Chapter 3291

Recommend this launch all over the internet like crazy.

As long as more people in the country can see it.

Then the hearts of the people, who were originally on tenterhooks and easily agitated, would gradually settle down.

The Ministry of Information of the Wanxiang Kingdom also sent a lot of watermen to spread the news on the Internet.

The launch soon became widely known.

“Did you know that the rebel Yu Huatian has been seriously injured by Lord Guo Zhu?”

A man walking above the street looked at the video on his phone and said to a friend beside him.

“I saw it too, and Lord Kunzhu also said that His Majesty Gadrei was not killed at all, it was a complete fabrication by those people.”

“I think so, I guess they are just trying to shake the hearts of the people of my Wanxiang Kingdom.”

On the other side, there was a barbecue restaurant.

The man who was jerking off with his friends suddenly saw the video pushed on his phone.

“Old Dog, Old Dog, stop drinking, look at your phone, our Wanxiang Kingdom has an additional Grand Master of the Kingdom!”

The man named Old Dog opened his phone’s browser.

The first one on it was Zhao Nan Yue in a strong suit.

“Hahahaha, it seems that my Wanxiang Country is really awesome, even the strongest of the Patriarchs have joined the country.”

The two men were also considered half countrymen.

For Zhao Nan Yue, the Zong Shi strongman who was known all over the world, that was like a thunderclap.

Seeing Zhao Nan Yue appear on top of the phone.

The original idea of switching to Maple Leaf country nationality immediately dissipated.

.....

“Your Highness, Lord Pillar State, Elder Zhao, the people’s emotions have now stabilized in droves.”

“Some have even thrown parties to celebrate Elder Zhao’s joining Wanxiang.”

The head guard half-kneeled in front of Fire Ina's body and reported word for word.

It was still the same one in the middle of the gazebo.

The three of them were sitting together discussing the affairs of state.

Fire Ina was only here as a decoration, and she listened to them even if she was serious.

But in the end, it was like listening to a book from heaven, she didn't understand anything.

She didn't even want to come, she just wanted to go back and hug her children.

But Lin Mo gave her some persuasion and education.

After all, without Fire Ina here, Lin Mo always had the feeling that he was holding the reins of the court.

Hearing the words of the head guard, Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction.

One of the reasons he had called out to Zhao Nan Yue was to use his reputation to calm the hearts of the people.

"Since the people have now settled down, what should we do next?"

Zhao Nan Yue's gaze looked at Lin Mo who was at the side.

Lin Mo pondered a little and spoke.

"The next step will be for you, Elder Zhao, to suppress those ministers and stabilise the court."

"Crown Princess Fire Ina is sitting firmly in the court with her fame."

"What about you?"

Zhao Nan Yue looked at Lin Mo on the side with a puzzled gaze.

He had set himself and Fire Ina down.

How come he didn't say what he was going to do?

A small smile appeared on Lin Mo's face as he said softly.

"I'm going back to the United Provinces tomorrow, so I'll leave it all to you here, Old Zhao."

Hearing Lin Mo's words, Zhao Nan Yue's face instantly turned black.

It felt like this bd brat wanted to run away on his own again!

Lin Mo harrumphed and didn't say anything more.

The biggest reason he had come to the Wanxiang Kingdom was to find his wife.

Now Lin Mo had already guessed that Xu Hanxia was doing well and had become much stronger.

He did not need to continue to worry.

On the other hand, there were still a lot of things waiting for Lin Mo to do in Da Qu Province.

The situation in the Wanxiang Kingdom had also stabilised.

As long as Zhao Nan Yue was here to hold the fort.

Then those ministers would definitely not dare to push the palace again with the pain they felt yesterday.

As long as the missing Jiadrei was found within this time.

Or if Jiadrei runs back on his own.

All of Wanxiang's hidden problems would be eliminated by themselves.

Chapter 3292

That night, Lin Mo rushed straight back to the Da Qiu Union overnight.

He carried the unconscious Crown Prince out from inside the pile of documents.

Even Lin Mo, the Patriarch, had a headache when he saw these documents.

Didn't Wang Laosan say that there wouldn't be so many documents after getting the main decisions of the Martial Alliance done?

Looking at the Crown Prince who was on the verge of foaming at the mouth, Lin Mo helplessly rubbed his brow.

He was such a good boy, but he had been driven silly by this pile of documents.

Putting the crown prince on the recliner, Lin Mo turned around and walked towards Wang Laosan's office.

The lights were on in Wang Laosan's office.

He was in the middle of a pile of papers, constantly making corrections.

Looking at the height and thickness of the papers, it was estimated that they were twice as tall as the Crown Prince's.

When Wang Laosan heard the door open, he said without raising his head.

"Just put the documents aside for now."

Lin Mo was inwardly moved, what a good comrade this was.

It was only five in the morning and he was working so hard, he would get a pay rise next year.

Seeing no sound for a long time, Wang Laosan looked up before realising it was Lin Mo.

"My Great Amba*sador Lin Zhenyue, you've gone out to enjoy the scenery, leaving me here to suffer!"

When he saw Lin Mo, Wang Laosan began to pour out his grievances frantically.

These days were exhausting for him, even though he had recruited several assistants under him.

But these documents were still too much.

Every day in Panyang City, there is a lot of momentum building up.

One day it was an empty field, the next it was circled up and started to build a master building.

Lin Mo harrumphed and rubbed his nose awkwardly.

He had agreed to help Wang Laosan reform Panyang City before, but he had ended up running away himself.

“But now, although it’s a bit tiring, everything is moving in a good direction.”

A satisfied smile appeared on Wang Laosan’s face.

The stifling he felt when he was previously hollowed out by the Yin family echoed in his mind at every moment.

His men had also started to cultivate talents, waiting for a few more days.

A few dozen specially trained men would take over the matter.

Wang Laosan would not have to be so exhausted by then.

“Which city does Ambassador Zhen Yue plan to go to next?”

Wang Laosan asked as he turned to Lin Mo.

Now that the city of Panyang had stabilised, Lin Mo could already take time out to leave.

And he wanted to go and thoroughly build up the Great Qu United Province.

He would definitely not be able to avoid travelling city by city.

Now that the Yin family was in the open, Lin Mo had no choice but to go to other cities.

It would be easier for Lin Mo to carry out operations in other cities.

Lin Mo’s gaze scanned the map of Daju Province on the wall of Wang Laosan’s office.

He wanted to find the next more suitable city.

After sweeping his eyes around, Lin Mo saw a place.

Hai Phong City, Hanoi Province.

The location of Hai Phong was halfway between Panyang City and Hoa San City.

If a series of partnerships could be reached with the Chamber of Commerce in Hai Phong.

Then go on to deepen the relationship between the three cities of Panyang, Hoa Son and Hai Phong.

It would create a positive atmosphere for the three cities to develop rapidly.

Wang Laosan followed Lin Mo's gaze and also saw Hai Fang City.

"I knew you would choose this place, Hai Fang City will be a little better overall than Panyang City before."

Wang Laosan took out a document from under the table and handed it to Lin Mo.

"The leading family in Hai Fang City is the Murong family, as long as we can get them to take the lead, then everything will be much easier to handle."

"And because of your previous battle record of overthrowing the Yin family and reforming Pan Yang, they should be very polite to you."

"Even when you offer to cooperate, everyone will agree in plain sight."

Wang Laosan methodically spoke for Lin Mo about the conditions he had analysed.

Lin Mo nodded and said softly, "I know what you mean. "

Chapter 3293

At seven o'clock, after the Crown Prince woke up in a daze, he was directly dragged up by Lin Mo.

"Crown Prince, I'm going to go over to Hai Fang City, do you want to go with me?"

Lin Mo's gaze looked towards the still somewhat dazed Crown Prince and handed a wet wipe over.

"Go go go, I'll go wherever boss goes!"

The crown prince nodded his head repeatedly, almost becoming a head nodding machine.

It couldn't be helped, it was really because these days in the city of Panyang people were being driven crazy by all those papers.

The prince would rather be killing on top of the battlefield than sitting there reading papers.

A smile appeared on Lin Mo's face, the crown prince was really the same as ever.

After thinking about it for a while, Lin Mo simply took the Crown Prince to Hai Fang City.

And tens of thousands of imperial troops Lin Mo explained that Di Yun led the now stationed in Pan Yang City.

.....

Hai Fang City.

The outskirts of the city, the residential area.

On the muddy road, the Crown Prince drove the SUV slowly.

The road was lined with all sorts of piles of rubbish, with foul-smelling sewage flowing over the ground.

The suffocating stench filled the nostrils of the Crown Prince as well as Lin Mo.

“Boss vomit, why do we have to go here?”

As soon as the crown prince opened his mouth to speak, he almost vomited outright.

Lin Mo’s face, however, did not change in the slightest, but kept observing both sides.

The low and dilapidated houses, the road that was still land.

As well as the rubbish that flowed with sewage and emitted a foul smell.

All of them represented how bad the place really was.

The somewhat pungent as well as pungent smell didn’t make Lin Mo’s face change much.

When the things you focus on are different, what your surroundings tell you is also different.

The prince hadn’t bothered to think about some things, so he would have found the stench in here unpleasant.

But the city of Panyang at the time was exactly the same as the environment here.

The small garden village where Yang Doguan’s mother lived was basically no different from here.

Some places on the outskirts of the city are enough to give a true picture of what a city is like.

A few children suddenly appeared on the road ahead, laughing and playing.

The prince hummed and honked his horn while the little kids were still chasing and playing on the road.

“Bears, boss, I’ll go down and tell them to go play aside.”

The prince was just about to go down when Lin Mo grabbed his arm.

Lin Mo shook his head gently at the crown prince and spoke.

“I’ll go down and take a look, you wait for me in the car.”

Lin Mo opened the car door and went straight to the few small children.

“Little children, what are you playing now?”

Lin Mo asked softly with a smile on his face as he crouched down in front of the children.

A tall boy wasn’t afraid of being a stranger and said directly to Lin Mo.

“Big brother, we’re playing police catching thieves.”

Lin Mo took out a few candies from his pocket and put them in his hand and said with a smile.

“How about this, big brother ask you a few questions, if you can tell me, big brother will give them to you, how about that?”

When the few little children saw the candies in Lin Mo’s hand, their eyes instantly blossomed.

“Big brother, just ask, we’ll tell you everything we know.”

“Good, then do you know why this road is not built as a concrete road?”

At Lin Mo’s question, a boy with a snotty nose raised his hand.

“I know, when that group of bad people ran to my house and said they wanted our family to take 100,000 yuan to build the road.”

“My dad said he didn’t have that much money, so they scolded my dad and then left.”

Lin Mo’s eyes narrowed slightly.

Things like building roads were usually funded by the city government.

And now that someone had actually come to ask the residents for money, it seemed like there were quite a few rats as well as a*sholes here again.

“And do you know why everyone’s rubbish is piled up here?”

A small palm was raised, this time by a little girl.

Chapter 3294

“Because the big bad guys were standing at the rubbish collection and they had to pay whenever they threw out their rubbish.”

“We didn’t have that much money, so we had to put it on both sides for now.”

After asking the two doubts within himself, Lin Mo stood up.

He distributed the candies in his hand to each of the children.

“Big brother, are you here to help us?”

The little girl who had answered Lin Mo’s question earlier suddenly asked Lin Mo.

Lin Mo’s face froze, but looking at the child’s innocent face, he gently stroked her head and said.

“That’s right, big brother is here to defeat the bad guys, when big brother defeats the bad guys, you won’t have to live like this.”

After turning around and returning to the car, the group of small children stood oddly on both sides of the road.

Perhaps it was because Lin Mo had given them candy.

Or maybe it was because Lin Mo had become a big hero inside them.

As the car started again, the prince looked at Lin Mo’s expressionless face and sighed inwardly.

The boss was worthy of being the boss, a few simple pieces of candy had sussed out the situation here.

No wonder he was the little brother, alas.

“Prince, go to Hearing Wind Pavilion.”

Lin Mo’s tone was flat, but those who were familiar with him knew.

Lin Mo was about to start plotting to make his move again.

Listen to the Wind Pavilion was the largest upscale hotel in Hai Fang City, and those who went in and out of it were basically wealthy people worth millions of dollars.

A simple dish inside might cost hundreds or thousands of dollars.

The mud-covered vehicle appeared in front of the door of the Hearing Wind Pavilion, and a porter quickly ran up.

“This gentleman, may I ask if you have a reservation?”

“My name is Lin Mo.”

The porter took out a book and flipped through it, and his face instantly fell in respect.

“So it’s Mr. Lin Mo, you may follow me.”

Lin Mo led the Crown Prince down from the car and handed the keys to the porter.

He then walked towards the inside of the Hearing Wind Pavilion under the leadership of another person.

Inside a luxurious box on the third floor, it was already filled with people at the moment.

They were all people in power from various families in Hai Fang City, and each of them was worth at least 100 million.

Sitting at the front was a middle-aged man named Murong Jianghe.

Although he was not the head of the Murong family, everyone’s heart understood.

The Murong family head, Murong Hai, had been in seclusion for over thirty years, and everything in the Murong family was under Murong Jianghe’s control.

When they thought of that domineering figure, everyone could not help but shiver.

Murong Hai was not just the head of the Murong family.

He was likewise the president of the Hai Fang City Martial Union.

If he hadn’t been in seclusion for more than 30 years, the city of Hai Fang would have changed a lot since then.

The crowd present had already waited for over an hour again.

But there was not a single trace of dissatisfaction on everyone’s surface.

Some of them even had a slight smile on their faces by now.

Lin Mo's prestige was now simply too far away.

Once the news of his upcoming visit to Hai Fang City came out, everyone was prying into Lin Mo's itinerary.

It was so that they could set up a banquet to entertain Lin Mo a little earlier.

Even the disciples at home were warned ruthlessly.

Anyone who dared to cause trouble outside these days would have their legs broken.

The head of Hua Xia's Zhangyue Envoys, Taishan Envoy, was already a position of high authority.

And Lin Mo had actually become the Pillar Minister of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

He shared the position with the king.

This also made these families attach even more importance to Lin Mo.

If another person had waited here for such a long time, it was estimated that the people in power of these families would have left long ago.

But at this moment, they could only sit here with smiles on their faces.

No one knew what Lin Mo's intentions were when he arrived in Hai Fang City this time.

If Lin Mo's brow was touched, the Yin family would be exterminated.

Decades of foundation would be ruined for nothing.

Chapter 3295

"Zee..."

The door to the room was pushed straight open and Lin Mo walked in with the Crown Prince.

When he saw the room full of people, a smile appeared on Lin Mo's face.

"I really didn't expect Lin Mo's arrival to be treated so grandly, I'm really grateful to everyone."

After seeing Lin Mo, Murong Jianghe, who was originally sitting next to the main seat at the front, stood up.

A strong look of compliment surfaced on his face as he opened his mouth and said.

"No, no, no, the fact that Amba*sador Zhen Yue could come to Hai Fang City can give us so much excitement that we can't sleep at night."

Murong Jianghe's words instantly struck a chord with everyone.

"That's right, I've heard a lot about Amba*sador Zhen Yue."

“We’ve been so excited these past few days that we can’t sleep, and we’ve been looking forward to Zhen Yue’s arrival every day.”

The room was suddenly filled with compliments.

It was true that they hadn’t slept well in the past few days.

They had been working hard overnight to get their family members to clean up all the dirty work they had done.

Even as soon as they fell asleep, they dreamt that Lin Mo was standing in front of them with a blood-dripping sword.

“Amba*sador Zhen Yue, please take your seat!”

With a smile on his face, Murong Jianghe led Lin Mo to the main seat.

The chair in the main seat was completely different from the chairs in the other seats.

It was also commonly known as the Tai Shi Chair.

Lin Mo didn’t push back, but sat down directly where he was.

“Someone, serve the food!”

In a short minute, a rather good looking waitress walked in.

In their hands was a plate of good delicacies.

Bird’s nest and shredded chicken soup, braised pig’s feet with sea cucumber, hibiscus egg, lotus flower soup

Dozens of famous dishes were served one by one, and the entire room was suddenly filled with the smell of wafting fragrance.

“Gentlemen, this time Mister Lin has come for one thing.”

One by one, the family rulers who were sitting upright did not move, but inwardly, they secretly said.

“Lin Mo is finally going to reveal his purpose.”

Lin Mo’s gaze swept around as he chuckled softly.

“Some of you here may have already guessed that I, Lin, have come here because I want to reach a cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce in Hai Fang City.”

“To exchange with Pan Yang and the Chamber of Commerce in Heshan City, so that we can all make progress and make money together.”

Just as Lin Mo’s words fell, Murong Jianghe, who was at the side, spoke with a smile.

“Since it is the request of the Zhen Yue amba*sador, then naturally we will not refuse, hahaha.”

Lin Mo’s face also revealed a smile as he raised his wine cup and said loudly.

“Good, since everyone is so generous, I, Lin Mo, will drink to everyone!”

After saying this, Lin Mo directly drank the 70-plus degree white wine in one go.

“Good, worthy of being the Amba*sador of Zhen Yue, a huge amount!”

“Not bad, my Liu family admires Amba*sador Zhen Yue.”

Lin Mo looked at the people in power who had smiles on their faces, but inwardly he did not feel the slightest bit of joy.

These guys would only have some slight credibility at the moment if they were to negotiate with Lin Mo with a difficult face instead.

Instead, they had agreed so easily at this moment.

There were even smiles all over their faces, and Lin Mo did not feel that his prestige was enough to really convince them.

The wine pa*sed three rounds and the food pa*sed five tastes.

A flushed look appeared on Lin Mo’s face and he somewhat drunkenly asked Murong Jianghe who was beside him.

“Murong Jianghe, I pa*sed a particularly smelly place on my way here, where is it going?”

Murong Jianghe opened his mouth as a glint of light flashed in his otherwise delirious eyes.

“Amba*sador Zhen Yue, that group of guys are a bunch of unruly people don’t need to be bothered.”

“The Wang family’s people are going to be driven mad by that group of unruly people”

Hearing Murong Jianghe’s words, Lin Mo smiled and nodded before continuing to go eat his food and drink.

However, his heart was incomparably sober.

The Wang family seemed to be the group of guys who came to the door asking for money as well as dumpster fees.

A cold colour flashed across Lin Mo’s eyes.

Chapter 3296

After the banquet, the drunken Lin Mo was helped on by the prince with the intention of leaving.

“Big brother, go to my Murong home to stay absolutely comfortable!”

Murong Jianghe, who had already drunk his tongue out, wobbled over and shouted at Lin Mo.

Lin Mo reluctantly lifted his head, all drunk, and said to Murong Jianghe.

“Second brother ah not go not go I fixed the hotel.”

Both men’s speech had already broken up.

After bidding farewell one by one with a group of family heads, the crown prince turned away with Lin Mo.

Just after returning to the car, the original redness as well as confusion on Lin Mo’s face quickly dissipated.

Just now, in order to get close to the family heads of those families, Lin Mo had acted a little drunk.

But how could a great clan master be drunk just because of some wine?

“Crown Prince, go straight to the outskirts of the city, I want to see which family’s power is so domineering.”

The prince nodded and drove towards the road the two had come from.

Among the boxes of the Hearing Wind Pavilion.

The family masters who were still all smiling suddenly turned cold after Lin Mo left.

Although they did not have Lin Mo’s strong physique and could not get drunk in a thousand gla*ses.

But how could they be affected by the slightest hint of drunkenness when they had been in the drinking scene all year round?

“A yellow-tongued kid, just a little lucky, and you dare to speak out here!”

A bald man stood up with a face full of anger.

Just now, when Lin Mo was here, he could only suppress the look of discontent within him.

And now, once Lin Mo had left, he popped right out to express his discontent.

“Oh, who says otherwise, coming up here and asking us to cooperate with him, if not for these two layers of status.”

An old man said quietly, with a look of anger on his face as well.

Just now when Lin Mo was there the smile on his face was about to coalesce into a chrysanthemum.

Now that Lin Mo was gone, he was also revealing his original face.

Apart from the two of them, the other family heads were silent, without the slightest thought of speaking up.

No one knew if there were any hearts in this for Lin Mo.

In case they opened their mouths, the other party would go directly to Lin Mo to inform him.

The bald man looked at the group of people who were silent and couldn’t help but coldly snort.

“A bunch of people are still putting their heads back when they’ve been beaten to their doorsteps!”

In the face of the bald man's taunts, everyone ignored him.

A brainless reckless man, what was the point of paying attention to him?

Everyone's eyes looked at Murong Jianghe, who was sitting at the front, waiting for him to say something.

Murong Jianghe's drunken appearance also quickly receded, sitting quietly at the very top, seeing everyone looking at him and speaking indifferently.

"No matter what you guys think, you better be honest on the surface, I don't care what happens in secret."

"I don't care what you use secretly, but at the same time I hope that everyone here won't go and tip off the others."

"If he doesn't even have the ability to fight this, then there is no need to cooperate."

After Murong Jianghe's words were finished, the crowd that had been silent spoke up one after another.

"My Zhao family agrees."

"The Qian family agrees."

All of the family heads all agreed.

It's fine if you guys want to go after Lin Mo to lay a hand on him, we won't get involved.

If that Lin Mo loses, so be it.

But if you guys lose, don't blame us for selling you out directly in front of him.

When he saw that everyone had agreed, a smile appeared on Murong Jianghe's face.

The current situation was considered very favorable to him.

He was also a rather xenophobic person yet.

The drunken chat with Lin Mo just now was nothing more than both of them constantly testing the waters.

And the things that the Wang family has done will be said out, but also just Murong Jianghe wants to see.

This Zhen Yue made the tactics up.

Chapter 3297

The rubbish station on the outskirts of Hai Fang City, Lin Mo came here with him.

"Throw out the rubbish ten dollars at a time, pay up and pay up!"

A strong man with a fierce face stood up from a recliner in the distance and shouted at Lin Mo.

Lin Mo didn't say anything, he just walked straight towards the refuse collection point.

"Old me said for you to pay, are you deaf?"

When the strong man saw that Lin Mo was still walking towards the refuse collection point, he became furious.

Directly picking up a baseball bat from the side, he walked towards Lin Mo.

When the prince behind Lin Mo saw how arrogant the strong man looked, he stopped walking.

He just stood in place and waited for the strong man to arrive.

"Ten dollars for throwing rubbish once, fifty for you, either pay up or get lost!"

The strong man arrived in front of the prince and waved the baseball bat in his own hand.

The Prince looked at the baseball bat that was waving around his head and a hint of disdain flashed in his eyes.

"Fifty, yeah, I'll give you that!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, the Prince grabbed the baseball bat in the strong man's hand.

He then kicked the strong man in the knee, while his arm directly held down the strong man's shoulder.

A look of shock flashed in the strong man's eyes, as if he did not understand how such a small man like the Prince could come up with such great strength.

"Don't you dare touch me, my brother-in-law is the young master of the Wang family!"

The prince's gaze narrowed slightly, then he kicked out, directly kicking the strong man out.

"Get as far away as you can, the next time I see you, it won't be as simple as a beating!"

The strong man got up from the ground, not caring about the superficial injuries on his body, and ran straight away towards the distance.

"Dog, I'm leaving this time, you wait for me to come back and break your legs!"

At this moment, Lin Mo had already arrived at the entrance of the refuse station.

It was all completely empty inside, there was no rubbish in the refuse station.

If the news of this got out, it would probably just be taken as a joke.

"Boss, that person let me beat him away."

The prince walked over and said to Lin Mo.

"From the Wang family?"

Hearing Lin Mo's words, the crown prince nodded his head.

"And heard him say that he was also the brother-in-law of the Wang Family's young master."

Lin Mo nodded gently, taking this matter to heart.

“Take another trip to the residential area.”

Lin Mo thought of those small children from before.

He himself hadn't wanted to care about anything too much.

But since he had stumbled upon them, there was no reason to sit back and do nothing.

What's more, Lin Mo had found a good talent for martial arts training in those children.

The main reason he came to Hai Fang City this time was for two purposes.

The first was to cooperate with the Hai Fang Chamber of Commerce and to promote exchanges and development between the three cities.

This one purpose was now considered half-completed.

There is definitely some reluctance in their hearts, but they cannot refuse openly due to their status.

So there will definitely be people making small moves in the shadows.

As long as one resists those small moves, the Chamber's cooperation will naturally go ahead.

As for not being able to resist Lin Mo had confidence in himself.

And the second purpose is to inspect the Martial Union, create a martial arts school and carry forward the martial arts.

The president of the Hai Fang City Martial Arts League is a martial arts nerd according to Wang Laosan's information.

And has been in seclusion for more than thirty years and has not yet come out of it.

And according to his status, he is also the head of the Murong family, Murong Jianghe's own brother.

After Murong Yunhai, the family head, had gone into seclusion, all the matters of the Murong family were being taken care of by Murong Jianghe.

Therefore, there was no difference between Murong Jianghe and the head of the Murong family.

It was just that there was still a Murong Hai who had been in seclusion for over thirty years.

Who was in control of the development of the Martial Union when its president had been in seclusion for so many years?

Looking at the situation, it should be a bit better than Wang Laosan's at that time.

Chapter 3298

As the vehicles moved on, the road also turned into a dirt track once again.

A familiar pungent smell came once again, causing the Prince's face to turn into a bitter gourd face in general.

As the car reached halfway down the road, Lin Mo once again saw the group of small children from the morning.

"Wow, it's big brother who's here!"

"Big brother, have you already defeated the bad guys?"

"Big brother, I went back to tell my mother today, she had to say that I had cheated, you have to testify for me!"

A group of small children saw Lin Mo step down from the car and immediately gathered around and chattered.

Lin Mo had a smile on his face and spoke gently to them.

"That's right, big brother has beaten the bad guys away, and from today onwards the rubbish will no longer have to be piled up on either side."

"Thank you big brother!"

"Big Brother is so good."

"My mother still doesn't believe me, I'll go back and tell her now."

The children scattered and ran off in all directions to go home and tell the adults the news.

Lin Mo's eyes gazed at the good seedling he had seen earlier.

The other little children had all run back, and he was the only one still standing there.

As if he saw Lin Mo's gaze looking, the little one sucked in a mouthful of snot and plucked up courage to say.

"Big brother, I want to be a man as powerful as you!"

Lin Mo lost his smile for a while, rubbed his little head and said.

"Why do you want to be as awesome as me?"

The little guy bowed his head in thought for a moment, then he raised his head and said aloud.

"I want to protect my mum from being bullied!"

Lin Mo looked at his eyes that were full of light, rubbed his cheeks and asked seriously.

"Do you really want to be just like me, even if you are not afraid of any hardship?"

The little guy nodded fiercely and looked at Lin Mo with a longing expression.

"Good, then I promise to teach you, but only if you go and meet your mother first and she agrees."

The little guy's face instantly revealed a strong joy as he spoke.

“Thank you big brother, my mother has always called me Little Black, it’s okay if you call me that too.”

Looking at the little fellow’s plain clothes, but filled with soulful eyes, his cute face was stained with a little dust.

A faint smile appeared on Lin Mo’s face, “Good, that’s what I’ll call you from now on, Little Black.”

Giving a gesture to the Crown Prince in the distance for him to find a place out of the way and wait for himself.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, followed Little Black as he walked among the curved houses.

Before a house that appeared slightly clean in front of the door, Little Black’s face showed a look of embarrassment.

“Big brother, this is my house, it’s a bit dirty inside, I’ll go in Little Black’s mood was a bit low, lowering his head and not daring to look at Lin Mo as he said to him.

Lin Mo placed one hand on the top of Little Black’s head and rubbed his silky hair.

“I don’t see any place dirty, what am I afraid of if you’re not afraid?”

Lin Mo’s warm words fell and he walked directly inside this somewhat old house.

When Little Black saw Lin Mo’s figure, a smile also appeared on his face and he quickly ran in front of him to lead the way.

In the middle of the small courtyard, a somewhat thin woman was sitting on a small chair, knitting a doll in her hands.

Seeing Little Black leading Lin Mo into the courtyard, she carefully placed the fellow in her hand to the side.

“Little Black, who is this?”

The woman looked at Lin Mo, who exuded a gentle aura, and asked Little Black.

Her senses told her that Lin Mo should not be a bad person.

And the smile that spread across Little Black’s face also confirmed this.

“Mom, this big brother is awesome, she beat away those big bad guys from the refuse collection point.”

Little Black ran to the thin woman’s body with glee and happily took her hand.

Chapter 3299

The thin woman’s face changed abruptly as she spoke to Lin Mo.

“This gentleman, you should leave quickly, that group of people won’t be kind. ”

Her tone carried a strong look of fear in it.

“Those people will probably come back soon, they are many, you’d better hurry up and leave.”

The skinny woman looked at Lin Mo’s dress and was definitely not from here.

Looking at Lin Mo who still had no intention of leaving, she once again spoke up and advised.

“Sister, no need to worry, those people definitely won’t come back.”

Lin Mo laughed lightly and shook his head at the skinny woman, comforting her.

As long as that Wang family wasn’t truly brainless, they wouldn’t continue to come and mess with themselves again.

“You alas.” The thin woman sighed and said in a somewhat bitter voice “Those people are all from the Wang family, and each one is ruthless.”

“Where are you from?”

The thin woman stopped talking about the Wang family and drew some water from the well.

Taking out a clean porcelain bowl and catching it, she handed it to Lin Mo with a smile on her face.

“Big brother, drink some water, there are not many cups at home, don’t mind.”

Lin Mo took the porcelain bowl directly from the skinny woman’s hand and laughed after drinking it all.

“It’s still this well water that’s sweet, those pure waters don’t taste anything.”

Lin Mo’s not at all disgusted caused a genuine smile to appear on the skinny woman’s face.

“Little Black, take this big brother to sit first, I’ll go fry some food, let’s eat here in one piece tonight.”

The thin woman turned around and was about to go to the kitchen on her right to fry some food.

“Big sister, no no, you don’t need to bother.”

Lin Mo directly called out to the skinny woman and spoke at the other party’s puzzled expression.

“Big sister, the main reason I’m here this time is to bring Little Black to train in martial arts, he is a good seedling for martial arts training.”

A look of hesitation appeared on the skinny woman’s face.

“Little brother, what kind of little brat is this in my family that I can’t know?”

“He was born into our family in this life, it’s his fate, I don’t expect Little Black to have any great future.”

“I, as a mother, just want him to stay close to home and find a better job to live out his life.”

With the thin woman’s words, Little Black, who had been so happy, gradually lowered his head.

He knew that his mother was rejecting his big brother.

“Are you worried that I am a liar?”

The thin woman shook her head, "No, your temperament as well as your actions are definitely that of a great man."

Although the skinny woman didn't know anything about reading people or anything like that.

But she felt that a young and handsome young man like Lin Mo, whose whole being was as good as water.

He was able to take the big bowl in his hand without the slightest hint of dislike or hesitation.

Such a persona must be something that only those great people could possess.

"Then why don't you agree to let Little Black follow me to learn?"

Lin Mo's long, slender eyebrows furrowed slightly as he looked at the thin woman in front of him.

There wasn't a parent who didn't want their son or daughter to become a dragon or a phoenix.

The thin woman gave Lin Mo the impression that although she was not well-read, she did understand people's wishes.

"It's not that I'm unwilling, but our family simply can't support the cost of Little Black's martial arts training."

The thin woman wrapped her arms around Xiaohei's body with some heartache.

There was a parent under this heaven who did not want their child's future to be brighter.

But her own body was too weak to do any too heavy work.

I can only earn money by doing some handicrafts to support the family.

The money she gets in return is just enough to keep mother and son alive.

Even though she had more yearnings in her heart, she did not dare to move a single thought.

Looking at Little Black's somewhat dejected look, the thin woman's heart also ached endlessly.

My child, it was mother's incompetence that allowed you to be born into a family that had nothing.

Chapter 3300

"You're worried about that, huh?"

Lin Mo looked at the thin woman's appearance and cursed that drinking had harmed her.

His usual self would surely be able to observe the woman's embarrassment at first.

Today, after drinking a little wine, he had thought that there would be nothing wrong with it, but he hadn't expected to make his observation somewhat flawed.

His body worked up his spiritual power, and a drop of liquid emitting a strong alcoholic aura was forced out by Lin Mo oh.

“Little Black mother, don’t worry, as long as Little Black follows me, other than that I still manage three meals a day.”

Hearing Lin Mo’s words, the thin woman shook inwardly and lifted her head incredulously.

Her eyes contained hot tears as she looked at Lin Mo’s figure and was directly about to kneel down on both knees.

“Big sister, there’s no need to do that!”

Lin Mo held the woman’s body with one hand.

“Our family has no way to repay your kindness, Little Black, kowtow to your benefactor.”

Little Black, who was standing at the side, immediately knelt straight down.

After three muffled sounds, his forehead was even seeping a little blood.

However, Little Black’s gaze was still very resolute.

He wanted to take his mother out of here.

He didn’t want to see that every time he saw his mother’s hand, her hand was a new wound.

“Big sister, if you don’t stand up I’ll go straight away.”

Looking at the thin woman who had to kneel downwards, Lin Mo spoke helplessly.

“You also get up, let you kowtow then, you don’t know the pain either.”

Lin Mo looked at Little Black and said in a good-natured manner, this guy, his forehead was oozing blood and he didn’t know how to wipe it.

“Fine, fine, I won’t kneel, you mustn’t leave.”

The skinny woman heard Lin Mo’s words and hurriedly stood up.

She wanted to take something to entertain Lin Mo, but found that there was nothing in the house that could entertain a guest.

She hurriedly took out a few crumpled pieces of paper money from her pocket and handed them to Xiaohei.

“Little Black, go and buy some bacon from back, don’t keep the teacher waiting.”

Little Black took all the family’s savings handed to him by his mother and nodded and ran out quickly.

Lin Mo looked at this scene inexplicably a little heartbroken, sighed did not stop.

If he didn’t accept the gift at all.

It was estimated that they would only feel unreal and would not have the slightest sense of security inside.

“Teacher, you do you sit.”

Lin Mo didn't bother to refute the woman's address.

Originally, he just thought that Little Black's talent was good and he could guide it a little.

But now Lin Mo had changed his mind, it wasn't impossible to take on a disciple.

"Mother, the bacon is bought back."

Little Black ran in carrying a somewhat small piece of bacon and handed it to his mother.

"Kneel down for the teacher."

Little Black's mother held the piece of bacon in her hand and said to Little Black with a serious face.

When Little Black heard his mother's words, he did not hesitate and once again knelt down to Lin Mo who was sitting on the stool.

"Little Black's mother, there is no need to be so"

"Teacher, can you even give me, as a mother, a psychological comfort?"

Looking at Little Black's mother's eyes, Lin Mo ended up looking at Little Black who was kneeling there with a serious face.

She knew exactly what the latter wanted.

It wasn't that Lin Mo didn't want to accept Little Black as his disciple.

He was already a spontaneous and kind person, and although these old-fashioned rituals were solemn, the child suffered.

"Kowtow to your teacher."

At Little Black's mother's voice, Little Black kowtowed straight down.

"Bang."

A muffled sound rang out, and Little Black's forehead, which was already slightly oozing with blood, directly broke the skin.

Blood slashed down the head and across his cheek.

"Teacher, please take it."

Little Black held up the small piece of bacon and handed it to Lin Mo with his head bowed.

Lin Mo took the piece of bacon, held it in his hand and looked at Little Black as he spoke.

"Little Black, from today onwards you are my disciple, Lin Mo's disciple."

"My disciple pays respects to my teacher!"
