Chapter 3071

“His Highness also lent me the entry order to the royal archives courtyard because of my sincere interest in the history of the Wanxiang.”

“And after going through nearly fifty years of history and literature, my junior suddenly discovered a very strange phenomenon.

I wonder if Zat can explain it to me.”

Zat Wanliu’s only thought at this moment was to get this Wen Qiang to hurry up and leave, so when the latter asked, he agreed directly without any hesitation.

“Go ahead!”

Wen Qiang nodded and continued, “About twenty years ago, there was a record of a visit in the royal witch doctor’s institute, but there was no record of this visit.”

Zat Wanliu’s heart suddenly stuttered when he heard this, but he still forced himself to be calm and replied.

“Perhaps the person forgot to fill it in!”

“That’s what my junior thought before!”

Wen Qiang said in agreement, and then took out another page of yellowing paper.

“But coincidentally, there was a record of the pickup in the Witch Doctor’s Garden that day, but no record of the medicine mentioned.”

“So, in a spirit of curiosity, my junior checked their inventory records at the end of the month again.

A very interesting thing was found.”

As Wen Qiang spoke, he slid his finger to the bottom of the yellow paper.

“With so many drugs missing, the Witch Hospital was indifferent?”

“And all these medicines seem to be for the people who gave birth!”

Hearing this, Zatvanliu’s right hand, which had been clenching the chair, had burst out with veins.

His face had also turned extremely gloomy.

“Houshang, don’t you know that curiosity kills the cat?”

“It’s not good for you to know too much!”

His gloomy voice was full of warning.

Who would have thought that there would be people in this world who would go through those millions of files and find so many clues from the insignificant details.

‘Exactly a bunch of stupid pigs who can’t even wipe their own a*s’es!’

Zat Wanliu couldn’t help but start cursing those big those behind the scenes back then.

Across the table, Wen Qiang’s smile slowly broadened after he noticed Zat Wanliu’s cloudy face.

“Lord Zaat has taught me a lesson, and my junior will certainly bear it in mind.”

“Just tell me why the similarity value between His Majesty’s dna and your precious son’s dna is so high for you.”

With those words, Wen Qiang directly tapped out that test report.

Zat Wanliu looked at the conspicuous string of numbers and was instantly shocked.

At this moment, it was as if he had fallen into an abyss of ten thousand feet, and his heart was filled with a feeling of despair.

“Wen Qiang you are unbridled!”

“Who gave you the guts to investigate His Majesty the King’s.

You deserve to die!”

He trembled, his eyes red as he stared at Wen Qiang, his heart bursting with killing intent.

Wen Qiang spread out his hands with an expression that ate up Zat Wanliu.

“You are right, Lord Zat, if you report this to His Majesty, I will definitely lose my head to the ground.”

Wen Qiang stopped talking leaning his body forward.

“But do you dare?”

Zat Wanliu sneered with a black face, “Heh, I have not been afraid of anyone in my decades of fighting.”

“I don’t need His Majesty’s order, I’ll kill you today.”

After speaking, his right hand transformed into a tiger claw, locking a hand around Wen Qiang’s throat with a swift movement.

But just as he was about to crush Wen Qiang’s neck completely with the force of his five fingers.

Instead, the latter revealed a wry smile.

“I only need one hour not to report to my men, and the true identity of your precious son will spread throughout the entire network of Wanxiang.”

“By then, do you think the First Prince, the Third Prince as well as the Sixth Prince will allow the existence of your precious son?”

“It doesn’t matter to me, if I die and bury a prince with me, my life will be worth it!”

“Hahahaha!”

Chapter 3072

Wen Qiang looked at Zat Wanliu quietly, and he could not care less about the hand claw on his neck.

He knew very well that he had a lethal handle on his opponent’s hand, and this Zat Wanliu would definitely not dare to lay a deadly hand on him.

As expected, Zatvanliu’s face turned blue for a while before he finally dropped his arm helplessly.

But he thought of something important in this moment.

“Who exactly are you?”

If this Wen Qiang was a member of the Grand Prince’s staff, he would naturally tell the Grand Prince the news directly, so he should not be talking nonsense to himself here.

“It doesn’t matter who I am!”

Wen Qiang shrugged his shoulders: “What matters is our partnership!”

Naturally, Zat Wanliu would not believe his nonsense.

“My patience is limited, don’t you push me.”

“Oh, my lord is too impatient, it’s just that.

I just want to ask you to do me a favour!”

Zatvanliu had little room to refuse, everything he had was in the other man’s hands.

“I can do it for you, as long as it does not go against your conscience. But

Wen Qiang let out a big smile: “Your Excellency, you worry too much, this matter is just a mere hand job for your Excellency.”

“And give after the matter is completed, I will give you as well as the fourth prince as much help as I can.”

Speaking of the Fourth Prince, Wen Qiang not only added but even raised his eyebrows with a deep smile.

By now Zat Wanliu was absolutely certain that the other party might not know the details of the past events back then, but it must have been clear that Zat Baiha was the king’s fourth son.

And that would have finished crushing him to death.

“Speak! What is it!”

Zatvanliu was furious but his heart was filled with a sense of powerlessness.

The other side had completely pinpointed his dead center.

Wen Qiang nodded in satisfaction and then took out a border map.

“Lord Zaat’s current location is just over two hundred kilometres from the Bashar Divine Mountain.

And Lin Mo’s wife is in the middle of this mountain!”

He said and then began to goad them.

“Do you think that if we take his wife, Lin Mo will still be at our mercy.”

After he had spoken, his deep meaningful smile had expressed everything.

Zat Wanliu’s face instantly turned pale when he heard this proposal.

“Are you mad?”

Although he had more than a hundred thousand men in this garrison camp, if he moved without the king’s military talisman it was a capital offence of execution by firing squad.

And to steal people from the gods of Barsha Mountain.

Who could do that without a decade of brain thrombosis!

Yet Wen Qiang still looked confident.

“Lord Zaat you should not rush yet.”

“That high and mighty look of the divine Mountain has seriously affected the king’s power.

If you win this move, you will be a great hero to our Vientiane.

And it also removes a hidden problem from the king’s heart.”

“The main point is that by taking Lin Mo’s wife, Lin Mo will then be at our mercy.”

Wen Qiang also knew that these two points alone were not enough to move Zat Wanliu’s heart, so he directly offered a nuclear level benefit.

“You can absolutely give up these credits to your precious son.

I don’t think it’s up to me to say what the result will be when the time comes!”

At these words, Zat Wanliu’s eyes instantly glowed and his face showed a look of intent.

He no longer had any pursuit of a career.

But if he could get Zat Baikha to overtake him and rise to the top later on, he would be willing to pay with his life.

If he could pave the way for Zat Baikha, what was the harm in dying?

Of course he was on top at this point, but not yet Shi Le Zhi.

“Mr. Man, I have to say that this plan of killing three birds with one stone is very appealing to me.”

“But what good would it do you for me to do so!”

He did not believe that this Wen Qiang was so kind as to help him unconditionally.

“What I want is simple, I just want Lin Mo to become a puppet at the mercy of others.”

“Or become a dog

Chapter 3073

Although Zat Wanliu did not know, what deep hatred Wen Qiang had with Lin Mo.

But the bitter cold and fierce aura he had just felt from Wen Qiang’s body basically allowed him to judge that Wen Qiang did not look like he was lying.

After weighing the pros and cons of the matter, Zat Wanliu finally made up his mind.

f*ck him!

The bird will die!

If this matter was completed, Zat Baikha would definitely rocket upwards.

“Lord Zat, congratulations on making a knowing choice.”

“I can assure you that as long as I, Wen Qiang, am still alive, your precious son will surely ascend to the throne.”

For some reason, Zat Wanliu clearly felt that the young man in front of him was bragging, but yet another voice in his heart was telling him that this man was positively capable of doing so.

It was an ability that was somehow convincing.

It was true of the Third Prince, it was true of Yin Xiao Anaconda, and now Zat Wanliu had been added to the list.

“May we wish that our great work will be done.”

The two men exchanged tea for wine and the quilts clinked lightly.

“Lord Zat please move as quickly as you can, and I will buy you as much time as I can on the royal capital.”

“Time is short, so I will go back first.”

By the time Wen Qiang reached the door, Zat Wanliu suddenly called out to him.

“Mr. Wen Qiang, I have one thing I don’t understand?”

“You are obviously one of the Grand Prince’s men, why do you have to do this!”

Wen Qiang twisted his head and smiled slightly, “My lord, didn’t you say before that curiosity killed the cat.”

“That saying, I’m giving it to you now!”

“Knowing too much is not good for you!”

After saying that he flickered and disappeared from view between his figures.

As for whether Zat Wanliu would lift the table and leak this matter to the Grand Prince, Wen Qiang was not worried.

After all, a man who would give up his life for someone else’s son would not be so ruthless.

Of course, Wen Qiang’s promise to Zat Wanliu to support Zat Baikha’s ascension to the throne was not just a pie in the sky, but whether he would be a king or a puppet would be a different story.

After Wen Qiang left, Zat Wanliu summoned a group of lieutenants.

That night, a dense convoy of armoured vehicles sped off towards Mount Basha, followed by rows of rocket-propelled vehicles.

The air turned oppressive as dark clouds covered the sky during this time.

....

After returning to the Grand Prince’s side, Wen Qiang gave a brief explanation of what had happened.

Not surprisingly the Grand Prince threw another tantrum.

The porcelain that had just been replaced in the chambers was subjected to a new round of smashing.

This time Wen Qiang did not persuade, but simply watched with a cold eye.

The reason he chose to lurk around the Grand Prince was not because he was so good, or had potential.

Rather, it was because people who were easily angered were likewise the best to control.

And by using the identity of the Grand Prince, many things became easier to handle.

After waiting until the Grand Prince had finished spilling his anger, Wen Qiang then stepped forward and said.

“Your Highness, I don’t know why Lord Zaat is so thoughtless and dares to call the shots with the divine mountain.

But it’s a good thing for us that he’s doing this too!”

He then analysed the pros and cons.

If this move was successful and they took Lin Mo’s wife, they would be able to control him completely.

And there was also a chance to obtain the supreme treasure that was previously suspected to exist above the divine mountain.

Who wouldn’t be tempted by a treasure that could transform a person’s bones!

Moreover, Zat Wanliu was explicitly the Grand Prince’s man, so if he failed, Zat Wanliu would take the blame himself, and if he succeeded, the Grand Prince would follow and share the results of the battle, so why not.

After hearing this, the Grand Prince almost lost his breath.

You didn't say anything earlier!

Looking at the vases all over the floor, he couldn't help but feel a pang of pain!

This was all money!

After the Grand Prince finished his explanation, Wen Qiang had contacted Yin Xiao Boa.

And after the other party learned this news, she completely approved with both hands, or rather this was going to be an action against Lin Mo, she approved of it all.

Chapter 3074

In this way, the Grand Prince, Yin Xiao Boa, and the forces of Ding Liang Zhu formed a temporary alliance to cover the eyes of the royal capital.

To delay the Zat Wanliu operation as long as possible

When Wen Qiang returned to his room, Dong Ju, who was in charge of intelligence, brought a new piece of news.

"My Lord, Jiayuan I has recently started to link up with the Maple Leaf Kingdom more closely."

"Combined with Yin Xiao Anaconda's intelligence, this Jiayuan Ise may have made a new round of big moves recently."

After listening to this information, Wen Qiang closed his eyes wearily and rubbed his brow, slowly falling into deep thought.

The Maple Leaf Kingdom, that was a powerful backing ally of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Of course it would be more accurate to say that it was a superior country.

After all, the Wanxiang Country had to pay a huge amount of wealth to one side every year, in exchange for only some backward and obsolete guns and ammunition.

It would be more apt to say that it is a courtesy exchange between Moe's allies, rather than a tribute from Wanxiang.

It is an eternal truth that weak nations have no diplomacy.

If you don't pay the sky-high protection fee, why should people help you.

"Contact Yin Xiao Boa and ask him to pay more attention to the connection between the Maple Leaf Kingdom and Jiayuan I.

It's best to extract information about their dealings."

"My subordinate understands!"

The words were split into two.

After receiving the arms and equipment sent by Wu Daoyi, Lin Mo immediately arranged them down. Although it had cost tens of billions, the effect was also obvious.

The entire Martial Alliance combat forces in Hanoi Province today had all been fully equipped.

Coupled with their own rich combat experience as well as their extraordinary skills, this group of people could not say that they could defeat ten people with one, but one person should have no problem in overcoming five people.

At this point, the province of Hanoi was completely reorganised and the armed defence work was fully implemented.

A big stone had finally fallen from Lin Mo's heart.

The task of reorganising the two provinces of Hanoi and South Vietnam was thus completed.

Although the province of South Vietnam had the intention of throwing in the towel, but after all, Master Zhao was also the deputy head of the branch of the Da Qu Martial Union and was also considered to be under Lin Mo's banner.

Although the two places were not large, their combined strength was much worse compared to the Six Kings as well as the Ten Families.

However, unlike the head of the Guanghua Province branch, this is Lin Mo's actual territory.

Only he didn't open his heart for a few more seconds when the Crown Prince hurriedly brought bad news.

"Big brother, the situation is a bit bad."

"That old devil Zat Wanliu is cantoned at the border of the Basha God Mountain with a large portion of 60,000 people, and I'm afraid that the situation is not good!"

Hearing this news, Lin Mo's face instantly sank.

Had this Zat Wanliu gone mad?

Although he was backed up by powerful vitality, the Basha divine Mountain was full of experts, once both sides started fighting, there would only be a lose-lose situation.

"Come on, let's go back first!

Let's leave things on this side to Fei and Tong Xiaohe as gatekeepers for now!"

Without another word, Lin Mo led the crown prince and rushed straight to the Basha divine Mountain.

.....

At this time, about twenty kilometres west of the divine mountain, the combat troops of Uyang Uyang had already set up camp.

The 60,000-man structured Founder looked from afar like a recumbent dragon coiled on the ground.

Zat Wanliu might be a little different in terms of strategy, but he had come up through the ranks of the battlefield.

He had fought in hundreds of battles, large and small, and he had a wealth of experience in both military formations and battles between armies.

“Report, my lord, the outpost troops have been stationed.”

“Report, my lord, the patrol troops are ready.”

“Report my lord, the rocket carriers have reached the land position and are in a state of firing at any time.”

.....

As the dozen or so deputies finished their reports, Zatvanliu nodded in satisfaction.

Although he hadn't led an army for many years, fortunately he still had the experience.

Chapter 3075

The 60,000-strong combat force was scattered by him into twelve separate units.

Forming horns to defend each other while maximising the risk of a sneak attack by the enemy's experts.

Each side of the camp was equipped with an equal number of armored rocket cars, and all twelve sides of the camp, as long as one side was attacked, all the shells would happen together towards Bashar God Mountain.

When the time came, even if they couldn't be blown up, they could still completely all the hills of Bashar God Mountain.

“Let's take a day off today, and move as planned first thing tomorrow morning!”

“Yes!”

The deputies belonging to the group instantly stopped their bodies and saluted neatly towards Zat Wanliu.

On the other hand, when Lin Mo arrived at the divine mountain, he looked at the densely packed troops in the distance and his brows were tightly knitted together.

Ever since he was a child, there was a time when he had faced this kind of modern combat in the tens of thousands.

And although he did not understand this kind of large-scale combat, he could also see the terror in this Founder.

Unless one could be decapitated in one blow.

Otherwise, even if the opponent was resolved, those thousands of cannonballs falling on top of the divine mountain could vaporise all the peaks in an instant.

“Crown Prince, has the fleet side made contact yet?”

The prince was also worried after he put down his high powered binoculars.

For the first time in such a long time since he had come to Da Qu, he also felt a sense of powerlessness.

“Big brother, I have sent them precise bombing positions on the fleet side.

But the other side is within the Founder, outside as well as covered with anti-missile systems.”

“Trying to rely on the fleet’s long-range bombardment will hardly manage to wipe them all out.”

And if the first attack did not wipe out the enemy, it would be God Mountain that would suffer.

Twenty kilometres sounded far, but in front of rockets, it was a face-to-face distance.

The Prince of Pride had to recipe for Zatvanliu’s ability to arrange his troops.

Circle after circle of outer defences, like a turtle shell, protected the inner Founder tightly.

“Forget it, let’s meet up with You Li first!”

The duo approached You Li, and a group of God Mountain bigwigs on his side had already gathered on this side.

Under the oppressive atmosphere, everyone’s face was written with displeasure.

The divine Mountain had never been involved in worldly strife and had always maintained a status that was above the mundane.

I never thought that someone would dare to provoke it.

“Lin Mo you’ve come just in time!”

As soon as they met I You Li immediately greeted.

“Now that everyone has arrived, we can begin.”

“Although we don’t know the other party’s purpose, this Zat Wanliu is obviously coming from a bad place!”

“To prevent accidents, we need to move the old people and children on the mountain to a safe area first.”

Naturally no one objected to this.

“Yu, arrange for all combatants to keep an eye on the other side at all times, and report to me as soon as there is anything unusual!”

.....

With You Li’s tightly arranged, the people here left the place one after another after receiving their respective characters.

When only Lin Mo and the crown prince were left on the scene, You Li’s gaze was also cast over.

“Lin Mo, do you only know why the other party has come!”

You Li really couldn't figure out what the other party was mad about.

Lin Mo let out a bitter smile and voiced his guess.

“If I'm not wrong, this Zat Wanliu should be here for me.”

“That's why I've come this time to take my wife and the others away.”

“As long as we leave the divine Mountain, they will naturally not dare to seek trouble with it after they lose their target.”

His intention was simple!

After taking his own people away, the ghost shrank in Hanoi Province.

This Zatvanliu would definitely not dare to press their troops into the territory of Daqu unless they wanted to cause a war between the two countries.

It's just that it's not a good way to go

And after You Li heard this proposal from Lin Mo, he immediately showed his face in anger.

“Are you looking down on our divine mountain?”

“Xian son-in-law we are a family, your matter is my matter!”

You Li was overbearing at this point!

Chapter 3076

Seeing that Lin Mo was unmoved, You Li continued to persuade.

“Besides, after you walk out of the divine mountain, the other side will definitely be frantic to stop you.

You might be able to return to Hanoi Province unharmed with your body, but what about them?”

This point had finally hit Lin Mo's soft spot as well.

He himself did not have the confidence to guarantee that he would bring everyone back unharmed.

But he also didn't want to speak of misfortune being directed at the divine mountain.

You Li, a human wizard, saw through Lin Mo's mind at a glance.

“Just stay on top of the divine mountain without fear, don't worry we have our own cards naturally as we have been standing for hundreds of years in the Basha divine Sangha.”

“And you think that if you were to be let back in, my precious daughter would surely follow along for protection.”

“Even if I don't think of you, I have to think of my daughter!”

Lin Mo knew that the other party's claim that its Green Shadow was nothing more than an excuse; it was as easy as pie for them to stop it.

He twisted his head to look at the Crown Prince, who's mouth deflated and his shoulders shrugged.

The meaning was obvious, you just make the decision.

After a few seconds of contemplative hesitation, Lin Mo finally nodded.

"Dragging your divine mountain into this, junior is ashamed of himself."

This was supposed to be a word of gratitude, and the atmosphere was set up.

But You Li didn't care about that, and raised his hand and landed a heavy palm on Lin Mo's shoulder, causing him to grimace in pain.

This action was more or less a personal grudge.

"You don't have to do that!

The whole divine mountain will be yours and Green Shadow's from now on anyway."

"Just don't worry about your son-in-law, if he dares to provoke our divine mountain, we will make him pay the price."

He said and his playful face turned bitterly cold.

Outside the mountain.

Seeing that Fang Zheng was ready, General Zat Wanliu immediately made his next plan.

Now that time was urgent he had to put pressure on the divine mountain as soon as possible.

With such a large-scale military operation, the royal capital must have already received the news.

Although Wen Qiang had already verbally promised to help him buy time, he was not afraid of just in case.

"Incoming!"

After waiting for the adjutant to walk into her camp, Zatvanliu whispered a few words beside his ear.

"You do this... And then this."

It was midday.

Yuli received a letter of instruction, and when he saw what it said, his face first sank, and then he laughed out loud.

"I never thought that there would be a day when my Basha divine Mountain would be oppressed."

"People are lost to enter my divine mountain to search for them.

Thinking that there is no one at my Basha Divine Mountain!"

“If the master, Zat, is capable of stepping into the realm of my divine mountain, let’s see if I can get rid of him and be done with it.”

Zat Wanliu was not surprised after receiving such a reply.

It was just a test.

Seeing that the divine mountain was resolute he no longer squirmed and directly began to apply pressure.

“Tell them to either hand over Lin Mo’s wife or they will simply sweep away the divine mountain!”

All at once everyone on the divine mountain was filled with righteous indignation and approached You Li.

They wanted to come out of the mountain and rip Zat Wanliu’s head off!

But none of them were stopped by You Li.

Even he did not know where the cunning Zat Wanliu was hiding in the square formation.

And there was only one chance to strike.

On the other hand.

The news of Zat Wanliu’s army soon reached the royal capital.

When Jiayuan I heard the news, he was a bit confused for a while.

Was he planning to put his entire fortune at stake to pave the way for his fourth son?

“Your Majesty, the First Prince requests an audience!”

Jiayuan I frowned slightly: “Let him in!”

This boy never came to the royal palace of his own accord without favours if he was not summoned himself.

“My son pays respects to my father!”

“Well, flatten yourself!”

Jiayuan I’s tone was flat, without any mood swings.

“Say, what benefits do you want from coming to the door so voluntarily again.”

Jiayuan froze, and then bowed his body, “My son just wanted to come and see how Father’s health was.”

Chapter 3077

Naturally, Jiayuan I did not believe this bullsh*t of his eldest son.

“Can’t die, can still last a few years, let you down!”

“Now that you’ve finished reading, you can go back when you’re done.”

Jiayuan I waved his hand impatiently and closed his eyes and propped one hand on his temple, looking like he wanted to rest.

The opposite side of the Great Prince was used to his father’s lack of treatment by now, and after a flash of hostility in his eyes, he instantly regained his bland expression.

“Father, my son has one more thing to say, it’s about the Minister of Border Affairs!”

He wanted to test out his father’s attitude towards this matter.

Jiayuan I opened his eyes lazily as he listened to this matter.

For this matter Jiayuan I originally wanted to recall Zat Wanliu directly, take away all his powers and simply take him into custody pending trial.

But when he thought of the high and mighty style of the divine mountain, which often did not even give him face as the lord of the country, he hesitated again.

Although there were many experts on the mountain, the firepower of the Zatvanliu army was also extremely strong.

It was hard to say which was stronger or weaker in a real fight.

Most importantly, if Zat Wanliu succeeded, he would be making a name for himself and his authority as king would be greatly strengthened.

Even if he failed, he would let Zat Wanliu be the scapegoat, as he had not issued the order anyway.

“You didn’t send the men, what are you talking to me about?”

He sounded as if he didn’t even bother with the matter.

“You misunderstand, Father. The minister of affairs on this side acted entirely on his own initiative.

My son has not given any orders at all, which is why I have come to ask Father.”

Jiayuan I looked at his eldest son with a straight face and did not look like he was lying.

The king’s face instantly became complicated at the thought.

This old thing really dared to fight, in order to pave the way for his fourth son, completely you are gambling with your life.

“In that case, this matter is out of your hands!”

The Grand Prince was about to say something else, only before he could also open Jiayuan I waved his hand impatiently.

“The widow is tired!”

“My son excuses himself!”

The Grand Prince gritted his teeth and finally chose to retire reluctantly.

And by the time he walked out of the royal palace, Wen Qiang was already waiting for a long time.

“Your Highness!”

The Grand Prince glanced at Wen Qiang: “Father doesn’t mean to take charge!”

“Are you hiding something from me?”

Some of this was revealingly unusual everywhere.

Although previously Yin Xiao Boa had brought the secret of the king’s injury back then as well as the news that the divine Mountain might contain divine objects, everyone did have other thoughts about the divine Mountain at that time.

But that was just about it!

Now Zat Wanliu had concealed it from himself and suddenly struck out at the divine mountain.

There must be something secret hidden in it that he did not know.

So when he finished asking this question, his gaze also became fierce, staring at Wen Qiang with a deadly gaze, as if he wanted to see some clues from Wen Qiang’s expression.

But his intention fell flat after all.

Wen Qiang just shook his head calmly, “Your Highness, I am not sure about this matter.”

“I only asked Lord Zhaat about what happened within the royal palace that day.”

“Who would have thought that just as I left on my first foot, this Zaat person would use his troops against the divine mountain on his second foot.

Otherwise, I wouldn’t have asked you to go to His Majesty’s palace to get some information!”

When the Grand Prince heard this, he also felt that there was some truth to it.

Besides, along the way, Wen Qiang had given himself too much help, otherwise his own forces would not have developed so rapidly.

“You really don’t know?”

With a sense of doubt he couldn’t help but confirm it once more!

But Wen Qiang remained unmoved, his eyes were calm and unmistakable, and he could not find a trace of it at all.

That Dao really was overthinking himself!

The Grand Prince shook off his head, lifted his feet and left the place.

“You hurry up and contact Zat Wanliu and ask him what the hell he’s up to!”

Chapter 3078

After the Grand Prince asked, Wen Qiang immediately obediently responded.

But a disdainful smile suddenly appeared on his face as he looked at the back of the Grand Prince's departing face.

Among the several princes, although the eldest prince was the most powerful, he was also the one with the biggest temper and the most arrogance.

However, he was indeed the easiest to play with.

Compared to the third and sixth princes, the eldest prince was clearly the most suitable to be a puppet.

Of course, there is also the Fourth Prince who has been hiding.

That one might not even be as good as the First Prince.

Wen Qiang thought as he followed the Great Prince's footsteps, and in the process, he quietly sent a message.

Two hours later, Zat Wanliu contacted the Grand Prince.

As soon as the call was answered, Zatwanliu began his invincible lulling mode.

What with doing this himself, it was all for the sake of the Grand Prince.

In order to capture Lin Mo's wife to send to the Grand Prince as a hostage, he was willing to go through fire and water.

The purpose of shocking the divine mountain was also to add euphemism to the grand prince!

It was just that due to the suddenness of the incident, there was no time to report it.

After rambling for about half an hour, coupled with the fact that there was also Wen Qiang fanning the flames on the side, the Grand Prince was instantly lame.

When the Grand Prince thought of the future Lin Mo's future lying in front of him, trembling and obedient, he couldn't help but laugh out loud.

With a single hand, he even sent several trucks of ammunition to Zatvanliu.

The name was to help the Minister of Border Affairs.

Wen Qiang, who had taken everything in his eyes, could only shake his head speechlessly.

He was worried that if Zat Baikha were to ascend to the throne later, this Grand Prince would not be angry with himself for his stupidity!

After settling the matter with the Grand Prince, Wen Qiang immediately asked Qiu Zhu to compile a copy of everything that had happened during the period and sent it to the Third Prince, Jia Bai Luo.

Of course Wen Qiang did not mention anything about Zat Baiha's identity.

He only said that Zat Wanliu had been turned by him!

On the other side, after the second prince learned that Lin Mo was under siege, he immediately summoned Tege.

“Lin Mo’s is in a very bad situation now, grab a 20,000 man combat force and go gather a 20,000 man combat force to go around and support Lin Mo from the harbour side.”

Teg asked worriedly, “Your Highness, do we have to engage the Grand Prince now?”

“We still need time to develop!”

Gadrei’s heart was anxious and his voice couldn’t help but speak a little louder.

“Lin Mo is now my most important ally, one glory and one loss.

If something were to happen to him, what capital would I have to compete with my big brother and third brother.”

“And my elder brother has already secretly made a move against me long ago.”

He had witnessed the angry effects of the pills Lin Mo had sent him.

But it had only been a few days, and the king’s potency had suddenly taken a precipitous fall.

If he said that all this was not the work of the Grand Prince, he would not believe it to death.

“Hurry up and remember to already ensure Lin Mo’s personal safety.

As long as he is there, I will have a chance to ascend that throne in the future, do you understand?”

Gadre’s face had slowly begun to grimace.

Seeing that he looked anxious, Tege asked no more questions and immediately began to carry out Jiade Lie’s orders.

Lin Mo’s importance was known to Tag.

It was only when this man came into view that the Sixth Prince changed his usual style, took off his disguise and began to fight for the king.

However, when Tag had finished rallying his troops and the fleet had just left the harbour, a dense fleet of ships stopped him directly.

“By order of the Admiral, now that there are internal and external troubles in Vientiane, no ships are allowed to leave the waters of Vientiane without permission!”

Tegli looked at the clear flag of the opposing fleet and his face fell into a grim expression.

That was the exclusive flag of the Grand Prince’s grandfather, Naval Commander Modoxiong.

Chapter 3079

“Hahahaha!”

The Grand Prince had a smug smile covering his face as he held his wine cup in one hand.

“This king really wants to see my sixth brother’s defeated expression!”

In order to ensure that Zatvanliu’s operation was foolproof, the Grand Prince directly used his grandfather’s maritime power to seal off all of the Sixth Prince’s fleet in the harbour.

“Your Highness does not know what is so happy!”

“Mr. Wen, you have come just in time.”

The Grand Prince stepped forward and put his arm around Wen Qiang’s shoulder, “Mr. Wen, as you said, my Sixth Brother has already gathered his troops and intends to support Lin Mo from the high seas around the Basha Divine Mountain.”

Wen Qiang did not feel surprised by this.

Given the relationship between the Sixth Prince and Lin Mo, anyone could guess that this Sixth Prince would definitely go and send troops to support him.

As long as the simpleton in front of him was complacent.

Of course, although Wen Qiang despised it in his heart, he still put on a curious expression.

“Has Your Highness managed to intercept them?”

The Grand Prince puffed out his back in triumph, his jaw raised even higher.

“That is natural, as soon as I spoke to my grandfather about it, he immediately agreed to me.”

“Right now my sixth brother’s reinforcements are blowing the sea breeze in the harbour, in comparison.”

At this point, the Grand Prince could not help but laugh again.

Looking aside, Wen Qiang was also speechless for a while.

But he also had to admit that this Bean Batch was really lucky!

He was born with the golden key of being the first son of the royal family, and his grandfather was the commander of the navy of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Even before he was old enough to become an adult, he had countless ministers and wealthy people coming to join him.

Perhaps the gods felt that they had given him too much!

So it took his brain back.

If these conditions had been placed on any of the Sixth Prince or Third Prince, the Wanxiang Kingdom would have been replaced by a new king long ago.

After staying for a while, it was already dark at Wen Qiang’s house, so he politely declined the Grand Prince’s invitation to dinner and left this way directly.

And when he returned to his room, he immediately put on his night clothes, put on his mask and sneaked quietly into the Second Princess' palace in the night.

Just as soon as he got close, there was a clear shout from within the palace.

Hearing this, Wen Qiang tripped over his feet and almost fell off the roof.

It was only after a long time that everything finally calmed down with the sound of a loud and clear shout.

In the middle of the glorious bedchamber, Avis was now lying naked on top of a large bed studded with precious stones.

The sheets were soaked with beads of sweat and other unknown fluids.

Her face was flushed and she was breathing heavily, looking very pleased with her man's work.

Only when the male pet tried to move forward to kiss her fragrant lips, he was kicked to the ground.

"Get lost!"

True! Trousers on, no recognition series!

As soon as he saw that the Second Princess was furious, the male pet immediately fled the place, not even noticing that there was another person on the sofa in the room.

With a cold snort, Avis got up and put on her translucent nightgown, and went straight to the sofa and settled down slowly.

"Your Excellency is having a good time watching, does my princess's body look good?"

Faced with this sudden mysterious person, the second princess did not have the slightest fear.

Her flirtatious voice was full of temptation, and Avis even deliberately switched her sitting position to make her figure appear even more alluring.

Although she had just experienced a round of great battles, she was surprised to feel an inexplicable feeling of excitement when she saw the stranger in front of her, who was wearing a mask and night clothes.

The evil fire in her body kept reminding her that she wanted it again!

This revealing question almost made Wen Qiang choke to death!

Originally, he had already trained his own cheek to be invulnerable to swords and spears, but it was obvious that he was still a section short compared to this Second Princess.

Chapter 3080

"Ahem!"

Wen Qiang coughed twice before smoothing his breath, and then he controlled his voice and spoke.

“Your Highness’s reputation is indeed not a rumour!”

Although there was a bit of mockery in her words, Avis did not react in any way.

On the contrary, her gaze just never left Wen Qiang’s crotch.

From his many years of hunting experience, he knew that the man in front of him, wearing a mask, must have an extraordinary appearance despite his voice, and was extremely powerful.

Of course here strength referred to bed!

Avis licked his tongue and could not resist the urge to eat this man.

There was no sound here, although she had not said anything.

But his scorching gaze had said it all.

And it was the first time that Wen Qiang had been stared at in all his years in the jungle.

At this moment the mind-attacking scheme or whatever went great rage was thrown to the back of his mind, he just wanted to finish dealing with it as soon as possible at this point and get out of it.

This b*tch is too intimidating!

“Your Highness, I have come here to inform Your Highness of an important matter!”

“Your Highness, make no mistake!”

Wen Qiang hadn’t even finished his words, the Second Princess was already kneeling in front of him, while her hands were pointing to probe his lifeblood.

Fortunately, Wen Qiang’s strength, pooh, his body is very good, immediately dodged to the side.

When Avis failed to land a blow, he thought of continuing his attack!

That aggressive gaze looked like it was about to eat someone!

“What could be more important than male and female love!

You want you to satisfy me!”

“I’ll do anything for you!”

With that he wriggled his delicate body and slowly stood up, the only button on his chest was now unbuttoned.

The only button on his chest was unbuttoned at this point. The snow-white, soft skin was completely exposed to view.

The excitement on her face grew even more when she saw that her partner was unmoved.

The more decent the other party was, the more it aroused her desire to conquer.

“What, could it be that you still can’t look at this princess?”

At this moment, Wen Qiang's forehead was already full of cold, and it was no exaggeration to say that he had completely broken his defenses at this moment.

This second princess who did not follow the rules at all, was completely giving him the whole won't.

Seeing that the other party was approaching him step by step, Wen Qiang hurriedly stopped to.

"Your Highness, don't be impatient for a moment!"

"This matter is really very important, it is about Her Highness, whether she can become the Queen in the future!"

If it were possible, Wen Qiang would have chosen to run away.

Seeing that the form was going to be completely derailed, he simply sent out a big move directly.

Sure enough, once these words were spoken, Avis' demented expression slowly calmed down.

She tilted her head to look at Wen Qiang, raised her hand and bit her finger, her face suddenly showing a look of resolution

"This princess, she hates it when people cheat me!"

"If you don't give me a satisfactory answer, you will die today!"

"Of course, I'll make you feel truly happy before you die!"

Although the words were fierce, they were not at all intimidating when matched with her body that drew fire.

When Wen Qiang heard this, he couldn't help but sigh with relief, and then he hurriedly wiped a handful of cold sweat from his forehead!

"Your Highness, I hope you will keep this information and not let outsiders know about it.

It is an important basis for your future success!"

Before coming here, Wen Qiang had thought of explaining and enticing the Second Princess at the same time.

But in the present situation, he only wanted to get away after explaining the matter.

Ai Weiwei didn't know all the results of the note, and when he read the information on it, his pupils instantly dilated ten times.

"He's actually the Fourth Prince?"

"How is this possible?"

A look of disbelief was written all over Avis's face.

"This is the blood relationship test report!"

"If Your Highness doesn't believe it, you can personally extract the genetic samples of the two of them and send them for testing!"

After Wen Qiang finished speaking, Avis was already eight percent convinced.
