Chapter 1571

Xue Yuting's desperate words almost made Chen Baiyu faint from anger.

He gritted his teeth and snarled, "Xue Yuting, my father didn't provoke you, why are you talking about him like this?"

Xue Yuting sneered, "I can say what I want, what can you do to me?"

"Chen Baiyu, do you really think you're still the young master of the Chen family?"

"You're just a wild dog abandoned by the Chen family now, who are you to shout at me?"

The crowd around them burst into laughter.

Qian Liangwen let out a wild laugh, "Yu Ting, that's very kind of you to say."

"Wild dog? Hahahaha, he really looks like a dog now!"

"Chen Baiyu, I'll give you one more chance."

"Kneel down immediately, kowtow to me and admit your mistake, and I can spare you!"

"Otherwise, I'll f*cking chop off both of your dog legs so that you don't have to kneel down even in the future!"

Chen Baiyu gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice, "Qian Liangwen, I won't kneel down for you!"

"Kill me if you have the guts, if I frown, my surname will not be Chen!"

Qian Liangwen was furious, "You're still f*cking crazy, aren't you?"

"Fine, since you want to die, I'll let you do it!"

With that, Qian Liangwen grabbed a fruit knife from the table and stabbed Chen Baiyu directly in the neck.

Chen Baiyu glanced at Xue Yuting, only to see a brilliant glint in Xue Yuting's eyes, without the slightest hint of reluctance, but rather a feeling of surprise.

Chen Baiyu let out a bitter smile, and did not dodge, slowly closing his eyes.

His last hope in this world had been shattered, so what was the point of him living?

However, he waited for a long time with his eyes closed, but the fruit knife did not pierce his neck.

He was surprised and opened his eyes to see Qian Liangwen falling on the sofa behind him, vomiting blood from his mouth, as if he had suffered a serious injury.

He couldn't help but stare and turned his head to see that there was a youth beside him at some point.

The youth was wearing a duck-tongue cap, and he could not see his appearance clearly, but there was an indescribable sense of familiarity.

This youth was none other than Lin Mo!

He had just witnessed everything from outside the door.

In fact, he could have come in earlier.

However, he did not do so.

Because, he wanted Chen Baiyu to go through all of this.

Only after Chen Baiyu experienced all this would he be able to completely despair of Xue Yuting, and only then would he be completely free of Xue Yuting in the future.

Qian Liangwen barely stopped vomiting blood and said through clenched teeth, "What are you you are?"

"Do you know that I I am the youngest master of the Qian family!"

"You dare to injure me? You are going against my Qian family, you are declaring war on my ten families, you are looking for death"

Lin Mo sneered and said in a low voice, "Qian Liangwen, I didn't kill you because this dog's life of yours is reserved for Chen Baiyu!"

"Just you wait, it won't be long before Chen Baiyu will kill you himself!"

Qian Liangwen was stunned, and then he gritted his teeth and said, "Just because he's a loser? You're talking nonsense!"

"Humph, if you dare to go against me, today, even you will have to die here together!"

Xue Yuting held Qian Liangwen and shouted, "What are you all doing standing there?"

"He dares to beat up Qian Shao, hurry up and get rid of him!"

The people around them surrounded him aggressively, looking like they were ready to beat up Lin Mo.

Lin Mo didn't care about these people, he picked up Chen Baiyu with one hand and directly turned around and ran away.

The two men at the door tried to stop him, but they were all knocked to the ground with a single punch from Lin Mo.

Running all the way out of Dynasty International, Lin Mo took Chen Baiyu to a secluded place before throwing him to the ground.

Holding onto the wall, Chen Baiyu tried his best to stand up, looked at Lin Mo and said in a trembling voice, "Your Excellency Who exactly is Your Excellency?"

"Why did you save me?"

Lin Mo didn't say anything, he just took off his hat.

Only then did Chen Baiyu get a clear look at Lin Mo, and he couldn't help but exclaim, "Lin Mr. Lin!?"

Chapter 1572

Lin Mo: "What? Are you surprised to see me?"

Chen Baiyu was silent for a moment and shook his head, "Not really surprised."

"I knew that sooner or later, you would come to Yunan City."

"It's just that, I didn't expect that we would meet under such circumstances."

Lin Mo was surprised, "How did you know I would come to Yunan City?"

Chen Baiyu let out a bitter smile, "My Chen family, how can I say, is also a member of the Ten Great Families, and is one of the shareholders behind Wan Chun Tang."

"When the secret recipe for the Recycle Pill was stolen from Xu's Pharmaceutical, my Chen family was also involved in it."

"This Recycle Pill, which has a bearing on the survival of Xu's Pharmaceutical, how could you not come to Yunan City?"

Lin Mo: "In that case, you knew all these things from beginning to end!"

Chen Baiyu: "This matter was planned as early as two months ago."

"At that time, I didn't know you yet."

"Later, after that incident at Wu Zhai was over, I did have the intention to help you."

"But, as you know, after we came back, my family suffered a huge change."

"I have also fallen to the present situation, not to mention helping you, I I"

Speaking here, Chen Baiyu had choked up.

Once he was also a spirited young master of the Chen family, but now he had fallen to this state, he could not mention how aggravated he was in his heart.

Lin Mo smiled lightly, "You can help me now too!"

Chen Baiyu was surprised: "Me?"

"I'm in this state now, how else can I help you?"

Lin Mo didn't say anything, he first attached Chen Baiyu's arm before he said softly, "Chen Baiyu, do you want to take revenge for your father?"

Hearing these words, Chen Baiyu's fists clenched fiercely, and there was a cold aura in his eyes.

He gritted his teeth, "Of course I want to take revenge for my father!"

"But what can I do?"

"This matter, the one who started it all is the Xie family in the capital, and the one who manipulated it is the ten families in Su Province."

"I don't even know how long I can live now myself, so how can I avenge my father?"

Lin Mo smiled, "As long as you have this belief, I will naturally help you."

"However, before that, you have to help me take care of the matter of the Reconstruction Pill first!"

Chen Baiyu was instantly energised, "Mr. Lin, what do you want me to do?"

Lin Mo said softly, "In a couple of days, it will be the launch of that Recycle Pill from Wan Chun Tang."

"At that time, I hope, you can bring me into the launch event!"

Chen Baiyu scratched his head, "This is not too easy, I'm afraid."

"However, I'll try to find a way to bring you in."

Lin Mo nodded his head, he planned to sneak into the launch site and then find a way to expose Wan Chun Tang's conspiracy.

Next, Lin Mo put Chen Baiyu up in a very small, quick hotel nearby.

Tonight's incident was a big deal, and Qian Liangwen would definitely not be willing to let it go.

Once they found Chen Baiyu, Chen Baiyu would definitely die!

Lin Mo put him away before going back to rest.

It was not until the next night that the rats came to the door again.

This time, the rat really brought Lin Mo a finished product of the rejuvenation pill.

This was something that the rat had taken a lot of effort to steal by crawling through the ventilation ducts into the laboratory.

Lin Mo took the reconstructed pill in his hand, looked at it carefully a few times and could not help but smile.

The rat was surprised: "Brother Lin, what's wrong?"

Lin Mo laughed lightly, "Before, I suspected that there was something wrong with Wan Chun Tang's Recycle Pill."

"Now, seeing the finished pill has really confirmed my suspicions!"

Mouse couldn't help but be surprised, "Really?"

"Brother Lin, if there's something wrong with Wan Chun Tang's Recycle Pills, then wouldn't we be able to just break them down at tomorrow's launch?"

Lin Mo smiled lightly, "Breaking them down is not the key, the key is to make them pay for this!"

Chapter 1573

Just as Lin Mo had predicted, that night, Qian Liangwen was furious and gathered his family's fighters to search for Lin Mo and Chen Baiyu everywhere in Yunan City.

Not knowing Lin Mo's identity, they could only put all their resentment on Chen Baiyu.

The Qian family's people even ran directly to the Chen family to ask for someone to hand over Chen Baiyu.

The Chen family, in turn, had no intention of sheltering Chen Baiyu.

Not only did they let the Qian family's men go and search the old fortress where Chen Baiyu lived, they even sent a group of men to help Qian Liangwen search for Chen Baiyu.

If Lin Mo hadn't hidden Chen Baiyu in that remote express hotel, it is estimated that Chen Baiyu would have been found long ago.

In the end, they were unable to find him and the matter was dropped.

However, Qian Liangwen also openly said that he would kill Chen Baiyu with his own hands. Anyone who dared to shelter Chen Baiyu would be an enemy of the Qian family!

Not only that, the Xue family, but also the Chen family, had also released the same words, making it clear that they would deal with Chen Baiyu.

The next night, Lin Mo came to the hotel where Chen Baiyu was hiding.

He told Chen Baiyu exactly what had happened outside.

After hearing these events, Chen Baiyu fell into a dead silence.

Although last night at Dynasty International, he had already died.

However, he really didn't expect that the Xue and Chen families would be able to take things so far!

You know, the Chen family, that was his own family.

The Chen family's old man, was still his own grandfather.

And the current Chen family head, that was his own uncle.

These were his closest relatives!

As a result, these people had now turned out to be like this. In order to maintain the relationship with the Qian family, they could even openly deal with him, where was the slightest bit of kinship left?

As for what the Xue family had done, this was something he had expected.

It was just that he had not expected that the Xue family head, who had once claimed to have a close relationship with his father, would fall on his sword so quickly.

After a long silence, Chen Baiyu sighed despondently, "When my father was alive, he often said a phrase to me."

"When the tree falls, the wall falls and the people push."

"Nowadays, it seems that this saying is true at all!"

Lin Mo: "People, they always have to experience something before they can understand some truth."

"Your father sees things more thoroughly than you do, but the world is unpredictable, and it's hard to grasp many things."

"In this world, the only reliable thing is your own strength."

"The only way you can control your own destiny is to have enough strength!"

Chen Baiyu looked at Lin Mo and nodded slowly, "You're right!"

"All these years, under my father's patronage, I was just a dude who couldn't do anything."

"I originally thought that all of this, all of this could be maintained for a long time, I originally thought that everything was deserved."

"But when my father was gone, I realised."

"Everything that I had was all because my father had used his strength to give me back!"

"All these years, the only thing I had going for me was that I had cast a good birth and had a father who was capable."

"Now that he's gone, the only thing I can do is to fight for this life and avenge him!"

Chen Baiyu clenched his fists and stood up straight away, "Brother Lin, you are the person I admire the most and have saved me several times."

"From now on, this life of mine is in your hands."

"As long as you can help me take revenge, even if you ask me to go through fire and water, I will not hesitate to do so!"

Lin Mo smiled lightly and waved his hand: "Chen Baiyu, as I said, you have to take your own revenge!"

"I came to Su Province, one, to get back what belongs to my Xu Pharmaceutical."

"Secondly, I came to help you rise again!"

Chen Baiyu couldn't help but stare: "East rise again?"

Lin Mo slowly nodded: "Chen Baiyu, don't you want to trample the top ten families in Su Province under your feet?"

Chapter 1574

A brilliant aura flashed across Chen Baiyu's eyes.

He certainly wanted to trample the Ten Families of Su Province under his feet.

He knew that when his father had been forced to die, the Ten Families were all present.

It could be said that the Xie family had led his father's death, while the Ten Families of Suzhou Province were the executioners.

Not only that, but after his father's death, the Ten Families of Suzhou Province humiliated him in every way.

He wanted to take revenge for all these blood feuds, even in his dreams.

But the problem was, how could he have the strength to do so?

Chen Baiyu looked at Lin Mo and whispered, "Brother Lin, what do you you mean?"

Lin Mo smiled gently, "You have not been in Su Province for a short time, moreover, your father has been in charge of the Chen family for a long time."

"You should be very clear about the relationship and conflicts between the ten major families in Su Province."

"What you need to do now is to divide these ten major families."

"If you want to trample the ten major families in Su Province under your feet, you first have to bring in a group of people and eradicate a group of people."

"You should understand what I mean, right?"

Chen Baiyu fell into deep thought, and after a long time, his eyes snapped wide.

"Brother Lin, I understand what you mean!"

Chen Baiyu clenched his fists and said in a deep voice, "Brother Lin, first stir up the conflicts between the ten clans and make them fight internally."

"Then, slowly annex them, and finally take all ten families under your wing, right?"

Lin Mo nodded with a faint smile, "That's roughly what it means."

"However, exactly how to implement it will have to be decided based on the situation between the ten great clans."

Chen Baiyu took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, "Brother Lin, the relationship between the ten major families in Su Province appears to be very harmonious."

"But in fact, there are still affinities and distinctions between the ten families."

"Especially since the ten families all have shares within Wanchun Hall, and the division of interests would most easily lead to such conflicts arising."

"My father once told me that Qian Yong'an had two books of accounts at Wanchun Hall."

“One of them, which was specifically for us, the Chen and Zhao families, was the secret account.”

“The other, on the other hand, was for the Ten Great Families to see, and that was called the open account.”

“But in fact, that open account, is after it has already been divided once.”

“Our Chen Family and Zhao Family, together with the Qian Family, are the three most powerful families among the Ten Great Families.”

“Each time, half of the benefits of the Wanchun Hall have to be taken out and divided among our three families first. The remaining half will only be taken out, and then the ten great families will divide it up once again!”

A brilliant light immediately flashed in Lin Mo’s eyes, this was a piece of news that he hadn’t expected.

The Wan Chun Hall, surprisingly, had a Yin and Yang ledger.

If this matter was stirred up, it would be enough to completely divide the top ten families in Su Province, and the top three families, the Zhao Family, the Qian Family and the Chen Family, would also become targets of the public!

“This matter, do you have any evidence?”

Lin Mo asked in a deep voice.

Chen Baiyu shook his head, “This evidence, how could I possibly have it?”

“My father said that there was only one ledger for the dark accounts.”

“And this ledger was always kept in the hands of Zhao Tianyuan, the head of the Zhao family.”

“Only when it came time to divide the accounts every time would Zhao Tianyuan take out this dark ledger.”

“Normally, this ledger book, was hidden away by Zhao Tianyuan, even my father didn’t know exactly where this ledger book was hidden!”

A brilliant aura flashed in Lin Mo’s eyes, “So, if you want to find this ledger, you still have to start with Zhao Tianyuan?”

Seeing Lin Mo’s expression, Chen Baiyu was a little frightened and said urgently, “Brother Lin, this can never be done.”

“The Zhao family, not only is it the strongest major family in Su Province.”

“Moreover, the Zhao family also comes from a martial arts family, and there are many experts in the family.”

“The Zhao family head, Zhao Tianyuan, is even the number one expert in Su Province, nicknamed the Little Patriarch.”

“Even Lin Zhao of Wu Zhai is no match for him!”

“You go to him, this is too dangerous!”

Chapter 1575

Lin Mo frowned slightly.

Before coming to Su Province, he had a general understanding of the situation on this side of Su Province.

Zhao Tianyuan was the number one expert in Su Province, something that he had known before.

However, he did not expect that Zhao Tianyuan’s strength was even somewhat stronger than Lin Zhaoge’s.

However, even so, Lin Mo wasn’t too worried.

After all this time, Lin Mo’s strength had also improved by leaps and bounds.

His Mirror Breaking Pill had allowed his strength to skyrocket by a lot.

Even if he didn’t use the Qi and Blood Pill, he would not be at all weak against Lin Zhaoge.

As for Zhao Tianyuan’s situation, he still had to finish the fight to find out!

However, Lin Mo had the Qi and Blood Pill in his hand, which was his bottom card.

Even if he was not as strong as Zhao Tianyuan, however, with the Qi and Blood Pill in his hand, he would definitely be able to defeat Zhao Tianyuan.

The crux of the matter was that the Qi and Blood Pill was something that could not be taken casually.

After all, after the Qi and Blood Pill’s medicinal effects wore off, he would briefly lose all his battle power.

If he didn’t have someone to protect him, by then, even if he could defeat Zhao Tianyuan, he would still be certain to die himself!

Lin Mo pondered for a moment and said, “Chen Baiyu, you’re more familiar with the Ten Great Families.”

“You should think about it first and see which of the ten clans, among the ten clans, is most likely to come out and support you.”

“I’ll think about it and see if I can get this ledger.”

Seeing Lin Mo’s firm attitude, Chen Baiyu could not say anything else, and could only slowly nod his head.

At 1am, the Zhao family compound.

A black shadow sneaked into it.

This black shadow was none other than Lin Mo.

Before entering the Zhao family compound, Lin Mo had Chen Baiyu draw out the topographical map of the Zhao family compound for him.

When Chen Baiyu used to be the youngest of the Chen family, he had quite a good relationship with the youngest master of the Zhao family, and the Zhao family compound was like his home, having gone in countless times.

Therefore, the topographical map of the Zhao family compound drawn by Chen Baiyu was basically the same as that of the Zhao family.

And on this map, there were two blurred places, places that even Chen Baiyu was not familiar with.

One of them, was the solitary courtyard where Zhao Tianyuan himself lived. It was said that among the Zhao family, basically not many people could enter that solitary courtyard.

The other one, on the other hand, was the Zhao Family's Book Collection.

The Zhao family was a martial arts family, and inside the library, there were many secret martial arts books and some rare and exotic treasures hidden away.

These things were only accessible to the most core members of the Zhao Family, and outsiders were simply not allowed to enter or leave it at will.

According to Chen Baiyu's meaning, if Zhao Tianyuan wanted to hide that dark book, it was most likely hidden in these two places.

However, either place was not that easy to enter.

Zhao Tianyuan's unique courtyard aside, there was Zhao Tianyuan personally sitting there, who could go in and out of it at will?

The Book Collection, on the other hand, was where the Zhao family's foundation was located, and was the most heavily guarded part of the Zhao family, so not even a fly could get in, let alone sneak in silently.

As for the entire Zhao family compound, to be honest, it was not so heavily guarded.

After all, the Zhao family was so big that the Zhao family compound was just like a small community.

If one wanted to guard the entire Zhao family compound, then at least thousands of people would have to patrol back and forth every day.

Even the Zhao family couldn't afford such a thing!

Besides, such a patrol was completely unnecessary.

Who would dare to sneak into the Zhao family and cause trouble?

Therefore, under such circumstances, Lin Mo slipped into the Zhao family compound without any effort at all.

He followed the directions indicated on the topographical map and arrived directly at the location where the Book Depository was located.

After hiding behind a rockery and observing for a while, Lin Mo found that the hidden book building was, indeed, heavily guarded.

The library was built in the middle of a courtyard, and inside the courtyard, there were dozens of guards standing in different positions.

In other words, it was impossible to approach the Book Depository without any movement!

Chapter 1576

After observing outside for a while, Lin Mo quietly came to the vicinity of this courtyard of the Book Depository.

He pulled out a small porcelain vase from his body and took out some white powder from inside the vase.

This was a medicine he had specially made, capable of putting people into a coma for a short period of time.

Lin Mo quietly scattered these white powders into the air, and these white powders, were directly blown into the courtyard by the wind.

It did not take long for the dozens of guards in the courtyard to faint one after another.

However, Lin Mo did not barge into the library directly, but instead retreated to the back of the rockery in the distance, carefully observing the situation.

Not long after these dozens of guards had fallen, a loud sound was heard from inside the Book Depository, as if someone was giving a warning.

There was no doubt that inside the Book Depository, there were also quite a few guards.

These guards, noticing that all the guards in the courtyard outside had suddenly fallen down, knew that something was wrong and immediately gave a warning of the movement.

Lin Mo had not entered the courtyard of the Book Depository directly just now, otherwise, he would have been discovered by these guards by now.

With this loud sound, the entire Zhao family compound seemed to be awakened, and immediately quite a few people began to run towards the Book Depository.

The Book Depository was the fundamental part of the Zhao Family, so it was naturally the key to everyone's protection.

Inside the library, someone also rushed out and ran towards the courtyard where the family head, Zhao Tianyuan, was located, obviously going to report to Zhao Tianyuan.

Lin Mo quietly followed this person and arrived outside Zhao Tianyuan's solitary courtyard.

Zhao Tianyuan liked to be secluded, so his courtyard was in a remote location, and there were basically no people living around it.

When Lin Mo waited for the man to enter Zhao Tianyuan's courtyard, he quietly climbed over the wall and entered as well.

Zhao Tianyuan's courtyard covered a large area, about three or four acres of land.

Inside the courtyard, there was only a small two-storey building, while the rest of the place was made to look like a garden.

There were flowers and grasses, trees and water, as well as a few rockery hills, looking as if it was a place for the elderly to cultivate their bodies.

That guard ran to the front of Zhao Tianyuan's small building and didn't dare to go in directly, but bowed outside and said, "Family head, something's wrong!"

"Someone has used medicine to daze the guards of our hidden book building, and I suspect that someone is trying to steal our Zhao family's secret books from the hidden book building!"

The window of the small building opened and a man stood by the window, his voice rippling, "Have you found this person?"

This man, was none other than the Zhao family head, Zhao Tianyuan!

The guard immediately shook his head, "No!"

"After he dazed the guards in the outer courtyard, we immediately noticed that something was wrong and sent out a family warning."

"This person was probably frightened, so, he hasn't seen to show himself until now."

"Family head, should we pull back and search the entire courtyard to find this person?"

Zhao Tianyuan was silent for a moment, "Have the clan divide 30% of its manpower and search the entire courtyard."

"Everyone else, guard the few most important locations of the family, especially the Book Collection!"

"Also, call Qian Yong'an and ask him to come and see what stunned the outer courtyard guards, by!"

The guard immediately bowed, "Yes!"

The guard bent over and exited the solitary courtyard, Zhao Tianyuan closed the window and returned to his room.

Lin Mo did not follow the guard and leave, but hid among the rockery and waited quietly.

This time, when he entered the Zhao family, Lin Mo's goal, from the very beginning, was not in the Book Depository, but in this solitary courtyard of Zhao Tianyuan's!

Before he came, he had asked Li Tiezui for a piece of information about Zhao Tianyuan.

From this information, Zhao Tianyuan was an extremely cautious person who was conceited and had a strong desire to control.

He was a man who only believed in himself and not others!

Therefore, Lin Mo firmly believed that Zhao Tianyuan would never put the most important things in other places, he would only put them in places he felt safe!

To him, the safest place, wasn't it this sole courtyard of his?

Chapter 1577

In the Zhao Family, the Book Depository, there would be many people going in and out on a regular basis.

However, this solitary courtyard of Zhao Tianyuan is the most mysterious place in the Zhao family.

Apart from Zhao Tianyuan's children, the old man and Zhao Tianyuan's wife, no one else in the Zhao family was allowed to enter or leave Zhao Tianyuan's courtyard at will.

Even Zhao Tianyuan's children were said to have been ordered by him not to enter or leave this solitary courtyard at will.

According to Zhao Tianyuan, he wanted to nurture his heart in this solitary courtyard to improve his martial dao.

However, Lin Mo did not think so.

He had analysed Zhao Tianyuan's character and felt that Zhao Tianyuan should have hidden something particularly important inside this solitary courtyard, which was why he was unwilling to let outsiders enter and exit at will!

This time, Lin Mo had actually been testing Zhao Tianyuan by dazing the guards of the Hidden Book House.

The Book Depository was said to be the foundation of the Zhao family and was extremely important to the Zhao family.

Lin Mo had used a great deal of skill to stun the guards of the Book Depository.

Under such circumstances, Zhao Tianyuan, as the head of the Zhao family, did not even go to the Book Depository to take a look at it, but remained in the solitary courtyard.

From this, it could be seen that Lin Mo's guess was correct, there were definitely some particularly important things in this courtyard that Zhao Tianyuan had to personally guard here.

Lin Mo hid in the rockery and waited for nearly two hours before the noise in the Zhao family compound gradually stopped.

At that moment, a young man entered the compound, he was none other than Zhao Tianyuan's son.

He came to report to Zhao Tianyuan that he had not found the man who had dazed the guards of the Book Depository outside.

And Qian Yong'an also came to check on the guards and found out that these guards, were stunned by an extremely unique drug.

Even Qian Yong'an himself, could not concoct this medicine!

Therefore, Qian Yong'an also alerted the Zhao family to be extra careful.

The person who came this time was probably not simple!

Hearing these things, Zhao Tianyuan was visibly silent for a while.

Eventually, he waved his hand and told his son to retreat out.

Lin Mo had been keeping an eye on these matters from the beginning to the end.

Not long after Zhao Tianyuan's son had withdrawn, Zhao Tianyuan walked out of the house.

He paced back and forth in the middle of the courtyard for a while, as if he was thinking about something, or as if he was hesitating about something.

In the end, he returned to the house.

And this process, Lin Mo had been staring at.

He noticed that when Zhao Tianyuan was passing one of the rockeries, his gaze lingered on top of that rockery, extraordinarily for a while.

Zhao Tianyuan was obviously hesitating about something.

There was no doubt that there was definitely something wrong with this false mountain.

Lin Mo remembered the location of that false mountain clearly, and did not continue to linger here, but left this solitary courtyard silently.

The place where he was hiding was very far from that small building of Zhao Tianyuan. Plus, Lin Mo's strength was not much worse than Zhao Tianyuan's.

Therefore, throughout the whole process, Zhao Tianyuan did not even know that someone had infiltrated his compound.

Amongst the Zhao family compound, there were still quite a few people on patrol.

However, the Zhao family compound was simply too big.

With Lin Mo's skills, he easily avoided all the guards and quietly left the Zhao family compound.

The next day, Lin Mo glued some beard on his face and disguised himself as a middle-aged man.

Then, he rushed straight to the hotel where Chen Baiyu was staying.

When Chen Baiyu saw Lin Mo, he immediately said, "Mr. Lin, I heard that someone infiltrated the Zhao family last night and almost entered the Book Depository?"

"This incident, it was you who did it, right?"

Lin Mo smiled and nodded his head.

Chen Baiyu immediately came to life: "Mr. Lin, you're really something else!"

“The Zhao family compound, you made a trip in and out like that?”

“Well, did you find anything?”

Lin Mo smiled lightly, “Not yet, but there will be something to discover soon.”

Chapter 1578

Chen Baiyu couldn't help but be surprised, he couldn't understand what Lin Mo meant.

“By the way, today is the launch of Wan Chun Tang's new medicine.”

“I need to get into this launch site, do you have any way to help me get in?”

Lin Mo asked.

Chen Baiyu nodded, “My cousin has opened a few pharmacies in Yunan City, so she is considered to be invited and qualified to enter this launch event.”

“I contacted her, and when the time comes, you can enter the launch as an employee of that pharmacy of hers.”

“However, also is limited to entering the launch, in other aspects, I can't help you for now.”

Lin Mo nodded, of course he was clear about Chen Baiyu's current situation. To be able to help him get into the launch was not even easy!

“This cousin of yours, is she reliable?”

Lin Mo asked.

Chen Baiyu nodded: “In this world, if there's anyone I can trust now, it's only her!”

“She is my sister-in-law's child, my sister-in-law's sister-in-law's husband died early and it was my mother who raised her single-handedly.”

“She grew up with me, she's almost like my own sister.”

Lin Mo nodded his head and didn't ask any more questions.

To him, it was enough to get into the launch event, nothing else mattered!

Next, Chen Baiyu helped contact his cousin Zhou Ling and helped Lin Mo arrange everything.

The launch event was held at 7:30 pm.

At seven o'clock, Lin Mo met Zhou Ling.

This was a pretty young girl, in her twenties, with a competent temperament.

It could be seen that growing up without a father or mother had allowed her to develop an independent personality.

Zhou Ling gave Lin Mo a badge, which was a document to enter and exit the launch.

However, Zhou Ling was just the owner of a pharmacy, so she did not carry much weight here.

This badge could only allow Lin Mo to enter and exit the launch site. However, once inside, there wasn't even a place to sit!

Lin Mo didn't care about this, and got the badge and expressed his gratitude to Zhou Ling.

Zhou Ling, on the other hand, was a little hesitant as she looked at Lin Mo and whispered, "This big brother, I don't know exactly what your relationship with my cousin is."

"But, my cousin is in a very dangerous situation right now."

"He has offended Qian Liangwen of the Qian family, and the ten great families are all clamouring to settle scores with him!"

"If you can, can you help me persuade him to leave Su Province in a hurry?"

Lin Mo could tell that Zhou Ling was really concerned about Chen Baiyu.

"No problem!"

"I'll help you persuade him!"

Lin Mo smiled and nodded his head.

Zhou Ling breathed a sigh of relief and then whispered, "Right, this big brother."

"Tonight for this launch, people from the ten largest families in Su Province will be here, and there will be many big names present."

"When you go in, remember, don't get into an argument with anyone."

"With my cousin's current situation, he he's afraid he won't be able to help you out with these things."

"If you really mess with some big shot, this this won't end well, I'm afraid"

"If you need to order any drugs, you can mention it to me."

"Really can't, I I will then give you some of my share here, you must not compete with others for it"

Obviously, in Zhou Ling's opinion, Lin Mo was also a small medicine dealer who wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to order.

Such a situation was very common in Yunan City recently.

Everyone knew that Wan Chun Tang was going to release a new medicine that could cure cancer, and this new medicine was bound to make a fortune as long as it could be ordered.

So, agents from all over the world are flocking to the city, doing everything they can to get into this launch and book some reconstructive pills.

Those big businessmen, they all had their own channels.

The fact that Lin Mo had found the help of Chen Baiyu, who had fallen on hard times, showed that Lin Mo did not have a wide network of people.

Therefore, Zhou Ling repeatedly instructed him to do so, just because he was worried that Lin Mo would cause any more trouble in such a place where the bigwigs were gathered.

Chapter 1579

Lin Mo could see that Zhou Ling was worried, he didn't explain, he just smiled lightly and nodded, "I know!"

Zhou Ling gave a few more instructions, explaining some precautions to Lin Mo, before he went ahead to the meeting.

After all, Wanchuntang is a local pharmaceutical company in Suzhou Province, which controls the province's medical industry on the one hand, and naturally, supports the province's medical industry on the other.

Zhou Ling opened a pharmacy in Yunan City, and was also considered a local medicine dealer in Suzhou Province, so she was able to receive some preferential treatment.

Otherwise, with Zhou Ling's wealth, he would not be qualified to enter such a conference!

Of course, even if Zhou Ling could receive some preferential treatment, she might not be able to order many medicines. After all, there were quite a few local medicine dealers, and Zhou Ling was simply too inconspicuous among them.

However, under such circumstances, Zhou Ling was actually willing to take out a portion of her own share to share with Lin Mo.

This shows that this cousin of Chen Baiyu's is really a pretty good person!

Chen Baiyu had fallen to the current state, and the ten great families were all shouting at him.

If it were an ordinary person, even if they didn't betray Chen Baiyu, they would definitely draw a clear line with him.

And Zhou Ling was still so relentless in helping out, this alone was far better than the average person!

Lin Mo walked into the launch site, there wasn't much of a crowd here right now, so he wandered around for a while.

At the same time, a few cars were speeding along a road on the outskirts of Yunan City.

In the middle was a Mercedes S-Class, which looked rather low-profile.

However, if one sat inside the car, one would be able to find out that this car was not simple.

The interior of this car is described as overwhelmingly luxurious.

It should have been modified by itself, and the luxury in the car exceeded even that of a normal Rolls Royce.

There were two people sitting in the back of the car, on the left was a beautiful woman with waist-length hair, who was slowly and methodically painting her nails.

Next to her, sat a young man in a white suit.

The young man was wearing a back-combed haircut, his skin was as white as snow and his features were full of heroism, he could definitely be called a rare and beautiful man!

If Lin Mo were here, he would have recognised at a glance that this young man was the son of the Wan family with whom he had a conflict before!

The Wan Family was one of the ten largest families in China, and an absolute behemoth in the six southern provinces.

The fifth master Xue was called the king of the southern realm, but he was only on an equal footing with the Wan family, so it was clear how powerful the Wan family was!

Once the girl had painted her nails, she lifted her slender hands and admired herself for a while.

When Duke Wan saw her like this, a hint of disgust wiped across his face and he let out a soft hum of contempt.

When the girl heard the sound, not only did she not get angry, but she snorted a laugh.

She lazily leaned back on the seat, one white jade leg, crossed over the other, and her little red nail polish painted feet, which were still buckling, looked extremely tempting.

However, in the eyes of Duke Wan, this scene only deepened his disgust.

"That's enough of you!"

"You are at least a lady of the house, can you be more dignified?"

"How can you behave like this!"

Wan Gongzi scolded angrily.

The girl smiled: "What's wrong with being a lady?"

"Does a lady's daughter have to be like you, all business?"

"My Grand Duke, why don't you teach me how to be a lady's daughter?"

Wan Gongzi was annoyed to the core, yet there was nothing he could do about her, so he could only turn his head to the side in exasperation and turn his eyes away.

The girl, however, was unwilling to let her go.

The girl kicked the boy's calf with her little foot.

Duke Wan was furious: "What are you doing?"

The girl smiled and said, "What can I do?"

"I just want to have a chat with you!"

Prince Wan: "I have nothing to talk to you about!"

The girl was still smiling, "Really?"

"Why did I hear that you fought with that Lin Mo guy last time and got hugged from behind and couldn't even break free?"

Chapter 1580

Hearing these words, Duke Wan's face instantly turned iron blue.

He looked at the girl indignantly, "Who told you that?"

"Say, who actually said that?"

The girl feigned fear: "Aiya, my Grand Duke, can you not be so grumpy?"

"I'm just a weak woman, look how scared you've made me"

The girl said, while still patting her rippling chest with her small hand.

That look, it didn't look like she was afraid of anything at all, instead it added an even more alluring feeling.

Duke Wan was infuriated to the extreme: "You need to stop making these fox S!*ts in front of me!"

"I'm asking you, who the hell told you that?"

The girl snorted, "Exactly who said it, I definitely can't tell you!"

"However, there are not many people who know about this matter."

"Grand Duke, don't worry, I will definitely keep it a secret for you!"

Duke Wan was infuriated, yet there was nothing he could do to her at all, he could only look out of the window indignantly.

As if the girl had succeeded in her scheme, she moved closer to Grand Duke Wan and smiled, "By the way, Grand Duke, let me ask you something."

"The last time Grandpa ate blood ginseng, something so bad happened, how did you know that eating some ice would save his life?"

Grand Duke Wan glared at her in exasperation, "Does this have anything to do with you?"

The girl grinned, "Of course it's relevant!"

"Think about it, our old man, he almost died last time."

“The whole Wan family, they were all shocked at the time.”

“If anything happened to the old master, not to mention the Wan family, even the entire Southern Six Provinces would have to be shaken!”

“As a result, you, with one ice cube, directly saved the old master’s life.”

“Grand Duke, don’t tell me that you’ve met a dead rat with a blind cat!”

“It couldn’t have been anyone who told you that, could it?”

Duke Wan looked out of the window in annoyance, unwilling to speak.

In his heart, however, he was thankful.

The old man of the Wan family, the last time he had taken blood ginseng, had indeed developed a strange condition and had almost died on the spot.

The entire Wan family was in shock, and everyone was at their wits’ end. The few divine doctors that the Wan family had hired were all about to faint from fear, and no one could save the old man.

Finally, when he saw that the old man was about to die on the spot, Prince Wan remembered what Lin Mo had said.

With the mindset of treating a dead horse as a living one, he took ice cubes and fed them to the old man.

At that time, both his father and those elders of the Wan family were all furious and shouted out a rebuke, thinking that he was trying to get the old man killed.

No one expected that the old man would miraculously recover after eating the ice.

This incident really shocked the entire Wan family.

All the members of the Wan family were shocked.

Because of this incident, Duke Wan had also achieved great success, and his status in the Wan Family was further enhanced.

He had never dreamed that Lin Mo’s casual words would really save the old man’s life.

At that time, Duke Wan was pondering whether he should ask Lin Mo to take a look at the old man.

However, before he could mention this matter, his second uncle proposed that he should ask Qian Yong’an of Su Province to treat the Wan family’s old man.

And the name of Qian Yong’an in Su Province was indeed resounding, being a famous miracle doctor in the six southern provinces.

In addition, this time, Qian Yong’an had developed the Re-creation Pill, which further enhanced Qian Yong’an’s reputation.

The Wan family was naturally more inclined to invite this long-established miracle doctor.

This time, the Wan Family sent people to attend the launch of Wanchun Hall, which was also a way to give Qian Yong'an face.

At the same time, the main purpose of their visit was to invite Qian Yong'an to treat the Wan family's old man.

This time, the Wan family had given Qian Yong'an face.

Duke Wan's second uncle personally came to the launch, and he and this cousin, too, followed him to the appointment.

You know, in the Six Southern Provinces, apart from Master Xue Wu, there was no one who could have such a great face to have so many core members of the Wan family come out!
