

Genius 3601

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3601

As he spoke, the grandfather reached his rough hand down to the floor tiles.

With a slight snap on top of a very hidden crevice.

The piece of flooring was then taken straight out by Ah Gong.

Underneath the floor, a yellow parchment was lying quietly somewhere.

Ah Gong took out the piece of parchment from inside and held it in his hands, spreading it out.

Lin Mo's gaze looked over curiously.

Although he had known a route out of here before.

But Lin Mo wanted to ascertain if there was only one route out of this chaotic earth vein place.

On this yellow parchment, there was a four square.

"This is the sea we are in now, and this small island near the north is our footing."

Ah Gong's finger gestured slightly on the parchment.

"And there are two ways to get out of this sea of mist."

Ah Gong's face turned serious as his finger pointed to two places on the map.

Just drive the boat from these two places into the mists.

In roughly an hour's travel time, they would be able to leave the Sea of Mists completely.

Lin Mo's gaze looked at the two points on the map that Ah Gong was pointing at.

One was in the north and the other was in the south.

And it was from the southern direction that Lin Mo and Ryan had drifted over.

A thoughtful look flashed across Lin Mo's eyes.

Could it be that the south of this Sea of Mists was connected to the West Vientiane Islands after Shark Bay.

And to the north, it was directly connected to the middle of the Western Ocean.

Such a place

strategically important place.

As long as you have this place, then you can say that you can have a place in the West Vientiane Islands.

This is because the risk of being caught by the maritime patrols of various countries on the way here is completely eliminated.

It is also a place of chaotic veins and mists.

It could be called a good place that is easy to defend and difficult to attack.

If not for the coincidence, Lin Mo and Ryan would not have been able to enter at all.

The chaotic veins of the sea not only prevented those inside from getting out.

It also made it impossible for those outside to get in at all.

It was only by luck that Lin Mo and Ryan were able to enter directly through the entrance.

If others outside didn't know where the entrance was.

It was probably only possible to wander around in the fog.

"Grandpa, don't worry, I definitely won't leak the route out to anyone else."

Lin Mo said with renewed assurance as he looked at Ah Gong.

Ah Gong nodded and gently stroked the top of his beard.

"Right Ah Gong, haven't you ever thought of forming your own escort team?"

Lin Mo looked at the old man and said with some confusion.

He was absolutely certain that the other party could not possibly not have such an idea.

After all, the importance of an escort team was crucial to a place where ships might accidentally break in every now and then.

It could be said that it was an absolute necessity.

If they had an escort, they would not have been so easily overpowered by the Shark Gang.

A bitter smile appeared on Ah Gong's face as he said to Lin Mo in an explanatory manner.

"It's not that we don't want to set up, but we simply don't have that condition."

"The annual output of food on our island is just enough for each family."

"There are times when everyone might have to go hungry in case the grain harvest is bad."

"It's not that I haven't thought about forming an escort, but I just don't have the funds to do so."

"Warships, food, wages and weapons."

"All these things are deeply bottomless and simply beyond our means."

Ah Gong sighed deeply.

The only thing that had any killing power on the real island was probably still the clay hunting rifle brought back years ago.

Lin Mo was silent for a moment.

Then raising his head slightly to gaze at Ah Gong, Lin Mo said in a deep voice.

“Ah Gong, if you trust me, I can arrange for all of this.”

“I can even arrange for people to be stationed.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3602

Lin Mo's words were like a thunderbolt that struck hard into Ah Gong's heart.

His gaze looked at Lin Mo. It was somewhat unbelievable.

Would there really be people in the world who would be willing to help others unconditionally?

Lin Mo looked at the old man in front of him.

After the other party's description just now, an idea rose up within Lin Mo's heart.

That was to build a branch of the Great Circle Gang here.

At that time, it would be perfectly fine for Xu Chu to select some trustworthy people to come.

Not only could they help Ah Gong and the others with their garrisoning.

It could also help Lin Mo with some security matters coming and going from here afterwards.

“Ah Gong, I'll send someone to come all the things don't need to be paid by everyone, we'll just pay for it ourselves.”

“And this only stationed people will definitely not interfere with the normal life on the island during the weekdays.”

“But I also hope that you will agree to me pa*sing through here afterwards.”

Lin Mo's words caused Ah Gong's expression to flicker.

The old man had just heard Lin Mo's first two sentences.

A sense of caution had gradually risen within him.

After all, it was the free things in the world that were the most expensive.

But when he heard Lin Mo's only request after that, Ah Gong was a little confused.

He had even wondered if it was because he was old and deaf.

Had he really just said that he would just pa*s by here afterwards?

Lin Mo looked at the old man's somewhat disbelieving look and repeated once again.

“Ah Gong, don’t worry about putting it.”

“My only request is that my men might have to pa*s through here when the time comes.”

“I hope that you guys don’t mind when the time comes, Ah Gong.”

After hearing Lin Mo’s words repeated once again.

Only then did the old man dare to confirm that it turned out to be true.

“Isn’t this a bit too much of a disadvantage for you guys?”

Lin Mo smiled, “Don’t worry, Grandpa, we can still afford to pay for those supplies.”

“As long as you agree, I will have the people stationed here come after a while.”

“When the time comes, they will just find a random house to live in.”

“And we’ll bring our own weapons and food and warships and things like that.”

A strong look of gratitude pa*sed over Gong’s pale face.

“Maureen me I really don’t know how to thank you anymore.”

“If I had a granddaughter, I would have married you as my daughter-in-law!”

Ah Gong’s somewhat excited words caused Lin Mo’s face to be dumbfounded.

“Ah Gong, even if you have a granddaughter, ah, I can’t have one.”

“I’ve already been married long ago, I’m a man with a wife.”

Grandpa slapped himself on the head at once and said loudly.

“Blame me, blame me, for talking nonsense without asking the situation.”

“Maureen, you’ve done us such a great favour, don’t leave for lunch today.”

“I’ll cook you a meal of the most authentic delicacies from our hometown.”

Lin Mo’s face instantly revealed a look of consternation, and he just wanted to open his mouth to politely refuse.

Grandpa then walked straight over and grabbed Lin Mo’s wrist.

“Go, go, go, I’ll take you to meet everyone.”

“After all, you’re kind of our big benefactor.”

Lin Mo looked at Ah Gong who was very full of motivation, or rather embarra*sed by this great gift from Lin Mo.

He also did not continue to refuse, but followed him one by one as he strung out the door.

The people who opened the door were big men, young men, women and young girls.

When they saw Lin Mo, who was being dragged by Ah Gong, a look of surprise appeared on each of their faces.

But still, they greeted Lin Mo warmly.

Anyone who could be treated like this by Agong was definitely not a bad person.

Shark One, who was standing at the entrance of the village in a daze, as well as Ryan heard the sound of laughter within the village.

A puzzled look appeared on their faces at once.

But when he saw Lin Mo being dragged through the various houses by a smiling Agong.

“What makes that guy so well treated!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3603

The night.

Lin Mo was then forced to stay overnight by a very enthusiastic grandfather.

Lin Mo refused at first, but was really unable to resist the old man’s enthusiasm

As for Ryan at the entrance of the village as well as Shark One

A cold wind blew by.

The two people sitting on top of the rock couldn’t help but sneeze.

Shark One’s eyes looked at Ryan and shivered as he asked.

“This gentleman, why hasn’t which one come out yet?”

“It’s cooling down a little too much for this big night.”

Ryan gave Shark One a blank stare and said in an uncharacteristic manner.

“If I knew that I’d still be sitting here with you?”

Suddenly, a burly man stepped out from the middle of the village.

“You two, our grandfather said that Mr. Molin will stay here tonight.”

“You two had better go back first.”

Shark One and Ryan’s bodies snapped to attention.

They had been sitting here all morning and had waited all day.

Now you’re telling us Maureen isn’t coming out.

Ryan’s reaction was swift and he quickly walked up to the burly man with a strong smile on his face.

“Little brother, I am Mr. Maureen’s companion, would you see if you can

Hearing Ryan’s words, a look of hesitation appeared on the burly man’s face.

But after thinking for a while, he nodded and said in a jarring voice.

“Yes, then you can sleep at my house first tonight.”

His gaze then went to Shark One, his tone somewhat cold.

“You’d better go back.”

A bitter expression appeared on Shark One’s face.

Sure enough, the hatred between the two sides was not so easy to resolve.

“Good, say hello to Gong for me.”

After delivering a sentence, Shark One turned around and headed towards the harbour.

Ryan, on the other hand, followed the figure of the burly man towards the village.

.....

The next morning.

Lin Mo, who had just gotten up from among his room to do exercise, saw the figure crouching outside.

A look of dismay appeared on Lin Mo’s face.

He saw Ryan crouching pitifully outside the bamboo fence.

Two dark circles under his eyes and eyes filled with complexity set off the sadness within him.

“Is this you climbing the widow’s door?”

Ryan, who was glowering at an ant’s nest on the ground, exploded.

“Yes, you’ve been resting comfortably in Grandpa’s house all night?”

“What about me, have you considered me?”

Ryan looked agitated and pointed a finger at himself.

“Do you know how I spent last night?”

“Do you have any idea how much pain I was in?”

Lin Mo looked at Ryan with some suspicion and pondered for a moment.

“Did you not meet a demented man?”

Ryan turned away somewhat self-consciously, not wanting to pay any attention to Lin Mo in the slightest.

He had followed the burly man back home last night.

Originally, he thought it was just a matter of preaching about the night and pa*sing away.

But what a surprise.

Snoring and grinding his teeth.

All these were still acceptable.

What Ryan hadn't expected was that the guy was actually sleepwalking.

Did he like to kill people in his sleep?

In the middle of the night, he picked up a stick and smashed it in his direction.

If it wasn't for Ryan's quick hands, he would have run faster.

It was probably a question of whether he would still be able to see Lin Mo now.

Lin Mo looked at Ryan and spoke softly to comfort him.

"Grandpa has a guest room in his house, you can go and sleep for a while if you are sleepy."

Ryan slowly stood up.

Controlling his thighs, which were already a little numb, for a moment.

"I'll go take a nap, I really can't stay up all night."

Lin Mo nodded in agreement, "Good, and your yang energy is thinner than before?"

"Huh?"

Facing Ryan's puzzled face, Lin Mo explained softly.

"It's that your kidneys are even weaker."

Ryan was silent for a moment, and then gazed at Lin Mo.

"Maureen, didn't you tell me about a kidney tonic remedy before?"

"I suddenly remembered that a friend of mine has kidney deficiency, so tell me more about it."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3604

Eventually Ryan went back inside to sleep.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, was playing Tai Chi Chuan in the middle of the courtyard.

Taijiquan was a great way to invigorate the blood and nourish the spirit, so it was very suitable for a set in the morning.

If one were to do something as rigid as an inch punch early in the morning.

One's body will be left damaged.

A very natural rhythm flowed around Lin Mo's body.

It made Ah Gong, who had just gotten up, unable to help but watch.

By the time Lin Mo closed his fist after half an hour.

"Pah pah pah."

"Molin, this is a very wonderful set of punches you have."

Ah Gong gave a loud applause to Lin Mo.

He had just stood behind Lin Mo and watched carefully.

The more he watched the more shocked he became inwardly, this set of punches contained so many things.

Dexterity, fierce strength.

There were also all sorts of derived punches as well as stances.

It was also that Lin Mo's movements were not very fast.

If his movements were faster, simply just the first half of the set.

There would be hundreds of variations.

Shifting, dexterity, rigidity

"It's all just some boxing techniques that you use to exercise your body on a regular basis, it's not surprising."

"Haha, Maureen you're too modest."

"If a person is overly modest, then what remains is pride."

A look of tears and laughter appeared on Lin Mo's face.

"Ah Gong, why are you up so early."

The sky was only dawned now.

And this old man, Ah Gong, was already up from the boat.

"As I get older, I sleep for shorter periods of time."

Gung took an old hoe from a pile of tools.

He walked into the middle of the field near the bamboo fence.

This was a vegetable garden that he had specially cultivated at the time.

But it had been abandoned for a whole year since the Sharks came.

When he came back yesterday, he trimmed the weeds in the garden.

If he sowed the seeds now, the vegetables would grow in a few months.

Lin Mo also followed Gong into the vegetable garden.

Casually copying a hoe from the side, Lin Mo helped Grandpa dig.

“Maureen, you’re a guest how can I make you work?”

“Go up up up, let’s have breakfast after I finish.”

When Ah Gong saw that Lin Mo had actually gone down to the vegetable garden to help too.

At once, he said loudly to Lin Mo.

Ah Gong looked at Lin Mo’s clean white clothes, the field was dirty.

If those bugs or dust stained Lin Mo’s clothes later, it would be hard to wash them.

It wouldn’t be good to go and wash it then.

Lin Mo smiled and did not leave from the vegetable garden, but said to Ah Gong.

“It’s alright Ah Gong, I’ve done some farm work before.”

“Besides, if I’m a big man who can’t even do one farming job.”

“How else can you go on to do other great things?”

Seeing that he couldn’t convince Lin Mo, Grandpa could only give up the idea helplessly.

But in his heart, his goodwill towards Lin Mo increased a little more.

He was a righteous man and could still do the menial work.

Ah Gong knew very well that those in high positions would never go down to the ground.

Even if they did, it would only be a publicity stunt.

Looking at Lin Mo’s somewhat skilful technique, Ah Gong could not help but feel that this young man was worthy of his trust.

By the time the vegetable garden had been thoroughly trimmed.

By now, the sky was already bright and a red sun was gradually rising in the east.

Lin Mo’s breathing did not stagger in the slightest.

There was not even a bit of sweat all over his body.

A great master was turning the soil in the vegetable garden.

If this were to be told out, it was estimated that all martial arts practitioners would not believe it.

A great clan master would have countless people offering him money whenever he wished.

Putting the hoe aside, Lin Mo looked at the back of his grandfather as he went to cook.

He still decided to follow him over and make a start.

It would be bad if something happened to the old man's poor health.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3605

"Ryan, don't sleep, eat!"

Lin Mo shouted as he walked into the house with the finished meal.

Ryan had already slept for three or four hours, and was pretty much in the range where he wouldn't die suddenly.

A sleepy looking Ryan wandered out of the guest room.

"What time is it?"

"I don't know, but it must be three or four hours past."

There were clocks on top of the Human Serpent warship.

But Gong's house wasn't equipped with a clock.

So Lin Mo could only give a rough estimate of how long had passed.

"Three or four hours and you've got me up?"

Ryan looked at Lin Mo incredulous in disbelief.

Was this guy Maureen just squeezing himself like that?

"Three or four hours of rest is more than enough, you certainly won't die suddenly."

"As for the lack of sleep, you take your time to sleep later back on the ship."

Hearing Lin Mo say that he was going back to the ship later.

Ryan's face instantly returned to its stoic look quickly.

He would only do all sorts of acts to release his nature when there was nothing going on.

Once something was on his mind.

He was still the same calm, cool, feared Ryan, one of the Four Stewards.

"Am I leaving here today?"

"No, to be precise, after this breakfast."

Lin Mo's face was calm as he lifted the bowl in his hand and took a sip of the millet soup inside.

He and Ryan had been delayed in this Sea of Mists for several days now.

There was still a short distance to go to Death Island.

Therefore, Lin Mo could not continue to delay here.

Ryan also took a sip of soup in the same way, "Are things in such a hurry?"

Lin Mo nodded his head and then spoke to Ryan.

"I have some things I need to do on Death Island, if I delay too long."

"Something might go wrong."

As the two men spoke.

"Come, come, there's more in the pot, you guys eat."

Grandpa walked to the door with a bowl of fried bok choy and saw Lin Mo and Ryan both sipping their soup slowly.

At once, he said quickly to them.

"Try this fried bok choy of mine, it has my secret seasoning added to it."

Grandpa placed the bowl of vegetables in his hands on the table with a proud smile on his face.

Ryan picked up a bit with his chopsticks and put it in his mouth.

A look of surprise appeared on his face.

"It's super delicious!"

"That's not true."

Grandpa said proudly, "This secret seasoning has been passed down from our ancestors."

"No matter what you're eating, just a little bit of it will definitely smell so good you'll swallow your own snake head."

Watching Lyken's chopsticks had gradually waved out of phantom.

Lin Mo, who was sitting on the side, burst into a sweat.

He didn't grab it from him, so why was this guy in such a hurry.

Seeing Ryan eating so happily, a pleased smile appeared on Ah Gong's face.

After all, this was also an acknowledgement of himself.

After eating, Lin Mo also offered to leave to Ah Gong.

"Ah Gong, we've stayed here long enough, so we won't stay here any longer."

Ah Gong looked at Lin Mo who offered to leave and spoke to detain him.

"You're going to leave after only one day?"

"Let's play for two more days before we leave, I don't have many of you two mouths to feed at home."

Lin Mo rejected Grandpa's retention with a smile on his face.

"Grandpa, we really have some things to do."

"We'll come back to see you when all the things are done."

"When you come back next, you must stay for a few more days."

Lin Mo smiled as he took Ah Gong's hand and said to him.

"Right Ah Gong, I'll arrange for the vigilante team as soon as I get back."

"But before they come, you still need to have some precautions meant."

"Shark One they can actually be trusted, you might want to try to take them in."

Gung nodded somewhat hesitantly.

"Good"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3606

At the harbour.

Lin Mo and Ryan boarded the Human Serpent warship.

And Shark One as well as Gong were standing on the pier.

The two of them had come to see Lin Mo off.

Although Lin Mo had said that there was no need to be so polite, the two still insisted on coming.

"You two go back, we're leaving."

Lin Mo waved his hand at Ah Gong as well as Shark One, telling them to hurry back.

A moment ago, Lin Mo had had a conversation with Shark One.

Lin Mo asked Shark One what he planned to arrange next.

If they wanted to leave this Sea of Mist, Lin Mo could take them away.

Shark One said that he wanted to stay on this island.

Lin Mo did not say anything more.

After all, there were hardly any armed forces on the island now.

If there were to happen to be any ships that accidentally ran in.

Then what happened to the Shark Gang would be repeated again.

And if Shark and the others stayed here, they could more or less be a safeguard.

The Human Serpent warship gradually started up and headed off into the distance.

Above the harbour, only Shark Yi and Ah Gong were left behind.

An awkward atmosphere hovered continuously between the two only.

“You can mention to me if you need any help.”

“You can come and ask me about house repairs, land planting and all that.”

Gong looked at Shark One and explained before walking towards the island.

And Shark One’s face instantly showed joy.

Is Ah Gong starting to accept himself and the others?

.....

On the Human Serpent warship, an alarming cry rang out at this moment.

“Maureen, I found a good thing in the storage room!”

Ryan, who looked a little strange, quickly ran to the deck.

He said loudly to Lin Mo, who was sunbathing.

“What good thing?” Lin Mo looked at Ryan with a puzzled look appearing on his face.

Was there anything else on top of this human-snake warship that could be called good?

A b*tchy smile appeared under Ryan’s eyes as he said to Lin Mo.

“You’ll know if you go over and take a look.”

Lin Mo looked at Ryan with a foxish look in his eyes.

His intuition told him that this fellow Ryan definitely did not have good intentions.

The follower, Ryan, arrived at the door of the storage room.

“Open it yourself and take a look.”

Looking at Ryan’s inexplicable smile, a wary look appeared in Lin Mo’s eyes.

“Why don’t forget about it.”

“I don’t think I’m actually that interested in these things.”

Lin Mo smiled and then planned to go back to the deck to bask in the sun.

After all, who knew if Ryan would do any pitfalls.

Seeing Lin Mo wanting to leave, Ryan was instantly anxious.

“Don’t, it’s not too late for you to take a look first before you leave.”

Ryan grabbed Lin Mo’s arm and pulled him towards the storage room.

After hesitating for a moment, Lin Mo decided to half-heartedly take a look at what exactly Ryan was talking about.

As soon as Ryan pushed open the door of the storage room, Lin Mo was frozen.

"This this is the good stuff you were talking about?" Lin Mo said, his arms under his clean white shirt violently burst into a few veins.

"Yeah, look how realistically made this is, it's even still soft."

Ryan looked at the many one-to-one figures of the dolls in the storage room.

A very immodest smile appeared on his face.

It seemed that before bringing Lin Mo here, he had gone up to touch how they felt in his hands.

"Ryan"

Lin Mo's somewhat lowered words caused a slightly bad feeling to arise within Ryan's heart.

"What happened?"

Ryan turned his neck somewhat stiffly and looked at Lin Mo, who had a gloomy face.

"Maureen we have such a good relationship, you must not hit me right?"

Lin Mo smiled non-smilingly at Ryan.

"We are good friends, of course I won't hit you."

"But since you like these things so much, you should spend more time with them."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Lin Mo tucked Ryan straight into the storage room.

Slamming the door shut.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3607

As the human-snake warship gradually approached the mists.

Lin Mo analysed it according to the chaotic earth veins.

He chose a path that would allow him to leave through the mists.

When Ah Gong had shown Lin Mo the sheepskin map earlier, Lin Mo had only taken a general glance at it.

He did not write down the contents of the map carefully.

This was because even if Gung wanted to leave this place, he would need to compare the locations again and again.

Only then could they successfully leave.

But Lin Mo didn't need to go through all that trouble.

All he needed to do was to sense the chaos of the earth veins and the small stream in the middle.

As long as he followed that small stream, he would be able to walk straight out of this sea of mists.

Piloting the Human Serpent Battleship, he found a place of mist.

The Human Serpent Battleship sailed straight into the mist without a trace.

About ten minutes later.

The hideous serpent's head poked out of the mist at the bow of the ship.

What came out afterwards was the hull of the Human Snake Battleship.

Lin Mo quickly discerned the surrounding scenery.

He himself had returned to the confines of the Western Wanxiang Islands.

If one were to calculate by distance, one would still be away from the deep sea area

Thirty kilometres away.

Lin Mo pondered for a moment and walked towards wearing the routine.

It had been almost half an hour since he had left Ryan where he was.

Lin Mo intended to go over and see what was going on.

That guy would hopefully not do anything strange.

The moment he opened the door to the storage room, the corners of Lin Mo's mouth couldn't help but twitch a few times.

Only to see Ryan lying in a pile of dolls with a look of enjoyment.

It also counted as a left hug.

Seeing the door of the storage room suddenly just opened.

As well as Lin Mo standing in front of the storage room door.

The expression of enjoyment on Ryan's face stiffened violently.

"That"

"I said I was just testing their production process."

"Do you believe that?"

"Hurry up and come up, we're coming out."

After Lin Mo said these words, he directly turned around and headed upwards.

He truly didn't expect this guy Ryan to be so perverted.

A serious look quickly returned to Ryan's face.

Swiftly, he ran towards the top of the deck.

Arriving on the deck Ryan scanned his gaze around and said in confusion.

"Where are we now?"

Lin Mo led him to the C*ckpit and pointed at the map above the display and said.

"We're now below the middle of Shark Bay and the deep water."

"All we need to do now is drive straight north-east and we'll be able to get into the deep water quickly."

Ryan looked at the distance above the map.

"At the speed of this Human Serpent warship beneath us, we'll be in deep water in almost ten minutes."

"It's still daylight, so as long as that octopus is out of the way, we'll be able to make a quick pa*sage."

"And the route after pa*sing through the deep water is very smooth."

"All we need to do is follow the dark currents in the sea all the way and we'll arrive at the pier on Death Island."

Hearing Ryan's analysis, Lin Mo nodded his head to show that he knew.

"Are there people gathering and waiting over at the deep sea area as well?"

"Naturally." Ryan's finger pointed to a place four or five kilometres away from the Deep Sea area.

"There are usually a lot of people gathered here, but compared to the ones at Shark Bay where everyone pa*s together."

"The subterfuge over here in the Deep Sea area is much more vicious."

Ryan said with a stony look on his face.

"They'll pick out the weakest people as scouts."

"That's what they use to test whether or not they can pa*s through the deep sea area."

"It's fine if the person selected pa*s through the deep sea area without any problems."

"But if that giant octopus is really there, it will definitely appear to destroy the ships."

"All of them would not survive then."

Lin Mo looked at Ryan's stony expression and smiled faintly.

'There's no need to be nervous.'

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3608

Ryan feels it's always easy to get nervous.

Thinking of everything in the worst possible way.

This made Lin Mo feel a little helpless from time to time.

This guy had been just as cautious and nervous when they first met .

But from a normal perspective these were indeed very normal.

Even Ryan had used this method when he had gone through the deep sea area before.

What might be different is that even if Ryan didn't do it, someone would force the weaker guys to come forward.

As a close associate of Mr. Ronald, one of the several giants of the 12th block of Death Island.

Just that name alone could make countless people simply not dare to act rashly.

In a place like the West Vientiane Islands.

Human life was the most worthless thing of all.

In just ten minutes, Lin Mo and Ryan saw the ships converging in a mass ahead of them.

Unlike in Shark Bay, the ships here were far away from each other.

It was as if they could go straight to war at any moment.

The arrival of the hideously shaped human serpent warships immediately drew everyone's attention.

The eyes of the more powerful people in these ships showed a look of scorn.

This hideous viper shape was the group of madmen from the Human Snake Organisation.

They all silently moved away from the Human Snake warship.

Lin Mo and Ryan on the Human Serpent warship looked at each other.

It seemed that they didn't even need the two of them to demonstrate and show off their strength.

The group of guys merely saw the Human Snake Battleship.

They didn't have the guts to come up.

The Human Snake battleship also slowly docked at a side position.

The men on a distant battleship suddenly noticed that something was wrong.

A scar-eyed man looked at the distant Human Snake battleship.

A slight frown creased his brow.

"Why is this Human Snake Organisation's ship so cold?"

Usually, the Human Snake Organisation's ships were very busy.

All sorts of slave henchmen could be seen in groups above the deck.

But this Human Snake warship was a little too quiet.

The scar-eyed man took over a telescope and looked towards the deck of the Human Snake warship.

When he saw Lin Mo and Ryan chatting above the deck.

Anger instantly surfaced on his face.

“f*ck, two pigs in a tiger skin almost even fooled me?”

Scar-Eye’s heart was already certain that these two guys were taking advantage of the absence of the people from the Human Snake Organisation.

It was just a case of sneaking their warship away.

“It just so happens that I still don’t know who to let scout the way, and you guys delivered.”

“Little ones, turn on all the speakers.”

A playful smile appeared on Scar-Eye’s face.

He wanted to see those two guys who thought they could get away unscathed by the Human Snake warship.

How panicked they would be inside when they heard themselves tearing them apart.

“Ahem, hey hey hey, can you hear me?”

A voice suddenly came to life on the calm sea.

It instantly attracted everyone’s attention.

Their gazes gathered above the vessel that made the sound.

Only to see Scar standing on the deck, holding a microphone in his hand and saying loudly.

“I’m sure you all know the rules for pa*sing through the Deep Sea Zone.”

“We need to find the weakest guy to scout the way for us.”

Scar-Eye’s words caused everyone’s faces to change slightly.

This guy was suddenly saying this now, could it be that he had already found someone.

A voice was also heard from above the other ship at this moment.

“Sam Wolf, just don’t continue with your nonsense and say what’s in your heart.”

These people were all regulars in the deep water now.

Occasionally they would plant an oversized loudspeaker on their boat if they needed to communicate too.

Scar-eyed’s gaze went straight to the distant Human Serpent warship.

“Good, let them go and scout for us!”

“The two thieves on top of that Human Snake organisation ship are the best people for the job!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3609

Scar-Eye’s words caused an uproar after they were uttered.

“What is that guy Sam Wolf talking about?”

“Could it be that the people on board the Human Snake Organisation are not from the Human Snake Organisation?”

“Listening to Sam Wolf’s words, could it be that the people up there are actually two thieves.”

As soon as Scar-Eye’s words came out, all of them immediately looked at the Human Snake warship with a more ruthless look in their gaze.

Every one of them did not want to be the weakest in strength.

So now since they had been thrown out a target.

Then they naturally fought to want to support it.

Ryan and Lin Mo, who were chatting on the Human Snake warship, stopped at this moment.

Looking at the battleships that were leering at themselves and the others one by one.

Lin Mo’s face did not change in the slightest as he walked straight into the C*ckpit.

He remembered that the Human Snake warship also had a huge horn on top.

“Are you guys thinking that we are the weakest?”

Lin Mo’s somewhat innocent words immediately caused a ruthless look to appear on everyone’s faces.

If they hadn’t been sure of Scar-Eye’s words before.

Then at this moment, they had dared to be certain.

The people on the Human Snake Battleship were not from the Human Snake Organisation at all.

They had really stolen the ship, just as Scar-Eye had said.

All the people who had entered Shark Bay with Lin Mo had died.

None of them had survived at all.

This led to them not having any news at all.

One by one, they didn’t have the slightest idea of Lin Mo’s power.

“I advise you to go in yourselves if you have any sense, don’t let us invite you in.”

Scar-Eye's voice surrounded the sea through the loudspeaker.

It immediately caused everyone to chime in.

"Yeah, we all love peace, so say don't force us to get rough."

"Get in if you know what you're doing."

"That's right, maybe the giant octopus is sleeping today and you can get through safely."

There were indeed previous examples of weak scouts pa*sing through safely.

But the human serpent warship beneath Lin Mo and Ryan was already being watched by this group of guys.

Scar's eyes could barely conceal the greed in his eyes as he looked at the overbearing and hideous Human Serpent warship.

Such a powerful vessel had actually been stolen by two thieves.

Wait, if they died at the hands of that octopus, so be it.

But if they pa*sed unharmed.

Scar-Eye must get the ship into his own hands.

Such thoughts were shared by the others.

But they would not even know the terror of Lin Mo's strength.

Hearing the taunts of this group of guys, Ryan, who was standing beside Lin Mo, blushed hard.

He was just about to directly say his identity as one of Mr. Ronald's men.

Lin Mo gestured to Ryan with his hand, telling him to calm down for the time being.

This was because Lin Mo suddenly thought of a very good plan.

Didn't they want to use themselves as bait to get through the deep sea area?

Then he would just give them a chance to get through the Deep Sea Zone unharmed.

Lin Mo's lips were aimed at the microphone as he opened his mouth and said.

"Good, then I promise to head to the Deep Sea Zone to scout for you."

Seeing Lin Mo agree, the people on the other battleships thought that this was because he was scared.

"It seems like that Scar guy was really right this time."

"It seems that the Human Snake warship is just two thieves who aren't much of a threat."

"If I were those two thieves, I would definitely have to disguise my identity as a member of the Human Snake Organisation at this moment."

"That way maybe we'll throw in the towel and they'll still be lucky to survive."

Scar's eyes flashed with heartache as he looked at the Human Serpent warship.

The thought that something so good would soon be destroyed by the octopus gave Scar-Eye a pang of envy and jealousy.

Why did those two thieves get to steal something like the Human Snake Battleship.

In front of everyone's eyes.

The Human Snake Battleship slowly sailed into the deep sea area!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3610

On top of the Human Serpent warship.

Ryan's face did not look too good.

Although he knew that Lin Mo was very powerful, he still had a slight worry inside.

After all, that huge shark couldn't even compare to the monsters in the deep sea area.

"Maureen"

Ryan's gaze looked at Lin Mo, as if he wanted to say something.

Of course Lin Mo knew what Ryan wanted to say.

If Ryan had taken out Ronald's identity.

It was true that he might not have to come out to scout.

But since those guys didn't want to find a pathfinder ghost to come out?

Then Lin Mo would just go through here openly and honestly.

As for whether that giant octopus was there or not, Lin Mo couldn't guarantee it.

"Ryan, I'm here for everything." Lin Mo looked at Ryan and comforted him, then suddenly whispered,

"Ryan, you wouldn't really not be able to, would you?"

"Bullsh*t!"

"You're the one who can't!"

"Hahaha." Looking at Ryan's appearance, Lin Mo let out a light laugh.

The sea in the deep sea area was not the light blue of the other areas, but dark blue

Instead, it was as if one could look directly into the deep sea floor.

If such an area was for people with a phobia of the deep sea.

They would probably have fainted from fear.

Underneath the sea is a darkness that makes you worry about whether there is something big hiding.

The ships outside the deep water area were now staring at the Human Serpent warship.

Every one of their faces were crossed with anticipation.

As long as Lin Mo and the others were able to pass through the deep sea area unharmed.

Then they would be scrambling to get through the next moment.

“Sam Wolf, do you think they will be able to get through the Deep Sea Zone?”

Suddenly, the walkie-talkie on Scar-Eye’s waist suddenly rang out.

Sam Wolf was a nickname he had broken into years ago.

But because he had been scratched having an eye once, he became known to many as Scar.

“Hey, let’s see if those two boys are lucky enough to call themselves they’ll live a little longer.”

“Oh?”

The voice over the intercom rose with interest.

“What, you got your eye on that Human Snake organization ship?”

Scar-Eye didn’t bother to answer the man’s question on the intercom.

“Morrowolf, if you have your eye on it, I can help you block the others oh.”

“After all, there are quite a few people here besides you who have their eyes on that human serpent warship.”

Scar’s eyes changed slightly, after considering the current situation for a moment.

“Haha, if that’s the case then it would be best.”

“After it’s done, I’ll be sure to send five million Maple Leaf Coins.”

“No harm, no foul.”

It was clear that Lin Mo and the others were still spending time in the deep sea area.

These guys had already started talking about business.

“Molin, do you feel anything

On the Human Serpent warship, Ryan, who was standing on the deck, suddenly pulled Lin Mo’s arm with a somewhat frightened face.

Lin Mo’s gaze swept over the sea slightly, then said softly.

“Ryan, close your eyes.”

“Until I say I can open my eyes

Hearing Lin Mo's words, Ryan immediately closed his eyes firmly.

And something appeared in Lin Mo's hand.

A hideous and terrifying face, it was none other than

Lan Ling's Ghost Face.

"Don't ever open it!"

Lin Mo gently clasped the Lan Ling Ghost Face onto his face.

Instantly, the Lan Ling Ghost Face looked as if it had come to life.

"Kill them!"

"Kill everyone and you'll become stronger!"

"Hahahaha, go ahead and kill. Kill!"

Faced with Lan Ling Ghostface's murmurings, Lin Mo merely spat out two words calmly.

"Noisy!"

A furious aura burst out from Lin Mo's body.

Lan Ling Ghost Face's murmurings and the occasional wild laughter that came from time to time instantly disappeared at this moment.

Ryan, who had originally closed his eyes in death, suddenly and inexplicably felt a piercing chill.

His own body kept trembling.

It was as if it was making itself leave this place immediately.

And just now Maureen's voice was so cold.