Chapter 1271: The strange Forbidden Sea!

“Brother ...”

Looking at the two giant demonic beasts that were charging at her, Qing Qing was so scared that her body went weak, as if it was the first time she had experienced this.

The man called Qing Shan swallowed his saliva and subconsciously protected her behind him. He then brandished the long blade in his hand and looked at the two fire-armored beasts as if he was facing a great enemy.

Not only the two of them, but the other four dark-skinned men’s expressions also changed drastically, as if they were extremely afraid of the two demonic beasts in front of them.

“Eh ...”

Looking at the two mystical beasts, ye Chen’s eyes flickered imperceptibly. “Strange, these two beasts clearly don’t have any demonic primordial energy fluctuations in their bodies, so how can they have Foundation establishment cultivation?”

“Damn it, wasn’t the fire-armored beast in the inner area of the island? why did it suddenly appear here?”

“It’s getting dark,” someone cursed. “We can’t just wait here for death. We have to find a way to get rid of them. Otherwise, we’ll be dead by night!”

As soon as these words came out, everyone’s faces couldn’t help but change.

At this time, the man who was protecting Qing Qing gritted his teeth and said, “Hu Zi, you and I will deal with the one on the left. The rest of you will deal with the other one.”

The man named Hu Zi nodded heavily, a wooden stick in his mouth. He was clearly prepared to fight to the death.

Qing Shan could not help but glance at ye chen. “This brother, if you don’t want to die, you should help too.”

The others could not help but look at ye chen. Although he was tall, he seemed to be too weak to stand up to a gust of wind. They all shook their heads.

In the Barbarian Village, such a person’s strength might not even be as great as the little girl behind the Green Mountain, so how could he deal with the fire-armored beast?

However, ye chen shook his head and smiled. “No need. You can just wait here.”

“What did you just say?” Qing Shan was slightly taken aback.

Before he could react, he saw a figure flash towards the fire-armored beast closest to them.

“It’s that kid!”

When they saw ye Chen’s face, they were in an uproar. Someone exclaimed, “What is he doing? Don’t you want to live?”

That was a fire-armored beast! Only the elders in the village could single-handedly kill it!

“Roar!”

As if it had sensed ye Chen’s intentions, the fire-armored beast on the left roared and opened its mouth to spit a ball of flames at ye Chen.

Ye Chen easily dodged it and used his fingers as a knife, directly slashing at its neck. The former died on the spot.

This series of actions was completed in the blink of an eye. By the time everyone had reacted, they looked at ye Chen with awe.

“Barbarian master?!” Qing Shan blurted out.

“Roar!”

It was at this moment that an angry roar rang out in everyone’s ears again, and then they saw the fire-armored beast on the right pouncing toward the Qingshan siblings.

“Be careful!” Hu Zi shouted.

Qingshan and his sister were dumbfounded on the spot, and they didn’t move.

Just when everyone thought that the two of them were dead for sure, with a “Chi” sound, they saw the fire-armored beast explode and die. Its minced meat scattered on the ground, giving off a pungent smell of blood.

The Qingshan siblings fell heavily to the ground, their faces still in shock, as if they had just walked through the gates of hell.

“As expected ...”

Ye Chen shook his head inwardly. In that critical moment, he had been forced to mobilize his true energy to kill the fire-armored beast and save the Qing Shan siblings.

However, as soon as his true essence was activated, it began to overflow out like a flood.

At this time, he noticed the fire-armored beast that he had just cut off its neck. He bent down and picked up a black crystal.

The black crystal was about the size of a fingernail. It contained a cold intent. Ye Chen injected a trace of spirit energy into it and the spirit energy was devoured in an instant. It was very strange.

“What is this place?”

Ye Chen frowned at the thought.

The sky was dusky, the earth was humid and hot, and there was no trace of spiritual energy. The strange demonic beasts were even quickly dissipating the energy in their bodies when they breathed and walked.

If he continued to use his true core strength like this, he would run out of it sooner or later, even if he had pills and spirit stones in his storage ring.

At this time, Qing Shan walked over with his sister Qing Qing and knelt heavily in front of ye chen. He was very grateful. "Thank you, Lord man Shi, for saving my life!"

"Thank you, big brother ..." Qing Qing looked at him gratefully. Then, as if she had thought of something, she could not help but lower her head shyly.

"Thank you, Lord barbarian master!"

The rest of the dark-skinned men also walked over and looked at ye chen with admiration.

Ye Chen's sleeves concealed his appearance and he asked everyone to get up. "It's just a small matter."

.....

The sky was Not Dark Yet. A bonfire was lit in a dilapidated temple. The flickering light of the fire was like the stars on the verge of collapse.

Qing Shan used the long knife that he carried with him to cut open a fire-armored beast that ye chen had killed earlier and roasted it over the fire. From time to time, he would sprinkle some spices.

Although the conditions were simple and crude, there was a faint smell of meat, which added a lot of smiles to their faces.

Ye chen sat by the fire and watched this scene. In his mind, he was pondering over the information he had obtained from the few people along the way.

Through their conversation, he learned that the place where he had landed was called an Island. There were many villages within a thousand miles, and the village where Qing Shan and the others were at was called the Barbarian Village.

What surprised him the most was that everything in this place was different from the outside world. The people here cultivated physical strength and were known as master barbarian.

Ordinary people in this world would consume energy at all times. Even the simplest breathing consumed more than three times the energy of ordinary people on earth.

In order to replenish their energy, the daily work of Green Mountain and the others was to hunt. They obtained energy from the flesh and blood of savage beasts by killing them, which was very similar to the primitive society on earth.

Ye Chen's eyes flickered. "The voice in the immortal's Palace's Gate once said that it wanted to throw me into the forbidden Sea. It seems like this place is the forbidden Sea."

"The forbidden Sea ..."

Xiao mang once said that Wushuang challenged the immortal's Hall and was punished by the heavens and thrown into the forbidden Sea ...

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but have a trace of expectation in his eyes. "That means I might be able to find Wushuang in this world ..."

"But how big is this world? Where is Wushuang now?"

The flame that had just been ignited in his eyes gradually extinguished.

At this moment, a large piece of roasted meat was handed over from the side. Then, a sweet voice was heard, "Brother ye, this is your ..."

Ye chen glanced at the smiling Qing Qing and then at the little roasted meat in Hu Zi's hand. He smiled politely. "I'm not hungry, you guys go ahead ..."

The little girl's eyes suddenly darkened.

"Brother ye, just take it," Qing Shan said with an honest smile. "You'll only have the strength to deal with everything after you're full."

Ye chen smiled. Just as he was about to take it, he heard all kinds of hissing sounds coming from outside the temple. It sounded like savage beasts were running.

At the same time, the light in the ruined temple was dimming at a speed visible to the naked eye.

At that moment.

Everyone's expression froze.

Chapter 1272: The stone statue in the ruined temple!

"Qingqing, big brother ye, the darkness is here. Come and sit down ..." Qing Shan shouted.

The rest of the people got up one after another and surrounded the fire. They were close together, almost shoulder to shoulder, and suddenly made a lot of space in the narrow and dilapidated temple.

Even Qing Qing was no exception.

Seeing ye Chen's confusion, the little girl immediately panicked. "Brother ye, come sit over here ..."

The next moment!

The cries and roars outside the ruined temple became more and more intense, and then countless running savage beasts swarmed in.

Among them, there was a huge snail-like tentacle monster, a one-legged frog-like monster, and a white ape as strong as a bull ...

These existences seemed to be hiding from something and rushed into the ruined temple madly. As if they did not see ye chen and the others, they squeezed together tightly and looked outside with fear.

Ye Chen followed their gaze and saw endless darkness coming from outside the ruined temple. Countless savage beasts ran wildly as if they wanted to avoid it.

However, the darkness was fast. After some of the savage beasts fell into the darkness, the terrifying sound of flesh and bones being chewed could be heard.

“Soul sand?”

Ye Chen’s eyes suddenly narrowed.

He couldn’t be more familiar with this scene. He had once experienced it on the Ghost Ship. There was a terrifying existence hidden in the black fog that specialized in devouring flesh.

He didn’t expect to see them here again. It was no wonder that so many savage beasts were running in a panic.

Just as Ye Chen thought the darkness would flood into the ruined temple ...

However, the darkness suddenly stopped at the entrance of the ruined temple and did not move an inch forward, as if there was an invisible door blocking them outside.

“Buzz buzz buzz ...”

The stone walls around the ruined temple glowed with fluorescent light. The strange patterns began to squirm, as if the words had come to life.

The stone statue behind them also glowed.

The stone statue seemed to be a man. He had a long beard and held a halberd in his hand. His eyes were angry and his brows were furrowed. His body was covered in dust, containing the aura of time and decay.

Immediately after that, Qing Shan and the others, as well as all the savage beasts in the ruined temple, knelt down to the stone statue, as if they were worshiping and praying.

“Emperor pressure, this is Emperor pressure ...”

Ye Chen looked at the stone statue in front of him quietly. After feeling the aura from its body, he could not help but be moved.

The stone statue could actually emit the majesty of an Emperor’s throne realm!

It was this Emperor’s might that blocked the darkness outside the ruined temple and saved all the living beings.

‘Is this a stone statue of an Emperor’s throne realm expert?’

Thinking of this, he slowly got up and walked towards the stone statue, trying to reach out his hand to touch it.

“Roar!”

At this time, all the savage beasts who were kneeling and worshiping roared at ye chen as if they were warning him.

“Brother ye, you can’t do this!”

The expressions of Qing Shan and the others also changed drastically. “This is our Guardian God! We can’t profane him!”

Ye chen could only give up and return to his original spot to sit down, but his mind was still active.

The stone statue in front of him must have been an Emperor’s throne realm expert when he was alive, but why had he turned into a stone statue?

How did he end up in the forbidden Sea? Could it be that the other party was the same as him, suppressed here?

The world passed by little by little, and it was extremely quiet in the ruined temple. No matter if it was Qing Shan and the others or the many beasts gathered on the other side, they all maintained a delicate situation, and no one made a move.

When dawn broke and the first ray of sunlight shone on the ruined temple, the darkness that blocked the outside of the temple dispersed.

The beasts retreated.

Qing Shan and the others cheered as they walked out of the ruined temple to get water, but they seemed to be used to this.

Ye chen followed behind them. As soon as he left the ruined temple, he saw that the grass outside was filled with all kinds of bones.

It seemed to have been left behind last night. From time to time, a Vulture would land and take a piece with its wings.

Ye chen walked side by side with Qing Shan and probed, “Did last night’s situation happen often?”

“Yes, brother ye!”

Qing Shan nodded and said with a serious expression, “As long as it’s night time, no one is allowed to go out. They must stay at home. This has been an ancestral teaching of our village since ancient times ...”

At this point, he couldn’t help but remind, “Brother ye, you saw the danger last night. The elders said that there was a terrifying existence in the dark that could eat people ...”

“Then how did your village protect itself in the dark?” Ye chen asked again.

“It’s because the stone statues in the broken temple are also in our village, and there are quite a few of them. Every time after dark, these stone statues are the ones protecting us ...” Qing Shan said with a smile.

Ye chen nodded to himself. The doubts in his heart were immediately resolved. He said, “Do you know the origin of these stone statues?”

"I don't know about that."

Qing Shan scratched his head and said in confusion, "These stone statues have existed for a long time. They can be traced back to the time before our village was established ..."

Ye Chen could not help but be disappointed.

"That's right!"

Qing Shan seemed to have thought of something and added, "I seem to have heard the elders say that these stone statues are our ancestors."

"Ancestor?"

When Ye Chen heard this, he could not help but look at him and thought to himself, "So, this kid is the descendant of an Emperor's throne realm expert?"

This world could devour the true energy and true Qi of cultivators, so martial artists and cultivators could not live at all. They could only rely on brute force to survive. Logically speaking, there should not be any Emperor's throne realm martial artists.

The only explanation was that these Emperor's throne realm experts were also from the outside.

After connecting it to his own experience, he could not help but make a bold guess. "It looks like these Emperor's throne realm experts were also suppressed here by the immortal's Hall ..."

As for how long, he didn't know.

The only thing that was clear was that even an Emperor's throne realm expert would be reduced to a cripple and could only survive with brute force.

"It seems like this immortal's Hall isn't as simple as it seems ..."

"From the way that person sent me into the forbidden Sea, he must be at the late-stage soul formation realm or even higher ..." Ye Chen narrowed his eyes.

Higher?

That would be the void training stage!

With this in mind, even with Ye Chen's temperament, he could not help but feel nervous. There were actually void training cultivators in the ancient barren world, which was parallel to earth.

Anyone would be surprised.

Of course, this was just his guess. As for whether it was true or not, he still didn't know.

"The current plan is to understand the forbidden Sea first. Then, we will find a way to find out Wushuang's whereabouts. Then, we will leave this place with him."

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but stop his gaze on Qing Shan, "Perhaps the elder he mentioned might know something ..."

At this moment, several figures flew over from the distance. The leader was a middle-aged man with strong arms and wearing animal skin. "Qingshan, are you all alright?"

"Father!"

When he saw the person, Qing Shan was overjoyed. He led a few people to welcome him and said excitedly, "Father, we're all fine. Why are you here?"

Chapter 1273: fugitive established!

Without waiting for the middle-aged man to speak.

"You brats went out hunting and didn't come back all night. How can we not be worried?"

An old man with a face full of wrinkles walked out from behind him and scolded with a smile, "Well, I brought people out to look for you at dawn ..."

"It's good that you're fine. "

The middle-aged man smiled and sized them up. Finally, he noticed ye Chen's presence and frowned. "Who is he?"

At the same time, the people behind him also looked at ye chen in unison, their eyes filled with caution.

Qing Qing immediately told him what had happened, "Father, brother ye is our Savior ..."

"Big brother ye, this is my father, Yang Hong ..." She introduced.

"I am ye chen ..." Ye chen introduced himself.

"So it's little friend ye!"

After understanding what had happened, Yang Hong and the others 'hostility toward ye chen decreased significantly. "Since you're my son's Savior, why don't you come to my village to rest?"

Ye chen smiled and nodded. Naturally, he was willing.

.....

Soon, ye chen, Yang Hong, and the others arrived at the Barbarian Village.

This village was very large, with about a thousand households. There was also a stone statue next to the large locust tree at the village entrance. It was unremarkable, as if it was a husband-gazing stone.

The village was wide and spacious, but the decorations were simple and crude. Most of them were made of stone, and there were even courtyards built with animal bones.

As soon as ye chen entered the village, he saw many hunting teams returning. One of them was carrying an Earth Dragon that looked like a giant lizard.

"Old Yang, Didn't I tell you that you didn't lose your kid? If I didn't stop you last night, you would have carried the stone statue out to search for it. "

A burly man carrying a giant savage beast joked with Yang Hong. The rest of the people also laughed.

On the other hand, Qing Shan's eyes were slightly red, and he looked at Yang Hong's back as if he was touched.

The stone statues in the village were as heavy as 30000 catties. An ordinary person would not be able to even push them, let alone carry them. Although his father was one of the best in the village, he would probably have a hard time carrying a stone statue.

"Old Yang is back ..."

"Hu Zi, you brat, get over here."

"A bunch of fools. They went out to hunt and didn't come back in time, causing everyone to worry the whole night ..."

Many people rushed out from all corners of the village, pulling their ears and cursing as they led their children back.

In the village, the Yang family.

Yang Hong's father, who was known as the elder, had white hair and a hunched back. He looked at ye chen and said, "Young man, although I don't know your background, I can see that you're extraordinary. Our village will always repay your kindness. I just hope that you won't cause us any trouble."

His eyes were cloudy, and his teeth were about to fall out, but his eyes were extremely vicious, making people not dare to underestimate him.

"Old man, you're being too serious."

Ye chen smiled kindly. "I have no ill intentions toward your village. I'll leave after a while. I won't disturb your lives."

"We don't keep idlers in our village. Other than the old, the weak, the sick, and the disabled, all men and women go out to hunt. Those who are lazy will be driven out ..."

"You've saved Qing Qing and the others, so we'll naturally repay you. "

The elder nodded slightly. "In these three days, you can eat and drink for free in our house. But after three days, if you want to stay, you will have to go out and work like them."

"I understand."

Ye chen nodded and smiled.

For the rest of the time, ye chen stayed in man Zhai village. Although the villagers were surprised by his arrival, they still maintained a welcoming attitude after learning of his deeds of saving people.

Many children in the village, along with Qing Shan and the others, would surround ye chen in their spare time, begging him to teach them a few martial arts moves.

In this regard, ye chen taught them some body-tempering techniques. Although they could not directly lead to longevity, if they cultivated it to great success, they could fly into the sky, penetrate the moon, and capture a Dragon in the Sea.

It was also within these few days that he had a deeper understanding of this world.

Almost everyone in the village practiced body refining techniques and didn't have the concept of Qi refining. They only pursued martial strength to kill savage beasts and to kill birds with the ten-stone bow.

In fact, even if they wanted to refine their Qi, they could not. Even ye chen found that the true origin in his body had weakened to the level of the nascent Soul Stage on the third day of his arrival at the Barbarian Village.

If this continued, his true essence would be completely exhausted in less than a month. At that time, he would not even be able to open the storage ring.

They also divided their cultivation realms into Berserker apprentice, Berserker warrior, Berserker master, great Berserker master, Berserker King, Berserker Emperor, Berserker Lord, Berserker Saint ...

For example, Qing Shan, the outstanding young man of the Barbarian stockaded village, was only at the later stage of the Barbarian warrior realm. The one with the highest cultivation in the village was Yang Hong's father, who was also Qing Shan's grandfather, and he was at the great barbarian master realm.

"This place is as big as China?" Ye chen had learned about it from the old people in the village.

Then, he couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief.

China covered an area of 9.6 million square kilometers, and it was more than 5000 kilometers from north to south, while the forbidden area was only 5000 kilometers from north to south.

This way, it would save him a lot of time to find Wushuang. After all, the map was only so big and he would be able to find Wushuang in a few days.

"When I was young, I once traveled outside the village ..."

Ye chen was talking to an old man in the village. This man had lived for two hundred years and was the longest-lived person in the village.

Although he was also two hundred years old, he still looked very energetic, and his knowledge was much better than the people in the village.

Ye Chen's eyes flashed. "You're saying that this place of yours has a tribal way of living?"

"Not bad!"

"My man Zhai village and a dozen other villages around it belong to the dark Dragon Tribe. It's said that the elder of the tribe lived for 500 years and has the cultivation of a Barbarian King ..." The old man's voice was clear.

"Wuwu ..."

Just as they were talking, a bugle horn suddenly sounded in the village. It was extremely dull, and immediately alarmed the entire village.

The old man's eyes lit up, and his lips moved slightly. "Blow the horn three times, it's Dark Dragon Tribe ..."

.....

At the entrance of man Zhai village, many villagers had gathered and were standing in an orderly manner. Regardless of whether they were men, women, old or young, they were all staring at the two people in front with wide eyes.

The two of them were a man and a woman. The man was a young man, and his aura made everyone feel pressured.

The woman, on the other hand, was very young. She was wearing a long robe made of goose down, revealing her white neck, which made Qing Shan and the others drool.

Yang Hong's father, who was the elder, took a step forward and said in a trembling voice, "May I know why Lord Wu has suddenly descended?"

The youth surnamed Wu glanced at the former and then took out a portrait from his hand, "The great barbarian elder has ordered that from now on, all the villages, including your barbarian stockade village, must keep an eye on this person!"

The woman beside him chuckled, "If there is any accurate information, the great barbarian elder will personally cleanse your meridians and marrow after reporting it, and reward you handsomely!"

As soon as he said this, everyone's eyes widened, as if they were shocked, and their eyes were full of excitement.

Who was the great barbarian elder?

He was the true leader of Dark Dragon Tribe and the only Barbarian King of Dark Dragon Tribe. In the eyes of the Barbarian stockade village, he was no different from a God.

However, this time, the great barbarian elder had personally cleansed his meridians and marrow, and there were other generous rewards!

How could everyone not be tempted?

As the young man surnamed Wu opened the portrait, a man with a green face and fangs was revealed. His appearance frightened many children and made them cry.

Ye Chen, who was in the crowd, saw this and his expression immediately became a little strange. "Yi also came to the forbidden Sea?"

Chapter 1274: The Barbarian sacrificial ceremony!

He looked at the portrait that made many children cry.

Even though the artist's drawing was somewhat exaggerated and hardcore, ye chen could still recognize it at a glance. It was a coward!

Although he had little contact with Yi, he thought he knew him well. The person in the painting, whether it was temperament, eyes, or even facial features, was very similar to Yi.

He also recalled that Yi had mentioned the forbidden Sea to him before, but it had mysteriously disappeared after the battle at Mt. Tang Wu.

Therefore, ye chen was certain that the man in the painting was Yi. However, why would he appear in the forbidden Sea?

And why would he be wanted by Dark Dragon Tribe?

As he thought of this, he could not help but look up at the man and woman in front of the crowd.

The two of them were both barbarian Masters.

Looking at the man in the painting, the old barbarian elder, who was Yang Hong's father, couldn't help but move his lips."Sir Wu, may I ask what crime this person has committed?"

He knew very well that someone who was wanted by the entire Dark Dragon Tribe must be extraordinary.

And if his man Zhai village didn't understand the reason, there might be hidden dangers.

The youth surnamed Wu seemed to be displeased."Just follow my orders. Why do you ask so many questions?"

At this point, he glanced at the crowd and asked,""If any strangers come to your village recently, you must report it immediately."

As soon as he said that, Yang Hong, Qing Shan, and the others' expressions changed unnaturally. They seemed to think of ye chen but they did not say it in the end.

"Don't worry, Lord Wu. I understand!"

The hunchbacked old barbarian elder nodded and said,"once we have any news, we will send someone to report to Dark Dragon Tribe."

"That's for the best. Don't forget to attend the Barbarian sacrificial ceremony in three days. "

The young man surnamed Wu's expression eased a little. Then, he led the woman beside him, turned around, and rode away on a giant snail-like beast.

After the elder watched the two of them leave, he looked at the crowd and waved his hand."All of you, disperse!"

.....

In the Yang family.

Ye chen cupped his fists at the old barbarian elder and said gratefully, "Thank you for not mentioning this ye earlier."

When they were facing the young man surnamed Wu and the other man, they could have revealed ye chen, a stranger, in exchange for a reward.

However, not only did the other party not have it, but even the entire village did not have it. This surprised ye chen.

"No need!"

The old barbarian elder shook his head. "I believe in physiognomy. You look upright and don't seem to be an evil person. Moreover, you saved Qingqing and her sister's lives."

At this point, he seemed to have thought of something and looked at ye chen steadily. "However, if you want to live in my man Zhai village for a long time, or in Dark Dragon Tribe, you will need an identity."

"Who were those two people just now?" Ye chen gave an irrelevant answer.

"The man's name is Wu Heng, and the woman's name is Bai Ling. They're both from Dark Dragon Tribe. Wu Heng is the great-great-grandson of the great barbarian elder," the old man said in a deep voice.

"How do you plan to find the man in Wu Heng's painting?" ye chen asked again.

At the end of his sentence, ye chen was afraid that he would overthink, so he added, "I don't have any other intentions, I just feel that if I can help, I will definitely help."

These people wanted to look for Yi and so did he. Perhaps he could only understand this world completely after meeting Yi and find Wushuang faster.

"Naturally, it's just perfunctory."

The old man didn't avoid it and said with a vicious gaze, "Dark Dragon Tribe has many experts, and they also have the great barbarian elder. Those who are wanted by Dark Dragon Tribe aren't ordinary people. Our barbarian stockaded village is small in number and weak in power. Once we get caught, we'll be completely annihilated."

His eyes flickered and he sighed. "Although the reward is tempting, one must have the ability to enjoy it."

Ye chen was speechless. He had no choice but to get to know her again. No wonder she could become the elder of the Barbarian Village. How could an ordinary person compare to her brain?

"Then what did Wu Heng mean by the Barbarian sacrificial ceremony before he left?" He asked again.

The old barbarian elder looked at him deeply and said, "Young friend, you don't even know about the Barbarian sacrificial ceremony. This old man really suspects that you're not a member of Dark Dragon Tribe, or even from sky Demon Country ..."

He stopped there and didn't probe further. Then he said, "I believe that little friend has a general idea of our lifestyle."

“The place we live in is lacking in resources, so we can only rely on hunting for a living. From the moment the child was born, we began to cultivate his ability to fight savage beasts.”

His face was filled with sorrow,““We Revere nature, but at the same time, we challenge nature. The Barbarian sacrificial ceremony is an annual event between the villages and the tribes.”

“In the Barbarian sacrificial ceremony, we will offer the bones of the strongest barbarian beasts we have hunted. We will compare them with each other, and the winner will obtain many benefits.”

“For example, we can take in more people, or we can redivide the hunting territory,” he added after a pause.

“Old man, I wonder if I can follow you and take a look?” Ye chen said after some hesitation.

He would not stay in the forbidden Sea for a long time. Thus, it was not a long-term solution to stay in the Barbarian Village. Now, he could use the so-called barbarian sacrificial ceremony to find Wushuang.

Just as the elder was about to speak, he suddenly heard crying and quarreling outside.

He frowned and could not help but get up and lead ye chen out. He saw a few injured men surrounded by many villagers. Some of them were holding weapons and their faces were full of hatred.

“The people of the brutal spirit village are too much!”

“No, don’t stop me. Let’s fight it out with them. Otherwise, I won’t be able to take this lying down ...”

“Hu Zi, get some people to go. We can’t be bullied ...”

“Calm down, don’t be impulsive ...”

The village was filled with the sound of quarrels. Some were cursing, while others were trying to persuade. It was very noisy.

The old barbarian elder walked towards the crowd and shouted with a dark face,““What’s going on?”

“The Barbarian elder is here. Everyone, make way!”

“Elder, you have to uphold justice for us!”

The noisy crowd immediately surrounded him.

Ye chen pushed through the crowd and saw three middle-aged men lying on the ground. At this moment, the three of them were stained with blood but their lives were not in danger.

One of them was Qingshan’s father, Yang Hong. His right shoulder had been pierced by an arrow made of beast bones, and blood was flowing out.

Seeing this, the elder’s expression changed slightly and he immediately went forward to greet him.“Hong ‘er, are you alright?”

Yang Hong’s face was pale and he shook his head slightly.

The old barbarian elder slapped Yang Hong’s left shoulder, and the arrow on his right shoulder was sent flying.

He then took out a packet of medicinal powder from his bosom and sprinkled it on the latter's right shoulder, before saying in a deep voice, "What's going on?"

"Elder, it was the people of the Barbarian spirit village. My father brought some people out to hunt and encountered a Dragon-Horned Elephant. He had to use a lot of effort to injure it."

"But the people of the Barbarian spirit village suddenly crossed the border and said that the Dragon-Horned Elephant was theirs. They attacked us and almost killed my father with an arrow. Even the Dragon-Horned Elephant was taken by them ..." Qing Shan clenched his fist and said.

Chapter 1275: The battle between two villages!

As Qing Shan's voice fell ...

Many of the villagers were furious. If it wasn't for the old barbarian elder, they would've already taken out their weapons.

Ye chen shook his head.

It seemed like a conflict between the two villages over the prey, but this was also common sense.

"The Barbarian spirit village is too much!"

"The area within fifty li of our village is our hunting territory. This is publicly acknowledged. If they cross the border to find trouble, they can't do anything even if they go to Dark Dragon Tribe ..."

"They have to give an explanation!"

In an instant, the few clan elders who had rushed over were also furious.

Yang Hong and the others were the village's powerful labor force. Now that they were injured, the consumption of medicinal herbs to heal their injuries was a small matter. The most important thing was that everyone counted on them to hunt and feed their families.

"Elder, give the word. We'll fight them to the death, or else this kind of thing will happen again."

"Right, we have to kill them!"

"....."

The eyes of Qing Shan, Hu Zi, and the other members of the younger generation turned red. They wished they could bring their men to get back at him.

The old barbarian was about to comfort the crowd when he seemed to have thought of something. "Oh right, where's the mountain Treasure?"

"Uncle shanbao ... He was captured by the people of the Barbarian spirit village ..." Qing Shan's eyes welled up with tears.

The moment he said that, everyone burst into an uproar.

The old barbarian elder's eyes turned cold, as if he was really angry."Fei Bao, gather everyone and come with me to the Barbarian spirit village!"

"Alright!"

A burly man in the crowd grinned, as if he couldn't hold it in any longer. He immediately spread the former's words to every household.

In an instant, two-thirds of the young and strong men in the entire manzhai village were mobilized. This showed the unity of the village.

Ye chen also followed the group. The group of people walked out of the village in a grandiose manner, their anger growing.

After passing through the dense forest, there were bloodstains everywhere, as well as the corpses of savage beasts.

"Ah!"

The man in the lead suddenly landed in the grass.

After everyone rescued him, they found that there were many bloody holes in the soles of his feet. In the stone pit where he fell, there was a row of iron awls that caught beasts.

"It must be the Barbarian spirit village!"

One of the elders was so angry that his beard was trembling."Although my man Zhai village also set traps, in order to not hurt our own people, we have all marked them."

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone became even angrier.

The people of the Barbarian spirit village had crossed worlds to hunt beasts, injured their own people, and even set up such a vicious trap to ambush them.

The old barbarian elder had a gloomy face the whole time and didn't say a word. He led the group to travel twenty miles and finally arrived at a relatively open and flat area.

"Whoosh!"

Suddenly, the sound of something breaking through the air came from the forest.

"Be careful!"

Ye chen, who was the first to notice, reminded him in time.

The old barbarian elder's ears twitched slightly. He immediately pushed away a big man in front of him with a palm and then stretched out his hand into the void.

"Buzz buzz buzz ..."

Suddenly, an extremely sharp arrow appeared in his hand, shaking violently. It was obvious that the person who shot the arrow was not weak.

The man who had been pushed out earlier was extremely pale. He thought to himself that it was a close call. If this arrow had hit him, even if he didn't die, he would have been severely crippled.

"There's someone in the distance!" Ye Chen pointed.

Everyone immediately looked in the direction he was pointing and saw a young man standing a thousand feet away with a bow in his hand. He was looking at them with a malicious gaze.

"Elder, it's him!"

A big man who had participated in the previous hunt glared at the young man in the distance. "It was this kid who seriously injured old Yang with one arrow!"

"What a vicious young man."

The old barbarian elder took a deep breath and said, "Bring me my ten-stone bow!"

Everyone couldn't help but feel excited.

Two people walked over with great difficulty, carrying a big black bow. It was at least five hundred catties heavy, but the old barbarian elder easily took it in his hand.

"Ka ka ka ..."

The old barbarian elder nocked the arrow and pulled it hard. The bowstring was pulled into a full moon, and the arrow was pointed at the young man.

Ye Chen's eyes flickered imperceptibly.

The ancient people measured the strength with stones, and a stone bow usually required an arm strength of 350 to 500 pounds to be pulled.

A famous general in ancient times could only draw the three-stone bow at most.

The ten-stone bow required more than 3000 Jin of arm strength to be pulled. The old barbarian elder looked old and blind, but he had such arm strength. No wonder he was the number one person in the Barbarian stockade village.

"Whoosh!"

The arrow pierced through the air like a bolt of lightning and shot towards the young man in the distance, leaving a long trail of white in the air.

The young man swayed at first, then nocked an arrow and pulled the bowstring. He seemed to want to stop the elder's arrow.

Clang ... Clang ...

The two thick and long iron arrows collided in the air, sending sparks flying and making an ear-piercing sound.

The old barbarian elder's arrow shattered the young man's arrow and continued on its way to the young man's throat.

Many of the villagers were extremely excited, as if they could see the scene of the vicious youth being shot dead by an arrow.

“BOOM!”

At that moment, another arrow shot out from the forest. The arrow knocked the elder’s arrow to the ground before he could kill the young man.

The young man had barely escaped and was filled with fear.

At the same time, an old figure slowly walked out of the forest. “Yang Wei, you’re already so old, yet you’re still so cruel to a junior, aren’t you afraid of being laughed at?”

It was a black-robed old man with a face full of old spots and a large bow in his hand. Behind him, there were many big men with unfriendly expressions.

The elder of the brutal spirit village!

Qing Shan and the others stared at the old man in Black.

“Zhu Rong!”

The old barbarian elder snorted coldly and squinted his eyes, “It’s one thing for you to barge into our hunting territory without permission, but you’ve also stolen our prey, injured our people, and set up a sinister trap. What kind of logic is that?”

“I think there’s a misunderstanding between us.”

The black-clothed old man said with a fake smile, “Besides, young people are hot-tempered, so it’s inevitable to make a mistake ...”

As soon as he said this, many people from the man Zhai village glared at him angrily, as if they were angered by his shameless words.

“Failed?!!”

The elder was so angry that he laughed and said, “Zhu Rong, the mountain Treasure of our village has fallen into your hands. If you don’t want to make a big deal out of this, hand it over.”

“Mountain Treasure?”

The black-clothed old man’s eyes flickered slightly and he said with a smile, “Brother yang, I think you’re mistaken, we didn’t take this person ...”

“You’re bullshitting!!!”

Qing Shan, who was in the crowd, could not help but stand up, “I saw you take uncle Shan Bao away with my own eyes. Do you still want to deny it?”

“I also saw it!” Another burly man said.

“Where’s your evidence?”

The people of the brutal spirit village shouted all kinds of things, and the two sides immediately quarreled, almost pulling out their swords.

However, ye chen looked deeply at the old man in Black. If it was just an ordinary hunt, the village chief would not have to come out personally, right?

Not to mention that the entire village had been mobilized this time. Even though they knew that this was the hunting territory of the Barbarian stockade village, they still did not turn back.

Unless there was something here that was attracting them ...

It was at this moment that an earth-shattering roar suddenly came from the forest.

Chapter 1276: Traces of Yi!

The sudden roar of the beast instantly broke the tense atmosphere.

Ye chen looked in the direction of the sound and saw that the dense forest a thousand feet away had suddenly trembled. Then, a huge fire swept out.

In the flames, a huge figure appeared in everyone's sight.

The figure looked like a giant rhinoceros more than twenty meters long. Its body was a little shriveled, and it was extremely heavy. It had crushed many towering trees.

The most eye-catching thing was that the horn on its head was shining with a divine light. It seemed to be injured and was currently struggling on its deathbed.

"Ancient beast Moongazer Rhino!!!"

At that moment, a shocked voice came out of the old barbarian elder's mouth.

The old barbarian elder was staring at the huge body with a look of disbelief.

Savage beasts were rampant in the forbidden Sea, and there was no lack of powerful savage beasts. These savage beasts had the ability to overturn the sky and the sea, and had lived for countless years. Some people called these existences ancient beasts.

If they encountered an ancient beast, it would be a disaster for a village or a tribe. Even the most powerful barbarian venerable among the humans would not be able to deal with it.

However, there was actually a dying ancient beast here.

The black-robed elder of the Barbarian spirit village also had a flash of panic in his eyes, as if some secret had been discovered.

Ye Chen's eyes were also fixed on the ancient beast, his gaze focused on the latter's neck.

There were two bloody holes there, and blood that was like magma was gushing out.

"A tooth hole?!!!"

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed. When he connected it to the ancient beast's slightly shriveled body, a thought suddenly flashed through his mind!

Buzzzzzz!

This ancient beast had been bitten by the kun before. Didn't that mean that the kun had appeared here before?

At the thought of this, he subconsciously wanted to get closer to the ancient beast and check if there was corpse poison in the two teeth holes.

Ye was a zombie, and the wounds that he had bitten would definitely contain corpse poison. If the corpse poison spread to the whole body, the mind would be controlled and become his subordinate.

"Kid, stop right there!!!"

The old man in Black's expression changed drastically. He then fixed his gaze on Ye Chen. "This was discovered by My Barbarian spirit village!"

"I understand. This old man finally understands."

The old elder of the Manzhai village suddenly laughed. "Zhu Rong, no wonder you personally led your men into my Man Zhai village's hunting territory. No wonder you ordered your men to kill us!"

"So everything was because of this ancient beast!"

He looked at the old man in Black and said, "You want to bring it back before we discover it so that it can shine during the Barbarian sacrificial ceremony three days later!!!"

As soon as these words came out, many people from the Man village were furious and prepared to fight.

If an ancient beast appeared in their village, it would belong to their village. No outsider could take it away from them.

Secondly, the brutal spirit village had broken into their hunting territory and injured so many people, so the two sides had long since formed a grudge.

Moreover, if they were to successfully take it away, it would become the nightmare of the Barbarian stockade village if they were to obtain the first place in the Barbarian sacrificial ceremony three days later.

"Since you've found out ..."

The black-robed old man's eyes turned cold, and a faint killing intent flashed through them. "Then I'll just have to destroy you ..."

He was determined to obtain the ancient beast body!

"Attack!!!"

The old barbarian elder gave the order, and the people behind him, who had long been unable to hold back, immediately charged out.

The huge sword crossed the sky, cold light shimmering, and murderous intent filling the air, causing the leaves on the ground to rustle.

The village battle had just begun. Some people held big swords, some swung Wolf-tooth clubs, and some drew their bows and shot arrows. The sounds of killing and screams intertwined.

“Yang Wei, I haven’t fought with you for decades. I’d like to see how much you’ve improved!”

The black-robed old man let out a stern cry. His body swayed and he directly pierced through the killing crowd, charging towards the old barbarian elder!

“Good timing!”

The elder barbarian didn’t want to fall behind and went up to him.

Beside ye chen, Qing Qing’s face was red as she cursed, “You snatched the food that we relied on to survive and almost killed my father. You’re too much!”

“Whoosh!”

At this moment, the young man from before nocked his bow and shot an arrow at Qing Qing.

Although the little girl had some strength, how could she withstand such a fast and powerful arrow? she could only close her eyes in despair.

Ye Chen’s eyes were sharp and his hands were quick. He reached out and caught the arrow when it was less than an inch away from the little girl.

The young man was also shocked. He did not expect the Barbarian Village to have such an expert. Then, he nocked another arrow as if he wanted to shoot ye chen.

“You’re looking for death!”

Ye Chen’s eyes turned cold and he gently threw the bow and arrow in his hand at the former.

The other party was nailed to a tree by an arrow. He did not see how ye Chen’s arrow was so fast.

This scene attracted everyone’s attention. The people of man Zhai village cheered, but the people of man Ling village had a huge change in expression.

“My son!”

When the black-clothed old man who was fighting with the old elder saw that the young man had died, he let out a furious roar and forced the old elder to retreat with a punch despite his heavy injuries.

“Brat, you’re dead!!!”

The black-robed old man left the old barbarian elder behind. His footsteps were Swift, and his face was filled with resentment as he struck a palm toward ye chen.

That young man was his grandson, the genius of the Barbarian spirit village. With his archery skills, no one below the level of a great barbarian master could defeat him. Now that he had been killed by ye chen, how could he not be angry?

“Brother ye, be careful!”

At that moment, Qing Qing cried out in shock.

“Not good!”

The old barbarian elder’s expression also changed slightly. He urged his body to move quickly toward ye chen in an attempt to save him.

Zhu Rong was the elder of the Barbarian spirit village and was a great barbarian master like him. How could a young man like ye chen be a match for him?

However, the next scene made everyone dumbfounded, as if they had seen a ghost.

Just as the old man’s palm was about to land on ye chen, the latter reached out a hand and accurately grabbed the old man’s neck, lifting him up in the air.

He had captured a great barbarian master alive!

The old barbarian elder was so shocked that his eyes almost popped out.

“Brother ye is that powerful?”

The siblings Qing Qing and Qing Shan were extremely shocked. Before this, they had seen ye chen in action but they did not expect that even the elder of the Barbarian spirit village was not his match.

The old man in Black struggled repeatedly, looking at ye chen with deep fear in his eyes. “You ... You ...”

Ye chen directly shattered the joints of its four limbs and threw it on the ground. Then, he slowly walked toward the ancient beast in the distance.

As everyone fought, the ancient beast had already died. Its wound had already formed a scab that was extremely hard.

Ye chen pinched a piece and examined it alone. After sensing the corpse poison contained in it, he could not help but smile. “It seems that it was really bitten by the kun!”

This ancient beast was at least a martial honor when it was alive. He believed that no one in the entire Dark Dragon Tribe would be able to harm it.

Thinking up to this point, he circulated his Zhen Yuan, and two golden flames burst out from his eyes. He looked at the corpse of the ancient beast and said softly, “Fiery golden eyes, soul-sucking!”

As the Golden flame flickered, a black shadow shot out from the ancient beast’s body and into his eyes.

It was the soul of an ancient beast.

After ye chen used his fiery golden eyes to refine the former’s soul, he immediately obtained a piece of memory in his mind.

It was a memory of the ancient beast before its death.

After digesting this memory, ye Chen’s eyes flickered imperceptibly. “The referee is actually injured!!!”

Chapter 1277: The nine counties of the wilderness!

“Yi is actually injured?”

Through absorbing the ancient beast’s soul, ye chen had obtained its memories before its death. However, the information he obtained was beyond his expectations.

He did not know how powerful the Christian Church was. Ever since the two of them arrived at the ancient barren world, they had not fought each other even once.

At this point, ye Chen’s eyes flickered. “Was he injured by the immortal Palace? That’s why he ended up in the forbidden Sea?”

After the elder of man Ling village was crippled by ye chen, the intense battle at the scene immediately quieted down.

Everyone looked at him with fear, especially the people from the Barbarian spirit village.

One had to know that the elder of the man Ling village, Zhu Rong, was a great barbarian master. Even the old elder of the man Zhai village could not kill him.

Now, however, ye chen had easily crippled it.

After a moment of silence, the old barbarian elder came up to ye chen shakily and bowed solemnly. “This old man didn’t know that you are the Barbarian King. Please forgive me.”

To be able to capture the great barbarian master alive.

At least the Barbarian King!

“I’m not the Barbarian King!” Ye chen slowly got up and shook his head.

“Milord was able to capture Zhu Rong in one move!”

The elder became even more respectful. “He must have finished refining the Three Treasures of the human body and entered the blood fusion realm. Even if he’s not a Barbarian King, he’s no different from one.”

Qi could not be refined in the forbidden Sea, only the physical body. Beginners could only master more powerful strength by breaking the Three Treasures of the human body.

The so-called three treasures of the human body were to refine the skin, the bones, and the marrow.

Even the old barbarian elder, the great barbarian master, was still refining his bones. The so-called bone refining was to refine the bones in the body. Most people would start from the four limbs, which was why they could create wind under their feet and draw a ten-stone bow with their arms.

If he refined the brain too!

He wouldn’t die even if he was hacked by a saber or an axe!

Marrow refining was to refine the five internal organs. This way, even if they suffered a huge impact, the internal organs would not collapse. This was why the young men in the village could fight with the powerful savage beasts with their bare hands.

Ye chen could only smile wryly at his insistence and did not explain further. He could only let him be.

At that moment, he noticed that the old elder's gaze was fixed on the ancient beast's body. He seemed to want to say it but did not dare to.

Ye chen smiled faintly. "If you want it, please take it. I don't have any interest in this item."

It was only a demonic beast equivalent to a martial honor, he didn't need to take a fancy to it. Besides, these few days, he had troubled the village a lot, so it could be considered a repayment.

"Thank you, my Lord."

The old barbarian elder was overjoyed when he heard this. Then, he called out to the others to carry the body of the ancient beast away.

Qing Shan suddenly pointed at Zhu Rong and the people of the Barbarian spirit village, who were lying on the ground, and said, "Elder, how should we deal with these people?"

"Kill them!"

"Yes, we must kill them. If it wasn't for Lord ye, we would have ended up in a terrible state today!"

In an instant, many people's eyes were filled with killing intent.

As soon as he said that, the faces of the people from the Barbarian spirit village turned ashen, and they knelt on the ground and kowtowed in all kinds of ways.

"Brother yang, you can't kill me!"

Lying on the ground, Zhu Rong's expression changed slightly. "I'm willing to surrender. I can guarantee that my man Ling village will never step into your man stockade village's land again ..."

The man spirit village and the man stockade village both belonged to the dark Dragon Tribe, and the dark Dragon Tribe did not allow the two villages to fight to the death.

The old barbarian elder hesitated for a moment, then his face turned cold. "Kill them all!!!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Qing Shan and the other people of man Zhai village couldn't help but charge toward the people of man Ling village.

After the elder Zhu Rong was crippled, how could the people of the man spirit village be a match for the man stockade village? with all kinds of screams, it didn't take long for the scene to be filled with corpses, accompanied by the pungent smell of blood.

Ye chen turned a blind eye to this.

This was the reality. The Barbarian spirit village had the body of an ancient beast, Crossing Worlds to hunt and even kill the people of the Barbarian Village. This was their fate.

The old barbarian elder walked toward Zhu Rong.

When the latter saw this, his expression changed drastically. "Yang, if you kill me, how are you going to explain it to Dark Dragon Tribe?"

The old barbarian elder stopped in his tracks and sneered, "Who would know that you died at the hands of my man Zhai village? What if they were killed by this ancient beast?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Zhu Rong's face turned ashen, and he couldn't help but curse.

In less than the time it took for an incense stick to burn, man Ling village was completely destroyed. Only a few people from man Zhai village were injured, but there were no signs of death.

"Flying leopard, take them to barbarian spirit village and take over their territory. If they resist, kill them without mercy!"

The old barbarian elder was grinning from ear to ear as he ordered, "The rest of you, carry this big guy back ..."

"Alright ..."

As the troops split into two groups, many people found ropes to trap the corpse of the ancient beast and carried it back to the village with great difficulty.

"Such a big fellow must have rich vitality. If we eat it, we'll definitely improve our strength by a lot."

"Yes, his blood can also be used to make medicine for the children in the village to Polish their bodies. Perhaps they can become as strong as Lord ye in the future ..."

Many clan elders' faces turned into chrysanthemums.

In the crowd, Qing Qing looked around and suddenly exclaimed, "Eh, where's brother ye? why don't I see him?"

Everyone stopped and looked around. When they realized that ye chen had really disappeared, Qing Qing's face was filled with disappointment. "Brother ye wouldn't have left, right?"

"Go back!"

The elder sighed and waved his hand, "Our village can't keep someone like Lord ye ..."

As night fell, darkness struck. Many fluorescent lights lit up around the village. They were the light from the stone statues, protecting the small mountain village.

Just as the villagers of the manzhai village were holding a bonfire banquet, ye Chen's figure appeared again.

The eyes of the dejected Qing Qing, who was hiding in the corner, lit up, and then she went up to him with great joy. "Brother ye, you're back?"

"Lord ye!"

The old barbarian elder and the others stood up. All the villagers looked at ye chen with admiration.

They had heard about what had happened during the day from Qing Shan and the others. They knew that if it were not for ye Chen's intervention, they would have been wiped out by the Barbarian spirit village.

Therefore, how could they not be grateful to ye chen?

Ye chen smiled and nodded at the crowd. Then, he walked up to the old barbarian elder and said, "Old man, I have something to say to you!"

The old barbarian elder nodded respectfully and led ye chen into the house alone. He only looked at ye chen after closing the door.

"I'm planning to leave!" Ye chen said directly.

The elder wasn't surprised at all. "The first time I met you, Lord ye, I knew you had an extraordinary background. I just didn't know what you needed me for."

As expected of a village chief.

Ye chen looked at him in admiration. "I need to ask you for two things. First, I need a map."

"A map?" The old barbarian elder was slightly stunned.

"Right!"

Ye chen nodded. "It's a map. The bigger the better. It'd be best if it could cover a radius of more than ten thousand miles."

It was reasonable to say that the Jiao was injured to the point of sucking blood to heal, so it would not have gone too far.

However, he had previously left the village halfway through their return and returned to the place where the ancient beast died. He had searched a radius of a thousand miles, but he had not found any traces of the Jiao.

As soon as he finished speaking, the elder could not help but smile bitterly. "My Lord, you're making things difficult for this old man. I do have a map of the manzhai village, but it's only within the territory of Dark Dragon Tribe. At most, it covers 500 li."

Ye chen was disappointed.

"If my Lord needs a complete map, you can go to Dark Dragon Tribe. Their map is even bigger," the old barbarian elder said after some thought.

"They can cover more than ten thousand miles?" Ye Chen's eyes brightened.

"No!"

The elder shook his head with a smile. "Dark Dragon tribe's map can't cover a radius of 10000 miles, but sky Demon Country can. My Lord, you can go to sky Demon Country through dark Dragon tribe's map."

"Sky Demon Country?" Ye chen frowned.

The old barbarian elder's gaze flickered as he looked at him."My Lord, there are nine counties in the Wildlands. They are Tianjin, Tianmu, Tianshui, tianhuo, tiantu, Tianlei, tianyao, and Tianhuang ..."

"Metal, wood, water, fire, and earth?"

Ye Chen's eyes flickered imperceptibly."Interesting, it's actually named after the five elements ..."

"The sky Demon Country is where we are. There are thousands of Dark Dragon tribes in the sky Demon Country ..."

At this point, he seemed to have thought of something.""However, Sir, if you want to go to the sky Demon Country, you have to be careful. As one of the nine countries, it is said that there is a barbarian saint in the sky Demon Country. That kind of expert can move mountains and seas ..."

"Alright, thank you!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled."I wonder if you've heard of a man. His name is Ye Wushuang. He's my friend ..."

"Ye Wushuang?"

The old barbarian elder was at a loss. He thought for a few seconds and shook his head."I really don't know about this old man. If my Lord wants to find out about this person's whereabouts, there might be hope in the sky Demon Country."

Chapter 1278: Traces of Yi!

"Ye Wushuang?"

The old barbarian elder was at a loss. He thought for a few seconds and shook his head."I really don't know about this old man. If my Lord wants to find out about this person's whereabouts, there might be hope in the sky Demon Country."

Ye Chen nodded, slightly disappointed.

.....

Late at night, in a quiet courtyard.

Ye Chen sat cross-legged on the roof and looked up at the night sky. It was like a huge black cloth covering the sky, without any starlight or moonlight.

"The forbidden Sea ..."

As time passed, Ye Chen's face showed a hint of desolation.""I wonder how the forefather and the others are doing? Also, did mom and dad get out of trouble? Mengmeng must be missing me ..."

After an unknown amount of time, he returned to his room and secretly made up his mind."Find a way to go to the sky Demon Country at dawn. Find Wushuang and return to the ancient barren world ..."

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

Ye Chen's divine sense spread out and saw a well-dressed little girl standing at the door.

It was Qing Qing.

The little girl seemed to be a little nervous and shy at the moment. She was hesitating whether to push the door open and enter, and her eyes looked behind her from time to time.

The old barbarian elder, Yang Hong, and the others were standing there. At this moment, they were winking at the little girl, as if they were urging her to push the door open and enter.

The little girl coughed and spoke softly, her voice trembling slightly, "Brother ye, you ... Are you asleep?"

However, there was no sound in the room. There was only the sound of even and powerful breathing, as if she had fallen asleep.

The little girl bit her lips. In the end, she did not push the door open, but tiptoed back quietly.

The old barbarian elder and the others could not help but sigh.

After everyone had left, ye chen, who was in the house, shook his head slightly. He took out a spirit stone and began to absorb spiritual energy.

He had once heard that when a strong person passed by a certain place, that place would offer a Virgin to accompany him in bed at night. It was nothing more than to borrow the seed so that the later generations could give birth to more talented people.

The old barbarian elder and the others must have had the same thought.

The next morning, when Qing Qing woke up early, she brought the water to ye Chen's room. "Brother ye, it's time to get up ..."

She knocked a few times, but there was no response. Finally, the former could not help but put down her basin and push open the door.

At this moment, it was empty.

The little girl chased after them in a daze and welcomed the old barbarian elder, Yang Hong, and the others. "Father, brother ye has left!"

When the old barbarian elder and the others returned to ye Chen's room, they saw a line of majestic small words carved on the table. The most eye-catching were the five large words: "ethereal Phoenix immortal body!"

"This, this, this ..."

The old barbarian elder stared at the line of small words, his whole body trembling. "It's a peerless godly technique, it's the peerless godly technique that Lord ye left for us ..."

Qing Qing and the others were also stunned.

"Plop! Plop!"

The old barbarian elder ignored his old age and knelt down towards the outside of the room, his eyes filled with tears, "Thank you, Lord ye, for bestowing us with the divine skill. My man Zhai village will never forget it for generations!!!"

.....

At Dark Dragon Tribe, a thousand miles away from the manzhai village.

As the largest tribe within a thousand miles, they ruled over hundreds of villages like the Barbarian Village, and had a population of hundreds of thousands.

The great barbarian elder of the tribe, Wu Changling, had lived for more than three hundred years. He had long since broken through the Three Treasures of the human body and fused his qi and blood into one. He was given the title of Barbarian King.

The name of the great barbarian elder was an absolute deterrent in Dark Dragon Tribe. He even had a fierce reputation in the surrounding tribes.

"A bunch of trash. It's been five days and you still can't find that person. Even if you dig three feet deep, it's enough!!!"

At this moment, Wu Changling, who was wearing a long black robe, was sitting alone in the mansion. His expression was gloomy.

"There are less than ten days left until the deadline set by the high Ambassador. If there is still no result by the time the deadline is up, then our Dark Dragon Tribe will be facing a disaster!"

His temples were bulging, and he was furious. His strong aura suppressed the people outside, making them tremble.

At this moment, a cold wind blew and lifted the curtains of the room. Then, a young man in green slowly walked in.

"I said, everyone get out of here. No one is allowed to come in without my orders ..."

Wu Changling shouted and turned around. He stopped talking and said, "Who are you? Who let you in?"

However, the young man in green did not seem to hear him. He walked to his side and sat down.

"Bastard!"

Wu Changling's anger finally exploded. He struck out a palm toward the young man's face, emitting a faint murderous intent.

However, the next moment, he found that his fist was suddenly unable to move when it was less than an inch away from the young man's face.

In an instant, his face was filled with fear.

An expert ... At the very least, he was an expert at the Barbarian Emperor level!

Ye chen looked at him quietly, his face as calm as an ancient well. "If I were you, I would put away the killing intent in my heart if I didn't want to die!"

“Yes, yes ...”

“You’re right, my Lord. May I know who you are and what you need from me?” Wu Changling said, breaking out in a cold sweat.

“I want a map.”

“A map of Dark Dragon Tribe that leads to sky demon County, or even other counties. Hurry ...” Ye chen said slowly.

“Yes ...”

At that moment, Wu Changling’s eyes flashed with a strange light, but he nodded his head without changing his expression. “My Lord, the map is hanging on the wall behind me ...”

Ye chen looked up and waved his hand. The map fell into his hand.

Seeing this, Wu Changling’s eyes were filled with shock. “Telekinesis ... Even the Barbarian Emperor can’t do this.”

At this time, a thought suddenly flashed through his mind. “In the past few days, many unfamiliar powerful cultivators have appeared in the Wildlands. Now that this person has suddenly appeared in my Dark Dragon Tribe, I must report this to the sky Demon Country ...”

Ye chen turned around to leave but his eyes caught a painting on the table. The man in the painting was Richard.

The next moment!

He turned around and hit Wu Changling on the head.

.....

On the way to the sky Demon Country, ye Chen’s gaze kept changing. “So Yi is wanted by the sky Demon Country. This guy is really bold. He actually sucked the daughter of the ruler of the sky Demon Country.”

After searching Wu Changling’s soul, he found out that Yi had first descended in the sky Demon Country. He seemed to have been injured, and it was not a light injury. He did not know why Yi had sucked the daughter of the ruler of the sky Demon Country.

As a result, the ruler of the sky demon County was furious and sent countless Masters to hunt down the Christian Church. The former had more than ten barbarian Saints under him.

“Barbarian saint?”

At this thought, ye chen could not help but narrow his eyes. “I wonder how they compare to the martial Saints of the ancient barren world.”

“And Wushuang!”

He frowned. “Perhaps Wu Changling is too weak to know anything about this. It seems like I can only break through from the ruler of the sky Demon Country.”

In Wu Changling's memory, the ruler of the sky Demon Country was very strong. His body was so strong that he could turn into a giant and cut through mountains and rivers.

However, to ye chen, what did that matter? Even if he didn't use his true essence, he had never feared anyone in terms of physical strength!

There were powerful savage beasts running amuck in the mountains.

After ye chen had galloped for two thousand li, he saw that the sky Demon Country was right in front of him. He stopped and looked down at the dense forest below.

There was an intense battle Aura coming from there, and it was even accompanied by a trace of brutal corpse Qi.

"It's the referee?!!"

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed and he suddenly descended.

In the towering forest that passed through the river, murderous intent filled the air. Birds flew away and a deep roar sounded,""You trash want to kill me?!!"

.....

Chapter 1279: The encounter between ye chen and Phoenix!

"You want to kill me with just a few pieces of trash?"

When ye chen heard the sound, he landed on a towering ancient tree without a sound and looked in the direction of the sound.

It was an evil-looking man in a Black Dragon robe.

The man's corpse Qi overflowed into the sky. He bared his fangs and his eyes were very resplendent, absorbing people's souls. The purple-gold bone wings on his back had cut countless ancient trees apart, and there were shocking scars on them.

"It's indeed the kun!!!"

At that moment, ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly.

The ground trembled violently, and the ancient trees swayed. Several nauseating stinky smells came from the forest, and at the same time, there was a terrifying fiendish Qi.

"You killed the daughter of my master. You deserve to die ten thousand times!"

All of a sudden, a golden-furred bear that was more than 100 feet tall emerged from the ground. On its head, there was a pair of extremely sharp horns.

"Come back with us and accept master's punishment!"

Another giant black Ape King came over. The giant ape was emitting black light and black mist, like a Demon King.

Immediately after, another three huge figures attacked.

They were a huge Golden Wolf that was as tall as a small mountain, a tall and powerful old man, and a gray flood Dragon.

These five figures had terrifying auras and were extremely terrifying. They had completely sealed off the space within a radius of ten thousand feet.

“Five heavenly demon sages!”

In the huge primitive forest, there were great beasts that scared countless great beasts away for thousands of miles, afraid that they would be involved.

It was well known that the ruler of the sky Demon Country had five peerless killing generals, known as the five sages of the sky Demon Country. They were all very powerful, but it was unknown why they had all come.

The referee looked at the five terrifying figures in all directions with a blank expression. “What’s wrong? Only a few pieces of trash like you came?”

“Mysterious expert, you can’t escape!”

The tall old man looked at the house that he and the others had surrounded and said, “Master is furious and has sealed off the entire sky Demon Country. Even if you make a mistake, you won’t be able to escape!”

“Why are you talking so much nonsense with him?”

“Just directly capture him!”

With a deafening roar, the gray flood Dragon took the lead and whizzed toward the judge, launching a fierce attack.

Its massive body almost covered the entire sky, and it exuded an extremely heavy aura. It opened its mouth and spat out a terrifying beam of light that shot toward Chi.

“Roar!”

The Chi let out a long roar, and the fangs at the corner of its mouth expanded several times again. Endless corpse Qi gushed out, and the purple-gold bone wings on its back flapped as it took the initiative to meet the attack of the former.

“Boom ...”

The terrifying sound shook everything. Mountain rocks rolled down, giant trees broke, and the ground cracked. The air waves swept in all directions.

Crack ... Crack ...

In ye Chen’s eyes, the Chi had taken the gray Wyrms’ fatal blow and then closed in, tearing it apart with its bare hands.

Even so, his chest was still penetrated by the flood Dragon's last strike before his death, and blood spurted out madly.

"You dare to kill the gray flood Dragon? you will die today!"

After the tall old man and the others were enraged, they joined forces and attacked Yi. There were no vital Qi fluctuations, only pure physical collisions. It was very violent and shocking.

"Bang ..."

Yi was sent flying and smashed into a small hill. One of the purple-gold Wings on his body was broken and fell to the ground. The sight of blood was shocking.

"Mysterious expert, you're injured."

The tall old man and the others joined forces and approached him. He shook his head and said, "If not, we wouldn't be your match. What a pity ..."

After saying that, he was about to deal the final blow to the referee.

The referee was not afraid. Instead, he suddenly laughed and said, "Ye nankuang, how long are you going to keep watching? Don't you want to go back?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the tall old man and the others immediately stopped and looked around vigilantly.

There were still experts watching?

The tall old man looked around and said in a deep voice, "Sir, since you've come, show yourself."

"Buzz buzz buzz ..."

Under everyone's gaze, the leaves of an ancient tree suddenly fell together with a thin young man.

Seeing this, a golden-furred bear sneered and spoke, "I was wondering who was hiding, but it turns out to be a young boy!"

"This kid has such thin arms and broken legs. I can kill him with a single slap!" The giant ape King also let out a cold laugh.

Ye chen ignored their mockery and slowly walked up to the referee. Then, a smile appeared on his lips. "How did you guess that I was present?"

"Intuition!"

Richard stood up and looked at him quietly. "I know you too well. My intuition tells me that you were there."

"Intuition?"

Ye chen chuckled, obviously not believing him. Then, he carefully examined the injuries on his body and said, "You're too weak now. You're the Emperor of the ages, but you've fallen to this point. It's so sad ..."

“How much better can you be than me?”

“If I’m not wrong, you’ve also fought with the immortal’s Hall, right?” the referee did not get angry.

“I can save you, but you’ll have to tell me how to leave this place after that,” ye chen said.

“Sure!” The referee nodded.

As the two of them were talking, the tall old man at the side laughed sinisterly. “Brat, you can’t even save yourself, and you still want to save this person?”

In their eyes, ye Chen’s weak and fragile appearance was far worse than Chi ‘s. Even if he had some strength, there was nothing to fear. Moreover, there were four of them.

“Brat, go to hell!”

The giant Golden Wolf, the size of a small mountain, howled and pounced at ye chen. At the same time, it reached out with a claw that could tear through the void and slammed down at ye Chen’s head.

Its ferocity was monstrous, and even the void was trembling.

When the tall old man and the others saw this, they could not help but reveal a cruel expression. It was as if they could see ye Chen’s fate of being smashed into meat paste by the former’s claws.

However, the scene that happened in the next moment caused the smiles on their faces to freeze.

In the face of such a fierce attack from the giant Golden Wolf, ye chen suddenly raised his head and looked at him. A divine light suddenly burst out from the depths of his calm eyes.

“Ah!”

The giant Golden Wolf let out a blood-curdling screech before its body exploded. It fell from the sky and died instantly.

This sudden scene caused the tall old man and the others ‘expressions to change. They looked at ye chen with fear.

The Golden Wolf King was the Barbarian saint. Not only in the sky Demon Country, but even in the entire Wildlands, he was considered a powerful figure.

Yet, ye chen had killed him with a glare?

“Who are you?”

The tall old man took a deep breath and fixed his eyes on ye chen. His eyes flickered. “We are the martial Saints of the sky Demon Country. We are the subordinates of Lord sky demon, please ...”

“You guys are too weak!”

“BOOM!”

Ye Chen’s large hand shot out. The giant Golden Palm pressed down, as vast as the stars, surging toward the tall old man.

Chapter 1280: the Lord of sky Demon Country!

Under the horrified gazes of the other two, the tall old man's body was like a weathered stone, gradually turning into fine powder and scattering with the wind.

Deathly silence, the surroundings were deathly silent!

The remaining giant black ape and giant golden-furred bear watched this scene in horror. Their bodies trembled uncontrollably, clearly shocked by ye Chen's terrifying methods.

At this time, a sharp gaze was directed at them. The two of them immediately shivered and knelt heavily in front of ye chen. They prostrated themselves and said, "My Lord, please spare me, spare me ..."

In an instant, he had killed two barbarian Saints. Under the hands of such a person, they could not even muster up the slightest will to resist. They did not even dare to escape.

Ye chen was simply too terrifying!

Ye chen slowly walked over and looked down at the two demons. He said calmly, "Answer a question of mine, and I might spare your lives."

"Sir, please ... Please ask."

The giant black ape forcefully suppressed the shock in its heart and stuttered, "We will definitely tell you everything we know!"

"Have you heard of ye Wushuang?"

Ye chen looked at the two demons judgmentally and said, word for word, "This person is dressed in white and is only seventeen or eighteen years old. He is skilled in sword arts ..."

When they heard the name 'ye Wushuang', the two demons were still confused. However, when they heard the second half of ye Chen's sentence, their expressions changed. They seemed to have remembered something and stopped talking.

"Hmph!"

Ye chen snorted coldly. This sneer immediately exploded in the two demons' minds like a mighty thunderclap.

The two demons shrieked in pain and completely put away their thoughts.

The giant golden-furred bear even cried out, "My Lord, we have heard of the person you are talking about, but we are not sure if he is the one you are looking for."

"Where is this person now?" Ye chen was overjoyed.

The giant golden-furred bear said in fear, "This person is not in the sky Demon Country. We have heard about him from our master. It is said that this person appeared in the Wildlands half a month ago and caused the rulers of the nine countries to join forces to deal with him!"

“The Lord of the ninth County?”

Ye chen was overjoyed at first, but then his eyes turned cold. “Why did the Lords of the ninth counties join forces to deal with him? What happened after that?”

“We don’t know the exact details!”

“Only our master knows about this,” the black ape said in fear. “Later, this man seemed to have disappeared. I heard that three county governors died under his sword!”

“My Lord, we’re telling the truth ...” The giant Golden Bear was afraid that ye chen would not believe it and cried for his parents.

.....

In the eastern part of the Wildlands stood a giant city that stretched for thousands of feet. The entire city wall stood between the mountains like a ferocious giant beast, making people feel awe from the bottom of their hearts.

The words “sky Demon Country” were written on the city gate in golden letters. Below the city gate, the people who entered and exited from time to time had to go through strict questioning.

Within the sky demon County city Lord’s Manor, a violent aura enveloped everything. Countless people in armor knelt at the door with their heads lowered and their bodies trembling.

“Trash, a bunch of trash. The blood food this time is too stinky. How did you guys do your job!”

An extremely furious voice rang out from within the room. All the guards immediately felt a sharp pain in their eardrums, and some even fainted.

“Bang!”

Suddenly, a figure flew out of the room.

It was a pale-faced woman. There was no aura coming from her body, and her eyes were wide open. It seemed that she had experienced some kind of fear before she died.

“Give me another one!”

The voice from before also came out with the female corpse.

Someone immediately responded and turned to leave.

Inside the house, a burly man with the back of a Tiger and the waist of a bear was pacing back and forth. As he walked, there was a power that made people’s hearts palpitate.

“The Golden Wolf King and the others have been gone for so long and they still haven’t returned?” the tall and big man sternly asked.

If the old elder of man Zhai village was present, he would be shocked to find out that the giant man in front of him was actually the ruler of sky demon County, an existence who controlled the life and death of hundreds of thousands of people.

“My Lord!”

An expert walked in and knelt on the ground, saying respectfully, “The five Daren sent news earlier saying that they found that person’s whereabouts. This little one thinks that they should be back soon.”

Hearing this, the eyes of the ruler of sky Demon Country flickered. “Logically speaking, it should be easy for the Golden Wolf King and the others to deal with an injured person, but why do I suddenly feel like I’m being stabbed?”

At this moment, an anxious voice came from outside, “My Lord, the giant ape King and the others have returned!!!”

In an instant, two burly figures entered the mansion. They were the black giant ape and the giant golden-furred bear.

“Giant ape, why did only the two of you come back?”

The ruler of sky Demon Country looked down at the two demons kneeling in front of him with a sharp gaze. “And where’s that person?”

“Sir, there is a rebellion in a tribe in the West. The Golden Wolf King and the others have gone to suppress it!”

The black ape’s eyes flickered for a moment before it picked up a wooden box wrapped in black cloth. “As for that person, we’ve already killed him. His head is in the box!”

After saying that, he carefully handed the wooden box over.

The lord of the sky Demon country’s eyes flashed imperceptibly. Then, he reached out and took the black cloth, as if he wanted to open it.

At that moment, the black giant ape and the giant golden-furred bear looked at each other and shouted in unison, “Attack!!!”

“BOOM!”

In an instant, the two demons suddenly burst out and launched a terrifying attack at the Prince of the sky Demon Country.

At that moment, the seemingly defenseless ruler of the sky Demon Country snorted coldly. Eight feelers suddenly appeared behind him, as if he was possessed by an eight-armed demon.

“Plop! Plop!”

The two demonic beasts flew backward and spat out blood. They looked extremely dispirited.

The entire process was extremely fast, almost in the time it took for a spark to fly off a Flint.

“I knew something was up with you two!”

The ruler of the sky Demon Country looked at the two demons quietly, and his eyes were filled with coldness. “I just didn’t expect that you two would dare to commit such a crime!”

As the lord of the sky Demon Country, he controlled one of the nine countries of the wilderness and controlled the life and death of hundreds of thousands of people. It was not an exaggeration to describe him as a formidable person.

The two demonic beasts had served him for hundreds of years and had always been loyal to him. Now that they had suddenly rebelled, how could he not be suspicious?

Most importantly, for some reason, he suddenly had a bad feeling.

After saying that, he took a step forward and slowly walked toward the two demons. His voice was like a flood, "I'm very curious, where did you goudan come from to dare to betray me?!"

"Naturally, it's because of me!"

At this moment, an indifferent voice came from outside. Then, a thin young man came in with his hands behind his back.

He walked very slowly, his white hair dancing behind his shoulders, as if he was taking a leisurely walk in the courtyard, ignoring everything, as if he was looking down on everything.

The Prince of the sky Demon Country suddenly turned around and stared at ye chen. His pupils contracted violently. "Who are you, Sir?"
