Chapter 1461

Upon hearing this, the man instantly turned crimson. He growled furiously, "What a nerve you've got! We, the Cosbys, have reserved this place! How dare you beat up our men and force your way in without permission? You're challenging our authority! No one has dared to challenge us for so many years. You guys are courting death!"

Upon hearing this, both Melvin and the crown prince gave a mirthless laugh.

In the end, what worried them the most did happen.

Seeing their expressions, Matthew knew that the Cosbys mustn't be ordinary people.

However, now that Sasha had been abducted, there was no way he would back down. He said in a cold voice, "I don't care which family you guys are from. All I ask is to have Sasha—my wife—released at once!"

The man replied frostily, "Who do you think you are? Are we supposed to release her because you're telling us to do so? I'm telling you, our kind-hearted young master is reluctant to argue with that b*tch at first. As long as you come over and apologize, you'll be able to take that b*tch away with you. But now that you've beaten up our people, you can forget about taking her away with you!"

Matthew's face clouded over more and more as the man repeatedly called Sasha a b*tch.

He took a sudden step forward and said furiously, "Who are you calling a b*tch?"

The man let out a sneer.

"I'm talking about that Sasha—"

Matthew didn't lose his countenance in the slightest, though. He said calmly, "The so-called Lord of Eastshire is just an empty title that's not worth mentioning."

The young man's face darkened. He said coldly, "Since you know that it's just an empty title, you should keep a low profile. If you're here to ask for your wife, you've got to strike the right attitude. You hit my men as soon as you came. With such an attitude, are you here to ask us to release your wife or to threaten us?"

Matthew frowned slightly.

"I beat them up because they spoke insolently of my wife. Sir, if your men don't have such a foul mouth, why would I come to blows with them at will?"

The young man replied coldly, "Are you suggesting that the Cosbys are ill-bred?"

Matthew snorted coldly.

"I'm not saying that the Cosbys are ill-bred. I'm only saying that the few people whom I beat up just now are ill-bred."

The young man's face hardened.

He said coldly, "You're pretty good at sophistry, huh? Hmph! You want me to release your wife? Okay. Since you're so good at fighting, you might as well fight me. If you win, I'll release your wife. How about that?"

Matthew frowned slightly.

Looking utterly discomfited, the young man growled in exasperation, "I'm gonna kill you!"

He waved his other fist at Matthew, as if he wanted to fight the latter to the death.

In reality, though, he was already in a fluster at the moment, so the punch wasn't powerful at all.

Taking advantage of the situation, Matthew grabbed his wrist and pressed it to his chest as well.

The young man growled furiously while struggling desperately like a crazed lion.

Matthew was somewhat speechless. He really couldn't understand why the young man would get angry all of a sudden.

To stop the young man from struggling, he pressed the young man's hands against his chest, taking the opportunity to push his body backward.

The young man was still sitting on the ground with his legs split apart.

When Matthew pressed his hands against his chest and pushed him backward, he fell right away, causing his body to be pressed against the leg behind him.

Matthew dragged Sasha behind him before saying coldly, "Since you've lost, can I take her away with me now?"

The young man clenched his teeth.

"You can take her away with you, but the matter between us isn't over yet!"

Matthew shook his head in resignation. He honestly couldn't understand why the seemingly free-spirited young man would be such a bad loser.

However, it wasn't easy for him to succeed in saving Sasha.

Taking her by the hand, he prepared to leave with her.

Sasha was unwilling to leave, though. She pointed at the suspended young lady in the room.

"Can we take her with us as well? These men are bad guys. We can't sit by and watch so many of them bully that young lady!"

The young man angrily walked over to the sofa and sat down.

Aman with a tattoo on his neck came over and whispered, "Young Master, that Larson guy is so arrogant and conceited to have thought that he'd set himself up against us Cosbys! Isn't he simply courting death? Should we call up the expert fighters in the family to get rid of him right away?"

The young man shot him a glare.

"One has to be a good loser. He defeated me, so he got to take his wife away with him. What's the problem with that? What do you mean by suggesting that we call up the expert fighters in our family to kill him? You wanna make the outsiders think that I can't afford to lose?"

The tattooed man quickly replied, "That's not what I mean, Young Master. It's just that Matthew Larson is known as the Lord of Eastshire. If you lose to him like that, won't it appear that we, the Cosbys, can't even deal with Eastshire? If word gets out about this, I'm afraid that our family will be disgraced.."

The young man's expression turned frosty as he smashed the glass in his hand directly.

"Are you telling me what to do?"

After that, the tattooed man hurriedly bowed.

"No, I dare not do so. It's just that—"

Then, the young man said furiously, "If you dare not do so, then shut up! I know what to do and what not to do. I don't need you to teach me that! Get out of my face!"

After pondering for a long time, the small man finally gritted his teeth and nodded slowly.

"Okay, I'll get rid of her tonight!"

The tattooed man nodded with satisfaction. He said in a grim voice, "Make sure to do a clean job of it without leaving any traces behind. Don't worry. Once we get rid of that Larson guy and get the money, we'll be able to spend the rest of our lives abroad as we please. Even if we're found out, they won't be able to find us!"

The small man couldn't help but look excited.

"Don't worry, Leopard. Just leave this to me. Nothing wrong's gonna happen!"

Matthew knitted his brows. He had been wondering how powerful the Cosby Family was, but now that he had heard Melvin say so, he finally realized that the Cosbys were much more powerful than he had imagined.

Just then, the crown prince said in a grave voice, "My uncle has told me countless times about this. In the Six Southern States, I can offend anyone, including Master Levi's relatives. However, I mustn't mess with the Cosbys no matter what, because Master Levi won't set himself up against them for my sake."

Matthew took a deep breath; the fact that even Levi was unwilling to go against the Cosbys was sufficient to prove how powerful they were. Even so, he didn't have the slightest regret.

He said calmly, "Seems like I really don't know much about the Cosbys. Even so, I don't regret what I've done. They abducted my wife. If I don't save her because I'm afraid of how powerful they are, then what's the point of me being alive?"

The crown prince gave a sigh as he could understand Matthew's feelings.

Melvin said, "But luckily, what happened this time didn't get blown out of proportion. What happened between you and that young man is only considered some personal grudges, which aren't serious enough to cause the Cosbys to attack you. Otherwise, there's no way you can be a match for them with your current abilities."

Matthew replied helplessly, "What happened between him and me isn't really some personal grudges. He's the one who proposed that we fight, and he lost in the end. Can I be blamed for that?"

Melvin bared his teeth.

"Don't feel wronged about this. It's enough that you fought him, but you shouldn't have humiliated him!"

Melvin also looked at Matthew as he didn't understand what was going on as well.

Matthew said, "Oh, I forgot to explain it to you guys. Actually, I noticed that when I saw the young lady this afternoon. They were using her body to grow ginseng."

The crown prince was surprised.

"Ginseng? What kind of ginseng are they growing?"

Matthew replied, "Blood ginseng"

The crown prince and Melvin exchanged a brief look while looking confused.

"Blood ginseng? What is that? Is it the kind of herbal ingredients sold at hospitals?"

Matthew nodded slowly.

Chapter 1469 Matthew shook his head.

"Such a method won't do any harm to the human body. It's just that the process of putting the blood ginseng inside the human body is somewhat painful. Still, the big families who can afford to grow blood ginseng won't mind these expenses. They'll pay big money to some ladies for them to do these things. Usually, the process only takes three months."

Melvin nodded.

"So, what happened this time is crystal clear. That lady was paid to help cultivate blood ginseng, so she wasn't supposed to run away. And besides, since she was working for the Cosbys, she should've known very well how powerful they were. There was no way she could run away from them, yet she did so and happened to meet Sasha; he said before darting a look at Matthew.

"So, all of this isn't a coincidence; it's totally a premeditated trap. Someone hired her to pit you and the Cosbys against each other in an attempt to kill you using the Cosbys. Now that she died suddenly, it proves that someone was manipulating this from behind the scenes!"

Matthew shrugged.

Upon listening to Melvin's words, Matthew decided not to go to the Ten Greatest Families of Eastshire for the time being.

After that, he sent Sasha and her parents back to Eastcliff.

Now that Eastcliff was already under his complete control, his family would only be safe by staying there.

As for Matthew, he continued to stay in Eastshire on the excuse that he wanted to help James and Helen deal with the matters about those chain pharmacies.

In reality, though, Matthew was staying here to continue exerting pressure on the nine greatest families. He wanted to gain complete control of Eastshire by combining threats and rewards as Melvin had suggested.

Meanwhile, the nine families were on full alert.
