Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3541

Lin Mo had casually left Nie Qing under the ring.

Those red-eyed gamblers would come for him.

After speaking to the members of the Big Circle Gang who were kneeling on the ground.

Turning around, he walked towards the lift.

The members of the Big Circle Gang kneeling on the ground were now looking at each other.

Eventually it was the oldest one who stood up and said to them.

“Why are you all still frozen here, didn’t you hear Elder Molin’s words?”

When Nie Qing hadn’t been defeated, he was Nie Qing’s most successful subordinate.

Now that Lin Mo had defeated Nie Qing, then he would be loyal to Lin Mo.

Such a character would be able to survive longer in this chaotic place.

The smile that Zhao Draft in the audience originally wore because of his winnings had now dissipated.

His eyes looked coldly at the departing Lin Mo as well as the members of the Great Circle Gang.

“When did Mo Lin become the leader of the Big Circle Gang, why don’t I know anything about it?”

“I don’t know.”

The moustached man also shook his head.

At that time, when Lin Mo had left for Ling Island.

They hadn’t been there to pry for information.

Now that they thought about it, it was probably only during that time period.

“Let’s go back first.”

Zhao Draft said in a deep voice, then walked straight towards the lift.

The original thought of taking Lin Mo under his wing had vanished at this moment.

He was already the co-owner of Ling Island’s Great Circle Gang.

There was absolutely no need to follow him out.

The bar at the third floor.

The barman saw so many people following behind Lin Mo.

He hastily lowered his head.

He didn't dare to speak to Lin Mo as well as look at him.

Yesterday, he had poisoned Lin Mo's food, which made him feel very weak.

Lin Mo didn't bother to pay attention to the barman.

He walked to the door of his room and said to the members of the Big Circle Gang behind him.

"Those of you who are in charge of the management come in, the others stay outside first."

Several of the men from the Big Circle Gang members followed behind Lao Er into the room.

"Boss Molin, I was originally in charge of chores for the Big Circle Gang, everyone calls me Lao Er."

Older Two came up and said to Lin Mo with a smile on his face.

Lin Mo nodded and then said to them.

"How many men are there in the Great Circle Gang on the Death Giant Wheel right now?"

Lao Er's expression froze, and then quickly spoke.

"Our Big Circle Gang's manpower on top of the Death Giant Ship is now over a thousand."

"Earlier, Nie Qing brought up all of the Great Circle Gang forces under him."

"It could even be said that they gave Ling Island away directly."

Lin Mo nodded slightly, "How was the food and drink for more than a thousand people taken care of?"

"Nie Qing had gotten a large amount of money from somewhere before."

"But he wouldn't allow us to ask, and anyone who did died."

"So we don't know exactly where Nie Qing's money came from."

Lao Er told them all that he knew.

Lin Mo nodded and then said to the few people.

"Since Nie Qing is already dead, don't continue to stay at the Death Giant Wheel."

"You guys go down later and pass the order for them all to pack up and return to Ling Island with me."

"If there are those who don't want to go back, deprive the Great Circle Gang of their identities and pay some money."

Lin Mo now had no need to stay on this ship anymore.

As for who was in control of this giant ship, Lin Mo wasn't very interested either.

Lin Mo's main purpose for coming to the West Vientiane Islands was still to investigate the supplies of the Hongmen.

The longer the time was delayed, then the more that supply would be lost.

“Yes.”

At once, Lao Er and a few of the leaders of the Great Circle Gang headed outside.

They had long since stopped wanting to stay on top of this giant ship.

It was better to be on top of Ling Island, with the fresh air and the warm sunshine.

On top of this giant ship of death, the Big Circle Gang couldn't even go up to the deck.

It was too D*mn stifling!

Above the deck of the giant ship of death.

Lin Mo stepped up with thousands of members of the Great Circle Gang.

And it was as if the second captain from before had known that Lin Mo would bring people aboard.

He had stood on top of the deck long ago.

The rugged face was all smiles.

“Mr. Molin, I felt very extraordinary the first time I saw you.”

“I even sent someone on purpose to poke around about you, and it was really terrifying as hell.”

“You killed the Big Circle Gang's Wu San in one move, and now you've even defeated Nie Qing with ease.”

“I'm here to congratulate you on behalf of the Death Giant Wheel.”

Looking at the Second Captain, Lin Mo's face also revealed a smile.

“Then I'll have more congratulations from the Second Captain.”

Lin Mo and the Second Captain looked as if they were friends with each other in life and death at this moment.

“Mr Molin, I have prepared the ships for the Great Circle Gang.”

“And since it's your first time here, all departure fees are waived.”

“More to you then, Second Captain.”

“If you are free to come to Ling Island as a guest for sure, I will definitely sweep you off your feet and welcome you.”

Lin Mo looked at the second captain and said with a smile.

As the saying goes, a hand is never extended to a smiling face.

Since the Second Captain was so smiling, then Lin Mo naturally wouldn't try to punch him in the face.

He led the crowd of the Great Circle Gang towards the elevated platform.

“Right Brother Mo Lin, this is my waist tag, you take it.”

“If you come to the Death Giant Wheel in the future, just take out this waist tag directly.”

Lin Mo smilingly accepted the waist plate handed to him by the second captain.

“So, is this waist plate one million or two million for one use?”

The Second Captain’s face, which was originally covered in smiles, suddenly revealed an embarrassed look.

“Brother Molin, that’s a bit too much for you to say.”

“What money or no money, I genuinely want to make you a friend.”

“No money, definitely no money.”

Seeing the look of suspicion that passed over Lin Mo’s face, Captain Er hurriedly said.

“The reason why I took Zhao Manuscript’s two million was also only because we were originally in a trading relationship.”

“Brother Molin, don’t worry, since I consider you a friend, no matter how many times you use it.”

“I definitely won’t even bother asking you for money.”

Lin Mo’s gaze flickered slightly as he simply smiled and thanked the second captain.

Could this guy be up to something?

Watching Lin Mo disappear from his vision.

Only then did the Second Captain let out a sigh of relief and wiped the sweat seeping from his forehead.

When he learned from his subordinates today that Nie Qing had been seconded by Lin Mo.

The Second Captain knew that Lin Mo was definitely not something he and the others could mess with.

In order to show the goodwill of the Death Giant.

He had been standing here for a full afternoon.

Just to wait for Lin Mo and give an explanation.

By the way, he gave Lin Mo the token that carried his goodwill.

He hoped that this would add some goodwill to the Death Ship in Lin Mo’s heart.

Although the Second Captain did not think much of Nie Qing, he had to admit it.

Nie Qing’s strength really wasn’t too bad.

And Lin Mo was able to directly kill Nie Qing with one move.

Then to second himself in one move, the second captain didn't think it was impossible either.

After Lin Mo left, a gloomy looking Zhao Draft as well as Little Beard walked up.

When the Second Captain saw Zhao Draft, there wasn't much of a smile on his face.

"Zhao Draft, I have to say that you're not too bad at spotting talent."

"People's bosses have been brought over by you as talents."

The Second Captain's words felt like they were constantly tearing at Zhao Draft's insides.

Zhao Draft's face was so pale that water could drip out of it as he looked at the Second Captain and said in a deep voice.

"Second Captain, we need to get off the ship."

After saying that, Zhao Draft took out a cheque for two hundred thousand maple leaf coins and handed it to the second captain.

"Two hundred thousand"

"That was the previous price, now if you want to get off the ship"

"Four hundred thousand!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3543

At this moment, inside Ling Island's Island Master's residence.

Ling Ziyao, who had just finished reading the documents, saw Ling Zhong walk in somewhat anxiously.

"Ling Zhong, what has happened in such a hurry?"

Ling Zhong's face was a little heavy at the moment as he said to Ling Ziyao.

"Island Master, House Master Brandon and a strange man have come."

"And that man said he was your fiance."

Ling Ziyao's white face changed slightly, and then quickly looked at Ling Zhong.

"Hasn't Mo Lin returned yet?"

Ling Zhong shook his head, "There has been no news of Mr. Mo Lin since he returned to Lin Island."

"According to the dealings with the Lin Island Master's House, it seems that Mr. Mo Lin has gone out on an errand."

Ling Ziyao's willow eyebrows frowned slightly, then she said to Ling Zhong.

"You go stall them for a while, I'll go and change my clothes."

"Yes."

Ling Zhong took big steps towards the outside.

Ling Ziyao, on the other hand, was heading towards the inner room.

The best thing to do now was to first disguise the signs that she was married.

“Both of you, the Island Master is resting inside the house. Please also stop.”

Ling Zhong stood in front of Brandon, the lord of the inspector’s house, and a strange man.

Brandon looked at Ling Zhong in front of him and spoke directly and loudly.

“This is the Island Master’s fiancé and future aunt.”

“Ling Zhong, since when does a husband need to be informed to see his wife?”

The man beside Brandon spoke with a kindly face.

“House Master Brandon, there is no need for that.”

“Since Ziyao is resting, why don’t we wait for a little while?”

Ling Zhong looked at the two men with a black face and a white face in front of him and was silent.

But it was standing in front of the two that kept them from advancing an inch.

“This steward, Lord Brandon is in his senior year, and I have no business standing outside.”

“But can we go to the drawing room first, so that House Master Brandon can rest.”

The man looked at Brandon and said to Ling Zhong with a game of worry in his expression.

“You two don’t have to worry, come on people, move over!”

With Ling Zhong’s voice, several underlings brought in tables and benches at once.

There were also two very wide sunshades that were placed over the heads of the men and Brandon.

There were also various snacks and teas as well as drinks on the table.

Ling Zhong looked at the two men with a smile, “The two of you sit down first.”

“If there is anything you need, you can just mention it to me.”

“Our Island Master’s Mansion can still take out this amount of things.”

Seeing this scene, anger flashed in the eyes of the man who had just been very gentle.

But in order to maintain his superficial image.

Still with a smile on his face, he sat down on the chair.

“Hmph, then I will wait here today for the island master to wake up.”

The two sat down directly, as if they would not leave until they saw Ling Ziyao today.

Inside the room, Ling Ziyao had now removed the long purple runner from her body.

She had changed into an elegant and simple light green long dress.

And in order to make herself look more like a married person.

Ling Ziyao also put her long hair up slightly.

The whole person's body exuded a sense of a virtuous wife and mother.

Ling Ziyao just sat in the middle of the room indifferently.

When she saw that almost an hour had passed.

Only then did Ling Ziyao stand up and walk out of the door.

She instructed to the guards, "Where is Housekeeper Ling Zhong, just tell him that I am awake and looking for him."

"Yes, my subordinate will go and inform him."

Under the huge sunshade, at the moment Brandon and the man's faces both looked a little ugly.

They had been sitting here for over a whole hour.

And Ling Ziyao didn't even have the slightest idea of seeing them.

Wasn't she just a smelly b*tch, and she was still pretending to be here.

Brandon's heart welled up with rage and he and the man locked eyes just as he was about to get up and lash out.

A guard quickly ran over and said loudly.

"The Island Master is awake!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3544

Braden, who had just wanted to stand up, sat down again.

And the smile on Ling Zhong's face remained the same as he said to the two men.

"Both of you, since our Island Master has woken up, then please follow me."

Ling Ziyao had sent her guards to inform herself.

Then it must be that she was already prepared.

Ling Zhong did not continue to block the way, and directly led the two forward.

In the middle of the main hall.

Ling Ziyao, dressed in a light green tunic, had already sat down on a chair.

Seeing Ling Zhong walking in with the two men.

Ling Ziyao said indifferently, "The two of you can sit down first."

When Braden as well as the man beside him saw Ling Ziyao's costume.

A look of confusion appeared slightly in their eyes, what was Ling Ziyao doing here.

This kind of clothing she was wearing was obviously something only a married woman would wear.

The man's greedy gaze flowed over Ling Ziyao's delicate body, his eyes filled with a fiery look.

Could it be that Ling Ziyao was ready to marry herself?

After the two of them took their seats, Ling Ziyao looked at the man with an embarrassed expression on her face.

"May I ask who you are?"

Ling Ziyao's question caused the man's expression to freeze.

What did she mean by this. Pretending not to know him?

But in order to maintain his elegant and kind appearance, the man said in a soft voice.

"Ziyao, I'm Wu Ping, you forgot that we still played together when we were kids."

Wu Ping's words seemed to have stirred some of Ling Ziyao's memories.

"Oh, so it's you."

"Then I wonder what is the reason for you to come over this time, Wu Ping?"

Ling Ziyao's words still did not mention a single word about her marriage contract with Wu Ping.

Anger flashed in the eyes of Braden, who was sitting beside Wu Ping.

Wasn't Ling Ziyao obviously pretending to be confused?

"Island Master, Mr. Wu Ping is here to consummate his marriage with you."

Braden spoke out and directly stated the intention of the two of them coming this time.

Wu Ping also nodded, and even took out a marriage contract from his bosom.

Only then did Ling Ziyao reveal a look of dawning enlightenment.

"So you've come to propose marriage, Wu Ping."

"It's a bit embarrassing to say that I'm already married and have become a woman."

"So it's better to forget about this marriage proposal."

Ling Ziyao looked at Wu Ping, and an embarrassed look appeared on her stunning face.

"Of course, I can make some compensation to you, if there is a woman you fancy in this Island Master's residence."

“You can just ask, I’ll help you guys match up a couple of things.”

Ling Zi Yao’s words came out.

Wu Ping’s face instantly turned gloomy.

He had inquired long before he came, and there was no news of Ling Ziyao getting married at all.

But now, as soon as he came, Ling Ziyao said that he had gotten married.

Brandon’s face was also very unpleasant.

Getting Wu Ping and Ling Ziyao married was a very important part of his plan.

If the two did not get married, he would not have the interface to hollow out Ling Ziyao in an open and honest manner.

“Lord Island Master, when did you get married.”

“I’m surprised I don’t know anything about it at all, villain.”

Brandon’s eyes looked towards Ling Ziyao and began to dig into the root of the matter.

“Alas, since you all want to know, then I might as well tell you.”

“Just a dozen days ago, I met the man I’ve fallen in love with, Maureen.”

“He is tall, kind and steady, and has been extremely kind to me.”

“Mo Lin and I have long been privately engaged for life in the island master’s residence.”

As she spoke, Ling Ziyao’s face even showed a hint of just the right amount of sweetness.

At this moment, Wu Ping, who was sitting on the chair, had clenched his hands tightly.

His eyes were filled with anger as well as killing intent.

“Ziyao, I know you just don’t want to marry me.”

“But there’s no need for you to use your innocence as an interface.”

“If you don’t want to get married, we can totally get along for a while first.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3545

Wu Ping’s words could be described as very affectionate.

Ling Ziyao shook her head faintly and said to Wu Ping.

“There is no need for me to lie to you about such things.”

“That is the truth, I think it is better to forget about this marriage contract.”

“If you want some kind of compensation, you can just ask me to mention it.”

Ling Ziyao didn't say anything strong either.

Wu Ping's father and her own father were brothers in life and death.

Even if she didn't want to marry Wu Ping, she naturally had to talk to him nicely.

At this moment, Brandon stood up again and said to Ling Ziyao.

"Island Master, Mr. Wu Ping is one of the several inspectors sent by the Great Circle Gang to the West Vientiane Islands."

"It can be said that he is in a high and powerful position."

"If the two of you can get married, Ling Island can naturally develop even faster."

"So, please think twice about it, Island Master."

Brandon even knelt down directly on both knees with a face for Ling Island.

Ling Ziyao looked at Braden, and her face, which was still smiling, gradually went cold.

"House Master Braden, are you clear about what you are saying?"

"Am I to assume that you are"

"Forcing the Palace!"

Ling Ziyao's last two voices were bitten very hard.

Even multiple guards had appeared around the lobby of the Island Master's residence.

Brandon's face changed slightly as he said to Ling Ziyao.

"My subordinate does not dare."

Ling Ziyao smiled coldly, "You don't dare?"

"I see that you are very daring!"

Braden's face gradually turned ugly.

Then anger as well as greed for power appeared in his eyes.

He raised his head straight up and looked straight at Ling Ziyao as he said in a deep voice.

"If the Island Master refuses to think twice."

"Then I will have to lead people to clear the ruler's side and kill those guys who compel the Island Master."

"I'm not going to hide it from the Island Master, my subordinates have already placed five thousand well-equipped personnel outside the Island Master's residence."

"As soon as I give the order, they will charge straight in."

Brandon had even stood up from the ground.

His eyes were leveled at Ling Ziyao, completely devoid of the humility he had felt when he saw her in the past.

On the side, Wu Ping had also stood up and said to Ling Ziyao.

“Yes Ziyao, you see there is absolutely no need for this.”

“As long as you and I get married, I can simply make the island’s Great Circle Gang dependent on you.”

Wu Ping’s eyes were filled with a smile as well as greed for Ling Ziyao.

This rotten b*tch had no idea if she had been played with before.

After thinking that he would soon be able to play with this delicate body with impunity.

Wu Ping even had a slightly dry mouth.

“Protect the Island Master!”

The guards standing at the sides also noticed that something was wrong.

They hurriedly rushed to Ling Ziyao’s body, the black muzzles of the guns in their hands aimed at the two.

“If you shoot, the old and weak women and children in the family.”

“All of them will be buried alive, no tolerance!”

Braden’s eyes looked at several of the guards and said in a cold voice.

Seeing that the scene had now turned into this, Braden simply stopped pretending.

A strong sneer appeared on his face at once.

“My Lord of the Island, your heavy use over the years has allowed me to cultivate quite a few private armies.”

“And even if you do not agree to the marriage, we will force it to be done.”

“Then we will follow this tomorrow with a complete hollowing out of you, and you will be a lady in peace.”

“And.”

A mysterious smile appeared on Braden’s face.

“You don’t know yet, do you, but in fact your brother Ling Zixiao.”

“Was secretly put under a compulsion by someone I found and turned into a fool who only cries out for his sister!”

“Hahaha.”

Braden’s face was already covered with a look of confidence.

He believed that there was no longer any chance of turning this situation around now.

So straight away he told them all what he had done.

“D*mn you!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3546

Ling Ziyao, who had originally managed to look bashful, now had a change of expression on her face.

When her own brother, Ling Zixiao, had disappeared in the beginning.

The entire Island Master’s residence was secretly conducting a search, but there was not a single piece of news.

At that time, Ling Ziyao and the old Island Master who had not yet pa*sed away were very strange.

Now it seemed that there was this fellow Braden blocking from it.

No wonder the island master’s house had sent so many people to no avail.

Ling Ziyao looked at Braden with fury in her beautiful eyes.

“Lord Island Master, what are you looking at me like that for.”

Braden shrugged his shoulders with an innocent face and said softly.

“I didn’t want to harm him at that time, but who let that brother of yours be so fond of meddling in things.”

Ling Ziyao’s hand lifted slightly.

The hands of the few guards beside her also gradually touched the trigger.

“Hahahaha, Lord Island Master, you are still really childishly cute.”

“Do you think I would not prepare a little since I dare to appear in front of you openly and honestly?”

“Slap.”

Braden’s hands clapped a few times.

At once, dozens of black-clad and black-armored soldiers sprang up around the lobby.

The firearms in their hands were all aimed at Ling Ziyao.

The look of triumph on Braden’s face intensified.

These were the people he had ambushed within the Island Master’s residence a long time ago.

It was for this moment now.

Ling Ziyao’s gaze swept around and said with a cold smile.

“Good, Braden you are truly my right hand man.”

“Placing so many people on my side without me even knowing.”

“There is no need for that, Lord Islander.”

Now that the victory had been decided, Braden didn't mind talking to Ling Ziyao a little more as the victor.

“You are too overconfident, Lord Islander.”

“You are confident that no one would dare to install someone into the Island Master's residence, let alone the forced scene today.”

“Even the loyal Ling Zhong butler didn't find out.”

“I have long placed many people inside the Island Master's residence.”

Braden slowly sat down in his chair.

Next to him, Wu Ping looked a little unhappy and wanted to tell Braden to do it quickly.

But instead, he was also gestured by Braden to put his mind at ease.

“I want to know if you, in the first place, had anything to do with my father's death.”

Ling Ziyao's words caused a look of resignation to appear on Braden's face at once.

“The conscience of heaven and earth, Lord Islander.”

“When your father died in the first place it was really because of his old wounds left over from his previous conquests.”

“I even took out the hundred-year-old mountain ginseng that I had treasured for many years and gave it to your father.”

“It's a pity that your father couldn't live if Hades wanted him to go down.”

After asking the last question within herself.

Ling Ziyao nodded, and then a light smile suddenly appeared on her face.

“You know why this situation today.”

“Hasn't Ling Zhong brought anyone over yet?”

The moment Ling Ziyao's words came out, Braden and Wu Ping's pupils snapped shut.

Yup.

Ling Zhong hadn't been seen since he brought the two of himself over just now.

Where had he gone?

“Wu Ping should have arrived in Ling Island's military camp at this moment.”

“Tens of thousands of troops will be outside the gates of the Island Master’s residence in the blink of an eye.”

Ling Ziyao’s gaze looked at Braden as well as Wu Ping.

“How long will the five thousand private troops you lead be enough to resist me?”

“You dare to threaten us?”

Wu Ping, who no longer continued to disguise his amiable appearance, jerked up to his feet.

His face was fierce as he looked at Ling Ziyao who was sitting in the seats.

“I didn’t want to make things too stiff before for the sake of the friendship between the fathers of the two families.”

“But I am telling you now, even if you are the only man left in this world.”

“I, Ling Ziyao, can’t see you, a greedy, selfish, arrogant and hypocritical fellow!”

Wu Ping was enraged and took out a short knife straight away.

“I hope your body can be as hard as your mouth.”

“bd!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3547

A roar rang out from outside.

A stone then quickly flew in from outside and smashed directly into Wu Ping’s body.

Wu Ping’s colour changed, then he directly dodged the smashing stone with a dodge.

And Ling Ziyao, who was still smiling lightly, heard that angry roar.

Her body trembled slightly.

A thoughtful as well as unbelievable look appeared in her eyes.

This voice

A running voice rang out, and with it came a furious Ling Ziyao.

“Wu Ping, you f*cking dare to touch Laozi’s sister.”

“I could beat you so badly as a child that I didn’t even recognise you, and I can do the same now!”

The cleanly dressed Ling Zixiao appeared at the entrance of the lobby.

The raging fire in her eyes wanted to burn Wu Ping and Braden clean.

If she had been bullied, the most Ling Zixiao could do was to fight back.

But if his sister was bullied, Ling Ziyao would destroy his whole family!

Braden, who had a smooth, condescending face, saw Ling Zixiao's figure.

A look of shock as well as impossibility filled his eyes.

"Impossible, absolutely impossible!"

"I was the one who personally put you on the ship in the first place, how could you possibly appear here."

"Impostor, you must be disguised as Ling Zixiao!"

Wu Ping looked at Ling Zixiao's figure, and his eyes were also full of scorn.

When they played together as children, Ling Zixiao often beat him up.

This had caused Wu Ping's body to subconsciously flinch when he saw Ling Zixiao.

Ling Ziyao's gaze looked at Ling Zixiao.

Her eyes gradually turned slightly red, but she forced herself to restrain her emotions.

Ling Zixiao's gaze was cold as she looked at Braden and said in a cold voice.

"Braden, good people don't live long, but scourges last a thousand years."

"I knew you were definitely still alive."

Braden's gaze looked at Ling Zixiao, the shock on his face turning into a look of ridicule.

"Ling Zixiao, if you had just run away and never returned."

"Then you would still be alive, and your family's legacy would not have been broken."

"But now you actually dare to throw yourself into the net, did you really come back to die?"

The guns that were originally all aimed at Ling Ziyao were now partly divided and aimed at Ling Zixiao.

It was as if they would just open fire when Braden gave the order.

"So Young Master Ling, can you tell me what you're back for?"

"Don't worry, I'll bury your corpse with your father after you die."

"Ta."

A crisp footstep sounded.

Braden and Wu Ping's eyes were instantly drawn.

Lin Mo, who was dressed in white, appeared at the entrance of the lobby.

What was different was that he was holding a very old iron sword in his hand.

It was clearly unsheathed, but a feeling of sharpness hovered in the minds of the crowd.

“Mr. Molin.”

Ling Zixiao addressed Lin Mo very respectfully.

He then silently took a half step backwards and stood behind Lin Mo.

Ling Ziyao looked at Lin Mo’s figure, a different look flickering in her eyes.

Her own brother, was it Molin who saved her?

Braden looked at Ling Zixiao who was standing behind Lin Mo and let out a loud laugh.

“Hahahaha, Ling Zixiao, are you expecting this guy to protect you?”

“Or are you expecting him to be able to kill us all quickly by himself.”

Ling Zixiao didn’t bother to pay any attention to Braden’s maniacal laughter.

It was also.

Those who hadn’t seen Mr. Molin’s strength.

How could they have that sense of awe?

Lin Mo’s gaze calmly looked at Ling Ziyao as he said softly.

“I’ve come for my appointment.”

Seeing that Lin Mo wasn’t even looking at himself, a look of annoyance appeared in Braden’s eyes.

“Arrogant to the core, still looking at women at this hour.”

“Kill for me.”

“Clang!”

The ancient longsword suddenly came out of its body!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3548

Sword Qi spreads over three thousand miles, and a single sword chills fourteen states.

Although Lin Mo’s sword aura was not as exaggerated, it was still able to spread for ten miles in an instant.

A radiant sword aura flashed in everyone’s eyes.

“Snap.”

The firearms those soldiers were originally holding had now turned into two halves.

The sound of the broken muzzles falling to the ground was very crisp.

Braden’s face, who had just looked rampant, changed drastically.

“Who the hell are you!”

A heavy look covered Braden’s come.

Suddenly, a faint tingle appeared above Braden’s neck.

With some alarm, Braden felt towards his neck.

A wisp of bright red appeared above Braden’s fingers.

Looking at Lin Mo who was holding the ancient sword as if it was not even sheathed.

A gloomy as well as frightened look flashed across Braden’s eyes.

Who the hell was this guy.

Such strength would be enough to dominate even in those large islands.

How could he stay in a small place like Ling Island.

Lin Mo’s gaze looked at them and spoke indifferently.

“I suggest that you all first put down the weapons in your hands no, scrap metal.”

Lin Mo’s calm voice caused everyone to hesitate slightly.

But then, they all threw their weapons, which were already useless in their hands, to the ground.

With their hands on their heads, they directly squatted on the ground.

And at this moment, Braden’s face was as pale as dirt.

These soldiers could throw themselves at it, as Ling Ziyao would not necessarily kill them.

But himself, the leader, Ling Ziyao would definitely not show mercy.

Braden’s eyes looked towards Wu Ping, wanting to see if the other party had any good plans.

But instead, he found that at this moment, Wu Ping was also obediently crouching on the ground.

Braden’s expression froze, but he reflected quickly.

Right, Wu Ping’s father and the old islander were brothers in life and death.

Even if Wu Ping had united himself to come and force his way this time.

But Ling Ziyao was not yet willing to kill for the sake of both fathers.

After looking around for a week, Braden realised that he was the most suitable person to die.

A look of despair appeared on his face.

Braden jerked a pistol out of his own pocket.

The direction of the gun was aimed at Ling Ziyao who was sitting in front of him.

“Since I won’t survive, you will die with me!”

His face was filled with a maniacal look, and his finger had already touched the trigger of the pistol.

Ling Ziyao, who was standing behind Lin Mo, had an anxious look on her face.

“Clang!”

There was another crisp sound of a sword clanging.

The pistol in Braden’s hand was directly split in two.

His body was also directly separated by a sword in the middle and fell to the ground.

Blood flowed on top of the floor of the Island Master’s residence, and everyone was silent for a moment.

“Sister, are you alright?”

The one who moved the furthest forward was Ling Ziyao.

He took a quick step towards Ling Ziyao.

As for Braden’s corpse, he saw without looking.

Looking at the non-coming light that stood in front of him with care in his eyes.

A look of longing appeared in Ling Ziyao’s eyes.

“Brother

Ling Zixiao’s originally elegant face now also took on a sad colour.

“Brother is here, it was brother’s fault for being gone for so long before.”

“Now big brother is back.”

Ling Zixiao gently bailed out Ling Ziyao’s body.

Tears continued to slide down the corners of his eyes.

He couldn’t even imagine during the time he was still on top of the giant wheel of death.

How did his sister pull through.

And how she had become the new lord of this wolf-ridden island.

She had maintained her father’s glory and status.

Lin Mo looked at the image of the two siblings recognising each other.

Although he felt that it was inappropriate for him to speak, he still opened his mouth to speak.

“I sensed many ambushers outside the island lord’s residence when I returned just now.”

“At least ten thousand.”

Lin Mo stood in the doorway and spoke out about the ambush he had just felt outside the Island Master's residence.

Ten thousand people was not much for Lin Mo.

He could even kill a bloody path whenever he wanted to.

But carrying out with the Wanxiang Kingdom, Avis was carrying an army of hundreds of thousands.

Lin Mo was able to navigate through the army with ease.

"Buzz."

The Tai Ah in his hand let out a faint buzzing sound.

Lin Mo had never used the Tai Ah Sword since he had arrived in the Western Wanxiang Islands.

This time, he was only guaranteed to be able to nullify those weapons in a split second.

Ling Zixiao's as well as Ling Ziyao's faces changed slightly.

"Ten thousand?"

"It seems that this fellow Braden still has a stash!"

Ling Ziyao understood what was going on with just a slight thought.

It was probably because Braden didn't want to reveal his entire bottom line, so he just said half less.

It was also true that if Braden only had five thousand troops in his hands.

How would he dare to bring Wu Ping directly to force himself.

A thoughtful look appeared on Ling Zixiao's face as he looked towards Lin Mo.

"Mr. Mo Lin, so what should we do now?"

"Ah Yao has already sent Ling Zhong to mobilise Ling Island's troops, it will probably take another half an hour or so."

"Should we first find a place to hide now or?"

Although the words were said, Ling Zixiao's words clearly favoured the former.

With tens of thousands of troops, in his opinion Lin Mo's kung fu was no longer high, but he would still be unable to resist after all.

Lin Mo shook his head gently and looked at them as he smiled to.

"No matter, just leave these matters to me."

After saying that, Lin Mo's upright stance walked straight towards the outside.

Ling Ziyao's gaze looked at Lin Mo's back, and suddenly had a little more reliance on Lin Mo inside.

Perhaps Molin could really solve all the things.

Lin Mo's figure slowly walked out of the island master's residence.

Quietly standing before a dense forest, the ancient longsword in his hand, whose hilt was covered by a strand of white cloth, was slowly sheathed.

In the middle of the woods.

The rebels who had followed Braden were now waiting with bated breath for Braden's signal.

But the signal was delayed, causing the leader of the group to look somewhat strained.

"General!"

An urgent voice rang in the rebel leader's ears.

The scout with a somewhat anxious face quickly ran from outside.

"General, we seem to have been spotted!"

The rebel leader's face changed abruptly and a heavy look appeared in his eyes.

"Are you sure?"

"How many people are on the other side, have they just spotted us or have they already made a siege?"

The rebel leader quickly came to the scout and inquired in a deep voice.

Could it be that that island lord had anticipated that he and the others would be ambushed outside?

And then secretly mobilised his army to come?

That Lord Braden House had walked straight in, would he now

Thinking about it, a flash of joy suddenly appeared in the rebel leader's eyes.

That guy Braden is dead, so won't he become the boss?

When the time comes, won't this 10,000-strong force be his own word?

"No it isn't."

The scout took a slow breath and then gave a quick report to the rebel leader.

"It's...a man!"

"We're surrounded by a man!"

The rebel leader, who was still thinking about it, looked froze.

With some disbelief on his face, he asked the scout.

"How many men do you think we are surrounded by?"

“One man.”

“Slap!”

The rebel leader slapped him directly on the face.

“Are you f*cking full of sh*t in your head?”

“One person?”

As he spoke, the rebel leader laughed.

“One man and you f*cking tell me we’re surrounded.”

“Do you think my tens of thousands of men are all vegetarians?”

The scout who had been slapped by the rebel leader had a look of aggravation on his face.

“But he’s so strong hey.”

“Strong?”

The rebel leader smiled coldly and looked at the fully armed troops behind him.

“If he is strong can he still beat my 10,000 troops?”

The rebel leader’s gaze then went to his adjutant and said loudly.

“Take a hundred men and follow me, let me see what kind of man dares to come alone.”

“I think he’s playing with the light inside the toilet, looking for death.”

“Yes.”

The adjutant quickly ordered all one hundred men, and then followed the rebel leader towards the front.

Beyond the forest, Lin Mo’s figure soon caught their eyes.

The rebel leader looked at Lin Mo’s appearance.

He immediately snorted out a laugh, a look of mockery on his face.

“Is this the guy you said was so strong that you couldn’t beat him?”

The scout nodded obsequiously, “That’s him.”

“A dozen of us didn’t even beat him just now, we were completely finished by him.”

The rebel leader’s gaze teasingly looked at Lin Mo as he spoke.

“Kid, I heard that you’re quite capable of fighting, huh?”

“We all happen to be very capable of fighting as well, do you want to come up and try?”

The adjutants who were following the rebel leader as well as the soldiers also burst out laughing.

Where did this guy get the nerve to come and surround himself and the others all by himself.

They were a full force of eight thousand men, and although there was still a thousand in logistics, they could still claim ten thousand.

Lin Mo looked at the rebel leader with a rampant face.

Just now, Braden’s expression was exactly the same as his, but unfortunately.

Braden was already dead.

“You have raised an army to surround the island lord’s residence, this is a capital offence.”

“You are each carrying firearms, and although it is not forbidden on the island, you have gathered on such a large scale, a capital offence II.”

“Braden secretly plotted against Grand Duke Ling Zixiao, and you, as his men, aided and abetted the enemy this is capital offence three.”

Lin Mo’s voice gradually went cold.

“You guys, what more reason do you need to not die?”

Ling Ziyao was considered an ally of his own.

So Lin Mo could also help Ling Ziyao and the others deal with these little troubles.

“Pfft, hahahahaha, look at him like that, you guys.”

“Those who don’t know think he’s some kind of hidden sect master with a righteous look.”

Suddenly, the rebel leader became interested and asked at Lin Mo.

“Little white face, you are so good looking, is that Ling Ziyao your concubine?”

“When lord I kill my way in, let my 10,000 or so brothers try out the feeling of being an island master too.”

“You guys can’t get in.”

“Clang!”

The ancient sword was sheathed, and in an instant, white sword aura covered the sky.

It rapidly zoomed closer in the eyes of all the rebels.

“No...I can’t die!”

The rebel leader’s eyes were covered in panic as he looked at the sword aura that was close at hand.

How could this little white face be so powerful?

What made him possess such strength.

His powerful desire to survive made him drive his body quickly and dodge to the side.

“Haha, dodged it!”

The rebel leader did not feel the slightest wait-me pain in his body.

Instead, he suddenly noticed the lieutenant behind him looking at him with a misplaced look.

His neck had gone from being intact to gradually oozing blood.

“Why are you looking at like that?”

“Bang!”

The next moment, the rebel leader as well as all the soldiers’ bodies fell straight to the ground.

There was still this bewilderment in their eyes as well as a sneer at Lin Mo.

In just a few seconds, they had gone from being human to corpses.

Lin Mo looked at the rebel leader lying on the ground and his head that had rolled to the side.

“I said you can’t get in.”

After saying that, Lin Mo’s figure continued to stand quietly at the entrance of this forest.

If one were to directly rush in and kill himself the noise would be too great.

Lin Mo only needed to stay here to block their arrival to Ling Island’s army.

Rather, after the army had struck, there would be no need for Lin Mo to go on a killing spree.
