Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3851

"I'm worried about you!"

His wife Xu Hanxia stretched out her palm and tenderly caressed Lin Mo's face.

That smile was sweet and beautiful.

"It's been so long since you came out, not even a single message."

"Do you know how worried we are about you?"

The tone was full of complaints.

Lin Mo only felt a warmth in his heart as he unfolded his arms and wrapped his wife in his arms.

The long, smooth hair emitted a faint fragrance.

Lin Mo only felt extraordinarily peaceful at this moment.

He did not want to let go of his arms!

After a long time.

Lin Mo took a deep breath.

"Thank you!"

The wife in his arms froze and asked in confusion, "Why do you want to say thank you?"

Lin Mo tenderly stroked this wife's back.

"Thank you for letting me see my wife whom I still miss."

Before the words left his mouth, his originally gentle smiling face suddenly became fierce.

"But!"

"Desecrating my wife deserves the same death."

These words were uttered.

The wife in his arms blushed greatly.

"How ..... could you possibly know that?"

"That's needless to say, naturally because your illusionary skills are not enough, it's still far from being good enough!"

Lin Mo finished speaking and reluctantly let go of his wife.

He knew his wife too well, no matter what, she could not have come alone to find herself.

In the next second, Xu Hanxia disappeared into the same place.

Not far away.

A woman was watching Lin Mo with great interest.

As she was wearing a veil, she could not see his face.

It was the gems hanging all over her body that stood out.

They looked completely inlaid in her skin.

"Matthews died in your hands, right?"

Having seen the other party's methods, Lin Mo had already determined that this person was the murderer, Ou.

The woman smiled gently and covered her mouth with one hand.

"My lord, now that you know, why do you need to ask more questions?"

"Rather, it is you who are ruthless, you have never met me before, and you have ruined my slave's big event!"

The aggrieved look, coupled with that delicate voice.

Lin Mo actually felt the blood in his body start to surge faster for a moment.

His body also gradually followed with a dry heat.

Lin Mo didn't dare to be careless and hurriedly ran the Free and Easy Technique to forcefully suppress the inexplicable restlessness in his heart.

What a strong charm technique!

With just three or two words, he had actually caused one's mind to involuntarily lose focus.

This was the first time he had encountered such a powerful technique.

Realising this, Lin Mo secretly reached out his hand and tightened his grip on Tai Ah.

"I wonder if the girl's great event is meant to be?"

This was the first time he had been on Death Island and was prepared to use his sword to meet his enemy.

"Gongzi is so bad, trying to set up a slave's words!"

The woman glared shyly with a blank stare.

A simple gesture once again tugged at Lin Mo's blood.

At this moment, the woman opposite, although indicating calmness.

But inwardly, waves had already been set off.

There were not many people who could still remain calm under their own charm techniques.

But a man as young as the man in front of him was the first one.

Thinking about this.

The woman invoked her spiritual power and her eyes glowed pink.

A mere glance at her.

Lin Mo's originally clear gaze instantly clouded up.

"My slave is punishing gongzi, yo!"

The woman smiled and half covered her mouth.

With bare feet, she walked in step by step.

Hearing the woman's words, Lin Mo nodded with a dull gaze and a silly smile on his face.

"Fine, fine!"

"Punish me any way you want!"

That mute look was completely at the mercy of others.

The corner of the woman's mouth hooked, her eyes showing disdain.

That's all there is to it!

I thought I had met some great master.

With this thought in mind, her jade hand, glowing red, was already pressed against Lin Mo's chest.

The sharp nails just gently probed.

Instantly, blood flowed like water.

Under the stimulation of the pain, Lin Mo's originally dull gaze appeared to fluctuate for a moment.

The woman, on the other hand, unhurriedly stood up on tiptoe and pressed her sexy red lips next to Lin Mo's ear.

"My lord, can I show your heart to my slave?"

"Yes!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3852

"You are so kind, my slave really loves you!"

The woman smiled flirtatiously and the power in her hands strengthened a few points.

Her eyes also became vicious.

Originally, she could have hid in the shadows and quietly carried out the a*sa*sination operation.

But right now, she had been nudged by Lin Mo.

The leaders of the various forces would definitely be on heightened alert.

What had been incredibly easy had instantly become complicated.

Go to hell! Mind your own business!

The woman's five fingers pressed hard and was about to pull out Lin Mo's heart.

Suddenly!

Her face changed drastically.

"It's better if I die naturally!"

Lin Mo held the woman's wrist in a deadly grip and showed his teeth in a smile.

"But forget about love, I already have a wife!"

"Besides, your inhuman and ghostly appearance perfectly avoids my aesthetic."

Although Lin Mo had the intention to say that, the woman's heart had already set off a shocking wave.

"How is that possible?"

"You've clearly fallen under my charm technique!"

After all these years, this was the first time she had missed.

How could this not shock her.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, had a cynical look on the surface.

In reality, he was also having palpitations.

This charm technique of the other party was indeed outrageously strong.

If it wasn't for the last second when the Creation Technique ran and woke him up, he would have almost been a corpse.

"So close to dying in your hands!"

Lin Mo couldn't help but lament, and then yanked the other party's finger out of his chest hard.

Seeing that the charm spell had expired, the woman did not hesitate.

Her claws, which were overflowing with red light, swung over again.

Not daring to be careless, Lin Mo immediately let go of the other party and retreated backwards.

Since he had entered the clan, his physical body had reached the point where bullets would not touch him and shells would not hurt him.

However, this b*tch's red light was able to destroy his own flesh easily.

This caused him to be cautious.

The two sides pulled apart.

The woman didn't dare to be dropping her guard either.

"You're a sect master?"

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders, "Aren't you the same?"

After saying that Lin Mo's body shook around him, and a wild wind suddenly rose around him.

"I didn't think that there was a genius like you on the tiny Death Island!"

After the woman had calmed down, she licked her tongue in excitement.

The original red light in her hands had also spread to her entire body, like a raging fire.

A change from her delicate and charming self, she was like a demon that had burst out of hell.

The stone pavement beneath her feet also began to creak and crack, spreading out countless cracks.

At this moment, both sides had no intention of holding back their hands.

They were both clan masters, so to hide any longer was no different from seeking death.

"Eternal Night!"

Without further ado, the woman made a direct strike.

Red light spread rapidly, and the surroundings were instantly engulfed.

Lin Mo looked around himself and found that he had arrived in a completely unfamiliar place.

A scarlet blood moon hung high in the sky.

Beneath his feet was an infinite sea of blood.

"Welcome to my blood realm!"

The woman unfolded her arms.

The two zhang-meter-long blood wings at her back sent her directly into mid-air.

"Enjoy yourself!"

The woman's beautiful fingers slightly hooked.

The sea of blood under her feet surged up.

In an instant.

Dense lines of blood enveloped towards Lin Mo like a giant net.

Although Lin Mo was agile, no matter where he dodged, the blood lines that suddenly appeared underneath his feet always came swooping in one step ahead of him.

And it was extremely fast, making it extremely difficult to react.

In less than half a minute.

Lin Mo's entire body was wrapped in these strange blood threads.

Under the woman's control.

Unable to move Lin Mo was sent into mid-air.

"This is the price of arrogance!"

The woman had previously been somewhat scrupulous of the Tai Ah around Lin Mo's waist.

Now there was no longer the slightest scruple.

The only thing that puzzled her was that Lin Mo didn't have the slightest look of panic on his face even at this point.

"Is this the environment that Matthews died in?"

Lin Mo asked as he observed the surroundings.

Although he knew it was an illusion.

But the terrifying sea of blood, and the pungent smell of blood.

It was too real!

If he didn't have the Creation Skill, and the Free Spirit Skill to stabilize his mind, he would have fallen into the other party's path.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3853

The woman raised her hand and the scarlet blood sword coalesced in front of her eyes.

"Such a young Patriarch, what a pity!"

"Are you interested in joining our organisation, we can break the rules and promote you!"

To the woman, Patriarchs he had seen many.

There were even more Patriarchs who had died under her.

However, a genius as young as Lin Mo had never seen in his life.

For a moment, she could not help but cherish the talent.

Lin Mo nodded his head and looked at the sea of blood beneath him for a moment in faint thought before suddenly grinning.

“Make your move!”

Seeing that persuasion had failed, the woman didn't bother with nonsense

Poof!

The blood sword didn't enter Lin Mo's chest cavity.

“Keep your eyes open in your next life.”

A genius who hadn't grown up was not much different from a waste material.

Looking at the drooping Lin Mo, the woman raised her hand and reached for the latter's waist.

She wanted to see what kind of matching sword it was that could scare that her heart.

“Hey, girl, you're not trying to drag my trousers while they're hot, are you!”

The sudden sound of a voice made the woman jump.

Lin Mo, who was already dead through and through, was now grinning towards her.

“How is that possible?”

“Aren't you already dead?”

The woman was in shock.

The Blood Realm Illusion had even missed?

This could never be possible!

The woman's eyes turned red as the sea of blood instantly churned beneath her feet.

In the blink of an eye, the sky beneath the blood moon was overrun by dense blood swords.

With a gesture of the woman's hand.

The tips of the chilling swords pointed in unison at Lin Mo.

“Die for me!”

She moved with a thought.

The blood swords shot out in unison from all sides.

Lin Mo was shattered between not even a hint of defence against it.

The woman could not help but breathe a sigh of relief at the sight.

The longer the two confronted each other.

She felt that Lin Mo was becoming more and more bizarre.

Now that he was finally dead, she could go back and deliver.

But just as he was about to turn around and retrieve the Blood Realm illusion realm.

The blood mist in front of him suddenly squirmed.

Without waiting for the woman to react, Lin Mo appeared intact once again.

“How did you do that?”

What should have been an infallible means had missed one after another in front of Lin Mo.

At this moment, the woman could not help but begin to doubt herself.

Lin Mo bent down and stretched his hand into the sea of blood.

Both the blood lines as well as the sea of blood and the blood sword were extraordinarily real.

It almost fit first without any difference.

“Matthews died under such tactics of yours, didn’t he!”

This kind of illusion technique could be said to be the pinnacle.

It was just that he had come across Lin Mo.

The Creation and Prosperity Skill was the nemesis of almost all illusions.

As long as the mind duel didn’t stop, the opponent wanted to kill him through the illusion realm.

It was tantamount to talking about a fool’s dream.

The woman did not reply to Lin Mo’s rhetorical question, her face was full of caution at this moment.

It was as if the Lin Mo in front of her was her natural nemesis.

Thinking of this, a hint of determination flashed across the woman’s face.

Under Lin Mo’s gaze, the woman brought her finger closer to her lips.

With a bite of her silver teeth, blood instantly gushed out from the tip of her finger.

“Blood Realm, Illusionary Demon!”

After the woman whispered softly, she used her own blood to draw a strange talisman in front of her body.

The talisman struck into the sea of blood.

A tens of feet tall nine-tailed blood fox appeared before his eyes.

Lin Mo looked up at this behemoth and could not help but applaud.

“Cow skin!”

“But is this your most adequate bottom card?”

The woman froze for a moment, then a disdainful smile curled the corners of her mouth.

“Let’s talk about it if you can survive!”

The snow fox had integrated into her bloodline and was no longer just an illusion.

“Illusionary Demon, slaughter him!”

With a command, the nine-tailed blood fox leapt up.

Its sharp, knife-like claws slapped down viciously.

Lin Mo’s face was calm, without any sign of fear.

After gripping the hilt of his sword with one hand, he turned his waist sideways and his entire body half-crouched down.

Tai Ah, Sword Draw and Slash!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3854

The woman just saw that a cold aura flashed past her eyes.

In the next second, everything in the entire Blood Realm and seemed to be frozen in place.

The nine-tailed blood fox that had leapt up into the mid-air, at that moment, also just kept his attacking movements.

It was frozen in mid-air.

“Extinguish!”

Lin Mo snapped his fingers.

The woman only felt as if a crisp raw sound of breaking gla*s rang out in her ears.

Ding!

The roiling blood boundary suddenly collapsed.

There was a return to the original appearance all around.

The woman looked dumbfounded at what was happening in front of her.

For a moment, she couldn’t even react.

And at that moment an invisible sword qi had already locked onto her delicate body and shot in.

Just as her head was about to be chopped off.

An iron tower-like figure descended from the sky.

In the face of the terrifying sword qi whistling at him, the strong man crossed his arms against his chest.

Boom!

The violent collision raised a lot of dust.

Lin Mo frowned as he felt the violent hostility in the dust.

His Plucked Tip Chop had been blocked by the mysterious man who had suddenly arrived.

There was no hesitation.

Lin Mo rushed directly into the dust with a single healthy step.

The blurred figure of the woman not far away had already appeared.

Lin Mo was just about to make his move when a raging hostile aura suddenly surged out from beside him.

Only a vague figure was seen stamping its foot violently.

The ground instantly trembled.

Immediately afterwards, a biting fist shadow protruded.

Under the extreme power, sonic booms resounded all around.

Lin Mo stopped in his tracks.

Faced with the sudden attack, he raised his right hand to block Tai Ah in front of his body.

In a moment's exchange of blows, the raging power surged wildly into his body through Tai Ah.

Not daring to hesitate.

Lin Mo immediately used the Dark Power Upanishad of the Bai Family's casual hands to dissolve it.

It was just that the force involved still pushed him out a distance of several dozen metres.

What a terrifying body.

This was the cultivation of strength to the ultimate expert.

And the towering strong man in front of him was actually a clan master expert as well.

Counting himself, there were already three Zong Masters on this sh*tty Death Island.

On the other side, the strong man with the pagoda also had a serious face.

He secretly rubbed his wrist.

What a strong sword qi.

Moreover, the kid in front of him had managed to remain unscathed under his full force punch.

Thinking of this, the strong man turned his back on the woman and said in a deep voice.

"Yin Yu you go first!"

The muscles of the strong man's body instantly bulged as he finished speaking.

The original sturdy stance of nearly two metres was violently pulled up another knot.

He had a fierce hostile aura.

The man was like a fierce beast on earth.

He had just watched the entire battle between his companions.

Plus the brief exchange of blows.

The strong man understood that the boy in front of him was too strong.

Even if they joined forces, they might not be his opponent.

Yin Yu didn't dare to hesitate and raised his feet to finish retreating.

"Leopard Slave, beware!"

"This kid is bizarre!"

After reminding him, Silver Jade's figure disappeared into the air.

That terrifying sword just now had left her heart palpitating to this day.

"Stay!"

Lin Mo watched the woman disappear and juggled a sword splash, immediately chasing after her.

Although this woman's illusion did not affect him much.

However, it was fatal to others.

If he let this person leave, there would be no peace in the three districts.

Just as Lin Mo was about to chase after Yin Yu, the leopard slave blocked his pursuit route ahead of him.

His sturdy stance was like a tall and strong one.

"Kid, this path is impassable!"

Before the words left his mouth, the leopard slave flashed to attack.

The shadow of a fist the size of a human head whistled forward.

Lin Mo had been hit before because of his opponent's sneak attack.

Now, if the opponent attacked head-on, he would not be able to hit him at all.

With just one retreating step, Lin Mo closed the distance between them.

At the same time, with a twist of his wrist, he sheathed his Tai Ah.

A bitterly cold sword qi instantly whistled out.

Even before Lin Mo made a move, the wind caused by the sword qi already blew painfully on Pao Nu's cheeks.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3855

Secret Technique, Sword Transient!

Lin Mo did not want to waste time in front of this big man.

Therefore, the moment he struck was the strongest killing move.

The leopard slave did not dare to be careless and once again raised his arms to block his chest to death.

“Imperial!”

A furious shout.

The leopard slave’s body instantly glowed with a faint golden light.

From a distance, it looked like an egg shell protecting it.

In the next second, the sword qi had arrived.

After a violent tremor, the eggshell only resisted for half a second and then shattered.

The remnants of the sword qi directly lifted the leopard slave more than ten feet away.

The ground was instantly smashed into a large crater nearly two metres deep.

Poof!

The leopard slave only felt a fishy nose and throat, and a mouthful of fresh blood spurted out.

There was no time to deal with it, so he hurriedly rolled on his back.

At this moment, within the crater, a sharp longsword had penetrated more than three inches into the ground.

Above the hilt of the sword, Lin Mo stood on one foot.

“Tell me your identities, and I can spare your lives!”

Lin Mo looked at his opponent coldly.

The cold tone of his voice gave a crowd of intimidating pressure that did not allow for resistance.

The leopard slave half knelt on the ground.

After wiping away the blood from the corner of his mouth, he stared straight at Lin Mo with an angry look in his eyes.

“Kid, do you think you’ve eaten me up?”

“When my third brother arrives, we’ll make your life worse than death!”

After saying that, he pooh-poohed a mouthful of bloody spit.

Lin Mo saw that he couldn’t ask anything, so he didn’t bother with nonsense.

Raising his hand, he probed with his sword finger.

The leopard slave didn't have any chance to react and stared at these eyes with a deadly stare.

A thumb-thin blood hole appeared on his brow.

With his eyes darkened, the leopard slave's huge body fell to the ground.

At this moment, the corner of Lin Mo's mouth suddenly hooked.

"Illusion technique?"

"What a way to remember a meal!"

The mocking voice fell.

He flicked his toes and his entire body swept out.

As for behind him, the corpse of the leopard slave also disappeared directly.

Yin Yu, who was hiding not far away, was greatly alarmed.

Her original plan was to create an illusion to make Lin Mo mistakenly believe that the leopard slave was dead.

Thus, she could save her seriously injured companion and escape from here.

What she hadn't expected was that not only was Lin Mo's strength overwhelming, but his alertness was also terrifying.

With just one glance, he had seen through his plan.

Seeing Lin Mo approaching, Yin Yu immediately lifted her left hand and placed it on her lips.

With a strong blow.

A burst of pink mist appeared between the two sides.

Lin Mo only touched a little of it and his body instantly became parched.

It was incredibly aggressive.

And this wasn't even poison!

After suppressing his inexplicable agitation, Lin Mo plucked his tip and raised his hand with a wave.

The pink mist then dispersed.

Only Silver Jade and the leopard slave also disappeared from sight.

"And what a cunning fox!"

Lin Mo exclaimed.

Only the duo ran away although it was somewhat possible.

But he had also gathered a lot of information from the duo's words.

The only pity was that he hadn't been able to ask what exactly was the purpose of them making such a huge commotion.

Now the huge fluctuations of the battle over here had also hardened the attention of many people.

Lin Mo did not make a stop, a leap to disappear in place.

.....

The other side.

The duo escaped a long way away, and only then did they dare to stop.

The two of them were just about to speak when a large mouthful of blood gushed out.

Lin Mo's last sword had not only dispelled the fog, but also injured her meridians.

On the other side, Leopard Slave was not in a good position either.

Although he had taken Lin Mo's attack, his arm was already bloody.

But his arm was already bloody and fleshy.

As for the pair of meteoric iron adamantite wrist guards, they were also covered in dense cracks.

"When did such a terrifying youngster appear on Death Island!"

The duo was originally a traitor to the clan they were after to retrieve the lost supreme treasure.

By the way, they would take down this Death Island!

What a coincidence that they had come across Lin Mo.

"This person must be removed, otherwise it will affect our plans."

Yin Yu nodded with a grave face.

"Third Brother's side is already busy, and will be arriving in almost the next few days!"

"When that time comes, it will be the death of that brat ....."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3856

The battle ground.

Several famous masters from the three districts, after joint investigation, hit upon a result that made their hearts palpitate.

A direct battle between clan masters had taken place in this place not long ago.

And judging by the residual power that remained, it was likely to be multiple clan masters.

“Send this news to the First District Senate!”

If Death Island could stand in this vast sea, it naturally had its own reserves.

One of them is the Senate of this district.

It is not known who formed it.

It is only that since the beginning of the Island of Death, all the hidden dangers that threatened the Island of Death were exterminated by this Senate.

With the news of the patriarchal battle spreading.

The three districts, which were already in a dark tide, once again became agitated.

.....

The Sea Wolf Hall.

“Hall Master, Master is not good!”

“It is suspected that several Zong Shi powerhouses have appeared in our three districts!”

Hearing this news, the Sea Wolf King’s body trembled.

A sudden sense of foreboding came over him.

“Is there any investigation into the identity of the people who came?”

The handlers shook their heads that they did not know.

“Rather, I heard that Hu Niu of the Death Domain reported this matter to the Senate of District One.”

“OK!”

The Sea Wolf King sighed slightly in relief.

“During this period of time, let the brothers work hard and step up their patrols.”

“Also, what did the Blade Sect say over there?”

Compared to the sudden appearance of the Patriarchal powerhouse.

The Sea Wolf King was more concerned about the reaction of Ma Bangde.

The death of Matthews had this indirect effect on their Sea Wolf Hall.

If Wang Fei hadn’t beaten Matthews to death, there wouldn’t have been all these things that followed.

In the past few days, the Knife Sect’s group of swordsmen had been appearing more and more frequently in their own sphere of influence.

They had been disappearing for some reason, and several members of the Sea Wolf Temple had disappeared.

The next man took out the information: "Hall Master, there is no movement from Sect Master Ma's side."

"But their Vice Clan Master has sent word that this matter will definitely make our Sea Wolf Hall pay."

The Sea Wolf King's face sank and his gaze leaked a few fierce moments.

"Didn't we already hand over the culprit, Wang Fei, to them?"

"Even a small Vice Hall Master dares to get an inch!"

In recent years, he had concentrated on the layout of the Crystal Skull matter and had tightened his tactics.

Yet this change was taken by others as cowardice.

Anyone would dare to act over his head.

"Pa*s on my orders, my king's big wedding is coming up!"

"Within the boundaries of the Sea Wolf Hall, all members of other forces are expelled."

"But all those who resist will be considered provocative and beheaded!"

After dealing with the matter of the Crystal Skull, he left Death Island.

Before that, Heart's Desire Old Ruthless was dealt with all together.

"And that D*mned hairy boy, dare to threaten this king ....."

The sea wolf king just muttered half a sentence, his expression could not help but froze.

There was suddenly an additional person in the room at this moment.

Lin Mo laid back against the sofa in a careless manner.

Copying the fruit on the coffee table and rubbing it on his clothes, he took a big bite hard.

Not bad, quite sweet!

"Er ....."

"Mr. Maureen, when did you get here?"

"Since you said that D*mn hairy boy!"

Lin Mo casually threw his hand.

After the fruit core made a perfect parabola, it landed precisely into the bin.

Nice!

The Sea Wolf King's face looked slightly embarra*sed.

He had been caught red-handed talking bad about someone behind his back.

“When is Lord Sea Wolf King planning to get me killed?”

Lin Mo asked unhurriedly.

The Sea Wolf King laughed, “Mr. Mo in very jokey.”

“I was just talking about other people, don’t misunderstand Mr Mo, hahaha.”

He explained awkwardly before hurriedly changing the subject.

“By the way Mr Mo, I wonder what is the purpose of coming here?”

“Nothing!”

Lin Mo got up and waved his hand.

“I just thought I hadn’t seen the Sea Wolf King for a few days, and I missed it, so I came over to take a look!”

“Slip away!”

Before leaving, Lin Mo copied another plum.

Yuck, sour as hell!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3857

As Lin Mo’s figure disappeared.

The Sea Wolf King looked at the plum that had taken a bite on the fruit plate, and his face became a little less than pleasant.

This kind of behaviour of coming and going whenever he wanted to was completely out of his Sea Wolf King’s eyes.

“Just wait, when I finish my big event, the first one will get you killed?”

“Get rid of who?”

Outside the door Lin Mo suddenly poked his head out.

Sea Wolf King: “.....”

How the hell did this n*gga come back!

“Oh, nothing, nothing!”

“I mean the members of our Sea Wolf Hall!”

Lin Mo let out an oh, before retracting his head and making a move to leave.

The Sea Wolf King only felt his mind almost explode.

This was a complete and blatant provocation.

“D*mn it .....”

Half cursing angrily, the Sea Wolf King kept a watchful eye.

“Mr. Maureen?”

“What is it?”

Sure enough!

This kid hadn’t left yet!

The Sea Wolf King was trembling with anger.

For the first time in his life, he felt that time was pa*sing so slowly.

If he had already completed the Crystal Skull transfer, he would have been able to get rid of this brat.

The Sea Wolf King forcibly suppressed the anger in his heart Mo, and squeezed out a smile on his face.

“Is there anything else for Mr. Desolate?”

“Nothing, just a warning for you!”

Lin Mo solemnly said, his expression serious.

“A few strangers have appeared in District 3 recently!”

“Very strong!”

“What’s their name .....”

After Lin Mo recalled for a while, he suddenly slapped his head.

“Come to think of it!”

“One is Silver Jade and the other is Leopard Slave, the Sea Wolf King should pay attention to safety!”

At these words, although the Sea Wolf King had tried his best to control it, his body couldn’t help but tremble slightly.

“Sea Wolf King, what’s wrong with you?”

“Is your body uncomfortable?”

Lin Mo moved forward and asked curiously.

“No ..... it’s fine!”

The Sea Wolf King clenched his teeth.

“The big wedding is near, Mr. Mo I will excuse myself.”

Lin Mo looked at his departing back a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

As expected!

This Sea Wolf King really did know the two male Patriarchs.

And if he hadn't guessed wrong, the purpose of those two was Lan Dieyi.

This also explained why Lan Dieyi's parents had to take her and run away.

The Patriarchs were at the top of the pecking order in any place.

Besides, the mastermind behind this, there were several other clan masters.

"It seems like things are getting more and more interesting!"

.....

On the other side.

The Sea Wolf King became incomparably flustered after Lin Mo had reported two names.

Violence pushed in the door.

The Sea Wolf King grabbed Lan Dieyi's wrist with one hand.

"Ouch, what are you doing, Sea Wolf King?"

Lan Dieyi scolded in some anger.

"Shut up!"

The huge voice instantly stunned Lan Dieyi.

The Sea Wolf King, who had originally been obedient to her and had responded to her requests, had completely changed into a different person at this moment.

With his heavy panting and red eyes, he was like a man-eating beast.

"Hurry up and come with me!"

"I don't want to, hurry up and let go of me!"

Lan Dieyi used all her strength to try to break free from the control.

Slap!

A crisp slap landed heavily.

Ignoring Lan Dieyi's angry and surprised gaze, the Sea Wolf King spoke viciously.

"Don't force my hand."

"Be honest, so that you suffer less!"

If not for the news of Silver Jade and Leopard Slave.

The Sea Wolf King was still planning to take care of the wedding properly.

Wait for Lan Dieyi's bloodline to awaken and complete the transfer of the Crystal Skull.

But right now, the situation was so urgent that he could not afford to take his time and wait.

Lan Dieyi's face changed and she felt bad.

And with the Sea Wolf King's current state, she did not dare to overstimulate him.

She could only remain by his wrist and tug away, anxiety written in her eyes.

Was it finally coming?

Remembering what Lin Mo had said earlier, she couldn't help but feel fear.

The sudden change of events had left her with no time to prepare.

Right now, she could only pin her hopes on Lin Mo.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3858

The Church of the Knife.

Mabond slept for a whole day and night.

After waking up again, many people heard hysterical hissing.

Shortly afterwards, Ma Bond summoned all the administrators of the Knife Sect.

The first thing that happened at the end of the meeting.

Ma Bond then led a low-key funeral for his son.

After that, all the Knife Executioners were summoned back.

One by one, appointments were made.

The entire Sword Sect was like a huge apparatus that began to run wild.

Such a scene took place at almost the same time in all the powers of the three districts.

Chaos was about to break out!

It was up to each to annex, or be annexed, depending on their respective means.

"Sect Leader! Mr Mo is here!"

"Invite him in!"

The main door opened.

Lin Mo once again met Ma Bangde.

Compared to his previous dishevelled and despondent state, he was clearly much more refreshed at this time.

Although there was still a strong look of sadness in his gaze, it was clear that there was light.

The sword aura within his body was biting.

“Sect Master Ma, what is it that you are so anxious to invite me over I wonder?”

As soon as they met, Lin Mo asked bluntly.

Originally, he had wanted to find Ma Bangde, but he didn’t expect the other party to invite him first.

“Thank you, Mr Mo, for helping out!”

Ma Bangde rose and arched his hand in acknowledgement.

After some courtesy, the topic came to the point.

“Mr Mo, I wonder what you think of the current situation?”

Ma Bangde asked tentatively.

Lin Mo leaned his body back and raised his eyebrows.

“How else can I look at it that way, just sit back and watch.”

This old Bideng, even after his son died, he was still not honest.

How dare he still try to set up a conversation!

Lin Mo wasn’t stupid, how could he possibly hand over his bottom.

Ma Bangde’s smile faltered, knowing clearly that his little mind had been seen through.

“Oh, it was Ma who was abrupt!”

After saying that, he ordered his subordinate to fetch a large document.

“Mr. Mo, I know that you are highly powerful, and the tiny District 3 will not be your focus.”

“So, I would like to work together with you?”

The words ended.

The thick document was pushed in front of Lin Mo’s body.

“This is the details of the three districts, the ten major powers.”

At this point in the conversation, Lin Mo also understood what this Ma Bangde had in mind.

“Sect Master Ma, you also want to take the three districts?”

Ma Bangde did not conceal it and admitted it.

From the moment his son died, it was clear to him.

Someone wanted to stir up the entire Third District.

As for the purpose, anyone who wasn’t a fool could understand.

A great unification of the three districts!

“The chaos has begun, and as long as one is in the Third Region, no one can hide!”

“Even if we do nothing, we will still be swallowed up.”

“In that case, why not let go and fight!”

Mabundu said expansively.

If they could join the three districts together, they, the Knife Sect, would be the only overlord.

At that time, he would be able to search for his son’s murderer without worry.

Why not kill two birds with one stone!

“Mr Mo, I know you are very strong, but after all, it is difficult to stand alone.”

“If we can unite, we are like a tiger with wings!”

After hearing this, Lin Mo also nodded seriously.

Nowadays, Ma Bangde’s thoughts were more open-minded.

Without the restraint, he was even more aggressive in his actions.

After contemplating for a while, Lin Mo nodded his head and asked.

“What can you give me?”

Ma Bangde’s face flushed with joy at his words.

There was a game!

“I wonder what Mr Mo wants?”

Lin Mo didn’t hesitate, and after getting up, he waved his hand.

“I want your entire Blade Sect!”

In other words, even if the Blade Sect were to unite the three districts in the future.

Then the entire Third Region would still be Lin Mo’s.

There was no difference between this statement and provocation.

The scene instantly fell silent.

Even the few swordsmen in the room had already secretly put their hands on the hilts of their swords.

They were only waiting for the sect master to give the order.

“Wanting my Blade Sect, hahaha, what an appetite.”

Ma Bangde narrowed his eyes.

Only at this moment did he see Lin Mo’s ambition and purpose.

“Is Mr Mo serious?”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3859

Sword Cult, the main hall!

Under the heavy atmosphere.

All eyes were focused on Lin Mo's body.

It was as if his delicate wife was being spied on at home.

The faces of the swordsmen present were extraordinarily fierce.

Lin Mo did not have the slightest fear in the face of such a situation.

He leaned back on the sofa just as if nothing was wrong.

"Sect Master Ma, do you think I look like I'm joking?"

Eyes intertwined.

Ma Bangde asked indifferently.

"On what basis?"

This remark was exactly what the other swordsmen present wanted to ask.

Although the Knife Sect was not as large in numbers as the other forces, they were all elites, good fighters who could take on ten with one.

Even if Lin Mo was strong, if he wanted to take down the Knife Sect with a single word.

It was a fool's dream.

"On what basis?"

Lin Mo smiled faintly as his body probed forward.

"How about with this strength of mine?"

As the cup in his hand landed on top of the coffee table, a terrifyingly powerful pressure appeared out of thin air.

In an instant.

The swordsmen present only felt that ten thousand catties of mountains fell on their shoulders.

They didn't even have time to react before their eyes went black and they fell to the ground, completely unconscious!

Ma Bangde stared at these eyes wide open, his face full of shock.

"A Zong ..... Zong master?"

He knew that Lin Mo was strong, but he never thought that Lin Mo would be so strong.

Under the monstrous aura, Ma Bangde was like a small boat traveling in a huge wave.

He could capsize at any moment and did not have the slightest power to resist.

With such strength, there was no doubt that he was a Patriarch.

The most terrifying thing was that when Ma Bangde looked at Lin Mo's tender appearance, he felt his scalp tingle!

A Zong Shi powerhouse in his twenties!

This could no longer be described as a genius, it was a complete demon.

Three breaths later.

Lin Mo withdrew his aura pressure without moving, and continued to drink the tea in his hand.

It was as if what had just happened had not come from him.

Opposite.

By now, Ma Bangde's face was already red and his back was soaked with sweat.

Faced with this feeling of life and death being out of his hands, he only felt an endless pressure.

"Sect Master Ma, how is it?"

Lin Mo's aim was not as simple as just one third district.

His ultimate goal was to unify the entire Death Island.

At that time, he would indeed need a large number of administrators as well.

The Blade Sect in front of him was the second preferred power he had in mind.

Ma Bond's chest rose and fell as he returned to his senses.

The atmosphere in his mouth continued.

Three breaths of time was indeed extremely long for him.

"Mo Xian ..... no, Patriarch Mo!"

Ma Bangde braced his hands on the armrest and stood up.

The large sword was withdrawn and he bowed his hand.

This was a respect for the strong!

"Patriarch Mo, it would be an honor for us to look upon the Sword Sect! However ....."

Ma Bangde turned his words around.

"Mister Ma, with a blood feud on his mind, still has to rely on this Blade Sect to uncover the murderer for my son."

The words were half spoken, to the point.

Ma Bangde said cautiously.

He had been able to communicate calmly with Lin Mo when he did not know his true strength.

Nowadays, his words and actions were clearly shorter.

A sect master! In the outside world, he was a national pillar.

If Lin Mo had a mind to do so, it would only take him a little more time to exterminate their Blade Sect.

“You don’t have to worry about that!”

After Lin Mo simply returned his salute, he gestured for Ma Bangde to return to his seat.

“I already know who that murderer is, but it’s very cunning, they got away!”

They?

Ma Bangde instantly grasped the point of Lin Mo’s words.

“You were present at the clan fight on the outskirts of the sixth street of Patriarch Mo?”

“If there was only this one place in the third district, then it would have been me.”

Lin Mo did not conceal anything and returned truthfully.

Ma Bangde was secretly shocked.

With a strong curiosity, he swallowed and pretended to be bold as he asked.

“Patriarch Mo you alone repelled several Patriarchs?”

According to the information presented by his men.

The traces left from the battle, however, indicated that several Patriarchs were involved.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3860

Ma Bangde just stared at Lin Mo with his jaw dropped.

Could it be that this kid had been cultivating since his mother’s womb?

Lin Mo didn’t care about his gaze and calmly shook his head.

“It’s not that exaggerated!”

He said and held out two fingers.

“It’s only two!”

“It’s mainly because that b*tch is very cunning, one slip of the tongue and he gets away with two!”

“But don’t worry, the next time you’re met by me, I’ll let you kill your enemy with your hands.”

Compared to Lin Mo's light-heartedness.

At this moment, Ma Bangde's heart was already flooded with shocking waves.

There were only two of them?

Brother, that was a sect master!

A super existence that could crush itself to death with just one thumb.

The most terrifying thing was!

Coming from Lin Mo's mouth, it was completely like everyone was a child.

After a long time!

Only then did Ma Bangde calm down.

After weighing up the pros and cons, he had a promise in mind.

"Patriarch Mo, the Blade Sect will be honoured by you from now on!"

With an answer, Lin Mo got up and extended his hand.

"Sect Master Blade, I wish us a happy peace making!"

"What I promised you, I will do!"

Ma Bangde was just about to shake hands with him when we suddenly had a sharp knock at the door.

"Prelate, the Director's daughter ..... is in critical condition!"

.....

A Bentley drove frantically along the wide highway.

"Hurry up, hurry up!"

Ma Bangde urged this over and over, explaining to Lin Mo.

"Patriarch Mo, Director Qiu is the greatest strength in our three districts!"

"If you can save and heal his daughter, accepting this favour will be a great help to our entire Third District."

That said!

Only Ma Bangde's eyes were filled with hesitation.

He simply did not have a clue about Lin Mo's self-proclaimed extraordinary medical skills.

"Old Ma, what are you panicking about, you can't trust me?"

Lin Mo twisted his head to snicker.

"I won't hide from you, this Patriarch's medical skills are unparalleled in the world, even if ....."

“Watch out!”

Did not come to finish blowing.

Lin Mo spoke out to remind a word!

At this time, the car was directly in front of a large truck filled with steel bars, suddenly opened the door.

Like a flood of steel bars came rushing towards the car Lin Mo was in.

In his desperation, Lin Mo blew off Ma Bangde with a kick.

Just as he was about to jump out of the car himself, the steel bars had completely surrounded him.

In such a dangerous situation, Lin Mo did not panic and reached for his waist.

The next second, he blushed smoothly.

Tai Ah was gone!

Even the sound of his cultivation had disappeared without a trace at this moment.

How was this possible?

At the same time, the sharp steel bar was already approaching his chest.

With a poof, Lin Mo’s consciousness completely dissipated.

.....

Guang Province, downtown Guangyang.

“Wherever you are reading this now, please wake up as soon as possible. You’ve been in a coma for years now, and your family is waiting for you.”

Lin Mo was lying on his bed scratching through various short videos.

When he saw this pa*sage, Lin Mo also felt a little saddened by how big the netizens’ brains were now.

Of course for such content just look at it, seriously you will lose.

“Wuli, wuli, wuli,” as he was about to scroll down.

A rush of ambulances rattling came from outside the area, getting closer and closer.

Driven by curiosity, he put down his phone, walked over to the window and looked down.

Sure enough the ambulance was parked just below his house.

The car stopped and the ambulance crew quickly opened the back door and took the stretcher out of it.

As Lin Mo watched, he hurriedly walked into the building.

Shortly afterwards, the “ding” of the lift came.

Along with the sound of hurried footsteps, the nervous conversations of the medical staff came clearly through the door of the room.

“Quick, emergency oxygen.”

“The patient has lost too much blood, emergency blood transfusion.”

“Multiple bone fractures in the hand bones, multiple comminuted fractures in the leg bones, blood pressure continues to drop, prepare a pacemaker.”

“Ma*sive internal bleeding.”

“Quickly, prepare for surgery, emergency blood transfusion, patient needs high level amputation.”
