Chapter 3011

As Xu Hanxia's eyes returned to their glow, by the time he looked down at his stinging palm.

His face suddenly turned incomparably pale.

The red lotus bag, at this moment, was frantically sucking up the blood flowing from his fingers.

She subconsciously tried to retract her arm, but her fingers seemed to be stuck, no matter how hard she tried, the red lotus was still squeezed in her hand.

What to do? What to do?

Xu Hanxia was completely panic-stricken, she didn't even think about why he was here, she only thought about how to break free of the strange red lotus.

As the blood continued to seep out, she could already clearly feel that her body was gradually becoming weak and her consciousness was beginning to blur.

This was a symptom of excessive blood loss, and it wouldn't be long before she bled to death.

But the red lotus had no intention of stopping, just like an insatiable baby, constantly sucking Xu Hanxia's blood.

After Xu Hanxia's desperate struggle, her face was already white, and her lips, which were originally red and moist, were now a lavender colour.

As time passed, her consciousness became increasingly blurred!

The mind was blank, the only thing left was this familiar smiling face!

"Lin Desert Help me!"

After the mosquito-like cry for help fell, Xu Hanxia's eyes went black and her entire body went limp helplessly.

At this moment, the original budding lotus suddenly blossomed open down.

The darkness of the cave was instantly like daylight, and under the refraction of the nine colours of light, the place was as beautiful as a fairyland.

As for Xu Hanxia, who was unconscious in the clear spring, under the illumination of the nine-coloured light, she slowly floated into mid-air.

At the top of the divine mountain, You Li, who was meditating with his eyes closed, violently opened his eyes and looked at the nine coloured pillar of light condensing and raking in front of him, and he was instantly shocked in place.

"This vision, could it be the red lotus of karmic fire?"

“Impossible, the red lotus bloom period is at least a hundred years away!”

However, before his words left his mouth, an ethereal sound suddenly recalled throughout the divine Mountain, like an immortal song, causing people to be immersed in it.

Even after You Li heard this sound, he could not help but close his eyes.

In his mind, a little man with a hundred and one bright lights shining all over his body was sitting cross-legged.

With the sound of the province ringing in his ears, the aura around him slowly climbed upwards.

At this moment, all the people on the Basha divine Mountain were in a similar situation to You Li, having fallen into a state of epiphany, their cultivation soaring upwards.

Even the various green plants in the mountain were all growing like crazy.

Within the medicinal garden, cherished herbs that would have taken a decade or even tens or hundreds of years to grow, were also blossoming and bearing fruit.

“No!”

With a tenacious will, You Li flew to break free from this sanguine sound.

Karma Fire Red Lotus Tatsu, the nine colours of divine light drank!

But all spiritual treasures of heaven and earth were displayed, accompanied by a vision, and what was in front of him was the strange sight of the red lotus of karma fire in full bloom.

“The karma fire red lotus has a difference, those who collect the realm seal the mountain!”

With a command, a terrifying aura instantly enveloped this divine mountain.

After giving the order, You Li’s body shifted and disappeared directly into the spot.

This kind of epiphany was unattainable, but the Red Lotus was the foundation of the entire divine mountain.

The most important duty of the mountain lord was to guard the red lotus, and if anything happened to it, it would be a catastrophic disaster for the mountain.

With a sense of urgency, You Li instantly arrived at the forbidden place of the divine mountain.

His pupils shrank when he saw the sight in front of him, the original Ten Directions Heavenly Formation with the red lotus of karma fire as well as disappeared.

“How dare you, who dares to touch my sacred relics of the divine mountain!”

With a monstrous killing aura, he rushed straight into the cave!

Chapter 3012

You Li, who had stormed into the cave in a rage, was about to kill the 'thief' with a single slap, but the vision in the cave shocked him once again.

The nine colours of dazzling light had now interwoven into a ball of light that looked like a silkworm chrysalis.

Through the gaps in it, Xu Hanxia's face could be vaguely seen.

"This girl doll, how could she have come here?"

The ten squares of Zheng at the mouth of the cave alone would have churned her into a ball of mush.

With the sudden vision, all the experts in the divine mountain gathered here.

Mr. Pill had even rushed over with a tumble.

There was a huge secret hidden beneath the Pill Garden, and that was the place where the greatest treasure of the divine Mountain, the Red Lotus of Karma Fire, grew.

Due to the sealing of the formation, although this small courtyard could receive the medicinal properties of the overflowing red lotus, it was extremely weak.

This was also deliberately arranged by Mr. Pill, together with the purpose of teaching Xu Hanxia to run his spiritual qi, in order to allow Xu Hanxia to slowly absorb the medicinal properties of the red lotus and thus improve his system.

In the end, the dewdrops gathered from the red lotus petals were collected to form a pill.

This side was Mr. Pill's plan for Xu Hanxia to change her aversion to spirits.

Only there seemed to be a change of plan!

He was merely shutting up to refine a pill, and this moment had turned out to be such a big deal.

If something went wrong with Red Lotus, he could hardly be blamed for it even if he died.

What depressed him the most was that a forbidden place guarded by the Ten Directions Heavenly Formation could still be passed through, and that he had to avoid the terrifying beast that guarded the realm in advance!

After arriving at the cave, he saw a large group of people gathering around, and in front of the group was the dark-faced You Li.

"Lord Mountain Master! I am to blame for my poor guarding! I let that thief in."

At this moment, a burst of hostility was emanating from between You Li's brows.

As the guardian of the Red Lotus of Karma Fire, he should have taken action directly at this time.

But this scene in front of him now was truly bizarre.

On the one hand, You Li did not want to hurt Xu Hanxia, but on the other hand, the Karma Fire Red Lotus was so strange that he did not dare to act rashly.

“Senior uncles, how can this be done?”

The Bamboo Immortal King could also see what was on his mind at this time.

After stroking a handful of his long beard, he said indifferently, “Right now the red lotus is abnormal, let’s wait and see what happens first!”

The Bamboo Immortal King’s seniority and strength were only comparable to those of the realm guardians.

At this moment, when he spoke up, the crowd naturally did not dare to sing a counter-key.

Following the direction pointed by You Li, Mr. Medicine looked up and saw Xu Hanxia in the middle of the sky, wrapped in a cloud of nine-coloured dazzling light.

And that dazzling light kept interweaving into thin lines, drilling into Xu Hanxia’s body in an orderly manner.

“This

Seeing this miraculous scene, Mr. Medicine couldn’t help but stare in disbelief as a look of disbelief was written all over his face.

“This This How is it possible!”

At this moment, he only felt his scalp tingling, his tongue became uneven, and his speech then stuttered.

Although the red lotus was a heavenly treasure, it was also an easy thing to live with, and ordinary martial artists would be sucked dry if they approached.

From this point on, the original formation outside the cave was not only to protect the red lotus, but also to protect the person who had created it by mistake.

“What exactly is the identity of this little doll? It’s surprising that it has gained such favour from the Red Lotus of Karma Fire.”

This Red Lotus of Karma Fire was completely cleansing Xu Hanxia’s marrow and bones!

The Bamboo Immortal King stared at the nine-coloured light ma*s in mid-air with interest, and then his gaze was placed on when You Li’s energy was.

“If I remember correctly, when you took over the position of mountain lord, it was just a marrow cleansing plus an epiphany.”

“Compared to this little girl’s marrow cleansing and penetration of the divine veins, it’s still a long way off!”

Although he had a bland face, he was shocked in his heart.

Chapter 3013

The Red Lotus of Karma Fire blooms once every hundred years, and this world is also a time when new and old mountain lords change hands.

Successive generations of mountain lords, while guarding the red lotus, would also receive the washing of the red lotus to improve their qualifications and enlightenment.

But it was the first time he had seen such an aberration in front of him.

You Li's face was embarrassed when he heard Immortal King Bamboo's flirtation.

"Old Mister Bamboo, you'd better not mock me anymore."

"What should I do about this situation in front of me."

"Karma fire is the root of the divine mountain and also the origin of the senior spirit power.

Now that the red lotus is blooming early this is not a good thing."

At the mention of this, the faces of the group of experts who were still smiling and full of smiles instantly turned serious.

Things must have demons!

The red lotus of karmic fire that bloomed once every hundred years was now blooming early, not only would it cause the spiritual energy of the divine mountain to shrink drastically, but in serious cases it might shake the foundations of the Basha divine Mountain.

Just as the crowd was worried, the nine-coloured dazzling light fiercely retracted and washed away into Xu Hanxia's body.

As for the brightly coloured Karma Fire Red Lotus, it also added a twist of darkness, its fiery red petals slowly closing together and turning into a bud state once again.

Under the astonished gaze of the crowd, the remaining nine-coloured dazzling light flew to coalesce into the shadow of a red lotus, before it was concealed on Xu Hanxia's back, and in the process, a simple red lotus mark began to be outlined on her brow.

Xu Hanxia's facial features were already of the highest quality, and the addition of a red mark on her brow added to the mystery.

The light dissipated and Xu Hanxia, who was suspended in mid-air, fell towards the ground at this time.

Without a frown, the green shadow, with a light breeze picking up beneath her feet, caught You Li steadily in the blink of an eye.

"Mr. Medicine, please check her condition!"

And I don't know if it was Green Shadow's illusion, she always felt that the Xu Hanxia in her arms looked much better.

With a flash, Mr. Medicine on the side also came to her side and put his five fingers on it.

"Divine!"

“I didn’t expect this little girl’s bloodline to be a perfect match for the red lotus.”

“It seems like she was born to be the host of the Karma Fire Red Lotus!”

After hearing this, the crowd was dumbfounded.

There was still talk of a host for this heavenly spirit treasure?

You Li’s gaze lit up. He instantly understood what was going on.

Previously, he had always wondered how Xu Hanxia could have entered this place when the Ten Directions Heavenly Formation was clearly present.

Now it seemed likely that it had something to do with the bloodline.

The red lotus had a spirit, and by and large, after sensing Xu Hanxia’s bloodline, it had drawn her here.

And it had sheltered the little girl to enter this place safely.

“No!”

Fear what comes!

“The situation is not good! The spiritual energy of the divine Mountain has really shrunk by thirty percent!”

You Li spoke with a worried face.

The people on the mountain, the reason for their high martial attainments, were closely related to the aura provided by the Karma Fire Red Lotus, and now that it had shrunk by 30%, it had already shaken the foundation of the divine Mountain.

This was naturally perceived by the crowd!

For a moment, the atmosphere of the scene instantly became depressing.

“Mountain Master, this little girl, what should we do with her?”

Once Mr. Pill said this, everyone’s gazes looked towards You Li.

After all, although all this was not caused by Xu Hanxia on purpose, it was more or less related to her.

Green Shadow’s brows were knitted together at this moment, and her face was cold as she looked at her father.

After the scene was dull for a while, You Li waved his hand.

“Let’s put this matter aside for now.”

“Mr. Pill take her back first!”

“Mr. Bamboo, Uncle Heyuan as well as the seniors, follow me to the main peak!”

After hearing these words, the several old men nodded together!

The divine Mountain was now undergoing great changes, and many things needed to be adjusted.

“Yu, quickly go down to the mountain and inform Lin Mo of the news from this side!”

As soon as the words were spoken, a human figure flew out of the divine mountain like lightning!

Chapter 3014

Hoa San City!

After dealing with the mercenaries and a*sa*sins who had attempted to take on his people, Lin Mo once again issued that announcement about regulating the entry of mercenaries and a*sa*sins into Hanoi Province.

With the suppression of iron-blooded methods, this time there was finally no one to openly shout at him.

And through this action, it also let the crowd see Lin Mo’s determination.

The only thing that disappointed the crowd of melon eaters and the rival forces of Lin Mo was that the forces behind these tragic deaths did not happen.

It was as if this incident had not happened.

“Lin Mo, Brother Prince, I’m going back to the mountains.”

After a few days of rest, although Ding Li had recovered from his previous sickly state.

But his face still didn’t look too good, especially when he saw those meat dishes, he still couldn’t help the range.

And the statement given by Lin Mo was simple.

Vomit, vomit and get used to it!

On the contrary, the big-hearted prince has basically no longer any big trouble.

Time to eat and drink!

When he heard that Ding Li wanted to go back, he put an arm around the latter’s shoulders, a move that immediately scared Ding Li.

“What are you afraid of? You have too little mental capacity!”

He didn’t know why, even Lin Mo and Wen Qiang as well as those old men from the Ding Family Elders’ a*sociation didn’t scare him.

But he had a natural fear of this prince.

“Let me ask you ha, that little girlfriend of yours from before?”

Ding Li looked at the prince in surprise: “Brother prince, you

The prince noticed this strange look in his eyes, and his eyes suddenly glared.

“What the f*ck are you thinking? I’m not Boss Cao, not a good human wife!”

Ding Li shrank back, “Brother Prince misunderstood, how could I possibly dare to think of you like that.”

“Because I’m worried about someone retaliating, I’m arranging a villa for Linglong that no one knows about.”

After Lin Mo and the Crown Prince exchanged a glance, the two of them secretly nodded their heads.

“Has Guan Linglong been in contact with and her father Guan Yao during this period of time?”

Ding Li saw shook his head!

“We haven’t seen each other for some time now, and we occasionally just contact each other by phone!”

“As for the words between her and GuanYao, I’m not too sure, usually we don’t talk about this”

He said, suddenly looked blank.

“You won’t be doing it relative to Guangyao!”

At this point the smiles on the Prince and Lin Mo’s faces had given him a clear answer.

“Brother, you guys stop, I can tell you clearly that the matter of the night vine, Guangyao, the big lord, is definitely involved in it.

But have you guys been unable to catch the evidence?”

“The more he hides his leap of faith, the bigger the chain of interests behind him.”

“I’ve heard from people that not only does this Guangyao work with Wanxiang, but he’s also involved with other countries in Jinla.

And I’ve heard people say that the strength behind this Guangyao’s naturalization because of this night vine business may be even stronger than the Ding family branch!”

What Ding Li was afraid of was not only the overall strength of the Guan family today, but also the chain of interests involved behind it.

Many of them were also those of the low-key super families of Da Qu.

If they were to get into a fight, even Lin Mo and the Zhao family wouldn’t be able to stand up to them, and there was no need to say anything about themselves.

The prince couldn’t help but to intend to hear this, “You don’t say anymore!”

“Brother Prince, you don’t think this will work, do you?”

The Prince shook: “If you say any more, I’m going to get excited.”

Ding Li: “(? ` ?д?)!!!!”

I've said it all for f*cking nothing!

Lin Mo could only shake his head speechlessly as he looked at this pair of living treasures.

"Come on, Prince, you should stop teasing him!"

"The truth is, we're not thinking of making a move against the Guan family!"

Ding Lik dryly sighed in relief as Lin Mo added.

"At the very least, we need to investigate his background first, after all, knowing oneself and one's enemy is the only way to win a hundred battles."

Ding Li: "....."

My heart is so tired!

Chapter 3015

After chatting for a few minutes, the three of them planned to go their separate ways.

It was only when they were parting that Lin Mo still called out to Ding Li.

"There are some things that I have said to you before, but I still want to remind you of them."

"The world is a big place, set your eyes a little higher, don't limit yourself to this small place in Daqu! Don't be blinded by money!"

"Do you understand what I mean?"

Looking at Lin Mo's serious and grave expression, Ding Li couldn't help but shiver, as if a fierce beast was staring at him with a deadly stare from across the room from him, Ding Li immediately nodded.

"You're at ease, don't look down on me!"

"Although this young man is short of money, he still has a bottom line!"

Only then did Lin Mo reveal a smile once again, "Young man has a good awareness of his thoughts!"

"Remember, ruling the Ding family is not the point, but the starting point!"

"Also guns and equipment and stuff, I will have someone send them to you."

Hearing these words, Ding Li's eyes lit up and he was instantly a little touched.

However, Lin Mo's next sentence instantly shattered this to emotion in him.

"You remember to prepare the money when the time comes!"

Ding Li: "xxxxxxxxx"

That's a bunch of expletives!

Coming to the Great Mountain.

The construction of the Martial Alliance's headquarters at Duan Jia Zhai was continuing today.

Of course this was just a cover to hide behind, the real pair of headquarters had now been put in charge of Tong Jun.

And secretly and secretly, the resources were arranged with their new over personnel to the Basha God Mountain.

Duan Dashan is not stupid, he also vaguely sensed that things were unusual.

Only he did not point it out.

In private, he also began to arrange for some of the villagers to return to agricultural operations.

"Young Lin, after we reasoned with the surrounding villages, many of them have already given up on the night vine.

And with that divine medicine of yours, Young Lin, more and more people have already broken away from the Night Vine Gra*s!"

Blah blah blah!

After Duan Dashan concluded together, Lin Mo already had a basic understanding of the current form of Dashan.

In general, everything was proceeding in an orderly manner in the direction of perfection.

It was believed that it would not be long before all the night vine gra*s in the Great Mountain would be purged.

"Very well, next, you guys stabilise the situation first."

"For those big fortress words, don't rush to contact them first, I'll deal with them after I'm done with the matter at hand."

Although Duan's fortress was strong, it wasn't the strongest.

And if a firefight broke out, it would be more than worth it to cause unnecessary casualties.

After the explanation, Lin Mo took the crown prince with him and prepared to go together to see the Du Ailing who was busy controlling the production of pills.

However, when the two dared to walk halfway, a figure suddenly stopped in front of them.

"Mr. Lin, there is a change at the divine mountain, please come back to the mountain with me immediately!"

Lin Mo looked at Yu's anxious expression and did not ask more questions, after glancing at each other with the Crown Prince, the three of them rushed together to the Basha divine Mountain.

Along the way, Yu also divulged some information to Lin Mo.

Immediately after Lin Mo learned about his wife, he asked anxiously.

“How is Halfsia’s situation now?”

“Mr. Lin need not worry, although I detailed the situation, but Mr. Medicine’s words, there should be no major problem.”

Although Lin Mo was slightly relieved.

But in his heart, he secretly said something bad!

The Red Lotus of Karma Fire was a legendary grade heavenly treasure.

Even a huge organisation like the Martial Union and the Medical Union couldn’t find half a trace of it.

The Red Lotus is a legendary treasure.

Any one of these six properties, when placed in the mundane world, can set off a storm of bloodshed.

But this Red Lotus of Karma Fire possesses all six!

Its preciousness is evident!

However, it seemed that this kind of holy object was due to a change in his wife!

When he thought of this, Lin Mo’s foot speed increased, and he was anxious to get to his wife’s side at the first opportunity.

Chapter 3016

The top of the main peak of the divine mountain.

The bamboo forest, which had been silent, was now filled with mountain people.

Lin Mo felt a depressing atmosphere as soon as he walked in.

And he could clearly perceive that countless black-robed figures had surrounded the place between the surrounding bamboo groves.

With You Li at the head, including Mr. Medicine, Mr. Bamboo and several other fresh-faced old men, all were present.

The seniors were like coiled dragons at this moment, and although their expressions were calm, their aura of non-anger and self-awareness, as well as the posture of a divine Buddha in meditation, made people feel in awe!

Lin Mo secretly speculated that these few people should be the super experts of God Mountain.

Only Mr. Bamboo and Mr. Pill nodded slightly towards Lin Mo, while the others either closed their eyes and relaxed, or sipped tea.

There was no reaction at all to Lin Mo’s arrival, neither a feeling of closeness nor alienation.

It seemed that to them, Lin Mo's presence was not as interesting as the tea in front of them.

The only exception to this was Green Shadow, whose cold face instantly broke into a smile at the sight of Lin Mo, as she leapt forward and wrapped her arms around him.

Such an act also indicated her attitude.

"Thank you!"

Lin Mo understood her intentions, Little Green Shadow was worried that these people would give him a hard time, and its purpose was also to strengthen the scene for himself.

After saying a word of thanks, he walked up to You Li's body.

"Greetings to all seniors!"

You Li raised his hand in a gesture, "Please sit down!"

Lin Mo looked around the group and did not see his wife, at this moment he could not help but feel a little more anxious in his heart.

"You don't need to worry, your wife is not in any serious trouble, she has just gone through the transformation of the Karma Fire Red Lotus and her body is unable to adapt for some time.

Now she is in a state of lethargy!"

Hearing this news, Lin Mo's faintly furrowed brow was then soothed, and the tightly held Tai Ah slowly relaxed away!

"I wonder how senior You Li will handle this matter?"

The Karma Fire Red Lotus was involved in a very small matter, and now the cultivation environment of the divine Mountain had changed drastically because of his wife.

In any case, this matter should be set in stone.

All present were wise, and naturally knew what Lin Mo was talking about?

With a brief moment of silence, an old man with a long beard wearing black daoist robes slowly opened his eyes.

Under his calm gaze, it was as if there were latent dragons roaming about, and with just one glance at him, Lin Mo felt his Qi and blood begin to surge wildly.

"This matter has been started by You Li, let You Li handle it!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, several other people nodded slightly.

You Li also nodded along, "Uncle Black, I understand!"

After saying that, he turned his head to look at Lin Mo, "In this matter, Yu should have also said something to you."

“As for your wife’s matter, originally we were planning to directly strip the Nine Coloured Flare out of her body and refill it into the Karma Fire Red Lotus.”

“After all, the Karma Fire Red Lotus is our divine mountain’s greatest treasure, as well as its foundation. There is no precedent of outsiders being able to touch it since the beginning of time!”

This point was not exaggerated by You Li, the red lotus was the exclusive property of the mountain lord of all generations.

Not to mention outsiders, even the people on the mountain, even even Mr. Bamboo and the realm guardians were not qualified to touch it.

You Li continued after a pause in his words.

“But this would not only be life-threatening for her, but even if it succeeded it would completely damage your wife’s roots.”

“And it is also true that your wife has a connection to the Red Lotus, and the source is due to me.

So in the end, the few of us agreed on a decision.”

As Lin Mo listened to You Li’s explanation, he thought that he was just setting the stage for the compensation plan that would follow.

However, after You Li got to a whole lot of words, he proposed a decision that made his jaw drop.

“So I’m going to, let take your wife as my goddaughter.”

“What?”

Lin Mo thought he had misheard!

Chapter 3017

As You Li looked at Lin Mo’s surprised expression, the corners of his mouth suddenly outlined a cunning smile.

“That’s right!”

“In that case, Xu Hanxia isn’t considered an outsider anymore, and we don’t need to dwell on this Karma Fire Red Lotus matter!”

As long as this relationship was established, then all the problems could be solved.

Lin Mo froze in his tracks, he too was not going to be able to get this whole flip-flop from You Li.

He could think of flipping out on the spot, and he could also think of both sides negotiating and having him to compensate for the loss of the divine mountain.

However, he could never have imagined that You Li would propose this solution.

After some hesitation, Lin Mo did not directly agree.

"I can't make the decision on this matter, I'll ask my wife's opinion when the time comes!"

It was better to let her decide on her own when it came to matters involving her wife.

"Fine, your wife is still sleeping in the house, you can go and see her first if you are worried about her!"

"Thank you senior!"

Lin Mo arched his fist, and after gesturing with a few old men, he walked quickly towards the straw house.

When he left!

The few old men who had been silent instantly gathered their gazes onto You Li's body, interspersed with a few moments of puzzlement.

"What are you all looking at me like that for?"

"Didn't we agree that I would take care of it?"

You Li smiled resentfully, being stared at by such a group of elders made him a little hairy in his heart too.

The crowd was speechless for a while.

There was nothing wrong with letting you handle it, but that was how you handled it?

After the scene was silent for a while, Mr. Bamboo instantly broke the calm.

"Come on, people who have half a foot in the coffin are still so nosy."

"Since the mountain lord has set the tone on this matter, let's just follow it!

Do you want to be the mountain master again?"

At these words, the faces of the other elders were suddenly embarrassed!

This was a bit of a scolding!

In the divine mountains, most of them practiced the natural dao, and did not fight or grab, and were not warm and fuzzy!

To say that they have a heart of power is simply worse than cursing a mother!

"Since things have been settled, then let's follow the previously agreed plan, and let's all go our separate ways!"

As Mr. Bamboo finished speaking, the crowd instantly disappeared from the place, leaving only him and You Li in place.

"Thank you, Mr. Bamboo, for relieving the situation!"

Mr. Bamboo nodded slightly, only his face was a little serious: "You don't have to be polite, these old undeads have been cultivating for too long."

“Every day they just think of teaching the younger generation to behave! Too much idleness!”

You Li knew that he was the only one who dared to say that, if it came out of his own mouth, these people would have exploded.

“You can do whatever you want in the mountain, we will take care of it for you.”

“But the matter of the Red Lotus is quite involved, you still need to make arrangements in advance!”

You Li arched his hand to show that he understood.

Once Mr. Bamboo had also left, the expression on You Li’s face became even brighter, and every now and then he looked at the straw hut.

The husband of his daughter was the righteous son!

Isn’t marriage a matter of parental order and matchmaking?

Just thinking about it made me happy!

Lin Mo was unaware of You Li’s secret plan. After seeing the unconscious Xu Hanxia, he immediately went forward to check her pulse.

After carefully examining his wife, he then put his mind at ease!

The reason for Xu Hanxia’s coma was that her body could not adapt to the changes in her system at once.

The surprise was that not only was her system now able to cultivate, but her bloodline was also much tougher than that of ordinary martial artists.

By then, she would be a martial arts genius if she combined with Lin Mo’s Creation Technique and Free and Easy Technique!

At the very least, his achievements in martial arts would be higher than those of the lazy prince!

At this moment, the prince who was waiting at the foot of the mountain inexplicably sneezed.

“Is it cold?”

After rubbing his nose, he subconsciously wrapped his clothes around him quite tightly!

Chapter 3018

Early the next morning.

The sun rose slowly, the turquoise trees were lined with this crystal dew, and the whole divine mountain shone brightly under the sunlight sample.

Lin Mo did not sleep this night because he was worried about his wife, leaning quietly against his bed, holding her slender, slender palm, without leaving a step.

Just as he was about to lean back on the bed and take a nap, Xu Hanxia's body suddenly trembled visibly and tiny beads of sweat began to seep out of her forehead.

"Lin Mo, help me!"

With a delicate shout, Xu Hanxia suddenly opened her eyes and sprang to life.

"What's wrong, having a nightmare?"

Lin Mo reached out his hand and gently ruffled the wet hair on her forehead, asking with concern.

After Xu Hanxia slowed down and was sure that she wasn't dreaming, her eyes also moistened up.

"I miss you, husband, I'm so scared!"

After saying that, she burrowed into Lin Mo's arms, her hands simply protecting her husband.

Simple words but heartwarming!

At this moment, he was completely a frightened little girl, and the only way to get sufficient security was in clinging to her husband's chest.

Lin Mo smiled faintly and reached out to protect his wife: "Not afraid, not afraid, it's all just a malicious nightmare."

"And I'm right here with you, any demon or devil that dares to come half a step closer to you, I'll split him with a sword!"

"Good boy! Not afraid, husband is here!"

He coaxed dotingly as he gently stroked his wife's back.

After a while, Xu Hanxia's frightened emotions slowly stabilized.

"I had a nightmare, in the dream ah there was a horrible red lotus flower that kept sucking up my blood."

"I struggled desperately, but it was as if the red lotus was stuck to my hand, I couldn't shake it off."

"And I also dreamed that there were many human-faced man-eating flowers chasing me"

Lin Mo did not answer, just quietly listened to his wife share her nightmare.

And he knew that the red lotus did happen, it was just that his wife dismissed everything as a dream because she was in shock and later passed out.

And so the couple embraced, one talking and the other listening, very warm and loving!

Only such warmth was suddenly shattered with the arrival of the prince, and he shouted loudly before the man even entered the hayloft.

"Big brother, big brother must be!"

"Er"

“Excuse me, you guys continue!”

After finishing awkwardly, he was about to dart off and run away, however as soon as he turned around, the flying shoe hit him precisely on the back of the head.

“Wait for me for a moment, I’ll be right back!”

Said Lin Mo, cupping Xu Hanxia’s delicate cheek and kissing it directly.

“Nasty, the Prince is still outside!”

“What are you afraid of, we’re legal alright?”

Lin Mo shook his head in triumph, before getting up and walking out of the hayloft!

Outside, when the Crown Prince saw Lin Mo come out, he awkwardly scratched his head.

“So what, big brother sorry haha, I didn’t know your sister-in-law was warming up!”

Snap!

Just as he finished speaking, a slap was drawn to the back of his head.

“Dog, you’ve changed, now you even dare to mock me!”

“That’s a big misunderstanding, big brother, how dare I.

By the way, I’ve just discovered something extraordinary!”

Lin Mo didn’t answer, he just raised an eyebrow to signal him to continue.

“I just took a trip to Tong Jun’s place, and this kid and his disciple’s martial arts realm has soared!”

“And I heard them say that they saw a nine-coloured dazzling light the night before last, and their strength has skyrocketed since their new arrival.”

“Do you think there’s a secret guarantee hidden on the divine mountain!”

After saying that a thievish look appeared in his eyes at first.

Lin Mo was aware of the inside story, and looking at the prince’s thieving look, he couldn’t help but roll his eyes.

“Don’t think about fart eating, wait another hundred years if you want such an opportunity!”

The prince only thought that Lin Mo was mocking him!

Little did he know that what Lin Mo was saying was the truth!

Chapter 3019

The shocking change at Bashar Divine Mountain was not known to outsiders, and everything was going according to the original plan.

On the side of the Wanxiang Kingdom, due to the shock of Zat Baikha's leadership, all the wealthy merchants or family forces that had provided Lin Mo with building materials and manpower assistance in the entire Daqu United Province also entered and withdrew.

In the city of Heshan, the Gan family was implicated and is now in rapid decline.

In addition to the fact that Gan Xing's hands and feet have been cut off, Master Gan has also become an ostrich, selling off all the properties he can at a low price.

The Gan family compound, which had been bustling with activity, has now been relocated to a new location due to the relocation of the business and martial arts alliance, and the sprawling building is now cold and empty.

As for the other projects, although most of them were taken over by the Sino-Ocean Group, the aggressive warnings from the Wanxiang State, coupled with the chain of interests behind the Night Mambo, have now slowly come to a standstill.

On the face of it, this time Zat Baikha and the Grand Prince's plan to join forces to suppress Lin Mo was a success.

It was a pity that Zat Baikha had not only failed to kill Lin Mo's sidekick, but had also fallen out with the mercenaries and the assassins themselves.

As for the country of Vientiane, as the old King Jiayuan I became weaker and weaker, he became heavier and heavier.

Everyone in the royal family was slowly becoming restless.

The powers that were still on the sidelines, the plutocrats, began to make direct choices about the princes and were ready to place their bets.

Even the sons were getting restless.

Since the king had delayed the passing of the throne, when the king suddenly died, the whole royal family would be in turmoil.

If they were lucky and all the princes died out, wouldn't they, the king's sons, have a chance?

Surprisingly, the neighbouring countries are already eyeing Vientiane, but the chaos in the royal family continues unabated and is even getting worse.

A peaceful Vientiane on the surface, but in reality there is a dark tide!

On the sea, a ship flying the flag of China is slowly sailing into the dock of Wanxiang.

Li Ming has been engaged in cross-border trade between the Chinese countries in Vientiane for more than ten years and has made a lot of profits from it.

As the merchant ship docked, Li Ming breezed through the dock with a few of his employees.

"It's been a long time, Sir Sean, here's a bit of local produce from our hometown!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, the employees outside the door resisted in two large boxes, after opening them one was full of peanuts and the other was full of groundnuts.

Of course all this is just the surface, the real goodies are the gold bars in the sandwich.

It was a knockout and still a rule!

The rules of the Wanxiang Kingdom!

Shawn of the inspection team naturally knew this situation well in his heart at first glance, yet this time it was indeed not the same laughing matter as before.

“Older brother Li Ming, you’re welcome!”

“It’s just that there are some changes in the form nowadays!”

Hearing this, Li Ming’s heart tightened and after cursing a bloodsucking dog, he compensated with a smile.

“Officer Shawn, we’ve known each other for so long, so just say what you want.”

“Who are we, brother and brother?”

With that he stepped forward and enthusiastically shook Sean’s hands, while a gold card fell silently into the other man’s pocket.

This was the price he had to pay to pry the other man’s mouth open.

Only then did Sean nod in satisfaction, “To put it mildly, this matter is also an order from the top!”

“It says that the tariff is to be raised by ten percent!”

“As for the exact reason, I also heard it from someone else.”

Speaking here, a mysterious expression appeared on his face as he moved up to Li Ming’s ear and spoke softly.

“It seems that this matter is because those royal princes have started to amass a large amount of money in order to accumulate their own strength!”

Hearing this news, Li Ming’s face changed greatly.

“Then did the raw rubber materials I had been purchasing before also increase in price?”

As Sean slowly nodded his head, Li Ming’s face had turned ugly to a few points.

Chapter 3020

The market is relentless, it does not persuade, it only eliminates!

Under the dark tide, the coastal cities of China’s mainland as well as the territory of the Vientiane Country suddenly led to a wave of purchasing frenzy.

A huge number of Wanxiang Guo's buying doctrines, i.e. multinational agents, began to flock to these two places!

Millions, millions and even billions of orders rained down!

Faced with such a huge market, manufacturers could not afford to skimp on their equipment and staff.

Second shift, third shift, twenty-four hours a day to rush the work!

And after the first wave of dividends, the major manufacturers began to expand the industry in a brain.

At this time another group of agents in Wanxiang country after disguise, began to take advantage of the opportunity to lower the price of equipment on hand, a steady stream of sales to these thirsty enterprises.

Looking around the form is also great!

The sacred mountain of Pasha.

With a large number of people working through the night, the headquarters of the Martial Alliance had taken shape, and although it was a little more rudimentary, it was already able to house people and offices.

After Song Zhilan recovered from his injuries, the first thing he did was to get stuck into his work.

However, when he noticed something strange in the Chinese market, he ordered the Yunchuang Group to investigate quickly, but when he got the first-hand information, his face suddenly changed.

On the other hand, after Xu Hanxia had recovered, Lin Mo stayed by her side.

Now that her system was suitable for cultivation, Lin Mo naturally gave her the two divine secrets, and even led Xu Hanxia step by step.

And with such impeccable teaching, she finally stepped into the path of martial arts as she wished.

"I,,, I can feel the aura in my dantian!"

Xu Hanxia's face was filled with excitement after she opened her eyes.

She finally had the capital to chase after Lin Mo's footsteps!

"How wonderful!"

Lin Mo was also sincerely happy for his wife, not only could she strengthen her physique by practising martial arts, but she also had the power to fight when she encountered danger.

The main thing was that the life expectancy of a person who had entered the clan would be extended by a staggering amount.

Naturally, Lin Mo did not want to leave his wife after he had fallen in love with her.

"In the future, ah, become a party expert, must protect me ha!

When the time comes, the more dangerous I am, I can hide behind you!"

Said Lin Mo dotingly scraped the bridge of his wife's nose, and the latter directly beamed.

"Humph, you'll just make jokes about me, nasty!"

"Ah, die, die! Xu Hanxia is hitting someone!"

Lin Mo was hammered in the chest by her, and directly fell to the ground in a naked manner and began to play a scoundrel.

And when he opened his eyes and looked up, he happened to see Song Zhilan who had come looking for him.

Seeing that she looked tense, Lin Mo immediately put away his jokes: "What's wrong, what's the big deal?"

Song Zhilan glanced at Xu Hanxia and squeezed out a small smile as a greeting.

"Sister, there's something on my side, I need Chairman Lin to go over there!"

Seeing her in this state now, Xu Hanxia also knew that things were not simple, and immediately nodded her head.

"Wait for me!"

After saying that, Lin Mo followed Song Zhilan and together they just arrived at the office.

"Lin Mo's situation is not good!"

"They've mined our market in China!"

After Song Zhilan finished speaking, she pushed a thick document in front of Lin Mo's body.

"These are the multinational agents that have recently appeared in Zihua country."

"I've sent people to check them, and these people all look like big enterprises with several hundred million, or even more than a billion dollars in registered capital on the surface.

And with full documentation, stable performance and a long history!"

"But it's all faked!"

After stopping, Song Zhilan directly drew out the information of an enterprise in Wanxiang country.

"Just like this one, although the company has been established for over twenty years, someone was found to feel out their company's financial data."

"This rubber group, it only started business last month."
