Chapter 2731

His men fumbled to contact the exploration station, but there was no answer on the other side.

When Ding Genji learnt of the result, his eyes turned red, those secrets were the lifeline of their Hanoi branch, if Ding Li took them, they would have no chance of survival.

“Hurry up and kill him, don’t care what his identity is, kill him, I’ll take the blame if anything happens.”

Ding Genji felt desperate and gave the order to kill him, but their men did not have Lin Mo’s lightning skills, so after a long time, they got on a speedboat and flew there!

When Lin Mo arrived at the exploration platform, all the guards had already died, and there were no survivors in the 100,000 square meters.

“That’s quite a clean-up.”

“Can you leave now, you dragging oil bottle?”

After struggling to get up, Ding Li moved his arms and legs, but he didn’t feel weak anymore.

“Lin Mo what kind of divine medicine is this you have, it’s amazing.”

“A homemade stamina pill.”

“Crap, how dare you still refine pills!”

When Lin Mo heard this, he suddenly stopped in his tracks, “I’m a divine doctor, have you forgotten? Not long ago you sent people to smash my medical school.”

Ding Li looked at Lin Mo with a bad smile on his face and was terrified, “Hey, it’s better to settle grievances than to make knots, it’s all in the past.”

It was true that he had sent Brother Stick and his men to the medical school to cause trouble, and he had also ordered that Lin Mo and the Prince be bled if necessary, so it was a bit embarrassing to mention it again.

After a quick glance at the records, Lin Mo finally knew that the Ding family branch dared to take such a risk of colluding with outsiders.

It was no wonder that over the years, so many people had searched for the pirate king’s hidden treasure and had come up empty-handed.

It was rumoured that Zheng Zhilong had buried his plundered treasures on an uninhabited island in the sea of Daqu, thus leading to countless people searching for them, but now Lin Mo knew that the rumours were not false, but the island was completely silenced in the sea because of natural disasters.

And when Lin Mo went through the Ding family's partner forces one by one, he found that this Ding family branch had not only colluded with the Kong family, but even many other forces, among which the most surprising thing to Lin Mo was that he actually saw two familiar names.

"Wan Qing and Kaleidoscope!"

This duo were precisely members of the Wan Family, one of the ten largest families in China, and previously when Lin Mo was still in Guang Province, he had visited the Wan Family I to heal Master Wan's wounds.

At that time, he had come into contact with many members of the Wan Family, and although he had never interacted with these two, their profound strength had been deeply engraved in Lin Mo's mind.

"Didn't want to fight, the hands of the Ten Great Families are actually stretching so far."

This was only the surface of what he saw, above the list of these powers, it was likely that they were all just puppets for other super powers to stand up in the foreground.

Under careful consideration Lin Mo couldn't help but fall into contemplation, although he had come into contact with the Ten Great Families and the Four Kings before, he had never understood them in depth.

The Kong family, for example, was a mere ant in front of the ten families, but in the eyes of ordinary people it was an unreachable existence, with hundreds of killers at every turn and guns and ammunition flying around.

The Zhao family, Zhao Nan Yue had made it clear that if needed, the Zhao family's 100,000 tiger guards could be deployed at any time to crush the Kong family.

There was also Yin Tianbao, who had already died, with tens of thousands of minions under him, and Guan Yao, the great lord, with tens of thousands of minions under him and countless guns and ammunition.

And so on!

Just these forces, big or small, had such depth, and what about being one of the top ten families in China, weren't they still on top of these people?

Thinking about this, Lin Mo couldn't help but sigh.

"It turns out that all I saw was just the tip of the iceberg!"

Chapter 2732

The land of China is vast, with a population of nearly 10 billion people spread over 70 million square kilometres, of which 10 million or so are in the major provinces and dependencies, and the major powers are intertwined, so while the surface is calm, underneath is a tidal wave.

If we were to compare the forces of Daqo to a pack of ferocious wolves, then the Ten Families and the Six Kings would be dragons with their horns showing, hiding their huge bodies.

When you think about it, it's actually normal that after a power reaches its peak, there's usually no crisis or intense competition or conflict, so naturally there's no need to show off all the time, hiding and secretly gathering strength to become a unified line of development for these top powers.

And just as Lin Mo's thinking was going on, outside the door came the urgent shout of Ding Li.

"Lin Mo, they're coming, they're coming! Aren't you f*cking done yet?"

Ding Li was so anxious that only a few men were left on Ding Genji's side to defend against the other side's attack, while the rest were all mobilised by him, with over six thousand people surrounding the entire exploration platform.

"Ding Li, come out and I'll leave you in one piece!"

Ding Genji was also impatient at this time, after a dozen times of exploration and mining over the years, their excavation techniques were becoming more and more mature, and this time the undersea excavation could be said to have taken out all of Zheng Zhilong's buried treasures here, and the value was immeasurable.

What concerns him is the list of cooperation between the Hanoi branch of the Ding family and those outside forces, which is also in the document.

On the exploration platform, Ding Li's face turned white with fear when he saw Ding Genji's fierce and fierce look.

"Lin Mo, do something! Holy sh*t, you still have time to write a circular."

He saw that Lin Mo was tapping the keyboard rapidly, the whole person was baffled, what time is this, still have the mind to edit this thing.

"There's no rush, sharpening the knife won't stop you from cutting wood."

Lin Mo handed the document over after printing it out.

Ding Li glanced at the document and looked up, his forehead instantly covered with black lines.

"A statement of distress?"

"What the f*ck is this?"

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders and smiled faintly.

"Helping you deal with the enemy in front of you isn't a difficult task, but I'm afraid you'll bite me back afterwards.

When the time comes, you slander me for meddling in the internal affairs of the Ding Family and slaughtering the people of the Ding Family, who will I find to talk to."

"Gra*s, is that what I am in your mind?"

Lin Mo looked at Ding Li and nodded seriously.

"Yes! I'm afraid you'll put a cold arrow in your back!"

“Hold on tight, if you dawdle any longer Ding Genji’s men will rush up, sign this so I can help you again!”

Ding Li had seen Lin Mo’s power and knew that it would be easy for him to leave this place, then he would be miserable if he stayed.

After a brief moment of thought, Ding Li signed the “Declaration of Distress” with his name and was asked by Lin Mo to put his palm print on it.

“Flush! Ready to roll over teenager?”

Lin Mo reached out and flicked the document before hiding it in his arms, before striding out of the room!

By the time he arrived outside, the entire exploration platform was already filled with Ding Genji and Kong Ling’s men!

The sharp ice blades of the crowd had already surrounded the building Lin Mo was in, and when he showed up, the scene instantly stirred up.

“Gra*s is this masked man who killed some of our men.”

“Master Ding, let’s chop him up!”

“Yes, chop him up!”

Ding Genji raised his hand to signal his men to stay calm for a moment and stepped forward, he actually smiled towards Lin Mo.

“Kid, I see you have good hands, do you want to come work under me.”

“Although Ding Li is a member of the main family, he is just a trash who got to the top by relying on his mother’s mistress, there is no future in following him.”

At these words, everyone looked dumbfounded at Ding Genji, not expecting that at this time, he was even planning to recruit the other party.

Chapter 2733

Lin Mo took out his ears and disdainfully glanced at Ding Genji.

“Just you? You don’t know what kind of virtue you have, and you’re worthy of having little master work for you!”

After this matter, it was not clear whether the Hanoi Ding family branch existed or not, and to give you as a henchman and accompany you to the funeral?

Ding Genji’s original smiling face instantly turned into a gloomy one, originally he saw the masked man in front of him and had the intention of recruiting him to his banner, but what he didn’t expect was that this kid would be so insensitive.

“Heh, shame on you! I’ll chop him up and feed him to the fish!”

Without waiting for Ding Genji to finish, the men behind him rushed towards Lin Mo with shiny machetes raised.

“Hide away, I’m going to zoom in!”

Inside the house, Ding Li was still angry because Ding Genji had mocked him for his status, but at this moment after hearing Lin Mo’s words he naturally thought of the meaning between Lin Mo’s words.

Without any hesitation, he directly darted wildly in the opposite direction from Lin Mo.

“Rubbish people, your emperor is back.”

After Lin Mo finished speaking mischievously, a terrifying force of oppression swept around once again.

Ding Genji only felt his body instinctively start to wince, his limbs kept starting to sway, and a voice that kept echoing in his head even told him to kneel down and worship the teenager in front of him.

“What the hell kind of evil magic is this!”

Ding Genji gritted his teeth and held on for dear life before he knelt down, but the men around him did not have such fortitude, and as the king’s aura swept across them, nearly a thousand of them went straight to the ground in a limp.

It was also the first time that Lin Mo had fully activated his mask, and he did not expect the effect to be extraordinarily useful. With a satisfied smile, he walked towards Ding Genji full of energy.

When the two sides got close, a side Kong Ling said fiercely, “Kid, if you dare to touch a hair on Master Ding’s head today, you will be buried in four or five places.”

“It’s not too late for you to put your hand up, or there will be no place for you in the whole of Da Qu!”

Lin Mo puffed out a laugh, “Oh, you’re getting used to being arrogant are you, you still dare to threaten me even at this time.”

“You really haven’t died!”

As the words fell to the ground, a cold aura flashed by, while the opposite shouting Kong Ling’s pupils instantly scattered, with a face full of resignation directly collapsed to the ground, while a bit of blood red was showing at his brow.

Ding Genji didn’t think that this kid would be so ruthless, this Kong Ling was at least the fourth son of the Kong family, so he just killed him?

Just as he was staring at Kong Ling’s corpse in disbelief, Lin Mo spoke up.

“Alright, Ding Genji now it’s your turn!”

Ding Genji’s eyes saw his opponent approaching towards him full force, his body was covered in cold sweat, as if every step this masked teenager took he was in his heart, causing his blood to flow backwards all over his body.

“Don’t you come any closer!”

Ding Genji's face was full of veins, he wanted to escape but he couldn't move his feet at all.

"Little brother, let's talk properly, so if you let me go today, I will give you all these valuable jewels behind me."

Lin Mo shook his head: "Won't these things still be mine after I clean you up?"

Ding Genji: er

It seems to be so.

After Lin Mo approached, he kicked over Ding Genji with a shout.

"Since you want to kill someone, you have to be ready to be killed, understand?"

Before Ding Genji could react, his hands and wrists were already in Lin Mo's deadly grip.

As Lin Mo exerted his strength, with a click, Ding Genji's arms were completely dislocated.

"Ah, son of a b*tch, you either get me killed now or I'll make you break in pieces."

Under the intense pain, Ding Genji's eyes were red and his face was full of anger, only his impotent rant was just his last stubbornness.

After the men in front of him had seen Lin Mo's 'evil magic', they were now backing up with frightened faces, not daring to come forward at all.

Chapter 2734

"All of you fools, what are you still standing there for, hurry over to save me."

After Ding Genji yelled, seeing his men cowering in fear, he shouted again.

"If what happened here is leaked out, we will all be killed by our master's family.

The only way to do that is to kill Ding Li and kill this boy, you pigs."

When the men heard this, they also felt that this was the case, they were all going to die left and right, so they might as well put up a fight now and exterminate this bizarre masked man before they did.

Lin Mo didn't expect this Ding Genji to come up with this at the end of his life, if these thousands of people in front of him came up in a wave, he might not be able to resist.

"Don't listen to him, you're just minions who are following orders.

To put it bluntly, you're not even sh*t in the main house, they he's too lazy to pursue you."

"This old dog just wants you to take his back."

"Of course, if you guys are willing to give an old dog a go, feel free to step forward and see if I kill you all and be done with it."

As the words fell, a terrifying pressure once again swept around.

The fighters were directly stunned under the operation of this comfort and drink of Lin Mo.

“This masked man is right, even if we want to hold the people above us accountable, we are just part-timers.”

“Yes, don’t listen to old dog Ding, we’re not going to bury him.”

After the chatter, most of the people dropped their blades, and a very few of Ding Genji’s loyal dogs rushed up to rescue him, but before they could get close to Lin Mo, they were directly pierced by Xuan Needle through his temple and fell to the ground.

With this move, Lin Mo made those fighters even more fearful.

“Drop the blades in your hands, crouch down and surrender, and I will keep you alive.

Within a count of ten, those who stand die; those who hold blades, die!”

As the words fell to the ground, a violent and slaughtering intent gushed out from Lin Mo’s body, just like a demon god from hell at one end.

Clang!

With the first person taking the lead, more and more people began to throw away their blades and surrendered one after another.

When Ding Genji saw this scene, although he was filled with anger, he knew that the momentum had gone and he could only close his eyes in despair.

“Ding Li, come out and clean up the battlefield!”

Seeing that the scene had been brought under control, Lin Mo directly summoned Ding Li, and when the latter showed up, Lin Mo darted and rushed into the building.

“Everything that follows is in your hands.

Whether you take them in, expel them, or hold them accountable is up to you, but you can’t harm their lives.”

After Lin Mo said that he walked into the room and closed the door quickly.

At this moment, Ding Li was still completely in a state of bewilderment.

Just one person, facing three to four thousand enemies, not only unharmed, but also told the other side all subdued, this out to say that can be believed.

“Boss, boss!”

It was only when the men who rushed over called out softly that Ding Li came to his senses.

“Young Ding, what should we do with these people?”

The henchman asked, pointing at the four or five thousand crouching enemies in front of him.

“Collect all their weapons and switch them up, wait for my message on how to deal with them.”

At this moment, Ding Li had not yet recovered from the shocking scene, for a while he did not know what to do, there was no way to kill them.

After Lin Mo walked into the room and locked the door, he hurriedly took the mask off his face.

“A little bit of stupidity is out of control!”

A flash of fear surfaced on Lin Mo’s face, he had just come a little close to going berserk.

Although the Lan Ling Ghost Mask could give him a huge strength boost, the corresponding side effects were also extremely strong. Just now, after he had activated the mask to an extreme, the terrifying murderous hostile aura almost eroded his mind, hence the scene where he ripped off Ding Genji’s arms.

Fortunately, he was strong-willed and reacted promptly enough...

Chapter 2735

“It’s a double-edged sword!”

Lin Mo looked at himself in the mirror, his eyes were red, he bent down and poured water on his cheeks, under the stimulation of the cold water droplets, he then slowly calmed down, and the impulse to kill in his heart quickly receded.

When Lin Mo calmed down and went to the door, the whole scene was already under control, all of Ding Genji’s men who had all their weapons seized had been imprisoned, and as for Ding Genji, he had also been tied up by Ding Li.

“Lin Mo, what should I do with this man?”

Ding Li pointed at Ding Genji, whose arms were broken, and his gaze already had a vague murderous intent flowing.

“Why are you asking me? Isn’t this an internal matter of your Ding family?”

If you don’t like it, just kill him and say he tried to kill you in collusion with the Kong family and you defended yourself.”

“Of course, I’d like to keep it as a personal recommendation, this Ding Genji should know a lot of information.

You should have a way to pry him open.”

Ding Li smiled smugly and squeezed his fist, “I have a hundred ways to pry his mouth open on my side, hehehe.”

If he killed Ding Genji now, he would be happy, but he would lose all the information he had about the branch, so Ding Li still had a sense of what was more important.

Ding Genji watched the two of them talking, his eyes flashing with fear, but his mouth was stuffed with rags, so he couldn’t speak at all, he could only whimper and resist, and his eyes were full of resentment when he looked at Lin Mo.

If it wasn't for this kid, he wouldn't have ended up in such a situation.

"But you can stop, when you get to the main house, you will naturally have the chance to speak."

Ding Li slapped Ding Genji and turned his head towards Lin Mo with a warm smile.

"Lin Mo, although our clan does not deal with each other, thanks for this time, I Ding Li owes you a big favor, in the future when you encounter trouble, I will help you set things right."

This bloody battle, if it were not for Lin Mo's presence, he Ding Li would not have known how many hundreds of times. Whether it was fear of Lin Mo's wisdom or fear of Lin Mo's power, this thank you from Ding Li should still be said.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services and services to the public.

"And for a scum like you, who is willing to throw away his date, I don't believe your bullsh*t."

Ding Li's face was embarra*sed, hitting people without hitting their faces, too much haha.

"Hahaha, these are all past events, the past is what we will not dwell on, not dwell on."

Ding Li covered the matter up after a snort.

"Alright, after this matter we don't cross the river in well water, of course if you make a death wish, just feel free to find me in trouble."

"You are underestimating me Ding Li, am I the kind of person who repays kindness?"

After Ding Li said this, he found that Lin Mo was looking at him with a serious face, and after a few seconds, Lin Mo nodded seriously.

"That's how I feel!"

Ding Li:

You people really don't know how to chat.

"I've bowed my head so much, can you give me some face?"

Lin Mo ignored his embarra*sed look and just pulled out a document.

"This is the record of the Ding family branch eating out of the bag over the years, you should need it."

Of course this was Lin Mo's redacted version, the original was still in his possession.

"This"

After receiving it, Ding Li quickly flipped through it, the ecstasy in his heart could barely be suppressed anymore, the transaction records, call records and so on filled with thousands of entries.

The three branches of the Ding family could be hammered into the ground as long as he had this document in hand.

This was a great achievement for me! It's over, it's over!

With excitement, Ding Li looked towards Lin Mo and couldn't help but want to kneel down.

"You've done me a great favour!"

Lin Mo took several steps back and shook his hand, "No, put away your thank you nonsense, you might as well do something practical!"

Chapter 2736

Ding Li also didn't expect Lin Mo to be so blunt, but at this moment he was in a great mood.

"Just say what you want!"

Lin Mo was waiting for his words, "In that case, I want half of the treasures they dug up in the warehouse!"

"Half? No problem, it's just a few extraneous things."

Ding Li agreed without even thinking about it.

After this firefight, he had not only gained a great deal of credit and diverted suspicion, but more importantly, he had inspired the bloodlust in his body.

These were things that wealth could not measure.

It was just when he was full of self-satisfaction that his men suddenly moved beside Ding Li.

"Young Ding, the statistics have come out, this time the brothers died three hundred and thirty-one, and more than five hundred people are hanging in color."

Ding Li's eyes widened directly when he heard such a large number of casualties.

"What? So many men have been lost."

These were the men he had brought up with great difficulty, and now half of them had died in the battle.

"All right, I know, take them back and make proper arrangements, as for the pension I promised to give them before, not a single cent."

Of course there was still good news in the battle report, for example, the battle wiped out over 3,000 local people and captured over 6,000, although the main credit for this all goes to Lin Mo, but that doesn't stop them from fighting, after all, they are on the same side!

"As for, the amount of treasure in the warehouse is too huge, we have not counted it for the time being, but it should be no less than 50 billion if we estimate it."

Ding Li looked stunned, "That much?"

After he saw his men nodding seriously, his original heartbroken expression instantly deepened by several points, how much would it take to have half of this amount taken away?

The two warships, Ah Fei No. 1 and Ah Fei No. 2, slowly drove on the sea until after they were far away from the exploration platform, the Crown Prince could no longer hold in his inner joy and laughed out loud straight away.

“Big brother, we’ve become rich this time!”

“If Ding Li knew that we had smuggled away the usual treasure before, and now we are sharing half of it with us, do you think he would be furious.”

While Ding Li was engaged in a firefight with Ding Genji, the Crown Prince had sneaked around the back of the exploration platform as ordered by Lin Mo, and after regimenting the guards of the exploration platform, they had quietly carried half of the treasures away.

This was also the reason why Lin Mo delayed the occupation, in order to buy time for the Prince’s side to move, after all, the treasure belonged to the Ding family in name.

And together with what Ding Li had promised to share with Lin Mo, before and after the calculation, this treasure of the Pirate King had been taken by Lin Mo for three-quarters.

This was why after receiving Lin Mo’s call, the Crown Prince was able to rush over so quickly and was sweating profusely.

“Think of it as Ding Li’s moral damages for the last time, when he sent people who intended to attack our Chinese Medicine Hall.”

“But then again, isn’t this boat driving too slow, at this speed it will be the next day before we reach Harbour Island!”

Lin Mo looked at the two turtle speed warships moving forward under his feet and couldn’t help but frown.

“Brother, it can’t be helped, carrying such heavy treasures, our ships are past the draught line, it’s not even bad to be able to sail.”

“And it was with this in mind that I gave up carrying that heavy gold before.”

The prince could never have dreamed that he would one day abandon the gold because he disliked it.

And in order to preserve the safety and secrecy of this treasure, Lin Mo planned to transfer all the treasure to the Prince’s transport ship.

For all this, Ding Li did not know, at this time he had already finished indulging in merit and fame.

Ever since he returned to the Sovereign’s family, his mother’s status as a junior had been a source of criticism.

On the surface, many people treated him with respect, but behind the scenes, even the subordinates pointed out that he was obviously a loser who relied on his mother to sell meat for his achievements; he was a disgrace and had no sense of shame, and so on.

Now he has done something great, with a thousand men and five ships, he has defeated ten times as many enemies and captured Ding Genji alive, taking more than six thousand prisoners.

Although all of this could be completely said to have relied on Lin Mo, but wasn't it also his Ding Li's ability to bring Lin Mo.

"With such an achievement, let's see who is still calling me a waste, I'll see who still dares to chew behind my back."

With such an achievement, Ding Li came to Heshan City again, ready to host a banquet to thank Lin, while Ding Genji and his men were escorted back to the main family for trial.

But before the excited Ding Li could wait for the commendation from his master's family, he heard news that infuriated him to no end.

"An article in the Hanoi Press: A suspected Chinese medical saint was seen today slaughtering over a thousand lives in the waters of the Ding family.

Such a heartless and ruthless person should get out of Da Qu.

This newspaper speaks out for thousands of innocent lives and asks the murderer to come forward and give Daqu a statement."

At the end of the news there were a dozen photos of the murder scene, already of Lin Mo's back, and the most ambiguous part of these pictures was the complete absence of Ding Li and his men.

The most ambiguous thing about these pictures is that they do not show Ding Li or his men at all. Ding Li was shaking with anger when he read this report.

At this moment, the only people who knew about it were his own men and Lin Mo, and naturally his men would not betray him, so the only person who leaked the news was Lin Mo.

"Good for you Lin Mo, one thing on the surface and another behind the scenes.

He is afraid that I will get too much in front of my master's family and seek revenge on him after I have grown stronger, and he has even cut me off."

Chapter 2738

Lin Mo finally arrived at Harbour Island after nearly a day of bumps and bruises, this place had now been completely mastered by Lin Mo after being given to him by Elder Zhao, by the time two ships full of treasures had been carried to the 'Prince' transport ship, several people were already a little tired.

After Lin Mo returned to Mount Wo, he was about to rest and recuperate when outside the door Ding Li came in with quick steps.

"Lin Mo you go back on your word, one thing behind the surface, is there a point?"

Lin Mo looked at the furious Ding Li, full of doubt.

"Drinking fake wine? You're shouting at me so early in the morning!"

“Heh, still pretending to be stupid, Lin Mo is worthy of you, one second you were pretending that this was just to help me turn over, this time you turn your head and take all the credit for the captured Ding Genji.”

Ding Li threw the newspaper in front of Lin Mo and continued to taunt him, “What, to the reality that you are powerful? Want to show off your muscles in front of the forces of Daqu? The Medical Saint of China?”

After reading the newspaper, Lin Mo instantly frowned, when the battle took place, the two sides were on the stage, there were no outsiders at all, but the photos had just bizarrely leaked out, and the only people at the scene besides himself were Ding Li and his men.

When Lin Mo thought about it carefully, he was really the most suspicious, after all, he was the one who was on his own.

“I don’t have to do this if I want to be in the limelight, besides isn’t my reputation in Da Qu loud enough?”

First, he was convicted of killing Kong Xianzhuo, the eldest son of the Kong family, then bombing the Ding family pier, after that he was suspected of being the murderer of the Rongli tragedy, and through the reporter’s global live broadcast, a sword move, the direction of the evidence will be cited to throw his suspicion, cleanly.

A series of events, Lin Mo’s reputation has long spread to Da Qiu, there is no need to use the way to make a splash, besides Lin Mo is a low-key person.

However, Ding Li did not think so, and with his fire in his head, he came up with a spooky comment.

“Who knows if you are, trying to climb into our Ding family’s main lineage through this matter.”

Perhaps it was because he had just experienced the Great War not long ago, and he had drifted a little.

When these words came out, Lin Mo’s face instantly darkened, the Ding family was just trying to be a hero in Da Qu, in front of the top ten families in China, they could be exterminated with one hand, he needed to cling to such a power?

He didn’t even wait for the latter to say anything before a human figure rushed up to him.

When the fighters beside Ding Li saw the situation, they were about to stop him, when two muffled sounds came from the air.

As the two beaten men landed on the ground, the Prince grabbed Ding Li by the collar.

“Give me face! We need to climb into your trashy Ding family?”

You’re a frog in a f*cking well!”

When the prince finished speaking, he slapped two big mouths, but that was all, and he still hadn’t lost his anger.

“I thought I’d spare you because you were so generous before, but today you’ve taken the initiative to kill yourself, so don’t blame me for keeping my promise.”

Ding Li looked at the Prince's fierce and fierce appearance, his pupils instantly shrank, and at this moment he finally remembered the fear he had been dominated by the Prince.

"You What do you want?"

He regretted his impulsiveness, regretted that he had spoken without thinking.

"I've said it all, kept my word, broke your dog's leg when I said I would."

"Don't you dare Ah... Ah ! ! ! !"

Ding Li didn't even finish his ruthless words before he felt a sharp pain coming from his leg.

Gra*s, this prince really you're a madman, say strike and strike. The first thing you need to do is to find a way to kill you.

Ding Li clutched his broken calf, his eyes watering with tears of pain.

Seeing that he was somewhat defiant, the prince squatted down playfully.

"Try glaring at me one more time, I'll give you another leg and knock it off, virtue!"

Lin Mo got up and yawned, "Do you know that you have to use your head to do things?"

He raised his hand and flung it, three cold arrows sticking directly into Ding Li's thigh.

Chapter 2739

After Ding Li's thigh was pierced by three silver needles, the painful sensation of drilling pain instantly disappeared, while Lin Mo, who was in front of him, casually patted the sofa.

"Do it! Although your guts are bigger, your mind is still much worse, today Teacher Lin will teach you another lesson for free!"

Ding Li did not dare to talk too much but could only obediently crawl onto the couch.

"Go through your head before you do anything, if I really wanted to steal your credit, I wouldn't need to wear a mask at all."

Lin Mo was not even wearing his prince in order to conceal his identity, and the only thing he used in the process of killing was the Jiu Xuan Needle.

At this time, Ding Li also reacted forcefully, nodding his head and not knowing what to say, he just quietly listened to Lin Mo's analysis.

"The person who leaked what I did is certainly not aiming to clear the name of the dead souls up there.

As long as your main family makes a move to the branch in Hanoi, these rumours will not be broken, so much effort his purpose should be you?"

"Me?"

After hearing this, Ding Li looked at Lin Mo with a puzzled face, the lead news reported by this newspaper was clearly Lin Mo, how did it come to himself.

Lin Mo saw his stupid look and could only shake his head helplessly.

“Look at the essence through the phenomenon, once this matter is completed who will gain the most? Who has the most to lose by reporting me out for what?”

So think about it, who sees the most of you

“MMP, if you look at me with that suspicious gaze again, I’ll give you the eyeballs.”

Lin Mo stood up and then directly lifted up his sleeves.

Ding Li hurriedly raised his hands, “Not so much, not so much!”

He was so rattled that he naturally reacted, but when he thought about it carefully, it seemed that the only one who had the biggest grudge against him was Lin Mo.

“Lin Mo, then you tell me, who else can’t see me well?”

“I’m not a god, I know everything. Maybe it’s someone from your main family’s clan; or someone behind the scenes who wants to use your identity to disrupt the situation; maybe it’s the girl you abandoned before, someone behind

The more Ding Li listened the more panic grew in his heart, he hadn’t returned to the main clan for long and his roots were unstable, if someone was secretly messing with him, it would be hard for him to find a fight.

“Lin Mo, then what should I do?”

“You forget it, recuperate honestly.”

Lin Mo drank his soy milk and added with a serious face, “The prince bombed your docks and I parted with so much of your undersea treasure.”

“If your Ding family knew about this, they definitely wouldn’t let it go.”

“Show wood stands in the forest, snatch the head off the bird, you’ve already made a great achievement, next learn to hide your clumsiness.

The main thing is to keep your distance from me.”

Ding Li originally thought that what Lin Mo said made sense, only after hearing the last sentence, his expression suddenly froze.

“Why?”

“Where’s the why, just do as you’re told honestly.”

Lin Mo said and then closed his eyes, “Young man this world is big, although the Ding family is very strong, it is only in Da Qu.”

“Sink yourself down first, develop your power well, and if you can show your worth in the future, I’ll give you a big surprise.”

“Remember, after we walk out of this door, we are dead against each other, the prince put others out.”

Before Ding Li could react from Lin Mo’s inexplicable words, he felt his back collar being lifted by someone, and then his whole body took off.

The outsiders did not know what had happened after Ding Li found Lin Mo, all they saw was that Ding Li was broken and thrown out of the room.

“Gra*s, Lin Mo robbed Laozi’s credit, one thing behind the surface, Laozi is very immortal!”

Lin Mo was already sleepy, and after hearing the commotion outside, the corners of his mouth suddenly hooked.

“This Ding Li isn’t too stupid!”

Chapter 2740

Outside, the news from the newspapers spread quickly, and with the encouragement of some people, a group of voices soon emerged from within Da Qu.

“A Chinese medical saint, whose virtue is not worthy of his position, and who kills like a saint!”

“Such a heartless person is worthy to be called a medical saint, get out of Da Qu.”

“Are all the Ding family cowards? All the members of the clan have been killed, and they still haven’t done anything.”

“The Ding family is only as glamorous as they appear, but in reality they are so cowardly that they don’t even dare to say a word after having thousands of their disciples killed.”

With the cover of the internet, many people began to speak out, denouncing Lin Mo while also bringing the Ding family into the picture.

Against this background, Lin Mo was the first to speak out, and as soon as he did so, he directly magnified the matter of the Kong Family stealing the Ding Family’s mid-sea treasures.

In a flash, the whole of Daqu was quickly agitated, the Ding family, as the top big brother of Daqu, had now been pulled out the back door, this was big news.

As soon as this news came out, Kong Xiangtian, who had just gotten off the boat after recuperating from his injuries, was bloodied up.

“This D*mned bd, I’ll get him to death.

My son!”

At this moment, he was like a fierce beast, constantly hissing with all his might.

In less than a month's time, the five sons of the Kong family had died one after the other, and the desolate feeling of sending the white haired to the black haired to the black haired, had depressed Master Kong's essence a lot.

The old man was not only sad to lose his son, but also anxious about the Ding family's treasure consciousness. After Lin Mo's exposure, their Kong family's private sordid affairs were directly exposed to the public, and the Ding family's main lineage would definitely not rest in peace.

Thinking of this, Elder Kong directly crushed the teapot in his hand, and his eyes were even covered with blood.

"Lao Er, go and prepare the materials, if the Ding family comes to account, just say that this was all done privately by Kong Ling and that our Kong family was not aware of it."

Although it was unethical for Kong Lao to do this, his son's corpse was not yet cold and he had to be the old man who had to block the gun, it was a shame to say it out.

But this is also helpless, if the Ding family because of this time towards them, the Kong family simply can not resist.

When Master Kong saw his son standing still, his anger shot up again.

"Get lost, what are you still standing there for? Do you want our Kong family to be exterminated?"

Endless anger bubbled in his eyes.

"Also gather as many men as you can, all those who are out on missions, gather them back.

I'm afraid that this day is about to change."

The death of his elder brother, third brother and fourth brother were all related to Lin Mo, as if this man was the one who had killed their Kong family, and now it was his turn to panic.

With the evidence provided by Lin Mo spreading rapidly on the internet, the attention of the crowd shifted.

"It's going to be dry, it's going to be dry, if the Ding family cleans up the Kong family, will we be affected?"

"2000 a month, it's fun to watch."

"The Kong family has too much guts, how dare they take away food from the tiger!"

Compared to vocalizing Lin Mo, obviously the melon of the Kong family stealing the Ding family's sea treasures smells better!

Lin Mo's side saw that the direction of public opinion had shifted, and only then did he start to explain why his appeared at the scene, as for the reason was simple, he, Ding Li, did not deal with him, the previous revenge for the provocation of the medical school had not been avenged, and he thought of going to find trouble with Ding Li, only when he arrived there, the tragedy had already happened.

This reason is completely tenable, after all, those few photos only line up to Lin Mo's back, there is no picture of his hands, as long as they bite this point, others can not get evidence.

And since both the main family and the branch of the Ding family were strangely silent at this time, this led to the whole situation becoming messy.
