

Genius 3441

Chapter 3441

In One-Eye's imagination, he could just reveal the identity of the Human Snake Organization.

Then those guys from Hua Qiang would definitely not dare to continue to touch him.

After all, the Human Snake Organisation's power was so vast that it could even be traced to the top echelons of various countries.

Even the top bra*s of the countries that sent troops to besiege the Western Vientiane Islands were all members of the Human Snake Organisation.

Therefore, One-Eye's face was full of confidence. He believed that Hua Qiang would not dare to continue firing at him when he heard that he was a member of the Human Snake Organisation.

He was sure that Hua Qiang would not dare to continue firing at himself.

As expected, after hearing One-Eye's voice, Hua Qiang froze.

"Everyone stop."

"One-Eye, are you sure, you're from the Human Snake Organization?"

Hua Qiang struggled to suppress his emotions.

Otherwise he was afraid that before he could finish his sentence, he would just go up with his watermelon knife and chop One-Eye up.

"Hahahaha, Hua Qiang, are you afraid?"

"Our Human Snake Organisation is vastly powerful, you'd better let me go now."

"And I'm not afraid to tell you that I'm a junior leader of the Human Snake Organisation."

"Often handling the slaves sent to me for them, if you dare to touch me, the Human Snake Organisation will come up tomorrow and destroy you!"

The dark hunters in the distance had also heard One-Eye's words.

The thoughts that had just risen in their eyes instantly dashed once again.

They had heard of the Human Snake Organization.

Even among those they had hunted were slaves pulled out by the Human Snake Organisation.

No one in that force knew where his home base was.

But their network was so well penetrated that it was possible that the wife you were with could be a member of the Human Serpent.

A couple came up to the island before, and they waited until they got there.

The wife tied the man up and sent him to the organisation as a slave.

It was then that the husband realised that the wife he had been with for so many years was actually a member of the Human Snake Organisation.

The tattoo on his body was also not for added eroticism, but the mark of a snake man.

Lin Mo, whose body was standing on a large tree, heard One-Eye's words.

He let out a soft sigh at once.

There is a way in heaven for you not to go, but there is no door in hell for you to trespass.

Isn't this how you instantly stimulate the attacking power of the force workers' union?

It was even the kind that directly doubled.

Hearing One-Eye's smug voice, Hua Qiang's eyes turned red.

He directly took out a Fangtian drawing halberd from behind himself and held it in his hand.

All the muscles on his body seemed to start writhing continuously.

"Brothers, did you hear Chairman One-Eye say that he was from the Human Snake Organisation?"

Hua Qiang's voice was low, and the entire man gritted his teeth.

"I'll wait."

"Heard it!"

The force workers, whose faces were originally just a little heavy and cautious, all had red eyes at this moment.

That damned snake man mark had tormented them for several years.

Every night when they fell asleep, they would dream of the mark of the snake man, no matter what.

It was like a maggot on their bones.

Now, at last, the time had come to take revenge.

Everyone's hands reached behind them and a sword and weapon appeared in their hands.

Watermelon knives, pig-killing knives, lantern swords, great swords .....

Everyone's hands gripped their weapons tightly as their red eyes looked towards Hua Qiang in front of them.

"Brothers, injustice has its owner, and today we have finally found our debtor."

"Then we will tell them that retribution has come!"

"Kill!"

Hua Qiang's roar rang out, followed by all the voices of everyone.

“Kill!!!”

The sound of killing shot up into the sky.

Hua Qiang’s figure rushed ahead in a single bound.

The fifty pounds of Fang Tian Hua’s halberd in his hand was like it had no weight at the moment.

There was only one target for him at the moment.

One-Eye, who had been so proud of himself just now!

“One-eye, today, I’ll kill you!”

Chapter 3442

One-eye, who had just had a smug look on his face, was now scared out of his wits!

He looked at Hua Qiang, who was rushing towards him like a violent bear, and hated himself for not having two extra legs.

“Hua Qiang, aren’t you really afraid that the Human Snake Organisation will come after you!”

One-Eye limped backwards and fled, while shouting at Hua Qiang.

“I’m afraid of your grandma!”

The Evil Union people who had found cover in the distance were now looking at each other with disbelief.

Looking at One-Eye, who looked as if his life would be in danger at all times, the crowd looked puzzled.

“Should we go and help the chairman?”

A man asked to the dozen or so companions gathered together.

“Save, the chairman is as kind to us as a mountain.”

“Even though he usually lets us walk in front of all the dirty work and dangerous things.”

“And from time to time, he scolded the brothers and even killed at the drop of a hat.”

“But I think we should step in and send you over first, we’ll follow.”

Another man said encouragingly with a solemn look on his face as he patted the shoulder of the man who had asked the question.

“Never mind, I suddenly think that’s fine.”

The man who had asked the question heard his words.

With a little thought in his head, he realised that this was true.

He then sat quietly on the ground, watching One-Eye being chased by Hua Qiang.

"You b*****ds, the old man feeds you all on a regular basis."

"This is what you do to old me, when I survive."

"Kill you all and throw you into the sea to feed the sharks!"

One-eye watched as the group of men who usually did as they were told now cowered in the distance.

Just watching themselves being quickly hunted down and killed, roaring in mad rage.

Behind a distant cover, the junior who had just offered to save One-Eye swept his gaze around.

Picking up a rifle from the ground, he spoke to the others.

"Are we not to let him go back unharmed now?"

His words instantly drew support from all the others.

They took off their white shirts and took a wooden stick and hung it in mid-air.

Dozens of men then took aim at One-Eye, guns in hand.

As long as there was the slightest chance that he might escape alive, they would shoot instantly.

Hua Qiang's figure gradually approached, a fierce smile on his face.

The Fang Tian Hua in his hand was aimed at One-Eye, and he swung his halberd down directly towards him fiercely.

One-eye's entire body once again put all his strength into a donkey's roll towards the front.

He barely managed to dodge Hua Qiang's attack.

However, a deep gash was cut on his body by Hua Qiang's Fangtianzhang.

"President Hua Qiang, we can totally negotiate."

"I can form an alliance with you and share this island."

One-Eye shouted at Hua Qiang in a messy manner, unable to even care about the wounds on his body.

Hearing One-Eye's pleading words as well as his softened attitude.

Hua Qiang's face over showed a ruthless look as he said loudly.

"Laozi discuss your grandmother's legs."

"And share the world."

Hua Qiang once again flew with a halberd towards One-Eye to kill him.

One-Eye effortlessly dodged Hua Qiang's attack, only to have a deep bone-deep wound appear on his arm.

"Come on, motherf*cker, you let me cleave you to death."

“How about I take your spirit tablet after your death and I will definitely share the world with you?”

One-Eye’s face was pale, and there was already a look of despair in his eyes that he could not hide.

Suddenly, One-Eye’s hand touched his waist, and a fierce look appeared on his face as he roared.

“Hua Qiang, you’ve forced me to do this!”

“When you get down there, don’t say I, One-Eye, didn’t give you a chance!”

One-Eye took out a mini revolver from his own waist and aimed it directly at Hua Qiang.

This was originally a killer weapon that One-Eye himself had been hiding, having spent a lot of money to build it, and could only be used once.

He had been saving it for that envoy himself, and it looked like he would have to use it on Hua Qiang first!

Chapter 3443

One Eye pulled a miniature revolver from his belt, probably the size of his pinky finger.

But these had been specially made at great expense to him.

In order to be able to cunningly kill someone without attracting attention.

Originally One-Eye had wanted to save it for the envoy, to kill the other man outright when he was taken by surprise.

Now if he didn’t take it out and use it, he would be dead himself.

Hua Qiang, who was holding a Fangtian drawing halberd, saw One Eye take out a small revolver.

The rough brow frowned slightly, and a look of unease arose within him.

This little gadget ..... could kill!

But Hua Qiang’s face did not show the slightest bit of fear as he just looked at One Eye.

Other than that, Hua Qiang was confident that he could dodge away in the other direction a split second before One Eye fired.

Even if he was shot, there was no way that he would be killed directly.

If he couldn’t die himself, then by virtue of the mysterious identity of Brother Molin.

Just with the strength he was showing now, Hua Qiang believed that he could not die.

“One-eye, shoot if you have the guts, you son of a b*tch.”

Hua Qiang still walked towards One-Eye step by step, except that the muscles above his legs were tense.

Ready to jump aside to dodge the attack.

“Hua Qiang, do you really want to fight me to the death, what good will it do you!”

One-eye saw that Hua Qiang actually did not have the slightest fear of the weapon in his hand.

Instead, he was still slowly approaching step by step.

A maniacal look appeared on his face as he watched those juniors behind Hua Qiang raise their weapons one by one.

Whether he killed Hua Qiang today or not, he was bound to die.

The one-eyed man who used to be full of dominance was now as thorough as a desperate madman.

“Did I see it right, that really is Evil Union’s president One Eye?”

“It can’t be ..... right.”

“He was actually forced to this extent by the Powerworkers Union .....”

“From now on, only the Powerworkers Union and the Abyssal Union will be the only ones on top of this island!”

All the people hidden in the darkness looked at One-Eye’s manic appearance and his trembling palm.

They also looked behind them at the hundreds of members of the evil union who had already turned on the safety of their guns.

But the direction they were aiming at was not their enemy.

Instead, it was their erstwhile boss, One-Eye.

They didn’t dare to let One-Eye survive.

Otherwise none of them would have a good time in the fall.

In that case, they had to let this big brother.

To hell with it!

When the time comes, they don’t care if they change their lives to another island.

Or whether they join either of the two unions, Abyssal and Powerworkers.

They would still be able to live in peace.

They could even go and join the inspector’s office and saddle up with a layer of official soldiers.

Looking at Hua Qiang who was gradually approaching, and the Fang Tian Hua’s halberd that was dragging a scratch on the ground.

Desperation as well as ruthlessness filled one of One Eye’s remaining eyes.

“Hua Qiang, since you don’t want me to live, then you will die with me!”

One-eye’s somewhat trembling finger quickly touched towards the trigger of the small mini gun.

Even if he had to die, he would take one person down with him.

“Bang!”

A deafening gunshot sounded.

One-Eye’s body violently became stiff.

Hua Qiang also froze and hurriedly touched his body.

It was only after making sure that nothing was wrong with him that he let out a sigh of relief.

“Grandma, scared the hell out of me!”

One-eye’s eyes were filled with an unbelievable look.

His neck tried somewhat reluctantly to turn towards the back.

One of the biggest things he hadn’t expected in his life was this.

That he would be killed by the men he saw as tools.

The man who had earlier offered to save One-Eye was met by the shocked gaze of his companion.

Calmly retrieving his firearm, he blew on the faint white smoke that rose from it.

Looking at the shocked gaze of his companions, he said suspiciously.

“Aren’t you guys going to kill too?”

Chapter 3444

The people around him heard his words, but for a moment they didn’t know what to say.

Yet, even if One-Eye had not been killed by him.

Then himself and the others would certainly not square One-Eye or leave.

From afar, Hua Qiang saw One-Eye’s body stiffen.

Then he fell to the ground with a bang.

Hua Qiang put his Fang Tian Hua’s halberd aside and quickly arrived at One-Eye’s side.

His strong arm force tore One-Eye’s clothes to shreds.

Hua Qiang’s eyes quickly scanned and finally saw the one thing he wanted to see.

The mark of the snake man!

“Chairman, it’s almost packed up.”

A junior of the Powerworkers Union came to Hua Qiang’s side and whispered to him.

“Good, this guy, you guys watch out for him.”

Hua Qiang took a deep breath and stopped looking at One-Eye who was no longer breathing on the ground.

He believed that the way his little brothers handled the situation, he would also support it.

Everyone's hatred for the Human Serpent Organisation was no less than their own.

He came to the remaining minions of the Evil Union ahead of him and looked at the guys crouching on the ground with their hands on their heads.

"Brother Molin, what do you think?"

Hua Qiang's eyes looked towards Lin Mo who had already arrived beside him.

"There's just a shortage of some labourers on the docks, so let's take them."

Hearing Lin Mo's words, Hua Qiang's face instantly showed a look of dismay.

"If they go to work as labourers, won't our brothers be out of work then?"

Lin Mo lost his smile for a while and finally spoke.

"Brother Qiang, which union's own members do you see coming out to work?"

"It's all a few outer layers working, and they only need to pay a meagre amount."

"And about the brothers, I have another arrangement for later."

Hua Qiang nodded obediently.

He had found his own use now.

Than brains himself was not as good as Mo Lin's.

More than a calculator he was less than a hundredth of Zhang San's.

The only use he had now might be his apparent authority, and this tendon of flesh.

Just drink tea and do work on the docks.

f*ck the upper echelon of development direction, just follow Maureen.

"From today onwards, you will all be our labourers."

"Two hundred maple leaf coins a month, food and accommodation included, 996 work system."

Lin Mo walked up to the group of people and spoke his words softly.

To Lin Mo, these two hundred maple leaf coins were all humane care for these sin-filled guys.

Otherwise, Lin Mo would have wanted to just throw out the zero zero seven work system.

A flexible system of work every day, directly working 24 hours a day without rest.

A week would only require working a mere seven days.

“What are you talking about, we are all the backbone of the Evil Union, you want us to be hard workers!”

A guy who was originally squatting in the crowd instantly became reluctant after hearing Lin Mo’s words.

He directly stood up and said loudly to Lin Mo.

He had seen the state of those handymen on the western docks when they were working before.

Boxes of heavy goods were as endless as they could not be moved.

All of them could even only sleep for two or three hours a day.

Seeing this man stand up, Lin Mo’s gaze swept around and spoke.

“Is there anyone else who is of the same mind as him, you can say it , so we can discuss it.”

Lin Mo’s tone had a gentle meaning in it.

It was as if he could just stand up and not have to do the hard work.

It made a group of guys squatting on the ground flutter, could it be that standing up could really save them from having to do hard labour.

But those who could stay alive here were all a bunch of old foxes.

In the end, none of them stood up, and the man was the only one standing in the whole room.

There was a strong look of pride and disdain in the man’s gaze.

A bunch of cowering fellows, what a disgrace!

Chapter 3445

So many people actually couldn’t even muster the courage to refuse, this group of guys could only do the hard work.

Lin Mo looked at the other people who didn’t move, and his tone gradually cooled down.

“Since no one has any more opinions, then squat properly.”

“Go and send this unwilling one to their boss.”

“Right, remember to let him go and care for the shark himself.”

Lin Mo’s eyes were all ice-cold, causing the crowd present to shiver on their own.

A look of robbery and shock shone in their eyes.

They did not expect that Lin Mo, who had just had a gentle face, had actually transformed so quickly.

When the two strong men heard Lin Mo’s words, they directly walked up to the man and grabbed him.

“Wait, didn’t you say that everything was negotiable!”

“You don’t keep your word!”

The man looked at Lin Mo with a frightened face and hissed angrily.

“Yeah, your death is good for negotiation, you two.”

Lin Mo’s gaze went to the two strong men holding the man.

“Let him die how he wants later, but don’t waste too much time.”

“You guys help him choose when it matters.”

“Yes, Vice-President Maureen.”

The two men dragged the frazzled man off into the distance.

Faint whispers of the two men could be heard between them.

“I’ll be D*mned, Vice-President Molin actually has such a scary side.”

“Look at your wimpy face, Vice President Molin is one of our own, you’re scared of a chicken.”

“Then why are your legs shaking?”

“I can’t work too hard these days!”

The two people thought they were talking in a low voice but Lin Mo, the Patriarch, heard them carefully.

A smile flashed in Lin Mo’s eyes, these two tiger b*****ds.

“Are you all sure you want to do the hard work, it’s very tiring?”

Lin Mo looked at the few people in front of him and decided to set up another persona for himself slightly.

That was the smiling tiger.

Although he had changed his appearance, his actions as well as his personality would not change in the slightest.

It would be easy for people to analyse his true identity.

In this world, there was only one person who practiced both medicine and martial arts, and was also very strong.

The only person that came to mind was Lin Mo.

The battle record that Lin Mo had broken out of was simply too dazzling.

The first thing that came to everyone’s mind when they heard of a dual practitioner of medicine and martial arts was Lin Mo.

Looking at Lin Mo’s smiling face, all those squatting on the ground shivered in unison.

“We’re not afraid of suffering!”

“Take them all down, and start working tonight.”

Lin Mo looked at the burly men behind him and ordered in a soft voice.

“Yes!”

The hombres who had originally faced Lin Mo with a big grin were now all as respectful as little cats.

Originally, they thought that Vice President Mo Lin was such a kind person.

But now they saw that Lin Mo actually had such a cold side.

Even the burly men had become more submissive.

They were afraid that if anyone made Vice President Molin angry, they would be killed and thrown into the sea to care for the sharks.

“Stop, you guys stop, everyone stop fighting, we are all from one island.”

“Fighting and killing hurts the peace, how about you all give me, Shang Yuan Long Yi and the Abyssal Union, a face?”

Just as Lin Mo was planning to take his people back first.

A hurried voice rang out from afar.

The Abyssal Union at the eastern pier had arrived.

He only saw Ryuichi Uemoto, who was dressed in a refined air, quickly running over.

Panting, he said to everyone.

“Everyone, stop fighting!”

Hua Qiang glanced at Shang Yuan Ryuichi who was panting and holding his hands on his knees.

His eyes looked towards Lin Mo and said in a soft voice.

“This man is the president of the Abyssal Union, the jaded, smiling tiger, Uemoto Ryuichi.”

“It looks like he has come to ..... persuade the fight.”

Lin Mo looked at Hua Qiang with a slightly surprised gaze, as if he was surprised.

I didn’t expect Hua Qiang to actually think.

Chapter 3446

Hua Qiang saw the strange look in Lin Mo’s eyes and became anxious.

“Brother Mo Lin, what kind of look is that!”

“Brother Qiang, I’m just sighing that you’re getting smarter every day, if this continues, I won’t be able to catch up with you in the future.”

“Ahahahaha, not so much, Brother Molin you will always be the vice president of the Powerworkers Union!”

Looking at Hua Qiang who was directly scratching his head and giggling, Lin Mo couldn’t help but sigh.

Sure enough not a single change had been made.

“You might as well lift your head first.”

Lin Mo looked at Ryuichi Uemoto who was still panting and creating the appearance that he had just come running with all his might when he knew.

“Oh, I say you guys stop first .....

Uemoto Ryuichi looked up and his final words were held directly in his throat.

It was like there was something in his throat that couldn’t go in nor out.

What caught his eye was a group of strong men with guns in their hands and fierce faces.

And in front of the burly men, there was actually a group of men crouching on the ground with their hands on their heads.

“Where is that ..... one-eye?”

Hearing Uemoto Ryuichi’s enquiry, Lin Mo’s slender finger pointed at the corpses in the distance.

“No, what do you want?”

Uemoto Ryuichi’s gaze glanced at the corpse in the distance.

Although he had only watched it from afar, Uemoto Ryuichi could be certain that it was One-Eye.

“What about the evil union?”

Uemoto Ryuichi’s gaze autonomously went to one of the well-behaved crouching not far away.

Without the slightest hint of irritation as well as hard feelings, he asked softly with a swallow.

“Aren’t you watching?”

Hearing Lin Mo’s accurate reply, a look of disbelief appeared in Uemoto Ryuichi’s eyes.

The power of the Evil Union was such that even if the entirety of his own Abyssal Union was deployed.

Even with the full strength of the Abyssal Union, it would only be a 50/50 split.

And from afar, he had only heard a burst of gunfire, which had quickly stopped.

This group of guys is not the weakest force, where to get such a powerful force.

Ryuichi Uemoto felt as if his faith was about to collapse.

How could he possibly think about it.

When one by one, the strong men of the Power Workers' Union knew that One-Eye was from the Human Snake Organisation.

Automatically, they divided all the evil unionists into the camp of the Human Snake Organisation.

As one by one the strong men with red eyes and axes and machetes and such rushed madly towards themselves.

Not a single Evil Union member dared to stand still and continue the firefight.

Instead, one by one, they dropped the firearms in their hands and simply pulled their legs out and ran.

"So, President Ryuichi Uemoto of the Abyssal Union, you have come to us."

"What exactly is it that you wish to do?"

Lin Mo's tone gradually became colder.

The surrounding burly men's expressions once again grew cautious.

It was over, the ice-cold Vice President Molin had appeared again.

Uemoto Ryuichi looked at the burly men whose eyes gradually turned unkind, and inwardly felt a desire to cry without tears.

He himself had asked everyone to hide behind in order to disguise himself as a persuader earlier.

He was the only one who took the lead and ran out.

"It's alright, it's just that I heard about the fight today."

"As a member of the island, it is naturally my duty to come and persuade the fight."

"Since there's no more fighting going on, I'll take my leave."

The dead One-Eye probably cursed under his breath when he heard Ryuichi Uemoto's words.

"You're great, you're noble, you're not going to have a war after I die!"

An intriguing smile appeared on Lin Mo's face as he spoke.

"President Uemoto Ryuichi, since you're here then don't rush to leave, save others from talking about my forcework union."

"Poor hospitality, cold shoulder for Chairman Uemoto Ryuichi."

"No, no, no, this gentleman is too polite, there are still matters to be dealt with at the docks today."

"Some other time, some other day Ryuichi will definitely come to make amends!"

Chapter 3447

“Then President Ryuichi Uemoto must be careful on his way back.”

“It’s so dark now, don’t give yourself a fall while walking.”

Lin Mo smiled and patted Uemoto Ryuichi’s shoulder as he said to him.

“Sure sure.”

Uemoto Ryuichi gave a dry laugh, and then hesitantly turned around and walked away.

Quickly returning to the distant woods, Shang Yuan Ryuichi’s face was incomparably gloomy.

“Boss, so are we going back now?”

One of the Abyssal Union’s junior brothers looked at Uemoto Ryuichi and asked in a soft voice.

“What else, you’re still going up to start a war with someone?”

Just now, Uemoto Ryuichi had observed.

The Powerworkers’ Union didn’t have much damage at all.

And their morale was now at a high level.

If they went up there at this time, it would be like looking for sh*t.

“Come back with me first, we’ll talk about the rest later.”

Ryuichi Uemoto only wanted to hurry back with his people now.

Then bite off a piece of flesh from the power that One-Eye and the Evil Union had been operating for years.

He himself had lost so much face this time, he absolutely could not just let it go.

Seeing Shang Yuan Long Yi’s wretched back leaving.

Hua Qiang turned to Lin Mo and asked, “Just let this guy go?”

“Well, even if we go and leave them behind, the cost won’t be small.”

“There are a lot of people hiding in the woods far behind him, and the brothers are not in good shape right now.”

“It’s not suitable to go to war.”

Hua Qiang nodded and shouted to the burly men behind him.

“One by one, what are you still standing there for, hurry up and get to work!”

One by one, the strong men once again escorted the captives.

And Lin Mo as well as Hua Qiang took up the duties of the builders.

.....

Westside Docks Evil Union.

“Rubbish!”

The envoy fiercely hammered the tabletop.

He hadn't expected that punk One-Eye, just die and involve himself.

Now everyone on top of the entire island knew about the Evil Union at the West Pier.

It was actually the Human Snake Organisation.

The biggest reason why everyone feared the Human Snake Organisation was because of its mystery and power.

But now, after the exposure of the West Pier as the power of the Human Snake Organisation.

Even though everyone was afraid of the Human Snake Organisation, the mystery of the Human Snake Organisation had disappeared from their hearts.

As long as they feel they have the power to defeat the Human Snake Organisation, they will definitely fight to the death.

As soon as they feel that they have the power to defeat the Human Snake Organisation, they will definitely attack the organisation without fear of death.

They wanted to bite a piece of flesh off their bodies.

The envoy was dressed in a dark green cloak and had a snake man mask on his face.

He now looked gloomy and uncertain under the mask, and was frantically thinking of countermeasures.

If he were to sit and wait by himself.

Then wait for the news to get back to the organisation.

His own position as a special envoy would definitely have to be shaken.

He would even be pulled down from his position as envoy.

By then, he would no longer have the position of envoy to deter.

Those people who had a grudge against him would definitely not let go of this opportunity.

They would just come up and tear themselves apart!

That's right.

The best way now is to exterminate then docks.

Use the names of everyone at which dock to answer to the organization.

Now only then can one have a step of reprieve.

But right now he simply didn't have the manpower he could use.

He had come at the time knowing that One-Eye had long since pulled together a team.
He hadn't asked anyone to come and follow him at all.
But now there were so many people in the evil gang that One-Eye had pulled together.
Those who died, those who were captured and those who fled would not come back to serve him.
Surely they would not come back to serve themselves.
For today's sake it seemed that even for himself, he would have to find allies.
The envoy's gaze turned in the direction of the east.
The eyes beneath the mask were sinister and ruthless.
The Abyssal worker saw the scene tonight.
Will that Ryuichi Uemoto still be able to sleep?

Chapter 3448

The words of the envoy of the Human Serpent Organisation had hit home for Ryuichi Uemoto.
At the moment, he was back at the dock with his men, but he could not rest his mind at all.
He lay in bed, tossing and turning, but unable to sleep.
The scene he had seen during the night kept coming back to his mind.
In Ryuichi Uemoto's mind.
If he killed One-Eye on the island.
Then he would definitely be able to completely dominate the island.
But now, not only did he fail to kill One-Eye, but the northern side of the island, which was not threatening at all, was not.
Instead, the northern dock, which had no threat at all, stood up.
After some thought, Ryuichi Uemoto sat up impatiently.
"Someone, call in the scouts for tonight!"
Ryuichi Uemoto shouted at the door, picking up a cloak and draping it over his body.
If one looked closely one could see that Uemoto Ryuichi's thin body.
It was covered with muscle after muscle.
If the people on the island were to see it, they would be absolutely amazed at once.
Because all the rumours about Ryuichi Uemoto on the island were that he was very thin and weak.

However, he was very wise as a person, and all of them were able to essay the position of the boss of the Abyssal Union.

This has led to many people having any bad thoughts about Ryuichi Uemoto.

Over the years, Uemoto Ryuichi has been a*sa*sinated by not a hundred but also eighty.

Only those that died could be seen at this moment, his true power.

“Chairman.”

A scout came in from outside and knelt respectfully in front of Ryuichi Uemoto.

He was the one who had mingled with the group of rats in the darkness last night.

Witnessed all that had happened in full.

“Tell us what happened yesterday carefully.”

There was a cold light hidden in Uemoto Ryuichi’s gaze.

“Yesterday night the evil union president, One Eye, led thousands of members to attack the Powerworkers’ Union.”

“But it was as if the people of the Powerworkers’ Union had guessed it in advance.”

“Straight away, they led an ambush in the middle of the grove not far from the pier.”

“And the Evil Union was directly and defenselessly ambushed by the other side, which led to the heavy casualties.”

The look of scorn in Uemoto Ryuichi’s eyes gradually diminished.

“In other words, they didn’t destroy the Evil Union head-on at all?”

“Yes.”

The words of his subordinates caused the annoyance within Uemoto Ryuichi to gradually diminish.

The pressure originally brought to him by Lin Mo also gradually diminished, allowing him to finally breathe a sigh of relief.

“You guys go and scout out where that guy actually came from tomorrow.”

“I want to get all of his information before dark tomorrow.”

Uemoto Ryuichi’s gaze went to his subordinates in front of him.

A strong pressure fiercely pressed down on the subordinate’s body.

“Yes, Chairman!”

The subordinate retreated with his scouts.

Shang Yuan Ryuichi, on the other hand, was lying on his bed, his entire body a little more comfortable.

However, the sense of mystery as well as the pressure on Lin Mo's body in his mind had not diminished in the slightest.

Lin Mo's power made Shang Yuan Ryuichi simply that unclear.

"It seems that we will need to continue to test tomorrow to come up with an answer."

Shang Yuan Long Yi sighed long and quietly.

Lin Mo's strength was something that Ryuichi Uemoto had to know.

A hidden enemy was far more terrifying than an enemy standing in plain sight.

A chain of plans was already forming in Uemoto Ryuichi's mind.

He did not believe that a guy who had just arrived less than a month ago.

He didn't believe that a guy who had just arrived less than a month ago would be able to stop himself.

Even the old island master himself in the first place .....

It was just a pity that he let that b*tch get away.

Thinking about it, Shang Yuan Ryuichi shook his head violently.

Driving this thought completely out of his mind.

The old island master had died of a natural illness, and had absolutely nothing to do with himself in the slightest!

Just as Uemoto Ryuichi covered himself with the blanket and intended to sleep.

A somewhat shrill and teasing voice rang out from within the house.

"Uemoto Ryuichi, the president of the Abyssal Union, the rumoured smiling tiger."

"A great enemy is at hand, and you can still sleep?"

Chapter 3449

Hearing this eerie sound.

The face of Ryuichi Uemoto, who was lying on the bed, suddenly changed.

His hand snapped towards his right.

Where there was a hidden compartment with a weapon inside.

"Don't get excited."

The voice sounded again and Ryuichi Uemoto's hand was held down hard directly on the bed.

Feeling the huge force coming from his wrist, Ryuichi Uemoto's face changed abruptly.

The originally dim scene in the room lit up with lights.

Ryuichi Uemoto's wrist, which had been held down with a firm grip, was suddenly loosened.

With a wary face, he rubbed his wrist and looked at the figure in front of the door.

The envoy of the Human Snake Organisation, clad in a black cloak, slowly turned around.

Beneath the mask were turquoise eyes.

Cold-blooded and merciless.

This was the first impression those eyes gave to Ryuichi Uemoto.

"Who is your Excellency, it's not very polite to barge into my Abyssal Union late at night."

Uemoto Ryuichi looked at the Human Snake Envoy who was standing quietly and asked in a deep voice.

Since the latter did not kill himself immediately.

It meant that he must still have some value as well as usefulness.

And according to the strength of the Human Snake Envoy, Uemoto Ryuichi was like a chicken with no power.

Now he could only find out what his opponent was really up to.

For maximum benefit as well as safety.

"Do you really not know me?"

The Human Snake Envoy looked at Uemoto Ryuichi, who looked like he did not recognize himself, and said softly.

His voice caused Uemoto Ryuichi's face to harden.

"A man from the Human Snake Organisation!"

"If you know that, why are you asking me, how interesting."

Uemoto Ryuichi could feel the look of mockery on his face through that mask.

"Your Excellency's visit to my Abyssal Union late at night, what exactly is your business?"

"If you want to kill me, Uemoto Ryuichi, I naturally cannot resist, so be my guest."

"Clang!"

A sound of a sword coming out of the body rang out.

Uemoto Ryuichi stripped out the short blade deep in the bed and placed it in front of his body.

The whole person spread his hands directly, even the slight narrowing of his eyes.

It was as if a man facing death was quietly waiting for it.

"You clearly guessed that since I didn't kill you at first, I wouldn't kill you now."

"Obviously you are terrified of death. But why do you still pretend to be such."

"The spirit of apparently seeing death as death?"

The envoy's words were frivolous and pointed.

It was as if he was telling layer upon layer about the disguise on Ryuichi Uemoto.

"Well, I'm not going to bother continuing to talk nonsense with you."

"Just get right to the point."

"And don't show that disguise again, or I will really kill you straight away!"

Uemoto Ryuichi's face changed slightly, and he no longer continued to look death in the eye.

Instead, he put on a pair of flat-rimmed glasses, and his whole person looked like a business president.

"Then, go ahead, me, the little president."

"What use is it to you, or to the Human Snake Organization?"

The envoy pulled out a map from behind him of the island beneath them.

"I viewed the topographical map of the Forceworkers' Union to the north."

"They have the sea on three sides and only one way out behind them to retreat."

"You should know my intentions by now?"

The envoy's finger tapped on top of the topographical map.

A circle was drawn on the dock to the north, and his gaze was once again directed at Ryuichi Uemoto.

"What do you mean by that, I am in the same boat as my brothers at the northern docks ....."

Uemoto Ryuichi was about to say something in an impassioned voice.

But saw the green aura in the eyes of the envoy of the Human Snake Organization flicker again.

Hastily swallowed the words that had already been said in general, and silently said.

"This ..... has to be added!"

A ruthless look passed through the eyes of the Human Snake envoy, and then said with a smile.

"Good."

Chapter 3450

The next morning, Lin Mo woke up early to take a breeze on the pier.

The fresh sea breeze cleared the mind of people who had been muddled.

Although Lin Mo was full of energy, it was comfortable to be blown by the sea breeze.

“Good morning, Brother Molin!”

“Why is Vice President Molin up so early?”

The people coming and going said respectfully to Lin Mo.

Yesterday’s battle had completely made them more convinced of Lin Mo.

Some of them even shouted that they were already in the shape of Brother Molin.

In just a few days of work, Lin Mo’s prestige was almost catching up to Hua Qiang who had worked so hard for so many years.

“Good, everyone has worked hard.”

“Well, work hard and let Brother Qiang get you all a sister-in-law next year!”

The group of people poofed and left and went on to supervise the group of hard workers at work.

Suddenly a boat docked again and two men came down from it.

“Unloading anyone, ten maple coins per box!”

The words of the two men instantly attracted the attention of everyone on the dock.

There was a golden master here!

The usual unloading fee of five maple leaf coins was already very rare.

This time there was a ten maple coin one.

“What kind of goods, how many boxes?”

“Some bought fireworks, there are fifty boxes in total, will you do it?”

“Yes, we’ll take it.”

A gruff voice suddenly came out from beside Lin Mo.

Hua Qiang, who was covered in sweat, walked over from the distance and looked at the two men.

“Open the hatch.”

The two men immediately went to open the hatch.

Lin Mo, who was standing on the shore, felt that something was not quite right.

But he decided to observe a little more and quietly watched as one of the captured labourers walked up with a bitter face.

They lifted boxes of wooden crates that they usually thought were only for the lower classes.

But as the boxes of goods were gradually unloaded, Lin Mo’s brow frowned slightly.

Some of those goods just looked heavy, but some were very light.

Naturally, these things could not be fireworks, but generally speaking, fireworks were some kind of firearms.

But even if they were firearms, they could not be so light.

Suddenly, there was a sudden sound of arguing from the crowd of people moving goods in the distance.

Lin Mo's gaze was slightly cold, and then it simply disappeared.

With a kind smile on his face, he walked over to the ground.

"I clearly have three thousand five hundred Maple Leaf coins inside my wallet, how come there's only five hundred left here!"

The thinner of the two men just now held a wallet in his hand.

With an angry face, he looked angrily at a strong man in front of him.

"You're talking nonsense, I didn't even open it when I picked it up."

"You're accusing me unjustly!"

The strong man in front of the thin man had a look of aggression on his face as he yelled at the man in a loud voice.

"I'm wronging you, I could have gotten it for five hundred maple coins by stretching my hand."

"As far as me wronging you here for three thousand maple coins?"

The thin man smiled coldly and continued to glare at the strong man.

"You say you didn't take my money, do you dare to take off your clothes and let us search them?"

"If you don't dare, then hurry up and return my three thousand maple leaf coins!"

"Otherwise don't blame me for going inside the inspector's office to sue you."

The strong men around them saw the skinny man's conviction.

The expressions of righteous indignation and feeling that their brothers had been falsely accused gradually lessened on each of their faces.

Did he really steal something, but it was not like him to do things for people in normal times.

The strong man standing in the middle of the circle saw that the surrounding brothers' faces also gradually revealed a look of suspicion.

The aggravation on his face became even more serious as he had nowhere to vent the stifled anger inside.

"I've said it wasn't me."

"I've never stolen anything, what's mine is mine."

“I’ll never touch what isn’t mine even if I die of poverty and hunger!”

“Why don’t you believe me!”
