Chapter 3091

He was being looked down upon!

Lin Mo sighed inwardly and laughed at himself, except that he had long since gotten used to such a situation.

Just as Tong Xiaohe was about to lead Lin Mo into the room, a sarcastic voice suddenly came from within the crowd.

“Chief Tong, although we have no choice, you can’t just bring a brat over here.”

The man who spoke was carrying a handbag of various colours, and through the slit he could faintly see the dense array of medical paraphernalia inside.

His words seemed to speak the minds of most of the people there.

There were dozens of reputable doctors at home and abroad who were at their wits’ end about Pao Longxing’s condition, but could this young man in front of him solve it?

“This brother of mine, is a Chinese medical saint, there is no need to doubt his medical skills.”

Tong Xiaohe said with a cold face towards the famous doctor who was picking a fight.

However, Robert was unrelenting: “Mr. Tong, you don’t know that the water is very deep in this sector of our medical world.”

“Many of them have a loud name, but they are deceitful and deceitful.

If you were cheated out of your money, that would be fine, but right now it’s Master Bao’s life.”

“There’s no room for error! Don’t you think so, little brother?”

When he turned his gaze towards Lin Mo, his eyes were filled with disdain and disgust.

He himself hated Chinese doctors, plus Tong Xiaohe had so well found such a young Chinese doctor.

The crowd of famous doctors present all felt that their medical skills had been insulted.

Although we couldn’t cure Young Master Pao’s illness, we didn’t have to find a random hairy boy to humiliate.

Plus, they were making a lot of money because of Pao Long Xing’s condition. If this kid in front of them really had the means to find out their nastiness, they would not only be cut off from their wealth, but even lose their reputation.

The whole process Lin Mo did not pay attention to the other party’s taunts, although he was not sure why these people were so hostile to him, but he had more important things to do at the moment.

At this moment, his mind was rapidly searching for a disease that matched or was similar to the Pao family's young master's condition, while thinking of the best solution to save him.

This silent action of his made the group of famous doctors confirm their suspicions.

"Madam Pao, you can Tong is young and doesn't know the deep waters of our profession, so you should keep your eyes open."

"Yes, Madam Pao some of them are just beckoning, and now the young master's condition is so serious. If these charlatans get you into trouble, it will be a matter of life and death."

"Madam Pao, think twice, you can't joke with the young master's life."

If one or two people had said that, it would have been fine.

But when all the famous doctors on the scene said the same thing about Lin Mo's unpleasantness, Tong Feng Ju's mind was shaken.

In addition, she was anxious about her son's condition and began to believe the famous doctors' words for a while.

When Tong Xiaohe watched the change in his second aunt's eyes, he felt bad in his heart.

"Auntie do you also believe in their bullsh*t?"

Tong Feng Ju's eyes flashed, only when she saw Lin Mo's handsome but boyish face, her face suddenly became firm.

"Ah Xiaohe, it's not that auntie doesn't believe you."

"It's just that you know about your cousin's condition, he can't afford any accidents ah.

Your second aunt only has one son!"

Either because she was anxious and worried, her eyes began to redden as she spoke, and she looked as sad as could be.

Robert and his companions looked at each other in secret, and then a look of triumph spread across their faces.

"Boy, you heard me."

"We don't welcome people like you who pretend to be a drug batterer here, hurry up and get the hell out!"

And when he finished speaking, Lin Mo remained unmoved, just standing in place with his brows furrowed.

Chapter 3092

When Roboute saw that his opponent was not paying attention to him, he just felt that his punch had hit the air and made him feel extraordinarily uncomfortable.

Glancing back at his companions' laughter if anything, he then felt insulted.

"Hairy boy, are you deaf?"

Said Robert, directly reaching out with the intention of pushing the ungrateful brat in front of him.

However, before he could touch it, Lin Mo's deep-thinking eyes suddenly shook and a biting gaze flashed.

"Ah, pain pain pain!"

The crowd at the scene did not even react, Lin Mo had already pinched Robert's wrist, as he gently turned it, Robert even directly fell to his knees on the ground, wailing under his breath.

"How dare you, the castle of the Pao family is also a place for you to show off."

"Hurry up and let go of him, or you won't be able to or walk out of here today."

"Hurry up and let go of Mr. Robert!"

At one time several famous doctors began to shout madly.

The several members of the Pao family at the scene also frowned.

Originally, they didn't have any good feelings towards Lin Mo, but they didn't have any ill feelings either.

It was only with Lin Mo's sudden rudeness that several people instantly became discontent.

This kind of rude hairy boy did not look like a good person at first glance, let alone what kind of divine doctor or not divine doctor pulled.

Under the sudden change of circumstances, Tong Xiaohe also became nervous.

Seeing that the security personnel inside the Pao family castle kept leaning over towards this side, Tong Xiaohe immediately went forward to dissuade Lin Mo.

"Young Lin, why don't you start letting go of him!"

After saying this he couldn't help but feel deeply guilty.

He was aware of Lin Mo's situation nowadays, and to be able to come to treat his cousin at the invitation of his busy schedule was already giving him a great deal of face.

However, after arriving at the Pao family castle, he could not do anything at all in the face of the people's questions.

Although the two families were in-laws, he did not have any say in the Pao family's territory.

Now he could only dissuade Lin Mo from making a move.

"Young Lin, I'm sorry!"

After Lin Mo turned his head to look at Tong Xiaohe, a smile suddenly surfaced above his calm face.

“It’s not in the way!”

“Since people don’t welcome me, I’ll go back first then!”

He himself was busy with many things, so how could he have the time to bullsh*t with them over here.

After saying that he simply let go of his palm.

It was just that although he had the intention to leave, Robert was unrelenting.

“Mrs. Pao, you look at the liar, after being exposed by us, he actually started to commit murder in anger and repair.

I suspect he’s planning something bad!”

With that, he winked at his companion, who understood and went forward together to persuade him.

“Madam, we can’t let this boy leave so easily, or else many charlatans will follow suit in the future, and the Pao family will lose face.”

“Right, this kind of crook must be punished severely, so that after other crooks, the downfall of the Pao family’s deception.”

Lin Mo listened to their words, and was only left without a big word.

It was just that if he wanted to leave, no one could stop him.

Thinking like this his gaze also became stern.

And this move of his was again caught by the group of nominal.

“Madam, look, look at the fierce look of this liar, we were right, now you are annoyed.”

“Kid I’m telling you, you’re still very young to want to commit murder on the Pao family turf.”

Tong Xiaohe looked at the second aunt’s hesitant look and his heart snapped.

“Young Lin, I’m sorry for subjecting you to such treatment!

Let’s go back!”

If he were to let Lin Mo be left here by them, then what face would he have to go to Lin Mo.

Moreover, if Eldest Uncle Tong Hai knew about this, with his character he was bound to chase him to this side of the Ryukyu Islands.

At that time, things would be really big.

He was worried about his cousin’s worsening condition before the latter had the cheek to invite Lin Mo over.

I never thought it would turn out like this.

Chapter 3093

Tong Xiaohe was about to leave this place with Lin Mo when that Robert unexpectedly stopped directly in front of the two of them.

“Chief Tong, I know you’re kind-hearted, even if you’ve been cheated, you don’t want him to be punished.

But Mr. Tong, you have to estimate the face of the Pao family, you are in-laws!

It’s not too much to hurt the peace between the two families over a crook.”

Tong Xiaohe looked at Robert, who had stopped in front of him, and was just about to get angry when a sudden chiding sound came from not far away.

“What’s all the fuss about! Don’t you know that my eldest grandson needs to rest?”

Hearing this voice, everyone at the scene instantly showed serious faces, and then flew back to the sides.

“Greetings, Family Head!”

Bao Qingtian didn’t pay any attention to them, and after a cold snort, the dragon marched to Lin Mo’s body.

“Medical Saint Lin?”

Lin Mo nodded before clasping his hands in a fist, “Greetings Lord Bao!”

He had already heard of Pao Qingtian’s reputation before this.

The true big man of the shipping industry, and also the man most likely to ascend to the throne of the ship king.

Robert was unsure, and without waiting for Pao to say anything, he went straight forward and began to goad him.

“Lord Pao, you see you must not be confused by the man in front of you.

This man is a fraud, and we are planning to punish him.”

Bao Qingtian’s face sank at these words, displeasure written all over his serious cheeks.

Robert was delighted in his heart and only thought that it was his own Lord Bao that was displeased with Lin Mo.

“Duke Bao, you don’t need to be angry with such a little liar, you don’t need a bull’s-eye to kill a chicken, just let us handle it.

We divine doctors have a hundred ways at our disposal to make the crooks meekly admit their mistakes.”

The rest of the nominal nodded their heads, saying that they had unique means at hand to force confessions.

“Lord Pao, the Chief Tong is too young and gullible, you

As Robert was excitedly and spitefully egging on the Pao family head to take Lin Mo down, Pao Qingtian’s gaze suddenly went cold.

“You’re teaching me to do something?”

The flat tone of voice however caused the surrounding crowd’s breath to stagnate as if a stone had been blocked in their chests.

Robert’s face turned pale after he sensed that something was wrong.

“Master Pao, I I didn’t mean that, I just

Bao Qingtian squinted at the crowd of famous doctors, and the disgust in his gaze was already calling out.

“Shut up if you didn’t, my Pao family and the Tong family are as close as a family, who gave you the guts to stir up our relationship.”

Bao Qingtian did not give Robert the chance to slyly argue, with a smile he first nodded towards Tong Xiaohe and then looked at Lin Mo once again.

“Medical Sage Lin, sorry for the lax family style, I have made you laugh.”

With that said, he then wore a face full of apologies, intending to bow to Lin Mo and apologise.

Such a scene made the jaws of the people present stagger.

What kind of status was Bao Qingtian, the lord of the Ryukyu Islands, the founder of the Seafarer, now he wanted to bow and apologise to an unknown yellow-haired boy.

Many people started to pinch their thighs to make sure they were not dreaming.

Seeing this, Lin Mo immediately flashed to the side, he wouldn’t dare to accept such a huge gift from Pao Qingtian.

“Lord Pao, you’re folding your arms over the younger generation.”

“Father!”

Tong Feng Ju shouted before rushing forward to help the eunuch up.

However, Bao Qingtian frowned thickly and pushed her away directly.

“A woman’s heart, to be fooled by a group of quack doctors!”

“If you offend Medical Saint Lin you are the murderers of Xiao He.”

Huh?

For a moment, Tong Feng Ju was also a bit confused.

How could this be related to her own son?

“What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and apologise to Doctor Lin.”

After Tong Feng Ju was angrily reprimanded by her eunuch, although she didn't know what to do, she could only choose to obediently do as she was told.

Just as she was about to apologise, Lin Mo suddenly spoke up.

“There is no need for Eunuch Pao to do so, it is all just some trivial matters.”

“Your grandson's persistent illness, junior will do his best!”

Lin Mo was clear in his heart about the other party's intentions in doing so.

Of course if others respected him a foot, he would return a foot.

Saying this, Lin Mo once again arched his hand.

The whole time he didn't even glance at the pale flies again, turned around and directly pushed open the room where Pao Long Xing was.

Chapter 3094

As soon as Lin Mo walked into the room, he smelled a strong smell of alcohol.

On top of the hospital bed, Bao Longxing's body was now filled with various instrument catheters.

The rise and fall of his chest also looked extremely weak.

His face was an abnormal shade of red.

If one did not know, one would have thought that Bao Longxing was just drunk.

Outside the door of the room, the worried Tong Fengju and the colourful Bao Qingtian also followed him in.

Lin Mo didn't care about them, he just walked to the bedside and put his hand on Pao Long Xing's wrist.

After double-checking, Lin Mo muttered to himself.

“It's really Automatic Brewing Syndrome.”

There were many causes for this syndrome, but the root cause was impaired intestinal function, which never resulted in the constant secretion of alcohol from the intestines.

And the most direct effect of this is to trigger liver failure.

Pao Longxing's condition was already at an advanced stage, and in another week, even the immortals would not be able to save him.

Now that Lin Mo was sure of his condition, he did not hesitate any longer.

His right hand crossed his chest and nine Xuan Needles neatly appeared in his palm.

In the blink of an eye, the nine Xuan needles appeared at various acupuncture points on Bao Longxing's body.

As Lin Mo continued to pour spiritual qi into Pao Longxing's body through the Xuan needles, the smell of alcohol in the room became heavier and heavier.

Soon after, the abnormal redness on Bao Longxing's face also began to fade away slowly, and his entire breathing began to stabilize.

Such a change made Bao Qingtian's face full of joy.

As expected, he was the divine doctor recommended by Tong Dahai.

Although he looked young, he had already perfected his needle technique.

Although he did not know anything about medicine, he could see that his grandson's health was improving.

By the time Lin Mo withdrew the Xuan Needle, there was a slight tremor in Bao Longxing's eyelids.

After Tong Feng Ju noticed it, she excitedly went forward and held her son's palm.

"Xing'er, Xing'er!"

Seemingly hearing her call, Pao Longxing slowly opened his eyes.

"Mom"

Although his spitting was slurred, it was proof that his consciousness had returned.

"Eh eh eh, I'm here!"

Tong Feng Ju responded excitedly, wiping tears from her hands even.

It had been nearly a year since she had heard her son's voice.

On the side, Bao Qingtian's face, which had been gloomy, also gradually appeared happy, it was a happy from within.

"Medical Saint Lin's great kindness is not appreciated, this is a gift that our Pao family will always keep in our hearts."

Bao Longxing was the only bloodline of the Bao family.

Rather than saying that Lin Mo had cured Bao Longxing, it would be better to say that he had continued the incense of the Bao family, so this kindness could not be considered too great.

However, after he finished speaking, Lin Mo was still frowning, unable to see any joy, but on the contrary, with a bit of anger.

"Lord Bao, I have only cured your grandson's automatic brewing syndrome, if you want to recover completely, you still need some time to recuperate."

He said as he ordered a pen and paper to be fetched and signed several pages of prescriptions.

“With this prescription and a month’s recuperation, your grandson should be no different from a normal person by then.”

Bao Qingtian reached out and took the prescription with a puzzled look, he did not know why Lin Mo was angry.

And when he looked at the various kinds of my herbs on it, the doubts in his heart became even stronger.

“Medical Sage Lin, could it be that my grandson has still been poisoned.”

Although he did not know the way of medicine, he had been exposed to the herb market for years and more or less knew the effects of some herbs.

Lin Mo shook his head and said with a sullen face.

“Although it’s not poisoning, it’s not too far off.

Those unscrupulous quack doctors have been administering medicine indiscriminately, causing a large amount of medicinal poison to accumulate in your grandson’s body.”

“The most abominable thing is that they used this as a substitute for good, and many of the medicines were not plucked from their poisons and were actually given directly to your grandson.”

Chapter 3095

Lin Mo did not take those few raking quacks to heart, after all, the levels were different.

But they should never have used human lives as a means to enrich themselves.

It was not an exaggeration to say across the board that these quacks were responsible for eighty percent of the reason why Bao Longxing’s condition was so serious.

As Lin Mo unfolded his story, Bao Qingtian’s face gradually turned gloomy.

“Medical Sage Lin, if my eldest grandson had not taken these medicines, would his condition not be so serious.”

Lin Mo nodded and said honestly, “It would have been much better, at the very least it would not have been life-threatening.”

At these words, Bao Qingtian instantly burned, and along with his gloomy face, the air in the room seemed to sticky.

“Good, good for you, these quack doctors, just as I, Pao, am so easy to bully!”

He did not doubt Lin Mo’s words.

After all, there were many problems with the medicine prescribed by those so-called famous doctors before, which could easily cost tens of millions, or even tens of millions.

Bao Qingtian did not say much for the sake of his precious grandson's condition, as long as they could cure Bao Longxing, he did not care about the money at all.

But to use his grandson's life to enrich himself, this was crossing the red line of murder.

At this moment Lin Mo also sensed a thick murderous intent.

.....

Outside the room, several famous doctors led by Robert were also a bit anxious in their hearts at this time.

"Do you think this kid will find out that we did the trick?"

"Don't worry, just with that yellow-haired kid?

You still justify him as a Chinese medical saint, but he's just a charlatan who runs the jungle."

"That's right too ha, as soon as they come out, we'll persuade Master Pao to kill the crook.

If you want to steal our cake, don't even look at how much you weigh."

Just as they were whispering and discussing how to deal with Lin Mo, the door to the room opened once again.

Bao Qingtian stomped out with a gloomy face, a murderous look that no one in the room dared to look at.

When Robert saw him like this, his heart burst with joy.

The situation was just as they had expected, the yellow-haired boy had failed.

"Lord Bao, I told you, you can't trust such charlatans. If he uses medicine indiscriminately, the young master's illness will become even more serious.

At that time, even we will be powerless to help."

After saying this, he winked triumphantly at his companions.

"Brothers, we'll be able to make a fortune again!

However, as soon as a glow of joy appeared on their faces, there was a crisp sound in their ears.

They then realised to their horror that Robert had been slapped a dozen metres away.

"Noisy!"

Bao Qingtian said coldly as he looked at Robert, who was unaware of his life and death in the distance.

And when his gaze fell on a few other famous doctors just, these few people instantly felt a chill in their backs, as if there was a large sharp knife hanging above their necks.

"Pao... Master Pao, you... What do you mean by that?"

One of them, as much as he wanted to put on a calm question, could not help but stammer after a glance with Bao Qingtian.

Bao Qingtian sneered, "What do you mean?"

"Misrepresenting the price, I can accept that, our Pao family is not short of money.

But you beasts, to use my grandson's life as a means to enrich yourselves, what do you mean?"

At these words, several people instantly turned pale.

It was over, the thing they had feared most had finally happened.

At this thought, their gazes at Lin Mo instantly became fierce.

Kid has ruined our big event!

However, they no longer had the chance to retaliate.

Several people were about to speak up when Pao Qingtian waved his hand, "Men, pull these beasts down, pluck their tongues and break their arms!"

"Yes!"

When several famous doctors saw the Pao family's guards coming forward, they were immediately frightened to the point that their legs went weak and their pale faces could not see a trace of blood.

Chapter 3096

The fact that his words were true was the most outstanding merit of Pao Qingtian.

A few minutes later, the underlings brought up a huge tray, and although it was covered with red silk, Lin Mo could guess what it was by the blood that kept seeping out and the shape.

"Take it down!"

"My eldest grandson is not well to see blood now that he has recovered from a serious illness."

Pao Qingtian waved his hand in disgust and signalled for his subordinates to carry it away.

As for the other members of the Pao family, their faces were also a little unpleasant from the bloody scene, and after thanking Lin Mo, they hurriedly left.

Lin Mo himself, after being repeatedly invited by Bao Qingtian, was too kind to join the table.

"Medical Sage Lin, thanks to you!"

"I heard that before, and before that I thought that kid Tong Hai was bragging.

Now it seems that he still underestimates Brother Lin."

"Brother Lin this medical skill of yours is simply unparalleled in the world."

After a few cups of sleep went down, coupled with the fact that his eldest grandson's health had improved, Old Master Pao's mood seemed extraordinarily high.

His address for Lin Mo also changed from his previous title of Doctor Saint to brother.

Lin Mo's heart understood, no wonder this old man Pao strongly supported his treatment for Pao Long Xing before.

It turned out that someone had blown in his ears first.

"Lord Pao is overly praised, my junior generation does not deserve this honour.

There are people outside of the world, and the name of the absolute peerless is something that my junior can never afford."

There were thousands of medical paths, and there was a wider sky outside, and Lin Mo did not dare to boast that he was the best in the world.

Just like Mr. Pill on the divine mountain, although he did not reveal his landscape, Lin Mo admitted that he was inferior to him just from his skillful cultivation of medicinal herbs.

The more modest Lin Mo was, the more Bao Qingtian admired him.

He was not arrogant, not impatient, and his demeanour was unobtrusive, neither deliberate nor pretentious, a good seedling.

And when they talked about the study of martial arts, Lin Mo's unique insights also made Elder Bao nod his head in praise.

Especially when he learnt that Lin Mo had created his own martial art, the Thousand Waves Palm, he actually pulled Lin Mo directly onto the martial arts stage.

"Brother Lin, come, no need to hold back your hand, let the old man see."

Lin Mo was also helpless originally only came to practice medicine and treat illnesses, but he didn't expect to be dragged into a sparring match now.

However, seeing the other party's excitement, he could not afford to scatter the old man's elegance.

"Old man Pao, be careful!"

After a soft shout, Lin Mo's entire body was like a sharp arrow leaving, and he rushed to Elder Pao's body in the blink of an eye.

With a tremor of his arm, the entire acting stage instantly lifted up a gale.

Tong Xiaohe, who was watching the battle from the side, was directly blown by the gale and could not open his eyes.

The next second a muffled sound suddenly rose strong in his ears, and the soles of his feet even began to shake.

Lin Mo did not hold back in any way with this strike.

From the moment he stepped onto the acting stage from above, he sensed the majestic aura within Elder Pao's body.

This man was extremely close to being a great master, if not a sectarian.

As the dust settled, the scene became clearer.

Although Elder Pao's face was calm as he resisted Lin Mo's palm, his eyes were already filled with shock.

He had already overestimated Lin Mo though, so when he received the move, he did not take it lightly.

Yet even so, he had already been shaken to the point where his arm was numb, and his feet had even taken half a step back.

"Good!"

"This strike has touched the bottleneck of a sect master, I believe it won't be long before you can also buy your way past that Dao Tianzhe.

Those of the younger generation who can reach your level are completely rare existences."

"Hahahaha, promising!"

The cut came and went as quickly as it came.

Elder Bao praised and clapped his hands, and that was the end of the simple sparring session.

When the two had left, only Tong Xiaohe stood dumbfounded in place, looking at the large dent in the wall that had been offered up across the air, unable to speak to himself for a long time.

He had thought that Lin Mo was very strong, but he had never thought that Lin Mo was so strong that he was this strong.

Chapter 3097

After returning to the banquet again, Elder Bao's attitude became more enthusiastic, and he wrapped his arm around Lin Mo's shoulders and kept asking about the situation at home.

Especially the marital status, the old man even confirmed it three times before he skipped the topic with a disappointed feeling.

As for Tong Xiaohe, who was in-laws with the Pao family, he was hung out to dry at this point.

Moreover, his face at this moment also looked extremely twisted.

Although he was half a round older than Lin Mo, after this manipulation by Elder Pao, Lin Mo's generation had jumped directly to his grandfather's generation.

Seeing Master Pao's increasingly warm attitude towards Lin Mo, Tong Xiaohe was afraid that one of his brains would directly worship with Lin Mo.

“Master Bao, I think we should stop here today, Young Lin still has important matters to deal with, why don’t we leave it at that?”

Bao Qingtian frowned, and after a dissatisfied glance at Tong Xiaohe, he said without good grace.

“This has only just begun!”

Lin Mo saw that Tong Xiaohe had given the opportunity, and he immediately added.

“Lord Bao, junior really does have important matters to attend to.

Next time, after I’m busy, I’ll definitely have a good drink with senior, and we won’t rest until we’re drunk then.”

Seeing Lin Mo’s resolute attitude, Bao Qingtian stopped stopping him.

“Alright then!”

“But Brother Lin, what is it that you have encountered here?

Perhaps the old man can be of help.”

“This

Lin Mo didn’t know how to speak at this point, he also felt awkward if he mentioned the matter of the divine Mountain.

It always felt a bit like he was carrying a favour and seeking a reward.

Tong Xiaohe was so anxious that when he saw that Lin Mo was hesitant, he spoke directly.

“Grandpa Bao, the matter is like this, you know about the matter of the Wanxiang Kingdom shocking the Basha divine Mountain, right?”

Bao Qingtian nodded and said in confusion, “It is true that I have heard of it, but I have heard people say that this Wanxiang Kingdom seems to be trying to force the divine mountain to hand over a woman.”

As he said that, his expression suddenly changed and he looked at Lin Mo with a clear gaze, “The woman they are talking about wouldn’t be related to you, would it?”

Lin Mo smiled sarcastically, “If there was only one Basha divine Mountain, that woman would be my wife, Xu Hanxia!”

Under Tong Xiaohe’s patient explanation, Elder Bao also understood the reason for this.

“Our Tong family’s combat is not right too far from the Great Qu United Province.

Although my eldest uncle mobilised the troops at the first opportunity, I’m afraid that it will take too long to catch up.”

“Grandpa Pao, can you mobilize some men out!”

After saying that, Tong Xiaohe pressed Lin Mo, who was planning to speak beside him, and stared at Pao Qingtian with a burning gaze.

“This

For a moment, Bao Qingtian’s face unexpectedly looked troubled.

“Grandpa Pao, it’s not true.”

“My eldest uncle usually brags about your loyalty and generosity, and now Lin Mo is saving

Just as he was about to continue, Lin Mo covered his mouth.

This goods usually seems to be calm and steady, I did not expect that in private also want to commit jerk.

“You can stop it, families have a hard time reading.”

“Master Bao, don’t listen to his nonsense!”

With Tong Xiaohe drawing out the topic, the whole scene became awkward.

After a long time, Pao Qingtian sighed.

“Brother Lin, it’s not that I don’t want to help you.”

“To be honest, our Pao family’s main battle force has all been dispatched nowadays

By the time Elder Pao had finished speaking, the two of them, Lin Mo, also understood.

The Pao Family had unexpectedly encountered difficult matters as well.

“That Domo Xiong has been eyeing our Pao Family’s seafaring industry with his huge army of sea warships and wants to annex us.”

“And we’ve already had most of our giant ships inexplicably lost.”

It is because of this that the Pao family has dispatched a large number of escorts to protect the cruise ships.

This has led to a serious shortage of combat troops from the Pao family’s own family.

Chapter 3098

As soon as Tong Xiaohe heard this, he immediately exploded.

“Gra*s, this Wanxiang Kingdom is really arrogant, not only is it targeting our Tong Family, but now even your Bao Family is being targeted.”

However, with these words, he instantly woke up Lin Mo.

Previously, the Grand Prince’s side had targeted the Tong Family’s subsidiaries in the Wanxiang Kingdom and the Great Qu United Provinces because of Lin Mo.

Now Navy Commander Domo Xiong had started to reel in the Pao family’s maritime power again.

Then he thought about the relationship between the Pao and Tong families.

Lin Mo instantly figured it out.

It turned out that it was all aimed at himself.

By cutting off their own back-up, they could strike with impunity.

The opposite side of the bag also had a sudden flash of light in the eyes of the old man, and after locking eyes with Lin Mo, both sides understood each other, and secretly matched heads.

.....

Wanxiang Kingdom, the third prince's palace.

After Ai Weiwei had been defeated on the Grand Prince's side, he hurriedly approached the Third Prince Jia Bailiou.

"Brother, Sister has a matter that she wants to ask you for a favor!"

Gabrielle unaccountably put down the intelligence document in her hand and looked at Avis with a puzzled face.

"What is it?"

Beating around the bush had never been Avis' character, and with the Third Prince asking this question, she directly stated the reason for her visit.

"I miss Zat Baiha, you transfer him back!"

"Ha?"

Gabrielle was filled with speechlessness, "Sister, he's the Grand Prince's man."

"And what his father and son are doing now is something that even the father tacitly approves of.

You think too highly of your brother, how can I possibly have the right to command him."

"They are no father and son yet!"

The words came out of Avis' mouth in an instant, and he then hastily changed his tone.

"They are father and son in tandem."

She glanced at Gabrielle and saw that the latter was focused on her papers and did not seem to be listening to her.

Avis breathed a slight sigh of relief.

"Brother, why don't you send out the air force you have on hand.

Blow up his Bashar God Mountain, and by the way, that bd called Lin Mo just blow me up into a bomb.

Won't Young Master Zat's character be complete."

“By then, he’ll be back sooner.”

Gabrielle was still unbearably worried as well, deflating her mouth.

“Didn’t you two both break up, I seem to remember that you were the one who stomped him out.”

“Now how...?”

He was about to go on when Avis waved his hand in outright impatience.

“Just tell me if it’s okay, right?”

Gabrielle’s eyes were pensive and did not reply directly.

The Second Princess lost her patience at this and as her second finger probed the cleft of her chest, a shiny gold bank card appeared in his hand.

“I’ve heard from others that you’re under an air combat unit, aren’t you strapped for funds?”

“Nah, there’s enough here to fund you for a quarter.”

Gabrielle was still looking hesitant, and after seeing the gold card, his eyes instantly lit up.

“Sister, what kind of relationship do we have?”

He said this, but his hands were incredibly fast, and in the blink of an eye that one disappeared from the table.

“Sister, just put a line on it, I promise to complete your instructions.”

“Hmph, money-grubber!”

Avis snarled coldly before beaming and leaving straight away.

Inside the study, the third prince looked at the gold card he was holding up in mid-air for a moment.

He had gone to a lot of trouble to get the money, but the king had just given it to the second princess.

This kind of treatment was really incomparable.

“Someone!”

“Put this money into the Falcon’s account to replenish the funds!”

The Third Prince kept his mouth shut about what Avis had mentioned.

From the beginning he had never thought that Zenda would have to send warplanes to support the Zat father and son.

“Don’t blame me, big sister, before the situation is clear, I don’t want to lose Lin Mo as a potential ally so easily!”

Chapter 3099

On Lin Mo's side, he left Ryukyu Island after Master Pao's repeated requests to stay.

For the 5,000 combat troops provided by the Pao family, Lin Mo also excused himself from the dinner party.

The situation of the Pao family was not too objective at the moment, so taking these people away again would undoubtedly add fuel to the fire.

After a few hours' flight, Lin Mo returned to Heshan City again.

After returning to his villa, he hadn't even had time to catch his breath when Ding Li came to his door with an anxious look on his face.

"Lin Mo, the situation is not good!"

"Guangyao's side has also made a move!"

Lin Mo was not surprised by this news.

From the moment he made his move on the Night Mantis market, he knew that Guangyao would definitely go against him.

"Take a sip of water and talk slowly!"

Ding Li looked at him with a smirk and his face grew even more anxious.

"He's in a hurry to get tens of thousands of men to go ahead and meet up with Zat Hugga.

When the two of them meet, they will march towards Bashar God Mountain, and your situation will be even worse!"

A few days ago, after Ding Li heard the news that Guangyao's side was preparing to make a move, he immediately rushed to Hai Fang City.

It was just that no matter how much he switched to Guan Linglong and analysed the situation with him, Guangyao was simply unmoved.

"This person is determined to push you to the brink.

How come Lin Mo isn't worried at all too?"

Ding Li couldn't help but ask curiously after he finished complaining.

Lin Mo was simply unfazed and only subconsciously shrugged his shoulders as if he had already known all of this.

"Ever since my first meeting with Guangyao, I knew that we were bound to be on opposite sides.

The man has a big heart and at the same time is extremely susceptible, at the mercy of money."

"The night vine gra*s has brought such huge profits that it has completely clouded his mind.

This is inevitable!"

"By the way, aren't his tens of thousands of people, all participants in Da Qu's night vine herb market?"

Ding Li was stunned and asked in surprise, "How did you know that?"

"Che, I can think with my knees!

Right now is the best time to deal with me, they might be able to hold back."

"But that's good, it saves me from having to look up each and every one of them."

"Speaking of which, your Ding family isn't involved in this, right?"

Ding Li looked at Lin Mo's sharp gaze and hurriedly shook his head fiercely.

"There were some branches that wanted to get involved at first, but after the elders' council of the main clan gave the word, they shut up."

"There's a reason why your Ding Clan is standing."

After Lin Mo said with deep meaning in his eyes, his entire body sank directly into the sofa.

.....

On the other side, at this time, Zat Wanliu was confident about the next move.

The king's tacit approval, coupled with the constant supply of heavy firepower and weapons of mass destruction from the great prince.

He was confident that he could take the sacred mountain in one fell swoop.

Now he only had to wait for Zat Baikha to lead the brigade and the supporting troops from Guangyao, no, they should be cannon fodder.

As soon as they arrived, he could simply order a move on Shenshan.

What he didn't know was that Zat Baikha was even more excited than he was at the moment.

After his side just happened to meet the head of Guangyo's forces, another mysterious expert was attracted to him.

And this man was a familiar face, none other than the Black Robe that the Grand Prince had invited from the Divine Mountain earlier.

"Mr. Black Robe, with you on board, our operation this time is bound to be a success."

The smugness on Zat Baiha's face could no longer be hidden at all.

This black robe was not only highly powerful.

Most of all, this man was also a spy hidden above the divine mountain, and there were many secrets in his body that outsiders did not know.

Especially about the Bashar divine Mountain.

"Your Highness, I know that there is a loophole in the great mountain protection formation of the Bashar divine Mountain!"

“As long as your father launches an attack, we can go straight out of this loophole and attack the inner part of the divine mountain.”

“At that time, Your Highness, not only will you take the first credit, but the countless treasures contained in the divine mountain will all be yours!”

Under the black robe’s seductive words, Zat Baikha’s eyes grew brighter and brighter, his expression showing greed.

Chapter 3100

Zat Baiha did not suspect much, and he was tempted by the Black Robe’s offer.

After all, with nearly 100,000 people under his command alone, all schemes and tricks were just paper tigers.

And most of all, he was also coveting the divine relics taken by the Barsha divine Mountain back then.

Let’s do it!

With a wave of his hand, Zat Baikha directly led the huge team and rushed towards the location of the loophole mentioned by the black robe with great vigour.

“What!”

Zat Wanliu burst out in anger after hearing his precious son’s movement.

“Hurry and contact them for me, turn around immediately and gather towards me in a hurry.”

This temporary change of course by Zat Baikha completely broke Zat Wanliu’s layout.

Most of all, he also maintained great suspicion about this sudden appearance of the black robe.

While Fry was worried, the adjutant also brought bad news.

Zat Baiha’s troops could not be reached.

At this point, the Zat Baikha they had been pining for was completely off the intended route.

The caravan stretched for kilometres, raising a cloud of dust and smoke, like a creeping dragon in the wilderness.

Several of the bigwigs located in the middle section of the car were also gathered in an off-road vehicle at this time.

“Chief Guan, we are also considered dignitaries, why do we have to listen to the commands of a little brat.”

“That’s right, this kid doesn’t treat us well at all.”

Guan York frowned at the front-most armoured car.

He was not unhappy with the Zat Pakha, who had been glaring through his nostrils from the moment they met.

He had even ridiculed them by saying that they were stragglers.

But after a little thought, he reassured the crowd, "Our main objective is to deal with Lin Mo."

"As long as we take down Lin Mo or take his wife, our market for night vines will be restored."

"Forget the rest for now, we don't need to mess with money, do we?"

After being persuaded by him, several people's original annoyed emotions calmed down a little, only that the topic gradually shifted to Lin Mo.

"It's all Lin Mo's fault, otherwise I'd be cuddling up with my treats and drinking coffee, enjoying life leisurely."

"Yeah, if it wasn't for him, why would we have to suffer so much?"

"But it won't be long before we're done with this scourge once and for all, and then we'll be able to make another big score."

"Yes extremely, yes extremely"

Listening to the chatter, Guangyao did not answer, lying on the passenger side of the car, his eyes never left the front of the most armored caravan.

The reason why he was so nostalgic was the sudden arrival of the black robe.

It was not as if he had not refused the man's offer, but Zat Baiha had simply ignored him and even blown him off straight away.

And in the back of his mind, there had been a voice that would not linger.

Was it really possible that there was a loophole in the legendary Barsha Mountain?

The more he thought about this, the more uneasy he felt in his heart!

Watching the caravan route deviate more and more from the original route, Guan Yao made a temporary decision.

"Brothers, you guys chat, I'll go get some goods!"

With that, Guan Yao waved the cigar that was about to go out in front of everyone's eyes, and then, with a single hand, he scurried out of the car like a cheetah.

At the back of the caravan, several of his men looked stunned at the sudden arrival of Guan Yao.

"Boss, why are you here?"

Without answering, Guangyao immediately ordered the driver to slow down after getting into the carriage and let out the body to fall at the end of the group.

What no one noticed was that as the long convoy pa*sed a corner, the SUV at the end suddenly drifted away and then disappeared from the road.
