Chapter 2251

At this moment, Xuan Hei Zi asked with a serious expression.

“Do we need to inform the Martial Union side?”

On the other side, Nie Lao nodded.

“Send over the current progress of the project over here, along with the speculations.

As for how to act, they will naturally have arrangements on their side.”

When he finished speaking.

Xuan Hei Zi then turned and left, going forward to prepare the relevant information.

Looking at the other two elders of the Medical Alliance in front of him.

Nie Kongming also had a serious face as he instructed.

“Wuyi Zi, Pill Ghost.

The next step is to develop an antidote for this virus.

It will be hard for you all to take the lead together.”

Although the two old men had no small conflicts.

But above this great right and wrong, the two had their own judgment.

After they too had left.

Nie Lao, who remained in the same place, first glanced at Lin Mo, but his gaze was filled with a strong sense of appreciation.

The corners of his mouth were tinged with a gratifying smile.

Only then did he lift his steps and leave.

After this side of things was over.

In less than an hour.

There was a massive mobilisation of the military forces at the border.

The number of military forces on the East China Sea side had almost tripled.

Such a change naturally drew the attention of the countries around China.

Unaware of the change, they also switched their border defences.

All of a sudden, there was a sense of a storm coming.

Lin Mo and the others naturally did not know about all this.

After the little shamrock woke up.

Lin Mo, who had regained his ability to move, approached him at the first opportunity.

“How is it, little monk, does it feel alright?”

“Amitabha Buddha, dragging the blessings of Lin Mo, all is well.”

Saying that, Du Qi then folded his hands and made a Buddhist salute towards Lin Mo.

Only, as he was bending down.

Lin Mo suddenly noticed a change in this young monk.

If one were to look closely, one would be able to notice.

At this moment, a faint golden flame mark had surfaced on the little monk’s brow.

What was certain was that this mark had not existed before.

In other words, it had only newly appeared after following Lin Mo’s adventure.

Of course Lin Mo only glanced at it before withdrawing his thoughts.

“By the way, little monk.

What exactly is this zombie fungus?”

Although he had received the inheritance, he did not find any more information about this plant in it.

One should know that as one of the ancestors of the medical path.

In the inheritance of the Divine Doctor Saint Lin Chongxuan, the knowledge of pharmacology could be said to include all the medicinal herbs in the world.

However, this zombie fungus was the only one that was not found.

It was because of this that Lin Mo was unable to analyse the cause of this object before.

He simply didn’t have any information about this plant.

“This zombie fungus is also a collection of medicinal herbs that the little monk was trying to collect.

A herb that I found by chance after crossing over to the east.”

“If we are talking about other herbs, the little monk’s ability is limited and he cannot tell the difference.

But this herb is extremely fierce and several times tainted with karma, like a flame in the dark night at the same time.”

“And this kind of herb has only appeared in recent years.”

With the little sama’s explanation.

Lin Mo also had a basic understanding of this.

No wonder the old saying said that the path of medicine had no end and a hundred diseases had no end.

If one only wanted to rely on the legacy of Lin's ancestor and sit on the old capital, there were obviously still great limitations.

After this session was over.

For the rest of the day, Lin Mo stayed in the "Wolong" laboratory.

On the one hand, the purpose was to isolate and observe whether the "walking corpse" virus, or the virus that had mutated in his body, was still contagious.

On the other hand, Lin Mo was asked to work with him to develop a serum antibody.

Unfortunately, the results were not satisfactory.

After ten days or so, it can be said that there was not the slightest progress.

And in his spare time.

Lin Mo would also work with Xue Lian and the others, borrowing the treasures of the Elder Academy's medical textbooks.

In this state, the group absorbed a lot of medical knowledge at the same time.

Time was also running out at a rapid pace.

In the blink of an eye, the final of the Saint of Medicine Competition arrived quietly.

Chapter 2252

The night is hazy.

As thick dark clouds completely obscured the moonlight.

Hundreds of figures appeared silently.

At the top of the trees, the masked leader looked nervously at the brightly lit complex in the distance.

That was one of the forbidden places in China, the Medical Alliance Elders' Courtyard.

To be honest, if it wasn't for the deadly order from his master.

He would never have wanted to carry out such a mission in his life.

The operation to invade the Medical League Elders' House to steal secrets had been successfully carried out by someone.

And had joined in afterwards.

But that was just history.

For nearly a hundred years, there were rumours in the jianghu that a certain organisation or a certain expert was preparing to break into this forbidden place at night.

But the news only stopped there.

There were no further results, and the person who released the news was prepared to infiltrate this place.

After that, he disappeared from the jianghu world, never to be heard from again.

He had never been heard from again.

But when one is in the jungle, there are all kinds of things that one cannot do as he wishes.

With this in mind, he picked up the silver whistle hanging from his neck.

When a soft, distinctive insect call came from the forest.

Hundreds of figures moved at the sound and began to infiltrate the Medical League Elders' Courtyard from all directions.

But only a few breaths later.

The forest was once again silent.

Only the smell of blood slowly wafted through the air.

When Leaping Village Junior blew his silver whistle again, ready for his men to report the number of people.

His pupils suddenly shrank.

The dark clouds parted.

Against the moonlight, he saw a black shadow standing on one foot at the top of a pine tree more than ten feet away.

The direction its gaze was directed at was none other than Leaping Village Xiaoyuan.

It was like being watched by a terrifying beast at the same time.

The dense fierce aura caused Xiaoyuan to sway all over.

Without the slightest hesitation.

He turned around and fled backwards at speed.

Only when he had just left his spot.

Behind him, a bitter killing aura was approaching him at a great speed.

Subconsciously, Leaping Village Xiaoyuan crushed the life-preserving jade pendant in his arms.

The next second, he felt a tremor in his body.

He heard a sudden sound like shattering gla*s in the darkness of the night.

His body then fell down like a cannonball.

The impact was so huge that it smashed a crater half a metre deep directly above the ground.

He rolled a distance of more than ten feet and finally broke a large tree, which was the thickness of an adult's waist.

Only then did he stop.

After spraying a mouthful of blood, even though he had his life-preserving jade pendant.

Even though he had his life-preserving jade pendant, Yuechun Xiaoyuan still felt that his internal organs had been shattered and he was in great pain.

At this moment, he did not have time to check his injuries, so he hurriedly dodged to the side.

As for the original spot, the big tree that had fallen to the ground.

In the blink of an eye, it was churned into a state of powder.

"What a strong sword qi!"

Of course this was not the time to be shocked.

Noticing that he had been attacked from the front and the back, Leaping Village Xiaoyuan immediately pulled out a pile of detonation talismans from his pocket.

The sound of explosions continued throughout the deep forest, and the dust rose from the sky.

Taking advantage of this blindfold.

Leaping Village Xiaoyuan hurried to a small river.

He then leapt into it with a single bound, his breath disappearing completely.

The Art of Water Transport!

A few breaths later, a sturdy figure plunged down from mid-air.

With a dull sound.

Two deep footprints appeared on the ground, and the surrounding land was densely cracked.

Just as he was about to leap into the water and chase after Xiaoyuan Leaping Village.

But a voice suddenly came from behind him, stopping him in his tracks.

"Don't chase after the poor enemy, prevent the transferring tiger from the mountain."

At this moment, the sturdy and strong man, staring at the flowing water with discontent in his eyes, coldly snorted.

"Exactly the cunning rat."

With those words, a palm was launched.

And the river that was trickling far away, directly exploded and rose.

The flowing water within ten meters was as if it had been cut off, forming a vacuum area.

Chapter 2253

As the water droplets sprinkled to the ground.

The man who spoke up behind the stout man to stop him said no more.

Carrying a long, green-edged sword, he turned around and returned to the forest.

And a few kilometres away.

Leaping Village Xiaoyuan, who was hiding in a tree cave, had been forcibly enduring the injuries in his body.

The dense sword qi wounds on top of his body were also bleeding continuously.

It was only after those two terrifying auras had disappeared.

Only then did he dare to relax.

It was only with a fierce coughing fit that he once again spat fresh blood from his mouth.

The aura around his body was even more shrivelled up.

After taking out the pills in his pocket to suppress his injuries.

He also took out the blood-stopping medicine and finished applying it to all the wounds, before he held his chest and flew away with a scowl in his eyes.

.....

The next day, dawn.

The final round of the Medical Saint Competition was held as scheduled.

Once again, the atmosphere inside Hall 2, the venue for the All-Name Sports, returned to a sea of people.

The VIP observation room.

Councilor Guada looked at Yekimura Komoto who was covered in wounds in front of him.

He couldn't help but frown.

"Failure?"

Although he had already expected that the possibility of this operation failing was extremely high.

But when he saw the result, he was still distressed.

This was the spying intelligence squad that he had spent more than ten years of hard work to cultivate.

Moreover, he had invested an enormous amount of resources on hundreds of people.

Originally, his plan was only to pry into the secrets of the Medical Alliance Elders' House.

Of course even if the operation could not succeed.

But as long as it could disturb their attention it would be good too.

But the result was that of the hundreds of elite members, surprisingly only the captain of the intelligence team returned alive.

“Alright, you can go down and heal your wounds first.

I was the one who was impulsive.”

Hearing such words, Leaping Village Xiaogen did not need to look relieved.

Only when he turned around.

Behind him, the Guada councilor’s originally calm gaze suddenly showed a fierce colour.

He then waved his hand towards another of his men, and then made a neck-wiping motion.

After that man had left, he followed Yakumura Ogoto.

The councilor’s expression still carried a slightly heavy look.

“Everything that has happened here, you pa*s it on to our clan chief, Lord.”

By the time his words were out of his mouth.

In a corner of the originally empty room, a figure suddenly stepped out.

It seemed as if it had appeared out of thin air.

This man was none other than the head of the Guada clan’s secret guards, Ryujin Hyakusho.

When he arrived at the councilor’s side, he picked up the gla*s of wine on the table without a care in the world.

After drinking it down in one go, he then opened his mouth and asked.

“What? Are you suspecting that the side of the Medical Alliance has found something?”

And for this behaviour of his.

The councilor didn’t care.

He just shook his head and said.

“That’s not so much.

It’s just that our plans are at a critical juncture.

There is no room for error.”

With that he glanced at Ryuuken Hyakuza and saw that he looked unusual.

The councilor spoke again.

"You have been fighting with someone here?

Have you forgotten the patriarch's orders when we set out!

Make sure the plan goes smoothly, we are here to disrupt the sight of the Chinese."

"If there is a mistake in the operation, you can afford to be a part of it."

He listened to the councilor's accusations.

Ryuukage Hyakuza just stretched his back with disinterest.

"Isn't it because I heard that there is a great opportunity in the White Cloud Cave of the White Family?

With nothing else to do, I thought I'd go and check it out.

What if I find a clue?"

The councilor asked with a disgruntled tone on his face.

"And did you find anything?"

"That's not true, that old man of the White family is very resourceful.

He spotted me as soon as I got close.

Didn't he say that he was suffering from a stubborn disease and that he had no strength at all?"

With that, he rubbed his bruised shoulder.

The pain made him grimace.

Luckily, he had run fast enough, otherwise he would have been killed there.

"Alright, I'll leave it to you to handle this side of things.

I'll leave the news to the clan later."

When the words fell, the figure of Flowing Shadow Hundred Chop disappeared in front of the council members.

Chapter 2254

The crowd in the audience was already impatient.

The time for the competition was getting closer and closer.

At this moment, apart from a few people from Lin Mo.

The rest of the twelve people were already ready.

After waiting for a long time, there was still no sign of Lin Mo and the others.

A few of the Japanese players who had already been eliminated mocked coldly.

"This is fear of my divine country, the medical experts, choosing to withdraw from the competition, is it?

It's already time and no one is coming."

"Probably knowing that he doesn't have the strength to do so, he has voluntarily chosen to withdraw from the competition.

That's not bad for self-knowledge."

"What a waste of time! If you don't want to take part, tell us in advance."

"What's the point of taking up this spot?"

On the side, they heard their taunts.

Prince Hai Cheng and Broken Division instantly got cranky.

Just when the two of them were about to retaliate with their words.

The audience instantly stirred up.

As they looked down the aisle, three figures were slowly walking out.

"My Lord, are they having some other opportunities in the Elder Academy?"

Chang Wen asked towards Bai Minglang, who was beside him, after seeing the three Lin Mo.

After all, the few of them, after being brought to the Elder Academy.

It was true that they had undergone a three-day and three-night period of deep study.

However, this Lin Mo and the others had not even returned until now.

Thinking of this, Chang Wen's heart sank at once.

In response to his question.

White-faced Lang did not have any emotional fluctuations.

It just spoke in a light tone.

"No need to say much, just prepare well for the competition."

He then gave the latter a glance.

And with just this glance, Chang Wen suddenly felt a chill in the air around him.

At this time, he also knew of his talkative act.

He then hurriedly admitted his mistake.

"Yes Lord, my subordinate knows my mistake."

After saying this he lowered his head and stood behind White-Faced Lang without making any remarks.

As for Lin Mo and the three of them, they hurriedly rushed.

They finally arrived at the arena before the match began.

Originally, the three of them should have come out of the “Wolong” laboratory yesterday.

But the director of the lab was not sure if it was because he was worried about Lin Mo’s health.

Or was it because he was worried about the contagiousness of the “Walking Corpse” virus in his body.

Before he left, he kept Lin Mo behind.

Only after a thorough examination were the three of them released.

This led to the present scene.

Seeing that all the judges were present.

The head judge in charge of supervision nodded his head.

Then the rules were introduced.

The final competition was the art of alchemy.

There were three kinds of pills to be made.

Among them, the Awakening Pill and the Opening Spirit Pill were the ones that each contestant had to make.

As for the last one, it was the contestants’ own choice.

The Medical Union will naturally provide the corresponding medicinal materials.

For the first two pills, the judges will score them according to the number of pills that come out of the furnace, their colour, and their medicinal effects.

As for the elixirs of the contestants’ own choice, they will be judged according to the difficulty of refining, the degree of cherishability and the efficacy of the medicine.

The three pills are combined.

This is the overall score of the contestants.

Once the rules of the competition were understood.

The contestants then prepared to go to their respective venues.

However, when Lin Mo and the three Japanese were on the wrong side of each other.

The Heavenly Manifestation Nine Demons suddenly spoke.

“Coming so late, are you afraid?”

“The bubble tournament counts you lucky that you survived.

I hope that you will still have such good luck in the next tournament.”

However, Lin Mo just shrugged at his ranting and didn’t care too much.

It was just a mouth high, not worth wasting your breath on.

It was just that he was so good-natured.

It didn't mean that Chang Lou was the same.

Seeing her look so dejected.

Chang Lou took a step forward and came in front of a few of the Nine Demons.

"You can forget it.

Every time you get high on your mouth, you have the ability to do something real.

All day long, blah blah blah blah blah."

"If you were half as capable as you are, with your mouth, you would have won the title long ago.

Toads sleeping with frogs, ugly looking playing with flowers."

Chapter 2255

When the words of the long building fell.

Both Lin Mo and the other Chinese players could not help but have their mouths hooked.

This Long Lou's mouth was more or less poisonous.

And when Nine Demons was disliked by him so much, his face couldn't help but change.

"You"

Before he could retort.

Long Lou spoke again.

"You what you, it's you who are talking about.

People are ugly and talk too much, prepare to be an old fledgling for the rest of your life."

These words also truly irritated Nine Demons.

She was not ugly, on the contrary, she could be said to have a beautiful face.

However, when she met Chang Lou's cheap mouth, it directly reduced her face value to a mess.

In a fit of anger, Nine Demons' eyes glowed with pink light, and her charm technique resumed.

Only how could Changlou fall twice in one pit.

Before the competition, he had asked his grandfather, Gu Wuxiu, for a Soul Calming Pill, which he had already taken before coming here.

Now these simple charm techniques would not work on him at all.

"Come on, don't do those childish tricks.

Even if you look at yourself as a cataract, Master will not be affected."

And at this time, the experts of the Martial Alliance guarding the order, also focused their gaze on, the Heaven Full Nine Demons.

Within that unkind look, there was a strong sense of warning.

At this time, Ma Tou Yuan Zi gently patted the Nine Demons on the shoulder.

The latter naturally reacted.

After realising his impulsiveness.

The Heavenly Manifestation Nine Demons then immediately withdrew the charm technique.

If she was defined as a nuisance by the Martial Union's enforcers, it was likely that she would be expelled from the tournament directly.

And at that moment, Lin Mo skimmed a glance at the Red Lotus and Silver Ring beside the white-faced Lang, before walking towards his own competition venue.

When everyone had left one by one.

All that was left was the back of the nine demons staring at Chang Lou with a resigned look on their faces.

Walking inside the small room separated by gla*s.

Lin Mo first looked at the medicinal ingredients on top of the long table.

There was only one copy of the original ingredients for the Spirit Waking Pill and the Spirit Opening Pill.

In other words, there was only one chance.

The difficulty of refining these two pills was not small.

For an ordinary pill refiner, to produce two pills in a row in one furnace was a remarkable thing.

Of course, that is only for ordinary pill refiners.

Those who can enter the National Medicine Saint Competition.

At the very least, they had to start with five in a single furnace.

While Lin Mo was thinking about it.

The staff of the competition also walked into the small gla*s room.

"Greetings, Mr. Lin Mo.

This is the herbs needed to customise your pills, please fill in the above.

We will prepare them properly for you as quickly as possible."

With that, the staff member handed the form in his hand to Lin Mo.

As the Medical Alliance networked medicinal herbs from all over the country.

As long as the herbs were not extinct, they were all stocked in its medicine storehouse.

This was the bottom line of the Medical Alliance.

After receiving the form, Lin Mo first pondered for a while.

Only after a few selections did he fill in the names, characteristics and years of the herbs perfectly.

After all the staff had left the venue.

The final competition began.

The emotions of the audience were suddenly heightened.

Of course, the audience was also nervous.

This is the wave that will make your family rich.

Fifteen fireplaces were set up a hundred metres apart from each other.

The competition had three hours.

There was more than enough time to refine these two pills.

The contestants, in each place, first adjusted their state.

And only then proceeded to refine the pills.

And in order to pursue, the number of pills produced, as well as the colour and efficacy of the medicine.

One after another, all of them showed their unique art of alchemy.

Like the Holy Maiden of Dunhuang, as he pushed his hands together.

A white snow lotus emerged and wrapped the entire furnace in it.

In front of several Japanese players were countless cherry blossom petals flying around their bodies.

The petals, made of spiritual energy, fell into the furnace.

Compared to their colourful alchemy techniques.

Lin Mo's side was a bit plain and unpretentious.

Chapter 2256

After checking all the herbs one by one to determine the general age as well as the strength of their medicinal properties.

Only then did Lin Mo start preparing.

After setting up the two alchemy furnaces prepared by the Medical Union for the contestants.

He then followed the pill-making steps.

One by one, all the pills were put into the furnaces.

“Is this it?”

“I feel like I’ve placed the wrong bet.”

“Shouldn’t I get my money back!”

Seeing Lin Mo’s pill refining technique like an old grandfather crossing the road, placing them slowly.

Then look at the other contestants who had their herbs flying around in a controlled manner.

Both the scene, and the viewers who were still watching the live broadcast, were instantly unfazed.

In particular, those gamblers who had placed heavy bets on Lin Mo were so anxious that their eyes turned red.

As for the Japanese side, a group of eliminated players.

At this moment, they were even more full of smugness and disdain.

“No wonder they were so slow to come, it seems they were afraid of losing face at the tournament site.”

“If it were me, I wouldn’t want to come either.

With this technique, I’d count him Lin Mo as good if he could produce a single pill in a single furnace.”

After all, the art of pill refining was not just a simple matter of showing off skills.

A skillful alchemy not only better stimulates the essence in the herbs.

It could even make the fusion between herbs more perfect.

This is precisely why the same number of herbs can only be made.

Some people can only make one pill, while others can make several.

The key lies here.

The Prince of Hai Cheng, who was also in the audience, heard the mockery of the Japanese crowd.

P*ssed off, he spoke directly to them.

“What’s the use of flowery stances?

This is alchemy and not acrobatics.”

At these words, the crowd roared with laughter.

“What do you, a layman, know? Hahahaha laughs me to death.”

“No, this brother, I guess you are Lin Mo’s best friend.

It’s true that things come in different categories, it seems that this Lin Mo’s alchemy strength is no more than that.”

At this moment, Broken Secretary also couldn’t help but tug on Prince Hai Cheng’s sleeve.

This was indeed a bit of a loss of face.

And Prince Hai Cheng had obviously realised this as well.

As soon as his anger rose, he directly lifted up his sleeves.

“Old me dry ritual food!”

With that, he was about to charge up, intending to f*ck over all these people who were mocking him.

Seeing this, Broken Secretary hurriedly stopped him.

And then he pointed at the Martial Union enforcers not far away.

“Buddy, you’re impulsive.

If you do it now, you’ll be locked up by them.”

Hearing this, Prince Hai Cheng first looked at the Japanese side of the audience, and then at the enforcer.

“D*mn, so angry.”

After cursing, looking at the other party’s smug face he could only settle down resentfully.

On Lin Mo’s side, he was naturally unaware of everything that was happening outside the field.

At this moment, he was placing all the medicinal ingredients into the alchemy furnace.

When he closed the lid of the furnace, he suddenly closed his eyes.

In the palm of his hand.

The majestic aura turned into dense, hair-thin aura and pounced on the herbs.

It was like thousands of arms.

The herbs inside the furnace were instantly broken down.

When the essence was completely squeezed out of them.

Those dregs were also transformed into a black pill under Lin Mo’s control.

As for those essences, they began to fuse at a rapid pace.

Of course, all this was isolated by the alchemy furnace, so outsiders were not aware of what was happening in it.

Time pa*sed.

As Asato Sonoko was the first to finish the refinement, the other contestants stopped one by one.

One by one, the other contestants stopped their work.

After a quick a*ssessment by the panel of judges.

The results of the first half of the competition also came out.

“Seven Heavenly Manifestation Nine Demons Awakening Pills in one furnace, and seven Opening Spirit Pills, with superior medicinal effects and superior colour.”

When they saw this result, cheers erupted from the scene.

“Wow, no thanks to my Heavenly Manifestation Palace Young Master.

Such an achievement is hard to reach, even for those old alchemy veterans of the older generation.”

“Congratulations, it looks like your Heavenly Manifestation Palace is on track to win the title.”

Listening to the compliments from the crowd.

The Heavenly Manifestation Palace Elder could not help but stroke his long beard in triumph.

Chapter 2257

Nine is the ultimate number for alchemy.

But the number of alchemists who can reach this number is very small.

If you want to make pills as difficult to refine as the Awakening Pill or the Opening Spirit Pill, it is already a remarkable achievement.

To produce seven pills in one furnace was already a remarkable achievement.

However, it was at this moment.

Above the field, cheers rang out once again.

“Gu Changlou Awakening God Pill, eight in one furnace, and seven Open Spirit Pills, with superior medicinal effects and excellent colour.”

“Seven Snow Lotus Awakening Pills in one furnace, eight spirit-opening pills, with superior medicinal effects and excellent colour.”

As for the other few people, Little Shama, White Faced Lang and the others, their results were on par with those of Chang Lou and the others as well.

But the results of the remaining two on the Japanese side.

Once again, the atmosphere of the scene was raised to the extreme.

“Eight Awakening Pills in one furnace for Asato Sonko, and eight Enlightening Pills, with superior potency and superior colour.”

This achievement seemed to be the staircase, rising step by step.

Especially this Asato Sonoko and Hama Hachiro, both of them had the same score.

But with a difference of one elixir, they crowned the red dust.

Several of the top players had such scores.

Not to mention the likes of Akira Vinhuan.

The double-dan but five results were completely worthless in front of them.

Seeing such a result.

The Japanese side was already overjoyed.

Above the arena, Hama Hachiro even wore a smug look.

“Is this the level of the origin of Chinese medicine?

It seems that your place of origin is no better than this!”

Such arrogant words were transmitted directly to everyone’s ears through the live broadcast.

For a moment, indignation rose up.

“Arrogant, this kid is simply lawless.”

“This is too arrogant, there is no one in sight.”

“What can be done about it, people are indeed strong.”

“If you ask me, it’s still those players who are incompetent.

So many people can’t even beat two Japanese devils.”

“It’s a disgrace, I’ll go on I’m fine, it’ll end the same way anyway.”

All of a sudden, voices of indignation and blame rose up.

Some even pointed the finger at a few of the Chinese contestants.

It seemed that it was their incompetence that had led to such a result.

As for Prince Hai Cheng’s side.

Once again, mocking voices were heard from the Japanese side of the audience.

“See, this is what you call it, juggling.

Hahahaha, frog at the bottom of the well.”

This comment would have been made had it not been for Brokenji holding him in place with a deadly grip.

The angry Prince of Hai Cheng, whose face was red with anger, would have gone up to do the fighting.

And it wasn’t just the audience.

Even the judges in the arena had a heavy look on their faces.

It had to be admitted that the three Japanese players were indeed extraordinary.

Especially this Asato Sonoko and Hama Hachiro.

Eight pills in one furnace, such a level of play had completely crushed most of the judges present.

But at the same time, they were also annoyed inside.

This was a loss of face for the entire Chinese medical school.

As the birthplace of medicine, he was still no match for a few Japanese players.

How could the young generation hold their heads up in front of each other after this?

In particular, Hachiro's mocking words broke the hearts of many young people in the medical school.

When everyone was in a depressed mood.

A member of the audience suddenly shouted out.

"Wait, we still have one more contestant from China whose result is not yet out."

As his words fell.

More and more people, too, shifted their gazes all the way to the only glimmer of hope left above the field.

As for Lin Mo, he waited until the bell rang for the end of the competition before he slowly lifted his hands.

Just looking at his appearance, the crowd couldn't help but have a dark look in their eyes.

Could there really be any hope with such a level of play?

As the crowd waited anxiously.

A group of judges came to Lin Mo's side.

Under the close-up camera.

The crowd at the scene, could only pray for a last glimmer of hope with a nervous look on their faces.

Only when the judges opened the potion furnace.

The first elixir that poured out was surprisingly a blackened pill.

And as the pill rolled down onto the table, it instantly scattered into a puddle of ashes.

"The refining is ruined?"

For a moment, everyone's mood fell to the bottom.

Chapter 2258

The great nation of China has a wide range of rivers.

The result of the tournament was that either China or Japan won the title.

There is no harm in being inferior to others, as the old saying goes.

But being broad-minded does not mean that you can still be trampled on or insulted by others.

Hama Yaro's taunting words were like a cold mane, sinking deep into the spine of Chinese medicine.

If he wins the title, the heart of the entire new generation of the Chinese nation, which is burning with fire, will also be ruthlessly shattered.

Without a heart, there is no way to speak!

Without light, there is no way to speak!

From this point of view, Hachiro Hama has already completed half of Japan's plan to "cut off the layers".

All that remained was to win the crown and become the new generation of medical saints.

By that time, he will have formed a bond with the 16 major powers of China.

For the next three generations of medical practitioners in China, the road will be difficult to travel and the path will be difficult to advance.

Now, seeing Lin Mo's first alchemy furnace, a spent pill was poured out.

Two extremes of emotion were formed.

One side's heart was ashen, while the other side was extremely proud.

Especially the elders of the major hidden sects in that Japanese country and the elders of Taosuke.

Those faces were full of joy, as if they had won the championship.

Although it was said that to refine pills, nine was the ultimate number.

However, there was only one palm in the world who could reach this level.

This Lin Mo could still turn the sky upside down.

When the Nine Demons of the Heavenly Manifestation saw such an achievement on their side.

His face also showed ecstasy as he came to the side of Chang Lou and taunted.

"The competition relies on more than your mouth, don't you think so, Mr. Chang Lou?"

Although Chang Lou was not in a beautiful mood.

But still the mouth disliked back.

"Cut it out, you don't even have my two strokes, and you have the nerve to blather.

Let's wait until you can also have my kind of achievement.

Defeated under your hand, you're arrogant as a hammer, laugh your a*s off."

Tian Manchu Nine Demons didn't expect Chang Lou to still have such a foul mouth at this time.

"You , this round is ultimately won by our side of the divine Kingdom."

When it came to tussling, she was ultimately a big step behind her opponent.

So much so that she could only move her teammates' results to speak.

At this time, the Dunhuang saint maiden, whose eyes were tightly closed and had not spoken, suddenly opened her eyes.

As expected of Lin Mo!

After a faint smile, she spoke.

"You have lost!"

When Xue Lian's words fell.

On Lin Mo's side, within the basketball-sized pill furnace, another pill unexpectedly rolled out.

Its surface was as round as jade, and its colour was bright and refractive.

After that, there was a second one, a third one, and so on until the judge had completely tipped the pill furnace over.

All the pills contained within had fallen onto the disc on the table.

In the audience, there was a series of gasps of awe.

"Crap, did I see it wrong.

Including, the first waste pills, are there ten in this furnace."

"How is that possible, didn't they say that a maximum of nine pills could be made in one furnace?"

Before the audience could get over the shock.

On the referee's side, the refining furnace for the Spiritual Pill opened and once again poured out nine exquisite pills, plus a pitch-black waste pill.

"Lin Mo, nine pills for the Awakening Pill and nine pills for the Opening Spirit Pill, the potency and colour of the pills are said to be perfect."

"As for, this blackable elixir, it's just medicinal residue."

The contestants' results were all displayed through the screen.

But when the judges, finished checking.

Under the shock, a strong feeling of surprise surged to his heart.

With such emotion, he couldn't help but will read out the results directly.

And his voice was transmitted through the microphone to the whole venue.

In an instant, the scene fell silent.

In the next second, cheers rang out like thunder.

“Good job, let them be arrogant.”

“It’s done, it’s done!”

“The number of nine nines, this wave is very stable, hahaha.”

The opposite of the audience’s attitude was the resignation of the Japanese group.

The first reaction of Hama Batarang was that Lin Mo had cheated.

The number of nine poles, how could he, Lin Mo, have done that.

Yes, it was definitely her who had cheated.

Chapter 2259

The scene of cheering and celebration fell silent with a loud bellow from Hamahachiro.

“I don’t believe it, you guys must have cheated.

Just him, Lin Mo, has such strength?

I demand, an arbitration test!”

At these words, the faces of several judges instantly sank.

They didn’t say anything when they won themselves.

Now that they had lost, they demanded a test.

Can’t afford to lose?

And what “you guys”, this was a total insult to their panel of judges.

You know, the judging process was broadcast live on camera.

Plus, as members of the Medical Alliance, they have their own moral boundaries.

Of course, since they were the judges, they could not say anything at this point.

The elders of the Japanese side of Taosuke were also thinking the same way as Hamahachiro.

In their opinion, how could this Lin Mo be even stronger than their top medical genius from the Japanese country.

There must be something fishy going on here!

In the face of Hamabatarou’s application for arbitration.

The Elders’ Court quickly gave a reply.

His request was granted.

Afterwards, several elders from the Japanese country, Momosuke, were invited up together.

On the Chinese side and the Japanese side, each chose five medical titans to examine the elixir made by Lin Mo.

Of course, the representatives from China were there purely to prevent the other side from doing anything during the inspection.

You can't be wary of others.

Among the five representatives appointed by the Japanese, the leader was also Momosuke's vice-president, Seikura Changjian.

When he stepped onto the field of play, he pretended to apologise and said.

"My apologies, judges.

It was our lax discipline that allowed these juniors to act so rudely.

We are just going to take a casual look."

Although his words were polite, he was already making plans in his mind.

We will find out how you cheat.

Let this year's Medical Saint Competition be reduced to a complete joke.

Combined with the 'Chopping Tier' plan, this move kills two birds with one stone.

If Lin Mo's despicable, alchemy technique can become the number of extreme nine.

I alchemy furnace are given to you directly eat.

This side of the Medical Union's evaluation referee, facing the pretentious Qingcang Changjian.

He also followed with a polite sentence.

"No harm, we need to maintain the fairness and impartiality of the competition ourselves."

As for this person, Hama Hachiro, he also walked up beside Lin Mo.

With a cold tone, he said.

"Just you wait, you will be found out to be cheating later.

Not only will you have your results cancelled, by then, the whole of China's face will be disgraced by you alone!"

Lin Mo was speechless.

"Are you losing your mind?

Just because you're incompetent yourself doesn't mean that others can't do it.

Is it hard to achieve the Dan Refining Extreme Nine?"

Hama Batarang shook his head untamedly.

“Whether it’s difficult or not, we naturally know in our hearts.

But you, you absolutely can’t do it!”

Just as the two were conversing.

The judges from both sides of the two countries, had already started working on the test.

That is, they were experts in the medical dao.

They could tell at a glance whether the newly baked pills were real or not.

“Please!”

With the referee from the Medical Alliance making the invitation.

Impatient, Qingcang Changjian went straight to work and took one from each of the two elixirs.

Just after examining them a little.

He then found that there was nothing wrong with the 18 pills.

There was also a faint link of aura, if any, between the nine pills.

This was the characteristic of the Extreme Nine Pills.

Facing each other, Qingcang Changjian and the other four representatives, looked at each other.

But the latter just shook his head helplessly, unable to find out what was wrong at all.

In an instant, all expectations turned to shock and disappointment.

How was this possible?

But the truth was right in front of him, and whether he believed it or not, nothing could be changed.

When he turned his head, a group of judges from the Medical Alliance were looking at him with a playful smile.

They were watching him like a clown, waiting to see what he would do next.

Qingcang Changjian knew that he was already on a high platform, and that there were no steps.

At this point, he could only adjust his mood.

And then with an embarrassed smile, he said.

“There is nothing wrong with this Dan.

I told you, it was all rude behavior between their juniors.”

This mouth face, it was even uglier.

Chapter 2260

Qingcang Changjian’s words were extraordinarily harsh to the ears of the judges.

When you were checking just now, you could not wait to stuff the pills into your eyes and check them.

However, at this moment, the shock in Qingcang Changjian's heart had still not subsided.

The ability of Dan to refine the Nine Extremes was something he had naturally seen before.

But those were all from the hands of the top titanic old generation of divine doctors.

This son is young, the art of refining pills, how can there be such a high attainment.

The more shocked he was, the heavier his scorn became.

If he was still allowed to develop, what would happen in the future?

Thinking of this, a hint of killing intent suddenly flashed in Qingcang Changjian's eyes.

At the same time, several experts of the Martial Union's enforcers instantly sensed this faint killing intent.

After turning their heads, the leader, one of them, shook one hand.

The other members of the Martial Union, immediately turned around, while their gazes were locked dead on the five Japanese delegates.

But if they made the slightest movement, the enforcers would instantly exterminate them with a thunderous force.

As for the leader, he walked over to Lin Mo's side.

"Since there are no questions, then let's announce the results!"

These words and actions were both a reminder and a protection.

Although there were no mood swings.

But just by his sword-like gaze, he calmed down the Japanese delegates.

After nodding their heads, they could only speak reluctantly.

"Declare the result, we have no objection!"

The judges of the Medical Alliance had actually expected such an outcome long ago.

But now they were able to see the representatives of the Japanese people, who had made fools of themselves, make a fool of themselves.

Naturally, they were delighted.

The head judge, in particular, announced the results directly.

"Southern Realm Lin Mo, the result is true and valid."

At this moment, he even subconsciously raised several degrees, hating to stuff this result, into the heads of the Japanese crowd.

The next second, the sound of loud laughter recalled in all corners of the venue.

“Make a fool of yourself, get it.”

“If you can’t afford to lose, just say so, you’re so full of tricks.”

The most excited one would be the Crown Prince of Hai Cheng.

“I’ve told you all that alchemy is not an acrobatic act, so you won’t listen if you don’t listen.

It seems that you insiders are not so good either?

Not even as good as a layman like me, hahaha!”

Relief, it was too much relief.

At this moment, the anger he had accumulated in his belly before was like a broken dike, instantly venting out.

As for the group of Japanese spectators on the opposite side of the room, their faces were also red from the excitement of Prince Hai Cheng’s few words.

They wanted to say something in rebuttal, but could not find anything good to say.

After all, the truth was right in front of them.

And, as the jeering and clamour became more and more intense.

Naturally, the Japanese could not face staying any longer.

With their heads in the dust, they could only flee in a hurry.

Looking at the scene, Nagarou shook his head disdainfully.

Turning to the Heavenly Manchu Nine Demons not far away, he once again mocked.

Hurting yourself a thousand times, and then damaging yourself eight hundred times?”

This one really stuck out a bit.

The Heaven Full Nine Demons were also infuriated.

It felt like this long building was her nemesis in general.

“Don’t be complacent too early.

The Grand Tournament is not over yet, the matter of winning or losing is not yet decided.

When ours takes the crown, I’ll definitely tear your foul mouth apart.”

As she said this, her proud breasts were shaking with anger.

Ever since she was born, neither had suffered such a big, so much nasty anger.

However the angrier the Sky Full Nine Demons became.

The happier Chang Lou became.

“It seems that you are unrepentant.

There is a saying in my Chinese metaphysics that what is set in stone will be reversed.”

Hearing these words.

When the Nine Demons were just about to retort a thing or two, it suddenly occurred to them that the words had an excellent fulfilment in her case.

Every time he said something about death, it seemed that the result was always the opposite.

Thinking of this, she hurriedly stopped the words that were about to come out.
