Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3711

The next morning, Ania got up early.

Lin Mo dressed Aniya in a pink princess dress that Ryan had sent her and a pair of small white leather shoes.

He also gave Ania a formal yet playful hairdo and put on a silver crown.

Aniya looked just like a little princess from a story.

Lin Mo looked at Aniya in awe and thought, "If only I really had such a lovely daughter."

Ania seemed to think she was very pretty too, so she kept twirling in circles, her skirt fluttering along with her.

"Let's go!" Lin Mo led his little princess out of the room.

At this time a very luxurious car was parked underneath the villa, and a formally dressed driver was waiting by the car.

"Butler Ryan sent me to pick up Mr. Molin and your daughter for the celebration feast! Please get in!"

The two of them got into the limousine and the car drove a short distance and stopped at a very luxurious hotel.

Entering the banquet hall, the lights were gorgeous and dazzling, and Lin Mo caught a glimpse of the giant banner hanging on the stage.

"Mr Maureen's Appreciation Party".

This was Ryan's idea, Lin Mo could have thought of it with his toes.

Looking around the banquet hall, flowers and wine were laid out everywhere, as well as all kinds of fruits and desserts.

Those who came to the banquet were all dressed in formal gowns and stood on either side of the hall, leaving the red carpet in the centre empty.

They waited for the star of the party to walk in.

"Mr Maureen has arrived! Everyone, welcome!"

Seeing Lin Mo walk in, a waiter immediately shouted inwards.

At this moment, everyone's eyes in the banquet hall were gathered on Lin Mo and Ania, and the lighting technician made a special chase to follow Lin Mo and Ania.

Amidst the cheers and applause of the crowd, and under the guidance of the master of ceremonies, Lin Mo pulled Aniya slowly up the red carpet and walked to the stage.

Wait, why does Lin Mo always feel that the atmosphere is not right

This old father seems to have thought of the scene when Aniya got married

When he looked up, the four butlers on the stage were watching themselves with smiles on their faces.

Ryan, as Ronald's number one butler, stood up to speak at this point.

"Mr Maureen is a friend I trust very much.

I was in trouble on a mission and it was Mr Maureen who stepped in and rescued me and many others who had suffered tragically.

Since then we have experienced many more life and death moments together.

Just last night we faced a sneak attack by the Morrow family and it was Mr Morin who came to our aid again, so we are here to celebrate.

Celebrating the fact that we are not in the Morrow Hall at the moment and celebrating the fact that we have successfully guarded streets 1 to 10.

Such a hero needs to be thanked and worshipped by each and every one of us!"

As soon as Ryan's words left his mouth, thunderous applause erupted around him.

Only Ryan was seen holding his speech excitedly, wiping his tears and snot from his nose as he prepared to hug Lin Mo.

Lin Mo gently took two steps forward, deftly avoiding the wooing monster that was Ryan.

"Everyone doesn't need to thank me, I'm only doing this to create a good sleeping environment for my daughter."

Upon hearing this, everyone remarked that Lin Mo was just too doting on his daughter!

After a brief interaction of speeches, Ryan told everyone to have some fun and the banquet hall was alive with atmosphere at this point.

There were dancers, drinkers, singers, and those who were specifically putting on a show.

"Daddy, I want to eat this and that."

After listening to these adults' speeches, Ania was about to fall asleep from boredom, and now she could finally walk off the stage.

Lin Mo fed Aniya all kinds of food, and Aniya's little face was puffed up and puffed out, very cute.

Lin Mo thought, "Maybe now is the right time to reveal Aniya's true identity!"

Although Ronald had not returned yet, Aniya would be protected by Ryan and the other four butlers.

The Senro family, who had no ill will towards Ronald, had also been eradicated, and no one in Block 12 would be able to hurt Aniya anymore.

"Do you want to turn back to green eyes? Ania."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3712

Aniya was eating roast meat, her mouth was stuffed to the brim, there was no way to answer Lin Mo, so she nodded her head.

Lin Mo gently touched Ania's eyes with his warm palm, and the colour of her pupils immediately changed from dark brown to ruby green!

Then Lin Mo gently removed the disguise mask from behind Ania's ear, and this face returned to its previous appearance.

Along with the disappearance of the disguise, the hair texture also returned to its previous soft touch, although the hairstyle remained unaffected.

With this Lin Mo no longer hid Aniya's identity.

All previous memories of this place were restored and Ania seemed happier.

Aniya continued to walk and eat, her mouth not stopping at all, as if she and Lin Mo had come for a buffet.

Every now and then, she had to take a bite into Lin Mo's mouth.

Ryan took this opportunity to build up his group and was not available to accompany Lin Mo.

Where was the promised celebration and appreciation banquet?

"Look, Miss is back!"

A sudden shout came from the lively crowd, pausing all the action everyone was going through!

Miss? Everyone looked for the little girl on the banquet hall, but there was no other child on the banquet hall except Mr. Maureen's daughter!

"Miss is Mr Maureen's daughter!!!"

At this moment another voice came out from the crowd, and all eyes once again gathered on Lin Mo and Ania.

"Oh my god, it's really Miss!"

All the people went towards the direction of Ania.

Ryan and the other three butlers, who were concentrating on the regiment, heard the sound and immediately walked over as well.

The moment the four butlers saw Ania, they went completely crazy!

That girl was Ania!

Emerald eyes, pink hair, a small goose-egg face, and a smile that could melt your heart.

And at that moment Aniya saw Ryan and flew into Ryan's arms.

“Brother Ryan, Ania misses you so much!”

Ryan’s defences were broken by this one word from Ania! Tears immediately fell from his eyes!

He knelt down and hugged Ania tightly, not daring to let go again!

And the other three housekeepers all looked at Ania, their eyes moist, but unable to utter a single word.

Ania had disappeared a few months ago when she had gone to Block 13 with Mr Ronald.

Ronald had searched for her with all his might, every little street in every neighbourhood, even to the nearby island.

It took months to turn the vast island of Death upside down, but no news of Anya was found.

As Aniya’s disappearance grew longer and longer, they were about to give up.

What a feeling it was to have Aniya suddenly appear before their eyes!

Ryan struggled to calm his emotions, then stood up and looked at Lin Mo.

“Maureen, what’s going on? Tell us about it!”

Lin Mo looked at the worried eyes of the four butlers and decided to tell them everything.

“At that time, after I exterminated the Human Snake Organisation in Block 13, I freed those who were being held by the Human Snake Organisation

“What? Exterminating the Human Snake Organization?” The three butlers, except Ryan’s, questioned in unison.

“Can you guys just let Maureen finish her sentence?” Ryan glared at the three of them.

The three of them immediately shut up, but, it seemed to make sense, after all, they had already seen what Lin Mo was capable of yesterday.

Lin Mo continued, “And Aniya is one of the children being held by the Human Snake Organisation!”

Hearing these words, the four butlers clenched their fists, their eyes filled with unquenchable anger! But this time, they did not interrupt Lin Mo’s words.

“On my return journey, Aniya followed me all the way and was eventually discovered by me.

She said that she had come to Block 13 with Ronald’s father and had later gotten separated from him.

When I found her, she was what she looked like after being held by the Human Serpents.

Dirty and covered in bruises, I don’t know how long she had been locked up in that dark, damp basement

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3713

Lin Mo couldn’t bear to say any more, and the four butlers couldn’t listen any further.

“The Human Serpents are really a bunch of animals, treating such a young child like this, everyone should be punished!”

Ryan scolded the Human Snake Organisation while looking at Ania with a heartbroken gaze.

“Ania, I’m sorry, it’s all brother Ryan’s fault for not finding you sooner and leaving you alone in such a horrible place for so long.”

“Ania-sama, it’s all our fault for our lack of ability, you can punish us all you want.”

Ania couldn’t understand why everyone was apologising to themselves.

“I was the one who wanted to catch the butterfly and that’s why the bad guys took it, it was Aniya who did it wrong.”

It was heartbreaking to see how much Aniya understood.

“No one is at fault, it’s the Human Snake Organisation that is at fault!” Lin Mo comforted the group of sad people.

“Daddy’s right, it’s the bad guys’ fault!” Aniya turned and pounced on Lin Mo again.

At this point Ryan and the other four butlers gave Lin Mo a unanimous deep bow of thanks.

“Maureen, without you, I really can’t imagine what Aniya’s situation would be at this moment.

Thank you for taking care of Aniya for so long

Ryan said, choking back a sob.

“You’re welcome, the time I spent with Aniya was the warmest time I’ve had on this cold island of death.

It’s me who has to thank Aniya.”

Lin Mo lovingly stroked Aniya’s small crown.

“I didn’t reveal Aniya’s true identity before because

“There’s no need to say it, we all understand, you were protecting Aniya and she was well taken care of by you!”

Before Lin Mo could finish his sentence, Ryan interrupted.

There was no need to explain this, from the way Lin Mo had taken care of Ania over the past few days, Ryan could feel it deeply.

He already treated Ania as his own daughter!

“Since Miss has returned, it’s a great cause for celebration, and coupled with repelling the Morrow family, it’s a good thing that comes in pairs!”

Ryan regained his glow and told everyone to continue celebrating.

At that moment, one of the guards outside rushed in in a frenzy, with a look of trepidation!

“What is it?” Ryan asked.

Before the guard could say anything in reply, “Thud!” There was a muffled thud and a familiar figure fell to the floor at the entrance to the banquet hall!

Ryan was the first to rush over, his heart beating wildly.

As he ran to the man, he still saw that most unwanted result.

Only Ronald, covered in blood, with numerous wounds and an extremely pale face, was visible.

It must have taken him every last ounce of his strength to get home!

Having relaxed his tense will when he was sure he was safe, he eventually bled out and passed out.

Everyone in the banquet hall, which had been celebrating and cheering enthusiastically a moment ago, had become distraught!

Lin Mo was worried that Aniya would be scared at the sight and deliberately took her to avoid Ronald.

Ryan and the other four drove the seriously injured Ronald to Ronald’s private hospital for treatment quickly.

When they arrived at the hospital, all the doctors were summoned to help, but when faced with Ronald’s serious injuries, there was nothing they could do.

Ronald had been wounded too badly, with nearly 100 wounds of all sizes!

Although his internal organs hadn’t been hit, they were still bloodied, and most dangerously, he had lost too much blood and was in coma and shock.

The doctors tried to give blood but couldn’t find a single intact blood vessel to access the skin.

Ryan cursed: “What’s the point of having you idiots? None of you can be of any use at a critical moment!”

The doctors had never seen anything like this before and were afraid that their bold attempt would cause secondary damage to Ronald’s body, which would incriminate them even more.

The situation was so critical at this point that one more second of delay could have taken away Ronald’s chance of survival!

At this point Ryan suddenly slapped his thigh, “I know who can save Mr Ronald!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3714

Isn’t the best doctor the one who is always by his side, Maureen? What an emergency!

“You guys keep watch over Mr Ronald at the hospital, I’ll go back and find a miracle doctor, he’ll be able to cure Mr!”

Ryan explained to the other three butlers and drove away from the hospital.

When he returned to Lin Mo's residence, Ryan saw that Lin Mo was putting Aniya to sleep and gestured for Lin Mo to come out and talk.

"Maureen, although you've helped us many times, please be a good man to the end! Save Mr Ronald!

Mademoiselle has only just returned and we can't lose Ronald again! Ania can't lose her father again!"

Ryan had an anxious look on his face, his tone almost pleading.

"I don't know enough about Ronald's injuries to ensure that I can heal him."

Lin Mo did not directly agree to Ryan's request, firstly because there was really no guarantee that it could be cured without his personal diagnosis.

Secondly, he had been entrusted by Shi Lan Yue with the task of finding out Ronald's true nature.

If Ronald did deserve to be killed, it would be the wrong person to save.

"Please, Brother Maureen, come with me, please!"

Under Ryan's plea, Lin Mo finally went to the private hospital.

Having seen Ronald, Lin Mo had a general grasp of his current condition and cleared out the surrounding doctors.

First, he used silver needles to temporarily control the still bleeding wounds, and then used a twelfth of a small rejuvenating elixir for him to take.

These were not considered treatments, but only temporary stabilisation of Ronald's life, so that he could wake up with a bit of energy restored.

A few moments later, Ronald opened his eyes feebly.

"May I ask who you are? Where is Ryan" Ronald weakly asked Lin Mo.

"There is no need to rush to know who I am, you answer me a question now and if the answer satisfies me, I promise to restore your body as before."

Ronald nodded his head.

He knew that his injuries were very serious and that in his current state, what qualifications did he have to negotiate terms with Lin Mo again?

"Do you still remember Shi Lan Yue?" Lin Mo asked.

Hearing this name, Ronald's eyes were stunned.

"I know. She is my best friend's daughter."

Ronald finished with a bitter smile.

"Since her father was your best friend, why did you betray him and even send someone to kill him? Leaving their family to live and die."

"No! I didn't kill him! I didn't"

Ronald seemed to have a thousand words, but at this moment, he said he didn't know how to explain to Lin Mo.

"How did you know about this? Could it be that you have met the elder daughter of the Shi family? Is she doing well now?"

Seeing Ronald's emotional state, Lin Mo decided to tell him what Shi Lan Yue had gone through.

"Shi Lan Yue told me that in the midst of a monstrous fire, his father took the three of them, mother and daughter, to escape through a secret pa*sage that led to a place of absolute safety.

But this secret pa*sage was known only to her father and you, and just as the family stepped out of it, something terrible happened.

A group of guys wearing evil ghost masks and black trench coats instantly opened fire on them!

Although Shi Lan Yue's father reacted in time, he was still seriously injured."

As Lin Mo spoke of this moment, Ronald had a guilty look on his face.

Ronald said to Lin Mo, "I didn't even know at the time that the pa*sage, the location of which only her father and I knew, had been exposed long ago!"

Lin Mo did not make any judgement and went on with his story again.

"Shi Lan Yue's father was seriously injured at the time, but still tried his best to kill those guys who were crouching above the secret pa*sage.

At this point, his father still believed that it wasn't arranged by you and quickly ran towards your territory.

They thought that once they were within your territory, their family would be safe.

But on the way out, they were caught up with the group again!

Shi Lan Yue's mother drew off most of the pursuers alone in order to allow the three of them to escape unharmed, father and daughter."

Ronald's brow furrowed as he listened, and his eyes filled with anger again.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3715

"But in the end, Shi Lan Yue, father and daughter, were not able to escape, and those men soon turned back.

Just when the three of them were desperate and helpless, your reinforcements arrived and happened to save them all three."

"Yes, I was informed that the location of the secret pa*sage had been exposed and the first thing I did was to send someone to rescue the family, luckily in time"

Ronald seemed to be a little grateful, but more of a regretful sigh.

Lin Mo continued, "The three of them, father and daughter, followed your men into your territory, and your best friend was sent to the healing room for treatment.

Shi Lan Yue at the time fell asleep under the bed next to her father because she had been naughty, and by the time she woke up in a daze, she saw a terrifying scene.

A man with an evil ghost mask, holding a dagger in his hand, stabbed directly into her father's body."

It was as if Ronald was vicariously immersed in the memory at this point, his scarred hands clenched into fists.

"The man in the mask quickly walked out of the infirmary after making sure that Shi Lan Yue's father was indeed dead, while Shi Lan Yue quietly followed the murderer.

Only to see the masked man walk to another room, only to find you in that room too!

When the masked man saw you he knelt straight down and handed you the blood-stained dagger in his hands."

"What a silly child Lan Yue was! What a dangerous thing she was doing!" Ronald was emotional.

"Master Lan Yue saw the scene with her own eyes and was already certain that you had sent someone to kill her father, forcing the family to die and flee!

Now that she herself has discovered your plot, if she doesn't escape quickly, she will be the next to die.

She wanted to take her sister with her to escape, but she was too young to guarantee that the two of them would make it out.

So it was decided that she would escape and live first, and that her sister should be safe for the time being without knowing the truth."

"Where is Lan Yue now, is she okay?" Ronald eagerly asked Lin Mo.

"She has been incognito all these years to avoid your people finding her and driving her to extinction. I'm done."

Lin Mo said so much in one breath, and the next step was to see what reason Ronald would use to explain.

"No wonder I couldn't find out her whereabouts all these years, how come I couldn't find out her whereabouts, it's good that she's safe."

Ronald let out a long breath.

"As soon as I knew the secret passage was exposed, I realised that Shi Lan Yue and her family were about to be in crisis.

I immediately sent someone to rescue them as quickly as possible, but to my surprise, Lan Yue's mother was still forced apart by the masked man!

I had to first pick up the three of them, father and daughter, and take my friend to the medical clinic to treat his injuries.

The next step was to investigate these masked men as soon as possible and eliminate the root of the problem as soon as possible.

The fact that these masked men dared to brazenly spill their guts on my turf meant that they must have come prepared!

And it was because they had placed eyes in my territory that they knew the location of that secret pa*sage.

So I used all my forces for two days and two nights without stopping to finally catch those masked men, and just when I thought I could rest in peace for a moment

Ronald gave a small, bitter smile.

And then continued, "I was about to rest in that room when I heard a rustling of footsteps outside, coming from the direction of Lan Yue's father's ward.

I had a bad feeling, and the next footsteps approached my room directly, and I was ready to strike.

The masked man was totally unprepared for my presence in this room and fell straight to his knees at the sight of me!

At the sight of the blood-stained dagger in his hand, I was utterly furious!"

Said Ronald, whose chest was heaving violently due to his emotions.

"That was clearly the blood of Lan Yue's father! I was so focused on hunting down the exposed masked man that I was careless of the enemy lurking around me!

That man was smart enough to surrender to me, beg for mercy, and offer his dagger with both hands in an attempt to submit to me!

I was so upset that my body trembled violently from the pain!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3716

But how could I ever forgive this bd who killed my brother and set me up for injustice!

In the end, I used that dagger to avenge Lan Yue's father"

Lin Mo recalled that Shi Lan Yue told him at that time that Ronald's body was trembling with excitement when the masked man paid the dagger to Ronald.

This was something Lin Mo did not talk about with Ronald.

And just now Ronald said that his body was trembling violently due to extreme pain because of the murder of Shi Lan Yue's father.

This one detail matched!

"After that, I buried Lan Yue's father, but how could I not find Lan Yue, leaving only her young sister.

Right now this little girl's father was killed, her mother fled, and her sister was nowhere to be found, so I adopted her.

I've been searching for them ever since, but I've heard nothing. I even thought that they might have been killed by the masked man

Now you tell me that Lan Yue is still alive and safe, I am really happy

If it must be said that I got my best friend killed, there is nothing wrong with that.

After all, it was indeed because of my carelessness that led to the death of Lan Yue's father"

Ronald felt deeply guilty, he felt ashamed of Shi Lan Yue, if he had returned to see his father first, perhaps the tragedy could have been avoided.

Wait, Ronald said he had adopted Shilan Yue's sister, but he hadn't heard Ryan and the others mention Ronald's other children before.

There was only one Miss Aniya.

"Where is Shilangyue's sister now?" Lin Mo asked Ronald.

"She got separated from me when I went to Block 13 a few months ago, and has yet to be found"
Ronald looked sheepish, not daring to look at Lin Mo.

"How many children do you have?" Lin Mo asked after.

"I have no sons or daughters in my life, only Lan Yue's sister alone was adopted."

Lin Mo sort of completely understood that Ania was the adopted daughter Ronald had spoken of, Shi Lan Yue's younger sister.

It turned out that it was all a misunderstanding, Ronald had not killed Shi Lan Yue's father!

"One of the things I did when I came to Block 12 this time was to be entrusted by Shi Lan Yue to kill you and take revenge for her father.

Now that the misunderstanding is cleared, I will not take your life again."

Lin Mo's words caused Ronald to let out a long breath of relief.

"As for the other matter, it is to send Aniya home."

"Ania? You actually found Aniya!"

Ronald almost sat up in excitement as Lin Mo pressed him back onto the bed.

"Yes, Aniya is at home now, it's safe, you don't have to worry."

Ronald nodded and looked at the young man dressed in white in front of him, his heart very curious.

What kind of a mysterious man was this? It seemed that everything about him, including his life and death, was completely known and controlled by Lin Mo.

But now he was heavily injured himself, making it impossible for him to concentrate on anything else.

“Don’t think so much, I will keep my promise for you to save you, have a good sleep.”

After hearing Lin Mo’s words, Ronald actually had a very reassuring feeling, his intuition made him think that Lin Mo was not an enemy.

Lin Mo applied another silver needle, allowing Ronald to calm his mind.

Just now his brain had received a lot of incredible information all at once, and his emotions were highly volatile, causing his wounds to bleed again!

What Ronald needed most right now was a good night’s sleep to recover some strength before he could withstand the next treatment.

Under Lin Mo’s silver needles, Ronald fell into a deep sleep

At this time, the four main butlers who were waiting at the entrance of Ronald’s ward were about to fall asleep waiting.

Judging from Ryan’s experience, Lin Mo’s medical skills were very powerful!

When he was so badly injured himself on the human snake warship before, Lin Mo used that miraculous medicinal powder to instantly turn decay into muscle!

But how come he had stayed inside for so long and still hadn’t come out, could it be that even Mo Lin couldn’t be cured?

At this moment, when they saw Lin Mo come out, they all rushed up to ask Ronald about his injuries.

“How are Sir’s injuries? Can it be cured?”

Ryan asked anxiously.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3717

“I have used silver needles to stabilize Mr. Ronald’s injuries, only that he is too badly injured and needs to get a good night’s sleep before the subsequent treatment can be carried out.”

Hearing Lin Mo say this, Ryan and the other four people also breathed a sigh of relief.

“Don’t tell Ania yet, wait until Ronald’s injuries are better before arranging a meeting between them as father and daughter.”

“I understand, thank you, Maureen!”

Without speaking, Lin Mo smiled and patted Ryan’s shoulder.

And at this moment, on the other side of Block 12, there was another force stirring!

This time, the commotion over Ronald’s injury was so big that although no one dared to say it openly, the word was spread privately.

The rumour was that Ronald was seriously injured and dying, and that dozens of renowned doctors were at their wits' end!

Ronald's life is now hanging by a thread and his position in Block 12 is in jeopardy!

This has caused the smaller families that have been under Ronald's power to become restless.

This included the Senro family who had stolen from Ronald's forces the other day.

Although they had been emboldened that night and their leader had been killed, the family still had other elders in place and could make a comeback!

Not to mention that this time they had heard the news that Ronald was seriously ill, giving them a few more chances to win!

Inside the private hospital ward.

Ronald had slept for 18 hours before waking up!

The nurse at the side saw Ronald wake up and immediately informed Ryan.

Ryan, in turn, immediately rushed to the hospital with Lin Mo.

"How do you feel now?" Lin Mo inquired about Ronald.

"I feel clear-headed, but my body hurts so much that I can't move."

"This means that your mental state has recovered, and you can be treated next."

Ronald nodded calmly, he felt inexplicably at ease when he saw Lin Mo.

He saw Lin Mo fling his hand and take out several ox hair needles, applying a needle to each of the large acupuncture points on his body, opening up the blood vessels in Ronald's body that had been blocked by blocked blood.

The little nurse at the side had never seen such a bloody scene before, and she was so scared that she lost her face.

Even the four butlers looked shocked!

"If the bruises in his body are not completely removed, then the treatment later on will only aggravate his injuries."

Lin Mo explained calmly, in his eyes, this was all a minor scene.

Lin Mo then asked a few nurses to clean the bruises from the wounds.

At this moment, pots and pots of blood were brought out outside the ward, and pots and pots of clear water were brought in again.

After cleaning up the wounds, Lin Mo took out a bottle of medicinal powder and sprinkled a little on each of the larger wounds.

As the powder seeped deeper into the wounds, Ronald let out a painful groan and a cold sweat broke out on his forehead!

But the sensation only lasted for five or six seconds before his expression relaxed.

This medicinal powder was called Muscle Growth Powder, which had the miraculous effect of turning decay into muscle, it could quickly melt away the decaying flesh of the wound and catalyse the growth of new skin.

Ronald's wounds were healing at a rate visible to the naked eye, and pink flesh was rapidly filling in the dark holes in Ronald's body.

It was just that the new skin was so delicate that it was like a newborn baby, making people afraid to touch it.

When Lin Mo saw that all the big wounds were basically healed, he gave Ronald another Small Returning Element Pill.

By this time, under the effect of the Small Returning Element Pill, all the other small wounds had healed!

By this time, Ronald's face was also rosy! Ryan couldn't stop looking at it and exclaimed it was amazing!

"He has some other wounds on his body that will need to be treated in a few days, my pills are all rather potent and I've already used too much today."

After saying that, Lin Mo stopped treating.

"Good, everything is under your arrangement!" Ryan nodded his head repeatedly.

Lin Mo could have used the Great Returning Pill to allow Ronald to recover quickly, but he had too many wounds on his body to withstand the medicinal properties of the Great Returning Pill.

If he had taken it forcibly, its powerful effect of activating blood circulation and resolving stasis might have caused the new flesh of Ronald's wounds to be unable to suppress the medicinal properties, causing local bleeding.

Ronald had personally experienced Lin Mo's amazing healing skills, which made him even more curious about Lin Mo's origins and identity.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3718

"Mr. Molin, you gave me this life, no thanks for the great kindness, from now on your business is my Ronald's business!"

Everyone also came to thank Lin Mo, but more people were still shocked at Lin Mo's miraculous medical skills and didn't come out!

As for Ronald's dozens of personal doctors, they could not believe their eyes.

If they could acquire 10% of Lin Mo's medical skills or pharmaceutical methods, then they would be able to make a name for themselves in the medical community of this island of death!

A few days later, Ryan went to pick up Lin Mo from the private hospital as usual to complete the follow-up treatment for Ronald.

Seeing that Lin Mo was always going out lately and not taking himself with him, Aniya hugged one of his arms.

“Daddy, where are you going? Will you take Ania with you? It’s just too boring here!”

In the face of Ania’s request, Ryan and Lin Mo looked at each other and smiled.

Now that Ronald was almost well, it was time to reunite Aniya with her father.

“Ania, let’s go see a mysterious person together today, okay?”

Ryan said in a mock mysterious way as he took Ania in his arms.

“Who exactly is it? Do you know, Daddy?”

Lin Mo smiled and replied, “You’ll be so happy to see him.”

A few people laughed as they got into the car and went forward to the private hospital.

When they arrived at Ronald’s ward, Lin Mo encouraged Ania to go in by herself.

Ania gently pushed open the door and saw a familiar face on the hospital bed! A face that Ania had missed for months!

“It’s Father Ronald!” Ania jumped up and down in excitement, so much so that she completely missed the fact that Ronald was resting.

And at that moment Ronald was awakened by the scream.

As he opened his eyes and saw Ania, he immediately sat up from the hospital bed and swept Ania into his broad, strong chest.

“Ania, where the hell have you been, Father was so worried about you!”

Ronald, a man of iron and steel, was already teary-eyed at the moment as he hugged Ania

“Father, I will never catch a butterfly again!”

“It’s not your fault, it’s father’s fault for not protecting you.”

“But Ania met Papa Maureen and he was just as good to me as Father Ronald was!”

“Then you’re really so lucky!”

Ania chattered on and on, trying to share all her experiences of the last few months with Ronald!

Ronald listened patiently to the little girl, but the little girl couldn’t get away from Papa Maureen in every word.

From these words, Ronald deeply felt Aniya’s fondness for Lin Mo, and Lin Mo’s love and care for Aniya.

“Father, have you recovered from your illness? Father Maureen said you were injured.”

“Yes, I will recover soon, Aniah don’t worry.”

“Then you need to rest and make sure you listen to the doctor, Ania will see father again tomorrow.”

Alas, Ania was a tear jerker, and after hearing this, the tears that Ronald had just managed to hold back came out again

Aniya said goodbye to Ronald and was taken out to play by the nanny.

Lin Mo and Ryan and the other four housekeepers walked into the ward.

Looking at Ronald’s beaming face, the four butlers giggled along with him.

“Maureen, my Aniya, I’ve given you trouble again.”

Ronald was about to stand up and give his thanks to Lin Mo, when he was helped back to the hospital bed.

“You guys have been thanking me so much lately, my ears are getting calloused!” Lin Mo joked.

Only to see Lin Mo give Ronald another small reversion pellet for him to take, Ronald felt as if his five organs were being reshaped, strong and powerful!

Not even a single scar could be seen on the wounds on his body, as if he hadn’t been injured at all before!

“Little Returning Element Pill, it has a miraculous effect in treating injuries, you will recover completely and be no different from a normal person after taking this pill.”

“This is simply amazing! I didn’t expect Mr Molin to have such a high attainment in alchemy!”

Seeing Mr. Ronald recovered, everyone’s hearts that had been hanging for days were finally put down.

“Who injured you in such a state?”

Lin Mo was curious, for a person as big as Ronald, what kind of power could have injured him so badly?

“I went out to trade a batch of very important goods this time, and the route was planned very stealthily.

But when I arrived at the other party’s agreed trading location, I realised that the other party hadn’t come at all! That’s when I realised that the route had been betrayed!

So I returned immediately, but on the way back I was attacked by a force

Even though I thought I could fight off ten people with one, even the best kung fu was no match for the many!

I escaped with the weapons I had with me, but there was still a group after me.

When I ran out of ammunition, I had to fight them with my bare fists, and after I had done my best to finish them off, I was seriously wounded myself

I was trying to tell myself I had to get back alive, and I don't know how long I had been walking, but the will to live kept me from stopping.

It wasn't until I saw the familiarity of the place that I collapsed, and was saved by you guys later."

Ronald finished all this with a frown on his face, as if he was on the verge of death.

"D*mn it! Who on earth dared to sneak up on Mr. Ronald, really tired of living!"

Ryan, who was on the side, jumped in anger after hearing this.

"Perhaps they are simply no match for us in the open and can only sneak up on Mr. Ronald through such means."

Iron Wall, who was on the side, also voiced his opinion.

It also seemed that Ronald was not sure of the masterminds behind this force for the time being, but they must be very vicious and treacherous.

"Have you offended anyone recently?" Lin Mo asked Ronald.

Ronald shook his head, "Everyone knows that I have always maintained a neutral attitude, so perhaps there is someone who is not used to seeing it."

"Don't announce your body recovery to the public beforehand, we can use it to draw out the people behind it."

Everyone nodded, and then had all the hospital block the news of Ronald's recovery.

And release the fake news: Mr. Ronald could not be cured for a long time, coughing up blood and becoming sick, now he is seeking a divine doctor's saintly hand to come and cure him with heavy money

On the Senro family council hall.

"Did you see, today Ronald's men posted a call for orders to seek divine healers!"

"It seems that the rumours are true, this old man Ronald is really not going to make it."

"As soon as Ronald dies, there will be chaos within them and we will have an opportunity to take advantage of it!"

"We don't have to wait for him to die, is there any difference between him being alive and dead now? Hahahahaha"

Immediately afterwards, the people around us followed suit and laughed.

"We can't wait any longer! Our great Moro chief and several of our most capable brothers have died at their hands, and as long as this revenge is not avenged, we will all be suffocating for a day."

The men of the Moro family were in high spirits at the moment, as if they had already exterminated Ronald's forces.

"This is a matter that needs to be discussed in the long run."

At this moment an elder walked into the council hall, a very prestigious elder of the Morrow family.

Everyone rose and saluted when they saw the elder.

"Elder, now that Ronald is not long for life, this is the best time to attack them, what else do we have to wait for?"

One of the Moro family's commanders, Moro Elephant, stood up and asked the Elder in confusion.

"Have you forgotten how your Moro chief died?"

The elder scolded in a stern voice, "If you want to go and continue to die, I won't stop you!"

The group of people who were shouting for revenge earlier were silent at the moment

They knew that what the elders feared was the sword mane that broke through the sky!

Since returning that day, all those who had seen that sword mane were so frightened that they did not dare to go out for three days and nights, unable to eat during the day and having nightmares at night.

"But then we all agreed that it was just Ronald's way of scaring people, nothing real!

How else could he have killed only a few people, if not because he wasn't capable! Elder, let's not be fooled by them!"

"Alas, you are still too young"

The elder let out a sigh and waved his sleeves away.

"I see that the elders are too old to lead us on another campaign to kill the enemy!"

Still bent on his own way, the Sam Elephant Commander decided to prepare to attack Ronald once again.

His men were also shouting, "Kill! Kill! Kill!"

This time the Moro family did not deliberately hide their movements, but trained their troops with great fanfare and stockpiled a large number of weapons.

The news soon reached Ronald's side.

"This Morrow family actually dares to come, Mr. Molin was really too kind to them last time."

Shadow said to Ronald indignantly.

"If they still dare to come, let Mr. Molin kill them all!" Iron Wall chimed in.

“Can’t you guys have any sense? How many times has Mr Molin helped us, we already owe him a great deal!

We don’t need Mr Molin’s help this time, we can take care of them ourselves!”

Guardian unmercifully disliked the two youngsters in front of Ronald.

“Guardian is right, we can’t rely on others for everything, and we can’t repay Mr Molin’s kindness.

This time, the Morrow family is not worthy of Mr. Morin himself!” Ronald affirmed Guardian’s view.

“Pa*s on my orders to conduct military training in secret and fill the arsenal, remember, everything is done in secret and must not be publicised!”

The three butlers received Ronald’s orders and instantly went to carry them out.

Three days later.

The scouts of the Moro family returned from Ronald’s territory.

“Report to the Moro Elephant Commander, no abnormalities have been found on streets 1 to 10, and the hospital continues to search for a divine doctor, it seems that Ronald’s condition has deteriorated further.

And there are no soldiers training in their military stronghold, the army is disorganised and uncommanded.”

After hearing the news from the scouts, the Moro Elephant cried out in approval and instantly summoned the members of the family to the council hall to discuss the battle further.

But the Moro family would never have imagined at this moment that Ryan had already secretly infiltrated their military stronghold

“Done!”

Ryan took a look around their armoury and slipped away after completing the task Ronald had explained.

It was thanks to Lin Mo for giving Ryan a disguise that he was able to infiltrate their military stronghold so smoothly this time, otherwise it wouldn’t really be easy to act in secret.

The next day, the drums of war sounded and the thunder of war was heard.

Bows were strung and swords were sheathed.

The Moro clan led the soldiers of their clan and attacked the centre of blocks 1 to 10 with great fanfare.

When they reached the entrance to the block, there was not a single soldier on patrol.

The Moro Elephants were even more pleased, thinking that these Ronald forces had heard they were coming and had run away in fear!

Their troops entered Ronald’s neighbourhood without a hitch, firing a shot into the air to demonstrate.

But no one came out to confront them.

Was Ronald really dead or had he faked his death, had all his men martyred him?

He sent a spy to find out what was going on.

But as soon as he was ready to go, he was shot in the head!

Now Mori Xiang was dumbfounded! They were attacking from the shadows! He was in the open and had no control over the situation!

Mori Xiang immediately got into the car and tightened his bulletproof vest and put his helmet back on, arming himself.

But you can't stay still! He had so many weapons and explosives that he was still afraid of them.

Sam Elephant summoned up the courage to order his men, "Go and open our weapons carts and use gunpowder to blow them out of the shadows!"

Trembling, the men under his command got out of the vehicle, opened the powder magazine, moved to the centre of the block and pressed the detonation button

"3, 2, 1 blast!" Mori Xiang counted silently in his mind, but the gunpowder was slow to explode.

"What's going on? Why isn't it blowing up!" Mori Xiang was anxious.

His men went to investigate and came back to report, "Commander, the gunpowder store is filled with water"

"What? How are you doing? Go and fetch the guns at once!"
