Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3641

Haruko, who was sitting opposite Lin Mo, listened to what had happened to Lin Mo.

She actually let out a very sad word.

“Mr. Molin, Haruko didn’t know that your past was actually so miserable.”

“If I had known, I would have been wrong to talk too much.”

That’s not true, why ask if you know.

A look of helplessness flashed across Lin Mo’s face.

Women really were all drama queens.

If the conversation continued like this, Lin Mo reckoned that Haruko would really be able to continue with her acting.

“Alright, alright, that’s all my experience, Miss Haruko.”

“Can I ask you about something?”

It was logical to come to a customary place like this to ask for information that usually caused a headache.

Then one would just wait for the other party to argue and discuss with oneself.

But Lin Mo estimated Haruko’s appearance.

If he didn’t directly take the initiative to ask, the other party wouldn’t even say a single word of useful information.

Hearing Lin Mo say that he wanted to inquire about things, the look of sadness on Haruko’s face was instantly hidden.

Instead, it was replaced by a look of interest.

“Mr. Molin, what is it that you wish to inquire about?”

Lin Mo’s gaze was calm as he looked at Haruko.

There was not a single bit of surprise at the other party’s change of face.

“I want to know something about the Human Snake Organization.

It’s best ..... the clearer the better.”

The Human Snake Organization was one of the masterminds behind the robbery of the overseas Hongmen’s goods.

Ninety percent of that previous transaction could have been the missing shipment.

And the Human Snake Organization was again one of the masterminds behind this time.

If they were found, they might be able to get a clue to that shipment.

Lin Mo's words caused Haruko's face to change slightly, the interest she had just shown instantly changing to a gloomy look.

"Mr. Molin, do you know what you are talking about."

"You should know the status of the Human Snake Organization as well as its strength, right?"

"How can news of that kind of power be known by a small fancy shop owner like me?"

Lin Mo looked at Haruko and said with a light smile "The owner of a custom shop?"

"No, no, no, Miss Haruko, do you think I'm a vagrant?"

Haruko shook her head decisively, "Impossible."

"Then why would Haruko-sama think that I would think that you are really a vulgar shop owner?"

Lin Mo changed his previous stoic style.

At this moment, he was like a sharp sword that had been sheathed, and his sharp aura caused Haruko's words to pause for a moment.

"Or is it that, Miss Haruko, your perception of me is still that of an ordinary newcomer up to now?"

Haruko didn't directly go for Lin Mo's words.

Instead, she revealed a pensive expression.

She was contemplating whether she wanted to make this deal or not.

And was Molin worth the risk of selling information about the Human Snake Organization.

What if Maureen was the one from the Human Snake Organisation?

After a long time, a smile returned to Haruko's face once again and she took a sip of the green tea on the table.

"Chinese green tea is still really lip-smacking."

"Mr Maureen, tell us what you want to know and the chips you can come up with."

"This business may be a little risky, but I'm doing it."

"Just for the sake of the amount you and I talked about before."

Lin Mo did not take Haruko's later words seriously, she knew that Haruko would definitely agree.

There was no way for her to determine the height of her status and which side of the power she was actually on.

So Haruko was now also betting that Lin Mo was not from the Human Snake Organisation.

“I want to know all the members and bases of the Human Snake Organisation that you know of in Block 13.”

“As well as what kind of projects they are all working on right now.”

Hearing Lin Mo’s words, Haruko instantly let out a sigh of relief.

Her body looked a little weak and limp at the moment, but there was a smile on her face.

She had bet on the right thing.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3642

From Lin Mo’s words.

Haruko could hear straight away that he really wanted to know information about the Human Snake Organization.

It definitely wouldn’t be someone from the Human Snake Organisation.

A soothing smile appeared on Haruko’s face as she said softly to Lin Mo.

“Mr. Molin, you really did scare me.”

“Although I do know a little bit of this information you want to know here, I cannot tell you directly.”

“You will need to come up with a certain amount of leverage oh.”

Haruko’s soft words did not give rise to any resentment at all.

“What kind of chips do you want?”

“I can offer one million Maple Leaf Coins as chips to buy the news you have in your hand.”

Although Lin Mo had brought hundreds of thousands of Maple Leaf Coins with him when he got off the ship.

But there were still at the very least tens of millions of Maple Leaf Coins on top of the Human Snake Battleship that hadn’t been touched yet.

Haruko’s face didn’t change a single bit from the full smile on her face.

“What are you talking about, Mr. Molin.”

“You and I are friends, so how could I possibly go and ask for your money.”

Lin Mo’s eyebrows furrowed slightly at once.

Free things were always the most expensive.

And instead of asking for money, the previous Shi Lan Yue had asked Lin Mo for a favour and helped her kill Ronald.

Who was Ronald.

One of the top few big shots in Block 12.

Their heads were paid for, not to mention millions, even hundreds of millions.

But it was because Lin Mo had promised Shi Lan Yue a favour.

That was why he had taken on this task.

This mission that was completely unequal to the value of the information Lin Mo had learned.

And now Haruko was also saying that she didn't want any money.

"I hope Mr. Molin you can protect me for a while next."

Seeing Lin Mo's slightly frowning look, Haruko hurriedly stated her request.

"Mr. Molin, it is only because I have no choice that I want you to protect me."

"Just the day before yesterday, we were targeted by a force from Block 13."

"Their name is Hungry Ghost Road, and they are a mid-tier force on Block 13."

"Their boss wanted me to be his woman, which I didn't want."

"So I was given three days, and if I didn't agree after three days, I was to simply kill all of us."

Lin Mo looked at Haruko's scared look and suddenly smiled.

"Are you really scared of them, Miss Haruko."

Lin Mo could be 100% sure that Haruko was definitely not some ordinary person.

Now the other party was actually showing such a pitiful look.

They were all thousand year old foxes, what kind of chatty game were people playing.

The helplessness as well as the look of fear on Haruko's face receded.

Inwardly, she was very depressed, didn't they say that men eat softness the most.

How come this guy in front of her didn't give her any face at all?

"Mr. Molin, you really are ..... fiery-eyed."

Lin Mo smiled.

"I just don't believe that someone as astute as Miss Haruko would be very ..... smart because of this kind of look."

"Well, there is no intellectual discourse to be worried as well as scared about."

Haruko sighed helplessly.

“Maureen-san, my identity is not something I can tell you right now for the time being.”

“But those guys are really causing me a lot of trouble.”

“I can’t directly strike out at them because of my special status, and once I do.”

“It will definitely attract other people’s eyes to converge on us, you know what I mean.”

Lin Mo nodded his head very cooperatively.

“So you had to find someone who could block those gazes for you in plain sight.”

“So you had your eye on me, right?”

After receiving Haruko’s affirmation, a thoughtful look passed through Lin Mo’s eyes.

His own appearance had changed a long time ago, and even if he was being watched by others, they were only staring at Molin.

And what did it matter to me, Lin Mo, if they were staring at Molin.

“I promise.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3643

Since Haruko didn’t want too many people to gather their eyes on her.

Then Lin Mo would simply take this on as well.

Compared to the intelligence of the Human Snake Organisation.

These were all small matters.

It was just a matter of adding one more enemy to the list.

After hearing Lin Mo’s promise, Haruko’s face instantly revealed a joyful look.

Her mission on this side was not yet over.

If she rushed out, it would be easy to reveal her identity.

And once Lin Mo took this on.

Then it would be a great saving for herself next.

“Mr. Molin, so do you want information on the Hungry Ghost Path or the Human Snake Organisation first now?”

Haruko’s words instantly returned to their previous soft state.

Lin Mo’s heart silently placed a label on Haruko’s body.

A fickle woman.

“Let’s start with that hungry ghost path that’s going to strike at you guys.”

Lin Moji rubbed his brow.

He himself had clearly collected all the aura from his body.

But this group of women were more shrewd than one another.

They couldn’t even give money, they had to go and do something.

Haruko nodded very obediently, only when she saw Lin Mo’s somewhat helpless look.

There was a sly look in her eyes.

“Mr. Molin, the Hungry Ghost Road is a medium-sized power south of Block 13.”

“They have thousands of people within their forces and have all sorts of firepower weapons.”

“Hungry Ghost Road’s premises are near Block 49, so they are usually very arrogant.”

“Once they’ve done something they just go straight into Block Forty-Nine and wait until the outside is too lazy to bother them before coming out.”

“Their boss, nicknamed Hungry Ghost, used this to threaten us before.”

“If I don’t obey him, our girls in the shop won’t obey his minions.”

“We are to be given *first* and then killed and have us made into specimens.”

Haruko’s words were still very soft.

It was as if she didn’t have an ounce of anger for the Hungry Ghosts.

“I want to know what you would have done if I hadn’t come.”

Haruko’s eyes twitched in the direction of where Morton was outside.

“Isn’t there still our shop’s vip customer, Brother Morton?”

“If we hadn’t met you, Maureen-san, the whole 13th block would have been there by then.”

“Newbie merchant Morton will be on a roll, with all the hidden forces under his command, thundering out to destroy the Hungry Ghost Road.”

“And Mr Morton will receive pure compensation from our girls.”

Come on, that Morton guy was really being counted on.

Lin Mo looked at Haruko and said softly, “Next, let’s talk about the news of the Human Snake Organization.”

Haruko nodded: “I’ll start with the news of the Human Snake Organization from the latest speculation with you.”

“This news is also the latest we have just received.”

“Recently a large number of women have gone missing from a large number of shops inside the red light district.”

“According to the descriptions of the missing shops, the women all disappeared at night.”

“Every night we can hear a faint wailing sound, but it disappears quickly.”

“The messages outside have been saying that this is a harsh ghost demanding life, do you believe it Mr Molin?”

Lin Mo’s eyes were so deep that one could not see the bottom at a glance.

“Rumours of a harsh ghost claiming life in a place like this appear and are successfully spreading.”

“This is someone pushing behind the scenes, and the person pushing is the source of it all.”

Lin Mo did not say whether he believed it or not.

Instead, he directly spoke out the deduction he had made within himself.

“Not bad, those wailing ones ring out every day at night, very fishy.”

“We have conducted various analyses based on the professional team again.”

“The only one with this kind of style is the Human Snake Organisation.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3644

Probably not even the people of the Human Serpent Organisation could have dreamed of this situation.

A think tank will be formed to analyse the island’s forces.

And they would record all the actions and practices of the forces.

The final comparison is with the uncertainty.

The most likely culprit in this case is the Human Serpents.

They are ruthless and full of mystery.

They tend to stay in the shadows.

And things like kidnapping people were not uncommon for the Human Snake Organisation.

Lin Mo nodded slightly.

“Then have you analysed what the motives of the Human Snake Organisation are?”

Lin Mo’s mind once again recalled the scene he had seen on the Human Snake warship at that time.

The ground formed by the dry corpses and that huge filter in mid-air.

Those things .....

A chill welled up in Lin Mo's eyes.

It caused the body of Haruko, who was sitting opposite Lin Mo, to stiffen slightly.

What was wrong with this man?

A sudden uneasiness that had arisen loomed over Haruko's insides.

Lin Mo quickly suppressed the killing intent within himself.

The Human Snake Organisation, Lin Mo had seen one and killed one.

Every single thing they did touched Lin Mo's bottom line.

"According to our collection, the Human Snake Organization has been conducting human experiments all these years."

"Although they also try to keep the movement down as much as possible, they still can't avoid being observed by our scouts say."

"And just today, I received a message from my spy."

"He has found the Human Snake Organisation's test base, and can be 100% sure that it is the Human Snake Organisation."

Lin Mo looked at Haruko and said with some slight confusion.

"Why are you so sure that it's someone from the Human Snake Organization?"

"Mr. Molin, every person from the Human Snake Organization will have the Serpent's Mark branded on their body you know that, right?"

"The Serpent's Mark is made of a special stuff that is used to prove their identity on a regular basis."

"Although they also cover up the Serpentine Mark, that scout of ours wrote in his letter."

"He witnessed one of the men inside reveal the mannequin mark at his arm when he took off his coat because of the dry heat."

Haruko recounted all the information she knew bit by bit to Lin Mo.

She was not hiding anything in this information.

Both Haruko and Lin Mo knew that neither side was a simple person.

If they were to say less or lie, the other party would definitely be able to tell.

"Then where is the other party's location?"

Haruko's face gradually firmed up as she took a sketch map of Block 13 from the side.

Nodding at a square spot on it.

“This is our red light district.”

Lin Mo nodded his head.

Haruko’s white fingers moved slowly.

It landed on a spot on the sketch.

A chill appeared in Lin Mo’s eyes, “Not really worthy of their style.”

Only the place where Haruko’s finger was located was right at the edge of the red light district.

“They are very clever, and very powerful.”

“To be able to build an underground lab without anyone knowing.”

“That underground lab was over a thousand square metres in size and was able to dig it out and still remain undetected.”

“Such a power is definitely not simple.”

“My scouts also searched for traces for dozens of days before turning up the clues from it.”

“Following the trail carefully all the way, they were even almost discovered by the people of the Human Snake Organisation.”

Lin Mo slowly rose to his feet.

A coldness emanated from his entire body.

“Then Miss Haruko, please also tell me where the scout who knows the location is.”

“I really ..... want to go and see.”

“Where exactly are those scum anymore.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3645

“Our scout has been hiding in a place on the edge of the red light district.”

“Here’s his address, Mr. Molin you can go over there and find him yourself.”

Haruko took out a slip of paper from behind her and handed it to Lin Mo.

“Once you find him you can just tell him that you have already communicated with me.”

Haruko instructed to Lin Mo.

“Um okay, I got it.”

“I might be going for a bit longer this time, are you okay here?”

Lin Mo was asking about the hungry ghost path that Haruko had mentioned.

He himself was moving to the base of the Human Snake Organisation this time.

If there were no surprises, Lin Mo would finish inquiring about the information inside and go straight to move the killer.

And the Hungry Ghost Dao that Haruko had mentioned had given him only one day left tomorrow.

Haruko smiled and shook her head.

“Maureen-san needn’t worry, if they’re really in that much of a hurry.”

“The whole Hungry Ghost Way is trying to steal each other’s confidantes because they’ve messed with Maureen, the newcomer to the island.”

“Molin was so angry that he went to Hungry Ghost Road alone that night and the whole gang was wiped out.”

“How about this?”

Haruko looked at Lin Mo, and playfully raised her eyebrows.

Lin Mo’s face instantly darkened.

“Even if you get one to accept employment it’s still better than that one you said for a woman.”

“Ugh, does Molin-san hate people that much?”

Haruko very theatrically revealed a look of pity at my sight.

Lin Mo’s body headed straight outside.

He was going to find that scout to find out what was going on;er.

“Change that excuse, or I can’t stand it.”

Looking at Lin Mo’s back as he directly left.

A smile suddenly appeared on Haruko’s face.

This fellow Molin wasn’t such a straight man of steel after all.

Lin Mo quickly walked towards the outside.

He had to hurry to see what that scout Haruko had said he had seen.

As for that guy Morton .....

Haruko had said that he would not come out until tomorrow morning.

If Lin Mo hadn’t returned by tomorrow morning, she would tell Morton that Lin Mo had left first.

A glance at the address Haruko had written on top of the paper.

It was to the right of where Lin Mo was now, and not too far away.

Above the street, red lanterns and signs were very visible.

As the night approached, there were also many more pedestrians inside the red-light district than before.

Here, their faces are wary and mostly smiling with happiness.

On both sides of the street, a girl kept waving her hand at the people on the street.

“Grandpa, come in and have some fun.”

“Grandpa, I am very talented, I can play, play and sing.”

The voices of the warblers kept ringing out, and the whole alleyway was filled with the charming soul of China.

Especially when Lin Mo, who was Chinese in appearance and with an upright posture, entered their eyes.

The group of women’s eyes lit up at once.

It had been a long time since they had seen such a handsome and handsome man.

If they could have a friendly exchange with him, they wouldn’t lose any money if they charged less.

But Lin Mo had no ears to hear what was going on outside the window.

He continued to walk quickly in the right direction.

The words in his ears did not make the slightest ripple in Lin Mo’s heart.

When even Heng Bing expressed her love to him, Lin Mo refused without a trace.

This group of dusty women is not even comparable to Heng Bing, let alone the ..... woman Lin Mo has been holding on to.

Xu Hanxia.

As Lin Mo continued to walk towards the outside, he also broke away from the centre of the red light district.

The voices of those soliciting customers gradually decreased, and the number of inns and taverns around gradually increased.

Lin Mo’s gaze casually scanned around, then quickly turned towards the right side of the path.

According to what Haruko had said, the scouts lived here.

He was the only one in the entire pathway, and it was safe.

Suddenly, Lin Mo’s brow furrowed.

The smell of blood!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3646

The sudden smell of blood was very clear.

Lin Mo's gaze instantly sank.

His figure quickly walked towards the deepest part of the pathway.

Earlier, Haruko had said that the entire pathway was only inhabited by the scouts themselves inside.

And now the smell of blood had appeared out of nowhere.

This gave Lin Mo's heart a slightly bad feeling.

When he arrived at the door of the house in the deepest part of the pathway, Lin Mo's hand knocked on it smoothly three times.

After ten seconds or so, there was no sound.

Not even the slightest sound of people moving inside the house appeared.

Lin Mo did not continue to wait any longer.

Instead, his entire body leapt up from the ground and headed for the courtyard.

Lin Mo's figure landed on the ground without a single sound.

"Sure enough, the smell of blood has become even stronger."

The even stronger smell of blood within the courtyard completely made Lin Mo certain of what he was thinking inside.

Something was wrong.

Lin Mo's eyes scanned around the somewhat dark courtyard.

The darkness of the night did not hinder Lin Mo's vision in the slightest.

His eyes then converged on the main house within the courtyard.

The smell of blood was still gradually increasing.

This meant that someone had just had an accident not long ago, and the other party might not even have left yet.

Lin Mo paused slightly, and then directly said aloud.

"Old Wang, are you there Old Wang?"

"Your clothes for today pulled our house, I'll bring them to you ah."

After Lin Mo's voice rang out, he was keenly aware of a subtle sound within the house.

Lin Mo's face wore a smile as his eyes gradually went icy cold.

It seemed that the other party was really here.

Lin Mo had even just slightly analysed the current situation.

He was able to guess what the other party was.

It was that group of vipers hiding in the shadows of the Human Snake Organisation again.

According to Haruko's information, when the scouts were following the trail to find the Human Snake Organization's base.

Several times, he had almost been discovered by the Human Snake Organisation for various reasons.

Now it seems that he has been discovered by the snake.

And the other side had even found the location of this spy.

Lin Mo walked straight towards the house and pulled open the door without a care in the world.

"Swoosh!"

A small cracking sound sounded instantly.

Lin Mo's eyes narrowed slightly.

His palm then lifted up directly like a phantom, and two fingers were gently and easily squeezed in mid-air.

A pure black steel needle was directly held in Lin Mo's hand.

"This ..... is not the way to treat your guests."

Lin Mo's gaze glanced at the dimly lit living room, and then sighed somewhat helplessly.

"Are all the people of the Human Snake Organization acting in such a manner?"

"Shady, ruthless, treating other people's lives as if they were mere ants, people like you."

"Truly, everyone must be punished!"

"He knows who we are, he must be left behind today!"

Along with Lin Mo's voice, a furious shout rang out from within the dimly lit room.

Several people dressed in night clothes then quickly scurried straight out from all corners of the house.

In their hands were a variety of concealed weapons, all aimed at Lin Mo in unison.

In an instant, countless steel needles as well as flying knives quickly shot towards Lin Mo.

"Are they all playing so fancy now?"

In Lin Mo's eyes, the speed of these fast, almost instantaneous flying knives as well as silver needles slowed down by more than ten times.

Disdain as well as a sense of playfulness flashed across his eyes.

"Since you guys want to play with concealed weapons, then I will ....."

"Give it all back to you."

Lin Mo's palms lifted up and the fingers of his hands were like phantoms striking at the incoming concealed weapons.

No matter what the concealed weapon was, Lin Mo would strike at the end of the concealed weapon.

Using a more powerful force, he caused the concealed weapon to turn around directly and charge towards the people of the Human Snake Organisation.

"Not good!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3647

A man in black cried out when he saw the fast-approaching concealed weapon.

The whole man quickly lunged to one side.

He was lucky enough to avoid the returning concealed weapons.

But the men in black with him were not so lucky.

The speedy concealed weapons turned them into hedgehogs in a flash.

The sound of the concealed weapon entering their bodies caused a look of panic to appear in the eyes of the members of the Human Snake Organisation who had just dodged the attack.

Who the hell was this guy.

Wasn't he here to deliver clothes to that guy.

How could he have such a powerful force.

The concealed weapon they had just fired had hundreds of cow hair needles in it.

How did that kind of slim needles this guy manage to hit back all of them?

"Aiyaaah, your companions seem to have gone down."

"Are you going to crouch aside obediently, or shall I send you down?"

Lin Mo's soft words were like the murmur of a demon, causing the member of the Human Snake Organization to instantly physically tremble.

"I ..... I surrender ....."

He obediently stood up, and then directly squatted by the wall to the side.

Although the room was very dim, he simply didn't dare to gamble.

In case that man saw anything different about himself, he might even die worse than his companions.

Lin Mo's palm directly touched the electric light switch at the side.

Snap!

With a crunching sound of the switch.

The originally dimly lit room instantly lit up and allowed the members of the Human Snake Organisation who were crouched inside the corner to see everything clearly.

Their own companions were now lying in the place inside the house.

The amount of blood on the floor proved that they had indeed died horribly.

The only remaining member of the Human Snake Organisation then quickly looked at the figure at the door.

But he didn't dare to look at Lin Mo's face.

Only looked at Lin Mo's body.

A flawless, spotlessly white body with spotless white clothes.

The upright stance was very tall.

On top of Death Island, there was actually someone who dared to wear white clothes.

This was a thought that crossed the minds of the members of the Human Snake Organisation.

Their Human Snake Organisation was incomparably powerful, but they only dared to go and wear black clothes.

This was because once too much attention was drawn to it.

The biggest deterrent of the Human Snake Organisation, the mystery would gradually disappear.

When that time came, the forces that had a grudge against the Human Snake Organisation would most likely unite to liquidate everything.

Lin Mo's gaze went towards the dining table on the left.

A man was sitting on top of a chair, his heartbeat already very weak.

His shirt was already stained red with blood at his chest.

The Human Snake Organisation had used a weapon directly on his chest to make a fatal wound.

Lin Mo walked towards the scouts, stepping over the corpses of the members of the Human Snake Organisation with great disgust on his way.

These guys, if we were to follow the mythology of China.

After death, they would surely go to the eighteenth level of hell and pass through mountains of swords and fire.

The amount of sins they carried had long been unknown.

This was why Lin Mo had inwardly established that the Human Snake Organisation must be killed.

There might still be people who were forced to do so among the other forces.

But the Human Snake Organisation was not the same.

Being able to become a member of it might be a little uncomfortable at first.

But later on, they have seen more inhumane and genocidal things.

They are no longer human.

What was the point of staying in the world for guys like that who didn't even have humanity anymore.

Lin Mo came to the scout's body and felt on his pulse.

It was already so weak that it was barely moving.

If he had come a few minutes later, this guy would have simply died.

Lin Mo's long, slender fingers flicked at his waist.

The Nine Xuan Needles instantly went out.

It was stabbed directly into the scout's nine acupuncture points.

"This is the first time I've used this rarely circulated needle technique, you're also considered lucky."

Lin Mo's finger flicked at the end of a silver needle.

All nine silver needles instantly vibrated.

The nine needles moved in unison, locking life back into the sky.

The Return to Heaven Needle that had been lost for hundreds of years.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3648

The scout's face looked much better to the naked eye.

Although there was no immediate rosy cheeks, immediate life or anything like that.

But it was a direct way of preserving his faint life.

From his pocket, he took out two small pills.

They were the Blood Qi Pill as well as the Muscle Growth Pill.

The former elixir was because the scout had lost too much blood from his heart and was severely short of qi and blood.

If it was not replenished directly, even if he survived, he would be paralysed for two years.

And the second lesson elixir was because if the qi and blood were to be replenished directly.

He still had a wound in front of him and would bleed out straight away.

Lin Mo first opened the scout's clothes straight away, revealing the hideous wound on his chest.

He then directly crushed the muscle-generating pills in his hand and sprinkled them on top of the wound.

Lin Mo again tore a section of the scout's clothes off slightly.

He wrapped it around his chest before stuffing the Qi and Blood Pill in his hand into his mouth.

After confirming that the scout's face was gradually reddening.

And, there were no more problems.

Only then did Lin Mo shift his gaze and look at the member of the Human Snake Organisation who was crouching in the corner.

"You, come here."

The chill in Lin Mo's words caused the Human Snake Organisation member's body to tremble slightly.

But his own companions were all still lying on the ground right now.

He could only meekly stand up and walk towards Lin Mo with his head lowered.

"Is that your boss down here?"

There were four or five of them, so there must be a leader with the power of speech in place.

The finger of the Human Snake member pointed to a corpse below.

"You take the black step off his face."

Looking at his companions lying on the ground and the blood that flowed everywhere.

A prayerful look appeared on his face at once and he chanted silently within himself.

"Brothers, you must not blame me."

"If I make it out of here alive today, I will take care of my sisters-in-law."

He gritted his teeth, stepped directly on the corpses of his former companions and removed the boss's face scarf.

A slightly feminine looking face was revealed.

After Lin Mo indifferently glanced at it, he gently rubbed his palm over his face a few times.

"Does your boss usually have any preferences?"

"Uh ....."

The members of the Human Snake Organization were momentarily speechless.

"Our boss usually likes ..... dragon yang ....."

Lin Mo's hand, which was in the process of disguising itself, froze violently.

Dragon Yang?

In layman's terms, that means ..... f*cking like men.

If it weren't for the ease of movement within the Human Snake Organization.

Lin Mo must have changed his disguise.

"..... What is his usual personality like?"

The member of the Human Snake Organization who was standing in front of Lin Mo with his head bowed said in a hurry.

"Our boss usually has a very soft nature, likes to pinch his orchid fingers, has a sharp voice, and likes to taunt people."

"The reason we were a*signed out to a*sa*sinate that guy is because the boss mocked someone who shouldn't be mocked."

A look of helplessness flashed across Lin Mo's eyes.

Why was this guy so sick.

It was alright to mock people inside the organisation, wasn't that cheap.

Lin Mo briefly cleared his throat.

"Is that so?"

A shrill voice rang out from Lin Mo's mouth.

"No, it needs to be a little more ..... feminine."

The members of the Human Snake Organization snapped back to their senses and looked up at Lin Mo's face.

The exact same face as the boss caused a look of disbelief to appear on his face.

In a rush, he turned back to see that the Boss was still lying on the ground, not swindled.

This man had actually disguised himself to look like the Boss.

Lin Mo's voice returned to his original appearance.

"And really, thanks a lot for the information."

"It's alright, as it should be."

Just as he was wondering if he was safe, a deathly voice sounded.

"As a token of my gratitude to you, I'll let you pa*s away painlessly."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3649

When the member of the Human Snake Organisation heard Lin Mo's words, his soul was instantly lost.

Just when he wanted to get up and let go of his hand, a hand appeared above his neck.

Lin Mo's light words rang out, "Don't struggle, it will be painful."

Ka!

The crisp sound of bones cracking rang out.

The member of the Human Snake Organisation in front of Lin Mo passed away with a resigned look on his face.

Lin Mo picked up a tissue from the table and wiped his palm.

"Since you're awake, don't just close your eyes."

Lin Mo's gaze went to the scouts behind him who still had their eyes closed.

His own Heaven Returning Needle had gushed out, and this fellow was still here pretending to be unconscious.

The scout hadn't moved a single bit.

It was as if he was really still in a coma.

When Lin Mo saw that he wasn't moving, he directly revealed his identity.

"I was introduced by Miss Haruko in order to know where the secret base of the Human Snake Organization is."

"You can choose to remain unconscious, but I won't be able to defend you if Miss Haruko blames you afterwards."

Lin Mo's calm words caused the man's eyelids to flicker slightly a few times.

He had gradually regained his meaning after Lin Mo had just finished sticking the needle.

But because there was no way to judge Lin Mo's identity.

So all along, he had continued to pretend to be unconscious.

Originally, he thought that Lin Mo didn't know that he was awake at all.

Now it seemed that the other party was so sure of himself that there was no point in pretending any longer.

His eyes slowly opened and he adjusted to the light in the room.

"Don't move."

Seeing the man trying to stand up straight away.

Lin Mo hurriedly discouraged it.

This guy still had several silver needles stuck in his body.

This wouldn't work if the silver needles went in a bit more and withdrew a bit alive.

The man looked flabbergasted, then also thought of the silver needles on his own body.

So once again he resumed lying flat.

"It seems that you believe my words."

"Miss Haruko has spoken to me about you, so I came straight to you."

"Is it true that you saw someone with the mark of a human snake on his arm inside?"

Lin Mo's last sentence belonged to pure semi-nonsense.

There were still so many people lying on the ground, and once their clothes were peeled away, they could tell if it was the Human Snake Organization.

But Lin Mo still said the last sentence.

Because that sentence was what the man had said in his letter to Haruko.

Lin Mo was also proving his identity.

And it was true.

Hearing Lin Mo's words, a brilliant light flashed in the man's eyes.

He had indeed told Haruko that he had seen the human snake marks on the bodies of those people inside the secret base.

Lin Mo's words also quieted his heart, which was still a little worried.

"I wonder what your name is?"

"If it wasn't for you this time, I guess my body would have stunk by the time I was found."

The man's gaze looked at Lin Mo with a look of gratitude in his eyes.

He had always thought that he had done things incredibly seamlessly.

It was absolutely impossible for the group of guys from the Human Snake Organisation to discover his ploy.

But it had never occurred to him.

He had actually been seen through.

If it wasn't for this man in front of him, he would have really died here tonight.

"Maureen."

"My name is Ear Wind."

Ear Wind leaned back in his chair and said somewhat stiffly to Lin Mo.

"Brother Molin, thank you so much for this time."

“As for the Human Snake Organization you mentioned, I can be 100% sure that it is them.”

“Because I met a ..... envoy of the Human Snake Organization inside that secret experimental base!”

A light flashed in Lin Mo’s eyes.

Human Snake Envoy .....

Back then, Lin Mo had also met a Human Snake envoy when he was on Lin Island.

However, he did not know exactly what the other party’s purpose was.

That human snake envoy also died directly under Lin Mo’s men afterwards.

At that time, Lin Mo still thought that the envoy was not worth anything.

But after beating the Human Snake Organization so many times back there.

It was only when he had not seen a single envoy that Lin Mo realised.

It turned out that there were only a few dozen envoys of the Human Snake Organisation, and they were all spread out throughout the Western Vientiane Islands.

The envoy that Lin Mo had killed before had no idea why.

He had gone to a remote and narrow place like Lin Island.

“Are you sure?”

Ear Wind nodded affirmatively in a hurry.

“I can be sure that one is definitely the envoy of the Human Snake Organization.”

“I heard that group of people call that guy an envoy.”

Lin Mo stretched out his hand and pulled out the silver needles from Ear Wind’s body.

With a sharp swipe at his own waist, the silver needles disappeared once again.

“There, you should be able to move now.”

A look of joy appeared on Ear Wind’s face, and he just wanted to stand up.

The piercing pain in his chest instantly made his face pale.

Lin Mo looked at Ear Wind’s appearance and said softly to him.

“I’ve saved your life now, but the injury on your chest is not light.”

“I gave you medicine, and since I didn’t bring numbing medicine with me, you might feel a little pain.”

Ear Wind: .....

Is this a thing that hurts a bit?

That stabbing pain if I had to use a phrase to describe it.

That was the general pain of a dead mother, okay?

But this life of his own Lin Mo had saved for himself.

Not to mention the body is just a little pain, even if it is a chrysanthemum pain he ear wind also definitely not say anything.

"It's fine, still, thanks to big brother Molin you ah."

"I'm currently injured and unable to take you there, so do you have a map with you, Brother Molin?"

Lin Mo's hands were spread out.

A map, what map.

What Lin Mo hated most in his life was reading maps.

Ever since he had come to the Western Vientiane Islands, he had been looking at maps at every turn.

When he was in China, Lin Mo found it troublesome to look at a navigation.

Let alone something like carrying a map on his person.

"Brother Molin, there's a hidden compartment behind my bookshelf over there."

"There's a map I've carefully drawn inside, you only need to look at that to find the place where the Human Snake Organisation is."

"The way to open the hidden compartment is to press on it."

Lin Mo looked with Ear Wind's gaze.

Sure enough, there was a bookshelf.

Walking up to the bookshelf, Lin Mo scanned it.

A book of different sizes was sitting on the shelf.

"That one?"

"Brother Molin, it's that little yellow book."

Lin Mo's tiger body shook, the little yellow book?

I'm the head of the Chinese Martial Alliance's Zhen Yue Envoy, and you're asking me to read a little yellow book?

"It's the smallest one in the bottom right corner, the one with the yellow cover."

Oh, so it was a real, little yellow book.

Lin Mo's finger hummed lightly on it.

With a clicking sound, a hidden compartment appeared in front of Lin Mo.

At a glance, inside was a map with obvious notes.

A detailed map of the red light district in Block 13, a detailed map of Hanamichi Ichimpan, and a detailed map of a secret base.

There it was.

Lin Mo's eyes lit up as he looked at the notes on the last map.

Quickly pulling it out from below, Lin Mo's eyebrows suddenly frowned.

Didn't it say something about a detailed map?

Why was there a sketch map put in here.

"Ear Wind, did you put the map in the wrong place?"

"The map in here is a sketch map ah."

Ear Wind, who was sitting on the chair, was also stunned when he heard Lin Mo's enquiry.

"Brother Molin, do you see if there is a red dot in the top right corner of the map?"

Lin Mo's gaze looked over and there was really a red dot.

"There's one."

"That's right then, that one is the exquisite map that I scraped and forgot to create every day."

"Brother Molin I'm telling you, there's absolutely no one in the entire Block 13 who knows how to draw maps better than me."

Lin Mo's gaze looked at the map scribbled in his hand.

It was silent .....
