Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3671

On the descending lift.

Qin Men's expression was ice-cold, and his face was one of bone-deep killing intent.

At this moment, he looked very different from his previous appearance.

The pure black suit exuded his aura to the fullest.

His bearded chin and chicken-nest hair had been cleaned up.

Although his face was still a little unpleasant, he was a far cry from his previous dishevelled appearance.

The lift slowly descended to the first floor.

Qin Men, dressed in a black suit, had just stepped out and immediately attracted everyone's attention.

"Now all of you enter the highest level of battle readiness and seal off the entire escort."

"Not even a bird or an earthworm can get out of here!"

Qin Men's cold as frost face and the murderous intent that could not be concealed caused everyone's faces to change abruptly.

What was going on here that Captain Qin was so angry.

A man trembled and stood up.

"Captain Qin, do we need to speak to the vice squad if we are on top alert now?"

Qin Men's gaze turned to him, a smile suddenly appearing on his face.

"Sure, you go down and speak to him."

Bang!

The dull sound of a gunshot instantly echoed throughout the office.

The gun that was smoking white smoke in Qin Men's hand slowly fell down.

All of the escorts in the office were all in a state of shock at this moment.

"What are you still sitting here for, I want not a single bird to leave the escort team in three minutes!"

Qin Men's cold words instantly woke them all up.

"Yes, yes, yes."

After everyone flew away, Qin Men also quickly headed towards his floor.

Right now the entire escort team Qin Men didn't know who he could trust.

So he had to keep himself in the best shape he could.

Back inside the house he equipped all the bulletproof vests and various things inside the concealed compartment.

Finally, Qinmen took out a sniper rifle from the hidden compartment in the wardrobe.

The t50 sniper rifle, which Qin Men had spent a lot of money to get from the Maple Leaf country.

It had a range of two kilometres.

Qin Men's gaze glanced around the top of the sniper rifle, his eyes covered with a cold light.

"Bude, you've been my deputy for more than ten years, but you still haven't understood one thing after all."

"Never mess with people you can't afford to mess with."

It was only at this moment that Qin Men finally understood the saying that if it's not my race, their hearts will be different.

He had been through life and death with Bude, dragging him out of the pile of the dead.

He had thought he was a trustworthy guy, but now he seemed to be nothing more than a man full of wolves and ambition.

Inside the other building of the escort.

There was a party going on in Lieutenant Buder's office.

The strong bear-like Boudreau was holding a long-legged beauty in his arms.

His hands are constantly roaming over the woman's body.

The others are also having a great time, some of them are even doing exercises.

A man with gla*s'es who looked like a viper came up to Buder.

"Congratulations Captain, just keep going like this for a few months and you'll be in complete control of the escort."

A smile appeared on Buder's face.

"Hahahaha, still thanks to your scheme."

"All it took was to put a little drug inside that little thing's meal and disguise it as a life-threatening situation."

"Look at the way that guy from Qinmen looks every day now."

"Spooky and dishevelled as a whole."

"Thanks to the fact that I used to admire him so much, a guy like that is also worthy of being the leader of the escort team?"

"He's even protecting the untouchables. To be called a slave is where they belong."

A look of worry crossed the man's face.

"Someone just claimed to be able to save that little thing, in case they see the end"

Boudreau waved a large hand, "Impossible, that poison is colourless and tasteless no"

"Top level alert!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3673

The commotion of the whole escort being sealed off was very loud.

Those hounds outside who had a keen sense of smell had also picked up the scent.

"What's happening with the escorts, they've sealed off the whole field straight away."

"I don't know, there hasn't been much buzz about them lately either."

"Gentlemen, it seems that this matter is not simple."

"Who cares if it's simple or not, it's best to be done with death."

"There are so many untouchables on this island, if it wasn't for the patronage of this group of guys in the escort."

"They would have been sold as pigs long ago."

A group of scouts stood outside the escort and chattered.

The reason why Block 13 could be called Block 13.

It was because of the escort's policing as well as the regulations, and their methods.

The Escort knew that if they pushed too hard, it would cause unrest throughout Block Thirteen.

And so Block Forty-Nine came into being.

Don't you like to work, I'll give you a place to work.

Block 49 looks like a place where the various forces inside dare not push too hard.

But in fact it was a place of lawlessness that the Escort Corps had specifically streamed out.

Inside the Escort's compound, a fully equipped Qin Men appeared at the very top.

The same place that he was filled with yearning every time but did not dare to come to.

The lift doors opened and Qin Men walked quickly towards it.

At the same time, his heart was in constant amount of apprehension.

He did not expect that his daughter was not actually caused by his own decline.

Rather, it was that wolfish, white-eyed wolf Bude!

Along with the opening of the steel gate, Qin Men's gaze suddenly froze.

For he saw one.

An image that he had imagined countless times in his sleep, only to wake up to nothingness.

His own daughter was now chatting happily with the pink-haired little girl.

The smile on her little face was just as unchanged as it was then.

"My father is superb, he can fight a thousand people by himself."

"My father is even better, she has more than a thousand men under her belt."

"My father is gentle."

"My father is more gentle than your father."

As Qinmen drew closer, he could hear what the two young girls were saying.

It was obviously a very childish topic of comparing fathers.

At the moment, however, it caused Qinmen's body to tremble slightly.

"My father will also have many beautiful sisters to like!"

"My father also has a lot of pretty aunts to like, just"

"It seems like my father has turned them all down because of me, and I don't actually want my father to turn them down."

"I know, father is all like that because he's afraid they'll bully me afterwards"

The little girl sitting beside Ania looked gradually lowered.

"Yue Yue"

Qin Men's figure gradually approached, and his voice was very suppressed.

There was an excitement as well as happiness that was hard to suppress dripping from his voice.

It was clear that he was wearing very tight protective gear and didn't even reveal his face.

However, Yue Yue stood up with her small hands propped up on the ground.

Her face showed the smile that Qin Men had been repeating in his head for months.

"Daddy!"

"Yue Yue has seen you."

Just two words alone made Qinmen, a man of iron, nearly collapse.

His figure quickly ran to Yue Yue's front and swept her up in his arms.

"It's daddy's fault daddy shouldn't have left you in the office by yourself."

"Daddy should not freshen up those guys even more otherwise otherwise you wouldn't be like this."

Yue Yue also hugged her father like a little adult.

"Daddy, it doesn't matter."

"At least Yue Yue still saw daddy, didn't she?"

The sweet smile on Yue Yue's face caused Qin Men's choking to gradually stop.

"Yes, Daddy at least still has you."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3674

By the window on the roof of the building.

Lin Mo, dressed in a white robe, stood with Qin Men, who was dressed in sophisticated equipment.

"What are you going to do about this?"

Lin Mo looked at Qin Men and asked in a soft voice.

He was talking about the group of members below that had sealed the escort to the water.

"All you have to do is give the order, and the person who did your daughter in will appear in front of you in less than a few minutes."

"There's absolutely no need to go to all that trouble to find him yourself."

Hate appeared on the face of Qin Men who had removed his anti-gas mask.

"Brother Molin, you're also from China, right?"

Lin Mo looked at Qin Men and nodded without concealment.

"I've been here for over twenty years as a Chinese though."

"But Brother Mo Lin, I can't forget what my mother taught me since I was a child."

"Don't go and be an evil person or a rotten person, when I was very young and didn't know what my mother meant."

"Later on I understood that she wanted me to be a person who would repay for what I had done."

"A man who knows what he's doing, who knows what he's doing, who knows what he's doing, who knows what he's doing, who knows what he's doing!"

“Since he dared to lay his hands on my daughter, then I, as a father, would not have stepped in personally.”

“Isn’t that a bit too much to say?”

A self-condemning smile appeared on Qin Men’s face before he looked towards Lin Mo.

“Brother Mo Lin, if it was your daughter, what would you have done?”

Lin Mo said lightly, “If someone were to touch my daughter.”

“I will definitely cut him or her to death by a thousand cuts and raise his or her bones to ashes.”

“And also tell everyone that whoever touches my daughter will die!”

Qin Meng and Lin Mo exchanged glances at each other.

A slight smile then appeared on both of their faces.

“Brother Mo Lin, I’ll leave my daughter to you during the time that I’m going to deal with it.”

“Her first name is Qin Yue’er, and her nickname will be Yue Yue.”

The smile on Qin Meng’s face gradually narrowed.

Lin Mo nodded his head.

“Go with confidence, with me here, no one will be able to hurt her.”

Lin Mo’s words made Qin Men’s heart sink even deeper.

He turned around to Qin Yue’er who was playing rock-paper-scissors with Ania.

“Yue’er, daddy has to go out to do a little business.”

“You stay here with Uncle Molin and Sister Ania and be good, got it?”

“When daddy comes back, I’ll take you to play above the marketplace.”

Qinmen’s voice was very gentle.

He had held his daughter in the palm of his hand from the time she was first born.

It was not too much to say that he was afraid of melting it in his mouth or dropping it in his hand.

Qin Yue’er nodded her little head.

“Yue’er understands.”

“Daddy, be careful on your way, don’t be brave if you run into any danger.”

Qin Yue’er stood up and said to Qin Men like a little adult.

Qin Men nodded slowly, then stood up and walked directly towards the lift.

His figure did not pause in the slightest.

Because Qinmen was afraid that once he paused, then he would not be able to leave at all.

The door of the lift slowly closed, while the original gentleness on Qin Men's face gradually turned into an iron-blooded killing aura.

A murderous aura!

Puddle in the Escort II building at the moment had a puzzled look on his face.

"Military Master Sima, why hasn't that fellow Qinmen made the slightest movement by now."

"According to reason, shouldn't a large number of people start searching for me at this time?"

A puzzled look also showed on the face of Military Master Sima, who was standing beside Bude.

"Lord Bude, according to my observation the other side just formed a sealing circle outside."

"There is not the slightest intention to search for us."

"Could it be that that fellow from the Qin Sect is planning to get us killed himself?"

Bude's face was stony: "It's very possible."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3675

"That man from Qinmen is a man who is extremely confident in himself."

"His daughter is now hurt by us and he won't let anyone do anything to arrest us."

"Instead, he took matters into his own hands, and such behaviour is very likely."

As he spoke, Bud's eyes snapped up.

If this was indeed the case, then all one had to do was kill the Qin Mun.

The escort would then fall into his own hands.

Just as Buder was still thinking freely, Military Master Sima's gaze suddenly frowned.

"Lord Bude, do you see a dark shadow in that position opposite our window?"

Bude picked up his binoculars and looked over.

He only saw a fully equipped Qinmen pointing a gun in the direction of himself and the others.

Puddle's pupils snapped shut and he shouted loudly.

"Get down!"

Bang!

The sound of glass shattering rang out just after Bud had finished speaking.

The head of one of Bude's men who was originally beside him was instantly reduced to crumbs.

Blood accompanied by something white splattered on all of them.

Every one of them was in a state of shock.

A feeling of unparalleled fear rose up within Bude's heart.

The shot Qinmen had just fired could have killed himself directly.

But instead he chose to shoot his men beside him.

This was how Qin Meng wanted to play with himself!

A feeling of powerlessness welled up inside Buder's heart.

How could one possibly win if one struggled with Qinmen.

"Lord Bude, let's get out of here!"

Sima Junma said loudly to Buder as he slumped to the ground.

The sudden head explosion just now had also made his whole body very scared.

After all, no one knew if he wouldn't be the one to die next moment.

Puddle nodded reluctantly, and then a few people ran in disarray towards the outside.

In a storage room, the men sat panting on the floor.

There was only one window and several of them were sitting in the dead center of it.

They could not believe that Qin Meng could still hit them and the others.

Just when they thought they were safe for the moment.

A bullet hit the last of the men directly in the thigh in a very remote corner.

"Ah!"

It was an armour-piercing bullet.

The raging force instantly caused a mist of blood to erupt from the henchman's thigh.

His leg was directly broken.

Looking at the men who kept wailing, a look of impatience flashed across Buder's eyes.

Straight from his waist, he pulled a pistol and aimed it at the man's head.

"No, never, my lord."

The Sima warlord's palm rested on Bude's hand.

"This man is the last of our brothers, if you kill him again."

"Then it will be impossible for our clan to win the struggle afterwards against the Qin clan."

Bude looked at Warlord Sima and roared out directly.

“Then you tell me what we should do now?”

“Don’t we kill him do we take him with us?”

“I should not have believed you before, if you dare to stop me again I will shoot you next!”

Puddle’s words instantly silenced the Sizemaker on the sidelines.

And the pistol in Bude’s hand was aimed at his men who had already passed out from the pain.

“Brother, don’t blame big brother for my ruthlessness, there’s no way big brother can take you away in this condition.”

“When I kill Qinmen and sit as the captain of the escort, I will definitely build you a bigger grave then!”

Bang!

After the muffled sound, the only sound left in the entire storage room was the breathing of Buder and Sima Junshi.

“Sima Warlord, what do you think we should do now?”

A thoughtful look appeared on Sima Warlord’s face.

“We can’t go out and surrender now, it won’t work, it’s not conducive to hard steel with Qinmen.”

“If we want to live now, there is only one way we can go, the Qin Clan is still in the open for now.”

“Lord Bude you appear occasionally to attract his attention, I’ll be in the dark

“Kill!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3676

Sima Warlord’s outburst caused Bude’s face to change slightly.

The firearm in his hand was then placed directly above Sima Warlord’s brow.

“You f*cking want me to go out and let the bait in, don’t you?”

“And then you give me out to sell out to surrender yourself aren’t you?”

Bude’s roar caused the thoughtfulness on Sima Warlord’s face to instantly change to panic.

“Lord Bude, you’ve really misunderstood me, the villain.”

“I definitely do not have any treachery in my heart!”

Bude’s gaze looked at Warlord Sima’s face, and after ascertaining that the other party indeed had no ulterior motives.

Only then did he withdraw his gun.

“Sifu, I was a bit impulsive just now, I’m sorry.”

"If you really want to go and join the Qin Sect, I, Buder, will never stop you."

Looking at Buder in front of him, he swore with conviction.

The Sima warlord's heart was speechless.

You foreigners really think I'm a fool, don't you?

Come on, I've been reading military books since I was a kid, and I know the Art of War by heart.

I really don't think I can't see this kind of retreat as an advance.

If I had left, you would have shot me in the back and killed me.

Although inwardly kept cursing at Bude.

But when one is under the roof, one has to bow down.

"Lord Bude, are you looking down on me Sima?"

"I, Sima, am still a man with nine years of education, no matter how I put it."

"Since I treat you as a monarch, then even if I die, you are still my monarch!"

Sima's words were full of determination.

Hot tears gradually appeared in Buder's eyes.

Bravo.

How wonderful.

I can actually meet such a good person as Warlord Sima.

"Please rise quickly, Military Master Sima, today you will not leave me Buder."

"I will share a place for you in this entire Block 13 in the future!"

"Lord Buder!"

"Warlord Sima!"

The two men fiercely embraced each other in hot tears.

"Lord Bude, this is not the time for our clan to continue with idle chatter."

"Although our clan also has weapons, they are simply no match for the Qin clan's equipment alone."

"So if we want to deal with the Qin Clan, the first thing we need is good weapons."

Sima Junshi left Buder's embrace and said seriously to Buder.

Bude also knew what the two men's biggest dilemma was now.

"Sima Warlord, I know what you mean."

"But there's no way we can run to the armoury to get our weapons now."

The escort's armoury was underneath the main building, with a dedicated floor of weapons storage.

Inside was the foundation of the entire escort.

The only people who had access to open the weapons vault were Qin Men, the captain, and Bude, who was the vice captain.

But they simply could not get through now.

Faced with Qinmen in this state, even Buder was frightened.

At this moment, Qinmen's heart had long been filled with killing intent, and his whole being was terribly calm.

All he could think about in his mind was the pros and cons.

There were no extra thoughts at all.

Seeing Buder as well as the one remaining man dead in hiding.

Qin Men quickly got up from the ground and in a few breaths finished packing the sniper rifle in his hands and put it on his back.

The cold, frosty face beneath his gas-proof mask was now one of cold laughter

"Puddle, let's take our time."

Puddle knew Qinmen well, but equally, Qinmen knew him well.

This person, Bude, had little initiative.

That was why Qinmen had always let Buder be his second-in-command.

Now there were only two of them left, if they didn't want to be hunted by themselves meekly.

Qinmen glanced downstairs, and then his body moved quickly.

"Lord Bude, as I recall, isn't there an underground passage leading to the main building?"

"The environment there is dim, and the path is very straight, so Qinmen wouldn't dare to ambush him anywhere."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3677

The top floor of the main building.

Aniya and Qin Yue'er were sitting together.

Both of their gazes were somewhat curious as they looked at Lin Mo who was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling window.

"Ania, what is your father looking at again?"

Qin Yue'er asked somewhat curiously towards Ania.

A thoughtful look appeared on Ania's face before she finally replied.

"Father father he is observing this mysterious and unpredictable situation."

Qin Yue'er's face instantly showed a dumbfounded look.

"What is it mysterious and unpredictable situation?"

"I don't know."

Aniya shook her head.

One could never reveal that one had been a mind reader since childhood.

Aniya's previous parents were the ones who knew that Aniya could actually read minds.

Thinking that she must be the reincarnation of a demon.

So they sold Aniya straight to a human trafficker.

Aniya later suffered a lot and met Mr. Ronald, who was very gentle at heart.

She also became Mr. Ronald's adopted daughter.

Lin Mo was the second person Aniya met who had a very warm heart.

No matter how impatient he was with Aniya on the outside, his inner thoughts were never the same.

But his inner thoughts were never the slightest bit nasty or angry.

When she was caught by the Human Snake and put in that very dark cave.

Ania could hear the despair inside the cave every moment.

Just as Ania was also desperate and waiting for death to come.

Lin Mo, who was as warm inside as the sun, came out.

This is why Lin Mo was clearly hidden aside.

Aniya could nonetheless distinguish that Lin Mo hadn't gone.

But I don't know why.

Ania could only hear one or two words from Lin Mo each time.

There were even times when there were not even a word or two.

Just like last night.

She clearly felt that Lin Mo had sadness inside him.

But Aniya couldn't know what Lin Mo was thinking inside.

"So worried about father"

“Don’t worry about your father.”

“I’m sure he’ll take care of everything, just like my father did.”

Qin Yue’er nodded her head.

After a moment of hesitation.

“Although I think you’re right, but

“I didn’t say anything just now.”

“Ah!”

.....

Inside the narrow, uncovered passage.

Bude was walking in it with Sima Warlord.

Of course, it was Sima Junshi who was walking in front and Bude was walking behind him.

After all

A dead friend of the Way is not a poor friend.

Although Bude was talking about sharing this Block 13 with Sima Junshi afterwards.

But Bude was talking about after killing Qinmen.

If you die before you kill Qinmen, then I will definitely build you a luxurious grave.

Sima Junshi walked in front of Bude.

His soulful little eyes were constantly observing the situation in the darkness.

Likewise, his heart was constantly thinking of countermeasures.

This foolish man, Bude, could be said to be 99% cold in this situation now.

The Qin Clan had merely failed to call for someone to finish him off.

Therefore, the military commander of Sima must now think of a countermeasure for himself.

If you defect to the Qin Gate then

The Sima warlord is not sure whether the Qin Gate knows or not.

All of Bude’s actions were staged behind his own back.

If he knew, then he would be like a jumping clown throwing himself into the net.

But if Qinmen did not know

Sima Junshi’s small eyes glanced towards Bude behind him.

If he himself took Bude’s body out, would he still be able to get a little credit in exchange.

“Ding dang!”

A subtle clink of gold and iron suddenly sounded.

A small cylindrical object was thrown in front of Military Master Sima.

The moment he saw the cylinder, Military Division Sima’s eyes instantly changed.

“It’s a flashbang!”

Hastily, he turned around and shouted at Buder.

The white light shone brightly.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3678

When the radiant white light dissipated.

Junma Si just wanted to move his body.

But a cold touch came above his forehead.

With his right eyelid now fluttering continuously, Sima Junshi knew.

He had been taken prisoner.

So to show his sincerity, he got down directly on the ground.

Even the firearms in his hands were thrown far away to the side.

When the white light completely dispersed and Sima’s vision was restored.

He suddenly saw Qin Men, who was in full precision equipment, standing in front of Buder.

And Bude had been tied up tightly with ropes directly by him at this moment.

“Captain Qinmen, I was wrong, I shouldn’t have coveted your position.”

“I am willing to surrender everything I have, as long as you can spare my life.”

Neither Military Master Sima nor Bude had expected this.

The likes of himself would lose so quickly.

Qin Meng took off his own gas mask and looked at Buder with an icy gaze.

“Buder, you’ve followed me for more than ten years, do you know why I’ve always just let you be my second-in-command?”

“Because you have no initiative and you want to do whatever makes your heart sing.”

“You don’t think about whether the thing goes against your bottom line or not.”

Qin Men crouched down in front of Bud’s body, his voice very cold.

“Actually, if you wanted to sit in this seat, you could have just told me.”

“There’s an eighty percent chance that I would have said yes to you, just because you were my brother before.”

“You tell me why.”

Qinmen’s hand snapped around Boudre’s collar and hissed angrily.

“You tell me why.”

“If Yue’er’s mother hadn’t asked me to save you in the first place, you would have been a corpse long ago.”

“Even Yue’er’s mother treated you like her own brother, did she ever treat you half badly?”

“Even if you don’t look at me, you should look at Yue’er’s mother!”

“When she was critically ill at the time, and what you said are you forgetting everything?”

Buder looked at the questioning as well as the blood in Qin Men’s eyes.

Even tears had appeared in the corners of his eyes.

After some silence, Bude’s eyes locked with Qinmen’s.

“My sister-in-law has been very good to me, and she was the one who took care of me without fail when I was injured.”

“I had also always treated her as my own sister, when my sister-in-law was critically ill.”

“She told me that Yue was my niece and that I would be left to protect her from now on.”

The two men’s eyes made contact, anger on one side and guilt on the other.

“You know you still f*cking do it, and I’m the one treating you badly?”

“Or did you not have enough power?”

A smile crossed Bud’s face, “Brother Qin, you know that in your heart.”

“We in Block 13 clearly don’t have to maintain the status quo, just make deals with those forces.”

“Our escorts would be able to reshape the entire Block 13 into a place.”

“A place like Block One.”

“Some people will die in these processes, tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, it doesn’t matter.”

“With so many jackals and tigers out there staring at us, if we can just reshape it, everything

“It will all be turned around.”

At this moment, Bude seems to have changed as a person.

The whole person was very calm and steady, not at all like the previous incompetence and lack of initiative.

"I haven't had much interest in power, since the day my sister-in-law died."

"I have only one goal, to protect Yue'er from any harm."

"But at the same time, I want to give her the best."

Bude's gaze looked at Qin Men and said softly.

"Brother Qin, you're already old."

"You're trying to maintain Block 13 right now."

"But with so many jackals and tigers out there staring at us, who will defend us!"

"Yes, we are not afraid now, but what about later?"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3679

As he spoke, Bud's emotions flared.

"Can you guarantee that the escort will always be able to stand?"

"What will happen to Yue'er if you and I die then?"

"How do you expect her to live on this island as a defenceless woman?"

"Is he going to be a red-light district*?"

Qin Men looked at Bude's rant and suddenly fell silent.

It was as if he was just getting to know Puddle for the first time today as well.

Then.

Slap!

The crisp sound of a slap rang out.

Bude's originally agitated emotions were now quieted under this slap.

"Bude, what about Yue'er?"

"Your so-called protection is to give her a chronic poison?"

"To make her present a fake death to distract me?"

Qin Men looked at Bude and said word for word.

What Bude said he could understand, except for what he could not understand about his daughter.

Bude smiled, "Brother Qin, all things are risky."

"We have the antidote in our hands, and it is perfectly possible to speak about Yue'er's rescue afterwards."

"And I've switched all the things that that Sima gave me, so nothing will happen at all."

The Sima warlord, who had been quietly lying on his back, was now shaking wildly inside.

What did that mean?

Wasn't all of Bude's affairs planned in secret by himself?

Why did the two men's words make themselves completely incomprehensible.

At that time when he took out the poison himself, didn't that fellow Bude have a face of ecstasy?

Bude, who was firmly bound by Qinmen, also saw the changing expression of Sima's warlord at this moment.

A disdainful smile appeared on the entire man's face.

"Why do you think I'm pretending to know nothing."

"It's to get all those restless guys behind you to take the bait."

"If I'm planning well, the group behind you have already gotten word to start mobilizing, right?"

Everyone who survives on Death Island is a fool.

It wasn't a stretch for him, Bude, to have survived so many years solidly.

The Sima warlord stood up trembling and said to Bude in a broken voice.

"You mean everything from the time I blended into your side"

"Your greed for power, your anger at Qinmen and your desire to kill that little thing."

"All of it was faked?"

Puddle looked at the Sima warlord, the sneer on his face intensifying.

"You don't really think you've been in control of my thoughts for a long time, do you?"

"Several times I put the secrets I wanted to show you in front of you, and several times you dared to come up and peek at them."

"And even read it incompletely, and had to ask me to add to your secret letter later."

"Truly stupid as a pig."

General Sima's face went pale.

He himself had actually been played by Bude all this time.

"This is impossible how can your mind be so meticulous and horrible"

Sima Junma's body swayed and sat on his buttocks.

Behind him was the Si family, which was in the upper middle of power in Block 13.

Bude's gaze turned back to Qinmen's body.

"Qinmen, you are, however, already old, and now you simply don't have the verve you used to have."

"Come on, do it and kill me."

After Bude finished speaking, he closed his eyes and waited for Qinmen to make his move.

After a few seconds had passed and there was still no movement, Bude opened his eyes and looked.

Qinmen was actually sitting on the side not knowing what he was thinking about.

"Bude, I suddenly don't know whether I should kill you or not."

When Qinmen's voice rang out, Bude directly froze.

He then let out a deafening laugh straight away.

"Hahahaha, Qinmen, you're really getting old, not only are you getting old, you're also getting soft-hearted."

"Here's the deal, I'll tell you a secret."

"Actually, the reason why my sister-in-law suddenly fell seriously ill that day"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3680

The moment Bude's words came out.

Qinmen's entire body instantly trembled.

The death of his wife had always been a lingering nightmare within Qinmen's heart.

Now that it was brought up again by Bude, a surge of anger rose up within him.

"You want to ask for death that badly?"

Qinmen's hand grabbed Bude's collar and hissed angrily.

"Kill me, hahaha."

A dagger appeared in Qinmen's hand as he looked at Bude, who kept laughing wildly.

The dagger in his hand swung straight down, right in the centre of the mouth

With a hiss of pain, the laughter came to an abrupt halt and Bude's crimson blood splattered all over Qinmen's face.

"Boss Qin...thanks...you gave me a pain."

"I have a seal in my arms"

Before Bud could finish, he closed his eyes, even with a small smile on the corner of his mouth.

Qin Men held the dagger in his hand and was suddenly stunned.

He suddenly understood something.

As quickly as he could, he rummaged through Bude's body and pulled out a bloodstained letter.

Sima Warlord, who was lying on his back, was now so white that even his breathing was suspended.

Thinking back to what Buder had said to Qin Men before he died, Sima Junshi had already guessed that the content of this letter was to come the scheme he had used to expose himself.

[Boss Qin, this letter was prepared by me in advance, I have always admired you the most over the years, when my sister-in-law told me to protect Yue'er when she was critically ill]

[But more and more wolves and tigers have set their eyes on the escort I was afraid that sooner or later we would not be able to withstand it, so I put the plan in place].

【Shihma Junshi is an undercover agent of those forces, I gave them false information, they estimated that they will soon prepare their personnel to kill over, this is a good time to eradicate them like never before.

[I acted paranoid and offended many people, if I had lived, the escort would have been unable to completely convince everyone in Block 13, so I chose to die.]

[Boudreaux.]

Qin Men sat down directly beside Bude, it turned out that he had completely and utterly misjudged Bude.

He had deliberately said those words to provoke Qinmen, bent on death, but it turned out that he was defending himself and protecting Yue'er!

"Bude!" Qinmen chagrined and blamed himself, murmuring Bude's name over and over again.

After all, he was a brother who had been with him for more than ten years, how could he have been so distrustful of him?

And ended his life with his own hands

Reason told Qinmen that now was not the time to be sad, and that Bude could not die for the escort in vain.

He had to eradicate once and for all the forces that were lusting after him and his family.

In the next second, Qin Men stared dead on at Warlord Sima, and when he thought of Bude's previous words, his gaze seemed to pierce out with ten thousand Ren.

"Military Master Sima, with Buder dead, how about you becoming my military master from now on?"

Qin Men's slightly teasing tone couldn't hide the heavy murderous intent.

"That's of course, to serve the captain is my third life cultivation."

Before he could finish, the next second Sima Junshi was kicked several meters away by Qinmen.

Sima Junshi covered his stomach, forcing himself to endure the pain but not daring to shout aloud.

“Below you had better answer my questions truthfully, otherwise, you know my tactics.”

Qin Men’s tone carried an unquestionable threat.

“Yes, yes, Captain Qin, you may ask, I will answer truthfully and dare not deceive.”

Sima Junshi was incomparably treacherous, his mouth responding, but in his heart he was thinking of ways to stall for time, waiting for the forces behind him to come to his rescue.

Before Qin Gate could interrogate him, he heard the sudden sound of killing outside.

And at that moment, Sima Junshi’s face changed, as if he had the strength of character.

This subtle change in expression was however caught by Qin Men. Was the family behind Sima Junshi finally unable to hold back?

Only to see that the periphery of the escort’s precinct had been surrounded by layers of well-equipped soldiers, the power of which could not be underestimated.

“Tie up Warlord Sima and take him away, all of the Block 13 escorts are on standby!”

Qin Men deployed everything calmly and swiftly, understanding once again Bude’s good intentions.

If he continued so peacefully, the next time his own daughter was given an herb that was not good for her health.

The only way to protect his beloved daughter was to reorganise the escort and eradicate these forces.

The only way to protect this side of the family is to reorganise the guard and eliminate these forces.

The alarm was sounded again and the entire floor of the armoury below the main building was opened.

The entire escort was matched with the highest level of weapons as quickly as possible, ready for a bloodbath.

A bloodbath was about to unfold in Block 13
