Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3731

"Don't ask what you shouldn't ask, be careful I'll ask the boss to turn you into a one-eyed dragon again oh."

Bai Ying, this little girl, didn't know when she had become so poisonous.

"Okay, okay, little aunt, I'll tell you what, this blood is quite phlegmatic and tastes bad, I'll kill a few more animals later and let them bleed fresh, and send them to the medical center for you, so you can go back first."

Bai Ying thanked the butcher and left.

In the evening, the butcher pushed a cart to the medical hall with a jar full of animal blood.

Lin Mo asked Bai Ying to boil and dry the blood, leaving only some sediment to collect together.

At night when no one was around, Lin Mo used his divine power to refine the precipitate of this blood plasma, slowly forming it into a grain of transparent crystals.

Lin Mo took out the potion he had made earlier, added the plasma crystals and a little liquorice juice and stirred it well, and used the tip of his tongue to sip a little.

Well, the colour, taste and texture were all very close now!

Although the Ying Ying Flower and Broken Gut Gra*s, which were the main ingredients, were poison, under Lin Mo's refinement, the toxicity had been weakened and the nerve-stimulating ingredients of the poisonous herbs had been purified.

Therefore, if you drink it, you will become very aroused and have the illusion that your potential has been stimulated, which is very similar to the effects of the Human Snake Organisation's potion!

The most important thing is that the potion is very addictive and difficult to stop drinking.

After the euphoric effect, a deep feeling of weakness ensues, followed by a desire to drink it again!

As you drink more and more, more and more toxins will accumulate in your body, and you will eventually shrivel up and die in a fantasy

This is Lin Mo's ultimate intention, to crush the enemy from within.

"It's enough for them to drink for a few months."

These substitute potions were bottled by Lin Mo in empty black gla*s bottles and placed in the underground secret room.

Within a few days, the medical hall was once again knocked on the door in the middle of the night.

Lin Mo guessed that it was Captain Sogang who had come again and immediately displayed his human snake mark.

When the two arrived at the underground chamber, Suo Gang's eyes went straight as he looked at the boxes of black glass bottles!

"You actually produced so many Kisses of God in just a few days! How did you manage to do that?"

"These past few days, there have been an exceptionally high number of unsolicited materials coming to the Medical Hall, and I just happened to have developed a more efficient method of production, so I stocked up a little more this time, just in case."

Lin Mo said as he took out a bottle of the potion he had developed and handed it to Suo Gang.

However, Suo Gang had an incredulous look on his face, "You made it so quickly, is it pure enough?"

"It will only be more effective."

"Then drink a bottle first and I'll see."

Suo Gang thought if Lin Mo dared to play tricks on him it would be over!

Only to see Lin Mo casually take out a bottle, drink it without hesitation, and then act like he was very exhilarated again!

After a moment, he found that there was nothing unusual about Lin Mo, and only then did he drink the potion in his hand.

In fact, with such a dose of drugs, Lin Mo would automatically dissolve and expel it from his body without causing himself any harm at all.

Right after Suo Gang finished drinking it, he felt unusually high and his body lightened up!

"It's really good! With a level like yours, you can totally transfer to the headquarters for master's production!"

Surely there's a bigger human lab, Lin Mo cursed angrily in his heart!

"Then I'll trouble Captain Sogang to help recommend you to the special envoy!" Lin Mo couldn't see the slightest flaw on his face.

Hearing the word envoy, Sogang's eyebrows knitted together tightly.

Lin Mo asked without moving a muscle, "Is there something bothering the captain?"

Suo Gang glanced at Lin Mo, thinking that there was nothing wrong with telling him, and that he might even be able to discuss an idea, which was better than being bored alone now.

"It's not the matter that Lord Special Envoy explained, the raw material for the potion recently developed at the headquarters requires the blood of a fetus"

When he heard the word fetus, Lin Mo almost couldn't resist cutting his throat on the spot!

"But the pregnant women nearby ran out in a few days, and my men were all sent further away by me to look for them, yet they couldn't deliver one in a few days."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3732

Sogang was smoking a cigarette as he spoke, with a difficult expression.

To actually put his hands on a pregnant woman, they were two dead bodies in one!

Lin Mo felt that if he continued to blend in so slowly, he would only cause more innocent people to be hurt, it was time to move his muscles!

“How about this Captain, my medical hall has a particularly large number of people coming and going every day, and there are pregnant women among them, I can help you.”

Suo Gang was overjoyed to hear this, “Good, then I’ll be waiting for your good news!”

“It’s almost dawn, I have to go and watch those ingredients, otherwise they won’t be fresh if they die.”

Suo Gang stood up and prepared to leave, but then folded his steps and returned, carrying several boxes of God’s Kisses developed by Lin Mo.

“I’ll take these back to the brothers to drink, and as for you, I’ll raise them with Lord Envoy.”

Sogang said and left the medicine house, but he did not know that at that moment there was also a figure following him silently

In the early hours of the morning, Sogang arrived at a very secret cave, a place with a very complicated terrain, where one must not only be familiar with the route, but also have a good sense of direction.

If one step is wrong, one will be trapped in a maze and it will be very difficult to get around.

Even though Suogang had been here countless times, he still took out his map from time to time to check to avoid making a wrong turn.

After confirming that no one was around, Suo Gang finally entered the cave, followed by Lin Mo like a ghost, without making any sound.

Lin Mo found that there were no dismembered bodies in the cave, only a few of Suo Gang’s men guarding a cage.

There were about twenty pregnant women in those cages, weak and tired, and when they saw Suo Gang’s arrival, they immediately clutched their hands to protect their stomachs.

“Why did another one die? How hard to serve! The rest of you had better eat and rest honestly, or I’ll make you miscarry immediately!”

When Suo Gang found a pregnant woman lying in the cage, he began to swear again.

“Captain, this material was in bad shape before she was locked in, she didn’t last more than a few days.”

One of the team members shivered and replied to Sogang.

“Can’t you guys go find a few more of better quality? There weren’t enough to go around, and you’re still losing money into it every day!”

Sogang reprimanded his men in annoyance, while the pregnant women huddled in a corner of the cage, not daring to move a muscle.

Suo Gang wanted to pull the dead pregnant woman out and throw her away, but an idea inadvertently sprang up.

“Wait, let’s see if the fetus is still alive, we can’t waste one if we can use it.”

“Yes, Captain Sogang.”

Abominable to the extreme, not even sparing the corpse, Lin Mo watched their every move from the shadows.

Just as those men from the Human Serpent Organisation put their sinful hands on the abdomen of the dead pregnant woman, Lin Mo sent a few silver needles flying out and those men fell to the ground without a sound!

Suo Gang immediately went to check on them, but did not find any wounds on them.

At that moment, Lin Mo showed up.

“How dare you stalk me?”

“How can I take your place without stalking you, Captain Sogang.”

At this moment, Lin Mo’s face slowly emerged with the exact same scowl as Sogang’s!

“Very well! You have ambition! The Human Snake Organization needs someone like you.”

“But I don’t need someone like you, there can only be one Captain Sogang.”

Lin Mo replied with an expressionless face.

Sogang suddenly quite admired Lin Mo, because he had become captain a few years ago, also because he had managed to kill his previous captain.

Wasn’t this man in front of him his own back then?

“Listen to me, there’s no need for us to be so tit-for-tat, perhaps we can be the best partners!”

“I don’t need a partner, nor do I need to cooperate.”

Lin Mo’s desperate reply choked Sogang speechless.

“I admit that you are indeed smart and have good skills, but there are plenty of people within the Human Snake Organization who are stronger than you! You’re going to need my help.”

“You might as well think about how you’re going to die now.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3733

He saw Lin Mo instantly put his tiger’s mouth against Suo Gang’s throat!

Sogang didn't even know how Lin Mo had gotten to him!

"Kill me you'll regret it"

"I'll only regret if I don't kill you."

As Lin Mo's tiger's mouth intensified, Suo Gang also slowly stopped breathing

This guy also wanted to threaten Lin Mo, think back in Block 13, that human snake envoy wanted to be a dog for him before he died, Lin Mo didn't even care!

Lin Mo wiped his hands and his face reverted back to that of a pill house owner.

He immediately noticed the pregnant woman who had died on the ground.

"How long has this lady been dead?"

Lin Mo asked the pregnant women who were locked up in the cage, but they had just heard him and Sogang talking and all thought that Lin Mo was also from the Human Snake Organisation, and all huddled in one place in fear.

"Don't be afraid, I'm here to save you."

After saying this Lin Mo opened the cage and let them out.

Seeing that Lin Mo had no malice, a bold pregnant woman came up and told Lin Mo that the pregnant woman had died of lack of oxygen, that is, just before they came in, she had broken off.

Lin Mo observed the dead woman's stomach and judged that the fetus was almost eight or nine months old, which was late in pregnancy.

This caused the pregnant woman to breathe poorly, and if she did not get enough oxygen in time, she would suffocate!

And this cave was very stuffy, and the air could not be convected, which led to the tragedy.

At this moment, Lin Mo suddenly saw that the pregnant woman's stomach seemed to be beating slightly!

"The fetus is still alive!" Lin Mo said.

"Please do me a favour, I am a doctor and now I need to plough the fetus out of her belly immediately, can you help me go and find some water and clean cloths?"

The other pregnant women heard this and all rushed over, spontaneously going to the cave to find the water source left by the Human Snake Organisation and to rip off the clothes of those who had died for Lin Mo to use.

They were all pregnant women, all about to become mothers, and their hearts were incomparably united and soft at the moment.

Together, they were all looking forward to the birth of this great suffering baby!

Although Lin Mo was very sure of himself, delivering the baby was the first time a bride had ever been in a sedan chair.

Without any tools, Lin Mo had to use a silver needle instead of a knife to slice open the pregnant woman's belly.

After slicing open the seven layers of internal tissues, Lin Mo put his hand into the belly to feel the head of the fetus, dragged it with both hands and pulled it outwards, then followed by the shoulders, hips and legs of the fetus being lifted out of the body in this way.

Lin Mo found that the baby's face was already purple and blue and it was about to stop breathing! Lin Mo immediately flung out a silver needle and stuck it in the bottom of the baby's foot!

As the baby took in its first breath of air, a loud cry rang out throughout the cave!

All the pregnant mothers who were so tense that they couldn't stand it, all breathed a sigh of relief, and some even cried out in excitement!

"It's a boy."

Lin Mo dragged the blood-covered baby with both hands, his eyes full of tenderness.

He washed the baby, wrapped it up and placed it next to the pregnant woman who had passed away, allowing the baby to cling to its mother's face, enjoying this last moment of motherly love.

The little baby seemed to sense his mother's scent and, having cried out earlier, now actually became very quiet

But the newly born baby did not know that his mother had left this world forever

The pregnant women next to him saw the scene and were left in tears.

And this heartbreaking tragedy continues to happen in some unknown place!

Lin Mo simply buried the baby's mother and the next step was to lead them out of this place; if they were left unattended, they would certainly not be able to walk out of this intricate mountainous area.

The pregnant women walked slowly, with their bellies in their hands, and it was only after a night of trekking that they returned to their respective homes in the neighbourhood.

But what about the little baby?

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3734

Right now, the Human Snake Organization is still making waves, so it's really not very convenient for him to bring up a baby by himself. Lin Mo can't help but think of the time when he brought Aniya with him again

That's right, Aniya! Lin Mo seemed to have thought of something and immediately moved to catch up.

"It's been a long time since I've seen Aniya, I wonder if this little girl misses me, not to mention I'm giving her a brother to play with this time"

Lin Mo mumbled to himself as he teased the little baby in his arms.

Reaching Ronald's precinct, Lin Mo reverted to his Molin appearance.

"Where is the human trafficker from, eat my sword!"

Only to see a sharp silhouette stabbing from Lin Mo's back, Lin Mo turned around and embedded his two fingers in the other party's short sword!

"So it's Miss Blood Rose, long time no see."

"Mr. Molin, how is it you?"

Blood Rose immediately became respectful when she saw that it was Lin Mo.

Lin Mo looked at his outfit, all in rough clothes, still stained with blood from delivering a baby, plus holding a baby that was not yet full term, no wonder he was taken by Blood Rose as a human trafficker!

I only blame myself for being so concerned with changing my face that I forgot to change my clothes.

"Why is Mr Maureen dressed in this outfit? This child is not sister-in-law's third child was born?"

Lin Mo helplessly held his forehead, what was Ryan thinking at that time, taking Blood Rose this henchman

"This matter is a long story, you quickly go to find a car to send me to Ronald."

"I'm on my way!" As soon as Blood Rose turned around, she disappeared.

Not long after, a limousine came racing up and Blood Rose picked up Lin Mo and drove towards Ronald's residence.

Seeing that it was Lin Mo who got out of the car, all the soldiers saluted and greeted Lin Mo with great respect!

Blood Rose was about to ask the soldiers to inform Ronald of Lin Mo's arrival, but he was stopped by Lin Mo.

"There's no need to make it so formal, you go and get busy."

After Blood Rose left, Lin Mo entered Ronald's villa with the little baby in his arms.

At this moment, Ronald was working at his desk with a serious face, while Ryan was playing games with Aniya.

"Ania!"

Lin Mo gently called out, and the little girl saw Lin Mo standing in the doorway at a glance.

"Wow, it's Papa Maureen! Ania missed you so much!"

The little one was about to jump into Lin Mo's arms when she realised that her Papa Molin was still holding a little baby in his arms!

At this moment Ronald and Ryan also walked over.

"Mr. Molin has disappeared for so long and has come to us today, is he in trouble?"

Ronald was in a good mood when he saw Lin Mo come, he couldn't wait for Lin Mo to let him help.

"Maureen, I can't see that you are quite fast at making children!"

Ryan still had a deadly look on his face.

Lin Mo laughed and said, "Don't joke about it yet, this child hasn't eaten anything since it was born yesterday, you should hurry and have someone prepare some food for the newborn."

"Huh??"

The three people on the side were petrified.

The next thing they knew, they were scrambling!

"Someone, hire a gold medal moon wife as quickly as possible right away!"

"Someone, go and buy milk powder, clothes, beds, toys and diapers for the newborn immediately"

"Someone, bring me Miss Ben's story book, I want to read a story to my little baby."

.....

After a few hours of tossing and turning, the little baby was finally settled in, fed formula, bathed and changed into clean clothes under the careful care of the gold medalist sister-in-law.

It was now lying in a beautiful soft cot, sleeping sweetly to Aniya's stories.

Lin Mo had also changed back into a white robe, fresh and sharp.

"What have you been going through in your absence?"

Ronald and Ryan stared at Lin Mo and began the official grand inventory.

Lin Mo told the duo everything he had seen about the Human Snake Organisation's experiences, and they were furious upon hearing it!

But now even Lin Mo couldn't figure out the Human Snake Organisation's lair, so how could the two of them help?

"You can help me adopt this child!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3735

"This"

“Okay, Ania loves this little baby and wants to read him a story every day!”

Just as Ronald was hesitating, Ania snatched the promise!

“Sir, why don’t you just say yes, don’t you always say that Aniya is quite lonely on her own

Ryan also started to add fuel to the fire.

“But I’m so old

Lin Mo saw Ronald’s concerns, “Don’t worry, I’ll make sure you live long enough for the boy to get a daughter-in-law.”

Ronald had no children in his life and adopted Aniya a few years ago, but the girl would have to marry when she grew up after all, and could not be with him for the rest of his life.

But when Lin Mo gave him a baby boy, Ronald was overjoyed that Aniya would have a playmate!

Only Ronald always felt a little twisted somewhere

“Didn’t you say you were going to give me a hand? How come now that I’ve come to you, I’m pushing back, is Mr. Elegant Ronald going to keep his word?”

Lin Mo was irritating Ronald again.

“Okay, I’ll adopt this child.”

Ronald finally squirmed and agreed, and it was Ania who was happiest.

“Since the child was saved by Mr. Molin, I must also trouble Mr. Molin to give him a name!”

“His mother died because of the Human Snake Organisation, so he will be called Zhan Amnesty, which means to kill the Human Snake Organisation!”

“Zhan Amnesty, good name!” Ronald praised him repeatedly.

Ronald announced a big banquet to receive Mr. Molin and Young Master Zhan Amnesty!

Lin Mo thought to himself, just now he was hesitant to adopt, and in the blink of an eye, he was called Young Master

After settling down Zhan Amnesty, Lin Mo told Ronald that he must send someone to take special care of the group of pregnant women in the twelfth neighborhood recently, and that the Human Snake organization would most likely continue to strike.

And he himself had to go back to the previous medical center first to take care of some matters, and left.

Arriving at the medical hall.

Lin Mo’s facial costume switched back on.

“Boss, where have you been these past few days, making us so worried.”

Seeing Bai Ying and Nanny’s anxious faces, Lin Mo reassured that he had gone to see a few friends.

Now that Suo Gang was dead, there was no need for Lin Mo to stay on at the medical school. This time, he came back to explain some things and then headed to the next stronghold to keep watch.

While the ancestors and grandchildren slept during the night, Lin Mo carried the remaining homemade Kiss of God from the secret room to the car, then sprinkled powder on the dismembered bodies and cleaned them up.

The chamber was completely sealed with an exit, and this human experimentation chamber disappeared forever!

After finishing these things, he left a letter to Bai Ying and drove away.

The next day Bai Ying woke up to find that his boss had disappeared again.

When she saw an unfolded letter on the desk, she took it and read it.

[Baiying and Nanny: Please understand that I left without saying goodbye for some special reasons. It has been a fun and interesting time with you and has helped me a lot. Bai Ying you are a resourceful girl and have a great aptitude for Chinese medicine, I have left you a secret book on the bookshelf for practicing medicine, you will make a difference if you study it intently].

[This medicine shop will be left to you to take care of. In the money bag, I leave you 500,000 maple coins as working capital for you to run the shop. The Little Returning Pill that I gave to Nana is in the desk drawer, it will prolong your life.]

[Please don't miss it, written by Molin himself.]

Seeing this letter of resignation, Bai Ying flung herself into Nana's arms and became sad and upset.

What was it that made the boss not even take the time to say goodbye to himself?

At this time, Lin Mo had already reached the next stronghold he would be squatting in, the cave where the pregnant women were being held.

With Sogang and his men dead, the Human Snake envoys would definitely send someone to find out what was going on. Lin Mo only needed to be discovered by the Human Snake people at the right time, and he would be able to successfully enter the headquarters they were talking about.

And his next new identity would be Captain Sogang, whom he had killed.

With all the disguises coming and going every day, Lin Mo was on the verge of forgetting what he really looked like

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3736

Lin Mo changed into Suo Gang's disguise mask and clothes, and made a few more festering wounds on his body, looking very badly injured.

Then he corroded Sogang's body with medicinal powder and disappeared, leaving only the bodies of his men.

After everything was done at the scene, Lin Mo waited patiently for the others from the Snake Organisation to arrive.

As expected, it was not long before Lin Mo heard footsteps outside the cave, numbering almost fifty people!

“Sogang, why haven’t you turned in your materials for a few days? Do you know that Lord Special Envoy is already a little angry!”

Before I saw the man, I heard his voice.

As soon as the words left his mouth, a lean and tall man dressed in the uniform of a human snake captain walked into the cave.

Following behind him were a whole group of fifty Human Snake members.

Upon seeing the visitor, Lin Mo knew his general status!

As the captain of the Human Snake Organisation, Suo Gang only had twenty members, while the man in front of him, also a captain, had more than twice as many members as Suo Gang!

It could only be said that the Human Snake Organisation had a serious hierarchy and would assign team members according to the true strength of each captain.

Then this captain should be in the middle to upper level of strength within the organization, and it would be easier to meet the envoy.

“Captain, we have met a formidable enemy.”

Lin Mo pretended to have a weak voice.

At this moment, that captain approached Lin Mo, saw the dense wounds on his body and frowned, then pretended to look concerned again.

“Brother, what kind of person actually injured you like this, tell me and I will avenge you!”

That captain was obviously falsely concerned about Suo Gang, but in fact inwardly he wanted Suo Gang to die sooner rather than later.

Lin Mo took the opportunity to look at the staff executive tag on the captain’s right shoulder: Teng Snakes.

“Captain Teng Snake, I was secretly followed by a person when I returned to the cave yesterday. That person did not look like a local, dressed in white robes, with an immortal appearance, but his strikes were very ruthless

He is very good at using silver needles to hurt people, you see the brothers were all killed by him invisibly, I was seriously wounded by him and escaped by pretending to be dead.

And he also let go of the material we had worked so hard to capture over the past few days

Lin Mo had a heartbroken expression when he finished speaking.

After listening to Lin Mo's words, Teng Snake looked at the dead team members on the ground, indeed, no wounds were visible, only an extremely inconspicuous spot of blood was visible, which showed his high level of strength.

Looking at the empty cage and Lin Mo, who was covered in wounds, Teng Snake was convinced.

But there really wasn't much doubt, Lin Mo was just stating the facts in a different capacity.

"Sogang, you are here to recuperate at ease, Lord Special Envoy has sent me over this time to assist you in your mission."

"Then I'll trouble Captain Teng Snake."

Lin Mo thought to himself, it seemed that this Suo Gang did not have a high status in the mind of the Human Snake Envoy, and generally the tasks assigned to whomever was assigned to him were not allowed to be snatched away by other teams.

This time, the envoy had actually taken the initiative to send Teng Snake to snatch Sogang's mission, which was enough to show that Teng Snake was a popular person in front of the envoy!

Teng Snake's group was about to set up camp in this cave, and they began to clean up the dead team members on the ground.

At that moment, one of the team members carried over some boxes.

"Captain, we found these when we were clearing the cave."

Teng Snake walked into the crates and opened them, and there were whole crates of God's Kisses!

He turned his eyes to Lin Mo, revealing a questioning gaze, "How did you hide so many God's Kisses?"

Lin Mo pretended to be vain and stammered, "Captain Teng Snake, I didn't mean to hide it, it was developed by a man I had planted in a medical school.

He is very talented in human testing and developing pharmaceuticals, but the medicinal properties of this batch of medicine are not yet stable, so I didn't dare to offer it to the captain ah"

"Where is that henchman of yours? Tell him to come see me immediately!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3737

Teng Snake was suddenly filled with interest, if such a talent could be taken on his team, then he would never have to go through the trouble of finding so many materials in the future.

"That henchman was also killed by the man in white"

"Damn it!" Teng Snake was very upset after hearing this.

"But I've seen him develop it before, so I should be able to make it myself."

Teng Snake's mood was turning into a roller coaster as he listened to Lin Mo's words, "Can you fucking finish your sentence at once?"

Teng Snake no longer wanted to pretend to be polite to Lin Mo, now that his entire team was dead, there was no need to pretend any longer.

“Fine, you better not lie to me, you recuperate first, these stocks should be enough for our brothers to drink for a few days.”

With that he took out three bottles of Lin Mo’s homemade Kiss of God and threw them to each of the three team members to try.

After drinking them, the three team members unanimously agreed that this God’s Kiss was even more effective than the latest version of God’s Kiss developed by the headquarters!

They now felt very exhilarated, full of strength and their bodies were very light.

But Teng Snakes still did not try it on their own, and Lin Mo guessed that he was worried about the side effects.

But Lin Mo had already taken this into consideration when making the medicine, and this medicine usually had slight side effects only within three to five days of consumption.

The biggest feeling in the first period was addiction, always wanting to drink a bottle when nothing was wrong.

By the time they were able to drink a few bottles steadily every day, the side effects would get worse one at a time.

“Good, the three of you will first drink a small amount every day, and then distribute it to everyone if there are indeed no side effects.”

Teng Serpent was really thoughtful.

It was already night time when everything was settled, so Teng Snakes and the team prepared to move out to catch the pregnant women.

He also told Lin Mo to stay in the cave to recuperate from his injuries and to start developing that God’s Kiss as soon as possible.

The next morning, Teng Serpent returned empty-handed with a bunch of men, completely losing the proud look he had when he first arrived at the cave yesterday.

“Evil! I can’t believe there isn’t a single pregnant woman!”

Seeing Teng Snake’s puzzled look, Lin Mo knew very well in his heart.

“What’s wrong Captain, didn’t you bring any materials today?”

Lin Mo pretended to be concerned and asked Teng Snakes.

“Have you caught all the materials around here? Why did I send out my entire team yesterday and not find a single one throughout the night!”

Lin Mo immediately complained, “How is that possible? You know that my strength is not as strong as yours, and I don’t have enough manpower, so how could I have caught them all?”

Maybe those pregnant women happened to be out, or maybe the months were small and you didn't distinguish them."

After hearing Lin Mo's words, Teng Shi felt that there was some truth to it, thinking that after all, Sogang had been capturing in this place for some time and was more or less experienced.

"Let's all drink some God's Kiss to replenish our physical energy!" Lin Mo unintentionally changed the subject.

With Teng Snake's permission, most of the team members had started drinking God's Kiss today, and the stock was immediately reduced by a third.

Teng Snake looked at the few bits of stock and looked at Lin Mo, "How are your injuries, when can you start to continue developing God's Kiss?"

"Don't worry Captain Teng Snake, I took some healing medicine from the stronghold of the medical school earlier, I'll be able to recover soon."

Teng Serpent nodded and went to rest with the team.

By nightfall, they were out on the move again, and as they were leaving, Teng Serpent finally drank a bottle of God's Kiss.

He saw that the team had drunk several bottles without any side effects, and instead had much more energy than himself, so he no longer doubted it.

After drinking it, Teng Serpent felt refreshed and urged Lin Mo once again to start stepping up his development.

Another early morning, another team returned empty-handed.

Today Teng Serpent was more or less furious.

"It must have been those pregnant women who were let go by the men in white earlier who tipped them off! Otherwise there can't be none of them!"

One of the team members seemed to have thought of some shocking secret and hurriedly told Teng Snakes.

Lin Mo thought that they weren't too stupid to think of this reason today.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3738

And by now Lin Mo had recovered some of his fake wounds and was able to stand up and walk around.

Lin Mo gave each team member a bottle of God's Kiss, and the team members all scrambled to get it.

This made Teng Snakes very angry: "Not a single material was captured, and you guys are drinking it with a clear mind!"

After saying that, Teng Snakes regretted it a little, because he also wanted to drink it very much at that moment, but was unable to go and get it because he was ashamed.

Lin Mo knew that Teng Snake was a bit addicted, so he took the initiative to take out two bottles and handed them to him.

“Captain, the brothers have worked hard without merit, and they must have failed to catch it because they were unfamiliar with this territory when they first arrived, so you should let them drink it, and I can continue to develop it.”

Teng Snake finally showed a smile and drank two bottles at once, following the step given by Lin Mo.

After drinking, Teng Snakes and the team were as excited as if they had been hit with chicken blood, only this excitement, which was no longer quite normal, was a bit perverted and crazy.

“Come on, let’s search another street before it’s too bright.”

Teng Snakes knew that he had already failed to turn in material for two days in a row, and if he couldn’t find the pregnant woman again today, his status in the envoy’s mind would be in tatters.

Maybe the captain’s post would have to be removed as well.

With the kiss of God at their disposal, the group went out with renewed vigour and confidence.

Only they had barely reached the block when they felt a deep wave of exhaustion that took away any thought of moving again.

“Captain, why don’t we take a break and go again, I just can’t walk anymore.”

“Yes, captain, it’s been a night without rest.”

.....

The team members were complaining, some had even sat down on the ground ready to sleep.

Teng Serpent was also a bit stretched, so he ordered the team to rest in a nearby woods.

When they reached the woods, the men immediately fell into a deep sleep, snoring like thunder.

When they woke up, it was already noon!

Not only did they not feel refreshed after sleeping for so long, but they were also very dizzy.

They didn’t think much of it, and thought that they were too tired in recent days, overly anxious about not catching materials, and suffering from the wind chill from resting in the forest.

“We should take some of God’s Kiss with us next time, to replenish it at all times.”

Teng Serpent ordered two of his team members to go back to the cave to fetch God’s Kiss for everyone to drink, but he himself did not want to move any further.

When Lin Mo saw that someone had gone back to the cave, he gave them all the remaining God’s Kisses, leaving only one bottle hidden with him.

When the two team members were delivered to the forest, Teng Snakes grabbed it with the team and drank it!

The team members didn't care at all about the ranking captain either, as there seemed to be millions of ants gnawing at their hearts and veins everywhere in their bodies at the moment, and the only way to calm down was to drink the God's Kiss immediately.

However, the remaining God's Kisses were not enough for the fifty players to share equally, and Teng Snakes alone smothered five bottles.

Those who hadn't grabbed it became violent and started beating each other up. Teng Snakes only felt so raucous that he immediately pulled out his gun and shot the troublemakers!

Only then did Teng Snakes realise that they had become addicted to the Kiss of God! If they didn't have a supply of it around, it would be even more difficult!

"I knew this kid Sogang didn't have good intentions, how could he be so generous as to give us all God's Kiss."

The Human Snake who had awakened to sanity decided to turn back to the cave and ask Lin Mo for the antidote immediately.

"Sogang, how dare you put your hands in God's Kiss! Hand over the antidote immediately!"

Lin Mo said helplessly, "There is no antidote for this medicine."

At this moment, the lean Teng Snake's body was so green with anger that he looked horrifying, and was about to shoot Lin Mo, but he was stopped by his team members.

"Captain, you mustn't kill him, or else how will we be able to do if our medicine is offended?"

Teng Snake slowly lowered his pistol and turned a different face.

"Brother Sogang, is there really no antidote?"

"No, but don't worry, I will ma*s produce it right away, and there will be no shortage of you to drink."

Teng Snakes never thought that he would get hooked on this drug, and if he wanted to live, he could only depend on Lin Mo in the future.

It wasn't long before Teng Snakes and his teammates' addiction started to kick in again, this time with greater ferocity.

Some of them started biting their arms, some pulled their hair

Teng Snakes ran to Lin Mo with terrified eyes, "Give me a bottle of God's Kiss, give it to me now!"

The other team members also gathered around Lin Mo, kneeling on the ground and begging him to be able to give them the potion.

“But I only have the last bottle here.”

Lin Mo took out the bottle of God’s Kiss that he had left beforehand and shook it towards them.

The group of Human Snake members began to frantically try to grab it, and at that moment, they only heard a few “bang bang” sounds, and several members of the group surrounding Lin Mo in front of them fell to the ground.

“Do you still have me as your captain in your eyes?”

But the team members had already lost their minds and didn’t listen to Teng Snakes’ words, they just went to grab the bottle of potion.

There was another burst of gunfire, and the team members were killed by Teng Snakes without a single survivor.

“Captain Sogang, I’m the only one left now, can you give me this bottle of medicine?”

“I can give it to you, but I have one request.”

Teng Snake flung himself down on his knees, “You can make a hundred or a thousand requests, I’ll do it all.”

Lin Mo found it very enjoyable to look at this once unbeatable Captain Teng Snakes in front of him, now kneeling so humbly to himself.

But what he should be kneeling for even more was the countless unjust souls who had died in vain under him!

“Please, Lord Sogang, I’m really in great pain now, give me the medicine!”

Seeing that Lin Mo was ignoring him for half a day, Teng Shi began to kowtow to Lin Mo, and within a short while his forehead was oozing with beads of blood.

“Lord Sogang, say your demands quickly, I’ll grant you anything!”

“Take me to see Lord Envoy and let me take your place.”

After saying these words, Lin Mo ripped off his disguise mask.

“You’re actually not Sogang! Who are you? Where is Sogang?”

A shocked Teng Snake looked at Lin Mo’s new face incredulously.

“Who do you think I am?” Lin Mo asked rhetorically.

Teng Snake remembered what Lin Mo had said to him earlier, that a terrifying man in white had killed all of them and released those pregnant women

“So you are the man in white!”

Teng Snake had an epiphany, Sogang had probably been taken care of by the mysterious man in front of him long ago, and the next person he was going to deal with was himself!

This man in white could destroy a team of the Human Snake Organization with just one person's strength, and he could even develop his own God's Kiss to poison himself!

Such a man was far more powerful than himself, so he could only agree to his demands and bring him into the headquarters, and the envoy would naturally have a way to control him!

"I promise you everything, it's not a difficult task! Quickly give me the medicine!"

Lin Mo threw the potion to Teng Snakes, who immediately opened it and tried to drink it in one go.

"Save your drink, there's no stock left."

After hearing Lin Mo's words, Teng Snake only dared to drink a third of it, and then put the rest of the potion in his pocket as if it was precious.

At this point Lin Mo put Sogang's cheek on again, "I am still Captain Sogang now, got it?"

Teng Snakes nodded repeatedly, "Captain Sogang, I will take you to the headquarters to see the Lord Special Envoy, only to avoid drawing attention to ourselves, we can't drive, we have to work hard for you to walk."

Lin Mo said, "You just lead the way."

After the two of them passed through a very remote mountain forest, Teng Snakes led Lin Mo into a tunnel, at the end of which there was a very inconspicuous manhole cover, and after opening it there was actually a wide passage!

Entering the passage, Lin Mo used his sharper-than-usual sense of smell and smelled the overwhelming smell of blood

As the underground passage became brighter and the path wider, a barrier was set up at the end of the passage, with two members of the Human Snake organisation patrolling the chokepoint.

When they saw that the visitor was Captain Teng Serpent, they immediately became groveling.

"Captain Teng Snakes, you haven't come to the headquarters for a few days, the envoy has been talking about you every day."

"Are you all f*cking blind? Can't you see that Captain Sogang is behind you, open the door now!"

The two members of the patrol were stunned by Teng Serpent's sudden roar and hurriedly opened the door to the barrier.

"Captain Sogang, please come inside."

Teng Serpent respectfully stood by the barrier and made a gesture of invitation to Lin Mo.

The two members of the patrol were even more baffled, they were very confused as to why Teng Snakes would be so respectful to one of the most incompetent captains in the headquarters

The two members of the patrol were even more confused as to why Teng Shao was so respectful of the most incompetent captain of the headquarters.

The entire ground floor of the hall, despite its lavish decoration, does not feel high-end, but rather has a cheesy feel.

In particular, the ubiquitous human-snake symbols and wall paintings rendered an eerie atmosphere.

At this moment, Teng Serpent's drug addiction had returned, this time for a short time, just because he had only drunk a third of the bottle last time.

Seeing Teng Serpent shivering, he took the gla*s bottle out of his pocket and carefully drank half of the remaining potion before returning to his normal state.

Just as he was about to put it away again, Lin Mo quickly snatched away the little bit of God's Kiss that was left.

Teng Serpent bitterly begged Lin Mo to give the potion back to him.

"You'd better be honest and don't get any twisted ideas, or else you won't drink this last sip."

Lin Mo had long since seen through Teng Snake's little plan, he hadn't finished the potion because he wanted to bring it to the headquarters, so that the people there could research an antidote and thus get rid of his control.

Without the potion, Teng Snake had naturally become much more honest.

"Tell me the general situation of the headquarters."

Lin Mo gestured that he wanted to tour the headquarters and asked Teng Snake to be his guide, who obediently walked ahead to lead the way.

"The ground floor is the functional area, which mainly conducts various human trials and the research and development of strength enhancing pharmaceuticals."

Lin Mo saw that the place was divided into many areas, each with signs: human experimentation area, animal experimentation area, material screening area, reagent research and development centre, raw material storage room

It was really meticulously divided! Lin Mo looked at these experimental areas and hated them in his heart, how many people had lost their lives here

He hated to slaughter these labs right away, but he could not alarm the snakes, because his impulsive approach like this might hasten the death of some innocent lives.

It would also cause some of the Human Serpents to abscond, and that would not get rid of them all together and would only leave a legacy of trouble!

At that moment a lab technician in a white coat saw the two of them and came forward to greet them.

"Why did Captain Sogang come over, the batch of materials you found last time was too weak, it would be better to ask Captain Teng Snakes to find more good ones for you."

“If you can’t speak human, I can sew your mouth shut with a needle for you! Apologise to Captain Sogang at once!”

“Captain Teng Serpent, you’re taking this joke a bit too far.”

Seeing the snarling Teng Serpent, the experimenter thought he was joking with himself and laughed out loud in a hilarious manner himself first.

The experimenter’s mouth immediately drew blood and his eyes glazed over as he saw Teng Serpent slap the experimenter in the face.

“Who the hell is in the mood to joke with you, apologise now!”

Teng Serpent reiterated his demand once more.

How dare the experimenter mess with the red man in front of the envoy? He just saw him crawl on his a*s to Lin Mo’s feet and kowtow to make amends one after another!

“Captain Sogang, it was my cheap mouth that offended you, so please be noble and let me go.”

Lin Mo kicked away the experimenter at his feet, “Reward yourself with a hundred slaps, and remember not to bark in the future.”
