

Genius 3371

Chapter 3371

The only sound in the silence of the cell was the turning of the key.

Even the atmosphere gradually became dull.

After the iron door was completely opened by Xu Wenqiang with an ear-piercing sound.

The blood-red eyes inside the cell became even more violent and bloody.

“Hahahaha, good disciple, come and unchain this mangled body for the master!”

Hanzou’s hoarse voice was filled with joy.

Xu Wenqiang walked straight into the cell and Xu Yi, the butler, played the lantern for him.

The glowing light lit up in the dark cell and illuminated Hanzo’s face.

His face was a little pale, but he was kind.

But on such a kind face were bloodshot, tyrannical eyes.

Xu Wenqiang inserted the key in his hand into the iron ropes on Hanzo’s limbs.

“Ka.”

A crisp sound rang out as the iron ropes that had bound Hanzo’s hands for decades finally fell.

Before Xu Wenqiang could make a move to open the rest of the iron ropes for him.

Hanzo’s dry palm directly grasped the iron locks on his ankles and gave them a direct squeeze.

The unbreakable iron cable just shattered under Hanzo’s strength.

He slowly stood up from the ground and stretched himself.

The atmosphere around him seemed to sink as Hanzo stood up again.

A roaring sound like fried beans rang out from all over Hanzo’s body.

Xu Wenqiang respectfully knelt down to Hanzo and after three knees and nine kowtows, he spoke.

“My disciple Xu Wenqiang pays respects to Master!”

A tyrannical smile appeared on Hanzo’s pale face as he walked up to Xu Wenqiang’s side and patted him on the shoulder.

“I, Hanzo, am a man of my word, from this day onwards you are the heir to my mantle.”

“Thank you, Master, for your esteem.”

Hanzo walked straight out the door, those scarlet eyes flashing with murderous intent, and said softly.

“Let’s go, let those fools outside know that old me is not dead yet.”

Behind Hanzo, Xu Wenqiang’s eyes flickered for a moment as he responded respectfully.

“Yes.”

At the entrance to the death row, several jailers standing guard were yawning.

“Who says otherwise, I really miss that widow at the east end of the city, that kind of taste .....

One of the jailers said, with a lingering look on his face.

“What’s so good about widows, if you ask me it’s the ones in the kilns that are more humane and know everything.”

A smile of I-know-what spread across the faces of the jailers.

Just as they wanted to continue their discussion, the iron door behind them suddenly burst open.

The huge iron door smashed hard across the street like a cannonball.

Several of the jailers felt the object that had just flashed by them and the iron door set into the opposite wall.

The eyes of several of them instantly dropped in horror, and each looked in panic at the dark passage behind them.

Out of the darkness, a figure stepped forward.

His dry palms rested somewhat uncomfortably on his forehead to shield himself from the sun.

“It’s that murderous demon Hanzo!”

“Go and inform the forbidden army, Hanzo has escaped!”

Several of the guards, their faces alarmed, scattered and fled.

If they had gathered together to escape it was likely that they would have been caught up and killed by Hanzo all together.

The few jailers’ fleeing figures caused a look of disdain to appear in Hanzo’s scarlet eyes.

“The old man hasn’t been out for decades, so he really thinks he can just run away at will.”

A bloodthirsty look appeared in Hanzo’s eyes as he casually snapped a branch from a tree off to the side.

“Buddha said that all things are colourless and invisible.”

A blood-red force wrapped the wooden stick in Hanzo’s hand and shot out.

The eyes of a fast fleeing jailer burst into a glare as a bright red wooden stick appeared in front of his chest.

The wooden stick erupted abruptly in the midst of the jailer's body, and the raging wooden spikes destroyed the jailer's body instantly.

Even the wooden thorns had penetrated through his body, leaving countless small, dense openings!

Chapter 3372

The remaining few warders' afterimages saw the miserable state of this colleague.

The fear within them intensified and they ran even faster.

The corners of Hanzo's mouth curled into a faint smile, and in the next instant.

He instantly appeared behind one of the jailers.

The dry palm of his hand grabbed the jailer's neck directly, and his powerful force lifted the other man.

The jailer's face was red and his vacant legs kept struggling as he slapped Hanzo's hands.

A sickly smile appeared on Hanzo's face.

The scarlet colour in his eyes grew even scarcer and deeper.

"Ka ....."

The teeth-grinding sound of cracking gradually rang out, and the smile on Hanzo's face grew even stronger.

"Bang."

The jailer's corpse was like rubbish as Hanzo threw it straight to the side.

The remaining jailer's face went white and his legs began to tremble as he staggered.

"Don't kill me, please don't kill me, I'm willing to be a cow for you!"

He looked at the rapidly approaching Hanzo, his feet kept pushing forward as his body backed away.

"Bare!"

Hanzo's palm plunged directly into his chest.

The jailer-prisoner's eyes, which had only fear in them, gradually lost their lustre.

Hanzo pulled his palm, stained red with blood, out, a look of satisfaction flashing in his eyes.

Xu Wenqiang, who followed silently behind him, as well as Xu Yi, stood behind Hanzo without a word.

"Wenqiang, remember."

Hanzou's flickering red eyes gave Wen Qiang a sidelong glance and said softly.

"In the future, you must listen when my master tells you to step back and stay away ....."

Wen Qiang nodded and responded, "My disciple remembers."

Hanzo's withered figure turned around, his lips slightly opened and spoke.

"Let's go."

Xu Wenqiang gave a wink towards Xu Yi, whose eyes were full of caution towards Hanzou, who was beside him.

The latter hurriedly took out his mobile phone and made a call.

A black car came whistling from the other end.

.....

On the sea behind the Wanxiang King's capital.

Wen Qiang stood on top of the deck, feeling the sea breeze and gently opened his hands.

The feeling of freedom made him a little overwhelmed.

"I remember that all this sea is the exclusive sea of the royal family and no ships are allowed to enter, right?"

Wen Qiang's gaze looked to Xu Yi on the side, his tone was inquisitive.

"Young Master Wen Qiang, we borrowed the cargo transport vessel of Xia Mo Morning Tea, which is the vessel of Lin Mo's mother Fang Hui's group."

"When the navy of the Wanxiang Kingdom sees it, it will automatically release it."

Xu Yi responded respectfully to Wen Qiang.

He had already investigated what Wen Qiang had done in these days in the Wanxiang Kingdom.

First, he had become the most highly regarded military advisor under the Grand Prince, and later he had successfully defected to Jiadre who had become king.

He even became the commanding officer of the Black Vulture Organisation, the most domineering and rampant organisation in the Wanxiang Kingdom before.

Wen Qiang's abilities had gradually led Xu Yi's heart to speculate.

Once this young master returned to the Xu family in the capital, he was bound to be lifted by the old master.

The other young masters in the Xu family by then would not be worth anything before Wen Qiang's wrist.

One had to show one's attitude first to be good.

Wen Qiang's eyes flickered for a moment and he said softly to Xu Yi.

"Can you tell me a bit about the route map for the voyage?"

“Naturally.”

Xu Yi took a map of the Wanxiang Kingdom and the waters of the Great Qu United Province from the side.

“The location we are in now is here, Young Master Wen Qiang you know about the Sabah Divine Mountain, right?”

Wen Qiang nodded, not only did he know about the Sabah Divine Mountain, he had even followed the Grand Prince to fight it back then.

“We are now heading towards the Shaba Divine Mountain, after we reach the Bashar Divine Mountain.”

“Then we will follow the Bali Sea behind Sabah Divine Mountain into the waters of Da Quyen United Province and finally reach the high seas of China.”

Wen Qiang’s gaze followed Xu Yi’s finger as it continued to advance, while his mind continued to ponder.

“Wait!”

Chapter 3373

Wen Qiang’s voice caused Xu Yi to freeze.

He lifted his head, his eyes fixed on Xu Yi, and said quickly.

“Go back, we won’t go back to China first.”

An extremely strong light shone in Wen Qiang’s eyes.

He had come up with a very good idea.

An idea that was good enough to completely knock Lin Mo into the Endless Abyss!

Xu Yi’s face revealed a look of difficulty as he said to Wen Qiang.

“Young Master Wen Qiang, this is not appropriate, the master said that you should return to China the first time you come out.”

Xu Yi’s words did not cause Wen Qiang to waver in the slightest.

His gaze remained firm and he said with determination.

“Don’t worry, if the old man smells up you can just say it was all my idea.”

Wen Qiang’s words caused a look of hesitation to appear on the butler’s face.

When Master Xu had sent him here, he had said that he must let Wen Qiang return safely to his country first.

But the thought that now was the best time to express goodwill to Wen Qiang.

“Okay.”

Xu Yi eventually agreed and told the fleet to make the return voyage.

“Don’t go to the royal capital, find a place with a harbour first.”

The few people were in just a small fleet of three ships.

The navy of the Wanxiang Kingdom didn’t say much about their change of course.

A frenzied look appeared on Wen Qiang’s face as he walked into the cabin.

As long as this plan of his was successful, then Lin Mo would definitely be defeated.

“I need all the information on the current situation.”

Wen Qiang’s gaze flickered for a moment as he instructed Xu Yi, who was at one side.

Soon, a piece of paper appeared on top of Xu Wenqiang’s desk.

It was the information Xu Ming had sent back from where he was in Panyang City earlier.

“Lei Family Lei Shao Ting, daughter of the Earl of Maple Leaf Country Ziobilo ……”

Xu Wenqiang held the piece of information and muttered under his breath.

His mind was constantly doing calculations and the feasibility of his plan.

Although he didn’t know much about the Lei family, he heard Xu Yi say that it was not comparable to the Xu family’s power.

It should be possible to proceed as a part of the plan as well.

“Xu Yi, immediately after we dock you send someone to find some mouthy people.”

“Finally reveal one thing carelessly in front of them.”

Xu Wenqiang’s somewhat agitated look caused Xu Yi’s face to look puzzled, but he still showed understanding.

“Young Master Wenqiang, I wonder if the rumour to be spread is?”

Xu Yi asked Xu Wenqiang in a soft voice.

A mysterious smile appeared on Xu Wenqiang’s face as he took a pen.

He kept writing something on the white paper Xu Yi brought.

Finally, after writing all the way through a sheet of paper, Xu Wenqiang finally had a satisfied look on his face.

He handed the white paper in his hand to Xu Yi and instructed in a deep voice.

“Have that brother of mine go and negotiate with Lei Shaoting of the Lei family and that Count’s daughter Ziobilo.”

“Make sure that they promise to help us with all their might, or else we will simply abandon our offensive alliance with them.”

“All this, must be done quickly, and tell my grandfather to use the power of the entire family against Lin Mo.”

“Carry out all the economic as well as all the restrictive blockades that can be done.”

“And contact all the other forces that have enemies with Lin Mo, all that can be pulled in.”

A ruthless look appeared within Wen Qiang’s gaze.

Since he was going to make all-out efforts to destroy Lin Mo, then let him not be able to make any waves.

Gather the power of all Lin Mo’s rival forces and completely slap this fellow Lin Mo to death.

A heavenly game was quickly being constructed under Wen Qiang’s planning.

It was a killing game, as long as it succeeded.

No matter who was behind Lin Mo.

Even if the Grand Elder of the Martial Union stepped in, he would be completely unable to protect Lin Mo.

Xu Yi took the white paper handed to him by Xu Wenqiang and took a glance at it.

His pupils jolted and a look of incredulity appeared in his eyes.

The white paper in his hand also nearly all but slipped out of his hands.

“This is a shocking situation!”

Chapter 3374

Xu Ming in Panyang City also received a call from Xu Yi.

“What did you say!”

Xu Ming’s face showed a look of surprise, followed by a look of anger.

“You told me to contact Lei Shao Ting and the others, and even had the threat of withdrawing from the alliance?”

“A stray b*****d son is also paired with me to tell me what to do.”

“Housekeeper Xu Yi, have you lost your head because of the unconventional water in the Wanxiang Kingdom?”

Xu Ming’s tone quickly went cold, and his words even revealed a vague murderous aura.

There was no telling if the old man was getting old and his brain had gone bad.

Even if he had let himself run so far from China to a sh*tty place like Pan Yang.

He had to sacrifice his face to ask Fang Hui for help.

To save an illegitimate son of the Xu family who had strayed away from home?

For a family as big as the Xu family, there were many illegitimate sons who had strayed away.

Now that b*****d son that he had managed to save was actually telling him what to do.

A strand of killing intent emerged in Xu Ming's eyes.

If that b*****d was really so arrogant, then Xu Ming did not mind going back and arranging for someone to kill him directly.

Let him know that he had the ability to bring him back.

Then he would definitely have the ability to kill him.

On top of the ship, Xu Yi looked at the phone that had been hung up directly in his hand.

A look of helplessness flashed in his eyes.

Just like this how can you still go and fight with others Xu Wenqiang.

You don't even ask what happened and the reason why you did it.

In desperation, Xu Yi took his mobile phone and called Old Master Xu who was far away in Kyoto, China.

"Old Master, I ....."

Xu Yi was just about to speak when Elder Xu's pale voice rang out.

"No need to say anything, I know all about it, you cooperate with Wen Qiang with all your might."

"Has Xu Ming's side been informed?"

"I called Young Master Xu Ming just now, but he seems to be in a very bad mood."

"He hung up the phone straight away, I was looking for a moment to dial Young Master Xu Ming again."

Xu Yi didn't bother to say that Xu Ming had rejected the matter straight away.

He was Master Xu's butler and his attitude could not be biased in any way.

The old master could not have a butler by his side who had any favouritism in his attitude.

Once it became known that his attitude showed favouritism, the others would not let him live.

"Hmph, b*****d, all he knows every day is to be arrogant and domineering without thinking."

"I will go and deal with Xu Ming, you protect young master Wen Qiang well."

"Even if Wen Qiang has to die, you have to die before Wen Qiang, do you understand?"

"Understood."

Although the butler was on the phone, his body was still in a respectful state.

He had been a butler in the Xu family for more than ten years and had been able to survive until now.

It was because of his own attitude of always being neutral and never taking sides.

What's more .....

His own family was still in the Xu family, and if he had any second thoughts, his family would be doomed.

.....

Xu Ming, who had just hung up the phone, threw the phone to the side with an annoyed face.

He then grabbed the girl standing by and held her down fiercely.

This is a school girl that he found inside a university in Panyang City.

The other party saw that he was generous with his money and was also from the Xu family of China after.

She was directly taken down by Xu Ming.

How arrogant she was inside the school, how well behaved she was under Xu Ming's body.

Xu Ming's viciously tore at the girl's clothes, he was now very annoyed.

"Mmmm ah – Xu Shao you slow down, you're hurting me."

The girl being held down by Xu Ming let out a cry of pain from Xu Ming's tyrannical methods.

"b*tch, you had a lot of guys chasing you at school back then, didn't you?"

Just as Xu Ming reached down towards the girl's body, the phone he had tossed aside earlier rang again.

The anger on Xu Ming's face became even more furious.

"I've said I won't say yes, do you want to die!"

Chapter 3375

Nor did he look to see who was actually calling.

Xu Ming picked up straight away and intoned the other end of the phone with a grumpy roar.

"b*****d!"

An old voice rang out from the other end of the phone, with a strong tone of anger in its voice.

Xu Ming's face turned steeply white.

The voice was his own grandfather's.

“Grandpa, I .....

Xu Ming just wanted to open his mouth to explain something, but Elder Xu didn't give him any chance at all.

“Do everything exactly as Xu Yi said, or else you will leave the Xu family when you return.”

“Go to the Northern Realm to develop the family and add to the family!”

Elder Xu's tone was filled with an icy coldness, and then he simply hung up the phone.

Xu Ming sat on his butt and fell to the ground, his face white, without a trace of blood.

His own grandfather had actually said the words that he should leave the Xu family.

How could Xu Ming not know what it meant once he left the Xu family.

He himself would completely lose the right to fight for the position of family head.

He might even be reduced to the same level as that old man Xu Jiangong.

“Xu Shao, keep coming .....

“Come your mother, get lost!”

The girl lying on the bed had dazzling eyes and wanted to continue seducing Xu Ming.

At this moment, where is Xu Ming in the mood to get these things, directly violently roared at the girls.

Xu Ming sat on top of the ground, his eyes turning from the original disbelief to a look of resentment.

It must have been him who compelled his grandfather!

“Looks like I've let a rival out this time!”

Xu Ming shook his teeth.

He vowed that if he had the chance, he would kill that fellow.

Although he was very annoyed with that brother, Xu Ming could not disobey the old man's orders.

Taking out his mobile phone and dialing Lei Shao Ting's number, Xu Ming said in a cold voice.

“Come to Pan Yang Hotel 603, there is something that needs to be discussed, now immediately!”

Xu Ming's words caused Lei ShaoTing on the other side to be somewhat confused, but he still responded quickly.

“Good.”

Xu Ming called Ziobiero again and spoke the exact same words.

Ten minutes later, Xu Ming heard a knock on the front door.

When he opened it he saw Lei Shao-Ting as well as Ziobiero's figure.

“Xu Ming, what’s happened?”

Lei ShaoTing, who still had some sweat on top of his forehead, asked Xu Ming directly.

“Come in and talk.”

Xu Ming looked away to the two sides, indicating that there were many people here.

Lei Shaoting’s eyes aside, what was it that made Xu Ming so anxious.

Ziobilo, on the other hand, walked in quietly behind Lei Shao-Ting.

Ever since she had exchanged identities with Xu Ming that day, she had rarely spoken.

Xu Ming led the two to the living room before sitting down with a serious face.

“I need your full assistance now.”

Lei ShaoTing’s as well as Ziobiero’s brows furrowed as they looked at Xu Ming with suspicion in their eyes.

“Are you sure you’re not amusing us?”

Xu Ming nodded seriously and spoke.

“I don’t know what needs to be done for the time being either, but we must prepare all, just know that it is to kill Lin Mo.”

“And, I need you to contact the people behind you and ask them to use their full power as well.”

“This time, our Xu family will use all of our power.”

A look of shock surfaced in Lei ShaoTing’s eyes.

The Xu Family was also a big clan in China, and now they were using all their power .....

Lei ShaoTing pondered for a moment and said seriously.

“I will use all of my power, as for the Lei family, I may not be able to talk my way out of it.”

“I will also use all of my power, but it may be limited.”

“All of my power is within the Maple Leaf country.”

Xu Ming nodded and said in a heavy tone.

“It doesn’t matter, you just need all the forces under you to be ready.”

“Lin Mo will ..... die this time! “

Chapter 3376

The original Wanxiang country, which had been gradually stabilized by Zhao Nan Yue’s addition of Lin Mo’s weibo, is now once again in turmoil.

At this moment, the dark tide once again surged.

The people of the Wanxiang Kingdom did not know when the rumour started to spread.

The reason for this is that Lin Mo, the Minister of the Pillar State, did not really destroy the night vine at all.

The reason why he had banned the cultivation of Night Mantle in the open was only for profit.

In order to keep the property rights of the night vine in his own hands.

And through his position, he was able to quietly transport the night vetch out of the Wanxiang Kingdom for violence.

There were crowds of people everywhere in the streets of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

“I’ve heard that rumours have been circulating recently that Pillar Minister Lin Mo and the Patriarch of the State have hoodwinked Princess Fire Ina.”

“Smuggling night vetch through their own authority, do you think it’s true?”

A young girl was discussing in a whisper with her bestie.

Her bestie frowned gently, scanned her gaze from side to side, and said to her with a solemn face.

“I whisper to you that all of this is true, and that the Princess Fireyina is now under house arrest in the royal palace.”

“That Patriarch of the Kingdom is also a minion of the Minister of the Pillar Kingdom, and the entire Wanxiang Kingdom is now under their manipulation.”

“That can’t be right .....”

The young girl’s face showed a look of incredulity after hearing her best friend’s words.

In his perception, Pillar Minister Lin Mo as well as State Patriarch Zhao Nan Yue were both good people.

Even the enquiry just now only charged wanting to hear his bestie’s opinion.

“Why not, that Lin Mo and Zhao Nan Yue are two superb villains!”

Seeing that the little girl actually looked like she couldn’t believe it, her best friend hurriedly said loudly.

The gazes of the adults around were also attracted by BFF’s loud voice.

Seeing so many people’s gazes around on her, BFF’s heart was in a panic.

But along with this panic was a strong feeling of wanting to express herself.

She raised her head and chest as if she were performing some sacred ritual and said aloud.

“All these things were told to me by my third aunt’s son inside the kingdom itself!”

“He told us himself that that Lin Mo and Zhao Nan Yue were both big villains and had imprisoned Crown Princess Fire Ina!”

The bestie's words caused the beating around them to discuss uncontrollably.

"Children shouldn't be lying, and they say it with such conviction."

"But the Pillar Minister has the trust of His Majesty Gadrei, and Princess Fireyina trusted him at that conference."

"Do you think His Majesty Gadrei could have just been a*sa*inated after he was done using him?"

"No way, it feels like the Lord Pillar Minister is so kind and does not look like a rebel."

"Who knows what kind of man he really is, when you know people."

The voice of her best friend threw the adults into deep suspicion as well.

After all, how could such a small child look like he would lie to people?

Seeing the incredulous looks of the adults around him, a look of satisfaction appeared on BFF's face.

These were simply the words he had heard from a madman.

As for why he said such an interface as a third aunt's son.

It was to convince this group of people that he was not lying at all.

Such a scene was rapidly fermenting in every corner of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Those people got the news from all sorts of strange sources.

What relatives were on duty in the palace?

A neighbour's husband was a guard in the palace.

Some even said that he was the boyfriend of Princess Firenze's lady-in-waiting.

The princess was now in tears and under house arrest in the harem.

Such news flew around all parts of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Even though they were somewhat half-hearted, some people still believed it to be true!

Chapter 3377

Within the royal palace.

Zhao Nan Yue, who was sitting in the lower right side of the study, heard the guard's report.

His face was a little gloomy and his brows were slightly furrowed.

As a Patriarch, Zhao Nan Yue was not only powerful, but also politically sensitive.

In just ten days, the entire Wanxiang Kingdom had been governed by him in a submissive manner.

Those ministers were all honest, fearing Zhao Nan Yue's big stick with sweet dates.

But this rumour seemed to Zhao Nan Yue as if it had been premeditated.

It had just erupted into a tsunami.

And once he started to use his power to suppress it now.

The entire Wanxiang Kingdom would be rumoured to have been poked by these rumours tomorrow.

This is the reason why they are sending out their power to suppress those rumours, after all, the clearer the better.

If you didn't do those things, then why are you suppressing them?

The rumours have spread rapidly throughout the country.

Zhao Nan Yue's face showed a headache.

Lin Mo had thrown all the mess to himself, an old man, while he himself ran back to Da Qu.

"Have everyone at the Black Eagle Terrace go out in full force to investigate where those rumours are coming from."

"If the source is found, directly have someone secretly ask some questions with a big stick and sweet dates, and have them sign a confidentiality agreement."

"As for the consequences of violating it ....."

Zhao Nan Yue pondered for a moment, the result of this violation is actually not good to set.

You set it too hard, if it's a straightforward capital offence.

There might be a lot of people signing the confidentiality agreement, and then they all violate it.

Can the Wanxiang Kingdom still kill everyone?

If you make it too light, it will make their hearts despise the contract.

"Just violate it after each person needs to compensate the Wanxiang State five million, if they are rich ....."

"Just straight up fifty million, and so on, drawn up according to the situation."

"Yes."

After hearing Zhao Nan Yue's words, the guards nodded and retreated out.

The only scene left in the main hall was Zhao Nan Yue's headache.

In the Thousand Walled Villages, the various fortress masters who had heard the news circulating in the Wanxiang Kingdom had gathered together.

They also wanted to know if the news was really true.

If it was true, who was secretly helping Lin Mo to grow the night vine.

“Ruo A-Gong, now the whole Wanxiang Kingdom is in an uproar, is there anyone from our Thousand Walled Villages secretly doing so or not?”

A fortress lord inquired to the old man standing in the very centre.

Although his tone was very eager, he was very respectful.

This was because the old man in front of him was the last of the previous generation of the Thousand Villages who was still alive.

The words of this Walled Village Master also evoked a resonant voice from all the other Walled Village Masters.

“Yes Ruoagong, if someone has quietly planted the night vine gra*s just come forward.”

“A man should stand up to the sky, if he dares to do something, he should dare to do it.”

“That’s right, no wind, no waves, could all these things really be made up by someone else?”

“It’s possible that inside the herbs that are shipped out every day as well as the food, there will be someone hiding the night vine herb.”

The voices of the people arguing around them made Ruo A Gong, who was standing in the very centre holding a walking stick, look bitter and not say a word.

It was only after everyone had suddenly fallen silent, one by two, that he slowly opened his mouth and said in a deep voice.

“One by two have finished, is it my turn to speak as an old man?”

Ruo A-Gong’s words caused everyone to fall silent, each one lowering their heads in silence.

Ruo A-Gong’s gaze swept round, his tone tinged with sadness.

“The reason why my Thousand Walled Villages are called Thousand Walled Villages is because of the Thousand Walled Villages, which are united by the same breath!”

“Look at yourselves now and be suspicious of everyone!”

“Who has planted the night vine, come out yourself.”

If Agong finally smiled when he saw that no one had come out.

“Good, you are all good men and women of my Thousand Villages, but I hope.”

“No one from Thousand Villas will be caught planting Night Vine after that!”

Chapter 3378

“Boss, it seems like someone has been following us.”

On the SUV, the Prince who was concentrating on driving had a change of expression and said to Lin Mo who was at the side.

Lin Mo's afterglow also looked at the black car behind him and asked in a soft voice.

"How long has it been following us?"

A thoughtful look flashed across the prince's eyes before he finally replied.

"It seems to have appeared once it entered the confines of Panyang City."

Just as the Crown Prince was puzzled, a sign suddenly lit up on the car next to him.

"Lord Zhen Yue, go to the Martial Union at once!"

Lin Mo's eyebrows lifted slightly, someone from the Martial Alliance?

Why didn't Wang Laosan contact himself directly?

Suddenly, Lin Mo saw his mobile phone that had been placed aside and switched off long ago.

A flash of clarity passed through his eyes, no wonder Wang Laosan was using human calls.

"Crown Prince, go directly to the Martial Union."

The prince nodded and directly changed his direction to drive towards the Martial Union.

Just after arriving at the Martial Union, Lin Mo saw Wang Laosan who was waiting at the entrance with an anxious face.

Upon seeing Lin Mo, Wang Laosan hurriedly came up with a bitter smile on his face and said.

"My Lord Zhen Yue, if you don't come back I'll have to go look for you."

"What's happened?"

Lin Mo looked at Wang Laosan with some surprise, wondering what could have caused the other party to be so sorrowful.

"This ..... alas, you can see for yourself."

Wang Laosan directly grabbed Lin Mo's wrist and led him towards the inside of the Martial Union.

When walking to the parlour, Lin Mo directly faintly stared.

"Dad, why are you here?"

Xu Jiangong was lying quietly on top of the floor at the side of the parlour, holding a quilt.

After hearing Lin Mo's voice he directly jumped up in excitement.

"Lin Mo, you've finally come back!"

"Dad, why are you who's here, where's my mother?"

Lin Mo's words caused bitterness to well up on Xu Jiangong's face only to dare.

"Lin Mo, tell me, do you have another woman outside or not!"

Xu Jiangong grabbed Lin Mo's arm, his eyes locked with Lin Mo's, waiting for his answer.

A look of suspicion appeared on Lin Mo's face as he said to Xu Jiangong.

"Dad, what are you talking about, I have only been attracted to Hanxia alone from the beginning to the end."

"If I have any lies, heaven and earth, man and god will be punished together!"

Lin Mo's words caused Xu Jiangong to let out a sigh of relief and pat his chest.

"A woman suddenly came to our house and said something about you being her husband."

"You know that nature of your mother, she directly believed the other party's words."

"Even, when the Xu family came and wanted to acquire Xia Mo's morning tea, your mother actually agreed to it!"

Xu Jiangong's words caused Lin Mo's daily could not help but gently wrinkle.

The other party was definitely not the kind of person who wanted to cheat a sum of money, so she had only one purpose.

It was to come and stir up his family.

A cold aura flashed across Lin Mo's eyes before he said to Xu Jian Gong.

"Dad, go back and tell mum that these are simply things that aren't there."

"If she doesn't believe me wait for me to go back and confront her directly, and always remember, don't let that woman get away."

Xu Jiangong nodded in a hurry and asked again.

"Then what about the Xu family's acquisition of Xia Mo's morning tea?"

Lin Mo's gaze looked towards Wang Laosan as he opened his mouth and instructed.

"Temporarily close all airports in Panyang City as well as all high speed trains against the Xu family and forbid anyone from the Xu family from going out."

"Dad, you go back and pacify mum first, I'll be there as soon as I'm done with these matters."

Xu Jiangong nodded and walked quickly towards the outside, not even bothering with the quilt on the ground.

After being targeted by Fang Hui's words for so many days, he was finally able to raise his head and exhale.

It was only after Xu Jiangong left that Wang Laosan also breathed a sigh of relief and said to Lin Mo.

"Lin Mo, just a moment ago Elder Zhao came with a message saying he was looking for you."

Chapter 3379

“Elder Zhao looking for me? I know.”

Lin Mo picked up the Crown Prince’s mobile phone and dialed Zhao Nan Yue.

The call was quickly answered, and Zhao Nan Yue’s voice came through.

“That one?”

This was Zhao Nan Yue’s personal number, those who could have this were usually close to their own people.

“Elder Zhao, this is Lin Mo.”

“Lin Mo brat, you’ve finally appeared!”

Zhao Nan Yue’s tone carried some of the anger of an old codger in it.

A bitter smile appeared on Lin Mo’s face, he hadn’t expected that he would just turn off his phone and keep it uncharged.

It was amazing that so much had happened.

“Elder Zhao, you said.”

“Something has happened in the Wanxiang Kingdom, there’s a wave about you controlling the Night Vine Gra*s and eradicating it completely.”

“Just to give yourself private control of the Night Vine Gra*s and make a huge profit out of it.”

“And there are rumours that we have taken control of the Vientiane Kingdom by placing Princess Fire Ina under house arrest.”

“And the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Maple Leaf Country officially issued a notice yesterday, hoping that the Wanxiang Country will give an explanation.”

“Otherwise, in order to organise the shadowy expansion of the Night Vine, they are going to send their army into Wanxiang to investigate.”

Zhao Nan Yue’s voice fell serious as he spoke to Lin Mo about what was happening in the Wanxiang Country right now.

This time, the matter had reached the point where the whole country knew about it under the impetus of a big hand.

And even the Maple Leaf country had moved in a very cooperative manner.

A public outcry was made throughout the international arena that troops would be stationed in Vientiane.

These words also caused the whole international community to shake slightly.

Everyone’s heart clearly understood.

Once the troops of the Maple Leaf Country were actually stationed within the borders of the Wanxiang Country.

Then it would be like a maggot on the bone.

Even if you have confirmed that there is no trace of night vines in the country.

But they will still find all sorts of interfaces to hold on to you.

Even if they die, they will not withdraw from the territory of Vientiane.

“The Vientiane Nation responded with international statements that it would prove in the near future that there was no trace of night vetch breeding in the country.”

“And in his eyes, he rebuked the Maple Leaf Country for its bad intentions and suspected it of wanting to start another war.”

“At the same time, they will contact the countries that are good friends with the Vientiane Kingdom to raise their voices internationally and express the Maple Leaf Kingdom’s wolfish ambitions.”

“And the Vientiane Kingdom suspects that they want to start another war on a world-cla*s scale if they invade an inch of the Vientiane Kingdom’s territory.”

“The Wanxiang Kingdom is about to start a forceful counterattack.”

Lin Mo’s eyes flashed with coldness, originally thinking that people don’t offend me.

But it seems that the wounds on those wolves have once again failed to suppress their ambition!

“However, the military power of the Wanxiang Kingdom is simply not enough to threaten the Maple Leaf Kingdom.”

“Instead, it will allow the Maple Leaf Country to use this interface to attack the Wanxiang Country.”

Zhao Nan Yue’s somewhat worried voice came from the other side of the phone.

Although the Vientiane Country’s overall strength wasn’t bad, it had previously waged war on a large scale.

However, the entire country’s treasury was empty and its personnel had been severely damaged.

Since Jade Lie had taken office, the country’s strength had only been restored to nine out of ten.

The corners of Lin Mo’s mouth curled into a smile as he spoke softly to the other end of the phone.

“As the most peace-loving country in the world, Huaxia could not bear the thought of war breaking out to scourge the living.”

“So they have offered humanitarian aid and arms a*sistance to the Vientiane country.”

“And it was announced to the country that the Maple Leaf Country was shaking the foundations of the Wanxiang Kingdom and would be on a level one alert mode.”

Since those guys wanted to play, then Lin Mo would play along with them.

Isn't it spreading rumors in Wanxiang country, I will directly tell everyone that this is all a tactic of others who want to destroy the country, let's play big.

"Okay, I'll go and get the Foreign Ministry of the Wanxiang Country as well as the Propaganda Ministry, and the Chinese Embassy."

Chapter 3380

In the middle of the villa, at the moment, Fang Hui as well as Xu Ming are sitting and chatting.

Ziropilo, on the other hand, was sitting far to the side, not saying a word.

"Auntie, uncle hasn't come back for a few days, don't we need to look for him?"

Xu Ming's words brought an angry look to Fang Hui's face and she said angrily.

"If he doesn't come back, then he doesn't come back, who really thinks he likes him?"

Just as the two were talking, the door was suddenly opened straight away.

Xu Jiangong, who had hurried back, stood at the door and wiped the sweat from his forehead.

"Heh, I thought you were like some white-eyed wolf who had a woman outside."

Xu Jiangong didn't care about Fang Hui's words and just unlocked the door behind him.

His face was filled with confidence as well as a calm look.

The eyes of Xu Ming, who was sitting at the side, as well as Ziropilo flickered slightly.

The Xu Jiangong from before clearly looked clueless, so how could he be so shocked now.

"From now on, no one inside this room can leave."

"Especially you."

Xu Jiangong's gaze looked towards Qi Obiero, who was sitting at a distance, and said morosely.

"This lady who claims that Lin Mo is your husband!"

Xu Jian Gong's words caused Xu Ming's as well as Qi Obiero's faces to change.

A bad thought appeared in both of their minds.

"Xu Jiankong, what are you mad about here, going out for a few days has dumbed you down?"

Fang Hui didn't care about that much, hearing Xu Jiankong's words was a direct roar.

"Lin Mo is back, all things will come out."

Xu Jian Gong's words caused Fang Hui's face to change slightly, and the anger on her face was unconsciously lessened by a few points.

Looking at the calm expression on Xu Jiankong's face.

Fang Hui, who had thought out with him for decades, could see that it was only when he was extremely confident that it would appear.

After glancing at the normal looking Qiopiluo, a look of doubt appeared in Fang Hui's eyes.

Had she really misunderstood Lin Mo?

Then what was up with this poor, helpless girl from start to finish?

"Uncle and aunt, since this is a family matter next, then my young nephew will leave first."

Xu Ming stood up and said to both Xu Jiangong and Fang Hui.

Lin Mo would be back soon, and if the other party saw himself, it was estimated that the previous contract would simply be nullified.

An extremely terrifying opponent like Lin Mo was not at all something that Fang Hui, that fool, could be so easily fooled with.

Xu Jiangong stood directly in front of Xu Ming's body and said in a deep voice.

"Little Ming, don't rush off, wait for your big brother Lin Mo to come back and have a chat together."

"No uncle, my flight is today."

Fang Hui said with a burst of annoyance at Xu Jian Gong.

"People's children are in a hurry to catch their flights, what are you doing here to stop them?"

Under Fang Hui's roar, Xu Jiankong then gave way to his body.

He didn't want to make this family too standoffish.

And Lin Mo had already blocked all the airports in Panyang City before.

As long as Xu Ming took his identity to buy a ticket, then the security personnel would detain him straight away.

Even if he didn't stop himself, he wouldn't be able to escape the confines of Panyang City.

"Thank you, uncle and aunt, my young nephew will take his leave."

Fang Hui nodded, "Then Auntie Mother will not see you off."

Just as Xu Ming had joy in his eyes, he had just opened the door with the intention of walking out.

A human figure ran directly towards this side frantically.

It only took a few seconds for Ziobillo to run directly from the original living room to the door.

Xu Jiangong tried to block it, but he simply could not keep up with Ziopiluo's speed.

Ziobello's figure fled quickly, she absolutely could not stay here.

Lin Mo had actually returned so suddenly, this was something Ziobello had never expected.

If she herself were to be caught by Lin Mo, she would definitely not understand easily.

It was even possible that Lin Mo would simply imprison her in the Martial Union's main prison.

Convict her of slandering the top bra*s of the Martial Union!
