Chapter 3151

“Your Majesty, you said you were going to attack the sacred mountain of Basha?”

The Vaishya was stunned, a moment ago he was talking about killing out, but why was he suddenly going to fight up this time?

“Are you disobeying me?”

Avis bellowed coldly, and Vysher retired in helplessness and began to gather his troops.

Soon, rows and rows of tanks once again drove up to the base of Mount Basha and began to aim up at the mountain.

“Mountain Master, it’s not good, the Wanxiang Kingdom is fighting again!”

The disciple’s urgent voice caused You Li’s face to change and he hurriedly took out a formation plate and turned the frequency of the great mountain protection formation to the highest.

At the same time, You Li shouted, “Gather all disciples to prepare for battle!”

In just a few minutes, all the disciple elders of the Basha Divine Mountain had gathered.

At the back, Xu Hanxia also wanted to go over and kill out with You Li and the others, but was stopped by Green Shadow.

Green Shadow shook her head at Xu Hanxia, although she was a little jealous that Xu Hanxia was the love of Lin Mo’s heart.

But if Xu Hanxia really died, that Lin Mo’s brother would be heartbroken, and out of this thought, Green Shadow stopped Xu Hanxia.

Outside, the roar of tanks continued to ring out, and You Li led his disciples straight out to kill them, and with a wave of his hand a tank was blown up.

After briefly blocking the cannonballs, the mountain protection formation eventually shattered again.

Thousands of shells exploded with unimaginable force, but fortunately, the mountain protection array just managed to support the power of all the shells.

You Li and all the disciples of Bashar God Mountain had attracted all the attention at this moment, and countless tanks were blasting the disciples of Bashar God Mountain even at the expense of their own people.

“Old Seven, how about we just compete this time to see who kills more?”

An outer disciple of the Ba Sha Divine Mountain integrated his best friend to kill in the middle of the battlefield and said to his friend who should be behind him.

But there was no sound in response, only the sound of guns firing and the shouts of the Bashar Divine Mountain disciples.

After he had once again handily defeated an enemy soldier, he turned his head and cursed with a smile.

“You bd, how dare you ignore...”

The disciple’s voice came to an abrupt halt as his closest friend was now turning his back to himself, a brightly shining blade piercing through his chest above his white clothes.

Crimson blood stained his snow-white shirt red, and even so his hand was stuck inside his enemy’s throat, standing alive and unbroken above the battlefield!

“Old Seven!”

The disciple was instantly blinded and frantically slaughtered the soldiers around him, and soon he became panting for breath.

A bullet slammed into his chest as he gasped for breath, and a demonic red splash of blood shot out.

The disciple opened his mouth long and feebly and spat out his last few words.

“Old Seven, don’t run too fast for f*ck’s sake, I’m afraid of ghosts...”

Scenes like this were happening in every corner of the battlefield, the pain of war filling everyone’s heart.

Above the sacred mountain of Bashar Green Shadow silently took Xu Hanxia’s arm with one hand and just stood there quietly, waiting for the war to end.

Suddenly, the green shadow pulled Xu Hanxia straight to another position and looked warily at the road up the mountain.

A dart stuck straight up where Xu Hanxia had just been, with a hint of purple on it, which should have been coated with poison.

If it were normal, there would be realm guards and patrol hall disciples on Mount Basha, so naturally no outsiders would barge in.

But now that the disciples of Bashar God Mountain had cleared out, the only people on the mountain besides the wounded were Xu Hanxia and Green Shadow.

One of them had a dart in his hand, which he had just thrown.

Avis looked at Xu Hanxia and said in an ominous voice.

“Isn’t this Mrs. Lin, why is your family Lin Mo? Now that he’s not here I’ll see who can protect you, do it!”

Chapter 3152

The six men beside Avis were the ones he had picked out of the army, all of them able men from the Wanxiang Kingdom.

A man as thin as a bone coughed twice, his pale face seemed as if he might collapse at any moment, and a long white knife was held out to him.

The next moment, the man arrived at Green Shadow's side and the long knife flashed into a white shadow and attacked.

Green Shadow could not fight back because he was pulling Xu Hanxia, so he could only retreat backwards.

A smear of blood floated out, and Green Shadow looked somewhat gravely at the arm on his hand, these people opposite were not simple.

"You let go of me, I can do it!"

Green Shadow didn't pay any attention to Xu Hanxia, he couldn't even break free from his own hand, and he still wanted to go and fight them?

Green Shadow pondered for a moment and directly pulled Xu Hanxia towards the forbidden place at the back of the mountain.

The disciples of the Basha divine Mountain had all gone out to fight, but the spirit beasts in the forbidden land were still there.

Although they don't care about anything on a regular basis, which senior would not watch them being chased and killed if they ran there.

Watching Green Shadow pull Xu Hanxia back quickly, Avis ordered in a cold voice.

"Continue the chase."

Among the six, two of them were very strong and were close to protect Avis, while the remaining four, apart from the man who was as thin as a bone, were the strong man who was good at swordsmanship and two twin brothers.

The twin brothers had learned a combined attack technique because they shared the same mind. Together, even the inner disciples of Bashar Divine Mountain would not last a few rounds.

"I have the power of Red Lotus Karmic Flame, I can fight too."

Xu Hanxia looked at Green Shadow's arm oozing with blood and spoke again.

Green Shadow looked at Xu Hanxia and said coldly, "Even I am no match for several of them together, you can't."

Xu Hanxia fell silent, she also knew that she was no match at all, but she was being forced to run by this woman who had thoughts about her husband.

An extremely twisted thought was born out within Xu Hanxia's mind.

"Where are you running to, little ladies?"

The two twin brothers hung far behind Green Shadow as well as Xu Hanxia and kept flirting.

The young man with the long white sword and the strong man with the large sword followed the two brothers without a word.

Green Shadow was already injured, and with Xu Hanxia with him, his speed was even slower.

The distance between them and the four men behind them was also gradually approaching.

One hundred metres

Fifty metres

Ten metres

Looking at the four people who were getting closer and closer with playful smiles on their faces, Green Shadow gritted her silver teeth, pushed Xu Hanxia over the top and shouted.

“Go straight ahead and go among the forbidden lands of the Basha divine Mountain!”

Xu Hanxia glanced at Green Shadow’s resolute back and gritted her teeth as she rushed towards the front.

At that moment, she had fought with all her might to gain time for herself, and she could not fail her.

“You deal with her here, the three of us will go in pursuit.”

The burly man with the large sword nodded, a bloody grin on his face.

The twin brothers, as well as the skinny youth, bypa*sed the green shadow and headed towards Xu Hanxia in pursuit.

The rear camp of the soldiers of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Lin Mo was still in the middle of his tent, sinking his mind into cultivation, when Jia De Lie hurriedly walked in.

“Lin Mo, Avis has already launched a war against the Basha divine Mountain.”

Lin Mo’s eyes Mu opened with a solemn intent in his eyes.

“Going to attack Bashar God Mountain at this critical time, is Avis a fool and are the generals of the former army also fools?”

“Chirp.”

A white dove suddenly appeared at the entrance of the tent, cooing twice at Lin Mo, and lifting his leg to indicate the letter on his lap.

A bad premonition appeared in Lin Mo’s heart, and his right eye kept trembling at the moment.

Lin Mo hurriedly walked up to take down the letter and opened it to read.

Lin Mo opened it himself.

The Basha divine Mountain had already gained some advantage in the war with the Wanxiang Kingdom, so there was no need to worry.

However, Hanxia suddenly came to Bashar God Mountain, I was worried that something might happen to her, so I had Green Shadow guard her, unharmed.

You Li, the mountain master of the Bashar God Mountain.

“Halsia has returned!”

Chapter 3153

A sense of panic immediately filled Lin Mo’s heart.

Avis had just fled to the Vanguard not even a day before he launched an attack on the Basha divine Mountain.

And Xu Hanxia had arrived at Mount Bashar the day before.

All of this united into one message that was presented to Lin Mo.

Alvis was going to murder Xu Hanxia!

Without saying a word, Lin Mo quickly ran out of the tent and found Du Qi who was reading the Buddhist scriptures.

“Quickly, immediately have everyone set out to attack the vanguard!”

Du Qi, who was reading the sutra, nodded when he saw the blood-red murderous aura emanating from Lin Mo’s body, and he could even see thousands of unjust souls behind him.

“Feather Forest Army, assemble!”

Nine thousand soldiers immediately swarmed from every corner and stood neatly in front of Lin Mo.

“Your master mother is now in danger, tell me what to do!”

“Kill! Kill! Kill!”

Killing the life out of the sky, Lin Mo turned around and ran straight into battle with the Feathered Forest Army.

The number of believers on the side of the Ferry Blight was huge, and it would take at least half an hour to gather them all.

Lin Mo couldn’t wait half an hour, and he couldn’t even wait a single minute now.

On top of the Basha divine Mountain, Xu Hanxia was frantically running ahead.

Although she had the Red Lotus Flame to enhance her strength, she was too well protected by Lin Mo and did not even have any experience in killing.

Xu Hanxia didn't dare to stop at this point, the three people behind her were chasing after her and were constantly teasing her with their words.

"Little beauty, just don't run away, the brothers will make you comfortable later."

The twin brothers looked at Xu Hanxia's long, slender thighs, her curvaceous figure and her cold, frosty face.

An evil fire rose up in his lower abdomen.

This Xu Hanxia was even more beautiful than Avis, and when they thought of Avis' Sl*tty appearance, the twins looked at each other in unison.

The bony young man did not say anything, but followed behind them silently, carrying his long white knife.

Soon, Xu Hanxia, who was somewhat out of breath, was caught up by the three and surrounded in a triangle.

"Little beauty, let's see where you'll run now. If you serve us both well, it's not impossible to spare your life."

Xu Hanxia's light lips pursed together as she looked at the three in some desperation, silently thinking in her heart.

Lin Mo, where are you

The three of them stretched out their hands to Xu Hanxia, and Avis gave the order that Xu Hanxia must be kept alive.

Suddenly, a red lotus flower mark emerged from Xu Hanxia's forehead.

Heaven-filling energy burst out, directly shaking the three people around Xu Hanxia out of the sky.

"Bang!"

The twin brothers were knocked directly into a tree by the vast energy of the Red Lotus Karmic Flame, making a muffled sound.

The bony youth, on the other hand, had no tree behind him and was directly shaken away for dozens of metres. He rolled several times on the ground before gradually coming to a halt.

Xu Hanxia's eyes were covered by a red glow and he took this situation to hurry towards the back.

Here was a cliff, all mist below, and it was impossible to see how deep it really was.

And behind it was the original forbidden place of the Red Lotus Karmic Flame of the Basha Divine Mountain.

Xu Hanxia looked at the three people who had already climbed up, and with a bite of her silver teeth, she jumped straight down the cliff.

In the air, Xu Hanxia felt the sound of the wind in her ears and kept controlling the spiritual energy in her body to achieve the effect of imperial air.

Soon, Xu Hanxia felt her body stop for a moment and a smile appeared on her face, she had succeeded.

The next moment, the feeling of stagnation dissipated with a bang, and Xu Hanxia's body once again plunged towards the bottom.

"Pfft."

Luckily, there was a lake below and Xu Hanxia fell straight in.

The fish in the lake were instantly startled by Xu Hanxia and fled in all directions.

But with the force of the impact, Xu Hanxia sank helplessly towards the bottom of the lake, when a sudden change occurred.

Her head hit a strangely shaped stone and blood flowed down the sea.

The red lotus flame that had fallen silent burst into flame again, enveloping Xu Hanxia and the stone.

Chapter 3154

On top of the battlefield, Lin Mo with the Lan Ling ghost face was in the midst of a mad dash to kill, cutting down tanks when there were tanks in front of him, killing people when there were people.

He was invincible on the battlefield, making the soldiers around him tremble with fear.

Behind Lin Mo, millions of troops were pressing directly on, and the way they fought without regard for casualties made Vaishya tremble with fear.

"Soldiers of the Wanxiang Kingdom, you should stop blindly doing your own people, I am the heir personally chosen by the late king, which Aves is nothing but a liar."

Gadre's words rang out across the battlefield under countless speakers.

It also made all the soldiers hesitate, they could fight for the Vientiane Kingdom, but did not want to be a fool.

Vyse, who was directing the battle, gritted his teeth, looked at the soldiers who had suffered casualties and said.

"Sound the gold and surrender!"

The sound of golden thunder resounded throughout the battlefield, and all the soldiers lowered their weapons.

Lin Mo did not stay on this battlefield, which was filled with a solemn aura, but quickly came to the other side to find You Li and the others.

"You Li Mountain Master, where is Halfsia?"

You Li looked at the murderous Lin Mo and was somewhat puzzled, but still spoke.

"I told Green Shadow to stay in the mountain to protect Halfsia, what's wrong?"

Lin Mo's face beneath his mask was ugly to the extreme, if he hadn't guessed wrong, Avis was already in the mountain now.

"Their real target is actually Halfsia!"

Lin Mo flew away and took off into the air towards the Basha divine Mountain, leaving behind only these words.

"Their target is Halfsia"

You Li's face suddenly turned to one side, if someone were to lead someone to touch up the Basha divine Mountain at this time, that name alone, Green Shadow, would not be able to stop them.

A monstrous aura burst out from You Li's body, his eyes were full of coldness, if someone dared to harm his own daughter and Han Xia.

If anyone dared to harm his daughter and Hanxia, he would be killed by a thousand cuts and then lit up in the sky!

On top of the Basha divine Mountain, the green shadow was still barely fighting with the strong man.

The strong man's attacks were so powerful that Green Shadow could not take them hard, so he had to keep circling for opportunities.

The three men in the distance were reporting the results to Avis.

"Your Majesty, which woman named Xu Hanxia, who would rather die than give in, was helplessly knocked into the cliff by us and has died."

Avis' face was a little gloomy, and he did not say anything more, but turned his gaze to the green shadow on the side.

According to the intelligence she was the daughter of the mountain lord of the Basha divine Mountain, as long as she was at hand, one could leave here unharmed and return to the territory of the Wanxiang Kingdom just the same.

"You guys go over and help him."

Late was never too late, and Avis told the remaining three to go forward and help the strong man take down Green Shadow.

"There's no need to go, you bds, all of you deserve to die!"

A monstrous killing intent rushed up from beneath the foot of the mountain, and three streaks of sword energy flew directly towards the three men.

The twin brothers as well as the bone-thin young man All their faces changed and they flew away, but the sword qi was like maggots in their tarsus, following them deadily.

Blood splattered as these three so-called experts were directly turned into corpses under one of Lin Mo's sword qi.

With another rushing sword qi, the strong man who fought with the green shadow was directly separated into corpses, immediately frightening Avis and the others at the side.

Lin Mo walked up from the bottom of the mountain with his divine sword Tai Ah in his hand, covered with a monstrous killing intent, and came to Green Shadow's side to insert a few silver needles into her acupuncture points to stop the bleeding.

"Where is Hanxia?"

Green Shadow looked at Lin Mo with a smile on her face and said softly.

"I told Sister Halfsia to run towards the forbidden land."

Lin Mo nodded and reached out to touch her head, causing Green Shadow to blush her cheeks.

Looking at the two strong men opposite him like they were enemies, Lin Mo coldly waved out two sword qi, instantly separating the corpses.

He didn't bother about Avis which woman, with Green Shadow here even if she was injured, she was not comparable to Avis which waste.

Lin Mo came directly to the edge of the cliff, looked at the clouds below not know how deep, jumped down.

Xu Hanxia can't be airborne, listening to their conversation just now said that they have fallen off the cliff, they must start from the beginning to find.

By the lake, Xu Hanxia woke up leisurely, looked around confusedly, then lifted her head and locked eyes with Lin Mo who had just come down.

There was clearly a familiar, wanting-to-cry feeling, but Xu Hanxia could not find any impression at all, and dully spoke.

"May I ask who you are, do you know who I am?"

Chapter 3155

Not long after Lin Mo had just left, You Li rushed back.

When he saw his own daughter's bruises, the old father of the family, Yuliyi, was in a state of shock.

A huge amount of aura emerged from his hand, and he was about to go and light the lantern on Avis, the woman, when he was stopped by Green Shadow in time.

The green shadow shook his head at You Li, signalling him not to do anything.

Looking at his daughter's appearance, You Li angrily blasted the aura in his hand at Avis's feet, and a two to three metre deep crater appeared there.

Avis instantly crumpled to the ground shivering in fear, and there was yellow liquid running down his lower body.

Below the cliff, a gust of wind blew from below to above.

With one arm holding the slightly resistant Xu Hanxia, Lin Mo gently flew up from below and landed easily on the ground.

Xu Hanxia immediately broke away and looked at Lin Mo with her small face puffed up and said.

“Who are you, I don’t even know you, why are you hugging me.”

Just now after Lin Mo saw himself, a gentle smile appeared on his face, and then he directly hugged himself.

The moment her feet left the ground, Xu Hanxia was so frightened that she clutched Lin Mo’s shirt, so she could easily reach the ground, so of course she had to raise her voice.

Lin Mo did not say anything, but only gently placed his hand on Xu Hanxia’s head, signaling her to be good.

Xu Hanxia looked like she couldn’t say a word, her heart was secretly annoyed, his hand on her head how come she suddenly wasn’t angry anymore?

Next

Lin Mo’s gaze shifted to Avis, and murderous intent was suddenly revealed in his eyes.

Lin Mo stepped forward and Avis instantly trembled all over.

“Lin Mo, I’m wrong, you bypa*s me one, I’ll be your slave from now on, I’ll do whatever you say, whatever you want.”

Avis looked at Lin Mo, cloaked and covered in dust, and kept begging for mercy.

At once, the two women present were not pleased.

When Xu Hanxia heard Avis’s words, a wave of jealousy rose up inside her, making her want to go up to Lin Mo and pull him to a*sert her sovereignty.

After suppressing her inner turmoil, Xu Hanxia’s face was filled with a look of confusion, what was wrong with her?

On the other side, Green Shadow, who had just recovered from her injuries after eating the pills given by You Li, also had killing intent in her eyes.

This b*tch actually wanted to seduce brother Lin Mo, a thousand paper cranes appeared in Green Shadow’s hand.

A short small knife appeared in Lin Mo’s hand and said softly to Avis.

“Because of Gadre, I won’t kill you right away, instead I’ll hand you over to him, but I can still collect some interest.”

The small knife turned into a shadow of light and slashed across Avis's limbs, and instantly blood gushed out.

Lin Mo instantly appeared a short distance away so that the filthy blood would not spray onto the white clothes he had just changed into.

Avis let out a miserable scream there, as her limbs and hands and feet were all cut off by Lin Mo.

Avis was still a member of the royal family of the Wanxiang Kingdom, and could die in the court, but if she died at Lin Mo's hands, she would lose face in the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Lin Mo's eyes were no longer filled with Ai Weiwei, and he looked at You Li and said softly.

"You Li Mountain Master, this fellow will trouble you to have someone send her to Jiadrei's side later on."

You Li nodded, and a look of reluctance appeared on Green Shadow's face, as Lin Mo was leaving.

Lin Mo walked over to Xu Hanxia, gently took her palm and spoke.

"Half Xia, let's go back."

Xu Hanxia fiercely shook off Lin Mo's hand and glared at him, saying.

"I don't know you, why should I go with you."

On the side, You Li as well as Green Shadow cast a puzzled look, what was wrong with Xu Hanxia?

"When I found Halfsia, she didn't know anything anymore."

Lin Mo explained in the face of the duo's gazes.

His gaze then looked wistfully at Xu Hanxia.

Since Xu Hanxia was unwilling to go with him, he would have to use some special means.

Chapter 3156

"bd, you big bad egg, let go of me ah hey!"

On the road down the mountain, Xu Hanxia kept pounding Lin Mo's back, looking at the expressions of the oncoming disciples holding their laughter, her face was like a red apple.

At this moment, Xu Hanxia was being carried directly on top of Lin Mo's shoulders, her head drooping helplessly behind Lin Mo's back, occasionally nibbling on it with her own silver teeth.

"Hanxia, I've told you, my name is Lin Mo, I'm your husband, we have a marriage certificate."

Lin Mo looked at his drool-covered shoulder and helplessly looked at Xu Hanxia as he explained.

"I don't believe your words, you big bad egg, ow!"

With that, Xu Hanxia bit at Lin Mo's shoulder again with all her strength.

Laughing to death, she couldn't bite at all. At the bottom of the hill, Lin Mo took out the key from Xu Hanxia's waist and opened the door directly, and put Xu Hanxia in the passenger seat and thoughtfully got the seat belt on for her.

Suddenly, Lin Mo thought of the fact that he had not yet helped Mr. Medicine to finish the medicine garden.

Sure enough, fearing what would come, Mr. Medicine then quickly ran down the hill shouting hurriedly.

"Lin kid, don't run, old man's medicinal garden!"

"....."

At noon, in Mr. Pill's small courtyard.

Lin Mo was squatting on one side, and was bitterly exuding the spiritual energy within himself to irrigate Mr. Pill's herbs.

On the other hand, Mr. Medicine was sitting on the side carefully observing Xu Hanxia's symptoms, and asking a few questions every now and then.

"Do you have any impression of the old man?"

"No."

Xu Hanxia shook her head dumbly, she had only felt a great deal inside when she came into contact with that big bad man called Lin Mo until now.

"Then do you know who the little bugger crouching there is?"

Xu Hanxia nodded this time.

"His name is Lin Mo, he's a super unbeatable big bad, and supposedly still my husband, but I don't believe him."

Said Xu Hanxia, and subconsciously murmured according to her inner consciousness.

"My future husband must have the world's top medical skills, and have the most powerful martial arts, and be handsome."

Mr. Medicine suddenly froze, his gaze glancing at Lin Mo who was burying his head in his work across the room, if not for the fact that Xu Hanxia had indeed lost her memory.

He should have wondered if these two people were deliberately throwing dog food in front of him.

In terms of medical skills, even he himself was no match for this little monster Lin Mo.

In terms of strength, Zong Shi was already a task at the top of the world pyramid.

In looking at the face value, Lin Mo can be considered the top of the world as well.

Lin Mo's ears twitched as he crouched behind him, a smile surfaced on his face, his daughter-in-law was really himself inside.

Subsequently, Mr. Medicine measured for half a day, but also did not observe what was wrong with Xu Hanxia.

After a long time, Lin Mo looked at a courtyard of vibrant herbs, a gardener-like smile appeared on his face.

“Mr. Pill, the Youli Mountain Master is still shouting at me to help repair the Mountain Protection Formation, so I’ll leave first, so Hanxia can stay here for now.”

Lin Mo came to Mr. Pill and said, then also pointed at Xu Hanxia next to him.

“Big bad egg, why do I have to be here if you let me be here!”

Xu Hanxia’s small face puffed up as she heard Lin Mo’s arrangement and said in an exasperated voice.

“Be good, wait here for me to come back.”

As she watched Lin Mo’s departing figure, Xu Hanxia felt something flicker in her mind, but even if she tried harder to recall it, she couldn’t recall anything.

“You’re a big bad egg, it really is my

Xu Hanxia lowered her head and murmured as she looked at the ants not far away.

At the great mountain protection formation of the Basha divine Mountain, Lin Mo found You Li who was standing here.

“Mountain Master You Li, is there anything I can do to help?”

Lin Mo was still filled with guilt towards the Basha divine Mountain, after all, people were attacked by the Wanxiang Kingdom because of himself.

Even among the mausoleum of the Basha God Mountain, hundreds of brand new tombstones had been added.

Chapter 3157

A sly, wicked smile appeared on Yuli’s face, the human rechargeable treasure was in place and ready to begin.

The Realm Keeper came over from a short distance away, still in the same black robe plus hood.

A shimmering golden array disc appeared in Yuli’s hand.

“The programs inside are all set by the ancestors, we just need to inject a large amount of spiritual energy into it to make the Mountain Guardian Formation generate from new.”

Lin Mo’s face was dark, the spiritual energy he had just consumed at Mr. Pill’s place had not been replenished at the moment, and here we go again?

But it couldn’t be helped, who let himself owe someone a favour.

A vast ocean of spiritual energy erupted from Lin Mo's body and was continuously injected into the metal array plate.

You Li and the realm guardians also injected their own spiritual energy into their bodies one after another, and then they realised.

Not only was their own infusion not as thick and fast as Lin Mo's, but it was slow and thin.

At once, the two men, who were also considered among the world's top powerhouses, could not help but lower their faces, alas, shame on them.

Thus, Lin Mo went through three whole days, injecting aura into Mr. Medicine's herbs during the day.

At night, he spent his time with You Li and the others injecting aura into the great mountain protection formation.

In just three days, Lin Mo felt like his aura was constantly teetering on the brink of being emptied.

The morning of the fourth day.

Lin Mo was lying comfortably on top of a purely handmade recliner made of bamboo, enjoying the warm sun at midday.

Today both Mr. Pill and the great mountain protection formation of the Basha divine Mountain had been completed, so he could finally enjoy himself.

With his eyes closed in contemplation of the recent events, Jiadre had already organised his men to start retreating and burying the battlefield.

As for Xu Hanxia's injuries, neither Mr. Medicine nor Lin Mo had any idea yet.

Xu Hanxia's nerves and body were in perfect condition at the moment.

Even Lin Mo was beginning to wonder whether Xu Hanxia had really lost her memory from time to time.

But after thinking about Xu Hanxia's acting skills, if she was really faking it, Lin Mo and Mr. Medicine would probably be able to tell right away.

Yesterday, Lin Mo even suggested that he could not open a cranium to see.

At once, Xu Hanxia was so shocked that she almost stood up to beat Lin Mo to death.

"You kid really know how to enjoy yourself."

Mr. Medicine at this time dragged out a recliner of the same style and lay down on it and rocked.

"How are you getting on with that little girl Halfsia's injuries?"

Lin Mo replied helplessly as he basked in the sun.

"He doesn't have much trust in me, so I can't really knock him out and then open him up?"

"For now, I'm going to take her back to Panyang City this afternoon and rest for a while as well, and help him regain his memory in the process."

Mr. Pill nodded, for this kind of amnesia patient, the life on a regular basis would instead be the most effective in awakening her original memory.

“Your side didn’t say anything about you this time when it was such a big deal?”

Lin Mo shook his head, he knew what Mr. Medicine meant by that.

This war was the most tragic one in so many years, with 200,000 to 300,000 casualties, and the entire land beyond the borders was still pale red now, even after renovation.

What emboldened the international community the most was the sight of Lin Mo without his Lan Ling Ghost Face, simply wielding a Tai Ah as he rampaged through the battlefield.

Apparently they also did not expect that such a ruthless person would appear in China, who could already be called a ma*s murderer.

Some countries also issued announcements expressing their unilateral condemnation of China and its humanitarian evils.

In the face of these announcements, the Chinese Foreign Ministry did not give any face and held a press conference on the same day.

A stern statement was made about China’s humanitarianism and friendliness.

My country, China, is naturally full of humanitarian concern for friendly countries, but for those countries that do it every day to steal chickens and dogs.

If you dare to mess with me, your head will be knocked off.

Chapter 3158

Panyang City.

As the day approached dusk, Lin Mo finally rushed back from Bashar Divine Mountain with a reluctant Xu Hanxia in tow.

The bright lights of Panyang City, the traffic and colourful neon reflecting in Lin Mo’s eyes, made his heart, which had been tense, gradually relax.

The murderous aura that was still pervasive in Lin Mo’s body also gradually dissipated.

He was so handsome, with a smile in the corner of his eyes, that Xu Hanxia on the other side looked at him somewhat dumbfounded.

The SUV gradually stopped at the entrance of the villa Lin Mo had bought earlier.

Stepping down from the car, he came to the other side and gently opened the door for Xu Hanxia, and helped her loosen her seat belt.

“Aigoo, where are the two bumpkins from, they are also worthy of entering this high-cla*s villa community, don’t come from the countryside to visit relatives.”

At this time, a woman with revealing clothes, heavy make-up and earrings on her ears walked by the roadside, holding a taiitian in her hand, looking at Lin Mo and the two of them with an expression of waiting people on her face.

The man in a suit with a successful face next to the woman pulled the woman's arm and muttered next to her with a smile.

"Baby, don't let this kind of dirtbag dirty your eyes, take you to eat three Michelin stars tonight."

The man muttered with the woman while walking towards the front, and his eyes on Lin Mo gradually saw Xu Hanxia's face.

At once, the man who just had a disdainful face was startled in his heart and stopped in his tracks autonomously, looking at Xu Hanxia somewhat dumbfounded.

The man, who had just been disdainful, stopped in his tracks on his own and looked at Xu Hanxia somewhat dumbfounded. His delicate face, his white and red skin, his lips as thin as a cicada's wing, were now tightly pursed together, and a casual outfit set off Xu Hanxia's voluptuous figure.

The way the man in the suit stopped also attracted the attention of the woman on the side, hugging his arm and saying in a delicate voice.

"Honey, why don't you go, I can't wait."

The man silently used his hand to pull the woman's arm off and walked straight towards Xu Hanxia, Lin Mo was next to his eyes as if nothing was there in general.

"Miao Junhao, stop right there!"

The heavily made-up woman looked at the man walking towards Xu Hanxia and shouted from behind her.

A look of disgust appeared on the suit man's face as he coldly turned his head towards the woman and said.

"Wang Jinjin, let's both officially part ways from today."

Saying that, the man no longer paid any attention to the wildly spilling Wang Jinjin, but instead straightened his facial expression and walked towards Xu Hanxia.

"This beautiful lady, I wonder if I can invite you to lunch with me at the Michelin three stars."

Xu Hanxia looked at the man with greasy hair and a suit running in front of her, a feeling of disgust arose in her heart and she silently walked back a little.

"This gentleman, my wife does not want to have lunch with you, and please do not harass us here."

Miao Junhao's face instantly became incomparably ugly, as the young master of the Miao family, where did he go on a regular basis where others didn't give a face.

Now that he had actually been rejected by Xu Hanxia and Lin Mo jointly, a feeling of resentment naturally arose in his heart.

“Even a bumpkin like you deserves such a beautiful wife, it’s like a flower stuck in cow dung.”

Lin Mo looked at the furious Miao Junhao, a disdainful smile on his face as he spoke.

“It can’t be helped, my daughter-in-law would rather be stuck on a piece of cow dung like me than eat with a successful person like you!”

Lin Mo’s final four words of successful person were bitten hard, causing a look of anger to appear on Miao Junhao’s face.

“You will regret it, sooner or later I will make you watch your wife moan under me!”

Miao Junhao threw down vicious words intending to walk away, but Lin Mo’s face had gradually turned gloomy.

He was not a murderous man, and even if you P*ssed off Lin Mo on a regular basis, he would not take it personally as long as it was not a big deal, but if you draw fire to your family

The monstrous killing intent that had just dissipated emerged from Lin Mo’s body once again, and a voice like that of a stern ghost in purgatory rang out.

“Did I let you go!”

Chapter 3159

Miao Junhao turned his head, originally wanting to taunt Lin Mo did he still want to hit him, but instead, he was stared at by Lin Mo’s seemingly blood-coloured eyes.

At once, it was as if Miao Junhao felt that there were countless evil spirits behind this man lunging towards him.

“Pfft.”

This so-called young master of the Miao family instantly sat down on his buttocks with his legs going weak, and the top of his head was covered in dense cold sweat.

The corners of Lin Mo’s mouth hooked into a smile as he spoke.

“Aigoo, why are you sitting on the ground, get up, the ground is cold.”

Miao Junhao wanted to put out more vicious words, but then he thought of Lin Mo’s terrifying scene, and immediately gritted his teeth and walked towards the back.

Only to see Wang Jinjin still standing there, seeing Miao Junhao walking back with his head in the dust, he said with a mocking face.

“Young Miao actually even a woman.”

“Pop!”

A light sound, Miao Junhao directly slapped Wang Jinjin to the ground, a sinister look on his face, he was afraid of Lin Mo, was he still afraid of you, a smelly b*tch.

“Miao Junhao, you actually hit a weak woman like me, are you still a man!”

Wang Jinjin’s hissing voice caused the gloomy look on Miao Junhao’s face to deepen, and he directly took out his mobile phone and called the property’s number.

“There’s a person from outside the community running in front of the door of villa 602, you guys come and deal with it.”

In a villa area like this, which could easily cost tens of millions of dollars, the annual property fees alone would be in the tens of thousands of dollars, so the properties were all a group of burly young men.

Soon, a car with the word property written on it drove over, and several young men in uniform apologised to Miao Junhao.

“Sorry, honourable owner, it was our improper work that affected your living experience.”

The young men then walked over to Wang Jinjin, who was sitting on the ground with her head cloaked, and said.

“This lady, outsiders are forbidden to enter our small area, please leave now.”

“Who are you to evict me, I followed him in!”

Wang Jinjin pointed at Miao Junhao with a fierce face and yelled at the property.

“Excuse me Miss, this gentleman has expressed that he doesn’t know you, now please leave with us or we will call the police to take strong measures.”

This is the biggest difference between high end and mid to high end neighborhoods, if it was replaced by a mid-range neighborhood now it is estimated that the action will start directly.

Wang Jinjin, who was sitting on the ground, heard the word “police” and also had the feeling of being a bit stern.

Standing up slowly from the ground, Wang Jinjin rubbed his face, which he had spent a lot of money on, and then looked viciously at Miao Junhao and cursed.

“Just the kind of person you are, you are also equipped with a woman, bah, disgusting.”

After saying that, Wang Jinjin directly carried her bag and turned around, not at all like a woman who didn’t even have five hundred dollars.

Anger appeared in Miao Junhao’s eyes and he took out his mobile phone to send a message to a person named Brother Wolf.

Wang Jinjin, female, dressed in revealing clothes extremely Sl*tty, downtown villa area about to go out, stinky b*tch a, two hundred and fifty thousand.

Ding dong, a message appeared at the bottom, a reply from none other than the so-called Brother Wolf.

Good, she will be found in the river tomorrow morning, the money is still the same.

Looking at Brother Wolf's reply, a hint of ruthlessness flashed in Miao Junhao's eyes, a rotten b*tch actually dared to jump on his head.

Then he looked at the villa Xu Hanxia walked into, his eyes showed a greedy look, this kind of superb beauty, in his own must get!

Just out of the community Wang Jinjin at this time is looking through their new Apple thirteen promax eco-friendly green, open a WeChat group called the celebrity exchange group.

The avatars of everyone inside are all kinds of scantily clad beauties, and Wang Jinjin was about to type when a van quickly came from the rear.

"Wife, why are you still playing here, the baby is still at home crying with hunger."

A somewhat slim man stepped out, tugging Wang Jinjin by the wrist and dragging her directly into the van without waiting for her to resist.

The door of the van closed, just as Wang Jinjin's life had begun to count down.

Chapter 3160

Inside the villa, Xu Hanxia was sitting nervously in the living room, her fingers constantly rubbing the corners of her clothes.

The sound of rushing water in the bathroom was constantly reaching her ears, making her blush and blush, even muttering inwardly.

This big bad man is not going to do something humiliating later, is he?

It was only logical that I should be filled with fear and panic about the unknown!

Finally, the sound of the water in the bathroom finally stopped and Lin Mo's footsteps gradually approached, each step walking in Xu Hanxia's heart.

Finally, Lin Mo arrived in the living room and looked at Xu Hanxia, who was all restrained, and smiled gently, an impish smile on his lips.

"Wife, you should also go wash up, it's getting late, we both have to do our business later."

Lin Mo's words caused Xu Hanxia to freeze like a wooden chicken, foolishly twisting her head to look at Lin Mo, then her head seemed to be rising out of white smoke.

At this moment, Lin Mo only had two bath towels all over his body, one around his lower body and the other hanging directly around his neck, and then one hand grabbed the bath towel to wipe his wet hair.

Xu Hanxia's forehead directly touched Lin Mo's six-pack abs, and was bumped backwards a little.

Lin Mo's deliberate chewing of words caused something bad to surface inside Xu Hanxia's heart.

Looking at Xu Hanxia's dumbfounded look, Lin Mo stretched out his finger and flicked the top of her forehead.

“Half Xia, you’re thinking about something bad, right? The business I’m talking about is taking you out for dinner later.”

At once, Xu Hanxia’s little brain that had fallen into a jam recovered, and looking at the bad smile on Lin Mo’s face, she instantly understood that this guy was doing it on purpose.

“I’ll bite you to death, you big bad egg!”

Xu Hanxia directly bit on top of the finger that Lin Mo had just flicked his forehead with, still grinding it around.

Feeling the suction on his finger still slightly painful, Lin Mo looked at Xu Hanxia’s bulging face and swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

“If you’re like this, I don’t really think I can be a willow-like man.”

Lin Mo directly pressed himself against Xu Hanxia, propping up the sofa with one hand, their faces just a few centimeters apart.

Xu Hanxia looked at Lin Mo’s face, which was close at hand, and suddenly felt a sense of rejection within her heart, so she hurriedly pushed Lin Mo away and walked into the bathroom herself.

“Remember that the bath towels are in the cupboard on the left, along with your clothes.”

Lin Mo watched Xu Hanxia woefully flee into the bathroom, the smile on his face barely stopping.

He then took out his phone and opened the travel app to check what was interesting in Panyang.

Suddenly, something caught Lin Mo’s attention.

Panyang City Escape Room, the top escape room in Daqu Union, everyone who had played it said it was great.

Looking at the comments below, they were all positive.

“The plot is very healing, not scary at all, and the staff will thoughtfully show you the route.”

“I was quiet before playing this play, after playing this escape room I was full of confidence, he really cured my depression.”

“A very happy escape room, even people like me who walk by myself at night don’t feel scared, couples should definitely come and see it.”

Lin Mo looked at the various comments inside, basically all of them saying that the escape room was very healing and the staff was very warm.

Shouldn’t people who go to escape rooms be looking for excitement?

If it was really curative as well as bland, shouldn’t there be a lot of cursing below this?

Lin Mo was a little skeptical as he opened another software and searched for the name of this escape room, but the results were still clear and positive below.

“Am I behind the times after all?”
