Chapter 2901

Lin Mo heard the green shadow of that unperturbed tone, the heart suddenly had a sense of foreboding.

The hindsight of You Li also realized that something was wrong, according to his daughter's past character absolutely to lash out, only at this time she was calm and somewhat seeping.

"Ying'er, are you okay?"

He asked worriedly.

Plunder Shadow looked up and smiled: "It's fine, although I like brother Lin Mo very much, but I can't always destroy people's harmonious families."

"It's good, I can see that brother Lin Mo loves her wife very much."

"Bless you!"

Said she went forward, hugged Lin Mo, and leaned her head on Lin Mo's shoulder.

"I will always remember this feeling."

"If I had known, I wouldn't have come back, so at least I could have been leaning on it like this."

After murmuring a few words, Green Shadow let go of his hands.

"Father, it was me who didn't know what to do in the past! I gave you trouble."

You Li raised his hand, wanting to say something but not knowing where to start.

"Ying'er, for father also just want you to have a happy home, for father also want to hug grandchildren."

"So it was a momentary rush"

Under his desperate explanation, Green Shadow smiled and shook his head, "I understand! I know!"

You Li heard this, just about to be relieved when the face suddenly changed, only to see the green shadow sword finger wave, three thousand green silk instantly floating down.

The original green shadow that is like a waterfall like shoulder-length hair directly disappeared, less a trace of innocence but more a trace of competence.

"Father, my daughter is unfilial, from now on one heart to the Tao, I'm afraid I can not meet your heart's desire."

Under the transformation of sadness and joy, her heart has been from the, once the vicissitudes of the sea can not be water, if you can not marry Lin Mo, the world in no one can enter her heart.

"Lin Mo brother, after wishing you happiness, remember to come back to see me in the divine mountain sometime."

At this time the green shadow of only calm, can no longer see any other expression.

On the side of the You Li at this time already do not know what to do, the original great joy, now turned into this look, and as a father, he can clearly perceive, his daughter's heart sad sad before.

"Ying'er, why are you suffering?"

"Father, I'm tired!"

Green Shadow left a sentence, directly turned around and walked out of the gra's hut, feet lightly, the whole person leapt up and disappeared from sight, the heart of hope dashed, coupled with the rapid transformation between sadness and happiness, she has been physically and mentally exhausted.

You Li dumbfounded looking at the back of his daughter disappeared, a long time did not return to the mind, the green shadow of the change gave him a great impact, but at this time how to regret it is too late, all this is the result of his own will.

This moment he seems to understand a little, why his father and daughter always get along, probably this is the generation gap it.

The original intention was to achieve the happiness of his daughter, but now it has made such a big joke.

"Hey!"

"Let's end this matter here, it's the old man who was too reckless."

If he had asked the duo's opinion wouldn't have happened so absurd me.

"Your stance today, also counted corrective perfection, day-to-day logistics plus cultivation, the future will certainly be able to ascend to the top."

"The physical body, after these days of tempering, also almost reached the limit."

Said You Li took out a roll of parchment from his bosom.

"This is of my divine mountain, the transmigration heart method, originally thought to wait for your newlywed, as a dowry to give you."

"You don't rush to refuse first!"

"The hostility in your heart is too heavy, if not cleared up, this sound is afraid that it is difficult to Grand Master."

"In addition, in the process of quenching the flesh body, I found your memory was tampered with.

And the means is very clever, a short time I can not do anything about it, when I think of a way, then come to help you deal with it."

Chapter 2902

You Li chattered a lot, like an elder chanting about his own junior.

“Even if it’s a gift, you can take the heart method, just don’t pass it out.”

After saying that, You Li handed Tai Ah by the Heart Method to Lin Mo’s hand.

Lin Mo did not reply, he did not know what to say to say, say you are wrong, he just want to fulfill his daughter’s happiness, he just want to hug his grandson granddaughter; say right he should not decide alone, without knowing the situation of his family, conceal all this, let the two into marriage.

This is a contradictory matter, using right and wrong can not judge anything at all.

Arigato walked to the door, suddenly stopped and said.

“By the way, I heard from the subordinates that your wife and men found their way over here, right at the foot of the mountain, only they don’t seem to be in a good condition.”

As the words fell, a breeze lifted up around him.

“Kid!”

Anxious Lin Mo was about to rush to the foot of the mountain, but suddenly heard You Li’s shouting people, turned back only to see a black shadow shot and came, after reaching out to catch it, only to find that it was a stone token, although it was very similar to the stone order of the feather accident seen before, but there were subtle differences.

“This is the divine mountain in and out of the token, although my divine mountain does not intervene in worldly matters, but in danger, come to my divine mountain, I protect you!”

The words fell to the ground, and You Li’s figure disappeared in the same place.

“Thank you, senior!”

After Lin Mo said thanks, immediately turned his head, the body words fast wind continued to rush to his wife’s side.

.....

Tong Jun’s side held the unconscious Xu Hanxia and re-found the crown prince and others.

“Throw ah, sister-in-law is what happened? Just before going was not good?”

The crown prince’s heart stood up in a hurry, if not for the side of the ferry disease held down, he just re-exploded the wound is afraid to collapse again.

“We met Lord Lin.”

“Just what ah, wheedling.”

The prince was already acute, and seeing Tong Jun squirming so much, he was even more annoyed.

“We saw that Lord Lin was marrying another woman, and Miss Xu fainted in a moment of anxiety.”

As he explained, while settling Xu Hanxia on the ground, and at this time, the Du Sickness on the side also hurriedly extended his finger and checked her pulse.

“Are you guys looking at it wrong? My big brother isn’t the kind of person who starts and ends things.”

The prince simply did not believe what Tong Jun said.

On the side, Chen Jin also added, “Could there be some misunderstanding here, I also think that Lord Lin is not that kind of person.”

For a moment, the crowd couldn’t help but frown.

And the side of the ferry disease also encountered trouble: “It’s going to be bad, Master Xu’s body is overly fatigued and has a serious loss of essence.”

“And I simply don’t have any healing herbs on hand here, if it drags on it will have serious damage to Master Xu’s body.”

He has been these years to cure people are walking to where, herbs collected to where, in addition to some commonly used healing pills, simply no other stock, now want to treat Xu Hanxia.

The words came out, the already serious atmosphere became more depressing.

“No, Tong Jun you help me to see my big brother.”

Tong Jun’s face was bitter in the face of the prince’s request, “The people on the divine Mountain side, knowing our identities, will not give us the chance to get close to Lord Lin at all.”

He was stopped from going by the two high waters before, otherwise he wouldn’t have returned the same way to find Du Qi.

“I don’t care, I must ask what is going on face to face, my sister-in-law is in danger now.

Big deal, I can die in front of them, I can walk before my sister-in-law, I can also count on my conscience.”

The prince struggled to stand up, despite several people’s discouragement.

Also at that moment, the sound of talking came from behind him.

“Crown Prince, what do you want to ask clearly?”

Chapter 2903

After the people heard the movement, they hurriedly turned back, and then their faces showed joy.

“Big brother you’re finally here!”

“My subordinate Tong Jun (Chen Jin) to see Lord Zhen Yue Amba*sador.”

Lin Mo looked at see word this all serious injuries, frown instantly.

“Prince, who moved you?”

Between his words, his tone also became serious, and a murderous opportunity appeared in his gaze.

The prince did not return, but only urged anxiously.

"I'm fine, big brother, you clean to sister-in-law, she has been unconscious for a long time."

At this time Lin Mo noticed, a few people behind the wife lying on top of the gra*s, he smiled and quickly ran to his wife's side.

"Hanxia!"

Lin Mo squatted down and hurriedly stretched out his fingers on Xu Hanxia's wife, after a while, his nervous expression gradually relaxed a bit.

Fortunately, it was just a loss of essence, which was difficult to deal with for the Duji disease, but for Lin Mo, it was not considered serious.

After he took out the Dokujiuxuan needles, he carefully stabbed them into each of his wife's vital points, and Lin Mo overloaded his own essence qi into Xu Hanxia's body through the traction of his spiritual power.

Hesitantly worried about damaging his wife's body, Lin Mo will refine this process to extend, while observing his wife's body condition, while controlling the input of essence qi little by little.

Half an hour later, Lin Mo stopped the action in his hands, after retrieving the nine Xuan needles he picked up his wife again heartily, let her snuggle in his arms, and draped his jacket over his wife.

"There is no big problem, she is too tired."

These words were for the Crown Prince and the others to hear, but also for him, Lin Mo, to hear himself.

With a sense of guilt, Lin Mo took out the golden wound ointment as well as various elixirs for internal and external injuries.

"Let's take care of the injuries on your body first, this matter is my failure to do a good job."

After apologizing a sentence, Lin Mo then recapped the whole story with several people and others.

After hearing this, the prince even shouted that he wanted to blow up this Bashar God Mountain.

"Big brother, this fault is not on you, you are also swept away by them."

"Sooner or later, there will be a point where I will blast this place into ruins, and when that happens, let them see no one in their eyes and let them stand tall."

From the moment Yu recruited on Lin Mo, all things Lin Mo lost his right to choose.

Even if he decided to come to the divine mountain, Yu was forced to take him away, and after entering the divine mountain, You Li would not let him leave at all, even if Lin Mo did not accept You Li's instruction, the other party had other ways to force him to stay.

This is what made the crown prince most angry: "Big brother, that old man from You Li is completely full of sh*t."

“The mouth says that they know how to deal with people in the world, but in reality, it’s completely because they are used to it and feel high and mighty, so they think they are self-righteous and feel that everyone else should do what they want.”

Lin Mo shook his head: “Forget it, things have pa*sed, so it’s over.”

“In the future, just try not to cross paths with them again.”

Although he did not intend to count on this, Lin Mo was also clear that, as the crown prince said, from the beginning of things, he was like a puppet in their hands, still manipulated by them.

Love is love, resentment is resentment, the two simply can not be mixed up.

If you do not have behind which design, Lin Mo naturally also appreciate the love of the guidance of you.

But it is because of those small means, which led to Lin Mo can not return to the city, and also can not contact the Prince and others, which led to his wife coma, the Prince and others were seriously injured, more than a dozen people were killed, from this point of view, cause and effect, he You Li is also the cause of a link.

The prince and the others had the elixir provided by Lin Mo, and their wounds were instantly healed, especially the golden wound ointment, which was a miracle medicine for external wounds, and after applying it, the wounds began to fuse at a speed visible to the naked eye. [...]

The prince and the others had the elixir provided by Lin Mo, and their wounds were instantly healed, especially the golden wound ointment, which was a miracle medicine for external wounds, and after applying it, the wounds began to fuse at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Chapter 2904

After the group finished dealing with their injuries, the most seriously injured prince as well as Chen Jin then stood up again with the help of a few surviving juniors.

“Let’s go back!”

Lin Mo got up and left with his wife in his arms, and after walking out of the boundary, he took out the special stone order and placed it on top of the flat rock by the roadside along with the scroll of the Wheel of Fortune, and then left the place completely without looking back.

No matter the grudge has been settled since then.

What Lin Mo did not know was that when their group just left not long ago, several figures suddenly appeared next to that rock.

“Mountain master this Lin Mo also too insensitive.

In the past and present, this can enter and exit the divine mountain order at will, we only send out only five pieces.

And this Heart Turning Wheel Method is a top-level technique, he actually just casually threw it on the roadside.”

“And that kid even dared to rebuke us for being high-minded and arrogant.”

Yu indignantly stared at the back of Lin Mo’s group and said.

You Li in the front hands don’t back, secretly sigh, he understood Lin Mo’s meaning.

“I thought before I thought that the people on the mountain, by its own faith, the heart of impure people, all because of impetuous.”

“Now look again, aren’t we also like that?”

“That child is right, away from the world although more a quiet, but at the same time we are also a high pride.

Feather, look back, we do, from the beginning to the end we are doing things by our own will.”

The words fell, Yu immediately face changed, because the Lord of the mountain said is indeed the truth, this point can not be denied.

“If not for this matter of Lin Mo, we would still be in a muddle and unaware.

You gather everyone, it’s time for us to cure ourselves.”

“As ordered!”

Yu, after answering, his figure disappeared here in a panic, and only You Li and his daughter Green Shadow were left in place.

"Maybe you're the one who's right! The human heart is not controllable, but the mind can be transformed."

If it was put in the past, Green Shadow was still complacent because of her father's submission, now she no longer has that mind.

"Well, father, I'm going to go cultivate first!"

The flat tone of voice can not hear a trace of the taste of affection, only mechanical antiquated response.

The green shadow took a look at the back of the group that disappeared at the foot of the mountain, silently recited a peace of mind in his heart, and then turned to leave, leaving Yuli alone in this darkness.

Although this incident has awakened him, just a little too costly.

After waiting for the place to be empty, but suddenly and strangely resounded the ethereal sound.

"Little doll, the divine sense is sensitive, can actually perceive my presence."

The breeze brushed by, the mountain scenery remained the same, the green leaves swayed, the mountain springs flowed, everything seemed to happen, yet it seemed not to happen.

.....

"Big brother, they still have hundreds of pursuers, can you stand it alone?"

On the way down the mountain, the prince asked again worriedly.

"Don't worry, you've asked more than 800 times, don't worry about this matter."

Along with Lin Mo's last answer, the group arrived at the foot of the mountain at this time, yet they only saw patches of caravans and hadn't seen any enemies.

"It's not right, when we ran into the big mountain, there were hundreds of pursuers, how come now not a single figure is missing."

The prince looked at the scene in front of him and exclaimed in amazement.

Hundreds of people just disappeared out of thin air?

Lin Mo went up and patted the astonished prince's face.

"Don't worry, they might have been scared away by the mighty name of God Mountain."

The reason he was so calm was simply because he had sensed hundreds of recently dead corpses buried under the earth layer of the ground when he walked out of the divine Mountain's earth realm, and if he didn't guess wrong they should be the pursuers who were chasing the Crown Prince.

And that white-haired old man standing on a tree branch not far away, should be the legendary God Mountain realm guardian!

Chapter 2905

Since the pursuers had been reunited, but Lin Mo summoned the Zhao family guards before descending the mountain in order to prevent accidents from happening again.

Thousands of troops under cover, a group of people also finally returned to the city of Heshan.

And Xu Hanxia also woke up in the middle, fortunately Lin Mo first time panic will explain all the things, which was lucky to escape a disaster, and Xu Hanxia hard in Lin Mo chest hammered a few punches this to completely eliminate anger.

As for the Duji, after getting off the bus, he first excused himself from the invitation of the crown prince to host a banquet, and then he directly said goodbye to Lin Mo.

“Master Lin, now that you have returned safely, it is time for the young monk to return to the great mountain.”

“Little monk wait a moment!”

Lin Mo saw that Du Qi was going to leave and hurriedly called him, on the way he also talked with Du Qi about many things within the Great Mountain, but he always felt that Du Qi had said half of the words, it seemed that some things were not all said.

“Now it’s already dark, now and the city rest for the night.

Tomorrow morning I’ll ask someone to drive you back, it’s just as well that we haven’t met for a long time.”

The prince saw Watanabe’s face hesitant, went forward and put an arm around Watanabe’s shoulders.

“Yes, little baldy, since my big brother has said so, you can stay for one night before you leave.”

Du Qi looked at the crown prince and then at Lin Mo, before slowly nodding his head.

“Is that right, Ah Fei, hurry up and have someone prepare the vegetarian feast for our little bald head, again.”

“Almighty, there’s really no need for that, it’s fine for us to simply eat some.”

How could the prince pay any attention to Du Qi’s persuasion, with a big wave of his hand he directly let Tong Jun and the others take Du Qi to the feast.

Into the night.

After Lin Mo returned to his room, his wife was already sleeping peacefully, she was also really exhausted these days, Lin Mo put please feet, walked to Xu Hanxia’s side, after pulling up the quilt for him, then walked to the courtyard.

After returning from the divine Mountain, all the way back, now he finally had time to check the changes in his body.

First of all, the physical body, compared to before, had been enhanced by a grade, and the reaction ability, and the speed of making moves had also increased tremendously.

“Drink!”

After a group swung out, the air instantly appeared layers of vibrations, and the seven or eight meters finished big tree even instantly appeared a ripple fist imprint.

Due to the increase in the strength of his physical body, his stacked wave fist power has more than doubled, and no longer like before which like, need to be stacked again and again in order to play a further great power, now he has been able to achieve the level of power before the fist out.

At the same time, the power of his White Family Scattered Hands is also more powerful, more rapid and powerful.

After soaking in the medicine vat for so many days, the power of his soul had also become more powerful.

The sword finger waved, nine xuan needles flocked out, the road cold mangoes flying mountains, not far from the rocks covered with holes in the blink of an eye.

Again before, he did not test this Lanling ghost face simply can not do.

Lin Mo if not worried about disturbing others, at this time he really want to try, after bringing the ghost face, his soul power can reach what level.

After testing one by one, there was only Tai Ah left, but again because of the problem of too much noise, Lin Mo finally gave up.

“Not bad, I can completely hang my previous self with this power.”

Lin Mo nodded contentedly, just as he was planning to return to the villa, his eyes suddenly glanced at a figure over the pond.

“Hmm? It’s so late, what’s the little monk staring at here?”

Lin Mo strolled forward with a curious intent, but just before he could get close, he heard a long sigh from Du Qi.

And this was also the first time Lin Mo saw this look of Du Qi.

Chapter 2906

Stars dotted the night sky, bright moonlight, like a silver veil, for the earth laid a layer of decoration.

Within the pond, the shape of the full moon was also reflected clearly.

Watanabe is sitting alone at the edge of the pond, staring at the water with a dark sigh, not aware of the Lin Mo behind him.

“What’s wrong, little monk what is the big deal, can make you so long and short sigh.”

Knowing that at this time, Du Qi woke up, after standing up he folded his hands.

“Master Lin, it’s so late, why haven’t you rested yet.”

Lin Mo smiled sarcastically, “Little monk, I should be the one to ask you this.”

“Although we haven’t known each other for long, this is the first time I’ve seen you look this dark and sad.

Did you encounter something difficult?”

Watanabe looked flustered, only to immediately have it hidden back by him.

“Thank you for your concern, Master Lin, all is well with the young monk!”

And how could he escape Lin Mo’s eyes with such lame acting skills.

“Du Qi, we are friends, right?”

Du Qi looked at Lin Mo’s serious face and subconsciously nodded his head.

“Aren’t friends just helping each other? You see I’m in trouble, didn’t you go out of your way to follow the prince and come to me.”

“If it is that I as a friend, talk to me, or say which girl you have taken a fancy to and plan to return to the world.”

Watanabe was so provoked by him that his face suddenly turned red.

“Poor monk’s heart is towards Buddha, just worried about the matter of the villagers in Dasan, Lin Shih-Lord don’t tease the little monk.”

When he finished, and then look at Lin Mo’s face with a bad smile, Du Qi also suddenly found that he had omitted to say, the original red face became more obvious, only he stared with big eyes, wanting to say and could not say anything.

In front of Lin Mo, he this involved in the world of the little sama is ultimately a little too tender.

“Well, not to tease you, tell me, what is it that worries you so much, if I can help, I will do my best.”

Watanabe exhaled a heavy breath of turbid air and spoke with a hesitant face.

“Master Lin, I know that you have a lot of things to do with the restart of the Martial Union Business Alliance.

So this matter, I had wanted to handle it myself.”

Lin Mo heard this and thought that the little sage had changed and become more knowledgeable about human affairs, only the next words of Du Qi made him understand that he had overthought.

“Da Qu needs Lin Shih-Lord to rectify, so that the world is clear and calm, compared to this little monk those things, but a small witch to see a big witch.”

“So this matter, the small monk will deal with, Lin Shih-Lord grasp the matter at hand, the sooner to complete this Da Qu United Provinces to the sooner peace and stability.”

Good guy, or that set of sacrifice of the small self to achieve the big self, and look at his attitude or want to struggle a little do not want to say ah.

Lin Mo frowned, joint before the things talked about, he suddenly had a guess.

“Is it something encountered among the great mountains, if you do not say, I can also let the prince to investigate.”

Watanabe froze, the difficult things he encountered, as soon as the investigation will soon be able to know, seeing that it can not be hidden, he simply said it directly.

“Because of the night vine gra*s!”

After Lin Mo heard this object again, his face instantly pulled down.

Watanabe did not and Lin Mo stare, just their own self to continue to say.

“Within the mountains, those people of the earth cottage village, the days are already very difficult.

On the one hand, they have to do farm work to support themselves, on the other hand, they have to face the exploitation and oppression of outsiders.”

“Those villagers who are strong and fit, some of them have to be forcibly captured to dig mines.”

“The most abominable thing is that there are people from outside the mountain, into the night vine also brought into the mountains, swindle the villagers that this material can strengthen the body, aphrodisiac tonic deficiency.”

“Now many people have been deeply affected by it, difficult to extricate themselves!”

Chapter 2907

The environment and geographical location within the Great Mountain is similar to the Basha Divine Mountain, except that the seemingly ordinary inhabitants above the Divine Mountain are hidden experts. And although the area within the Great Mountain is countless times larger than the Barsha divine Mountain, the villagers between that earthen fortress villages are indeed indeed ordinary people.

After the first batch of outside merchants walked into the big mountain, in the name of support, began to give away night vine gra*s for free.

At first after taking the night vetch, indeed the whole person's essence becomes more vigorous, whether in bed or on the ground, like drinking tiger whip wine general vitality can not be, plus others are free gifts, in the spirit of greed for small bargains character, more and more people began to take this material.

Know that they found that after a period of time not to take this material, the body will be like a thousand ants in the gnawing general, extremely uncomfortable, and the body instincts are also driving them to continue to take the night vine gra*s.

This time, the group of strange businessmen suddenly changed their faces, they began to charge, the price from the beginning of a hundred a piece, to three hundred, and then to five hundred, so many people also found anomalies, of course, from the villagers tried to resist, but in the face of the other side of the black rob mouth, but also can only give up.

At this point, they are like being caught in a swamp, once inside to get out is difficult.

After scattering all the family money, the black-hearted businessmen began to fool them, pulling heads, only to introduce new customers, they will give them a commission, and those villagers who have fallen into the mire has been born deep, has completely lost their minds, relatives and friends do everything possible to introduce others into the pit together, which also intensified the proliferation of night vine gra*s.

In less than a month's time, the night vine is like locusts crossing the border, spreading wildly in the mountains, countless families are separated from their wives and families are broken.

Even those who can not pull 'new customers' can only sell their blood, sell their habits, and eventually end up with skinny bones and die on the roadside.

Watanabe elaborated on the tragic situation he had seen and heard, and the whole person's mood became extraordinarily low.

Lin Mo heard this news, the heart of the anger more prosperous, especially to hear that there are heartless villagers attached to the night vine villagers actually took his wife and children together into this abyss.

"Nowadays, among the mountains, how many people have been pitted by this thing, do you know?"

His tone was a million times colder.

Watanabe returned with a heavy face and folded his hands: "Initial estimate, hundreds of thousands!"

Hearing this appalling figure, Lin Mo's fists clenched and clicked, killing Qi surged.

"Do you know where the source is?"

Watanabe shook his head helplessly: "Little monk knows not much, after learning about this, I can only think of ways to research a potion that can eradicate the night vine."

"Naive little monk medical skills are not enough, today there is still no progress."

Lin Mo took a deep breath, forcibly suppressing the anger in his heart.

"Du sickness, you do not have to blame yourself, once this thing is infected, want to eradicate extremely difficult.

Well do not think so much, go to rest first, I will take care of this matter."

This thing is extremely invasive, even Lin Mo also need to take some effort to configure a solution to the medicine.

But again before, he still have to investigate the situation in the mountains, the source does not give him to extinguish, want to save is simply nonsense.

Early the next morning, Lin Mo called Fei.

Because the prince is still injured in the body, even with Lin Mo out of the internal and external pills, want to completely recover will take some time.

So this matter could only be left to the astute Fei.

“The matter of the Martial Union and the Commercial Union, you put it aside for a while.”

After Lin Mo gave a brief explanation to Fei about the Night Vine Gra*s, he gave the task.

“You first send someone to investigate clearly among the great mountains! Be as quick as possible at this time.”

Chapter 2908

In accordance with the words of the ferry disease, now there are hundreds of thousands of people have been poisoned, one second later is an additional layer of danger.

Once A Fei heard this thing, his expression also serious, after receiving the order he directly turned his head and left.

Lin Mo went out to show a face, after stabilizing some people’s hearts, double alliance of things someone to deal with responsible, simply do not need to worry about him, the fire Lin Mo directly back to the villa and the ferry disease together with the development of the Geng straight night vine herb elixir.

This is also a long time, need to constantly configure, and then experimental medicinal properties, after repeatedly, in order to finalize the prescription, and time waits for no one, as long as Fei feel the situation inside the mountain, they will have to act immediately.

Both sides go hand in hand.

As for his wife, the Crown Prince, Chen Jin and others, Lin Mo let them take care of their health during this period of time.

When Lin Mo arrived at the basement, hundreds and thousands of pills had been carried by the men all here, and all kinds of all the equipment was also ready.

“Little monk, this is also my initial formulation of the prescription last night, you read it first, if there is no problem, let’s do it directly.”

After receiving the prescription, Watanabe took a cursory look at it, and then his eyes shone, although his medical skills are not as good as Lin Mo's, but is also the top existence among his peers, whether the prescription has an effect or not he can almost judge the efficacy with a glance.

The prescription in hand, the night vine gra*s indeed has a very strong therapeutic effect, but whether it can be cured will need to test before we know.

"Master Lin's medical skills are truly unparalleled in the world!"

"Okay, little monk when did you learn to kiss a*s, time can't wait for people, since you also think the remedy is feasible, we'd better start as soon as possible."

After nodding, he also took out a brightly colored plant that was green with pink, and this was the night vine herb that he had quietly intercepted in its original form.

Lin Mo has lived for so many years, is also the first time to see the entity of this thing, close to the tip of the nose after smelling only a faint fragrance, although it has been put for some time, but the overall has remained fresh.

And it is this kind of look like no strange plant, do not know how many families destroyed, how many innocent life.

Lin's gaze dead in the hands of the night vine, thinking about the eyes can not help but a bitter cold, the entire eye sockets also became red incomparable, the forehead is a riot of veins, the heart fiercely out of the impulse to crush this appalling herb.

The thought of his body gradually began to tremble up.

When he sensed that Lin Mo's state was a bit abnormal, he patted him on the shoulder.

"Lin monk, everything grows its own reason, the wrong is not the night vine gra*s but the heart, do not get caught up in the phase and mess up the heart."

Yes, this leaf vine should be born in nature, itself is a kind of medicinal herbs, but because of the greed of the human heart let this thing become a devil that eats people.

Was so reminded by the ferry disease, Lin Mo snapped awake, and at this time he found his heart hostile, if the ferry disease reminded timely, he is likely to go on a rampage, the thought of here his heart could not help but a burst of fear.

The hostile Qi matter seems to have to pay more attention to themselves, the divine mountain above the Mr. Bamboo and the You Li and before that the Yu Shu real, bitter Chi master have mentioned this matter to themselves.

Lin Mo understand in his heart, this to the hostile Qi must be related to the Lin family extermination matter, but the memory was tampered with, the family was destroyed the specific details he has forgotten.

"It seems that we still have to find time to go to the Doktor family."

Lin Mo shook off his head as his thoughts returned to the present.

“Thanks, it was almost a hit.”

After Lin Mo said a word of thanks, he fetched a sharp knife and cut that night vine gra*s, into small sections of one centimeter long.

Chapter 2909

After waiting for the Duji side to configure the herbs and refine them into a pill, Lin Mo picked up a small piece of night vine gra*s and brought it to his mouth.

“Master Lin, no!”

Seeing that he intended to test the medicine with his body, Du Qi hurriedly and anxiously dissuaded.

A smile swept across Lin Mo’s calm face.

“Don’t worry, the dose is small and has not been refined, with my physique today, it won’t cause any effect at all.”

“At ease, the prescription has not been perfected, I will not be foolish enough to take myself into it.”

After saying that he sent the night vetch into his mouth, his throat swallowed directly into his abdomen, then he closed his eyes and began to slowly feel the medicinal properties of it, and the dose of this substance is not large, but the effect is very obvious.

Even Lin Mo can’t help but feel a little hyperactive, the pores of the body also began to slowly open, such as at the same time after the sauna, all over the body.

About ten minutes later, he opened his eyes, and his body at this time spontaneously had an impulse to eat another piece, only due to Lin Mo’s powerful physique and divine soul, this impulse simply could not shake his autonomous consciousness.

“Du sickness, take the medicine!”

Lin Mo took advantage of the night vine gra*s medicinal properties have not yet dissipated, directly swallowed the pill, and that weak impulse feeling also slowly dissipated some.

“It’s not enough, Du Qi you try increasing the dosage of the elixir again.”

Soon after, when Du Qi once again sent over the refined elixir, Lin Mo swallowed it and still shook his head in dissatisfaction.

Although the elixir has a good restraining effect on also night vine gra*s, but far from the effect of the root cure, now add the dose still did not achieve the goal, then the ingredients of the prescription still need to change.

“Replace the white tea seeds, with the more potent Wu Zhihua”

“Still not working, replace shouwu vine with cypress kernel”

“Replace the dragon’s teeth with goat’s treasure”

Lin Mo to itself as a blueprint, time and time again to try the medicine and improve the composition of the remedy, and the duo of Du Qi like a madman, a few days in a row to stay in the underground laboratory.

Except for meal times, the two did not stop, almost day and night to perfect the prescription.

It was only after five days that Lin Mo came out, but of course the reason for his terminal research was because Fei, who was out spying, had returned.

"Boss, we have almost investigated clearly."

"When we were looking for you before, the place we pa*sed by was okay, because it was too poor, they were out of catching strongmen and pitted finances, there was no trace of any night vine gra*s."

"But the other places, it's a problem. When we entered the mountains, we have seen dozens of hundreds of earth cottages controlled by those black-hearted merchants, and more and more people, become their tools to enrich themselves, completely do not treat the villagers as human beings."

Lin Mo had a black face the whole time, and after listening to it he nodded his head.

"Okay, I know!"

The calmer he was at this point, the angrier he was in his heart, but he also knew that incompetent anger would not bring any substantial help.

Today it was better to first blend the first batch, the elixir that had been the night vine gra*s, was the top priority.

Time came the next day.

Early in the morning Lin Mo directly summoned all his beloved belly, and when he distributed the information of Night Vine Gra*s and the situation in the great mountain to the people to check, the atmosphere on the field was depressing.

"Prince, you inform down that the merchant alliance has important matters to discuss this afternoon."

"Ah Fei, you continue to investigate the source of the Night Vine Gra*s."

"Di Yun, Tong Jun, Chen Jin, you gather your men."

"Yes!"

The people all understand that this is a very urgent matter, one second more delay, hundreds of thousands of living beings will be pushed into the abyss.

After answering in unison, they each divided their work and left the table in a hurry.

Along with the second official meeting of the merchant alliance was called, and the city of Shan was once again lively.

Chapter 2910

The second merchant alliance meeting was officially held.

Lin Mo crossed the square where the Gan Family was located with a heavy heart, his gaze glanced away, and then he spoke.

“Elder Gan, I still haven’t apologized to you for breaking your square last time.”

Hearing this, Gan Lao behind him smiled resentfully, “Young Lin has spoken too highly, this place is the place where you and Patriarch Zhao sparred and witnessed the origins of the Double Alliance.”

“Such a monumental place, I can’t be happy enough!”

Good lick!

Lin Mo twisted his head and looked at this old fox did not do much with the calculation, raised his step and continued to walk forward.

At this point in the conference hall, all the members of the Business Alliance were present, even if they could not return in time also sent the appropriate representatives.

“Which one of you has news ah, this meeting is for what matter?”

“Now the outside world Lin Mo Basha God Mountain as a guest, I think everyone knows it. There is also the latest appearance of the night vine gra*s.

No wrong guess, Lin Shao should be for this night vine gra*s thing to come.”

“Indeed, the Martial Union has just been established, and this is an important time to reorganize the two provinces, so I can’t imagine that there are people who dare to do such things.”

“Old Ba, you can get it, if your two sons had not pa*sed the test, this business you run faster than a dog.”

The businessman named Lao Ba did not argue, but just picked up his cup of tea with a smug face.

“Oh, I didn’t expect that those two little brats would be so tidy, that both brothers would join the Martial Alliance.

I’ve made my mark.”

When these words came out, many people cast envious eyes, they took so much trouble to support the construction of the double alliance, the purpose is for their own offspring can have a good place to come out well.

“However, I have heard that the Martial Union can’t rub sand in its eyes, this kind of unconscionable things, the Martial Union City will definitely not tolerate.”

“That is natural, that is natural.”

Along with the surrounding crowd’s catering, a trace of worry flashed across the faces of several of them.

“Gentlemen, what’s the matter chatting so lively.”

Lin Mo was here!

All at once, the crowd rose to greet this rising star like the sun.

“Young Lin, it’s been a long time, you are looking better and better.”

“Lord Lin, when is the next recruitment for the Martial Union going to be again?”

Some greeted, while others were thinking of setting some news.

Lin Mo nodded towards the crowd, “We will talk about these things after the meeting, today we have called everyone here to deal with more important matters.”

Once the words fell, the noisy scene suddenly quieted down.

Lin Mo crossed the crowd and quickly came to the main podium, and waited until after raising his hand to indicate, the crowd then took their seats.

“Time is short, I won’t do much nonsense here.”

“This meeting is mainly about the Great Mountain Night Vine Gra*s matter.

All of you here, who are involved in this please come forward consciously.”

When the words fell, the scene was in an uproar, not expecting Lin Mo to be so direct.

After Lin Mo looked around and saw that no one responded, he smiled coldly.

“It seems that all are good-faced people, only I advise, those who take the initiative I can handle at my discretion.

But if I find out, when the time comes, my methods will not be so gentle.”

At this time, his gaze like a sharp sword quickly swept across the room, many people with ghosts in their hearts, subconsciously avoided the gaze, which Lin Mo already had in mind.

Among the hundreds of members of the merchant alliance, if there were no scouts sent by other major powers, he would not believe it.

This is a good opportunity to eliminate some of the two-faced people.

As expected, when Lin Mo finished this matter soon after, many people took the opportunity to leave the meeting, some are because of the lure of interest to participate, some are spies, but no matter what people, since Lin Mo has given his attitude, there is no point in them staying here.
