

Genius 2951

Chapter 2951

Compared to the Crown Prince's panic.

Lin Mo, however, only smiled faintly and said in a small voice.

"You'll find a chance to send someone to keep an eye on the Duan Family Cottage later, I'd like to see what tricks this old man Gan wants to pull."

After saying that, he waved his hand towards the crowd like it was nothing.

"Alright, don't make a fuss, go back and sit down."

His words caused Old Man Gan's heart, which had been lifting, to relax.

He just said it, he had hidden himself so deeply, how could Lin Mo have detected it so simply.

After the two men finished exchanging words, the meal continued.

After three rounds of wine, the prince suddenly said he had something to do and had to leave for a while.

If it was Du Qi or someone else who said this, Old Man Gan might have been suspicious.

But if it was the Crown Prince who said this.

But if it was the Crown Prince who said this, Old Man Gan really didn't find it strange.

After all, it was almost universally acknowledged that the prince had little heart, a foul mouth and a lot of nerves.

Old man Gan was afraid of alerting the snake, so he did not send anyone to follow the crown prince.

.....

The prince had just left the hotel and took out his mobile phone straight away, calling Fei.

"Tell the brothers who are watching the gang to follow them closely, and then have the brothers surround Duanjia Cottage."

His idea was simple.

Since someone wanted to make a small move in Duanjia Cottage, they were bound to come out.

With a command from the Crown Prince.

Soon, Ah Fei arrived with a group of junior brothers as instructed.

Before they even got up to the Duan family fortress, they noticed something unusual.

Halfway up the road, there were many armoured vehicles feigning to be vans, but actually filled with armed men, parked by the roadside.

To these people, Fei had no scruples at all.

Just kidding, his own boss was Lin Mo, the existence of the future to be in charge of the Great Qu United Province, what was he afraid of!

At first, these people still wanted to resist.

But soon, under the firepower of Fei's group, they were immediately captured.

After some severe torture, Ah Fei was soon sure!

These people were mercenaries, and they were also sent by Old Man Gan!

After receiving this news, Mr. Prince was surprised and then called Lin Mo who was at the dinner party.

This news confirmed Lin Mo's suspicions, and he smiled at Old Man Gan, who was toasting himself, with a complex glint in his eyes.

"Old man Gan, since you've given me a surprise today, I'll give you a surprise later too."

Hearing Lin Mo's words, for some reason, Old Man Gan shuddered a little and felt a chill down his spine.

.....

Soon, Ah Fei intercepted eight, vans loaded with armed men.

In addition, there was also a medium-sized truck, and it was not clear what it was for.

On the other hand, the Crown Prince received a call from Wang Mang and his two men.

"Brother Prince, the gang is in the fortress"

It turned out that the two men had been following two of Old Man Gan's inner circle to the location where the goods were hidden.

When they saw the seven tons of night vetch, they couldn't help but be dumbfounded.

Both of them were native to the Duan Family Cottage, and even so, the whole seven tons of night vine gra*s still shook the two of them!

When they reacted, the first thing they did was to report the news to the Crown Prince.

"Very good! You guys have done a great service this time!"

The Crown Prince hurriedly hung up the phone after he finished speaking.

If he hadn't heard that Old Man Gan's men had also planted tnt in Duan's fortress, the Crown Prince would have wanted to tell the two men over the phone that he would claim credit for them in front of Lin Mo!

Of course, these were all afterthoughts.

After receiving the news, the Crown Prince immediately rushed to Duanjia Cottage.

After rushing there, he personally led the team and a group of people rushed up to the Duan family fortress.

Duan Dashan, who received the news, was extremely confused.

What was the Crown Prince and his team doing here?

But without waiting for him to react, the Crown Prince led a group of brothers and rushed straight to the place Wang Mang had mentioned.

Old man Gan's men, who were doing the final finishing touches, fell into a complete panic when they saw the crown prince and his group.

"Brothers, give me work!"

But before they could react, with an order from the Crown Prince, the crowd swarmed on them.

Chapter 2952

Old Man Gan's men did not expect to come face to face with the Prince and his party at all.

The weapons they were equipped with were fast, low-noise submachine guns and pistols.

They were no match for the Prince's men's heat weapons!

In addition, the Prince and his men attacked them secretly.

Soon, the battle was one-sided and ended in a hurry.

Old Man Gan's men, except for a few lucky ones, were almost completely wiped out.

Even two of Old Man Gan's inner circle had been captured alive in the battle.

Only when everything was over did the Crown Prince call Lin Mo.

"Big brother, it's all over!"

.....

Meanwhile, by the time he received the call from the Crown Prince, the meal was nearing its end.

Lin Mo hung up the phone and looked at old man Gan who was forcing a stiff smile.

"Old man Gan, you don't look well, do you need me to give you a look?"

He said knowingly.

A playful smile of a cat catching a mouse surfaced on his face.

Old man Gan shook his head. At this moment, I'm afraid the panic in his heart was something only he could understand.

Only a short time ago, he had been unable to contact two of his inner circle.

Could it be that something had gone wrong halfway?

No?

His plan was so seamless!

Thinking this, Lin Mo spoke again.

“I wonder what Old Man Gan’s plans are after dinner?”

Old man Gan froze, he didn’t understand what Lin Mo meant when he suddenly said this.

He almost subconsciously shook his head.

“Very well, then please come with me, I promised you that I would give you a ‘surprise’.”

Hearing Lin Mo’s words.

Then he looked at the smile on Lin Mo’s face.

Old man Gan’s heart suddenly sank.

The two of them left the hotel, and a helicopter was already waiting at the entrance of the hotel.

Looking at the helicopter, Old Man Gan couldn’t help but swallow his saliva.

In the middle of the night, where would he need to use a helicopter?

Soon, a suspicion that he did not want to believe, but had to suspect, appeared in his mind.

Could it be that

The idea of this made old man Gan’s face as white as paper, and his legs couldn’t help but shiver.

Fear, trembling, trepidation countless emotions instantly surged to the forefront of his mind.

“Please.”

Lin Mo still had a smile on his face and even reached out his hand, inviting old man Gan onto the plane.

Seeing this scene, Old Man Gan knew that he would not be able to escape this fate today.

He smiled bitterly, gritted his teeth and stepped onto the helicopter.

With the sound of the propellers turning, Old Man Gan’s heart lifted.

Soon, the helicopter flew in the direction of Duanjia Cottage.

Looking at the direction in front of him.

Old Man Gan still had the last vestiges of luck left in his heart.

The knot in his throat twitched slightly and his voice was dry and hoarse as he spoke.

“I wonder what kind of surprise Young Lin, has prepared for old man?”

Hearing his words.

Lin Mo laughed lightly, and a glint of essence flashed in his eyes.

“You should know, right?”

At this remark.

Old man Gan’s consternation froze on his face.

Although it was only for a moment, he quickly came back to his senses and pretended to be unaware of what was happening.

“What are you talking about? I don’t know.”

“Old man Gan, you really don’t see the coffin.”

Lin Mo finished speaking and stopped paying attention to him.

Soon, the helicopter came to a stop at Duanjia Cottage.

Old man Gan looked from above and noticed that the ground below was already lit up by a bit of sparkles.

It was one of the villagers with torches in their hands.

Old Man Gan’s body trembled.

At this moment, even if he was no longer willing to believe it, no matter how much he did not want to believe it.

There was no denying the cruel truth!

Soon, the helicopter landed.

Lin Mo leapt down from the helicopter.

Old man Gan, on the other hand, had an unstable weight and stumbled straight down halfway down the steps.

At that moment, Prince Fei and other followers of Lin Mo greeted him from afar.

“Big brother, it has been lined up, there are a total of seven tons of night vine gra*s!”

“Big brother, old man Gan’s men are all chained to me on the southern mountain, do I need to bring his two inner circle over?”

Chapter 2953

Hearing the two men’s words, Old Man Gan only felt the sky spinning in front of him and almost fainted.

He had never imagined that he had done such a good job of concealing his secret plan!

Why did he end up like this?

At this moment, Lin Mo's chillingly gentle laughter rang out once again.

"Old man Gan, how about this surprise, isn't it nice?"

.....

At the same time, within the Ding Family's Six Tai Bao Compound.

As the top family in the Great Qu United Province.

Each of the Ding Family's thirteen Tai Bao were included and independent by the Ding Family.

Even, to put it unkindly.

If one were to compare the interior of the Ding Family to an ancient feudal dynasty.

Then the Thirteen Tai Bao, were thirteen vassal states.

At this moment, Ding Zihu, who was the Sixth Tai Bao, felt very unhappy.

I am afraid that outsiders would never have imagined how intricate the power behind this big piece of cake, the Duan Family Cottage, was.

Even he, the Sixth Taibao of the Ding Family, had no small connection to the people in the fortress.

"Where's Huang Dahai, tell him to come over!"

Huang Dahai was Ding Zihu's subordinate and Duan Dashan's sworn brother.

He was mainly responsible for, among other things, the arms of the Ding family and the Broken Family Fortress.

A large portion of the arms of the Duan Family's fortress were sold by him.

Compared to the market price outside.

Ding Zihu used his identity and the Ding family's network of influence to sell these arms to the Duan family stronghold at a price far below the market price.

One should know that the arms resources that the Duan Family Cottage could use was not a small amount.

Let alone resources with such high profitability as arms.

Not to mention arms, even ordinary resources, as long as they can fall short of the price, once the volume changes, there will be a staggering profit.

It is a simple fact that the Duan family fortress has to buy five million arms from the outside market.

To buy it from Ding Zihu, it would only cost three and a half million, still under the premise of quality assurance.

This was a great bargain for the Duan family.

Of course, Ding Zihu would not do a foolish thing of losing money.

The reason he did this was purely to use it to open up the night vine market.

Now, with Duan Dashan falling to Lin Mo.

And Lin Mo, in turn, had burned all the night vine gra*ses clean.

Without the night vines, the villagers no longer needed the arms.

Such a bad interlocking reaction made Ding Zihu almost furious.

His source of wealth was about to be cut off!

Soon, Huge Hai arrived in front of Ding Zihu.

“Big brother!”

Huge Hai was stout and strong, with a tiger’s back and a beard, and his face flashed with a fierce aura.

“Ah Hai Hai, you know about Duan Dashan’s defection to Lin Mo, right?”

Ding Zihu suddenly opened his mouth and asked.

Hearing his boss’s words, Huang Hai’s pupils couldn’t help but shrink slightly.

Before Duan Dashan had fallen to Lin Mo, his status as a sworn brother to Duan Dashan would allow him to stick more gold under Ding Zihu.

But now, with Duan Dashan’s fall from grace, his identity as a sworn brother would inevitably invite suspicion.

Thinking of this, cold sweat could not help but shed a stain, and he hurriedly stepped forward and spoke.

“Big brother, it’s not what you think, I have nothing to do with Duan Dashan!”

Hearing his words.

Ding Zihu couldn’t help but sneer, he didn’t ask you to clear your relationship with him, what are you getting excited about?

“Of course I believe in you, however, right now there is an opportunity that I need to make use of your relationship with Duan Dashan!”

Hearing the words of his own boss.

Huang Hai couldn’t help but breathe a long sigh of relief.

Immediately afterwards, he was curious again, what was it that needed to be done with this kind of relationship?

Could it be that he had to negotiate with Duan Dashan himself?

But would Duan Dashan agree?

Thinking of this, Huang Hai could not help but frown slightly.

Seeing the confusion on his face, the coldness on Ding Zihu's face intensified, and he put his face into Huang Hai's ear.

When he heard Ding Zihu's plan.

Huge Hai's eyes grew wider and wider, and in the end, even revealed a look of horror!

Chapter 2954

Ding Zihu's ploy could be described as ruthless and far beyond what Huge Hai had imagined.

He wanted to make use of Vast Hai, as Duan Dashan's sworn brother, to provide cover.

Thus, without alerting the snakes, he would bring 5,000 heavy firepower and approach the Duan family fortress.

In this way.

Have Pang Dahai seek out Duan Dashan for negotiations.

Let Huge Hai warn Duan Dashan to stop his cooperation with Lin Mo!

As long as Duan Dashan opened his mouth to suspend the cooperation, even if Lin Mo blamed him, he would not be blamed for it.

After all, it was Duan Dashan, who was the fortress lord, who had asked for it, and he had nothing to do with it!

After suspending the cooperation, the night vine was planted again, and once the night vine was planted, the Duan family fortress would inevitably need firepower to support it.

At that time, Ding Zihu could naturally start the arms trade as a matter of course!

It was just different from before.

Because of Lin Mo's fish pond bombing, there were many forces with eyes and even forces behind them that had sprung up.

These forces that had sprung up, Lin Mo would definitely not spare.

When the time came, he could also use Lin Mo's hand to eradicate these forces who were sharing the cake with him.

Even more, he had not only regained his original source of wealth.

It might have expanded!

Thinking of this, Ding Zihu looked smug and felt that he was simply a genius!

Of course, as the Sixth Imperial Protector of the Ding Family, he had experienced a lot of fishy situations and naturally knew that things were not that simple.

Everything had to be planned twice.

If we could negotiate, then naturally everything would be fine.

Even if Duan Dashan was to ask for more afterwards, the big deal would be to sacrifice some of his interests and settle everything without bloodshed.

But if he couldn't reach a deal.

Thinking of this, Ding Zihu's pupils contracted slightly, and a touch of coldness emerged.

He could also borrow the eyes of the vast sea to scout out the enemy.

Then!

Directly order five thousand heavy firepower to forcefully attack Duanjia fortress!

"My subordinate understands."

After listening to his own boss's words, the knot in his throat couldn't help but roll slightly, only feeling his throat sour beyond belief.

It was too ruthless! It was really too ruthless!

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but look at Ding Zihu with a few more moments of fear.

With that, he turned and left.

Looking at his departing back.

Ding Zihu's eyes flashed with a complex glow, and the corners of his mouth could not help but hook slightly.

.....

Duan Family Cottage.

After setting fire to clean the night vines.

The entire Duan Family Cottage, at this time, displayed a thriving look.

The Duan family fortress was originally located in the mountains.

In the distance, the mountains were heavy and imposing, and in the near distance, the green hills and water and the gurgling streams reflected in the eyes.

Lin Mo and Ding Li had even thought about developing this place into a tourist attraction.

But after all, it was in the deep mountains and the roads were really inconvenient.

So, a beautiful scene like this could only be preserved in the deep mountains.

At this time, under the healing of the Pure Night Si, some of the villagers have already left the poison of the night vine and started farming and working in the farmland.

They were just like the ordinary villagers in the documentary.

Pulling up the sleeves of their trouser legs and bending over, they inserted a tender tea seedling into the moist black soil.

Duan Dashan stood on high, watching the villagers at work, with an unconcealed genuine smile on his face.

Looking at the scene before him, his wish was fulfilled.

Just then, he heard a sound of footsteps.

It turned out to be the door sentry, trotting over.

“What’s happening outside?”

Duan Dashan raised his eyebrows slightly, confusion and disbelief on his face.

Ever since the Duan Family Cottage had burned down the Night Vine, it was as if it had lost contact with all the outside forces, becoming an ordinary village in the deep mountains.

The sentry was panting and his tone was a little up and down.

“There’s a man called Huang Hai outside, claiming to be your sworn brother, Boss.”

Hearing his words.

Duan Dashan looked a little surprised.

It was not false that he and Huang Dahai were sworn brothers though.

But he had noticed it long ago.

This person, Hugu Hai, was actually quite rotten.

Chapter 2955

There is a saying that one does not know the face of a person.

When Duan Dashan tied up with Hugu Hai, he was a brother.

He only hated himself for not having the knowledge to see what kind of person this Hugu Hai was.

However, day by day, he saw the hearts of people, gradually, he also saw out.

Snobbery, greed, tendency Hugu Hai is such a person.

As a brother of Hugu Hai, he had advised Hugu Hai.

Followed by Ding Zihu these years.

The money, has earned enough, can find an opportunity to resign from the blame, back home to get away.

Otherwise, if you continue to stay by Ding Zihu's side, you may be killed by the other side one day.

Duan Dashan knew very well what kind of person Ding Zihu was.

It could be said that among the people he had met, only a ruthless person like Lin Mo could properly suppress Ding Zihu.

He thought he was trying to persuade Huang Hai with all his heart and soul.

What he got was a sneer of disdain from the other side.

He would never believe that Ding Zihu would take advantage of him.

The two of them grew apart as a result.

When he heard that his brother, who had not shown his face for a long time, had personally approached him.

Duan Dashan's first reaction was not happiness.

Instead, his first reaction was unease.

This guy couldn't be planning something else, could he?

Could it be that he was here to act as a lobbyist for Ding Zihu?

Duan Dashan's worry was not unreasonable.

After all, the Duan family fortress had too many interests at stake, and not long ago, old man Gan was ready to send the goods out in secret.

Now, it was normal to jump another power that had a dispute of interest with the Duan Family Cottage.

Moreover, Hugu Hai was overly ambitious and bent on profit, so it was unlikely that he would find himself with nothing at all.

After thinking for a long time, Duan Dashan had some certainty in his mind.

He nodded at the sentry and said.

"Let him in."

Only after receiving his boss's approval did the sentry dare to nod his head and say yes.

Then, without looking back, he ran towards the gate.

.....

Outside the main gate of the Duan Family Cottage.

When he saw the sentry coming out, he was nervous.

He was so nervous that his heart was pounding.

He had to know that he had brought 5,000 heavy firepower behind him.

Although, these men were all trained and well-trained warriors by Ding Zihu.

Although, he thought himself that these men were well hidden.

But after all, this was in the deep mountains.

No matter how well they hid, would they be able to hide from the eyes of the natives of the Duan Family Cottage?

If Duan Dashan became suspicious of him.

If he were to send his men to search the area, the soldiers he had led would definitely be exposed.

He was not afraid that the 5,000 heavy firepower he led would be no match for the Duan Clan.

But the problem was this.

Once exposed, his location would definitely become a target.

When the two groups came to blows, he would be caught in the middle of the line of fire and would be sieved into a sieve.

Right now, he was betting everything on Duan Dashan.

He wanted to take advantage of Duan Dashan's trust in him as a brother!

Thinking of this, Huang Hai would hold back his violently beating heart.

He swallowed his saliva, took a deep breath, and a steely glint shone in his eyes.

If anyone looked closely, they would have noticed.

His body, at a faintly detectable frequency, was trembling gently.

At that moment, the young sentry finally arrived in front of him.

Huang Hai looked at the expressionless face of the sentry and was terrified.

"The fortress master said for you to go over."

Hearing the sentry's words.

Only then did Pang Dahai's tense heart loosen up.

Immediately afterwards, a bright smile appeared on his face and he laughed loudly.

"I told you, a brother would not make me wait for nothing."

With these words, Huang Hai stepped forward and walked towards the inner part of the fortress.

The two made their way forward, during which they passed by the terraced fields of the village.

At the sight, one by one, villagers who had recovered from a serious illness were farming in the village.

The sentry's face showed heartfelt joy.

On the contrary, there was a constant shade of gloom on the face of Bongbang Hai.

As far as he was concerned, the fact that these villagers were not planting night vetch was affecting his elder brother Ding Zihu's ability to make money!

After all, if the villagers didn't plant Night Vine Grass, they wouldn't have any goods.

Without goods, they could not trade, and if they could not trade, they would naturally not need to buy arms.

In this way, wouldn't it be a vicious circle?

Chapter 2956

A shadowy look flickered across the face of Huang Hai.

Soon, he followed the sentry, turning around and around within the Duan family fortress and heading up the hill.

Looking at the construction of the village, Huang Hai could not help but sigh.

"Over the years, the fortress has made a fortune, but the construction is too poor!"

Hearing his words, the sentries walking ahead of him all laughed.

"Because the money has all been taken away from you."

The people in the mountains, unlike outside, had so many taboos and spoke directly and honestly.

The Duan Family Cottage was located halfway up the mountain, and although the village was rich over the years due to the cultivation of night vine grass, it was not really well built.

The night vine grass was a big piece of cake that had attracted countless forces to divide it up.

And being the one who started it all.

The villagers who are responsible for growing the night vine, harvesting it, transporting it and even giving their lives for it.

It is the villagers who receive the least benefit.

The benefits are almost entirely taken away by investors.

Just like old man Gan, the seven tonnes he hoarded, if translated into benefits for Duanjia Cottage.

That would be enough to match the profits of Duanjia Cottage for several years!

There were countless investors like Old Man Gan in the Duanjia Cottage.

It could be said that nine out of ten of the profits from the Duanjia Cottage's night vine cultivation were taken away by these investors.

The Duanjiazhai side, who were the workers, only received a small profit.

The benefits they received only accounted for an insignificant amount of the entire chain of benefits.

This is why, Duanjiazhai is still a fortress today.

If they were allowed to take the benefits of growing the night vine, all of them would be taken away.

Then the scale of Duanjia Zhai's development now would definitely not be on the level of a village.

At the very least, it would have to be on the level of a rich town!

Hearing the sentry's words, Huang Dahai's face turned blue for a moment.

He sank his face and stopped speaking.

In his heart, he was sure that when he met Duan Dashan, he would let this kid know what it meant to pay for his mouth!

Soon, under the leadership of the sentry, Vast Sea came to a flat spot at the top of the village.

He came to a flat area at the top of the village.

It was obvious to see that the degree of construction of the fortress here was far beyond that of the other fortresses.

There was even a pavilion made of marble in the open space.

In these mountains, the cost of bringing up the marble was so great that even the big families would have to suffer.

Here, Duan Dashan was seen by Vast Sea.

At this moment, Duan Dashan was staring at the mountain with his hands behind his back, ignoring Huge Hai.

Seeing this scene, the latter didn't care.

He laughed heatedly, scratching his head, and then walked towards Duan Dashan, his mouth chanting.

"Big brother, long time no see!"

Looking at his brother's appearance, Duan Dashan also smiled.

Although he didn't like this worshipful brother.

But as the saying goes, reaching out is not a laughing matter.

He likewise smiled at the other party, walked up to him and patted his shoulder.

"Brother, I haven't seen you for so long, what's the reason for coming over this time?"

Hearing Duan Dashan ask so bluntly.

The smile on Huge Hai's face intensified, and he did not directly explain the situation.

The two of them chatted idly for a while, and gradually, they got to the point of talking.

At this point, Huge Hai suddenly spoke.

“Big brother, what do you think of Lin Mo?”

Duan Hai faintly froze, and the moment he heard the word Lin Mo, electricity flashed through his head like a current.

He knew that this brother of his was under the Sixth Taibao of the Ding Family.

He also knew that the arms used in the Duan Family’s fortress were all purchased from this Sixth Taibao at a price far below the market price.

He was even more aware that this Sixth Taibao also had a share in the Duan’s fortress cake.

Now, since the Duan family fortress had already belonged to Lin Mo.

According to Lin Mo’s request, all the night vines would be burnt.

Then this Sixth Taibao’s cake would also be gone with it.

Thinking of this, Duan Hai instantly understood.

What was the reason for Vast Sea’s coming here.

Just a moment ago, when he was chatting with Huge Hai, he still dared to move a little.

After all, this brother still remembered that in these deep mountains, there was such a big brother like him.

He had even gone so far as to come to his door personally, to catch up with himself.

As a result, after all, this guy had come to be a lobbyist for himself!

Thinking of this, the brotherly love that had just risen in Duan Dashan’s heart instantly disappeared.

In its place, there was only a cold smile.

Chapter 2957

In fact, before this Duan Dashan had submitted to Lin Mo, he had already carefully thought about these situations.

After all, as the leader of the Duan family fortress, he was still very clear about these divisions of interests in the fortress.

He had even thought about which forces would be the first to jump out when Lin Mo ordered the burning of the night vine.

If it were in the past, even if Duan Dashan was given ten thousand guts, he would not dare to offend these people.

But now, the situation was very different.

There was Lin Mo, the president of the two alliances, the Chinese medical saint, and even more so, the fierce man who had killed General Hai, standing behind him and backing him up.

For these forces that in the past he could not afford to offend, had been like poisonous snakes, lurking in the shadows and endangering the village.

Now, he could not wait for all these forces to jump out and fight one by one!

So, when he heard the true intention of Vast Sea.

He could not help but sneer.

Although he was already disgusted with this brother in his heart.

However, on the surface, Duan Dashan did not move at all, and even smiled more broadly.

“Alas, this Lin Mo is truly abominable, ever since he came to us, he has never done anything good!”

If Lin Mo was here and heard Duan Dashan’s words, he would have been very confused.

Hearing Duan Dashan’s words, a hint of joy flashed across the bottom of Huang Hai’s eyes.

He hadn’t held much hope for persuading Duan Dashan to surrender.

After all, since Duan Dashan dared to stand on Lin Mo’s side.

In order to express his determination, he had even torched the Night Vine Gra*s that he had worked so hard to cultivate.

Such determination was evident.

Although he and Duan Dashan were nominally sworn brothers.

But he also understood that Duan Dashan did not despise himself in his heart.

The exchange between the two seemed peaceful and harmonious.

In fact, it was nothing more than a vague conversation between two forces.

But he had never expected that Duan Dashan would actually show such an attitude.

It seemed that the two still had something to talk about.

There was no need to settle this by force!

Thinking of this, the smile on Huang Hai’s face became even wider.

“This Lin Mo is indeed unethical, cutting off people’s wealth is like killing their parents, and I’m not going to hide it from big brother, my family’s youngest”

Huge Hai no longer disguise their intention to come, directly moved Ding Zihu out.

And will Ding Zihu pull intentions, all told Duan Dashan.

After listening to Huge Hai’s words, Duan Dashan’s eyes flashed with a fine aura.

Sure enough, everything was as he had expected.

This Huge Hai was really Ding Zihu's lobbyist!

Thinking of this, Duan Dashan did not directly turn his face away, but continued to speak along with the other party's words.

His idea was actually very simple.

He wanted to paralyze Ding Zihu and wait until the other party revealed his footprint before telling his backer, Lin Mo.

Just as the two were talking about it.

.....

Ding Family, Ding Zihu's mansion.

"Are you sure, Huge Hai has already brought someone over?"

Hearing his men's words.

Ding Zihu frowned slightly, and his eyes flashed with a fierce aura.

"It's been checked, it's true!"

Hearing his men's reconfirmation, Ding Zihu sneered.

His plan, was already half complete.

That is, the part that he had, earlier, told Huang Dahai.

Thinking that he already knew the full picture of the plan, he rushed over without a second thought.

Little did he know that he himself was only a part of the plan.

Only that it was a rather important and sacrificial one.

This man, Huge Hai, was stupid and wooden, with only one string to his head.

As Duan Dashan said, Ding Zihu had long felt that it was useless to have such a cannon like him by his side.

It was just as well that this time he came across the opportunity.

He was able to make use of this barrel for the last time, and in the meantime, he could also take care of Duan Dashan, so he could kill two birds with one stone!

His plan, in fact, had not been disguised from the beginning.

If you want to blame him, you should blame him for being so small-minded that he couldn't even see such an obvious plan!

Chapter 2958

The corners of Ding Zihu's mouth grinned, revealing a hideous smile.

A chilling aura like that of a bloodthirsty beast emanated from his eyes.

At this point in time, it was pointless to turn the Duan family fortress against him.

Right now, the only thing that could be done was to kill the chicken as an example to the monkeys and disrupt Lin Mo's momentum to continue to take over the village.

This would be excellent for both suppressing Lin Mo and preventing others from following suit in the future.

As for how to kill the chicken and honour the monkey?

That was simple, just kill all those who dared to stand in line with Lin Mo!

"Hey, call back those five thousand people and tell them not to listen to Vast Sea!"

Ding Zihu ordered as he rushed to the side of his little brother.

He was a bit pretentious with Huge Hai and wanted to ask a few questions, but when he was greeted by Ding Zihu's bloodthirsty and ferocious gaze, he stopped talking at once.

Just as he was about to walk out of the hall, Ding Zihu's voice came again.

"By the way, none of you should reveal this matter to Huge Hai, or else"

Although Ding Zihu didn't make his words clear, that unnerving tone was deeply imprinted in everyone's heart.

"Yes!"

The little brother hurriedly answered.

If Huge Hai had heard his boss's words, he would have been so angry that he would have vomited blood!

I've worked so hard to help you as you instructed, and you want to screw me?

After that little brother left.

Ding Zihu waved his hand and sent everyone away.

At this moment, he was the only one left in the hall.

He picked up a mobile phone that was gilded all over and inlaid with various sparkling gems, and broadcasted out a call.

Beep beep

There was silence on the other end of the line for about half a second, and it was soon answered.

"WHO IS THIS?"

The voice was very hoarse, but it carried a surprisingly fierce aura, as if it were a viper lurking in a dark corner, seemingly ready to strike at any moment.

“Mr. Youtai, long time no see.”

Hearing that voice, Ding Zihu spoke.

If any of his junior brothers had been present, they would have been horrified to hear this name.

The owner of this name was the leader of the world’s top 1,000, the Churchmen Mercenaries!

The Churchmen mercenary group, well-equipped and expert, shuttled through various battlefields, licking blood on the knife’s mouth all day and all night.

That’s how they got their name!

“What do you want me to do?”

“It’s simple, I need you to help me exterminate a small village, the pay is good.”

The exchange between the two men was simple.

When he heard that the target of his mission this time was just a small village clear displeasure rang out on the other end of the phone.

“I thought you would let me deal with the royal family of the Wanxiang Kingdom, but I didn’t expect it to be just a small village”

Hearing the other party’s displeasure, Ding Zihu naturally knew what the subtext of the other party’s words meant:.

We are not willing to take on such a small job, we have to pay more!

In response, he only sneered, before speaking.

“As I said, don’t worry about the price! I’ll give you five hundred kilos”

After the two sides had agreed, as if remembering something, Ding Zihu added.

“If there is a fight, maybe there will be one called Lin Mo on the field.”

Not waiting for him to finish.

Mrs. You’s voice interrupted him directly.

“I know, can’t kill right.”

Ding Zihu visibly froze, his tone for a moment.

“Eh? How do you know?”

The answer from the other side was also simple.

“I’ve seen it on TV, he’s a newly promoted medical saint in China, he has connections with many big names, people like this, you and I wouldn’t dare to touch them.”

To such words from Mrs You that clearly demoralised himself and raised the prestige of his people.

Ding Zihu was very unhappy.

As the Sixth Tai Bao of the Ding Family, the best of the younger generation, he did not want to admit that he was inferior to others.

However, he thought for half a second and could not find the words to refute, so in the end, he could only nod his head as an admission.

“Alright, since you already know, then get on with it!”

After saying that, he simply hung up the phone.

Chapter 2959

A single helicopter, with an ear-splitting hum, swept through the air.

These were all new helicopter gunships, equipped with four high-velocity Gatling machine guns on both wings and a dense array of cluster missiles fitted under the fuselage.

A mercenary with a completely different air from the ordinary people living in a peaceful environment, holding a sniper rifle, sat crouched inside the fuselage, smoking a thick cigar.

There were enough helicopter gunships like this for more than twenty.

On the ground, even more, camouflage-clad battlefield armoured transport vehicles swaggered past.

“D*mn, we’re actually asked to destroy a small village, look down on someone!”

“How can the chief even take on such a mission!”

Those who spoke were the two warriors sitting in the carriage.

They were well-equipped, to say the least, and on their foreheads were helmets fitted with infra-red instrument night vision goggles.

On their legs, faintly visible, were the outlines of auxiliary power exoskeletons.

In their hands were fully automatic rifles and anti-tank rocket launchers on their backs.

It’s not a stretch to say.

Even the regular armies of large countries could not match such a configuration!

Not to mention the fact that these mercenaries are all very tough and battle-hardened, so they are obviously not comparable to the regular soldiers!

To put it bluntly.

An army like this would be crushing even against a regular army of the same size!

Even if it was a blitzkrieg, with their strength, they might really be able to assassinate the royal family!

At this moment, such an army of mercenaries.

At this moment, such a group of mercenaries was striding across the border of Da Qu United Province, heading straight for Duan Jia Zhai.

“Reporting to the chief, we have reached our destination.”

Soon, the religious mercenary regiment arrived at the location marked by Ding Zihu.

You Tai grabbed the handrail outside the helicopter with one hand and lit a cigar for himself without haste.

The tip of the cigar glowed a little red and You Tai took a long puff, exhaling a choking smoke.

When he was done, he took the high powered binoculars handed to him by his men and took a closer look.

As a mercenary leader.

He knew that no matter what information someone provided, it was not as good as what he could see with his eyes.

Soon, he was browsing the fortress from top to bottom.

When his eyes landed on Duan Dashan and Huge Hai at the highest point of the fortress, who were discussing the rush.

He couldn't help it, and a cold laugh hummed out from his nose.

“I think I've seen their leader.”

Hearing his words, the few juniors on the helicopter instantly came to life.

“Let me do it! I like killing the leader the most!”

“Chief, leave it to me! I'm good at this kind of work!”

“I'm a good shot! I can kill with one hit!”

Several people, shaking up the sniper rifles in their hands, scrambled for them.

Looking at several people's appearance, You Tai couldn't help but shake her head with a smile.

At this moment, it was unceremonious to say that Duan Dashan's life was in his hands at the slightest thought.

“Look at your virtues, for a small village, there is no need to go to such trouble.”

You Tai's tone was light and provocative, as if he was talking about a trivial matter.

But the next thing he said was unsettling.

“Men, give me a wave of missiles to sweep across!”

Youtae said.

The few people on the side first froze, and then their faces showed bloodlust.

They had thought that sniping was already ferocious enough.

But to their surprise, the chief’s approach was even more brutal. Looking at this situation, he was afraid that he wanted to bloodbath Duan’s fortress!

At once, the cluster missiles under the helicopter gunships were rapidly discharged and struck straight at the Duan family fortress!

The speed of the missiles was so fast that they could not be captured by the naked eye.

The few sentries guarding the entrance hadn’t even waited to react.

All they heard was a whoosh from the distance.

The next second.

I only felt a violent explosion in my ears and a searing wave of fire swept through the eight points!

In this moment.

There was no need to even bother to inform.

The sound of the explosion had explained everything!

There was an enemy attack!

Chapter 2960

With a whistling sound, a missile fell from the sky and landed with a bang.

Duan Jia Zhai, which had little air-to-air defence, was immediately struck by a huge blow.

A burst of fire shot up into the sky, and the scene was suddenly filled with battle fire.

Countless people were unknowingly caught in the crossfire!

You Tai, who was watching this scene with his high powered binoculars.

At this moment, he could not help but grin.

The cruel look on his face made it difficult to associate him with the word “religious”.

Seeing the smile of his boss.

The mercenaries in the room were also excited, dancing with their hands and crying out like wolves.

“Boss, I can’t resist slaughtering some of the villagers for fun already!”

“I want to have a good time with the local specialties!”

Listening to his men’s words.

The Jew nodded, the bloodlust in his eyes intensifying.

He gave a command.

“Brothers, let’s go!”

The mercenaries, who were already at the bottom of the hill, ready to go, received their leader’s permission.

At once, like wild dogs on the loose, along with the light tremor of the mountain, an armoured vehicle drove straight towards the mountain.

.....

Inside the Duan family fortress.

I don’t know if it was intentional, or not.

One of the missiles landed straight on the open space at the top of the fortress, where the two Duan Dashan were discussing.

There was no time for Duan Dashan to react.

The terrifying fire instantly covered the two men, and the searing heat engulfed everything.

When the two men came back to their senses again, they crawled out of the mud.

To their amazement, they found that they had not broken an arm or a leg, but only a little bloody skin from the sand and gravel that had rubbed their bodies.

For the two men, who had been through many battles, this injury was as good as nothing.

However, the two men had just climbed out.

They did not wait for a reaction.

In the distant sky, another bullet flew out of the haphazard rain of bullets and came towards them!

Looking at the missile that was getting bigger and bigger in front of their eyes.

Duan Dashan’s face was ashen.

“What are you freezing for! Run!”

At that moment, the voice of Vast Sea pulled him back from his disorientation, and without saying a word, the two of them scattered their legs and ran up the mountain.

However, as fast as a man can run, how can he outrun a missile?

They had just taken a few steps away when they saw the missile land not far behind them.

Now, Duan Dashan was really desperate.

He knew that he was doomed today.

From this distance, the missile would explode and he would be dead for sure!

Just as Duan Dashan was smiling bitterly, he gazed at the sky once again and prepared to die.

Behind him, there was a sudden burst of warmth.

He opened his eyes and witnessed all this in front of him incredulously.

Huge Hai, the brother he had always despised in his heart.

At this moment, he actually appeared behind him and placed his hands on his spine.

Looking at Duan Dashan's astonished eyes, a meaningful smile appeared on Huge Hai's face.

Not waiting for Duan Dashan to ask a question.

With both of his arms, he pushed him backwards with force!

The next second.

A brilliant fire light shot straight up to the clouds.

An ear-piercing buzzing sound shook his head.

It was as if there were thousands of needles, pulling back and forth in and out of his ears, and the pain was excruciating!

A trace of fresh blood flowed down the cochlea of his ear.

Duan Dashan's eyes showed disbelief, a pair of eyes were red as he stared dumbfoundedly at the huge sea behind him, which had been blown up to the point of no crumbs remaining.

He did not understand.

This cheap brother of his, why did he have to push himself in the end!

He knew.

If it wasn't for this hand, he might have died.

If it wasn't for this hand, Huge Hai might have had a chance of survival!

"In the end, was he trying to save me, or was he trying to harm me?"

Duan Dashan couldn't help but mutter to himself.

He thought back to the end, the meaningful smile on Huge Hai's face.

His heart was filled with doubts, and for a moment, his eyes actually grew moist!

However.

No matter how confused and uncomprehending he was.

This answer, he feared, would never be found again.
