Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3761

"I decided to restore the wooden clock according to the incantation in my dream, and when I recited the incantation, a miraculous sight appeared!

The broken scales and hands of that wooden clock actually grew as vibrantly as a plant in the soil, without the slightest sense of incongruity, they were the original parts, even that degree of old workmanship was unmistakable

Since then, I have relied on the incantation given by my ancestor to restore a large number of precious relics and have often been invited to give lectures abroad."

Although this Qu Yutang speaks quite mysteriously, after talking for half a day, there is absolutely no answer that he wants.

"Can you not go off topic?"

"Brother Mo Lin, don't be in a hurry, if I don't pave the way in front, you won't understand it later."

Lin Mo held his forehead.

"That building on the fourth floor of the Human Snake Organisation's headquarters, just when I was about to complete the final step of the organ, the ancestor gave me a dream, saying that I shouldn't reveal my ancestral skills in this kind of Yin Qi resort that mutilates living beings, otherwise I would be greatly injured.

A curse was then placed to seal my organ, and I have not been able to break the spell."

"That means my blood broke the spell your ancestor had put on it to trigger the organ inside."

Qu Yu Tang nodded, "That should be the case."

"I didn't expect my blood to have this wonderful use, your ancestor is a bit old and stubborn, not knowing how to divide the time."

Qu Yutang at this time but a little afraid of Lin Mo, the ancestor's curse can be broken, this is what king level patriarch appeared

Lin Mo was ready to move to go to Ronald and tell him the news of the destruction of the snake organization, and to see Aniya and Zhan Amnesty by the way.

Fay and Qu Yutang yelled that they wanted to go over together.

"You should stay at the medical school for the time being, you just happen to give a hand to Boss Bai as a token of the gift of medicine, I think Boss Bai will be very happy."

Bai Ying listened and immediately answered, "Brother Molin has business to attend to, if it was a trip to the mountains he would definitely have brought you guys along.

Sister Fay, we met yesterday and had a good talk, and you have no family, so why don't we stay and be bosom friends with each other."

Seeing that Lin Mo was not interested in her and that Bai Ying treated her like a sister, Fay agreed to stay and help out at the medical school.

On the contrary, it was Qu Yutang who was reluctant.

"Brother Mo Lin, I'll go wherever you go, I won't go back to China either, I'll follow you."

"Good, since you don't want to be at the medical school, you can come with me."

After the group said goodbye to each other, they headed to Ronald's residence.

When the soldiers under Ronald saw Lin Mo, they all greeted him respectfully.

"Big brother, what exactly is your identity? I'm getting more and more confused."

"It's best if you don't know, otherwise you'll understand even less."

Qu Yu Tang finally cleared his mind.

Ronald learned of Lin Mo's return and immediately went forward to greet him personally.

"Brother Molin, I was just about to go look for you, and here you are, great!"

Hearing Ronald say this, Lin Mo felt that something was not right.

"Did something happen?"

Ronald's eyebrows knitted, come on, let's go back and talk.

When they reached the place where Ronald lived, Lin Mo followed them up to the villa, only to find that the atmosphere was low and the soldiers all looked worried.

"Why don't we see Anya and Zhan Pardon?" Lin Mo looked around.

"I'm just taking you to meet them."

When they reached Zhan Amnesty's nursery, Lin Mo saw that Ania was playing with Zhan Amnesty, but Zhan Amnesty was looking particularly strange.

A few months old baby should have clear and bright eyes and love to cry and laugh and move in a lively state, but Zhan Amnesty's eyes were hollow and blank, his face was blue and yellow, and no matter how much Aniya teased him with toys, he did not show any reaction or expression.

Lin Mo lifted up the little bib and saw that his belly was swollen and bulging, and he was twitching every now and then, which was very distressing.

This was clearly a bewitchment!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3762

“Compulsion? Who would be so vicious as to harm such a small baby!”

Ronald immediately called over all the nannies who were responsible for taking care of Zhan Pardon.

“You have to find a way to prove your innocence, here, you are the only ones who have direct access to the young master!”

Although Zhan Amnesty was the child Lin Mo had given to him for adoption, after these few months of living together, he felt that this child had come to join him.

Whenever he cried, as soon as Ronald took him into his arms, the little Zhan Amnesty would stop crying and giggle, very pleasing to Ronald’s heart.

But how much hatred Ronald had for such a beloved child, who had been so easily bewitched!

The nannies were all willing to guarantee with their lives that they would never harm the young master, only someone who wanted to die would dare to do that!

Lin Mo told Ronald to calm down his anger, the most important thing now was to break the witchcraft for Zhan Amnesty, once the witchcraft was broken, the person who cast the witchcraft would naturally reveal his true form.

Once Ronald heard this, he hurriedly asked Lin Mo to start the treatment.

Lin Mo used a silver needle to peep into Zhan Amnesty’s body, but the needle returned to Lin Mo’s hand, meaning that no compulsions were found in his body.

If there were no compulsions, there was only one scenario, a witch doll had been made!

Only by finding this witchcraft doll, which represented Zhan Amnesty, could Zhan Amnesty’s compulsion be broken.

Ronald ordered all the soldiers to search for it, even if they had to turn Block 12 upside down to find it!

“There’s no need to search that wide, the witchcraft doll is hidden in this villa, too far away and the compulsion will fail.”

Lin Mo told Ronald to narrow down the search.

As a result, the soldiers searched the villa three times but didn’t find any witchcraft dolls

At this moment, the cloth doll in Ania’s arms caught Lin Mo’s attention.

“Ania, will you show your rag doll to Papa Molin?”

Aniya handed it to Lin Mo in a good manner.

He saw Lin Mo unzip the zip on the back of the rag doll and pulled out a small wooden figure from inside.

The little wooden figure was carved to look very similar to Zhan Pardon’s, but in the shape of having his hands and feet tied up!

The head was glued with a few strands of Zhan Pardon's hair, the hands and feet were glued with nails that Zhan Pardon usually cut off, and the clothes were cut from one of Zhan Pardon's small belly pockets.

What was even more frightening was that black poisonous needles had been stuck in the little wooden man's eyes, chest, the soles of one pair of feet, the palms of his hands and the fontanel!

This was Little Zhan Pardon's witchcraft doll!

Lin Mo pulled the poisonous needles out of the doll, then ordered someone to light a fire pot and put the doll in it ready to burn it.

"It can't be burnt!"

At this time Qu Yutang stepped forward, and his words made everyone dumbfounded.

Wasn't it just a wooden doll? How could it not be burnt?

"Let my friend take a look, he's very knowledgeable about these woodworkers."

Having received Lin Mo's affirmation, Qu Yutang was very happy.

He looked at the witchcraft doll once and said, "The person behind the compulsion is very profound, this wooden doll has been cursed, if you can't get the spell undone, it can't be destroyed and the compulsion will continue to harm the young master."

"So what should we do now? How do I break the curse?"

Qu Yutang looked at Lin Mo, and Lin Mo knew then that he was using his own blood again.

"Look at the soles of the witch doll's feet." Lin Mo said to Qu Yutang.

Qu Yutang turned the doll over and looked at the bottom of the foot, a bright red smear of blood.

It turned out that Lin Mo had long since recognized the curse and had smeared the blood on the doll to break it.

"So you knew all about it!" Qu Yu Tang admired Lin Mo even more.

"Or you inspired me, even my blood can all break your ancestor's curse, a mere witchcraft doll is even easier."

Lin Mo said and threw the little wooden man into the fire bowl, which immediately crackled, and if one came closer, one could still hear a harsh scream if there was one!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3763

Lin Mo knew that it was the person who had put the parasite down that was enduring the flames, and that the doll was destroyed and the person who kept the parasite would also get the backlash.

"Woah woah woah"

At this moment, a loud and clear cry of milk fierce milk fierce came from the baby room.

Ronald, the old father, rushed in with a single bound.

"Mr. Ronald, the little young master is well! He's crying! And look at the tears!"

"Father, the younger brother is finally playing with Aniya!"

"And the little face is rosy! And his tummy isn't rising anymore!"

At this moment the people who were guarding Zhan Amnesty were all reporting the good news to Ronald!

Ronald gently picked up Zhan Amnesty, who immediately stopped crying and even stuck his tongue out at Ronald, how adorable it was

With that, Ronald handed Zhan Pardon to the nanny for a hug, and then squatted down in front of Aniya.

"Ania, my good daughter, please be honest with your father, how did you get a witch doll in your bear?"

Ronald tried to suppress his emotions and asked Aniya in a gentle tone, fearing to frighten her.

"Father, my doll's zip broke a few days ago, and the aunt who feeds my brother said to fix it for me, so I gave it to her, Aniya really didn't know that there was this little wooden man hidden inside to harm her brother"

Aniya cried out in anguish when she finished.

"Aniya really didn't know, father, I shouldn't have given my brother a rag doll to play with oooooooo"

Lin Mo was immediately distressed and went up to hug Aniya, allowing her snot and tears to wipe onto Lin Mo's white as snow robe.

"Aniya don't cry, Ronald father didn't blame you ah, he just wanted to ask you who hurt his brother. You are so brave to tell the real bad guy!"

Ryan, who was also distraught, loved Ania more than Zhan Pardon, as Mr Ronald had spent less time with Ania after he had Zhan Pardon.

"Go to Block 1 and find that mammy immediately!" The elegant Mr. Ronald's eyes were full of murderous intent at this moment.

"Doesn't Zhan Pardon drink milk powder? Since when did he have a milkmaid?" Lin Mo was puzzled.

"Brother Molin, don't laugh at me if I tell you, I heard from my sister-in-law that breast milk is more nutritious than formula milk and the child is less likely to get sick, so I found a nursemaid for Zhan Ami some time ago.

She had just given birth to her third child and had more milk than she could eat. The three children she had nursed were all strong and smart, so I thought I would give her breast milk to Zhan Ami.

But I didn't expect this to be a way to lure the wolf into the house!"

Lin Mo shook his head helplessly, what was suitable for her children was not necessarily suitable for Zhan Amnesty.

Within a short while, Ronald's men had captured the maiden, but it was a corpse.

Lin Mo ordered his men to cut open the skin of any part of the maiden's corpse, only to see that a fat compulsion crawled out from beneath the skin, and it was indeed a compulsion breeder! This was unacceptable to Ronald.

He told Lin Mo that she had been chosen not only for her breast milk, but also because her family was poor, with three children and a very incompetent husband.

So Ronald drove away the well-off maids and hired her to nurse Zhan Pardon, in a disguised attempt to provide relief to the family.

But to his surprise, instead of being grateful, the maid was jealous that her son was less fortunate than the child Ronald had found.

So she had the terrible idea of killing Zhan Amnesty and selling her son to Ronald.

Using the convenience of breastfeeding, she managed to collect Zhan Amnesty's hair and nails and made voodoo dolls to put into Aniya's rag dolls while she had the chance

Ronald was thinking that being too kind is not a good thing, but rather hurts one's loved ones!

"A more powerful person, with a soft spot will be easy to be caught, you are a good father."

Lin Mo's words made Ronald feel a lot more relieved.

Afterwards, Lin Mo took out the corpse-dissolving powder and poured it on top of the maiden's corpse, the writhing parasites then dissipated with the corpse in a wisp of white smoke.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3764

Lin Mo's appearance had defused the crisis for Ronald once again, and at the moment, with the witch doll incident being resolved, the entirety of the place had returned to a relaxed atmosphere.

As Ronald and the nannies hugged Zhan Pardon with delight, Aniya's little face looked a little resigned.

Although Ania loved her brother, she couldn't accept that her unique father had left her alone for a while.

All this was seen by Lin Mo, could it be that Ronald was a patriarchal guy?

"I'm going back to Block 13."

Hearing Lin Mo's words, Ronald finally handed over the baby in his arms to the nanny.

"Brother Molin, you just came and are leaving, why don't you stay longer."

"You are now number one in power in Block Twelve, the Human Snake Organisation has been destroyed, and you have added such a lovely son, life is considered complete."

"It's all thanks to Brother Maureen." Ronald's old face flushed.

Without Lin Mo, Ronald might have died from that serious injury, he really owed Lin Mo a lot of favours.

"You may have forgotten the purpose of my initial visit to Block 12."

Another hint of guilt passed through Ronald's eyes, "It's time to give Lan Yue an answer, then I'll go with you."

"No need, just let Ania go with me, after all, she is the one who is the real sister of Shi Lan Yue, now that she has found her real sister, she has the right to choose to leave or stay."

Lin Mo felt that after Ronald had Zhan Pardon, Aniya didn't seem as happy as before and wasn't too talkative.

"Aniya is slowly growing up, you are a big man with her, still not as convenient as your sister, no one to even talk to."

"Brother Molin, you have a point, but we still need to ask Aniya what she thinks."

Lin Mo nodded, "That's natural."

Ronald turned to ask Ania if she wanted to go back, only to find the little one sitting in a chair in the corner, head down while fiddling with her rag doll, not saying a word.

"Still thinking about what just happened? Father doesn't mean to blame you."

Ronald sensed Aniya's little mood, but for a moment was at a loss for comfort.

"Do you remember Father telling you before that you have a sister, and now that Papa Maureen has found her, do you want to go with Papa Maureen to find her?"

Aniya still didn't say anything.

"If you don't want to go, you can also stay here with father and see if your sister wants to come over."

After hearing this, Ania's little face turned red and she couldn't hold back her sobs any longer.

This howl startled Ronald into a state of confusion; he did speak too straight and was completely incapable of coaxing a girl.

"Father just doesn't like Aniya anymore and prefers her brother! Anya stop fighting with her brother for her father, I want to go to my sister!"

Aniya said, jumped straight into Lin Mo's arms, no longer looking back at Ronald, her little pink head on Lin Mo's shoulder, her body jerking because of crying, it was really unbearable to the heart.

"Aniya, are you sure you want to go to your sister? What if Father Ronald misses you?"

Lin Mo patted Ania's small shoulders once or twice and asked carefully.

“Father already has a brother he likes better, but my sister only has me.”

“Good, then Papa Maureen will take you to your sister.”

Ronald finally realized that Aniya’s real emotion was not on the witch doll incident, but on Zhan Amnesty, the little girl turned out to be jealous of her brother

Because Zhan Amnesty was still young, he had indeed put most of his focus after work on Zhan Amnesty during this period of time, thus neglecting Aniya’s feelings.

Aniya’s dissatisfaction has been building up for a long time, and this witchcraft doll incident was just a trigger.

Just now, she had said that she would send her to her sister, so it was strange that Aniya would not be upset.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3765

“Ania, father should not have neglected your feelings, I apologise, will you forgive father? I will spend more time with you in the future.”

But Aniya still ignored Ronald, at this time Zhan Amnesty cried again, Ronald himself was coaxing Aniya, heard the cry and went to hug Zhan Amnesty again

Ryan on the side looked at all straight shaking his head, “Mr. elegant and wise in his life, but only can not coax a girl.”

“Papa Maureen, let’s go find our sister, Father Ronald is just too busy.”

Ania’s words carried a deep sense of loss.

Ronald ran to coax Aniya again while coaxing Zhan Pardon, at this moment Mr. Elegance, was very wretched.

“Ronald, you go ahead and get busy, I’ll take Aniya first.”

“Alright then, Brother Molin, Aniya is counting on you, it’s good to go out for a break, I’ll have my subordinates pack Aniya’s luggage.

Also, when you see Lan Yue, say sorry to her for me, I hope she can bring Aniya to settle in Block 12

Lin Mo nodded, “Don’t worry, I’ll take your words with me.”

Ryan drove Aniya and Lin Mo and Qu Yu Tang to the pier in Block Twelve.

“Ania, you have to miss brother Ryan everyday oh.”

Ania nodded, although Ania was angry with Ronald at the moment, it was almost always Ryan who kept Ania company during this time, and she certainly couldn’t leave Ryan.

Just when it was hard to part with this small and large group, another car drove up to the pier and from it came a quick and capable man.

Lin Mo took a good look and saw that it was Rosenthal, the leader of all Ryan's men.

He saw Rosenthal walking quickly towards Ryan, carrying several packages.

"What are you doing here, are you going with Maureen?"

"Report boss, Ronald first life I must come to inform, he really can't worry about Miss Ania, let you accompany Miss to the 13th block, these are your luggage"

Rosenthal finished panting what Ronald had handed over and looked at Ryan again.

"I'm afraid sir's fears are superfluous, with Maureen around, who could harm Aniya."

Rosenthal said, "Boss, I have a feeling Sir means for you to take Aniya and her sister back to live with you."

"You're the only one who knows, you think I can't guess, go go go, give me the luggage."

Ryan took the luggage and shooed Rosenthal away in disgust.

Rosenthal's nickname was "The Wise Man", but Ryan didn't want Rosenthal to show his talents in front of him, especially in front of Lin Mo and Aniya, that would make him look stupid.

"Let's go."

The group of four boarded the boat at the docks and began their journey to Block 13.

On the way, Ania was not in a very good mood, going outside the boat every now and then to look in the direction of Block Twelve.

"Does she miss her father?"

Lin Mo stepped out of the cabin and saw Aniya's despondent back.

Ania hesitated for a moment, but still nodded her head.

"Not angry with him anymore?"

"Not angry anymore, Papa Maureen, will Father Ronald think that Aniya doesn't know any better."

"Of course not, he was the one who did wrong, he shouldn't have left our Aniya out in the cold, we left him, even if it was a small punishment."

"But Ronald father is really tired ah, he is busy so late every day and still not sleeping, and his brother loves to cry and insists on father holding him, father will not have time for me"

"Then he shouldn't have ignored your feelings so much."

"I should be considerate of father, he is very busy but every day he has the cook cook cook my favourite fish and send me lots of toys, it's just that I still wish I could cling to father like I used to."

Lin Mo thought to himself, "Aniya has really grown up, he is defending Aniya, but the little one keeps "excusing" Ronald's crimes.

How can there be a father-daughter feud?

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3766

The boat gradually docked at Pier 13.

The person in charge of the pier wanted to check their pa*ses, but no one had had time to do so.

Lin Mo told them that there was no need to rush, he had a solution. He only saw Lin Mo take out a parcel and felt around inside for quite a while and fished out a token similar to a bronze medal.

As soon as the head of the pier saw the token, he immediately had the other soldiers line up to welcome it.

“Welcome back Mr. Molin!”

Seeing such a huge formation, Ryan and Qu Yu Tang were stunned, only Ania and Lin Mo looked bashful and unperturbed.

“Dad, I want to go and visit Yue Yue.”

“Okay, we’re on our way.”

And at that moment Ryan and Qu Yutang followed Aniya, constantly asking after what had happened earlier.

With a proud face, Aniya told them about Lin Mo helping Block 13’s escort captain, Qin Men.

“Escort captain, that’s the number one power in Block 13, it’s equivalent to Ronald’s position in Block 12, but in Block 13, since it’s a black market block, it’s still rather chaotic and difficult to govern at the moment.”

Ryan explained the blocks to Qu Yu Tang, as Qu Yu Tang had been imprisoned by the Human Snake Organisation for two years and had no idea of the current situation of the various blocks on Death Island.

“Brother Molin, you are really great, right Ryan I will tell you again how Brother Molin overthrew the Human Snake Organization”

These two goods, just now in the boat or who ignore who, now once mention themselves, the two began to tell each other stories.

When they arrived at the jurisdiction of the block escort, Maureen was treated with uniform courtesy by those soldiers.

Ryan bluntly exclaimed that following Lin Mo out now was a bigger platitude than following Mr Ronald out!

Captain Qin Men received the soldiers’ notice and immediately brought his daughter Yue Yue to greet Lin Mo.

The two lines were extraordinarily happy to meet, especially the two little sisters, holding hands and chatting non-stop.

“Molin, are you going to buy something in Block 13 this time?”

“To meet someone.”

“Just not to buy something, a lot of the shops in the black market are not peaceful these days, the various forces are about to intensify, as long as they don’t mess with me, I’m not going to meddle in those matters.”

Qin Men looked at Yue Yue in a doting manner, a look of unconcern with the world.

Lin Mo thought to himself, I wonder how Shi Lan Yue from Shop 403 is doing, I hope she is alright, otherwise there would be no way for Aniya to be housed.

At this time, Qinmen’s men delivered four pa*s*s and handed them to Lin Mo.

“Molin, I won’t pry into exactly what you’re going to do, but where you need me, just say so.

If you go to a place that is not under my jurisdiction, I may not be able to use my token, and if you go to buy it again, those black people will raise the price a lot.”

Accepting the pa*s, Lin Mo remembered that when he first came to Block 13 at that time, he was targeted by that black merchant, Morton.

After thanking Qin Meng, Lin Mo led a group of people away from the escort and headed for the Shop 403 Novice Mall.

On this road, filled with the shouts of various merchants, Lin Mo walked forward unfazed.

When he reached the Novice Mall, Lin Mo once again saw the large plaque, as well as the dusty doorway and the old, yellowing curtain.

Only this time the curtain had fallen off at a corner, but no one had reordered it.

Lin Mo thought that this was the reason why there were still very few newcomers to Death Island, so Shi Lan Yue didn’t even bother to repair the door curtain.

Only after entering did he realise that shop 403, where the door was like two worlds before, was now covered in dust even on the inside of the door.

The books on the solid wood shelves were in disarray, the spiders covered with them were clearly visible, a layer of dust had fallen on the floor, and the tables and chairs were all thrown in confusion, as if no one had lived there for a long time.

Had Shi Lan Yue moved out?

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3767

Or is something wrong?

“Daddy, isn’t my sister here?”

Ania fluttered her big eyes and asked Lin Mo with a puzzled expression.

“Maureen, are you misremembering?” Ryan asked again.

“No, something should have happened.”

Lin Mo looked through the books on the shelf, trying to find some clues from them.

A book titled “The Development of Block 13” was picked up by Lin Mo, dusting off the dust on it, Lin Mo flipped straight to the last page with the contents written on it.

“At 3pm on the 9th of July, Hong Gao Yi, the leader of the Southern Gang in the Eastern Block, forcibly acquired 129 shops on Street 4, sparking discontent from the forces behind the various shops and further intensifying the conflict.”

This was the last piece of information recorded by Shi Lan Yue, but it was already the 24th of July, half a month had pa*sed.

Thinking again of the words that Qinmen had explained to himself, the shops in the black market had not been peaceful recently, and various forces were stirring.

Could it be that this Southern Gang’s Hong Gao Yi in the eastern neighbourhood had something to do with the disappearance of Shi Lan Yue?

“Brother Molin, long time no see.”

A familiar voice came in through the door, and Lin Mo moved his eyes out of his book to see a chubby man standing in the doorway.

“Morton, it’s you.”

“I was just pa*sing by and heard the sound of talking coming from Shop 403, so I came in to take a look, after all, there hasn’t been anyone here for a long time, and you’re not exactly a newcomer, so why did you come to this newbie mall again?”

“I’m looking for the owner of this shop, something came up, do you know where she’s gone?”

Morton immediately gestured, “Go in and talk.”

When we got inside Morton’s eyes turned “Maureen, as you know, it’s not easy for me to get hold of some information, sometimes it may not even save my life, although you are my old customer, also more or less mean.”

The company is really a famous black businessman here, never forget to make a fortune at any time.

“You’ll get less, you just need to tell us the information, the more detailed the better.” Lin Mo flung out a bold statement.

Upon hearing this, Morton’s heart was overjoyed and he immediately began to explain to the group.

“The recent situation in the black market shops is turbulent, mainly because the two big forces, the Southern Gang in the eastern block and the Conscience People’s Chamber of Commerce in the western block, are fighting more fiercely.

Since the former 20th street in the block has always been a more prosperous area and there is no traction from the big powers, many people want to swallow this piece of fat meat into their mouths.

The shops here are not unified, but they have been operating independently for many years and are more or less dependent on a number of bad masters behind them, so it is more difficult for them, the big powers, to regain unity.

They can only go one by one, and whoever gets it will be the one who gets it. Ten days ago, Hong Gao Yi, the leader of the Southern Gang, took a fancy to the female owner of novice shop number 403, not only for her beauty of course, but also for her wealth and the thinness of the forces behind her.”

Lin Mo paused for a moment, it was really related to what Shi Lan Yue had recorded, first the compulsory acquisition of Block 4 shops, and within a few days the idea was set on Street 1.

Morton continued, “Hong Gao Yi wanted to acquire shop 404, this female boss naturally refused to do so, and even wanted to kill Hong Gao Yi by herself, I know she has been in the neighbourhood for so many years, of course she has some strength in her body.

But after all, she was outnumbered and was still taken captive by that group of old perverts, so the shop is now what you see.”

Seeing Lin Mo’s thoughtful look after listening, Morton didn’t interrupt and ran straight to Ryan.

“Forty thousand maple leaf coins please.”

Ryan was confused, you’re selling this on word count, right?

Qu Yu Tang directly disliked Morton: “You are too black-hearted, four hundred at most.”

“Young man I see it’s your first time back in Block 13, learn more from Brother Morin and you’ll see why I’m asking such a high price.”

Seeing that the two men didn’t seem to want to pay, Morton ran to Lin Mo again and shamelessly held out a fat hand.

“What you want is indeed expensive, only 10,000, take it for what you like.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3768

“Molin, that’s unethical of you, I’ve worked so hard to bring you so much information and you don’t want to pay after listening to it, if it wasn’t for the fact that we know each other, I would have made you pay the 20,000 trial fee first.”

Knowing that Lin Mo was not short of money, Morton tried to raise the price to soften things up a bit.

“Tell me, is this information you just mentioned really worth that much? I already knew at least half of your information before you came.”

Although Lin Mo wasn’t short of money, he wouldn’t let Morton fool himself like a fool either.

Morton blushed vaguely, then added, "It's true that the information isn't that valuable, but there are so many of you! Even if it's 10,000 for each of you, 40,000 is still the cost price, and I'm not making any money."

"She's just a child, she can't understand what you're saying, and these two, they're deaf, so it's reasonable for me to pay you only 10,000."

"You're the one who's deaf!" Ryan and Qu Yutang inwardly spat at Lin Mo like crazy.

Lin Mo took out a pile of green Maple Leaf coins and put them into Morton's hand, his eyes signalling for everyone to leave quickly.

The group quickly left the newbie mall, Morton drifted off and chased after them again, "Ten thousand, just ten thousand, do you guys need pa*s'es? It's only five thousand a head"

After getting rid of Morton's pestering, the group set off for the South Gang in the eastern block, the next step was to rescue Shi Lan Yue.

When they reached the entrance to the South Gang, the guards on patrol checked their pa*s'es and let them in.

Just as they arrived at the residence of that Hong Gao Yi, they saw a group of people gathered in front of the gate, seemingly watching something rare.

They parted the crowd and pushed their way to the front to find a woman lying on the ground in front of the door, her long hair dishevelled and covering her face, making it impossible to see her face.

The clothes on her body were torn to pieces, revealing large swathes of snow-white skin covered in bruises and scars.

"This woman really doesn't know what's good for her, it's her good fortune to be seen by Master Hong, and this is what happens when you resist."

"I wonder how many people have played with her and still pretending to be noble, but this figure is really good"

Two thieving men off to the side stared wistfully at the already unconscious woman on the ground, while no one around them went to her aid.

"Maureen, should we go and have a look."

"One more thing is better than less, I guess this woman is indeed of low status."

"Yutang, I think you are just timid and afraid."

"Ryan, you go and see for yourself, don't drag Brother Molin along."

Quyutang and Ryan began to have another tongue-lashing, and Ania all but covered her ears.

At that moment the door opened and a butler came out from inside, "Whoever takes a fancy will take her away, those who don't will disperse, don't gather around the door and disturb the gang master's rest."

Those onlookers had all dispersed by now, leaving only Lin Mo and his party and the two thieving men from earlier.

“Let’s go, let’s carry her to the nearby woods, we’ll take this advantage as brothers.”

Those two men were about to carry the woman on the ground away, but they were blocked by Lin Mo in front of them.

“Yo, even a dying woman is being robbed by our brothers, interesting, brother, beat him up!”

When the two men saw Lin Mo’s block, they tried to go forward to fight, but before they could do so, one had a knife put to his neck by Qu Yutang, and the other had a gun put to his back by Ryan.

“Grandpas have mercy, our brothers will just let you have it!” The two men immediately cried out in surrender.

“Don’t get lost yet.” Lin Mo drove the two punks away.

Lin Mo leaned down and crouched to the ground, ruffled the long, messy hair on the woman’s forehead, and his eyes suddenly trembled.

Several people immediately found a car and sent the badly injured Shi Lan Yue back.

When they arrived at the shop, Lin Mo asked them to change Shi Lan Yue’s clothes and clean her wounds, but the two big men didn’t move.

Lin Mo understood the principle of “don’t look at me unless I’m polite”, but he was a married man, so he could never go against morality!

“Ryan, you go, I haven’t married my wife yet, what’s this all about.”

Quyutang threw the trouble at Ryan, not expecting Ryan to run straight away!

As he ran he even shouted, “Hurry up Yutang, I’ll go and get you some hot water and clothes.”

Qu Yu Tang was helpless, looking at Lin Mo, who had carried her back over, and the still young ah Nia, so he had to start doing it.

Shilan Yue’s lips were pale and her brow was furrowed, although her appearance was now unpleasant, it did not detract from her beauty in any way, her snow white neck was all but purple, one could see the violence of the other.

Ryan brought in hot water and clothes and locked Qu Yutang and Shi Lan Yue in the house so that he could clean them properly.

With apologies on his lips, Quyutang took off the pieces of clothing that could no longer be called clothes, and when his skin was exposed to Quyutang, he shuddered.

A beautiful body was certainly very attractive, but the bloodstains on her body were even more shocking.

Little by little, Qu Yutang scrubbed the dirt and blood off Shi Lan Yue's body with a towel, and carefully changed her into clean clothes, and thoughtfully tidied up her long, dishevelled hair.

After some tidying up, Shi Lan Yue was much more presentable, but it was Qu Yu Tang who took advantage of herself and was still shy.

Lin Mo walked into the room with Ania and Ryan and saw Qu Yutang standing by with a red face.

"What are you doing? Drinking?"

Ryan stared lustfully at Qu Yutang.

Qu Yu Tang covered his burning face and hurriedly tried to walk away, "I'm just so tired, I'm going to go wash my face"

Only after walking out of the room did Qu Yutang realize, after the fact, what he had just said this explanation might as well shut up

"Daddy, is this sister? She looks badly injured, dad you quickly save her."

Shi Lan Yue is now no different from a stranger to Aniya, when they were separated, Aniya was young and had little memory, so for the current Shi Lan Yue, Aniya is also unable to get close to her.

"This is your real sister, Shi Lan Yue."

Through his pulse probing, Lin Mo found that Shi Lan Yue's body had multiple broken tendons and veins, and there were countless whip marks on her body, but these whip marks were obviously not ordinary whip marks, but some kind of poison had been added to the whip before it was used to beat Shi Lan Yue.

So the wounds on her body could not heal at all, and black blood was constantly leaking outwards.

The petechiae on her body even made Lin Mo's eyes get serious, "These petechiae"

"Brother Molin, aren't these bruises from that bd?" Qu Yu Tang said indignantly at this point.

"No, this is a sign of blood cancer."

Qu Yutang was shocked, although he didn't understand what blood cancer was, but could it be any minor illness if it was related to the word cancer?

"That means that Shi Lan Yue was not defiled by Hong Gao Yi, the purple on her neck is due to blood cancer."

"Yes." Lin Mo nodded to Ryan.

Hearing the two words Lin Mo caused Qu Yu Tang to breathe a long sigh of relief.

"Brother Mo Lin, your medical skills are out of this world, save her quickly!"

Qu Yutang seemed to be very worried about Shi Lan Yue and his eyes never left her.

“Cancer is a disease that all healers are helpless to do anything about, right now, although my rejuvenation pills can treat three types of cancer, namely stomach, liver and lung cancer, I am not too sure about blood cancer.”

After hearing Lin Mo’s words, everyone panicked, even Divine Doctor Molin couldn’t cure it, so it was really a matter of life and death

Aniya, on the other hand, ran next to Shi Lan Yue and pulled Shi Lan Yue’s white and slender fingers with her small hand.

“Sister, do you still remember Ania? Open your eyes quickly and look at me

This scene was really good for crying, the atmosphere at the scene became very heavy because of Shi Lan Yue’s condition.

“Maureen, why did she suffer from cancer when she was fine?” Ryan wondered.

“See the whip marks on her body? The whip that hit her was poisoned, and the poison entered her bloodstream with the wound, severing all the tendons and veins in her body and basically losing her blood production function.

What’s most dangerous is that she’s still bleeding constantly, she’ll be severely anaemic at this rate.”

“Then why do so many petechiae form?”

“The biggest characteristic of blood cancer is that the body bleeds from multiple organs, and the wounds do not recover easily. Look under each petechiae, there is a bleeding point, and if the bleeding is not stopped in time, the petechiae will get bigger and bigger.”

Ryan shook his head helplessly as he listened, he didn’t care, it was Aniya who should be sad and upset again.

She had just been reunited with her sister and she was incurably ill.

“Brother Molin, you are a miracle doctor, is there really no way out?”

Qu Yu Tang asked Lin Mo eagerly, wanting a definite answer.

“There is a way, but I need to wait a few days for my kung fu to improve a bit more.”

Lin Mo naturally had a way to treat Shi Lan Yue, it was just that he hadn’t practiced the healing arts in his jade pendant for a long time, and every time he moved up a level it became more and more time consuming and labor intensive.

He himself felt that his current medical skills were already able to save more than ninety-five percent of the diseases in the world, so he did not continue to cultivate the Creation Dictate.

But right now, it was impossible to watch Shi Lan Yue die from blood loss, so Lin Mo decided to close down and cultivate in the shortest possible time to break through this level of the Dharma of Creation and improve his natural ability to practice medicine.

Lin Mo broke open Shi Lan Yue's mouth and put in a Great Returning Element Pill.

"This Great Returning Essence Pill can create blood quickly, but as she is still bleeding continuously, it can only temporarily hang on to her life, probably until I come out of seclusion.

I'll give you a few more in addition, so you can observe the situation and feed it to her."

"Maureen, you have to be careful too, don't go off the deep end."

Although Ryan's mouth was joking, he couldn't hide the worry that filled his face.

"Brother Molin, be careful in all things!" Qu Yu Tang echoed.

Lin Mo then found a secluded room and began to cultivate, while the others were responsible for watching over Shi Lan Yue.

Lin Mo sat cross-legged, operating his dantian, his true qi began to flow within his body, and when he lifted his qi again, he was already surging with qi and blood!

Within his body, the Creation Absolute, aided by the Prosperity Sutra, began to rise up with a dense spiritual qi, moistening every tissue of his body.

By the time the spiritual qi had flowed for ninety-nine cycles, Lin Mo felt that his strength had become even more attentive, as if he was about to break through to this level of creation.

"Ninety-nine to one, open!"

Lin Mo's brain opened the medical masterpieces in the jade pendant and presented them one by one, and he indeed searched for a treatment related to blood cancer.

It was just that this treatment method still needed a few more days of cultivation before it could be fully mastered.

.....

Shop 403.

Three days later, Shi Lan Yue began to vomit blood heavily, and her situation was very unpromising. Qu Yu Tang immediately fed her a Great Returning Element Pill, and only then did she stop vomiting blood.

However, the wounds on her body continued to ooze black poisonous blood, and Qu Yutang stayed by her side every step of the way, constantly cleaning the bruises and preventing the wounds from becoming infected.

Every day he would change her into a clean set of clothes. Compared to the first time when he was nervous and shy, now Qu Yutang was already as skilled as if he was changing his own clothes.

Ryan, who had known this for a long time, just didn't pick on it, and often took Aniya outside to play and create space for the two of them to be alone.

“Ryan, Lan Yue is spitting up blood again! Quickly go get me a rejuvenating pill!”

Hearing Qu Yutang’s urgent call, Ryan immediately sent the Returning Yuan Dan in his arms into the room.

“I believe in Brother Molin, he is my idol, he will definitely be able to break through himself and save Lan Yue!”

Shi Lan Yue’s face was white, the petechiae on her body were getting bigger and bigger, and she looked lifeless

But one could only wait, there was no other way.

Lin Mo was practicing the last therapy at this time, his body was like a blazing fire burning, and like cold ice sealing his heart, under the alternating test of extreme yin and extreme yang, his forehead was already covered with fine beads of sweat.
