Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3651

The place at the edge of the red light district.

A disguised Lin Mo walked in the darkness.

His white robe, which was originally white and spotless, had now been replaced with the standard black robe of the Human Snake Organisation.

The red light district in this area was not yet fully developed.

There were still many abandoned construction sites.

Even Lin Mo could occasionally hear some decadent sounds inside those abandoned construction sites.

Lin Mo expressed his understanding of such behaviour.

After all, human beings were rich in emotions and it was normal for them to like excitement.

Of course, when they were captured by the Human Snake Organisation for experimentation, they were also super fast.

Lin Mo's gaze kept scanning back and forth in the surroundings.

He ultimately didn't bother with the map that Ear Wind had wasted his time drawing.

Lin Mo felt that if he followed that map, he might go wrong instead.

According to Ear Wind's description, the Human Snake Organisation's base was located underneath one of the largest abandoned construction sites.

There was a long steel bar in the middle of that abandoned construction site.

If this clue was given to someone else, they would probably have to curse straight away.

After all, who could tell if there was a steel bar in the middle of the abandoned construction site at night?

But as a master, Lin Mo's eyesight had long since reached the point where it was like daylight in the darkness of night.

So it was very simple to see.

Lin Mo's figure walked quickly in the darkness, like a nimble ghost.

He kept pa*sing one construction site after another.

After a brief glance at them, Lin Mo withdrew his gaze.

All these sites were not what Lin Mo was looking for.

Finally, with Lin Mo's pace, he also arrived at the most remote part of the Red Light District.

There was one last abandoned construction site here.

And after Lin Mo got close, he saw the protruding steel bar in the middle at a glance.

"Found it then"

With a soft murmur, Lin Mo's figure quickly headed for the abandoned construction site in front of him.

With a few nimble jumps, Lin Mo appeared in front of the abandoned construction site.

He straightened out his facial expression.

He was now the vicious and unpopular feminine captain of the Human Snake Organisation.

A feminine aura also slowly appeared on Lin Mo's body.

According to what Ear Wind said, the entrance to the Human Snake Organization's underground base was just below that steel bar.

And the way to go down was to strike the penultimate fifth brick under the steel bar three times.

The door of the Human Snake base would then open directly.

Lin Mo very 'easily' arrived at the bottom of the vertical steel bar.

Naturally he was now the junior captain of the Human Snake organisation, so he must be very familiar with this area.

Lin Mo's gaze glanced beneath the wall in front of him, and casually struck his hand directly above the fifth brick three times.

"Ka!"

Lin Mo's hand had just been removed.

The originally decayed and dusty wall now turned directly around, revealing a one-person wide entrance.

Looking at this entrance that slanted downwards, Lin Mo did not hesitate to walk straight in.

The entire road was filled with endless darkness.

But in Lin Mo's eyes, it was like daylight.

This was the special ability brought about by the strength of the clan master level.

This vertical road was very clean and there was not much dust.

It was clear that someone had cleaned it regularly.

There was also nothing rotten in the road, the smell of jasmine flowers was very fresh.

A small smile gradually appeared on Lin Mo's feminine face.

The palm of his hand moved inaudibly.

The nine silver needles then merged into the darkness like a ghost, without a sound.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, continued to walk towards the bottom of the ramp.

And the faster he walked, the faster he went.

Because the ramp was becoming wider.

Lin Mo also saw a glimmer of light below.

He himself was about to reach this Human Snake base that had been lurking for who knew how long.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3652

At the end of the ramp is a very open clearing.

One by one, heavily armed members of the HUMAN SNAKES were armed with their firearms.

They were all aiming at the entrance of the ramp to prevent any intrusion.

The figure of Lin Mo also slowly walked out from the ramp.

When they saw Lin Mo, the guns in the hands of all the members of the Human Snake Organisation were lowered slightly.

If it was someone else, they might not have known him too well.

But this guy in front of them, they were all very disgusted.

He was pinching his fingers all day long and seemed to be the only one who could talk.

If it wasn't for this guy's identity, they would definitely have to shoot him.

"Captain Ransom, I wonder where your members are?"

A member of the Human Snake Organization respectfully walked up to Lin Mo's body and asked.

Although there was an unconcealed disgust as well as annoyance in his eyes.

However, in the strict rules and hierarchical hierarchy of the Human Snake Organisation, even if he was disgusted in his heart.

Even though he was disgusted in his heart, he could only keep up a respectful appearance.

Lin Mo's disguised Ransom's expression moved and his eyes narrowed as he stared at the member of the Human Snake Organisation in front of him.

A glance was taken at the employee's executive tag above his right shoulder.

"Aigoooooo, isn't this Ange, how come it's only been a few short days since we've seen him."

"And you've been promoted?"

“Now you even dare to come directly to interrogate me, I can see that even if it’s a special envoy, you dare not even put it in your eyes.”

“Why don’t we just let you be the boss and leader of the entire Human Snake Organization?”

Lin Mo’s hand chapped up an orchid finger.

A somewhat shrill and piercing voice resounded continuously.

It caused the faces of the members of the Human Snake Organization who were still standing behind An Ge watching the show to change.

Killing people to death.

High.

It was too high.

This move killed a person first, and then had to execute his heart.

If An Ge did not continue to question him, then he would be admitting his weakness.

If he went on to interrogate him, with the big hat that Ransom’s dog had slapped on him, it was estimated that An Ge would not see the sun tomorrow.

An Ge’s face changed dramatically and he looked at Lin Mo in front of him with anger flashing in his eyes.

But in the end, he said to Lin Mo, “My subordinate does not dare, Lord Ransom, please come in.”

Lin Mo gave An Ge a very disdainful white glance, and then walked towards the inside of the base with his toes high and proud.

This was the character of this fellow that Lin Mo was playing.

Very arrogant and arrogant.

He would either bully or scold members of the Human Snake Organisation who were smaller than him.

He was very unpopular.

If one day this guy Ransom was a*sa*sinated because of his arrogance.

Lin Mo felt that it was perfectly normal.

He walked towards the inside of the Human Snake base.

Although Lin Mo’s face was very casual, his remaining light was constantly taking note of the surroundings.

The Human Snake Organisation’s base was not that fancy.

Instead, it was all mud straight from the entrance.

The base was like a hole dug in the mud by the snakes.

And it was also very strange, with strange left turns and right turns.

Even now Lin Mo didn't even know where he was.

"Lord Ransom."

A member of the Human Snake Organization came over to Lin Mo and greeted him in a low voice after seeing him.

A look of surprise flashed across Lin Mo's eyes.

This was the first person who had run over to approach Lin Mo after he had entered the Human Snake Organization.

The others who saw Ransom either disdained him or hurried away with their heads bowed.

No one was willing to approach Lin Mo at all.

This showed how bad Ransom's popularity really was.

Lin Mo looked at the member of the Human Snake Organisation in front of him and glanced at the sign above his right shoulder.

Chen Xi.

"What is it?"

Lin Mo kept his persona of Ransom.

Directly impatient, he spoke directly to Chen Xi in front of him and asked.

Chen Xi respectfully opened his mouth to Lin Mo and said.

"The matter is like this, Lord Special Envoy is going to summon all the junior captains to discuss matters later."

"Please go over."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3653

Chen Xi's words caused a hint of interest to appear on Lin Mo's face.

"Lord Special Envoy actually wants to discuss matters with all the junior captains?"

"It's there, I'm going over there now."

"In the hall of the base."

Lin Mo nodded, and then looked at Chen Xi with some appreciation.

"You're very good, seeing as you came to inform me in the first place."

"I'll take you along to the sidelines."

Hearing Lin Mo's words, Chen Xi's face instantly overflowed with excitement.

"Really, thanks a lot Mr. Ransom!"

"Hurry up and go, you'll open the way in front."

Lin Mo followed behind Chen Xi towards the lobby of the Human Snake Base.

He certainly didn't do it because he admired Chen Xi.

Rather, it was because Lin Mo simply didn't know where the hall of the Human Snake Base was.

If he went there by himself, wouldn't he just be exposed.

So this was the biggest reason why Lin Mo had asked Chen Xi to join him.

Lin Mo's thoughts went back to the time when he was talking to Ear Wind.

Ear Wind had not entered the base of the Human Snake Organization either, he had only looked at it from afar a few times from outside.

So he didn't have the slightest understanding of the internal structure of the Human Snake Organisation.

So Lin Mo had been quietly observing the entire structure of the Human Snake base and so on after he had entered.

The two of them kept moving towards the front.

From time to time, they had to take a turn and so on.

After about ten minutes of walking, Lin Mo and Chen Xi turned a corner again.

A huge underground space appeared in front of Lin Mo.

The whole space was hung with lights and the floor was paved with concrete.

There was also a high platform in front of them, and underneath it was a single seat.

This place should have been specially renovated by the Human Snake Organisation.

Compared to the dirt paths in other places, this paved concrete place was already very sophisticated.

Lin Mo led Chen Xi to this place.

There was already a line of figures sitting on some chairs.

But the moment all of them saw Lin Mo, a look of disgust appeared in their eyes.

They then quickly moved the chairs beneath them, not wanting to sit with Lin Mo.

"Little Captain Ransom's reputation is far-reaching, the moment you come everyone has retreated."

A voice rang out from the side, and Lin Mo looked down to see that it was a relatively young man.

At the moment he was staring at Lin Mo with an arrogant face, and the sign above his right shoulder also stated his identity.

“Shou Cai.”

“Junior Captain of the Human Snake Organisation.”

This guy who looked to be a little younger than Ransom had become a junior captain.

Now it seemed that he wanted to use Ransom’s reputation to make a name for himself.

Lin Mo’s eyes narrowed slightly as he instantly turned on his spew mode.

“Ugh, this ability that I was born with is something I’m struggling with too.”

“Unlike you, little captain Shou Cai, who sits with an arrogant face tugging like two fifty seventy eight thousand.”

“This haircut of yours is also very trendy, like rubbish from the rubbish heap.”

Lin Mo’s words did not contain a single dirty word.

But when you listened carefully every word was a scolding of this guy Shou Cai in front of him.

The hair style was just like the rubbish in the rubbish pile, didn’t it mean that Shou Cai was a rubbish pile.

Lin Mo’s words instantly made Shou Cai’s face look ugly.

With his eyes firmly fixed on Lin Mo, he released fierce words, “If you have the guts, just wait for me.”

“From today onwards, you and I will not die, I will find the opportunity to get you killed sooner or later.”

Lin Mo’s face suddenly smiled faintly, but this smile was cold.

Since he was going to play Ransom, he had to play himself thoroughly.

“Immortal?”

“Good, simply great, I like that phrase.”

“But Captain Moneykeeper, we don’t have to go backwards because

“You don’t have to go backwards.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3654

As soon as the words fell, Lin Mo’s palm was like a poisonous snake emerging from a hole.

In an instant, it appeared on Shou Cai’s neck.

Everyone sitting in front of him was stunned.

They knew that this guy Ransom never left any loose ends, but they didn’t expect him to be so reckless.

This was the hall of the base, where the envoy could appear at any time.

How could Ransom dare to be so reckless?

Shou Cai felt the gradually harder palm on his neck and a look of panic appeared in his eyes.

"I am a junior captain promoted by the organisation, and belong to the same rank as you."

"You have no right to kill me!"

Guocai's face was red and his voice was a little hoarse as he said loudly to Lin Mo.

"Are these your last words?"

After Lin Mo finished speaking, the force in his hand was instantly used with great force.

"Crunch"

A toothsome cracking sound rang out.

Guocai's corpse was thrown directly in front of Chen Xi by Lin Mo.

"Take care of it."

Why would Lin Mo be in such a hurry to kill Shou Cai straight away.

It was because he sensed that in the distance there was a person walking towards the area.

I think it was that Human Snake Envoy.

And Lin Mo just wanted to see how the Human Snake Envoy would handle this matter.

Sure enough, in just ten seconds or so, a human figure walked onto the high platform in front of him.

His face was covered with a dark red snake face mask, and his body was draped in a black cloak.

It was exactly the same costume as the guy who had been easily killed by Lin Mo at that time on Lin Island.

It seemed that the Human Snake Envoys were also uniformly dressed.

The Human Snake Envoy walked onto the high platform and his gaze was directly towards Lin Mo.

"Ransom, you are a little too reckless."

"Killing your own colleague in front of everyone, do you know that you are wrong?"

Lin Mo stood up with a respectful face and responded, "Lan Sen knows his mistake."

"And promise that such is emotion will never happen again, Ransom also admits his punishment!"

The human snake envoy looked at Lin Mo so sensible and nodded his head.

"Punish you for two months of performance, do you admit it?"

"Lansen is willing to accept the punishment."

This punishment from the Human Snake Envoy could be considered not to be a punishment anymore.

It could even only be considered meaningful.

After all, if it was triggered too heavily, then it would be against the principles of the Law of the Jungle of the Human Snake Organisation.

And since Lin Mo was so sensible, the Human Snake envoy didn't bother to pursue the matter further.

As for the already dead Shou Cai, he was still mocking madly even though he was not as skilled as others.

Sooner or later, he would have to die, so he would die.

The Human Snake Envoy stood on the high platform at the very front and said in a hoarse voice.

"I'm sure you all know what our Human Snake base is here for."

"It's to develop potions that can boost everyone's strength without cost."

"The God's Kiss that was developed before was studied by the organisation and there would still be a period of weakness after using it."

"After months of carrying out our work, we have finally completed most of the latest version of God's Kiss."

"Now our researchers inside the Human Serpent base have found, through experiments on animals, that it can already raise spirits and arousal without side effects."

"The next step is to carry out human trials, but we don't have enough material in stock at the base after all."

"I hope everyone can work harder in the last few months to capture more materials back."

Lin Mo, who was sitting at the bottom, was currently looking at the Human Snake envoys on the stage with cold eyes.

So his own kind was already material to them?

A smile appeared on Lin Mo's face once again, and anyone who was familiar with Lin Mo knew.

His killing heart had moved.

Lin Mo, who was sitting in his chair, suddenly stood up.

His eyes swept over everyone's bodies before he finally said softly.

"You are really a bunch of genocidal beasts."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3655

Lin Mo had originally planned to continue lurking for a bit longer.

To see what was going on inside this secret base of the Human Snake Organization.

Now it really came to light.

They were conducting experiments again, and were about to carry out human experiments.

And now the entire Human Snake base has basically all the positions of squad leaders and above again.

Lin Mo could have even just wiped out the entire network.

So Lin Mo did not intend to continue lurking.

Every second he spent with this group of beasts, Lin Mo needed to curb his inner killing intent with all his might.

“Unbridled, Ransom you dare to speak to Lord Envoy like that!”

A man sitting at the very front stood up and angrily rebuked at Lin Mo.

“Noisy, who told you to speak.”

Lin Mo’s finger moved slightly, and a strong qi instantly penetrated his body.

“Bang!”

The man’s head instantly splattered in all directions like an exploding watermelon.

As blood accompanied by something white splattered on everyone’s bodies, they all fell into a state of dismay.

What was going on with Ransom?

And why was he so far apart

The Human Snake envoy standing on the high platform looked at Lin Mo with a murderous intent covering his voice.

“You absolutely can’t be Ransom, you

“Who the hell is it?!”

The Human Snake Envoy was now shocked and angry.

This was because he hadn’t seen anything wrong with the Ransom disguised by Lin Mo before.

Feminine, deep-hearted and ruthless.

All of these he had achieved were almost identical to Lan Sen.

Even before, the Human Snake Envoy had developed a feeling towards Lin Mo that he could be cultivated.

But just now, with that hand of Lin Mo’s, he knew that the person in front of him could never be Lan Sen.

That fellow Ransom was probably already dead somewhere by now.

“Does it matter who I am?”

“All you need to know is that I am the one who has come to kill you.”

Lin Mo’s voice was low, and the ancient Tai Ah in his hand instantly appeared.

“He said he was going to kill us?”

“Funny, he’s going to die even if there are so many of us with one mouthful of spit.”

“This guy I think has just lost his mind.”

And the small captains of the Human Snake Organization who were still somewhat dumbfounded one by one burst out laughing.

And they directly took out the firearms they had on them and aimed them all at Lin Mo.

“You still want to kill us all?”

“You’re really playing with lights in the toilet, looking for death.”

“Kid, no matter how you disguised yourself as that guy Ransom, kneel down and give up your hands now, we can still let you live.”

“Or else, you’ll become a medicine guide all together.”

Their rampant and arrogant words were like a clown in Lin Mo’s eyes at the moment.

“A medicinal guide?”

Lin Mo suddenly thought of the scene on top of the Human Serpent Battleship that was like purgatory before.

“The medicinal primer you are talking about is using a person’s whole body blood, right?”

Hearing Lin Mo’s words, everyone froze for a moment, and then laughed out loud.

“This guy could definitely make money if he went to set up a ground stall to tell fortunes.”

“He actually all guessed that we extracted blood from a living person to act as a medicinal primer.”

“I have to admire your ruthless cleverness, but it’s a pity that you’re going to die.”

If Ryan were here, I’m afraid he would have lamented.

You guys are really going to die without doing anything, can’t you see that the King of Hell is giving you a welcoming ceremony?

Lin Mo nodded, one hand resting on the hilt of Tai Ah’s sword, and said coldly.

“In that case, then I will, today, ask you all to go down.”

“Those people who died from the blood you extracted have been waiting for you down there for a long time.”

Lin Mo's words fell.

The Tai Ah in his hand was instantly sheathed.

"Clang!"

The crisp sound of a sword chirping echoed within the entire underground space.

The gigantic sword aura that reflected in the eyes was awe-inspiring!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3656

The entire underground venue was silent at the moment.

Those guys who were still mocking Lin Mo continuously also fell silent.

The eyes of the human snake envoy standing on the high platform were heavy under his mask at this moment.

Originally, he was sure that Lin Mo was at most a man who knew a bit of martial arts and disguise.

He was an arrogant person who had infiltrated into the Human Snake organisation.

It was estimated that they would easily be cleaned up straight away.

But now it seems.

Lin Mo was strong, even outrageously strong.

That sharp sword intent just now, which seemed to cut through everything.

It was definitely not something that an ordinary person could practice.

The Human Snake Envoy's face also became very grave under his red mask.

The silence in the entire underground space only lasted for about a few seconds briefly.

The squad leaders who had just been standing in front of Lin Mo with their guns held up to him.

At this moment, they had all been divided into two halves.

One by one, their bodies fell to the ground, their internal organs flowing everywhere along with the blood.

"Your men are all dead and you're not sad at all?"

Lin Mo looked indifferently at the Human Snake Envoy on the high platform.

"A bunch of trash, dead is dead."

"We can have as many guys like that as the Human Snake Organisation wants."

“On the contrary, Your Excellency, who is this person, who actually has such powerful sword skills as well as the art of disguise.”

Hearing the Human Snake envoy ask for information about himself, a mysterious smile appeared on Lin Mo’s face.

“I, ah, am just a fellow who lives in the four seas.”

“What, a special envoy of the Human Snake Organization is now concerned about me, an intruder.”

“It’s a shame that you don’t volunteer.”

The Human Snake envoy’s voice gradually cooled down.

“Your Excellency is definitely going to take up a feud with my Human Snake Organisation?”

“If your Excellency were to accept my organization, I can pretend that today’s incident never happened.”

“And you can be the one in charge of this base below me and above everyone else.”

“I can give you power, money and beauty.”

The words of the Human Snake Envoy were full of the power of temptation.

He did not believe that there could be anyone in this world who did not like these three things.

Even those guys who were clean in appearance and full of righteousness and morality.

As long as they could produce something to their liking, they were just a bunch of pawns.

“It’s fine to join your organisation, but these three conditions you’ve given, no.”

“These things, you don’t think you can attract me?”

A disdainful smile suddenly appeared on the face under the Human Snake Envoy’s mask.

As expected, it was still a guy who would drop everything in front of profit.

“Tell me, what do you want.”

“Our Human Snake Organization is so powerful that even if you want a position in a major country we can get it for you.”

Lin Mo’s eyes narrowed slightly as he smiled, “What I want isn’t much, just one.”

“Your life.”

The Human Snake Envoy’s originally disdainful smile instantly gloomed.

A killing intent instantly covered his cheeks.

“Your martial arts skills are very high, I have to admit that.”

“But do you think you can finish me off before I kill you?”

The Human Snake Envoy casually rushed straight to the side and picked up a maintenance up-gauge sniper rifle.

Light shone on the top of the sniper rifle's dark, shiny body, reflecting a cold glow.

"Within seven paces, you can kill me, I dare not deny that."

"But beyond seven paces, can you be as fast as this sniper rifle in my hand that can hit you in an instant?"

Lin Mo smiled, "Within seven steps, I am able to kill you easily."

"As for beyond seven steps"

Lin Mo's figure instantly disappeared, and the Human Snake Envoy's face changed abruptly.

A chilling aura came from behind his own back.

"I can kill you very easily."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3657

Lin Mo's ghost-like figure instantly appeared behind the Human Snake Envoy.

The Human Snake Envoy's body instantly became filled with cold air.

His entire body reacted quickly and dodged to the side.

Lin Mo's hand only left a piece of the Human Snake Envoy's clothes.

At this moment, the expression under the mask of the Human Snake Envoy had changed from a gloomy one to a shocked one.

How was this possible.

He had been at least a hundred metres away from himself.

What kind of strength was this that he could come in front of himself in this instant.

"Your Excellency has such strength, why do you still want to kill my Human Snake Organisation."

"Even if you just say the word, you can have my position."

The Human Snake envoy knew that if he continued to fight with Lin Mo.

It would definitely be detrimental.

He himself didn't even know how deep the strength of this person in front of him was until now.

The attack he had just made had dodged.

But what about the next attack?

The Human Snake Envoy was not confident that he could continue to dodge it.

“No, no, no, I said, as long as you give me your life, I’ll be your henchman.”

“Didn’t you just put down a grand promise that you would ask for whatever you wanted?”

Lin Mo’s face was clouded with a light-hearted look.

He was not in a hurry to kill the Human Snake Envoy now.

Otherwise it would have been absolutely impossible for the Human Snake Envoy to dodge Lin Mo’s attack just now.

“Does Your Excellency really want to kill a fish like this?”

“For you martial arts practitioners to break the rules of the jianghu in such a way, it’s not like my Human Snake Organization doesn’t know any Grand Master powerhouses.”

The eyes under the Human Snake envoy’s mask grew vaguely anxious.

No one had come to support him so far, what were they all doing.

How could he not have thought that Lin Mo had come to the hall before.

He had planted several silver needles at the entrance of the hall, as soon as someone passed by.

The silver needles instantly pierced the heart and destroyed the heart veins.

“Are you waiting for those dispensable men of yours?”

The corners of Lin Mo’s mouth curled up slightly.

For this group of heartless, genocidal guys from the Human Snake Organisation.

Lin Mo even felt that going to the mountain of sword and the sea of fire, the eighteenth floor of the territory was not even excessive.

Aren’t you waiting for that group of your men.

Then I will tell you that they are already dead.

The face under the Human Snake Envoy’s mask changed instantly.

Could it be that this guy disguised as Ransom in front of him actually had accomplices?

Had all the defense forces inside the base been wiped out by now?

The Human Snake envoy’s gaze was unsightly to the extreme.

He had worked hard in the Human Snake Organization for decades before he had climbed to the position of envoy.

Even as long as the base could develop a new potion this time.

His position could even be moved again.

But this bright future was all shattered because of this man in front of him.

“Your Excellency, I won’t hide anything from you.”

“There are tons of explosives buried underneath this base, if I detonate it.”

“Then everyone inside the base will die, including you and me.”

A small remote control appeared in the Human Snake Envoy’s hand.

“If Your Excellency continues to get ahead of himself and wants to kill me.”

“I’m not afraid of dying either, after all, it’s not a loss to exchange one for one with a character like you.”

Lin Mo’s gaze glanced at the corpses lying on the ground around him.

You’re really one for one.

A base hasn’t even swapped out one of mine yet.

“You’re quite right, if tons of explosives had exploded directly under our feet.”

“Even I might not have been able to guarantee that I would have survived.”

Hearing Lin Mo’s words, the expression underneath the Human Snake Envoy’s mask was one of joy.

Was this guy going soft?

He didn’t really want to die directly with Lin Mo right here either.

As a special envoy of the Human Snake Organisation, he had great power, and he was not willing to die here.

“But you also have to be able to guarantee that you can detonate yourself 100%, right?”

A sharp pain appeared on the Human Snake envoy’s wrist.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3658

The eyes of the Human Snake Envoy widened instantly.

Not good!

His gaze was fierce, and he instantly tried to control his palm to press the button.

But found that no matter how hard he tried.

There was simply no way to control his left hand.

“There’s no need to try anymore, the nerves in your left hand have already been destroyed by me.”

Lin Mo’s voice appeared in the Human Snake Envoy’s ears.

His palm was also placed directly on the Human Snake Envoy’s neck.

Slowly and forcefully, he lifted his arm.

The Human Snake Envoy's body was also gradually separated from the ground.

"Round spare me I can give you as a dog"

The Human Snake Envoy's face was red as he looked at Lin Mo, and his mouth kept making pleading sounds for mercy.

Lin Mo's face revealed a spreading smile.

"No need, you go down and ask your god of death if he needs it?"

Ka!

The sound of bones breaking instantly rang out.

The body of the Human Snake Envoy also gradually stopped struggling.

Lin Mo stilled his body together with the corpses of the other members of the Human Snake Organization.

The flames for burning the corpses were lit.

Lin Mo left in the direction he had just come from.

When he came back just now, he saw a place marked as a laboratory.

This should be the most important place inside the Human Snake Base.

Along the way, corpses were constantly lying on the ground.

Without exception, they did not have a single wound on their bodies.

These were all people who had been instantly killed by the Nine Mysterious Needles in a split second.

If one were to look closely, one would be able to spot a small dot at the heart.

Lin Mo's figure quickly arrived at the entrance of the laboratory.

The eyes glanced around for a moment.

Compared to the other places where they were picked up.

The lab was dressed as if it was one heaven and one earth.

Just in the middle of the walkway, the floor was just clean white tiles, and there was a bright lamp hanging on it.

"Ta-da-da"

Lin Mo's footsteps were calm, not too light or too heavy.

It was just walking on top of the tiles.

The entrance to this laboratory was still a sliding door.

Lin Mo's long-sleeved fingers touched the door handle and slowly pulled the door open.

“How’s the condition of Experiment 8?”

“Currently somewhat mentally hyperactive, and his heart rate is gradually decreasing above.”

“It is currently suspected that his spirits are dimly decreasing, followed by a straightforward violent death.”

“What about subject thirteen?”

“Subject thirteen is young and has not woken up after being injected with anesthetic until now.”

One by one, figures in white coats were constantly walking back and forth in the room to observe.

Their mouths were constantly talking about the experiment.

It was somewhat pathetic.

Lin Mo’s eyes flashed with anger as he looked at a small child on top of the test bench.

Using humans as experimental subjects, conducting these so-called human experiments.

Those who didn’t know would think that this group of guys were doing some kind of experiment to benefit humanity.

Seeing the door being opened, a group of people raised their heads towards Lin Mo.

“You are Captain Ransom?”

“Captain Ransom, did you come over here to give us some instructions?”

“Or has the Lord Envoy rushed again?”

A man in a white lab coat walked towards Lin Mo and inquired.

Lin Mo came back to his senses and said in a somewhat heavy tone.

“Lord Special Envoy asked me to come over to see how the mental state of those who were captured is.”

“If it’s okay, we’ll have to start the next batch of replenishment.”

The man in the white coat nodded, “This batch is using up the experimental bodies rather quickly.”

“It’s also true that it needs to be replenished again.”

He didn’t notice that Lin Mo’s originally calm eyes were now covered in coldness.

“You can take me there, I haven’t been here for a while and forgot where it is.”

“Good, then you can come with me.”

The man in the white coat didn’t notice anything different, and directly led Lin Mo towards the inside.

“The person is locked up inside here, so I won’t be here with you.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3659

Looking at the dark cave in front of him.

Lin Mo's eyebrows were slightly furrowed, were all the people who had been captured locked up in such places?

This dark pa*sage looked very clear to Lin Mo.

The narrow, short tunnel with only room for one person to pa*s through was obviously meant to prevent the people inside from rioting.

Lin Mo's figure walked towards the middle of the pa*sage.

In this very quiet pa*sage.

The dull sound of footsteps sounded so loud.

At the end of the pa*sage, Lin Mo saw a room.

The wide room was filled with people lying or leaning against each other.

Every one of them was hungry and yellow and thin.

Only when they saw Lin Mo's figure, they silently closed their eyes and waited for him to pick someone.

They had experienced such a thing many times before.

Each time, they just had to wait for the person who came to pick the person and subsequently accept death indifferently.

Lin Mo's gaze looked at the people in this huge room.

The look in their eyes had long been one of numbness.

The light in everyone's eyes had also all disappeared without a trace.

Lin Mo did not say anything, even if he said more now, it would be useless.

He turned around and walked towards the outside.

Only by laying everything out would he be able to prove everything.

Walking out of this dark pa*sage, Lin Mo's gaze looked towards the people who were still busy.

With a swipe of his finger at his waist, several silver needles instantly appeared.

"Your talents were all top at the time, but unfortunately"

Lin Mo's voice caught the attention of the man in the white coat.

When hearing what Lin Mo had their talents were the top of their time, they immediately raised their heads proudly.

But when he heard Lin Mo's trailing voice, his brow furrowed.

“Pity about what?”

“It’s a pity that you are from the thieves.”

“Ugh!”

“That hurts!”

As Lin Mo’s words fell, all of the scientific researchers immediately covered their chests.

A painful look appeared on all of their faces.

The man in the white coat standing in front of Lin Mo also felt the pain in his chest and had an unbelievable look on his face.

“Ransom, how dare you plot against us.”

“If Lord Envoy knew about it, you would die without a burial place.”

Lin Mo laughed and looked at Ransom who hadn’t come to his senses until now.

In front of him, he retired his disguise.

Looking at Lin Mo’s unfamiliar face, he then reacted.

“You’re not

Bang!

His body declined heavily to the ground.

Along with the fall were the bodies of the other researchers.

Lin Mo grabbed the man’s body and walked straight towards the passage where the captured personnel were being held.

The sound of footsteps as well as the dragging made the bodies of the people being held tremble.

What kind of torture had they come up with again?

The figure of Lin Mo walked over and threw the body of the man in the white coat in the middle of the room.

“My name is Mo Lin, I’m here to get you all out.”

“All the people inside this base are gone, you can leave safely.”

Lin Mo’s words caused them to involuntarily raise their heads in the darkness.

They were free?

No one dared to believe this at all.

Having been captured here, from the initial panic to witnessing the deaths of people around them.

They had long since gone numb.

But now suddenly they heard someone come in and tell them that they were free.

The group couldn't react for a moment.

In the middle of the corner, a choking sound gradually rang out.

Lin Mo was silent for a while and simply left a sentence.

"You guys remember to come out, it's better not to stay in this place much longer."

His figure walked towards the outside, not staying here.

They also needed to vent their emotions that had built up over such a long period of time.

Lin Mo decided to leave this space to this group of people to vent out on their own.

This world was really misplaced then.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3660

A long time pa*sed.

Only then did footsteps sound sporadically in the dimly lit pa*sage.

One by one, people with thin bodies and yellow faces came out from inside.

Their originally godless eyes finally had some spirituality at this moment.

The moment they saw Lin Mo, all of them knelt down in unison.

At this moment they didn't care if they were sincere or pretending.

All of them were kneeling.

Some were genuinely grateful to Lin Mo for saving them.

While some were afraid of Lin Mo's strength.

This was something that Lin Mo knew very well in his heart.

He swept his gaze blandly over the people in front of him and said indifferently.

"You don't need to kneel to me."

"Hurry back, there is a road map on the wall, so if you don't know the way, read it yourself."

Lin Mo's tone paused for a moment, "I don't want any fights to occur among you."

"In that case, I will dispose of you all by the way as well."

Lin Mo's words caused everyone to nod their heads.

From the looks of things, Lin Mo was merely by himself.

And one person was able to exterminate an entire base like this.

How much hidden means as well as strength was involved.

Their hearts were even more afraid to even think about it.

After Lin Mo finished speaking, he no longer bothered to look at this group of people.

His figure instantly transformed into a stigma and disappeared in the same place.

The people who were originally kneeling on the ground had now stood up and involuntarily scattered their distance.

“Since everyone was rescued by whichever lord, let’s not kill each other.”

“Let’s just leave this place quickly.”

A fat man suddenly walked in front of everyone and said with a smile.

.....

Outside the Human Snake base.

Lin Mo’s figure stood here quietly.

The abandoned construction site was overgrown with weeds, dust was everywhere, and it didn’t look like there were any people at all.

And the people of the Human Snake Organisation were able to keep going in and out in such a situation.

And keep the details outside absolutely consistent.

At first glance, they hadn’t put in the slightest bit of effort.

But the more meticulous they were, the more Lin Mo’s inner killing intent towards the Human Snake Organisation intensified.

He was the ambassador of China’s Zhen Yue, and the education he had received in China since he was a child was telling Lin Mo.

If the Human Snake Organisation was not destroyed, what if it appeared in China?

What if their clutches reached out to the Chinese people.

Lin Mo wanted to put an end to this kind of thing before it happened.

Soon, a sound of footsteps rang out from the abandoned construction site below.

Lin Mo’s figure stood in the darkness to the side, watching silently.

A line of figures quickly appeared in the abandoned construction site, then discerned the direction and quickly scattered away in all directions.

When everyone had finished leaving, Lin Mo did not continue to stand in the shadows.

As he walked to the top of the avenue, the black-clad Lin Mo’s eyes revealed a little thoughtfulness.

There was absolutely no way that this was the only base of the Human Snake Organisation.

But Lin Mo was unable to find out more information for the time being.

Haruko's side could already be considered extremely lucky to know about this Human Snake Organization's base.

If it were anyone else, they probably wouldn't have been able to find even the slightest trace of the Human Snake Organisation.

Under the night, Lin Mo quickly walked towards Haruko's shop.

Neither of them thought they would go back so quickly.

The only thing to blame was that the Human Snake envoy didn't meet early and didn't meet late.

It happened to be a meeting at the time Lin Mo was going back.

This led to Lin Mo just listening to their plan.

The entire person was instantly enraged.

The entire Human Snake Organization then suffered a direct hit of total annihilation.

On the road, facing the waving hands of the women on the roadside, Lin Mo silently bowed his head.

Although he was unfazed by this group of women.

But they were too hot and dressed very coolly, so Lin Mo felt it was better not to look at them rudely.
