Chapter 2701 2706-Instigating A Dispute!

Ye chen had been sitting there. When he saw that the sky was about to turn dark, he got up and walked over with su Yuhan.

When the two disciples saw them walking over, their eunuch immediately came over to welcome them.

"You two did a good job today. I'll forgive you for now, but you have to keep it up in the future."

Ye chen was quite satisfied with their way of doing things, so he said this with a smile.

Although he didn't seem to say much, it seemed that he had other plans in his heart.

The owner didn't ask much, but he knew that this matter wouldn't end like this. Then, the two of them went to stay in an Inn in the city.

Of course, the two disciples did not know about this.

What ye chen did not know was that these two disciples were quite respectful to him. However, the more he thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong. Why should they listen to the words of this so-called elder who did not show his face?

Besides, there must be someone else slacking off as well. Why were they being punished now? If it wasn't for this muddleheaded sect leader, how could they possibly do such a useless thing?

In short, after these two disciples finished their work, they walked side by side on the way back to their residence. The more they thought about it, the more they felt unconvinced.

At the same time, they also met a disciple who was considered powerful among the disciples who went down the mountain. However, he was very proud and conceited.

They had originally wanted to turn around and leave, but they didn't expect that person to come up to them directly and even greet them.

The fellow disciple named Wei hai asked them about the meeting with the sect leader today with a smile, but his tone was not convinced at all. He even looked down on the new sect leader.

"No way. I heard that the sect leader isn't very strong. He was only appointed as the sect leader because of the mages' arrangements. Why are you so afraid of him?"

The lands they worked on were all next to each other, so the two locations were slightly further away. However, there were other disciples not far away, so they naturally saw the situation here.

At the same time, there was also news that the sect leader had come for a private inspection. This immediately caused an uproar among the disciples.

However, in the eyes of others, ye chen and the others did not do anything at all. They had only casually scolded him a few times and did not hear clearly what he said.

These two disciples had actually put down the comfort in their hearts so easily and worked for others without complaint. This sounded really stupid.

After all, the two of them were really unlucky. There were many people in this address who really liked to slack off. They basically only worked for two hours a day, or two hours a day. They were not willing to do more work.

The workmanship was also very messy. In short, although it wasn't a hindrance, it wasn't very useful.

In the end, it was just that these two disciples were slightly unlucky, while the other disciples were lucky, so they were not discovered at all. Some of them just happened to be putting on an act.

Therefore, ye chen did not pay much attention to them. These two people were too obvious. They were just sitting under the tree and drinking tea, so they were picked out as typical examples.

"No, no, I couldn't stop laughing after hearing what happened today. You guys are being too careful. Why are you so sure that he can really do something to you?"

After the disciple named Wei hai finished his words, one of the two disciples who had a long day of work retorted.

"At that time, he directly told us not to be disciples of this Mount Tai, so we must do our best. I don't want to be kicked out of the sect!"

The two of them still felt a lingering fear when they thought of this. However, they didn't expect that the disciple who was slightly higher in level than them would immediately burst out laughing.

The laughter even attracted the attention of some of the surrounding disciples, and they all looked over.

It was obvious that the disciple's words had angered the two opposite him. Moreover, they felt like they were like clowns right now. They were in a very embarrassing state, so they immediately talked back to him.

"It's useless for you to laugh at me here. If you're so capable, go and fight him. You're quite good at acting. You stood up as soon as he came and made it seem like you're very serious about your work. In fact, you didn't do anything either, and now you're criticizing others?"

"That is, if you meet the sect leader, you won't be able to take it. You might even kneel down to him on the spot. Don't think that you are so powerful."

The two men clenched their fists and said. Although they said so, their hearts had begun to waver.

Did he really need to be so respectful to ye chen? Moreover, that person didn't even use the slightest bit of strength at that time, and he was immediately afraid. He even very humbly agreed to the other person's request.

This was simply an extremely ridiculous thing!

In any case, now that they thought of this, they suddenly felt that ye chen was a liar. The so-called level suppression was actually used on them!

In short, the two of them did not continue to entangle with this so-called fellow disciple. After all, this person was not a good person. At that time, when they were on the mountain, he had always been very happy to be in the limelight.

Moreover, he liked to go against the sect leader, but of course, this was behind his back.

In front of others, he was extremely flattering. In short, as long as he had made friends with people, they would all be directly persuaded to leave.

In short, whoever was involved in this matter would definitely be a little unlucky, but they wouldn't think too much about it. They would only be glad that they didn't encounter it today.

On the other side, after ye chen brought his wife to an Inn, he first let the waiter order a few dishes. Then, he left the camp and had a good meal. Su Yuhan only asked him when they were eating.

"I see that you don't plan to finish today. Should we continue watching tomorrow?"

"That's for sure. These two disciples definitely weren't a coincidence. And I dare to say that there are many of them, and even more. "

Ye chen saw through this very simple truth with a single glance. These two disciples knelt down in front of him and even spoke in a very humble manner.

Although he was not convinced when he was working, he still did it.

This was already considered a timid person. If it were those who were bold, even if ye chen had arranged for them to do it, they might not necessarily get a good result.

In any case, there must be someone else who was doing the same.

"I see. Why don't they start searching from the other side tomorrow? there must be something else."

Su Yuhan suggested, but she did not expect ye chen to shake his head with a smile and reject her idea.

"There's no need for that. We just need to return to where the two disciples are. Do you believe that their attitudes will change?"

When ye chen said this, he felt that victory was in his hands. In short, people could not help but believe him.

Although su Yuhan didn't know why he said that, she knew that he must have his reasons. She just had to wait for the results tomorrow.

Some people even sat on their beds and cultivated for a while after eating. Then, they slowly fell asleep and woke up the next morning.

Logically speaking, these people should have gone out to farm by this time. Therefore, ye chen and the others had a simple breakfast and set off from the inn.

At the same time, he also checked out of the room, because he knew that today's matter would be resolved very well.

After all, killing the chicken to warn the monkeys was very useful in front of ordinary disciples. It was a tried and tested method!

When the two rushed to the farmland from the other side, everyone was working hard. There were no unnecessary movements or suspicious feelings, and they looked diligent.

During this time, ye chen carefully observed their fields to prevent some people from taking advantage of the situation and using so-called methods to cover up their lack of serious work.

When they were flying in the sky, they could really clearly see that some of the soil was thicker and more detailed, and basically didn't miss a single spot, while some of the soil was a bit ordinary.

In short, although there were strong and weak people working, at least they had been sitting. When they arrived at the place where the disciples they found yesterday were, they found that they were still sitting under the tree and had no intention of working.

There was even one more person standing next to him. Ye chen did not know who it was but from their uniform, he knew that they were disciples of Mount Tai.

Although he didn't show any expression on his face, he couldn't help but chuckle in his heart. Sometimes, dogs can't change their habit of eating shit. There was no need for him to give others a chance all day long.

Wasn't this clearly provoking him? in that case, there was no need to say anything unnecessary. Let's teach him a lesson!

Su Yuhan was obviously surprised when she saw this. She thought the two disciples would put on an act, but it seemed that they were really straightforward!

The two of them jumped down from the Nine-Tailed ROC and walked to the tree step by step. They exchanged a glance with the three people.

"Why don't you continue to work hard today? Didn't you agree to it yesterday? You also said that you would give me an explanation. "

Ye chen said calmly. His voice was not loud but it exuded an inexplicable pressure. Everyone present felt as if they could not even breathe.

Of course, these three disciples could also feel it. After all, they were all immortal cultivators. How could they not feel it? However, he could only hold it in and pretend to be calm.

"Although we did farm work yesterday, we waited for you today because we were suspicious of your identity!"

One of the two disciples said indignantly. In his eyes, the two of them had been deceived. The man in front of them clearly had no special characteristics except for the other waist token on his waist.

"Who knows if you're the sect leader or not? if you're lying to us, then aren't we at a great disadvantage? Besides, so what if you're us?"

When ye chen heard the last sentence, he almost laughed out loud. Although he held back his voice, his expression still carried a hint of mockery.

Meanwhile, the disciple who had been standing at the side had been observing ye chen. He had also understood from the beginning to the end.

He didn't see who this person who suddenly appeared was. After all, if he didn't reveal his ability, he really wouldn't be able to tell!

After hearing the two examples beside him, he also seemed to be ineffably inspired and also said harsh words.

"That's right. You'd better take a look at your current strength. If you're not as strong as us, what qualifications do you have to be the sect leader? besides, I suspect you're a fake!"

This was a very straightforward provocation and doubt. Even if the two disciples beside him had such thoughts, they did not dare to say it out loud.

Although they thought so in their hearts, if the other party really had the strength and was the true sect leader, then they would definitely be at a disadvantage.

Ye chen did not know whether to laugh or cry when he saw the three of them taking turns to provoke him. What wrong step had he taken to make these people directly doubt his identity?

It seemed that he had no choice but to show off his skills. At the same time, he stopped his eyes on the other disciple who had appeared. This disciple looked more burly and spoke extremely rashly.

For some reason, he gave people the impression that he was forcing them to be stronger than others.

These people were very straightforward. After saying it, they actually felt a little fear in their hearts, but they had already come to this point. What else could they do? Thus, they could only hold their chests out and wait for ye Chen's answer.

"It's not too much to doubt my identity. After all, you've never seen me before. "

"If that's the case, why don't we have a fight? let me see your strength and the disciples of Mount Tai peak. Don't Let Me Down!"

Elder Luo was an open-minded person. He did everything ye chen arranged in an orderly manner and took it seriously. However, he did not expect these disciples to be unwilling to do this.

"Come on! Three of you against one of me. "

Ye chen said nonchalantly. His eyes swept from left to right. The hatred and anger in his eyes turned into fear, but he could only force himself to hold on.

After all, they weren't fools. The sect leader in front of them had actually asked the three of them to provoke him together.

As long as the challenge was successful, it could prove that the other party was not the sect leader. However, it was clear that the three of them had many considerations in their hearts.

"What's the matter? are you guys not willing to help? If you don't want to make a move, then I'll go first. Are you sure?"

Ye chen said with a smile. At the same time, he had already raised a palm and repeated his next step, ready to release a big move.

"Alright, then I'll make the first move!"

Chapter 2702 Failed Provocation!

Wei hai looked down on this sect leader from the bottom of his heart, who he had never met before. So, he was easily angered after the confrontation, but it triggered his conceited mentality.

He claimed to be the strongest among the disciples sent down by the sect. After all, he was usually very arrogant.

Moreover, he liked to challenge others all day long. In short, he was not very popular, and his personality was uncomfortable.

Thus, he beat the two disciples to it and jumped up, his palm aimed directly at ye Chen's chest.

It looked like he wanted to end the battle quickly. However, after ye Chen had taken note of his movements, he dodged to the side and raised his hand. In an instant, he slapped the arrogant disciple to the side and he fell to the ground. It looked like he had fallen quite badly.

The dust in the surrounding area was instantly lifted up. The two disciples beside him were scared to death at the sight of this.

They were not very brave to begin with. They had suddenly dared to challenge ye Chen like this because of the disciple named Wei hai who was next to them.

Moreover, they were also somewhat unconvinced in their hearts. It was a pity that the truth was right in front of them, and it immediately woke them up from their dreams.

This was completely unforgivable. Indeed, they had underestimated the sect leader. If they had known earlier, they wouldn't have listened to the words of this muddled disciple!

Ye Chen looked at the two disciples who were standing there and subconsciously taking steps back. He asked in a very calm and serious tone.

"What, do you two want to come up together?"

His words were so oppressive that the two disciples immediately knelt on the ground in fear.

"Sect leader, it's our fault. We shouldn't have listened to other people's slanderous words. We won't do it again. Please give us a chance. We'll deal with it properly in the future. We won't slack off at all!"

"That's right, that's right. Sir Niannian is still young. Please give us a chance. Otherwise, we really won't be able to continue living!"

Ye Chen was prepared to listen to the two of them quibble but who knew that the disciple beside him was quite interesting. He had already threatened the sect master with his life. Ye Chen could not help but laugh when he heard this.

To tell the truth, he didn't think that he could easily ignore the work of others, and he was also unwilling to listen to the arrangements of the higher-ups, and even to the point where he didn't care about his own life when he spoke to the sect leader who should have been respectful.

Even if they were chased out of Mount Tai and the Azure Dragon Gate, they would not lose their lives because of this.

They might even go back to be their young masters and start their own lives again after a few days of sadness. At most, they would be scolded by their families.

"I don't think you two are that remorseful. Besides, you probably still think you're lucky. I don't think you're feeling that bad. Besides, you probably won't be able to work well after I leave."

Ye chen had easily told them what they were thinking. The two disciples' faces turned pale. They had indeed thought so.

He was even cursing in his heart. Not only was he cursing the sect leader, but he was also cursing Wei hai beside him!

He didn't plan to execute them immediately. Anyway, he would definitely need someone to help him today.

According to his understanding from the day before, it was time to go up the mountain two days after these addresses were completed.

Therefore, he definitely couldn't let these three people off easily. It was obvious that the other disciples had to deal with them from the beginning to the end.

However, these three people were a little too much, especially in this area, where there were basically no traces of labor.

If they wanted to plow it well, they had to work here every day at least in the next two days. Additionally, someone had to really and carefully plant the seeds. In this way, they could not get a harvest in autumn.

Therefore, ye chen looked at the two disciples who were begging for mercy and waited quietly for them to offer a better bargaining chip.

On the other side, the disciple who had been knocked to the ground managed to get up with great difficulty. He felt that at least two or three bones in his body had been broken.

This made him feel a very serious sense of crisis. This was not someone he could easily deal with!

Usually, when he fought with his disciples, even if he had some difficulties dealing with them, he could still win steadily.

But now, it was different. The sect leader in front of him only moved his hand slightly. He didn't even notice that the other party had much strength in his movements.

However, only the person he had been thrown out of could truly feel how powerful he was.

Even though he was in extreme pain all over his body, he couldn't wait any longer. He had to quickly beg for mercy. Otherwise, he would also be kicked out of the sect. At that time, the consequences wouldn't be something they could easily deal with. To be honest, they were all in their early twenties, only a few years younger than ye chen.

He had already performed the ceremony. He should have expected the result of doing such a thing. Now, he was not willing to bear the consequences. Wasn't that a little inappropriate?

"Sect leader, we really know that we were wrong. We are willing to cultivate this land very well and will definitely complete the task within the stipulated time. I hope that you can give the three of us a chance and we will not continue to make mistakes!"

One of the two disciples who knelt there said something very interesting. He even took the initiative to push the three of them together.

Unfortunately, his plan was quite good. If the three of them were placed in front of ye chen, he would probably not kill all three of them so directly.

And so far, the one who should be kicked out of the three was Wei hai, who dared to attack the sect leader.

Wei Hai's expression was not very good. He didn't want to be compared to these two people. Besides, although he was beaten up, he still had to speak nicely in front of the sect leader.

"Sect leader, I was wrong this time, but I didn't expect you to be the real sect leader. These two people told me that you might be a fake, so I came here to seek justice for them. I had good intentions, but I didn't expect such a big mistake to happen!"

Wei Hai's words directly smeared the reputation of the two people on the other side and even pushed himself out. It was like mud meeting a Lotus.

Ye chen did not speak immediately as he looked at the two quibbling people. After all, once Wei hai finished speaking, he wanted to make the two disciples next to him immediately freeze.

Their expressions had also changed. From the fear just now to the anger now, they felt like they had nothing to lose.

"You were the one who talked to us on the way back yesterday, and even laughed at us for bowing to the sect leader. In this case, you're not a powerful figure, and you're just a sh * t stirrer!"

Seeing that the two of them were about to start quarreling in front of ye chen, the other one could not bear it any longer and immediately joined his companion's group.

After all, it was clear that there was still a trace of fantasy left in their hearts. Between the two of them and Wei hai, the sect leader would probably only listen to one person.

So they just needed to push all the mistakes onto this man who didn't give people a good impression.

Moreover, he was the one who was trying to drive a wedge between them, even if he didn't make it sound so serious. It's time to let him suffer. Otherwise, does he really think that he can be a little Overlord?

Wei hai didn't expect that he would be exposed so easily after pretending for so long. Besides, this was not a small problem.

If he really made the sect leader angry, then he would definitely be the one in trouble. He was on Mount Tai with the disciples of the same sect, and that could be said to be the Monkey King.

But now, it seemed that he had been kicked down and was even told that he would no longer have such a right in the future. So, he must fight for a chance for himself to solve this problem!

"Sect leader, I'm strong and I'm big. Even if I finish this piece of farmland by myself, I can finish it in a day, and I will do it well."

Ye chen did not say a word while the two of them could not calm down at all and began to quarrel with each other. They had only just started to fight over it. Who was going to manage this land and help the people plant crops?

Hiding under the shade of a tree, su Yuhan was so angry that she almost laughed when she saw the dog-eat-dog behavior. As an immortal cultivator, he couldn't even endure such a little hardship, yet he still wanted to enter the inner sect in the future.

Wasn't this a fool's dream?

If they couldn't even do what they were told to do, they might as well leave directly and not waste this position.

In any case, although she did not know what ye chen would do to deal with these three people, it would not be too much even if he chased them down the mountain and back to his own home.

As ye chen stood there, he could already see quite a number of small figures around him. They were carefully looking over. Most of them were disciples of Mount Tai. It seemed that he had used this move rather beautifully today.

He knew in his heart that there must be a lot of people who wanted to fool them. The act he put up today was for everyone to see clearly. It was also for them to be able to do what they should do on the few days they would go down the mountain instead of living a mediocre life.

Although it looked like a dry and simple farm work, it actually required a lot of energy and energy to help one become stronger.

"Alright, since you want to work so much, then we'll split this piece of land into two. Whoever finishes first today will be left behind, and the others will have to listen to my other arrangements."

Although ye chen said that, he had already made plans in his heart. He would never let these three continue to be the main entrance's address. He wanted to arrange for them to sweep the courtyard, so they still sounded like disciples of Mount Tai.

However, they couldn't spend too much time on things related to cultivation.

Ye chen was not willing to give his strength to these people who wanted to eat for free. Mistakes did not necessarily have to be forgiven. Moreover, this was a matter of attitude.

When the three disciples heard ye Chen's words, they immediately nodded frantically. Then, they grabbed the hoes beside them and began to swing them desperately to loosen the soil.

Ye Chen was well aware that such efficiency would be very high. Moreover, the physical strength they had expended today was probably only two or three days' worth of physical strength for other disciples.

He had probably rested for more than ten days a few days ago, and it was time to put in more energy to work.

The three people who were trying their best to sit with him stopped him and walked to Su Yuhan's side, then asked her with a smile.

"What do you think? My idea isn't bad, right?"

"You did a good job, but do you really want to keep them here? This kind of person is not worthy of being a sect disciple."

Su Yuhan said very directly. In her eyes, these people were completely insubordinate, and they didn't feel guilty at all. They only said that because they would be punished.

He was able to work so seriously because as long as he did it well, there was a high possibility that he could stay here again and not be driven away.

Of course, they also knew how great the honor was to become a disciple of the Taishan fans. After all, in those years, as long as they came down from the mountain, they would basically be loved by the commoners. After all, in their eyes, this group of people would protect their safety.

This was also why everyone pursued becoming an Ace disciple. Now, Ye Chen only hoped to make this peaceful world more peaceful and comfortable.

In that case, it was not wise to try to cause trouble.

"If you don't want to stay here any longer, let's go out and take a look at the other disciples. I think they won't cause trouble in front of me after what I did today."

Ye Chen chuckled. He was very satisfied with the effect of this matter. He also knew that this matter would gradually spread.

When the other sects found out about it, they wouldn't be able to keep up the act.

Ye Chen smiled and walked away with Su Yuhan. Then, they went to the other farmlands to look around.

Sure enough, there were a few other people who had cut corners yesterday, but now they were all working hard. This trick was simply perfect.

"After they've finished plowing that piece of land, I'll send the news back, and then we can leave this place."

Of course, Ye Chen knew that he was going to bring Su Yuhan out for a vacation. Of course, he could not waste all his time on this. Wouldn't that make people angry?

Chapter 2703 2708-Sincere Repentance!

The three disciples worked much faster all of a sudden. They wanted to show off and speed up so that they could win against their opponents.

In short, if one wanted to gain ye Chen's favor, they had to do it quickly and well at the same time.

In any case, they definitely couldn't fool him. The previous lesson had clearly told them that if they were to fool him this time, they might really leave Mount Tai forever.

At that time, wouldn't all the effort he had put in go to waste?

They didn't want to ruin their futures because of such a small matter, even if they had brought this upon themselves.

Ye chen took his wife around the area and took a look at the other beautiful and comfortable places in the countryside before returning to their original place.

Sure enough, the three disciples were just as fast, but they couldn't imagine that they had already been given a red card. They had to do this to be willing to work hard!

They might as well go back home and be young masters. How much loss could it bring to them? as long as they went back and cried and said bad things about the sect, no one would blame them.

This was how things worked in this world. As a sect leader, ye chen needed to ensure that there were no scums in his sect, no stupid and lazy people.

The rest didn't have much to do with him. He had them farm first, which was just a very small test.

However, there were so many people who were not willing to work hard. There was no need to say any more nonsense. He would just give them an obvious lesson.

By letting this news spread further and further, naturally, no one would continue to make such a meaningless struggle. If there were still people who wanted to provoke, they could only say that they did not want to continue staying in the Azure Dragon Gate.

"Let's go out for a walk. I want to go to West Lake. I heard that the scenery there is very beautiful. "

"Alright," he said.

The two of them looked at each other, hand in hand, and saw the strong love in each other's eyes. Although they had been separated for a long time, they had only eliminated all the dangers and could safely accompany their lover.

All in all, all of this was considered a happy ending for the two of them. Now, they were like a pair of beautiful mandarin ducks, a perfect pair.

Ye chen was very satisfied with being able to stay by her side wherever she went. This was a wonderful life.

The two of them sat there and rested for a while. After that, the three disciples threw down their hoes at the same time because they had already finished uprooting the entire plot of land and planted the seeds.

They were all doing very well. Ye chen had just taken a look at them from the side and found that almost every place was well-arranged.

From this, it seemed that it wasn't that he couldn't do it well, nor that he didn't have the ability, or that he didn't understand this aspect. He just didn't want to suffer because it was too difficult?

"Great sect leader, we've already done it. Can you let us stay together? We're really in the wrong this time, and we won't ever return. We hope you can forgive us!"

"That's right, that's right. Our Lord begged me to give us a chance. We'll really work seriously forever and never do such a thing again!"

At the same time, Wei hai also retracted his sharp edge and began to apologize seriously. The three of them were obviously young.

Logically speaking, it was indeed a time when one was easily arrogant, but some mistakes couldn't be corrected just because they were made.

To be honest, ye chen was indeed a little soft-hearted. After all, as a sect leader, he knew how difficult it was to go up the mountain. However, it was impossible for him to let these three people go directly. Otherwise, the others would not be afraid. Hence, ye chen looked at them and said.

"I can give you a chance, but you'll have to suffer a lot. Are you willing to accept it?"

"If it's that serious, of course we're willing to accept it. As long as you don't let us leave Mount Tai, we'll do whatever you want to do!"

"That's right, that's right. We can be slaves as long as they don't kick us out. We won't be so arrogant anymore, and we definitely won't be like this in the future!"

The three disciples cried until their tears were streaming down their faces. Ye chen nodded in relief. This time, he could truly feel their penitence.

Regardless of whether they were afraid or sincerely repentant, the fact that they could act like this meant that they were indeed of some use and not just empty words. Therefore, ye chen continued to tell them the final result.

"I can give you a chance, but it doesn't mean that you can deal with this matter easily. What I want to say is ..."

"When you return, you will still be a disciple of Mount Tai. However, you will have to clean the entire courtyard for half a year. Usually, there will only be the three of you. I will inform your sect master. When the time comes, just listen to my orders obediently. Do you understand?"

Ye chen had already stated a punishment that was considered severe but still acceptable. After hearing this, although the three of them felt a little tired, they did not dare to refute him.

They didn't know what the sect leader's personality was like. If they accidentally angered him again, wouldn't they have no way to live?

Thus, ye chen saw that the three of them immediately began to nod politely and thank him for his decision. Ye chen quickly helped all three of them up.

"In short, I don't want to see such a situation again in the future. Whether it's you or others, it's your fortune to see you today. Otherwise, with your character, you won't have any chance to cultivate at all. If I don't drive you out today, one day you will be driven out by others. Do you know that?"

Ye chen said in a serious tone. He did think so in his heart. In the past few years, the children had become more arrogant because there was no special emphasis on the punishment!

"Alright, I'll immediately send a letter back. At that time, you can go and get your own tools and help clean up the courtyard!"

At ye Chen's command, the three youths nodded seriously and then left very quickly. After all, other people's land would take another day to finish, but their land was done in one day. It was even more organized than the others.

She was very serious and there was no problem at all. That was why ye chen had made such a decision.

"Alright, you've had a long day. Go back and rest. I hope you can do your work steadily and patiently."

The three disciples apologized to ye chen repeatedly and only turned back after they were done. It was obvious that they had been tired for the whole day. Their backs must be aching but this was what they should do.

It was a plot of land for two people and today, the three of them were working together. To be honest, ye chen knew that he must have been cheating just by looking at the address.

As he and his wife had just gone around looking for this place, each plot of land had two disciples. From this, it could be seen that this disciple was not assigned with them. In any case, ye chen did not want to say more about the reason behind this. Now, the matter was finally resolved.

The wind whistled past his ears. It was almost dark. Ye chen also took his wife and their luggage and left the place.

With Peng Fei as a Mount, it was simply very convenient to go anywhere.

Ye chen had said in the afternoon that he would take his wife to take a look at West Lake, so they took off at night.

The Mount Tai they were currently on wasn't too far away from the West Lake. After flying for an entire night, they arrived at the West Lake.

It was not cold these days. Therefore, it was not too cold in the sky. He even had a nice and warm sleep in the feathers.

When he woke up again, it was already early in the morning. He could sit in the pavilion and watch the sun rise.

Ye chen had already planned what he was going to do today. He would go into the city after watching sunrise, buy some snacks, and stroll around the market.

The sun rose from the sky in the distance, revealing a deep red, pale red, and orange light. It was simply beautiful!

The two of them sat in a pot of tea sent by the teahouse next to the pavilion. The warm feeling was really comfortable. Just like that, they slowly felt the passing of time, and the leisure time in the morning slowly passed.

"It's been a long time since we've come out like this. When the sun rises, we'll go find a hotel and place our things down. Then we'll go out for a walk. Suzhou is beautiful!"

Ye Chen said with a chuckle.

"Alright!"

Su Yuhuan answered in a similarly happy mood.

Time passed quickly. After the sun had risen, the two of them took a boat and toured around West Lake. They came to the shore and rushed to the city together.

He had heard that Suzhou was very prosperous, and it seemed that it was even better than he had imagined.

Before they reached the market, they could already hear a lot of noise, but it wasn't noisy.

It sounded like it was filled with the smell of fireworks in the human world, so the two of them involuntarily sped up their pace and soon arrived at the bustling area of the city, the market.

The scenery of Jiangnan was indeed beautiful, and it was also full of cultural heritage. When the two of them walked over, they saw a person who specialized in writing a banner in calligraphy.

His powerful penmanship showed that he must have used internal energy. He was also smiling, like a hidden immortal.

The two of them stood at the side and watched for a while. Ye Chen could not hold back and bought a fan for writing. He fanned himself as he walked, then went to the tailor's shop to buy a new set of clothes and changed.

The comfortable fabric directly caused Ye Chen and Su Yuhuan to throw away the clothes they had worn at the beginning and go to the restaurant together.

Most of the restaurant had the effect of an Inn, so after they took it out and paid the deposit, they put their luggage upstairs and came down to order.

Steamed pork ribs, squirrel mandarin fish, Buddha Jumps Over the Wall ... Wait, wait, wait. The cuisines were all very good. Ye Chen had quite a lot of money in his hands this time, so he immediately ordered a few dishes and also two taels of wine?

"What's our next plan? It just so happens that the Green Peak is right next to it. Do you want to go and take a look?"

Su Yuhuan asked Ye Chen as she poured a cup of warm tea from the teapot beside her.

They were planning to stay here for two days to have some fun, so they could also go and visit.

Su Yuhan was a little more meticulous. After all, ye chen had already gone to Mount Tai. If he did not go to the other places, it would cause a misunderstanding. Therefore, she would take the opportunity to visit the nearby places while they were out on vacation!

On the one hand, he wanted to see the others, and on the other hand, he hoped to get everyone's approval and acceptance. After all, no matter what, he was definitely going to be the sect leader, and it had been so long.

It couldn't really just be a name, right?

"I think so too, but I still want to take care of your feelings. So, let's go out and play for another day today and go up the mountain together tomorrow morning!"

Ye chen nodded.

It was great to be able to find a good wife who took care of them so well. Every time ye chen saw his lover, he could not help but sigh. He was so lucky!

At this time, the inn was gradually filled with more and more guests, so the speed of the dishes being served was not very fast.

Ye chen was about to urge him when he suddenly heard the sound of people looking at the table in the middle of the restaurant's lobby. He quickly looked over.

Ye chen was wondering what was going on. When he looked at the others' eyes, they seemed to be very familiar and natural. It seemed that there was no danger.

When he looked again, the curtain had been pulled open, and a woman playing the guzheng and a man playing the flute were sitting behind it.

It seemed that there were many reasons for this kind of restaurant's good business. Ye chen took a bite of the food and found that it tasted good. There was also this kind of side show that more or less caught everyone's appetite.

The melodious sound of the musical instrument rang out along with the waiter's shouts, which indeed added a lot of color to the meal.

But at this moment, a very abrupt voice broke all this. A man came in from the main entrance of the restaurant with a few guests behind him. He didn't look like an ordinary person who came to eat. It was as if he was here to cause trouble?

"Miss Dong is in such a good mood today that you actually came out to play the guzheng?" You have time to work here, but you don't have time to have a drink with me?

The hedonistic son said arrogantly, then walked up with his men.

Then, he didn't care about the people who were eating next to him. He directly pushed the two customers who were waiting for their dishes to another table and sat down by himself.

His current position was right in the middle of the stage.

Chapter 2704 2708-Hedonistic Son?

This person's status was obviously not low. The customers around the X-ray mirror, who were originally happy to show their support, had basically all restrained themselves.

However, even if he didn't say it clearly, he was still filled with righteous indignation and hated this young master.

Although this young master who suddenly came out to snatch someone's seat was not extremely ugly, his appearance was not very good either. At first glance, he was a tyrant and a young master who had been pampered for a long time.

The sound of the guzheng and bamboo flute was still playing, but it didn't sound as melodious as before, and there was even a sudden tension.

The man sat there with his legs crossed, as if he didn't feel it at all. He casually recognized a silver ingot and asked the waiter to serve the dish.

Then, he looked at the woman on the stage who was playing the guzheng. His eyes didn't move, and his target was clear and straightforward.

Ye chen and the others had already ordered a few dishes. By the time the song ended, the two of them were almost done eating. They looked at the guest over there. After the other party finished singing, he stood up and walked to the front of the stage.

"I wonder if I can invite miss Jin to have a meal with me. Would you do me the honor?"

He sounded like he was inviting Chen Xing, but in fact, from his perverted expression and actions, it was obvious that he had other intentions.

Ye chen had just learned about this from the conversation of the guests at the table next to him. It turned out that this Lady Jin was a musician in this restaurant.

She was very beautiful, and because she would attract some rotten peach flowers from time to time, she used the gauze to cover her face. However, she still couldn't help but be liked by people, and many rich young masters went after her like a flock of ducks.

The man who was playing the bamboo flute next to her was miss Jin's younger brother. The two of them could be considered to have depended on each other. They had come to the owner of this Tavern when they were young.

Then, she was raised by her adoptive father to perform some talents in his restaurant to make money. However, because she was too beautiful, there was always endless trouble. Her sudden arrival caught them a little off guard.

The restaurant's business was getting better and better because of their performance. In short, they were two lucky stars. The boss had also constantly resisted the people who had come to find trouble with him.

However, he gradually couldn't control them anymore. In short, more than a month ago, this very stubborn and wealthy young master came here. After that, there were no other suitors.

But just this one was already troublesome enough. All he wanted to do was come here and take advantage of her.

He was not a good person at all. Other than ye chen, everyone else knew and could tell.

In fact, there were a lot of guests in Kowloon. No one dared to touch him, but the verbal offense never stopped. However, because of his identity, no one dared to punish him directly. So, he just pestered miss Jin day and night.

Everyone hated him when they saw him, and this good-for-nothing young master was the son of their city Lord.

The city Lord was very strict in his work, but he doted on his son extremely.

Therefore, after hearing about this matter, although he said that he was teaching his son a lesson, it was only verbal criticism.

When the city Lord was young, everyone was still very fond of him. However, as he gradually grew older and had a son at an old age, things became out of control.

In short, at the beginning, some people would talk to the city Lord about this matter, but he would completely suppress anything related to his son, whether it was money or a lesson.

In short, it was impossible to let the matter blow up. Moreover, this group of young masters basically didn't dare to touch them directly.

Therefore, even though everyone hated his offensive words, they couldn't completely Sue him.

This matter had been going on for a long time. It was obvious that miss Jin had been troubled by the city Lord's son and did not know what to do. Usually, she liked to go to the market and use the money given by her adoptive father to buy something, or to add something to the family.

She didn't have a sweetheart either, but ever since this dandy young master came, she didn't dare to go out. Who knew if there would be any problems if she went out without the restaurant's guards? At least in the restaurant, the waiter or other guards could temporarily protect her safety.

All she could do was hide in the dark, but she couldn't always be like this!

There was also a day when he couldn't stand it. Including today, he hadn't gone out for fifteen days. Moreover, he had heard that the city Lord's son's subordinates would circle around the restaurant from time to time.

It looked like she was on a walk, which scared miss Jin even more and made her unwilling to go out. It was a relatively sinful thing!

Although they didn't need to be respected, they couldn't force a marriage like this!

Besides, who knew if this young master was just playing around? when the time came for this pure and white Lotus-like miss Jin to be humiliated and treated badly, anyone would feel heartache.

Ye chen had not expected this matter to be so complicated. Moreover, from everyone's reaction, he knew that no one would dare to take the initiative to speak.

At this time, he might need to take action. Anyway, he was not from this city, and the city Lord's son only knew how to harass others all day long. He would definitely not be able to achieve anything.

Just when everyone thought that the son of the group leader would only provoke them verbally and leave after eating, they were stunned.

Who would have thought that he would put down the wine cup in his hand, and then raise his hand, and more than ten thug-like people rushed out of the restaurant, all of them holding sticks.

"Miss Jin, you've just come to work. I just wanted to treat you to a meal, but you refused. It seems that I have to use some forceful means!"

He said with a smile that was not a smile, still sitting in his seat, but his thugs surrounded him on both sides.

"Alright, I see that everyone is almost full. It's time to leave. I don't need to wait for my men to invite you all to leave, right?"

The city Lord's son was called Zhang Qiang. He had been pampered since he was a child, so he didn't care about what others thought when he did things.

So at this moment, his men immediately obeyed his orders and began to drive the people eating at the table out.

Ye Chen had already finished his meal but he was not ready to leave. He picked up the handkerchief next to him and wiped the corners of his mouth, then sat there very steadily.

Their seats were neither too far nor too close, neither on the side nor in the middle, making them look very out of place.

Because the surrounding customers had been completely frightened. At this time, of course, they would choose to protect themselves and would definitely not want to cause trouble for themselves.

After all, he was the son of the city Lord. If he offended him, it might have a bad impact on his family.

At the table next to Ye Chen, the few people who had been talking about this matter saw that Ye Chen and his partner were still selfless and unmoving. They immediately patted their table and whispered to them.

"If the two of you are afraid of being found, you should hurry up and leave. Ordinary people like us can't meddle in such matters!"

"It's nothing. We're not full yet. You can go first. "

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said as if nothing had happened. The man did not try to persuade him anymore. After all, he could not even save himself at this time. Why would he care about others?

As a result, after the group of helpers quickly cleared the area, the other guests had all left.

Some of them didn't even have much to eat, so they couldn't care less at this time.

At most, he would go out and find something else. If he stayed here, the trouble would be even greater. Wouldn't he be deliberately letting others pick on him?

Ye Chen and Su Yuhua just sat there, not moving an inch.

Two thugs walked over and knocked on their table with the wooden stick in their hands, almost shattering the plate closest to them.

"The two of you, get out of here. Otherwise, we won't be responsible for any consequences!"

Their tone was very harsh. Unfortunately, Ye Chen had already seen their strength earlier. Each and every one of them was too weak.

They were just ordinary thugs who could only bully ordinary people. If they were to meet him, they would simply be like ants.

Therefore, Ye Chen did not say anything. He only flicked his fingers lightly and the two people who had been arrogant and domineering were immediately flicked away.

Young Master Zhang Qiang, who was still wondering what was going on here, didn't say a word when he saw the two thugs being thrown to the ground.

As for the two people sitting there, they didn't even stand up to make a move, as if they had fallen on their own.

His usual style told him that something was not right but he did not allow himself to cool down at this time. Therefore, he strode over and stopped when he was one or two meters away from Ye Chen's group.

"What's wrong with you two? Can't you see that I'm about to clear this place? Do you want to get beaten up by staying here?"

As he said that, he glanced at the two thugs who were thrown to the ground and showed a very unhappy expression.

Ye Chen heard him but did not directly respond to his words. He drank the warm tea in the cup next to him in one go.

He had never thought that he would see such a situation in a place like this. It was a coincidence that he had run into it, so it could be considered fate.

Moreover, he also felt that the performance of the two people just now was very good, so he couldn't bear to be disrupted. Now, he could give back to these two people!

"I just finished my meal, and I would like to ask this young master, what do you want to do next?"

Ye Chen's last question on Chinese had unexpectedly reminded Zhang Qiang.

He instantly realized that he was looking for someone. He didn't care about the two strange people, turned around, and walked to the stage. Then he said loudly,

"Miss Jin, I have something to discuss with you. I sincerely like you, so I hope you can come with me!"

His words were quite straightforward, but he didn't expect that miss Jin, who was standing there, would turn pale. Even through the gauze, he could see her fear.

Of course, ye chen had also seen this scene, so he subconsciously felt that this matter was not that simple. There was probably something he did not know.

However, before that, he had to save this Lady Jin and teach this so-called young master a little lesson.

"I have no affection for you, and I don't like you, so I hope that young master Zhang won't force it!"

Recently, the lady had obviously been forced into a corner. Her voice trembled a little, and her displeasure could be heard from her tone.

However, young master Zhang didn't seem to care. He was still smiling and licking his face. He even went around the stairs and walked directly to miss Jin.

The man who was blowing the flute at the side immediately blocked her, but who knew that he would be pushed to the ground!

"What does it have to do with you? I'm warning you now, don't interfere. Otherwise, I think you want to be crippled by me!"

He said viciously.

"Don't you dare!" Miss Jin was also an emotional person. After hearing the other party's words, she was very angry and quickly helped her brother up.

She glared at the man in front of her, as if she wanted to kill him with her gaze.

"Don't be angry, miss Jin. As long as you're willing to listen to me, I won't hurt her. I'll also take good care of you. "

Her glib-tongued appearance made others feel disgusted. Ye chen did not intend to continue tolerating her when he saw this.

He glanced at su Yuhan and understood what she meant. The two of them stood up together.

"This young master can actually do something like forcefully snatching a woman in broad daylight. This really makes me a little surprised!"

Ye chen kicked the stool away and strode over.

The underlings at the side subconsciously wanted to stop him, but before they could get close to him, they were kicked away.

It was an invisible force, but it seemed to have legs!

In short, this scene looked very strange, but it also made people feel extremely carefree, as if there was a layer of Golden Bell shield.

When young master Zhang saw ye Chen's condition, he was obviously shocked. After all, this man was walking toward him step by step. It was likely that he would be beaten up later. He felt this kind of danger.

"What do you want to do? I'm telling you, you better stay away from me as soon as possible. I'm the son of the city Lord, if you dare to disrespect me, then I'll definitely ask my father to punish you!"

The childish words almost made ye chen laugh on the spot. The person being spied on was not very smart!

Chapter 2705 2711-Bullying

"I'm new here, so I don't know who your father is. Why don't you introduce him to me? I might know him!"

Ye chen said in the same tone as if he was teasing him. In short, his words clearly displeased the other party's young master. He glared at Zhang Qiang.

However, there were no thugs around him who could help him, so he could only stand beside miss Jin.

As for ye chen, he did not hesitate at all. He kept walking over and when he was in front of him, he pushed him away.

Miss Jin was immediately pulled to the other side by her brother. In short, no one had expected today's situation. Otherwise, they would have avoided it.

No one had thought that this young master Zhang would really want to snatch her away so openly this time. This was really too absurd.

And no one even dared to report to the officials for dinner. After escaping from the restaurant, they went their separate ways. It was not good for them to get involved in other people's Affairs.

Zhang Qiang did not think that even though he was not physically strong, he still had muscles. Who knew that ye chen would only push him lightly and he would fall to the ground.

Moreover, he could directly feel the intensity of the force. His eyes widened in shock and he looked at ye chen in horror.

Although the man in front of her didn't seem to be a very luxurious person, the strength in his quasi-body was already very shocking.

What should he do? If this was really a Big Shot that he couldn't afford to offend, then wouldn't he be finished?

It was also because Zhang Qiang couldn't change his personality that no one wanted to lose face in front of miss Jin, so he was stunned again.

"Who the hell are you? Why did you come here to meddle in other people's business? I'm warning you, you'd better not touch me again, or you'll really be finished. "

As he spoke, he signaled his men on the ground to run out and call his father. Otherwise, the situation today would be like this. He would definitely suffer a huge loss.

The city Lord of Suzhou was drinking tea at home. He had not expected such a big piece of news to come back.

"I don't know where that person came from, but he bullied the young master and even hit him. It looked like he hit him very hard. City Lord, you should go and take a look!"

This coachman next to Zhang Qiang, when we talk, we also subconsciously make the matter more serious. We have to let Master Chen quickly go and save young master!

"I can't do anything but cause trouble for me all day long. It's too troublesome. Take me there. If I offend someone, I can't always be his backup. I'm not young anymore!"

The city Lord was actually very helpless in his heart. After all, this son was spoiled by him. Even if he was angry about what happened later, he could not be too angry at his son.

In short, the tolerance and pampering over and over again had led to the current situation that was becoming more and more irreversible.

He didn't know why, but he had a premonition that the person he had met this time was not an ordinary person.

The group leader led his family's subordinates and strode towards the restaurant. Almost all the people who saw him on the way were pointing and whispering.

To be honest, he had already offended countless commoners because of his son.

However, he could only accept it. After all, he had been exonerating his son all this time. Therefore, the people in the city no longer trusted him and no longer liked the city Lord.

"I heard that something big happened in the restaurant today. His son wanted to take away a woman and take miss Jin away. But I heard that someone was brave enough to do something for him!"

"He still dares to do good deeds in this day and age. He's not afraid of the city Lord's might. It seems that he's still not out often!"

"I think it must be a young man. Who doesn't know about this situation? isn't she afraid of being beaten up by the city Lord? she even dared to hit his son!"

These various words were directly transmitted to Lord Chen's ears. However, he could only act as if he had turned a deaf ear.

However, he was just trying to cover his ears and steal a Bell. To be honest, because of his son's matter, he also tried to avoid going out as much as possible to avoid being seen by the people in the city.

He had no choice but to speed up and rush to the restaurant. He soon arrived at the door and the door was closed.

And this was not done by anyone else. It was his son who closed the door to hide it from others. He went up and kicked it open!

As soon as the door opened, Zhang Qiang looked up and saw his father. He quickly rolled down from the stage and ran to his father's side, hiding behind him.

"Father, quickly punish him. He actually dared to hit me. People like him should be put in prison!"

Zhang Qiang was still a little afraid of ye chen, but now that he saw his father, the group leader, was here, he suddenly became bold and quickly began to complain.

Meanwhile, ye chen only shifted his gaze to this side with a faint smile. It was impossible to tell what he was really thinking.

The group leader was a little more serious than his son. After glancing at ye chen, he did not directly blame him or anything. He only glared at his son, then took a few steps forward and looked up at ye chen.

"May I ask where this gentleman is from? It doesn't look like he's from this city!"

Ye chen replied upon hearing his good attitude.

"Azure Dragon sect's sect master ye chen is here to visit Suzhou."

When he said those words in the quiet restaurant, it was like throwing a time bomb. It exploded at the right time.

The city Lord's eyes clearly became a lot more flustered, and he subconsciously took half a step back, but he still stood there steadily.

Ye chen did not intend to hide his identity. Besides, this identity was sometimes very convenient.

At the very least, it would sound scary to others, and he didn't like to cause endless trouble.

"Are you really the sect leader of the Azure Dragon sect?"

City Lord Zhang He tried his best to calm himself down and asked again.

"Of course, if you still don't believe me, I can show you my Jade card."

Ye chen did not think that the other party would not believe him. After all, his identity and image must have been spread around the streets.

Everyone was very surprised by the sudden appearance of this sect leader, and also felt that he was mysterious.

But later, he found out that the things he did for the good of the people were all praises.

And now, the identity and image of this young man, didn't it match the legendary sect leader?

Instantly, a chill ran down Zhang He's spine. He did not know what to do.

He wasn't young, and he had a lot of experience, but he had never thought that he would encounter such a melodramatic thing.

His son had indeed gone too far this time. He had indeed liked to tease good women before, but he had not done too many things.

However, she dared to be so arrogant today. Wasn't this clearly making him angry? not to mention, she had directly hit the muzzle of a huge gun!

He was really resentful that his son had not lived up to his expectations. If he had not taken good care of his son in the beginning, there would not have been so many unnecessary troubles. Now, he had no way to solve them.

"Sect leader, I apologize for not coming out to welcome you today. It is indeed my son's fault. I will immediately have him apologize to you."

Zhang He made a prompt decision. He turned around and pulled his son to the front. Then, he kicked his son's knee, making him kneel on the ground.

Zhang Qiang didn't even have time to react before he knelt on the ground.

"What is father doing? He was the one who bullied me first!"

He immediately wanted to stand up and looked at his father indignantly. Who knew that he would be stepped on his lower leg so hard that he couldn't stand up at all.

"Can't you see what you did wrong? It's my fault for not disciplining you well since you were young, causing you to be like this now. But I will definitely not tolerate it in the future, so you better obediently admit your mistake today!"

Zhang He looked up at ye chen after he said this.

"Sect leader, can you pretend that today's matter didn't happen? I've really corrected him too much, so he's so presumptuous. I will discipline him well. I hope you can let him go and never let him do bad things again!"

Zhang He said firmly as if he had decided on something. Ye chen only glanced at him and did not say anything.

Although this pair of father and son couldn't be said to have the same kind of father as the son, it was indeed because of his father's pampering that the child had become like this.

She was clearly still young and should have just passed the wedding ceremony not long ago!

He had already used his family's name to bring these so-called thugs to snatch people away. If he continued to tolerate this in the future, he didn't know what kind of bad things he would do!

"I originally did not want to care much about your son, but today I was eating here and encountered such a matter. I really can not sit and ignore it."

Ye chen glanced at her. Miss Jin was clearly frightened. She stood aside and looked down at the ground, not even daring to look up.

"I think your son shouldn't apologize to me, but to this girl. He even injured her brother. No matter what status he has, he can't force others. Your son doesn't understand these things, so he can't avoid being taught a lesson!"

Ye chen was very straightforward. In his eyes, if Zhang Qiang was not properly disciplined, he would only endanger the people in the future.

Zhang He immediately nodded and pushed his son away.

"Hurry up and apologize. You will be grounded at home for two months. You can stay at home and study for the next two months. Apologize to them and go home!"

At this moment, Zhang He was very much like a strict father. Unfortunately, he couldn't be like this before. He could only hope that he could repent in time now!

Zhang Qiang obviously didn't see his father so angry, so he could only take a few steps forward and say unwillingly.

"I'm sorry, miss Jin. I won't find trouble with you anymore. "

As soon as he finished speaking, Zhang He immediately asked the two guests behind him to help his young master up and quickly take him away.

To be honest, he did it to protect his son. After all, although he had not seen the Azure Dragon sect with his own eyes, he knew what kind of immortal cultivators they were.

If he offended the other party at this time, he might cripple his son's entire body with just a move of his finger.

He might not even be able to keep his life, so he had to at least protect his son first. After all, he was his son.

However, ye chen did not intend to let this young master Zhang off so easily. He merely raised his head to look at him and tapped his finger without a sound. Young master Zhang felt a dull pain in his left shoulder!

However, before he could feel any more pain, he was quickly taken away.

Ye chen did not do much. He only removed a small piece of bone from the man's shoulder. After that, the man's arm became very weak and the pain did not last long.

However, it would definitely affect his future life, and this was the lesson he deserved.

There was another reason for ye Chen's actions. He had just heard what the others had said. This young master had not only snatched the beautiful women of this family, but he also often flirted with the young girls he saw on the road. He also liked to bully the weak.

Taking away one of his bones would at least teach him a lesson and make him stop doing bad things willfully in the future. Otherwise, this would be his retribution.

When Zhang He saw his son being taken away, he turned around and immediately greeted ye chen with a smile.

After being a city Lord for so many years, he was very familiar with the ways of the world. He immediately walked over.

"Sect leader, I've really disturbed your time today. I didn't expect that one day, I would need your help to educate my son."

"Why didn't you tell us earlier that you were coming to our Suzhou? As long as you tell me, I'll definitely welcome you with open arms. But it's not too late today, I'll immediately have my men bring you to the city Lord's mansion!"

He had made good arrangements, but ye chen had no intention of listening to his arrangements.

"There's no need to ask the group leader. We've already found a restaurant and an Inn, and we don't intend to stay here for too long. We should leave after playing for two days."

Ye chen refused in a distant tone.

He had never liked people who were too flattering, not to mention that he didn't have a good impression of this group leader's people. After strolling around here for a day, he and his wife would go to the nearby Jin Cui peak to take a look, so there was no need to go through so much trouble.

"Thank you for your consideration, but we don't need it for the time being. Please go back and take care of your son."

He didn't care if the other party wanted to save face or not, and he just retorted.

Chapter 2706 The One Who Overstepped His Level In The Peach Forest!

Naturally, Zhang He's expression turned sour but he could not vent his anger on ye chen, so he could only force a smile and nod.

"Since that is the case, I won't stay any longer. In the next few days, if the two of you have anything you want to play in Suzhou, you can directly tell my servants. They will help you settle down."

"Wait, don't leave yet. There's one more thing."

"Please speak."

"Didn't you see the fallen table and the broken stool leg over there? Leave the money and then leave. You have to pay the compensation to the restaurant. "

Ye chen said bluntly. Then, he looked at Zhang He, urging him with his eyes.

"Okay, okay, okay. Old Luo, get more money for this restaurant as compensation and comfort."

Zhang He could be considered as someone who knew how to conduct himself, so he had settled down very well.

Ye chen did not continue to make things difficult for him. He nodded and brought his wife to the room upstairs.

If he hadn't encountered today's incident, the others would definitely not have dared to say anything. He didn't know if such a danger would have become more serious.

Moreover, the young master wanted to take her by force today. Who knew what would happen next?

Wouldn't that completely ruin the girl's innocence? It was really the practice of an animal!

"It seems that manager Chen's words will bring some disadvantages to the city. None of these people dare to report this matter."

Of course, su Yuhan was also very worried, so she clenched her fists when she talked about this.

As a woman, she could clearly feel the powerlessness of the resistance. She was really glad that they had appeared here today.

"Don't worry, I've already punished that good-for-nothing rich kid. I secretly stole a bone that was tied to his body yesterday. His shoulder will probably be powerless for a year or two. Even if it doesn't affect normal small movements with little strength, as long as he uses a little bit of strength, he will feel a heart-piercing pain."

Ye chen stepped forward and hugged his lover, then consoled him. For a person who had not settled down in society for long, they would still give him a small chance.

However, punishment was necessary. Otherwise, it would only make them do it more seriously the next time.

"I hope so. I still feel a little uneasy in my heart. Why don't we stay here for a few more days and see what the situation is like?"

"Of course we have to do this, but we can't do it too openly. If Lord Chen finds out that the two of them are here, he definitely won't do anything that violates the Justice of the people."

Ye chen said. Su Yuhan nodded in agreement. It made sense. Hence, the two of them had a plan. After another day of shopping tomorrow morning, they would pretend to leave the city.

He would also go to the green Peak to take a look and come back at night or noon the next day. He could only hope that the city Lord would not disappoint them too much, or that his scumbag son would also be more careful!

"Alright, there's no need to think about such vexing things anymore. You should quickly rest. If there are any problems, I'll solve them properly."

Ye chen consoled.

Of course, he could see his wife's worry and the worry in her heart, so he naturally had to help his lover settle this sorrow.

Early the next morning, ye chen and the others went downstairs after leaving their rooms. They were preparing to have breakfast when the owner of the restaurant personally served them several dishes.

"Milords, please have a taste. The taste of our West Lake dishes is simply delicious, and they are all handmade by Madam Jiangnan. You can't eat this in other restaurants. "

The boss looked kind and kind, and it could be seen that he was indeed a good person. Otherwise, he would not have taken in the two poor siblings since they were young.

Moreover, ye chen had asked the castellan to compensate them yesterday, which was double the original amount, so he was overjoyed.

Of course, ye chen would not refuse the local specialties of this place. He had come here to experience it anyway. It was much more convenient than going out and looking for it randomly.

As they ate, they chatted with the owner of the restaurant and asked about some other delicacies. They were prepared to go out and have a good meal for the whole day.

As he spoke, ye chen asked a question. He wanted to ask the owner of the restaurant about the city Lord's son from yesterday.

"Him! Don't look down on his young age. If you miss it, there will definitely be too many. I remember that two or three years ago, he was still young, but he had already started bullying other students in school. Two students even dropped out of school because of his bullying. "

"You're so young, yet you only know how to harm others all day long. It's fine if you can't learn well, but you even bully those who can."

"He's just relying on his identity, that's why he dares to do whatever he wants. If he wasn't the son of the city Lord, how could he do all this without anyone's supervision?"

"In short, it has been like this for several years. Even when the city Lord sometimes lectured him, he would only kneel in the ancestral hall for two days."

After that, the owner of the restaurant talked about something else. In short, it was all about the strong bullying the weak.

Ye chen had a better understanding of him and had a better plan in mind. In his opinion, this young child would not change for the better immediately.

Even if they did bad things when they were young, they were still bad. If they didn't educate them well, they naturally had to bear the consequences.

At this time, the city Lord's mansion was in a mess. Zhang Qiang immediately lost his temper when he returned and smashed many things in his room on the ground.

She had wanted him to go to the ancestral hall to kneel and apologize but she did not expect him to be unwilling at all. Moreover, he hated ye chen to the core.

In his eyes, he had always been a lawless person, but now, someone who could discipline him had suddenly appeared.

This made him feel like he was no longer the boss of Suzhou. This was a very serious question.

"Just where did he come from? you all hurry up and investigate. I will not let him off so easily. As long as he is in Suzhou, no one can do anything to me!"

His left arm drooped slightly in pain. He had to remain still in this state. Otherwise, it would feel like someone was poking him with a very thin needle.

He didn't know why, but he thought that it was because of his fall. In fact, it was his little revenge.

Ye chen and su Yuhan first left the restaurant and went to an extremely well-decorated garden. It was said that it was by the West Lake, comparable to the degree in the novels.

When the restaurant owner introduced this place to them, he told them very seriously that they had to come and take a look, otherwise they would really miss a good view.

So after the two of them had eaten, they rushed to this place without stopping. When they saw this place from afar, they were very surprised because it was indeed very beautiful.

It was only the end of March, but half of the flowers were already in full bloom.

The pink flowers were embellished among the green leaves, looking very beautiful. In contrast, this place suddenly became full of spring.

Ye chen held his lover's hand and walked around this place. Who knew that as soon as he walked out, he could feel a kind of energy fluctuation inside.

And it seemed to be released by someone, and it was spreading towards the center and the surroundings. Was someone here skipping levels?

From the literal meaning, it could be seen that skipping a level was a kind of super long leap in level. An ordinary increase of one level only required a small amount of energy fluctuations.

Sometimes, they couldn't even get out of a cave, but it was different when one was higher in level. It was very violent, and it was at least two levels higher.

The two of them obviously felt it, so after looking at each other, they walked into the depths of the peach forest together.

According to the boss, there should have been a lot of people who had fled, but there were only a few today.

Moreover, they didn't walk in. When they saw the pace at which the two of them walked in, they even looked a little surprised.

Ye chen was very surprised. After all, this kind of energy fluctuation that was beyond one's level could not be felt unless one was an immortal cultivator. However, they could directly feel the pressure in the air.

In short, if it were an ordinary person, it would be as if there was an invisible force pushing them out.

In this case, even if he did not sense anyone inside, he would be forced to leave this place. It was a strange feeling, but ye chen and the others were not affected.

After all, even if the person inside wanted to become stronger, he couldn't reach their level.

Therefore, for the two of them, it was just a little bit of discomfort, and they only needed to bear with it for a while to get rid of it.

So, the two of them walked and admired the scenery, flowers, and birds, while looking for the person who was standing above their level. Of course, the two of them didn't want to disturb him, they just wanted to take a look.

It had indeed been a long time since he had seen such a talent. After all, without a certain level of strength, it was impossible to reach the level of a disciple who could directly cross the level.

The deeper they went, the greater the change in the energy. Just as the two of them were about to find it, they suddenly realized that there was something wrong with the fluctuations of the energy.

It stopped abruptly as if it had been hindered by something. Then, it started to develop from all directions like an octopus.

This was not a good sign. Ye chen frowned and immediately rushed in that direction. He had to find this person as soon as possible. Otherwise, he might suffer from Qi deviation.

At that time, it was very likely that a very good seedling would be ruined just like that!

The two of them split up and quickly found a small cave. The cave was emitting a faint light.

The two of them walked over and saw someone sitting inside. The man's forehead was already filled with cold sweat, and it was rolling down drop by drop.

However, he could only close his eyes and put his hands together as if he was forcefully suppressing it. However, it seemed like he could not control it perfectly.

It was obvious that he was currently entangled with his own consciousness. If he could not win, it was very likely that his meridians would explode and he would die. Therefore, ye chen walked up without any hesitation.

He stretched out his index finger and touched the area between the young man's eyebrows. A faint yellow energy was coming out of his finger and entering the young man's body, wrapping around the ardor pill that had just become violent.

It cooled him down like an ice cube, and his panting wasn't as loud as before. It seemed like he was finally getting some relief.

Only then did ye chen take a closer look. The boy did not look very old, probably only in his teens. For some reason, he suddenly thought of a way to skip levels.

Logically speaking, a gradual promotion should be very suitable for a talented person like him!

Why did he choose such a bumpy road? not to mention, as long as he wasn't here, it was very likely that he would fall here today. Wouldn't that be more of a loss than gain?

Ye chen thought to himself that he had to teach the child a lesson when he woke up later. Otherwise, he would be looking for trouble!

He used his spirit energy to feel that most of the meridians in this young man's body were in good condition. Those that were slightly injured were all repaired by him.

After confirming that the other party was not a serious threat, he retracted his power and stood aside.

The young man sitting there had completed his advancement. He slowly adjusted his breathing and opened his eyes.

He had just felt someone giving him a power, a power from the outside.

He wasn't as impetuous as the others. On the contrary, he was very gentle and didn't show any signs of rejection.

When he opened his eyes, he saw the man standing in front of him and the woman behind him.

The two of them looked extraordinary and were not ordinary people. It seemed that they were the ones who had helped him just now.

"Thank you, both of you."

This young man was very clear headed. He immediately realized everything after seeing them and immediately thanked his benefactor.

He was also clear about the situation just now. If there was no external pressure, it was obvious that there would be great danger. At that time, it was very likely that he would not be able to skip a level, and everything would disappear.

Ye chen nodded and looked at the handsome young man.

"Where did you learn this from? why are you jumping levels here?"

"I'm a disciple of the verdant peak, Ming Liang. I've come here specifically to improve my strength. "

When ye chen heard about this, he nodded and said, ""You should be fine now, aren't you going back? I'm also going to the green Peak right now, so why don't we go up the mountain together?"

When ye chen heard this, he naturally thought that it was better to hit the nail on the head than to choose another day.

Chapter 2707 Emerald Peak Competition!

"May I ask who you are?" When the disciple heard ye Chen's words, he still had some doubts in his heart.

He certainly couldn't bring anyone to Green Peak at will, so he asked tactfully. After all, the person in front of him was his benefactor who had just saved him.

Ye chen smiled and replied, ""I'm an elder from the Green Dragon sect. You don't have to be afraid, just bring me there. It's my first time here, so I don't know the way. "

When ye chen said this, he had directly excluded Peng Fei. This time, he did not need to send him up. He could go up the mountain with this disciple. It was good to walk on the mountain path.

After the disciple heard this, he nodded indifferently but it was clear that he did not completely believe ye chen. Thus, ye chen took out the token hanging on his waist. It was the Azure Dragon sect's token.

Most disciples couldn't recognize this kind of plate, and only the back of it showed the front of the identity, and only the place it belonged to could be seen.

The disciple nodded after looking at his card.

"Why did you choose such a method to improve your strength? when I saw your ability just now, I didn't think it was bad. Why don't you want to take it step by step?"

Ye Chen had no ill intentions in asking this. After all, this kind of cross-ranking also depended on the individual's strength and quality. Most people could not do it, so it was not against the rules.

He was just really curious. Was there something that required him to quickly increase his strength?

After probing, the disciple seemed to have opened up a Chatterbox and immediately began to talk about the cause and effect of this matter.

It turned out that there was a written examination for Emerald Kite recently. As long as one was strong enough, they could get the qualification to enter the inner sect. In short, all disciples could participate. Of course, the young disciple in front of him also had some ideas. As an outer disciple, who didn't want to become an inner disciple?

Not to mention that he had been talented since he was young. He was just a child who was taken to the Green Peak by an immortal passing by.

However, he could only be a disciple outside and did not receive any other care.

Therefore, he could only try his best to improve himself and then work hard to achieve his desired goal with his own strength.

He had not stayed on it for long, so he definitely did not have an advantage over the other disciples who had been cultivating for several years.

Therefore, he thought of this method to try his best to improve his strength quickly. In this way, he could try hard and maybe he could really enter. If he could enter, it would be a very good situation!

The immortal who had brought him to the Green Peak had disappeared after sending him in.

He had always felt that that person was from the inner sect, so he wanted to work hard to get in and become his disciple.

After all, only inner sect disciples could take the initiative to find their own Masters and choose the master they liked, while outer sect disciples could only train together.

It was already a great honor to be able to reach the Green Peak, but who wouldn't want to be able to go even higher?

The competition would start in two days, so he thought of this move.

"I think I have to at least be on par with them in order to have a chance. That's why I can only do this. After all, I've only been on the mountain for a few years and I'm not as stable as everyone else."

He said dejectedly. However, he didn't know that he was already extraordinary to be able to skip a level like this.

When Ye Chen heard this disciple's words, his eyes finally revealed a hint of admiration. He had encountered many young disciples like this.

The ones at Mount Tai were a little disappointing, but the ones at Green Peak today were different.

In any case, it still belonged to Azure Dragon sect, so Ye Chen felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity.

This was also why he didn't directly kick the previous disciples out of the sect, but instead gave them a certain lesson.

"When are you going back?"

I had originally wanted to go to Suzhou for a meal after my rest and then return to the mountain in the afternoon. When do the two elders want to go?"

"That's right. That's what we've planned as well. So, let's go up the mountain together in the afternoon!"

After the three of them had agreed, ye chen and the others continued to have fun while the disciple entered the city alone.

They had agreed to meet at the city gate and go up the mountain together. After some thought, ye chen decided to let Peng Fei lead the way. Otherwise, their speed would not be enough.

After enjoying the beautiful scenery by the West Lake for a while, the two of them watched as the sun gradually heated up. They took a boat along the West Lake, from this peach forest to the other shore.

This way, they could enter the city directly and enjoy the beautiful scenery of the lake along the way.

Just like that, without realizing it, it was already noon. Ye chen and the others returned to the restaurant and ordered some dishes. They were ready to pack up and leave after eating.

The city Lord did not come over that day, but his subordinates would come over from time to time to comfort him.

Ye chen probably did this because he did not want to provoke her. Moreover, his son's little bones should be checked by a Chinese medicine doctor by now.

If the other party didn't provoke him in this situation, he didn't intend to say goodbye.

After lunch, ye chen packed his luggage and went to the city gate with his lover. The disciple was already waiting there.

This disciple called Mingliang had obviously lived in the streets and alleys of this city when he was young, so he knew this place quite well. From his appearance, it was clear that he was not sent to the mountain from a young age. He had a somewhat mischievous feeling.

The three of them walked out of the city together. The disciple called Mingliang was about to lead them in that direction when ye chen stopped him. Then, ye chen whistled toward the sky.

The sound wasn't loud, but it seemed to have traveled far. In less than ten seconds, they heard the loudest bird cry.

A Nine-Tailed ROC landed in front of them.

Ming Liang, who was standing at the side, was obviously shocked.

He had never seen such a behemoth before. Even though there were some spirit beasts that could be borrowed in the mountains, although he, the outer sect disciples, could not see them, he could see the inner sect disciples riding them and flying around.

However, those were only small birds, and could only fit one or two people at most. This one was obviously huge!

"This ..."

"Don't be afraid. Let him take us up the mountain. Otherwise, walking is too troublesome and slow. It's obviously faster to fly up. Come, I'll take you up. "

Ye chen helped Ming Liang up and brought him to Peng Fei's back. Peng Fei even turned his head to look at the young man.

He didn't have any ill intentions, and even touched the hat on his head with his mouth obediently.

"Don't be afraid. This is his way of expressing his friendliness."

Ye chen said with a smile. As soon as he finished speaking, Peng Fei immediately flew up.

The sight of the great ROC spreading its wings was simply too majestic and magnificent. Even Ming Liang was stunned as he stared blankly at the power that he suddenly felt when he flew up.

As expected, Peng Fei was much faster when he flew. They arrived in less than an hour, and it felt like the time it took to make a pot of tea.

Normally, it would take at least four to six hours to go up the mountain by himself, even if he used his spiritual power.

When ye chen saw an open space, he directed Peng Fei to fly directly to that place. It looked like it was the arena or training ground.

Mingliang was still very young, so he cherished this opportunity very much. He laid on the giant ROC's body and looked left and right. He still felt that this hour had passed too quickly.

After he stopped, he ran down the stairs and turned around to say hello to ye chen and su Yuhan. He expressed his gratitude and quickly disappeared.

"This is the inner sect's area. We'll have our competition here. I shouldn't be here now, so I want to go back!"

He spoke methodically and ye chen and the others let him go first. After all, they had come up the mountain with him and he had other things to arrange.

Alright, the elder who had come to listen to the wind was a female elder called wangxing. She didn't like to talk.

They did not speak much during the sect leader's discussion meeting that day, so ye chen did not know her very well. After all, Emerald Peak was not close to the Azure Dragon Gate, where he was staying.

The two of them walked along the ring and soon saw a gate in front of them. Along the way, they smiled and said that they hadn't asked Mingliang where to go. If they went the wrong way, they wouldn't be able to recognize him.

However, it was not particularly troublesome. He had just walked out of two divisions when he saw two disciples guarding in front, so ye chen went up and asked.

"May I ask where elder Wang of the Emerald Peak is? I'm an elder from the Azure Dragon sect, and I would like to meet him. "

Ye chen did not reveal his identity directly. As he spoke, he took out his own token. As expected, after the disciple saw it, he became much more respectful and immediately turned back to report.

After a short while, the sound of anxious running could be heard. It was the disciple who had just spoken to them while panting.

"The two of you, follow me. The sect leader is already waiting in the hall."

The disciple said as he led the two of them inside. Soon, they saw the hall of the verdant peak. As soon as they entered, they saw the woman sitting in the middle.

"Sect leader, it was my fault for not coming out to welcome you. Why didn't you tell me in advance? I didn't even prepare."

A faint smile hung on wangxing's face as he greeted ye chen.

"I'm just here to take a look. I just happened to be out for a vacation, and then I wanted to see how the things I arranged for are going."

"Of course it's excellent. The people under me have all done very well. Some time ago, the disciples went out to Suzhou to help the people farm and only returned after sitting for half a month. I even went down to check a few times in the middle."

Ye chen was overjoyed to hear this.

After today's communication, he felt that this elder, who had always been cold, seemed to be quite gentle.

In particular, this elder was of similar age to su Yuhan, so the two of them began to chat as if they had not met earlier. It was almost two hours later that they remembered ye chen.

"Stay at my place tonight. I have many guest rooms. I'll arrange a good one for you."

Of course, ye chen and su Yuhan were happy to agree. After all, ye chen was still thinking of visiting their so-called entrance competition tomorrow afternoon.

That day, when he was testing Mingliang's strength, he felt that he was not weak, and he was also very talented, so of course, he hoped that this child could also enter the position he thought of.

In the evening, they ate the food specially prepared for immortal cultivation in this clear wind and frost. To be honest, it was much lighter than the food at the foot of the mountain, but it was still a delicious food that could fill the stomach.

In any case, ye chen was quite happy in his heart. To him, any elder who was willing to listen to him and work hard to build their own sect would make him very happy.

He only had three years, but he hoped that there would be no more endless fighting and killing in the future.

Wasn't it good to rise steadily like this? At the right time, they could also protect the people at the foot of the mountain. This was the true purpose of a sect!

Time passed really quickly, and he fell asleep in an instant. In the past, it was really easy to fall asleep if he put on his clothes and rested, so he woke up early in the morning.

After ye chen woke up for his morning exercise, he heard some noise outside. He and his wife went to find Meng zhanwen first. After eating, they went to the venue together.

There were quite a few people on this Green Peak, and the disciples took up a large space.

Ye chen and the other two followed suit and stood on the stage. He subconsciously looked for a bright spot and saw the small comrade who was squeezed at the back.

It was probably because he didn't have enough strength, so he couldn't push others.

Ye chen looked away from a distance. After all, it was best not to attract any attention.

He thought that he and his wife only needed to sit here and watch. Who knew that before they even sat down, elder wangxing asked everyone to quiet down and then said to all the disciples.

"For today's competition, we have two special guests. This is the sect leader of Azure Dragon sect, ye chen. This is his wife, who is also my good friend, su Yuhan."

As soon as he finished speaking, the disciples below the stage began to exclaim in surprise. Countless eyes sized up ye chen. So this young man was their sect leader!

"Oh my God, this is the first time I've seen him. He's so young!"

"That's right, that's right. I thought he was a vulgar and ugly person, but it seems that I was wrong!"

Chapter 2708 2713-Fated Person!

"Have you heard about the disciples who were assigned to the Mount Tai division some time ago? I heard that they were in a terrible situation. They had to sweep the ground for a long time."

"Wouldn't they be covering up for themselves? Look at how enthusiastic we are in doing farm work, yet they dared to slack off and were caught red-handed. Doesn't that deserve it?"

When Liang Liang, who was standing behind them, heard what everyone was saying, he realized that the sect leader had come!

He looked towards the stage curiously and realized that it was the two people who had brought him back yesterday.

In an instant, he felt as if he had been electrocuted, and he was frozen there from beginning to end. That was actually the sect leader!

And yesterday, he had thought that he was just an ordinary elder, and the person beside him was the sect leader's wife. This was too fantasizing!

The benefactor he met while secretly practicing was the sect master of the Green Dragon sect!

Before he could continue to be shocked for a while, the competition for the entry level had already begun.

After the sect leader announced the start of the competition, they all sat down.

Ye chen sat on the high platform and looked down at the group of hot-blooded disciples below. He felt that his heart was filled with a kind of impassioned atmosphere.

The first round of the competition was a one-on-one battle, so it was not a direct bombarding.

They would rely on drawing lots to choose a one-on-one opponent, and then they would start the competition in ten small rings. Whoever beat the other party or knocked them off the stage first would win.

As a result, after the judge shouted "start," there was a burst of fighting sounds.

There were two judges standing next to each small ring, both of whom were inner sect disciples. They were there to ensure fairness.

Moreover, there were so many people watching in the surroundings, so there was no way anything fishy would happen. Very soon, the first round was over. Only ten disciples remained, and the rest were eliminated first.

There were a total of 64 disciples participating in the competition, so it took almost two hours for all of them to be finished. Now, only half of them were left, and the 32 disciples would proceed to the next battle.

Ye chen watched carefully and confirmed that Mingliang had advanced. Only then did he heave a sigh of relief.

In the next round, there were only 16 players left, Ming Liang. However, he looked a little tired.

This kind of election was actually very formal and relatively fair. There were a total of four disciples who needed to enter the inner sect.

Therefore, they still needed to take two more written exams before they could finish!

The disciples below were all cheering for their respective partners.

Liang had a small build. In fact, no one was optimistic about him, but they didn't expect him to actually make it to the top eight.

In short, they had entered the final stage. The Prime Minister's disciples cheered and the eight people on the stage were already in place.

Ye chen glanced at the disciple standing opposite Ming Liang. He was a very big one. He was more than twenty centimeters taller than the small Ming Liang.

It was obvious that the people present preferred to watch this kind of competition that seemed to have a great disparity in strength.

Ye Chen's attention was also focused there. In the blink of an eye, he found that the star-gazing gaze was also fixed on the child. He was instantly interested.

"Elder Wang, who do you think has a higher chance of winning?"

"We're still waiting to see. We don't know for now, but I've always admired this child called Mingliang."

When ye chen heard wangxing mention the child's name, he immediately sensed that something was wrong and took the initiative to ask.

"Elder wangxing, you're really friendly. You even know the names of the outer sect disciples?"

"It's not just because of that. It's also because I brought this child up the mountain."

When he saw elder wangxing's smile, ye chen was instantly shocked. He had heard from Mingliang that it was a male immortal who had brought him here. It was elder wangxing?

"So that's how it is. Then it seems that he must have some kind of natural talent. In that case, let's wait and see!"

Ye chen smiled as he looked at the stage. The fight had already begun.

The advancement that day at Mingliang's place had really played a huge role. Moreover, he was also a very smart person.

In addition, ye chen had helped him sort out his thoughts, so there were times when a small body could burst with great energy, such as now.

They saw Mingliang use the three big moves, and then kick the big disciple directly from the back to the rope at the side, and then he was bounced back.

Obviously, the other party didn't expect such a small body to have such a strong kick, and he couldn't Dodge it in time.

However, after they reacted, they immediately fought back. The two of them had the most exciting fight on the field.

Ye chen almost applauded when he read the Japanese language. This young man had a bright future.

The big guy opposite them was not bad either. Compared to the other three groups, the quality of their group's answers was directly raised by a level.

"This is too exciting!"

Ye chen glanced around and saw that the other three groups were almost done. Perhaps it was because they did not have enough strength at this point or something else, but they all stopped, sweating profusely.

The two of them were also holding their breath, their faces red as they jumped. Did you think they were looking to see who had the most strength?

Who knew that Ming Liang would suddenly change his direction and take a picture from the side? in an instant, the tall and strong disciple was sent flying.

As a result, the match was ended by him in front of everyone's eyes. Everyone was stunned!

Not long after, there was a huge round of applause. It was not only for the light, but also for the two of them. After the fight, the two of them stood on the stage and cupped their fists to express their goodwill.

In this way, after half a day's time, the written test for the entrance was over, and four disciples were recruited.

The competition was held once every nine months, so even if they lost, they would not be too discouraged.

After all, there would be another match this winter. Everyone had a chance as long as they worked hard to become stronger.

After the results were announced, ye chen and the others also left the stage. It was time for lunch.

It was also because these few matches were too intense, exciting, and wonderful that almost no one paid attention to the time for lunch. It was already afternoon by accident, but they were still very satisfied.

While the four new disciples were on the board, they still had to go through the entrance ceremony. Ye chen and the others were prepared to leave after watching the ceremony.

They would set off the next morning to return to Suzhou.

Go and see how things are going over there?

To be honest, ye chen still hoped to see a young man who had turned over a new leaf and not a relapse of his old illness.

Very soon, it was night time. The entrance meeting here was held quite well. Although it was relatively simple overall, it was the kind that was Grand.

All the disciples had arrived. Standing on both sides were all the elders of the mountain. The one sitting in the middle was naturally wangxing.

Ye chen and his wife sat at the side and watched the Grand occasion.

To be honest, he was a little worried now. After all, Mingliang had told them that he wanted to become the disciple of the ancestor elder who had brought him up the mountain a few years ago.

Obviously, he didn't even know whether the other party was a man or a woman. Just like today's situation, it was obvious that he couldn't explain it clearly. After all, the one who brought him up the mountain was actually their sect leader, wangxing.

In her bright eyes, she had always thought that it was a man, but in reality, it was a woman, so it was obviously not the same. There might be a small accident later.

However, ye chen did not say much. After all, in his eyes, if such a situation were to happen, it would be a good effect.

Soon, the four disciples were brought in. They had already changed their clothes and stood in a row. Then, the four elders in front each held a board in their hands, on which a small jade pendant was placed.

This was exclusive to the disciples who had just entered the sect. Normally, those ordinary disciples would not have this. In short, it was also a symbol of status.

The few disciples who had entered the sect looked very happy, and the surrounding disciples were full of envy, but they also secretly made up their minds to work hard.

In any case, ye chen was very pleased. After all, as an elder, the promising star would do better and better in this sect.

Ye chen observed the four disciples who had come forward. As expected, his eyes had already scanned from left to right and from right to left. However, he was obviously very confused because he could not find the person who had brought him up the mountain.

After wangxing said a few more words, he began to help them wear jade pendants. The four elders gave their jade pendants to their disciples one by one and then carried them on their belts.

After hanging the beautiful jade pendant, coupled with the clothes, it was as if she had entered another realm.

"Everyone's performance today has been witnessed by us, so I'm very happy to be able to recruit these four disciples. The others must continue to work hard, because today I've already seen that many people have the potential to become stronger. "

After wangxing finished speaking, he prepared for the next small banquet. Of course, there was another important thing before that, which was to start choosing the disciples they wanted to join.

For some reason, Mingliang had deliberately stood at the back. The others did not know but ye chen did. However, he did not say anything. As expected, after the first three people had chosen their favorite elders, only Mingliang was left.

While the others were still a little confused as to why he had suddenly lost so many choices while hiding in the back, he was in a dilemma.

In his eyes, these elders were indeed good elders, but he only hoped to find the person who brought him up the mountain. He absolutely couldn't guess wrong. That person must be an elder, but there was no one here!

He raised his head and looked at the sect leader of wangxing sect sitting in the middle. Clearly, this person was the most similar, but the gender didn't match. What should he do? could he be the sect leader's brother?

That was what Mingliang thought in his heart. After that, he felt that it was very reasonable, so he immediately walked forward and knelt in front of the sect leader. He raised his head and asked.

"Of course, I have a small question. I want to know if you have any brothers? The elder I wanted to choose today was the one I brought up the mountain but he was not among them. "

As soon as Mingliang said this, ye chen saw the factory door sitting above. His ears turned red and he coughed lightly before he said in embarrassment.

"This disciple, I don't have any brothers. The person you said brought you up the mountain was me, so you can directly become my disciple, right?"

When wangxing said this, everyone was stunned. They didn't expect this disciple to be specially brought back. However, it was true that their sect leader did have this hobby.

Sometimes, they liked to dress up as men when they went down the mountain because it was more convenient and looked more serious.

Sure enough, the person the sect leader took a fancy to was different. He had directly become an inner disciple at such a young age.

This was also very surprising in the eyes of the others. After all, Mingliang usually had a very small presence, and he liked to clean.

It was also because of this that he had made many friends.

In short, after hearing that he had become the sect leader's disciple, everyone was even more envious and happy for him. This position was something that ordinary people could not achieve for many years. It could be seen that Ming Liang indeed had this qualification.

Now, all four of them had finished choosing, and a small banquet began.

It was also for the sake of the competition that happened once every nine months, as well as to improve everyone's food. In short, it was quickly carried out.

Ye chen and su Yuhan sat with the sect leader, of course.

Wangxing reacted very quickly. Ye chen must have known something. After thinking about it, he asked directly.

Of course, the two of them did not hold anything back. This was a good thing in itself, so they told her directly.

"Mingliang is indeed talented and intelligent. If he can develop well in the future, he will definitely become very strong. His moral quality is also very good."

"That's right. "

The three of them had a good chat and went back to their rooms to rest after the small banquet.

The next morning, ye chen and the others were still invited to stay with them. They had a light breakfast early before they went down the mountain.

"Do you think the son of the city Lord will turn over a new leaf?"

"He should be able to. We have already been gone for two or three days. According to the punishment his father gave him that day, he should still be in confinement in the ancestral hall for the next two days, right?"

Su Yuhan recalled.

"But that child's character is really bad, and it's probably because he lacked discipline from a young age that he made such a big mistake. I can only hope that his muddled old father can see the situation clearly!"

She continued after some thought. Ye Chen nodded as he listened to her analysis.

He had a premonition that there would be even weirder things happening in Suzhou.

He would give the young bad guy a chance, but it wouldn't be a second chance.

Chapter 2709 2714-Retribution!

They quickly flew outside of Suzhou. This time, they did not enter directly from the city gate. To avoid beating the grass and alerting the snake, the two of them used spiritual power and then climbed over the wall. Taking advantage of the darkness and no one seeing them, the two of them found another small restaurant.

Usually, there were very few people in this kind of Inn, and basically, no one knew that they could minimize the possibility of being discovered by doing this.

Ye Chen brought his wife to the front desk. After giving them some silver, he asked them to prepare some wine and food. Then, they sat in a more hidden place.

After the waiter served the dishes, he casually gave him some small pieces of silver and asked him about the situation these few days.

"Do you know if the group leader's son has been obedient these days? I heard that he was beaten up a few days ago. Has he realized that he was wrong and suffered a loss?"

He was just asking casually, like those old men on the street who liked to talk about their daily lives. The waiter, on the other hand, immediately started to talk about it.

After all, he had received a few pieces of silver from a customer, so he naturally had to show a better attitude.

"I can tell that you've just entered the city. You don't know how bad the city Lord's son, the young master, has been these past two days. I thought that he would be obedient after being taught a lesson that day, but who knew that after those people left, he would immediately run out of his house and cause trouble in the restaurant the next day!"

"Why is it like this? Could it be that the city Lord didn't discipline him? At that time, I heard that the city Lord should be very clear about the situation?"

Ye Chen's expression changed when he heard that. He immediately put down his chopsticks and asked.

"He can't control his son at all. He's forced his son to become the Lord with his death and just let him do as he wishes. If it were up to me, I don't think he can be the city Lord. I don't know when he can change his son to someone who has done so many evil things in recent years, bullying women, children, and the elderly!"

The waiter got angry when he talked about this. They were people of the lower class, so they would really be bullied sometimes.

He used to work in a big restaurant, and the money he was paid was more than what he was paid here in a month. However, he had no choice but to be kicked out because he had offended the young master.

The boss didn't dare to ask for more. If he wasn't hiding in a restaurant in this small alley, there was nothing else he could do.

"Ordinary citizens like us have nothing to say at all. He's the one who's more powerful!"

"What bad things did he do in that restaurant? Could it be that he's going to bully that lady Jin again?"

Su Yuhan, who was sitting on the side, couldn't hold it in anymore. She had only eaten two mouthfuls of rice, and it was no longer fragrant. She really didn't expect this child to be so disobedient and even think of doing bad things.

"Of course. It was today. This afternoon, he took advantage of the fact that the restaurant was empty and brought his men over. He sat there until night time. Even if someone came, they would immediately chase them out. Then, when it was time for the performance, miss Jin was unwilling, so she didn't come out. Who knew that he would force his way in with his men?"

The waiter shook his head helplessly. Ordinary people like him didn't even have the chance to save those poor people.

"Thank you,"

Ye chen gave the waiter some silver and sent him away.

The two of them didn't eat anything else. After two Simple Bites, they looked at each other and left together.

They quickly rushed to the city Lord's mansion under the cover of the night.

At this time, the backyard of the city Lord's mansion was brightly lit, and miss Jin and her brother were tied together.

And that city Lord's son was currently in his own room, drinking and eating meat with his scoundrels, preparing to do bad things after he had his fill!

Ye chen and su Yuhan quickly sneaked into the backyard of the city Lord's mansion. The two of them used their spirit energy to conceal their bodies and sound. They entered the courtyard like two masses of air.

Soon, they heard the noise from the other side. Those people were drinking, and there was a voice crying in the room next door. It felt like his throat was hoarse.

He had probably been calling for help for a long time, but no one came.

Ye chen stood there as a lookout. Then, he asked su Yuhan to open the door and enter.

Someone went in and saw Lady Jin, who was tied up with a rope, and her brother, who seemed to have fainted, sitting opposite her.

Two lines of tears slowly flowed down miss Jin's face and disappeared. When she heard the sound, she thought that the bad guys had come in.

When he looked up and saw ye chen and su Yuhan, his eyes lit up.

She had almost bit her tongue to commit suicide just now. She was not willing to be humiliated like this, so she might as well die. Who knew that help would suddenly arrive!

"Miss Jin?" Seeing the girl's miserable state, su Yuhan immediately squatted down and untied her. She took out a handkerchief and wiped the tears on her beautiful face.

Then, he helped her sit up.

On the other side, ye chen also helped miss Jin's brother up. He used his spirit energy to check his body and guessed that he had been drugged unconscious. There were also some external injuries on his body. In short, they were not very serious. He would be fine after going out for treatment.

Su Yuhan was very distressed and pitiful about their current situation. The two of them immediately made a plan and let the siblings leave first.

Ye chen would send it over, but he would need to change his outer clothes and leave su Yuhan here.

After hearing his wife's plan, ye chen immediately wanted to refuse but his hand was grabbed and he was told,"

"Don't worry, I have my own abilities too. I won't let that little brat manipulate me. Hurry up and send the two of them away, then come back to me. "

There was no other way, so the two of them quickly changed their coats. Su Yuhan tied her wrists with a rope, which could be untied by herself.

Then, he let them go first. Ye chen quickly led them and grabbed their shoulders from behind. He led them out of the courtyard.

He then called Peng Fei over and had him transform into a body that was neither too big nor too small, and sent them to an Inn.

Ye chen had already thought of this when he left, so he gave the boss some money and arranged for them to stay in a room. When the two of them arrived, they were taken to their room to rest.

Su Yuhan had been waiting for a long time. Not long after, I heard the sound of footsteps outside the door.

Then, a figure stumbled in. It was indeed the city Lord's son. He seemed to be a little drunk.

He held onto the wall as he walked over and pounced on her.

Of course, su Yuhan wouldn't let him touch her. She untied the rope behind her and quickly tied it to the young master's hand.

"What are you doing? Don't tell me you want to play this little game with me?"

"I think you should see who I am before you say that!"

Su Yuhan kicked him to the ground and said while stepping on his arm.

He hated men who treated girls like playthings the most. They should be killed forever.

Of course, now wasn't the time yet. She had already taught him a lesson last time and even apologized to him in person. Now, he still dared to do such a bad thing.

He even snatched the little girl over, and the city Lord didn't seem to want to get involved in this matter.

Since that was the case, they could only discipline their disobedient son.

When Zhang Qiang, who was lying on the ground, saw the woman's appearance, he instantly sobered up. If he was not mistaken, this was the man he had met in the restaurant that day. Why was the woman beside him so strong?

And why would he appear here again?

By the same logic, didn't that mean that the man was also there? Cold sweat instantly invaded his entire body. He didn't know what to do!

He had thought that these Immortals would only come here occasionally and would not come back again. Who would have thought that they would come back again? for a moment, he did not know how to resist.

At this moment, the first person he thought of was naturally his father, who had protected him many times.

So he struggled to get up, trying to break free from the rope in his hands, but unfortunately, he was already tightly tied.

When the scoundrels outside heard the noise, they even barged in with a smile to see what was going on.

In short, they just wanted to watch the show, but who knew that when they pushed the door open, they would see Zhang Qiang being stepped on.

"Hurry up and help me up. Get her out of here!"

Zhang Qiang said in a trembling voice. Those people didn't expect him to be tied up.

These people were not very familiar with the new girl, not to mention that they had drunk too much, so they did not know why, but they subconsciously wanted to help Zhang Qiang.

They only saw the beautiful and elegant woman at the side looking at them with an oppressive gaze.

Su Yuhan didn't want to waste her time with these ridiculous people, so she used her spiritual force directly. However, those who approached her were all bounced away.

They didn't even see the attack or where the attack came from.

He felt as if he had been punched and kicked.

With a series of thuds, everyone fell to the ground, and Zhang Qiang took the opportunity to roll out from under su Yuhan's feet.

His men immediately untied him, but when he wanted him to run to find the person, his whole body was fixed in place.

At this moment, ye chen flew down from the wall and landed in front of him like a celestial being.

However, it brought him endless horror, because he knew that he would be severely judged next.

"I just didn't expect that you're still like this. You don't know how to repent at all!"

Ye chen furrowed his brows slightly. In his heart, he blamed himself for not being able to see the situation clearly. He had actually thought that such a person would wash his hands and start over!

"Great immortal, great immortal, I was wrong. I really know I was wrong. I will never do such a thing again. Please don't kill me!"

Zhang Qiang knelt on the ground with tears on his face. But what was the use now?

That day, he had also apologized very seriously, but didn't he do it again? In short, he was just putting on an act.

At this time, Zhang He, who was in the front courtyard, also heard the news and quickly brought his men over. When he saw this scene, he was also frozen in place. Then, he saw ye chen turn to look at him.

"The city Lord is actually unwilling to continue in this position? You don't have to continue doing this. I thought you were very dedicated. "

Ye Chen's voice was not loud but it was enough for the city Lord to hear.

He lowered his head and looked at Zhang Qiang, who was kneeling there. With a light push, the man was sent flying and fell to the ground.

She immediately covered her stomach and lower body because she had just been slapped a few times.

This kind of strength in his heart made him jump with a huge iron bar. He hugged his body and his face was full of bitter tears. Unfortunately, these were the tears of the fake crocodile.

"Sect leader, I've already admitted my mistake. I beg you to let my son go. I won't let him commit such a foolish act again!"

"I don't think you're very tolerant of him. Otherwise, he should be in confinement. Why would he kidnap a girl and openly do something bad in your backyard?"

Ye Chen's words fell on the ground.

"This position gives you so many special advantages, and also gives you the right to protect your son. So, in the end, you still need to teach him yourself."

Ye chen left with su Yuhan after he was done talking, leaving the father and son on the ground.

He immediately took his son to see a doctor, but he said that he might not have any more children in the future.

Early the next morning, ye chen sent miss Jin and the others back. At the same time, he immediately sent a message back to the dynasty and applied to replace city Lord Zhang He's position. Then, he sent another court official to take up the position.

This identity had caused them to do so many bad things over the years, but he, as a father, ignored them and even kept finding excuses to help his son.

Then he would no longer be fit to sit in this position, because he no longer cared about the people.

The news quickly came. The people of Suzhou were very happy. After all, the new city Lord seemed to be doing well.

The previous city Lord's house was not only ransacked, but he was also driven out of a small courtyard at the edge of the city.

Now that he had lost his status, he could forget about doing bad things. Not to mention, he had offended so many people before. He would not be living well now. He would use the days in the future to atone for his sins!

It seems we've been in Suzhou for so long. We should go somewhere else next!"

"Of course, where do you want to go? We'll just let Pengfei take him away. "

Chapter 2710 Sect Leader Candidate!

The wind at night was very gentle. Ye chen and his wife walked on Peng Fei's back and felt the cool wind. Then, they flew forward. Their destination this time was camel mountain.

This was also a branch of their Azure Dragon sect. Ye chen had not planned to go there in the first place but he received a messenger pigeon from the immortal slaying Flying Dagger.

Therefore, as the sect leader, ye chen had to make a trip there and deal with what could be considered an emergency.

"Actually, this period of time should have been handled by that old man with the borrowed saber. Who knew that he would be so engrossed in farming these days that he didn't want to come out at all."

Ye chen said with a helpless smile. Although there was a hint of complaint in his tone, he was indeed smiling. Since he was already out, it would not be troublesome to solve this problem.

Not to mention, being able to see this old man, the immortal Flying Dagger, would allow him to put aside those so-called grudges in the Jianghu and not care about anything else.

He didn't have to think about fighting and killing all day long. Such a scene was also excellent.

Sometimes, being in a high position was not necessarily the strongest. Just because one was in the deep mountains and old forests did not mean that one would be buried forever.

"What's going on in this camel mountain?"

Su Yuhan did not know what was written in the letter that was sent to her because it was confidential. Moreover, she knew that ye chen would tell su Yuhan about the flying Daggers.

Therefore, it only stated that he was the only one who could read the letter. After ye chen had opened it and read it from beginning to end, it automatically ended the burning and turned into ashes that scattered in the air.

"Elder tuo Shan, whom we're heading to, is ill. He doesn't have long to live, so we need to elect a new sect leader."

Although ye Chen's words were simple, he had heard that things in that sect were quite troublesome.

Although the few words on the messenger pigeon definitely couldn't be transmitted, the immortal flying blade had also made it clear to him that this sect was the most difficult to deal with.

At that time, he had used a lot of force and energy to suppress them.

This sect leader had a fierce look, who knew how he suddenly fell down? they thought he was the strongest one!

However, it was also considered the time, probably how old he was. In short, it was indeed time to change the sect leader.

However, the group of proud students under him were all ambitious.

Before he came down, they were already coveting his position, so the old head immediately told this matter to the immortal flying blade, hoping that he could come and deal with it.

It was very likely that the old sect leader couldn't even speak or take action, so he could only ask others to do it for him.

Ye chen was an excellent candidate. He could also meet the disciples from other places. After all, he would be the sect master for the next two years.

Moreover, with ye Chen's strength, he would have no problem suppressing these people.

This was also one of the reasons why the immortal slaying Flying Dagger had entrusted this matter to ye chen. Even though ye chen felt a little helpless, he had no choice but to accept it.

After all, he had no other choice. Besides, he also wanted to see if there was anyone who could really jump out and become the heir of this so-called ambitious sect.

Su Yuhan nodded after learning about the general situation.

This sounded very interesting. The two of them were flying very fast on Peng Fei's body. This lump of mountain was almost the furthest away from the Azure Dragon sect's sect master's residence, which was where ye chen and the others lived.

Usually, it was a no man's land, and there were almost no civilians living in the surrounding area. It could be said to be a place isolated from the world.

However, the number of disciples on this mountain peak was not much compared to the other peaks. Although the mountain was a little smaller, the number of disciples was not much different. A large part of the reason was their sect leader.

In any case, ye chen had already anticipated that this time, there would be many people who would be displeased with him or doubt him. At this time, he could indeed use his strength to make them understand that they should not be rude to others.

Pengfei's speed was truly extremely fast. They had started taking off the night before and had already arrived by the next morning.

In the middle of the night, ye chen and su Yuhan took turns to sleep for a while. In the morning, they felt refreshed.

After someone arrived at the foot of the mountain, he asked Peng Fei to go somewhere else for a while. Then, they went up the mountain together. The dense forest could be seen from the distance.

The green almost surrounded the entire mountain, and it was hard to see the houses of these people on the mountain.

Ye chen and su Yuhan also supported Luohe. After all, they could still breathe fresh air in this state.

After walking up for an hour, they saw the gate of the camel mountain peak. There were no disciples guarding the gate.

This must be the outer door. The two of us continued to walk forward. I saw a few rows of small courtyards in front and a more spacious training area in front.

Many disciples were already standing there, and then they followed the young elder in front and began to practice.

All of them were very serious and none of them were slacking.

Ye chen and the others watched from the side. Since they had come up the mountain to find someone, they did not deliberately hide their energy.

As a result, when he was still a short distance away from the disciples who were practicing, the young elder had already discovered them.

Then, with a frown, he strode over with a very serious expression.

"Who are you?"

Elder lexiang didn't seem to have a good temper, and he spoke in an aggressive manner.

Ye chen looked at him indifferently and also used a little bit of spiritual energy to suppress it.

It was very obvious that the young elder opposite him simply couldn't hold back, and his imposing manner collapsed on its own without being attacked.

"I'm the sect leader of the Azure Dragon sect. I'm here to see your sect leader, elder aotian."

After ye chen finished speaking, it was obvious that the young elder was at a loss. He immediately put away his so-called stern expression and saluted.

"I'll immediately go and report it. The two of you, please follow me inside and sit in the main hall for a while. "

Ye chen did not expect this young elder to have such a good attitude. To be honest, none of the few he had met before had a good attitude.

Today, ye chen had suddenly encountered such a polite and serious young elder. Ye chen really appreciated him.

"Where is your elder now?"

Ye chen did not directly ask about the elder's current condition.

After all, a sect's leader was a very important backbone. If they were not careful and fell into the other party's serious illness, it was very likely that they would die.

This news would probably set off a huge wave in the hearts of these outer sect disciples, so it was better to wait until everything was stable!

Sure enough, he heard the young outer sect elder's reply.

"Our sect leader's mental state has been very good recently. He will come to visit us from time to time. Just by looking at him, you can tell that he is very healthy!"

When this young elder spoke, one could clearly feel the admiration and respect in his heart. It was obvious that he liked their sect leader very much.

After ye chen had told him the general idea, the two of them were brought into a large hall. It was obvious that this was the hall used to receive guests from the outside. Then, the principal continued to spread the news and then passed it on to the inside one by one.

To be honest, ye chen had never thought that it would be so troublesome.

. The two of them waited outside. After a long time, a young disciple came in and greeted them very seriously. Then, he led the two of them in and continued walking.

After climbing a short section of the mountain, they finally saw the hall on the camel peak.

As they walked further in, another older disciple took them into the hall.

There were a total of four disciples sitting here. Ye chen could tell at a glance that these four disciples were the so-called proud disciples of the sect master.

Although they didn't look old, they weren't weak.

He could tell the abilities of these four people with just a glance. In short, they all had their own strengths and were not much different in terms of cultivation.

When they saw ye chen come in, the four people's expressions were different. Ye chen glanced at them lightly and sat down casually. He brought su Yuhan to sit beside him.

"I didn't know that sect leader had suddenly arrived and didn't come out to welcome you. What's the matter?"

One of the more impatient ones could not hold it in any longer. He did not even hold back his tone and asked ye chen a question rather rashly. I looked up at him and immediately suppressed him to shut up.

"I'm here to see your sect leader. I don't know why it's the four of you. Where's elder aotian now?"

If it was anyone else who said this, it would obviously completely anger these people and they would immediately get up and kick him out.

However, this was ye chen. He was the sect master of Azure Dragon sect. Even if these people were not convinced, they could not provoke him recklessly.

On the other hand, they were all ambitious and wanted to sit on the position of sect master of this mountain peak. Similarly, their ambition and jealousy made them completely unable to stand ye chen.

That was why every word he said at this time was very harsh. However, as someone who was treated this way, ye chen did not care at all.

In his eyes, some things could only be proven with strength. Before it was proven, there was no way to avoid being criticized.

"We're currently cultivating in the cave, so we can't come to see you immediately. "

A disciple who looked more steady said. Ye chen nodded slightly. He did not believe that!

It seemed that after the old sect leader sent out that letter, he was likely to have been controlled, or it was indeed a little serious now.

Since that was the case, he would help make the decision!

In any case, it was just one out of four.

Ye chen knew that the old sect leader had his own reasons for leaving the four of them here. Therefore, one of them must have the power and ability to sit in this position.

And what he needed to do was to choose this person and openly push him to be the sect leader.

Anyway, even if others said they had it, they only had one position, and it wasn't something they could fight for.

There were some now, but after talking to these people, it could be seen that they were not familiar with each other. However, their personalities were also very obvious.

Among these three men and one woman, there must be one who has the chance to become the sect leader. Let him choose!

"Alright, since the old sect leader doesn't have time to see me, I'll be Frank. I'm here to choose the next sect leader."

Ye Chen's words were said casually but it was like a huge bomb had been dropped between them. Suddenly, their expressions changed slightly.

"It's impossible that you don't believe it or don't know that elder aotian personally wrote a letter to me, asking me to preside over this sect leader election. So, everyone should prepare well. Only people with enough ability, moral character, and talent can sit in this position."

As soon as ye chen finished speaking, he heard the voices of rebuttal from the others.

"What qualifications do you have? You're just an ordinary sect leader who was recommended by someone. You don't deserve to choose one of us four. I think you're a liar, a charlatan!"

It was still the more impatient disciple from earlier. He said very anxiously, clearly very unhappy with ye chen.

However, ye chen did not say anything. He only moved his finger without anyone noticing.

Then, the disciple felt as if he had been given a blow across space. Just as he finished speaking, he was kicked out.

However, this kick seemed to have come out of thin air, catching him off guard.

"Whether I have the right to decide or not is not for you to decide. You just need to focus on preparing for your competition."

Ye chen knew very well that sometimes, one had to use tough means to deal with some people. This way, it would have the most direct deterrent effect and also make the other party obedient.

After that straightforward disciple stood up silently, he didn't dare to speak anymore. After all, no matter how powerful they were, they couldn't do this kind of attack.

He didn't seem to have moved, but in fact, he had suffered some internal injuries from the strength he had used just now.

He was the only one who knew that the sect leader was a little merciless and his strength was outstanding.

"Then what do you want us to do?"

"All you need to do is to work hard. I want to test everything. After all, to be a sect leader, to be a good sect leader, you need to be an excellent person in all aspects, especially in moral character and strength."

"The election will be held in front of all the disciples. Besides my decision, the disciples will also vote."
