

Genius 3461

Chapter 3461

Huan Bing's expression was dumbfounded, then he pointed at himself and said in some disbelief.

"You mean that I should be the island master?"

Lin Mo nodded at him, there was indeed no more suitable candidate than Heng Bing.

Heng Bing was the daughter of the previous Island Master, and this status alone was already sufficient.

The previous Island Master had come to this island when he was young.

Restoration was carried out on a desolate island, and then gradually more people came.

He was then also nominated by the people as the new island master.

Hengbing's face was a little hesitant as she wondered if she could do well in this position of island master or not.

"Mr Maureen, can I ask why you would make me the Island Master?"

Heng Bing lifted him up to look at Lin Mo and opened her mouth to ask.

"Isn't this your ideal, do you not want to be in this position?"

"No, I do!"

A strong fighting spirit appeared in Heng Bing's eyes as he spoke to Lin Mo.

This island had been taken care of by his father before.

He himself could definitely rule the island well, just like his father did.

"Good, Miss Heng Bing, let me make the next arrangements."

After Lin Mo said softly, he retreated straight away.

When Hua Qiang from afar saw Lin Mo come out, he hurriedly beckoned.

"Brother Mo Lin, come here for a moment!"

Lin Mo stepped over and looked at Hua Qiang as he asked.

"Brother Qiang, what's wrong?"

Hua Qiang's finger pointed at the members of the Abyssal Union who were crouched on the ground.

"What do we do with these people now?"

Lin Mo looked at the densely packed crowd crouching on the ground and said after a moment of contemplation.

“For the time being, we’ll keep them all in custody, we can’t directly use them now.”

“Otherwise once they carry out a rebellion, we will definitely suffer a series of losses.”

Hua Qiang’s face revealed a look of difficulty, “But where do we put so many people?”

A smirk appeared on Lin Mo’s face as his gaze looked towards the middle of the island.

“We don’t have a place, but the inspector’s office does.”

.....

In the inspector’s mansion.

A junior captain hurriedly ran to the door of the House Master and said loudly.

“House Master, it’s not good!”

His urgent voice made everyone look sideways straight away.

“What’s the panic, what did I teach you guys on a regular basis?”

A cold chortle came from the House Master’s house, very displeased with the young captain for being so loud.

“House Master, the Abyssal Union and the Powerworkers Union are at war, and now Shang Yuan Long Yi is dead!”

“The Abyssal Union has surrendered to the Powerworkers Union en masse!”

The moment the young captain’s words came out, the entire Inspector’s Mansion was silent.

The Power Workers’ Union had already destroyed the Evil Union in the west before.

And now they had destroyed the Abyssal Union!

This meant that only the Power Workers’ Union existed on the entire island.

The dominance of one union made everyone in the inspector’s office nervous.

If the Power Workers’ Union had any different intentions.

Can the government really stand up to a union that has gathered the power of three docks?

There was a sudden clanging sound from the main gate of the Government House, which had been closed all year round since the last attack by the docks.

The main gate of the Government House was gradually pulled open and a figure appeared behind it.

At once, everyone in the inspector’s house was once again shocked.

The paperwork in the junior captain’s palm fell directly to the ground lightly.

He couldn’t believe that the head of his inspector’s house would be the one he usually saw all the time.

“Everyone set up a procession at the entrance of the Inspector’s House.”

The junior captain who was about to say something heard which familiar oppressive voice.

In the end, he nodded silently and turned to go out to make the arrangements.

The Government Master’s chubby face was filled with a serious look.

The face was none other than Zhu Tong who had wanted to drag Lin Mo into the inspector’s house in the first place!

Chapter 3462

He let out a soft sigh, a sad look spreading across his chubby face.

“I should have known that I would have let him join our inspector’s house in the first place, no matter what.”

“Well now, everyone is indeed a family now, and I’ve become an underling.”

“Ugh.”

Zhu Tong no longer continued to stand in the doorway of the room in gloom.

His chubby body twisted and turned a little, making preparations for what would happen in a moment.

At the entrance of the inspector’s house, a well-dressed soldier stepped out.

Their hands no longer held firearms as they had done in the past.

They each held a red carpet as well as an a*sortment of ceremonial flowers.

“What is the inspector’s house doing here?”

“Could it be that some big shot has arrived to make it so grand.”

“This group of bullies will have their day too!”

The soldiers of the inspector’s office were expressionless and did not pay any attention to the group of guys on the street.

As time pa*sed, a sturdy figure suddenly appeared on the street in the distance.

This figure was followed by a group of muscular men who looked extremely fearsome.

The guys who had been standing at the entrance of the inspector’s house watching the fun were all too afraid to stay at this moment.

“Such a big group, which dock is it coming from?”

“I don’t know, isn’t it said that the docks have always been very at odds with the inspector’s house?”

“The sky of this island, it seems to be changing!”

Their figures disappeared in a hurry.

Lin Mo's upright and handsome figure gradually approached.

His face was calm as he looked at the soldiers of the inspector's house who had already formed a welcoming parade.

Heng Bing beside him saw this scene and a look of reminiscence flashed in her eyes.

The last time she had seen such a scene was ten years ago when her own father had not been killed by Shang Yuan Ryuichi.

"Lord Zhu Tuan of the Governor's Mansion has met Miss Heng Bing as well as Vice President Mo Lin."

The chubby Zhu Tuan walked and pulled himself out from the middle of the Inspector's Mansion.

His chubby face was full of smiles as he looked at Lin Mo as well as the two of them, Heng Bing.

A look of astonishment appeared in Heng Bing's eyes.

The lord of the inspector's residence had actually come out to greet the two of them like this?

Lin Mo looked at Zhu Tuan.

When this guy first met, Lin Mo had felt that he must still have a hidden identity.

Now it seemed that this was indeed the case.

"It's quite rare for the Governor of the Inspection House to actually disguise himself as a recruitment office at that time."

Lin Mo looked at Zhu Tuan and spoke with a smile in his tone.

"A little means of self-preservation is all, it cannot enter your eyes."

Zhu Tuan's tone was very humble as he looked at Lin Mo with a smile.

"Since Lord Zhu Tuan has already come out to greet you."

"Then Lord Zhu Tuan should also know the purpose of our visit, right?"

"Naturally naturally."

Zhu Tuan nodded smilingly.

When he heard the news from his spies inside the house.

He had already known that Lin Mo would definitely come to the inspector's residence to find himself.

There were so many people in the Abyssal Union, Lin Mo would certainly not kill them all.

And the probability of wanting to settle down first was definitely higher than the probability of disbanding them all.

So from then on, Zhu Tong had already started making preparations.

“Those from the Abyssal Union I will have someone go and carry out the receiving.”

“Mr. Molin need not worry, it just so happens that it is now close to noon, how about entering the house for some food?”

A smile flashed across Lin Mo’s eyes before he nodded his head.

This Zhu Tong was very good at being a man, reminding him of He Er who was far away in Haiphong City.

And there was no deep hatred between the two.

When Wang Er was looking for trouble at that time Zhu Tuan neither blocked nor agreed.

After that, he hadn’t even continued to let the inspector’s office do anything.

So Lin Mo was willing to give Zhu Tuan this face and see what he wanted to do.

He entered the lobby of the inspector’s residence.

Dishes were being brought up by the underlings.

These were just ordinary dishes outside.

In a place like this, ordinary people really couldn’t eat them.

“Everyone stand down!”

Chapter 3463

Zhu Tong loudly told all the subordinates to retreat.

One by one, the subordinates retreated, and the entire hall was suddenly filled with only the three of them, Lin Mo.

“Mr. Mo Lin, Miss Heng Bing.”

“The two of you didn’t come here for this matter alone this time, did you?”

Zhu Tong’s gaze looked towards the two, mainly Lin Mo.

Lin Mo was the absolute backbone of the two, and it was also because Lin Mo was there.

Only then did Zhu Tuan dare to conclude that he would not be able to win at all.

“Not bad, Miss Heng Bing you speak.”

Lin Mo nodded and gazed at Heng Bing who was on the side.

“Ah well.”

Heng Bing hesitated for a moment, but eventually nodded.

He got up and walked to Zhu Tuan’s body and said in a deep voice.

"I want to become the new Island Master!"

Her voice was very clear, although she was a little apprehensive inside.

But her gaze still looked straight at Zhu Tong.

After Zhu Tuan heard Heng Bing's words, no look of surprise appeared on his face.

For this was inevitable.

Heng Bing's appearance was the most unexpected thing for Zhu Tuan.

This daughter of the previous Island Master had disappeared for so many years.

Even though he had always secretly sent people to search for her, there was no trace of her.

Today's appearance and the matter of defending the Powerworkers' Union were not in Heng Bing's interest.

The only person who could make her do such a thing was the one who wanted to unite with the Power Workers' Union.

"Then, Miss Hengbing, you should know that if you want to become the island master."

"You must have the power and prestige to suppress the whole island."

"You are the daughter of the old island master, so naturally there is no problem with your reputation."

"But many new people have come to the island over the years, and they don't recognise your reputation."

"So, it needs to be fought."

Zhu Tuan lightly stated what was needed to become the island master.

Right now two of the three major docks were completely destroyed and one was still supporting Heng Bing to become the island lord.

Naturally, Zhu Tuan did not go into the issue of the docks, but only spoke about those who were new to the island.

A look of difficulty appeared on Heng Bing's face.

With the barely one thousand troops under him, it was impossible to suppress those guys.

A bad one might even be shaded by them, ultimately resulting in a tragic death and injury.

Behind him, Lin Mo looked at Heng Bing's difficult look at this moment and spoke softly.

"There is no need to worry, I said I would take care of these things for you."

After saying that, Lin Mo's gaze looked towards Zhu Tuan.

"Then Lord Zhu Tuan, I hope that the succession ceremony can be held again at the entrance of the Island Master's residence at eight o'clock this evening."

“Miss Heng Bing is the daughter of the old Island Master, and it would be logical and legal to become the new Island Master.”

“What do you think?”

Although Lin Mo’s tone was flat, some pressure rose in Zhu Tuan’s heart.

“Yes, there will definitely be a perfect succession ceremony at the entrance of the Island Master’s residence by eight o’clock tonight.”

A slight killing intent appeared on Zhu Tuan’s face.

“Good, Lord Zhu Tuan, don’t worry since you were the head of the inspector’s house when the old island master reigned.”

“Then even if I succeed to the throne, this position will still be yours.”

Heng Bing looked at Zhu Tuan and promised directly.

“My humble thanks to Miss.”

After eating, Lin Mo told Heng Bing to stay in the inspector’s residence for the time being while he himself went out to take care of things.

Thus, that afternoon.

The entire island was instantly sealed off directly by the Forceworkers’ Union as well as the people and horses from the Inspector’s Mansion.

All the people on the island, no matter if they were good people who had been wronged or bad people who had fled to this place.

All of them were searched and talked to by the inspector’s office and the force workers’ union.

Those who supported Miss Hengbing to become the island master could continue to do so in peace.

But those who do not support and do not take a stand, all of them

Kill without amnesty!

Lin Mo did not care what kind of things would be caused by killing these people at this moment.

A group of people who were already heinous in their own sins were still so disrespectful.

If they die, so be it!

Chapter 3464

The whole island was filled with a solemn aura.

Even in the kilns, the people at home were not spared.

They rushed straight in and brought a mongrel-faced man under control, and then began to ask questions.

“Do you agree with Miss Heng Bing becoming the new Island Master?”

“Who the hell are you guys to just hold a knife to my neck. My brother-in-law is

Before the words were finished, the strong men of the force workers union directly also no longer hesitated.

The watermelon knives in their hands directly wiped the man’s neck.

“Wouldn’t we be a bit too overbearing like this?”

A soldier from the inspector’s office looked at the man whose eyes were flashing with disbelief.

With some hesitation, he spoke.

The two strong men gave him a look and said directly.

“We have an order from Vice President Molin, all those who do not agree to Miss Heng Bing becoming the island master will all be shot dead!”

“That’s right, you go back and talk to your House Master, no point in being a man.”

Such things appeared in every part of the island.

In a place at the edge of the island, Hua Qiang was skulking around with two strong men.

Suddenly, Hua Qiang’s eyes gathered on a place at the roots of a large tree in the distance.

Seeing the marks on it, a smile appeared on Hua Qiang’s face.

“You two quietly feel your way over and surround that tree!”

Hua Qiang turned his head and whispered an order to the two.

The three then groped towards the big tree from each of the three directions.

At the base of the tree, a man was resting in the small space.

He was a professional night hunter who only operated in the darkness of the night.

This place was a carefully crafted resting place for him.

The space was small, the location was hidden, and it was nothing but a little more insects.

Hua Qiang arrived in front of the big tree and looked at the very obvious scratch on it, a hint of mischief in his eyes.

Such a scratch might look hidden to others.

But to a man like Hua Qiang, who walked in the mountains and forests all year round, it was too obvious.

It was too obvious.

Hua Qiang's hand stroked lightly on top of the big tree.

Then with a movement of his massive palm, he removed a piece of wood.

The sound was so small that even the man, who only dared to sleep halfway, did not notice.

"It's not good, the island is sinking!"

Hua Qiang shouted suddenly and violently at the man.

The majestic sound echoed in the middle of the tiny tree cave.

The man's body shook to the naked eye for a moment, then quickly opened his eyes.

Hua Qiang took hold of the man's palm that was holding the dagger and asked with a smile.

"The old island master's daughter, Miss Heng Bing, is going to become the new island master, do you agree?"

The man's face showed a confused look.

Looking at Hua Qiang's fierce face, the man silently swallowed his saliva and winged his way to say.

"Should I agree?"

"We are very democratic in our enquiries, don't worry."

Hua Qiang looked at the man in small secrecy and said at last.

"Of course, Miss Hengbing is mature and stable, I think she will be able to take the position of Island Master."

Hua Qiang's last words nudged the man awake and he said inside.

"I also think that Miss Hengbing is mature and stable, not to mention being the daughter of the old island master."

"The position of Island Master, other than Miss Hengbing, who can fill the position?"

Only after the man's words were finished in a series of words did Hua Qiang then let go of his hand.

Patting the man's shoulder at his somewhat frightened look, he said with a smile.

"The succession ceremony will be held tonight at eight o'clock in front of the island master's residence, make sure to come oh."

Hua Qiang felt like a communication genius at the moment.

It must have been his own kind manner and smiling face.

It was what made the man have such a quick change of heart.

If the man had known what Hua Qiang was thinking inside, he would have inwardly scolded.

You really don't have a f*cking clue about how you look.

Chapter 3465

Eight o'clock at night, at the entrance to the Island Master's House.

It was already dark, but the entrance to the Island Master's House was still as bright as day.

Hundreds of large lamps were lit up in the Island Master's mansion, a place that is often devoid of newcomers.

The original mansion, which had long been covered in dust, was made clean once again.

"Brother Molin, don't worry, everything is done,"

"Our forceworkers' union is all about courtesy and kindness today."

Looking at Hua Qiang who slapped his chest and swore.

A hint of suspicion flashed across Lin Mo's eyes.

He always felt that things were not as simple as Hua Qiang had said.

But now that the time had come, Lin Mo did not bother to ask Hua Qiang for details.

Instead, he looked at Zhu Tong who was at the side, "Shall we begin?"

Zhu Tuan nodded and said loudly, "The succession ceremony, now begins."

Countless salutes were fired in the sky, and a stream of rhythmic music began to flow recklessly.

Heng Bing, who was dressed in the clothes of an island lord, walked out and gave Lin Mo a somewhat nervous glance.

Lin Mo passed a reassuring look at Heng Bing.

Outside the door of the Island Master's residence were the people who were still alive on the island right now.

It was probably just a little over 10,000.

The people who had been killed alone were enough to feed the sharks within 50 kilometres of the area.

The faces of the people standing outside the island master's house were heavy, not daring to speak.

Even their bodies were standing straight all the time.

You say you are the island master we can support you.

You hold succession ceremonies and everyone can come and give you a show.

But you have arranged hundreds of snipers on all sides as well as hundreds of escorts.

Watching the infrared rays of the sniper rifle whipping around the heads of yourself and others.

To be honest, it's true that you don't dare to move.

Even those in the crowd who had ulterior motives were one by one silent at the moment.

With Heng Bing walking out, it attracted everyone's attention.

"Long live Miss Heng Bing!"

"Congratulations to Miss Heng Bing for becoming the island master and leading our island to flourish!"

"How many years have passed, I am reminded of the time when the old Island Master was around again."

Suddenly, a burst of cheers erupted from among the crowd.

Looking at the people around them who were cheering wildly, they were baffled.

But feeling the infra-red light that kept beating above their heads, the crowd cheered along with them.

At this moment when all eyes were on him, Heng Bing glanced at Lin Mo in the distance.

Some excitement and disbelief settled down inside.

Walking up to everyone, Heng Bing began his speech.

"Gentlemen, I'm sure everyone knows me by now, so I won't introduce myself."

"My father was the last Island Master, and he bowed and scraped for this island."

"Now I will tell you all, whether it is my father or me."

"The only goal is to build our island up, because this is our home."

"From this day on, all the grey industries will be supervised as well as guarded by the inspector's office."

"In the past you bought and sold people and sold young girls into the kilns and no one bothered you."

"But now, I will set up a red light district on the west side of the island, which will be monitored by the inspectorate."

"Anyone who sells and buys people and cheats will be sanctioned by the inspector's office!"

This was Heng Bing's first goal in becoming the island's master, to change the island over.

I dare not say that it would be changed to be as peaceful and stable as a great country like China.

But there must never be any sale of people or killings.

When Heng Bing's words came out, the people below were all silent.

Such a decision had both good and bad effects on them, the good being a better living environment for the weak.

The bad thing was that their future behaviour was bound to be less unscrupulous than it is now.

Zhu Tong's gaze narrowed and he gave a look to Tor in the crowd.

“Lord Heng Iceland is wise!”

Chapter 3466

The succession ceremony for the Island Master gradually came to an end.

Heng Bing returned inside the Island Master’s residence, and those who were standing outside immediately scattered in all directions and left.

It was simply too terrifying here.

Some of them gradually recalled what that bald man had said about democracy.

They hated to rage at him.

This is your f*cking democracy?

A group of people indignantly left quickly, as far as making trouble?

Brother, all of you support you with your thoughts.

In the island master’s residence, Lin Mo Zhu Tuan and Heng Bing sat at a table.

“Mr Molin, now that the succession ceremony has been completed, what should our next step be?”

Heng Bing’s gaze went directly to Lin Mo, who was on the side.

Zhu Tuan’s gaze also gathered on Lin Mo’s body.

“We should now make use of the greatest advantage of this island.”

“The greatest advantage of the West Vientiane Islands is that there are no rules, and this happens to be the greatest rule.”

“Next, merge the three docks together and completely build the largest one.”

The two men nodded, as for the rest even if Lin Mo didn’t say anything.

They would also know how they should go about it.

“By the way Lord Zhu Tuan, there was a shipment of several dozen tons of cargo that was robbed at sea a few dozen days ago.”

“Do you have any news or have you heard anything about it?”

Lin Mo’s gaze was cast towards Zhu Tuan and he inquired softly.

Up to now, Lin Mo had no news on where exactly the Hongmen’s cargo was either.

He only knew that the organisation involved in the robbery had the involvement of the Human Snake Organisation.

A look of reminiscence flashed in Zhu Tuan’s eyes, and then he said to Lin Mo.

“Mr. Mo Lin, if you are asking about this, I have really heard something about it.”

“It is said that that batch of supplies belonged to the Hongmen Guangde Hall’s Hall Master, but it was robbed straight away.”

“The water here is too muddy, you are not advised to get involved.”

Lin Mo nodded and didn’t continue to say anything more.

Those who were able to directly rob Hongmen’s supplies would definitely not be some minor characters.

It was only normal for Zhu Tuan not to know.

“And just shortly after those things were robbed, Nie Qing of the Great Circle Gang was originally having an average time.”

“But all of a sudden he was spending his time and drinking.”

“Rather, there are rumours that he might know something about this.”

The Great Circle Gang?

Lin Mo’s brows frowned slightly.

“What kind of power is the Great Circle Gang?”

Zhu Tuan took out a document from a bookshelf to the side and placed it on the table.

“The Great Circle Gang is a triad force, and is very organized.”

“They frequently appear in places like the West Coast and cause trouble for no reason.”

“And the base, according to the information, is in the middle of the He Ning country, and even meddles in the political affairs of the He Ning country.”

A thoughtful look appeared in Lin Mo’s eyes.

The forces regarding the cargo were getting more and more complicated now, and it definitely wouldn’t be just this little.

“Let’s leave it at that for tonight, I still have a few things I need to take care of.”

Lin Mo stood up and said to the two men, then turned and left the Island Master’s residence.

The moon was covered by clouds tonight, and darkness completely covered the earth.

Lin Mo walked on top of the stone brick paved street, his face expressionless.

“How much longer do I have to follow?”

Suddenly, Lin Mo’s lips gently parted as he said softly.

The surroundings were empty at the moment, and Lin Mo looked as if he was talking to himself.

If onlookers were to see it, they would only think that Lin Mo was a madman.

"If you don't come out again, I'll leave."

Lin Mo's gaze looked directly towards a large tree in the distance, a cold aura flashing in his eyes.

Just now, he had felt someone spying on him in the mansion.

That was why he had left the Island Master's residence straight away.

Lin Mo wanted to see which side this was from to follow him again.

Lin Mo's gaze looked straight at the large tree in the distance and did not move.

After a long time, a voice of appreciation rang out.

"Impressive, worthy of Mr. Mo Lin."

Chapter 3467

Behind the large tree, a human figure slowly stepped out.

A middle-southern man with a moustache walked out and looked at Lin Mo with an appreciative expression.

"Your Excellency has followed me for so long, what exactly is the reason for this?"

Lin Mo's tone was filled with a morose coldness.

"Introduce yourself, I am a disciple of the Overseas Hong Clan."

"My master would like to invite Mr. Mo Lin to have a chat, I wonder if it is convenient?"

Lin Mo looked at the man calmly and said, "I don't know your master."

"No harm, no foul."

The smile on the middle-aged man's face remained unchanged as he opened his mouth and continued to speak.

"You should have heard of our Hong Clan, right?"

Lin Mo nodded, could the master of his own Sugar Broad Hall not know about it?

"My master has no small amount of power among the Hong Clan, you can even become a disciple of the Hong Clan with a word."

After the middle-aged man finished speaking, although he didn't mock or anything.

But Lin Mo could also feel his condescension.

A hint of amusement flashed in Lin Mo's eyes before he said.

"Then take me to meet your family's master."

The middle-aged man's face became even more smiling when he heard Lin Mo agree.

“To be able to work as a dog for your master is a blessing that others can’t ask for in several lifetimes.”

“You’re also lucky to just happen to appear to look at your master.”

Lin Mo did not reply to the middle-aged man’s words, but quietly followed behind him.

He wanted to see what kind of monstrous power the middle-aged man said the master had.

On the island’s seashore, outside a bamboo forest.

The middle-aged man led Lin Mo to the outside of this bamboo forest and opened his mouth to say.

“The master is waiting for you in the middle of the bamboo forest, so go in.”

Lin Mo nodded and followed the path pointed out by the middle-aged man and walked inside.

The only sounds in the quiet bamboo forest were the hissing of insects.

Lin Mo’s originally hanging hands instantly rose up.

The slender palms of his hands instantly caught an object that came attacking.

“Hiss hiss!”

A bamboo leaf green was directly pinched by Lin Mo by seven inches, hissing continuously.

Lin Mo directly threw the bamboo leaf green back into the bamboo forest and continued walking towards the front.

The path in the middle of the bamboo forest gradually opened up and a small field appeared in front of Lin Mo.

A young man was sitting in the middle of the bamboo forest, holding a jade pot in his hand, drinking a sip or two.

When he saw Lin Mo walk into the two.

A slight amusement appeared on the young man’s languid face.

“You’re that Mo Lin, right?”

“Right.”

Lin Mo nodded his head in response to the man’s words.

“You know, I thought you wouldn’t come,”

The young man looked at Lin Mo, a smile on his face, and waved his hand for Lin Mo to sit down.

There was only the seat opposite the young man in the entire tiny venue to do so.

Lin Mo didn’t bother to lift it either, and sat directly opposite the young man.

“Impudent, you are also worthy of sitting opposite me!”

The young man’s face, which was still smiling, instantly turned into anger.

Picking up a jade pot, he smashed it towards Lin Mo.

“Pop.”

The jade pot was gently held in Lin Mo’s hand.

Lin Mo’s calm gaze looked towards the young man.

Why was this guy nervous?

Seeing Lin Mo directly catch the jade pot he had smashed.

A smile once again appeared on the young man’s face as he said aloud.

“Molin, I’ve heard about your deeds today, you’re a very good person.”

“How about this, if you become my subordinate, I can guarantee that you will be allowed to enter the Hong Clan.”

“Even even the eight halls are not inaccessible to you, how about that?”

Lin Mo looked at the youth’s confident look and spoke.

“What about if I want to enter the Guangde Hall, do you have a way?”

The young man’s palm waved as he spoke directly.

“You should know Lin Mo, the Hall Master of Guangde Hall, that is my friend.”

“The two of us have a good relationship, it’s a matter of a word for you to get in.”

Chapter 3468

Lin Mo’s eyes narrowed slightly.

Saying that he knew himself in front of himself, the head of the Guangde Hall.

Was this guy faking his background or was he simply trying to use himself first.

“Then I wonder if I want to join the Hongmen Guangde Hall.”

“What do I need to pay?”

Lin Mo looked at the young man and calmly inquired.

“Molin, I admire you, do you know why?”

The young man that word did not directly tell Lin Mo what he needed to pay.

Instead, he changed the subject and inquired at Lin Mo with a smile on his face.

Lin Mo gently shook his head.

The young man continued, “I’ve inquired about you, calm, powerful and mysterious.”

"These three points are the biggest synonyms for you, but it just so happens that all of them are what I like."

"That's why I had you invited here straight away, just to recruit you."

"Tell you what, you drink that jug of wine in your hand and then help me fight a match."

"Then I'll help you enter the Guangde Hall, how about that?"

Looking at the youth's serious appearance, those who didn't know would think that he was genuinely trying to help Lin Mo.

"What kind of match?"

"A black boxing ring match."

"The opponent is Nie Qing of the Big Circle Gang, and only if you can oblige him, everything will be fine."

Lin Mo's eyes changed slightly, Nie Qing of the Big Circle Gang

It was the guy that Zhu Tong had said was living a life of pleasure straight after the goods had been robbed.

Originally, Lin Mo had wanted to arrest this youth in front of him directly after asking.

Asking about other things, he didn't expect there to be unexpected gains.

"Good, when is that boxing match?"

Hearing Lin Mo agree so readily, the smile on the youth's face grew even thicker.

However, the bottom of his eyes were filled with disdain as well as ridicule.

Just such a guy was called Mr. Molin by the people on the island.

Now it seems that he is still a complete idiot.

When he was done using himself, he would arrange for a bottom-level Hongmen disciple status.

He himself is only a disciple of one of the eight halls.

And he, a guy with a little achievement above the islands opened his mouth to enter the eight halls.

"You go back first, I will have someone inform you when the time comes."

The youth showed a spring breeze and warm smile to Lin Mo.

He then watched Lin Mo leave.

"Leng Yi."

The youth indifferently opened his mouth and called out.

"Subordinate is here."

The middle-aged man with a moustache outside walked in and respectfully said to the youth.

“At the underground boxing ring in ten days’ time, arrange for Mo Lin to fight against Nie Qing in the life and death ring.”

“And put out the word that Mo Lin is just an ordinary person with a little bit of brains.”

“Raise Molin’s multiplier to the highest and put all our money on it at the last minute of the closing bell.”

The youth instructed softly to Leng Yi.

“Yes, young master.”

.....

The docks of the Powerworkers’ Union were lit up at the moment.

When Lin Mo returned, an anxious Hua Qiang walked up.

“Molin, we’ve run into something.”

Lin Mo patted Hua Qiang’s shoulder and said in a deep voice.

“Brother Qiang, what happened, speak slowly.”

Hua Qiang took a breath and then spoke continuously.

“We weren’t planning to go to the merging docks today, but when we arrived we realised.”

“Those places have long been plundered, even the piles of goods were not left behind.”

“The materials needed to merge the three docks to form one large dock are quite a lot, and the island simply doesn’t have them now.”

“Now we simply can’t build a new large dock.”

Hua Qiang spoke out all of his problems, his eyes looking expectantly towards Lin Mo.

Lin Mo pondered for two seconds before speaking, “Brother Qiang, leave this matter to me.”

Chapter 3469

Early in the morning of the next day, just as the sky was slightly dawning, Lin Mo woke up from his rest.

Looking out at the rising sun, Lin Mo could not help but start thinking about the current situation.

The lack of construction materials was now fatal.

Even if the other two docks were torn down, it wouldn’t work at all.

Now one wanted to start building a new large dock.

The only way to do that was to go to the other islands and make acquisitions first.

But Lin Mo himself wasn’t too familiar with this part of the Western Wanxiang Islands.

Zhu Tong, the local snake, should be more familiar with these matters.

Inside the inspector's residence, Zhu Tong was drinking tea in the middle of the courtyard.

"Lord Zhu, I've come to ask you about something."

Lin Mo's voice that appeared abruptly caused the tea in Zhu Tuan's mouth to almost spurt out in one gulp.

"Cough cough, Lord Lin, why are you here."

Zhu Tuan hurriedly picked up a piece of paper to wipe the water stains off the corner of his mouth, and a smile appeared on his face.

"We don't have the materials to build a new mega dock?"

Hearing Lin Mo's words, Zhu Tuan nodded.

"Yes, I was just about to inform you of this matter."

Zhu Tuan's face turned serious as he said to Lin Mo.

"The materials we have in temporary storage right now are simply not enough to build a new mega dock."

"Timber is fine, but steel and the like even if we hollowed out the entire island."

"We definitely wouldn't be able to find it either, so this plan simply doesn't have the materials to go ahead right now."

Lin Mo looked at the list of materials that Zhu Tong had picked up and nodded at a slight comparison.

However, he did not speak, but waited for Zhu Tuan to continue speaking.

There was absolutely no hint of giving up or anything like that in Zhu Tuan's words just now.

Lin Mo believed that Zhu Tong must have already thought of a response.

"But there is a large iron mine on Ling Island next door to us."

"Mr. Molin you can go to the next island to do some acquisition or something like that."

"We still have some reserve funds on top of our island that we can use."

Jutong spread out a map and nodded on top of one of the islands.

"Why isn't this iron mine in the hands of Ling Island's island master?"

"This kind of strategic resource should be considered important, right?"

Hearing Lin Mo's question, Zhu Tong smiled and replied one by one.

"Iron ore is indeed a strategic resource, but this iron ore was discovered by several mining merchants together at the time"

“Even the Island Master of Ling Island couldn’t get his hands on all of it, so in the end, the Island Master took half of it.”

“The rest belonged entirely to those few mining merchants.”

Lin Mo nodded his head, then his thin lips opened lightly and said.

“Then can we acquire it if we can go ahead and buy it directly?”

A thief’s smile appeared on Zhu Tuan’s face, and an air of sadness was revealed all over his body.

“Back in the day, I returned with a mining merchant on the island named Qian.”

“The two of us had also ventured out together for a few days decades ago.”

“At that time, I was still very thin, just as you are now, Mr Molin.”

Zhu Tuan’s face showed the expression of a hero who also had a late day.

Lin Mo silently glanced at Zhu Tuan’s figure; all the flesh on his body was fat.

There was no trace of exercise at all.

For a moment, Lin Mo did not know what he should say.

Zhu Tuan detached himself from his past with intent, and saw Lin Mo’s silent appearance.

“Mr. Molin, I have written a letter that you will give directly to him when you see the return of the money.”

“He will know what he should do.”

“It’s just that I haven’t been in contact with Qian’s Return for years, and I don’t know exactly where he is.”

“You will need to go to the ore market yourself to find these, Mr. Molin.”

Zhu Tong took out a vellum letter from his bosom and handed it to Lin Mo.

Lin Mo took the paper letter and said softly.

“Okay, I know.”

Chapter 3470

In the middle of the island master’s residence, a loud clanging sound was heard at the moment.

“No, how can we let Molin go to another island alone!”

“Besides, even if we must go for supplies, wouldn’t it be better if we dispatched one person to go ahead?”

Heng Bing looked at Zhu Tuan in front of him and hated to give him a fat beating.

How could it be that easy to go to another island and borrow something, taking over Zhu Tong would be enough to just tell Lin Mo to go.

“Lord Island Master, our island except for Mr. Molin.”

“There is absolutely no one who can buy supplies from a place like Ling Island.”

Facing the angry Heng Bing, Zhu Tuan didn’t show the slightest hint of regret.

They were just an island that didn’t even have a name, how could they just send a random person.

To be able to directly buy supplies from Ling Island, which was two or three times the size of theirs?

Only Lin Mo had the strongest ability as well as a high status above the entire island.

If there must be someone who could borrow the supplies, then it must be Lin Mo.

Zhu Tong did not deceive Lin Mo either. He knew Luo Jiang.

But that was a long time ago.

And it had only been a few days since they had thought about it.

So whether or not he could receive supplies this time he went was still on Lin Mo’s shoulders.

“Lord Island Master, it’s better to name the island a bit earlier.”

“The old Island Lord never named the island in the first place, you can’t keep putting it off.”

Zhu Tuan did not say anything more about Lin Mo, but instead talked about the name of the island.

He firmly believed that even if Lin Mo couldn’t buy the various ores, with his hands.

He would also be fine and return safely.

Heng Bing fell into silence for a moment.

When his own father had delayed naming the island, it had filled Heng Bing with doubts.

Now that it was his turn to name it, Heng Bing definitely could not continue to put it off any longer.

Heng Bing pondered in silence.

One by one, names appeared and were removed in her mind.

After a long time, Heng Bing seemed to have thought of something, and a bit of red appeared on her white face.

“How about we call it Forest Island?”

“There are mostly trees on the island, so it just so happens to be named after that.”

“Huh?”

Zhu Tong, who originally had a calm face, was suddenly frozen.

His round little eyes looked at Heng Bing with a look of disbelief in his eyes.

Are you sure this forest of yours is talking about the trees on the island?

And there are mostly trees, why don't you call it Mori Island, wouldn't that be more apt?

Looking at the strange look in Zhu Tong's eyes.

Heng Bing felt that all his little thoughts had been seen through in general, and he immediately said in an annoyed manner.

"Zhu Tuan, you are now appointed as the propagator of the island's name and fully responsible for this matter."

"Before it gets dark today, I want to see the sign of Lin Island on every edge of the island!"

Listening to Heng Bing's obviously petulantly angry words, Zhu Tuan let out a deep sigh.

Come on, all this tiring work had fallen on himself, the head of the inspector's residence, again.

"Yes, I will definitely finish it before nightfall, and ask the Island Master to inspect it then."

After saying these words, Zhu Tong walked bitterly towards the outside.

Heng Bing sat by himself in the middle of the living room.

After a long time, Heng Bing's face showed red.

What was wrong with himself, why did he keep thinking of that guy at every turn.

The figure of Lin Mo kept echoing in Heng Bing's mind.

Although he spoke in a very straightforward manner, his figure was firmly imprinted in Heng Bing's mind.

Especially his back when he had handed Shang Yuan Long Yi over to himself to deal with.

If Zhu Tong hadn't left yet, he would have seen this scene and had to keep breaking it inwardly.

"The island master has finally fallen into the sea of love!"

Snapping back from her fantasy, Hengbing patted her feverish cheeks.

A look of determination appeared within her gaze as she picked up the various paperwork on the table.

Since Maureen had given the island to herself, she must do a good job.
