

Genius 2811

Chapter 2811

The Eight-Faced Buddha was an ambitious man, and he knew that he would only work under Guangyao for the rest of his life, but joining the Wanxiang Kingdom would be different, and he had plenty of room for advancement, and General Hai had promised to give him an island in the open sea near the Wanxiang Sea, where he could still develop himself.

After the two sides had been drinking and chatting for a while, the eight-faced Buddha rose to rest with a slight sense of inebriation, and the feast ended with pleasant laughter, unaware that they were in great trouble.

By the time Lin Mo approached General Hai's territory it was already a quarter past three in the morning, the time when people fall asleep the deepest and are the most sleepy.

"Boss, we've scouted out the defence system of this area."

Fei took out the sea map and then marked each of the key areas.

"This area over here is where General Hai's main troops are stationed, and where they are holding the hostages is five kilometres away on this side of the warehouse."

After Lin Mo understood the situation, considering that the hostages were likely to be in danger in the event of a firefight later, Lin Mo immediately gave the operational orders.

"Crown Prince, you take Di Yun and the others to the place where the hostages are being held and rescue them first, then send a signal and we will attack from both ends."

Since Di Yun and the others were deployed to come over naturally they were not meant to watch the show.

Although the prince could not train in martial arts, he had an amazing talent for this kind of hot weapon combat. After he received Lin Mo's arrangement, he immediately led more than 1,000 men around the back of the island and slowly approached through the night.

As there were no patrol boats in the area where the hostages were being held, the Prince and his men landed easily.

"Ah Fei, we'll each take a bunch of men and sneak over.

Tong Jun, your sniper team will find a good position and work with us to clear out all the patrol guards."

"Later, you guys pay attention, make sure to take care of the patrolling guards quietly, never let them send out an alarm signal, understand?"

The Crown Prince understood that Lin Mo's purpose of this arrangement was to let him lead this group of children who were first exposed to large battlefields, and only after all the members of the Featherwood Guards had nodded their heads to indicate that they understood, did the Crown Prince wave his hand and start moving.

Under the cover of the night, the Prince's side split into two pairs of men and horses, paddling their kayaks silently closer.

It was also the first time that Di Yun had come across this type of combat. If he made a single mistake and gave the enemy a chance to transmit a signal, the whole battle would collapse because of him.

So it would be a lie to say that he was not nervous. As Di Yun watched the guards approaching, his breathing became heavier.

After noticing his difference, the prince turned his head and gently patted him on the shoulder, then nodded with an encouraging look towards the children behind him, waiting for them to take a few deep breaths before the prince extended three fingers.

With a clench of his fist, Di Yun's ambling body sprang up, bringing a dozen of his companions behind him in a rapid dash. Several members of the opposing patrol had just noticed the abnormality and were about to raise their guns but unfortunately it was already too late, and after Di Yun got close to one of the patrolmen, he reached out and squeezed his hand and the other man died directly on the spot.

When he turned his head to observe the situation of his companions, he was relieved that he had not made a mistake and 16 guards had died silently.

The prince was satisfied with the performance of the guards, they were swift and decisive, although they were a little younger, they had a good base, all they lacked was a little experience.

After disposing of the corpses of the guards, the prince led his party onwards, and after following the previous formula of tackling the first four or five waves of patrols in succession, the group finally approached the centre of the camp.

The Prince looked at the five-metre high wooden wall in front of him and frowned slightly.

Chapter 2812

The fence in front of them was not high, but it was more than fifty metres away from the Prince's crowd in an open area, and not only were there people patrolling the fence, there were searchlights intertwined back and forth on the ground, so if they wanted to quietly solve the last line of defence in front of them, did it instantly raise several times.

"Fei, Di Yun, each of you pick ten people who are nimble and move with the men."

The prince decided to go into battle himself, otherwise it would be difficult to rely on Di Yun's group of young men alone to solve them silently.

Taking advantage of this gap in the duo's selection of suitable candidates, the crown prince's side also figured out the gaps in the interweaving of searchlights back and forth, and by the time Di Yun and Fei had selected their men, a quick sneaking route had already taken shape in the crown prince's mind.

"These searchlights will form a shadowy area when they intertwine, you guys observe first, I'll give you a demonstration later."

Five minutes later, the Prince moved, and after a beam of light flashed before his eyes, he landed on all fours, and his whole body darted out like a cheetah, landing on his toes at the dead ends of the searchlights.

As for the guards above the Prince's head, although there were many of them, none of them spotted him in the darkness of the lights.

On the other side, Fei Di Yun and the others had the prince's demonstration, so they had a clear idea of what to expect, and one by one, they reached the corner of the wall without any risk.

With a gesture from the Prince, they leapt straight up the wall and met the guards head-on.

"Who are you people?"

"I am your father!"

Without waiting for the other side to catch their breath, the prince directly attacked, and since they were already on the wall, there was no need to waste words.

Although there was a lot of noise during the battle, the other guards under the wall were still asleep, and these men were wiped out when the Prince opened the gate to the wall, never to wake up again.

The whole process of freeing the hostages was so silent that most of the guards knew how they had arrived, but not how they had disappeared.

The prince transported all the pledged supplies and hostages ten kilometres out to the bay before taking out the flares.

And when the men on General Hai's side saw the red flare gun rising high in the night sky in the distance, none of them understood what was going on when several black shadows trailing long flames flashed over their heads in the very direction where their forces were storing their ammunition.

"It's over!"

The desperate thought had just risen, as a deafening explosion had already sounded, the sky-rushing fire carrying in a violent shockwave directly across half of the island.

At the same time, the sleeping Admiral was awakened with a start, and when he got up in his coat, there was already fire outside the window, and several ships on the distant sea were in flames, with explosions, gunfire and wailing.

"D*mn, which force dares to touch my people!"

The words had just fallen to the ground when several more shells landed around his location, scaring General Hai into loading his clothes and trousers, and by the time he reached the floor, the sounds of the firefight were getting closer to him.

"Gra*s, deputies hurry up and gather my men and follow me to exterminate the other side."

In all his years as a general, this was the first time he had ever encountered such an attack. For him, General Hai, this was a great shame, and no matter what the other side's origin was, he vowed that he would make his opponent's life worse than death.

Chapter 2813

Lin Mo's side landed in full force in less than half an hour, partly because of the sneak attack, partly because of the fire suppression, and partly because of blowing up all the heavy firepower of the other side.

After several rounds of artillery fire, more than half of the men on General Hai's side were killed or wounded, and now Lin Mo's advance with the Zhao family guards and the Prince's party was not at all stressful.

The original furious General Hai was already sweating profusely at this time, the other side's firepower was too fierce, plus the other side's even in a head-on firefight, he thought he couldn't beat the other side, plus the other side came by surprise, his own side's men and horses didn't react at all, just one face-to-face killed and injured thousands of his men.

What was even worse was that there were D*mn snipers on the other side. As soon as his own men showed their heads, they were directly shot in the head within a few seconds, and the whole situation was completely one-sided.

"General, I'm out of pills."

"General, I'm out of it on my side too!"

"....."

"sh*t, hurry up and go to the ammunition depot to mobilize ammunition to come over, what's the point of talking to me!"

General Hai was in a fit of anger, and when faced with the plight of his men, he met with a reprimand.

"Our gunpowder depot has been bombed by the other side."

When General Hai heard this news, his brain buzzed, the ammunition depot was gone, so what's the point of having a hammer?

When the other men heard the news, they instantly felt like retreating, and while General Hai was in a daze, a few of them gave each other a wink and then quietly slipped out of the camp, a move that also caused the originally low morale to collapse instantly.

By the time General Hai came to his senses, the situation was already out of control, and the last hundred or so of his men were left with less than twenty men, and there was nothing he could do to stop the situation.

When Lin Mo arrived at the camp, everyone was already under the control of the prince. When the eight-faced Buddha, who was tied up at the side, saw Lin Mo, his pupils instantly shrank.

"Eight-faced Buddha, why don't you recognize me? Didn't you say before that it's easy to capsize when the wind is strong? Now it has come true."

The Eight-faced Buddha froze and did not reply, this was indeed what he had said, originally he had only seen Lin Mo and Ding Li in a bad light, before leaving he had coldly threatened them, but he did not expect this retribution to come so quickly.

The main thing is that the eight-faced Buddha did not expect that this young man would be so fierce, he even beat up General Hai, he could not help but want to slap himself when he thought of this, what a cheap mouth.

General Hai also did not expect that the leader of this fierce combat unit was such a young teenager.

“Who the hell are you people, you dare to attack our forces at night, you haven’t died have you?”

Lin Mo smiled lightly and walked up to the other side.

“General Hai, I’ve heard a lot about you, I’m Lin Mo!

As for coming here, I just want Zhang Qian’s goods and the hostages you have imprisoned!”

“Since you won’t give it to me, I’ll have to come and get it myself.”

General Hai stared blankly, “Just this?”

I f*cked you dam, just this bit of stuff, and I actually f*cked up the sea island where I was stationed.

Thinking of this he glanced at the eight-faced Buddha with a resentful look, this Bean batch before intercepting the ship did not know to investigate the power behind the other side first?

“Lin Mo is it, this general was attacked by you guys today, I admit it, you guys can take all the people and goods.”

He had already taken note of this revenge, he would definitely kill this kid when he found an opportunity later.

Lin Mo smiled calmly, “We don’t need to remind General Hai of this, we have already taken it ourselves.”

“But well

“I would also like to ask General Hai to borrow one more thing.”

The general of the sea pause look, he is now his men dead, wounded, warships and other things have been blown up by the other side, where there are still any valuable things.

“What do you want to borrow

Chapter 2814

Lin Mo looked at the man kneeling on the ground in front of him, and the corners of his mouth suddenly hooked.

“General Hai, I would like to borrow your life for a while.”

General Hai was not worried about what the other party would do to him because he had the Minister of Border Affairs behind him and because he was a member of the Grand Prince's faction, but now that he heard this he could not help but shudder, looking at Lin Mo's icy gaze, General Hai knew clearly that the other party was serious.

"Little brother Lin Mo, you are joking!"

Lin Mo's expression pulsed as his murderous intent gradually rose.

"I'm a serious person, I don't like jokes, and I've never had any notable battle achievements when I first came to Da Qu, so many people think that I'm just a fox."

"So I want to use the general's head to strengthen my reputation, isn't there a word for it, kill the chicken to make an example of the monkey."

Killing General Hai was not something Lin Mo was serious about, and it was not something he did on the spur of the moment.

According to the information he had received from Gadre's side, General Hai and the Minister of Border Affairs were both the Grand Prince's men, and Tong Hai's ocean-going group had already reached an agreement with Gadre, and the two sides had become opposing camps.

After learning that the Eight-Faced Buddha had obtained General Hai's token, Lin Mo thought that the forces targeting the Oceanic Group must be the Grand Prince's people, and Zhang Qian was just a fish caught in the crossfire.

It was unfortunate that Lin Mo and the Sixth Prince had already reached an agreement on cooperation, and Tong Hai Hai was also a potential partner of Lin Mo. Killing General Hai was a good way to kill the Great Prince's arm, and at the same time, it was a good way to shake the tiger and show the wavering power of the Great Qu group that Lin Mo also dared to kill.

The two birds with one stone, why not do it?

When General Hai saw that Lin Mo's killing intent had already risen, he began his final struggle.

"Lin Mo, think carefully, the person behind me is the Grand Prince, if you kill me, the Grand Prince won't let it go."

"It's alright, I can still hold up, do it."

It was just the Grand Prince, Lin Mo didn't have the slightest fear at all.

"Lin Mo, Laozi"

"Bang!"

Not waiting for him to finish spitting out his expletives, the prince had already opened his snatch.

"Che, people who are dying, still so much nonsense!"

"Alright, now it's your turn."

Eight-faced Buddha looked at the gun pointed towards himself, and then looked at General Hai who died tragically beside him his face was instantly pale, people even dared to kill General Hai, even less so for a small man like him.

“Brother Lin Mo, let’s talk properly, the matter of intercepting the ship, I am only following General Hai’s arrangement ah.”

He did not know Lin Mo’s mind, he only thought that Lin Mo had come to rescue this group of hostages.

“Big brother, it was this man who threatened you before wasn’t it, do you want to mess with him now.”

Although the prince’s voice was not loud, it scared the eight-faced Buddha straight, hating only that he hated himself for being a cheap talker in the first place, had he known that he would not have betrayed the Guangyao and set up his own business if he had been killed.

And when the muzzle of the Prince’s gun reached the back of his head, the latter felt a wave of warmth gush out of his trousers.

“f*ck, how scared of death are you to be P*ssing in your trousers?”

The prince scoffed once and turned away from the eight-faced Buddha, he originally thought that the person who dared to threaten his big brother was some kind of great figure, but he didn’t expect a straw man.

“All right, take this man back first! Keeping him might be useful, let’s retreat after cleaning up the battlefield.”

Now that what needed to be done was done, Lin Mo did not intend to stay here.

The battle came and went as quickly as it came, and by the time the group had finished cleaning up, the sky was already white, and Lin Mo’s side had completely crushed General Hai’s forces, with almost no compromise in terms of personnel.

As for the remaining intact guns, they were generally given to Zhao Yu by Lin Mo, while half of them were issued to the Featherwood Guards.

“Boss, what about those captives? Should we slaughter them all.”

Lin Mo shook his head, “Leave them alive, someone will come to deal with them when the time comes.”

With the morning sun shining, the fleet of boats slowly powered up to the island.

Chapter 2815

“Knock, knock, knock!”

A sharp knock on the door woke up Gadre, who had been sleeping with his consort, Baina, since he had recovered, and had been working tirelessly to make a baby.

“Your Highness, there is urgent information for you to decide.”

Gadrei put on his coat and came reluctantly into the drawing room, where he sat down on the sofa in a sleepy haze.

“What has happened?”

“General Hai has been slaughtered by Lin Mo!”

Jiade Lie was sleepy at the moment and replied with a snort.

“Isn’t it normal for Lin Mo to kill someone, if he’s slaughtered, he’s slaughtered

“Wait, who did you say was slaughtered?”

Tyger said seriously, “General Hai!”

Crap, the originally heavy sleepy Jiade Lie sat up in shock, his sleepiness swept away: “Are you sure?”

If Lin Mo had said that he had destroyed the Kong family he wouldn’t have been so surprised, but that was General Hai, the right-hand man on the Grand Prince’s side.

Teg had just received the news and had reacted in much the same way as Gadre had, the matter was too shocking.

“Yes, Lin Mo just called a short while ago and asked if we wanted to take our side of the land? Said there were still over five hundred prisoners left over there.”

“Collect, why not! Hurry up and send someone over there and take that side as soon as possible.”

The bay was an important import/export point for the sea of the Wanxiang Kingdom, but it had been controlled by the Minister of Border Affairs, Zat Wanliu, so he had been unable to intervene.

On the other hand, as Lin Mo had sent his men to destroy the communication equipment at the island before he made his move, by the time the Grand Prince received the news of General Hai’s death, it was already close to evening.

When he sent his men to find out the truth, the island in the bay had already been occupied by nearly 10,000 troops under Gadre’s name.

As for the Grand Prince’s men, they could only carry the remains of the Sea General back with them.

The Grand Prince shot up directly after learning this news.

“Who gave this Lin Mo the courage to kill my General of the Wanxiang Kingdom, someone dispatch my troops, I will go to Da Qu to take Lin Mo’s dog’s life.”

The sea general was not only his right-hand man, but the sea island where he was stationed was also one of the important territories under the name of the great prince, and was stationed there by the sixth prince on the pretext of maintaining the security of the sea, and it was no longer impossible to take back the pull.

The only way to vent his anger was to kill Lin Mo.

At the side of him, Wen Qiang looked at the Grand Prince's angry appearance and immediately stood up to persuade him.

"Your Highness, calm down a little."

"Nowadays, our relationship with Da Qu and the border with Zhen La is tense, if we were to send troops into Da Qu on a large scale at this time, it would probably escalate the conflict, and then it would not be as simple as just killing Lin Mo."

At these words, the Grand Prince instantly calmed down, the situation now was such that it would be unwise to engage either Da Qu or Zhen La in a firefight.

If he were to cause a national war, the other princes and the people of the country would not spare him, and he could not afford such a great crime at the moment.

But if he still let Lin Mo leave peacefully, how else could his Grand Prince face the rest of his men, who would want to serve such a master when his own men were killed and he didn't even let out a single fart.

"Mr. Wen, it's hard for me to feel at peace if I don't kill Lin Mo."

"Your Highness, instead of killing Lin Mo, we should take him to the side, after all, he has a big backer behind him."

The first time he saw the prince calm down, he secretly mentioned Lin Mo's identity. If he had told him about Lin Mo's identity at the beginning, he would have been able to calm the prince down, but didn't he want to lose face?

The first thing you need to do is to tell the leader that you've got a good idea of what you're doing, and that's what a capable believer should do.

Chapter 2816

After the idea of integrating Lin Mo was raised by Wen Qiang, the Grand Prince was impressed. Not only did this son have a huge chain of connections, but he also had the backing of the Chinese Martial Alliance behind him.

Since General Hai's territory could not be returned, it was time to take Lin Mo down.

As for the news of General Hai's death, after a day and a night of fermentation, it was like a twelve-step typhoon that instantly swept across the whole of Da Qu.

"This Lin Mo is too bold, isn't he? This General Hai is one of the Grand Prince's men, so killing him would be like offending the Grand Prince."

"Lin Mo's path is too narrow, he hasn't finished with the Kong family yet, and he's offending the Grand Prince over there, I really don't know how he thinks."

"You can't say that, it was General Hai's people who first intercepted the ship in the first place, if this kind of behavior is not stifled, who will dare to come to Da Qu to do business."

“Yes, that’s true, if every power didn’t play by the rules, then what business would we all be doing, we’d all go down to the sea and rob.”

There was a lot of discussion among the people, and all the forces did pick out the right or wrong evaluation of the matter completely, what they valued more was Lin Mo’s strength.

Before this, there had been rumours that Lin Mo was the junior of the Zhao family in accordance with the training, and even that Lin Mo and the Sixth Prince had a great relationship, but all this was just rumours, no one had ever confirmed it, even the Zhao family as well as the Sixth Prince had no clear occurrence about this matter.

The first was that Lin Mo led the Zhao family’s Tiger Guards to eliminate General Hai, and then the Sixth Prince took over General Hai’s territory in the first place.

After understanding this, the forces that were still wavering began to run to Heshan City, intending to hug Lin Mo, the super thigh, as soon as possible.

As for the Kong family, no one took them seriously anymore, even if they did have the backing of the true wax behind them, so what, Lin Mo had the backing of the fierce tiger, the Zhao family, and the help of the Sixth Prince, it would be a simple matter to eliminate a small Kong family.

Three days later, all the guests arrived in Heshan City, the latest time within Lin Mo’s announcement, and those who did not come were just some wavering wallflowers.

The Gan family is bleeding money for this banquet, as they need a huge venue to welcome a huge number of guests, the Gan master’s heart is crossed and teeth bite directly the ground floor of the mansion smashed through, so as to meet the demand.

As there were many things to negotiate for the banquet, Lin Mo simply set the banquet for noon, but early in the morning there were many guests who arrived at the Gan family home early, just to take their chances and see if they could meet Lin Mo in advance to rub shoulders.

They had waited all morning and had not even seen Lin Mo’s shadow.

As the banquet officially began, the crowd of wealthy businessmen and representatives of power gathered together, the scene was even more lively than the Sixth Prince’s previous dinner party, and the sound of crisp gla*s clinking was heard one after another.

Lin Mo also did not think that after killing General Hai would have such a big reaction, if he had known this, why did he wait until now, directly kill General Hai to sacrifice him to heaven?

And with Lin Mo’s trip, the originally noisy dinner scene suddenly quieted down, the crowd waiting for the initiator finally came. It was not that Lin Mo wanted to be late on purpose, but if he had come early, these guests would have pestered him to death, and by then they would have been annoyed to death.

Chapter 2817

Lin Mo walked to the centre of the main podium and looked at each other with countless pairs of eyes, he knew that everyone was quietly waiting for him to speak, and that he had finally had the chance to start working on his own plans after being in Da Qu for so long.

“Preferably, I would like to thank you all for your kindness in coming to the dinner party hosted by Lin, a little meet and greet gift I hope you will not mind.”

At the end of the sentence, the waiter walked into the banquet with a delicate pill box, which was Lin Mo’s previous promise, the Longevity Pill. Accepting this was a tacit agreement to join Lin Mo in his fight against the Kong family.

The guests were naturally aware of this, but none of them dwelled on it, since they had come here to hug the thigh on the one hand, and to divide the cake after the fall of the Kong family on the other.

Of course, many people had a torn look on their faces after they had received this item. Who wouldn’t want to live for a few more years, but mainly this item was so easy to obtain that many people were suspicious.

“Young Lin, does it really have the effect of longevity?”

People are like that, the easier it is to get something, the less it is valued.

“This item is called ‘Longevity Pill’, although it cannot guarantee a long life, it is still credible to prolong life.”

After saying this Lin Mo added, “This, I can vouch for with my name as the Medical Saint of China.”

This layer of his identity had been known to many of the powers in Da Qu a long time ago, so it was no surprise to the crowd that it was mentioned again now.

The questioning guest nodded as he received this answer and did not say anything more, they were not sure how high the name of the Sage of Chinese Medicine was, but it was not so high as to deceive them, they just did not know how effective it was.

“In addition, a reminder, this item is best used after you all return to your residences or go home.”

Hearing Lin Mo’s reminder, several of the guests who had already taken the Longevity Pill looked stunned, wouldn’t you have f*cking said that earlier?

They swallowed their throats, it was too late, it was too late for their bellies!

A few seconds later, these people felt their intestines begin to rage and roll, and the gurgling sound also drew the attention of the bystanders, and when the people’s eyes shifted over, these people had already run out of the scene with their alone.

Without waiting for others to ask questions, Lin Mo began to explain himself.

“The principle of the Longevity Pill is to dispatch the turbid Qi and impurities in one’s body, thus improving the body for the purpose of living longer.”

The reason why he did not remind the crowd in the first place naturally had his intentions, without people to try the medicine, without seeing the efficacy of the Longevity Pill with their own eyes, how could others be convinced and how could he take the leading position in the consultation afterwards.

The businessmen were profit-oriented, and the light reliance on the stick did not make them yield, the sugar that should be given still had to be given.

After waiting for a while, the few people who had left the venue finally returned, but when they rushed into the venue, everyone looked surprised.

The few people who had become the focus of the audience were baffled, what was wrong with them, just going to the toilet?

“Old Ding, you seem to be getting a lot younger!”

“What are you talking about? It’s just a toilet break? You’ve gotten younger.”

Speaking of this, Old Ding’s gaze towards Lin Mo still carried a slight grudge, if it wasn’t for Lin Mo’s too late reminder, he wouldn’t have lost face in front of so many peers.

It was only after a few female guests handed him a mirror that his thoughts changed completely.

The old ding looked at himself in the mirror and was shocked for a time to say nothing, he really became a lot younger, the original white hair on his head was much less and the wrinkles at the corners of his eyes had also faded quite a bit.

This The actual medicine is a miracle!

“Mr. Lin Mo, is there a channel to sell this medicine!”

“Young Lin, our Da Qu Pharmaceutical Group would like to be the distributor of this Longevity Pill, I wonder what price is needed?”

Chapter 2818

Once the Longevity Pill was released and tested by several people on the spot, it instantly caused a violent reaction. Everyone present was clear that this Longevity Pill could bring huge profits, and it was no exaggeration to say that once it was mass produced it would sweep the entire pharmaceutical market.

No one could resist the lure of longevity.

Lin Mo naturally understood this, otherwise why would he have sent this pill out? Before, the slaughter of the sea general was Lin Mo’s big stick, and now this longevity pill was the sugar he sent out, and it was time to start implementing his plan.

“This item has taken into account the raw materials and production line issues, this medicine production cannot reach, the point of sale, so it is only available to internal personnel.”

Hearing this news, all the guests were greatly disappointed, seeing this profitable product disappearing from sight, which was a great regret for the businessmen, but other people with a heart heard came other meanings.

“Young Lin, what does this insider mean?”

Lin Mo glanced at this know-it-all guest, that was a good question to ask!

“Insiders naturally refer to the Merchant Alliance!”

“I wonder which province’s merchant alliance Lin Shao is referring to?”

How could they easily let go of this profitable product in front of them, many of them were looking forward to it, the sooner they joined, the sooner they would get the distribution rights.

After looking around, Lin Mo smiled, “This merchant alliance is not referring to any one province, but the Da Qu General Merchant Alliance.”

With these words, everyone finally understood, this Lin Mo was so ambitious that he wanted to restart the Da Qu General Chamber of Commerce.

There was also a merchant alliance in Da Qu before, but each province was under the management of each other, and some identities had simply eliminated this organization, there was no clear unified headquarters, now Lin Mo intended to restart this merchant alliance what exactly was his intention.

“Young Lin, I don’t mean anything else, this is Da Qu from ancient times to the present, the general merchant alliance is non-existent.

Nowadays, relying on us people alone, would it be possible to set up such an organization?”

This person’s words did not finish, but the meaning is already very obvious, the scene are some low and middle level organization forces, those top family none came, light they these people more or less a bit not to measure up.

This statement also echoed the thoughts of the other people everywhere, and they all stared at Lin Mo with puzzled eyes, waiting for his answer.

The original province’s merchant union would have to be separated from the original one, and all the relationships established before would have to be discarded and started all over again, which would even easily lead to hatred from other provinces.

Many people began to weigh the pros and cons of this, whether to join in and hug Lin Mo’s thighs to obtain the distribution channels for the Longevity Pill or to maintain their original business chain.

Lin Mo also understood their concerns, and their hesitation was an indication that they were interested, but the benefits he offered were not enough.

“You don’t have to worry, it’s difficult to start with, but if the General Merchant Union is established, you will be the patriarchal representatives.”

“Moreover, you all should not forget that I, Lin Mo, as the strongest medical saint of the new generation in China, do I only have longevity pills on hand?”

After speaking, he would order someone to send up more than ten types of pills.

“This is the Face Nourishing Pill, taking it will take out the body’s deposited discolouration.”

“This is the Spirit Opening Pill, which enhances intelligence”

“This is the Body Strengthening Pill”

Lin Mo’s method is very simple, is to smash, one is not enough, then ten, not one is not enough then a hundred, smash until these people collapse for it, he does not believe that someone can resist the temptation of such a huge amount of profit.

The general merchants’ union must be set up, Da Qu is too chaotic, not only between the forces, but also between merchants and merchants, if it is not dealt with early, the whole economy of Da Qu will collapse sooner or later.

Only with the establishment of the Commercial Union could Lin Mo’s plan to restart the Martial Union be better implemented.

Chapter 2819

With Lin Mo’s continuous introduction, the guests present were already numb, a faint serving of the Longevity Pill had already made their hearts flutter, and with the addition of these ten or so pills that were scarce in the market, a terrifying market for pills had already taken shape.

In particular, the female guests had personally tested the face-nourishing elixir and after taking it, the blemishes on their faces disappeared in less than half an hour.

No sooner had the crowd recovered from their shock than someone in the crowd already spoke up.

“I, the Yun Chuang Group, am willing to join Lin Shao’s business alliance and open up the distribution rights of Yun Chuang Spray to my peers within the business alliance.”

Although the Yunchuang Group was not in Daqu, its rise was unknown to all businessmen.

The market value is still rising. All the businessmen in Da Qu are also coveting the Yun Chuang spray, but they do not have the channel.

The reason why Song Zhilan came to Daqu was also a deliberate arrangement by Lin Mo, all for the smooth establishment of the merchant alliance.

The shock here was not over yet, but there was also a commotion not far away.

The person who came was none other than Tong Xiaohe of the International Ocean Shipping Group.

“Young Lin, it’s important to come to play, but goodness gracious, thank you for coming to Lin’s aid for what happened the other day.”

It was not that he didn't want to help, but it was just that his properties were being targeted and interfered with, so they couldn't spare the manpower for a while.

Lin Mo not only rescued the hostages, but also brought back the transport ship that their group had rented out, helping them to maintain the group's face, plus the fact that Tong Hai still owed Lin Mo for saving his life, now that Lin Mo wanted to set up a merchant alliance, they naturally had to send someone to show their solidarity.

After greeting Lin Mo, Tong Xiaohe spoke towards the others present.

"Tong Xiaohe, on behalf of the Oceanwide Group's Da Qu branch, joins Lin Mo's merchant alliance, and for the merchant ships produced by the Oceanwide Group, members within the warship can enjoy the right of first refusal to purchase them, and a 10% discount for chartering cooperation."

As a world-class shipbuilding giant, the Ocean Shipping Group is in short supply of all kinds of ships under its name.

The most fearful thing in the sea business is that there will be problems with the transport ships, affecting the delivery date or the quality of the goods, which will affect the revenue.

As for those family forces, they are also impressed, they not only look at the ocean-going group's transport ships and cruise ships, for their production of warships is more coveted, of course, if you can get a warship, it would be even more great, directly take off.

"I, Guan Yao, on behalf of the forces under my name, join the Merchant Alliance!"

"I, Ding Li, on behalf of the forces under my name, join the Merchant Alliance."

With the two leading the way, the other guests who had slowed down rose to speak.

"I am willing to join Da Qu."

"I am also willing!"

In a flash the guests who were still wavering rushed forward and scrambled to join Lin Mo's merchant alliance.

Originally they were still worried about those top forces, now above the shopping mall, with the Ocean Group and Yunchuang Group backing them up, power-wise Lin Mo had the Zhao family behind him, although Zhao Ziyan who stayed on the scene didn't say a word the whole time, but were those Zhao family tiger guards outside the Gan family for show, it was all here to back up Lin Mo.

Chapter 2820

With the Ocean Group, the Original Group, the Zhao family, the Hanoi Tiger, the Lord Guangyao and the newcomer Ding Li, the merchant alliance was formed with a luxurious line-up.

With their backing and the attractive and profitable products, would it be stupid not to join in?

As Lin Mo looked at the crowd's eagerness to join, he secretly breathed a sigh of relief that the business alliance was secure.

Of course, not everyone was like this, after all, there were so many guests, many of them must be spies sent by other forces, for these people Lin Mo also treats them equally, as long as you are willing to join I am willing to accept, anyway, his purpose is to integrate the business of Da Qu, those who are submissive, slowly eliminate.

Of course, there are still many things to follow, such as the establishment of the headquarters of the business alliance, the formulation of the regulation, the establishment of the members' files, the ribbon cutting and so on, a lot of things are waiting to be perfected.

This was the first day of the meeting and that was it for now, other matters were left for the next day.

After the meeting, there was a formal dinner, and many people took advantage of this time to start forming gangs and exchanging ideas.

After a brief reception, Lin Mo slipped out of the scene and turned to the private box arranged by the Gan family.

"Sister Song, it's been hard for you, making such a long trip, here I'll drink to you."

As soon as Lin Mo entered the door he gave a rainbow fart and started flattering Song Zhilan.

"Don't come, you've come all this way to hand me over, what exactly is your intention, tell me!"

"How can there be any intention? I just missed you and invited you over for a meal."

"You think I'll believe that?"

She had known Lin Mo for such a long time, how could she not know Lin Mo's character, to come all the way here to ask her to come over, it could never be as simple as representing the Yun Chuang Group in solidarity with him, or having a meal.

Lin Mo scratched his head before smiling heatedly, "As you know, Sister Song, these people under me, it's okay for you to let them do the fighting."

"But to let them manage the affairs of the merchant alliance"

Not waiting for Lin Mo to finish, Song Zhilan felt an empty head.

"Stop, you're not going to let me manage this merchant alliance, are you?"

Looking at Lin Mo's innocent nod, Song Zhilan immediately shook her head and refused, she had only just gotten used to managing the large Yun Chuang Group, and now she had to manage the Da Qu Commercial Union.

"Lin Mo it's not that I don't want to help you, it's just that I'm just a woman how can I convince the public, plus I she also has no experience in this area of management."

"Sister Song, this point you don't have to worry, cloud creation group tens of thousands of employees your management of surprisingly well organized, they are only thousands of people."

“But, theirs and the employees have the same.”

Lin Mo waved a big hand to comfort him, “What’s different, your employees serve the Cloud Creation Group, while these merchant forces, on the other hand, serve the merchant alliance, all changes are just to make money.”

“Is that exactly what it is?”

Song Zhilan asked rhetorically with a tangled face.

“Of course, how could I lie to you, how you managed the group before now just manage the Business Alliance.

As long as there are those who don’t cooperate and sing the opposite tune, deal with them as you should, no need to give them face.”

“Sister Song, if I didn’t have no choice, I wouldn’t bother you, it’s really because I don’t have this counter talent available under my hands.”

“Moreover, no surprises, this side of Da Qu I want to build it into is a power, so there must be trustworthy people to head the merchant alliance, this matter can only be hard for you.”

Lin Mo said is also the truth, his side management personnel is indeed scarce, although his wife Xu Hanxia also served as the chairman of the Xu Group, but that was driven by Lin Mo on the shelf, now facing this group of old oil, his character is too weak and not suitable, think about he and trust, but also has the ability of the person, only Song Zhilan is the most suitable.
