Chapter 3431

Wang Er watched as Lin Mo's other palm reached towards his other shoulder.

He was so frightened that his entire body began to tremble on its own.

With a pleading look on his face, he looked at Lin Mo.

"If begging for mercy is useful, what else do you need?"

Lin Mo's palm directly rested on Wang Er's other shoulder with a slight force.

Wang Er's eyes rolled over and he directly mixed to the past due to the pain of the duel.

Only then did Lin Mo stand up and said flatly to the soldiers of the inspector's house in the distance.

"If you guys have any comments or disagreements, you can just come up."

"If you lose, I will let you all slaughter me."

"If you don't have any opinions, then get lost and go back!"

Lin Mo kicked Wang Er, who was lying on the ground, straight out.

The soldiers of the inspector's residence scrambled to catch Wang Er's body.

One by one, with fear on their faces, they looked at the other few junior captains standing to the side.

Several of the junior captains looked at the unconscious Wang Er and said through gritted teeth.

"Retreat!"

The originally aggressive inspector's house directly retreated backwards like a defeated dog.

Hua Qiang walked up to Lin Mo's side with big strides and said loudly.

"Brother Mo Lin is good at fighting!"

"Many thanks Brother Qiang."

Lin Mo nodded gently at Hua Qiang, a small smile on his face.

Hua Qiang looked serious as he looked at Lin Mo and said in a sentence.

"Brother Mo Lin, you don't have to have any worries."

"Here, it doesn't matter if you don't want to talk about where you came from past or whatever."

"There is no need to worry because of these things, we are all brothers."

Hua Qiang's words caused Lin Mo's eyes to flicker slightly, then he nodded.

“Granny, tonight’s bonfire party was almost spoiled by those turtle grandsons from the inspector’s house.”

“Let’s not stand around dry, let’s continue with the music and dance.”

“Time to eat and drink.”

Once again the group sat down on the pier, laughing and cheering.

.....

On the other side, inside the inspector’s house was dead silent at the moment.

A few junior captains placed the unconscious Wang Er on the ground, and one by one, they knelt at the doorway of the House Master, not daring to speak.

“What a bunch of trash, the face of my inspector’s residence has been disgraced by you all!”

A cold chant suddenly rang out, causing a subconscious shiver to run through the bodies of all those kneeling on the ground.

“Yes, yes, yes, it was our subordinates who were ineffective in their work, so please calm your anger, Lord of the House.”

Several of the junior captains hurriedly fell to the ground and one by one, they apologised themselves.

“Send Wang Er to the infirmary for treatment, if he can be cured let him spend a month behind closed doors.”

“If he can’t be cured, the inspector’s office doesn’t need waste.”

“He has been in power for so many years and has followed the reputation of the inspector’s house to enrich himself, send him to the laboratory.”

The government lord’s words caused cold sweat to already seep out from the backs of the few people kneeling on the ground.

“Yes, yes, yes, my subordinates obey the orders of the government lord.”

Several people hurriedly lifted up Wang Er who was on the ground and headed towards where the medical service was.

“That man, do not continue to provoke, or else you will finish the job yourself.”

The last words of the government master rang out, and the lights in the room dissipated at once.

Several of the junior captains carrying Wang Er exchanged glances.

At this moment, everyone’s gaze was filled with a look of shock.

What kind of person was that youth, even the House Master had ordered that he should not be messed with.

But at this moment, one by one, they did not dare to really ask the House Master about it.

Instead, they turned their pitying gazes to Wang Er, who was unconscious and pale on top of the stretcher.

This time it was really up to fate.

If he could be cured, it would be fine.

But if Wang Er could not be cured, he would be sent to the big island ahead.

To undergo those horrible and unusual experiments.

Gutting the good inside the laboratory could even be said to be the most uncommon thing.

There was even the possibility of becoming a guinea pig!

Chapter 3432

In Wang Er's courtyard.

Wang San sat inside the courtyard, waiting somewhat anxiously for his uncle's return.

Wasn't he just going to clean up a little white boy who had attacked me.

Why has Second Uncle not returned after going for so long.

Suddenly, a rush of footsteps sounded.

A soldier wearing the costume of the inspector's office ran in and said to Wang San.

"Wang San, Captain Wang Er was badly injured when he went to the pier to look for that man matter just now."

"He is now being resuscitated within the inspector's residence, do you want to go and take a look?"

Wang San's entire body froze when he heard the soldier's words, and then spoke.

"You're saying that my uncle has been seriously injured, how is that possible?!"

If not for the fact that this soldier was indeed one of Wang Er's men and Wang San had met him a few times.

He was now going to wonder if someone had come specifically to lie to him.

"That's right, that guy is deeply hidden and looks very skinny."

"But the captain doesn't have the slightest strength to fight back under him at all."

Wang San was dumbfounded when he heard the soldier's words.

"You go back first, I'll go over later."

After sending the soldier away, Wang San looked at the sky with a grim face and hissed.

"Fake, it must all be fake!"

“That punk must have used sinister tricks.”

After roaring in anger, Wang San’s entire body was at a loss for words.

“Right, I can go to the other docks and stir up their relationship!”

A flash of joy suddenly flashed across Wang San’s face, and he fiercely clapped his hands together.

He quickly changed his clothes inside the house and ran towards the docks to the west.

As for his uncle who was being resuscitated inside the inspector’s house.

Wang San didn’t have the slightest worry, the most important thing now was to kill that fellow.

Otherwise, once he sought revenge on himself by then, he would definitely die!

.....

On the pier, Hua Qiang looked at Lin Mo with an expectant face.

He wanted to know if Lin Mo’s claim of being able to remove the snake man mark from himself and the others was true.

Feeling Hua Qiang’s burning gaze, a bitter smile appeared on Lin Mo’s face.

“Brother Qiang, if there’s anything you want to ask, just say it directly.”

“If we stare at me with such a hooked gaze, it will make others misunderstand.”

Lin Mo finally understood why Zhang San was so afraid of Hua Qiang.

Anyone who was being stared at by a big muscular man with burning eyes would not be comfortable.

Probably goose bumps would seep out all over his body.

Hua Qiang rubbed the back of his head and a smile appeared on his face.

“Brother Mo Lin, is it true what you said just now about being able to remove the snake man mark from your body?”

Lin Mo knew Hua Qiang would ask this, so he continued groundedly.

“I have a medicinal formula to go with it that should be able to rub off these snake man marks.”

“These snake-man marks are in a nutshell the equivalent of one that has some toxins added to it and becomes infested with ink.”

“One only needs to use the medicine to wear out all of these toxins, then these snake man marks will naturally disappear.”

Hearing Lin Mo’s careful explanation, Hua Qiang’s eyes erupted with an intense light.

“Brother Molin, there is no one at our pier who is afraid of pain.”

“Why don’t you just do it as fast as you can, we brown men will definitely not say a word.”

“What herbs you need, you just say so.”

“Really if you can remove the snake-man mark from all the brothers, you will be the second oldest of all from now on!”

Hua Qiang’s tone contained a strong look of excitement.

The snake man mark had always been a pain in their hearts.

Previously, several brothers had even tried to remove this mark by plucking out their flesh to get rid of it.

But they had never succeeded.

Now they could finally get rid of the snake mark, a scar in their hearts.

Even if Hua Qiang did not say so, everyone would respect Lin Mo in their hearts.

Chapter 3433

Lin Mo pondered a little before finally speaking.

“The three types of Purple Flower Earth Gra*s, Half Moon and Piercing Heart Lotus will start to be collected tomorrow.”

“There’s no way for me to quantify this stuff, it needs to depend on how long you’ve been branded for.”

“Like you, Brother Qiang, you need at least two plants to start with.”

Hua Qiang nodded seriously, then got up and said loudly shouting to the crowd.

“Little ones, I have good news for you!”

Hua Qiang’s deafening voice rang out above the pier, attracting the attention of the others.

“Boss, what good news.”

“Look at the happiness on the chairman’s face, you guys can barely hide it!”

“Chairman, could it be that you’ve found us a sister-in-law?”

The burly men ate the meat in their hands, each one laughing out loud.

“Find a fart sister-in-law, look at you all, you have no sense of decency, it’s your problem that I don’t have a wife!”

“Cut it out!”

“What’s it to do with us? You know how to pa*s the buck.”

“The chairman himself has no sense of decency, and he has the nerve to talk about us.”

“Quiet!”

Looking at the guys who were discussing again, Hua Qiang shouted.

“Just now Brother Molin told me that he has the solution that can remove the tattoos from your bodies.”

“Isn’t that good news?”

The moment Hua Qiang’s words came out, the entire pier fell silent all of a sudden.

A group of strong men looked at Hua Qiang as if they were dumbfounded, not saying a word.

After a long time , a voice rang out.

“Chairman, is what you said true?”

Hearing this voice of doubt, Hua Qiang nodded straight away and said loudly.

“Brother Molin will definitely not lie to you, starting tomorrow, go all out to collect three kinds of medicinal herbs.”

“Purple Flower Earth Grass, Half Moon, and Penetrating Lotus, do you hear me clearly?”

This time, under Hua Qiang’s confident words, everyone let out a cheer.

“Hear me clearly!”

“Long live the President, long live Brother Molin!”

“From now on Mo Lin is my own brother!”

The group of sturdy men all had smiles on their faces.

They had always thought that after they were first captured as slaves and branded with the snake man seal.

This seal was going to follow them and the others just for the rest of their lives.

But it had never occurred to them.

The flowers were planted with intention.

The willow will grow.

They had searched hard for a way to remove the Serpent’s Seal.

But they had been struggling without results.

But when they met Lin Mo by chance, they actually saw a hope that they had not seen for a long time.

This night, the atmosphere above the pier was very lively.

At the west pier, where Lin Mo landed in the first place.

A woebegone Wang San stumbled from a distance and ran over.

Once night came, the island, which was barely peaceful, suddenly turned into an endless killing machine.

One by one, dark hunters appeared on the island, hunting indiscriminately for those in the darkness of the night.

If Wang San hadn't hung a sign from the inspector's office on his body.

He would have died without a burial place long ago.

Wang San staggered to the top of the pier and said loudly.

"Is Chairman One-Eye here? Wang San has come to pay a visit."

As Wang San's voice rang out, the previously dark dock suddenly lit up with a single light.

Along with it came a chorus of angry curses from the Rexes.

"That son of a b*tch is disturbing the peace and quiet at night, I'll have to kill him!"

"He wants to see the chairman, where's my axe, I'll chop him up."

"Do you really think our dock is some kind of place where you can just come and go?"

All sorts of voices rang out from the huts by the river.

Without exception all the voices contained an icy killing intent.

One by one, stout, topless men came out.

In their hands they carried a variety of weapons.

Axes, machetes, hammers and so on.

Chapter 3434

Wang San looked at these strong men carrying weapons, their faces cold and fierce as they walked towards him.

His face turned pale and he couldn't stop his body from retreating and said loudly.

"I'm here to see Chairman One-Eye, what do you want!"

Wang San's words brought a cruel smile to the burly men's faces.

"What do you want?"

"Naturally, I want to get rid of you, a guy who disturbs us in the middle of the night."

"Don't worry, we'll throw your corpse into the sea and feed it to the sharks after you die!"

The burly men's figures were getting closer and closer.

Wang San's body, which kept retreating, suddenly gave a lurch and crashed into a pile of goods.

Looking at the burly men who had already brandished their weapons in their hands, Wang San shouted anxiously.

"My second uncle is the captain of the inspector's office, and he has come on important business this time!"

As soon as Wang San's words came out, a hoarse voice suddenly rang out.

"Let him come over."

The burly men who originally had cruel faces scattered their forms one by one when they heard these words.

Each of their faces wore a respectful expression as they bowed sixty degrees in unison.

"Greetings, President."

A man dressed in sackcloth appeared on the very back of the crowd.

He was not as physically strong as Hua Qiang, but he also exuded an aura of fierceness all over his body.

Perhaps the most impressive thing was that he wore a black eye patch above his right eye.

"Even if it's someone from the inspector's office, coming to my evil union's territory late at night."

"Even if I had someone kill you now, no one would say anything."

"You'd better be able to tell me information that interests me, or else it's a dead end."

Although One-Eye spoke without any great emotion contained in his tone.

Yet it felt like a burst of murderous aura was emanating from above his body.

Wang San's face was pale, but saw the group of fierce and fierce strong men retreat.

Soothing himself for a moment, he spoke to One-Eye.

"President One-Eye, then I wonder if the news of the other docks will appeal to your emotions."

"Oh, is it the eastern pier?"

When One-Eye heard Wang San's words, an interesting look rose in his only remaining left eye.

"No, it's the northern pier."

After Wang San's words were finished, however, he saw One-Eye's face instantly turn gloomy.

Of the three docks on this island, everyone knew that only the east and west docks were the strongest.

Even the northern dock was only built by a group of people who didn't want to get involved in the fight.

So for the two docks have always been in a neutral position.

You don't fight me and I don't fight you, everyone just gets along.

Even the northern docks were rarely involved in the fighting on the island.

The burly men who had just retreated behind One-Eye approached once more, weapons in their hands emanating a thick hostile aura .

“Are you amusing me?”

“If so, then this life of yours will be the price you pay for entertaining me.”

Wang San’s face changed and he said sharply.

“Chairman One-Eye, listen to me first!”

Wang San hurriedly organised his words and opened his mouth to tell the story.

“If it was before, the northern pier might have been the least threatening.”

“But just today, a ruthless person has entered among the northern docks, and if it is left unattended.”

“I dare say that in a few short months at most, the northern docks will be directly dominated by one family!”

Wang San’s firm words made One-Eye feel that it was not like he was faking.

But then straight away he laughed out loud.

“Just that group of guys in the north, entering a ruthless person can turn from fish to shark?”

“Wang San, are you looking down on our evil union too much!”

Looking at everyone who didn’t believe his words, Wang San was also anxious and said loudly.

“Even my uncle lost to him!”

Chapter 3435

“My uncle didn’t stand a chance against that guy today.”

“He’s still in the emergency room at the inspector’s house.”

“Can’t you all understand the horror of that guy now? ”

Wang San told them all about his uncle being defeated by Lin Mo.

This was what caused One-Eye, who was originally filled with disbelief, to wave his hand and stop his men’s movements.

“You mean, your uncle, the captain of the inspector’s office went to find out about the man you mentioned today.”

“Straight away he was badly injured and is even now lying in the emergency room.”

One-Eye repeated his inner thoughts and looked up at Wang San.

Although it was embarrassing to put himself as the uncle toeing the line for a duel and being badly injured.

But now in order to be able to talk One-Eye into them going to the northern docks.

Wang San had to come up with this incident to prove he was right.

"I said how could someone be so kind as to come and warn us."

"So it's because you want to use our western pier as your gun, how dare you!"

This time in the foreword, One-Eye did not carry a heavy murderous aura anymore.

Instead, he gave Wang San a warning look in his gaze.

No one liked to be used as a gun.

Even if this thing was a certain threat as well as a drawback to oneself.

"Get the hell out of here while I've changed my mind now."

"Otherwise you won't be able to leave if you want to later."

After knowing what he wanted to know. One-eye gave a direct order for Wang San to get lost.

"Yes, yes, yes, but Chairman One-Eye. It's better to do it sooner rather than later."

"Otherwise, when they really grow up completely, it will be difficult to make a move before."

After saying that, Wang San didn't dare to stop in the slightest.

Quickly, he ran in the direction he came from.

In case that one-eyed dog thing really killed himself later.

Even his own uncle could probably do nothing but resign himself to his fate.

After Wang San left, a group of strong men's eyes looked towards One-Eye.

"Chairman, are we really going to attack the docks in the north?"

"Yes Chairman, that guy is obviously using us as guns."

"His own uncle was invalidated by someone else, so maybe there's something else to hide."

A few burly men came out and inquired at One-Eye.

They were all a few of the powerful generals under One-Eye's command.

They were the only ones who dared to ask One-Eye directly if he wanted to attack the docks in the north.

One Eye looked at all of them and said in a deep voice.

"It doesn't matter if what that Wang San said is true or not, whether that man is that powerful or not."

“But we definitely can’t just sit back and wait for death, if that guy is really as powerful as Wang San said.”

“Kill him at the earliest opportunity!”

Once One-Eye’s words came out, the few people around them didn’t continue to speak.

They could ask, but they couldn’t question One-Eye’s opinion.

“The time to start the war will be set for tomorrow night , a direct night attack on the northern docks.”

“Those who can be killed must not be seriously injured!”

“Yes!”

A strong man replied in a deep voice to One-Eye.

“Alright, all go and rest.”

After the group dispersed, One-Eye domineeringly went back inside.

The next moment, One-Eye, who had been so domineering outside, instantly transformed into a humble stance.

“It’s all taken care of, right?”

“My subordinates have taken care of everything, it’s just some things that happened on the gang.”

One-Eye’s voice was filled with fervour as well as loyalty as he dropped to one knee and knelt in front of a man respectfully.

“Well, that’s good, another batch of pigs for sale to the lab will arrive in a few days.”

“You guys get these taken care of as soon as you can, so no more messes start then.”

“Or I’ll have to consider a different batch.”

“Yes, my subordinates obey!”

A cold wind blew in and One-Eye’s shirt blew up.

It revealed the mark of a snake’s head and body on his back.

Chapter 3436

The next day was early in the morning.

A strange sound rang out from the docks to the north.

“Hiss-ah!”

“Ugh!”

“Go ahead, I’m not going to scream-ah!”

A series of screams rang out one after another.

On the pier, a man was topless, and someone was behind them with a needle and syringe.

Lin Mo and Hua Qiang stood over and looked at the scene.

“Brother Molin, it’s working!”

Hua Qiang suddenly felt a feeling of wetness on his back.

On his fingers was black blood.

Lin Mo’s gaze looked and a silver needle had been inserted by Lin Mo on the snake head personal mark behind Hua Qiang.

At this moment, the exposed end of the silver needle was continuously seeping black blood.

These were the toxins in Hua Qiang’s body and the blood that had been stained.

If he wanted to remove the mark quickly, then this was the only way.

The stinging sensation at the back of his body was for Hua Qiang, a man who had fought tigers all year round.

It could not even be considered pain.

The look of surprise on Hua Qiang’s face caused Lin Mo to smile and nod his head.

“Now after the toxins are completely expelled, I’ll be configuring a bit of ointment.”

“Applying it for a few days will be almost enough.”

At this moment, one by one, the strong men on the pier also noticed the difference in their bodies.

“There’s a real change on my body!”

“It’s black blood, and I feel like the marks on my body have faded!”

One by one, the strong men on the pier screamed out.

As for the one who felt his mark had faded, it was complete bullsh*t.

The marks on their bodies were all scars from when the branding iron had been fished out.

It had absolutely nothing to do with the toxins, it was a matter of damaged skin.

Once all the toxins have been flushed out of the body the skin can be repaired.

After half an hour, all the toxins were expelled from the bodies of all the strong men.

But due to the loss of a small amount of blood, they looked a little pale.

All the strong men all stood up straight in unison, one by one, looking up at Lin Mo with their heads held high.

An extraordinarily burly man walked out from them and said to Lin Mo.

“Mr. Molin, this mark has remained on our brothers’ bodies for over a year and has become a cancer in our hearts.”

“You have helped our brothers to complete the tumour that has been in our hearts for many years!”

“From now on, you are our second leader, if you say go east, the brothers will definitely not go west!”

One by one, the burly men knelt down directly to Lin Mo on one knee and shouted with their hands clasped in fists.

Looking at each and every strong man kneeling directly to himself, Lin Mo was slightly stunned.

He then opened his mouth and said.

“Thank you all brothers for your love, since you all recognize me as a brother.”

“Then from now on, I, Mo Lin, will cover you all, but I also hope that nothing will happen that goes against the principles.”

“Our Powerworkers’ Union can stay out of trouble, but we are definitely not afraid of trouble either.”

After Lin Mo finished speaking, his gaze faintly looked at Hua Qiang who was at the side.

Hua Qiang also knew what Lin Mo meant and recalled what they had discussed last night in his mind.

He then took a step forward and spoke loudly.

“From today onwards, our dock is officially established as a trade union, and it will be called the Powerworkers’ Union.”

“I, Hua Qiang, will be the president of the union, and Brother Molin will take up the position of vice president.”

“Who is in favour and who is against?”

“We are in favour of the President!”

Everyone’s intentions were suddenly high at this moment, and everyone’s auras seemed to be gathered together.

In the previous times Hua Qiang had never been explicitly sure about the establishment of the union.

So even though everyone would normally address him as the president, it had never really been established.

On this day, the union that belonged to them alone had finally been established.

“Long live President Hua Qiang. Long live Vice-President Mo Lin!”

Chapter 3437

The accounts of the Powerworkers’ Union had previously been managed by Hua Qiang.

When Zhang San went forward to take over today, people were dumbfounded.

“Brother Qiang, what’s going on with your books, why can you spend ten thousand dollars when you go to buy a glove?”

Zhang San asked Hua Qiang as he pointed to the figures on the ledger with a baffled look on his face.

Hua Qiang’s gaze looked to the side and said with a snort.

“Hahahaha, brother Zhang San, how am I supposed to know about such things?”

“You are the one in charge of the accounts how could you not know?”

Zhang San picked up another bill and pointed to it showing that he had eaten a meal of dumplings.

Then a glance at the amount on the back, five thousand maple leaf coins.

“What kind of dumpling can cost five thousand maple leaf coins to eat!”

Zhang San flipped through the back books again, one was simply more outrageous than the other.

He had paid out thirty maple leaf coins for his salary .

Buying clothes cost five maple leaf coins.

The groceries cost twenty thousand maple leaf coins.

Hua Qiang’s bill was simply outrageously wrong.

“How much money do we have in our account now?”

Zhang San’s eyes looked towards Hua Qiang and inquired.

“Let’s see.”

Hua Qiang opened the safe on one side and counted carefully.

“There are now one hundred and fifty five thousand two hundred and thirty one Maple Leaf coins left.”

Hearing Hua Qiang’s answer, Zhang San finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Now that there was still money in the account, it would be good to start the bookkeeping all over again.

“Brother Qiang, tell me honestly, how did you remember the accounts before?”

Zhang San’s gaze was filled with sorrow as he looked at Hua Qiang.

Hua Qiang looked at Zhang San’s gaze and awkwardly rubbed the back of his head and laughed loudly.

“Hahahaha, Little San, I was all an accident before, an accident.”

“From now on this room will be yours, bye.”

After Hua Qiang finished speaking, the whole person directly dashed and slipped away.

Zhang San looked at the room full of bills and sighed helplessly.

It seemed that he could only take his own time to clean up.

The day passed quickly, and Zhang San's house was buried for a full day of hard work.

Finally, all the bills and other things that were in disarray when Hua Qiang was managing were packed up.

By the time Zhang San stepped out of his room again and breathed in that fresh air.

The whole person felt refreshed.

In the distance, Lin Mo's upright figure walked over and smiled lightly after seeing Zhang San.

"How does today's work feel?"

"Very fulfilling."

This was the only one that Zhang San could evaluate in positive terms after scouring his mind.

"Oh, let's go, the meal is already ready."

Looking at Zhang San's appearance, a small smile appeared on Lin Mo's face.

He spoke softly to Zhang San before turning around and walking towards the long queue that had formed not far away.

Zhang San sighed slightly and followed suit, heading towards the queue over there.

A man is iron and rice is steel, a meal will make you hungry.

.....

The West Pier.

It was already dusk at this moment.

The busy scene on the pier during the day no longer existed, but was replaced by a murderous array.

All the men on the West Pier are now dressed in vests, carrying a variety of short weapons in their hands.

On their waists or backs were hot weapons of varying styles.

They stood neatly on the docks, each with their eyes forward, and One Eye, dressed in a black overcoat, stood before the crowd.

"Gentlemen, according to our informants, those guys at the North Docks actually had the audacity to form a union."

"It's simply not taking our evil union into consideration ."

"What do you guys think, what should we do?"

One Eye's hoarse and heavy voice rang out, then his gaze looked at the members standing in front of him.

“Kill up to the North Pier!”

“Kill up the North Pier!”

“Let those arrogant guys know that the union isn’t set up by just anyone!”

“Chairman, let’s kill up there!”

Looking at the hissing atmosphere below, One-Eye nodded in satisfaction.

Only such a tool was considered a good tool.

“Good, kill up to the North Pier!”

Chapter 3438

In the midst of this darkness, a single torch lit up.

The procession that looked like a long dragon made those hunters in the darkness tremble in fear one by one.

“This is the evil union’s people, right, where are they going?”

“I don’t know, but don’t be born, I don’t want to die.”

“What is going on that there is so much commotion?”

Such was the scale of it that they even huddled together, communicating constantly in sign language.

The direction they were heading in also gradually gave these men some guesses.

“The direction they are heading is in the direction of the northern docks.”

“Something’s not right, wouldn’t it be logical to start a war with the eastern docks first, even if they did?”

“Could it be that they want to quickly wipe out the forces of the northern docks and then annex and grow themselves.”

“If that’s the case, aren’t they worried about the eastern docks going out and directly turning the northern docks back to the east?”

One-Eye led the evil union’s men quickly towards the place of the northern docks.

He didn’t bother with the rats hiding in the shadows.

Just as they thought, One-Eye was quite worried that the eastern docks would intervene.

Not only would he not be able to destroy the northern docks, he would even be attacked by them.

The best thing to do now was to destroy the northern docks quickly before the Abyssal Union from the eastern docks arrived.

One Eye was grasping at straws, and so were the scouts who had observed the big event.

At the door of the Inspector's House Master's bedroom, the scout, dressed in night clothes, said quickly.

"Lord of the House, something big has happened."

"The people from the western docks have started a war against the northern docks and are raging to kill them over!"

After the scout's words were finished, the houses that had already been dimmed lit up once again.

"Oh, there's actually something like that, it doesn't make sense for the evil union them"

After a moment of silence, the heavy voice inside the house rang out again.

"Record the night as it happened, and read it to me tomorrow morning."

"Yes."

The docks to the east, the gathering place of the Abyssal Union.

A man hurried to the top of the dock and yelled at the top of his lungs.

"Chairman, something's wrong, a fight is going on!"

The man's voice resounded across the dock, causing the people who had been sleeping to wake up instantly.

An elegant and gentle looking man simply wearing a shirt came out of the house.

"Who did you say got into a fight, that it was the inspector's house and the evil union that went to war?"

He was the president of the Abyssal Union, Ryuichi Uemoto.

His eyes shone with heaviness as well as an endless killing intent.

"No..... it's not the Inspector's House and the Evil Union, it's the Evil Union that's fighting towards the docks in the north!"

After hearing the scout's words.

Uemoto Ryuichi, who was still looking a bit heavy, suddenly laughed out.

"I thought it was something, it seems that that fellow One-Eye has completely lost his mind."

"Someone, hurry all personnel, for the love and peace of the island."

"We, the Abyssal Union, go forth to stop the evil union from harming the force workers in the north!"

Ryuichi Uemoto thought the same as everyone else.

Merely thinking that One-Eye's group of guys just wanted a quick extermination of the northern docks.

So that they could quickly grow in strength and then make war on themselves and the others.

He didn't have the slightest inkling that it was One-Eye who thought that the forceworkers' union guys, who had just been officially formed, would be able to threaten them.

Ryuichi Uemoto donned a black cloak and dangled a cigar from his mouth.

"Brothers, let us go and be the legendary messengers of justice."

"After tonight, those guys from the evil union in the west."

"Then they will no longer be a match for our Abyssal Union!"

Uemoto Ryuichi said loudly to the members of the Abyssal Union behind him who had already packed and geared up.

Chapter 3439

"Mr. Molin, what are you looking at?"

After eating, Zhang San suddenly saw Lin Mo sitting on the shore of the pier.

After walking over and finding him quietly staring at the water, Zhang San asked curiously.

Lin Mo, who was originally thinking about something, was interrupted by Zhang San's voice and turned his head and said softly.

"I'm thinking about the future development of the pier."

Hearing Lin Mo's explanation, Zhang San sat down beside Lin Mo with interest.

"Isn't the pier developing peacefully now, is there anything wrong with it?"

Lin Mo's gaze ghostly looked towards the lake not far away and said softly.

"This isn't the kind of place in the country where it's safer and the so-called rules are just a joke that can be broken at any time."

"You're worried about the other docks and the inspector's office going to war against us?"

Zhang San instantly knew what Lin Mo was pondering.

"No, I feel that they have already started to move."

A cold aura flickered in Lin Mo's deep gaze.

He sensed the birds taking flight in the distance as well as the faint trembling of the ground.

Lin Mo stood up straight away and said loudly.

"Everyone prepare for battle immediately!"

A large group of hans who were chatting on the pier were stunned.

But out of trust in Lin Mo, all of them didn't say anything and went back inside to pick up their weapons.

“All go into the woods to hide, and hit hard later!”

Hua Qiang, who had understood the cause and effect from Lin Mo, said to everyone with an angry face.

At once, all the men of the Forceworkers’ Union were on alert and ran towards the woods above the pier.

Hua Qiang’s eyes were filled with a look of anger.

D*mn it, he and the others didn’t fight for anything, but those bds had the guts to come and beat them up.

And he and the others had just been chatting on the pier without any precautions.

If they had really killed them, they would have been killed in a strafing attack.

They don’t fight for years, so no one will come to mess with them.

So they rarely send out spies to keep an eye out in the dark.

Luckily there was Lin Mo, otherwise things would definitely not have gone well.

The crowd on the pier burrowed into the darkness of the woods.

Those who could climb trees climbed up seven or eight metres high.

Those who couldn’t climb trees simply lay on the ground, each holding their breath and staring dead ahead.

They had to wait until the enemy came and strike hard and hard to let those guys know.

Although they were called force workers, they didn’t just do force work.

In the darkness, One-Eye led the evil union men as they closed in on the area.

What was left of One Eye’s gaze looked ahead in the darkness and always felt a bad feeling inside.

He then turned his head and commanded in a deep voice behind him.

“Everyone proceed with caution and be sure to be alert.”

“This time slaughter the entire northern docks, leaving no dogs or chickens behind.”

One Eye’s murderous voice sent a chill down the spines of all the Evil Union members as they replied in a deep voice.

“Yes.”

The group of people once again marched neatly and tidily through this darkness.

And to be on the safe side, they put out all the tarred torches in their hands in the dirt.

As they got closer, One-Eye’s inner turmoil grew.

“Chairman, we’re only a few hundred metres from the northern dock, and the brothers who scouted it have just returned to say it’s quiet there.”

“And there’s a small wood up ahead, so we can be perfectly concealed when we go in.”

“It will also give the brothers time to make a preparation.”

An evil union man came running from a distance and said respectfully to One-Eye.

And his finger pointed to the grove on the other side where Hua Qiang and the others were hiding their figures.

A smile appeared on One-Eye’s face as he spoke, “Good, follow me over there!”

Chapter 3440

One-eyed eyes hide a heavy dose of ambition as well as lust.

The ranking of the Human Snake Organisation was divided into supervisor, envoy, small chief and human snake.

His own rank was only that of a small leader.

That bullsh*t envoy was just relying on his status and yelling at himself.

When he had completely taken over the island, he would definitely be able to become a special envoy.

When that time comes, I will definitely take revenge on that guy for humiliating me.

One-eye was imagining things when he walked into the woods unprepared.

The next moment, a voice that sent chills down his spine snapped out.

“Give me a fight!”

One-eye’s body exploded with all its strength and he barely managed to jump behind a tree to the side.

“There’s an ambush!”

One of the burly men in the grove in front of them who had originally hidden themselves held their firearms.

A maniacal grin was revealed straight away, it was really a great achievement.

This group of fools actually jumped inside the trap themselves.

The guns in their hands kept spitting out tongues of fire, firing wildly at the Evil Union men.

The Evil Union’s minions who had just run in after One-Eye instantly became human sandbags.

They were instantly pierced by countless bullets and were too dead to die.

The group of minions behind them were just about to counterattack when the burly men in the trees opened fire.

Directly from the air, they suppressed, in just a minute.

The thousands of men from the Evil Union were taken out by half of the 500 to 600 men from the Powerworkers Union.

“Run, we’ve been ambushed.”

“No good, brother, help me!”

“I still have unfinished business, I can’t die here!”

“So you’re f*cking using the corpse as a shield!”

One by one, the evil union’s minions were in disarray, even taking up the corpses of their companions as meat shields.

Carrying them on their backs, they fled directly towards the far end of the field.

The Dark Night Hunters who fell far behind the Evil Union were all dumbfounded at once.

“What’s going on here, didn’t the Evil Union just go in, where did that attack sound come from?”

“Could this be the Abyssal Union rushing over, that’s not right either?”

“Could it be the inspector’s office, look at how quickly those guys are dying and being injured!”

One by one, they looked at the minions who were frantically fleeing and looking for cover, and a strange look appeared in their eyes.

Perhaps could make a move now.

One-eye, who was hiding behind a large tree, covered his wounded and shot thigh.

As he watched his men die and get injured, a look of heartache appeared in One Eye’s eyes.

These were the tools of his ambassadorship, and if they were all dead then his plans would be in vain.

Even the envoy would think he was useless and would dispose of himself.

“Find cover and hide!”

One-Eye yelled before glancing slightly out sideways to look behind him.

Hundreds of burly men were sweeping their weapons at themselves and the others incessantly.

“Wait a minute, Chairman Hua Qiang, can you come out for a moment!”

One-Eye shouted in the direction behind him.

If the fight continued like this, even if they and the others could win, they were bound to suffer heavy casualties.

By then, the people from the Abyssal Union side in the east would come back to intervene.

Their own operation this time would definitely go down the drain.

As One-Eye's voice rang out, Hua Qiang's gruff voice responded in kind.

"Laozi xu your grandmother, f*cking bringing people to beat Laozi and expecting Laozi to have a go at you."

"Brothers, tonight we'll exterminate that group of guys from the Evil Union!"

Hua Qiang's gruff voice made One Eye almost vomit blood as he watched them still firing.

One-eye was inwardly fuming, there was only one way out now.

Expose the identity of the Human Snake Organisation that he had been hiding and intimidate them.

Only then would it be possible for himself and the others to return tonight.

Otherwise One-Eye felt that he wouldn't even be able to go back tonight.

"I'm from the Human Snake Organisation! "
