

Genius 1651

Chapter 1651

Several people on the Wan family's side were directly confused.

The old man of the Wan family, that was the sky of the Wan family!

If he died, it was still unknown whether the Wan family could remain in the top ten families in China!

Nowadays, there were many people in China who were hoping for the death of the Wan family's master.

If he dies, the Wan family will change, and it's hard to say how much of the Wan family's current foundation will be retained.

The Wan family had been hanging on to the old man's life for as long as they could, just to hold on to everything the Wan family had.

Now, the old man was really dying, and the Wan family was really desperate.

Wan Zifeng even sat down directly on the ground, his face was pale as he suddenly turned to Qian Yongan: "Divine Doctor Qian, what is this ..... going on?"

Qian Yongan was also at a loss: "This ..... this ..... this I'm not familiar with the old man's condition, I'm not quite sure a ..... "

Wan Zifeng was anxious: "Then ..... then you quickly think of a way to save him ah ....."

Qian Yongan stammered, unable to say a word.

He uttered the thousand year ginseng to hang his life, this was the only way he could think of, how did he know how to treat Master Wan?

"Why don't you say anything?"

"Think of something quickly!"

Wan Zifeng roared in anxiety and anger, but Qian Yong'an still didn't say a word.

Just then, Duke Wan suddenly jumped down from the stage.

He ran directly in front of Lin Mo and exclaimed, "Divine Doctor Lin, please save my grandfather."

"As long as you save him, I ..... my Wan family is willing to pay any price!"

Wan Zifeng was annoyed, "Why are you begging him?"

"He's just a liar ....."

At the back Wan ZiFeng couldn't help himself, "Second Uncle, who exactly is the liar?"

"When we used the thousand-year ginseng just now, the Human Forest Divine Doctor had already warned about it."

"But you just didn't listen and insisted on giving the old man thousand-year-old ginseng."

"Now at this time, you still go to beg that Qian Yong'an? Do you really want to get grandpa killed!"

Wan Zifeng's mouth was wide open, but he couldn't refute a single word.

At this moment, Lin Mo's expression was indifferent.

He glanced at Wan Zifeng and said softly, "I have no grudges or enmity with the Wan family, if it was just a patient seeking medical treatment, of course I would do my best."

"But, this time, your Wan Family has been making things difficult for me and insulting me at every moment, shouldn't this give me an explanation?"

Duke Wan's face turned pale as he gave Wan Zifeng an angry look and said in a low voice, "Divine Doctor Lin, this time, it ..... was my Wan family that did wrong."

"I am here to say sorry in advance for any offense."

"As long as you are willing to save my grandfather, my Vanguard Family can pay any price."

Speaking here, he suddenly clenched his teeth and said with a swollen red face, "Moreover, the grudge between you ..... and me is also settled here!"

Lin Mo froze for a moment, what grudge do we have? You are the one who keeps holding on to it, okay? Is everyone in your Wan family so sore about losing?

However, Wan Zhi gave Duke Wan a deep look, she knew very well how resentful he was towards Lin Mo. If he could say this, he was really determined!

Lin Mo scratched his head, "If you want me to save Old Master Wan, no problem."

"However, it's not you who's making things difficult for me, and there's no need for you to apologise."

"You only need to get Wan Zifeng to apologise to me, and I will naturally come to my rescue!"

Duke Wan: "This ....."

Lin Mo calmly said, "I don't need the Wan family to pay any price, but I have to get justice for myself, don't I?"

Duke Wan sighed, he knew that in this incident, Wan Zifeng had truly offended Lin Mo.

Under such circumstances, Lin Mo had already given the Wan family a lot of face by just asking Wan Zifeng to apologise.

If it were an ordinary person, at this time, he would have wanted to fall on his sword and watch Master Wan die a horrible death on the spot!

Chapter 1652

Duke Wan turned his head helplessly to look at Wan Zifeng: "Second Uncle, how about ....."

Wan Zifeng waved his hand directly, "Want me to apologize, impossible!"

"I tell you, even if I die, I won't apologize to this kind of charlatan!"

“He’s not a miracle doctor at all, and he can’t cure the old man.”

“He’s just lying and trying to get my Wan family to bow down to him.”

“I tell you, I won’t apologise to him even if I die!”

Duke Wan was speechless, this Wan Zifeng, at this point in time, was he still so obsessed?

However, Lin Mo’s side was also very resolute.

If Wan Zifeng didn’t apologize, wouldn’t the old man be dead?

Just then, an anxious voice came over the phone, “Zifeng, Zifeng, where is the divine doctor on your side?”

“The old man is dying, you ..... should tell them to think of something!”

The other side of the phone was a mess, it could be seen that the situation of the old man Wan was really critical ah.

Wan Zifeng strained his neck and stood with his head held high, pointing at Lin Mo and shouting, “Lin, if anything happens to my father, I will never spare you!”

Lin Mo was dumbfounded, where did this come from?

The prince cursed, “You’re a dog, surnamed Wan? You bite everywhere!”

“What does this have to do with Lin Mo?”

“Are you even a human being?”

Wan Zifeng: “He’s the one who disturbed Divine Doctor Qian’s thoughts, that’s why Divine Doctor Qian couldn’t save my father!”

The crowd at the scene was speechless, this Wan Zifeng, was really messing around.

Duke Wan gritted his teeth, he was anxious in his heart, but he couldn’t force Lin Mo to save him.

At this critical moment, Wan Chong Shan suddenly walked out from the crowd.

He came in front of Lin Mo and bowed his hands, “Mr. Lin, the old man of the Wan family, has been kind to me.”

“I dare to beg Mr. Lin to save the old man of the Wan family.”

“As long as Mr. Lin can help out in a righteous manner, this kindness will certainly be remembered by Mr. Wan.”

“In the future, if Mr. Lin asks me to do anything, I will die, even if it is on a mountain of sword or a sea of fire!

“I beg Mr. Lin to save my life!”

With that, Wan Chongshan actually knelt down on both knees and wanted to kowtow to Lin Mo.

Lin Mo was shocked in his heart, he knew that Wan Chongshan had ties to the Wan family, but he did not expect that Wan Chongshan would attach such importance to Elder Wan.

He hurriedly helped Wan Chongshan up and smiled, "Mr. Wan, you're out of line to say that."

"When Yuan De and the others broke their contract with Xu Pharmaceutical, at the most difficult time for Xu Pharmaceutical, it was you who always believed in us, Xu Pharmaceutical, and did not fall on your sword at that time."

"To put it mildly, it was you, Mr. Wan, who was kind to us at Xu Pharmaceutical."

"I, Lin Mo, am a person who will repay if I have an enemy, but if I have a favour, I will also repay it!"

"If you have helped me, you are my Lin Mo's friend."

"Your matter is my matter."

"Since you have asked, how can I not help?"

Wan Chongshan took a deep breath and slowly nodded his head.

He was a rather stable person and didn't like to talk much, but the expression on his face already said everything.

Lin Mo looked to Duke Wan: "Tell them to first put an ice cube in the old man's mouth and add two chillies, the spicier the better, it will save his life for now."

The crowd at the scene was stunned, and Wan Zifeng immediately screamed, "Are you sick?"

"My father is vomiting blood and his condition is so serious, and you're giving him ice chillies, you want him to die?"

The crowd at the scene also whispered, even a normal person couldn't stand eating like this, let alone a dying man.

But Duke Wan ignored it, he directly picked up the phone and conveyed Lin Mo's words.

The people on the Wan family's side were also a little puzzled, and Duke Wan said urgently, "Hurry up guys, don't delay!"

"No matter what happens, I'll be responsible!"

Chapter 1654

The scene was in an uproar as the crowd expressed their admiration for Lin Mo.

The prince was full of excitement as he pointed directly at Wan Zifeng: "Surnamed Wan, what else do you have to say now?"

"Earlier when Little Lin cured these patients, you said that he had bribed these people."

"So now that he has cured your Wan family's old man, did he also bribe your Wan family's old man?"

Wan Zifeng's face was swollen red, but he could not say a word.

In other cases, he could still refute and deny it.

However, now that Lin Mo had saved the Wan family's old man in public, he couldn't deny it even if he wanted to!

Duke Wan stepped forward and arched his hand, "Mr. Lin's medical skills are unparalleled, my Wan family admires him to the utmost!"

"I have no further objection to the result of this competition, my Wan Family, Mr. Lin is the winner!"

The other judges also nodded their heads.

The Wan Family was the most powerful among these people, and now, even the Wan Family had acknowledged it, who would dare to disagree?

Even if some of these judges were on Qian Yong'an's side.

However, at this time, no one dared to sing a contradictory tune anymore.

It was a fact of life, and anyone who opposed the result would be asking for death!

In the end, with the unanimous decision of all the judges, Lin Mo won the final victory.

In the end, Lin Mo was awarded the final victory by all the judges, and it went without saying that the pills would definitely belong to Xu Pharmaceutical.

Afterwards, the Crown Prince took the opportunity to talk about how the R&D manager of the Xu Pharmaceuticals had been bribed.

This time, everyone was in an uproar.

Although the Crown Prince did not explicitly say so, all the people there were not fools.

The first thing they thought was that it must have been Wan Chun Tang who had bribed that R&D manager to steal Xu's Pharmaceutical's secret recipe and make such a stunt to hijack this secret recipe.

Now that Lin Mo had snatched back the secret formula, not only did it once again make Xu's Pharmaceutical's reputation famous, but it also made Wan Chun Tang's reputation go down in flames.

There is no doubt that from now on, Wan Chun Tang will gradually decline in this industry.

Because, no one would trust this pharmaceutical company anymore!

Many people who had previously cooperated with Wan Chun Tang now ran away to cancel their contracts with Wan Chun Tang.

At the same time, Lin Mo made Xu Pharmaceutical's reputation known, and many people on the scene were clamouring to sign orders with Xu Pharmaceutical.

After this time, Xu's Pharmaceutical would definitely become a pivotal pharmaceutical company in the southern six provinces, even replacing Wan Chun Tang's previous position!

Everyone gathered around Lin Mo to congratulate him, especially those famous doctors, who even gathered around Lin Mo in the hope of receiving guidance from him.

As for the people from the Ten Great Families of Su Province, they had already retreated by now.

This time, the Ten Great Families of Su Province had lost their wives and their troops.

Not only did they fail to take away the Recycle Pill, but they also tossed the Wanchun Hall into the mix. Moreover, the most crucial thing was that they had also paid a small price for this Re-creation Pill.

Now that they have come to this point, their basket is empty, and the ten families are extremely angry.

Qian Yong'an, the divine doctor of Su Province who was originally able to be on par with the family heads of the ten great families, was now also directly abandoned.

The people from the ten great families left, and no one even paid any attention to him.

Qian Yong'an stood in the corner, looking at Lin Mo, who was surrounded by the crowd, and his eyes couldn't help but burn with jealousy.

His heart was furious, and more than that, he was still resigned.

He had been dormant for so many years and had waited for this opportunity, thinking that he would be able to take advantage of it and become the number one person in Su Province in one fell swoop.

But he had never dreamed that a Lin Mo would come out halfway and ruin all his plans.

He clenched his fists and looked at Lin Mo with eyes that gradually began to flicker with a fierce light.

"Lin Mo, I don't care what exactly your relationship with the Lin family is!"

"If you dare to ruin my good deeds, I will kill you!"

Qian Yong'an let out a furious roar in his heart.

Chapter 1655

After the launch, Lin Mo and the others went back to the hotel.

Chen Baiyu followed by Lin Mo's side, his face was filled with suppressed excitement.

This time, he had been brought by the crown prince to attend the launch event, and was basically on the opposite side of the top ten families in Su Province.

He was happier than anyone else that Lin Mo had won a big victory, and this gave him a feeling of having taken out a bad breath.

A few people returned to the hotel, and in less than half an hour, dozens of people came to visit one after another.

These people were either some drug dealers who wanted to come and represent Xu Pharmaceutical's reconstructive pills.

Either that, or some journalists, who wanted to come and interview Lin Mo.

There were also some famous doctors who came to visit Lin Mo.

For these people, Lin Mo asked Mouse and Chen Baiyu to receive them.

The mouse was now a member of Xu Pharmaceutical, and with Chen Baiyu's help, there was no problem in receiving these drug dealers.

Moreover, now Xu Pharmaceutical did not need agents.

There was no need to negotiate for the business of the Re-Creation Pill, however, other business could still be negotiated.

Those drug dealers, in fact, all came for the Recycle Pill.

These people were actually a bit lost in their hearts when they were unable to represent the Recycle Pill.

However, in the end, there were still quite a few drug dealers who signed contracts with Xu Pharmaceutical for other drugs.

These people knew very well that Lin Mo's medical skills were exquisite and he might be able to develop other drugs in the future.

Even if they could not represent the Recycle Pill, they could still have a good relationship with Xu Pharmaceutical by purchasing some other drugs from Xu Pharmaceutical.

In the future, if Lin Mo really develops other drugs, they can also get the moon in the near water.

These are the long-sighted drug dealers.

Those who were short-sighted and left in anger when they heard they couldn't represent the re-engineering pills would have no chance to cooperate with Xu Pharmaceutical in the future.

For the reporters, Lin Mo asked He Qianxue to help him deal with it.

He Qianxue is better at dealing with this aspect of the matter, so Lin Mo is more at ease when she is given the job.

As for the famous doctors, Lin Mo received them personally.

The reason was that these famous doctors were following Divine Doctor Xue and Lui Sanzhen.

The divine Doctor Xue and the Three Needles Lu had helped Lin Mo speak up at this launch event, and as a result, they had been driven out by the people of the Ten Great Families of Suzhou Province.

This kindness was something that Lin Mo remembered in his heart.

These famous doctors, before, were actually quite disdainful of Lin Mo.

However, after seeing Lin Mo's medical skills in public today, they simply admired him to the core.

These famous doctors were all so excited to be able to visit Lin Mo in private that they were at a loss for words.

Lin Mo was calm, smiling lightly as he greeted them all.

After some small talk, a famous doctor tried to tell Lin Mo about a special case he had encountered and wanted to see his opinion.

Lin Mo gave him the method of treatment on the spot, and this famous doctor was amazed after hearing it.

Although this method had not been tried specifically, Lin Mo's dissection of this patient's condition let him know that this method was absolutely effective.

Seeing such a situation, other famous doctors also spoke up for help.

For these cases, Lin Mo was not one to turn away.

Just like the legacy left by his ancestor in the jade pendant, he should be able to help the world and help the people.

As a healer, Lin Mo would of course say anything he could to treat his patients and relieve their pain.

After a chat, these famous doctors had a better understanding of Lin Mo's medical skills.

This time, the crowd admired Lin Mo even more.

Not only did they admire Lin Mo's medical skills, but more crucially, they were convinced by Lin Mo's character!

After chatting for over an hour, Lin Mo sent these people away.

He personally sent these people to the lift entrance, where Lin Mo saw a group of people, standing far away in the corridor, stopped outside by the Prince's men.

At the head of the group was none other than Yuan De!

Chapter 1656

At the end of this launch, Yuan De and the others were considered to be in a complete panic.

They knew that before this, they had been given the opportunity to sign an early contract with Wanchun Tang because they had chosen to break the contract with Xu Pharmaceutical.

They had originally thought that Wanchun Tang was certain to win this time, so they had all put up a large amount of money, even going so far as to borrow a large amount of money from elsewhere and pay it to Wanchun Tang as a deposit.

This way, after the launch, they would be able to obtain a large amount of reconstructive pills from Wanchun Hall, and by then, they would be able to make a fortune.

However, they never dreamed that Wan Chun Tang would lose so completely.

Lin Mo had won a huge victory, and the top ten families in Su Province had returned in defeat, leaving in disgrace.

This situation directly caused Yuan De and the others to be dumbfounded.

Those other people, who wanted to become agents of Wanchun Hall, had not paid yet and had not come up with the funds to give to Wanchun Hall, they had nothing to lose.

However, Yuan De and the others were different.

They had already taken out a large amount of money to give to Wanchun Hall, but now, they could not get that money back.

They had trusted Qian Yong'an completely in the first place, and trusted the Ten Families completely. So, after the deposit was paid, they just took a receipt.

This receipt was issued to them by Qian Yong'an, and the Ten Families did not acknowledge this receipt at all.

As for Qian Yong'an, he had long since disappeared, and they didn't know who to ask for the money.

In any other case, Yuan De and the others would definitely not have admitted their guilt and would have had to go through various channels to get their money back.

And now, they were facing the top ten families in Suzhou Province.

Although Yuan De's people are also considered to be well-financed, but how can they compare to the ten major families in Suzhou Province?

Even the weakest of the ten families in Suzhou Province could easily crush them all to death!

Therefore, Yuan De's group of people were now completely desperate.

Without this money, they would basically be bankrupt.

Even though Yuan De was as well-financed as he was, he was still badly wounded this time. If he doesn't get this money back, he probably won't even have any money for his retirement!

There was really no choice but to run to Lin Mo, wanting to beg him to see if Lin Mo could be gracious and let them resume their previous contracts with Xu Pharmaceutical.

These people understood very well that as long as they could get the distributorship of the Reconstruction Pills, they would be able to get back all their losses!

This was also their only hope.

However, after these people came over, the Prince's men didn't even let them in to see Lin Mo.

The Prince's men had seen with their own eyes how these people had made things difficult for Lin Mo at the launch event.

Now, at this time, they want to beg Lin Mo again? It was too late!

Yuan De and the others had been stopped here for ten minutes, and when they suddenly saw Lin Mo come out, Yuan De and the others were overjoyed.

Yuan De was the first to shout excitedly, "Mr. Lin, Mr. Lin, please stay."

"I ..... we are here to apologize to you, can we delay you for a few minutes to hear a few words from us ....."

Lin Mo glanced at them and asked, "Delaying my time? Do we know each other well?"

Yuan De and the others were all filled with embarrassment, and Yuan De said in a low voice, "Mr. Lin, I know that we were wrong about what happened before."

"We people are short-sighted and ratty, and we were actually deceived by that b*****d Qian Yong'an."

"We're here to say sorry for the harm we've caused you."

"Mr. Lin, please give us a chance for the sake of the fact that we had helped you in a time of crisis for Xu Pharmaceutical before, please ....."

The others also opened their mouths and begged, looking as if they were on the verge of kneeling on the ground.

Lin Mo said, "You should feel lucky!"

"If you hadn't helped us before, with what you did this time alone, you would have been dead long ago!"

"But, it would be impossible to cooperate with Xu Pharmaceutical again!"

With those words, Lin Mo turned around and walked away, paying no further attention to the cries and pleas of this group of people.

Chapter 1657

As they watched Lin Mo walk away, Yuan De and the others stood in the corridor, lost in thought, and some of them even fell to the ground.

Lin Mo was their last hope, and now, even that hope had been dashed, so they were finished.

"It's over, it's over, it's all over!"

"I ..... I've also taken out a lot of loan sharks for this. Now, even if I sell all my family assets, I can't pay it back!"

"What's that to you? I ..... borrowed all the money from all my relatives, I ..... how else can I go home!"

The crowd cried out, each one extremely miserable.

Suddenly, a man jumped up, grabbed Yuan De's clothes and roared, "Yuan De, didn't you say that Wan Chun Tang was sure to win this time?"

"I listened to you and insisted on breaking the contract with Xu Pharmaceutical, and bet all my family assets on Wanchun Hall!"

"You ..... you've put me through hell!"

"The contract I signed with Xu Pharmaceutical before, but I got the agency rights of a province, do you ..... know how much that's worth? I can make at least ten billion ah ....."

This man's voice was trembling as he spoke.

The others all jumped up, angrily accusing Yuan De.

These people, who had previously had contracts with Xu Pharmaceutical, had all gotten the agency rights for quite a few regions.

At that time, Lin Mo had sold the agency rights very cheaply in order to recoup his capital.

This group of people, at that time, had completely taken advantage of the great bargain.

As long as they continued their cooperation with Xu Pharmaceutical, everyone's fortune could have doubled a hundred times!

As a result, just because of Yuan De's compulsion, they all ran away and forcibly broke the contract with Xu Pharmaceutical, which ultimately led to this result.

So, now the crowd was spilling all their anger on Yuan De.

As the leader of this group, Yuan De's prestige among this group of people had always been very high.

In the past, these people were all like his little brothers and did not dare to speak to him in this way.

However, now that they had all lost their families, who cared about that much?

Looking at Yuan De, he had no image at the moment, his whole body was cloaked in hair, as if he had aged several dozen years.

He was being pushed around by the crowd, but he couldn't say a word.

Speaking of losses, this time, Yuan De's loss was the greatest.

He had to know that he was the first to go to Xu Pharmaceutical before and signed the agency, and he was also the one who took the most advantage of the deal.

At that time, he had only spent as much money as he could to take the agency rights of three provinces.

When Wan Chongshan was one step behind him, he spent a lot more money than him.

These three provincial agencies were enough for Yuan De to earn tens of billions of dollars, and even, to make him a real giant on one side.

Moreover, at that time, he had a good relationship with Lin Mo.

If he could maintain such a friendly relationship with Lin Mo, coupled with his strong capital, Yuan De might have been able to make his Yuan family, too, a big family with a famous town, and might even become one of the top ten families in a certain province.

However, just because he was compelled by Qian Yong'an, this thing that was already in his hand, was just ruined by him in a hard way.

Not only that, he had bet all his money on Wanchun Hall, and he was now considered to have lost all his money.

Yuan De's heart was now dripping with blood, so he didn't care what others were saying, he didn't even want to apologise, there was no point in saying anything.

It was all his own fault, so what could he do?

In the midst of the commotion, the lift opened up and Huohua stepped out of it.

With some blood on his body and a wound on his arm, Huo Hua looked slightly worse for wear.

The crowd at the scene was shocked, with Huo Hua's strength, who could hurt him?

The prince happened to walk out and seeing the appearance of Fire Wah, he could not help but exclaim:
"Uncle, you ..... what happened to you?"

Chapter 1658

Fire Wah waved his hand and went straight into the room.

Just after entering the inner room, Huo Hua's face turned instantly pale.

His steps were a little weak and he stumbled to the table, finally unable to hold himself up, he sat down on the sofa with his buttocks.

Lin Mo was sitting inside the room, and when he saw such a situation, his face also changed violently and he hurriedly ran over.

He first took Huo Hua's pulse and lifted his eyelids, and found that inside his eyes, it was as if something was wriggling around.

Lin Mo's brows furrowed as he said in a deep voice, "You've met a compulsion djinn?"

Huo Hua nodded feebly.

The prince said urgently, "Lin Zi, how is my uncle?"

Lin Mo: "With his injuries, it's a miracle he made it back alive!"

"However, with me here, he will definitely be fine."

After Lin Mo finished speaking, he quickly took out a few pills from his body and stuffed them into Huo Hua's mouth.

Then, he took out another silver needle and placed nineteen stitches on Fire Hua's body one after another.

Huo Hua's face instantly turned swollen red, and with a tremor in his throat, he violently opened his mouth and vomited out a mouthful of fresh blood.

Amongst the blood, there was also a blood clot that kept wriggling on the ground.

The prince could not help but stare, "What is this?"

Lin Mo: "It's a compulsion."

The prince's face changed, "A compulsion?"

"It was a compulsion djinn that sneaked up on my uncle?"

"How is that possible?"

“With my uncle’s strength, that compulsion of his may not be able to hurt my uncle!”

Lin Mo: “Under normal circumstances, this compulsion naturally couldn’t hurt your uncle.”

“However, if your uncle was injured first, this compulsion could take advantage of the situation!”

The prince could not help but stare, “I ..... how could my uncle be injured?”

Lin Mo did not speak as he looked towards Fire Hua: “Senior Fire Hua, what exactly have you encountered?”

At this moment, Fire Hua’s complexion had recovered a bit.

He sighed and said in a low voice, “It’s Zhang Jiu Duan!”

Hearing this, the Crown Prince jumped up violently, “Zhang ..... Zhang Jiudian?”

“Why is he here?”

Lin Mo’s heart also twitched.

The name Zhang Jiudian was one he had heard of before.

This person came from Shuzhong and was on par with Fire Hua, there had always been the saying of North Duan and South Hua, of which North Duan was talking about Shuzhong Zhang Jiu Duan.

If this man could be as famous as Huo Hua, his strength was naturally similar to Huo Hua.

At this moment, Fire Hua gradually regained some strength, he sat up straight and said in a deep voice, “I received news long ago that Zhang Jiu Duan had entered Su Province.”

“I came to Su Province this time to prevent this person from making waves in the Southern Realm.”

“Just now at the launch site, I also received news that he had entered Yunan City, so I went out to stop him.”

“But I didn’t expect that he would collude with the Compulsion Zun.”

“Originally, the two of us were neck and neck in strength, and we had not been able to tell the difference between the two of us in the several previous encounters.”

“But this time, with the Compulsion Djinn hara*sing me on the side, I was seriously injured by Zhang Jiu Duan.”

“The Compulsion Djinn took the opportunity to strike and put a compulsion on me. If not for this being the Southern Realm and our men arriving in time, I’m afraid that this time I would have been in grave danger!”

The prince listened with a terrified face and said in a trembling voice, “Uncle, you ..... must not risk your life again!”

“This is the southern border, these matters should be left to Master Xue Wu to handle.”

“How about I call Master Xue Wu now and ask him to settle this Zhang Jiudian?”

Fire Hua waved his hand, "That's not necessary."

"Although I am seriously injured, Zhang Jiuduan is no better."

"He is also badly wounded, so he will not be able to fight in a short time."

The prince was instantly delighted, "Really?"

"Uncle, then I will send my men out to hunt him down now!"

Huo Hua shook his head, "Your men won't be able to kill him."

"Lin Mo, I've come to warn you about this time, so you must be careful."

"I suspect that Zhang Jiuduan is coming for you this time!"

Chapter 1659

Lin Mo couldn't help but be surprised, "Coming at me?"

"Why?"

"I have no grudge or hatred against Zhang Jiuduan, I don't even know him."

Huo Hua: "You have no grudge or hatred against Zhang Jiuduan, but you are the only one who can save Master Wan."

"In this world, there are many people who don't want Master Wan to live, and Zhang Jiuduan is one of them!"

"There is no grudge between Zhang Jiu Duan and the Southern Realm, he came to Soo Province to see who might be able to save Master Wan."

"He wants to kill off any possibility, all of it!"

Lin Mo's face changed slightly, this could really be a case of a pegasus not being guilty of harboring a sin.

His own medical skills had incurred such an enemy for him.

The prince said in surprise, "What kind of enmity is there between Zhang Jiu Duan and Master Wan, that he must have Master Wan killed?"

Huo Hua waved his hand, "Jiu Duan Zhang and Master Wan don't know each other at all."

"However, the person behind Zhang Jiuduan is Zhang Bailing, one of the Six Kings of the World, the Hundred Victory Blade King."

"Master Wan, it was Zhang Bailing who injured him!"

"The person who really doesn't want Master Wan to live is Zhang Bailing!"

The prince's brow furrowed as he suddenly realized, "How much does this Zhang Bailing mean?"

"If he didn't want Master Wan to live, he could have just killed the Wan family while Master Wan was seriously ill?"

“Sending someone to kill the doctor? What kind of bullsh*t is that?”

“What did the doctor do to him?”

Huo Hua: “The Wan family is in the Southeast Province, one of the six provinces in the Southern Realm.”

“If Zhang Bailing wanted to kill Master Wan, he would have to enter the South Realm himself!”

“But don’t you forget that the Southern Realm is Master Xue Wu’s territory.”

“If Zhang Bailing crossed the border to kill someone, that would be like declaring war on Master Xue Wu.”

“Therefore, Zhang Bailing is absolutely not allowed to enter the Southern Realm!”

“The only thing he can do is to stop those doctors from going to treat Master Wan.”

“The Wan family, being one of the top ten families in the country, has not been able to invite those divine doctors from the capital, and that is the reason for that.”

“Those divine doctors, who don’t want to get involved in the matter between the Wan Family and the Baisheng Blade King!”

The prince was dumbfounded, “Is it that complicated?”

Lin Mo was able to understand these situations.

When Nanba Tian was being chased by the Nalan family’s people, the reason why he fled all the way north was also for this reason.

The Nalan Family, too, could not enter the Northern Realm to kill at will, because that was the territory of Lin Xiao, the King of the Northern Realm!

Nowadays, the Wan family is in the same situation!

Although Zhang Bailing wanted to kill Old Master Wan, he could not personally wade into the Southern Realm because it was the territory of the King of the Southern Realm, Master Xue Wu!

However, while Zhang Bailing could not come over himself, he was able to send his own men to work in the Southern Realm.

Him personally crossing the border, and his men crossing the border, were two completely different concepts.

In the former case, it would inevitably provoke a war between the two kings.

The latter, at most, would only be a slight disciplinary action.

This is the world of human affairs!

By the same token, when Master Xue Wu learnt that Zhang Jiuduan had entered the country, he could not personally intercept him.

If he personally took action, on the one hand, it would look like he had no manners and was bullying the young with the old. Secondly, it would also make people laugh at the fact that there was no one in the Southern Realm, and that he had to personally take action on everything!

Therefore, Fifth Master Xue sent Huo Hua, who was on par with Zhang Jiuduan.

Originally, there was no problem for Huo Hua to take action in this matter.

However, the fact that Compa*s Dao was also involved in it made Huo Hua suffer a big loss. If not for Lin Mo being here as well, this time, Huo Hua would have been in grave danger!

Lin Mo pondered for a moment and asked, "Senior Fire Hua, since Zhang Jiu Duan was also injured, who is the one you told me to beware of?"

"Compulsion Zun?"

To be honest, the current Lin Mo was actually no longer afraid of Compulsion Zun.

The true strength of the Compulsion Zun was not really strong, what was really strong about him was his divine and unpredictable compulsion technique.

However, if this compulsion technique was useless against Lin Mo, he wouldn't be able to pose a threat to Lin Mo!

Chapter 1660

Huo Hua shook his head, "To you, Compa*s Zun is not dangerous."

"What's dangerous is, Zhang Jiuduan's sister, Zhang Xiaohua!"

The prince jumped up sharply, "What?"

"That female devil is here too?"

Fire Hua nodded and said in a deep voice, "This time when Zhang Jiu Duan came, his target, was not you at all, he came to meet me from the beginning to the end!"

"However, he has brought his sister Zhang Xiaohua with him."

"It's that Shuzhong Bamboo Leaf Green, a woman who is several times more ruthless than my sister!"

"Obviously, he gave the matter of intercepting and killing the divine Doctor to his sister."

Lin Mo's brows furrowed, the Sea City Poison Spider was already poisonous enough. Was there anyone else in this world who could be more ruthless than her?

"This Bamboo Leaf Green, is she very strong?"

Lin Mo asked.

Fire Hua nodded, "Extremely strong."

"She is the personal disciple of the Hundred Victory Blade King, Zhang Bailing."

"Learned the art for five years and killed all of her master brothers."

“Learned the art for seven years and killed Zhang Bailing’s three senior brothers.”

“Nine years into her art, she killed Zhang Bailing’s only senior brother.”

“She had let it be known that she would kill Zhang Bailing within ten years to make her brother the new King of Shu Zhong!”

Lin Mo froze, what kind of person is this? To deceive her master and destroy her ancestor, and still dare to let out such wild words?

Looking at the crown prince next to him, he looked pale but didn’t say anything. It looked like he knew about these things too!

Lin Mo couldn’t help but wonder, “He killed all of Zhang Bailing’s lands, and killed three of his senior brothers and one senior brother, and he still wants to kill Zhang Bailing, won’t Zhang Bailing punish her?”

Huo Hua shook his head, “Not only did Zhang Bailing not punish her, but he poured out all his mastery to teach her.”

“Zhang Bailing himself was a martial arts obsessive, having no family in his life, only drunk on martial arts.”

“To be able to teach a disciple who surpa*ses him is what makes him happiest.”

“So, even if Bamboo Leaf Green killed him, he would still die with a smile on his face!”

Lin Mo was speechless: “These two madmen have met together!”

Huo Hua shrugged, “The strange people in this world always have some special personalities.”

“An ordinary person with too many seven emotions and six desires will have his success affected.”

“Only those with less seven pa*sions and desires are more likely to achieve greater success, in certain areas!”

Lin Mo savoured these words carefully, and his heart was filled with emotion.

In this world, weren’t most people like this?

Just like students in school, but those who fall in love early will basically waste their studies.

Only those who have no distractions can achieve greater success in their studies!

The same goes for martial arts training!

If you have too many worries in your heart, you will mess up your mind.

“Uncle, what should Lin Mo do now?”

The prince said urgently.

Fire Hua said in a deep voice, “The best thing to do is to announce to the public that you won’t be saving Old Master Wan.”

“They just don’t want Old Master Wan to live, as long as you don’t go to save him, they may not necessarily want to make things difficult for you!”

The prince breathed a sigh of relief and waved his hand, “That’s easy.”

“We are not trying to save Master Wan at all.”

“You’ve seen what happened tonight, the Wan family’s people, they’ve been targeting Lin Mo.”

“In a situation like this, the Wan family still wants to come for medical help? Heh, they’re dreaming!”

Fire Hua nodded, “That’s for the best.”

“However, Lin Mo, you still have to be wary of Bamboo Leaf Green.”

“This woman, she is temperamental, and when it comes to anything that is difficult to decide, she tends to use killing to solve it.”

“Even if you do announce to the public that you won’t save Master Wan.”

“However, if you do meet up with her, there is still a high chance that she will kill you!”

Lin Mo frowned, what kind of person was this? He was simply a madman!

However, when he met something like this, he could only admit his own bad luck.

“Senior Fire Hua, thanks for the reminder!”

Lin Mo arched his hand in thanks.
