

Genius 2161

Chapter 2161

"Is this the King of the Eastern Sea? He's not very good-looking, but that sea-donkey is nice."

"If you like it, you can ask your grandfather to ask him to come.

Your Heavenly Manifestation Palace has many experts anyway.

It shouldn't be a problem to take down this one Nangong Jingliu, right?"

On the side, he heard the conversation between the two backs.

The old man in front of him did not stop them, but instead swiped his long beard with some satisfaction.

Then he looked at Nangong Jingliu with provocative eyes.

There was even a hint of pride in his eyes.

The banquet hall was so big.

The surrounding people naturally heard these words.

For a moment, many people looked at the host right in front of them with an expectant look on their faces.

Everyone was curious as to how Nangong Jingliu would handle such an awkward scene.

"Ah? Little friend wants this baby of mine.

That's no problem, being an uncle like me, I naturally won't be stingy.

Since you like it, then I'll give it to you."

With that, Nangong Jingliu gave a shake of his right shoulder.

The teenager who was coveting the sea dongqing thought to himself that the other party was afraid of their Heavenly Manifestation Palace's strength, and that was why he agreed.

Thinking of this, he complacently stepped forward and prepared to greet this precious beast.

At this moment, Hai Dongqing also cooperated by stretching his wings, and his silvery white body disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Behind the young man, the Heavenly Manifestation Palace elder instantly sensed that something was wrong.

He rushed to the disciple's body with a single bound.

However, he was still a step too slow.

After a miserable scream, Hai Dongqing once again appeared on Nangong Jingliu's shoulder.

The young man, on the other hand, had three oozing wounds on his chest, and bright red blood continued to gush out.

Seeing that the situation was not good, the elder beside him hurriedly nailed the disciple's acupuncture points.

Once the blood had stopped, the elder stood up and with anger chided.

"Mr. Nangong, isn't it unseemly to bully a junior like this."

In the face of such accountability.

Nangong Jingliu only smiled disdainfully.

When that's what, one has to establish that.

"Old gentleman, this is a big misunderstanding.

I am just giving this young friend the sea dongqing as he wished.

How can he blame me when he doesn't have the ability to follow it himself.

You say yes or no."

At these words, the Heavenly Manifestation Palace Elder was instantly disliked with a red face.

After all, it was his own man who had spoken wildly in the first place, and his own side was not to blame, so there was nothing he could say to argue.

Just when he was in a dilemma.

The councilor walked into the room.

"Mr. Nangong, I wonder what is the reason for inviting us here?

Since you know our whereabouts, you should know our purpose.

Time is precious, especially from so many people."

While the words carried a faint sense of dissatisfaction, they also eased the embarrassment for the Heavenly Manifestation Palace Elder.

When he passed by the old man, the other nodded towards him gratefully.

Of course, the councilor's question was exactly what all the people present wanted to ask.

After all, he was in a hurry to get going.

That had so much time to spend with him, Nangong Jingliu, in a verbal argument here.

"I can't believe that Mr. Councilor has asked.

I won't dilly-dally any longer.

The purpose of this invitation to the birthday banquet is simple, mainly because I want to bring everyone to make a fortune.”

Waiting for Nangong Jingliu’s words to drop.

The crowd’s then began to whisper.

“He, Nangong Jingliu, has such a good heart? Won’t he make his own money if he has any?”

“Bringing us wealth, he’s afraid he has some kind of conspiracy.”

“I don’t believe it anyway, you guys can see for yourselves.”

Nangong Jingliu didn’t care about the crowd’s comments, he just clapped his hands to himself.

Behind him, a large nautical chart slowly unfolded along with the curtain.

Walking up to the chart, he spoke indifferently to.

“I am lucky.

In the course of transport, my fleet discovered a new sea area.”

With that, he pointed his finger at the large red circle on the chart.

With just one glance, the crowd instantly became excited.

“Nangong Jingliu, you are not teasing us.

Who doesn’t know the extent of the danger of the Endless Sea.”

Chapter 2162

The Sea of Endlessness, also known as the Sea of Death.

Because of the magnetic field, any ship entering this sea will have its compa*s rendered useless.

This is compounded by a fog that does not dissipate throughout the year.

Normal people would prefer to make a long detour, not to mention entering, or even pa*sing through.

The reason for this is to prevent the mist from spreading suddenly.

Of course, such a place once attracted countless adventurers.

It was only later that, one by one, no one heard from them as they entered the area.

This sea became a forbidden area of death.

That was why the crowd reacted so violently when Nangong Jingliu mentioned this sea.

“Gentlemen, please be at ease.

Although I, Nangong Jingliu, may not be smart, I am at least not stupid.

If I wasn’t sure, how could I bring everyone along to die.”

With that he had his men bring up a large half-metre high chest.

And the moment the box was opened.

The crowd in the room instantly trembled in their bodies, and then their eyes turned shiny.

“This , , , , is dog head gold?”

“How can there be such a big dog head gold.”

“Is this real or not?”

With a look of disbelief, many of the people present, at this point, were breathing rapidly.

Dog-headed gold is shaped like a horse’s hoof, and is therefore also known as horseshoe gold.

Of course, the most important thing is the reason why dog-head gold is formed.

Only when there is gold in the vicinity is it possible to form this kind of horseshoe gold.

Of course, the size of its body generally reflects the size of the gold ore.

For a horseshoe gold the size of a bull’s head, the gold ore around it must be so huge that it is beyond the imagination of the crowd.

For a moment, the scene was silent.

The only thing that could be heard was the heavy breathing of the crowd.

This was the effect that Nangong Jingliu wanted.

Before the crowd could ask questions, he explained.

“My transport team, by coincidence, discovered this place.

This island and the sea around it, I will call it, for the time being, the Hollow Island and the Cold Ling Ocean.

And this fast horseshoe gold is what they found from the empty island.”

“As for the cold ling ocean, not only is the water pure beyond common knowledge.

More importantly, the underwater seafood resources are even richer.”

As his words fell, a large silver fish, nearly four metres long, was pushed up by his men.

“This is a Silver Snow Sturgeon?”

“How is it possible, how can this fish grow to such a large size?”

“Like, the largest known silver snow sturgeon in the world is only two and a half metres.

This is almost four metres at most.”

In Japan, a country of islands, most people’s main source of income is the fishery industry.

Naturally, they are familiar with the precious food fish in the ocean.

The silver snow sturgeon is one of the most precious.

An average sturgeon of over one metre in length costs more than a million dollars.

This is even if the caviar is taken out of it.

The Silver Snow Sturgeon caviar, however, is a top quality ingredient and costs several times more than gold.

Back in the day, the price of a two and a half metre silver sturgeon was more than 60 million at auction.

The silver sturgeon in front of us today cannot be measured in monetary terms.

Above the main stage.

Nangong Jingliu looked at the shocked faces of the crowd and smiled to himself.

“Gentlemen, this silver snow sturgeon has been frozen and preserved for a week now.

If everyone doesn’t mind that it’s not fresh, why don’t we all try it together?”

This .....

At these words, the councilor of the Guada family hurriedly spoke to.

“Mr. Nangong, this is a bit of a waste, isn’t it?”

“No harm, no harm.

This is not a rare thing in the cold ocean.

I have several more in the freezer in my cabin!

There is no need for you all to be polite.”

After saying that, Nangong Jingliu waved his hand, signalling one of the top chefs under him to start processing this rare Silver Snow Sturgeon.

Half an hour later, under the mouth-watering anticipation of the crowd.

The sashimi of the silver snow sturgeon and a large plate containing caviar were placed in front of everyone’s eyes.

Chapter 2163

And when faced with such top quality ingredients.

Naturally, the crowd would not be polite and came forward to enjoy it.

Although it had been frozen for about a week.

But the taste and freshness of the sturgeon still crushed other similar silver snow sturgeon in the market.

In the meantime, in case everyone didn't have enough to eat.

Nangong Jingliu had his men push up another silver snow sturgeon of similar size.

The crowd was red in the face.

At the same time, the minds of the crowd also changed.

This kind of silver snow sturgeon, which was beyond common perception, had well confirmed Nangong Jingliu's words.

Coupled with that rich gold mine.

For a time, most of the people present, that calm heart, suddenly and indisputably began to beat violently.

"Mr. Nangong, why don't we talk in detail about this matter of the empty island and the cold ling ocean."

"Mr. Nangong, how do you say you need us to cooperate with you."

"When it comes to sailing technology, our God Country should be the first, Mr. Nangong we are willing to cooperate."

In front of the huge temptation of interests.

The people who had originally disdained Nangong Jingliu suddenly became polite beyond measure.

The Heavenly Manifestation Palace elders, who had previously been tit-for-tat with them, also changed their attitude in an instant.

"Renegade disciple, speaking out of turn, why don't you hurry up and apologise to our Mr. Nangong."

As for the injured disciple, he was amidst the indignant gazes of a group of companions.

He also had to drag his injured body forward and bend down to apologise.

"Senior Nangong, it was junior who spoke out of turn just now, I hope senior will forgive me."

"No harm, no harm, there is no harm in children's words, I, Nangong Jingliu, am not a petty person."

When he finished.

There was another wave of rainbow farts from the crowd.

"As expected of the King of the East of the Sea, how can anyone compare to such a magnanimity."

"Such breadth of mind is a model for those of us who study martial arts, you should learn from senior Nangong, you know?"

This is the change brought about by interest.

And looking at the ugly faces of the crowd, Nangong Jingliu still maintained his outward politeness.

But in his heart, he was secretly disdainful.

Big fish need heavy bait, now that such a big bait has been thrown down, the big fish can be considered to have bitten the bait.

.....

On the other shore, after rushing back to Guang Province.

The first thing Lin Mo did was to visit his wife Xu Hanxia.

Due to the urgency of time, the couple had not had time to have a lunch.

Lin Mo then hurried along with Master Xue Wu to Nangong Jingliu's banquet.

On the way, Lin Mo took the opportunity to fake sleep, but his mind was secretly calculating.

While he was gathering with his wife, Xu Hanxia delivered a message to him.

According to the tracing of his rats, he had found a trace of the Compa's Emperor.

Although it was not known where the person was.

When this Compa's Djinn had been snatched away, at the very least, he was not dead.

This news, Lin Mo only secretly kept in the back of his mind.

At first, he suspected that the person who had snatched the compulsion djinn was Xue Wuji, who was beside himself.

If he had shown anything unusual, it was likely that the other party would have noticed.

The journey was wordless.

By the time the two arrived at their destination.

Hundreds of boats, large and small, had already gathered here.

From a distance, it looked like a small island.

After all, Master Xue and Lin Mo were a step late, as the banquet had already ended.

By the time they stepped onto the huge warship.

A man with an eagle on his shoulder came up to them.

"Old Xue, it's been a while since we've met."

"Brother Nangong, it's been a long time, I've been waiting day and night for your invitation."

"I'm not seeing that you're not looking for me, so I'm the only one looking for you."

The two looked like dear friends who had not seen each other for many years.

It was just that he heard the way Master Xue Wu addressed this person.

Lin Mo's heart couldn't help but feel a sudden jolt, this man in front of him, was he the King of the Sea East?

On the opposite side, Nangong Jingliu naturally just noticed Lin Mo's gaze.

After glancing at each other, a simple nod of the head was considered a greeting.

And then Nangong Jingliu pulled Xue Wuji, saying that he hadn't seen him for a long time and wanted to have a few cups in private.

In situ Lin Mo could only begin to stroll up this big ship by himself.

Chapter 2164

Arrived at the top of the warship.

Nangong Jingliu directly took out a bottle of red wine.

Looking at the thick marks of age on the surface, one could tell that this wine was not of low age.

"Come, come, old ghost Xue, let's have a drink first.

This is a precious wine that I have never been able to drink."

With that, he poured himself two tall gla*s'es.

"Alright, there's no one around, so you don't have to pretend anymore."

This remark was made.

Nangong Jingliu smashed his mouth.

"You're so uninteresting."

Putting away his disguised enthusiasm, when he sat down on the sofa, he put the gla*s of wine in his hand and put it in front of Haidongqing's beak.

And as soon as the latter caught the pungent smell of alcohol, he hurriedly shook off his head.

He pecked his master's hair as a sign of his displeasure.

With a shake of his wings, he flew up to the window.

"I didn't expect that you could raise this Haitongqing so well.

I remember the last time I saw it, it was still an egg!

Nowadays it is surprisingly this brave."

In response to Master Xue Wu's praise, the sea dongqing on the window sill seemed to have heard it too.

Surprisingly, it raised its chest proudly, and its sharp beak was even raised high and tall.

"Of course, you don't know how many herbs and fruits I've fed it."

Nangong Jingliu naturally loved his own Haidongqing immensely.

"By the way, how does this precious brew of mine taste?"

"It's really good."

And after the two of them exchanged a few pleasantries.

The conversation also slowly came to the main topic.

"You've made such a big commotion this time, aren't you afraid that the headquarters will be more concerned?"

The headquarters that the Fifth Master was referring to was naturally the Martial Alliance.

Not only were the two men one of the same Six Kings, they were actually considered senior members of the Martial Alliance.

It was just that the Six Kings generally rarely attended the meetings organised by the Martial Alliance when they were not involved in important matters of China.

This invitation from Nangong Jingliu was a bit too big.

Not to mention the two on his own side, but on the Japanese side alone, almost all the top powers had been gathered together by him.

In this way, it would naturally draw the attention of others as well.

However, Nangong Jingliu was still open-minded about this matter.

"It doesn't matter, just pay attention."

"You are so open-minded, aren't you afraid that they will blow up your ship?"

This was a joke from the Fifth Master.

At that moment, Nangong Jingliu raised his eyebrows.

"Wouldn't it be better to blow up and collect all the forces in my Eastern Sea.

You, the King of the Southern Realm, are not just about to eat the East Sea.

At that time, you are one king and two realms.

There is no equal in the world."

At these words, Master Xue laughed and dismissed them.

However, in his heart, he secretly calculated the feasibility of this matter.

After doing some calculations, he found that the idea was too absurd, he then dispelled the idea.

And then changed the subject.

"You've invited me all the way over here, it wouldn't be just to treat me to a gla*s of red wine?"

With the Fifth Master opening his mouth like this.

Nangong Jingliu then recapped the events of the banquet and the Endless Sea with it.

After hearing this, Master Xue nodded.

“You are lucky.

This kind of place could even be found by you.

Tell me how much did it cost to bring back which things?”

Although he was impressed by the gold mine as well as the seafood, he was able to suppress his greed.

Being able to make money was a skill, but having a life to spend was the real skill.

At this time, Nangong Jingliu’s face also turned serious.

With a heavy tone, he replied to.

“The total number of transport ships plus salvage ships is seventy-five.

But the ones that came back safely are only nine.”

If he were to face the Japanese crowd, he would not have told them about this matter to death.

But Master Xue Wu was different.

He was also the Sixth King, and the two had had several encounters.

Nangong Jingliu naturally knew of the other’s superior talent and incomparable scheming.

This could be seen simply by the different reactions of Master Xue and the Japanese people after hearing this news.

Moreover, the other side was the only partner in this Endless Sea operation.

There should still be some sincerity.

Even though there might be a conflict of interest in the operation, at least it was not now.

Chapter 2165

Hearing such a battle loss.

The fifth master Xue could not help but frown too.

The maritime strength of the King of the Sea East was also evident to the world.

The fleet of ships under his Nangong Jingliu had to suffer such heavy losses.

The fifth master Xue could not help but begin to examine the strategy carefully.

Soon after, he voiced out his doubts.

“Although this operation, there is this group of Japanese people as exploratory cannon fodder.

But there is still this not small risk involved.

If I’m not wrong.

Your men should have escaped by luck as well.”

This remark was made.

Nangong Jingliu’s spirit was lifted instead.

He did not expect that this Fifth Master Xue had not only seen through his purpose of inviting the major powers of the Japanese nation.

He had even guessed the most important information in this.

“Old devil, is that really a human brain you have growing on your neck?

How come you can’t hide anything from me.”

That’s right, this banquet, throwing out such a big bait to the Japanese crowd.

Its main purpose was to get them to act as expedition cannon fodder.

As for the final split of the benefits, let’s see if they still have the ability to eat.

“You’re not talking nonsense.

As far as you are concerned, with your Nangong’s character, there are such great benefits.

Would be willing to let it out.

If there was a safe passage in and out again, you would need to unite so many people.”

Hearing the words of the fifth master Xue.

Nangong Jingliu nodded in agreement.

It was true that the one who knew you best was always your enemy.

“Hahahaha, since you’ve guessed it all.

I won’t hide much more.

This is the navigational chart for arriving at the Empty Island and the Cold Ling Ocean.”

After Nangong Jingliu placed the chart scroll on the table.

And added.

“To clarify in advance, this was marked out in a misty environment.

How much accuracy there is, I can’t guarantee.”

And opposite, Master Xue Wu, after thinking for a while.

In the end, he chose to put the picture scroll away.

But just at this moment, he suddenly thought of something.

“By the way, didn’t you invite Xie Qianshan?

How come I haven't seen anyone else."

The implicit meaning of this statement he wanted to ask, wasn't Xie Qianshan also their collaborator.

Nangong Jingliu naturally also heard his meaning, but also just said with a flat face.

"I am not seeing that he has a better relationship with the Japanese.

As the saying goes, a gentleman becomes the beauty of others.

I'm helping him create opportunities."

This remark was made.

Master Xue Wu changed his face.

Although he was unhappy with the Xie family's behaviour all this time, licking the Japanese.

But it was just a painless targeting.

Unexpectedly, this Nangong Jingliu wanted to drag the Xie family into the situation.

"You have a lot of guts, if you anger that one, I will really not be polite to you, this East China Sea."

For this remark.

Nangong Jingliu shook his head indifferently.

"I only invited him out of friendship.

As for the matter of the Abyssal Sea, did I ever talk to him about it.

What does it matter to me, Nangong Jingliu, if he insists on joining in for no reason?

You old devil really can't talk."

Since the other party had said so.

Master Xue Wu did not intend to delve much deeper into this issue either.

After raising his eyebrows, he then raised his tall gla*s and said

"Alright, then let's wish us a happy cooperation."

The sound of a crisp clink resonated through the room.

The two then began to discuss the detailed plan.

Although these Japanese forces had been overwhelmed by profit.

However, their strength should not be underestimated.

Acting on fire, like boiling eagles, this room naturally also needed to avoid the raptors from backfiring.

Of course, although the Fifth Master and Nangong Jingliu look harmonious on the surface, but it is their own hearts and minds.

In the face of such huge interests, the two sides will certainly have to fight.

Of course, all this is just an afterthought.

At the very least, at the moment, the two of them have always had the same attitude towards some things.

Brothers look askance at the wall, the outside of their humiliation.

Chapter 2166

Above deck.

Lin Mo was strolling around the warship with nothing to do at the moment.

However just as he was admiring the beautiful sea view.

Instead, a group of young Japanese martial artists walked over to him.

Just as both sides nodded, intending to stagger apart.

A shout suddenly came out from the crowd.

“This is the man who first destroyed our divine country’s medical genius.

And later on, he killed our divine doctor, this person is the murderer.”

And the person who shouted was none other than Gua Tian Sakura.

Originally, she had followed her own plan and intended to pull in the elites of the young generation of the major powers.

By the time she left for the capital, her revenge plan would be complete.

But what she didn’t expect was that the world was so small.

Unexpectedly, on top of this warship, she had met Lin Mo who made her teeth gnash.

And as the words fell from Gua Tian Sakura’s mouth.

The rage of the young Japanese warriors beside her seemed to have found an instant outlet.

There was no nonsense.

All that could be heard was the crowd shouting, “Do it, kill him.”

The crowd instantly took action.

Right in front of the crowd, the pupils of the young palace master of the Heavenly Manifestation Palace’s eyes instantly changed to a pink colour.

The Heavenly Manifestation Palace secret art, the art of charm.

He was caught off guard.

Lin Mo merely locked eyes with it.

The scene in front of his eyes suddenly became disordered.

And his mind was also in a trance.

For a brief moment, it seemed that a tree branch flashed in his vision.

In the next second, everything was back to normal, but the brain was still in a bit of a trance.

Just then, a Kendo warrior on the opposite side was ready.

The Stomp Chop.

With a flash of his figure, he was in mid-air.

The samurai sword was instantly drawn.

Under the shocking change.

Lin Mo hurriedly dodged to the side.

When the two sides closed the distance.

Lin Mo secretly exclaimed that it was close.

If he had been half a second too late.

His opponent's weapon would have landed on him.

The branch that had suddenly appeared seemed to be the Yu Lan tree of the Cixi Zhai.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but be secretly thankful.

It was at this moment that Lin Mo suddenly felt a chill on his cheek.

When he raised his hand to touch it, his hand was unexpectedly covered in blood.

If he had a mirror at this moment, he would have noticed that a sword wound had already appeared on his face, which was not shallow.

How could this be?

He had clearly dodged the blade just now and was two inches away from it, but he had still been wounded.

When he thought of this, his pupils shrank.

This man had actually comprehended his sword qi!

Thinking of this.

Lin Mo couldn't help but be secretly shocked.

Amongst his peers, Lin Mo had only seen Zhu Yeqing before this.

And seeing the weapon in the hands of this genius disciple of the Golden Blade Biro.

There were also crowds of shouts of astonishment amongst the crowd.

“Seven Ding Nianfo!!! Golden Blade Bi Luo actually gave him the greatest treasure of the clan.”

“Yeah, it seems like none of their Golden Blade Biro’s emissaries are treated like this.”

“Nonsense, he, Nian Zhen Qi Yi, is a once-in-a-century genius of the sword dao, a future seedling of the Pavilion Master.”

The Nenjin Nenbutsu, is the Golden Blade Biro’s supreme treasure of the clan.

This blade is incomparably sharp and cuts iron like mud.

It is said that when the forging of this blade was completed, the founders used a living person as an experiment.

When the blade fell, the experimenter actually took seven steps before his head fell to the ground.

While the crowd was talking.

Nian Zhen Qi Yi did not have any mood swings, only to see him silently retrieve the Chitin Nenbutsu into its sheath.

And then the whole man crouched down, twisting his body in an almost bizarre manner.

As the sword qi surged.

Nian Zhen Qi Yi then disappeared into place.

When his figure reappeared, he was already less than half a metre away from Lin Mo.

Draw and slash.

Lin Mo was confronted by the extreme speed, coupled with the discomfort in his head.

He could only manage to dodge.

It was just that his attention had been focused directly in front of him, forgetting that there were other enemies behind him.

So when Lin Mo stepped back and was about to pull out his Thunderwood Sword to meet the enemy, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his back.

And then it was as if he had been hit by a speeding truck.

His entire body was directly knocked out.

Chapter 2167

“Oh, just this?”

Miss Sakura, are you mistaken about the wrong person.

This person’s strength is no more than that!”

Disdainfully, he finished.

Hachiman's disciple shrugged off his fist in a smooth manner.

It seemed that he was unaware of the sneak attack by his own people, who were bullying the lesser with more.

However, Guada Sakura did not care at all about this man's taunts.

At this moment, she only had one obsession in her mind, and that was to kill Lin Mo.

"Senior Nian Zhen, delay will make a difference quickly behead this Lin Mo."

At this moment, Nian Zhen Qi Yi, however, shook his head.

"Although this is the open sea.

But where we are is the warship of the King of the Sea East.

If we kill Lin Mo, it won't be easy to explain on Mr. Nangong's side."

If it were not for the previous incident with the empty island and the Cold Ling Ocean.

He wouldn't have cared about Nangong Jingliu's face.

Now the situation was different.

But just as Gua Tianzura was disappointed.

Nenjin Kiichi added.

"Although we can't kill this man, it won't hurt to cut off his arm."

As soon as the words left his mouth.

A terrifying power surged out around him.

In the blink of an eye, the sword qi transformed into an imaginary shadow.

At first glance, it looked like a fierce tiger with a long sword in its mouth, slowly walking towards the front.

At this moment, Lin Mo had been hit in the back by a sneak attack, and was already heavily injured.

As the other party got closer and closer, the tiger at his waist seemed to be walking towards him.

The Tai Ah around his waist also seemed to sense the danger and began to tremble uncontrollably.

Wiping a handful of blood from the corner of his mouth.

Lin Mo stood up with difficulty, holding onto the guardrail beside him.

Forcibly suppressing the injuries within his body, he drew out his Thunderwood Sword and prepared to meet the enemy.

As for Tai Ah, this scene was a scene that could never be used.

Now there were not only Xue Wuji and Nangong Jingliu nearby.

There were even hordes of Japanese experts.

If they were to detect Tai Ah, he would definitely be torn to pieces by the crowd.

Seeing the wooden sword covered in thundercloud patterns, Nian Zhen Qi Yi raised an eyebrow.

With a playful tone, he taunted.

“A thunderwood sword?

I didn’t expect you to have such a good item.

My senior brother happens to lack a piece, a weapon to take advantage of.

It just so happens that this Thunderwood Sword is just fine.”

Saying that, he then raised the Seven Ding Nianfo in his hand, while his body slightly crouched down.

Just before he could make a move.

A serious bellowing voice suddenly came from behind him.

“Stop!”

When the crowd turned back.

Nangong Jingliu then walked to the front.

Originally, he had just finished discussing the plan with Master Xue Wu.

Only just as he stepped out of the room, he noticed the commotion over here.

And then the two of them rushed over.

“All those who can board this ship are my guests, Nangong Jingliu.

I hope you all will not slap me in the face.”

Although the tone was flat, it carried an irresistible look.

While behind him, Master Xue Wu walked quickly to Lin Mo’s side.

After taking out a healing potion, he then punched a true qi into the latter’s body.

Gua Tianzhuo, who was at the side, saw this action of Nangong Jingliu.

Her eyes burst with resentment, didn’t he say he would help her deal with Lin Mo?

Now, wasn’t Lin Mo right in front of him?

And at this time, Nangong Jingliu also noticed her abnormal gaze at this time.

After faintly skimming a glance, the former’s right hand was secretly raised.

And in the crowd, Gua Tianzhuo’s face instantly changed.

Like a thousand ants gnawing at the same time.

A violent twinge of pain came from above her heart.

With her hands covering her chest, her face instantly turned white, and beads of sweat flowed down uncontrollably.

Naturally, the people around her noticed her abnormality.

They rushed to help her.

But the pain came and went as quickly as it came.

In the blink of an eye, it was gone again.

As far as the eye could see, only Nangong Jingliu's smile with deep meaning remained in the sight.

And with Nangong Jingliu's appearance.

A group of representatives of the forces that had been observing in the shadows also came out.

"You brats, you don't think about cultivating properly.

All day long, you just know to cause trouble, and you still don't make amends to our Mr. Nangong."

As for Lin Mo, who was deeply and seriously injured.

They turned a complete blind eye to it.

Chapter 2168

Lin Mo took the healing medicine and poured his true qi into his body.

His injuries were also suppressed for the time being, and although his face showed poor colour, he gradually had blood in it.

What was surprising to him was that although he was seriously injured, there seemed to be once warm current running through his body and limbs.

As Master Xue Wu was right beside him.

Lin Mo did not look deeper into the abnormalities within his body.

"Thank you, Fifth Master, for healing your wounds."

Master Xue Wu raised his hand indifferently in response to Lin Mo's thanks.

"No harm, how do you feel?"

"Much better."

At this time, opposite the two of them.

A kind of Japanese elders also went to the front of their respective disciples, just in case.

At the same time, they also pretended to ask the person who had done it before to apologise to Lin Mo.

However, these disciples, who were in an arrogant mood, could not possibly bend down to Lin Mo.

When they heard their elders' command, they directly snorted coldly and twisted their cheeks.

"Sorry ha, Mr. Nangong, Fifth Master.

These children have been spoiled since they were young, look, we can't even discipline them now."

With that said the crowd, they pretended to shake their heads in pain.

And naturally, Lin Mo and the others knew that they were just acting.

How could those who were elders not be clear about their own disciples' character.

It was obvious that they were just putting on a show on the surface.

Lin Mo couldn't even get into their eyes.

The scene was silent for a while only.

Nangong Jingliu was stepping in to round things off.

"They are all young people, and it is in their nature to be young and vigorous.

This is the end of the matter, but it's okay for you all to restrain your disciples.

After all, as I have said, all those who come on board my warship are my guests."

"So, please give me the benefit of the doubt.

If there are any conflicts, it is not too late for us to settle them later."

After speaking, the Japanese crowd played their calculations.

It was obvious that Nangong Jingliu was displeased with the incident of the disciple under his disciple who had just hurt someone with his hands.

It was just that he hadn't been as direct in his words.

Just as the atmosphere of the scene tended to be bizarre.

In the distance, a strange yacht was coming towards this place.

But before the boat could get close.

A figure suddenly emerged from it.

Taking advantage of the moonlight, he crossed the distance of a hundred feet in a few leaps and bounds.

But as soon as he stepped onto the ship, the Japanese warriors patrolling the area began to walk in.

"Who are you?"

"Fire Wah of the Southern Realm."

But even though he, Huo Hua, had declared himself.

The other side this was crooked, and then he scolded sternly.

“What Fire Hua, Water Hua, I don’t know the old man.

This ship, is the important place for my God’s Kingdom to attend the meeting.

Those who have the sense to hurry up and leave, or else that will be killed!”

For a small servant like him, who was only responsible for patrolling, he really didn’t know the other party either.

He didn’t even think that the visitor was a guest allowed by the organisers.

He had originally thought that he could communicate with the other party.

He didn’t expect the other party to be so arrogant, and he was from a Japanese country.

So before the other man could say anything again, he stepped forward and lifted his foot and threw a whip.

Before he could see his opponent’s movements, the young man on patrol felt a pain in his jaw.

The man then flew up.

The man landed in the direction where the young Japanese disciples were gathered.

A figure flew in the direction of the group.

Everyone thought it was a sneak attack, so they rushed to the side.

It was only when the figure landed on the ground.

Only when the crowd fixed their eyes on it did they realise that it was actually a member who was on patrol.

And seeing his miserable appearance with his jaw all kicked askew and his mouth full of blood.

The face of the Young Palace Master of the Heavenly Manifestation Palace instantly darkened.

“How dare you, who dares to injure a member of my Divine Palace?”

That’s right, this minion in charge of the inspection was none other than a disciple of the Heavenly Manifestation Palace.

In response to the words.

Fire Hua slowly walked out.

“Southern Realm, Huo Hua.

What is your instruction?”

Unlike the patrollers.

The people present were familiar with the number one warlord under the King of the Southern Realm.

Chapter 2169

It is not all in his own cultivation that Southland Fire Wah is famous.

Rather, it is the Fire Qilin that he leads under his name.

Generally speaking, if there is an important event, with the presence of the King of the Southern Realm, Master Xue Wu.

Then the Fire Qilin would definitely follow.

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd.

Huo Hua walked up to, the Fifth Master's body.

"Fifth Master, we are over there, and it seems that someone is deliberately causing mischief.

Blocking our sailing route.

That's why the arrival time was slightly late."

At the beginning, Master Xue Wu wanted to complete his plan.

He had deliberately dropped Huo Hua off abroad to deal with matters, making it impossible to protect Lin Mo all the time.

Now that he had received, Nangong Jingliu's invitation.

The fifth master then predicted that something big must have happened.

The plan to target Lin Mo in the Southern Realm had already been completed.

He then sent his number one warlord back.

After listening to some of Huo Hua's explanations.

Master Xue Wu did not delve deeper, and after nodding, he told him to retreat to the side.

And at that very moment.

A line of members of the Fire Qilin, dressed in fiery red cloaks and wearing fierce beast masks with fangs, leapt over the heads of the crowd.

Then they landed behind the fifth master Xue.

Although they did not say a word, the faint aura of blood emanated from their bodies.

He twitched his nose.

The fifth master Xue then immediately guessed how Huo Hua had solved the obstruction of the bad guy.

When Lin Mo saw Huo Hua, he also knew that this was not the place for pleasantries.

After nodding to each other, no more words were spoken.

However, when the Japanese were injured in public and Lin Mo was still able to dangle in front of his eyes, he naturally refused to rest in peace.

A heavily made-up woman from the Heavenly Manifestation Palace twirled her enchanting figure and walked up to the front of the crowd.

This person was none other than the Heavenly Manifestation Palace Elder, Wisteria Phantom Fox.

“Fifth Master, we have no grievances or enemies.

This man of yours, for no reason at all, injured a disciple of my palace.

This matter, you do not give an explanation seems to be a bit unjustified.”

After saying this, he raised the cherry blossom fan in his hand to cover his smiling face.

Only his eyes suddenly turned a faint purple.

For a moment, but the eyes of all those who came to look at him lost their vitality.

Then came a look of fascination, staring silently at the Wisteria Phantom Fox.

And beside the woman, the other Japanese forces, too, had prepared their preparations for action.

Although he, Master Xue Wu, was also one of the Six Kings of China.

But it did not deter them.

With so many people, they naturally had the strength to call their bluff with them.

Of course although the other side was outnumbered.

But Master Xue Wu’s face remained flat and did not change in the slightest.

“Huo Hua, tell me what’s going on.”

With that, he pointed at the unconscious Heavenly Manifestation Palace disciples on the ground.

Of course, it wasn’t that Master Xue Wu had feared the oppression of the other party.

It was purely just that he didn’t want to make relations stale now.

After all, this group of Japanese forces in front of him was an essential “pathfinder” for future operations in the Endless Sea.

When he heard the Fifth Master’s questioning, Huohua explained what had happened.

Firebrand then recounted what had happened.

“I had just boarded the ship when this man stopped me.

After I declared my identity, he not only drove me off the boat.

He even threatened to kill me.”

When he finished, he said no more and retreated with an indifferent expression.

A Japanese scum was just a scum.

And his words were heard by the Japanese people.

And when they did, they turned their heads.

When they turned their heads, their eyes gathered on the others in the same team as this disciple.

Seeing several people's bowed heads and silence, they instantly understood.

It was just that the matter had come to such a point that it could no longer be judged by right or wrong.

The atmosphere was cold, and the matter was about the face of the Japanese people present.

"Fifth Master, even if my palace disciples were at fault in the first place.

It would not be so cruel to order the men to do so.

Would you say yes or no?"

By the time the Wisteria Phantom Fox finished speaking.

At this moment, Huo Hua was also disturbed by the other party's nonsense.

"Seniors, there is no need to deceive yourselves and others.

Do you know that the strong cannot be insulted?

This is the truth.

Not to mention this kind of, dog-eyed scum."

Chapter 2170

When Huo Hua finished.

Master Xue Wu did not have any intention of blocking it.

It was obvious that what Huo Hua said was exactly what he wanted to say.

It was just that with this statement.

The situation, which was already tinged with tension, instantly escalated.

"In that case, you are, Fifth Master, not going to handle this matter properly?"

After saying this, her eyes changed since then, the original lavender color, becoming darker and darker.

And those people who were still confused by the charm technique, at this point, their faces were slowly showing the colour of madness.

Having suffered a dark loss once, Lin Mo naturally could not fall for it again.

At this moment, he had already turned his head to the side, while his gaze was looking towards the sea.

As for Huo Hua, although his face was cloudy and light-hearted.

But his inner body had already begun to frantically operate his spiritual energy to resist the charmed power.

Faced with the Wisteria Phantom Fox's questioning.

Master Xue Wu simply closed his eyes directly.

This move, of course, was not because he could not resist the other party's charm technique, but purely because he ignored the other party.

At the same time, he thought to himself, "This Nangong Jingliu seems to be a bit out of line.

Look at how united the Japanese forces are.

But you, the king of the East China Sea, only know how to watch the show from the sidelines.

If this is the case.

The fifth master of Xue simply stumbled and quit.

Do what you like, it's just a fight if you can't fight, anyway, now a bunch of elites from the Fire Qilin are right behind him.

And this look of his.

Nangong Jingliu naturally saw it in his eyes.

Originally he had thought of watching the show from the sidelines, but of course if the two sides really wanted to start fighting, he would have stopped them at the first opportunity.

The reason he didn't say anything was to see the King of the South make a fool of himself.

Yet he never expected the other side to be so naked.

And with his eyes so closed, the Fifth Master was clearly ready to leave this mess to himself.

After cursing an old fox.

He stepped forward.

Clearing his throat, he bellowed.

"That's enough!"

When the crowd's, eyes focused on Nangong Jingliu.

Only to see that at this moment, he was looking at everyone present with a dark face.

"How come what I, Nangong Jingliu, said is no longer valid, is it?

I have said that those who are on my ship are my guests.

You all must punch me in the face, must you?"

The words fell.

Seven black-robed figures appeared out of nowhere in the originally empty surroundings.

At the same time, the terrifying aura around the seven of them instantly filled the entire room.

Those disciples whose cultivation level was still low were actually frightened by this and their legs swung.

They then sat down on the ground with a weak body.

Sensing this change.

Master Xue Wu naturally opened his eyes.

Just a glance at the seven people who suddenly appeared.

A slight change in his expression also appeared.

Looking at the badges pinned on the chests of these seven people, he could tell that they came from the overseas world-class power, the Hongmen.

Moreover, based on the shape and colour of the badges, it was not difficult to tell that these seven people came from.

The Eighteen Envoys of the Hong Clan!

And as the eighteen envoys of the Hong Clan, not only were they all masters of the clan.

Each of them even possessed great skills.

And what caught Master Xue Wu's attention was this.

Yang Wanchun, the number one strategist under the command of Nangong Jingliu, the Paper Fan Military Master, was not even present.

Usually when it came to important matters, the presence of Nangong Jingliu was essential at this time.

Could it be that he had gone to the Endless Sea in advance?

When this thought surfaced in his mind.

The moment this thought surfaced in his mind, Master Xue then immediately extinguished it.

If he had the ability to enter it and exit the Endless Sea safely.

He, Nangong Jingluo, would not have needed to go to such great lengths.

Wouldn't he smell good to have that amazing wealth all to himself?

Thinking of this, Master Xue Wu's gaze also shifted to Nangong Jingliu.

Could it be that this person, did he have other plans.

At this moment, the fifth master Xue could not help but make a secret calculation in his heart.

The journey to the Endless Sea was bound to be dangerous.

He could not afford to let down his guard for a single moment.
