

Genius 2021

Chapter 2021

Young people, their hearts are written on their faces.

After one look at the other party, Lin Mo secretly shook his head.

With this kind of heart, I was afraid that if he wanted to improve his medical skills in this life, he would be delusional.

Since the other party was unwilling to reveal too much, Lin Mo could only ask the patient himself.

“Miss Bai Rongruo, can you let me probe your pulse.”

Frowning slightly, after all, she didn't know Lin Mo either.

Seeing a strange man, suddenly making this inexplicable request.

Naturally, he was somewhat disgusted, after all, there were not a few people who used the disease as an excuse to figure out everything.

And Lin Mo instantly understood that his demeanour seemed a little abrupt.

“Sorry, I forgot to introduce myself.

I am the representative of the Southern Realm Medical Saint Competition, Lin Mo.

I observe that the girl's illness seems a little strange, but I need to check her pulse to confirm something.”

At this moment, Bai Rongruo realised that she had been overly concerned.

Anyone who could be the representative of the competition was not a medical expert.

People practiced benevolent medicine with compa*sion, but they misunderstood and made up comments about each other in their hearts.

He blushed a little at the thought of this.

“Sorry, it was me who misunderstood.

Please trouble Divine Doctor Lin.”

With that, she consciously extended her white arm.

“No harm!”

Nodding his head, Lin Mo didn't care about the matter.

After all, it was only human to have such a defensive mind as a girl.

In order to avoid skin-to-skin contact, Lin Mo drew a thin tissue and covered Bai Rongruo's wrist.

Only then did he check his pulse.

Although it was a small detail, it also made Bai Rongruo's heart feel good.

However, once his fingers were on his wrist, he saw that his pulse was extremely stable.

How can I put it, judging from the pulse, Bai Rongruo's body was in perfect health.

But when I thought about it, I had just seen the abnormal blood vessels on this woman's face.

Lin Mo said softly.

"Miss Bai, cooperate, please hold your breath for ten seconds."

At this moment, Bai Rongruo hurriedly dispelled the jumbled thoughts in her mind and meekly cooperated.

However, she held her breath for less than five seconds.

Her face became pale and she felt the dizziness coming back again.

Seeing this change, Lin Mo hurriedly stopped to.

"That's fine, Miss Bai!"

And at this time, Bai Rongruo also began to take a big breath.

Although she had already made a basic judgment in her heart, she still needed further confirmation.

"Miss Bai, we need to apply needles later to further confirm the diagnosis."

Waiting for the patient's consent.

Just when Lin Mo was about to entrust the Dunhuang Sage with the application of needles.

But Duan Zhen, who was at the side, immediately and immediately stepped forward to stop it.

"Mr. Lin Mo, Miss Bai is the jewel of the Bai family.

If something happens to you if you give her the needles so abruptly.

I can't afford it."

In this way Lin Mo did not explain, but simply returned indifferently.

"First of all, what is clear is that Miss Bai Rongruo's illness is not on the blood vessels.

In addition, the blood-vitalizing pills have actually aggravated his illness.

Lastly, his symptoms are not caused by excessive fatigue."

"You ....."

Upon hearing Lin Mo dismiss him completely, Duan Zhen's face turned red with anger.

If not for the fact that the other party was a representative of the competition, he would have thrown Lin Mo out of Hui Chun Hall.

At the same time, Bai Shao'er, who was at the side, skewed her gaze at Duan Zhen.

Hearing Lin Mo's words, she followed closely and said.

"Ruo Ruo's illness has already been diagnosed by Hui Chun Hall, and the medicine is now working well.

If you mess up and cause something to happen to our Ruo Ruo.

Do you think you can afford it?"

Seeing that Lin Mo did not speak, she asked again.

"You said you are the representative of the Southern Realm, that's right.

Where is your medical certificate? Take it out and take a look."

At these words, not only Lin Mo, but also the Dunhuang Sainted Maiden at the side could not help but frown.

Divine doctors like them, who were renowned for their reputation, all spoke from strength.

No one would even care about whether or not they had a license to practice medicine.

To put it simply, their high-flying circle did not thrive on such things.

Chapter 2022

Learning that Lin Mo actually did not have a license to practice medicine, Bai Shaoer's face instantly pulled down.

"South realm participation representative? Is it that the South Realm is out of people?"

I can't believe they let you, who doesn't even have a medical license, participate in the Medical Saint Competition.

Or are you simply an impostor."

On the side, Bai Rongruo saw this behaviour of her best friend and hurriedly pulled the corner of her coat.

"Asahi, Mr. Lin Mo also has good intentions.

You should stop saying that!"

Squatting down, Bai Shallow smiled gently.

"RongRong, I'm telling you, some people ah just commit indebtedness.

Your body is weak now, if you are misdiagnosed by some quack doctors, it will be a big problem."

Ignoring Bai Rongruo's obstruction, she turned the topic to Duan Zhen again.

"Doctor Duan, it seems that the inspection mechanism of your Hui Chun Hall needs to be strengthened.

Otherwise all kinds of cats and dogs can get mixed in.

It's a disgrace to our capital city."

These words of accountability naturally struck at Duan Zhen's heart.

He was already jealous of Lin Mo, plus the other party had disparaged his diagnosis as worthless.

At this moment, his heart was bursting with joy.

Following the other party's words, he spoke in a sinister manner.

"Miss Bai Shaoer, you can't say that.

After all, people have a referral letter from the Southern Realm King, and it is absolutely impossible to impersonate them."

This was said coincidentally, since it wasn't an impostor, it was him, Duan Zhen, who also agreed with the South Realm's no one.

At this moment, the face of the Dunhuang Holy Maiden had darkened to the extreme.

This sing-song had surprisingly scolded her along with the little sage.

This Duan Zhen, from the first moment she saw Xuelian, was attracted by her stunning beauty.

However, she was a Dunhuang Holy Maiden, a once-in-a-century genius of Dunhuang.

Even if he had the heart to talk to her, he didn't have the guts to do so.

Now that the opportunity had come, looking at Xue Lian's face, he only thought that the other party was because she had been cheated by Lin Mo.

From there, he was discontented.

"Miss Xue Lian, times have changed nowadays.

Many people look like human beings on the outside.

In fact, they don't know how much nastiness they have inside.

Moreover, they always like to pretend to be divine doctors by virtue of having some connections behind them."

After a moment of insinuation, he proudly glanced at Lin Mo.

However, what he did not know was that this pile of sand had all been shot at the Dunhuang Sage's body.

She did not have a medical license!

The qualification to participate in the competition, Dunhuang recommended it!

Some connections behind the scenes? Coincidentally, she was!

A 100% perfect fit.

Although the Dunhuang saint, Snow Lotus, has a good heart, even a man of clay has a fire in him.

With a cold smile!

“Coincidentally, the ones you pointed out happen to be talking about is me.”

As the words fell, Duan Zhen’s face instantly changed.

Only then did he realise that he had only been focusing on Lin Mo.

He had forgotten that the situation of the Dunhuang Holy Maiden was not far from his.

“Holy Maiden, I didn’t mean it like that, I was talking about Lin .....”

“Shut up, mediocre medical skills even if, the heart eyes are still small.

Own diagnosis and use of medicine in addition to the problem, but also deadly unwilling to accept.”

By virtue of Xue Lian’s identity, plus his own offense in the first place.

Naturally, Duan Zhen did not dare to say anything more, and could only apologize repeatedly.

However, there was a clueless Bai Shou’er on the side, ah.

Seeing how arrogant Xue Lian was, he immediately expressed his displeasure.

“Who do you have, and what business do you have here?”

Hearing this, the Dunhuang Saint Maiden also turned her neck, cold-eyed and smiled disdainfully.

“Dunhuang, Xue Lian, I wonder what you have to say.”

Dunhuang divine Maiden, Xue Lian?

Upon learning the other party’s identity, Bai Shaoer was shocked.

This year’s competition, the existence of the most reputable representative of the competition.

On the one hand, it was because of its unbelievable qualifications, and on the other hand, it was the power behind it.

Dunhuang, that was the number one family in China, the Nalan family, an existence that no one dared to easily provoke.

The words had already been spoken, and it was too late to explain.

No longer paying attention to the mean duo.

The Dunhuang Saintess nodded towards Lin Mo.

“Mr. Lin, go on!

Don’t let irrelevant people, affect your mind!”

Chapter 2023

Shrugging his shoulders, Lin Mo also said that it didn't matter.

How could a lion care about ants' taunts.

"Miss Xuelian, later on, you will need to be Miss Bai's back under the needle, and this will require your help."

Based on the pulse consultation, Lin Mo could basically already tell that the root cause of Bai Rongruo's illness was likely to appear in the lungs.

However, in order to prescribe the right medicine, he still needed to apply needles to confirm.

Out of concern for the difference between men and women, this matter of applying needles to the back had to be left to the Dunhuang Sage.

Nodding, Xue Lian naturally would not refuse to Lin Mo's request.

"Later, you need to apply needles at Heart Yu, Governor Yu, Lung Yu ..... , these sixteen acupuncture points.

Follow the order of succession and place the needles in order."

After listening to Lin Mo explain the way to apply the needles, one by one.

She then led Bai Rongruo into the room.

After waiting for a while, it was probably at the stage where the needles were being placed on Lung Yu.

Inside the room, there was a sudden cry of pain from Bai Rongruo.

"Pain, Zetong, you are barging in now and affecting the Saint Maiden's treatment.

Come out with any problems, are you responsible?"

Stopping Bai Shou'er who wanted to rush into the room, Lin Mo asked back in a cold voice.

Although he was dissatisfied with Lin Mo's attitude.

But after all, the one treating Bai Rongruo was the infamous Saintess of Dunhuang.

If she rushed in now, not to mention whether the treatment would be affected, this distrust alone would offend the other party again.

Thinking of this, she glanced at Lin Mo with dissatisfaction.

Only then did she retreat back to her seat.

About half an hour later, the door to the room opened again.

"It's OK, it's a lesion in the lungs that has affected the aorta.

That's why it flares up when you're tired and hold your breath.

It's not some unknown vascular problem."

Speaking here, the Dunhuang Sage once again disdainfully glanced at Duan Zhen.

The name of a quack doctor, real!

On the other hand, the moment she saw the Dunhuang Holy Maiden.

Bai Shou'er hurriedly rushed into the room.

"How are you, Rong Rong, are you feeling better.

That scream of yours just now scared me to death."

This Bai Shao'er, although her character was a bit sarcastic, her love for her sisters was true and genuine.

Rubbed the other's cheeks.

Bai Ruorong happily returned.

"It's good, I've never felt so good before."

After saying that, she took a few deep breaths, her face full of a sense of relief.

"Divine Doctor Lin and Miss Xuelian, thank you both for stepping in!"

The first time he walked out of the room, Bai Ruorong thanked the two of them.

"It's no big deal, my generation's practice of medicine is supposed to heal the sick and save people, there's no need to be polite."

After replying indifferently, the Dunhuang Sage turned to leave, preparing to study the rejuvenation pills Lin Mo had given out.

"Miss Bai, if I'm not wrong, this illness of yours has been going on for years, right?"

Faced with Lin Mo's inquiry, Bai Ruorong replied truthfully.

"Yes, ever since I experienced a high fever when I was nine years old.

This illness has lasted until now!"

"Hmm, so it's been more than ten years.

The disease of the five organs has been accumulating for many years, and although this application of needles has partially suppressed the condition.

However, if we want to heal, we still need to follow up and slowly recuperate."

With that, Lin Mo wrote out a prescription for medicine.

After thinking about it, he took out another bottle of rejuvenation pills.

"This is a rejuvenation pill that I have developed, although it is not completely specific to your illness.

But it can also speed up your healing.

In addition, you can do some moderate aerobic exercises until you sweat in front of your forehead.

With the complementary medicine, you will be cured in less than a month.”

After speaking, he handed Bai Ruorong the rejuvenation pill together with the prescription.

Lin Mo then took Little Shayi along with him and headed towards the residence of Hui Chun Hall.

Remaining where he was, he stared at the pill bottle in his hand in a daze.

A rejuvenation pill?

It seemed like he had heard of it somewhere, but for a moment he just couldn't think of it.

“Master Lin, it's really impressive, a glance to identify the symptoms and a pulse to diagnose the disease!”

“Little monk, you monks, can this lick too?”

“Master Lin, you should not tease the little monk.”

.....

The sounds of conversation faded away.

By the time Bai Ruorong returned to his senses, Lin Mo's figure had already disappeared within the lobby.

“Asahi-er, let's go back too!”

The silhouette disappeared, leaving only Duan Zhen, who was staying in place and full of shame and anger, at a loss for words!

Chapter 2024

The Chinese Medical Union in Beijing!

On a coffee table made of solid rosewood, there is a beautiful and exquisite tea set made of the same material.

Beside the tea table, a few white-haired old men were chatting and laughing about various interesting events recently.

“Medicine Ghost, I heard that the founder of that Reclamation Pill lives in your Hui Chun Hall.

He seems to have had a little conflict with your doctor.

It seems to be because he doesn't have any medical license eh, coincidentally, old man I don't have that either.”

At the mention of this, the medicine ghost old man was also a little upset.

If the representative of the participating generation was a divine doctor at the high play level, then the people here would be considered super play.

But unfortunately, none of them possessed a practising medical qualification.

The reason was simple, it was not needed.

The other few old men, after hearing this, also immediately laughed out loud.

“This Duan Zhen from your Hui Chun Hall is also a wonderful person.

With one sentence, he hammered all the Hidden Sect disciples, all of them, into the dirt.”

And after hearing this old man finish, the Bone Zun old man immediately showed his displeasure.

“Long-bearded Ghost, if you talk, don’t drag our Hidden Sect into it.

As we all know, the people of our Hidden Clan never go through your secular ways.”

It was true what Bone Dweller had said.

As a member of the Hidden Sect, those who could enter the world were very few.

The qualifications for practising medicine were even more of a floating cloud.

If it wasn’t for the Chinese Medicine Saint Competition, a group of Chinese Medicine elders would have invited him.

He would not have come out of the mountain and come to the capital.

“All right, all right, half a foot in the coffin of people.

Let’s think about how to handle this matter first!”

“With this little friend Lin Mo’s medical attainments nowadays, this qualification certificate can naturally be dispensable.

But if someone with an intention to do so keeps holding on to it.

It would be a problem!”

After stroking his long beard, the old man made his decision.

“Let’s have someone send a certificate of medical practice, anyway, with Lin Mo’s level.

It’s already far beyond the requirements for the certificate.”

“Will people gossip if we do that?”

“Gossip? Xiao Hui Dan, a first grade elixir. Regeneration Dan, a special grade elixir.

If that group of people had the ability to make such an elixir as well.

I’ll immediately let him take Lin Mo’s place in the competition!”

.....

On the other hand, Hui Chun Hall.

As the sun set in the west, the rest of the representatives of the Hidden Sects participating in the competition arrived one after another.

And after learning that Lin Mo was actually the founder of the Reclamation Dan.

These delegates were instantly nonplussed.

After packing up their rooms, the green-shirted disciple from the Hundred Pill Valley was the first to find Lin Mo.

“Mr. Lin, I didn’t expect you to come to the competition as well.

You don’t know, ever since the learned of the Reclamation Pill ah.

I, who was originally considered a genius within the valley, have been accused by Zun every day during this period of time.”

After saying that, he straightened his body and imitated his master, saying with a serious face.

“Look at you, you can’t even refine a God Forging Pill, look at that Lin Mo in the Southern Realm who is the same age as you.

He has already refined, at a young age, a divine pill like the Rejuvenation Pill.”

“Look at you, you can’t even memorize a simple Thousand Herbs Sutra, look at that South Realm ……….”

“Stroke the needle hand, I have taught you several times, but you just can’t learn, look at that Southland ……….”

The rant went on for nearly ten minutes, and between the words, there was a strong sense of bitterness.

And these words instantly resonated with the participating disciples of the various hidden sects who came to visit Lin Mo together.

For a while, every inch of the air in the courtyard was filled with sorrow.

“It’s just a coincidence of chance! If you guys are struggling with this matter.

I do have a solution!”

After saying that, Lin Mo revealed a mysterious smile.

To these Hidden Sect disciples, Lin Mo still approached them with full of friendliness.

No matter what, it was simply because of their personalities.

After learning about Lin Mo, although they were bitter, they did not hate him.

There was envy, but not jealousy.

There was a frank and honest exchange of views, without any deceitfulness.

This way of getting along, at the very least, made him, Lin Mo, feel very comfortable and relaxed.

And the crowd present, hearing that Lin Mo actually had a way to solve the nagging of the masters.
A look of anticipation flickered in their eyes at once.

Chapter 2025

“Little monk!”

The door opened and the little sama walked out of the room, hands clasped together, and came to Lin Mo.

“Master Lin!”

And among those Hidden Sect disciples, a few naughty girls, seeing Little Shameless this first moment.
With their eyes dazzling, they rushed to his side.

“Wow, what a handsome little monk!”

And with that, they were about to reach out and stroke his bare, untouched brain.

Only when the palm of his hand fell, the little monk’s body strangely shifted backwards.

If one were to look closely, one would have noticed.

In the process of moving, Little Shayi’s feet did not move at all.

Shaolin’s 72 Stances, Light Body Technique!

“Female monk, please behave yourself!”

Clasping his hands together, Little Shāhmi said in a Buddhist salute.

It was just this look of his blushing cheeks and a serious refusal.

It made those naughty girls even more interested.

Just as they wanted to go forward and stroke his big bald head again, the little shamatha immediately took a few steps back.

And then, amidst the astonished gazes of the crowd, he stepped on the wall and with one long leap, he arrived at the roof of the room.

Shaolin’s 72 stunts, the Gecko Swimming Wall!

This scene was quite surprising to Lin Mo.

He didn’t expect this young monk, who usually looked so gentle and nonchalant, to be hiding such strength.

“Alright, you guys should stop bullying him.”

Knowing that they didn’t have any bad intentions, they just wanted to tease the little Shamiya Du Qi when they saw how handsome he looked.

Lin Mo then persuaded.

And then spoke towards the little Shami on the roof.

“Little monk, how is the research on the re-creation pills going?”

“Master Lin, I have understood the general pharmacological effects, but I just haven’t gone through the actual refining yet.

I don’t know if it will be successful!”

Nodded his head, worthy of being a little holy doctor of the Buddhist sect.

If not for the inheritance, the complex pharmacology of this rejuvenation pill would have taken him several days to understand on his own.

But this little sage was able to grasp it after just one side of his own explanation this morning.

The conversation between the two was a bit confusing to the others.

But in general, they could guess that it should be this Lin Mo who had imparted the Reclamation Pill to this little monk of yours.

Only, they had never expected Lin Mo’s next words.

“Alright then, little monk.

You tell them what I told you, with them as well.

As long as you learn to recreate the pills, their master’s nagging won’t be there when they return to the sect.”

“Alright, Master Lin!”

After saying this, the little sama leapt up from the roof and landed lightly on the ground.

At this moment, the crowd was in a completely dumbfounded state.

What? Lin Mo was actually willing to share the secret recipe for the Reclamation Pill with us?

By the time they came to their senses, with excitement, they wanted to thank him.

There was no sign of Lin Mo in the courtyard.

Outside the compound, Lin Mo, who had sneaked out of the compound, had already approached the staff.

When he found out that the other party wanted to buy vegetables for cooking, the receptionist’s eyes lit up at once.

I didn’t expect that this Mr. Lin Mo, not only was he handsome and highly skilled in medicine, but he could also cook.

Ah! I want to marry him so badly!

At this moment, Lin Mo was unaware of the other party's thoughts, and was just led by the reception lady.

He bought back two big heavy bags of ingredients.

By the time he returned to the compound again, the crowd was already engrossed in the little monk's explanation.

They didn't even notice him.

The night was like water and the silver moon hung in the sky.

After it was completely dark, the little monk's explanation came to an end.

Just when the crowd was full of harvest, they began to close their eyes and meditate.

The green-shirted disciple from Hundred Medicine Valley suddenly huffed.

The high level of concentration was also a huge drain on physical strength.

And at this time again, smelling the aroma of rice, his stomach involuntarily began to rumble.

"It smells so good, is someone cooking?"

With his interruption, the crowd's attention was distracted.

Turning their heads to look around, the large round table in the courtyard was already set up with all sorts of delicious delicacies.

At this moment, Lin Mo also walked out from the back kitchen.

Chapter 2026

Carrying a large bowl of vegetarian noodles, he walked to the table.

Looking at the mouth-watering faces of the crowd, he smiled faintly.

"What are you waiting for? Let's eat!"

As the words fell, these Hidden Sect disciples first swallowed their saliva, though then they swarmed to the table.

"Wow, it's delicious. Mr. Lin, did you used to be a chef?"

"Mmmmmmmmm, sure, a five-star chef who was delayed by his medical skills!"

Although he wolfed down the food, he couldn't help but boast about Lin Mo's cooking skills.

"Not really a chef!

It's just that I used to do more of it."

Previously, during the time when he was the son-in-law of the Lin family.

The family's meals were all taken care of by Lin Mo.

Plus with a picky mother-in-law, could this meal not be cooked well!

“Eh eh eh eh, those vegetarian dishes were specially prepared by me for the little monk.”

“You brown old men, can’t you learn from other girls’ meals, be more civilised.”

“Wow, the last piece of roast pork, there’s still a grab.”

“Eat slowly, eat slowly, no one is robbing you.”

“Nonsense! It’s almost finished!”

They were all secluded and puritanical people, and it was rare to taste such a delicacy, so they could possibly keep their hands off.

The table was consumed in the midst of laughter.

Rubbing their rounded stomachs, they burped without a care in the world.

In the courtyard, except for a few girls.

The others, all of them, were finding their favourite positions.

Some were lying on stone benches; some were leaning against the benches of the pavilion.

Some even sat directly on the stone steps lazily shaking their feet.

“This life, if the Master sees it.

Inevitably, it would be a duty!

Eh! Comfortable!”

After saying that, the green-shirted disciple changed to a more comfortable position and continued to sit limply.

“Mr. Lin Mo, I wonder where your master is from?”

“Yes, yes, I’ve heard that Master Xue Wu of the Southern Realm is unparalleled in his scheming, I wonder if that’s true.”

“When will your rejuvenation pills be available?”

There were many questions, and after patiently answering them all.

The crowd then began to chat about all sorts of topics.

It is not often that one can meet so many people of the same age in the cultivation of a mountain hermit.

In addition, there were also peers who were studying medicine and practising medicine at the same time.

There was a lot to talk about!

They would talk about life, study herbs and reason about illnesses.

Before we knew it, the night was getting darker and the moon was getting brighter!

.....

The next day, the sun was just poking its head out of the sky.

The room slowly opened.

Lin Mo didn't even know when he had fallen asleep because he had talked too late yesterday.

He only felt dazed and confused, so he climbed into bed and fell back to sleep.

Yawning, he walked out of the room.

To his amazement, several hermit disciples were still gathered around the table in the gazebo within the courtyard.

Full of excitement, they were pa*sionately discussing.

“Since the Reclamation Pill can cure, the three cancers of the stomach, liver and lungs!

Then, according to Divine Doctor Lin's philosophy of medicine, my reasoning cannot be denied.”

When Lin Mo walked in to take a look.

This little Daoist priest, surprisingly, was holding a pill that was not much different from the Reclamation Pill.

Moreover, judging from its colour, it was clearly a new elixir that had just come out of the furnace.

In response to the young Daoist's viewpoint, the opposite few people also immediately made a rebuttal.

“Have you ever thought that fullness is overflowing, the medicinal properties of the rejuvenation pills have reached their limit.

The medicinal principles are mutually exclusive, and adding other herbs to it.

Not only will the effect be weak, but even the medicinal properties of the original pill will be greatly affected.

This method cannot be pa*sed!”

With these words, several people on the Little Daoist's side were at a loss as to how to retort.

The little Daoist priest, who was red in the face, originally wanted to say something else.

But in his afterglow, he unexpectedly saw Lin Mo.

Instantly, his eyes showed joy.

“Divine Doctor Lin, you've come just in time!”

With that, he dragged Lin Mo to his side.

“We’ll let the person in question say whether my reasoning will work or not.”

As he finished speaking, he held up the elixir on the table.

“Divine Doctor Lin, this is the base of the Reclamation Pill that I made some changes to last night.

Added, Red Butterfly Gra*s, Three Coloured Lotus Seeds, Green Mist Gra*s and Conch Vine, four herbs.

Making it not only able to treat the three types of cancer, it really has some efficacy for throat cancer as well!”

After hearing the little Daoist’s words, the corners of Lin Mo’s mouth also twitched.

These people, they were really somehow terrifying!

Chapter 2027

Looking at the pills in front of him, Lin Mo couldn’t help but feel a little sour.

To be from the Hidden Sect was to be bold.

These four herbs were all, rare and famous medicines that could not be found.

Now, they had actually been refined by these few defeatist things, experimenting.

After receiving the modified version of the rejuvenation pill, Lin Mo first brought it to the tip of his nose and smelled it.

After that, he took the knife on the table and scraped a layer of powder off the surface.

After taking it personally.

Lin Mo’s eyes immediately widened.

“You have eaten through the Reclamation Dan?”

Although it had been altered, the medicinal theory of the Reclamation Pill was accurate.

These disciples of the Hidden Sect were human, huh?

It seemed that only last night, the young monk had been allowed to explain it to them.

The first half of the night everyone ghosted together.

In other words, in just one second half of the night, they had eaten through the Rejuvenation Pill and even refined it.

A demon is a demon!

“The pharmacology has indeed been affected, but the healing effect of the throat cancer you mentioned does exist.

But the effect is not very obvious.”

“Alright, there’s no need to make a dwell on the elixir.

With so much time, it would be better, to follow the method mentioned yesterday.

What about re-deriving a new elixir for throat cancer.”

Although this statement was suspected of being watered down, Lin Mo was also telling the truth, after all, both sides had a point.

And both sides of the argument were originally just spur of the moment, wanting to deduce the limits of the re-construction pills.

Now that the founder had spoken.

They also stopped dwelling on it.

They turned around.

The few people who had been arguing with each other were now hooking up again.

They began to discuss how to deduce a new medicine for throat cancer.

“It’s fine to deduce a new medicine, but you guys don’t forget that you still have to prepare for the Medical Saint Competition.”

Faced with Lin Mo’s reminder, several people waved their hands indifferently, indicating that they understood.

Without looking back, they left.

At this moment, Lin Mo was like their nagging master.

Looking at the backs of a few people, he also smiled in relief.

With the existence of such a group of people, the art of medicine should flourish.

But as the most difficult persistent disease recognised by the global medical community, cancer.

Even with the cancer curing pharmacology of Lin Mo’s rejuvenating pills.

But it only pointed them in the right direction.

It was like searching for an island in a vast ocean that no one had ever been to before.

Even if they know the direction, they still have to go through difficulties such as yawning, reefing, storms and so on.

So this group of people wants to develop, a new cure for cancer.

There is still a long way to go.

But as long as they have the heart to keep moving forward and to explore without fear of difficulties, success is just a matter of time.

Two flowers in one, one in each!

After washing up and eating breakfast.

The sky was also bright.

Outside Hui Chun Hall, a luxury car came speeding by.

The car door opened and the man hurriedly came towards the backyard.

“Excuse me, are you Mr. Lin Mo?”

The crowd, who were originally discussing pharmacological issues with great enthusiasm, fell silent for an instant.

Looking at the strange uncle in front of him, Lin Mo rose in confusion.

“Yes, I am!”

Upon learning his identity, the strange uncle instantly warmed up.

“Hello, Divine Doctor Lin, I am the representative of the China Medical Alliance in Beijing.

Wei Changqing, you can call me Old Wei, or Uncle Wei.”

After saying that, Wei Changqing handed a beautifully wrapped book to Lin Mo.

“I learned that Divine Doctor Lin, the invitation to the competition and the qualification certificate to practice medicine that is not yet available on this side.

The Medical Alliance has specially commissioned me to send these two items to you.”

The invitation letter was something that every representative of the competition had to prepare.

And this was originally something that Lin Mo was going to handle this afternoon.

Of course the way to handle it was simple, just go to the Chinese Medicine Union’s premises.

By presenting the referral letter from the Southern Realm King, Master Xue Wu, he would be able to obtain it.

What he didn’t expect was that the other party would personally send someone over.

And when he saw the practicing medicine qualification certificate, Lin Mo frowned slightly.

This thing, if one said it was useful, it was actually of little use.

But if one were to say that he was useless, it would also be able to shut up the yoyo at critical moments.

“Representative Wei, thank you for your hard work, I have to trouble you to make a trip.

I’ll accept this invitation, but as for the medical certificate, I’ll ask you to take it back with you.

I’ll get it myself if I need it.”

Chapter 2028

Lin Mo himself knew about this matter of qualification.

If others wanted to pick on him, they would definitely grab hold of it and bite down on it.

However, if he accepted the gift from the Medical Alliance now, others would still gossip about it.

Since that was the case, it was better to take a copy of the test himself.

And on the opposite side.

Seeing that Lin Mo did not accept it, Wei Changqing nodded his head.

Solely not dwelling on this point either.

“In that case, it’s fine.

But this Clear Turbidity Pill, you must accept it.

The few elders in the Medical Union have given a deadly order, so if you don’t accept it, I won’t be able to give an explanation.”

After speaking, he stuffed a medicine into Lin Mo’s arms.

As the representative in the capital, he, Wei Changqing, naturally knew of Lin Mo’s achievements.

Just by virtue of the Small Returning Pill that came from his hand as well as the Reclamation Pill.

Amongst the deepest intentions of his peers, they were already riding high.

And most of the elders in the Medicine League, it seemed, were also due to their age.

Began to slowly reduce their study of medical arts.

Instead, they have shifted most of their attention to, training the new generation of famous doctors.

Among the most interesting of the new generation of divine doctors, Lin Mo took up a seat.

The only regret was that Lin Mo, who was originally a doctor and a martial artist, had his dantian ruined.

This seriously affected the upper limit of his medical path.

However, with his skillful art of elixir deduction alone, it was enough to make up for this flaw.

It would not affect the elders’ expectations of his future achievements.

Therefore, after learning of Lin Mo’s situation in the capital.

Immediately, he had Wei Changqing send what he needed to Lin Mo as quickly as possible.

Listening to the other party’s meaning, this Dan could not be accepted without it.

“Many thanks to Uncle Wei over there, so I’ll accept it with a thick skin.”

It was just that what Lin Mo had not expected was that the news of his Dantian being invalidated had already reached the capital.

The greatest function of this Cleansing Pill was to clear the turbid Qi produced by the damaged and ruined dantian.

Although it has no restorative effect, it is most effective in protecting the health of the body.

What should be delivered had already been delivered.

After all, the competition was approaching and the Pill Alliance still had many important matters waiting for him to deal with.

“You are welcome, then Divine Doctor Lin, I will take my leave.

By the way, good luck, you will get a good ranking in this competition.

Stay!”

He came in a hurry and left in a hurry.

When Wei Changqing, left.

Everyone around them gathered around with regretful faces.

There was not a single person present who did not know about the Clear Turbidity Pill.

Moreover, due to the singularity of its medicinal properties, there was no need to even think that Lin Mo must have his dantian ruined.

That was why the Medical Alliance had sent this medicine over.

Thinking of this, the crowd could no longer remain calm.

Especially when they thought of the fact that yesterday Lin Mo had explained to the crowd the untold secret, the medicinal theory of the Reclamation Pill.

A crowd of Hidden Sect disciples took out their own treasured spiritual pills and famous herbs and rare materials!

“Mr. Lin, this is the Body Forging and Qi Training Pill, although, it doesn’t have the effect of repairing your dantian, it can also strengthen your body.

It’s alright, martial arts cultivation is not that important to those of us in the healing path.”

“Divine Doctor Lin, this is the Marrow Cleansing Pill I stole from my master, it will clear the impurities in your body.”

“Brother, I am the Seven Ding Ren Fruits, which can boost your nerve response.”

Every time Lin Mo wanted to explain that his body had recovered.

They always, in quick succession, interrupted his words while giving away the treasures they were pressing in their hands.

By the time Lin Mo’s arms were stuffed to the brim.

The little shamatha also followed him up.

As they looked at each other, Lin Mo also became curious.

Yesterday, when he changed the new clothes for the little shamrock.

The only thing left on his body, apart from a book, was his daily notes of important medical practice.

The only thing left was a small string of rosewood rosary beads hanging around his neck.

And this exclusive rosary, to give it away would be to renounce the Buddhist path.

So all in all, it was the point of no return.

Chapter 2029

“Monk Lin, I am ashamed that I have not been able to help help you.

The only thing I have is this worthless notebook on the practice of medicine, and I present it to Almighty Lin.

I hope it can bring a little help to your medical path, Master.”

Holy sh*t!

What the hell kind of joke is this.

Although calling Little Shami a little monk was a playful term for a close relationship.

But now this little sama was crossing his illness, and he was even giving him three years of notes on his medical practice.

With his level of medical skills, after he collated them in the future, they could be a heirloom pharmacopoeia.

How could he possibly accept it?

Changing his playful smile, Lin Mo immediately became serious.

“If you treat me as a friend, you can take back your medical notes.

If you truly want to help me, then perfect it.

Just make a pharmacopoeia in the future and send me a copy!”

After a moment’s pause, the little sama also understood Lin Mo’s meaning.

“Master Lin, the little monk has entered the phase!”

With that, he withdrew from the crowd with a shameful look on his face.

Turning alone, he walked into the room.

Soon after, the Vajra Sutra came from it.

For those who cultivate Buddhism, one is goodness, two is karma, and three is emptiness.

Lin Mo shared the secret recipe for the Reclamation Pill with away to the crowd.

It was to enable everyone to better develop the medicine to cure cancer and save more people.

This is good!

To meet in the capital, this is fate.

To give a prescription without seeking reward, this is empty!

Others can give because they have something to give.

He had nothing to give away, and in return for Lin Mo, he wanted to give away his notes on the practice of medicine.

This side is breaking the emptiness, destroying the goodness and breaking the karma.

This is an act of entering the Sangha and leaving the Buddha.

Seeing this action of the little sama, Lin Mo knew that the other party had comprehended his good intentions.

At the same time, taking advantage of this opening, he finally had the chance to explain.

“Actually, everyone doesn’t need to be like this.

This Dantian of mine, the death of my meridians, has already been resolved.

Nowadays, although I have not recovered to my previous peak strength.

But the decisive time is just about right.”

Of course Lin Mo wasn’t foolish enough to reveal the matter of the Tai Ah Sword.

Although he wasn’t worried that these people would leak the secret, he was afraid of spilling the beans.

The matter was so grand that he had to be cautious.

Only what he didn’t know was that the more he explained, the more the crowd felt that he was just a polite excuse to refuse.

“Eh, it’s all right, you’ve given it away, there’s no taking it back.

Just think of it as a tonic for your body.

All right, all right, let’s all disperse.

It’s time to study the rejuvenation pills and prepare for the competition.”

As the Hundred Herb Valley’s Qing Shang disciple finished speaking.

Everyone in the room instantly dispersed, not even looking back.

Perhaps some of them who were of high cultivation level knew that Lin Mo had recovered.

Or perhaps they didn’t know either.

But giving out these Lin Dan wonderful pills was more of a reward for Lin Mo’s sharing of the secret recipe for the Re-creation Pill.

Every peck and every drink had its justification.

Thinking of this he no longer dwelled on it and took everything everyone gave him.

And at this point in the scene, there was still the Dunhuang Maiden left.

“As we all know, there is no medicine and no art to save a ruined dantian meridian.

Of course perhaps you do have a way to recover.

But the gift of the formula, the gift of preaching the path. I have no way to repay it.

I will give you this lotus seed of the Fire Cloud Immortal Haze Lotus, as a small token of my appreciation.”

With that, he stuffed a lotus seed that was so red that it was glowing and overflowing with spiritual energy into Lin Mo’s arms.

This was too precious, wasn’t it?

The lotus seed of the Fire Cloud Immortal Xia Lotus, but any woman who knew about this item was an existence to go crazy for.

It nourishes Yin and nourishes the face, detoxifies and removes diseases, replenishes Qi and benefits the blood.

It is not too much to say that it is a medicine for rejuvenation.

It is also the kind that has no side effects, but on the contrary makes the body healthier.

How to put it, it makes you young and healthy at the same time.

However, what made Lin Mo sweat was that this item was even more useful for women.

Looking at the figure of the Dunhuang Sage, he had already returned within the bungalow.

He could only accept it helplessly.

Chapter 2030

He grew up in a mountain hideaway.

Now that they have come to the capital, their recreation is very simple.

They gather in twos and threes to discuss medicinal principles with each other.

Or they work alone on the elixir of rejuvenation.

Or they work as temporary doctors at the Hui Chun Hall.

As for Lin Mo’s side.

Looking at the pile of precious pills and famous medicines, he could not help but fall into distress.

Forging the body, clearing the turbidity, consolidating the root, opening the veins, opening the spirit.

As long as the pills were for bodily functions, almost all of them were collected in front of him.

And among them, taking out any one of them and putting it on the market.

That was an existence that could cause a big shock in the market.

“Eh, which one should I take first?”

Scratching his head, there was Lin Mo somewhat torn asking himself.

Although all the pills in the foreword, he himself can refine, but can't help but have no herbs ah.

The actual fact is that he also has his own obsessions regarding the restoration of strength as well as improvement.

However, it was difficult for a clever woman to cook without rice.

When he heard this, Wu Xuan, who was guarding the Dharma at the side, could not help but grit his teeth.

Do you hear, do you hear the words of men?

Even though he was not ignorant of the art of healing, through the aura emanating from these elixirs.

He could also clearly feel the preciousness of these pills.

Such rare and precious pills, an ordinary person would not be able to obtain one in this lifetime.

This Lin Mo, on the other hand, was worried about how to take them.

People were more difficult than others.

“Let's forge your body first, only by building a good foundation for your body.

Only then can we better absorb the other pills.”

Saying that, Lin Mo picked up the Body Forging and Qi Training Pill on the table.

Tilting his head up, he swallowed it straight away.

After a moment of silence, a warm current suddenly appeared in his inner body and began to spread to all parts of his body.

As it spread, the warmth became hotter and hotter.

A painful sensation ensued.

In just a few breaths, sweat gushed out like a spring.

And the stains of filth slowly seeped out of the skin at a rate visible to the naked eye.

Enduring the pain like burning, Lin Mo took the Marrow Cleansing Pill again.

Only in the next second, he let out a hiss of pain.

“Ah!”

He could still grit his teeth and hold on to the original burning sensation.

But the pain caused by this Marrow Cleansing Pill was no longer something that normal people could endure.

It felt like, someone was using a dull knife, scraping off your flesh and blood inch by inch.

Slash by slash, your bones are cut down.

“Lin Mo, hold on.

Don’t pa*s out.

Otherwise the subsequent medicinal effects of the Marrow Cleansing Pill will be in vain.”

Seeing that Lin Mo’s pupils had already appeared lax, Wu Xuan at the side hurriedly reminded.

The effect of the Marrow Cleansing Pill was to cleanse the impurities in all parts of the body.

These impurities were all stubbornly deposited by the human body over the years, almost like a part of the human body.

To cleanse these stubborn, it was just like cutting flesh from the body.

The pain can be imagined.

And in the process, if one falls into a coma.

Many meridians are blocked, resulting in some areas not being cleared.

Like a stream of rat droppings within white porridge, although small, it affects the whole.

This truth was naturally known to Lin Mo.

But understanding is understanding, pain is real pain.

The wooden chair held in his right hand was already dented by his five fingers.

This feeling continued for nearly an hour.

As Lin Mo spat out a mouthful of dirty blood.

Only then did the real marrow cleansing process slowly come to an end.

And by this time, Lin Mo was already exhausted from exhaustion.

“Old Five, I’m warning you, no one is allowed to touch my body.”

After saying these words, he directly closed his eyes and pa*sed out from exhaustion.

“Che, a big old man, and so shy.

Tsk tsk tsk!”

After carrying Lin Mo to bed, Wu Xuan couldn’t help but spit out a sentence.

And then, he casually closed the door and returned to his room, continuing his cultivation.

Only what he didn't know was that.

Just at this stage of Lin Mo's deep sleep, the Tai Ah in his hand trembled gently.
