

Genius 2331

Chapter 2331

In the past, Zheng Jue and others understood this.

The wanton nonsense was not just pampered childishness, there was inevitably some self-loathing in it as well.

And once again, they were humiliated by Jiang Bao.

Now he, Zheng Ju, wanted to give it a try.

This young trainee instructor in front of him was his hope.

And at this moment, Lin Mo was just quietly looking at the child in front of him.

Although his gaze was tender, Lin Mo saw a trace of perseverance in it.

It wasn't quite hopeless.

"In the cla*s, do all the other students listen to you?"

Although he didn't know what Lin Mo's intentions were.

But Zheng Ju still nodded affirmatively.

"Except for Hu Yudie and a few other girls! The rest of the students, I will listen to me!"

"That's fine, I, Lin Mo, will naturally do as I say."

Before Lin Mo finished speaking, Zheng Ju suddenly fell to his knees.

"Please, Instructor Lin, help me.

I don't want to muddle through all day.

I don't want to be stepped on anymore, I want to become strong."

With that, he cried out directly, his eyes warped with full expectation.

This action was a little surprising to Lin Mo.

However, he still nodded his head and agreed.

"Tomorrow morning at six o'clock, gather here, and remember to call everyone in the cla*s to train together.

But if one person is late, the responsibility will be on your head again.

You know first hand that I don't go easy on you!"

As his words fell.

Zheng Jui didn't show the slightest bit of fear, but instead nodded his head with delight.

He then excitedly ran towards the outside of the cla*sroom.

However, before he could step out of the door room.

Lin Mo once again called out to him.

By the time Zheng Ju turned around, a black shadow smashed towards himself between them.

With the help of his body, he directly knocked it away.

The palm-sized wooden box was filled with a green ointment.

"Rub it on the injured parts after you've finished bathing."

Hearing Lin Mo say this, Zheng Jue instantly understood the purpose of this item, a medicine for external injuries.

"Thank you, Teacher Lin, see you in the morning!"

After saying that he turned and left.

It wasn't that Zheng Jui didn't want to go home and hire other martial artists.

It was just that those instructors who were hired by their parents were purely for the sake of money.

Because of their own qualifications, even when these martial artists taught, they did so perfunctorily.

And when it came to the Battle Hall side, the instructors simply ignored them.

The trainee instructors also looked down on them.

The only exception was Lin Mo.

Of course it would have been better if he had been a little lighter.

In situ, Lin Mo looked at Zheng Ju's departing back, Lin Mo continued to close his eyes and cultivate.

But a young man with a heart, a thorny Jedi can also enter.

Perhaps it was because of the other side, the resolute gaze, or the other side's unwilling heart.

Anyway, this time Lin Mo's wanted to mention this teenager with light in his eyes.

"I hope you won't let me down, it's my first time teaching a child!"

In the middle of the empty cla*sroom, only Lin Mo's soft murmuring voice remained.

Early morning.

Amidst the sound of a grumble.

Inside the teaching room, a group of sleepy-eyed teenagers mumbled and nibbled on the breakfast in their hands.

Feng Ke asked in a dazed voice.

“Boss Zheng, what’s the matter anyway?”

Waking us up so early in the morning.

It’s 12 o’clock in the middle of the night before we go to bed!”

As Zheng Ju’s loyal junior, Feng Ke didn’t dare to complain about anything though.

But the bout of sleepiness that hit him was really too much for him to resist.

As he spoke, he yawned over and over again.

And beside Feng Ke, several students who had been carried straight over were still whistling in their sleep.

Of course, Hu Yudie was not as good-natured as they were.

“Surnamed Zheng, waking me up so early in the morning.

If you don’t give a reasonable explanation.

Don’t think you’ll be able to get through today.”

Faced with his little brother’s question.

Zheng Jui first showed a hesitant look on his face.

And when in his mind, he remembered the humiliating feeling of being trampled on the ground yesterday.

His face also became resolute.

Chapter 2332

“I don’t want to keep getting beaten up, I want to fight off Jiang Bao’s dog teeth.”

“I’m just asking, are you guys willing to wrestle with me?”

If not, you can go back to your bedrooms and sleep now.”

As his words fell, the whole scene was silent.

The only movement was the silky purr.

“Boss Zheng, I support you.”

“I’m with you too!”

“Add me up!” .

The righteousness between teenagers was pure.

A call for a boss is righteousness.

“Che, boring!”

Looking at the group of boys’ fervent appearance.

Hu Yu Die habitually spat out to.

As the clock struck six o’clock.

The door to the cla*sroom was suddenly kicked open by Lin Mo.

“Yo, I didn’t expect all of you trash to be here, not bad.

First, let me introduce myself, I am Lin Mo.

You can call me Instructor Lin, and I will be in charge of training you for the next few days.”

“My way of teaching is very simple, that is to train to death.

If you don’t obey, you will be beaten!

Those who cheat, beat them up!

If you make me unhappy, you get beaten up again!”

When they heard such an odd rule, the crowd could not help but stare in disbelief.

They then turned their attention to their mastermind.

Seeing Zheng Ju secretly nodding his head.

The group of trainees instantly had an unsettling feeling.

As for Feng Ke, and seeing how arrogant Lin Mo was in his heart, he was naturally not happy.

He had been called trash time and time again, and his anger could not help but rise up.

But just as he was about to dislike him back.

The Zheng Jui beside him suddenly stopped him, then blinked and shook his head.

Previously, Zheng Jui had only treated Lin Mo as a hope for a rebirth.

But after experiencing, first hand, the trauma medicine Lin Mo had given him.

He was then completely convinced.

In just one night, his body, which was sore, had recovered most of its strength.

As for the bruises on the surface of his body, they had all dissipated.

The Zheng family has been a pharmacist for many generations, so they knew a little bit about medicine.

But this was the first time he had come across such a miraculous ointment for external injuries.

In addition, yesterday, Lin Mo had easily killed more than 20 of his own men.

In Zheng Jui's mind, he had already decided that Lin Mo was a master.

Of course it would have been better if this instructor Lin had spoken a little better.

Lin Mo's side.

Dragging a large plastic bucket, he came straight to the side of all the trainees.

"Just you rubbish, you deserve to eat such good food.

Come on, come on, throw it all into the bucket for me."

"You Bullying people too much!"

Putting down the food in his hands, Feng Ke stood up straight away.

Even if he couldn't beat Lin Mo, he was still going to rush up and fight for his life, this simply didn't treat them like human beings.

"Feng Ke!"

With a loud shout from Zheng Jui.

Feng Ke also stopped moving, and with a resigned gaze, looked at his boss.

"Boss Zheng, what's wrong with you?"

"If you guys, when I'm still the boss, just trust me for once.

Everyone, cooperate well with our Instructor Lin."

Until Zheng Ju finished speaking, the crowd lifted their feet this time.

One after another, they threw the delicious breakfast in their hands into the bin Lin Mo had brought with him.

Seeing this, Lin Mo also nodded in satisfaction.

It was true that the only thing that could suppress bear children was more bear children

"Don't be upset either, as an instructor I am naturally not that mean.

That's the breakfast I've carefully prepared for you all."

With that Lin Mo pointed, to the stainless steel barrel on top of the podium.

"Zheng Ju, you are in charge of distributing it.

One bowl per person, you have to supervise them they all have to drink it.

If they don't drink it, you have to pour it down even if you force it down."

And when Feng Ke saw the iron bucket, his face instantly changed.

"Aren't they, the feed buckets that feed the chickens at the back of the War Hall?"

For a moment, there was chaos in the teaching room.

Let them, the rich disciples, eat the food from the feed bucket, saying nothing was possible

Chapter 2333

It was three o'clock at sunrise.

A group of pale trainees followed Lin Mo to the riverside in good order.

Of course, all of them finished eating Lin Mo's "loving" breakfast.

Some were beaten up and then ate it on their own.

Some were beaten up and then poured down their throats by Lin Mo.

Even a few of the girls did not escape.

Therefore, the eyes of several young girls could be described as full of resentment.

Especially Hu Yudie, if she hadn't been unable to beat Lin Mo, she would have planned to give him a fat beating at this point.

"What's wrong with you guys, is this necessary?"

That's a precious medicinal meal that I've been boiling all night."

"Besides, I've washed that feed bucket several times.

I cleaned up all the chicken droppings on it.

Do you guys have to be like this?"

If Lin Mo had not mentioned this, the trainees would have been fine.

But with Lin Mo's description.

They suddenly had a picture in their minds.

Then they thought about that black "love" breakfast.

Their defences were instantly broken!

"Instructor, I can't help it!

Vomit!"

With a dry heave.

Zheng Jui fell onto the roadside and vomited continuously.

At this time, the scene became even more disgusting.

Then there was a beautiful sight, more than twenty cadets, neatly lying on the roadside, rising and falling.

“Go ahead, throw up.

I’ve prepared two portions of breakfast for you.”

With Lin Mo’s caring greeting, the cadets vomited even more.

They waited until the crowd was done, vomiting until they were almost deflated.

Only then did Lin Mo clap his hands.

“Alright, since you’re all done, let’s start today’s training.

No one jogs five kilometres along the riverside, see that big tree, run a round trip.”

“The time limit is forty-five minutes, and if you can’t finish.

I’ll throw you straight into the river for a swim.”

Hearing this, a crowd of trainees wailed.

Nowadays, their bodies were almost deflated, plus they hadn’t eaten breakfast.

How could they have the strength to run.

Of course, not everyone’s was of this opinion.

As Lin Mo’s words fell.

Without saying a word, Zheng Ju ran out directly.

When the other companions behind him saw this, they looked at the river and saw the bone-chilling water, and their bodies shivered.

If they swam in the river again in this season, it would really kill them.

Thinking of this, more and more people, followed Zheng Ju.

One of the few remaining pricks, Feng Ke, showed his face in indignation.

Glancing at, his young companions beside him, he softly egged them on.

“Brothers, Sister Xiaodie, let’s not move.

I don’t believe this instructor will really dare to throw us into the river.”

Just as he was speaking with great enthusiasm.

Several of his companions in front of him stepped back in a neat and tidy manner.

And frantically gave Feng Ke a signal.

Unfortunately, the latter did not grasp the meaning.

Still with a disdainful face, he said!

“What’s wrong with you guys? Not so much, being scared like this.

What a loser!”

And as the words fell from his lips, he suddenly felt a chill in his rear end.

A wave of unease then instantly surged through his mind.

When Feng Ke pretended to turn his head, he was looking at Lin Mo with a gloomy face.

“Hey hey, instructor you Hello!”

The next second, he felt a tightening of his collar.

Under the gaze of his companion.

Feng Ke was directly lifted by Lin Mo by his back collar, after cutting a perfect parabola in the air.

With a poof, he landed steadily in the middle of the big river.

Was this still a f*cking human being?

But when they thought of yesterday, the crowd was relieved.

Lin Mo could easily throw the burly Feng Ke nearly a hundred metres with one hand, so this was nothing.

“What’s the matter with you guys, do you want to accompany him to swim in the big river too?”

With Lin Mo’s expressionless questioning.

The few cadets who were terrified immediately flew out, the kind that didn’t even bring their heads back.

Seeing Lin Mo hit so hard, Hu Yu Die coldly snorted and also ran out along with him.

Chapter 2334

It was not that Lin Mo was deliberately torturing these children.

But at over fifteen years old, they had already missed the prime age for martial arts training.

In addition, their martial arts talent was already poor.

They wanted to catch up with their peers.

The only way to catch up with their peers was to use unconventional methods like this.

Like raw iron, the only way to forge it into a good piece of steel is to squeeze it to the limit.

The only way to forge it into a good piece of steel is to squeeze it to the limit, to remove the impurities from its body.

And only then can the subsequent body-hardening medicinal liquid be carried out.

Although such a practice is injurious to the body.

But with the presence of Medical Saint Lin.

It was not a big problem.

On the other side, Feng Ke, who had been left in the middle of the river, was struggling desperately.

Although he could swim.

But after his clothes had absorbed water, they became unusually heavy.

In addition, the river water was cold and biting in late autumn.

Feng Ke's face instantly turned white.

"I'll give you thirty minutes.

If you can't swim back, I won't care about you."

"By the way, I forgot to mention that there are many undercurrents in this river.

If you're lucky and get sucked in.

I'll just have to report your death."

After saying that, Lin Mo raised his watch and started counting down to himself.

These words and actions scared Feng Ke into instant panic.

From the moment he met this instructor Lin.

He had always done what he said he would do.

Under such circumstances, he would not dare to bet his life against Lin Mo.

Thinking of this, he paddled hard and pulled his splash.

However, as his clothes and trousers were already soaked through the river water.

Every time Feng Ke paddled the splash, it was as if someone was dragging behind him.

Moreover, the river seemed calm.

But the seemingly faint microwaves had a huge force.

This situation added to Feng Ke's burden.

Under the heavy factors, this distance of less than a hundred metres was indeed that long.

On the other side.

The group of trainees who were running, likewise had a hard time.

Lack of physical fitness, coupled with a lack of exercise.

Most of them were already out of breath before they had run half the distance.

Their feet were also tired and weak.

“Zheng Boss Zheng, I... I I can’t.”

“Really, really run Can’t run anymore.”

Several of his companions huffed and puffed, wearing ragged breaths, and said tiredly.

Although Zheng Jui was slightly better than them.

But at this time, he himself was also tired.

“Come on, hang on a little longer.

If you don’t want to be like Feng Ke, just grit your teeth and hold on.”

Following his words.

The crowd of trainees also looked towards the river.

Looking at Feng Ke desperately swimming three steps, and then being set back two steps by the waves, and not of having to choke on a few mouthfuls of river water.

The crowd shivered in fear straight away.

Compared to this miserable Feng Ke.

They were obviously much better off.

“There are still 20 minutes left, at this rate you guys are going.

Just give me all dumplings later.”

As Lin Mo let out a yell.

The hearts of the crowd were once again shocked.

Most of the time had already pa*sed, and they had only run halfway.

This was a desperate rhythm.

Led by Zheng Jue, the group of children began to accelerate with all their strength.

As the destination got closer and closer, the group’s consciousness gradually began to blur.

The hands, which were constantly waving, were slowly losing consciousness.

They were holding back their dry, burning throats and burning lungs.

They were already running completely on their own will.

As for Feng Ke’s side.

At this point, he no longer felt like his body was his own.

But glancing at Lin Mo who was full of ice and cold.
He could only keep swimming forward with deadly force.
Only the swing of his arms was getting smaller and smaller.
All the way to a distance of less than a metre from the river.
He had finally lost all his strength.
D*mn it, he was so close.
With this thought, his mind became increasingly fuzzy.
With his last ounce of strength, he slowly raised his arm.
But before he could drop it, he felt himself start to sink down involuntarily.

Chapter 2335

On the shore.
All of Lin Mo's words were purely for the purpose of stimulating the potential of the trainees.
Naturally, he was constantly observing the situation of the crowd.
Seeing that Feng Ke had done his best, he immediately made his move.
As he reached out, he dragged Feng Ke's entire body up from the water.
After pulling him down onto the shore.
Lin Mo quickly squatted down, then pressed his palm on the latter's chest again.
With a gentle push.
Feng Ke's belly was full of river water, which directly gushed out.
After checking the other party's body condition, he saw that he was not seriously ill.
Only then did Lin Mo take out a body warming pill, and after swinging Feng Ke's mouth open, he directly stuffed it in.
Shortly afterwards, the other running cadets, too, returned to the original spot.
"Instructor, we're back!"
Stumbling underneath, Zheng Ju reported with a ragged breath.
Lin Mo took a brief glance and saw that the entire group had reached.
He also nodded in satisfaction.
"Not bad, all of them pa*sed."

It took 32 minutes, very good!”

When he finished speaking.

The cadets, at once, had their faces crossed.

“Instructor, I hate you.”

After realising that they had been cheated, all of these cadets, one by one, collapsed on top of the ground.

At this moment, even their strength to wail had disappeared.

According to the time quoted by Lin Mo, the first half of the journey took 25 minutes, how could the second half only take seven minutes.

Zheng Jui was lying on his back.

At this moment, he looked at the blue sky and white clouds in front of him, and a strong sense of achievement inexplicably welled up in his heart.

It turned out that he could also do so well.

It turned out that he was not so useless.

But just when they were satisfied with their self-gratification.

Lin Mo walked over.

“You have one minute to spare.

After one minute, depart back to the teaching room.

Those who fall out of line, come back for another run in the afternoon!”

Hearing the first half of the sentence, the trainees were still wailing in their hearts.

But after hearing the second half of the sentence, everyone instantly had a jolt.

With their lives on the line, and with the help of each other, everyone immediately shivered and stood up.

Even Feng Ke was held up by Zheng Jiu with one hand on his shoulder.

Then they followed the demon instructor and walked with difficulty towards the teaching room step by step.

After the long run.

Naturally, Lin Mo would not let them lie down directly.

Otherwise, tomorrow, their muscles would be sore and they would not be able to get out of bed.

On the way back, naturally, they also met many of the very trainees of the Battle Hall.

Feng Ke and the others who were all lowering their heads and dodging away in the future.

This time, they finally lifted their heads.

Although they were already exhausted.

But everyone still, straightened their backs and brushed past the group of precisely cadets.

When when when Zheng Jui led everyone back to the cla*sroom.

Lin Mo was already waiting here.

On top of the podium, there was still the silver and white feed bucket.

Seeing this, Feng Ke wailed in pain.

“Instructor, just let us go.

If we eat any more of this stuff, we’ll really be dead.”

The others naturally echoed and rose to the occasion.

Lin Mo smiled lightly and replied.

“What are you thinking, it’s just a new one I had the War Hall Logistics Department receive.

The usual rules, Zheng Ju is responsible for distributing and supervising.

One bowl per person!”

At this time, the crowd could only watch with bated breath as Zheng Jui walked up to the front.

But just as everyone was desperate.

The lid of the feed bucket was also lifted by Zheng Jui.

In an instant, a strong fragrance wafted out.

Feng could not help but gulp as he huffed and puffed.

The others’ stomachs couldn’t help but start rumbling.

“Could it be that I am so hungry that I am hallucinating?”

With such doubts.

Feng Ke walked over.

And when he saw the tempting medicinal white porridge, he immediately said.

“Boss Zheng, give me a bowl first, I’m starving to death.”

When he finished speaking.

The others also sensed that something was wrong.

One by one, they followed, and after seeing the food inside the bucket, it wasn't the dark cuisine from before.

The crowd started grabbing it.

"I'll go first, I'll go first."

"Don't cut in line, one by one."

In a flash, the teaching room was then continuously thinking about the sound of bared and bared food.

Chapter 2336

As Zheng Ju drank the bowl of rice porridge, a large bowl full of rice porridge was filled.

A warm stream suddenly sprang up in his dantian, and then surged to his body's limbs.

And under the pain of these warm currents, the muscles that were originally exhausted and sore were slowly relieved.

With a surprised look.

Zheng Ju then realised that he was not the only one who felt this way.

All the companions in the entire teaching room were all looking like they were enjoying themselves.

"It seems that this rice porridge is not just delicious.

Its effects are also extraordinary."

After lamenting, he walked towards this amazing trainee coach.

However, before he could get close.

Lin Mo backed up sharply.

"You're stinking to death if you care about me farther."

The exhausted trainees hadn't noticed this before.

But with such a reminder from Lin Mo.

The crowd subconsciously huffed their noses.

The strong smell of sweat coupled with a pungent stench made people gag

Especially those few girls who usually smelled beautiful.

They lifted their arms and sniffed, and their faces instantly heated up.

They then held their red cheeks and disappeared into the area.

Feng Ke immediately followed and stood up.

“I can’t, I can’t take it anymore, I have to go back to my dormitory to take a shower.”

Just as he was about to rush out of the cla*sroom.

Suddenly, he stopped in his tracks.

Then with a pleading gaze, he looked at Lin Mo.

Only after seeing the latter nod did he dart away.

In a flash, the crowd of flyers did a bird scatter and instantly disappeared into thin air.

The smell was too topsy-turvy.

As for the original spot, only Zheng Ju and Lin Mo were left.

“Instructor Lin, then I’ll go back to the bath first as well.

Thank you for the instructor’s ointment as well as this medicinal meal.”

He waved his hand, while Lin Mo replied with disinterest.

“What is there to thank you for, when you go home, remember to settle the cost of these herbs.

I won’t charge you for the handling fee.”

With that, Lin Mo waved the bill in his hand.

Zheng Ju: “.....”

Am I thankful for a lonely?

Of course for this instructor Lin, unusual words and actions, Zheng Jui could do nothing but leave with a face full of bitter smiles.

Lin Mo, who was left yawning, laid down slowly on the training equipment.

He had stayed up late last night to make medicine for such a bear.

One for expelling the magazines from their bodies and one for healing their bodies.

Because of their qualifications, Lin Mo had specially selected herbs with stronger medicinal properties.

Although the price was naturally much more expensive, but the effect was surprising.

Especially for their physique, their first dose would have a very obvious improvement.

And for these twenty or so bear children, he was busy until almost dawn before he finished.

Zhengju’s side.

After returning to the dormitory, the group began to frantically wash their bodies.

After four or five scrubs of soap.

The pungent stench only gradually dissipated.

With his red skin, Zheng Jiu walked out of the bathroom.

“Do you guys feel anything, your bodies are not so sore anymore?”

As his words fell.

The other companions in the room, too, washed their feelings.

“Really! Although I feel very tired, compared to before, that soreness has been reduced by a large margin.”

“Me too, me too, my body feels so much lighter.”

And Feng Ke, who was in the corner, habitually picked up the grip strength device on the table.

And as he closed his five fingers, the originally extremely laborious grip.

He used only half of his strength to squeeze it tightly together.

After feeling this change, Feng Ke could not help but exclaim.

“Have you all, too, become much stronger?”

After trying it again and again, everyone looked at each other.

Zheng Ju’s eyes were even more blazing.

Who would say that youngsters do not want to be ambitious?

They had never had the chance before, but now they wanted to reach out and touch the sky of this martial art.

Chapter 2337

The changes in his body were felt.

Zheng Jiu couldn’t help but sigh.

“This new instructor is truly a god!”

While marvelling, they became even more convinced of Lin Mo.

The sound of heckling eventually woke up Lin Mo who was catching up on his sleep.

By the time he opened his eyes again.

Inside the teaching room, all the trainees had arrived.

“Instructor, we’ve finished packing up!”

At this moment, Lin Mo’s realised that the change in their mental outlook could be described as a sea change.

In those pairs of tender eyes.

There was longing, there was yearning, there was perseverance, there was resignation, and of course, there was naturally also fatigue.

Girls like Hu Yudie, after washing, were also amazed to find that.

Their own skin was not only silkier, but also smoother.

Even the small freckles on their faces, as well as the disturbing pimples, had also dissipated.

Now they wanted to look at Lin Mo with a gaze that was hotter than diamond jewellery.

At this moment, Lin Mo also understood.

His mission at the Coming to War Hall had been accomplished.

And outside the room.

Listening to the cla*sroom, the noisy voices.

Vice President Niu frowned.

He didn't expect that he had gone out for just over a month, but some of the cla*sses as well as the self-instructors had already let loose.

When he pushed the teachers aside, he saw that Lin Mo, who was wearing a mask, was half lying down.

Vice President Niu's face became even more gloomy.

"It's you again?"

First, he broke the rules of the Battle Hall, and now the students were being run amok by it.

What was even more abominable was to sleep during the teaching period.

Trainee instructors were really becoming more and more unruly now.

With this in mind, the Vice President, walked into the cla*sroom with confidence.

Seeing the most stressed and ancient Vice Dean of the entire Battle Hall.

All the trainees were frightened and immediately quieted down, standing in a row in a good manner.

"This instructor, I just fought and saw that you have a good hand.

How about rewarding me with a few rounds with my face when your skills are itching?"

Across the table, Lin Mo saw this look on his face, it was clearly not like he wanted to spar.

It was more like he wanted to teach himself a lesson.

At this moment, Lin Mo was also wondering in his heart, he didn't seem to have offended this Vice President, right?

However, at this time, it was no longer for him to ponder.

That Vice Dean Niu, didn't even wait for him to reply.

“Little fellows, more distance, it’s not good to hurt you by mistake!”

After waiting for all the trainees, to move away from Lin Mo.

The Vice Dean’s stances came together and met him head on.

Just by looking at the opponent’s starting stance.

Lin Mo knew that this Vice President specialized in Misty Fist.

In an instant, countless fist shadows intertwined.

In just a few breaths, the two sides had already exchanged dozens of rounds.

At this moment, the Vice President was also secretly shocked, he did not expect this trainee instructor to have such skills.

He had never thought that this trainee instructor would be so skilled. He had taken so much effort to teach a young man.

The Vice President felt a little embarrassed.

After glancing at the surrounding trainees, he decided not to delay any longer.

He decided not to delay any longer.

Misty Tracer Fist, Misty Tracer Cloud Searching Fist.

The opponent’s stance suddenly changed.

Lin Mo raised his right fist and met his fist blade head-on.

At this moment, waves of Qi suddenly rose up.

The invisible force pushed the surrounding spectators out of the battle by a distance of several feet.

As for the two opposing sides, after the blow, each retreated.

Before Lin Mo was about to stabilise himself, he deliberately took a few more steps backwards before stopping his body and clasping his fist.

“Many thanks, Dean for being merciful.”

For Lin Mo’s little tricks.

Vice President Niu, with a single glance, saw through it.

“Hmph, young and young not learning.

Mind your status, next time I catch you sleeping during teaching.

The consequences will be your own.”

After saying that, he put his hands behind his back and turned to leave.

What could not be noticed was the hint of a smug smile on his face.

When the other party left, Lin Mo also secretly sighed in relief.

I didn't expect that this Battle Hall's Vice President would be so difficult to deal with.

Moreover, looking at the other party's actions, it seemed that he had a big problem with himself.

Shaking off his numb arms, Lin Mo looked towards the group of shocked cadets.

"Come on, don't be dumbfounded.

Seize the time, cultivate hard and you can become so strong in the future."

Chapter 2338

As far as Lin Mo was concerned, they had only seen the way he and the vice-principal had been shocked by their confrontation.

But even though he had finished.

All the trainees had gathered their eyes on him.

Dumbfounded, surprised, puzzled, and so on, burst out instantly.

Looking at this look on their faces, Lin Mo was also puzzled.

"What's wrong, what are you all looking at me like that for?"

Only his question did not receive a positive return.

"Instructor, I didn't expect you to look so handsome?"

"Have you guys noticed that Instructor Lin looks a lot like a person."

When one of them mentioned this.

The crowd immediately made a dawning expression of realization.

"Medical Sage Lin?"

Instantly, the entire scene rose in an uproar.

Hearing their chatter, Lin Mo immediately felt bad.

And as he raised his hand, he touched his cheek.

The mask that had been half covering his face had all but shattered.

The thought was that it was also the aftermath of the clash with the old man just now.

"Doctor Lin, is that really you?"

Seeing that his identity had been revealed, Lin Mo could only nod his head and admit it.

"Wow, it's amazing, I've actually met with my idol."

“Really eh, it’s alive!”

One of the trainees, who couldn’t help but go forward, poked Lin Mo with his finger.

And then shrank back in excitement.

The situation had developed to this point, and Lin Mo’s was no longer covered up.

“Alright, everyone’s should calm down.

If there was only one of the Chinese medicine’s.

Then it should be mine.”

When he admitted it himself.

The scene also became more boisterous.

All sorts of strange questions came one after another.

Under Lin Mo’s patient answers.

It was not until the afternoon that everyone calmed down a little.

Only a few of the girls were still hot-eyed.

Just like that, after Lin Mo’s true identity was revealed, all the bear kids became more cooperative as well.

In the latter few days, Cla*s 3, the trashiest cla*s in the Battle Hall, then trained under Lin Mo’s arrangement, wailing every day.

Their physical skills, of course, were also improving rapidly day by day.

It was early this morning.

As usual, Zheng Jui led all the students to the cla*sroom together.

However, the moment they entered the door.

In the empty teaching room, an envelope appeared silently.

On top of the envelope were the words ‘Resignation’ in plain sight.

When they saw this, a sense of unease surged in everyone’s heart.

Hu Yudie even pushed her way through the crowd and opened it up.

After a quick glance, she immediately turned around and rushed towards the outside of the cla*sroom.

Waiting for the others, she picked up the letter that had been dropped on the table.

Then they found it already listed, with the training methods, and the detailed recipes for the two body-forging medicinal meals.

“You have awakened, and my trip to the Hall of War is considered a success.

An even more glorious future awaits you on the martial path.

I hope we can still meet at the top, cheers!”

When Zheng Ju finished reading it, he silently put down the letter.

“Instructor, it’s already left the Hall of War!”

The parting came so unexpectedly that it was hard to react and accept for a while.

And within the teaching at that moment, all the bear children were silent.

Only a few soft sobs lingered in their ears.

Beyond the war hall, the mountains were stacked.

At the top of the mountain peak, a young silhouette stood silently on top of a tree branch.

In the distance, above the empty road, a car slowly drives away.

Facing the sunrise that was just peeking out, it disappeared into the sky.

“Goodbye at the top?”

In situ, Hu Yu Die murmured silently to.

And in his mind, various memories kept coming back.

Perhaps the clearest image among them was the back figure that blocked the debris for him.

And on top of that car, Lin Mo, who was sitting in the back seat, inexplicably glanced backwards.

At this moment, he seemed to see a human figure on top of the mountain behind him.

Only before he could take a closer look, the car had already turned the corner.

Chapter 2339

Rushing back to the centre of Kyoto.

The first thing Lin Mo did was to arrive at Elder Bai’s side.

“Master, is there something important to summon me back in such a hurry?”

There was no nonsense from the old master on the other side, and he directly handed Lin Mo a document with the seal of the Martial Union on it.

“A Hall Master transfer order?”

Lin Mo’s expression was also startled after he took out the document.

He had not yet participated in the Martial Union’s replacement event, so how had he been given a position in advance.

On the Tai Shi Chair.

Elder Bai explained in due course.

“This should be the Martial Union’s reward for your outstanding performance on top of the, Medical Saint Competition.

As for the Martial Union’s renewal event, if you have excellent results.

There should be other rewards as well.”

At this moment, Lin Mo was still frowning.

“Master, the six southern realm provinces are Master Xue Wu’s territory.

This suddenly drops me to Guang Province

When he said this, he stopped speaking.

The Martial Alliance’s appointment transfer order had placed him in the position of Hall Master in Guang Province.

Wasn’t this an obvious attempt to intensify the conflict between him and the Fifth Master!

Master Bai naturally understood what he meant.

Tapping on the table, he spoke seriously.

“This should be someone secretly stirring up the situation.

Perhaps it’s a desire to slow you down.

Or perhaps, as you have said, they want to push you completely against the Southern Realm King.

Of course the possibility of the Martial Alliance wanting to push you out to break the situation is not out of the question.”

“Nowadays, the fog of this big game is too thick, and I can’t quite see it clearly.”

Although the old master was also a senior member of the Martial Union.

However, over the years, due to health reasons, and the fact that the Bai family was already acting in a low profile.

The only major force within the Martial Alliance was the Ji family, which had its roots in the War Hall.

Although the Bai family is powerful, the intelligence within the Martial Union has fallen behind.

After listening to the old man’s explanation, Lin Mo also fell into deep thought for a while.

Nowadays, the situation was already becoming chaotic.

It was highly likely that those behind the curtain did not dare to make a move in Kyoto anymore.

Instead, they would mobilise themselves to achieve those unspeakable things.

At this point in his thoughts, Lin Mo knew that he had no intention of thinking too much.

After collecting the transfer order, he said goodbye to Elder Bai.

“Master, since this is an arrangement from the Martial Alliance, I must also go to my post as soon as possible.”

Elder Bai nodded and then instructed.

“On this trip, you still need to take care of your safety.

Although it is said that you are now, the new Medical Saint of China.

Even if the forces in the country have an enmity with you, they wouldn’t dare to go too far.”

“But nowadays, there are more than just those forces within our country of China.”

When he said this, the old master’s gaze suddenly flinched as a gust of solemnity lingered around his body.

“I understand, Master, take care of your health.”

After saying this Lin Mo arched his hands and clasped his fist.

Lin Mo had also secretly kept an eye on the meaning within the old master’s words.

The change of the Martial Alliance was about to begin.

The forces of various countries were flocking to China.

This made the situation, which was already tense, even more chaotic.

Among them, the one who was the most hostile to him, and also the one who wanted to kill Lin Mo the most, was the Japanese country.

With Lin Mo’s sudden departure from Kyoto.

Intelligence from all sides quickly surged.

“My Lord, Lin Mo has already left Kyoto.

We just don’t know his purpose yet.”

When his subordinate, Viper, hurriedly arrived at Konaka to report the news.

White-faced Lang was primping various chemical instruments.

When he heard the information brought by his men.

The movement of his hands suddenly stopped.

“Leaving Kyoto?”

After muttering a sentence to himself, he turned and spun back around.

“On Lin Mo’s side, don’t bother with it for now.

He has too much attention these days, just wait and see.”

“By the way, bring this news to King Haidong.”

Seeing A-viper’s puzzled face.

White-faced Lang added.

“Right now, our clan is riding under this big tree of his.

You should still have the right attitude.

Go on!”

Waiting for his men to leave the direct call.

Only then did White-faced Lang put the syringe in his hand and hit it on his arm.

And the liquid that spilled out from the side landed on the ground.

A large patch of grass instantly withered at his feet.

Chapter 2340

Although it is only a temporary return to the Canton Province to fulfil the Martial Union’s resignation order.

But there is inevitably a sense of homecoming in it.

Unlike back then, when he sneaked into Kyoto.

Nowadays, the journey back to Guang Province is generally smooth sailing, although some rats are secretly watching.

Arriving in Guang Province.

The first thing Lin Mo did was to summon the rat.

This man had been involved in society for many years, travelling between black and white.

Naturally, he knew quite a lot of information.

“Mr. Lin, why did you suddenly come back?

Why didn’t you tell us in advance, so that we could give you a welcome.”

Facing the enthusiastic old hands.

After Lin Mo politely said a few words, he turned the topic to the business.

“Right, how much do you guys know about the Martial Union’s hall in Guang Province?”

Having been out of contact with the Martial Alliance before, Lin Mo also knew very little about this type of intelligence.

Hearing this question, Mouse stood up instead.

“General Lin, forgive me for talking too much.

Our branch of the Martial Alliance in Guang Province, apart from a few old men.

The others are all Master Xue Wu’s people.”

He was also worried about Lin Mo.

After all, the six southern provinces were the domain of the Fifth Master Xue.

If Lin Mo wanted to board a hand with such a big man.

It was obviously a bit reckless.

“On Master Xue Wu’s side, don’t worry.”

Seeing Lin Mo’s insistence.

Rat simply didn’t dwell on it.

“The Martial Union Hall of Canton Province.

One part old people, two parts Song family then, the rest will be all Master Xue Wu’s people.

Which those old people, with the Song family, basically do not care about things.”

“The point is that they have no real power at all.

If not, because of Madam Xue’s relationship.

These three points of people, would have been sidelined long ago.”

Hearing this, Lin Mo also understood in general.

It was just that the Fifth Master Xue had already overruled the world.

However, this situation was a bit difficult for Lin Mo.

Honestly, if not for necessity, he did not want to be on the opposite side of the Fifth Master.

There was no major feud or grudge between the two sides.

“All right, I understand the general situation.”

And as the rat was about to leave, he suddenly remembered one more thing.

“By the way, on General Lin’s side of Canton Province, many strangers have come recently.”

A lot of strangers?

This news instantly caught Lin Mo’s attention.

“Hmm? Do you know the identity of the other party?”

Mouse, first pondered for a moment.

Then shook his head.

“I’m not sure about the details of their identities.

Two of the parties, there are quite a lot of experts and I don’t dare to pry at close range.

The only one that is clear is that group of monkeys from the Japanese country.”

“However, the other two parties have an extraordinary aura.

They should be from no small number.”

The Japanese have followed them here too?

It seemed that it was really as Elder Bai had said.

This group of people were really unscrupulous.

Of course what really got Lin Mo’s attention was the group of strangers.

The Southern Realm was originally a barren land, and this group of people’s sudden visit must have been intended for something.

“Alright, during this period of time, you should stop gathering news.

Pay attention to your own safety.”

With that said Lin Mo walked out of the hotel.

Only just as he reached the door.

A custom-made Grand Prix stopped in front of him.

“Greetings, Mr. Doctor Saint.

Our master has invited you to have a cup of tea.

I wonder if you, sir, would be so kind as to move?”

After the car door opened, the middle-aged tuxedoed man who stepped down invited courteously.

It seemed that some people were really keeping an eye on him all the time.

Thinking about this, Lin Mo casually asked.

“Dare I ask your family head, your surname!”

The butler-like man on the opposite side of the room had already opened the back door of the car himself at this time.

After turning his head, he spat out a word with a standard smile.

“Song!”

Learning the other party’s identity, Lin Mo raised his eyebrows.

He didn't expect that he had only just arrived in Guang Province.

This Song family, one of the ten largest families, had already approached him.

"Please!"

After nodding his head in agreement, Lin Mo got into the car.
