Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3911

As Lin Mo's order was given.

District Three was also finally unbanned at this time.

After a round of bloodshed, the entire Third District was back to its usual bustle.

In the streets, four people were strolling in the foreground.

Only the man among them, who was fat as a small mountain, stood out extraordinarily.

A whole roasted lamb in one hand was constantly brought to his mouth to tear the bar.

"Second Sect Master, why don't we just send someone over."

The goat-horn braided girl asked curiously as she wrapped her arm around Ji Dutuo.

"Taking down this just this little death island is more than enough for an hour!"

Ji Dutuo, still with the two of them holding his arm, patiently explained.

"Because we Seven Deadly Sins aren't the only ones who want the Crystal Skull!"

"Making too much noise and attracting other people's attention will rather outweigh the loss."

But he completely treated the two daughters as if they were his own daughters.

Even the matter of the crystal skull, he had not yet avoided saying it.

Star blinked her eyes and pondered for a moment, as if she understood.

But Cloud, the young girl on the other side, pursued the question again.

"Then why don't we just behead that brat!"

Ji Dutuo smiled gently.

"Because, ah, he killed my brother, it would be too cheap to let him die like that."

"The more he wants something, the less I'll let him get it and end up with nothing."

"When the time comes, let him experience the torture of not being born like this again."

Although his tone was extremely calm.

But the pa*ser-by on the side did not suddenly feel a piercing chill.

It was just that this feeling came and went in blocks.

In the blink of an eye, everything was back to normal.

As the three of them were walking and talking, a heated argument suddenly came from not far away.

Xing and Yun looked pleased and hurriedly pulled Ji Dutuo up.

“Second Sect Master, let’s go and see the buzz.”

Under the pull of the two women, Ji Dutuo could only have the two of them drag him over left and right.

After that the tyrant corpse behind him was still contentedly tearing baring the roasted whole lamb in his hands, following unhurriedly.

.....

The other side.

Lin Mo was researching suitable knife techniques for the knife religion.

Outside the door, Black Rose rushed over in a hurry.

“Mr. Lin, there’s a fight, a fight.”

.....

When Lin Mo rushed to the scene.

Ma Bangde was still rolling on the ground from drinking Wang Changxing.

“Sect Master Ma, grip his hair.”

“Court Master Wang, yes, that’s it, big fist cannon, smash him his beads.”

“Sect Master Ma, quick, f*ck him!”

The onlookers around, kept cheering and shouting their approval.

As for the two people who were wrestling, they were already bruised and swollen by now.

Seeing Lin Mo’s face showing anger, Black Rose at the side was about to go up and stop the two.

However, Lin Mo suddenly stopped her.

“Don’t mind them, let the two continue.”

Although Lin Mo was angry, there was also this hint of relief.

At the very least, Ma Bangde still knew to withdraw his sword and fight with his fists and feet.

After a long time.

The crowd of onlookers shouted hoarsely.

Ma Bangde was exhausted by the time he drank Wang Changxing’s perception of Lin Mo’s arrival.

“Mr. Lin!”

The two men walked forward with frightened looks on their faces and hung their heads.

“Why did you stop?”

Lin Mo’s face was cold as he spoke coldly.

“Everyone hasn’t seen enough!”

“Go on, finish disgracing all of that even old face to come.”

At this moment, the two of them were like children who had done something wrong, lowering their heads and not daring to speak.

Only after Lin Mo had rebuked them did he frown and ask.

“What’s going on?”

He was in a state of surprise that the two people were over a hundred years old combined.

It was surprising that they could still be on the street, shamelessly fighting.

Asking about it, Ma Bangde stood up straight with excitement.

“D*mn, this son of a b*tch called me a goon.”

“And said he was marginalised by Mr Lin.”

This matter had always been a difficult threshold to pa*s in Ma Bangde’s mind.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3912

Ever since the Perry incident.

Ma Bangde then felt that Lin Mo basically did not seek him out privately anymore.

All matters were also left to Director Qiu.

After all, their Blade Sect was the first to submit to Lin Mo’s men.

And this time, when martial skills were distributed, even the puppet-like Cang Ying Gang had a share.

They were the only ones who didn’t get anything.

He was already depressed, and Wang Changxing had taunted him with his bad mouth.

The two of them got into a fight.

After Lin Mo’s learned the cause and effect, he would have been P*ssed off.

“Two copies of martial arts, I do not give the knife to teach, that way you do not have some p*ssy in your heart?”

Ma Bangde was getting up and twisted his cheeks in depression.

Buzzing with complaints.

"It's not because of Mr. Lin, think Ma Mou I'm not into others."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Lin Mo stepped forward and slapped him on the back of the head.

"Where's your brain!"

"I'll split it out, that's a boxing technique!"

"You bunch of sword practitioners, what the hell do you think you're eating!"

The average strength of the Knife Cult was on average stronger than the others.

Plus all of them used swords.

What kind of fart do you want to eat?

"Here, this is specially prepared for your Blade Sect Master."

Lin Mo said and smashed the book in Ma Bangde's face.

Without saying a word, Ma Bangde hurriedly took it with the aid of it.

After quickly flipping through it, a gradual smile suddenly appeared on his originally depressed face.

"Hey, hey! Mr. Lin!"

"Happy now!" Lin Mo rolled his eyes speechlessly.

"Mmmmmmmmm, thank you Mr. Lin!"

Ma Bangde bent down and thanked him repeatedly.

This blade technique, called the Returning Sea One Blade, was extremely powerful.

And it was not only suitable for the sabre practitioners under his discipline to cultivate.

It was even more powerful than the sabre technique he cultivated himself.

"Cultivate it well, don't let my efforts go to waste."

Lin Mo finished with a direct kick that sent Ma Bangde flying.

The Eight Extremes Fist and Joint Technique were readily available.

They could be replicated as long as he drew from a gourd.

The Returning Sea Slash was an original creation that he had borrowed from his own sword technique's mysteries.

It had taken no small amount of effort.

As for Ma Bangde's side, after patting his butt.

He waved the sword technique in his hand with a face full of triumph and raised his eyebrows provocatively towards Wang Changxing.

Only then did he leave with a fart.

At this moment, Wang Changxing didn't have the heart to tussle with Ma Bangde anymore.

Judging from Lin Mo's move.

The Knife Sect did have this extraordinary status in Lin Mo's heart.

Thinking of this, he cleanly admitted his mistake to.

"Mr. Lin, I was wrong!"

Lin Mo did not mean to blame.

"It's good that you know what's in your heart!"

"The usual tussles are fine, but you guys now represent the face of the managers of the three districts."

"This is the first and last time! Understand?"

Wang Changxing nodded his head repeatedly, "Mr. Lin, I understand."

Just as he finished speaking, Lin Mo handed a small porcelain bottle into his hand.

"This is an external injury medicine!"

"After taking it, it will help you raise your cultivation a little."

"Go recuperate from your injuries!"

The art of imperialism was all about a balance.

No matter how biased he was towards the Blade Sect, he had to ensure that a bowl of water was level.

After receiving it, Wang Changxing thanked him with a joyful heart.

He then quickly left the room.

It was obvious that he couldn't wait to test the pills Lin Mo had given out.

Lin Mo could only shake his head helplessly as he watched the two of them leave.

These power lords sometimes looked very smart, but sometimes they were just like old children.

They were so childish!

Just as Lin Mo was laughing bitterly, he suddenly felt someone tugging at the corner of his shirt.

Turning his head, directly Black Rose was staring at himself with an expectant face.

"Mr. Lin Lin, I that!"

Perhaps out of fear of Lin Mo, the black rose stammered in her speech.

Lin Mo understood the other party's meaning.

Earlier, in order to keep her a secret, he had given her the Rotting Dirty Pill.

Now that the three districts had basically completed their unification.

There was indeed no need to restrain her anymore.

“Take it, this is the completed antidote.”

“Take note, find a quiet environment to take it, it will be an unexpected pleasure.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3913

After dealing with the fight between Wang Changxing and Ma Bangde.

Lin Mo was just about to leave.

Just as he turned around, he suddenly stopped moving.

In the middle of the crowd, a bookish man with glasses was looking at himself with a smile on his face.

It didn't look malicious.

And the two little girls with goat-horn braids were also just making mischievous faces towards themselves.

They were naughty to the extreme.

On the contrary, the man who was as fat as a hill looked somewhat unsympathetic.

“What's wrong with you, Mr. Lin?”

Black Rose's call intended Lin Mo's thoughts.

When he looked over there again.

The four strange figures had already disappeared from the spot.

Lin Mo shook his head, “Nothing!”

For a moment just now, he felt that the man who was fat as a mountain looked at himself as if he was looking at a delicacy.

Just think of it as his own illusion.

Lin Mo didn't care either.

He took Black Rose with him and left the place.

Outside the crowd, saliva was already gushing out from the corners of the tyrant corpse's mouth.

“Second Brother, that man is so delicious!”

“I want to eat him so badly!”

That greedy gaze indicated that he was not joking.

Ji Dutuo smiled and said comfortingly.

“There’s no need to rush, it won’t be long before Second Brother lets you use him as much as you want.”

“But before again, just bear with it for a while!”

The tyrant deflated in aggravation, but eventually nodded obediently in agreement.

After sucking in his saliva, he directly threw half of the roasted lamb in his hand into his mouth.

Chewing frantically with the bones and meat.

“Let’s go, let’s just watch the show quietly!” Ji Dutuo took the two girls by the hand.

Xing scratched his head in confusion.

“Second Master, did you promise that old fellow Clegg that you would leave the management of Death Island to him in the future?”

“That little handsome guy, but he’s always an expert, if we don’t make a move.”

“That old fellow might die!”

Ji Dutuo snorted, “There’s no such thing as a power struggle that doesn’t kill people.”

“Besides, if that Clegg is unlucky and gets killed, that’s his fate.”

From the beginning, the promise he gave Clegg was a blank cheque.

If you wanted to drink soup from under the Seven Deadly Sins, you’d have to do it in another life.

With that said, the four men walked into an alleyway.

Halfway down the line, two shadows slowly coalesced into human form and half-kneeled to the ground.

“Greetings, my lord!”

“How’s the investigation of the information you were told to check?”

Ji Dutuo’s words fell.

The person in front of him then held a volume of files and raised it high.

After Ji Dutuo quickly browsed through the side, his eyes became clear.

“So it’s a genius from over there. A master of both medicine and martial arts, huh!”

“If we get this person killed, I wonder if those old guys will be heartbroken!”

Muttered a few words to himself.

Ji Dutuo casually waved his hand.

The case scroll in his hand turned into dust and dissipated into thin air.

It was only when he had done this that he suddenly noticed a difference in the atmosphere.

The two little girls were puffing out their goldfish mouths and looking at him angrily.

“What’s wrong with you two?”

“Hmph, after reading it yourself, you ruined it and didn’t know to show it to us!”

Ji Dutuo doted and rubbed the top of Xing’s head.

“It’s not like there’s any important information, there’s nothing to see!”

He knew his son and daughter were extremely curious, and after explaining she added.

“The little handsome guy you’re talking about, ah, is Lin Mo of China.”

The two daughters, Xing and Yun, first flinched for a moment.

Then their eyes flashed with intense excitement.

“Really? He’s our idol eh!”

“Sister, you said that if we made our idol Lin Mo into our puppet, it must be fun!”

“Sister, let’s think the same thing.”

“I can’t wait now.”

The two girls’ originally lovely faces gradually became fierce.

The long scarlet tongue kept licking its lips.

It was like, a hungry wolf seeing fresh meat, impatient.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3914

On Lin Mo’s side.

He was in the middle of cultivation when he suddenly opened his eyes after feeling a hint of heart palpitations.

Ever since he had seen the unusual group of four, a feeling of unease had gradually grown in his heart.

This feeling had not been felt for a long time.

If he hadn’t guessed wrong, it was likely that the people he had seen coming during the day on the street were from the Seven Deadly Sins.

He had already killed two sect leader-level figures of the Seven Deadly Sins.

Given their style of action, it was absolutely impossible for them to stop there.

After thinking about it for a while.

Lin Mo summoned Director Qiu.

“Old Qiu!”

“These four people, you send your men to keep an eye on them.”

“Remember to be the resourceful kind, those four people are most likely Zong Shi masters.”

Four clan masters?

Director Qiu was visibly flabbergasted for a moment.

Two people had already been exterminated by Lin Mo before, and one of them was still hiding in District 3, unaccounted for.

Now four more people had come.

What kind of terrifying existence had they messed with.

Seven Patriarchs.

Even a slightly weaker country would not be able to withstand them, not to mention their Island of Death.

The more Director Qiu thought about it, the more panicked he became and couldn't help but ask.

“Mr. Lin, can I know exactly what kind of existence the other party is?”

Lin Mo didn't give him an answer.

“It's better if you don't know.”

“If you know too well, your heart will be in turmoil.”

If these individual power lords were to be made aware of it.

The enemy they were about to face was one of the most mysterious forces in the world.

It was guaranteed that they would run away overnight.

Lin Mo saw that Director Qiu still looked impulsive with his heart and spoke again.

“Old Qiu, just don't worry!”

“If the sky falls, there's still me to hold it up.”

“Even if I can't hold up, I won't run away, don't we still have people behind us?”

Only when Director Qiu heard this did he feel a little more at ease.

This Lin Mo was not only a super strong clan master himself.

Behind him was the Hong Clan, and on the internet was the terrifying country of China.

Even if he wasn't defeated, couldn't Lin Mo still shake people, no?

“Mr. Lin, I understand!”

With that, Director Qiu left with quick steps and went forward to arrange for manpower.

In situ.

Lin Mo was about to close his eyes and prepare to continue cultivating his mind.

The next second, however, he stood up violently.

The sword talisman he had given to the power lords earlier had been triggered!

.....

The conversation was divided into two parts.

Ma Bangde returned to the sect.

The first time, he eagerly began to study, of the sword technique gifted by Lin Mo.

Feeling that he had eaten it up, he hurried to the courtyard again and began to experiment.

The great sword danced.

With a loud shout from Ma Bangde.

Three feet away, a decorated rock more than one person high instantly exploded.

“What a strong Return to the Sea slash.”

Ma Bangde could not help but exclaim.

With this blade technique alone, his battle power had instantly more than doubled.

Just as he was gloating, a sudden movement came to his ears.

“Old Brother, wrong practice!”

“There is residual power in the qi, not enough power!”

Hearing an outsider’s pointing out.

Ma Bangde’s face instantly sank.

“What kind of person dares to come to my sword to teach dogs to bark!”

He turned his head to look.

He only saw a svelte man with gla*ses looking at himself quietly from above the roof.

Beside him, two petite and lovely little girls were wrapping their arms around him in a dependent manner.

The three looked plain and una*suming.

But Ma Bond felt as if he was being watched by a flood of beasts.

This feeling, too, he had only experienced in Lin Mo's body.

Thinking of this.

Ma Bangde subconsciously gripped the large sword in his hand tightly.

"Who are you people?"

Ji Dutuo did not answer him, but only asked in return.

"I heard that you have a good relationship with that Lin Mo?"

He said as he slowly overstepped forward.

By the time their paws hit the ground again, the three of them had already appeared in front of Ma Bangde's body.

Such a stance instantly made Ma Bangde even more nervous.

The man in front of him was undoubtedly a Grandmaster.

And what surprised Ma Bangde the most was that.

This person actually knew Lin Mo's identity

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3915

Under the moonlight.

Ma Bond was by now in a cold sweat, and his back was already soaked with sweat.

Even if his opponent hadn't made any movements!

The mere hint of aura that spilled out was enough to make him panic.

This was a sect master!

After a while, he could barely suppress the fear inside him.

"I don't know any Lin Mo who doesn't drench the membrane."

"You are not welcome in our Blade Sect, please leave!"

It was obvious that the man with gla*ses in front of him was here to find trouble with Lin Mo.

He wasn't going to admit it until he had informed Lin Mo.

Ji Dutuo did not have any intention of getting angry, instead he smiled slightly.

"Strength is not good, but you are quite righteous."

"You, very good!"

"Only, those who don't listen usually don't end up well!"

After saying that, his raised arm fell heavily.

Ma Bond's back teeth clenched and his lower limbs flared.

But just as he was about to dodge, his face instantly changed dramatically.

At that moment, he lost control of his own limbs.

What kind of evil magic was this?

Although Ma Gangde desperately stabbed with needles.

But it was as if his hands and feet were being held against the wall.

It was impossible to move his body.

It was over!

Ma Bangde's heart went cold and he closed his eyes in despair.

It looked like the palm was about to hit Ma Bangde.

At that moment, there was a sudden tremor in front of his chest.

A biting sword qi whistled out.

Ji Dutuo obviously did not expect such a situation either.

Caught off guard, he could only give up his attack and turned his body sideways.

After a quick dodge, the sword qi just grazed his hair.

Ji Dutuo's face remained calm as he steadied himself.

"It seems that this Lin Mo still thinks quite highly of you guys!"

He said with a little surprise.

He then reached out to catch the handful of hair that had been cut off his sideburns.

"Unfortunately, the strength is still a bit short!"

There was a faint mockery between the words.

Opposite him, Ma Bond breathed heavily after he had slowed down.

It was so close, the man was gone.

"Who the hell are you people?"

At this point he did not expect, the other side to answer.

The moment the sword talisman was punished, he violently remembered.

Lin Mo's words from earlier.

At this moment, he was only thinking that he could delay for a while.

Hopefully, Lin Mo would arrive in time.

Ji Duto shook his head with a smile, "Still want to make this unreasonable resistance?"

"I forgot to tell you, the reason I'm looking for you is to get you to introduce me to Lin Mo."

Without waiting for Ma Bangde to speak.

The speaker then came from the dark night sky.

"If you want to find me, just come straight to the door."

Reflecting the faint light in this room, a human figure slowly walked out.

After seeing the visitor, Ma Bangde let out a huge sigh of relief.

"Mr. Lin, you're finally here."

With that he hurriedly hid behind the visitor with a single healthy step.

Lin Mo stepped forward and looked squarely at several people.

"Isn't it a bit too degrading to be a Patriarch and make things difficult for a Battle 5 scum Battle 5 scum?"

As he said this, his palm was firmly mounted above the hilt of his sword the whole time.

Although he did not know where the other party, the fat mountain-like strong man, was hiding.

But just by the fact that there were three clan masters in front of him who were invoking but not firing, it was enough for him to have to pay attention.

Ji Dutuo saw the rightful owner and a standard smile surfaced on his face.

"Isn't this to please you, Mr Lin Mo?"

"What can I do for you, just say the word!" Lin Mo raised his hand in gesture.

Ji Dutuo did not beat around the bush either and spoke straightforwardly.

"Those three brothers and sisters of mine died, and that was because they were not as skilled as others."

"But could I, please, ask Brother Lin to return his three bodies to me, so that they can return to their roots."

"In exchange, I can do so without making things difficult, for the people under your hands?"

The purpose of his strike against Ma Bangde was also in this.

In order to tell Lin Mo.

I can kill your men whenever I want!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3916

Hearing this, Lin Mo couldn't help but frown.

Three people?

He himself had clearly only killed Leopard Slave and Tan Lan.

The trail of Silver Jade had not been found yet.

With this in mind, Lin Mo directly agreed.

"The corpses of Leopard Slave and Tan Lan, I can return them to you!"

"But that seventh sister of yours, I didn't kill him."

"Nowadays, we're still looking for her too!"

As the words fell to the ground, Ji Dutuo's face finally appeared to change.

The person's lamp had died.

The three people's original lamps had been completely extinguished a few days ago.

"Are you sure you didn't kill her?"

Ji Dutuo asked with some uncertainty.

Lin Mo really hadn't lied to him either.

"No!"

"This kind of thing, I really don't have anything to hide."

Ji Dutuo's brows were tightly locked.

It wasn't that he didn't believe Lin Mo.

Since he had already killed their two brothers.

It was already a deadly feud.

One more or one less Yin Yu would not change anything.

There was indeed no need to conceal it.

In that case, could it be that there was still a third party clan master on the island.

Ji Dutuo pondered for a while before speaking up.

"Then I'll trouble Brother Lin Mo to tell us the location, we'll have someone go and fetch it!"

"Martial Division, the Green Camphor Tree."

Lin Mo did not conceal the location directly.

"Also, I hope that you will keep your word."

When he said this, his words had gone icy cold.

Ji Dutuo smiled and nodded.

It was the little girl beside him, whose eyes kept shining from the moment she saw Lin Mo.

"Idol, we'll meet again right."

"I don't think I'll have time this time, I'll find you to play next time."

The two girls, Xing and Yun, waved their hands enthusiastically towards Lin Mo.

It was just that there was a strong glint of greed in their eyes.

After the two daughters finished speaking, they also turned around.

Bouncing one after another, they caught up with Ji Dutuo, one of them holding an arm.

After taking a few steps, the three of them disappeared together.

As for the aura of the patriarch hidden in the darkness, it also dissipated together at this moment.

This was the end of the matter.

It was only because of Silver Jade's sudden and violent death.

This caused a wonderful misunderstanding to form between the two sides.

One side mistakenly thought that there were other masters on Death Island.

The other side thought that Silver Jade was still hiding somewhere.

As Lin Mo watched their backs, his face became grave.

Those two young girls were at most no more than twenty years old.

Yet they were already at the Zong Shi realm.

Such talent was one of the tops in the world.

Even Lin Mo himself could not help but feel the pressure.

At this moment, Ma Bangde's heart was still palpitating.

It was only after the other party disappeared that he dared to speak.

"Mr. Lin, who the hell are they?"

"This is too terrifying, if it wasn't for that sword talisman your bestowed, I would have been killed here."

He looked at the sword talisman that had lost its spiritual light in his hand.

A look of regret was written all over his face.

Lin Mo knew exactly what Old Old Horse meant.

It was just to ask for another sword talisman to keep him company.

“Don’t worry, the other party has already agreed.”

“And it won’t come back to haunt you!”

There was absolutely no need for a sect master to end up with a reputation of backstabbing because of this trivial matter.

Especially since the other party was still the Second Sect Master of the Seven Deadly Sins.

“That’s good, then!”

In this way, a big stone in Ma Bangde’s heart had finally fallen to the ground.

Just what he didn’t notice was this.

At this moment, although Lin Mo had a smile on his lips.

In fact, his face was already covered in gloom.

This simple exchange of words.

It also allowed Lin Mo to see the terrifying heart of this Ji Dutuo.

Facing the depths of the sea of blood, he was still able to not reveal a single murderous thought, not even a change in emotion.

This kind of person’s cultivation level was even if he was still a Patriarch.

But it had also reached the point of being as pure as fire.

If they were to fight in the future.

Even Lin Mo was not confident.

Especially when the other party also brought along two little girls with demonic qualifications.

As well as which one obese man who had been ambushing in the shadows.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3917

Under the night curtain.

And so ended the first precisely meeting between Lin Mo and Ji Dutuo.

To be more precise, it was a deal between the two sides that was completed.

Lin Mo had the other party’s guarantee.

There was also no need to worry about the several power lords, as well as the power members in.

However.

Before one wave subsided, another wave started.

The next day, early in the morning

Director Qiu then sent urgent information about the border of the three districts.

The Laurens family had called .

“What’s going on?”

“Didn’t you say that the thirteen districts weren’t allowed to attack each other?”

Lin Mo asked with a frown.

He hadn’t even set his plans on his side.

Over there, the Lawrence Family’s people had already taken the lead.

Weren’t they afraid that the other twelve districts would join forces?

Director Qiu poured in a few sips of tea before explaining in horror.

“Indeed.”

“I don’t know how they dare?”

“It won’t be long before, with such a move, they, the Lawrence Family, will immediately face a joint crusade.”

When the time comes, the twelve districts will unite.

Even if his Lawrence Family was as rampant as they were, they would only be doomed to destruction.

Having said that, Lin Mo felt that something was not normal.

He had never believed that this Noah’s Lawrence Clan would be willing to match the real clan to seek revenge on himself.

“You arrange for the arming first, I’ll go and see what’s going on?”

“If the situation is urgent, crush this object.”

After Lin Mo shoved the sword talisman to Director Qiu, he rushed straight towards District Two.

An all-out war between District 2 and District 3 was not what Lin Mo wanted.

There must be a demon for things to go the other way.

Only by heading to the Lawrence family could he find out what was going on.

With great speed, Lin Mo soon pa*sed by District Three.

Lin Mo soon pa*sed the border of District 3.

At this point, there was already a sea of people here.

As far as the eye could see, there were only dense crowds of people.

Millions of people were stretched out.

There was a strong sense of oppression in the air.

Behind the crowds were the resource supply areas and the command and battle centres.

A constant stream of supplies was gathered from the rear.

They were then transported to the front line by the tide of people like ants.

When Lin Mo walked in.

This place was in charge of the rear except for Director Qiu and Ma Bangde.

The rest of the power lords had already arrived in full.

“Greetings, Mr. Lin!”

As soon as the crowd saw Lin Mo, their original eyes instantly turned even hotter.

A strong battle spirit filled the entire command centre.

Especially Wang Changsheng.

Ever since he had taken the healing medicine Lin Mo had gifted him.

His cultivation level had violently risen by a level.

Although he was not yet a half-step Grandmaster, the difference would not be very far.

Now that the Lawrence family had come to attack, he could show off his skills.

With time running out, Lin Mo did not have time to exchange pleasantries with the crowd.

Raising his hand to indicate for the crowd to sit down, he gave a direct order.

“Your side will hold off for now.”

“This battle, it’s best not to fight if you can.”

When these words were spoken, the few power lords present froze in their tracks.

Their original intention was to fight through this battle and make a name for themselves in the Three Regions!

There had never been a need to stop midway.

Lin Mo naturally knew that they were battle-minded.

But right now was not the time to be fighting for power.

“Remember one thing, our ultimate goal is to unify Death Island for the sake of it.”

“If we lose a large number of combatants in this battle, how will we still be able to walk the road behind us.”

The three districts were his squad to unify Death Island.

In the future, it would already be the centre of power on Death Island.

Lin Mo absolutely did not allow, the three districts to appear in a ma*s casualty situation.

At those words.

The group of power lords were also instantly like wilted aubergines.

Although they also understood this truth.

But at this moment, their battle spirit was high, and suddenly being stamped out by a foot was somewhat of a drop in their emotions.

Lin Mo saw through their emotions and added.

“Don’t worry, there will be plenty of opportunities to fight later if you want to.”

“As long as your strength can keep up, I can bring you to conquer a country!”

There was no time for the power lords to react.

Lin Mo had already disappeared from the area.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3918

Zone 2.

Inside the Laurens family.

Although this place is in the big backwater.

The whole family, however, already emits an invisible aura of smoke.

Serious looking guards, holding lances, patrolled back and forth.

A group of patrolling guards, pa*sing through the shrub layer, a guard placed at the end of the group suddenly disappeared.

It was too fast.

The companions in front of him did not notice it in the slightest.

“Say, your family head is in that room!”

Feeling the sword blade against his throat.

This guard did not dare to hesitate in the slightest and raised his hand and pointed to the highest floor of the castle.

After Lin Mo got the answer he wanted, he backhanded and directly shattered the other guard’s brain.

He then proceeded to the top floor of the castle as fast as he could.

However, when he got close to this place.

There was no movement in the room.

What?

Could it be that he had cheated?

With this speculation, Lin Mo then secretly swept away a few of the guards inside the castle.

The result was still the same.

The Patriarch Clegg was indeed in the room.

But the person had disappeared!

After pondering for a while, Lin Mo asked for the locations of the other core members of the Laurens family.

Unfortunately, by the time they had been confirmed one by one.

There was no trace of them at all.

It was as if the core members of the Lawrence family and the top bra*s of the direct line had predicted his arrival in advance.

Hiding out in advance.

The plan to spy on the enemy's base camp had failed!

Time was running out, and the border war could strike at any moment.

Lin Mo did not have time to search elsewhere.

Just as he was about to leave.

The door to the room he was in was suddenly pushed open.

Such a change of events did not even take Lin Mo by surprise.

In his perception, there were no creatures around him approaching.

Not even the sound of footsteps.

But what was going on with the little daughter in front of him?

Surprisingly, she had arrived in front of him silently.

Kill? Not kill?

Lin Mo did not consider himself to be an indecisive person.

It was just that for some reason, when he saw the little girl in front of him, his heart inexplicably won out with a trace of pity.

That feeling was like seeing a poor little stray dog or cat on the roadside.

One could not help but feel sympathy.

Just as Lin Mo was torn.

The little girl had already started to wring the towel in the washbasin.

He then took it upon himself to wipe the floor.

Judging from his skilled movements, this girl was not blind.

However, she was oblivious to Lin Mo, a stranger who had suddenly appeared in the room.

It seemed that the only thing in her eyes was the floor beneath her feet.

With a curious mind.

Lin Mo walked up to her body.

“Lift your head up!”

After hearing the movement, the little girl moved stiffly and crawled up from the floor.

The smaller body was wrapped in only one layer of tattered clothing and trousers.

Everywhere on her body were various bruises and scars from the whipping.

Her dirty cheeks were covered by a mess of long hair.

It was impossible to see her true appearance.

Only the pair of mute, holey eyes were particularly noticeable.

At this moment, Lin Mo couldn't help but be secretly shocked.

Just how much devastation had she gone through to become so much like this.

“What's your name?”

The little girl froze in place.

It seemed that there were only orders in his world, and he simply did not know how to answer the question.

Lin Mo was just about to continue asking when footsteps suddenly came from above the corridor.

“Little b*tch!”

“How much longer are you going to dawdle?”

The fat older woman, after walking into the room, raised her hand and gave a slap.

Under the tremendous force.

The little girl was directly slapped down on the ground.

At the end, blood flowed.

But even so, her face was still devoid of any expression other than dull and wooden.

Even when the fat woman punched and kicked her, the little girl did not even make a single sound.

Zone 2, Lawrence Castle.

Even though the little girl who had fallen to the floor was already dying.

But the fat woman had no intention of stopping, instead she was hitting harder and harder.

Lin Mo, who was hiding in the shadows, watched the fat woman raise the bench with the intention of striking.

He could not hold back any longer.

With a flash of his figure, the originally fierce and fierce fat woman's limbs were instantly severed.

Before she could open her mouth to howl.

Lin Mo raised his hand and struck her with a sword, completely messing up her tongue.

After withdrawing his hand, Lin Mo let out a small sigh.

If the fat woman had killed her directly, he would not have stopped her.

After all, the first moment Lin Mo saw this little girl, he knew clearly.

This person's heart was already dead, and even if or when she was, she was a walking corpse.

Death was just a flurry of relief for her.

It was only the fat woman who was too poisonous at heart and wanted to torture people to death before she would give up.

Lin Mo also couldn't bear to watch, which was why he chose to take action.

After glancing at the little girl, he prepared to check whether she was alive or dead.

Just as he crouched down, he suddenly noticed that the little girl's originally mute eyes suddenly had a glint of light in them.

Such a change instantly made Lin Mo change his previous intentions.

There might still be hope for this little girl.

At this moment, he inexplicably wanted to save this dying flame in his heart.

"Do you still want to continue living?"

He asked.

The little girl did not answer and slowly closed her eyes.

Lin Mo saw the drop, if any, of crystal brightness in the corner of the little girl's eyes.

He instantly understood everything.

With a thought, nine cold lights flew out in unison.

As the Nine Needles of Doktor entered the little girl's body.

She, who was on the verge of death, fiercely stared with wide eyes.

The wounds all over her body were also dissipating at this moment at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Lin Mo felt her majestic vitality and could not help but be staggered.

This was so strong in recovery.

In less than half a minute.

The little girl had already recovered seventy percent.

By the time Lin Mo withdrew the Dokken Nine Needles, she was already able to stand up on her own.

"Do whatever you want to do to your heart's content!"

Not only did Lin Mo sense the little girl's majestic vitality, but he also felt the intense hatred.

These words came out.

The little girl's thin going and smaller body bones trembled slightly.

He looked at the fat woman who was half dead in front of him.

Step by step, his feet moved forward.

In the fat woman's frightened gaze, the little girl got down and bit directly into the fat woman's neck.

At this moment, the little girl was like a ferocious hungry wolf.

She tore at the prey beneath her with abandon.

After a few minutes, the fat woman was completely motionless.

There was not a single piece of flesh left on her body.

The little girl who had calmed down was already covered in blood, and with her expressionless expression.

It was a bit ominous to look at.

Perhaps it was the fat woman who had killed her with her own hands.

The glint of light in the little girl's eyes was slightly thicker at the moment.

Lin Mo took everything seriously and waited until the little girl stopped before he opened his mouth and asked.

“Are you coming with me? I can get you out.”

The little girl didn't say anything, standing mute in her place.

Lin Mo asked again, “Then are you planning to stay and take revenge?”

This statement was made.

The little girl still did not move, but her emotions showed a slight fluctuation.

At this time, Lin Mo also understood what she was planning to do.

Immediately, he took out a set of gong methods from his bosom, The Ghost Claw Technique of the Underworld and the accompanying heart technique.

This had originally been seized from the Cang Ying Gang.

It was just that Lin Mo could not see it, plus this gong method hit with Yin energy, so ordinary martial artists could not cultivate it at all.

So it had been kept in his possession.

Right now, looking at the young girl's appearance perhaps it was suitable.

“This is left for you to give to you, how far you can go in the future depends on your own destiny.”

With that, he slipped a whole set of gong methods into the little girl's arms.

Lin Mo did not take the little girl by force in the end.

Everyone had their own quest, and their own path.

Lin Mo could save her once, but not for the rest of her life.

“How far you can go in the future will depend on your own destiny.”

As the words fell to the ground, the room shook with sword energy.

On the ground, the fat woman's corpse, along with the blinding blood stains, instantly turned into dust and dissipated.

Just as Lin Mo was about to leave, he suddenly stopped in his tracks.

Turning back to look.

Only to see the little girl really tugging tightly at the corner of her coat.

“Is there anything else?”

The little girl remained silent, staring at him blankly.

After this moment of contact.

Lin Mo also seemed to have figured out this little girl's way of communication.

As long as the answer was affirmative, the little girl's emotions would fluctuate slightly.

If it was a negative answer, there would be no reaction.

"My name is Lin Mo, do you have a name?"

Seeing that the little girl did not move, Lin Mo continued to speak to himself.

"Then from now on you will be called Lin Wu Hate!"

"If there is a chance, we will meet again!"

"Go on!"

After saying that, he rubbed the top of Lin Wu Hate's head.

The name Hate Free was also a good blessing given by Lin Mo.

And when the little girl Lin Wu Hate carried the water basin, she walked out of the room and disappeared from view.

Lin Mo was surprised to find that he had once again lost his sense of Lin Wu Hate.

If he did not concentrate on himself.

He would have even subconsciously ignored the sound of her footsteps.

It was only after Lin Mo got closer to the door of the room and saw Lin Wuyan's back again.

Only then would the sound of footsteps become clear.

What a strange little girl!

After Lin Mo mentally lamented, he no longer stayed too long.

The first time he rushed to the battlefield.

As his figure disappeared.

At the top of the castle, four figures stood quietly in front of the window.

"Sect Leader Ji Dou, your guess was really accurate."

"This Lin Mo came over to try to come and a*sa*sinate Lawrence's top bra*s."

Ji Doutuo did not feel any joy at all when faced with Xing's praise.

Instead, he was a little depressed.

"Guess? Are you looking down on me?"

"This Lin Mo wants to unify Death Island, he absolutely can't let go of the fact that the three districts have lost a large number of people."

“So the best way to settle the war is only to a*sa*sinate Lawrence’s top bra*s.”

The two women, Xing and Yun, glanced at each other and smiled cheekily.

“Wow, Godfather Ji Dou, no less than our Seven Deadly Sins, the number one warlord.”

“Yeah, yeah, if only I had the general intelligence of Sect Master Ji Diao.”

Said the two girls hugged his arm tightly, their eyes full of little stars.

Ji Dutuo shook his head helplessly.

“Have I ever told you guys that you two suck at acting?”

Obviously, such tricks of the two daughters to coax children had no effect on him at all.

The two Nebula daughters spat out their tongues mischievously.

“Sect Leader, when are we going to be able to make a move on the Lin Mo idol!”

“Every time I see him, I get an itch.”

Greed was already written in the duo’s eyes.

Ji Dutuo shook his head.

“There’s no rush, wait a little longer!”

“Let this Lin Mo deplete his men before he does.”

The more Lin Mo wanted to do, the more he would block it.

Yun C*cked his little head and asked in confusion.

“What if, what if the idol really does unify Death Island?”

“Then we’ll just take over!”

Ji Dutuo smiled back.

“As long as it’s in the palm of my hand, he’ll never get out alive.”

He was enjoying this game of cat playing mouse.

At the same time, he also had absolute confidence in playing Lin Mo to death.

“By the way, has there been any news about the Sea Wolf King that was a rat’s trail?”

Yun shook his head, “Hiding too well, we haven’t caught him by the tail yet.”

Ji Dutuo was in no hurry either, “Then let’s wait a little longer!”

“You let keep an eye on Lin Mo a little.”

Just as the two women were wondering, Ji Dutuo had added.

“Maybe we can find something out from him!”
