Chapter 1721 Pummeling A Dao Integration Stage Expert!

At the same time!

The entire Imperial City once again began to shake.

To everyone's shock, thick pillars of yellow light suddenly rose from the ground around ye chen.

The yellow pillars of light were extremely thick, and each one of them towered into the clouds. On the surface of the pillars, yellow runes were engraved, and a vast spiritual energy fluctuation could be felt.

In an instant, the yellow pillars of light bloomed with each other and then connected together. Finally, they formed a khaki-colored encirclement that enveloped ye chen.

"Ye, you're going too far!"

The fire spirit patriarch stood outside the khaki-colored encirclement and looked at ye chen with killing intent. "This is the Earth Dragon Star formation, which can kill Dao integration stage super mighty figures. I'd like to see how you're going to deal with it!"

His heart was bleeding!

Not only had ye chen embarrassed him time and time again, but he had also destroyed his weapon and even caused chaos in the entire Imperial City.

If he did not kill ye chen, how could he vent the hatred in his heart?

"Earth Dragon Star formation?"

Ye chen was inside the formation and could clearly feel the endless petrifying power coming from all around him. The petrifying power seemed to want to turn the true vitality in his body and his entire body into stone.

"Is this a formation that uses the power of the stars to stimulate the power of the earth veins of this star?"

Ye Chen's eyes flickered. He could tell at a glance that this formation was extraordinary.

Thinking of this, he squinted his eyes slightly, and a series of crackling sounds came from his body.

The next moment!

His body suddenly expanded to more than twice its original size.

If one were to look closely, one would discover that the surface of his body was actually bronze in color, as if he had transformed into a bronze man.

At the same time, an extremely terrifying desolation Qi was emitted from his body, making him look like a god.

The most terrifying thing was that there was a faint Starlight flashing between his eyebrows.

The Starlight was like a star, causing people to sink into it with a single glance.

"I'll use you to practice and see how the divine arts of the gods race are!"

Ye chen took a deep breath. After he had finished speaking, he struck out with his palm. "The first move of the sky-splitting nine moves, star-shattering palm!"

The moment this palm appeared, it was very casual and there was no fluctuation at all. But the further it moved, the more majestic it became!

"Boom boom boom!!!"

Under the horrified gazes of countless people, ye Chen's palm touched the array barrier that enveloped him.

In an instant, the heavens resonated and the stars moved. All that was left was a giant palm print that was about a hundred miles in size.

The huge palm print filled the universe and covered all directions. It was as if it wanted to pick the stars and moon, causing all the stars in the sky to move.

"Bang!"

Under this palm, the Earth Dragon Star formation that fire spirit patriarch viewed as his strongest technique crumbled like a thin piece of paper.

At that moment, everyone's eyes were fixed on him.

In their eyes, there was only the huge palm that was about a hundred miles in size and the void that had been completely blown up by the huge palm. At this moment, there was no wind for ten thousand miles in the void, as if it had turned into a huge Gully that divided the sky and the earth into two halves.

"Heaven's might, this is the true heaven's might!"

Many experts of the fire spirit planet were scared out of their wits, and their souls trembled.

"Ah!"

It was at that moment that the fire spirit patriarch let out an extremely shrill cry. He aged at a terrifying speed.

If he had looked like an old man in his 60s before, he was now white-haired and full of wrinkles. It would not be an exaggeration to say that he was about to die.

He did not hesitate to consume his lifespan to activate the Earth Dragon Star formation. Now that the formation was broken by ye chen, he immediately suffered a backlash ten times the price.

As he watched ye chen walk toward him, the fire spirit patriarch could not help but tremble. He was so frightened that his soul almost flew out of his body.

Ye chen looked at him up close. Suddenly, he raised his arm and pointed his finger at the space between his brows.

"Fellow Daoist ye, please spare me, spare me ..."

Under the dumbfounded gazes of countless people, the fire spirit patriarch finally knelt down in front of ye chen on the spot, his expression one of extreme fear.

Fire spirit patriarch, who was at the early stage of the form synthesis stage, the most powerful cultivator in the great Xuan and the most powerful cultivator on the fire spirit planet, was now terrified.

This made everyone's jaws drop, and they were also somewhat caught off guard.

"Great ... Great-grandfather was defeated?"

In the crowd in the distance, Huo Xuan watched this scene in a daze.

Even now, he still felt like he was in a dream.

Even before this, he was sure that ye chen must be an Almighty who lived in seclusion. His cultivation might not be lower than great-grandfather 's!

However, after seeing it with his own eyes, he still felt extremely shocked.

Ye chen raised an eyebrow and stopped what he was doing. He looked at the fire Dragon patriarch indifferently and said, "Did the wood spirit patriarch ask you to deal with me?"

"Yes!"

Fire spirit patriarch broke out in cold sweat and did not dare to hide anything. "The wood spirit patriarch came to find me and demanded that I give him an explanation for mu kui's death. Otherwise, he would force his way into my fire spirit planet. This was why I agreed to his conditions ..."

Ye Chen's eyes flickered, but he sneered in his heart.

His guess was right.

This wood spirit patriarch had used Sun Han's life force to curse him, and then forced the fire spirit patriarch to attack him.

Seeing ye Chen's silence, the fire spirit patriarch gritted his teeth and said, "Fellow Daoist ye's magical powers are unrivaled. I'm willing to serve you as my master and be at your beck and call from now on ..."

Chapter 1722 The Great Battle Against The Wood Spirit Patriarch!

At that moment, countless people heard the fire spirit patriarch's words. They were silent and couldn't believe it!

The pillar of the fire Nation was actually begging for mercy from a young man.

When Huo Xuan saw this, he felt like he was in a dream. No! All of this was fake, a dream!

Ye chen lowered his head to take a look and smiled contemptuously. "I can spare your dog life, but what value do you have? What can you do for me?"

The fire spirit patriarch's expression changed as he broke out in cold sweat.

His heart sank. "Fellow Daoist ye," he said hurriedly, "as long as you let me go, I can give you anything. The great Xuan, all kinds of treasures, and even the entire fire spirit planet."

As soon as these words came out, everyone was dumbfounded.

Was that the legend in their hearts?

Everyone's heart was in their mouth as they nervously waited for ye Chen's judgment. These words would determine the fate of the fire spirit patriarch and even the entire fire spirit clan.

With the death of the fire spirit patriarch, the fire spirit race would be doomed eternally!

Ye Chen thought for a moment and said in a cold voice, "Yes!"

"Hu!"

Huo Xuan, who was in the crowd, breathed a sigh of relief. He looked at ye Chen's back and was confident! Powerful!

Huo Yun and the others were dumbfounded. The ending shouldn't have been like this!

The fire spirit patriarch's tensed heart had just relaxed when ye Chen's voice came from above him. "I can spare your life, but I'll have to plant a restriction in your body. If you have any thoughts of disloyalty, I'll destroy your soul with a single thought."

"What?"

The fire spirit patriarch's body trembled.

He subconsciously wanted to refuse, but his trembling lips didn't have the time to say anything.

Ye Chen's cold voice was filled with killing intent. "Or, I'll let you die now!!!"

Fire spirit patriarch's expression changed drastically. After some thought, he finally accepted his fate. "Master, please plant the restriction."

Ye Chen's fingers pinched together and he drew an incantation in the air. He split off a wisp of his astral body and turned it into a Crystal Thread. It entered the fire spirit patriarch's astral body with a whoosh and deeply planted itself on it. With just a thought from ye Chen, the fire spirit patriarch's astral body would be annihilated.

The fire spirit patriarch felt the dangerous restriction on his divine soul. It was like a time bomb, and his face was bitter.

He was an early-body integration stage powerhouse, after all. It was not impossible for him to reach the crossing calamity stage in the future. However, he was now bowing down to ye Chen.

It would be a lie to say that he was unwilling.

At the thought of this, he smiled bitterly and immediately knelt down at ye Chen's feet. He took a deep breath and said, "Senior ye Chen is our fire spirit clan's Lord!!!"

It reverberated throughout the great Xuan for many times!

Many people of the great Xuan were shocked!

The great Xuan had changed hands!

The Imperial City had been completely destroyed in the battle just now.

With the fire spirit patriarch as the leader, the great Xuan's powerhouses, Huo Xuan, and the other heaven's favorites were all gathered.

Ye chen slowly walked in from the door and sat on the main seat.

"Greetings, my Lord!"

Everyone in the hall knelt on the ground and paid their respects to ye chen!

Some people were unwilling, some were confused, and some were scheming.

Especially Huo Yun, the young man whom she had looked down on at that time, had become an existence that she had to look up to in the blink of an eye!

In Huo Xuan's eyes, there was a trace of confusion and complexity, as well as a little worship. However, there was a ball of fire in the depths of his eyes, a ball of fire that was becoming stronger!

Ye chen did not care about these things. In the path of cultivation, the strong were respected. In the face of absolute strength, the weak could not resist!

"Master, these are the strong and proud sons of heaven of the great Xuan. Here is a list of the treasures of the fire spirit clan. Please take a look!"

With that, a scroll appeared in the hands of the fire spirit patriarch. Just by looking at this scroll, one could tell that it was extraordinary. It was made from the beard of the fire Dragon.

Almost at the same time ...

Outside the fire spirit star.

The wood spirit patriarch showed up again. His Zhen Yuan vibrated and his voice resounded through the heaven and earth. "Wood spirit old man, come out and meet me!"

When the fire spirit patriarch heard this, he looked at ye chen with a troubled expression. "Master, this old servant will go and exterminate him now."

"It's fine. We'll go and meet him. "Ye Chen's eyes flashed.

"Yes."

Fire spirit patriarch nodded and disappeared from the hall. He tore open the void and appeared outside fire spirit planet, facing wood spirit patriarch directly.

When the wood spirit patriarch saw the old and dejected appearance of the fire spirit patriarch, he was astonished.

In the blink of an eye, ye chen also appeared on the side. His green robe fluttered in the wind, and his expression was indifferent.

"Master!" Fire spirit patriarch immediately knelt down and greeted, "welcome master!"

"Master?"

The wood spirit patriarch was shocked!

What shocked him the most was that fire spirit patriarch's hair was white and his aura was extremely weak.

Escape!

"What?" the wood spirit patriarch was shocked. Without a word, he turned around and unleashed his true Yuan to escape.

It was obvious that he had realized something.

"It's too late to run now!" Ye chen sneered.

With a wave of his right hand, the phenomenon of Thunder appeared behind him.

"Ang!"

A three-meter-wide Lightning Dragon appeared, flashing with dark purple world-destroying lightning as it charged toward the wood spirit patriarch!

The speed of the Thunder Dragon was extremely fast, and wherever it passed, the void was destroyed.

"Ah!"

"Die!" The wood spirit patriarch roared as he turned around and punched out with his quintessential essence!

"BOOM!"

The lightning Dragon exploded, and the wood spirit patriarch was forced back. He was in a sorry state, and the power of lightning in his hand was abused, causing him to be severely injured!

At the moment of the explosion, ye chen crossed the void and caught up with the wood spirit patriarch.

"Mountain embracing seal."

He formed a seal with both hands and a mountain-like palm print slammed down heavily. It was as if he was facing thousands of ancient mountains that rose into the clouds.

"You forced me to do this!"

"Ghostwood cry!"

An evil spirit shrieked, and the surrounding air became extremely cold. Thousands of ghosts howled as if hell had descended.

Waving its branches that looked like black shadows, it crashed into it!

"Bang!"

The evil spirit shattered!

The ancient mountain came crashing down!

The wood spirit patriarch was taken aback. He quickly took out the second wood spirit shield, a magical treasure of the wood spirit race!

"BOOM!"

The Hanshan seal fiercely hit the new wooden shield of Yuxu, and the Jade-like shield was on the verge of collapse.

"Pfft!"

Inside the shield, the wood spirit patriarch coughed up a large mouthful of blood. A green light lingered around his body, as if healing him.

"A pretty good magic treasure."

Ye Chen could tell that the shield could absorb a portion of the attack's energy for healing.

The wood spirit patriarch glared at Ye Chen with a venomous expression. "Today, either you die or I die!"

With that, he shook his sleeve and a long spear appeared. It seemed to be a combined magical treasure with the Yi wood spirit squat, and the shield flashed with green light as if they were responding to each other.

"Blood sea divine wood spear!"

The fire spirit patriarch yelled out, "master, you have to be careful! That spear and shield are the combined magical treasure of their wood spirit race. When the two are combined, their power is no weaker than a spirit treasure."

The wood spirit patriarch held two treasures in his hands, and a strange phenomenon appeared behind him. In the middle of a sea of blood, there was a towering green tree. The shadow of the tree squirmed wildly, as if it was nurturing a ferocious-looking devil.

It was strange and heart-palpitating!

"Kill!!!"

The wood spirit patriarch thrust his spear forward. Blood Shadows surged and pierced through the void. Ye Chen's blood seemed to be breaking out of his body!

Ye Chen's physical strength burst out. Golden light shone as he threw a punch!

The stars lost their color and the earth shook as if thousands of soldiers and horses were galloping on the battlefield.

The spear and the fist collided!

The moment they touched, there was silence.

In the blink of an eye, the center of the collision was like a star exploding. The light was boundless, and the violent energy obliterated the void.

Chapter 1723 Killing Their Way Into Wood Spirit Planet!

A huge amount of energy burst out in all directions, spreading with a destructive aura. Not far away, countless fire dragons formed from essence Qi rolled and roared, and the flames grew stronger!

The weaker stars that came closer had already turned into dust, floating in the vast sea of stars.

It shook the starry sky!

"Who's fighting?"

At the other end of the void.

Two figures with vast auras descended. They were two god-like phantoms.

The Dao integration stage super mighty figure on planet goldspirit stood in the starry sky, and his eyes pierced through countless stars as he saw the wood spirit patriarch and a young powerful being in a confrontation!

The Dao integration stage patriarch of planet Earth Spirit had also appeared. He could sense the residual power of the battle and frowned. "What's that person's background? he's actually able to suppress wood spirit. Is he a prodigy from the ancient star system's remnant race?"

Patriarch Golden Spirit shook his head and continued to watch the battle in space!

"How is that possible?"

In the air, the wood spirit patriarch's expression was extremely ugly. This person was using his physical strength to resist the spear of his spirit treasure!

Ye chen stood proudly in the air and sneered. "The treasure is not bad, but it's a pity that it ends here!"

The next moment, he took a step forward and shouted, ""Burning Sky melting earth hand!"

In an instant, the entire starry sky was like a land of lava. The flames lit up the world, and the hot lava burned the void, emitting billowing white smoke!

At the sight of this, fire spirit patriarch's expression changed drastically. ""What kind of divine ability is this? Even I can't burn the void. "

The wood spirit patriarch looked at the palm that blotted out the sky and covered the earth in horror.

The flames illuminated the starry sky, and even the two Dao integration stage mighty figures in the distance could see them clearly without using eye-bloodline techniques.

The two of them looked at each other and saw the deep horror in each other's eyes. "This person is too strong!"

The wood spirit patriarch knew very well that the second wood spirit shield would not be able to block it. He gritted his teeth and spat out a drop of green blood essence that contained powerful life essence.

"Green wood demon transformation spell!"

He used his own life essence and blood to cast the green wood demon transformation spell, and half of the wood spirit patriarch's body instantly turned into wood, making him look like a Treant.

Then, he struck out with his palm.

The second wood spirit shield glowed with green light in the air and an old face appeared on the towering tree. It was dignified and solemn, like a king descending.

The originally countless tiny branches became extremely thick, and the green crown slowly withered. The huge tree trunk rose from the ground and resolutely charged towards the sky burning palm!

"BOOM!"

The flame and the giant tree, destruction and rebirth, the two were fighting against each other fiercely, equally matched.

At the same time, the devil in the shadow of the tree was released. Demonic Qi filled the sky, and there were mountains of corpses and seas of blood.

The demon howled and disappeared into the void as the wood spirit patriarch threw out his spear.

Ye chen frowned slightly. The blood sea divine wood spear disappeared from his divine consciousness.

"Ang!"

Ye chen let out a loud roar. The tiger's roar and the Dragon's Roar came from his body, shaking the surroundings. The golden light on his body receded and seeped into the surface of his body, turning into a brass color. All the strength of his physical body was used for defense!

"Whoosh!"

The blood sea divine wood spear suddenly appeared in front of ye chen like a Thunderbolt. Even ye chen could not react in time and was pierced in the chest.

"Bang!!!"

It was as if he had been hit by a nuclear bomb. The earth-shattering impact force caused ye chen to take a few steps back. Then, the earth-shattering explosive energy exploded in his chest. The stars were destroyed and the void collapsed, causing the starry sky to tremble.

The four old men looked at the place of the explosion. If it were them, they would have died for sure!

Soon, they saw a golden streak of light streaking through the pitch-black sky toward the wood spirit patriarch at lightning speed!

"How is this possible? He's actually fine?"

"No! Quickly run!"

When he saw the young face in the golden light, the wood spirit patriarch's face was filled with despair. He no longer had any thoughts of resisting. He couldn't even kill, no, he couldn't even hurt the young man!

Escape!

The formation was the only way to survive.

Looking from afar, a golden light was currently chasing a green radiance.

"No matter where you run, you won't be able to escape death!" Ye chen laughed mockingly.

His speed suddenly increased, and the true essence condensed on his fingertips shot out.

"Emperor Qing MU's finger!"

The fingertips behind him were like an Emperor brandishing his sword, advancing forward with indomitable will and killing countless enemies!

In the instant that Greenwood Emperor's finger was about to reach him, wood spirit patriarch spat out another drop of blood essence.

The wood spirit patriarch was like a withered tree that was easily crushed.

"Dead?"

Ye chen released his divine consciousness to search and soon found something unusual. He threw a punch!

In the air, the wood spirit patriarch was on the verge of death. He formed a seal with his hands, and the green scroll floating in front of him emitted a green light that enveloped him.

"Yi wood innate divine escape art."

The wood spirit patriarch quickly disappeared from ye Chen's sight.

Did he escape back?

Patriarch gold spirit and patriarch Earth Spirit watched as patriarch wood spirit fled in a frenzy.

They looked at each other. This person must not be offended!

Under the guidance of the fire spirit patriarch, ye chen quickly arrived at wood spirit planet.

At this moment, the Green Dragon Grand array formed by the power of the entire wood spirit planet had been activated. Countless Green Dragons roared as ancient and mysterious runes appeared!

"Heaven raising descent!"

Ye Chen's physical body exploded and true energy gathered under his feet. He took a step forward and like a towering stone pillar, he smashed down!

"Ang ang ang!!!"

The Azure Dragon was attacked. It rose into the air and smashed the stone pillar that fell from the sky with the power of the Coiling Dragon!

With a wave of his sleeve, ye chen held the Emperor brush in his hand and waved it in the air.

"Break!"

Thump thump thump!

The formation shook as the "break" word and the Azure Dragon fought fiercely. Soon, countless Azure Dragons spewed out Dragon flames and burned the "break" word to ashes.

Inside the Azure Dragon Grand array, the wood spirit patriarch was overjoyed when he saw ye Chen's helplessness. He shouted proudly.

Ye chen looked at him contemptuously. He immediately used the ancient God's roar and an ancient giant beast appeared out of thin air.

"Ang!"

With a furious roar, the earth shook and the mountains shook, and the sky and earth spun!

Countless Masters of the wood spirit planet who were protecting the array were killed!

The wood spirit patriarch was horrified. How could this be? this was an ancient formation!

He roared madly, "hurry!" Continue to maintain the formation and have people hold it off. "

This roar shook the starry sky and shattered the stars. The two Dao integration stage cultivators on Planet Gold spirit and planet Earth Spirit were shocked again.

Ye chen grabbed at the air and caught an Azure Dragon. A strange thing happened. His physical body had actually absorbed the Azure Dragon's power!

It was an ancient God's body Divine Art.

The Green Dragon Phantom formed by the Green Dragon Grand array was actually the most extreme yi wood power in the world. It could be used to cultivate the ancient God Body!

It didn't take any effort at all!

Ye chen was overjoyed and immediately used the ancient God's magical eye. This magical eye was an ancient God's divine ability he had learned from the inheritance of Pangu's divine spark. It was extremely wondrous.

Then, under the wood spirit patriarch's shocked gaze, Starlight flickered between ye Chen's brows. The power of the stars gathered and transformed into a magical vertical eye like a newborn star!

"Absorb!"

The starry vertical eye shot out rays of Starlight and captured the Azure Dragon's Shadow.

The formation was broken!

At that moment, ye chen had charged into wood spirit planet and headed straight for the wood spirit patriarch.

Chapter 1724 The Person I Want To Kill Can't Live!

The extreme power of the second wood was completely absorbed by ye chen. The Azure Dragon Grand array of planet wood spirit could no longer be maintained and was destroyed like a mirror!

The wood spirit patriarch watched in fear as his last trump card burst like a bubble along with the Green Dragon array.

He used an escape technique to get back wood spirit planet. He spat out mouthfuls of blood and looked extremely dispirited.

A planet with tens of thousands of verdant trees, a vast sea of forests, and a vibrant vitality came into view. Lush and primitive forests occupied more than half of the planet, and green waves were like the sea.

Ye chen took a step forward and charged into wood spirit planet like a comet.

"Stop him! Don't let him enter the wood spirit planet!"

"Kill!!!"

The expert from the wood spirit Planet Rose into the air and intercepted the attack.

All kinds of divine powers were unleashed, and the rainbow-colored true energy was so powerful that even ordinary Dao integration stage super mighty figures didn't dare to face it directly.

Ye chen casually struck out with his palm. The large palm was like a Thunderbolt.

"Bang!!!"

The void trembled and the earth of the wood spirit star shook. The forests and the sea below were all destroyed, leaving a hole in the scorched and broken land.

The divine arts also turned into powder along with the people who blocked his way. The remaining few divine arts were also unable to break through the physical body. No one could resist the power of the palm as if they had entered a realm of no man!

Ye chen stood in the air, his powerful divine consciousness enveloping the entire wood spirit planet. He squinted and asked in confusion, ""Not here?"

Ye chen immediately used his ocular skill. His eyes were like torches, making it impossible to look straight at them. That scorching and dazzling light seemed to be able to see through the void and see thousands of miles with a single glance.

After searching through the thousands of little worlds, he quickly locked onto that little world. The wood spirit patriarch was hiding in the source of the world, and he was absorbing a mountain of heavenly materials and earthly treasures in front of him to heal himself.

"I've found you!"

Ye chen smiled. He gathered his primordial Qi and pointed to the sky. The originally clear sky was suddenly covered with dark clouds. Countless lightning snakes swam, and lightning flashed and Thunder rumbled. It was as if a great horror was brewing.

The powerhouses of the wood spirit clan looked at the sky in horror. The power that blotted out the sky and the sun converged, and the weak ones were pressed to the ground. The entire planet fell into panic.

"No, how could there be such a strong person!"

"I don't want to die,"

Ye chen tapped his finger.

"Heaven severing finger!"

The dark clouds in the sky condensed into a huge finger, which was filled with suffocating energy. It suppressed the stars as if it was facing death.

Ye chen stood in the air and looked down on all living beings. His body was shrouded in a dazzling divine light, like a god descending to the mortal world, invincible!

The wood spirit patriarch ran away like a stray dog. He said in shock and anger, ""Your Excellency, can we stop here? I won't pursue the matter of you killing my clan's grandson. "

Ye chen looked down at the wood spirit patriarch beneath his feet with an indifferent expression. "Where else can you escape to? I said I want you to die, so you have to die. The person I want to kill can't live!!!"

"You've gone too far!!!"

The wood spirit patriarch's face was filled with hatred.

He killed my grandson, broke my formation, and destroyed my stars. He wanted nothing more than to cut ye chen into a thousand pieces.

Soon, his face turned ashen, and his expression became dazed. His secretly clenched fists slowly relaxed, and the true Qi He had quietly condensed also dissipated. His desperate will disappeared.

At the end of the day, he was the cause of all this.

If he had not underestimated ye Chen's abilities, he would not have cursed ye chen and instructed the fire spirit patriarch to attack this person.

He finally understood why the fire spirit patriarch had acknowledged ye chen as his master.

Powerlessness!

A sense of powerlessness and despair!

As a Dao integration stage super mighty figure, he could feel the crushing power of his strength!

His many methods were overpowered by ye chen. It was like a giant wheel rolling over an ant, crushing the hatred in his heart and his dignity.

"I'm also willing to serve you as my master, I only ask for your mercy. "

The wood spirit patriarch lowered his head and bowed to ye chen.

However, his lowered eyes flashed with a touch of resentment."I'd better hold it in. There's no need to fight to the death with this person. It's not too late to find a chance to take revenge after my injuries have recovered!"

Ye chen sneered. How could he not know what the wood spirit patriarch was thinking? he looked at the wood spirit patriarch as if he was looking at a corpse. Step by step, he slowly approached with a murderous intent.

The wood spirit patriarch's expression changed drastically. He looked at ye chen as if the Grim Reaper's scythe was about to slash down. It was bone-chilling!

"Sir, do you really want to fight me to the death?" he asked in a hurry. If you really force this old master, you won't be able to get anything good out of it. "

"You think you're worthy?"

Ye chen smiled disdainfully. He took a step forward and launched another attack at the wood spirit patriarch.

"Die!"

"Heavenly Thunder God-destroying palm!"

The deafening sound of thunder resounded through the heavens and earth, causing countless living beings to feel uneasy.

The entire sky was lit up by the lightning as if it was daytime. It was dazzling.

Dark clouds churned and lightning flashed indistinctly. A huge Lightning Dragon circled around ye Chen's body as if a God of Thunder had descended.

A ray of green light flew out from the wood spirit patriarch's sleeve. The item spirit of the Jade virtual divine wood shield sensed that its master was in danger and immediately rushed into the sky.

A dark green Shield stood firmly in front of the wood spirit patriarch like an old tree!

The giant lightning palm brought with it countless bolts of lightning as it whizzed down. The dark purple lightning flashed past and destroyed the void.

"BOOM!"

The power of Thunder wreaked havoc everywhere, and wherever it passed, all living beings were reduced to ashes.

The Thunder Dragons rolled and cracked the ground, leaving thousands of meters deep trenches on the ground.

The power of Thunder exploded and the green Shield was instantly destroyed.

The Jade virtual divine wood shield flew back. The green light on its body flashed and gradually dimmed, like a dying person.

Behind the shield, the wood spirit patriarch's face turned pale, and he vomited blood. He roared madly, and his voice resounded through the starry sky. "Fellow Daoist gold spirit, fellow Daoist Earth Spirit, are you really going to sit by and watch me die?"

This was the last life-saving straw!

In the void, patriarch Golden Spirit's expression changed slightly. They looked at each other and hesitated.

There were many Dao integration experts in this Galaxy, and the four great planets were in an Alliance.

Although the four great planets usually fought openly and secretly, when there was an invasion, they would abandon their prejudices and fight together.

Now, how should he choose?

Ye Chen was disdainful. His eyes were disdainful, and his loud voice resounded through the world, "You still want to ask for help? Who would dare to save him?"

"Boom boom boom!!!"

Ye Chen slammed his palm down again and the Thunder Dragon reappeared. Apocalyptic thunder and lightning descended from the sky. Thunder and lightning intertwined. When the Thunder God was enraged, his corpse would be buried for a thousand miles!

The new divine wood of Jade Mirage on the ground trembled madly. It wanted to block again, but it was unable to fly away. The green light flickered desperately.

The wood spirit patriarch looked at the lightning in fear. Ye Chen's strength was like a towering Boulder pressing down on his heart. The weak and powerless him had long given up on resisting.

A hint of regret welled up in his heart, and his face and heart turned ashen. He was also a Dao integration stage super mighty figure who could control the life and death of others, but now, he was the one who died.

The giant lightning palm pressed down. At the moment of life and death for the wood spirit patriarch, a loud shout rang out in the void, "Fellow Daoist, please stop!"

Chapter 1725 The Experts Gather And Join Forces To Besiege!

The voice fell.

As two brilliant divine lights swept through the sky, the void trembled and the divine arts shook the world.

"Square golden hand!"

Golden hands came from all directions, shocking everyone.

"Earth Dragon roar!"

"Ang!"

An Earth Dragon rose from the ground. It was a stone statue with a head and a body of Earth. The Coiling Dragon roared, shaking the surroundings.

It collided with the world destroying lightning palm.

"Bang!!!"

Sand and stones flew, the earth shook, and the mountains shook. The ground was lifted up, and a huge pit dozens of miles wide appeared at the place of the explosion.

"Oh my God, that's terrifying!" The people on wood spirit planet looked at the pit as if they were looking at an abyss. They felt uneasy and uneasy.

The patriarch Earth Spirit and the other patriarch had to work together to block the palm that was like a Thunder God. His eyes were filled with solemnness. He had seen the astonishing power from afar, but now that he had taken the palm head-on, he realized that the power was like the collapse of ten thousand mountains and the overturning of the seas.

Strong! This person was too strong!

Then, two figures appeared in front of ye chen, revealing the faces of two old men.

One of them had a well-defined face and a burly figure. His body was covered in a golden light and his eyes were sharp.

The other person was wearing a yellow robe and had a long beard. He always had a faint smile on his face and looked kind, like an ordinary old man.

As soon as the two of them appeared, they unleashed their Dao integration realm strength with all their might, causing the world to freeze and the air to tremble.

The expert from wood spirit planet was overjoyed to see the two of them. "It's the gold spirit patriarch and the earth Spirit patriarch?!"

The wood spirit patriarch was relieved. He coughed out a mouthful of blood and said with a smile, "You guys are finally here."

At the same time, the fire spirit patriarch's expression also changed. He descended beside ye chen and hurriedly introduced the two.

When ye chen heard this, his eyes flickered slightly. He looked at the two with a burning gaze and asked, "You want to be my enemy?"

Patriarch Golden Spirit had a fiery temper and was about to explode in anger.

Patriarch Earth Spirit welcomed him with a smile and said in a friendly manner, "I wouldn't dare. Fellow Daoist's strength is extraordinary. However, we are allies. We can't just sit by and do nothing."

Then, he looked at fire spirit patriarch and continued, "Why don't we make the decision to resolve The Grudge between you and wood spirit?"

"Is that so?" ye chen raised an eyebrow.

Patriarch Golden Spirit and the other two transmitted their voices from the side, understanding what had happened. They learned that ye chen had killed mu kui and the wood spirit patriarch was being hunted down for revenge.

The patriarch of Earth Spirit had a troubled look on his face as he stared at the heavily injured patriarch of wood spirit with a strange look.

This ... Mu kui was killed by ye chen, so it was only natural for the wood spirit patriarch to seek revenge. However, his strength was inferior to ye chen 's. Even if he was reasonable, he was unreasonable. He could only lower his voice.

Patriarch Earth Spirit sighed softly and said with a smile, ""It was mu kui who was blind and offended fellow Daoist. He deserved to die. Now that old wood spirit has been seriously injured and has learned his lesson, why don't we spare his life?"

He could not help but look at ye chen.

Ye chen still stood in the air, his green robes fluttering in the wind. His eyes were indifferent and his expression was cold. It was impossible to tell his attitude from his expression.

"Of course, we will offer you our precious treasures. We hope that you will be magnanimous and stop here. Our grudges will end here."

The wood spirit patriarch waved his sleeve, and several heavenly materials and earthly treasures appeared with a dazzling golden light. They were brimming with spiritual energy, and one of them was even on the verge of becoming a spirit treasure!

"The green wood Spring is a holy healing medicine. It's said that it can regrow flesh and bones. Also, that wood spirit ginseng is about to turn into a spirit."

Fire spirit patriarch was counting the treasures by the side and said hurriedly, ""You must make a heavenly Dao oath to never attack my master again in the future, or else you'll die and your Dao will vanish."

The wood spirit patriarch ignored the fire spirit patriarch and only looked at ye chen.

However, he was disappointed. There was not a trace of greed in ye Chen's indifferent eyes.

As expected, ye chen sneered, not taking them seriously at all. His sharp gaze was threatening as he said, "He can dissolve it, unless he destroys his own cultivation!"

He had always done things this way. Either he didn't offend people, or since he had offended them, he had to cut the weeds and eliminate the roots!

Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable if the wood spirit patriarch came to earth for revenge.

The wood spirit patriarch's face was filled with despair. He then revealed a fierce expression and firmly refused. "What's the difference between losing your cultivation and death?!"

Patriarch Earth Spirit was enraged as well. He gritted his teeth and said, ""Fellow Daoist, are you bent on doing this?"

"Those who block me shall die!" "You're no exception!" Ye Chen's expression was indifferent.

Patriarch Earth Spirit and the other patriarch were immediately enraged. They immediately sent a voice transmission and joined forces.

"What an arrogant young man. We'd like to see how you're going to deal with the three of us."

"You dare?"

The fire spirit patriarch was about to burst out his true essence and join the battle to help ye chen kill the enemy.

Ye chen waved his hand in refusal. He was domineering, like a Supreme Emperor. "This ye alone is enough to deal with these three pieces of trash!"

"You're going too far!"

Patriarch Golden Spirit was the first to launch an attack, jaded-Gold Palm!

The giant palm that seemed to be made of Jade was overflowing with flowing light and a dazzling golden light.

Everyone could feel the terrifying power contained in it and it flew toward ye chen!

The battle was about to start!

Patriarch Earth Spirit stomped on the ground, and the soil churned as if there were many fish swimming in it. Then, a dark red poisonous miasma rose!

"Red Dragon earth monkey!"

The wood spirit patriarch took the opportunity to drink the sacred wood Spring and sit cross-legged to recuperate.

Ye chen snorted coldly. "You're just trying to show off your insignificant skills in front of an expert!"

"Asura suppress the heavens kill!"

"Kill!!!"

Suddenly, tens of thousands of Asuras appeared behind ye chen, shouting in unison to fight against the Golden Jade palm and the miasma Dragon.

The entire void was like an Asura battlefield. Blood Qi filled the sky and killing intent surged. The battle was so intense that the sun and moon lost their light!

"Join the battle!" The wood spirit patriarch quickly recovered from his injuries and joined the battle.

Ye chen was fighting one against three. His two fists could fight against six hands. He used all his divine powers and the void under his feet collapsed layer by layer.

They fought from the wood spirit star to the starry sky.

All the experts on wood spirit planet were stunned. The three patriarchs were Dao integration stage super mighty figures with extremely powerful cultivation bases and divine abilities. They would definitely kill this man and make him die a tragic death!

Wood spirit gritted his teeth and said, "You guys stall him, I'll kill this guy!"

The wood spirit patriarch waved his hand, and a wooden thorn that exuded an ancient destructive aura appeared. He spat out a mouthful of blood, clenched his hands, and directly shattered the blood Sea Shadow wooden spear and the new Jade virtual wooden shield. It was as if some ancient horror was gradually awakening!

Patriarch gold spirit and patriarch gold spirit looked in surprise at wood spirit, whose aura had withered and half of his body had turned into wood. They could not help but sigh in their hearts!

Ye chen was not willing to let him off, so he could only fight to the death!

The fire spirit patriarch felt the aura of the wooden spike and was even more terrified. He actually wanted to escape from the depths of his soul!

"It's a clan protection treasure! The old ancestor once said that it can not be used unless the clan is exterminated!"

"I didn't expect that the patriarch would use it to kill this man," an expert from wood spirit planet exclaimed. We must kill that person!"

Then, the man glared at ye chen with a venomous expression, as if he wanted to see ye chen fall here and die with his own eyes!

Chapter 1726 Woodspine Spirit-Sealing Pagoda!

The terrifying black wooden spikes.

The beast's body was ferocious, but it was not made of ordinary skin, hair, and scales.

Instead, it was like the bark of a dead tree. It had no eyes, and there was only a huge wooden thorn on its head, as if it was going to pierce through the sky!

"The Greenwood unicorn!"

The fire spirit patriarch and the other two recognized that the beast was the totem of faith of the wood spirit planet, the God of protection.

"It's said that this beast only existed in the desolation era. I didn't think that old wood spirit would feed it and summon it. "

Ye chen faced the ancient and violent aura. He frowned and waved his hand. With the power of the stars as ink and the dark sky as paper, the Emperor brush wrote wildly in the void.

Seal! Break! Kill!

The Starlight of the three words circulated and suppressed the giant beast!

The giant beast roared and its horn danced wildly. The three words were instantly torn apart, but they were shrouded by Starlight and sealed off the void!

Six paths of reincarnation fist!

Ye chen clenched his right fist and threw a punch.

The six paths of phenomena filled the starry sky, shaking the heavens and earth. The six paths of reincarnation shocked the heavens and earth, making ghosts and gods weep!

The giant beast's four legs broke through the Starlight blockade. Its horn crushed the void and charged toward ye chen like a train at the speed of light!

"Boom boom boom!!!"

The horn shattered!

Roar! As the behemoth roared, countless ghosts and deities charged out from the six paths and massacred the behemoth!

When everyone saw this scene, they were dumbfounded and tongue-tied!

Patriarch Golden Spirit and the other patriarch were also shocked. They took a deep breath and a ruthless look flashed in their eyes. They had to use their full strength!

Patriarch Golden Spirit took a deep breath and took out his clan's treasure, the Li fire Golden Wheel!

The Golden Wheel was like the sun, and the sun was as bright as fire. It was scorching hot and dazzling. Shadows of Fire phoenixes appeared in the starry sky, and they cried as they faced the sun!

The Golden Wheel li fire burned the sky and everything was destroyed. The star Stones beside it had long been burned into white smoke. The scene was terrifying!

Patriarch Earth Spirit also took out his sky-turning apricot flag and poured all his quintessential essence into it. In the starry sky, the flag fluttered and a yellow light shot up into the sky, as if it had awakened the sleeping God of the earth.

In the distance, a meteor the size of a star was burning in flames. It streaked across the silent void, rumbling non-stop as it headed straight for ye chen like a cannonball!

Patriarch Golden Spirit and the other two stood proudly in the air and looked at ye chen with killing intent. "Ye, it's not too late for you to kneel and surrender now!"

Ye chen stood proudly in the air, his divine light surging. His long hair danced wildly like a fiendgod as he said domineeringly, "I've said it. Anyone who blocks me will die!!!"

With that, he took a step forward and charged forward.

The two sides fought again!

Ye Chen's physical strength exploded as he used the thirty-three creation divine fists. He forced patriarch Golden Spirit to retreat and cough up blood.

"How is this possible? his physical body is not afraid of my golden li fire!" Patriarch Golden Spirit could not believe that his most powerful magical weapon was ineffective against him!

However, ye chen was overjoyed. First, it was the second wood power, then this li fire golden quintessence. His body could directly absorb it and could not hurt him at all.

"Hahaha." Ye chen laughed out loud.

"[Starseizing hand]!"

The power of the stars gushed in from all directions and gathered into a huge hand that could pluck the stars!

"Bang!!!"

The giant hand slammed down, and patriarch Golden Spirit was sent flying like a comet, shattering countless Star Stones!

The astral power in his hand rose and the absorption power in his hand exploded. The Li fire Golden Wheel was snatched away by ye chen.

Ye chen held it tightly and his physical body burst forth, absorbing all the Li fire golden essence in the Li fire Golden Wheel.

"No, what did you do?!"

Patriarch Golden Spirit felt the Li fire Golden Wheel and lost all of its spirit. It was like an ordinary object and he immediately spat out blood.

After absorbing it, ye Chen's body had three types of extreme energy. His body felt the Earth Dragon's chi in the sky-turning apricot flag and was eager to try!

He looked at patriarch Earth Spirit and smiled strangely.

When patriarch Earth Spirit saw that patriarch gold spirit had been defeated, he was shocked. He gritted his teeth and burst out again, causing the yellow light to intensify by several times!

The meteorite suddenly accelerated, as if it was passing through time and space, surging violently!

As the heat waves gushed toward him, the meteorite grew larger and larger in his eyes. It was like a star, covering the sky and the sun!

Ye chen did not dare to underestimate him. His divine light erupted again, even more dazzling than the meteorite's flames.

"Universe collapsing Thunder fist!"

The vital essence in his body was quickly gathering at a point at a speed that was invisible to the naked eye. That point became smaller and smaller until it could not be seen.

There was no earth-shaking sound, no awe-inspiring phenomenon.

It was as if only ye chen and his slow punch were left in the entire starry sky!

The fist and the meteorite were like eggs hitting a rock.

At that moment, BOOM!

Countless Black Thunder flames burst out from his fist!

The star-sized meteorite crumbled from the center and shattered into pieces. The debris was destroyed by the black Lightning!

There was only the sound of the explosion and the sound of thunder that echoed through the void and shook the starry sky!

Patriarch Earth Spirit spat out a mouthful of blood and suffered a backlash!

Ye Chen summoned the sky-turning apricot flag with one hand and absorbed all the Earth Dragon's chi in it.

Everyone was once again shocked. Even two of their clan protection treasures were unable to suppress it!

It was terrifying!

There was only fear in the eyes of the wood spirit patriarch, who was half a wooden giant!

He made up his mind and flew toward the wood spirit star. He chanted an ancient incantation to summon the ancestor Pagoda.

"Boom boom boom!!!"

A huge tower rose from the ground of wood spirit planet. It was so tall that it reached the clouds. It was covered in lush vegetation. The entire tower was like a mountain. It was carved with great craftsmanship!

Everyone on wood spirit planet was confused. What was this?

The wood spirit patriarch shouted in a voice that could be heard by every wood spirit. "This is our ancestor Pagoda, the black wood spirit locking Pagoda. As long as our clan's experts enter it and inject energy into it, they will be able to suppress ye within it!"

The wood spirit was overjoyed. Really?

Many powerhouses had entered the place just to suppress ye Chen!

The wood spirit patriarch turned his head and couldn't bear to look.

There was one thing he didn't mention. The energy that the ancestor Pagoda injected was life!

The giant beast's wooden spike would only consume his life span and cultivation base, but the wood spirit locking Pagoda would sacrifice all of the wood spirit race's experts to end the wood spirit race's future and exterminate them!

The fire spirit patriarch's face changed when he caught sight of the massive tower. Up until now, the wood spirit patriarch had the most tricks up his sleeve and the most solid foundation.

The rumor that an ancestor of the wood spirit clan had stepped onto the path to heaven and become an immortal was true.

Even if he used all his means, he would not be able to win.

Then, she looked at ye chen with a complicated expression, wondering how he was going to deal with it.

After the giant Pagoda absorbed the life force of the wood spirit clan's powerhouse, it glowed with an Azure light. With a rumble, it rose from the ground and flew toward ye chen.

Like a mountain falling from the sky, a dark shadow shrouded ye chen, growing larger and larger!

Ye chen did not have time to respond.

In an instant, the giant Pagoda had locked onto ye chen and smashed down.

"BOOM!"

The suppressive force continued to reverberate, shaking the starry sky and causing the void to collapse!

Ye chen was being suppressed!

"That's great!"

The people on wood spirit planet were overjoyed and cried tears of joy. They felt like they had been reborn after a disaster.

Patriarch Golden Spirit let out a sigh of relief. "If we keep fighting, we'll have to admit defeat. I didn't think that fellow Daoist wood spirit would have such a treasure. "

The wood spirit patriarch coughed heavily and said weakly, "Thank you for saving me!"

Chapter 1727 Master Of The Four Stars, Big Dipper Constellation!

Everyone looked at the tower in the starry sky, which suppressed the nightmare in their hearts and no longer had to be afraid.

Suddenly, a rumbling sound came from the giant tower, and the cheers all around stopped abruptly.

"Boom boom boom!!!"

The giant tower trembled non-stop, and the vegetation on the giant tower swayed wildly, causing sand and stones to roll down.

"Immortal slaying Flying Dagger, break!!!"

"Crack!"

The giant tower Dharma Treasure that was made from the entire mountain split open from the middle. A blade radiance shot out. It was extremely sharp and invincible!

The giant tower was split into two!

"Impossible!"

The wood spirit patriarch looked on in a daze as the young man in green slowly walked out of the broken tower.

He descended like a god, looking down on all living beings and disdainfully looking down on the world. "I'll let you see what a real celestial magical power is!!!"

Ye chen took a step forward and clenched his fist. "The art of three disasters and nine tribulations, Black Sun catastrophe!" He shouted.

In an instant, the starry sky lost its color and a strange phenomenon appeared.

A Black Sun immediately appeared above everyone's head. The surrounding stars were dim and lightless, as if all light had been absorbed by the Black Sun. It was extremely strange, and the entire star fell into endless darkness, as if the end of the world had come.

A black storm surged around the Black Sun, shattering the void. It was as if it wanted to devour all living beings.

It was the reappearance of celestial Lord calamity's magical power!

Under everyone's gazes, the Black Sun smashed down toward the wood spirit patriarch. The god of death had descended!

"No!"

The wood spirit patriarch looked at the Black Sun in despair. He waved all kinds of magical treasures in a frenzy. With a flash of light, the indestructible magical treasures were reduced to dust the moment they came into contact with the black storm.

Soon, the Black Sun descended, and a black storm swept over. The wood spirit patriarch's protective Zhen Yuan was torn apart like paper.

"Ah!"

A shrill cry rang out across the starry sky, and the wood spirit patriarch's body disappeared along with the Black Sun.

"BOOM!!!"

The wood spirit patriarch was dead! The death of a Dao integration stage super mighty figure shook the void!

The world instantly became deathly silent.

Everyone was stunned.

"The old ancestor is dead?"

The wood spirits were in disbelief. They were the strongest race among the four-star races. Mu kui dared to pursue Huo Xuan, and the wood spirit patriarch dared to interrogate the fire spirit patriarch for the murderer!

We have Supreme techniques left behind by true immortal patriarchs, and we have powerful Dao integration stage patriarchs.

But now, the old ancestor had fallen, and many of the clan's experts had died in the war as sacrifices.

The wood spirit clan was exterminated!

Patriarch gold spirit and patriarch wood spirit were terrified. The powerful patriarch wood spirit was dead!

"Fellow Daoist ye, we admit defeat. We admit defeat ..." They knelt down on the spot.

The wood spirit patriarch's body and Dao vanished while the Earth Spirit and gold spirit patriarchs were completely frightened out of their wits. They repeatedly apologized to ye chen and begged for mercy.

Ye chen was like an Emperor as he stepped into the air. Everyone lowered their heads, not daring to look at him or offend him.

"I can spare your lives, but I'll have to plant a restriction," he said softly.

The fire spirit elder explained the restrictions and ye Chen's request to them.

Ye chen continued, "don't worry. I'm not from this Galaxy. I won't stay here forever. You're still the clan leader and the king of this planet."

The two of them looked at each other, as if they were considering the truth of ye Chen's words.

However, in the next moment, they immediately felt an extremely terrifying killing intent.

The two of them immediately shivered and nodded. "We're willing, we're willing!"

In the end, patriarch Earth Spirit and ye chen agreed to plant a restriction and serve ye chen as their master.

In the starry sky, everyone from the three races shouted in unison, "We pay our respects to the Holy master!"

Ye chen had become the master of the four stars!

At this moment, the four-star experts were so shocked that their scalps turned numb!

This man had single-handedly suppressed three Dao integration stage super mighty figures, either killing them or subduing them!

How terrifying was this?

Earth Spirit star, the Imperial Palace of Tai Wu country.

There were huge stone statues everywhere, and the palace was made of dark gold. One couldn't see the top of the palace. The Dragon Throne was more than three meters tall, and the five-clawed Golden Dragon was very lifelike.

After patriarch gold spirit and the other two divided up planet wood spirit, they came to the main hall and knelt down on one knee. "Greetings, my Lord."

The fire spirit patriarch took a step forward and handed over four lists of treasures with both hands. "The wood spirit clan has been exterminated! These are all the treasures of the four clans. Please take a look, my Lord. "

Ye chen took the list and scanned through it. He picked out many cultivation resources and treasures that were useful to Yang Tian and the others.

Patriarch Earth Spirit and the other two's lips twitched as their hearts bled.

Ye Chen's eyes flashed and he asked, "Which star field is this?"

"This is the Big Dipper constellation."

Big Dipper star field?

Ye chen recalled the star chart and was overjoyed. This place was not too far from earth.

He could first inquire about the strength of the Big Dipper Star Zone. In the future, he might be able to set up an Ascension platform on Planet Gold spirit and the other four stars. In this way, the younger generation of cultivators on earth could ascend to this place after they had achieved great success and then go to other star zones.

It could also be considered a place for the cultivators who ascended from earth to settle down.

He smiled slightly. This plan was feasible.

Ye chen recalled that he had absorbed the ultimate power of three different attributes, metal, wood, and earth, in succession. He was still lacking fire and water.

Then, he couldn't help but look at fire spirit patriarch.

"Yi!"

He was puzzled. Why couldn't he sense the extreme power of fire from fire spirit patriarch? the fire spirit planet array didn't either.

"Why don't you have the ultimate fire energy?" he asked.

Fire spirit patriarch answered with a wry smile, "among the four stars, our fire spirit star is the weakest. Their ancestors have all killed innate Saint beasts and extracted their energy to refine innate secret treasures, which are the Green Dragon array, li fire Golden Wheel and sky-turning apricot flag. Only the innate Saint beasts of our fire spirit star are still here. They are not strong enough to kill them."

Then, she looked at ye chen and asked carefully, "Saint Lord, you want this extreme energy ...?"

Ye chen was overjoyed when he heard this. He hurriedly said, "I have my own uses for it. Quickly take it to that innate Saint Beast."

Fire spirit patriarch led the way to the forbidden land of Fire spirit planet, the sacred fire region.

The innate Saint Beast was in the fire domain. The creature that was suspected to be the fire Crow had descended on fire spirit planet countless years ago. For so many years, the fire spirit patriarch had been unable to do anything to it. Fortunately, both sides had stayed out of each other's way.

As they spoke, ye Chen's group soon arrived at the Holy Fire region. It was a red ball of light with a forest of fire on its surface. There were leaves and branches of fire, and countless fire crows were flying and playing in the forest.

"There isn't even a formation here?" Patriarch Earth Spirit asked in confusion.

How could such a terrifying innate Saint Beast not be sealed by a formation? Once it was born, the entire fire spirit star would be plunged into misery and suffering.

The fire spirit patriarch shook his head, "it's always been here and lived in peace for countless years. Sealing it off with the array will only attract the attacks of those little fire crows. It'll only produce the opposite effect."

It was so magical!

Ye Chen's interest was piqued. What was the innate Saint beast's purpose in coming here? could there be a treasure here that attracted it? Or was it protecting something?

Chapter 1728 The Land Of The Saint Venerable, Shocking The Golden Crow!

Ye chen stepped into the flaming red ball.

In the fire domain, it was a world of red and steaming hot lava. As far as the eye could see, an active volcano stood between the sky and the earth, radiating rivers of lava in all directions.

"Swish!"

The air was filled with dangerous flames that could not be detected by the naked eye, burning flesh and bones, extremely dangerous!

Ye chen walked above the magma. Bubbles rose from the magma and grew bigger and bigger until they burst. Suddenly, a large number of mysterious creatures emerged from the burst bubbles. These creatures looked like fire crows and were unafraid of the magma's heat. Thousands of crows cried in unison, echoing throughout the fire field.

They seemed to be welcoming their King.

Suddenly, a fire Crow that was a thousand feet long and had a powerful aura flew out from the volcano.

The CAW of a Crow resounded through the heavens and the earth. Its body was emitting heat waves that burned the void. The scorching lava formed a feather robe with flames flowing around it.

In the blink of an eye, he appeared in front of ye chen and spoke in the human language, ""Human, this is the saint's territory. It's not a place you can come to. Leave now or I'll bury you here."

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed and he said unhappily, "what?! In this vast world, there's no place I can't go. "

He shouted coldly, "today, this ye will charge into this Holy venerable's territory!"

"Die!"

The fire Raven let out an angry cry and flapped its wings. Two huge fireballs appeared out of thin air. Lava surged within the fireballs, and anyone who was hit by them would be burned to death.

In the outer realm, the fire spirit patriarch and the other two could feel the temperature of the fireball rising sharply. A terrifying aura emanated from it, and the crow's CAW sent a chill down their spines. It was actually stronger than them.

"Bang!"

Ye chen took a deep breath and gathered his primordial Qi. He threw a punch and the huge fireball shattered. The flames scattered on the ground and lava stuck to his fist, burning fiercely.

The fire Raven flapped its wings and soared into the sky before swooping down. The scorching lava condensed into dark-red flaming rocks that emitted a terrifying temperature and distorted the void. The fire Raven descended from the sky and flew toward ye chen.

"Innate Qi capturing technique."

Ye Chen's physical strength burst forth and a ball of golden light was released from his palm. Suddenly, it became a thousand feet tall and enveloped the charging Fire Crow. He clenched his fist tightly.

"BOOM!" The giant palm exploded violently, and smoke filled the air. Fiery rocks were shattered, and lava scattered in all directions.

The White smoke dispersed and ye Chen's golden right hand caught the fire Crow, which had shrunk several times in size, in one hand!

"How are you going to Stop Me Now?!" Ye chen laughed in a domineering manner.

"You'll regret this!" The fire Raven struggled madly. "The Lord will avenge me!"

Ye chen laughed coldly. His true energy exploded and he killed the fire Raven with a wave of his hand.

A sorrowful cry resounded through the heavens and earth as the fire Raven's aura rapidly declined.

"The fire Raven died just like that?"

The fire spirit patriarch was amazed. He had spent countless years and used countless methods but still could not kill the innate Saint Beast. Ye chen had killed it so quickly.

The two of them were shocked but they could not stop sighing. The stronger ye chen was, the more difficult it would be for them to remove the restriction and escape from his control!

"Boom boom boom!!!"

As soon as the fire Raven died, the entire sacred fire region went crazy. Lava spewed out of the crater like a giant pillar, and countless fire stones fell like a storm, splashing hot lava.

The fire forest on the surface of the fire domain withered quickly, and countless fire crows cawed in grief.

Above the lava, the fire crows gathered together and slowly merged into large fire crows that charged straight at ye chen.

"Hmph!"

Ye chen snorted coldly. 'Even your King is no match for me. How are you going to stop me?'

He rose into the air and pushed out with his palm, instantly defeating two or three large fire crows. However, the fire crows were still cawing. No matter how many times ye chen killed them, they would advance one after another, blocking him with their lives.

Ye chen punched his way through, blasting a path to the towering active volcano. The volcano was still erupting. The temperature here was countless times higher than the outside. If one was not careful, they would be drowned in the lava that erupted everywhere!

Even ye chen had put up a primordial Qi Shield to block the impact of the magma and the bone-burning flames.

Ye chen frowned and thought, 'the flames here are unusual and not something an ordinary Fire Crow can release. Who is the Holy senior it's talking about?'

Releasing his divine senses, he could see the entire fire domain. However, there was a mysterious hidden space that his divine senses could not penetrate. The Lord was at the end of the lava!

"Ha!"

Ye Chen's true energy and physical body burst out at full force. Upon closer inspection, the true energy shield was flowing with a golden light and was indestructible.

Like a comet, it swooped down and headed straight for the mysterious space under the lava.

"Swish!"

The dazzling light filled the entire mysterious space, causing ye chen, who had just stepped in, to be unable to open his eyes. He could only squint and see layers of shadows.

His eyes surged with purple light as he used his eye technique, the fiery golden eyes, to see the mysterious space.

It was a very ordinary cave with a round stone ceiling. The only special thing about it was that there was an unfathomably deep cave in the middle that seemed to lead straight to the core of the star. The dazzling light came from the cave from the bottom to the top, like a pillar of light.

It also carried a trace of a terrifying and dangerous aura!

Ye chen walked over slowly, operating it at full force and looking into the distance.

At the bottom of the cave, there was actually an indescribably large living being hovering. That living being's entire body was purple-gold in color, and its wings were thousands of feet long when spread out. One wing could cover the sky and the sun, and those feathers were like diamond-shaped crystals, sparkling.

As he breathed, hot air boiled and he spurted out purple-gold true fire, burning the void. Just his breathing was enough to make the entire magma world boil.

Ye chen stared at the mysterious creature and suddenly recognized it as the Golden Crow! It ate the essence fire of sun.

His heart trembled slightly, and his breathing slowly became slow and heavy.

The Golden Crow clan had always only existed in the spiritual realm, and their strength was extraordinary. No one dared to provoke them, so why would a golden Crow appear here?

At the same time, the slumbering golden Crow sensed the arrival of an uninvited guest. A pair of huge eyes suddenly opened. It was as if ye chen was facing two scorching Suns at an extremely close distance. The heat waves hit him in the face!

The sun-like eyes burned the world and were accompanied by an extremely terrifying pressure, reflecting ye Chen's tiny figure.

"Trespassers will die!!!"

The Golden crow's indifferent and solemn voice rang out, as if he were the master of this place.

The entire space began to shake violently. With a cry, a dazzling purple-gold pillar of light pierced through the void and whistled toward ye chen.

Ye chen did not dare to be careless and retreated. The purple-gold light followed closely behind him, unable to escape.

Ye chen turned around and clenched his fists, punching out madly. In an instant, he had punched out countless times. The void in front of him was like a mirror, with more and more cracks appearing and growing larger.

"Void vibration."

"Bang!"

The void exploded, and a terrifying shockwave poured out from the hole and collided with the purple-gold light beam!

"BOOM!!!"

Both sides engaged in an intense battle!

Chapter 1729 Destroy The Golden Crow And Return To Earth!

"Bang!"

The shockwaves of the explosion shook the air and created waves of lava.

Ye chen took the opportunity to change his move and pointed with his fingers.

"Emperor Qing MU's finger!!!"

A ball of green life energy appeared behind him and fought with the destructive flames of the lava world.

The wooden finger print pierced through the air and pointed at the Golden crow's forehead.

The Golden Crow roared as his Zhen Yuan surged and purple-gold true flames burned.

It spread its wings and a terrifying true flame shot out from between its eyebrows. The green finger mark was like butter that had met a hot knife, melting the ice and losing its vitality.

Ye Chen's heart trembled. Emperor Qing Mu, who had been unrivaled in the past, had been easily defeated.

His eyes flashed, and he was surprised to find that the Golden Crow's strength was equivalent to a Dao integration stage late-stage cultivator.

"Die!" The Golden Crow shouted, "you lowly human!"

If he unleashed his full power at the late-stage Dao integration realm, he could easily crush a four-star patriarch.

A terrifying aura rushed toward Ye Chen. Just the pressure alone shattered the void.

The purple-gold true flames quickly gathered above the Golden Crow, and the surrounding lava was also sucked up.

A fireball that contained a huge amount of energy was condensed. The void around the fireball had long been burned to ashes, leaving only a black hole around the fireball.

The fireball filled the entire mysterious space, even the air was burning. Everything that got close to the fireball would be destroyed.

Ye Chen faced the terrifying fireball directly. His entire body was illuminated red. Before his protective true energy could even come into contact with the true flame, it was already burning with a sizzling sound.

The Golden Crow fireball, which could easily kill a Dao integration stage super mighty figure, was completely disdainful. "I'll let you experience the might of the heavenly Emperor!"

"Swish!"

The dragon-like immortal flying knife emerged from the void. At this moment, the dragons in the nine Heavens roared and revealed their sharpness. The Emperor had descended. Once the Dragon knife appeared, no one could compete with it!

"No! What kind of celestial artifact is this?" The Golden Crow trembled in fear upon seeing the immortal slaying saber. Even though he was a Dao integration stage late-stage mighty figure, he was still doomed to die in the face of this saber!

"Slash!!!"

Ye Chen swung his saber and the fireball's huge saber ray split into two. The saber ray was the only thing in the world. It was like a white stallion passing through a crack, the saber cutting through the void!

"Ah!"

The Golden Crow cried out in pain, and a dazzling blade of light shot out from within its body.

"Bang!"

The Golden crow's body exploded, and countless true flames scattered across the sea of lava, creating huge waves!

The Golden Crow Falcon!

Ye chen took a deep breath. This golden Crow was truly powerful. If he did not have the immortal slaying Flying Dagger, he would not have been able to withstand that terrifying fireball.

In front of him, where the Golden Crow was circling, there were balls of golden true flames that gathered.

Ye chen was overjoyed. It was the origin fire seed!

It turned out that the Golden Crow had been absorbing the origin fire seed here all this time. Fortunately, he was lucky. If he had been any later and the Golden Crow had finished absorbing it, he would not have been a match for it.

Ye chen then extracted the origin fire seed that the Golden Crow had absorbed from its corpse and combined the two into one.

In the depths of the lava where the Golden Crow was killed, the extreme fire energy filled the entire mysterious space.

The pure golden origin fire seed floated in the air, and countless fire spiritual Qi worshipped it.

Sitting cross-legged in meditation, ye chen suddenly absorbed the origin fire seed into his body.

"Hiss!"

Ye chen gasped. The origin fire seed had exploded in his dantian. The violent flames rushed into his meridians, blood, and even every cell with unstoppable momentum.

Its entire body was glowing red. From afar, it looked like a fiery red gem that was shining and steaming.

Cracks appeared on his body, and deep red lava could be seen flowing through them. It was a terrifying sight.

Ye chen gritted his teeth and clenched his fists. His fingers had dug into his flesh and blood. He was in unbearable pain, burning his flesh and bones. The Golden-red true flame penetrated deep into his bone marrow like a fire Dragon. It flew wildly inside and almost fainted.

His body was emitting a golden light that flickered in and out of existence. His body was gradually becoming stronger under this demonic torture!

After an unknown period of time, ye chen finally finished absorbing the origin fire seed. His body was drenched in sweat. He bent over and took in deep breaths of air. He had almost died.

After carefully feeling the strength of his body, ye chen threw his head back and laughed. He threw a punch and the void trembled.

Then, with a wave of his sleeve, the spirit stones on the ground formed a mountain. Those were the five million spirit stones offered by the fire spirit patriarch and the other two. He was absorbing them madly.

Once the spirit stone was emptied, ye chen came out of his closed-door cultivation. His cultivation base was still stuck at the Dao integration stage Great Perfection. He was still half a step away from the crossing calamity stage!

Ye chen shook his head, his face full of disappointment as he left the mysterious space.

Three days later, fire spirit star.

The fire spirit patriarch and the other two looked into the fire domain and conversed in low voices. They were guessing whether ye chen had died in there.

"Do you think he has already fallen in there?"

"It's hard to say. We can't see through his strength. Why don't we wait a little longer?"

,m "It's already been three days, how much longer do we have to wait?"

Suddenly, ye Chen's indifferent voice rang out in the air, ""This ye didn't die, are you all very disappointed?"

The three's expressions changed drastically, and cold sweat broke out. They immediately bowed their heads and hurriedly denied, ""I wouldn't dare. The Holy master's strength is monstrous. How could he die so easily?"

When they looked up again, they saw ye chen stepping out of the endless sea of fire. His eyes were like two suns. The scorching sun was like a knife, stinging the eyes of the three people.

The most shocking thing for the three of them was that the energy on ye Chen's body seemed to be getting stronger and stronger. It was unfathomable and they did not dare to have the slightest thought of resisting.

Ye chen turned around to look at the fire domain behind him, his expression slightly regretful. ""It's a pity that I've already absorbed the power of the four elements of metal, wood, fire, and earth. I'm still short of the water element. Otherwise, I could have successfully cultivated the ancient God Body."

However, he had no choice but to give up. He ordered the three patriarchs, ""You need to gather treasures and build an Ascension platform on the four-star planet. In the future, if anyone from earth, the celestial burial planet, or China comes here, you three must treat them well. Otherwise, you'll end up worse than the wood spirit patriarch!"

After that, ye chen waved his sleeves and left.

The fire spirit patriarch and the other two watched his back as he left and could not help but sigh in relief. Ye Chen's exit from his closed-door cultivation had brought them too much of a deterrent!

They looked at each other and saw the shock in each other's eyes. "The immortal-burying star? Wasn't this planet already in decline? How can it still give birth to such a terrifying existence?"

"It's impossible to resist," patriarch Earth Spirit said, resigned. "Just do as he says."

After he finished speaking, he flew away.

Ye Chen's physical body traversed the void like a meteor. He returned to the dried-up planet Neptune and found the ancient starry sky teleportation formation.

He stepped in and waved his sleeve. A large number of spiritual stones poured out. The ancient starry sky teleportation formation gave off waves of Starlight, lighting up the ancient runes carved on it. With a buzz, the teleportation was activated.

The power of teleportation was activated. In the spatial passageway, ye chen saw countless stars passing by him.

He looked at the Blue Planet that had appeared at the end of the space tunnel.

Ye chen was extremely excited. After a series of battles, he had finally returned to his familiar home.

Earth, I'm back!

Chapter 1730 The Departure Of Su Yuhan!

Ye chen walked out of the ancient starry sky teleportation formation on Mount Jiangjun on earth.

Once again, ye chen came into contact with the safe green mountains and clear waters. He took a deep breath of the fresh air of earth and felt refreshed.

He felt a sense of security.

There were brothers and friends who knew each other and protected their homeland together.

On Mount Jiangjun, ye Chen's cultivation base aura faintly spread out, startling many birds and beasts. They fled in panic and the birds chirped in alarm. Soon, many powerhouses sensed it and immediately whistled over.

Among the crowd were old ancestor yellow spring, ye Wushuang, Phoenix, sky trampling Big Shot, the four great ancestors of sorcery, Yang Tian, and others.

When old ancestor yellow spring saw that it was ye chen, his tensed heart relaxed and he hurriedly asked, "Fellow Daoist ye, where have you been during this time?"

Everyone couldn't help but gather around, their eyes filled with curiosity.

Ye chen had disappeared for five days!

Ye chen told everyone about his journey to the Big Dipper constellation, his conquest of the fire spirit planet, his battle with the wood spirit patriarch, his conquest of the four great planets, his exploration of the fire domain, and his thrilling experience of fighting the Golden Crow.

Yang Tian and the others were shocked. The starry sky outside of earth was so wonderful. Treasure hunting, adventures, and challenges coexisted. They could not help but look forward to it.

"One day, I'm going to explore the outer realms. To appreciate the beauty of the starry sky and the vastness of the universe. " Someone muttered to himself.

Old ancestor yellow spring and old Daoist heaven trampling said, ""The universe is vast and endless. The fire spirit star is nothing. The real world is in the spiritual realm, where experts gather, opportunities are everywhere, and all kinds of primordial Supreme treasures are there."

Ye chen nodded and said heroically, "The spiritual realm is the world we want to conquer!"

Then, he threw out another piece of shocking news: "I'm already the master of the four stars of the Big Dipper star area. I've arranged for people to build the heaven-ascending platform on the four stars. In the future, you can ascend to the Big Dipper star area and use it as a springboard to explore the starry sky. "

"That's great. "

Everyone was extremely surprised. They could also head to the outer heavenly domain that they had been eagerly looking forward to.

With another wave of his hand, a mountain of natural treasures appeared. Golden light shone brightly, and spiritual Qi swept over like the wind. There was even a drizzling rain condensed from spiritual Qi, which increased the spiritual Qi in the area by several times.

"Take these and cultivate. Work hard to improve your cultivation. Only then will you have the strength to protect yourself in the outer realms."

Everyone was overjoyed and nodded in agreement.

Ye chen also had a Supreme treasure that was offered by patriarch Earth Spirit in his hands. It was very suitable for Yuhan and he wanted to give it to her.

Looking around, he suddenly found that his wife, su Yuhan, wasn't here. He had a bad feeling and couldn't help but ask, ""Where's Yuhan? why didn't she come? Wait for me at home?"

When everyone heard this, their expressions changed, as if they wanted to say something but stopped.

Ye Chen's expression changed slightly. He seemed to realize something. His heart sank and he hurriedly asked old ancestor yellow spring.

Old ancestor yellow spring looked embarrassed. He sighed and said, "Miss su, she ... She's been taken back to the underworld ..."

What?

Ye Chen's figure swayed. He quickly steadied his expression and instantly soared into the sky, leaving the crowd looking at each other and sighing.

A flash of light streaked across the sky like lightning. Ye chen quickly landed at the ye clan in Lin city.

He entered the house anxiously and searched around. He opened one room after another, but all of them were empty. It was as if the expectations in his heart were falling apart bit by bit and finally turned into disappointment.

The beautiful woman who used to cook at home and wait for her husband's triumphant return, who used to play in this room, had long disappeared, leaving me.

Ye Chen sat paralyzed on the ground, his face full of sorrow. His heart felt like it was being cut by a knife. It was as if a part of the world had been cut away and was no longer complete.

"Yuhan, why didn't you wait for me?" he mumbled as he sobbed. Why didn't you wait for me? Why do you have the heart to leave me? Why did you ..."

His parents, Ye Hai and Wu Lan, knew that Ye Chen had returned home but they did not disturb him.

At this moment, they walked out and wiped their tears. They said sadly, "Little Chen, Yuhan has left ... She even brought Mengmeng with her ..."

.....

Half an hour later, Ye Chen emerged from his sorrow and asked his parents, "Dad, mom, what happened when I was away? Why did Yuhan leave without saying goodbye?"

In the end, Ye Hai told Ye Chen what had happened to Su Yuhan and the earth-shaking changes that had happened to her during this period of time.

It turned out that Su Yuhan had awakened too much power in the previous battle, which made her memory of the Dark Lord clearer and clearer. She was influenced by the Dark Lord in her previous life, and her obsession with the power and power of the Dark Lord became stronger and stronger.

In fact, her cultivation had advanced to the underworld sage realm in just half a month, which was equivalent to a Dujie-stage cultivator.

It was also because she had awakened more and more power that she finally sensed the call of the netherworld. In order to fulfill the netherworld Lord's obsession, she had no choice but to leave.

They even took their daughter, Mengmeng, with them.

After understanding the whole story, Ye Chen clenched his fists in regret. He regretted that he should have stayed by Su Yuhan's side. Otherwise, he might have been able to stop her or accompany her to the netherworld and shelter her from the wind and rain.

At this moment, Wu Lan took out a letter and handed it to Ye Chen. "This is what Su Yuhan left for you."

After that, she left with her husband, Ye Hai, to give Ye Chen some space.

Ye Chen's hands trembled as he opened it and read it carefully. Tears welled up in his eyes and he could not help but take a deep breath.

"Xiao Chen, when you read this letter, I might not be by your side anymore. Don't be sad, don't be angry ..."

In the letter, Su Yuhan mentioned that she went to the underworld of her own free will, and that she wasn't completely affected by the memory of the previous underworld Lord.

She had gone to the netherworld because she had seen the tragic fate of many of her clansmen. They were in danger all day long, with no clothes to cover their bodies and no food to fill their stomachs. Everyone was in danger.

She couldn't bear to see her clansmen in prison, so she made this decision because she was determined to change the situation.

There was one more sentence at the end of the letter. "Xiao Chen, I don't want to be a flower vase that hides behind you all the time. So, please forgive my willfulness this time. I believe that we will be able to reunite soon."

Not long after, old ancestor yellow spring and the others also came in, as if they wanted to enlighten him.

At that time, they did not agree with su Yuhan's decision and kept persuading her to wait for ye Chen's return before making a decision.

To their surprise, su Yuhan's strength increased greatly. She sent them flying as soon as she attacked, and took the opportunity to summon the gate of the underworld. The gate to the sky emitted a terrifying and ancient aura. When others approached, the gate of the underworld would release a bone-chilling storm that even the soul splitting cultivators could not resist.

They could only watch su Yuhan open the passage by force and take Mengmeng to the underworld.

As ye Chen's comrades and brothers who had gone through life and death with him, they also blamed themselves for not being able to stop su Yuhan from leaving.

Now, everyone was quietly waiting for ye chen outside the door.
