

Genius 2151

Chapter 2151

Seeing the stranger who came without asking.

Lin Mo subconsciously stepped in front of Nan Bing'er's body.

"Who are you people?"

The precedent of being good at Hui Chun Hall, but you have forgotten."

As he said that, his right hand was already gripping the hilt of his sword.

And to his shock, the aura of this group of strangers was not weak to him at all.

In other words, they were all half-step Zongshi, or strong above.

Thinking of this Lin Mo couldn't help but raise his spirits.

The sword qi around his body was even transported to the extreme.

As for the other disciples of the Hidden Sect, they also immediately stepped forward to protect the others behind them.

It was at this moment when swords were being drawn.

Outside the courtyard, a gentle, middle-aged man suddenly walked in.

"Sorry, sorry.

I hope you understand for the disturbance as I have taken the liberty of coming to the door."

The first moment he arrived at this person.

Lin Mo cast a questioning glance towards Wu Xuan.

The latter, in turn, shook his head helplessly, indicating that the other party was above his own strength.

"There is no need to be nervous, gentlemen.

I am the steward of the Nalan family.

Mr. Lin, may I borrow a step to speak."

Hearing the other party announce himself.

Instead, Lin Mo was relieved.

With the status and strength of the Nalan Clan, if they really wanted to trouble him.

There was no need to go to such great lengths.

Only when he was about to step forward.

But behind him, the Dunhuang Sainted Maiden suddenly pulled him back.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, patted the back of the latter's hand, signalling that Xue Lian did not need to worry.

He then followed the middle-aged butler and came to a corner where no one was.

The other party also spoke directly without waste.

"Mr. Lin, my family's miss, Nalan Mingzhu.

I would like to ask you and Miss Bing'er to come to my door for a chat."

Although the tone was gentle, the words carried an implication of not being able to refuse.

Lin Mo did not reply directly, but instead asked with a slightly heavy emotion.

"So I'm not safe here anymore, am I?"

As the words fell, the other party nodded.

At this point, Lin Mo understood the other party's intentions.

It was just that they had sensed that with the turbulent situation, with Lin Mo's strength alone.

If Nan Bing'er stayed at Hui Chun Hall, her safety could no longer be guaranteed.

That was why they intended to receive Nan Bing'er to the Nalan family.

"That's fine, wait for me for a moment."

Saying that, Lin Mo turned around and walked back to the backyard.

As the eldest daughter of the Nalan family head, Nalan Mingzhu had been known as the Pearl of the Capital.

If one looked at the whole of China, she was a person who had eyes and ears in the sky.

Most importantly, she was also Nan Bing'er's aunt.

Although his heart was not willing, Lin Mo had to admit it.

Nan Bing'er would only be safest under the protection of Nalan Mingzhu.

After explaining to a group of companions.

Lin Mo then took Nan Bing'er with him and walked out of Hui Chun Hall.

At this moment, outside the door, a clear convoy of Rolls-Royce was already waiting.

"Miss Bing'er, Mr. Lin, please get in!"

There were no words along the way.

When the motorcade came to a halt.

The group of people then arrived at their destination.

When they got out of the car, Lin Mo realised that the manor in front of him was not the same as what he had imagined.

As the residence of the capital's pearl, the manor was not the kind of luxurious and expensive decoration.

Instead, it was classical in nature and filled with a strong sense of solemnity.

"Welcome to you two, the lady is already waiting inside, please follow me."

With the receptionist leading the way, Lin Mo and the two of them bypassed the villa.

They came to a small garden on the side.

Waiting for a few people to walk into it.

A cluster of flowers instantly came into view.

Hearing the commotion over here, a delicate figure slowly walked out of the garden.

Her face was like a hibiscus and her skin was as smooth as cream.

Although her clothes were simple, she looked fresh and elegant.

The clouds wanted to dress and the flowers wanted to look, the spring breeze brushed the threshold and the dew was thick.

Underneath her beautiful appearance, an elegance that seemed to leak out from her bones came to her face.

Upon seeing this person, Lin Mo spoke directly.

"Descendant Lin Mo, meet Miss Nalan."

"There is no need to be polite, during this period of time, there are many rumours about Mr. Lin's deeds in the capital."

Said Nalan Mingzhu, then gently waved her hand.

In the next second, several terrifying auras around him instantly dissipated.

At this moment, Lin Mo also couldn't help but sigh in relief.

Being watched in the dark by a dozen Zong Shi powerhouses.

Even though he knew that the other party had no malicious intent, he couldn't help but feel creeped out.

Chapter 2152

When all the clan secret guards retreated.

Nalan Mingzhu then shifted her gaze to Nan Bing'er's body.

And then in her bright eyes, delight quietly appeared.

“You little girl, you look exactly the same as your mother did when she was young.”

With that, she led the two of them to the pavilion at the side.

Nan Bing'er, on the other hand, was full of doubts in her heart.

From the very beginning, she had purely followed Lin Mo.

Nan Baitian had not mentioned her life to her either.

Therefore, Nalan Mingzhu was a completely strange existence to her.

But ever since the two-sided meeting, Nan Bing'er always felt that the other party seemed to have an inexplicable sense of affinity.

After taking his seat.

Lin Mo took out an elixir box from his bosom.

“Miss Nalan, first time visitor.

The Face Nourishing Pill refined from the Fire Cloud Colourful Haze Lotus Seed will represent a small token of appreciation from the junior.

Please don't mind it yet.”

The said side pushed the pill box in front of the other party.

This was a surprise to Nalan Mingzhu.

Then she looked at Nan Bing'er who had never spoken.

Nalan Mingzhu seemed to have understood something.

This kid is worried that I, as an aunt, will make things difficult for my niece.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but smile.

.....

Just a few days before Lin Mo met with Nalan Mingzhu.

But there was a not-so-small incident on the high seas.

A luxury cruise ship was slowly traveling on the high seas.

However, within the cruise ship, Gua Tianzhu was still full of gloom.

The original plan for this trip to the capital was to avenge the death of Jesse Guada.

Now, not only had he failed to hurt Lin Mo.

Instead, he himself was being pursued by the Martial Union for the crime of disrupting order and deliberately injuring someone.

Had it not been for the family behind her, they would have offered an expensive price in exchange.

At this moment, she would already be in prison in the capital of China.

What makes her even more furious is this.

The hundreds of her best men and elites had vanished into thin air.

There was no trace of them.

In a fit of anger, Gua Tian Sakura smashed the wine gla*s in her hand.

“If I don’t take revenge for this, I will never be a man.”

With her gloomy face and bloodshot eyes, her appearance was ominous.

But just as she was in the throes of anger.

The cruise ship beneath her feet suddenly shook.

Caught off guard, Guadalupe stumbled.

“Where is everyone? Where the hell is he?”

With a stock full of anger, she shouted angrily.

When the men, in a panic, came into the room.

Instantly, he felt a chill around his body and his whole body was like falling into a cave of ice.

And in front of him was Gua Tian Sakura with an even more murderous look on his face.

“I’m sorry, miss.

It was a large ship ahead of us that blocked our way.

We had no choice but to stop.”

After saying that, he hurriedly kowtowed and begged for forgiveness.

“If you can’t handle this little matter, what use is it to have a punk like you.”

With those words, Gua Tianzura’s right hand fell on the hilt of his sword.

With a flash of cold light, the kneeling man’s right arm was chopped off directly to the ground.

“Humph, I’d like to see that fellow who is not afraid of death.

Even my Guada family’s ship dares to stop it.”

After speaking, she took a big step out.

And in the room, the man with the broken arm was left alone, holding his mutilated arm and wailing.

By the time Gua Tian Sakura reached the plywood, she immediately saw more than ten feet away.

An oversized warship, more than 200 feet long and 50 feet wide, was slowly coming to a halt.

At the bow of the ship stood a slightly dark-skinned man in a long shirt that rattled against the sea breeze.

On his shoulder, a fierce sea bream, nearly a metre tall, stands silently.

Sharp eyes, like a sharp sword, look around.

As the old saying goes, of the 361 birds and insects, the king of them all belongs to the sea-going green.

As the king of the flying birds, it is impossible to make it subservient unless it is a male among men.

From this, one can also see the extraordinary nature of the man in the long shirt.

Chapter 2153

It seemed that he sensed the shifting figures over here.

The man then turned his head and calmly glanced at Guadalupe.

It was only this glance.

She instantly felt as if she was being watched by a fierce beast.

In an instant, her body involuntarily began to tremble.

She waited until the man turned his body around.

Only then did the creepy feeling disappear.

At this moment, the angry Guada Sakura felt that she had lost face in front of her men.

With the Guada family behind her, she raised her sword in her hand.

She shouted a loud rebuke.

“b*d, tell your steward to get out of my way.

Or I’ll burn your broken boat.”

When she saw the man turn his head, she was still a bit complacent.

She thought that the other party must have been shocked by her aura.

But before she could rejoice for a few seconds.

On top of the warship opposite, suddenly several figures jumped straight down.

And just as their bodies were about to plunge into the sea, they only saw their feet lightly nudging the water.

Then they turned into cannonballs and came straight towards the cruise ship.

Seeing that the visitors were not good, Guada Sakura shouted.

“Enemy attack, defend.”

Just as the words fell from her mouth.

All the men around her had already collapsed to the ground, dying silently.

And after finishing off these weaklings.

The other side no longer had any intention of stopping.

In an instant, they had disappeared from Gua Tian Sakura's sight.

In the next second.

She then heard, from all over the cruise ship, the sound of hissing in pain.

Seeing this, she instantly understood.

The other side was trying to kill and silence her.

At this thought, she tightened her grip on the samurai sword in her hand.

A dozen breaths later, the scene fell silent.

At this moment, apart from the sea wind still whistling around, there was only the intermittent sound of seagulls.

At that moment, the figure on the bow of the warship suddenly leapt into the air and then plunged straight down in the direction of the cruise ship.

Bang!

With a violent sound.

The huge cruise ship instantly sank downwards.

The majestic seawater poured in.

And by the time the ship was calm.

When the ship calmed down, Sakura found that her beloved cruise ship was slowly sinking.

It had taken him years to get his hands on it, and it had taken less than six months.

For a moment, anger overwhelmed reason.

"Slaughter my people and destroy my beloved ship, you deserve to die."

With endless rage, she held her samurai long sword vertically in both hands and slashed straight down towards her opponent's head.

Only the next moment, Guada Sakura's face changed dramatically.

The slash that should have taken all her strength was easily caught by her opponent's two outstretched fingers.

No matter how hard she tried, the katana would not budge.

“Don’t waste your strength, young lady.”

As the man spoke, his arm flicked.

The katana he had clamped down on was reduced to tiny pieces that fell to the ground.

‘How is this possible?’

Seeing such a scene, Guadalupe’s eyes glazed over.

This katana was forged from fine iron.

Not only was it exceptionally tough, but it was also incredibly sharp.

Yet such a long sword was as fragile as tofu in front of her opponent.

Before she knew it, her opponent had no mercy.

The other side did not have the slightest intention of showing mercy.

He lifted his leg and kicked Guada Sakura out of the way.

At the same time, the Haidongqing on the man’s shoulders shook its wings and flew out as quickly as a silver lightning bolt.

The next moment, Guadazura, who was flying in mid-air, only felt a pain in both shoulders.

And then she was carried back to the man by a huge force.

The razor-sharp claws were retracted.

Only then did Kaitouzakura fly back to the man’s shoulder and nuzzle his master’s cheek affectionately.

At this point, Guadalupe was already badly wounded.

Wiping a handful of blood from her mouth with difficulty, she asked with resentment.

“Who are you people? If I die here today, you will never be seen again in the whole sea.

If I die here today, there will be no more room for you in the whole sea.”

Chapter 2154

After Guada Sakura had made her big speech.

A change finally came over the man’s face, which had been calm.

“Oh? Little doll, I’d like to know.

How you can leave me without a place to stay in Nangong Jingliu.”

Nangong Jingliu? King of the Eastern Sea?

Hearing the other party’s identity.

Gua Tianzura’s eyes instantly darkened, and then her face turned ashen.

Anyone who was involved in the maritime business had heard a saying.

“If the East China Sea is in chaos, the Nangong has the final say.

The proverbial Nangong Jingliu was not only of unfathomable cultivation.

The maritime power under his name is even greater.

There are no less than a hundred cruise ships, including many gambling ships and dark deals.

The fleet of transport ships has taken over most of the world’s sea lanes.

And the fishing fleet is huge.

There are thousands of ships, large and small.

They are also in charge of dozens of islands.

And after all these years of development, Nangong Jingliu’s sphere of influence has already penetrated into the Far East.

He felt the killing intent approaching.

Under the threat of death Gua Tianzura finally understood her situation, she was about to die.

“Lord Nangong, spare me.

I was wrong.”

With that she stretched out her bloody left hand and begged bitterly.

The moment this was said.

Nangong Jingliu, who was about to strike, stopped moving.

Having killed countless people, this was the first time he had seen a core member of the Gua Tian family beg for mercy.

Didn’t they claim that their backs were made of iron and that they would rather commit harakiri than beg for mercy if they couldn’t bend down?

Could it be that he had come across a soft egg today?

At this moment, Nangong Jingliu’s killing heart was instead withdrawn.

The healers were then summoned.

After Gua Tianzura took the healing elixir and calmed her injuries.

Only then did her originally pale face slowly take on blood.

“Well, in response to your plea, I can keep you alive.

But of I hope that this life of yours it will reflect the value it deserves.”

Although Nangong Jingluo’s tone was flat, it carried a strong killing intent.

As long as the other party's next answer did not satisfy him, he would surely die on the spot.

Gua Tianzura understood this.

She thought about the whole incident.

If it had not been for Lin Mo, she would not have travelled to the capital, let alone ended up in such a situation.

With hatred, she opened her mouth and spoke.

"Lord Nangong, if you can help me get rid of one person.

I, Gua Tianzhuo, am willing to follow you and be subservient to you from now on."

"Who is it?"

"Lin Mo of the Southern Realm!"

Gua Tianzura was already gritting her teeth when she reported this name.

Perhaps it was because for the strong, she could not bring up the feelings of defiance in her heart.

The only way to do so was to vent all her resentment on Lin Mo.

At this moment, Nangong Jingliu's face also slowly showed a feeling of emotion.

Originally, he did not care about the life and death of Gua Tian Sakura.

It didn't matter if the other party was from the Gua Tian family or the Gua Shangs.

On this high seas, no one would know even if they died.

Moreover, the mention of the Guaban family was even more disdainful in his heart.

Some time ago, hadn't their family given up the right to own an island to the Martial Union in order to keep Gua Tian Sakura.

He, Nangong Jingliu, was also involved in this matter.

So the family, was not enough to make him the King of the Eastern Sea have scorn.

But when Gua Tianzura expressed her willingness to follow him.

Nangong Jingliu then suddenly had an idea.

"Yes!"

"Take this Heart Devouring Pill for a hundred days.

When I take that Lin Mo down, you will be my man of the Eastern Sea."

After saying that, he threw an elixir out.

This person, Gua Tianzura, was actually of no great use to him.

Any one of his men could be much stronger than her in martial arts.

The only thing that interested Nangong Jingliu was the Stampede Clan under Guada's name.

And as a core member of the top clan in Japan.

As a member of one of the top clans in Japan, she could be his spy in the country.

Of course, it was just a dispensable informant.

If the other party did not satisfy him, his sharks in the East China Sea would have been starving.

This Gua Tian Sakura, with its delicate skin and flesh, is good fodder.

Chapter 2155

As for that Lin Mo.

Nangong Jingliu was also vaguely moved by the huge profits of the Reconstruction Pill in his hands.

It was just that he hadn't had the opportunity to do so.

This time, when he went to the Martial Union, he could take care of this matter by hand.

He would be happy to kill two birds with one stone.

Of course, if it is not possible to do so, he will not force it.

It's just a request for 'fodder', so it's not necessary to be so concerned about it.

At this point, the situation was better than the people, and Gua Tianzura had no choice at all.

Looking at the most poisonous elixir in her hand, although her heart was not willing.

But she still tilted her head and swallowed it straight away.

Nangong Jing nodded slightly and then asked.

"Since you want to kill Lin Mo, you should have the details of this person, right?"

Gua Tianzuo immediately said that she did.

And then she hurried back inside the cruise ship and took out a document and handed it to the other party.

"This is what I sent someone's in China, to investigate out about Lin Mo."

After Nangong Jingliu roughly flipped through the rough information on the document, he smiled disdainfully.

How could he investigate people with such a little ability?

With that in mind, he reached out and lifted Gua Tianzuo up.

Then he leapt and left the sinking cruise ship.

Back on the warship.

Nangong Jingliu called out to Guada Sakura who had finished treating her trauma.

The recent anomaly in the high seas.

Many deserted and barren uninhabited islands were sporadically populated with 'walking corpse' like humans.

Originally, he had suspected that this was related to the Japanese nation.

But after some questioning.

Seeing that Gua Tian Sakura was also baffled the whole time.

Nangong Jingliu simply gave up, the intention of being able to ask for clues from them.

"All right, you should heal well first.

When I deal with the matter of Lin Mo, there are still important matters for you to deal with."

Once Gua Tianzhuo had left, Nangong Jingliu instructed his men.

"On the matter of the walking corpse, you guys go ahead and investigate it clearly.

This is a major matter, we must not be careless."

At the mention of this matter, his face also slowly turned gloomy.

Within the room, a killing intent filled the room.

Only after a long time did he continue flipping through the documents in his hands, his mind racing.

After a quick tap of his fingers on the coffee table, he ordered to.

"Go and invite this Xie family head and Xue fifth master here.

Tell them that I, Nangong Jingliu, have a big business deal to seek their cooperation and invite them to the sea for a chat."

As soon as the words left his mouth.

Several figures disappeared in the same place.

And inside the water tank of the warship.

Several motorboats, speeding towards China.

In the short contact, the most shocking thing to Gua Tian Sakura was this King of the Eastern Sea's men.

Not only was there a collection of experts.

And they were completely forbidden to do what he told them to do.

Not a single word of nonsense.

Such a harnessing of people is unsettling.

Southern Realm, Xue Family Compound.

The servant girl in black who was making tea for Master Xue Wu suddenly twitched her ears.

After noticing the strange sound.

He copied the short blade beside him and rushed out of the room.

At that moment, there were already five bodies on one knee in the courtyard.

The man at the head of the group saw the visitor and shouted.

“The King of the Eastern Sea, Lord Head of the Palace, has sent an invitation.

I beg Master Xue Wu to come aboard for a chat.”

When he finished speaking he held the invitation in both hands and raised it all the way above his head.

A breeze pa*sed.

The silhouette of a man had already surfaced in front of him.

After receiving the invitation, after a cursory glance.

Master Xue Wu then opened his mouth and asked.

“Your lord, what is the message from your mouth?”

“My Lord Palace Head said.

The purpose of this gathering is to discuss overseas cooperation.

He also knows that there is a bit of friction between the Fifth Master and the Xie family.

At that time, the head of the palace said that he would have the cheek to persuade the two lords.

I hope that peace and harmony will bring wealth.”

After hearing this, the Fifth Master’s face was unmoved and only faintly expressed his understanding.

“Then I shall retire.”

As soon as the words left his mouth, the five black shadows instantly leapt backwards.

They disappeared in a few strokes.

It was thunderous and without delay.

Waiting for the crowd to leave.

The black-clothed maid behind them then cautiously asked.

“Master, we don’t have much acquaintance with this Nangong Jingliu.

This time, if we suddenly send an invitation, will there be any conspiracy?”

At this moment, Master Xue Wu only smiled lightly.

“This wild wolf, the older he gets, the more ambitious he becomes.

It says it’s cooperation and persuasion.

It’s nothing more than trying to pull me into the game.”

“That’s fine.

If he can give enough sincerity.

I, Xue, will accompany him on this big chessboard, so what’s the harm in dropping a piece or two.”

When he finished speaking, the black-clothed servant girl beside him was just about to speak.

Only to be interrupted by him waving his hand.

“Come on, don’t be so curious.

There are some things that you shouldn’t ask, don’t ask them.”

“Besides, where’s my tea.”

At this time, the maid secretly cried out in disgust.

She then rushed into the room.

Chapter 2156

Naturally, Xie Qianshan had also received the invitation.

Looking at the invitation, he looked suspicious.

The relationship between the Six Kings of China and the Ten Great Families had never been too friendly.

What exactly was the purpose of this Nangong Jingliu?

But as far as he understood.

There was a world-cla*s organisation overseas, the Hongmen.

This Nangong Jingliu was the Vice President of the Hongmen.

If he could get in touch with him, it would be an excellent partner.

“Joint planning and cooperation in the development of overseas industries?

I, Xie Qianshan, will play along with you.”

.....

In the Japanese side, by this time many people were already in a state of anger.

First, Jesse Guada died in his hometown, and then there was the death of the national doctor Hatoyama Henshin.

To add insult to injury, Guada Sakura, who had travelled to the capital to seek revenge, was almost detained.

All these matters deeply irritated the Guada family.

The fall of the clan's medical genius had undoubtedly caused a considerable break in the development of the family's medical path.

After all, for the sake of the Gua Tian Jieshi, they had thrown down a large amount of resources.

The aim was also to make him a leading figure in the new generation of the medical dao.

For this reason, the family even let him follow the team of national divine doctors and travel to China together.

On the one hand, they wanted to give him more insight.

On the other hand, they also wanted him to bring glory to the family by taking the top spot in the Saint of Healing Competition.

Now that the man had died, all his expectations had turned to foam.

"Hasn't Guada Sakura returned yet?"

The clan meeting.

An old man asked slowly from his seat.

And opposite him, the middle-aged man with a full beard heard these words.

His face suddenly darkened, and with discontent, he spoke.

"What's the point of mentioning her, that trash.

If it weren't for her, why would our Guada family have to lose an island."

"Nagano-kun, you can't say that.

After all, she is also working for our clan.

If something happened, if we didn't come to her rescue.

Not only would we lose face, but we would also chill the hearts of the other clansmen."

As soon as Gua Tian Guang Ye heard the old man's words, he felt justified.

But he still couldn't quell the bad anger in his heart.

That was a family island, and it was a waste of money for a failed loser.

But seeing that he could not argue, he could only grunt and twist the stubble on his face to the side.

At this moment, the doors of the venue were suddenly pushed open.

When they saw the visitor, they immediately straightened their posture.

It was a member of the Guada clan.

The exact identity of the person was not known.

The only thing they knew was that this man's words and actions represented the wishes of the clan chief and no one was allowed to disobey them.

Many members of the clan have made this clear with the cost of their lives.

Anyone who disobeys will be punished by life or death.

Walking to the front of the meeting hall.

The councilor looked at everyone in the room with a flat face.

With just one glance, the whole room instantly fell silent.

Only at this time did he clear his throat and speak.

"In accordance with the wishes of the Patriarch.

One, Gua Tian Sakura, failed in her mission.

As punishment, his authority as head of the storm troopers will be withdrawn."

"Two, unite all the major powers of my God's Kingdom and march on the capital together.

Since they can't give an explanation, then we will go and get one ourselves."

With that, the councilor bent his back and continued to speak.

"As for the matter of union, I will trouble you ministers."

After he had finished speaking, he ceased any further nonsense and simply turned to leave.

The order had already been given, and the plan of how to finally unite was naturally left to the ministers of the clans present.

The next day, early in the morning.

An announcement by the Guada family councilor resounded throughout the Japanese nation.

Its content mainly described the injustices suffered by the elite talents of the Japanese nation in China.

Even though the National Doctor had died, they still did not care and let the murderer go free.

In their deliberate distortion of the facts, they directly stigmatised China as a country that has no regard for the lives of the people of other countries and does nothing.

Under the impetus of the Guada clan and the united forces.

This piece of news spread instantly throughout the entire Japanese nation.

Chapter 2157

As soon as this news came out, the ma*ses, who had been kept in the dark, began to denounce the country of China.

And with this all-name outrage.

The major powers have also responded to the call of the Guada clan.

In a short span of two days.

All the forces gathered at the Japanese Shrine, the Palace of Governance.

Inside the main hall, there was a great deal of noise and people were rubbing shoulders.

After a long time, the trustee of the Guada clan, walked briskly to the top of the main stage.

Seeing the man who initiated this action, the scene slowly quietened down.

“Gentlemen, I’m sure you’re all clear on what happened.

The Master of Divine Medicine, the master and disciple of our Divine Kingdom, both died in the Kingdom of China.

But the Martial Alliance not only allowed the murderers to go unpunished.

It has even obstructed our revenge in every way.”

“It is only right to kill to pay for one’s life.

Besides, Master Hatoyama and my clan member, Jesse Guada, were only travelling to China for an exchange.

The Martial Arts League did nothing to protect their safety.

How dare they harbour them?”

“Bullying my divine nation, this is a shame, a great shame.”

As soon as the councilor’s words fell.

Countless young people in the audience were instantly like being beaten with chicken blood.

They looked towards the direction of the Kingdom of China, their eyes filled with indignation.

“How dare a little Martial Union bully my God’s Kingdom into having no one.”

“b*d, who is the murderer? I’ll kill him with my sword and see what that Martial Alliance can say.”

“Only trash would rely on patronage and live on.”

“The sword of my God-fearing a*sociation has very much not drunk blood yet.”

For a while, the topic of conversation among the crowd of young martial artists slowly shifted to the murderer as well.

It didn’t really matter to them what the truth of the matter was.

The matter involved the face of their Japanese nation.

Only by killing the murderer could the hatred of the people be relieved.

The elders of the various powers present also nodded in satisfaction.

This was not because they were blindly confident.

The overall strength of this generation of young martial artists far surpa*sed that of their own youth.

Back then, when the country was in turmoil, 14 neighbouring countries tried to take advantage of the opportunity to invade and bite a piece of meat off this lion.

However, none of them succeeded, and all were stopped.

But those who had coveted it all went home in disgrace.

In particular, the terrifying man from China, alone, faced the tens of thousands of Japanese martial artists in a breezy manner.

None of them dared to come forward.

The two sides remained in a stalemate until the Chinese military arrived, and only then did the crowd on their side finally leave reluctantly.

You will never know the horror of that man until you have experienced the sight of that streamer.

It was a shame, of course, but it was also a shadow over them.

Now it was the right time to take advantage of this opportunity to wash away their shame.

At that moment, one of the elders of the Golden Blade Biro of the Hidden Sect stood up.

“Councilor Gua Tian, what the Martial Alliance has done is truly rampant and uncaring.

But, today, we are all gathered here, whether to fight or fight, you give a final word.

I, Golden Blade Biro, will cooperate fully.”

A huge voice ran through the entire venue.

As the sight shifted.

The people beside him could not help but move away from him.

This Golden Blade Bi Luo, although his sword skills were unparalleled and he was a righteous man.

However, he was also extremely irritable.

At the first glance, he would pull out his sword and fight.

Such a person, if you can hide away from the original, you should hide from the original, it is too dangerous.

At this point, the crowd of hot-blooded teenagers also quieted down.

The eyes of the audience were then focused on the Guada clan councilor.

At this time, the councilor on top of the main stage, the corners of his mouth slightly curled up.

After a light cough, he then spoke.

“Both the fight and the attack are too reckless.

Isn't the capital of China bustling with activity today?

Then we'll let him be even more lively.”

“Since their Martial Union, the Medical Union's competition, is being prepared with great fervour.

We can naturally also participate in it in the name of martial arts sparring and medical exchanges.”

“When the time comes, let them see the majesty of our divine Kingdom's young warriors.

Let them know that our God's Country cannot be insulted!

Let them never hold up their heads in front of you!”

“Do you have the confidence to do so?”

After saying this, his gaze once again looked towards the crowd on the stage.

In just a few short words, he ignited the crowd's full blood.

Chapter 2158

All of the young participants were elite geniuses from their clans or families.

Faced with the councilors' questions, they were confident.

“My iron fist of Hachiman will beat them to a pulp when the time comes.”

“Brothers of the Heavenly Manifestation Palace, go back with me and prepare your bags, so that they, the little children of China, will see what true martial arts is.”

“We, Matsuo, will shatter the heart of their martial dao, and from then on the new generation of the Martial Alliance will be devastated.”

Looking at the crowd's righteous anger and full of blood, the momentum was unrelenting.

The elders of the major powers also nodded their heads in relief.

There is no one who can stop our Japanese, young warriors from killing the enemy.

Of course, everyone agrees with Governor Guada's proposal.

In the name of exchanging ideas and promoting the development of medicine and martial arts between the two countries, we will compete in Beijing!

Even the Martial Arts League could not say anything.

At that time, with great strength, we will break the heart of their new generation's dao.

From then on, the young generation of China will be devastated.

This will eliminate them, and the great plan will be accomplished.

“This plan has the full support of Yahata.”

“The Heavenly Manifestation Palace fully cooperates.”

“Kumano, ready for action,”

“.....”

With the major hidden sects, and secular family powers taking a stand.

The Councilor Centurion announced directly, a plan that had been formulated in advance.

A temporary organization that aimed to take revenge and suppress the dual paths of medicine and martial arts in China, the ‘Chopping Layer’ was officially established.

With full anticipation, the major powers left the scene and began to prepare for their journey to the capital.

And when everyone had disappeared.

The councilor, too, hurried back within the clan.

When he walked into the backyard, he fell straight to his knees.

“Family head, the matters you arranged have been dealt with.

In less than three days, they will be moving to the capital of China.”

When he finished reporting, the door to the room did not open.

There was just a grim laugh coming from it.

“The matter is well done.

Let those people make a mess of it for now.

The more chaotic the situation is, the better it is for us.”

The door suddenly opened to the left and right, and closed again in the blink of an eye.

In front of the councilor, there was a loss of black tokens.

“Take the shogun’s order, and you can deploy all the forces of the clan’s Bakugan.

This time, you will represent the Gua Tian group in this operation.

Remember, the greater the power, the greater the responsibility.”

“Yes, I promise to complete the mission.”

Looking at the Shogun’s Order in his hand, the councilor could not help but feel joy in his heart.

With this token, he could have full authority to mobilise the whole of the Japanese Tyrannid clan's forces.

This was the core force organisation of the Guada clan.

As he was inwardly rejoicing, a sound once again came from within the room.

"Berserk Go, Reijin, Hiroyuki, Dokiyo, and Heiwa Kam."

As the words fell, five figures appeared out of thin air.

For just a moment, the air around them seemed to chill.

"The five of you, you are responsible for assisting in this operation.

Remember, this operation must be a big movement.

It is best to make it so that the entire attention of the entire Chinese nation can be drawn to you."

"Yes, my subordinates take orders."

.....

A moment later.

The vast majority of forces throughout the Japanese country sent their elite disciples from their sects to prepare to go to the capital.

With the Guada family as the leader.

The 'Chopping Layer' had the "Mad Go Alliance" and the "Guangzheng United" as its core.

While other members come from Yamaguchi, Fukuoka and Kitakyushu City areas.

The Guada family, as the initiator, has sent most of its members to fight.

Among them are the Kannon United, the Gods of Entertainment, the Tsukiwami, the Hiroyuki Society, the Shinto Demon House, the Mushajin, the Heiwa United, the Yakuza Hime, and fifteen other mob groups.

The Hidden Clans, on the other hand, were joined by Hachiman, Tenmangu, Kumano, Matsuo, Golden Blade Biro, Ichizuru and others.

As the agreed time approached, a cruise ship headed towards China, together.

The day was filled with dark clouds that covered the entire sky.

As the seabirds fled back to their nests in a panic.

The sea gusts rose up, sending waves lapping wildly against the huge rocks.

Chapter 2159

Within the gazebo.

In the end, Nalan Mingzhu chose to speak out about her relationship with Nan Bing'er.

“Your mother scattered her home shortly after giving birth to you back then.

These years have also been hard on you.”

Her eyes also appeared faintly bloodshot as she spoke.

The love of blood was thicker than water.

Even though so many years had passed, that sisterly love had not faded.

Of course, as for the cause of her sister’s death.

Nalan Mingzhu only made an excuse and passed it by.

As for the feud between her father, Nanba Tian, and the Nalan family, not even a word was mentioned.

This was also done to prevent Nan Bing’er from being over-stimulated.

But even so, Nan Bing’er’s mind was still in a state of confusion.

She had never expected that the woman in front of her, who was so dignified and elegant, with nobility in her bones, would be her aunt.

She had asked her father about her mother many times before.

But her father had always kept his mouth shut on the matter.

He had always used the excuse of a difficult birth as an excuse to put the question off.

Now she suddenly knew that she had an aunt, and that the other party was a woman at the pinnacle of power and wealth in the capital.

For a moment, she was at a loss for words.

The only thing she could do was to look towards Lin Mo.

At this time, the only person she could trust and rely on was the man beside her.

Looking at Nan Bing’er’s helpless and bewildered eyes.

Lin Mo at the side did not know what to say for a while.

But since Nan Bing’er needed Nalan Mingzhu’s protection.

Then there were some things that had to be known sooner or later.

It was only a matter of sooner or later.

After hesitating for a while, he nodded his head and spoke.

“Bing’er, Miss Nalan is right, you are his own niece.”

Upon hearing this, Nan Bing’er could no longer tense her emotions.

The bean-sized tears could not stop flowing out of her eyes.

“So brother Lin Mo, knew about this matter before, did he?”

The moment the words fell.

Lin Mo’s body also trembled.

The thing that he feared the most had finally come.

This question could not be evaded, nor could it be deceived.

“I’m sorry, Bing’er.”

Seeing Lin Mo nod his head.

Nan Bing’er, cried even more.

The longing for his mother’s love was clear only in his own heart.

Since the time he understood, he had watched other children being pampered and naughty in their mother’s arms.

She always had a strong look of envy in her eyes.

He lived like this for over twenty years.

Even as she grew up, she would still sometimes look at her mother’s photographs and weep in secret.

If he had known that his mother had siblings when he was young.

She wouldn’t have been so heartbroken.

At least there was someone who could mend the wounds left by the loss of my mother.

Why didn’t any of them ever come to themselves.

And even her most trusted brother, Lin Mo, had hidden it from her.

The more Nan Bing’er thought about it, the sadder she became.

She couldn’t help but lie down on the stone table and cry.

The two people beside her were also heartbroken.

There is no choice but to face some things after all.

Standing up Lin Mo originally wanted to comfort and console Nan Bing’er.

However, when he reached out to touch the other’s shoulder, she flung it away.

With no choice, Lin Mo could only shift his gaze to Nalan Mingzhu.

“Miss Nalan, Bing’er will trouble you to take care of her then.”

“Well, that would have been my request.

Alright, you go ahead and get busy, I will enlighten Bing'er on her side."

With that, Nalan Mingzhu sat down beside Nan Bing'er.

Gently embracing her in her arms.

"Bing'er, I'll go first, so you can stay over here for the time being.

When I have time, I will look for you."

"Miss Nalan, I'll take my leave then."

With that, Lin Mo turned around and left the manor.

It was only after a long time that Nan Bing'er realised what was going on.

It was just that when he straightened up.

In his sight, he could no longer find Lin Mo.

The only person beside him was his unfamiliar aunt, looking tenderly at his own.

Chapter 2160

With a heavy heart.

Lin Mo left the villa.

Just as he was about to get into his car, a familiar was slowly walking towards him.

"Madam Xue?"

To meet with the other party here.

Lin Mo was also surprised.

After taking a few deep breaths to calm himself down, he forced a smile out of his face.

"I haven't thanked you in person for helping me last time.

I, Lin Mo, would like to thank Madam Xue for her help."

In regards to the matter of Cloud Creation Spray's cooperation, Song Zhilan had naturally relayed it to him as well.

"No matter, Xiao Lan and I are originally from the same family.

It's only reasonable to help her."

Hearing these words, Lin Mo's heart lit up.

It turned out that the Song family that Song Zhilan belonged to was actually a branch of Madam Xue's mother's family.

This was the first time he had known about this.

In the next sentence, Madam Xue directly explained her intention.

“Fifth master, asked me to deliver a message to you.

He said that an old friend has invited a gathering at sea.

He wants to bring you along to meet the other party.”

Lin Mo asked with curiosity.

“At sea? Did the Fifth Master say who the other party was?”

“The King of the Eastern Sea, Nangong Jingliu.”

Hearing this person.

Lin Mo’s spirit instantly shook.

Back at Wu Zhai, he and Lin Zhao had talked about the suspected forces that had overthrown the Lin family back then.

This Nangong Jin Jingliu was one of them.

Without any hesitation, he directly agreed to do so.

.....

On the other hand.

Nangong Jin Jingliu on the sea also received news from the Japanese side at the first opportunity.

“Those forces of your Japanese country will arrive soon.

When the time comes, you will be responsible for receiving them!”

In front of him, Gua Tian Sakura then responded.

Now that his own little life was in the other party’s hands, it was simply not up to him to make a choice.

Moreover, after learning of this incident.

She also had other thoughts in mind.

If she could unite with these great powers and unite more forces.

Killing Lin Mo would only be a matter of easy as pie.

When the time came, perhaps she, too, would be able to escape the clutches of Nangong Jingliu.

Thinking of this, she secretly raised her head to glance at the man in front of her.

However, at this time, the other party also looked at her calmly with a strange smile.

Could it be that he has seen through my thoughts.

At the thought, Guada Sakura shuddered.

After excusing herself, she hurriedly left the room with quick steps.

This man was too frightening.

By the time the dinner on the warship side was ready.

The major powers that had received the invitation had also boarded Nangong Jingliu's huge warship.

"Guada Sakura, why are you here?"

Upon seeing Gua Tian Sakura, the councilor asked offhandedly.

According to the family's arrangement, at this time she should have directly been returning to her home to ask for forgiveness.

But when she saw her partner, she looked calm.

She had already anticipated this scenario.

She was naturally unperturbed at this moment.

"Councilor, it's like this.

I was on my way back to the ship when I encountered a pirate attack.

Luckily, Mr. Nangong saved me, and in return.

I then helped him to receive the great warriors of my divine Kingdom."

Hearing such a thing.

The councilor didn't look deeper, but just shook his head and said.

"A pirate attack?"

Miss Guada Sakura, there really isn't a single thing you do that you don't want personally."

Once he had left.

In place, Guada Sakura was filled with resentment and her eyes were bloodshot.

She was a proud person, but she had never been humiliated again and again by anyone.

And with all the major powers of the Japanese nation on board.

The banquet on the warship began.

As the crowd waited, the host, Nangong Jingliu, walked out slowly with a fierce sea-donkey.

At this moment, the eyes of the crowd were also drawn to it.

"Welcome to all the great warriors of the Japanese nation, who have graciously joined this banquet.

I, Nangong Jingliu."

Although the invitation received had already stated that this banquet was hosted by the host, many of the people present were still not able to attend the banquet for the first time.

But it was the first time that many of the people present had seen him in person.

There was a lot of chatter, and many people began to talk about him.
