Chapter 1401: The wedding changes drastically, the enemy is here!

“Good child, quickly get up, quickly get up ...”

Wu Lan was already sobbing uncontrollably. She hurriedly got up and helped su Yuhan up, her heart aching.

Then, she said to ye chen with reddened eyes, “If you don’t treat Yuhan well in the future, I’ll teach you a lesson.”

“Mom, don’t worry.”

Ye chen found it funny and angry at the same time.

According to the rules, the two elders gave su Yuhan a red packet each. Although it wasn’t much, it was a kind gesture.

Ye hai looked at Wu Lan helplessly, “I say, why are you crying on Xiao Chen’s big day?”

“I’m happy, can’t I?”

Wu Lan glared at him fiercely, wiped her nose, and said, “Think about how hard it was for Chen and Yuhan to get to where they are today ...”

Hearing this, ye hai also sighed.

“Dad, mom, you have to give me your blessings.”

Su Yuhan smiled at the two elders and then looked at ye chen slyly. “Before I marry you, I have to make a promise with you.”

“You say ...” Ye chen suddenly had a bad feeling.

“First place!”

Su Yuhan stretched out her gloved fingers and said with a faint smile, “Who’s in charge of the money when you’re married? Who has the final say?”

“It’s none of your business, whatever you say.” Ye chen did not know whether to laugh or cry.

The rest of the people couldn’t help but laugh. Obviously, su Yuhan’s question had appeared more than once at all major weddings.

“Second!”

Su Yuhan continued, “who’s going to cook after we get married? Who’s washing the clothes?”

“Fellow Daoist ye, you’d better think carefully before you speak.”

Old ancestor yellow spring, the officiant of the wedding, burst into laughter. “You’re ye nankuang, after all. If others know that you’re washing your wife’s clothes, I’m afraid it’ll cause an earthquake.”

“Let’s hire a nanny in the future, okay?” ye chen smiled helplessly.

Su Yuhan couldn’t help but roll her eyes at him, obviously not satisfied with the answer. But she still said, “Third, who’s going to take care of the children in the future?”

“I’ll do it, I’ll do it.”

“I’m a nanny anyway,” ye chen replied immediately.

“Now this is more like it.”

Su Yuhan immediately showed a satisfied smile, then subconsciously held ye Chen’s hand tightly and smiled happily.

Sometimes, women didn’t have to care about these things. What they wanted more was the man’s attitude and a sense of security. As a woman, su Yuhan was no exception.

Old ancestor yellow spring turned into a priest and walked to the two of them. He winked at ye chen and said, “Bridegroom, are you willing to take this woman as your wife and have a marriage agreement with her ...”

“Love her, take care of her, respect her, and be loyal to her forever, regardless of illness, health, or any other reason?”

“I’m willing to.” Ye chen said with a smile.

Old ancestor yellow spring looked at su Yuhan and said, “Bride, are you willing to accept this man as your husband? No matter ...”

Before he could finish his sentence, a cold voice suddenly rang out, “I’m not willing!!!”

Seeing this, everyone was shocked. Even ye chen and su Yuhan could not help but look in the direction of the sound.

Fang Mingwei and his grandson walked out from the crowd.

Under everyone’s gaze, Fang Rui looked at ye chen coldly and said, “The Fang family is not willing to let cousin-in-law marry you.”

“Are you looking for death?”

Blackie was furious and was about to go over.

Ye chen waved his hand to stop him, his expression calm as he looked at the former. “I don’t want to see blood today. I’ll give you a chance to explain!”

When Fang Rui met his gaze, he suddenly panicked, but he still said, “Ye, you’re already a dying person, yet you still insist on marrying my aunt. You’re just harming her.”

“Is that so?” Ye chen was so angry that he laughed.

Su Yuhan glared at Fang Mingwei and his grandson and said coldly, “Uncle, we asked you to attend the wedding so that you can give us your blessings, not to cause trouble.”

As she said this, her beautiful eyes became extremely cold. "I hope that you won't over-exhaust the last bit of affection I have for your Fang family."

"Yuhan,"

"You have to know that everything we're doing is for your own good." Fang Mingwei smiled. "Little ye is about to die. Even if he's fine, he won't live long."

"Bang!"

Ye hai stood up heavily, his face was ashen, "Fang, are you really here to cause trouble?"

The rest of the people stared coldly at Fang Mingwei and his partner. If ye chen had not stopped them, some of them would have already attacked.

Today was a day of great joy, but on such a joyous day, the Fang family had started talking about death and so on. No one would be able to bear it.

"I'm willing to."

Without waiting for him to finish, su Yuhan agreed first and then looked at ye chen with tender eyes. "I'm willing to do anything for him ..."

Fang Mingwei's expression changed, "did I say anything wrong?" Little ye has offended the misty Palace and old Liang, so she will definitely not have a good ending."

Then, he looked at su Yuhan hypocritically. "Yuhan, listen to your uncle and come back with me. It's not too late for you to leave now, don't regret it too late ..."

"Yes, aunt."

"The Fang family is backed by the absolute beginning dojo," Fang Rui added. "They can protect you and even treat your illness ..."

"Enough!"

Before he could finish, he was interrupted by su Yuhan's cold voice, "Fang Mingwei, from now on, I, su Yuhan, have nothing to do with the Fang family. You are no longer my uncle."

After saying that, she took a deep breath and said, "Now, immediately, immediately. Please get lost. Thank you!"

"Good, good, good. Su Yuhan, good job."

Su Mingwei was so angry that he was smoking. After saying "good" three times, he was about to leave with Fang Rui, but he was stopped by Blackie and ye Wushuang.

Blackie and ye Wushuang's eyes were filled with killing intent, causing their expressions to change drastically.

"Ye chen, let them go!" Su Yuhan looked at ye chen.

"Let them go," ye chen said, unable to change her mind.

Blackie and ye Wushuang stepped aside. Fang Mingwei glared at ye chen and su Yuhan with bitter resentment and was about to leave.

However, in the next moment, the clouds above the entire nine Dragon Bay suddenly exploded violently. Then, two figures with terrifying auras swept across the sky and earth.

“Boom boom boom ...”

The clouds crumbled and the void trembled like thunder.

When the two figures appeared in the sky above nine Dragon Bay, two old figures were immediately revealed. One of them was wearing a flat heavenly crown and a robe with Thunder patterns, like a god descending to the world.

The other person was completely wrapped in a black robe, and he was stepping on a huge black cloud. With his appearance, the temperature of the world seemed to have suddenly dropped.

This sudden scene immediately caused everyone to be dumbfounded.

Before anyone could react, the old man in the void suddenly opened his mouth. His voice was as loud as a Bell, shaking the surroundings.

“Ye nankuang, I’m the Supreme elder of ethereal Palace, the ethereal patriarch. You’ve killed my people. Come and accept your death!”

.....

Chapter 1402: Emperor’s finger of green wood!

“Ye nankuang, I’m the Grand Elder of Gu Yin gate, old ancestor Gu Yin. You’ve destroyed Gu Yin gate, today is the day of your death!!!”

After the old man in the Thunder-patterned robe spoke, the black-robed old man behind him also shouted with endless killing intent.

“BOOM!”

The voices of the two men were like Rolling Thunder, their sound reverberating for ten miles. The clouds in the entire void could not bear the weight and scattered. The strange sound that they caused could be seen from a hundred miles away.

At that moment, everyone in Forest City heard the voice and looked up at the two figures in the sky.

“Immortal, a real immortal!”

In an instant, countless people on the streets of Forest City knelt down before the two figures, their faces filled with shock and respect.

“As expected, the immortals of the misty Palace have finally come. Mr. Ye, you shouldn’t have killed the people of the misty Palace before. Now, a good wedding is probably going to become a funeral ...”

“Sigh, what a pity. These two are at least at the early divine transformation realm. How can ye nankuang, who doesn’t have much time left, be a match for them?” ye mo sighed.

When countless cultivators felt the monstrous pressure that descended from the void, their expressions changed. Most of them were worried for ye chen.

“The ye family is completely finished today!” Those who had a grudge against ye chen were gloating.

At the same time, the appearance of the ethereal great Grandmaster and great Grandmaster Gu Yin shocked everyone in nine Dragon Bay.

Xiang Songhe, the head of the Xiang family, turned pale and said, “Not good! The experts of ethereal Palace are here to seek revenge.”

“What a powerful pressure. When we face them, it’s like we’re facing two real gods.”

The king of medicine, sun zhaonian, sucked in a breath of cold air and then smiled bitterly. “It’s over, Mr. Ye is in danger!”

Not only him, but even ye hai, Wu Lan, ye Wen, and the others ‘faces changed greatly and were extremely miserable.

“You’ve finally found me?”

Ye chen narrowed his eyes and looked up at the two figures in the air. His eyes were cold. “It is just that why did you choose the great day of this ye’s marriage?”

“I don’t want to be stained with blood ...”

“Hahaha!”

Almost at the same time, Fang Mingwei and his grandson, who were about to leave, could not help but laugh.

“Ye, did you see that?”

Fang Rui turned around and sneered at ye chen. “I’ve told you before that too many people want you dead, but you didn’t listen.”

“Greetings, two shangxian!”

Fang Mingwei took a few steps forward and looked up into the sky, “I’m Fang Mingwei, the head of the Fang family in Yanjing. I’m acquainted with elder Guo from the Taichu dojo.”

“So you’re fellow Daoist Guo’s disciple ...”

The ethereal patriarch nodded slightly and said coldly, “Since you’re not from the ye family, please step aside.”

“Yuhan ...” He said.

Fang Mingwei immediately turned to su Yuhan and said, “Hurry, hurry over. As long as you sever your relationship with little ye, the Fang clan will protect you. Today, the ye clan will be completely finished.”

However, to his disappointment, su Yuhan stood by ye Chen's side the whole time, holding ye Chen's hand tightly. She looked at him as if he was a joke.

"You ..."

Fang Mingwei was a little angry.

The ethereal old master's Dharma form was solemn as he looked down at ye chen from above."Ye nankuang, I'll spare your family if you come to me and accept your death!"

When ye chen heard this, he stopped ye Wushuang and Blackie who were about to attack.

Then, he took a step forward and looked straight at the ethereal great Grandmaster and Gu Yin."Why do you have to force this ye to kill today? If you want to die, why don't you choose tomorrow?"

"You still dare to boast shamelessly when you're about to die!"

"You're not the only one who must die today. Everyone related to you must die as well. I'll extract your souls and refine them into eternal torture!" Grandmaster Gu Yin's eyes were sinister and terrifying.

"Good, very good!"

Ye Chen's eyes gradually turned cold, then he turned to su Yuhan and said softly,""Honey, wait for me. I'll go and kill the dogs!"

"Wushuang, forefather, protect everything for me!"

"Since we're going to kill today, let's kill until the heavens and earth are turned upside down and blood flows like a river. Let's use blood to pave the way for my wedding!!!"

After saying that, he instantly rose up ten thousand meters into the air. His suit was extremely neat and tidy.

A monstrous divine flame leaped up in his deep eyes as he looked at the ethereal patriarch and the old man indifferently."I'll kill you two pieces of trash in three moves!!!"

"Bastard!"

"You ..." The ethereal patriarch was instantly enraged."Three moves? if you can make me frown within 300 moves, I'll let you do whatever you want to me!"

"Then you shall die!"

Ye chen took a step forward and the energy on his body suddenly soared.

"Fellow Daoist ethereal, leave this person to me!"

Yin gate Grandmaster Gu sneered and struck before ethereal Grandmaster could. With a shake of his sleeve, endless black baleful Qi shot out from it.

The black evil Qi was like a tornado, setting off terrifying waves and causing the entire void to churn. It was accompanied by soul-stirring ghostly wails and wolf howls.

Seeing this, the people on the ground could not help but look worried. Even though ye hai and the others knew ye Chen's strength, they could not help but worry. After all, they knew that ye Chen's health was not very good.

"Don't worry, mistress," Blackie consoled su Yuhan. "Although master is injured, it's more than enough to kill these two old dogs who took advantage of him!"

Fang Mingwei and his grandson sneered as if they could see ye Chen's tragic end. Only then would they feel better.

Old ancestor Gu Yin charged toward ye chen with a terrifying baleful aura. He laughed cruelly. "Ye nankuang, you exterminated my Yin gate, you deserve this calamity!"

However, ye chen was expressionless. It was as if he did not see the terrifying attack of the yin gate Grandmaster Gu. He merely extended a finger and pointed it at the former.

"BOOM!"

At that moment, the shadow of a Golden God appeared in the void above his head. The shadow looked indifferent, as if it was a God looking down on the human world.

"Emperor Qing MU's finger!!!"

Ye Chen's expression remained calm, but his tone was cold.

"BOOM!"

The God's shadow slowly extended a crystal-clear and dazzling finger that emitted a dazzling golden light. The finger was like a giant pillar that reached into the sky and crushed everything.

This divine ability was a divine ability he had comprehended after fusing the four elemental spiritual pearls in the forbidden Sea!

"Chi ..."

The giant finger shattered the void and swept across the sky, whistling toward old ancestor Gu Yin with an ancient and majestic aura.

Even ethereal old ancestor's hair stood on end when he saw this scene.

"Not good!"

At that moment, ancestor Gu Yin's spell technique was immediately broken. His expression changed drastically, and his entire body was enshrouded in a brilliant light.

At the same time, all the hair on his body stood on end. He immediately shouted and turned into six black shadows, running in six different directions.

This method and mentality were smart and witty but it was completely useless against ye Chen's giant finger.

"Boom ..."

The giant finger covered a radius of 10000 feet, as if it had turned the entire place into a living hell. At the same time, it also included the six clones of old ancestor Gu Yin.

In an instant, five of the yin Gate Old Grandmaster Gu's clones were destroyed.

"No!"

His last remaining clone could not help but let out an indignant roar as he looked at the 10000-foot giant finger that was coming at him without slowing down like a collapsing heavenly pillar.

"BOOM!"

The ten-thousand-foot giant finger fell, and the clone was instantly reduced to dust.

He had killed Grandmaster Gu Yin with a single finger!

At that moment, the entire world was deathly silent.

.....

Chapter 1403: the one who saves him must die!

Then, ancestor Gu Yin was killed by a single finger.

Everyone's eyes were dazed, and then they looked at the white-haired figure standing proudly in the air.

The ethereal patriarch's eyes widened in disbelief!

Old ancestor Gu Yin, who was in the early stage of divine transformation realm, died just like that?

Gu Yingying and the others, who were on the ground, looked as if they had seen a ghost. Their eyes were filled with disbelief.

At that moment, it was as if the entire world had stopped.

"How is this possible? How is this possible?"

Fang Mingwei and his grandson's eyes almost popped out of their sockets in shock, because the scene before them was completely different from what they had expected.

In their opinion, although ye chen was known as the number one man on earth seventeen years ago, the earth had undergone earth-shattering changes in the past seventeen years. Ye chen was most likely unable to keep up with the trends of the times.

Moreover, ye Chen's days were numbered. How much combat power could a dying man unleash? Therefore, they felt that ye chen had no chance of winning today.

But the truth was that ancestor Gu Yin had been killed in an instant!

In an instant, countless auras hidden in the void paused for a moment, and then fluctuated violently. Obviously, even the many mysterious strong men who were spying on this area were shocked.

"Good!"

After a short moment of silence, the world burst into cheers. Gu Yingying and the others were so excited that they could not control themselves.

Who said that Earth's legend from 17 years ago had fallen?

Ye Chen had once again proven everything with his own combat strength!

"Ye Nankuang, wasn't it said that you were only in the middle stage of the original level seventeen years ago?"

At the same time, a voice mixed with shock and disbelief came out of ethereal patriarch's mouth. "How could you have grown to such an extent in just 17 years?!"

He was sure that Ye Chen's strength was at least at the early divine transformation realm!

In just 17 years, he had advanced from the mid-stage of the original level all the way to the early stage of the soul formation level. Even in the cultivation world, he would be a genius that only appeared once in 10000 years!

As he thought of this, a trace of regret gradually appeared in his heart.

Old ancestor Yellow Spring couldn't help but sneer when he heard this.

In fact, he had underestimated Ye Chen.

Ye Chen had been in the ancient barren world for less than two years. If news of him advancing from mid-nascent soul to late-stage soul formation in two years were to spread, it would surely shock the top hundred stars in the universe.

Meeting the ethereal great ancestor's fearful gaze, Ye Chen placed his hands behind his back and his killing intent increased instead. "Two more moves. That's enough to kill you!"

"Ye, are you sure you want to fight me to the death?" the ethereal patriarch's face turned cold. "You're forcefully consuming your qi and blood right now. If this goes on, you'll die without a doubt. Why don't you just let it go?"

"I said I'll kill you, so I'll kill you!"

Ye Chen took a step forward.

"Since this young man was able to kill Gu Yin, I'm afraid his strength is not lower than mine. Judging from his solemn expression, I'm afraid he still has some energy left to use that terrifying finger ..."

The ethereal Grandmaster's eyes were dark. "Although I'm confident I can take that attack, I'll have to pay a price. It'll definitely affect my plans in Yin Xu in the future. It's not worth it for three nascent soul trash."

"I can't fight, retreat!"

He was an old monster who had lived for thousands of years, so his heart was naturally not like ordinary people. In an instant, he had thoroughly understood the power of it.

The next moment!

He immediately spat out a mouthful of blood essence. The moment his face turned pale, he turned into a blood-red streak of light and shot away at the speed of lightning without hesitation.

Seeing this, countless people were in an uproar. Two great soul formation stage powerhouses had joined forces to kill ye chen, but in the end, one had died and the other had escaped?

“You can’t escape!”

Ye Chen’s eyes were overflowing with killing intent. As he took a step forward, there were ripples in the air.

His figure immediately disappeared from the world and merged into the void. He was actually 30% faster than the ethereal patriarch’s blood escape technique.

When ye Chen’s figure reappeared, the blood shadow of the ethereal great ancestor was less than a hundred feet away from him.

Ye chen did not hesitate. He simply stretched out his hand and slapped the air where the former was.

The palm landed in the air, and the space shattered. Then, it turned into a world-shaking storm that swept out in all directions at a terrifying speed.

“Pfft!”

Under this storm, the ethereal patriarch’s blood escape technique instantly collapsed. He even coughed out a mouthful of blood and his face was extremely pale.

At that moment, he was horrified.

One palm. Ye chen had injured him with just one palm!

Only then did he believe ye Chen’s previous words that he would kill him in two moves. Ye chen was not lying.

Thinking of this, he quickly retreated and roared, “Fellow Daoist ye, I didn’t even touch a single hair on your head. Why are you so insistent?”

Many people who had been following from a distance were dumbfounded.

The great ethereal old ancestor was actually beaten up by ye chen to the point where he was even begging for mercy?

Ye Chen’s expression was cold. He stopped and looked at him. “Today is my wedding day. I didn’t want to start a bloody fight, but you all have to come at this time to seek death!!!”

“In that case, let’s kill until blood flows like a river!!!”

After saying that, he stepped on the void and punched out.

As soon as the fist momentum was formed, there were endless Thunderbolts moving in the sky, as if the hand of the Thunder God was shaking the universe.

“Universe collapsing lightning strike!!!”

As ye Chen's indifferent voice slowly came out of his mouth, the Thunder between heaven and earth turned into a terrifying rainbow-colored ball of Thunder, faintly emitting a destructive energy.

As the roar reverberated, a terrifying storm whizzed out. Within it, there was even thunder and lightning, which crashed down on the ethereal patriarch.

"BOOM!"

Under the heaven-shaking bang, the ethereal ancestor coughed out blood and let out a miserable scream. His body collapsed and his origin soul came out with a terrified expression.

Sensing ye Chen's attack again, the ethereal great ancestor's primordial spirit was even more terrified. It roared into the void, "Daoist Tian kui, save me, and I'll definitely reward you handsomely!"

As his voice fell ...

The void in front of him suddenly shook and a green figure appeared. It was an old man in green with a walking stick.

The old man glanced at the ethereal Grandmaster's remaining primordial spirit, then cupped his fists at ye Chen. "Fellow Daoist ye, I'm elder Tian kui of the sky Sunflower Valley. Can you let me off ..."

Before he could finish, he was interrupted by ye Chen's indifferent voice, "The one who saves him must die!!!"

As soon as the voice sounded, the world shook.

Elder Tian kui's expression changed slightly as if he had not expected ye Chen to be so arrogant as to refute his face.

"Daoist Tian kui, save me, save me ..." The ethereal patriarch cried for help again.

Patriarch Tian kui took a deep breath and looked at ye Chen again. "Daoist ye, you've already established your reputation by killing fellow Daoist Gu Yin ..."

Chapter 1404: Extraterrestrial civilization Judicial Department!

"Then you should die too!"

Ye Chen did not give him a chance to speak. He raised his hand and pointed forward.

As soon as the finger appeared, the world rumbled. In the turbulent void, a huge pillar-like crystal finger appeared out of thin air, forming a monstrous pressure that annihilated everything.

It was the Qing Mu Emperor finger.

"Stop, stop, this old man won't care about this matter anymore ..."

Elder Tian kui's expression changed drastically. He sucked in a cold breath and disappeared.

He had thought that ye chen would be exhausted after using such a terrifying divine ability in succession. In addition, the ethereal ancestor had promised him a tempting promise. Therefore, he could not help but step forward to protect the ethereal ancestor.

With his departure, the ethereal great ancestor's primordial spirit was completely exposed to ye Chen's Azure wood Emperor's finger.

"Stop!"

"Stop it!!!"

Almost at the same time, several figures with powerful auras rushed over from the distance. The leader was a soul formation stage expert.

Ye chen ignored these words. With a single finger, he crushed the ethereal great ancestor's astral body right before his eyes, which were filled with unwillingness and fear.

The entire world fell into a dead silence at that moment.

Before this, who would have thought that the ending would be like this? Ye chen had killed two early divine transformation realm experts in a row and even forced patriarch Tian kui to flee?

This was the legend that had fallen in the eyes of many people?

Had he really fallen?

Fang Mingwei and his grandson from the nine Dragon Bay looked at the scene in disbelief as if they had lost their souls."How is this possible? How is this possible?"

Everyone's expression froze.

Someone shuddered and couldn't help but Mutter,""Ye nankuang has announced his return with blood!"

"Unfortunately, such a terrifying existence doesn't have much time left ..."

Even more people felt sorry for him.

At the same time, ye Chen's face grew paler and paler in the air as if a gust of wind could blow him away. It seemed that his physical condition was getting worse.

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh ..."

Three black-robed old men shot toward ye chen and landed in front of him.

The leader, a sinister-looking old man with a high cheekbone, stared at ye chen and said coldly,""Impudent! Ye nankuang, how dare you disobey my order?"

The three of them had come to protect the ethereal patriarch, but they were still one step too late.

Ye chen steadied himself and sized up the three of them with a cold gaze."Who are you? Are you also here to die?"

"Bastard!"

A person stood out from behind the elder and said coldly, "We're from the extraterrestrial civilization Judicial Department. We're in charge of negotiating and resolving conflicts between the extraterrestrial sects and cultivators on earth."

At this point, he couldn't help but sneer, "You killed people from the extraterrestrial sects one after another without the permission of the extraterrestrial civilization Judicial Department. You don't care about the rules. How should you be punished?"

When he heard this, Ye Chen's expression was calm. He looked at the three of them with a cold smile and said, "So what if you've killed him? What are you going to do?!"

"What an arrogant brat!"

The elder's eyes turned cold as he continued the topic, "Ye Nankuang, you've violated the rules of the extraterrestrial civilization Judicial Department. I'm telling you now to come with us."

The two men behind him immediately ran toward Ye Chen.

"You guys want to catch me?"

Ye Chen's gaze suddenly turned cold. "For the sake of a few foreign enemies, you're forcing me to become your enemy?!"

The extraterrestrial civilization's Judicial Department was undoubtedly created by the higher-ups with good intentions. He did not expect that the higher-ups would use it on him, Ye Chen!

At the same time, Old Ancestor Yellow Spring also came over and stared at the three elders coldly. "I'd like to see if you have the ability to take her away today."

"BOOM!"

In an instant, a terrifying pressure erupted from Old Ancestor Yellow Spring's body. The power made the three of them subconsciously take a step back.

"Early divine transformation realm?!"

The elder's eyes narrowed. He looked at Old Ancestor Yellow Spring with fear. "Who are you? Are you sure you want to stop the extraterrestrial civilization Judicial Department?"

Obviously, even he had not expected Ye Chen to have a soul formation stage powerhouse by his side.

"Who is the forefather? You three pieces of trash don't have the right to know!" Old Ancestor Yellow Spring smiled eerily.

The sinister old man's expression changed several times before he sneered, "Ye Nankuang, are you sure you want to fight against the extraterrestrial civilization's Judicial Department today?"

He then threatened, "I forgot to remind you that there are late-stage and even perfected soul formation cultivators in the Judicial Department of the extraterrestrial civilization."

"So what?" Ye Chen's eyes flashed imperceptibly.

Even old ancestor yellow spring's eyes flashed with surprise. He didn't expect that there would be such a terrifying mighty figure above.

"Not much!"

"I know that the three of us can't take you down if we fight you today," the elder said in a deep voice. "But the extraterritorial Judicial Department will not stop after this. When that time comes, you will be fighting against the higher-ups!"

"If you want to resist, then resist." Old ancestor yellow spring didn't take it seriously.

The patriarch wasn't from earth, so he didn't have the slightest sense of substitution for everything on earth. In his opinion, there was no place that couldn't accommodate him in the vast universe.

The other man frowned. "We only asked ye nankuang to go for an investigation. When the investigation is done, we will do it as it is."

"Not bad!"

The sinister-looking old man looked at ye chen. "Ye nankuang, don't forget that you're also a Chinese. Why would we side with a foreign enemy?"

"Alright, I'll go with you!"

"But I need to go back and explain to my family." Ye chen took a deep breath.

"Of course, we'll wait for you." The malicious-looking elder nodded.

With that, ye Chen's figure flickered and immediately flew toward the nine Dragon Bay. Old ancestor yellow spring followed him and frowned. "Fellow Daoist ye, they're no match for you at all. Why did you do that?"

"China has changed ..."

Ye chen sighed softly. "They've become so unfamiliar to me. I think there's something wrong with some people. I have to figure out what the problem is."

Old ancestor yellow spring was right. He had even destroyed the immortal Palace, let alone the judicial Department of an extraterrestrial civilization. However, the latter was an official organization after all.

Old Chen, Niu Qingshan, old master Gu, and the others all believed in loyalty and righteousness. If he went against the higher-ups, these people would probably not want to see it.

Old ancestor yellow spring sighed and stopped trying to persuade him.

In the nine Dragon Bay, everyone was looking forward to it.

After seeing ye chen return safely, ye hai, su Yuhan, and the others heaved a sigh of relief.

Fang Mingwei and his grandson did not dare to look at him directly.

Ye chen walked over and held su Yuhan's hand as they walked toward his parents. He smiled and said, "Dad, mom, I have to go out for a while. I'll be back soon."

Chapter 1405: Hubby, I'll be waiting for you!

"What is it that you have to leave at this time?"

Ye hai frowned, but he didn't have the heart to ask further, "Forget it, go and come back quickly. Today is your and Yuhan's big day, don't let Yuhan wait too long."

"Alright!"

Ye chen smiled, then turned to look at su Yuhan. He leaned close to her ear and whispered, "Honey, wait for me. I'll be right back. I won't delay our wedding night ..."

Su Yuhan's pretty face immediately heated up. It was obvious that she couldn't stand such direct words, but she still nodded heavily. "Honey, I'll wait for you ..."

She seemed to find it a little difficult to say the word 'husband', so her nasal voice was dragged out, as if she was groaning.

Ye chen felt as if his bones had softened in the face of the word 'husband'.

It was the first time su Yuhan had called him that!

As he was moved, he could not help but lower his head to kiss her red lips. However, it was only a light taste, like a Dragonfly touching the water.

"Forefather, Wushuang, after I leave, protect Yuhan and my parents. If necessary, inform patriarch green spirit and the others!"

After secretly sending messages to ye Wushuang and old ancestor yellow spring one by one through divine sense, ye chen took a step forward and instantly entered the sky ten thousand meters high.

With ye Wushuang, old ancestor yellow spring, and twenty to thirty soul formation realm experts, including old ancestor green spirit, he was not worried about the safety of su Yuhan and the others.

Ten thousand meters in the air, ye Chen's cold expression returned. He glanced at the three and said, "Let's go ..."

Thousands of miles away from Lin city, in the suburbs of the capital, there was a dense forest controlled by the military. Although the forest was not large, it looked sparse and ordinary.

However, when the sinister old man stopped and threw out a token, the formation in front of ye chen suddenly changed. What entered his eyes was a small world that seemed to have been opened up by itself.

"The formation ..."

Ye Chen's eyes flickered when he saw this. "It seems that China has made a lot of progress in the study of arrays. Could this array be obtained from some cave abode or historical remains?"

"Let's go!"

The elder led him into a brand new small world. At that moment, a strange look flashed in his eyes.

“BOOM!”

With a deafening boom, countless stone pillars suddenly appeared in the void.

These stone pillars surrounded ye chen and then activated a dazzling array barrier that wrapped ye chen in it. A terrifying energy and vast energy overflowed. From a distance, it looked like a heavenly cage.

Without waiting for ye chen to speak, the sinister-looking old man outside sneered. “Ye nankuang, you’ve killed a sect outside the domain without permission and affected the overall situation. I’ve received orders from the higher-ups to suppress you here and sentence you to death within three days!”

However, to his surprise, ye chen, who was in the cage, did not show any expression. He did not even react.

“You’re about to die and you’re still calm?” he frowned.

“I’ve long guessed that you would be like this.”

Ye chen looked at him mockingly and shook his head slowly. “I have to say, you’ve really disappointed me. The most disappointing thing is destruction!”

“What big words!”

The elder snorted. “This array formation was obtained from a prehistoric relic in China. It once killed an out-of-the-world complete deity transformation. If you stay here, you’ll be completely refined in less than three days.”

At this point, he said with a smile that was not a smile, “Similarly, these three days are also your chance. If you are willing to tell us where you went seventeen years ago and why you have such a cultivation level, perhaps we will only cripple your cultivation and not kill you.”

“So you’re coveting this ye’s fortuitous encounter?”

Ye chen chuckled. “Very good, very good. I’ll give you three days as well. Within three days, if the person in charge of the judicial Department doesn’t come to me and kowtow to admit his crimes, you’ll bear the consequences yourself!!!”

“Just stay here obediently, you!”

The elder sneered and turned to leave.

.....

At the same time, a major piece of news was announced by the extraterritorial judgement division. “Ye nankuang killed people from sects outside the domain without permission. He has been thrown into the heavenly prison!”

As soon as the news spread, the whole of China was shocked.

Ye hai and Wu Lan passed out on the spot, but su Yuhan was unusually strong. She took care of the two children and the two elders at the same time.

Ye Wen and the other girls went to comfort her, but su Yuhan smiled and said, "My husband can even destroy the immortal's Palace, let alone a mere prison of the extraterritorial Judicial Department."

Only then did the girls put their hearts at ease.

"Is there a mistake? Ye nankuang had killed enemies from the outer realm, so why was he locked up? Also, what the hell is this extraterrestrial Judicial Department?"

"You guys probably don't know this, but it's said that the extraterrestrial Judicial Department is the most mysterious organization in China. Everyone in it has extraordinary means ..."

"Ye nankuang fell into this tough guy's hands. He's doomed ..."

However, the outside world had exploded into a pot of porridge. Countless people were talking about it, and some had even issued their orders on the internet.

The office of the extraterrestrial Judicial Department in the capital was currently surrounded by a sea of people. All kinds of curses caused many staff in the room to panic.

In the crowd, an old man of about 100 years old stood by the road, trembling.

"The extraterrestrial sects have killed so many cultivators from our country. Not only did the extraterrestrial Judicial Department not care, but they even captured their own people. What is this?"

"I'd like to ask you what's the reason for this!!!"

Then, he shakily took off his shirt and pointed at the densely packed bullet holes. "I'm 120 years old this year, and the bullet holes on my body are all from when I fought the Japanese. Are you guys going to arrest me too?"

The onlookers were all in awe. This was a veteran who had shed blood for the country and the people, and now he was standing up for ye nankuang at the moment of his death.

Behind him was a human Dragon that stretched as far as the eye could see. The average age of these people was over a hundred years old.

"We're not convinced. Get the person in charge to come out and give us an explanation!"

In the office of the extraterrestrial Judicial Department, the sinister-looking elder looked at this scene coldly. "Let them be. Just ignore them. When ye nankuang dies, they will leave."

.....

At the eastern border, among the endless Mountains, there was a war station. It was the largest war camp.

At this moment, there was a middle-aged man in military uniform. The middle-aged man had long golden hair. Although he was handsome, he had a lot of vicissitudes and determination.

"Good, very good!"

The middle-aged man slammed The Telegraph on the table and said angrily, "The extraterritorial Judicial Department has been getting more and more excessive in recent years. Now, they have even gone against the wishes of the people and captured brother ye!"

"General Luo," a man in military uniform asked, "what should we do? please ask."

"All rise!" General Luo suddenly shouted.

"BOOM!"

In an instant, hundreds of generals who were sitting in front of him stood up in unison. Their movements were neat and powerful, like flowing water.

"Since some people don't know anything, let's teach them how to behave and let them know how important brother ye is to the soldiers!"

"Release brother ye immediately," general Luo ordered. "Otherwise, the millions of soldiers of the East Battalion will retreat immediately. If you release brother ye two hours later, my millions of soldiers will retreat a hundred miles!"

"What the hell are we guarding the eastern border for? we bathed in blood and fought without caring for our lives. Is it just to give these people a stable life?"

"Yes!"

At the northern border, an urgent and ear-piercing cry suddenly broke the silence. "Gather! Everyone, gather!"

"General Song has ordered that from now on, our Northern Army will retreat a hundred li every two hours!"

At the Western border, within a Green Brick courtyard, a loud laughter resounded, "I knew it! Luo Tianya and Song Qiye wouldn't be able to sit still!"

"In that case, the Western Region can't miss this show!"

The owner of the voice sneered, "Huang 'er, pass on my order. From now on, the Army of the Western Region will retreat 100 li every two hours, unless you receive a new order from me!"

"At the same time, send a message to that bastard Xiong Youcai. If he kneels down to the foreign Judicial Department now, we, East, West, and North will work together to cut off his head and use it as a stool!"

Chapter 1406: It's easy to invite a God, but hard to send him away!

The second day of Ye Chen's imprisonment.

More and more people gathered outside the capital city's extraterritorial Judicial Department. They all protested and demanded Ye Chen's release. There were even conflicts over this. Fortunately, no deaths occurred.

The atmosphere in the office of the extraterritorial Judicial Department was terrifyingly silent.

“Jin Ling Chamber of Commerce demands that ye nankuang be released. Otherwise, they will cut off all business with the extraterritorial Judicial Department!”

“The person in charge of the state affairs requests that ye nankuang be released. Otherwise, he will ask the extraterritorial Judicial Department to pay a million spirit stones ...”

The sinister-looking old man’s face darkened as he listened to the news from all directions. He had not expected ye Chen’s influence in China to be so terrifying.

From the commoners to the business world, all the big shots had asked for ye Chen’s release.

“Elder Yuan, what should we do now?” someone stammered.

Almost all the lower-level people of the extraterritorial Judicial Department were shocked by this scene. After all, since the establishment of the extraterritorial Judicial Department, they had never seen such a situation.

“You want the extraterritorial Judicial Department to release him?”

Elder Yuan sneered. Just as he made up his mind, a subordinate walked over with a phone in his hand and said in a trembling voice, “Elder Yuan, the people in the North want to talk to you.”

The North?

His expression changed slightly, and he hurriedly picked up the phone.

Before he could speak, a cold voice came from inside, “Yuan Jinshan, I am Lin Yan from the North Battalion. Leave now and release ye nankuang immediately. Otherwise, the North Battalion will retreat 100 miles every two hours ...”

Yuan Jinshan’s expression finally changed. “Bastards! Are you trying to overturn the heavens?”

However, the call was hung up before he could finish his sentence.

“Are you threatening me? They dare to threaten me?”

Yuan Jinshan looked at the empty office hall and roared.

As one of the few early divine transformation realm experts in the extraterritorial race, this was the first time he had lost his composure.

“Elder Yuan, there’s a Telegram from the East!”

“Yes!” Another person walked in quickly. “The peerless God of War of the East, Luo Tianya, has texted the extraterritorial judgement division to release ye nankuang immediately. Otherwise, the East Battalion will retreat a hundred miles every two hours ...”

Before Yuan Jinshan could react, another anxious voice was heard. “Elder Yuan, the Lord of the West, ning yongtian, is retreating from the battle line ...”

“Plop!”

The three consecutive urgent reports caused Yuan Jinshan's expression to completely change. He then fell heavily to the ground, "Crazy, they are all crazy. They actually did such a crazy thing for ye nankuang."

"Elder Yuan, of the four battalions, general Xiong youcai from the South Battalion hasn't made any moves ..." Someone reminded.

"Right, there's also Xiong youcai!"

"Xiong youcai is a spy from the extraterritorial Judicial Department. He definitely won't rebel against us ..." Yuan Jinshan immediately reacted.

The southern border.

Under the greenhouse that was as hot as a furnace, there was a bald man lying on the cold and eating watermelon.

Beside him, a soldier read The Telegraph, "General Xiong, general Luo of the East, general ning of the West, and general song of the North have jointly asked you to retreat at this moment, otherwise ..."

At this point, he wanted to say something but stopped. He did not dare to continue reading, as if the content below was somewhat unsightly.

"Otherwise what?"

The burly man snorted. "No need to think about it. It must have been sent by that F * cking ning Yingtian."

"You're right. General ning said that you shouldn't lick the boots of the foreign Judicial Department. Otherwise, the three of them will cut off your head and use it as a stool ..." The soldier said after a moment of hesitation.

"Motherf * cker, can't you just let me have a good melon?"

The bald man sat up in anger and sneered, "This son of a B * tch ning Yingtian's words are too arrogant. He actually dares to threaten me, this old bear?"

"General, should we reject them ..."

Someone opened his mouth.

The bald man suddenly raised his hand. "In my name, I'll send a Telegraph to the extraterritorial judgement division to release ye nankuang. Otherwise, the South Battalion will retreat one hundred miles every two hours."

"Yuan Jinshan is too stupid. Why did he have to attack ye nankuang ..."

After saying that, he grinned and swallowed the half-eaten watermelon in his hand. "Alright, the four battalions of the North, South, East, and West are all alive now ..."

.....

The atmosphere in the extraterrestrial Judicial Department was terrifyingly cold!

Yuan Jinshan was lying on the armchair, his eyes dull and listless. He was extremely angry. "Xiong youcai, you're good. You're really good ..."

The servant standing beside him was even more terrified.

It was a complete mess. The North, South, East, and West battalions all tried their best to protect ye nankuang and retreated to the back of the battle line!

The consequence of withdrawing the troops was that the Battlefront that they had entered with great difficulty would completely collapse, and eventually, the foreign tribe Army would March in.

At that time, the extraterritorial Judicial Department would be roasted on the fire and would be condemned as an eternal crime!

"Ding Ling Ling!"

At this moment, a phone rang, completely shattering Xiong youcai's psychological defense. One of his subordinates swallowed and said, "Elder Yuan, it's the special line to the Imperial City ..."

Yuan Jinshan took a deep breath and walked over quickly. He picked up the phone with trembling hands.

Before he could speak, an extremely cold voice came from within, "Is the extraterritorial Judicial Department trying to overturn the world? I'll give you an hour to release him!"

"Yes!"

Yuan Jinshan, who was at the early divine transformation realm, couldn't help but feel his heart Twitch when he heard the voice. He nodded heavily.

After hanging up the phone, he immediately led his men to the place where ye chen was being held. It was not an exaggeration to describe him as panicking.

On the outskirts of the capital, in a small world that was opened up.

Ye chen sat cross-legged as if he had fallen into a turtle's breath.

"BOOM!"

With a loud noise, Yuan Jinshan quickly walked in with his men. Almost at the same time, ye Chen's eyes suddenly opened.

Yuan Jinshan's eyes twitched as he looked at ye chen. He said coldly, "Ye nankuang, you can leave now!"

With that, he raised his hand and took out a token. He was about to remove the formation that trapped ye chen when he heard ye chen say, "The environment here is pretty good. This ye doesn't plan on going out for the time being!"

"Bastard!"

Yuan Jinshan could no longer suppress the anger in his heart. "Ye, don't fail to appreciate my kindness!"

"Old thing, you're the one who doesn't know how to appreciate favors!"

Ye chen shouted, interrupting him. His eyes were cold. "What's wrong? It's easy to invite a God, but hard to send him away. I'm not someone you can capture and release as you please!"

"You ..." Yuan Jinshan was furious.

"Do you think you can really imprison me with your formation-breaking technique?"

Ye chen narrowed his eyes at him, his gaze cold. "This ye just wanted to look coldly at how miserable your end will be!!!"

Chapter 1407: I'll give you a chance to kowtow to me three times!

Even though ye chen did not go out, he did not know what had happened in the past two days.

However, he could tell from Yuan Jinshan's attitude!

The latter was facing pressure!

He could roughly guess where this pressure came from. What he really wanted to know was what the higher-ups' attitude was!

This was also the reason why ye chen was willing to go to the capital and even watch as Yuan Jinshan imprisoned him with a broken formation.

After returning to Earth, he had seen too many unsatisfactory places. This time, he also planned to kill in all directions and completely terrorize these alien sects and alien races.

In that case, the attitude of the higher-ups was very important. After all, he, ye chen, was not willing to take that step unless he had no other choice!

"Alright, you were the one who didn't want to come out!"

Yuan Jinshan sneered and said "good" three times. Then, he flung his sleeves and left with his men.

Meanwhile, the debate in the outside world about ye Chen's continued to intensify. In just one day, the four great battalions of the North, South, East, and West had retreated one thousand and two hundred miles.

"It turns out that the situation is getting more and more serious. If this continues, the foreign Army will be able to March into the hinterlands of China in less than three days ..."

One of his subordinates reported to Yuan Jinshan in fear, "At that time, even the director can't protect us, and we'll become eternal sinners ..."

Yuan Jinshan's body was hunched and his face was pale.

At this moment, he finally began to feel fear!

What could make an early stage incarnation realm cultivator fear him was not some ancient sinner, but the means of the higher-ups. Don't look at him as an early stage incarnation realm cultivator. The personal guards of the higher-ups could easily kill him!

“Hurry, hurry to the Imperial prison!” Thinking of this, Yuan Jinshan immediately brought his men back to the Imperial prison in the suburbs.

He took a deep breath and smiled at ye chen. “Mr. Ye, I was not careful in my previous actions. I hope Mr. Ye will forgive me. I’m willing to apologize to you.”

“Is this your attitude when you apologize?” Ye chen looked at him mockingly.

Yuan Jinshan’s expression changed, but he still said, “Then I wonder how Mr. Ye would like this Yuan to apologize in order to dispel your anger?”

Ye chen tidied his sleeves and looked at him calmly. Then, he slowly said, “Kneel down!”

“I’ll give you a chance. Kowtow to me three times!”

When ye chen said that, Yuan Jinshan’s expression changed drastically. He looked at ye chen with a dark gaze. “Ye, don’t go too far!”

“Farewell!” Ye chen smiled.

“Ye, since you’re so insensible, don’t blame me!”

Yuan Jinshan’s expression changed again and again, and a crazed look flashed across his eyes. “I didn’t expect the higher-ups to value you so much that they’ve even alerted that person. You’ve already forced me into a corner!”

“In that case, I’ll suppress you here today and then hide in Yinxu. Let’s see how they can find me!”

As soon as he finished speaking, he suddenly shouted and quickly formed a seal with his palms. Immediately, a terrifying power of a formation swept out.

“Ye, the formation that imprisons you came from an ancient martial arts tomb in Yinxu. It’s guarded by the dried corpse of an ancient Almighty. Today, I’ll activate it with all my strength!”

“Die!”

His expression was hysterical. Then, he pointed at the light pillar of the formation around ye chen from afar, trying to fully activate the great horror within.

However, the light pillar of the formation did not move.

“Pfft!”

At that moment, Yuan Jinshan couldn’t help but spit out a mouthful of blood. He took two steps back and looked at the light pillar with a puzzled expression. “What’s going on? What was going on? Why can’t I activate it ...”

“Because of me!”

In an instant, a ghostly voice came from the distance, and then a man in a Golden Mask walked over slowly.

The man was tall, and his facial features were covered by a Golden Mask. Only the gray hair on his temples could be seen.

And it was with his appearance that ...

Yuan Jinshan's pupils shrank. Then, as if he had seen something terrifying, he exclaimed, "Lord Divine general!!!"

At the same time, ye Chen, who was about to make a move, had a dark expression on his face. He fixed his eyes on the person who had come.

For some reason, the other party gave him a familiar feeling.

"Yuan Jinshan!"

The Golden-masked man came silently and said indifferently, "You've received a lot of benefits from the sects outside the region over the years. I thought you'd become so arrogant that you wouldn't recognize your family. I didn't expect you to recognize me."

"Lord Divine general, please ... Please spare me ..."

Yuan Jinshan kneeled on the ground and kowtowed, "This Yuan knows his mistake, this Yuan knows his mistake ..."

"Don't worry, I won't get your family involved!"

The man in the Golden Mask sighed and reached out his hand, aiming at Yuan Jinshan's head.

At that moment, his hand suddenly exploded with a monstrous power, as if it was alive. It was crystal clear, and the bones could be seen. It was as if an ancient beast had come to life.

"What is this?"

At that moment, ye Chen's eyes narrowed. "This is the purest form of the war God's arm? "No, it's a graft! He actually grafted an arm of the martial God!"

The martial God didn't refer to a realm, but to the purest martial cultivator who, after cultivating to a certain level, could break the void and ascend to the outside world with just his fists.

In fact, there had been countless debates since ancient times about which was stronger between martial arts and cultivation. However, the martial God could kill many cultivators at the same time!

I don't care what kind of spiritual treasure or magical treasure you are!

The war god only needed to use his strength to break through all techniques!

"No!"

The moment the Golden-faced man reached out his hand, Yuan Jinshan roared unwillingly. Then, he burned his life force and ran toward the man.

"Why? Why do you value a dying man so much? Even if that ye guy was once a legend in China, so what?"

“Why do you keep forcing me?!!”

When the Golden-masked man attacked, he knew that he would die for sure. Thus, he did not choose to escape, but chose to fight with his life.

“Because brother ye is the hope of our country!!!”

“And even if scum like you die 10000 times, you won’t be able to beat him!”

The Golden-faced man nodded slightly. The martial God’s arm seemed to have transformed into a ferocious Dragon as it pierced through Yuan Jinshan’s chest, devouring his qi and blood completely.

Crack ... Crack ...

Yuan Jinshan turned into a skeleton and fell to the ground.

An early stage incarnation realm expert had actually fallen to such an end.

The Golden-masked man did not even look at the ghastly white bones on the ground. After he raised his hand to break the formation that imprisoned ye chen, he said, “Mr. Ye, you can come out now!”

However, ye chen did not move as if he did not hear him. He only looked at him quietly. “Should I call you Lord Divine general, or should I call you Brother Qin?”

Chapter 1408: The real purpose of the foreign invasion!

As his voice fell ...

The Golden-masked man’s body trembled slightly. Then, he took a deep breath and slowly took off the Golden Mask on his face.

In an instant, a familiar face was revealed.

It was Qin Xiaotian, the former personal bodyguard of old Chen, known as the bodyguard of the Zhongnanhai sea. He was also the former number two on the Heaven List!

“Brother Qin, it’s really you!”

Ye Chen’s expression brightened. He had thought that most of his old friends had passed away. He did not expect to see an old friend again. How could he not feel happy from the bottom of his heart?

“Brother ye ...”

Qin Xiaotian laughed and said with a complicated expression, “I didn’t expect you to recognize Xiaotian even after he’s been reduced to this state ...”

“Thank you for today!”

Ye chen glanced at the ghastly white bones on the ground, then turned to the former and shook his head. “But why did you become like this?”

At this moment, Qin Xiaotian had changed too much from the simple and honest bodyguard beside old Chen more than ten years ago. It was as if he had lost all his emotions and had become a killing machine.

“It’s a long story ...”

Qin Xiaotian shook his head. “After old Chen’s death, I lost all hope. I spent my days drinking and getting drunk. After you left, the great enemy from the outer realm arrived. My sister also died in that calamity ...”

When ye chen heard this, he was shocked. His lips moved but in the end, he could only pat his shoulder. “My condolences ...”

Ye chen also had an impression of Qin Xiaotian’s sister, Qin Yao.

He still remembered that after he had killed Liu Xijue in China’s waters, it was Qin Yao who had come under old Chen’s orders to invite him to join the Divine Arms Battalion.

The two of them had even had a misunderstanding because of this.

Unexpectedly, that fiery and straightforward little girl also fell in the calamity of the invasion of the earth by the enemies from outer space.

On the other hand, Qin Xiaotian and Luo Tianya had some similarities.

“There’s nothing to be sad about ...”

Qin Xiaotian revealed a bitter smile. “After my sister died, my heart has completely died. My biggest goal in this life is to kill all the foreign enemies!!!”

As he said this, his eyes were filled with hatred.

“What about your right arm?” ye chen hesitated.

“Are you curious as to why I have the ability to kill Yuan Jinshan, an early divine transformation realm cultivator, in an instant?”

Qin Xiaotian took a deep breath and looked at his right arm that had returned to normal. “Because this arm was obtained by me in the Ruins of Yin ...”

“What kind of place is Yin Xu?” Ye chen frowned.

It wasn’t the first time he had heard of this name. Even Yuan Jinshan had wanted to kill him before he died and then hide in the Ruins of Yin.

“That’s a chaotic place where risk and opportunity co-exist ...”

Qin Xiaotian shook his head and was unwilling to mention it. He said: “Someone will explain it to you. Come with me, the higher-ups want to see you ...”

“It’s finally here ...” Ye Chen’s eyes flickered imperceptibly.

In a remote courtyard house in the capital.

Qin Xiaotian put on the Golden Mask again and led ye chen in without any obstacles.

When he reached the door, he turned back and said to ye chen, "Brother ye, the person who wants to see you is inside. I won't go in with you!"

"Alright!"

Ye chen nodded slightly, then stepped into the simple door. He saw a tall old man in a suit waiting for him with his hands behind his back.

"Why are you here?"

When ye chen saw the old man's face, he could not help but be shocked despite his temperament.

This was because the tall old man was one of the two people he had tried his best to find before leaving Earth.

Those two people were the fruits of his ripening using the liuxian bottle. Ye chen was afraid of their existence and had warned them before.

"Are you surprised?"

The tall old man looked at him with a smile, then raised his hand and pointed to the stool at the side. "Sit!"

Ye chen sat down slowly and looked at him quietly.

"I know you have a lot of questions."

The tall old man smiled faintly. "Let me introduce myself. My name is Gu Quan. I was born in the Shang Dynasty in my previous life. I was known as the Taoist of Northern Yama."

"You were born in the Shang Dynasty?"

Ye Chen's gaze was moved because it had been more than three thousand years since yinshang. He could not help but say, "What about the other one?"

Gu Quan smiled and explained patiently, "He's the same as me, but he's guarding the Ruins of Yin now."

"It's Yinxu again ..."

Ye chen mumbled to himself.

Gu Quan glanced at him and said apologetically, "Fellow Daoist ye, Guangling and I knew about your trip to the ancient barren world. I also know that you've seen many things that have been unfair to you since you came back."

"Even if you don't say it, I guess you feel indignant."

At this point, he could not help but stand up and bow to ye chen. "In fact, we were forced to do so. Yin ruins is too complicated and almost all of our elites were transferred there. Therefore, we didn't have the time to take care of your friends and old friends ..."

“At the beginning of the invasion, Daoist Guangling and I also advocated fighting. However, after five years of fighting, we finally realized the true strength of the outer realms ...”

He smiled bitterly. “To be honest, China and even the earth can’t afford to fight. Therefore, we can only sit down and negotiate. In the end, we’ve come to the current situation. As for the impact of this, we can’t change it ...”

When he heard this, Ye Chen looked at him firmly. “If I’m not wrong, the enemy from the outer realm is also here for Yinxu, right?”

“Not bad!”

Gu Quan looked at him deeply, then nodded with a serious expression, “The Ruins of Yin were the capital ruins of the Shang Dynasty in ancient times. As for the Shang Dynasty, I believe fellow Daoist ye must have some understanding of it. After all, the ancient God-deification war was related to it ...”

“The ancient war of deification ...”

Ye Chen’s eyes flashed imperceptibly.

He was very familiar with this rumor. It involved many legendary figures, including those from the untainted land, and even the dispute between Chan and Jie.

All in all, it was an era where the world was in turmoil.

“As a person born in the Shang Dynasty!”

Gu Quan slowly opened his mouth and said, word by word, “I can tell you very responsibly that the ancient God-sealing war, as well as the heavenly court, really existed!”

“What did you just say?” Ye Chen’s pupils contracted.

These words were simply too shocking. In other words, earth once had a cultivation civilization that far surpassed the outer realms.

“Otherwise, why do you think the outer realms are invading earth at all costs? They wanted to steal the civilization of my earth ...”

Gu Quan looked at him and said, “the reason why earth is called the celestial burial planet is that it has indeed buried Celestials before!!!”

At this point, he took a deep breath and said word by word, “And the outer realm is trying to obtain the opportunity to become an immortal, the Xuanzang gate!!!”

Chapter 1409: The secret of Yinxu!

“An opportunity to become an immortal?”

“Xuan pin gate?”

Ye Chen's expression changed slightly when he heard Daoist Yan's words. "Is there really an opportunity to become an immortal on earth?!"

Although he said that, he couldn't help but think of the flowing celestial bottle in his body. He had obtained this item from earth and had to rely on it to successfully ascend to the immortal world and become an immortal reverent.

"I'm not sure if there are any."

Daoist Northern Yama said bitterly, "However, the ancient war of deification and the heavenly court did exist. The only thing I don't understand is whether these so-called gods and immortals were real Immortals or a group of ancient Qi practitioners whose cultivation base was higher than mine ..."

"Your doubts are not without reason."

"Before I descended to earth, I passed by Mars. There, I saw the altar where the ancient people worshipped the heavens and earth ..." Ye chen nodded slightly and said seriously.

"It was also there that I saw the top 100 stars in the universe. My earth is currently ranked more than 100000."

At this point, he couldn't help but look at the former. "Do you know what was the highest ranking of earth in the past?"

Daoist Northern Yama was confused.

"Sixth place!!!"

Ye chen said, word for word.

Even Daoist Northern Yama gasped at his words, his scalp tingling.

Ye chen looked at him quietly. He knew that this shocking news had a greater impact on him.

However, if the earth really had the opportunity to become an immortal, it meant that the Earth's status in the heavens was probably not lower than the spiritual realm.

One had to know that the spiritual realm was only second to the immortal realm and the devil realm.

"The sixth ..."

After a long while, Daoist Northern Yama finally came back to his senses. His lips trembled as he said, "This secret is too shocking. Even I have never heard of it in my previous life. I can only say that earth really had a very glorious era."

"Then what about Yinxu?"

"I've heard that many soul formation stage cultivators from sects outside the region have gone to Yinxu," ye chen said with a frown.

"Just as I said earlier."

“The Ruins of Yin is the capital of the Shang Dynasty, and the Shang Dynasty was a chaotic era filled with gods and demons. The cultivation civilization was considered to be very prosperous. Therefore, there were many opportunities left on that land!”

He seemed to have thought of something and looked at ye chen. “I think you have met Qin Xiaotian?”

Ye chen nodded slightly.

Taoist of Northern Yama laughed, “there’s a martial tomb in Yinxu. An ancient martial God is buried in it. Qin Xiaotian got his right arm from the martial tomb. It’s a lucky chance for that kid.”

Ye chen also smiled and nodded. He had already guessed the peculiarity of Qin Xiaotian’s right arm.

“But it seems like Qin Xiaotian’s fortuitous encounter, there are still countless ...”

Daoist Northern Yama looked at ye chen with a serious expression. “Every fortuitous encounter is enough to cause countless people to fight to the death, and even cause various countries to play games with each other ...”

“These were left behind by the Qi practitioners of the Shang Dynasty?”

Ye chen was surprised.

“Not all of them.”

“It’s mostly the ancestors before the Shang Dynasty. In fact, even I don’t know much about the existence before the Shang Dynasty.” Taoist of Northern Yama shook his head.

“So the danger in Yinxu is referring to the mechanisms and formations?” Ye chen said.

“Mechanisms and formations are just one of them!”

Daoist Northern Yama’s expression turned serious. “Only a portion of the ruins of Yinxu has been unsealed. These ruins take up less than a third of Yinxu and are all located outside of Yinxu. There are traps and formations set up by the tomb owner, and even the remains of the tomb owner after his death.”

Ye chen nodded to himself when he heard this.

“Next, there are the poisonous creatures and curses scattered around the ruins. Ordinary nascent soul cultivators will die upon contact with them. However, the most powerful ones are the local creatures in the ruins, such as the demonic beasts,” said the Taoist.

“There are still native living beings in the Ruins of Yin?” Ye chen could not help but look at him again.

“That’s right!”

Daoist Northern Yama took a deep breath and said, “For example, the mermen and ancient sorcery tribes have existed for a very long time and rarely appear in human history. However, they can’t be underestimated. There were soul formation cultivators from foreign sects who died at their hands.”

“Does this mean that there are also soul formation stage cultivators among these native beings?” Ye Chen’s eyes flickered imperceptibly. “If that’s the case, why haven’t I seen these native creatures escape to the outside world?”

“Because they can’t leave Yinxu.”

Daoist Northern Yama looked at him with admiration and said, “We once secretly captured a Merman and prepared to bring him out for the higher-ups to study. However, we didn’t expect that the moment he left the Yinxu passage, that Merman would instantly turn into a pool of blood ...”

He then added, “In fact, not only the merman race, but all living beings in Yinxu can’t leave Yinxu. Only treasures, techniques, and inheritances can be brought out.”

“It seems that the Ruins of Yin are indeed mysterious ...”

Ye Chen nodded and his eyes flickered. “But that’s good too. At least the living beings of Yinxu won’t attack the human world.”

“This is the only thing we can be at ease about.”

“Currently, there are entrances to the Ruins of Yin all over the world,” Daoist Northern Yama said. “Various countries have also sent experts in to explore. Other than that, there are also experts from sects and other races.”

“Foreigners also covet our things?”

Ye Chen’s eyes turned cold.

Daoist Northern Yama seemed to have guessed his displeasure. He sighed and said, “At present, we humans are sandwiched between the sects of the outer realms and many alien races. We are the targets of the two sides to join forces and obtain benefits in Yinxu.”

He seemed to have thought of something and said, “And in the Ruins of Yin, various countries have formed an alliance and many small groups. It’s very complicated, and earth-shaking Wars break out from time to time.”

“Did you just say that the sects outside the domain are looking for the Xuan pin gate?” Ye Chen asked after some thought.

“Not bad!”

Daoist Northern Yama nodded slightly. “It’s said that there’s a gate leading to immortality in the Ruins of Yin. It’s known as the Xuan ‘GE gate and is a Supreme treasure created by the ancient heaven. After the ancient heaven disappeared, this treasure was lost in the Ruins of Yin.”

At this point, he couldn’t help but sigh. “It’s a pity that this is only a rumor. Even so, it still caused the death of countless experts from our Earth’s humans, the sects from the outer realms, and the alien races.”

“Perhaps the so-called Xuan pin gate doesn’t even exist.”

“To be more precise, this is a scam to bury the immortal cultivators from the sects outside the domain. That’s why earth is called the immortal burial planet ...” Ye chen guessed.

Just as Northern Yama was about to speak, Qin Xiaotian, dressed in a Golden Mask, walked in and whispered a few words into his ear.

After listening to the story, Daoist Northern Yama’s expression changed slightly. Then, he looked at ye chen, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.”Fellow Daoist ye, your friends and disciples are really good at doing things!”

Chapter 1410: The liuxian bottle’s mutation!

Seeing the confusion on ye Chen’s face, Qin Xiaotian glanced at Daoist Northern Yama and immediately told him everything that had happened.

Ye chen did not know whether to laugh or cry after hearing this. It turned out that Luo Tianya, song Qiye, and the other generals of the North, South, East, and West battalions had led their troops back from the front lines to protect him.

As a result, the foreign tribe Army from all four directions took the opportunity to invade. After receiving the news that ye chen had been released, Luo Tianya and the others launched another counterattack. In less than an hour, they had pushed the battle line back to its original position.

The only exception was that the commander in charge of guarding the South, Xiong you, had just suffered a defeat. Not only did he lose his troops, but he had also almost lost his life.

“This ye is indebted to them this time.”

Ye chen smiled faintly and seemed to have thought of something. He looked at Daoist Northern Yama and said,””I heard that Luo Tianya and my disciple song Qiye’s bodies have been tampered with?”

The atmosphere in the room instantly turned cold.

Daoist Northern Yama’s face changed slightly, then he sighed,””That’s true. The three of them, including ning Yingtian, have twelve shackles placed on them. ”

At this point, his face was livid.”Not only did the twelve shackles bind them to the battle line, but they also prevented them from advancing from the original infant stage. Otherwise, some of them might have already reached the soul formation stage.”

“Do you know who did it?” Ye chen said coldly.

“I’m not sure!”

Qin Xiaotian took over the topic and said,”we have used a lot of energy, yet we are unable to find out who did it. The only thing we are clear of is that it is suspected to be a human power. Furthermore, they are anti-human and they desire destruction and war.”

“This force is very strange.”

“They’ll oppose anything that’s beneficial to earth,” Daoist Northern Yama added. “And they’re very good at brainwashing. They’re madly pushing humans to go offline. Some of them are even fearless of death and will pull grenades in places with many people ...”

“We’ve captured a lot of people,” he added. “But these people don’t know the situation of this force, let alone their internal members and the location of their headquarters.”

“Interesting ...”

Ye chen grinned, revealing his white teeth. “I’ll take care of Luo Tianya’s condition. I hope that the mastermind behind this will never fall into my hands. Otherwise ...”

Thinking of this, he turned to Northern Yama and said, “By the way, do you know where my brother Yang Tian is?”

Ever since he returned to earth, he had not heard anything about Yang Tian. Even ye Wen and the others had not told him anything.

However, based on ye Chen’s understanding of Yang Tian, he did not believe that Yang Tian would die so easily. Although second brother yang would sometimes show off his courage, if one thought that he was brainless, they would be wrong.

After all, yang laoer had been with old ancestor yellow spring for a while.

As soon as ye chen finished speaking, Daoist Northern Yama and Qin Xiaotian could not help but look at each other and burst into laughter.

“You guys know about it?” Ye Chen’s eyes lit up.

Qin Xiaotian looked at him and shook his head with a smile. “How should I put it? Yang Tian’s situation is a bit complicated. Not only did he not die, but he also had a unique fortuitous encounter.”

“This brat has become someone else’s son-in-law ...”

“And he’s the son-in-law of the merman race,” Daoist Northern Yama said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. “He’s enjoying a peaceful life in the merman race now.”

“What?”

Ye chen was instantly stunned. He almost blurted out subconsciously that Yang Tian wanted to learn from Xu Xian. One was a snake, the other was a murloc.

“That’s why I told you that Yang Tian’s situation is a little complicated ...”

Qin Xiaotian could not help but laugh. “When the Ruins of Yin first appeared, Yang Tian and I entered the Ruins of Yin in the same batch. Due to some unforeseen circumstances, we were trapped in the tomb of the martial God. In the tomb, besides a martial God’s dried corpse, there was also a Merman woman suppressed.”

He took a deep breath and said, “but Yang Tian kept pointing at her and talking about the difference between a mermaid and a human woman. He accidentally triggered the mechanism and released her. After that, he was taken away by the mermaid.”

“That merfolk woman is very strong.”

“I’m afraid he’s no weaker than a void training cultivator,” Daoist Northern Yama said with a serious expression. “Just as we were discussing how to save Yang Tian, someone from the merman tribe came to pass a message. They said that Yang Tian is now the new son-in-law of the merman tribe.”

“This kid ...”

After understanding the situation, ye chen did not know whether to laugh or cry. “So he’s hiding in a gentle nest and enjoying his life. I’ve been worried about him for nothing. But it seems that I have to go to Yinxu.”

At this time, Daoist Northern Yama suddenly took out a purple item that looked like a jade pendant and handed it to ye chen. “This is a product of the Yinxu, called the Yinxu Jade. If you’re interested, you can study it.”

Ye chen took the purple object and examined it. In that instant, something in his body suddenly trembled violently.

It was this kind of trembling that caused a strong wave of shock to rise under ye Chen’s calm gaze.

The liuxian bottle moved!

Ever since he had descended from the immortal world to earth, the liuxian bottle had moved a few times. The first few times were all because of the two seeds.

But now, it was moving because of this purple jade pendant-like existence. Moreover, it was even more intense than before. There was a faint and terrifying suction force that seemed to want to devour the purple jade pendant.

If ye chen had not held the purple jade pendant so tightly, the former would have been absorbed in an instant.

.....

After an hour, ye chen left the courtyard house. He entered a hotel alone and set up an array.

He took a deep breath and with a thought, a dark green bottle appeared in his hand.

The bottle was crystal clear like jade and was about the size of a baby’s palm. It was carved with birds, beasts, insects, and fish, but it didn’t have a lid.

It was ye Chen’s greatest secret, the liuxian bottle.

“BOOM!”

Before ye chen could react, the moment the liuxian bottle appeared, a terrifying suction force came and swallowed the purple jade tome.

“Something in the Ruins of Yin caused the liuxian vase to change?”

With this thought in mind, ye Chen’s eyes were fixed on the liuxian bottle in front of him.

After the liuxian bottle absorbed the purple jade, it suddenly shook violently, and the birds, beasts, insects, and fish on it turned into a few green leaves. Although the leaves seemed to be carved on it, they were very lifelike.

Other than that, there was no other change to the bottle.

All of a sudden, a thin layer of golden mist emerged from the mouth of the bottle. It was like a golden rainbow reflected by the sun.

As soon as ye chen inhaled a trace of the Golden mist, he immediately felt that the gradual loss of qi and blood in his body had slowed down a little.

He couldn't help but take two more breaths. When he had completely devoured the Golden mist, he immediately felt that his qi and blood had increased a little.

He even felt that he was not as uncomfortable as before.

"What ... What is this?"

Ye chen looked at the liuxian bottle quietly. Even with his extremely calm heart, he could not help but Twitch at this moment!
