

Genius 2291

Chapter 2291

After learning of Lin Mo's true identity.

The Chen family, mother and son, could not help but blush when they thought of the wild words the two had spoken earlier.

After a few snickers.

Originally, they were thinking of settling the bill and saving the last bit of face.

But in the end, that too was stopped by the boss.

"No, no, since you are all friends of Mr. Lin Mo.

How can I let you guys pay for it, Manager Liu, all of Mr. Lin's spending tonight is free."

Seeing the last face being mercilessly slapped on the ground.

He Juan then couldn't stay any longer.

"Hui Hui, I have some things to do at home, so I'm going back down."

And the mother-in-law, who was springing across the room, had her nostrils turned up to the sky at this point.

"Alright, since you guys have something to do, let's get together next time.

By the way, I need you guys to pay more attention to my family's Lin Mo's work."

"Well, good, good!"

He Juan said yes repeatedly, then dragged her son with her and left at a fast pace.

She didn't want to stay in this place for a second.

And so the party broke up.

The family was left to have a simple lunch.

After the hotel owner, Jiang Hongyun, presented them with a top VIP card.

The family then left at random.

On the way back, mother-in-law seemed to be a little bit lighter on her feet.

In the afternoon, Lin Mo called the Prince of Haicheng, who knew his way around, to take a stroll around Kyoto.

By the time he returned home again, it was completely dark.

Inside the room.

After some hesitation, Lin Mo still took out the Yin Yang Swimming Dragon Talisman.

“Wow, what a beautiful jade pendant!”

His wife, Xu Hanxia, lifted it high into the air after taking it out.

The jade entered the palm, not warm but not cold.

The translucent jade body shone with a pure white sparkle.

It met the light in the room.

Under the projection of the jade pendant, a shadow in the shape of a dragon actually appeared above the ground.

“Do you like it?”

Faced with Lin Mo’s enquiry, his wife naturally nodded with delight.

And what is feared, comes to pass.

As Xu Hanxia happily admired the Yin Yang Swimming Dragon Talisman, she suddenly asked curiously.

“By the way, this jade pendant must be very precious, where did you buy it from?”

Er

Lin Mo saw that he could no longer hide at this point.

So he originally recounted the incident between himself and Elder Bai’s master and disciple.

When it came to the function of this Dragon Talisman, Xu Hanxia suddenly lowered her head.

Xu Hanxia suddenly lowered her head, as if trying to hide the redness on her face.

That delicate and lustful appearance caused Lin Mo’s originally calm heart to suddenly beat wildly without arguing.

“Wife, do you think we, should we listen to the Master, his old man?”

Xu Hanxia was originally shy.

Being asked by Lin Mo like this, she instantly became even more flustered.

“Nasty, what are you talking about.”

With that, she lifted her show arms and her pink fists rained down on top of Lin Mo’s broad chest.

At this time, in the next second, Xu Hanxia felt a tightening of her shoulders.

After that, her body was wrapped in Lin Mo’s arms in an overbearing manner.

When their eyes met, there was only a pulsating deep love that drifted freely.

“Wife, it’s getting late, why don’t we rest early?”

Xu Hanxia also quieted down at this time.

After burying her hot cheeks into Lin Mo's chest.

She let out a low "mmm".

The next side, she felt a warmth on her lips, and then the whole room went dark.

The lights went out and the atmosphere rippled even more.

On the other side.

Xue Lian was flipping through the copies of medical techniques borrowed from the Medical Alliance.

After all, she was a master of both medicine and martial arts.

Her sensitivity to the five senses was far beyond that of ordinary people.

When the ambiguous sound of the music reached his ears.

It made Xue Lian's face flush.

Even after reciting the Meditation Mantra several times, she could not suppress the stirring and irritation in her heart.

In desperation, Xue Lian stood up.

The door to the room opened and a silhouette darted out, disappearing into the courtyard with a few leaps and bounds.

Chapter 2292

The moonlight at the back of the hill is still bright, but it is not a small remnant compared to before.

It was still the same place where she had been sitting.

In a trance, she had a glimpse, not far away, of the man with the branch in his mouth.

Shaking out her hair, all the phantom disappeared before her eyes.

"Mirrors, flowers, water and moons, it's all an empty thing after all!"

Between sighs, the sky is colder!

The night is deeper.

Some people may be a stone's throw away from each other, but they are worlds apart.

.....

It's dawn!

Even though it was already three o'clock in the morning.

The tired Xu Hanxia still did not get up.

It was almost midday.

Lin Mo came into the room with a carefully brewed soup and porridge.

Only then did Xu Hanxia wake up leisurely.

Seeing Lin Mo's smiling face, her mind could not help but recall the rippling scene in the night.

She couldn't help but blush again.

In her shyness, she tugged up the quilt and hid her head completely in it.

Lin Mo saw this look on his wife's face and counted with a wicked smile.

"Alright, daughter-in-law.

It's almost noon, and just now Mom asked me why I hadn't seen you up so late."

When his words had fallen.

A muffled voice came from in front of him.

"It's your fault! By the way what did you and Mum say?"

After putting the dishes down.

Lin Mo then walked over to the bed, brought his head closer to it and spoke mischievously.

"What can I say, I'll just be honest."

At these words, Xu Hanxia instantly panicked.

"Ah, how can I meet people later!"

When she thought of that unspeakable matter, she had actually been told by Lin Mo to her parents.

She directly lifted the quilt over her head.

However, when she looked at her husband, she suddenly realised that she had been caught in the act.

Suddenly, she realised that she had been deceived.

Given Lin Mo's character, how could she possibly tell her parents about such a thing.

Just as she tried to get back under the covers, it was obviously too late.

Those warm palms were already holding him above his thin waist.

"Get up, piglet! Don't even look at the time."

"Ah, you let go of me, it tickles, hahaha."

"Lin Mo, let go of me, don't do that. Hahahaha!!!"

Silver bell-like laughter filled the entire courtyard.

The conversation was divided into two ends.

After the loss of the Medical Saint Competition.

A group of Japanese powers fled back to the Japanese country with their heads hanging in despair.

Councilor Guada, on the other hand, returned to the clan with a sense of apprehension.

“You have failed!”

As the gloomy voice came from within the room with the doors and windows closed.

The councilor, who was kneeling in the courtyard, could only keep kowtowing to his mistakes.

This time the Heart of China, the surface plan was the “chopping layer”.

But more than that, the plan was to drive up the strength of other Japanese countries.

In this way, the other side could be disturbed.

But it is clear that the councilor has not done either of these things well.

“You have worked for the family for so many years, let’s spare you this time.

As for the other forces, you can take care of it yourself.

Don’t involve us, the Gua Tian family, in this.”

The words fell.

The councilor, visibly relieved, only beads of sweat continued to fall down his forehead.

It was also at that moment.

A beautiful woman dressed in ensembles walked up to the councilor with her hands holding up an exquisite red lacquered wooden box.

At the same time, the dull voice came again.

“This demon sword, Masuno.

It is a cautionary tale for you.

If there is a next time, if you fail again, let it grant you the glory of my divine kingdom!”

“Yes! My subordinate understands.”

And the councilor finished speaking.

Within the room, there was silence.

And he also stood up with good sense and silently withdrew from the courtyard.

Only shortly after he left, the conversation here rang out again.

“How are the results of the experiments over there?”

“Your Excellency, although the experiment has made a breakthrough, it is still only in a half-finished state.

Although it has achieved the efficacy of the whisper, the side effects are extremely great.

And there is still no clue about the corresponding antidote.”

“Well, hurry up their side. Time is running out, and those people around have already noticed us.”

With a few figures leaping out of the courtyard, the original calmness of this place was restored again.

Chapter 2293

The backyard of Hui Chun Tang.

After the playfulness and frolic.

Xu Hanxia then quietly lay in her husband Lin Mo’s arms.

“When we came back yesterday, Mom and I mentioned something.”

After eating a bowl full of restorative soup porridge.

Xu Hanxia quietly spoke.

“What’s wrong? Is it because you’re not satisfied with living over here?”

Having been together for many years, Lin Mo knew his mother-in-law’s character thoroughly.

This side of the house at Hui Chun Tang, although Lin Mo could use it unconditionally all the time.

But in the end, there was one less book.

And for his mother-in-law, as long as it was not his own house, his mother-in-law was definitely not satisfied with living in it.

“Yes, mum said that since you plan to live in Kyoto for a long time.

You should have a house of your own anyway.

Although it is said that Kyoto is an inch of land, but with our current conditions, we can buy a big house.

It’s not too stressful.”

Lin Mo listened to his wife’s expression and nodded in agreement.

“That’s right, I’ll go to the market in the next few days to see what better houses are available.

By the way, I’ll buy a car and come back, so that it’s easier for the family to travel.”

Previously, Lin Mo had lived alone in Kyoto, but it didn’t matter.

Moreover, on this side of Hui Chun Tang, it was all companions, and it was lively to live there.

But now it was different.

His wife and family were all in Kyoto again, and it was time to prepare a house of his own.

And it’s too convenient to let the Prince of Haicheng drive back and forth all the time.

So the car and house, so buy it together.

“In addition, Mom thinks her father has no acquaintances here.

It’s not comfortable to have nothing to do all day.

So she wants to find something to do, to do business or something.”

That was a problem.

Almost all the industries in Kyoto are already saturated.

If you want to go back to your old job and open a pharmacy.

That’s even more delusional.

Kyoto was home to some of the best medical businesses and medical schools in China.

Frowning in contemplation, Lin Mo’s mind raced to analyse the various industries.

When his gaze focused on the empty bowl on the table, his eyes suddenly lit up.

“I got it.

You don’t have to worry about these two things, daughter-in-law.

I will take care of it in time.”

With that Lin Mo wrapped his arms around his wife even tighter.

And Xu Hanxiazi, who was in his arms, had a happy expression on her face.

In this world, there was nothing that could be difficult for one’s man.

It felt so good!

With this thought, she turned her neck and then pressed her cheek tightly against Lin Mo’s chest.

The next few days.

Lin Mo naturally put aside all his affairs.

He took his wife and father-in-law and mother-in-law all over Kyoto.

And only then did he continue with his busy life.

First, he took the time to visit the Bai family compound.

As before, a time had already been agreed upon.

By the time Lin Mo arrived, the banquet had almost been prepared.

Perhaps it was the fact that today was a day of many affairs.

Uncle Shou, who could be seen every time, had lost his figure this time.

And in the hall above the main seat.

Old Master Bai followed a few old men of his generation, talking freely to each other.

After seeing Lin Mo, the old master raised his hand in gesture.

“Disciple, meet Master!

Greetings to all seniors!”

Just as Old Man Bai nodded his head.

A black-robed clothed old man beside him, however, suddenly spoke.

“This disciple of yours, old man Bai, doesn’t seem to be very good.

He’s got skinny arms and legs, and he can’t take a beating.

All these years, this vision of yours is still as bad as ever.”

But looking at Old Man Bai’s suddenly changing face, one could say that it was clear that this person meant something.

“It’s not up to you to say whether you’re good or not.

It’s not up to you to decide whether it works or not.

Will it work?”

Hearing these words, the black-robed old man’s slender eyes suddenly narrowed.

“Simple-minded?

Hahahaha, Ah Da, people say that about you.

Can you accept it?”

Waiting for the topic to be spoken.

Behind him, a two-metre tall burly man suddenly stepped out.

With a body like a tower of iron, he brought up a whistling wind just by running.

As he took one step, the marble floor beneath his feet instantly cracked.

And as it approached Lin Mo.

The fist the size of a skull smashed towards Lin Mo’s head.

Chapter 2294

Lin Mo stood in the middle of the hall, and did not expect the other party to strike so suddenly.

Faced with an imposing iron fist.

Naturally, he would not retreat, and with a fling of his right arm, the wind of his fist followed him like a shadow.

The next second was accompanied by a muffled sound.

The two fists battled it out, and the two sides were on par with each other.

The overflowing spiritual energy directly lifted the corners of Lin Mo's clothes, but the sound of swishing was heard.

On the other side, the towering man named Ah Da had a disdainful look on his face.

"If this is all the strength you have, I'll probably whack you flat."

As the words fell from his mouth.

The burly man's right arm, which was against each other, once again shot up.

The sudden force that rose up hard pushed Lin Mo backwards a few metres flat.

Seeing this scene, the black-robed old man smiled smugly.

"Old Bai ah, I told you, this disciple of yours is no good, right?"

My disciple, Ah Da, couldn't even use less than fifty percent of his strength before he was unable to fight.

If you were to strike with your full strength, you would have sent your hair to the black."

With that, he went on to size himself up.

And in response to his taunting words.

Old Man Bai nodded lightly and did not reply.

Just your disciple hiding his strength?

After Lin Mo stopped in his stance, he excitedly shook off his slightly tingling arms.

The opponent was clearly the type of opponent who was a strength type.

If Lin Mo's strength hadn't been continuously strengthened over this period of time, he wouldn't have been able to take that clash just now.

And therein lay the reason for his excitement.

Lin Mo's own strength was not clear to him.

Wasn't this person in front of him the right test subject?

With that, he cast a questioning glance at his master, Elder Bai.

Seeing the latter's secret nod, Lin Mo then got serious.

"Then I'll try to see!"

After replying to the burly man's words.

Lin Mo's surrounding aura was like that of a fierce tiger descending from a mountain, his aura rising up from the ground.

Although his body shape had not changed.

But the muscles in various parts of his body had begun to tremble slightly.

This was a manifestation of strength after it had reached its extreme.

And at this moment, Elder Bai, who was above the seat, could see the change in Lin Mo at a glance.

"Good brat, to actually apply the Bai Family's Scattered Hands aeon to every inch of muscle in his body.

Worthy of being a martial arts genius."

With this dark thought in his heart, Elder Bai could not help but look forward to it.

Now he also wanted to see how strong this disciple of his was.

Ah Da in the scene sensed Lin Mo's change.

He still had a disdainful expression on his face.

"The aura is not bad.

I just don't know if it's an embroidered pillow."

Looking at the appearance of his opponent's small arms and legs.

He thought he could knock him down with a single punch.

At this time, Lin Mo turned did not reply.

He just calmly raised his arms, his fists intertwined back and forth, attacking and defending in unison.

The two eyes faced each other without any command.

The two then tacitly agreed to make simultaneous moves.

Ah Da's imposing appearance was like that of a strong bull as he darted towards Lin Mo.

"Drink! Tiger Cannon Fist!"

With a loud shout, he then raised his hammer-like fists and smashed down heavily.

And Lin Mo still chose to meet him head-on this time.

Only when the two, once again, collided together.

Lin Mo's swinging arm was directly forced back half an inch by his opponent.

What had to be admitted was that this Ah Da's strength was truly terrifying.

Seeing this, the old man in black also had a face full of smugness.

Hmph, to compete with this great disciple of mine in a test of strength, I'm afraid you don't know how to write the word death.

But just at this moment.

Ah Da's face, who had thought he had a sure victory, changed drastically.

Only to see Lin Mo, who had been suppressed, suddenly that the corner of his mouth hooked, and then he spoke in a cloudy voice.

"It seems that you aren't strong either, but you just have a few more prana."

At the same time as the words fell, his right arm suddenly shook.

A terrifying force then rushed out.

Chapter 2295

The black-robed old man, who was immersed in triumph, could not have imagined that the change of victory would come so quickly.

He did not even wait for him to calm down his inner joy.

His disciple, who was as strong as a tower of iron, took off.

As for the black-robed old man, he naturally would not stand by and watch his disciple get injured.

With a slap on the armrest, the black shadow flashed forward.

One hand was placed against the disciple's back.

The black-robed old man also retreated a distance of more than ten steps before stabilising his disciple's form.

Of course, he did so purely to remove the force.

Otherwise, Ah Da would definitely have been seriously injured.

Seeing that Lin Mo had won, Elder Bai first stroked his beard in relief.

And then he taunted.

"I say, Old Ghost Seeker, your disciple isn't very good either.

Such a big body has grown for nothing.

Lin Mo, you've hit hard, you don't give your senior brother any face, next time you won't allow it."

Lin Mo saw his senior's happy face and naturally understood the meaning.

After retracting the aura around him, he clasped his hands in a fist and bowed.

"Yes, Master, this strength of my disciple has progressed too quickly.

I couldn't fail to adapt for a while.

In the future, disciple will definitely pay attention.”

Accompanied by the Versailles-style conversation between Lin Mo’s master and disciple.

The black-robed seeking old man, who was angry, could be described as having smoke in his five orifices.

And when Ah Da saw his master, his face was so gloomy.

Adding to his annoyance, he actually raised his step again and walked towards Lin Mo’s.

Beside him, Elder Seeker’s single hand darted out and squeezed his disciple’s wrist.

Although the former was slender in stature, his five fingers were like iron pincers.

Even Da, who was born with divine strength, was unable to move even a little bit when he blocked him.

Seeing his disciple trying to break free, Elder Seeker questioned with a low voice.

“What are you going to do? Aren’t you ashamed enough?”

Ah Da said with a resigned look.

“Master, disciple disciple was just careless.

Give me one more chance.

I will beat up this little man so that he can’t take care of himself.”

Just as he was indignant.

Elder Seeker’s right hand made a strong effort and yanked Ah Da straight back.

“Why are you exposing your cards now?

Our purpose is the change of the Martial Union.”

Although he had lost face in front of his arch rival, Old Man Bai, he was naturally upset in his heart.

However, Elder Seeker still had a number in his heart as to which was more important.

“Everything will wait until the change of the Martial Union.”

As his master admonished in a low voice, Ah Da also calmed down.

“Yes, disciple knows my mistake.”

With such a result, some of the surrounding spectators naturally shook their heads in disappointment.

They had originally come to see Elder Bai’s joke.

They didn’t expect that this Lin Mo was not only highly skilled in medicine, but also had extraordinary martial arts attainments.

This Ah Da was a seeded player of the Southern Barbarian Sect.

The situation today was naturally not what they had expected.

On the other hand, on Elder Bai's side, he didn't care what kind of thoughts those people had.

His initial aim was to slap the faces of those who chewed behind their backs.

Looking at their unhappy faces, it was the first sign of success.

With a contemporary genius disciple of the Southern Barbarian Sect as a stepping stone.

It was just the first step for Lin Mo to reveal his first glory.

"Everyone is standing around for nothing.

The banquet is already prepared.

Please follow me and enter the banquet."

With that, a group of people who worked for the Bai family led all the guests to the parlour.

The scene that was waiting was when only the master and disciple were left.

Lin Mo asked with curiosity.

"Master, what is the situation with the two of them?"

"It's all in the adult past, when they were young.

I was with this old man Seeker, at the top of that year's Martial Union changeover.

The one who overpowered him, this petty little old man, then held a grudge against me until now."

When Lin Mo finished listening to the old man's elaboration, after looking at the other party's cheerful expression.

He asked a tentative question.

"Did Master hit harder back then?"

As for Old Man Bai, at this point, he smiled smugly.

"If you hit hard, it's not really heavy-handed!"

After a moment of contemplation, he added.

"It's just that he was made to stay in bed for half a month, recuperating from his illness.

It seems to have delayed the Martial Union's replacement competition later on because of that."

Hearing this Lin Mo couldn't help but sweat.

No wonder!

This was completely cutting off someone's future, right?

Of course, he couldn't blame Old Master Bai, as fists and kicks had no eyes, and injuries were the norm.

Chapter 2296

Bai Lao asked when he saw that Lin Mo had come alone.

“By the way, why haven’t you brought your wife and parents-in-law here?”

Although this time Elder Bai had set up a banquet, there was an element of beating the face of gossip.

But at its root, it was also a celebration feast that he, as a master, had planned for his own.

It’s a great way to build momentum for him!

And since Lin Mo’s family had arrived in the capital.

He should also show his face on such an occasion.

For this matter.

Lin Mo then explained with a smile.

“They are planning the shop these days.

Let’s wait for this time to be free.

When that time comes, the disciples will host a banquet and we will all gather again!”

Of course there was another layer of reason that Lin Mo did not mention.

That was that girl, Bai Ruorong.

If she were to bring her wife and family over.

If this little junior sister of his own was unhappy, and the attitude that had just improved on the side of his senior mother.

I’m afraid that it would deteriorate again.

One more thing is not into one less thing, right?

“That’s fine!”

For this matter, Elder Bai didn’t care much.

After responding, he led Lin Mo to the banquet.

The main purpose of the banquet was to celebrate Lin Mo’s achievements.

With Elder Bai taking the lead.

The guests who came were all dignified and big shots.

And when Lin Mo and his master and disciple appeared.

The crowd came up in droves.

“Mr. Lin’s, I’ve heard a lot about you, I’ve seen you today, you really are a talented man.”

“Old master is well, I haven’t seen you for a few days, your body is still so strong.”

“Old Master Bai is indeed very discerning, your senior apprentice has now become the new Saint of Medicine.

This unprecedented double-crown dazzle is close at hand, I think.”

The palanquin was carried by everyone.

On the one hand, the Bai family was already a dominant presence in Kyoto.

They were just acting in a low profile at this time.

On the other hand, Lin Mo was now a newly promoted medical saint.

The combination of the two was like a fierce tiger adding wings.

Nowadays, Lin Mo can be said to be in the ascendant.

As for Elder Bai, he did not react much to the flattery of the crowd.

Only when they praised Lin Mo would the former’s face show a smug look.

And under this cloud of praise.

A middle-aged man dressed in a practice uniform suddenly walked out of the crowd.

“Old man, you haven’t shown your face for a long time.

Those like me, who want to rub elbows with the younger generation, can’t even find the door.”

Such blunt words had caught Lin Mo’s attention.

And upon seeing this person, Elder Bai suddenly became cordial.

“Little An, why don’t you go to your uncle’s side and sit down.

What’s the point of staying here?”

The really important VIPs would be received by a special person.

Generally speaking, those who stayed in this kind of hall were basically ordinary guests, or those who had squeezed in through connections.

In response to Elder Bai’s confusion, the middle-aged man gave an awkward smile.

“Eldest uncle said that there are no rules.

I wasn’t just kicked out by my eldest uncle.”

Cao An didn’t seem to have any scruples about such things and spoke up straight away.

Bai Lao only gave a harrumph at his dilemma.

And only afterwards did he persuade.

“Your eldest uncle is just a stick in the mud, don’t pay any attention to him.

When you come, just treat it as your own home, feel free.”

The other party also hurriedly waved his hand and refused.

“Haha, Elder Bai, I wouldn’t dare to do that.

If my eldest uncle found out, a reprimand would be inevitable.”

“No harm, no harm, if he dares to do it, I will help you stop it.

With that, Elder Bai put his hand on Lin Mo’s shoulder.

“By the way, let me introduce you.

This is my closed-door disciple, Lin Mo.”

“Lin Mo this is Uncle Shou’s nephew, Cao An.”

At this moment Lin Mo was a little surprised.

He didn’t expect this uncle called Cao An to be Uncle Shou’s nephew.

Moreover, judging from his clothing and temperament, he didn’t seem to be any ordinary person either.

On the other side, Cao An had a warm face as he walked forward and shook Lin Mo’s hand.

“Lin Mo, Doctor Lin?

I’ve just returned from abroad, and I heard the news of you winning the championship that’s been buzzing around.

The first class of the younger generation of the medical path, remarkable.”

Chapter 2297

After exchanging pleasantries.

Only then did Lin Mo learn that this Cao An was actually the owner behind the famous Hertz Auto City in the capital.

He was also the owner of the real estate business, Yuan’s Real Estate, which was also ranked in the top ten in the capital.

Of course, it is not known whether this has the help of the Bai family.

As for, Cao An after learning that Lin Mo needed a house & car in the near future.

He directly pulled out a black gold card.

“Lin Mo, you can keep this card for now.

When you have time, I’ll accompany you to pick it out.”

After a few excuses.

Elder Bai spoke up and said that they were all family members, so there was no need to divide them too clearly.

Only then did Lin Mo brazenly accept the black and gold VIP card from Yuan's group.

At this time, it was time for the banquet to begin.

What was unexpected was that.

The original has not shown the mountain water, half hidden in the world of the old man Bai.

Today, surprisingly, he made an appearance on stage to speak in person.

Under a burst of applause.

Jian Cang's figure slowly walked up to the podium.

"Thank you all guests, for coming to the celebration feast of my beloved disciple Lin Mo.

My beloved disciple is not talented and just won the championship of the Medical Saint Competition some time ago.

It is only natural that I, as a master, should make sure that he is well taken care of."

"All of you just eat and drink well, and enjoy yourselves."

The news that Lin Mo had become the newest Saint of Medicine had already spread all over Kyoto.

Only a small number of people did not know about Lin Mo's relationship with the Bai family's old master.

The old man seemed to be a bit overly fond of his disciple.

In the past, according to the low-key character of Bai Lao, he would never have done such a thing for his junior.

But this move was indeed a bit unusual.

And outside the banquet.

The villa area in South City.

Nangong Jingliu held up his red wine, looking at the night scene in the distance, and murmured a question.

"This old man of the Bai family, what exactly is this move for?"

Across the tea table, the movement in the hands of Master Xue Wu, who was patiently making tea, also paused for a moment.

"Why else? The old man is old, but not old at heart."

Nangong Jingliu asked curiously, "Are you saying that his old man still wants the Bai family to move up the ladder?"

“What else? Now Lin Mo has become the new Medical Saint.

Moreover, his own strength is extraordinary, with the Bai family as a backer, plus the constant momentum building.”

“As long as this Lin Mo is not eliminated in the first round.

His starting point in the Martial Union will naturally be a great deal higher than others.

In this way, the Bai family’s fire lends momentum to the wind, and the wind lives under the power of the fire.

The Bai family and Lin Mo go hand in hand.”

During the explanation, Master Xue Wu did not have any remaining movements, as if his eyes only had this tea set in his hands.

After listening, Nangong Jingliu, on the other hand, shook his head with regret.

“Such a good seedling, to be let go by you like this.

Don’t you have any regrets?”

Speaking here, Xue Wuji then raised his head.

“What’s there to regret, the golden scale thing.

If you can’t completely subdue it, even if it works for you, do you dare to use it?

Such a person cannot be forcibly pressed nor forcibly collected, only let nature take its course.”

Accompanied by his questioning.

Nangong Jingliu also paused in his expression.

This person, Lin Mo, had talent if he wanted it, and he had means if he wanted it.

He was decisive in killing and thoughtful, plus his qi luck was even more extraordinary.

For such a young man, who had the talent of a crouching dragon in his body.

Unless he is completely subdued

He would not dare to reuse him, for he could not guarantee that he would usurp his position one day.

However, he had only half listened to what Master Xue had to say.

This man was overly suspicious and had a strong desire to control.

Naturally, it was impossible for him to live in peace with this Lin Mo.

It was also at the moment when Nangong Jing was thinking slightly.

Master Xue Wu suddenly asked.

“By the way, what about this little pawn of yours who has been missing so much?”

Nangong Jingluo, on the other hand, directly rolled his eyes.

“What little chess piece, what an ugly thing to say.

Can't I and that white-faced Lang become a wind and fire?”

The words fell.

Master Xue Wu nodded since.

Then there were no more words.

Chapter 2298

Above the banquet.

Faced with a constant stream of judgement from all walks of life, the rich and famous businessmen.

But Lin Mo could only be tired of fighting.

To his surprise, Xie Chen Wang, whom he had met at the Martial Union's intensive training event, had also met him here by chance.

“It's been a long time since I've seen you, Brother Lin.

I didn't expect that after not seeing you for a while, you had become a newly promoted Medical Saint.”

Lin Mo's impression of this person was also quite good.

It was also a kind of fate to meet here.

“I'm just lucky!

By the way, after the training session, did you guys go to the training organized by the Martial Union again?

It seems that we haven't seen you guys in Kyoto since the last time we parted.”

“Lin Mo, but you don't know that.

During this period of the Medical Saint Competition, Kyoto is in chaos.

People watching the competition, people playing! It's impossible for everyone to cultivate at ease.

So we simply went out to cultivate.”

After Lin Mo understood the inner workings of it, he joked after nodding arrogantly.

“Then, Brother Chen Wang, your strength has soared now!”

Said Lin Mo as he tried to reach out and pat the other party's arm.

Originally, this was just a way to show friends that they were friends.

But when Lin Mo's palm came into contact with his opponent's arm.

This King Xie Chen's muscles could not help but shrink.

Although it was a small change, Lin Mo did not feel that way.

This subconscious reaction of the muscles, although extremely subtle, was often not felt in person.

However, as a medical expert, Lin Mo had secretly kept an eye out for it.

The human body has such instinctive reactions.

It meant that the other party was subconsciously on guard against Lin Mo.

At this moment the unaware New Chen King was also full of pride as he said.

"That's natural, after the intensive training of the Martial Union, plus the hard training.

My Chen person's strength today is naturally much stronger than before.

Right, Brother Lin, after the banquet is over, do you have something important to do.

We might as well go for a sparring session!"

If it was before, Lin Mo would have agreed to such a request without hesitation.

But now, there was a bit of a lump in his heart.

Naturally, he didn't have the same intention.

"There are still some matters to be dealt with later.

Next time, Brother Chen Wang we will definitely next time.

It seems that the Master's side is looking for me with something.

Excuse me!"

After exchanging a greeting, Lin Mo directly turned around and left.

As for behind him, King Xie Chen looked at the former's back, and the warm smile on his face suddenly disappeared into thin air.

In its place was a faint feeling of indifference.

There were no words here.

When the banquet was about to break up, a group of unexpected guests arrived.

When Elder Bai saw the person at the head of the group, his smile, which was originally joyful, was suddenly withdrawn.

And when this group of people just stepped into the meeting room.

There was a flash of imaginary shadow directly in front of them.

Uncle Shou had already appeared opposite them.

With an icy tone, Shou Bo scolded with an unkind face.

“What are you doing here. You are not welcome in the Bai Family!”

Hearing such words, the man at the head of the group did not care in the slightest.

“Uncle Shou, you are afraid that you are old and confused.

I am the master of the White House, how dare you, a servant, stop me?

Get out of my way.”

Faced with such vicious words.

Cao An’s face turned black.

Just as he was about to step forward, Lin Mo beside him pulled him back and shook his head immediately afterwards.

Indicating that he should not be impulsive first.

And Shou Bo remained unmoved, only quietly stopping White-Faced Lang’s way.

Seeing this, White-faced Lang just shrugged his shoulders.

Then he turned his gaze to Old Master Bai.

“Eldest uncle, our family style is not working.

You don’t care about it either, so if you’re not capable enough, step aside.

Old and immortal is for

When he ‘thief’ had not even uttered the word.

Suddenly he became aware of a murderous aura that lunged towards him.

Subconsciously white-faced Lang directly side-stepped away.

A cold light then flashed sideways past his eyebrows.

And by the time the eyes of the crowd looked to gather here.

Only to see a silver fork, half of his body has already gone into the wall.

Before White-faced Lang could turn around.

The figure flashed past and came towards him head-on.

Chapter 2299

“Lin Mo!”

Accompanied by a soft shout from Elder Bai.

Only then did Lin Mo pause his body.

And beneath his calm gaze, a murderous intent rolled out.

“You shouldn’t have come back after you had even been expelled from the Bai Family.”

With his hands behind his back, Elder Bai, slowly stepped up to Lin Mo’s side.

For his part, White-faced Lang replied with a mocking, disdainful face.

“Eldest uncle, you too have forgotten what happened back then.

You have forgotten that you have a younger brother, but I will never forget that I still have a father.

You owe me a debt to both of us, father and son.

I will get it back from your beloved pupil one by one.”

As the words fell from his lips.

The entire audience of guests also began to exchange whispers.

“I heard that Elder Bai, back then, killed his own brother because of his own recklessness.

So this is, it’s true!”

“Nonsense, look at the status of the Bai family today, how could this old man be reckless.”

“Who knows, maybe he was just afraid of his brother taking power and did it on purpose.”

“You’re tired of living, how dare you say that.

If the old man hears you, you’ll be dead.”

“How dare you do it and still dare not let anyone say it?”

Guided by the words of a few people with ulterior motives.

Others also began to speculate in their own way.

And in the midst of the crowd, as several gazes passed secret signals to each other.

Even more, they began to make unscrupulous rumours, and those words naturally became more and more unpleasant.

“Especially that Bai Ruorong, I heard she’s still a mistress.

And this Lin Mo is so favoured by the old man.

A large part of the reason is because of this woman as well.”

However, as he spoke, he suddenly noticed that the atmosphere had suddenly become wrong.

The few people who had been listening to him with great interest suddenly distanced themselves from him and dodged further and further away.

And when the man turned around.

The old master was looking at this man with an icy face.

“Master I’ll do it!”

Seeing Lin Mo walking slowly towards himself in a murderous manner.

This rumour monger, too, was frightened and kept retreating backwards.

All the way until his body, after pressing against the wall.

Only then did he stabilize himself.

“Is this how the Bai family bully others?”

Do you dare to do it yourself and still not dare to let people talk about it?”

These words were merely his way of emboldening himself.

At this moment, the other guests also suddenly realised that the situation was not right.

Some of them seemed to have gone a little too far in their arrogance.

It seemed that they had no respect for the Bai family.

As for Lin Mo, after getting close to the other party.

There were no words spoken.

He just smiled slightly before he directly probed out his right hand and grabbed the other party’s neck, lifting him up into midair.

“Your Bai family is surprisingly so lawless.

You still want to kill someone in front of a large crowd.”

Hearing the voice within the crowd, it suddenly rose.

Lin Mo slowly twisted his head.

“Don’t be in a hurry, you’re next.”

And when the crowd saw this action, they frowned slightly.

In any case, this disciple of Elder Bai seemed to have gone a little too far.

“Lin Mo should not be counted, we are all people of Kyoto, we are not seeing each other with our heads down.

Besides, we are all guests here, have you considered what future generations will say about the Bai family when you act like this.”

In the face of this questioning.

Lin Mo was already unmoved, and only asked indifferently.

“You’re from the Xie family, aren’t you?”

Being asked by him like this.

A hint of panic suddenly flashed across the face of this person who had made the accusation.

Only it was quickly covered up by him.

“Yes, I am a member of the Xie family.

What, do you still want to touch me?

You are so young and so impulsive, and you don’t care about the consequences.

Is a person like you worthy of being a Medical Saint?”

When he finished.

With the people of the Xie family leading the way.

Those who had already planned to calm down the troublemakers and rumour-mongers began to follow suit again.

Their words were nothing more than accusations of Lin Mo and acting viciously.

Chapter 2300

Under the accusations and stares of the crowd.

The rumour-monger, who was held up in mid-air, was already blue in the face, while his eyes were gradually losing their concentration.

Seeing this scene, Shou Bo couldn’t help but ask worriedly.

“Master, if this goes on, will there be any fatalities?”

This was, after all, a celebration banquet held at the Bai Family, and Lin Mo was even a disciple of Elder Bai.

If someone was killed in public because of an impulse.

That would have a huge impact.

Bai Lao, who was in the complete opposite mood to Shou Bo, waved his hand indifferently.

“It’s alright, it’s alright. I trust Lin Mo.

This kid won’t be that uncontrollable in his actions?”

“But

Although Uncle Shou wanted to persuade some more.

But seeing that the old man was resolute, he simply stopped talking and waited for the development with a worried look on his face.

As the central figure in the situation.

Lin Mo naturally did not have a desire to kill.

It was obviously not worth trading his reputation and the reputation of the Bai family for this man's life.

Just as the rumour-monger's life was in danger.

He saw Lin Mo pull out a small porcelain item from his pocket with one hand.

After his thumb topped off the bottle stopper, a small brown pill rolled directly into this person's mouth.

It was at this time that Lin Mo let go of his arm.

When the rumour monger landed on the ground.

Under the strong desire to survive.

He breathed heavily and violently.

As for the pills in his mouth, they were naturally swallowed down by himself in the process.

"You bd, what did you give me to eat?"

After calming down, the rumour monger spoke with anger in his eyes.

At the same time, his fingers scrambled into his mouth, as if to vomit out the elixir he had just swallowed.

But it was all just a futile attempt.

Looking at the other party's appearance.

Lin Mo also took a step back, crossed his arms in front of his chest, and spoke with a calm tone.

"Eaten what? Er, I don't know if you've heard of this place, the Heavenly Manifestation Palace.

This kind of elixir, and their unique secret technique, exist in a different way.

How about it, is it a surprise, is it a pleasure?"

From the moment these people opened their mouths.

Lin Mo had noticed the anomaly in the midst.

Within the confines of this Kyoto, those who had grievances against the Bai family must have existed.

After all, although the Bai family kept a low profile, the industries under their name were not small.

Naturally, there were those who competed with its interests.

But those who dared to mock the Bai family to their faces must have been directed by someone behind the scenes.

As expected, when this person heard about the Heavenly Manifestation Palace, he instantly panicked.

After seeing his hands pull out the pills, it was only a futile act.

This person's face then suddenly went crazy.

With his eyes squinting, he then stood up violently and without hesitation, he stretched his head and charged towards the pillar.

"Trying to knock yourself out? It's already too late."

After saying that, Lin Mo smiled disdainfully.

Between lightning and fire, he probed with his two fingers.

At this moment, the latter only felt a tingling pain in the side of his neck.

His entire body then went limp.

At the same time the consciousness also met with a blur.

He cried out in secret.

The rumour monger directly tightened his double forehead, clearly wanting to bite off his tongue.

"You are really loyal and persistent."

Noticing the other party's actions.

Lin Mo just shook his head helplessly.

He had been nudged by himself at the three Yang points on his hands and feet, and he still wanted to have the qi to bite his tongue off?

In the next moment, this rumour monger also discovered this problem.

It was not just his limbs that were limp, but the muscles of his entire body.

With nothing to do, he could only stare angrily at Lin Mo, his eyes filled with blood within them.

But this state did not last long.

His gaze then gradually began to lapse.

Seeing this, the rumour-mongers' accomplices also realised that the situation was not good.

However, just when they were about to force their hands.

Lin Mo suddenly turned around, still with that unperturbed smile.

"Today, whoever dares to make a move to stop me.

In the future, they will be immortal enemies!"

As his gaze swept across the room, the crowd subconsciously moved back, retreating a few steps.

It seemed that under his calm gaze, a terrifying demon was hidden.
