this is amazing?"

At that moment, the two old men's gazes froze and they stared at ye chen.

Ye chen met his gaze.

After a few seconds, the smoking old man finally laughed dryly. "This little brother's words are really interesting. How can a fruit turn into a human? unless you were planting a human from the beginning."

"That's right. As the saying goes, 'you reap what you sow'. Therefore, 'you reap what you sow'. This is in line with the laws of nature." The old man in the suit also nodded.

"Whether it's a melon, a bean, or a human!"

Ye chen interrupted the two of them, "I guess this counts as your effort?" In the end, however, it was all for nothing. "

"Maybe the fruit you planted has its own difficulties, and I can't say goodbye to you or make it clear to you?" The smoking old man's tone was very natural.

"Then you think this ye should forget it?"

Ye chen ate a piece of tofu pudding and smiled noncommittally. "I'm not sure if these two fruits are poisonous. What if they kill someone?"

"Since it's a fruit, it shouldn't be poisonous, right?"

"Besides, if I were a fruit that you've worked so hard to grow, I wouldn't be willing to poison others," said the old man in the suit seriously.

"I see!"

Ye chen continued to eat.

“I’m about to go on a long journey. Do you think the two fruits I planted will choose to poison others because they have lost their fear?”he said.

“I don’t think so!”

“When the two fruits fell to the ground, they didn’t even cause a speck of dust to fly. Instead, they only turned into spring mud to protect the flowers ...” The smoking old man was extremely sincere.

“Thank you for clearing my doubts!”

“I think I understand!”

Ye chen did not seem to understand and put down his chopsticks.””The tofu pudding is not bad. I like tofu pudding with the smell of fireworks. I’ll come back to taste it again if I have the chance!”

After saying that, he turned around and walked into the distance. His figure completely disappeared from this world like a ghost.

.....

After watching him leave, the two old men heaved a sigh of relief as if a heavy burden had been lifted off their shoulders. They felt cold sweat oozing out of their backs.

“What a strong Qi!”

The eyes of the suited old man flickered.”This man is indeed the Emperor of the Dharma ending age. Just now, I had a feeling that if we hesitated for a moment, he would attack us.”

“That’s right. If this kid can survive the Great Tribulation of heaven and earth, he will definitely become an Overlord that illuminates the heavens!”

“It’s a good thing that he has already felt our sincerity. Otherwise, the two of us would have to fight him today.”

The smoking old man nodded slightly, then asked in confusion,””However, what did he mean by his last sentence?”

“He’s warning us!”

“He can’t accept a God who thinks he’s above the common populace ...” The old man in the suit said lightly.

.....

Three days later.

In the depths of the hundred thousand mountains in the ruins of Kunlun.

Ye chen stood quietly in the void with his daughter in his arms. Old ancestor yellow spring, the black Yak, ye Wushuang, and Blackie were beside him.

Old ancestor yellow spring sized up the mountains under his feet.”Fellow Daoist ye, do you think I’ll come? Also, is there really a teleportation formation down there?”

Ye chen was about to speak when he suddenly looked up at the sky and saw several plumes of thick smoke billowing toward him.

The leading thick smoke was in the shape of a Dragon, its claws splitting the sky and its body shaking the firmament. It was extremely fierce!

“This guy seems to have become stronger again!”

Old ancestor yellow spring fixed his gaze on Yi with a hint of fear in his eyes. “Even though I’m already in the original level, I still feel like I’m being stabbed in the back by him!”

“Boom ...”

As the thick smoke dispersed, a black figure fell into the hundred thousand mountains, and the entire mountain range trembled a few times!

In the next moment, an astonishing power of a formation extended out from the mountain range, accompanied by a suction force that seemed to be able to swallow the heavens and devour the earth.

“Oh my, so this formation was hidden in the earth vein and was preserved by the Qi of the earth vein. No wonder we couldn’t sense it.”

Old ancestor yellow spring was shocked by what he saw.

It was at this moment that a loud shout was heard, “Ye nankuang, the formation is open. If we don’t enter now, when will we?!”

“Let’s go!”

Ye chen took a step forward and headed straight for the center of the huge formation. He waved his hand and protected his daughter tightly.

Under the incomparably violent power, the little fellow was like a kangaroo snuggling up against his chest. It said timidly, “Daddy, we’re going to look for mommy and the others.”

“Yes, I am!”

Ye chen lowered his head to kiss her and said softly, “I’ll take you to your mother and your grandparents.”

Chapter 1058: Lightning of the void

In the violent void ...

The space was distorted, and a terrifying fluctuation spread out in the void with a shocking power.

The endless cracks were like a spider web that covered the sky and the earth, and this spider web was still shrinking in a certain direction.

It gave people the feeling of being contained in a wooden bucket, and people rolled along with the wooden bucket, causing a terrifying shock to the mind.

In the deep void, there was a ball of light that was speeding along the void tunnel.

Standing on the light ball were ye chen, Phoenix, old ancestor yellow spring, ye Wushuang, Green Bull, Blackie, and the others.

“How did you know that there was an ancient teleportation formation in the depths of the hundred thousand mountains of Kunlun’s ruins?” ye chen looked at Chi deeply.

Mount covered was also located in the hundred thousand mountains, but it had no idea that there was an ancient teleportation formation right under its nose that led to the ancient barren world!

Instead, it was Richard, an outsider, who knew.

“Naturally, I’ve known about it since a thousand years ago,”

The judge stood with his hands behind his back and said with an indifferent expression, “This is the only portal to the ancient barren world!”

At this point, he could not help but look at ye chen. “I’m curious. How did you return from the ancient barren world last time?”

“It’s also an array, but because it’s too old, it was destroyed after only one use!” Ye chen said.

Last time, when he returned to earth from the ancient barren world, he used the matrix to send him directly to the northernmost land. If it wasn’t for his strong physical body, he would have been annihilated in the void storm.

Even though he didn’t want to say more, the referee guessed that the formation was not that stable, so he said, “The teleportation formation you’re using was probably built by someone with insufficient cultivation.”

“Since you understand me so well, do you know about the Ghost Ship?” Ye chen asked, intentionally or otherwise.

He had long known that the master of the Ghost Ship had escorted Qianqian from the ancient barren world to earth through space. The man of the middle-aged couple was suspected to have the surname Qin.

Qianqian’s surname was also suspected to be Qin!

And the Yi in front of him also had the same surname!

He really wanted to know if there was a connection between these things. After all, there seemed to be a great Qin in the ancient barren world. Were the two great Qin the same?

“Ghost Ship?”

The referee was stunned at first, but then he said indifferently, “Of course. It’s said that it came from more than a hundred years ago. In order to encircle and annihilate the Ghost Ship, the upper three heavens sent out many experts, and their methods could be called despicable!”

“I’m guessing that the ship came from the ancient barren world,” he said after a pause. “But for some reason, it landed on earth and then was killed.”

Ye Chen looked at him quietly. For a moment, he could not tell if he really did not know or was just pretending.

“Did the descendants of the Qin Dynasty go to the ancient barren world?” he asked again.

Just as they were talking, many spatial rifts suddenly appeared in the void beside them, like broken mirrors.

“Be careful,” Richard kindly reminded, “this is a space fragment. Once you’re sucked into it, you’ll be crushed into pieces in an instant!”

If one was said to be strong enough to smash a car, then just a single spatial crack could cause a space with a radius of ten thousand feet to faintly shatter.

As soon as he finished speaking, countless spatial cracks swept toward the crowd again. There were even faint flashes of lightning in the void.

“Something’s wrong!”

“Why is there void lightning here?” Ye Chen’s eyes narrowed.

After Qin Jian and the others behind Yi barely dodged, they said with pale faces, “What is the void lightning?”

Without waiting for Ye Chen to speak, Old Ancestor Yellow Spring said, “The so-called void lightning is a type of lightning in the void storm. This lightning can break through extremely fragile space. Once a person is struck, he will be pulled into a crack in the void.”

At this point, he could not help but frown. “However, according to what the patriarch knows, the lightning of the void is usually in a dormant state. How can it appear so frequently? And it seems like they’re targeting us!”

Ye Chen suddenly pinched his fingers, his expression changing several times. “Someone is plotting against us!”

“What did you just say?”

The judge’s eyes turned cold. Then, he seemed to have thought of something and sneered, “I know, what a good nine clans, what a good nine clans!”

“Master, could it be that the nine clans have made a move?” Qin Jian and the others behind him said coldly.

Instead of getting angry, the referee laughed. “I can’t live under the same sky as the nine clans, and the nine clans are also afraid of me. The nine clans must have paid a great price to deduce my traces, so they want to wipe me out!”

“The nine clans will be destroyed!”

Qin Jian and the others were filled with killing intent!

“He’s right!”

Ye chen nodded slowly. "Someone must've predicted you. That's why they cast a divine ability to trigger the void Thunder without considering the consequences. They want to stop you from going to the ancient barren world."

"Motherf * cker!"

Old ancestor yellow spring gritted his teeth in anger, 'aren't you dragging me into this? This grudge has been formed!"

At this moment, the green Bull suddenly exclaimed, ""First master, second master, don't you think something is wrong?"

"It seems like the void is shaking ..."

The green bull's voice was trembling.

"Boom boom boom ..."

In the blink of an eye, a dozen bolts of void lightning suddenly surged in front of them. Like long black snakes, they swarmed toward ye chen and the others.

"So much lightning of the void?"

Old ancestor yellow spring's eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

Even ye chen could not help but take a deep breath. "The teleportation formation can't protect us anymore. Everyone, let's take advantage of the collapse of the teleportation formation and use our own means!"

Although the void lightning couldn't cause fatal damage to him, the teleportation power that enveloped them was indeed not something he could resist.

Sure enough, as soon as he finished speaking!

Everyone felt the power of teleportation enveloping them suddenly disperse. The surrounding space suddenly shattered, and a terrifying suction force spread out from it.

"They're all holding onto a trace of the teleportation power!"

Old ancestor yellow spring roared and grabbed a wisp of the teleportation force with one hand. Then, he fell into a crack.

Following closely behind were Qin Jian, Bai Xuan, Meng Yi, and Zhang Han. The green Bull directly swallowed a trace of the power of teleportation, and fell into a crack with a cry.

"Nine families, you can't kill me no matter how hard you try. Just wait and see. When I arrive at the ruins of Kunlun, it will be your end!"

Yi laughed out loud and actually took the initiative to enter a crack in the void, using his physical body to withstand it.

"Wushuang, Blackie, when you arrive at the ruins of Kunlun, remember to go to the sea of heavenly wind and find a place called the shepherd king's castle. You can wait for me there!"

Ye chen quickly warned when he saw ye Wushuang and Blackie being sucked into the rift.

Before he could finish his sentence, a huge crack swept towards him like a Taotie's bloody mouth, directly sucking him in.

Chapter 1059: Descending into the ancient barren world!

"Boom boom boom ..."

In the spatial storm.

Ye Chen's entire body emitted a strong light. At this time, he was holding his daughter in one hand and looking at the endless cracks around him with a serious gaze.

"It's already been half a day since I was sucked into the spatial currents. I've never stopped during this period of time. If this was flat land, I'm afraid I'd have already crossed hundreds of thousands of li."

Ye chen mumbled to himself. Although he could rely on his physical strength to avoid being hurt by the violent countercurrent, it was not a long-term solution.

After all, he still had to use his true essence to protect the little fellow in his arms. Once his true essence was exhausted, even he would have a headache.

During this period, he had taken out more than one true essence recovery pill, but there was a limit to the number of pills.

"My true essence can only last for half an hour!"

Ye Chen's expression gradually darkened as he felt the deficiency in his dantian.

At this moment, a dragon-like roar came from the spatial turbulence in front of him and swept toward ye chen from all directions.

On the other hand, the latter's face was filled with joy. "There's light. It seems like there's an exit in this turbulence!"

His vision was extremely good, and he could see through the turbulence and into the endless darkness. There was a bright light.

He no longer hesitated and used all his remaining true essence to rush toward the bright light in the distance.

"We're close, less than three thousand meters!"

"Five hundred Zhang more ..."

"300 meters ..."

"Boom ..."

Ye chen ignored all the turbulence that was coming at him and finally slammed into the light. It was as if he had ignited a barrel of explosives, causing the turbulence behind him to collapse completely.

.....

In the ancient barren world, thousands of miles were frozen. The snow-capped mountains looked as if they had been cut by knives and axes. They were extremely steep.

On this day, a ray of golden light flashed across the sky at an extremely fast speed. The golden light was like a rainbow, and it crashed into the snow-capped peak with irresistible force.

“Boom Boom ...”

A 10,000-foot-tall snowy peak broke in the middle, and an earth-shaking avalanche occurred, rolling down like a huge flood.

After the avalanche stopped, a timid voice rang out in the snow, “Dad, are you okay?”

“Chi ...”

A Golden ray of light rose from the pile of snow and landed on a relatively flat area.

Finally, a thin figure was revealed.

It was ye chen, who was holding his daughter.

The former brushed off the snow on his body and then looked around, smiling, “What a strong heaven and earth spiritual Qi. It’s even stronger than the spiritual Qi on earth!”

“Daddy, I’m a little cold ...” The little guy in his arms shrunk his neck into his arms and said coldly.

“Take a fire Yuan pill!”

Ye chen chuckled. He subconsciously wanted to open the storage ring but found that the spiritual energy in his body was completely depleted.

The little thing’s Black eyes were wide open, looking at his empty right hand with anticipation. “Dad, where’s the fire essence pill?”

“Daddy’s Zhen Yuan has been used up, so I can’t open the storage ring. I’ll give it to you when I recover my Zhen Yuan, okay?”

Ye chen changed his position and hugged her, gently rubbing her cold little hands. “If you’re cold, you can put your hands in dad’s clothes.”

“Don’t. If you do that, daddy will be cold too. Daddy will catch a cold.” The little fellow hurriedly shook its head.

Ye chen could not help but laugh at her words. “It’s okay. When I take you away from here, you won’t be cold when you go to a place with the sun.”

After saying that, he began to look around, but what entered his eyes was the endless snow-capped peaks. Even so, the air was still filled with a lot of spiritual Qi.

“The presence of spiritual energy means that there are spiritual herbs here. If you can pick the spiritual herbs and consume them, you might be able to recover a portion of your true essence.”

Ye chen nodded to himself and then frowned. "I wonder if this is the ancient barren world? Also, have Wushuang and the others landed in this world?"

After saying that, he took a step forward with the little fellow in his arms.

Even without his true Qi, his strength did not drop much, and the snow Mountain in front of him was nothing to him.

After running for dozens of miles, ye chen still did not see a single person.

Just as he was about to withdraw his divine sense, his eyes lit up. "There's someone in front?"

His current divine sense could cover a radius of ten miles, so he could faintly sense the sound of fighting from ten miles away.

.....

On the northern side of the ice field, there were more than ten people being besieged!

They were surrounded by demonic wolves that were about 100 feet tall. Each of these demonic wolves was at the martial honored realm, and the leading demonic Wolf had even reached the fake emperor realm.

The most frightening thing about them was that they could spit out ice blades from their mouths, and they could even escape into the ice layer, making it impossible to guard against.

Among the people they were besieging, nine of them were wearing armor and were all martial Supremes. The nine of them held shields in their hands and formed a battle formation, protecting the two women.

"Group leader, you go first. We'll bring up the rear!"

A tall man looked at the wolves that surrounded them, and his face turned pale.

There were at least forty to fifty wolves in front of them. If it was any other time, the nine of them would have been able to escape unscathed.

But now, he had to protect the purple-clothed woman in the middle. As such, his energy was scattered.

"That's right, Your Highness. We should leave first."

In the crowd, a red-robed girl nervously grabbed the shoulder of a purple-robed girl.

The former's face was deathly pale. "Anlu city is a hundred miles away. As long as we can get back to anlu city, those bastards won't be able to do anything to us."

"No, I'm not leaving!"

The purple-clothed girl tightly clutched a Jade box in her hand and bit her lips. "Uncle Wu, three people have already died in order to help me pick the ice jade Bamboo Lotus. Now that we've finally gotten it, let's go together."

The woman was only 18 or 19 years old, but her tone was extremely determined when she said this.

As her voice fell!

The nine lives guards around him were extremely touched.

“Roar ...”

Suddenly, a pure white monstrous Wolf among the Wolf Pack roared and stomped its feet on the ground. Its entire body soared into the air and pounced towards the crowd like a mountain falling.

“Boom Boom ...”

Ice blades shot through the air.

“Retreat!”

The nine of them spoke in unison and raised their shields high, blocking the countless ice blades.

However, they were also heavily sent flying, causing the formation to completely collapse. The two women in the middle were completely exposed to the Wolf Pack.

“Roar Roar Roar ...”

The wolves in the surroundings immediately swarmed forward.

Seeing this, the purple-clothed woman suddenly stuffed the jade box in her hand into the red-clothed girl’s hand and then pushed her.

“Xue ‘er, if you return alive, you must hand the ice jade Bamboo Lotus to my father!”

“Your Highness, please don’t ...”

The red-clothed girl who was pushed out cried bitterly and could only watch as the wolves pounced on the purple-clothed girl.

“Boom ...”

But at this moment, a snowball suddenly rolled over from the distance. The snowball grew bigger and bigger, directly rolling into the Wolf Pack.

Wherever the snowball passed, the wolves were all smashed into pieces, and blood splattered everywhere.

The red-robed girl and the purple-robed girl were stunned!

The nine Knights, who had been in despair for a long time, were also stunned!

In the next moment, the sound of something breaking through the air could be heard. Then, a thin young man walked over with a little girl in his arms.

Chapter 1060: Northern Territory, great sects and dynasties!

The young man had a head of white hair, his facial features were as handsome as a God, and his eyes were as deep as the Galaxy, making it impossible to see the bottom.

“Roar!”

When the remaining snow-white demon Wolf saw that so many of its clansmen had died, it roared angrily and attacked ye chen.

“You don’t know what’s good for you!”

Ye chen snorted coldly and did not move. He waited for the giant demon Wolf to pounce on him before he gently threw a punch.

The punch directly penetrated the latter’s body. After the latter let out an unwilling roar, his entire body exploded into a pool of blood mist.

“Fake emperor realm?!!”

When this scene fell into everyone’s eyes, everyone’s pupils, including the purple-clad young lady, shrank.

To be able to kill a fake emperor realm demonic Wolf with one punch, other than being a fake emperor, how could it be so clean?

A few seconds later, the purple-robed girl immediately reacted. She quickly stepped forward and cupped her fists at ye chen from a distance. “I, Liu Fei, from Langya King’s mansion in Langya County, pay my respects to you, senior. Thank you for saving us this time. I, Langya King’s mansion, will definitely thank you heavily after this!”

As her voice fell, the red-dressed girl and the nine guards beside her all came forward to thank her. Only one of the Pixiu’s eyes flashed with a hint of vigilance.

Ye chen took note of her reaction but did not point it out. Instead, he looked at the purple-robed girl and said, “I’ve been cultivating in the mountains for a long time and accidentally wandered here. I wonder where this place is?”

His tone was extremely cold, giving people a feeling that he was not to be questioned.

Liu Fei was first startled before she hurriedly said, “Senior ye, this is the lost ice field, a huge chasm in the territory of my sect’s imperial court.”

“A great sect and an imperial court?”

Ye chen frowned inwardly. This was the first time he had heard of this place. For a moment, he was unsure if he had arrived in the ancient barren world.

Thinking of this, he couldn’t help but say, “How far is this place from the heaven wind sea region?”

He still remembered that the last time he came to the ancient barren world, he had landed in the heaven wind sea region.

As a result, he even got to know a group of people from the shepherd king’s castle and formed a lot of ties with them.

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone was surprised. They obviously didn’t expect him to ask this question.

After a few seconds, Liu Fei cleared her throat and said, "Senior, you're not from our Northern Territory, right?"

"Not bad!"

Ye Chen took in everyone's expressions and openly admitted it.

Liu Fei revealed an expression that said "as expected," and smiled, "Senior, the heaven wind sea region that you're asking about is not within my Northern Territory, but the border between the southern region and the Western Desert."

Hearing this, Ye Chen nodded without a change in expression. The heavy stone in his heart was completely lifted.

Since Liu Fei knew about the heaven wind sea region!

This meant that he had really come to the ancient barren world. He had not been swept to another world by the space currents.

"Senior, since it's your first time in the Northern Territory, there must be many things you don't understand!"

"Why don't you return with this junior? This junior will definitely tell you everything I know without reserve." Liu Fei said again.

As soon as he said that, one of the nine guards subconsciously said, "Group leader, this person's identity is unknown ..."

Before he could finish his sentence, he was stopped by Liu Fei's coughing. Only then did he realize that the person standing in front of them was a fake emperor.

"That's good!"

Ye Chen nodded after some thought.

Although he had been to the ancient barren world once, he did not know much about it. Besides, he wanted to find out where Wushuang, old ancestor yellow spring, and the others were.

After that, Liu Fei and the others packed up and collected the inner cores of the demon wolves on the ground. Then, they led Ye Chen out of the lost Icefield.

Along the way, Ye Chen found out that the ancient barren world was divided into five major regions: the eastern barren territory, the southern region, the Northern Territory, the Western Desert, and the central Prefecture.

These five regions were vast, easily hundreds of thousands of miles long. Ordinary people could not travel there in their entire lives.

Even for cultivators, it would take several years to cross. Therefore, the travel between the five regions was through teleportation arrays.

As for the heaven wind sea region, it was an independent zone between the southern mountain range and the Northern Territory.

In the Northern Territory, there were many dynasties and countless sects. A major imperial dynasty was one of the Super forces in the Northern Territory, ruling over dozens of dynasties of various sizes.

Liu Fei's father was the Langye Commandery Prince, personally conferred by a great sect and dynasty. He had a trace of royal blood in him and was in charge of Langye Commandery, which spanned tens of thousands of miles. He suppressed an area and was famous for his might.

The reason why Liu Fei and the rest came to the lost ice field was to find the ice jade Bamboo Lotus.

It was said that Liu Fei's father, Langye Junwang, had encountered some problems in his cultivation and only the ice jade Death Lotus could resolve the aftereffects.

They had hidden it from their families and secretly came out to look for it. They did not expect to provoke the demon Wolf, and three of their guards died because of it.

The man who had refused ye Chen's offer to go back with him was Wu lie. He was the captain of the guards in the Langya King's mansion and had once served in the Army.

During this period, Liu Fei was also trying to probe ye Chen's background and identity.

However, even with her less than twenty years of life experience, she was still very immature in front of ye chen. Ye chen had cleverly resolved all of this.

On the other hand, the girl in red named Xue 'er kept staring at ye chen. Her gaze sometimes fell on ye Chen's hair and sometimes on Mengmeng in his arms.

The little fellow muttered as he ate the spirit fruit that Liu Fei gave him, "Sister, why are you looking at my dad like that? Don't tell me you like my dad?"

"I like your father?"

Xue 'er was stunned at first, then she burst out laughing and said with a red face, "I'm guessing why your father's hair is all white when he's so young."

"This is my style. Sister, you don't understand!" The little guy was like a machine gun, blabbering non-stop.

Even Liu Fei became interested, "fan?" What's style?"

"I'm just acting cool," the little guy said impatiently.

As the few of them were talking and laughing, Wu lie suddenly said, "Senior, are you a body cultivator?"

As soon as he said this, everyone, including Liu Fei, looked at ye chen with a hint of unspoken meaning in their eyes.

They vaguely recalled that when ye chen killed the pack of wolves, there was no fluctuation of true Qi in his body. Since he did not cultivate Qi, he must be cultivating his body.

"I guess so!" Ye chen nodded slightly.

Now that his true essence and magic power had mostly dissipated, he could only rely on his physical strength to fight the enemy. Therefore, it was not an exaggeration to describe him as a body cultivator.

As his voice fell!

Wu lie looked at him with a hint of disdain. Even the rest of the people were not as respectful as before.

Even Liu Fei's eyes flashed with regret.

The so-called body cultivation was because the meridians were blocked, and one could not step onto the path of Qi cultivation. One could only find another way to improve oneself by polishing one's body and consuming one's potential.

From the perspective of Orthodox cultivation, this method was considered unorthodox. After all, the potential of the human body was limited, and it was considered an early overdraft of life.

Ye chen frowned at the sudden change in everyone's attitude. He was about to ask what the problem was.

Suddenly, the roars of demonic beasts came from the distance. Then, the entire ground began to rumble and shake, as if thousands of soldiers and horses were galloping.

Wu lie's face was filled with joy,"miss, it's the Tiger Battalion! The Tiger Battalion under His Highness is here to receive us!!!"
