Chapter 181: Lin Tai's Arrangement

At a window seat on the second floor of a roast duck restaurant, Ye Chen took a napkin and wiped his daughter's mouth after she finished half an oven-roasted duck. He said while smiling, "My darling, are you full?"

"Daddy, where did Cutie go?"

The little girl burped and felt like it was a waste as she looked at the remaining half of the roast duck on the table. "Mengmeng can't finish it. It'd be great if Cutie were here."

"I've shipped Cutie over. He should be on the way."

Ye Chen was in between tears and laughter. He called the waiter over and left the restaurant after paying the bill while carrying the little girl. He was secretly exclaiming to himself.

It was no wonder that Beijing was the capital of the country. With all sorts of food, it was like heaven for the gluttons.

A black Mercedes Benz was parked outside.

As the car door was opened, a young man walked out of the car. He walked to Ye Chen and called out respectfully, "My lord."

Ye Chen could not help but stop walking and looked at him. He subsequently came to a realization. "Are you Lin Tai's man?"

"That's right. My name is Wang Meng, the person-in-charge that Brother Leopard arranged for you in Beijing. I was responsible for finding Ms. Su earlier." Wang Meng nodded and proceeded to speak, "Brother Leopard called me when you got on the plane this morning. I've arranged your accommodation for you."

"Lin Tai sure is thorough." Ye Chen smiled coldly and subsequently got into the black Mercedes Benz. Perhaps because they had just eaten, the little girl fell asleep on his lap.

Soon, the car drove into a vintage house. It was not big, but the environment was pretty great. To enhance confidentiality, Lin Tai did not even hire a butler.

Ye Chen got out of the car and walked into the house. He placed his sleeping daughter on the bed and said to Wang Meng after he went to the living room, "Any news about Yuhan's whereabouts?"

"Not for now." Wang Meng was startled at first, then shook his head as he spoke, "To cover our identities after Brother Leopard sent us here, we established a delivery company. We were looking for Ms. Su's whereabouts under the name of the delivery company, but there's been no breakthrough until now."

Ye Chen shook his head and said in disappointment, "Could she be in the Su residence?"

Although Su Youwei had said that Su Yuhan might be captured in a temple, Ye Chen did not believe everything she said.

“That’s impossible,” Wang Meng shook his head and said in determination, “We’ve sent people into the Su residence more than ten times, but we didn’t see Ms. Su anywhere. Even the people in the Su family have no idea about her whereabouts. A few of my men made a mistake earlier which caused the Su family to have their guard up.”

“What happened after that?”

“It was hard for our people to get into the Su residence since then. We even got the attention of Beijing’s local underground organization. The people from the Fast Attack Group have been watching us, and we’ve lost more than 100 men since then.” Wang Meng forced a smile.

Ye Chen could not help but frown. “The Fast Attack Group?”

Was there such a shady existence under the law?

“That’s right, the Fast Attack Group. They’re a security company on the surface, but in reality, they’re a gang.” Wang Meng nodded and said, “Also, we’ve found out that the Fast Attack Group has deep ties. It seems to be an organization belonging to the Xue family.”

The Xue family?

Ye Chen’s expression turned slightly grim. He had learned about almost all of the organizations in Beijing on the plane. This Xue family was a wealthy family in the same position as the Su family, the Qin family, the Li family, the Weis, the Pangs, and the Yans.

He came to a realization as he thought to this point. He asked, “How many shrines and temples are there in Beijing?”

“I’m not sure how many exactly there are,” Wang Meng thought to himself before answering in an unsure manner, “But there are at least a hundred of them added together.”

At least a hundred...

Ye Chen could not help but be stunned although he was mentally prepared. He said after falling into silence for a few seconds, “How many people do you have under you?”

“Less than 200,” Wang Meng replied.

“Send all of your men out. Check out all of the shrines and temples in Beijing inside out.”

“My lord, won’t that attract the attention of other organizations that might stop us?” Wang Meng asked in a hesitant manner.

A mocking smirk appeared at the corner of Ye Chen’s lips. His voice was extremely cold as he stated, “I’ll kill whoever dares to stop me.”

The Xue family, the Su family...

Sensing the killing intent from him, Wang Meng clenched his teeth. "Sure, I'll arrange that. Oh yeah, my lord, we have a business in Beijing. It's a medicine hall. Do you want to take a look at that?"

It was Lin Tai who had arranged that too.

Lin Tai knew that Ye Chen could refine pills. Since he would need herbs to refine pills, he had purchased a medicine hall on purpose.

"Bring me there."

...

In the Eastern City of Beijing, Ye Chen got out of the car while carrying his daughter when they arrived at a store called the Qi Medicine Hall. He stood by the street while checking out the store before him.

The store was not big at some 100 square meters. Customers went in and out occasionally.

Lin Tai was truly reliable, whereby he had done that without even being asked to. It was no wonder that he rose in notoriety in Lin City.

Ye Chen secretly nodded as he walked into Qi Medicine Hall with Wang Meng's guidance. The pungent smell of Chinese herbs swept through their noses as soon as they entered.

An old man who was over 50 years old was serving customers at the counter at that moment.

Upon seeing Ye Chen and the rest, he put everything that he was doing down and went over. However, he was walking toward Wang Meng with a fake smile, "Mr. Wang, you're here. You should've told me that you're coming."

Meanwhile, he did not even look at Ye Chen from the beginning as he was under the assumption that he was Wang Meng's underling.

Wang Meng looked rather awkward. He glared at him instantly and introduced, "This is Mr. Ye, the boss. Mr. Ye, this is the shopkeeper that we hired, Huang Fugui."

Huang Fugui was stunned at first. Then, he stretched his arm toward Ye Chen immediately. He was smiling widely as he said, "Ahh, so you're the boss. I must be blind to not have recognized you. I hope that you won't blame me for that."

"Don't worry about it." Ye Chen shook his head and put the little girl down.

Huang Fugui shouted into the store instantly, "Daniu, where the hell are you? Serve us tea now."

Soon, a young man who appeared crude and honest walked out with a cup of tea.

The young man was stunned when he saw Ye Chen. Emotionally, he subsequently spoke, "A-are you Brother Chen?"

"What Brother Chen? He's our boss. Don't call him whatever you want." Huang Fugui glared at him angrily.

"It's been a while, Daniu." Ye Chen smiled lightly.

The young man before him was the Zhang Daniu that he had met on the way to the Wumeng Grasslands the last time. He was the young man who had brought his late sister's ashes to the grassland in order to make her wish come true.

Huang Fugui was stunned this time. "Boss, do you guys know each other?"

"We've met before." Ye Chen nodded and took the tea from Zhang Daniu. He said while smiling, "Daniu, why are you here?"

"Brother C—Oh, no, I mean, Boss, I buried my sister in my hometown after visiting the grassland."

Zhang Daniu scratched his head and said, feeling embarrassed, "My parents got me a lady in the village, but their family is asking for 48,000 yuan as dowry. That's why I'm working now. I make 2,200 yuan per month whereby I spend 200 yuan and send 2,000 yuan home. I'll be able to return and marry her in two years."

"Then, work hard here. If your performance is good, I'll give you a raise." Ye Chen smiled in surprise.

The impression he had of Zhang Daniu was getting better. He was sincere and honest with a simple mind. He was not as pretentious as the shopkeeper, Huang Fugui.

Huang Fugui echoed sarcastically with a smile, "You'd better keep it up."

"Dad, are you bullying my Brother Daniu again?"

As a coquettish complaint was heard, a young lady walked in. She was in her early 20s and seemed delicate with her eyebrows that looked like crescent moons. However, she looked irritated at the moment.

"What do you mean bullying him?" Huang Fugui smiled awkwardly at Ye Chen and initiated the introduction, "Boss, this is my daughter Huang Pei. She's helping out in the store. Peipei, come greet the boss."

In reality, he felt rather guilty. Before today, he thought that there was no boss at the store, so he secretly hired his daughter who did nothing much with a full salary.

Huang Pei then looked at Ye Chen in shock. She said in utter surprise, "You're our boss?"

She was not to be blamed. Indeed, seeming young aside, Ye Chen did not have the look and vibe of a boss at all.

Even Huang Fugui had been shocked earlier.

Ye Chen nodded coldly.

After Huang Pei accepted that with some effort, she placed her hands on her waist instantly. "Boss, you must give my Brother Daniu a raise. He works early and finishes late. Plus, he does everything in the store."

"It's alright, it's alright. I'm not tired at all as long as Brother Chen doesn't blame me for being dumb." Zhang Daniu's cheeks flushed as he waved instantly.

Ye Chen chuckled. "I will. I'll definitely give him a raise."

At that moment, there were more and more customers in the store, thus Huang Fugui and his daughter began working. Naturally, they would have to pretend before their boss.

Just when Ye Chen was leaving, two ladies walked in. The leading lady, who wore a light yellow skirt, was surprised to see Ye Chen.

"Oh, it's you, the almighty miracle doctor!"

Chapter 182: Monkeys Gathering Around The Dragon Spitting Mist

To Ye Chen's surprise, it was Yan Ning whom he had met on the plane earlier.

Yan Ning was clearly rejoicing. She could not stop talking while lingering around him. "Why are you here, almighty miracle doctor? Don't tell me that this medicine hall is yours?"

She was surprised and thrilled.

She asked to keep in contact with Ye Chen when they got off the plane, but he had refused to. She was pissed because of that for a long time. Never had she thought that she would bump into him when she was out with her friend at the medicine hall.

Ye Chen said coldly, "It's considered mine."

"Sister Nannan, he's that almighty miracle doctor that I told you about." Yan Ning grabbed onto the lady's hand next to her and introduced to Ye Chen while smiling, "Miracle doctor, this is my friend Wei Nan."

Meanwhile, Wei Nan was checking Ye Chen out too. She secretly frowned upon noticing that Ye Chen looked and dressed mediocly. Although she generally would not judge a person by his or her cover, she had no interest in Ye Chen at all.

Was this man the miracle doctor who treated Yan Ning and determined that Zhang Zijian would die within seven steps?

Could both of them be scammers?

Although she thought about that, she forced a neutral smile at Ye Chen. After all, it would be nice for her to even glance at him.

"Almighty miracle doctor, we bumped into each other twice within a day. Do you think that's destiny?" Yan Ning gushed to Ye Chen, failing to notice Wei Nan's expression. "Since it's destiny, tell me your name. We'll be friends in Beijing from now on."

Ye Chen could no longer tolerate her clinginess, so he said coldly, "Ye Chen."

"My name is Yan Ning. 'Yan' as in swallow bird and 'ning' as in peace," Yan Ning began to introduce herself, oblivious to Ye Chen's coldness.

At that moment, Huang Fugui, who was standing aside, walked over. He said while smiling, "Are both of you here to purchase medicine?"

"No," Yan Ning shook her head and said, "I want to ask what masculine herbs are."

She had had menstrual pain when she was on the plane and she clearly remembered Ye Chen asking if she consumed masculine herbs. That was the reason why she brought her friend along to check it out so that she would not eat the wrong thing again.

Masculine herbs?

Huang Fugui looked confused. He had been dealing with herbs for decades, but it was his first time hearing such a term as 'masculine herbs'.

Could it be aphrodisiacs?

Ye Chen explained, "Masculine herbs are herbs that can stimulate a person's blood. You ate that and it caused your menstrual load to be heavy, as well as blood clots and menstrual pain."

Yan Ning looked like she understood. Just when she was going to speak again, next to her, Wei Nan urged, "Alright, Yan Ning, we should leave since you've found out what it is."

She did not want to stay there even for a second. 'What masculine herbs? That's pure nonsense. Only Yan Ning would believe that. She's being fooled because she's so gullible.'

"Sister Nannan, we've just gotten here." Yan Ning's pretty face turned disappointed.

"I'm leaving even if you aren't," Wei Nan said coldly.

Yan Ning held onto her immediately. She turned her head and said to Ye Chen, "Almighty Miracle Doctor Ye, you saved me on the plane. Why don't I treat you to dinner tonight and introduce a few friends to you? Then, your business will flourish."

Just when Ye Chen wanted to reject her, next to him, Huang Fugui agreed instantly, "Sure, that's great."

As a wise man, a glance was all he needed to tell that the two ladies before them came from extraordinary backgrounds. That would mean that their friends were prominent too. With those people as the store customers, business at the store would flourish. In turn, he would get a raise too.

"That's settled. I'll pick you up in the evening, Almighty Miracle Doctor Ye." Yan Ning did not wait for Ye Chen's rejection and left after that.

After they left, Ye Chen looked at Huang Fugui expressionlessly. "Are you the boss or am I?" He hated others deciding for him.

"You are, you are." Huang Fugui gave a start. Then, he forced a smile that looked even uglier than if he were to cry. "Boss, I won't do it again, but if we really can know them better, perhaps we won't have to pay the commission any longer."

"What commission?" Ye Chen looked serious.

Wang Meng, who had been quiet all the while, explained immediately, "It's the protection fee. This entire street is under the Fast Attack Group that collects money from us every month."

He did not want to have conflicts with the Fast Attack Group and end up delaying the business, so he could only do whatever they said. After all, he had to lower his head in their territory.

"Commission...interesting." Ye Chen scoffed. With a smirk, he looked at Huang Fugui extremely dangerously. "No more next time."

"Boss, if we don't give them the money, what if the Fast Attack Group stir things up at the store?" Huang Fugui's expression changed. A regular person like him could not afford to offend the Fast Attack Group.

"Get them to ask me for the money directly."

Ye Chen walked out of the medicine hall after saying that while Wang Meng followed closely behind him.

...

In a Porsche, Wang Nan rolled her eyes at Yan Ning and said angrily, "Aren't you dumb to be inviting him for dinner?"

"But he saved me." Yan Ning pouted and ignored her.

Wei Nan frowned. "How would you know if he played a trick on you so that he could get closer to you? I've met too many people like him. Cut ties with him."

"No, Sister Nannan. Ye Chen really has magnificent medical skills. Believe me. I want to introduce him to treat my grandpa." Yan Ning began to panic.

"Whatever." Wei Nan sighed helplessly and drove away.

She was secretly scoffing inwardly, 'So what if you're really a miracle doctor? This is Beijing. Miracle doctors are insignificant. I'd like to see what happens to you after those men who are courting Yan Ning find out that you're close to her, dumba*s.'

1...

In the afternoon, Ye Chen stood by a pile of gravel. There was an artificial park before him. A vintage pavilion was erected in his field of vision and lush trees filled the place.

An artificial lake was spread out in the middle of the park. The lake was winding, and the end of the lake was right before Ye Chen. It looked like a dragon that was spitting mist out.

Meanwhile, there was a dried tree stump next to the lake. Countless monkeys were scratching themselves while standing on the tree stump and having fun.

At that moment, a security guard in uniform came out of nowhere. He chased the monkeys away with an electric baton in his hand. However, after he left, the monkeys came back.

Ye Chen said, "What is this place?"

“My lord, this used to be a private zoo called the Imperial Wind Pavilion,” Wang Meng introduced, “A couple who lived abroad once owned this place. The couple was addicted to gambling later on and they got into huge debt, so they jumped off a building and killed themselves. Since one of their creditors was a state-owned enterprise, the government could only close the zoo for now. They’re planning to pawn the place for money.”

‘Monkeys gathering around a dragon spitting mist.’

Admiration flashed in Ye Chen’s eyes. He had no idea whether that couple had been lucky to have built a private zoo on a mini dragon vein.

In the context of a dragon spitting mist, it was dragon energy that was being spat out. The circulating energy made it a treasured land. However, the couple knew nothing about feng shui. They placed the dragon’s head, which was the end of the lake, facing outside the park. That would imply spilling their fortune out. It was no wonder that they became addicted to gambling later on.

The monkeys knew that it was treasured land. That was the reason why they would not leave no matter how the people tried chasing them away.

If Ye Chen were to purchase this park, he could remodel it by building a great formation on the dragon vein. With the dragon energy as the source and the formation as the skeleton, he would make this place a natural spiritual land that could accelerate one’s cultivation.

Ye Chen could not help but ask when he thought about it, “This park hasn’t been sold yet, has it?”

“No.” Wang Meng shook his head and spoke again, “But there’s already a buyer. The Su family happens to like it, and they’re planning to purchase it as a gift. The other families naturally won’t fight them for this. Therefore, this park is basically the Su family’s.”

‘The Su family purchased it as a gift? Haha, they’re going to give this to the man behind Su Yao. It’s such a big gift. Is it dowry?’

Ye Chen squinted. “I want this park.”

Currently worth over tens of billions, it was a piece of cake for him to purchase the park.

Shocked, Wang Meng said after taking a sharp inhale, “My lord, the Su family wants it. I don’t think we should be stirring things up with the Su family now. Moreover, we haven’t found Ms. Su yet.”

“It doesn’t matter!” Ye Chen stood with his arms behind his back while his tone was extremely severe. “I never planned to be low profile since the beginning. This will be the first gift that I’m giving the Su family. When they’re hurt, they’ll naturally show their true colors.”

‘To the man behind the Su family, this is my test for you. Will you be able to hold back? Show yourself. Show me who you are so that I can reap your lives one after another.’

Chapter 183: Yan Ning’s Invitation

At night, Ye Chen returned to the Qi Medicine Hall.

It was time to go home, but Huang Fugui had yet to close the door. Ye Chen saw him playing chess with Huang Pei when he arrived while Huang Daniu was reading a medicine book with rapt attention.

Ye Chen looked at the three of them and asked in slight confusion, "Why are you guys still here?"

"Didn't the two ladies say they'd pick you up for dinner?" Huang Fugui brought a stool over, trying to butter him up. "I was worried that they wouldn't be able to find you if I closed the door."

"Dad, what dinner and what ladies are you talking about?" Huang Pei asked curiously. She and Zhang Daniu had been busy at the back of the store during the day, so they did not see Yan Ning and the rest.

Huang Guifu told her everything. In turn, Huang Fei opened her pretty eyes wide and said to Ye Chen and his daughter, "Boss, you're a man with a daughter. Why are you still being all flirty?"

Ye Chen was speechless.

"Stop spewing nonsense." Huang Fugui glared at her immediately. "The lady wanted to thank our boss for saving her, so she's treating him to dinner. Why do you say he's being flirty?"

He was eager to choke his daughter to death. He had spoiled her since she was young, so she had always said anything she wanted to before thinking about it properly.

"I'm sorry, Boss. I always talk too fast. I didn't mean it." Huang Pei stuck her tongue out and said in embarrassment, "Uh, can you bring me along? I'd like to see if those rich ladies are always eating expensive food every day."

She still did not believe that Ye Chen would purely have a meal with them, so she wanted to see it for herself. Moreover, what she said was the truth. Although she had a decent life since she was young, her family condition was mediocre. Therefore, it was only natural for her to be envious of the life of the rich.

Just when Huang Fugui wanted to scold her, Ye Chen smiled lightly. "Sure, all of you can go, including Daniu."

"Boss, you're the best!" Huang Pei was so excited that she shook Zhang Daniu's arm. "Brother Daniu, stop reading. Boss is bringing us out for a feast tonight."

"B-but I haven't finished my medicine book." Zhang Daniu looked rather at a blur as he struggled a little.

Apart from making money to marry his lady, another dream of his was to study medicine. It would be best if he could learn some medical skills because if that came true, he would be able to open a pharmacy when he returned to his hometown.

"Brother Daniu, are you a fool? It's a feast! You might not be able to eat it for the rest of your life if you miss it this time. You can read the book tomorrow." Huang Pei glared at him angrily.

Zhang Daniu gave in completely. While he could only agree to that, he seemed to be a little reluctant.

"You guys go ahead. I won't be going with young people like you." Huang Fugui shook his head. Someone his age would rather go home to sip on some liquor with a plate of peanuts while watching an anti-Japanese film.

At that moment, the squeal of brakes came from outside.

Yan Ning, who was dressed to the nines, strutted in with excitement. "Miracle Doctor Ye, I'm here. Have you been waiting long?"

She wore a burgundy V-neck suit this time. Her long hair grazed her shoulders while her pair of Boston leather shoes were sparkling.

Huang Pei was envious when she saw her outfit while Zhang Daniu could not take his eyes off her. He wondered how a lady could look so pretty to the point that she was so much prettier than his future wife, Cui Hua, in his hometown.

"No, I haven't." Ye Chen shook his head nonchalantly. "I'll bring two friends along. Do you mind?"

Yang Ning peeped at Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu by instinct and said without even thinking about it, "Why would I mind? The more the merrier."

"Boss, wait for me. I'll go to change quickly." Huang Pei's narcissism was completely triggered by Yan Ning. She went back to her room and began dressing up immediately.

Over ten minutes later, she walked out in a pastel pink dress and there was light makeup on her face too.

"Brother Daniu, do I look pretty?" Huang Pei turned around while flicking the hem of her dress.

Zhang Daniu said instinctively, "P-pretty! So much prettier than Cui Hua."

Huang Pei rolled her eyes at him. 'What a dummy. Cui Hua is the only person in your eyes.'

"Let's go," Ye Chen said and he carried his daughter out of the store.

Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu could not take their eyes off the white Porsche Cayenne parked at the door.

Yan Ning thought that Ye Chen would have a similar reaction as they did. However, she was shocked that Ye Chen had no change in expression. He casually opened the car door and sat in the back. Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu got into the car too.

"This car is so posh. It's my first time sitting in such a car." Zhang Daniu sat rather uncomfortably as if he had hemorrhoids. He seemed to be moving around a lot.

Huang Pei rolled her eyes at him. "Besides you, Boss and I have never sat in this car."

Ye Chen smiled and said nothing.

After Yan Ning began driving the car, Mengmeng, who was in Ye Chen's embrace, suddenly asked, "Daddy, what car is this?"

"It's a Porsche, little girl." Huang Pei took over the conversation.

Mengmeng asked again, "Which one is better: Lamborghini and Porsche?"

"Lamborghini, of course. I've never seen that car before," Huang Pei said with envy in her eyes.

Mengmeng blinked her eyes. "Alright, I know now."

"What do you know?" Huang Pei was suddenly curious.

Mengmeng said, "Don't ask, sister. I'm afraid that you won't be able to take it."

"What? What is there that I can't take? Tell me now."

The little girl hesitated before speaking, "My daddy has never sat in a Porsche before but he's driven a Lamborghini. He gave it to my aunty."

The car went silent for a few seconds.

Huang Pei could not help but chuckle out loud. She pinched Mengmeng's nose. "You naughty thing, lying when you're so young! Can you tell which car is a Lamborghini?"

Although they had not spent a long time together, Huang Pei could tell that while her boss was rich, he was not extravagantly so. He was a petite bourgeoisie at most. It would be great if he drove an Audi, but it would be ridiculous if he drove a Lamborghini.

Even Yan Ning, who was driving, laughed upon hearing that. "Miracle Doctor Ye, your daughter is so cute."

"I didn't lie." Mengmeng panicked and her little cheeks were blushing.

Huang Pei comforted her immediately, "Alright, alright. I believe you."

After that, the little girl cheered up.

Ye Chen caressed her face as love filled his face. 'Yuhan, if you could see how cute our daughter is, I wonder how happy you'd be.'

Yan Ning was driving fast. She took the route with less traffic on purpose. Some 20 minutes later, the car pulled over at the entrance of a famous hotel in Beijing called Pleasantville.

Under her guidance, Ye Chen followed behind her while carrying his daughter. Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu, on the other hand, were cautious and could not stop looking around.

They went to the third floor and Yan Ning took them into one of the private rooms. There were already seven to eight young people sitting inside at the moment, all of them dressed glamorously.

Chapter 184: You'll Definitely Die A Devastating Death Within A Month!

"Guys, let me introduce you to Miracle Doctor Ye that I told you guys about."

After Yan Ning spoke, the people could not help but fix their eyes on Ye Chen and the rest. There was shock, doubt, and disdain on their faces.

Ye Chen looked casual while Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu were very nervous. It seemed to be their first time experiencing such an awkward moment.

Wei Nan was among the crowd too. She secretly frowned upon seeing the newcomers' way of dressing. 'What a bunch of embarrassing hillbillies! This silly girl Yan Ning is trying to wreck her reputation.'

At that moment, the atmosphere in the private room became rather awkward. As everyone remained sitting, Yan Ning had a slight change of expression. Just when she was going to speak, a young man with thick brows and big eyes sitting in the corner stood up and said while smiling "Welcome, Miracle Doctor Ye."

He gave up a space for Ye Chen as he spoke. Subsequently, the two young men next to him made some space too.

"Thanks!" Ye Chen said coldly and took his seat. Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei held hands as they sat next to him in an uneasy manner.

The young man waved and pounded his chest. "Don't worry about it. Since you guys are Yan Ning's friends, then you're my friends too. I'm Li Yuanqing."

Yan Ning looked at him in utter gratefulness. Subsequently, she signed to the waiter to serve the dishes.

"Li Yuanqing, why do you call everyone your friend?" A handsome young man smiled casually, obviously mocking Ye Chen.

Li Yuanqing chuckled. "Xue Lei, as your father, I'm happy and willing. What are you going to do about it?"

"Li Yuanqing, stop calling yourself my father. My father isn't someone you can afford to offend." Xue Lei's expression turned grim.

Li Yuanqing got excited now. "Ooh, are you going to tell your father about me when you get home? My father isn't someone that you can afford to offend either. If you want, I'll get my Second Uncle to fight your First Uncle."

"You..." Xue Lei was enraged.

'What's wrong with Li Yuanqing? He knows that I'm courting Yan Ning, and he's still embarrassing me to show off to that bull crap Miracle Doctor Ye. Why did he bring Li Yunxiao and Xue Xiao out of nowhere?'

"Alright, stop fighting you guys," Wei Nan, who was sitting aside, interrupted during the critical moment. She probably held a high position among them as Li Yuanqing and Xue Lei shut up right after she said that.

A decent-looking young man with black-framed glasses observed Ye Chen and the other two secretly. Surprise flashed through his eyes.

Since coming in, Zhang Daniu hung his head held low, not daring to look at the people while his hands that were on his thighs were clenched hard. He clearly had not experienced such an event before.

On the other hand, Huang Pei appeared above average. Although she was smiling, her smile was rather stiff. She was clearly disguising her anxiety. She might have experienced some social events but not many.

Ye Chen was the only person that threw the young man in glasses off by a little.

From the looks of it, Ye Chen dressed and seemed mediocre. Nobody would really remember him. However, if one were to observe him, they would notice that he looked calm from head to toe. He did not seem to notice the people's hostility.

Apart from that, he interacted with his daughter who was in his embrace and would reveal a natural smile every now and then.

Such a person either had low EQ or had no idea how to read a room. To put it simply, he was dumb. Perhaps he was a really prominent man who was innocent or in disguise.

Meanwhile, the young man in glasses dared not agree that Ye Chen was a miracle doctor.

He pushed his glasses up as he thought to this point. Deciding to test Ye Chen, he took the initiative to ask while smiling, "I wonder where you are from, Miracle Doctor Ye? You don't look familiar. Oh yeah, let me introduce myself. My name is Han Xu."

Everyone had their eyes on Ye Chen as soon as he spoke. They recognized the mockery in one another's eyes.

Ye Chen answered coldly, "I'm from Tiannan."

"So, you're a foreigner."

Another young man who looked solemn said while pretending to look surprised, "I heard there are many mountains in Tiannan. It's a land of poverty whereby people are so poor that they can't even eat well. Moreover, they're barbaric. They call them the Barbarians of the South, am I right?"

There was a mixture of people in Beijing. No matter whether it was the descendants of Manchu or the wealthy families, the circles they were in were important to them as people from different circles would not mix. Meanwhile, his goal was to separate Ye Chen from their circle.

As soon as he was done speaking, the cowardly Zhang Daniu lifted his head to glare at him because he was from Tiannan too.

Yan Ning scowled at him instantly. "Su Jian, what do you mean by that? What do you mean by they can't even eat well? What do you mean when you call them the Barbarians of the South?"

Even Han Xu glanced at him and secretly frowned. 'The people from the Su family are terrible. He's saying something so dumb! How can he call someone a Barbarian of the South?'

"I heard it from someone else. Don't take me seriously." Su Jian smiled feebly upon realizing that he had misspoken.

However, Ye Chen lifted his head to look at him with a smirk. "Is your name Su Jian? Are you from the Su family?"

"I wonder if you are going to teach me a lesson for asking that, Miracle Doctor Ye?" Su Jian said wryly.

"I can't afford to teach you a lesson," Ye Chen shook his head lightly and said while smiling, "But I can predict your fortune."

“Predict my fortune?” Su Jian seemed to have heard something funny. “You want to predict my fortune? Aren’t you a miracle doctor? When did you start picking up fortune-telling?”

The rest could not help but laugh out loud after hearing that.

Su Jian’s remark completely exposed Ye Chen as a scammer. They were even secretly mocking Ye Chen as a dumb fool.

The expression on Yan Ning’s pretty face changed slightly, She said softly, “Miracle Doctor Ye, don’t spew nonsense. Su Jian isn’t someone that you should offend.”

“Let’s do it then. I wonder how much it is.” Su Jian took a deep breath and looked at Ye Chen with disdain.

Ye Chen ignored how the people were looking at him and said coldly, “I’ll charge you with the fact that you’ll definitely die a devastating death within a month!”

Everyone was shocked as soon as they heard that.

The smile on Su Jian’s face froze. Just when he was going to speak, Ye Chen continued, “I won’t be charging you any money. After all, you’d be dead by then, so you can’t be paying me joss paper.”

Everyone gaped at Ye Chen in disbelief with their eyes wide open. Even Li Yuanqing and Han Qu frowned. They clearly did not expect him to cross the line. He really dared to say anything.

Was he not cursing Su Jian to death by saying that?

Bang!

Su Jian slammed the table hard and glared at Ye Chen with his sullen eyes. He smiled instead of being furious. “I’ll die a devastating death within a month, huh? Sure, I’ll give you a month. If nothing happens to me in a month, you might be the one who ends up dead.”

Yan Ning wanted to stand out to mediate by instinct, but Wei Nan held onto her tightly, so she could not move.

Wei Nan shook her head secretly. ‘You idiot, do you really think you can do anything you want just because you know Yan Ning? Su Jian’s background is definitely no weaker than Yan Ning’s. Moreover, you’ve offended the people here with your behavior today. By then, Yan Ning can’t even protect you alone.’

When everyone thought that Ye Chen would look afraid or regret his words, he smiled coldly. “Sure, come and look for me when you’re still alive in a month.”

“Miracle Doctor Ye, you...” Li Yuanqing could not help but speak.

“Don’t worry about it.” Ye Chen shook his head.

With a sigh, Li Yuanqing gave Yan Ning a look that said ‘I’ve done all I could. It’s this brat who is seeking death himself’.

Han Qu looked intensely at Ye Chen. ‘What exactly gave him such confidence? Can he really tell someone’s fortune?’

At that moment, someone knocked on the door of the private room. Subsequently, over ten waiters came in serving dishes one after another.

Soon, all sorts of delicious dishes were placed on the table. Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu were drooling just to see that.

Han Qu opened two bottles of red wine. After pouring everyone a glass of wine, he tried to break the awkward atmosphere. “Alright, let’s stop dwelling on that. Cheers.”

“Miracle Doctor Ye, here’s one to you!” Yan Ning toasted with her glass up.

Ye Chen nodded and clinked glasses with her. He then did the same with Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu who seemed cautious.

“Daddy, I want to eat crab.” The little girl Mengmeng buried herself in Ye Chen’s embrace while looking lustfully at the hairy crab placed before Su Jian.

“I’ll get it for you.” Yan Ning got her one and put it into her bowl while smiling.

“Thank you, sister,” Mengmeng said courteously and began eating after putting on a pair of gloves.

However, the atmosphere remained stiff.

Li Yuanqing smiled and started a topic while looking at Ye Chen. “Miracle Doctor Ye, since you are from Tiannan, I wonder if you’ve heard of Mad Southern Ye.”

Chapter 185: Blame Fell from The Sky When He was Chilling At Home

The entire private room fell into silence as soon as Li Yuanqing was done speaking. Apart from Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei, who were focused on eating, and the little girl, Mengmeng, everyone else looked sober.

Ye Chen looked stunned as everyone watched him. He had no idea how to answer that question.

Li Yuanqing shook his head lightly upon seeing his expression. “It seems like Miracle Doctor Ye has never heard of Mad Southern Ye.”

Han Xu was rather disappointed too. He thought that Ye Chen must come with a powerful background since he had been so calm. However, he had no idea who the famous Mad Southern Ye was. At that moment, he lost his interest to know him.

“Ms. Yan, who is this Mad Southern Ye that you guys are talking about? Is he famous?” Huang Pei, on the other hand, who was sitting aside, wiped her mouth with a curious expression on her face. She was no longer as nervous as when she had been before eating.

Disdain flashed through Wei Nan's eyes when she observed Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei's eating manners. However, she spoke anyway, "Not only is he famous, but it's also not an exaggeration to describe him as the champion of China."

"That's right." Han Xu took over the conversation, seeming very serious as he looked at Ye Chen. "Just like Miracle Doctor Ye, Mad Southern Ye is from Tiannan too. He also bears the family name of Ye, but this man is the legend of Tiannan and China. He's the Tiannan No. 1 and No. 1 on the Heaven Leaderboard!"

The rest of them nodded by instinct.

All of them came from wealthy families and were naturally different from Zhang Daniu. Especially when Ye Chen dominated the No. 1 of Heaven Leaderboard, they found out about it immediately.

"Tiannan No. 1?" Zhang Daniu burped after eating, "Who is this Tiannan No. 1? Is he our Tiannan's governor? Everyone in our village thinks that the governor is the most powerful."

"The governor?" Xue Lei glimpsed at him in slight disdain. "Who even is the governor of Tiannan's three provinces? Moreover, the governor isn't the most powerful one in Tiannan's three provinces. It should be the party boss who is most powerful."

'What a hillbilly!' Xue Lei thought.

"Who else is the most powerful if not our governor? And what's this Heaven Leaderboard that you guys are talking about?" Huang Pei was more and more confused listening to them.

Yan Ning explained while smiling, "We're talking about ancient martial artists. Mad Southern Ye is an ancient martial artist, and he's the best among them. Meanwhile, the Heaven Leaderboard is the statistics ranking of the ancient martial artists."

She paused and explained to Ye Chen while looking at him as she spoke to this point, "Miracle Doctor Ye, this Mad Southern Ye is the expert among experts, the No. 1 among experts."

"What's an ancient martial artist?" Huang Pei could no longer eat. She stared at the people with her eyes wide open as if she had just entered a world that was unknown to her.

"An ancient martial artist is someone on a level that you guys will never be able to come in contact with." Su Jian chuckled and shot her a smug look. He held onto the wine glass softly. Everyone saw five fingerprints on the glass. However, the glass did not break.

Huang Pei and Zhang Daniu were dumbstruck watching that as if they had seen a ghost.

Even Li Yuanqing and the rest were stunned.

Xue Lei's face froze and spoke in slight shock, "Su Jian, have your abilities improved?"

"I accidentally stimulated my conception and governor vessel a few days ago." Su Jian shook his head while pretending to be calm. However, the pride on his face lingered. As he spoke to this point, he could not help but look at Ye Chen and the rest. He realized that Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei were looking at him in shock.

A smirk of arrogance was revealed at the corner of his lips. However, the smirk froze when he looked at Ye Chen who seemed calm as usual. He was eating at ease and moving at a neutral pace as if he did not see the fingerprints on the wine glass.

“Daddy, I want those.” The little girl stood on his lap and pointed at the plate of pork ribs on the table.

Ye Chen picked up a piece for her while smiling.

Su Jian’s expression turned grim seeing that. Dense killing intent flashed through his eyes. To him, Ye Chen should be fearful of him just like Zhang Daniu and the rest.

Li Yuanqing noticed that too, and said in between tears and laughter, “Brother Ye, sometimes I really wonder if there’s anything that can surprise you.”

Wei Nan was secretly scoffing, ‘Go ahead. Go ahead and pretend. No ordinary person wouldn’t be shocked to hear that. Meanwhile, you’re pretending to be unique before us by pretending to be cool. You’ve no idea that what you’re doing is making me hate you even more.’

“Wow!” Huang Pei screamed as disbelief filled her eyes, “From what you guys are saying, Mad Southern Ye must be very powerful then?”

“Of course.” Han Qu shook his head as respect filled his face. “Mad Southern Ye rose in Tiannan and became famous after the battle with Yuan Bupo on the river. He then fought three experts on the snow mountain, killing all three of them. He won glory for our country by killing an American Martial Dao master at sea in an overbearing manner. I must admit that I truly admire him.”

Su Jiang frowned and looked rather upset. “I think the rumors were exaggerated. I believe that Mad Southern Ye killed Yuan Bupo, but those masters that he killed later on sound like hype.”

“Hype? It’s news from many sources. Even the military admitted that and you think it’s hype?” Li Yuanqing snickered.

‘Su Jian is just upset that Mad Southern Ye’s fame has masked his. So what if you’ve reached the Illuminating Pulse? A blow of breath is all Mad Southern Ye needs to kill you.’

“I don’t think it’s hype,” Yan Ning shook her head and spoke in determination after some hesitation, “I heard from my Second Uncle that Mad Southern Ye is more powerful than he is. No masters in China are his match.”

Everyone had a drastic change of expression hearing that.

Who was Yan Ning’s Second Uncle? He was the navy general, General Yan Nanfei, the legend of the Chinese navy. His fame shook China 20 years ago, and he was even the No. 8 on the Heaven Leaderboard.

Shock flashed across Ye Chen’s face. ‘Yan Ning’s Second Uncle? Is he Yan Nanfei?’

Han Xu exclaimed as if Yan Ning’s Second Uncle was a hero of the same kind, “I can’t believe that even General Yan admires Mad Southern Ye too.”

“It’s not just that,” Wei Nan took a deep breath in and said, “My uncle said something similar too. He said Mad Southern Ye has the potential to break through above the innate stage!”

Everyone had a drastic change of expression.

Above the innate stage!

That was something purely legendary. It had been years since the Chinese ancient martial world developed. Many heroes were born, but they had never heard of anyone achieving anything above the innate stage before.

Xue Lei chuckled. “Mad Southern Ye rose from No. 11 to No. 1 on the Heaven Leaderboard. The top ten have yet to fight him, so don’t be so certain just yet. If there’s an opportunity, my uncle would like to spar with him.”

“Xue Lei, your uncle is just jealous that Mad Southern Ye kicked him out of the top ten on the Heaven Leaderboard. He’s just sour, so why are you sugar coating it?” Li Yuanqing said wryly.

Xue Lei was enraged. “You...”

His uncle was Xue Xiao. He had initially been No. 10 on the Heaven Leaderboard, but since Ye Chen rose to No. 1, the ranking was pushed down. Naturally, Xue Xiao who was initially on No. 10 was pushed to No. 11, hence kicking him out of top ten on the Heaven Leaderboard.

Therefore, Xue Xiao was extremely embarrassed. He became the joke of the Martial Dao World. How could he not hate Mad Southern Ye for that?

Ye Chen had a gravely odd expression on his face.

Blame fell from the sky when Xue Xiao was just chilling at home, and he became a joke for nothing...

“Forget it. Let’s not talk about that any longer. Let’s eat.” Yan Ning mediated instantly when she realized that the duo was going to fight again. They then stopped dwelling on the topic earlier.

At that moment, Huang Pei stammered, “B-boss, I need to go to the bathroom.”

“Go with her, Daniu.” Ye Chen nodded at Zhang Daniu.

Zhang Daniu put down his piece of pork rib unwillingly and went out of the private room with Huang Pei.

Mengmeng was sweating. She pointed at the mineral water on the table while sticking her tongue out. “Daddy, water, please. It’s so spicy.”

Ye Chen stretched his arm out and took the bottle to pass to her after opening the cap.

Yan Ning was in love watching the little girl gulping the water down. She asked by instinct, “Mengmeng, why isn’t your mom here?”

She just realized that she had only seen Ye Chen and his daughter ever since she knew them, but she never saw Ye Chen’s wife.

Just when the little girl was going to speak, a din came from outside.

Ye Chen's right ear quivered softly while a hard expression was revealed on his face. Then, he carried his daughter and walked out.

Chapter 186: Get Him to See Me

"Stop! Stop fighting!"

Before Ye Chen got to the bathroom, he heard Huang Pei's wailing and the noises of a scuffle at the bathroom door.

When he got closer, he saw three men kicking and punching Zhang Daniu. Meanwhile, a fatty with a big gold chain on his neck grabbed Huang Pei tightly. She was delirious from the shock.

"Stop!" Yan Ning, who caught up to him, stopped them instantly.

The fatty who was holding Huang Pei smirked coldly and the fat on his face jiggled. "This has nothing to do with you guys. It's best that you don't stick your noses into this."

"If you guys don't stop, you'd better believe that I'll wreck your reputation in Beijing!" Yan Ning's expression turned cold instantly.

At the same time, Li Yuanqing, Han Xu, Xue Lei, and the rest walked out of the private room too. They stood behind Yan Ning.

The fatty's expression changed upon seeing that Yan Ning had so many people that looked extraordinary with her.

"Alright, you'd better watch out. This isn't over." After saying that, he let go of Huang Pei and left with his men. Zhang Daniu, on the other hand, had a swollen face while blood dripped from his nose all over the floor.

Huang Pei walked over quickly, crying from the scare. "Brother Daniu, are you alright? Please don't scare me."

"I-I'm alright." Zhang Daniu wiped his nose and smiled. "I've been getting beaten up since I was young. I'll be fine after resting for a few days."

"Let's go back." Su Jian glanced at him in utter disdain. Then, he turned around and returned to the private room.

...

After taking their seats, Ye Chen looked at Zhang Daniu and asked, "What exactly happened?"

"Boss, I can tell you what happened," Huang Pei said, feeling wronged while her red eyes were still moist, "When I was washing my hands after getting out of the bathroom, that fatty earlier groped my butt from the back. I yelled at him, but he then slapped me, so Brother Daniu beat him up."

"Shameless! Disgusting! We should've beaten him up earlier." Yan Ning's cheeks were flushing from rage.

Mengmeng walked over with her eyes wide open. "Uncle Daniu, are you hurting? Do you want Mengmeng to blow on your wound?"

She then blew at Zhang Daniu's face after saying that as if he would get better after she did that.

A ferocious gleam flashed through Ye Chen's eyes. He retrieved a tiny snake from his daughter's hair secretly after stretching his arm out. He spoke through voice transmission, "Go and watch that man and his underlings. Kill them if they run away."

1Xiaohei was as thin as a hair. It vanished secretly after falling onto the ground, so nobody saw it at all.

"Seeing that that man dared to fight in this hotel, he must be someone powerful," Xue Lei said wryly.

The rest reacted upon hearing what he said. Han Xu nodded. "If I'm not mistaken, the hotel boss is someone called Third Master Wei and he's rather famous in Beijing."

The people could not help but look at Wei Nan.

"Don't look at me. He's not from my family. Otherwise, I'd definitely know him. We only share the same family name." Wei Nan shook her head.

Huang Pei was cleaning the cuts on Zhang Daniu's face, unable to stop crying.

Su Jian said in his deep voice, "Stop crying. You guys are in trouble for offending Third Master Wei. You'll cry even more when he comes to you."

"Third Master Wei shouldn't dare to do as he wishes with me here," Yan Ning said fiercely. Although the Yan family was a wealthy family, they were strict whereby they prohibited their family members from causing trouble out there.

Yan Ning could not help but look at Wei Nan sitting next to her as she thought to this point. "Sister Nannan, if Third Master Wei really comes later, will you help them?"

"Uhh..."

Wei Nan hesitated. Although she was not afraid of Third Master Wei, she was unwilling to offend such a man for Ye Chen, Zhang Daniu, and the rest that were insignificant to her. Moreover, she did not want to help them.

Yan Ning panicked.

Su Jian and Xue Lei looked at each other, noticing the gloat in each other's eyes.

In the end, Li Yuanqing spoke after some hesitation, "We'll decide later."

...

In a private room on the fifth floor of Pleasantville, the fatty from before pushed the door hard and walked in. He sat onto the couch directly and condemned, "F*ck, that b*tch got lucky."

"What happened, Director Zhao? Who angered you?" a middle-aged man who was sitting aside said while chuckling. There were two ladies with knockout bodies in provocative clothing sitting next to him. They would peel oranges and feed him every now and then.

Director Zhao spat out, "Who else would it be? I bumped into a babe in the bathroom. I couldn't help it, so I groped her butt seeing that it was quite perky. That b*tch scolded me and got someone to punch me..."

The middle-aged man's expression turned grim. "Who dares to touch you in my territory? Let's go. Bring me to them."

...

In the private room where Ye Chen was, Huang Pei finally stopped crying. She turned her head and looked at him. "Boss, should we go home? Brother Daniu is hurt pretty badly."

"There's no rush. Let's wait for the man to come."

Ye Chen shook his head with light sparkling in his eyes.

The rest were stunned to hear what he said. They thought they heard it wrong.

'Can't you read the room? Not only are you not leaving, but you're actually staying and waiting for the man to come to you? Are you out of your mind?'

"Brother Ye, I think it's better if you..." Yan Ning hesitated.

Ye Chen waved. "Don't worry about it."

Wei Nan glanced at him in utter disdain. She almost called him an idiot for pretending at such a time.

'I'd like to see what you're going to do when nobody is willing to help you later.' Su Jian grinned.

Bang!

Someone kicked the private room door open at that moment. Subsequently, a man with a knife scar on his face led another man in. He looked at everyone, and eventually, his eyes fell on Zhang Daniu. "It's both of them."

"Take them out!" The young man with the knife scar waved.

Two muscular hunks leaped from behind him instantly and headed toward Zhang Daniu by instinct.

Huang Pei blocked before Zhang Daniu immediately and looked at them in fear. "What are you guys trying to do?"

"What are we trying to do? This brat beat up our boss's VIP, so he's coming with us," the young man with the knife scar scoffed.

Yan Ning said immediately, "You guys can't take them away."

"Who are you?"

Yan Ning hesitated. "I'm from the Yan family."

"The Yan family?"

The young man's pupils shrunk, but then he subsequently ridiculed, "I admit that your family has a powerful background, but I'm warning you not to stick your nose in our business. Our boss knows your family too. This is personal."

"Yan Ning, get back," Wei Nan warned.

Yan Ning stomped her feet. "Sister Nannan..."

"Get back!" Wei Nan's expression turned grim.

She only looked at Ye Chen after Yan Ning stepped back obediently. 'That's the end of your staff. I'd like to see what you're going to do.'

"Take him out!" The young man with the scar waved.

"Wait!" Ye Chen suddenly spoke. He looked at the young man expressionlessly. "Who's your boss? Get him to see me!"

Chapter 187: Slap Yourself 30 Times, and Then Scram!

The young scar-faced man was stunned. He thought he heard it wrong. "What did you say?"

Besides him, even Wei Nan and the rest were stunned too. They looked at Ye Chen as if they were looking at an idiot. Was he asking Third Master Wei to go to see him?

Li Yuanqing secretly sighed. He thought he would have stood up for him earlier. He believed that the scar-faced man would let him go and give the Li family face. However, there was no turning back as soon as Ye Chen said that.

Xue Lei could not help but laugh out loud as he gloated. 'He thought he's someone prominent.'

Facing everyone's stare, Ye Chen's extremely cold voice was heard. "Get your boss to see me. I don't want to repeat myself again."

"You're seeking death!"

The scar-faced young man was furious and was about to charge at Ye Chen. At that moment, Zhang Daniu, who was sitting aside, suddenly spoke, "Don't beat Brother Chen. I'll go with you guys. I'll beat the responsibility."

"It's too late." The scar-faced man squinted. Just when he was going to walk to Ye Chen, a terrifying voice came from outside. "I'd like to see who is so insane to dare to ask me to see him."

Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei had a drastic change in expression as soon as the voice rang out.

Sitting aside, Su Jian could not stop himself from scoffing, 'You'll take the responsibility? The few of you are in trouble today.'

Wei Nan could not help but look at Ye Chen with a playful expression on her face. 'Miracle Doctor Ye, I wonder if you'd be as calm as you are right now after someone cripples you. I wonder if you can treat yourself.'

Subsequently, a middle-aged man with a pale face and a beard walked in in an overbearing manner. There were tens of ferocious muscular hunks behind him.

“It’s him, Third Master!” The young scar-faced man stretched his arm out and pointed at Ye Chen. A gloating smirk appeared at the corner of his lips.

The middle-aged man looked toward the direction he was pointing at. There was a young man carrying a girl while watching him in utter coldness.

“Brat, were you the guy who asked me to get here to see—” The man froze directly when he saw Ye Chen’s face clearly as if he had just been struck by lightning. He could not finish what he was saying no matter what.

“Third Master Wei, my friend didn’t mean it. I hope that you’ll forgive what he said.” Yan Ning clenched her teeth and subsequently turned her head and said to Ye Chen, “Brother Ye, apologize to Third Master Wei.”

However, the people heard a thud in the next second.

They saw Third Master Wei fall weakly to the ground. He looked at Ye Chen like he had just seen a ghost.

“Boss, are you alright?” the scar-faced man wanted to help him up by instinct. However, he realized that his body was like a corpse. It was cold.

Wei Dong gulped as he shook his head at Ye Chen. He had cold sweat dripping from his head. “Y-ye...”

That was right. Third Master Wei was Wei Dong.

Since Ye Chen summoned the Nine Heavens Divine Thunder in Tiannan and crushed the Elder Priest Qingyang that Wei Dong had hired into pieces before everyone, the scene of Ye Chen bathing in bolts of lightning had become his nightmare. He would not be able to sleep whenever he thought of it.

Therefore, with the help of his people, Wei Dong moved his entire family to Beijing. He thought he would keep himself far away from Ye Chen, but never had he thought that he would bump into his nemesis after living a good life for merely a short while.

The people were dumbstruck to see him acting like that.

Did he not come here to teach them a brutal lesson? Why did he fall weakly to the ground within a blink of an eye as if a mouse had just seen a cat?

Yan Ning was surprised when she snapped back to her senses while Wei Nan had disbelief on her face. At the same time, the smile on Su Jian and Xue Lei’s faces froze instantly. Li Yuanqing and Han Xu were a little shocked at that moment.

“Wei Dong, it seems like you still remember me!” Ye Chen looked at him with a mysterious expression. Nobody knew that in Wei Dong’s eyes, his expression was like a death god reaping life.

Wei Dong jolted and said, “T-this is all just a misunderstanding. I-I didn’t know that you were here before this.”

“A misunderstanding?” Ye Chen raised his brows. “Your man beat my friend up and you’re telling me it’s a misunderstanding? I’d like to see how you’re going to handle this.”

“Sure, I’ll deal with them and report to you soon.” Wei Dong could not stop nodding. Subsequently, he spoke to the scar-faced man next to him. Shock flashed through the young scar-faced man’s eyes. However, he went out anyway.

At that moment, the people could not help but stare at Ye Chen.

Ye Chen took a sip of water on his own while carrying his daughter. Seeming like he did not care, he looked exactly the same as earlier.

If they thought that he had been pretending to be calm earlier, there was a mysterious vibe from him when they looked at him again.

‘Is he from some wealthy family?’ Han Xu squinted and thought to himself.

Soon, the scar-faced young man came back. He went close to Wei Dong’s ear and spoke softly,

In the next second, Wei Dong gaped at Ye Chen in an even more frightened manner now. “M-Master Ye, they’re already d-dead.”

The scar-faced man just informed him that Director Zhao and his three men were dead in the private room. There were four skeletons on the ground when he went in, with no signs of flesh on the skeletons at all.

They looked like...they had been eaten by something.

Connecting what happened to Director Zhao and Ye Chen, as well as the ridiculously powerful technique that he performed last time, Wei Dong knew that Ye Chen had done it without even thinking about it.

Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei were dumbfounded.

They had still been doing alright earlier, but they were dead within the blink of an eye. However, they thought that Wei Dong had sent his men to kill them.

“Oh, that’s karma,” Ye Chen gave a short response.

“I-I shall make a move,” Wei Dong retreated while speaking. He was dying to leave, not wanting to spend another second with Ye Chen.

“Wait!” Ye Chen suddenly said, “Did I say you could leave? Your men have been punished, but what about your crime of not being strict?”

“S-so, what do you want me to do?” Wei Dong forced an ugly smile on his face.

Ye Chen said expressionlessly, “Slap yourself 30 times, and then scam!”

Everyone gasped in shock.

Was he not being too much?

'The man has taken the initiative to apologize to you. He gave you face and you're asking him to slap himself in front of his underlings?'

Zhang Daniu said immediately, "T-there's no need for that."

However, what Wei Dong said in the next second shocked everyone again, "I'll do it! I'll do it!"

He lifted his right arm and slapped both sides of his face continuously. To everyone's surprise, he seemed as if a burden had been lifted from him.

Pa! Pa!

Each slap was hard. The force was extraordinarily strong, while it was loud.

They had no idea that to Wei Dong, his life was much more important than his dignity. He believed that as long as he dared to reject that command, his head would be severed and placed somewhere else at anytime.

Soon, both sides of Wei Dong's cheeks were swollen. He said in a dazed manner, "I-is this enough for you, sir?"

"Now scram!" Ye Chen waved.

"Yes..." Wei Dong released a sigh of release. He fell onto the ground and rolled out of the private room's door. Yes, he really rolled out.

Everyone's jaws dropped upon seeing that.

After Wei Dong left, the door was closed, and Zhang Daniu and Huang Fei felt relieved.

At that moment, everyone looked at Ye Chen slightly differently now. Some were doubtful while some were fearful.

They thought that Ye Chen and the rest would be in trouble when Wei Dong came in. Never did they expect that the ending would be so ridiculous.

Yan Ning looked at Ye Chen with her pretty eyes wide open as she asked in confusion, "Brother Ye, why is Third Master Wei so scared of you?"

"Because I once terrified him." Facing everyone's suspicious gazes, Ye Chen said coldly, "That's why his knees turn weak whenever he sees me now."

Chapter 188: How Many Heads Does He Have for Me to Sever!

After Wei Dong's drama, there was a subtle change in the way everyone looked at Ye Chen in the private room.

Even though that was the case, Wei Nan, Xue Lei, Su Jian, and the rest did not care. To them, Wei Dong was merely someone who lingered outside the Beijing wealthy family's circle and was no one prominent.

Li Yuanqing, Han Xu, and some of them who were closer to Ye Chen secretly nodded. They began to take Ye Chen seriously now.

Because Zhang Daniu was injured, Ye Chen wanted to leave first. Yan Ning sent them back out of kindness, so the gathering ended just like that.

After the bill was paid, the bunch of people walked out of Pleasantville one after another. Xue Lei walked over while smiling after Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei had gotten into Yan Ning's car while Ye Chen was just getting in.

He said softly, "I don't care whether you're Miracle Doctor Ye or whoever. I'm warning you to not even think of getting close to Yan Ning. Stay away from her, or..."

"Or what?" Ye Chen looked at him expressionlessly.

Xue Lei's voice was deep as he threatened, "Or I'll make you vanish from this world anytime. You'd better not doubt my ability."

"Here's a warning for you too." Ye Chen smirked. "You won't die if you're not seeking death!"

'Seeking death?!' Killing intent flashed through Xue Lei's eyes.

At that moment, Yan Ning, who was in the car, popped her head out and asked in confusion, "What are you guys mumbling about? Get in."

Ye Chen smiled coldly and subsequently got into the car. Yan Ning then drove away.

Xue Lei stood where he was while watching the car leaving. Su Jian sauntered over with a playful smirk at the corner of his lips. "Do you want me to get rid of him for you?"

"No need." Xue Lei left right after saying that. He took his phone out and seemed to be talking to someone while walking.

...

Ye Chen got Yan Ning to drive the car straight to the medicine hall.

Huang Pei helped Zhang Daniu into the store. With bloodshot eyes, she rummaged through the cabinets to look for medication for him while speaking, "Brother Daniu, why don't I send you to the hospital?"

"There's no need. I'm fine. I don't want to waste money at the hospital." Zhang Daniu smiled in a foolish manner. He lifted his head to look at Ye Chen, appearing guilty. "Boss, I'm sorry to have created trouble for you today."

"Brother Daniu, it has nothing to do with you. It was I who created the trouble and caused you to be beaten up," Huang Pei covered her lips and said, looking terrified, "Boss, fire me if you want. This has nothing to do with Brother Daniu."

"Who said that I'm firing you guys?" Ye Chen smiled in an awkward manner. He looked at Zhang Daniu and assured while smiling, "Daniu, you did great today. You're courageous. Work hard here."

"Thank you, Brother Chen."

“Thank you, Boss.”

Zhang Daniu and Huang Pei were over the moon. She then took out the first aid kit after releasing a sigh of relief. “Don’t move, Brother Daniu. I’ll apply medicine for you.”

“Peipei, don’t stand so close to me. I’ll be cheating on Cui Hua if you do.” Zhang Daniu blushed deeply.

Ye Chen was speechless. Zhang Daniu certainly deserved to be single given his behavior.

He shook his head and asked both of them to go home soon. He then returned to the villa Lin Tai purchased while carrying his daughter.

The night was quiet.

The next morning, Wang Meng called to report, “My lord, bad news. The people from the Fast Attack Group are here for protection fees again. They’re blocking the entrance, so our customers can’t go in.”

“I’ll be right there!”

After hanging up the phone, Ye Chen urged his daughter to get up. He carried her out after washing up and headed straight to the Qi Medicine Hall in a cab.

As soon as the car pulled over, Ye Chen saw over ten people gathered at the door of the medicine hall. All of them wore suits and ties. Nobody dared to stop and watch at all as they clearly feared those people.

The racket of an argument between Zhang Daniu and someone else was heard among the crowd.

As he got out of the car with Mengmeng, Ye Chen saw Zhang Daniu guarding the medicine hall entrance with a boning knife in his hand. Zhang Daniu was glaring at the unwelcomed group furiously.

Meanwhile, Huang Fugui and Huang Pei were hiding in the store. Obviously terrified, they dared not get out.

A young man who had a grim expression and long hair held a cigarette in his mouth. He looked at Zhang Daniu in a playful manner. “Dummy, get your boss to come out. Otherwise, don’t blame me, Long Hair, and my brothers from destroying this stupid store of yours.”

“I won’t hold back on defending the store from whoever dares to come forward.” Zhang Daniu gripped the boning knife in his hand tightly. Cold sweat filled his palms. He was actually scared, but he put on a strong front.

Long Hair tossed the cigarette butt onto the floor and waved his hand after stepping on it. A brutal smirk appeared at the corner of his lips as he commanded, “Go, crush this store and cripple him.”

Zhang Daniu shut his eyes by instinct upon hearing that. Huang Fugui and Huang Pei, who were in the store, had a change in expression. They thought that was the end of Zhang Daniu.

A cold voice subsequently came booming, “Go ahead and try!”

The people turned their heads to see a young man carrying a four- to five-year-old girl and walking over slowly. The young man looked calm as if he did not see the terrible commotion before him.

Elated, Zhang Daniu said anxiously, "Boss, B-Brother Chen, run. Run now!"

Although he was foolish, he was not stupid. These people were here for Ye Chen. If they captured him, he would end up in devastation.

"Run? Where are you going to run?" Long Hair snickered and took a good look at Ye Chen fearlessly. "Brat, so you're the boss of this medicine hall? Aren't you supposed to pay this month's protection fees?"

"Boss, don't listen to them." Huang Fugui walked out furiously and said standing behind Zhang Daniu, "You guys are pushing us over. We've just paid the protection fees a few days ago."

"Whoever told you that you're allowed to speak, you old fart?!" Long Hair glared dangerously at him and grinned as he spoke, "This is our Fast Attack Group's territory. We decide how many times you'll have to pay per month. If you guys don't pay up, then we're smashing your store."

"You..." Huang Fugui was pissed off, but there was nothing that he could do about it.

Ye Chen responded to him extremely coldly, "How much are you guys asking for this time?"

Zhang Daniu and the other two had a change in expression hearing that. Disappointment filled their eyes when they looked at Ye Chen.

Long Hair laughed out loud instantly, the pride on his face obvious. "You're wise. Pay 100,000 yuan up now."

"100,000 yuan? Why don't you rob a bank instead?!" Huang Fugui almost spat blood from his rage. They usually paid 3,000 to 4,000 yuan per month, and now the gangsters were asking for 100,000 yuan. Meanwhile, the store only made a clean profit of less than 20,000 yuan.

"That's right. I'm robbing you guys. What are you going to do about it?" Long Hair was smirking instead of being pissed. His eyes turned cold suddenly as he yelled, "I'm saying this one last time. You either pay up or I'll destroy the store!"

Huang Fugui could not help but look at Ye Chen. He was panicking because he knew that his boss could not pay that kind of money. As soon as the store was destroyed, they would lose their jobs.

Zhang Daniu held the boning knife tightly. He secretly decided that he would protect Ye Chen no matter what as soon as these bunch of people attacked.

However, Ye Chen glanced at Long Hair with a dangerous glint in his eyes. "I wonder how much your arms and legs are worth."

"What did you say?" Long Hair opened his eyes wide and laughed hysterically. "Worth, my a*s!"

Whoosh!

He charged at Ye Chen instantly and grinned. "Have you seen a fist that's as big as a sandbag?"

Zhang Daniu wanted to stop him by instinct.

However, the crowd felt dizzy from watching whatever that happened before them in the next second. A silhouette was thrown out directly, smashing against the store glass door instantly.

The glass door crashed into smithereens loudly, leaving shards all over the ground. Meanwhile, Long Hair was groaning while lying sprawled on the glass shards.

Ye Chen, on the other hand, stood where he was while carrying his child as if nothing had happened.

There was dead silence. One would hear be able to hear the drop of a pin.

Everyone's mouths were wide open as they watched that in disbelief. Their minds were blank as they did not see what happened clearly at all.

"Kill him!"

Long Hair got up from the ground. His face was filled with blood, and he looked resentful.

The ten-odd men who stood there blankly only snapped back to their senses after hearing his instruction. They jostled against other as they charged at Ye Chen with their weapons.

Ye Chen looked calm as usual. He walked toward Long Hair one step after another while carrying his daughter as if he did not notice the people that were charging at him.

Bang, bang, bang...

The charging assailants felt a terrifying force coming at them as soon as they approached him. Subsequently, they were shot out with either their arms or their legs broken.

During the commotion, Ye Chen did not do anything. Meanwhile, the assailants did not even touch the hem of his shirt.

Both Zhang Daniu and Huang Fugui were stunned. Disbelief filled Huang Pei's face. Their boss was so powerful!

Long Hair was horrified by what just happened. He could not help but take a step back upon seeing Ye Chen approaching him one step after another. He said ferociously, "Wh-what are you trying to do?"

"How much are your arms and legs worth?" Ye Chen looked at him expressionlessly.

Long Hair was stunned at first, then fear flashed through his face. He said instinctively, "N-no..."

Before he was done speaking, he felt a force that he could not withstand land on him. He knelt onto the ground, the glass pieces piercing deep into his thighs.

He failed to move.

Crack!

The cracking of joints was heard.

Long Hair's right arm twisted on its own. Soon, it looked like fried twisted dough. His left arm subsequently twisted.

“Let me go. I’m begging you...” Long Hair begged while groaning. Fear filled his eyes that were looking at Ye Chen desperately.

Crack!

Another cracking sound came.

Both of his legs twisted 180 degrees and his kneecaps twisted towards his butt.

“Monster, y-you’re a monster!”

Long Hair felt like he was going to pass out from the agony.

Ye Chen said coldly, “Who sent you here? Who is the Fast Attack Group leader?”

“Our leader is an ancient martial artist. He won’t let you go. You’ll die a devastating death.” Long Hair’s whole body was twitching.

“Really? Neither will I let him go.” Ye Chen grinned. “Don’t worry. I won’t kill you. Go back and tell your leader that I, Ye Chen, am asking how many heads he has for me to sever!”

Chapter 189: I’m Going to Kill Someone

“Scram, all of you!”

Ye Chen tossed Long Hair out while glancing at the ten over men lying on the ground coldly.

Startled, they carried Long Hair together and left. They moved quickly, scared that Long Hair’s fate would befall them.

“Wow, Boss, you’re so powerful!” Huang Pei rushed out as soon as they left. She looked at Ye Chen in disbelief as the recent incident was indeed too shocking.

Huang Fugui and Zhang Daniu only snapped back to their senses then. Doubt filled their eyes when they looked at Ye Chen, especially Huang Fugui, who thought that Ye Chen was just a man who had some money before this. He thought that he would yield to Long Hair’s power. However, what happened made his jaw drop.

Huang Fugui sighed as he thought to this point. He asked with slight concern, “Boss, will they come to take revenge on us?”

That was what he was most worried about. After all, the Fast Attack Group was not to be offended. Otherwise, they would not be doing whatever they wanted in Beijing.

Although his boss could fight ten men alone, could he fight a hundred or 1,000 enemies? What if they had guns?

“I don’t think so.” Ye Chen shook his head. His attack was considered a threat to the Fast Attack Group. If they dared to come again, he should not be blamed if he were to kill all of them. By then, even Commander Chen could do nothing about it.

Huang Fugui released a sigh of relief after hearing that. He turned his head to look at the mess on the ground and sighed again. 'Fighting sure is fun for a while. Sigh, I need to spend money to renovate the store again.'

"Brother Chen, you're so skilled in martial arts. Can you teach me?" Zhang Daniu looked at Ye Chen in admiration.

Ye Chen chuckled softly. "You won't be able to learn my way of martial arts."

Zhang Daniu was extremely disappointed.

...

Ye Chen left with Mengmeng after they stayed at the store for a while because the pet shipping company called, saying that they had shipped the Patriarch of Hell over and they asked him to pick him up.

When Ye Chen arrived at the shipping company, he saw the Patriarch of Hell locked in a cage. He had lost a lot of weight.

The Patriarch of Hell looked at him in resentment. He wanted to cry from the torture.

He, the Patriarch of Hell, was being locked in a dog cage! Furthermore, the ride had been very bumpy. His dignity would be completely wiped out if news about that spread to the cultivation world.

Ye Chen ignored his look of resentment.

Mengmeng, on the other hand, was excited to see him. She hugged him instantly, feeling over the moon.

Ye Chen had a meal with his daughter and the dog. He ordered a serving for the Patriarch of Hell before heading back to the villa.

As soon as they got home, the little girl fed the patriarch with the dishes that they bought.

The patriarch was moved. 'At least, his little girl is kind.'

However, he realized something off after taking two bites because he realized that he had a slice of dog meat in his mouth...

The patriarch felt disgusted. He glared at Ye Chen who was sitting aside in spite, feeling furious.

'This damned Xiao Yezi! You must've done it on purpose. I'm a dog now and you're feeding me dog meat.'

Ye Chen spoke through voice transmission, "You'll stay at home with Mengmeng tonight. I need to head out to run some errands. Is there anything that you'd like to say about this arrangement?"

The patriarch rolled his eyes immediately. 'Can I say anything at all?'

...

Soon, night fell.

Ye Chen turned on the tv and switched to the kids' channel that his daughter loved. He then left the villa. With the Patriarch of Hell around, nobody could hurt her.

As soon as he got out of the house, he summoned the Almighty Killer Sword directly. With the sword, he flew to Beijing's 2nd Ring Road. Since he flew high, the people below could not see him at all.

He landed quietly at the entrance of a luxurious villa on the 2nd Ring Road. After recalling the Almighty Killer Sword, he stood on a tree and stared at the villa before him with a cold expression.

The Su family!

That was the family he had admired five years ago, the wealthy family that stood at the peak of China.

Though that was the case, all Ye Chen needed now was a sword to destroy this giant completely!

However, Yuhan was still nowhere to be found.

If he were to attack right now and force the Su family to their limit, they would use Yuhan to threaten him or go to the extreme. The consequences would be awful.

Although he had definite confidence in himself, he did not want to risk even the slightest mishap.

Ye Chen controlled his Divine Consciousness to scan a 100-meter range as he thought to this point. He saw every security guard and defenses the Su family had in the compound. However, he did not see Su Yuhan anywhere.

Ye Chen looked melancholic.

'Yuhan, did they really hide you somewhere else?'

The second he took a deep breath in, a series of noises rattled in his body as if someone was stir-frying beans. Subsequently, his body began to change in size quickly, including his appearance. Soon, a man who looked exactly like Su Jian appeared on the tree.

That was the benefit of having an immortal body. He could grow and shrink his body, as well as even transform into anybody that he desired.

Ye Chen, who had transformed into Su Jian, leaped from the tree and walked toward the Su family's villa. The guards at the door raised their heads when they saw him. "Young Master Su Jian!"

Ye Chen walked into the villa without even lifting his head. He could not stop looking around with his Divine Consciousness.

He was attempting to look for a familiar scent. After all, Su Yuhan and he had dated for many years, so he was familiar with her scent.

What disappointed him was that, even with Su Jian's identity, he could not sense Su Yuhan's scent after strolling through the entire villa.

'It seems like what Su Youwei said is the truth. Yuhan is really being hidden somewhere else. It's no wonder that Lin Tai's men can't find her no matter what.'

Although he did not find Su Yuhan, he found where Su Youwei's room was. She was currently taking a shower.

He also saw Guo Sheng who was doing his rounds with a German Shepard.

When Guo Sheng passed by him, he suddenly asked, "Where is Su Tao?"

Guo Sheng was stunned at first, and shock flashed across his face subsequently. He did not seem to have expected Ye Chen to transform into an exact replica of Su Jian.

He lowered his voice as he spoke, "Master, Su Yao left before you came to Beijing. He's been out since then."

"Left? Where did he go?" Ye Chen frowned.

If Su Tao were there, he might be able to perform the Soul Searching Tactic on him to retrieve his memory by force. He would then find out about Yuhan's whereabouts.

"I've no idea." Guo Sheng shook his head and added, "Su Yao has always been out alone. He prohibits us from following us. Oh yeah, I found out that the representative who's been in contact with Su Tao is called Bai Li."

"Bai Li?" Ye Chen squinted.

Guo Sheng nodded. "This person is very mysterious. He hardly keeps in touch with Su Tao. I've no idea how they're keeping in touch. I attempted to follow Su Tao earlier but was busted."

"Remember to inform me if Su Tao returns."

Ye Chen's expression changed a few times. He left the Su family's villa after saying that. There were more and more questions in his head.

'What exactly is Su Tao doing? And what about Bai? Exactly who is this mastermind behind this?'

At that moment, his phone rang. It was Wang Meng calling. "My lord, Zhang Daniu and Huang Fugui have been admitted to the hospital!"

"What happened?" Ye Chen said in a deep voice.

Wang Meng replied, "The Fast Attack Group sent more than ten people over to take revenge earlier. They began smashing things as soon as they came in. They beat Zhang Daniu and Huang Fugui up. They've been sent to the hospital now."

"Send me the address. I'll be right there."

After hanging up, Ye Chen received the coordinates that Wang Meng sent. He hailed a cab by the street and headed straight to the hospital.

...

At the First Affiliated Hospital of Peking University, Ye Chen saw Zhang Daniu and Huang Fugui with gauze wrapped around their faces when he walked into the ward. Meanwhile, Huang Pei sat next to them. She was crying, and her eyes were red.

“Brother Chen.”

“Boss.”

Zhang Daniu and Huang Fugui struggled to get up when they saw Ye Chen.

“Don’t move,” Ye Chen comforted and said while looking at Huang Fugui, “Was it the people from the Fast Attack Group who beat you guys up?”

“Yes, it was them.” Huang Fugui touched the gauze on his head and forced a smile despite the pain. “When I was closing the door half an hour ago, some ten people suddenly rushed in and began smashing everything. They used a staff to beat Daniu and me a few times...”

Huang Fugui paused as he spoke to this point. He said while still feeling terrified, “Boss, it’s getting out of hand. Should we call the police?”

He was really scared now. The people from the Fast Attack Group had come to terrorize them every few days. Now that they beat them until they were admitted to the hospital, would they not be sent to their graves the next time they showed up?

“Will calling the police help?” Ye Chen chuckled.

Huang Fugui was speechless.

He was right. If calling the police could help, the police would have been here to record their statements. However, nobody was here.

“How about we move the store away?” Huang Fugui said after some hesitation.

“Nope, there’s no need for that.” Ye Chen turned around and walked out of the ward after saying that.

“Boss, where are you going?” Wang Meng rushed over and asked by instinct.

“I’m going to kill someone!” Ye Chen said without even turning his head.

Chapter 190: A Night Without the Moon is Perfect for Killing

The sky was dark as night fell in Beijing, welcoming the hustle and bustle of the city’s nightlife.

Not a sliver of moonlight could be seen in the sky at all. A chilly breeze ruffled Ye Chen’s hair. As he walked on the streets of Beijing, the killing intent in his eyes was growing.

He thought those people would understand that he was no one to be offended since he had shown them what he was capable of doing. However, the truth proved that he had overestimated these people’s intelligence.

He also overestimated his own suppression ability. He had been too conceited since he returned to Earth.

Martial artists such as Yuan Bupo, Northern Devil Jiang, Western Overlord Liu, and Eastern Superior Ning were nothing to him, let alone some regular people. Therefore, he treated those ants who offended him with disdain.

However, his conceit caused the wealthy families of Tiannan not to fear him enough. That was the reason why they backed out when the three masters extended the battle invitation.

Besides that, his conceit shocked Zhang Daniu, Huang Fugui, and Huang Fei. They were even beaten up and admitted to the hospital. Would they be killed because of him the next time?

‘It seems like I’ve been too kind before. Since that’s the case, I shall begin to kill! Only when their blood forms a river and the sky changes color from a massacre will the people know that they can’t touch my friends, my family, and even people who are related to me.’

Ye Chen looked dangerous while the killing intent within him seemed like it was going to materialize. He walked toward the Fast Attack Group one step after another.

A night without the moon was perfect for killing whereas a day with the wind blowing strongly was perfect for arson!

He had left a tracker on Long Hair and the rest the last time, thinking that he would use that as his last resort. Never had he thought that it would come in handy now!

...

That night, Zhang Daniu and Huang Fugui stayed at the hospital. They could not stop groaning while Huang Pei was taking care of them. On the other hand, Wang Meng stood guard outside the ward all night.

That night, Yan Ning was prohibited from stepping out of the house. She could only gaze at the sky in her room while praying that Miracle Doctor Ye would be fine.

That night, Wei Nan sat on the couch while crossing her legs. She pursed her lips as a playful smirk appeared at the corner of her lips. ‘The Fast Attack Group has revealed themselves. They’re not nobodies like Wei Dong. Can you take that, Miracle Doctor Ye?’

That night, Xue Lei called Su Jian over to drink. It seemed to be a celebration of victory.

...

This took place in an underground casino in the Western City of Beijing.

Although the Fast Attack Group was an underground organization in Beijing with a powerful mastermind behind it, they would need to fake a front to the authorities. Therefore, they scattered their people in each corner of Beijing.

Meanwhile, this casino was one of the Fast Attack Group’s strongholds. There were around 200 people working in it. It was no exaggeration to describe a casino business as raking money in on the daily.

At that moment, many people were gathered in the casino, most of them dressed glamorously. However, they were staring at the tables with bloodshot eyes. They were clearly gambling addicts.

There were countless people watching the casino all over. They would tackle any sudden situations in the casino that might happen anytime.

“Big!”

“Small, small!”

All sorts of yelling were going on in the casino.

Bang!

At that moment, the doors to the casino were broken open. Subsequently, two security guards in uniform were tossed in.

The people were shocked by the sudden turn of events. When they looked by instinct, a young man who looked and dressed mediocly ambled in slowly.

The young man placed his arms behind his back, appearing cold. There was a sword in his hand, and blood dripped from the tip of the sword.

“Who are you?”

A Fast Attack Group leader shot him a grim expression. Subsequently, countless Fast Attack Group members rushed over one after another, glaring at Ye Chen with hostility.

“I’m the man who will kill all of you!” Ye Chen declared in utter coldness. He said nothing more as he swung the sword in his hand that suddenly expanded.

A magnificent wave of sword qi spread through the entire casino. There was no screaming or any loud thuds.

Including the guests in the casino, all of the Fast Attack Group members froze as they stood there. A bloody line appeared on their necks, growing in size. Eventually, a pile of human heads fell onto the ground.

“They were helping the evil, and those were gambling dogs. Nobody will cry for their deaths!”

Ye Chen turned around and walked out of the casino. Then, he performed the Fireball Tactic in the casino, causing a loud bang to explode from the inside.

...

In an underground lab in the Southern City of Beijing, countless people in lab coats and face masks were retrieving data with test tubes in their hands.

Meanwhile, there were rows of boxes before them with packets of white powder.

The hundreds of hunks moved those boxes into a truck outside neatly and quietly.

At that moment, someone shouted suddenly, “Who are you? How did you get in?”

The people spun toward the direction of the voice by instinct. They saw a young man standing on the steel frame on top of them.

“Hurry! Capture him. Don’t let him go,” ordered a middle-aged man who had a slight change in expression.

It was the Fast Attack Group’s secret lab where the stuff they produced should not be known to the public. If this were to spread, everybody here would be in trouble.

Many people rushed out of a few tunnels as soon as that order was issued. Each of them even had a gun in their hands.

“You know producing and selling drugs is against the law and you’re still doing it. All of you deserve to die!” Ye Chen leaped from above and stomped hard onto the ground.

Bang!

As the entire ground shook, a gigantic crack appeared in the middle. A magnificent force spread with him in the center.

Within the blink of an eye, everyone in the entire lab had their bones crushed and their flesh smashed from the force.

Then, Ye Chen walked over and picked up a packet of drugs. He tossed it onto their bodies and performed the Fireball Tactic. The entire underground lab was drowned in sparks instantly.

He walked out of the sea of fire one step after another with his arms behind his back. With red flames spurting in his eyes, he looked like a fire god.

In a private manor in the suburbs of Beijing, almost all the mid- and high-level members of the Fast Attack Group were gathered. It was their actual headquarters.

It was bright in the manor at the moment. Tens of people gathered around the table that was five meters long, and there were all sorts of wines before them.

A young man, who was sitting close to the window, raised his glass to the middle-aged man sitting at the main seat. He said as he smiled to butter up to him, “Happy birthday, Deputy Leader Cao. May your year be filled with blessings.”

The rest mimicked him while raising their glasses as they stood up. “Happy birthday, Deputy Leader Cao. May your year be filled with blessings!”

The man remained seated while he took it all in. He lifted his arms to gesture and smiled lightly after everyone stopped talking. “Everyone, it’s my 40th birthday today. Thank you for giving me face and coming over to my party. I won’t say all those pretentious things. Everything I want to say is in this wine. Cheers!”

Someone said while smiling after they bottomed up, “Deputy Leader Cao, why isn’t the leader here today?”

All of them grew serious instantly upon hearing that.

The man with the family name Cao looked around and had his eyes on a man who was short and looked ferocious. "Master is working on something, so he won't be here today. However, he called earlier to ask how's the task that Young Master Xue ordered."

The ferocious man smiled instantly as he spoke, "I got people to destroy that store today, but I didn't see Ye. Instead, we beat his staff up."

"Ye should be hiding. Send more people over again tomorrow. Smash everything you see and beat up everyone you see. You guys can do anything you want as long as you don't kill anyone," Cao scoffed, "I don't believe that Ye will hold back."

Just when the ferocious man was going to speak, a loud thud was heard. The window before the people shattered suddenly. Subsequently, they saw a young man walk in from the window with his arms behind his back.

The people in the house were shocked. Some of them took out their guns immediately and pointed the muzzles at Ye Chen.

Cao's expression turned grim. "Who are you?"

"Where is your leader?" Ye Chen demanded in utter coldness.
