Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3801

The waiter opened the wine cabinet and was about to put in the half summer wine, but his hand slipped and fell into the floor, shattering the gla*s bottle!

Dr. Hui Chun was also shocked by the crunching sound and sat up from his seat.

The medicinal wine inside was spilled all over the floor, and the waiter hurriedly admitted his fault to Lin Mo.

As the smell of the half summer wine evaporated, Lin Mo detected a hint of discord in it.

Just as the waiter brought in his cleaning tools to clean up the floor, Lin Mo stopped it.

“Could he have smelled it? It can’t be .....” Dr. Hui Chun’s forehead had begun to sweat.

“Where is Curator Liu? Where did this batch of herbs for the half summer wine come in from?”

Lin Mo’s eyes were slightly cold.

Curator Liu immediately ran over in a panic, his breathing all starting to tighten.

Just this once he hadn’t followed up on the herbs, had something gone wrong?

“Boss Mo, our herbal supplies have always been from Hui Chun Hall, there has never been a problem, is something wrong?”

Curator Liu asked Lin Mo in fear and honesty.

“Did you follow up on the incoming shipment of this batch of herbs?”

“I went to ..... but I left early because I had a temporary emergency, and that Hui Chun physician said he would personally deliver it to the tavern.”

Curator Liu did not dare to lie, he knew what would happen if he deceived Lin Mo.

“Boss Mo, the Hui Chun physician is dining at our tavern, if you have any questions you can ask him directly.”

At this moment a very discerning waiter ran to tell Lin Mo.

Everyone’s eyes gathered on Dr. Hui Chun, who was eating in a corner.

Physician Hui Chun put on a calm face and walked towards this Lin Mo.

“Boss Mo, did you find any problems? I think you are very clear about the quality of my Hui Chun Hall’s medicinal materials.”

Lin Mo said with a smile, “There is certainly nothing wrong with the medicinal materials.”

Dr. Hui Chun was relieved, “I told you so.”

But in his heart, he was thinking, “This Boss Mo’s medical skills are no better than that, he is not as high as his own realm, so he was only a blind cat that met a dead rat when he was able to cure the Tang patriarch’s cough disease.

“Only, no matter how good the herbs are, if you put them in the wrong place, they can harm people’s lives.”

Physician Hui Chun, who was secretly pleased with himself one second ago, had his legs go weak after hearing Lin Mo’s words.

“Boss Mo, what do you mean by that, does it mean that I have given you the wrong medicine for this half summer wine?”

“Or what?”

“Boss Mo, everything is about evidence, now that the wine has been made, how can you be sure that I put in the wrong herbs and not Mo’s Tavern’s wine is faulty?”

Lin Mo knew that this Hui Chun physician would pin the problem on the wine.

“Bring over the backup herbs for this batch of Half-Summer Wine!”

Backup herbs? Hadn’t they all been produced already?

Only to see the pharmacist in charge of producing the Half Summer Wine elixir placing a complete copy of the herbs in front of the crowd!

“Customers, the original purpose of producing Mo’s Half Summer Wine was to help more people cure their coughs, so we are very strict in the selection of the herbs we treat.

Every time before production, we keep a sample of the herbs, just in case something goes wrong, so that we can find the root of the problem in time.”

The tavern guests applauded for Lin Mo after hearing this.

“This half summer wine is very good for us to drink, and it’s usually quite good as a drink to moisten our throats, and now we are even more relieved to learn that Boss Mo has taken such care in its production.”

A loyal fan of Mo’s Tavern did not mince words in praising Lin Mo.

Physician Hui Chun mentally reas*ured himself, “What’s the harm in keeping a backup? There’s still no way to give everyone an explanation if you can’t distinguish Tannenbaum.”

“Boss Mo, although you kept a backup, I prepared these herbs according to the recipe you gave me, and there is clearly nothing wrong with them.”

“Physician Hui Chun, take a good look at this medicinal herbs again, is there really no problem?”

Lin Mo had been giving Physician Hui Chun a chance, as long as he told the truth in front of everyone that he had misplaced the herbs, then Lin Mo could spare him for a while.

If he still continued to frame Mo’s Tavern, then Lin Mo would not forgive him lightly.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3802

“Of course there’s no problem, I’ve been running Hui Chun Hall for so many years, how could I not even be able to prepare a single herbal prescription! Boss Mo, you can’t accuse me wrongly!”

Sure enough, Lin Mo had no choice but to pick up one of the herbs and question the Hui Chun practitioner.

“I did not add tian nan xing to my prescription, why does Physician Hui Chun treat your Excellency as a fool, thinking that I cannot even distinguish between tian nan xing and half asia?”

Hearing this, everyone was in an uproar.

“Physician Hui Chun has actually replaced the Half-Hsia in the prescription with Tian Nan Xing?”

Curator Liu immediately grabbed Physician Hui Chun’s lapel, “So you deliberately said those words to me in order to get me to leave so that you could take advantage of the opportunity to make a move in the prescription!”

“So what if it’s Nan Tian Xing instead, these two herbs have the same medicinal properties, and drinking them won’t kill anyone, you have no reason to question me.

Besides, these two herbs are extremely similar, so it’s understandable that I would get it wrong once in a while after so many years.”

Physician Hui Chun was still unrepentant after being exposed by Lin Mo, and was still trying to find excuses to clear his name.

“As a pharmacist, don’t you know that Nan Tian Xing and the White Herb in the recipe have conflicting medicinal properties? Drinking this recipe’s half-sugar wine for a long time will not only fail to cure coughing, but will also lead to a deficiency of both qi and blood and paralysis in bed.

I see that you are not old and blind, but deliberately plotting to harm the customers of this tavern of mine!”

Fortunately, Lin Mo had discovered the problem with this batch of medicinal wine in time, otherwise they would have been unlucky themselves.

At the same time, Dr. Hui Chun was also scolded by the crowd.

“Doctor Hui Chun, you are not only a quack but also a black-hearted doctor, close your business now!”

“How dare you want to kill me? I’ll kill you first!”

One grumpy customer heard the reason and picked up a bottle of faulty half summer wine and smashed it at Dr Hui Chun’s head!

Some other guests, poured those half summer wine into his mouth.

“How dare you try to harm us? Try a few bottles yourself first!”

Before Lin Mo could take a shot at teaching Physician Hui Chun a lesson, he was being tortured to death by his own tavern's customers!

By the time the tavern patrons had finished venting their anger and left, Physician Hui Chun was already bleeding from his head and dying.

"Evil people have their own retribution. Curator Liu, never listen to slanderous words again."

Curator Liu knew he had made a mistake and took it upon himself to reward himself with a few slaps on the face.

This time, it was fortunate that Lin Mo had discovered it in time, if all these medicinal wines had been sold, how many forces in Block 3 would he have offended!

It would not be enough to die ten thousand times!

The medicinal herbs of Hui Chun Tang could no longer be used, but the Half Summer Wine would continue to be produced.

It was just that Lin Mo could not find a bigger supplier of herbs than Hui Chun Tang for the time being, and it was not possible to go up to the mountains to pick them.

And Lin Mo also planned to continue to expand the scale of the tavern hotel, the medicinal wine products were the pillar industry, and when the hotel turned back to add related health care items, the demand for medicinal herbs would be very large.

"Boss Mo, perhaps Patriarch Tang can help us."

Only to see Curator Liu with a pig face that was red and swollen from his own slapping, he cautiously told Lin Mo.

Lin Mo fished out the Black Diamond card that Tang Yuanzheng had given himself and decided to prepare to go ahead and pay a visit.

When he arrived at the Tang family estate, he saw that there were guards standing outside the gate patrolling all over the place. The estate was so vast that Lin Mo could not estimate the real area inside just by looking through the front door.

When he reached the gate of the estate, a guard immediately stopped Lin Mo.

"This is the Tang family estate, may I ask if your guest has an appointment?"

Lin Mo shook his head, "No appointment has been made."

"Then you cannot be released, please return."

Lin Mo had to take out his Black Diamond Card and hand it to the guard.

"This is the Black Vajra card given to me by the Tang Clan Chief, it says that I can freely enter and leave the manor without an appointment."

As a result, the guard saw the Black Diamond Card and threw it directly to Lin Mo on the ground.

“I’ve been on duty here for a week, all the distinguished guests who come to see Clan Chief Tang come with a gold VIP card in hand, I’ve never seen this card of yours before, you didn’t make it yourself to meet the Clan Chief, did you?”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3803

The guard’s face was full of sneers and mockery.

“Please pass the word that Mo Lin of Mo’s Tavern has something to ask for the help of Clan Chief Tang.”

“Once a person becomes famous, there are more impostors, how do you prove that you are Boss Mo? With that imposter card in your hand?”

The guards still wouldn’t open the door for Lin Mo.

“Who is making noise outside the door? It’s disturbing the patriarch’s rest.”

A slightly older man came out from inside the manor, and when the guard saw him he immediately addressed him respectfully, “Steward Tang.”

“What’s going on?” Butler Tang asked.

“Butler, this hairy kid wanted to see the Tang patriarch, he asked for an appointment without an appointment, he asked for a card without a card, and he said he was the boss of that newly promoted power, Mo, who believed it? I’ll teach him a lesson.”

The Tang steward looked at Lin Mo, and as he himself had not yet been to Mo’s tavern, he did not recognise him either.

“This young man, if you have a reservation card, it will allow you to enter the manor, as for idle people, the Tang patriarch really doesn’t have the energy to receive them, so please go back.”

“May I ask if I can see the patriarch with this card?”

Lin Mo once again handed the Black Diamond Card in his hand to the Tang butler.

When Butler Tang took it and looked at it, the pupils of his two eyes instantly dilated!

He carefully turned it over and over, looking at it and touching it, trying to find a flaw in the card, but this was the Black Diamond Card that really couldn’t be any more real!

“Butler, you don’t need to look, it’s a fake card, our manor’s VIPs are all gold cards!”

Slap, slap, slap!

A loud slap on the guard’s face, blood immediately flowed from the corner of the guard’s mouth!

“Butler what are you hitting me for?”

“Quickly kneel down for Boss Mo!”

Housekeeper Tang pulled the guard to his knees at Lin Mo’s feet!

At this point the other guards who were on patrol saw Butler Tang kneeling to Lin Mo, and all followed suit, kneeling to Lin Mo.

Although they didn't know what was happening yet, since Butler Tang had knelt down, they thought it must be some extremely honourable guest.

The guard who had been slapped by the butler was still dumbfounded.

"Boss Mo, it's all my fault for not disciplining him properly, this guy has only been on duty at the manor for a week, he has never even heard of the Black Diamond Card, and now that he has bumped into you, he is at your disposal!"

Housekeeper Tang asked Lin Mo for punishment in a low voice.

"Butler, what the hell is the origin of this Black Diamond Card! Even you have to kneel down to him?"

The guard covered his face, which was slapped red, with a puzzled expression.

"The Black Vajra Card is the highest ranking VIP card of the Tang Family Estate, the owner of this card can freely enter and leave the Tang Family Estate, and is on an equal footing with the Tang Clan Chief, the most honoured guest of the Tang Clan Chief!

At present, there are only three Black Diamond cards, and the patriarch only said that he had given them to a gentleman called Mo Lin.

Fear dripped from the eyes of Butler Tang as he uttered these words.

Immediately upon hearing this, the guard thumped his head three times!

"Boss Mo, spare my life, I'll go open the door for you right away!"

The guard was rolling and crawling to open the door for Lin Mo, but he was kicked away by Butler Tang!

"You just said such treacherous words, and now you are worthy to open the door for Boss Mo? Get the hell out of the Tang Family Zhuang Yuan, you don't deserve to stay in this position!"

Having blown away the guard, Housekeeper Tang respectfully went forward to open the door for Lin Mo.

"Please come in, Boss Mo, the Tang patriarch is resting in the garden, I'm sure he'll be very happy to see you!"

Lin Mo followed the guidance of the housekeeper to the manor, and saw that the manor was very elegant, the various green plants were not built into various shapes by the gardeners, but grew naturally, quite wild and beautiful!

A huge fountain in the centre resembles a crystal curtain, with a magnificent shape!

A few marble seats and benches are placed randomly on the neat lawn, and large umbrella-like structures have been erected to provide shade from the sun and rain, making it a very relaxing place.

A few jungle paths lead to a gazebo where an old man is relaxing with a cup of tea and a view of the pond in the distance!

“Patriarch Tang, look who’s here.”

The butler whispered Tang Yuanzheng’s ear, and Tang Yuanzheng looked back to see Lin Mo and immediately stood up to welcome him.

“Mr. Mo Lin, a rare and honoured guest! Come and try this Pu-erh tea from China, the taste is sweet and the aftertaste is endless!”

“Chief Tang is so elegant, I also like the pu-erh from China very much.”

“Oh, then we have met a friend from a thousand miles.”

At this moment, the tea canister containing tea on the tea table suddenly caught Lin Mo’s attention, only to see the blinding logo just stuck to the tea canister.

It was the logo of Hongmen Guangde Hall, and these tea leaves were also one of the lost supplies!

Lin Mo took a sip of the pu-erh and exclaimed, “It is indeed a genuine and good tea from China, the soup feels dense and thick, the soup is golden and translucent, it should be at least five years old.”

“I didn’t expect Mr Molin to have a deep understanding of the tea ceremony, so if you like it, just take it!”

“I wonder where Patriarch Tang found such a good tea?”

Lin Mo wanted to ascertain the origin of the supplies.

“Next door in Block 4, these teas cost me a lot of Maple Leaf Coins.”

Sure enough, he had bought them from Old He.

It was just something that he owned, but now he had to get it via someone else’s gift, which made Lin Mo feel more than a little upset in his heart.

“So it was you who took care of my family’s business! I still have some precious spices there, I’ll have someone send you some if you need them.”

When Tang Yuanzheng heard this, he couldn’t help but be astonished.

“Mr. Molin, are you saying that I have taken care of your family’s business? Could it be that the Block 4 Ancient Fort Exchange is also an a*set under your name?”

Lin Mo smiled and nodded his head.

“Amazing! No wonder you are so familiar with this Pu’er tea of mine, it turns out that it was originally your family’s tea, shame shame shame!”

Tang Yuanzheng had an embarra*sed face, just now he actually wanted to give Lin Mo his own family’s tea to Lin Mo, and wanted to act as a personal favor, but he was instantly crushed as a result.

However, after learning this news, Tang Yuanzheng was even more afraid to underestimate Lin Mo, at that time the warehouse on the first floor of that ancient castle, he had personally followed that old man to pick up the goods.

Inside were precious metals such as gold and jade, rare materials from various countries, and of course, five tons of precious spices!

Tang Yuanzheng could only afford to buy a few boxes of tea before he left, the supplies in this ancient castle were worth at least hundreds of millions of dollars, his own Tang family estate was nothing compared to it!

Lin Mo actually had such frightening financial power, something Tang Yuanzheng had never thought of before this.

Tang Yuanzheng hurriedly took a sip of his old tea to suppress his shock, and Lin Mo, knowing that he had already succeeded in pretending invisibly, began to prepare to ask about the medicinal herbs.

“Clan Chief Tang, I actually came here to ask for one thing.”

“What do you mean by begging or not begging, your matter is my matter, Mr. Molin, just say it.”

Tang Yuanzheng replied as he stood up from the stone bench and respectfully replied to Lin Mo.

The butler not far away at the side was inwardly shocked! What was this situation? How was this image a little bit anti-climactic, those who didn't know would think that Lin Mo was the patriarch of the Tang Family's Chuang Yuan.

“Recently, Mo's Tavern and Hotel has had too many customers, and the shop is too small to receive so many guests, so I plan to expand the scale of operation.”

“That's a good thing! I can help you build a new shop, it's the right to take a stake, as for the dividends you can just watch and pay!”

Tang Yuanzheng was starting to flatter Lin Mo, he thought it was because Lin Mo didn't have enough cash in his hand and wanted to open a new shop, and it was too much trouble to go to Block 4 to get it, so he asked himself to borrow money for turnover.

“Patriarch Tang, I haven't finished my words.”

Tang Yuanzheng was again embarrassed, secretly blaming himself for being so naive in his thoughts, Lin Mo wouldn't lack money even if he lacked anything!

“You continue to speak.”

“I'm sure you already know about the trouble the Hui Chun physician caused at my tavern, the medicinal herbs from Hui Chun Hall can no longer be used, and the half summer wine is going to be out of stock at any moment.

I need a large-scale supplier of medicinal herbs to provide herbal ingredients for Mo's industry's medicinal wine and other products.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3805

“That’s fine, I have a few medicinal herb bases under the name of my Tang Clan’s Chuang Yuan, they are just not open to the public, now that Mr. Molin has asked, I will give them to you as a gift.”

“Then, thank you, Clan Chief Tang, but I will pay for the medicinal herbs without merit, I will pay for them as such.”

“No, consider it my thanks to you for saving my life at the tavern, is this kindness something that I can’t repay with these few medicinal herb bases.”

Lin Mo then agreed to accept it.

With the matter of herbs settled, back at Mo’s Tavern restaurant, Lin Mo and Black Liu started discussing the expansion of the new shop.

After a joint discussion, they decided to implement a two-way process of building a new shop and joining.

If all the new shops were built to be time-consuming and laborious, signing up for a franchise would be more convenient and easier to manage.

Boss Black was appointed by Lin Mo as the head shopkeeper of Mo’s Hotel, while Director Liu was appointed as the head pubkeeper of Mo’s Tavern.

Although Black and Liu were a bit snobbish and greedy for money, they were really good at running the shop, which saved Lin Mo a lot of heartache. The more they were given enough status, the more loyal they would be to themselves.

They signed contracts with the entire 362 taverns and hotels in Block 3, becoming franchisees under the Mo Style Group and unifying their shops according to the business model of the main shop at the pier.

The half summer wine and other medicinal wines were also given ma*s production, and many people recovered from illnesses that could be cured by drinking, and people no longer went to Hui Chun Tang to get medicine to take.

At the same time, Lin Mo made changes to the hotel’s hot springs.

He changed the hotel’s ordinary hot spring into a hot spring bath sanatorium, and implanted aquatic herbs in the spring so that the hot spring bath would have a more nourishing effect.

After a good meal at Mo’s Tavern, stopping by Mo’s Hotel for a hot spring bath and a night’s rest, this healthy way of relaxation became the standard for those upper-middle cla*s powers in Block 3.

In less than a month, Mo Mo’s group, Mo Lin, managed to become the top power in Block 3 almost surpa*sing the Tang Clan Chief.

Another huge fortune was held in Lin Mo’s hands!

Such power and wealth simultaneously made many of the dark forces in Block 3 secretly jealous, and they began to be dishonest, trying to make trouble out of it.

So what if they were top-tier forces? How long has this Mo's been in Block 3? He wants to take over the territory that has been inhabited by the local forces for years.

Even though he is a business genius, the forces in Block 3 are so chaotic that if they unite together, they will have him out of the way in no time!

Those rats in the gutter began to seek cooperation, because they were not used to seeing Lin Mo develop so rapidly in Block 3.

On this day, several leaders of the dark forces gathered together, trying to pick a way to subdue Lin Mo.

"Brothers, it's fine if there was a Tang clan leader who was overpowering us before, after all, he and we don't cross the river, but this Molin is simply too rampant, making more than half of Block 3's properties into his own franchise!

He's an outsider from a neighbourhood, what qualifications does he have? He's making so much money every day, and he's not even stealing it from us."

"But this Molin is proficient in medicine and is not easy to deal with, and there's the Tang clan leader backing him up."

"So what's the point? We'll start with the Tang clan chief, we can start ....."

Several heads of forces that had always been at odds with each other now achieved their first cooperation for Lin Mo alone.

This day the Tang clan chief came to one of Mo's highest level hot spring hotels to take a medicinal bath spa.

More than a dozen guards were guarding the hotel door, and the battle was very big.

Several power leaders spied the whereabouts of the Tang patriarch and also arrived at the spa hotel in formal dress.

"Give us a couple of hot spring rooms with the same style as Patriarch Tang!"

Several people acted as if they were very generous.

"May I ask if the few gentlemen are one room each?"

The receptionist asked politely.

"That's for sure, how can one room accommodate several of us."

A few people then glanced at the price list and instantly regretted what they had just said!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3806

A luxurious hot spring medicinal bath and wellness room for 100,000 Maple Leaf Coins each time.

"Wait, just one room for a few of us, we just want to take a bath."

“Sir, are you sure it’s the six of you sharing a spa room? If you want to take a bath then the large pool on the ground floor is a good choice and the price is very affordable.

The medicinal hot spring is for healing, not for bathing.”

The reservation lady at the front desk finished and smiled sweetly at the few guests so as not to embarrass them.

“Why do you care so much. We’re happy to use the hot spring to take a bath, you just drive!”

A few men were annoyed by what the receptionist said, they really couldn’t afford one room per person, but if they didn’t, they looked so humiliated that they had to share a room with six people.

After all, their real purpose for coming here was not to spend money for Lin Mo, but to cause trouble.

The six of them each took out more than 10,000 Maple Leaf Coins, making up 100,000, and booked a luxurious hot spring medicinal bath and health room.

The luxury hot spring medicinal bath and health room was on the eighteenth floor of the hotel, which was also the top floor of the hotel, the highest level of consumption, and there were not many people in the entire Block 3 who could often go to the eighteenth floor for a hot spring bath.

The Tang patriarch, on the other hand, is the only regular on the eighteenth floor, while others only come to spend money once in a while.

Therefore, the Tang patriarch was mostly lonely and isolated on the 18th floor, as if the 18th floor was specially set up for him.

The six power leaders took their room cards to the eighteenth floor, and the opulently decorated environment was an eye-opener for them.

“I didn’t expect Molin to make the hotel so nice.”

Everyone almost forgot what they had come for in this cosy and comfortable hotel.

Just as the six men were holding their room cards and preparing to enter their rooms, a voice called out to them.

“Six brothers, which few rooms are you staying in?”

Tang Yuan was naked, with a clean white bath towel around his waist, and called out to the six men who were about to enter the room.

The six men thought to themselves, what a great opportunity! They were about to go to Tang Yuanzheng later, but they were found by Tang Yuanzheng first.

A leader of the forces stepped forward and said, “Clan Chief Tang, a few of us will be staying in room 1802.”

Tang Yuanzheng showed a look of disbelief, “You only have one room? How can there be room for the six of you then? How about this! You guys come to my room, I’m in a good mood today, so I’ll count it as a treat for you.”

The six of them were ecstatic at hearing this, what a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity?

They had originally conspired to divide the work, who would distract the guards, who would talk to Patriarch Tang, who would poison .....

Now it's all saved! It seemed that God was helping them to subdue Lin Mo!

But there was still pretending: "Patriarch Tang, we are of low status, we can only have a few brothers pooling their money to enjoy a night, we wouldn't dare to take a dip in the hot spring with you!"

"Little brothers, I often come to the 18th floor to soak in the hot spring, but there are too few guests on this 18th floor, and there is not even anyone to talk to. Today you don't have to feel indebted to me, just consider it as a chance to talk and tease with me."

A few people wanted to refuse but welcomed, and after a half-hearted push, they entered Tang Yuanzheng's room.

Good man, the treatment of a VIP is different!

There was a large pool surrounded by eight smaller pools, just like the stars holding the moon.

At the bottom of each pool, herbs were floating in the water, emitting a charming aroma that would make you relax just by smelling it.

Tang Yuanzheng entered the large soup pool in the middle first, followed by a look of enjoyment, and then allowed the six power leaders to enter the smaller pools around them in turn.

Several people have gotten into the water to feel the most luxurious medicinal bath healing of this Mo's hot spring hotel.

"A few young brothers look familiar, what line of work are you doing in Block 3?"

Tang Yuan was striking up a conversation with them with his eyes closed.

"We are also in the hotel business, just not as well run as the owner of this Mo's, just languishing."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3807

"Why don't you guys join Mo's group, they have a good scope for development. Tell you what, I'll mention it to him later, it won't be a problem to give you guys a few places in the franchise."

"Then thanks a lot, Patriarch Tang!"

"A small thing, but ah you must operate with integrity and not cheat your customers out of their money, this is the behaviour that Boss Mo hates the most, if you fail to do so, he will cancel the cooperation at any time."

These few power leaders actually knew very well in their hearts, at that time, Mo Lin's people had also come to several of their shops to see if they wanted to join.

But how could these few black-hearted shop owners be willing to give cooperation to an outsider, not to mention that they only valued their immediate interests and very much disagreed with Lin Mo's pre-existing business style.

Honest business in this extremely chaotic Block 3? Do you really think you are the saviour?

Although they thought this, their mouths still had to comply with Tang Yuanzheng's words in reply, "We will definitely cherish this opportunity."

Several people chatted with Tang Yuanzheng, fawning and pretending not to know anything, while Tang Yuanzheng acted like a senior, telling them with great interest about his experience of killing people when he was young.

It was enough to keep him soaking in the hot spring for as long as two hours.

At this time Tang Yuanzheng, who was soaking in the hot spring in the pool, suddenly frowned and seemed to be in great pain.

"What's wrong with you, Clan Chief Tang?"

Six people came out of the hot spring one after another and went to ask Tang Yuanzheng about his condition.

"It's not good, my leg is cramping up, move me out of the hot spring."

As one of the power leaders tried to carry Tang Yuanzheng out of the hot spring pool, before he could move a muscle, Tang Yuanzheng wailed!

"It's better not to move, it hurts even more when you do! Can you find a way to relieve it in the water!"

The leader of the force that was about to carry Tang Yuanzheng turned and looked at the others for a moment before saying to Tang Yuanzheng, "Clan Chief Tang, I can only dive to the bottom of the pool to give you a ma*sage, so hang in there."

Only a cooing sound was heard! The head of that force then dove head first into the bottom of the hot spring pool!

As his hands continued to ma*sage Tang Yuan's cramped legs, he also rubbed a poison onto them in pa*sing, and in an instant, all the herbs at the bottom of the hot spring pool withered and died.

After releasing the poison, the head of the force burst out from the bottom of the pool with a clatter and jumped out of the pool, his face turning white due to the prolonged breath holding.

By this time Tang Yuan was getting better from his cramps and looked at the head of the force who had just gone down to save him and nodded in satisfaction.

"Thank you for rescuing me today, it's been too long since I've had such a good chat with others, so I forgot the time this time, and as a result, my leg was soaked in the hot spring for too long and I got cramps."

"I'm glad you're all right, Chief Tang! It's an honour for us to help you, but it's getting late, so we brothers should go back."

“Take care and don’t see me off.”

After those few power leaders left, Tang Yuanzheng still seemed to be in a good mood.

“Go check out those six people who left, they are quite nimble in their brains, receive them into the Tang Family Zhuang Yuan and use them for me.”

“Yes, Patriarch.”

Tang Butler received Tang Yuanzheng’s instructions and immediately sent a team of guards to secretly follow the six men.

When he returned to his room, Tang Yuanzheng suddenly felt a great itch in his lower back, so he reached out to scratch it, and the feel of this scratch startled him!

He immediately looked down and saw that two red rashes had inexplicably appeared on either side of his waist, each with a transparent blister at the tip that would burst with a single scratch.

The butler immediately summoned the private doctor who had come with him to come in.

To his surprise, the doctor was horrified at first glance!

“This is the legendary snake wrapped around the waist!”

“This is what happens when you have this disease?”

“If the red rash with blisters on the waist forms a circle and wraps around the entire waist for a week, then the person will definitely die!”

Tang Yuanzheng’s eyes were shocked: “How could I have this strange disease for no reason?”

At that moment, the private doctor entered the hot spring pool where Tang Yuanzheng was soaking and tried to find out the cause.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3809

“Last time when that Molin came to our manor, father offered his hands to several herb bases under his name without saying a word. Father has always accepted gifts from others, but this is the first time I’ve seen him flattering others like that.

He must have been threatened by Mo Lin, and now that he has received the benefit, he is afraid that father will turn against him, so he secretly poisoned him and killed him!”

Tang Chengyun justifiably took the pot onto Lin Mo’s back with such a straight face.

The point of Tang’s suspicion was that Lin Mo had disappeared for no reason, and since Lin Mo was proficient in pharmacology and was good friends with Tang Yuanzheng, he could definitely have poisoned him without Tang Yuanzheng’s knowledge.

In order to investigate Lin Mo thoroughly, Butler Tang suggested that the body of the Tang patriarch be put in an ice coffin for preservation, and when Lin Mo was found, he would be allowed to take one life for another.

“Butler Tang, I’ll leave it all to you, Mo’s group is so rich, remember to order more claims, I’ll leave first, a few sisters are still waiting for me.”

Looking at Tang Chengyun’s unproductive look, Housekeeper Tang sighed deeply, “It seems that the Tang family’s Zhuang Yuan is going to decline.”

There was a thumping of footsteps outside the door and Chief Shopkeeper Black ran in with a sweaty head.

The sight of the Tang patriarch, who had died violently in his bed, made his face white with fear.

“I’m so sorry that this happened in our Mo’s Hotel! We will definitely investigate thoroughly and will definitely not let Patriarch Tang die in vain.”

“Chief Shopkeeper Black, where is your boss Mo Lin? It’s not like he’s absconded in fear of crime, is it? Since we can’t find your boss, arrest this head shopkeeper first!”

The Tang family’s guards immediately tied up the Black Chief Shopkeeper with all fists.

“Don’t get excited, you guys, our boss must have something important to take care of, I can’t find him anywhere these days either!”

“You think I will believe your words? Now that our patriarch’s life has gone to the West, if you Mo’s group doesn’t give an explanation soon, don’t blame us for joining forces with other forces to drive you out of Block 3!”

Housekeeper Tang then took the body of the Tang Clan Chief as well as the Black Shopkeeper back to the Tang Family Estate.

In no time, the matter began to spread wildly in Block 3, after all, Tang Yuanzheng’s influence in Block 3 was too great!

Once Tang Yuanzheng died, Block 3 would become even more turbulent, and many parties that had lain dormant under his power would surface, inevitably leading to another battle for power.

As for the death of Tang Yuanzheng, events have been divided into two general directions.

One school of thought is in favour of the Tang family, believing that Lin Mo’s disappearance at this time is indeed difficult to explain, and that it is highly likely that he was the real culprit.

Most of the people in this faction were loyal fans of Mo’s Hotel and Tavern, and they believed in Lin Mo’s character.

Finally on the nineteenth day, Lin Mo reached the peak realm of the fourth level of creation, don’t take another big step forward in his cultivation journey to break through to the Patriarch level.

“It’s still really difficult, it seems that just relying on the cultivation in this jade pendant is still not enough, you need to use the Nine Yang Mirror Breaking Pill to improve fast enough.”

Walking out of this secluded hut, Lin Mo hurriedly headed towards Mo's group, and wondered how Chief Shopkeeper Black and Chief Librarian Liu had run their business during the half month or so he had been away?

Lin Mo had just entered the tavern when the guests who were having their meals gathered around him.

"Boss Mo, we all believe in you!"

"Yes, you saved Patriarch Tang's life before, and now they're biting you back, what a lack of conscience!"

"Boss Mo, with your strength, it won't be a problem to take down the Tang Clan Garden in one fell swoop, there's no need to hide from them."

Lin Mo was confused as he listened, but looking at the righteous indignation of each of these customers, it seemed that he had been framed.

"Big Boss Molin, where have you been? You've disappeared for so long, if you don't come back Mo's Group won't be blamed for closing down!"

"What happened? Tell me from the beginning, the more details the better."

Curator Liu told Lin Mo everything that had happened during this period of time.

As a result, Lin Mo smiled indifferently after listening: "A few ants, not enough to be feared."

"You just guard Mo's group, I will personally handle this matter."

Curator Liu looked at Lin Mo's back as he left, an unspeakable sense of security came over him, even if it was a big matter, it seemed so worthless when it came to Lin Mo.

Lin Mo intended to go to the crime scene first.

This hot spring hotel, where the Tang patriarch used to come, now had no more guests, no one would dare to come here again after a human death.

What made Lin Mo feel relieved was that none of the staff inside was missing.

"Boss Mo, you're finally here!"

The receptionist girl let out a long breath of relief.

"Take me to Patriarch Tang's room on the 18th floor."

The receptionist led Lin Mo to the scene of the accident.

"Boss Mo, in order to wait for your return to confirm the evidence at the scene, we didn't tidy up or move any of the objects in the room, including the water in the hot spring which was also left in place, everything is still the same as it was on that day."

“Good, hard work everyone, I’ll take care of it next, you go and get busy.”

The receptionist left.

Lin Mo began to observe the scene, as described by the curator Liu, the hot spring pool that the Tang patriarch was soaking in had been tampered with, a kind of poison that could trigger snakes to wrap around his waist.

The blood stains of pus sores left on the bed sheets from the Tang patriarch’s body also corresponded to this symptom indeed.

Lin Mo then observed the water in the other eight small hot spring pools that surrounded the large middle pool.

Surprisingly, the water in one of the small hot spring pools was found to contain the ingredients of the antidote for the snake wraith!

Combined with Director Liu’s description, it was obvious that the person in this small hot spring was the real culprit who persecuted the Tang patriarch!

It was just that, to Lin Mo’s surprise, ordinary people would not normally make an antidote for snake entanglement, unless the other party had an old physician behind them who was very proficient in pharmacology to make it.

However, judging from the ingredients of this antidote, it still had a fatal flaw.

Although it can cure the poison of the snake’s waist, it requires the patient to apply the antidote to the skin two hours in advance, and after touching the poison, one must not walk or sweat significantly, otherwise it will still lose its effect!

To be precise, this is not an antidote, but a medicine to prevent poisoning!

And the man who had poisoned the Tang patriarch immediately fled the scene in a panic after touching the poison of the snake wrapped around his waist.

A weak heart will make you sweat! Walking would speed up the spread of the poison!

Naturally, the preventive effect was lost, which is why they died faster than the Tang patriarch.

As for why these people had committed the murder here, the purpose was also clear: they wanted to make the Tang family an enemy of Mo’s and tarnish their own reputation.

With everything clear in his mind, Lin Mo decided to take a trip to the Tang family’s estate.

The Tang family garden had changed from its former majestic appearance to a cold and silent place due to the death of the Tang patriarch, and the guards at the entrance were nowhere to be found.

When he walked through the hidden door, a laughing sound that was extremely incongruous with the current atmosphere reached Lin Mo’s ears.

Walking to the open lot, Lin Mo saw a gorgeously dressed young man frolicking with a few beautiful women again.

“This might be Tang Chengyun, the son of Tang Yuanzheng, as mentioned by Curator Liu.”

His own father had died, the culprit had not yet been arrested, his corpse had not yet been buried, and his son was still here having fun with women.

What a travesty!

Seeing Lin Mo arrive at the manor, Tang Chengyun stopped playing and walked straight towards Lin Mo.

“It was you, who killed my father! Quickly, someone tie up Mo Lin!”

A few soldiers like quails came over, and before they could touch Lin Mo, he was kicked away!

“I think you’re just looking for death!”

Tang Chengyun took out a gun from his waist and aimed it at Lin Mo.

“Keep fighting! I’ll see how good you are! If you kneel down and pa*s on all your Mo’s properties to the Tang family’s name, I can still spare your dog’s life!”

“You’re worthy of that?”

Lin Mo instantly strangled Tang Chengyun’s neck, applying pressure little by little.

Tang Chengyun didn’t even know how Lin Mo was getting close to him, now the choking sensation was going to consume him!

And the few women who had been accompanying Tang Chengyun for fun were so frightened that they ran headlong out of the manor.

“You killed my father and now ..... you want to kill me, the Tang family ..... will not let you go.”
