

Genius 2691

Chapter 2691

The first thing the prince did after receiving the reply from Ding Li's side was to gather all the news about the Yung Lee.

"Big brother has the results, the Yung Li is one of the ten giant ships of Da Qu, but it travels on the high seas all year round."

"Which side of the power does the ship belong to?"

The prince flipped through the information to confirm it, before replying.

"It belongs to the Kong family and is mainly used as a casino, and every three years it will hold a public bet on the high seas.

There are no restrictions on participants, and as long as you can produce the appropriate amount of gambling money as collateral, you can exchange it for a ticket to board the ship."

Lin Mo faintly stared.

"It's just gambling money, it needs to be held so grandly? And once every three years?"

For someone like him, who had no interest in gambling, it was really difficult to understand such an event.

"Of course not, according to the intelligence, the main purpose of all those who board the ship is not to win money.

Rather, it is to take the prize set up by the Kong Family, the Mysterious Black Box!"

"As long as those who attend this event and win the most money that night, they will be able to win this mysterious black box.

However, what exactly is inside this black box is still unclear, and requires further investigation."

Lin Mo stared at the information in his hand with a puzzled expression.

The Kong family had been able to rake in hundreds of billions of dollars every session with this event, so that side indicated that the number of people participating in this huge bet must be quite large.

"Even with so many people participating, the news is still locked up, which means that this item is extremely precious to all those who know about it, that's interesting!"

The fact that hundreds of tycoons were vying for the object instantly made Lin Mo interested.

"There is no rush at this point, we will know when we go to the scene."

Lin Mo put down the document and got up to rise a lazy back.

"Come on, let's go back to the hotel, I'm exhausted from these few days!"

Even an iron body couldn't survive a few days in a row of non-stop consultations.

"You guys keep an eye on the medical school, if there's anything you can't handle, feel free to contact me!"

After Lin Mo gave an explanation to several old Chinese doctors and a group of apprentices, he walked to the hotel with the Prince.

As soon as he entered the door, Lin Mo saw the hotel owner winking at him, and then nudged his mouth to the side.

Lin Mo looked in the direction the boss pointed and saw the green shadow on the sofa with his cheeks puffed out.

These days, Lin Mo had been busy with the medical school, so Lin Mo could only put her in the hotel, with the boss and the Prince's men helping to look after her, and now she looked like she was obviously unhappy.

Lin Mo smiled heartily and slowly arrived in front of her.

"Little Green Shadow ah, what's wrong this is who has made you unhappy?"

"Humph!"

Green Shadow didn't pay any attention to him, and just angrily turned her head to the side.

Stinky brother Lin Mo, how dare you leave Green Shadow alone, you will definitely not be forgiven.

This time, he had made up his mind, he would never forgive easily!

"It seems that little Green Shadow is really unhappy, originally I was thinking of going to the countryside to fly a kite with you, but now it seems that there is no chance.

I don't know who can go with me either? It's so lonely."

Lin Mo pretended to regret and shook his head, then he was about to walk out, only when he had just turned around's, a childish responsive voice came from behind him.

"I, I I'll go! I'll accompany brother Lin Mo."

Before the words even hit the ground, Lin Mo turned around and picked up the little green shadow with one hand.

"Come on, let's go fly kites together."

The green shadow riding on his shoulder was also amused by her.

The prince was dumbfounded by this series of actions, not realising that his elder brother had such a hidden talent.

"Big brother, you like children so much, why don't you have one with your sister-in-law, then I can be a godfather to the child."

The only response was a kick from Lin Mo.

“Go, the children are here, talk about such improper things.”

Chapter 2692

Outside Morrow Street, a man with sunglasses and a black hat was quietly looking at the newspaper in front of him, which registered the report written by Ziropilo about Lin Mo's discrimination against foreigners.

“Physicians distinguish between national boundaries? Discriminating against us? Oh, interesting!”

After reading the newspaper, he then it's thrown aside, and after placing the tea money on the table, he prepared Lin Mo with his long suitcase.

Rorot wasn't really interested in sniping at such poor little people, and if it wasn't for the Ding family's intervention and the target's death-defying antics, he wouldn't even have made much of a stop in Daqu.

Yet as Rorot prepared to cross Morrow Street, that urban legend couldn't help but come to mind, and the north wind that blew through it all seemed extraordinarily chilly.

Shaking his head off, he still chose to take a detour and follow Lin Mo's car from afar.

“Big brother, is it really good to fly a kite in this winter?”

In the cab, the crown prince asked with a puzzled face, flying a kite in this north windy weather was no one's business.

And when he tried to look through the rear-view mirror at the back seat, the little green shadow was staring at him with a pout.

Oh, come on, I'm being nosy!

Thinking this, the prince didn't say anything more and drove on without fear.

Lin Mo smiled faintly and just smoothed out Green Shadow's hair.

It didn't matter whether he flew a kite or not, he just wanted to take Green Shadow out for a walk to relax himself.

As the car slowed to a stop, the group drove to an open grassy area in the suburbs.

Although it was cold, there was no need to worry about snakes, insects, ants and other critters.

“I'll get the kite ready, you go play for a while, don't go too far haha.”

Lin Mo pinched Green Shadow's little nose, and then put her in place.

After landing on the ground, little Green Shadow was completely sprawled out, but she had to squat down and take a closer look at all the flowers and grasses.

“Big brother, do you really want to keep her around all the time?”

The prince came up to follow and asked.

Lin Mo replied carelessly as he prepared the kite in his hand.

“What can we do then, is there any news from your men?”

“No, they’ve nearly turned the entire city of Heshan upside down, and none of them have made any progress.”

Speaking here, the Prince took a special glance at the green shadow playing recklessly in the distance to make sure the conversation would not be overheard by him, before lowering his voice.

“Brother, after we investigated, we found that the surrounding neighbourhood didn’t even know this little girl, it was as if she appeared out of nowhere.”

“And have you noticed, the ones inside Morrow Street look sparse and normal, but I always feel that there’s something weird here.”

At the mention of this, Lin Mo suddenly stopped the movement of his hands.

Indeed, the first day he came to Morrow Street, he had noticed that something was wrong with the warp, but at that time, he thought it was because he was too tired and had an illusion.

But now he thought back carefully on the innkeeper’s inexplicable admonition not to get too close to Guan Linglong, when the housekeeper’s father and daughter had not yet met.

And then later, that time when the innkeeper was so fast as to be amazingly responsive.

There was also the fact that both the lady selling cakes, the big man selling pork and the innkeeper, consciously or unconsciously, seemed to be a little afraid of Green Shadow.

When the prince saw that Lin Mo did not say anything, he probably guessed what was going on.

“Big brother, you’ve sensed it too!”

“You’re probably not delusional, are you?”

Come and help me lift the kite, I’ll make it go up!”

“Eh, alright!”

When the prince saw Lin Mo react like this, he didn’t pursue it much, yet when he took the kite, Lin Mo calmly cautioned.

“There’s no need to go looking for Green Shadow’s parents, and there’s no need to bother much over at Morrow Street, they have no intention of harming me, so let’s not meddle in it either!”

The voice was very soft and scattered without a trace once the north wind blew.

Chapter 2693

Unlike Kyoto, the winter in the south is still green in the mountains and forests, even when the wind is bitterly cold.

The sunlight shines through the gaps between the leaves and scatters quietly.

At the top of the hill, in a thick bush, a few sparrows are playing around, completely unaware of the sniper lurking at their feet and the blackened holes in their guns.

To prevent detection by his opponent, he had chosen to be farther away from his target on top of the hill, and although this increased the distance, it didn't make much difference to Rolot.

Quietly moving his gun, the crosshairs on the octuple also slowly fused with Lin Mo's chest, only before he could pull the spanner, his afterimage caught a glimpse of the figures that kept sneaking up from the foot of the hill in the distance.

Rorot looked at their clumsy movements and cursed in his heart.

"Pigs, didn't I tell you not to interfere with my movements?"

Originally, he had wanted to find the best time to string Lin Mo and the Crown Prince together in two, but now that he had been interfered with so much by the Kong Family a*sa*sins, it was obvious that he had no chance.

If it wasn't for his reputation, Luo Luot really wanted to shoot Kong Zhi directly at the back of the crowd in one direct shot.

"Phew!"

After forcibly adjusting his emotions, he sighed deeply, and as he snapped the spanner, the movement also startled the sparrows above him, and a dozen small birds instantly flew up in shock.

Such a scene Lin Mo just with with the afterglow skimmed the same, however do not look do not matter, see the distant mountain top above the reflection came, his body pores can not help but explode.

"Prince is a sniper rifle!"

Accompanied by a yell from Lin Mo, Luo Luot also fired, and once the barrel of the gun twitched, he revealed a sneer.

"What time is it, there is still the mood on others!"

This kid is dead!

On the Prince's side, after hearing Lin Mo yell, he flew up and hid behind the car, only for him to look up and see that Lin Mo's body suddenly stopped just as he threw the green shadow over.

With a blinding flash of blood red, Lin Mo lunged forward and fell headfirst to the ground.

"Da... Big brother!"

Buzzing in his head, the prince's entire body was as if his soul had been jerked out of him, and he fell straight to the ground, his eyes red, tears instantly rushing out.

"The two of us brothers had clearly agreed to fight for a kingdom in Da Qu!"

“It was clearly agreed that we would crown this era!”

.....

Along with the prince’s disoriented mutterings underneath, his face became increasingly fierce, and hostility around him frantically appeared.

“Dry ritual food, you die for sure, dead!”

Choking on this voice, he took out his mobile phone straight away.

“Ah Fei, send me to transfer all the brothers over, everyone bring the strongest firepower, immediately now!”

I want all the hills here blown flat!”

After giving the order, he wiped his eyes again, and here when his eyes looked at Lin Mo’s ‘corpse’ again, his expression suddenly froze.

The sudden change had just caused the prince to lose his composure, but after calming down a little, he suddenly noticed that Lin Mo, who had fallen to the ground, was now comparing a ‘7’ in his hand.

“7?”

After the prince repeated it in a low voice, his eyes flashed shrewdly, and he first hid behind the car and adjusted his seat, and after placing Green Shadow in a safe place, he secretly opened the back door of the car.

Meanwhile on the hillside Rolot was still waiting patiently, like a hunter waiting for the moment of opportunity when his prey comes out on top.

“Compare patience with me and wear you out!”

Snipers like them, waiting for the opportunity to reveal their target, often that is lurking in the same position for two or three days without moving, how could it be better than a little kid.

And just as Rolot was keeping a close eye on the Prince’s movements through the octuple, a yell suddenly rang out from above Hirano.

“Boss!”

Hearing this movement a sudden flash of unease passed through Rolot’s heart.

Chapter 2694

After Lin Mo heard the Prince’s shout, he instantly ‘swindled’ and, with his arms and legs like an agile cheetah, he scurried out of the spot.

Just when he was about to hide behind the bulletproof SUV, the sweat around his body stood up, Lin Mo did not hesitate in the slightest, his feet fiercely launched, rolling on the ground to forcefully change the original forward track.

With an ear-splitting crash, the bullet grazed his scalp and went straight into the point.

By the time Rorot intended to reload again, Lin Mo had already ducked behind the car, his figure completely disappearing from view.

“D*mn it, I can’t believe he dodged it.”

When he saw that his hundred shots had missed twice in a row, he could not help but clench his fist and pound the ground in chagrin, and when he fixed his eyes on Lin Mo’s side again, his pupils instantly shrank.

“Vonimar, Wang Defa, bazooka!”

At this moment, Luo Luot could not help but burst out foul under his breath.

According to the information given by the Kong family, this duo was just a good fighter and had a group of well-equipped men, there was no mention of them having such heavy firepower in their hands.

Before he could get up, a deafening explosion suddenly rang out, sending him flying more than ten metres away.

The loud noise naturally caught Kong Zhi’s attention.

“What’s wrong? Where did that explosion come from?”

Due to the distance and the fact that the explosion came unannounced, the men did not know what was happening and by the time they noticed it a rolling fire had appeared at the top of the mountain.

“Maybe I think the dry lightning struck the tree and it caught fire!”

The corners of Kong Zhi’s mouth suddenly twitched, and when he looked up, he saw that the sky was cloudless and the sun was shining brightly!

What a load of nonsense!

On Prince’s side, while the sniper at the top of the hill was shooting at Lin Mo, he pinpointed his opponent’s position, and with one shot of rpg, he was sure to send him to heaven.

“Boss, are you alright, you scared me to death!”

Lin Mo gave a thumbs up towards the prince, this kid played with heavy firepower and didn’t expect to be so six!

“It’s fine, it’s fine, no important parts were hurt!”

By the time he took off one of his outer clothes, a blinding blood hole had appeared on his shoulder.

Speaking of which Lin Mo’s face inexplicably changed, just before he was hit just now he was surprised to find that the bullet had actually stalled in the air for half a second, the brief instant gave Lin Mo room to operate by fraudulent death.

“Dug in, I thought how good that sniper was, but I didn’t think it was a rookie.”

Lin Mo couldn't help but roll his eyes straight when he heard the Prince's spit, and while treating this wound, he asked rhetorically.

"What? You seem to feel sorry for not beating me to death."

"Not at all, seeing you fall to the ground, you don't even know how anxious I was."

"Oh, how dare you say that, I was getting numb from gesturing and you only noticed."

The prince scratched his head nervously and smiled awkwardly.

"It wasn't a rush, and only later did I react to the seven o'clock direction you indicated."

And at that moment, Lin Mo, who had finished treating his wounds, suddenly came closer, looking at the tear marks on the crown prince's face, Lin Mo suddenly had a bad smile on his face.

"Prince, have you been crying?"

"Bullsh*t, I have a heart of stone, how could I possibly cry."

After a sophomoric remark, he turned his head to the side and secretly wiped away his tears.

It was with this turn of his head that the Prince suddenly noticed movement in the distant forest, birds flying up into the sky, and this movement was rapidly approaching him in all directions.

"Holy sh*t, is this ever going to end!"

No sooner had he finished complaining than Lin Mo behind him tugged him by the collar.

"Get in the car!"

Lin Mo got into the driver's seat and stepped heavily on the accelerator, and the SUV under his feet roared and sped out.

However, the car hadn't even driven out for long before Lin Mo slammed on the brakes again, looking at the dense barricade in front of him, he frowned.

"Trouble is coming!"

Chapter 2695

Ah Fei was always straightforward in carrying out the words of the Prince's brother, saying that he would blow him up if he was flattened.

Therefore, after receiving the Prince's order, Fei took his men and started to split up, while he himself went around to the back of the designated location to prepare for the installation of explosives.

Only when they got close, they found out from a distance that the place was occupied.

"Stop and halt, let's sneak over quietly and see what the other side is."

At a word of command, everyone took their equipment and moved forward quickly on foot.

At the foot of the hill, Kong Zhizhen leisurely stammered his expensive cigar in his hand, while his men beside him curiously asked a question.

“Master Kong, don’t we have many snipers in the Kong family’s a*sa*sin group?

Why didn’t they bring them out today.”

It was reasonable to say that whether it was an a*sa*sination or a siege, snipers were an essential part of it, the former everyone understood, while the latter was to prevent the target of the siege from breaking away.

Control shook the ashes of his cigarette and explained carelessly.

“Is it still the order of the old man at home, saying something about hiring a super leaving sniper and asking me to fully cooperate with the other side.”

Originally Kong Zhi pair still disdain for that super killer’s words.

I have so many killers under my command, I don’t need you to be the one.

However, just after he had mobilised the snipers of the Kong family’s a*sa*sins, the old man called to reprimand him and asked that all the snipers be withdrawn and not to interfere with the other side.

The thought of this made Control’s heart numb with anger.

“Cut, what’s the big deal, thanks to the old master still thinks so highly of him, look at what time it is now, and none of them have done anything yet.

In the end, we still have to rely on our own strength and take down Lin Mo!”

“Right, there’s also that one called Prince, when the time comes to take it down and hand it over to the Ding family, there might still be some kind of windfall.”

And just as he was grumbling confidently, an unfamiliar face suddenly appeared beside him.

“Uncle, let me borrow a light!”

Interrupted by the sudden interruption of his thoughts, Kong Zhi took out his gold lighter and lit it for him.

“Thank you, that’s a nice cigar, imported from abroad, right?

“Hey, that’s natural. Just this one is $10,000 US. Wait, who the hell are you, you dare to smoke my cigar and let me light it, you’ve lived long enough, haven’t you.”

The man’s face suddenly glowed with fierceness, and if he couldn’t tell me one, two, three, he would just give him a blast.

“Oh, sorry, I forgot to introduce myself, I am Fei!

Don’t know him? Then let me talk to you in detail, the first head horse under the prince brother, the red stick is not me.”

Shaking off the ashes in his hand, Fei raised his hand and waved it, and the men around him quickly stepped forward and took the unarmed Kong Zhi down.

It was only then that the bewildered Kong Zhi saw that his dozens of guards had been taken down by the other side, and that all of his armed equipment had been pulled clean out.

In the flat area on the hill, Lin Mo, who was desperate, had also exchanged fire with the other side.

Although they had broken out of the encirclement, their SUV was stuck in the woods and could not move at all.

“Crap, didn’t you shake the man? Why can’t you even see a ghost now.”

After saying that, he raised his hand and waved, three Xuan needles shot out, and by the time he retrieved them again already three figures had fallen.

After this period of training, the Doktor Nine Needles had been developed by Lin Mo to the point where he could use all three needles to hurt people and defend against enemies.

However, although the Xuan Needles could be operated freely, they could not withstand the rapid depletion of mental energy, and with the number of precious opponents, the distance the Xuan Needles could kill was limited.

Several people were instantly in crisis.

And in the carriage, the green shadow who had been sitting docilely and quietly muttered to herself in a mosquito-like voice.

“I haven’t recovered from my injuries yet, don’t make a move until it’s critical!”

Chapter 2696

With his back against the stone wall, he was high above the ground, plus the bulletproof buggy in front of him for cover.

The duo of Lin Mo and the Prince, one using a juggling gun and the other a flying needle, did manage to tackle the hundreds of people coming from the other side.

But the number of enemies was too great, and it seemed that there was a never-ending stream of them to kill.

Lin Mo even shifted his little green shadow behind the duo for fear of the buggy being blown up, and his fears were not unfounded, as even the bulletproof car was shaking under the constant gunfire.

The Prince was filled with anxiety as he saw his opponent moving closer and closer with firepower at his end.

“Doggone Fei, don’t let me meet you alive, or I’ll rip your head off for sure.”

Originally these were his words of complaint, but to his surprise they came in response.

“Brother Prince, I’m coming I’m coming, is it a bit too much to rip off your head or something.”

With the sound of several gunshots, Fei walked into the firefight with a cigar in his mouth and a bruised and battered Kong Zhi in his hand.

When Fei finished questioning Kong Zhi, he had a clear idea of the Kong family’s plan to surround and kill him, and when he heard the gunshots, he brought Kong Zhi here to support Prince Lin Mo.

“Stop it, or I’ll kill your master!”

Without even waiting for him to finish, a group of assassins from the Kong family stopped firing instantly when they saw their third young master being taken hostage by the other side.

With a smug look on his face, Fei raised an eyebrow towards the two of them, Lin Mo.

“Brother Prince, is this wave of operation 6!”

Prince was originally just shaking people to support the fire, but he didn’t expect this kid to take down the other party’s leader’s.

Although he didn’t want to admit it, this wave of thunderous operation was indeed a six flip.

Of course, Fei also understood that the situation was tense and it was not the time to be foolish, so he flashed a ruthlessness in his eyes and directly pulled the spanner.

BANG!

With a gunshot, Kong Zhi then screamed miserably, holding the palm that had been shot through, his features twisted together in pain.

“Young Kong, tell your men to put down all the weapons in their hands!”

After saying that, Ah Fei put another gun hole against Kong Zhi’s temple.

At this moment, Kong Zhi’s heart was racing with a thousand galloping horses, this kid is simply anti-human, these are the ones who beat him up and then torture him.

This time it was even more ruthless, punching him directly through the palm of his hand before he said he wanted it.

Of course at this point Kong Zhi was too angry to speak, feeling the cold chill coming from the pistol, he was already scared to death.

“Everyone... Everyone put down your guns!”

But after he said that, the members of the opposite group of killers did not respond, they understood in their hearts that only with guns in hand could they negotiate, if all of them surrendered their weapons, not only Kong Zhi but even they would still be slaughtered.

This was understood by everyone present except Kong Zhi, and naturally this included Fei.

“Uncle Kong is quite a failure, the dog he raised himself is not obeying his own commands, sad isn’t it?”

After saying that, the sound of gunfire started again!

This time, Kong Zhi Kong Zhi's right ear was directly smashed.

"Ah"

He hissed in pain as he covered his bloodied cheek!

"This is the last chance's, either drop the gun or the surname Kong dies!"

At this moment, Fei also put away his playful look, and there was an ice-cold killing aura between his words.

Kong Zhi, who was rolling around in pain, was furious when he saw that the killers were still not cooperating.

"f*ck, put the f*cking gun down, if I die here today, you will all be buried with me."

These words were so powerful that if Master Kong knew about this, they would have to shed their skin even if they didn't die.

As they looked at each other, the a*sa*sins sighed helplessly.

If it wasn't for Kong Zhi, Lin Mo and the Crown Prince would have died under their guns by now.

Chapter 2697

After the first man had removed the gun from his hand, the other companions followed suit.

When Lin Mo and the Prince saw this, they couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief, for the scene was indeed a bit frightening.

With Ah Fei behind them, the two of them finally got out of the protective circle with Green Shadow.

As for the killers, when they saw Lin Mo and his group leave, they tried to pick up the guns on the ground, but before they could bend down, Fei suddenly raised his hand not far away and blew a loud whistle.

In a flash, the Prince's men hiding in the forest instantly appeared, and without any instructions, the fully automatic rifles in their hands poured out wildly, like the scythe of death, constantly collecting lives.

Outside the woods, Kong Zhi heard the gunshots mixed with screams and obviously understood what was going on, but at this point he could only close his eyes in despair and hope that he would still be alive.

After waiting for nearly ten minutes, the gunfire stopped and all of the Prince's men came out of the woods, each holding four or five firearms in their hands, with the joy of a bountiful harvest on their faces.

"Boss Lin Mo, Brother Prince, the Kong family's killers have all been dealt with, what about this stuff?"

After saying that, Ah Fei threw Kong Zhi to the ground with one hand.

According to the Crown Prince's character, it was naturally most appropriate to just shoot him with one bullet, out of sight, out of mind, but now that Lin Mo was present, he naturally had to see what his big brother wanted.

After placing Green Shadow in place, Lin Mo walked over to Kong Zhi's body and slowly squatted down.

"Young Master Kong, I didn't expect it, but today you've fallen into my hands as well."

When he was at the Zhao family, Lin Mo had wanted to get rid of him straight away, but only because he was in the way of the Zhao family's territory, and only because Pan Yang had told him about the emergency, he had let him escape.

Kong Zhi looked at Lin Mo's familiar yet unfamiliar face, and did not know what to say for a while.

He had never imagined that the little man who the Kong family thought could be crushed to death with a single finger had turned the sky upside down.

The root cause of all this was just an unusual trip to Pan Yang by Kong Wu.

Perhaps Kong Zhi also knew that it was hard to escape death today, and he instead lightened his inner fears; one always has to return what one has done.

With a weak tone, he struggled this reply.

"I have nothing to say. Lin Mo you give me a pain!"

Kong Zhi's pale face was written with despair and resignation.

But to his surprise Lin Mo suddenly changed his mind.

"Keep it, stop his bleeding first, then we can still knock the Kong family for a sum, just in time to fill our arsenal."

It wasn't that Lin Mo's saintly heart was overflowing, compared to slaughtering the Kong family, with Kong Zhi's current state, it didn't really matter if he was killed or not, it was better to extort a sum from the Kong family and hit them in the face in the process.

Two sneak attacks and two killings, I don't know if Master Kong will be angry when he finds out about this.

"Got it! Brothers, go and put out the fire on the mountain, it's everyone's responsibility to protect the environment!"

By the way, find that D*mned sniper's body, I want to see what kind of person he is."

What the Prince didn't know was that Rorot had not been killed by the explosion, but was now covered in wounds, with not a trace of blood on his face.

At the time of the explosion, Rorot had managed to escape from the centre of the most deadly area, but although his life was saved, his left shoulder was empty and blood was gushing out like a fountain.

In order to stop the bleeding, all Rorot could do was to take off his jacket and tie the wound where his broken arm was dead.

“Hiss!”

The intense pain was so intense that the other could not help but suck in a cold breath, and after he finished dealing with it, his eyes were red and his face was full of murderous anger as he glanced back in Lin Mo’s direction before he stumbled and flew away from the mountain top without stopping his hoof.

By the time the Prince’s men arrived, there was nothing but a broken arm.

Chapter 2698

“Such a hard life? This didn’t even kill him!”

The prince looked at the broken arm his men had retrieved and showed his surprise, not expecting that the anti-tank rockets hadn’t even killed him.

“Surprisingly, even if he ran away, the sniper with only one arm is also ruined.”

After Lin Mo finished speaking, his gaze then looked towards Fei, who was not far away and was bragging with his men.

“All of you saw Laozi’s valiant stance, did you guys film Laozi’s majestic stance during the confrontation just now.”

Originally Lin Mo heard this and was a bit speechless, this nerve is too big, but I never thought that yes, someone really f*cking filmed it.

“Brother Fei, Brother Fei, I took it, I took it, super wide angle 150 million pixels!”

As soon as the words came out, Fei and his other companions flew around, and then there was a flurry of admiration.

“Hahahaha, wash it out, I want to frame it and hang it above my bed!”

Hearing the sound of them fighting, Lin Mo could only shake his head helplessly, not bad for you!

Of course speechlessness is speechless, Lin Mo still admired this Ah Fei.

The prince’s men came to support him, and there were only about two hundred of them, but in the face of 700 to 800 killers from the other side, the biggest credit goes to Fei.

He is brave and resourceful, ruthless, a good seedling, but the only pity is that he is infected by the Crown Prince and has less tendons.

“Prince this beloved of yours is good, sometime I give you the heart method to give him a copy, cultivate it well, maybe in the future is also a party figure.”

After explaining this point, Lin Mo added.

“You guys clean up this place, the collected firearms, everyone look after them, if they are suitable, they stay.

If they are not suitable, send them directly to the Pan Yang side to replenish the war effort there!”

Although the Pan Yang city side had a large amount of supplies that Lin Mo wanted the Martial Alliance to apply for down there, it was far from being fully armed.

As the gateway to Da Qu and China, Pan Yang also had an extremely important strategic position in Lin Mo's mind, so no amount of arming was too much.

At Lin Mo's command, the Crown Prince led his men to bury the Kong family's killer group in a fire.

The battle had subsided, but the impact of the aftermath spread rapidly.

"You know there was a fire in our suburb yesterday afternoon, right?"

"It was just a big fire, what's the fuss? Let me tell you, the Kong family's side has recently sent out killers again, and it seems to be targeting Lin Mo."

"Not that last time, the 500-odd people already sent out last time were reunited, how come there are shooting killers now."

"Who knows? These two young men are heard to be fierce, even the Hanoi Ding family branch dares to shake hard!"

As the news continued to circulate underground, the major powers in Da Qu also received the same information.

The Gan family mansion!

"Old man Gan, why do you seem so unhappy to see this Crown Prince?"

That's right, the Crown Prince again? obediently came to the Gan family for tea.

Only after Old Man Gan saw the Crown Prince again, his attitude was extraordinarily respectful.

"Older brother Prince, how come? I can't be happy enough to see you safe and sound.

You don't know, what I heard yesterday was that you and Mr. Lin were attacked in an ambush, and I immediately ordered men to go and support them."

"Only by the time I arrived, the fire had subsided.

Fortunately, both of you are safe and sound, so my heart is at ease, old man."

He rubbed his chest in time with the words, but his mind was not quite at peace.

These two boys were too fierce, right? The Kong family had sent their elites to invade twice, but they were destroyed both times.

The prince heard this and poofed directly, narrowing his eyes and coming up to the old man's face.

"I'm afraid you're not trying to see if there's a chance to patch up this prince and my big brother!"

Just as Elder Gan tried to explain desperately, the Crown Prince directly interrupted him.

"Cut the crap, I'm looking for you to ask for the Kong family's contact information"

Chapter 2699

After the firefight with the mountain suburbs ended, no one was happier than Chen Jin of Panyang City.

He had been distressed for a long time since the Crown Prince's men had taken a large quantity of supplies from the armoury, but now he had never expected to see any money back.

As he watched the guns, enough to arm hundreds of people, being brought into the warehouse one by one, Chen Jin rubbed his hands together with excitement.

On the other hand, in Nan'an, Master Kong was obviously not in such a happy mood.

After waiting for a long time and still not receiving a reply from his third son, he felt a sense of unease in his heart, and with the need to deal with his eldest son's funeral and the casino convention at the same time, he felt distracted.

"On Kong Zhi's side, no news yet?"

Faced with his questioning, the butler at the side shook his head impotently.

"Master I have asked someone to continue contacting, and in addition I have also sent someone to go directly to He Shan to check for news."

The butler knew that the old master was not in a good mood this time, so naturally he did not dare to explain too much.

Just as the two of them were talking, the sound of hurried footsteps suddenly came from outside the study.

"Master, there's a call for you?"

Master Kong put down the pen and paper in his hand with a frown.

"A phone call? Did the other party say who it was?"

"No, he only said that he had something very important to say to you, Master!"

Kung Lao suppressed his anger and raised his hand impatiently, and as he picked up the phone, a jumpy voice came from the other side.

"It's connected. It's connected! What did big brother say?"

"Just think of it as business, we have the leverage in hand anyway."

Master Kong only thought it was someone playing a prank and was about to hang up when his name was called from the other side.

"Kong Xiangtian, let's talk business with you!"

Elder Kong's face darkened and he asked in a deep voice, "Who the hell are you? How dare you jab at the old man!"

"You are such a person, not on the right track, come let me help you recall!"

After the words had fallen, there was a banging noise on the other end of the phone, followed by a continuous scream.

“Stop it, stop it, you’re talking about something, why are you beating me up?”

Father, help me!”

Hearing this, Elder Kong’s suddenly heard that the voice calling for help was not his own third son, Kong Zhi!

“You are Lin Mo?”

Kong Xiangtian’s hoarse voice revealed a strong killing intent, and endless anger rushed straight to his brain.

“Right, as expected of the head of a family, his brain is quick to react! But I guessed right, I’m the Prince, I’m one of Boss Lin’s men.

Unfortunately, your son, Kong Zhi, is in our hands.”

Although Kong Xiangtian already had the ground in his mind, he couldn’t help but want to smash the phone when he heard the Prince’s dejected tone over the phone.

Nearly eight hundred elite a*sa*sins invasion, failed to take down Lin Mo even if it is not enough, but also by only the other side captured control, this nerve even eight hundred pigs can arch them to death.

But now their own son is in their hands, naturally we have to find a way to save back.

“What do you want?”

When he finished, the other side did not reply, only a slight sound of discussion came from them.

“Master Kong, quick to speak, I won’t talk nonsense, if you want to save your son, prepare me twenty light machine guns, ten heavy snipers, plus five warships and two hundred high explosive grenades, that’s all.”

When Kong Xiangtian heard such a condition, his eyes glared and filled with anger.

“You guys are asking for a lot, this is absolutely impossible.”

It wasn’t that the Kong family couldn’t get such a huge amount of armaments, it was just that they would have to break their bones.

The prince didn’t say anything when he saw that Elder Kong refused, and directly ordered his men.

“Go, chop off Kong Zhi’s left hand and give Master Kong a refreshing boost!”

As soon as these words came out, Kong Xiangtian immediately stopped them, “Stop it!”

At this moment, he was already so angry that his voice trembled.

“I will give you at most ten light machine guns, five heavy snipers and at most two warships if you want.

You over you have to ensure that all my Kong family’s men are released back.”

And at this time, the Prince did not reply and suddenly fell silent.

Chapter 2700

It wasn't that the Prince felt that Kung Lao had cut the price too hard, but that apart from Kong Zhi, the people sent by the Kong family had been wiped out.

Never mind, in order to prevent Elder Kong from vomiting blood and dying, the Crown Prince was kind-hearted for a rare time.

"Okay, no problem, by the way if this batch of supplies, Elder Kong, you'd better check it personally.

If there is a single flaw, I'll chop off one of your son's hands, thanks!"

Pop! The words landed on the ground, and the phone hung up.

Kong Xiangtian, on the other hand, directly smashed the phone in his hand with one hand.

"D*mn it, when has my Kong family ever been humiliated like this."

In a fit of rage, he overturned the desk in front of him, and this action instantly frightened the messenger on the other side of the room, causing him to tremble.

"How can you work in my Kong family with such little guts?" The butler dragged him down and buried him, so as not to be an eyesore.

The butler at the side knew that the master was angry and consciously did not try to persuade him, but only gestured towards his subordinates before leading the other party and leaving the place together with quick steps.

After saying that, the prince hung up the phone and then threw back his head and laughed.

"Hahahaha, I didn't expect this kid to be worth so much.

If I wasn't afraid of that old bd rejecting our terms in a fit of anger, I would really want to tell him the truth about the reunion."

Beside him, Lin Mo smiled faintly, he already had a number in mind for such an outcome.

"A tiger's poison will not eat his son, as long as Kong Zhi is in our hands, he will have to find a way to save him back.

Alright, since the Kong family has already agreed, then let someone prepare for the handover."

By exchanging a waste for these important firepower, not only had they strengthened themselves, but they could also weaken the Kong family.

With this and the other, it was a good way to prepare for the future slaughter of the Kong family.

After this was done, Lin Mo contacted Chen Jin to ask him if he knew any sniper experts, preferably the kind who had retired from the Martial Union's combat department.

After receiving Lin Mo's call, Chen Jin immediately said that there was no problem. Having been in the Martial Alliance for so many years, he naturally understood how promising this rising star of Lin Mo's would be in the future.

Since joining Lin Mo's command, Chen Jin had felt that he had nothing to offer, and now his chance had finally come.

"A retired sniper?"

Chen Jin muttered with a delighted smile.

The fact that the Kong family had twice commissioned elites to kill Lin Mo had all failed to do so, and after time had festered, word had also spread thoroughly in Da Qu.

Some accused the Kong family of incompetence, two youngsters couldn't even handle it.

Some were surprised by Lin Mo's strength and began to investigate his background, but with the cooperation of the Kyoto Martial Alliance, the news side of Da Qu was directly blocked at the level of the Zhao family.

This also gave everyone the false impression that Lin Mo was a rising star that Zhao Nan Yue had secretly cultivated.

After all, if his identity as the Martial Alliance's Zhen Yue Ambassador were to be made public, he would face the possibility of being targeted by all the forces of Da Qu.

A few days later, Lin Mo was honing his Dokujixuan Needle at the medical school when the Crown Prince came over with a group of unfamiliar faces.

As soon as he entered, the Crown Prince spoke excitedly.

"Big brother, the snipers contacted by Captain Chen's side are here!"

Before coming here, the Crown Prince was still discontented, it was just a few snipers, why did he need to ask for outside help?

It was only after Tong Jun, the leader of the team, had set up his gun and accurately shot a sparrow in the head five kilometres away that the Prince was convinced.

If Fei hadn't stopped him, the Crown Prince would have almost knelt down to learn from his master.

"Lord Zhen Yue, the former head of the sniper team of the 64th division of the Martial Alliance, Tong Jun, has come to report for duty."

As his words fell, the forty-nine companions behind him stopped their stance together, pounding their chests with one hand and carrying their backs with the other, their movements neat and crisp.

This was the professionalism of the Martial Alliance's combat troops.