Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3921

“It’s almost time, let’s rush to the border too!”

Ji Duto finished speaking, and the four of them disappeared together.

What he didn’t know was that just as the three of them were talking.

Above the corridor, a smaller and thinner figure was holding a basin, quietly listening to everything they were saying.

“Lin Mo, Lin Wu Hate, bad people!”

After the little girl, Lin Wu Hate, silently chanted once, her expression had changed to the dull look she had before.

Step by step, she moved her body and arrived at the humble grocery room.

This was the room she had been living in since she understood.

The roof was riddled with holes everywhere and the windows were also in tatters.

But Lin Wuyuan didn’t care at all.

After putting down the basin, the Underworld Ghost Claw Technique in her arms was taken out.

And at this moment, no one knew yet.

The Lawrence family was about to be completely wiped out because of this insignificant little girl.

.....

The conversation was divided into two parts.

When Lin Mo arrived again, at the border of the three districts.

The battlefield was still incredibly tense.

Especially while going over there.

The troops under Lawrence’s command had already advanced a few kilometres forward.

“What’s the situation?”

Lin Mo asked directly after walking into the command centre.

Wang Changxing saw that Lin Mo had returned so quickly.

In his heart, he had already guessed that the headhunting plan.

It had failed!

But for their power lords, it was good news instead.

Several people had long been rubbing their hands together about this battle.

Only, Lin Mo had clearly ordered that the principle of avoiding war be adopted.

“We have sent someone to negotiate with Lawrence’s side, hoping to delay things for some time.”

Lin Mo pursued, “When will the two sides engage in battle, if expected?”

Wang Changxing’s map of the battle was laid out on the table.

“Both the enemy and us, total input, six million men or less.”

“They, the Lawrence family, outnumber us by more than two hundred thousand.”

“Such a huge number, in a short time, logistical supplies, simply simply on.”

“So, the fastest we can prepare is like half a month or so.”

Solely on Death Island, there was very little modern combat equipment.

To prepare for a mega war, there were extremely many things that needed to be prepared.

This also gave them enough time for the three districts to react.

Half a month was enough to change a lot of things.

The Black Rose on the side also added in a timely manner.

“The representatives of the administrators of the other ten districts have already completed their meetings.”

“It will only take a week once the course of action has been determined.”

“And it will be time to impose a siege on, well, their Laurens family.”

This is an ironclad rule of the Isle of the Dead.

It is strictly forbidden to attack each other from district to district.

It was precisely because of this iron law that the island of death was so peaceful today.

Now, the Lawrence family had dared to break the rule openly.

The remaining ten districts would naturally not stand by idly.

After Black Rose had finished speaking, Lin Mo still had a vague feeling of unease in his heart.

He always felt that the joint action of the other ten districts would not be that simple.

“Don’t you guys think that this matter, has come too suddenly?”

Lin Mo asked rhetorically with a tight frown.

“This Lawrence family, although they have a deep blood feud with us.”

“But it is impossible to lose an entire family.”

“And to prepare for an attack in such haste.”

He always had a hunch that this was all a conspiracy.

It was just that he had been, unable to catch a clue.

The group of power lords, who had been focusing on the battle before, hadn't noticed this.

But thinking of the Lawrence family's power.

Wang Changxing, instantly burst out laughing.

“Mr. Lin, this is something that you don't have to worry about.”

“Our three districts' combined are not deficient to their Lawrence.”

“And the other ten districts, once they arrive, the Lawrence clan is a turtle in a jar.”

A turtle in a jar?

It was like a bolt from the blue.

Lin Mo's expression shook.

He suddenly figured out everything.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3922

Just when several power lords were still immersed in the fantasy of, well, overthrowing the Lawrence family.

Lin Mo jerked up to his feet.

“Where is the meeting place of their ten districts?”

Black Rose was also taken aback by this sudden interrogation from Lin Mo.

This was the first time she had seen Lin Mo so nervous since she had recognized it.

“It's at”

She was about to open her mouth to say the location of the meeting.

Lin Mo could not wait any longer and reached out and wrapped his arm around her slender waist.

“All of you, stabilize this side of the battle.”

“Remember to only defend, no attacking, wait for me to return.”

After hastily leaving the order, with a strong kick, he wrapped his arms around Black Rose and shot straight up into mid-air.

“You show the way!”

Black Rose was just about to react when she realised that a transparent protective shield had been added around her body.

In the next second, the surroundings instantly blurred and swept away behind her at speed.

The only sound around her ears was the sound of air bursting.

This was the sonic boom produced by the extreme speed.

“Which district?”

Just as she was still in a daze, Lin Mo’s question suddenly came to her ears.

Black Rose didn’t dare to delay and blurted out directly, “District 5!”

As soon as the words left her mouth, she fiercely perceived that Lin Mo’s speed had once again increased by a notch.

Within the line of sight, it was a blur.

It was impossible to see any surroundings at all.

With Black Rose pointing the way, Lin Mo flew at full speed.

The two of them arrived at their destination as fast as they could.

Even Lin Mo was tired and panting under the full force of the journey.

But time was running out, so he couldn’t care less.

Earlier, which of Wang Changxing’s words had reminded Lin Mo.

The Lawrence clan dared to disregard the other ten districts’ joint targeting.

The only possibility was that they had the backing of these Seven Deadly Sins.

As long as that Ji Dutuo sent out a clan master powerhouse to take action.

The meeting in these ten districts was the real catch in the jar.

In District Five, the Raging Wind Hotel stayed behind.

“Mr. Lin, the news we received is that the representatives of their ten district administrators are meeting on the top floor of this hotel.”

After Lin Mo received his answer, he did not make any nonsense.

With both feet firing, he led Black Rose straight into the sky.

Coming halfway up the building.

Only Lin Mo saw his sword penetrate the wall and leapt with his strength.

In less than three seconds, the two of them had already arrived at the top floor of the 100-storey hotel.

Lin Mo's toes, only just touched the ground, when he smelled a strong smell of blood.

Not good!

With anxiousness in his heart, he raised his hand and waved Tai Ah.

The concrete and steel floor beneath his feet instantly shattered.

Through the collapsed hole, the two of them easily arrived at the scene of the meeting in the ten districts.

Only to be greeted by a sea of blood.

Thousands of corpses were strewn before their eyes.

The air was filled with the pungent smell of blood.

The blood that kept flowing underneath his feet had even touched the back of Lin Mo's feet.

Such a horrifying visual impact directly scared Black Rose into screaming in shock.

"Lin Mr. Lin!"

"Let's get out of here!"

Although she was a little panicked, she still had a brain.

There were so many people dead in front of them.

And the two of them just happened to appear here.

If this was found out, even if they had ten mouths, they wouldn't be able to say it clearly.

And yet, what was to be feared was to be feared!

As soon as she finished speaking, the door to the meeting was opened.

The leader, who thought he was a man with a scarred face, instantly changed his expression when he saw such a scene.

The ground was filled with corpses, like a hell on earth.

Under such circumstances, Lin Mo and Black Rose became particularly conspicuous.

"Who are you people?"

As soon as the scarred man's words fell, several black and eerie robber muzzles were instantly pointed at the two of them.

Cold hairs exploded all over Black Rose's body, and she hid behind Lin Mo in fear.

"Mr. Lin, what should we do?"

At this moment, she was already nervous to the extreme.

Not just because of those robber mouths, but mainly because of this misunderstanding in front of her.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3923

Zone 5, outside the Gale Hotel.

By now it was completely isolated.

Combat troops from three layers inside and three layers outside surrounded the place tightly.

The district's power lord, Xiao Liang, had even rushed to the scene as soon as he got the news, rolling with him.

All ten representatives of the district's strength had died within the area he managed.

If this matter was not handled properly, he would also be in big trouble.

Above the top floor, at the main entrance.

Zhang Hu was also at a bit of a loss at this point.

He had received secret information that someone was going to launch a terrorist attack on the site of the meeting.

Based on the principle of killing the wrong person rather than letting them go.

After receiving the news, Zhang Hu immediately rushed to the meeting site.

Only as soon as the gate was opened.

He was greeted by the scene of a blazing prison.

And in the face of his questioning, the other party did not even bother.

He was looking for something in the room by himself.

Lin Mo sensed that countless people had gathered outside and looked up.

Without waiting for the other party to speak, he shouted angrily.

"What are you still standing there for?"

"Hurry up and save the people!"

Hearing these words, Zhang Hu also froze for a moment.

A murderer, how dare he berate himself for saving people?

What kind of world was this?

Lin Mo was instantly furious when he saw that the other party was still in a daze.

"Have you no brains, if the strength of the ten districts were represented, all of them would die here."

"You five districts, you'd be in big trouble!"

This remark instantly woke up Zhang Hu, who was in hindsight.

These were all the great figures of the districts.

Even if they could only save one, it would be a great feat.

Thinking of this, Zhang Hu no longer hesitated and immediately ordered to.

“Take this pair, the others rush to save them!”

Lin Mo also knew that the other party had decided that he was the murderer.

The situation was so urgent that he did not have time to explain clearly.

There was no time but to use extraordinary means.

With this in mind, Lin Mo directly drew out his Tai Ah.

Zhang Hu only felt a flash before his eyes, and when he reacted, there was already a sword blade on his neck.

“Hurry up and order your men to search for those who haven’t been cut off yet.”

Lin Mo raised his sword against the other man’s neck and threatened with cold eyes.

Zhang Hu swallowed, his face pale with fear.

Although he did not understand Lin Mo’s intentions, he was under the threat of death.

He chose to live.

“Hurry up, what are you looking at me for, why don’t you hurry up and go search and rescue.”

At these words.

Zhang Hu’s men hurriedly put away their guns and then began to examine all the corpses.

In a short while, the crowd made a discovery.

“Report, this girl is still breathing.”

Hearing this, Lin Mo summoned Black Rose and told her to hold this leader hostage.

“Stay good, if you dare to move a step, I’ll send you straight to your death.”

With the lesson he had just learned.

Zhang Hu naturally didn’t dare to doubt Lin Mo’s words.

He obediently nodded his head.

After Lin Mo instructed Black Rose, he made a flash and came directly to the side of the person who had just shouted.

Amidst the pool of blood, the woman had been run through the chest cavity with a sharp weapon, but she had simply avoided the vital points.

“Keep going and find the other survivors!”

After arranging Zhang Hu’s men, Lin Mo paused at the woman’s side.

After treating her wound quickly, Lin Mo had pulled out a medicinal ointment to stop the wound for the woman.

At the same time, news of the survivors came from other places.

Lin Mo dealt with the woman and instantly rushed to the next place.

Like a fireman.

Lin Mo flew around the room, constantly treating the injuries of the survivors.

The people of the Seven Deadly Sins probably also guessed that they would arrive.

So they left in a hurry and didn’t come in time to patch things up.

This also gave Lin Mo the opportunity to do so.

As time pa*sed, more and more survivors were discovered.

After Lin Mo’s resuscitation, more and more people were sent out of the room.

Many of those with less serious injuries even woke up straight away.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3924

Zhang Hu looked at the scene in front of him and was directly dumbfounded.

This murderer was actually saving people!

And that hand of medicine was truly terrifying.

He saw a middle-aged man, whose liver was clearly bleeding out.

But after this murderer’s manipulation, he had actually resuscitated it.

Time pa*sed.

Xiao Liang, the powerhouse of District Five, rushed to the Breeze Mansion in a rage.

That group of stupid men had believed the words of a murderer.

Not only did they not take him down in the first place, but they helped him rescue the injured together.

It was simply outrageous.

As soon as the lift door opened, Xiao Liang roared.

“Where’s Zhang Hu! Hurry up and tell that bd to get his a*s over here and meet me.”

However, when he came to see the scene in front of him, he was instantly stunned.

Above the corridor, hundreds of injured people were laid out in a staggered manner.

Several of them were also old acquaintances of his.

And his own second-in-command was lying among them.

“What is going on here?”

For a moment, Xiao Liang was also confused by the whole thing.

This n*gga was actually saving people.

The men who were rescuing people were already busy sweating profusely.

After seeing Xiao Liang, one of them, rushing to respond, opened his mouth to explain.

“Lord Xiao, things are like this”

After hearing his men’s retelling.

Xiao Liang was even more baffled.

The first time this murderer was discovered, what he actually wanted was not to run away immediately.

Instead, he took the leader hostage and threatened the crowd to help save him!

If he hadn’t seen it with his green eyes, Xiao Liang wouldn’t have believed such an outrageous thing to death.

The main thing was that he saw several people who were obviously already fatally wounded, but they were still breathing heavily.

This was a clear indication of the high level of medical skill of those who had saved them.

“Hurry up and take me over to have a look.”

With an order, the men hurriedly led Xiao Liang to the scene of the murder.

Within the room, the tragic state remained the same.

There were corpses everywhere, which made Xiao Liang’s heart flutter.

But what he cared about more than anything else was the young figure in the pool of blood.

As soon as someone found a survivor, that figure was the first to arrive.

Silver needles, pills, ointment, needle and thread

With the cooperation of various healing items, within ten seconds, the injuries of the injured were successfully smothered.

What shocked Xiao Liang the most was that.

He clearly saw that one of the injured had already breathed his last.

However, as that young man arrived, he only saw nine cold flashes of light.

That corpse, for once, had actually come to life.

Raising the dead back to life?

Such medical skills were enough to be described as divine skills.

Seeing this, Xiao already had an answer in his heart.

He hurriedly instructed his men to arrange for more people to come over to help.

As for the injured people in the corridor, they were also sent to the hospital at the first opportunity.

Time passed.

It was not until late afternoon that Lin Mo stopped.

He himself did not know how many people he had saved in this process.

After dealing with the last survivor, he was already completely exhausted.

There was simply no remaining energy to deal with Xiao Liang's greeting.

"Prepare a room for us!"

After saying this, Lin Mo leaned against the wall and directly closed his eyes, falling into a deep sleep.

When Zhang Hu saw this, he intended to order his men to take advantage of this to actually take Lin Mo down.

However, as soon as he opened his mouth, he was stopped by Xiao Liang.

"Stop it, the murderer is someone else."

He said in a firm tone.

Although he didn't know why the young man in front of him had appeared at the scene of the murder.

But this man could never be the murderer.

Zhang Hu had a puzzled look on his face, "Mr. Xiao, why is this?"

Xiao Liang spoke with a palpitating heart, "With that hand, the divine art of flying needles."

"At the very least, a half-step Grandmaster like me would definitely not be able to dodge it."

"Moreover, this young man, if he was the murderer, there would not have been so much blood at the scene at all."

Hearing this.

Zhang Hu also suddenly reacted.

During the rescue just now, he had also seen Lin Mo's flying needle technique.

If one were to kill someone with this technique, there would indeed not be any survivors.

It was also impossible for there to be so much blood at the scene.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3925

When Lin Mo opened his eyes again, his head still felt dizzy.

The excessive use of the Art of Creation Divine Needle was not a small burden on him.

“Mr. Lin, you’re awake!” Black Rose said in surprise.

The two of them had ghostly appeared at the scene of the murder, coupled with being in the chaos of other powers.

Her hanging heart had never fallen.

Right now, seeing Lin Mo awake, Black Rose was quite relieved.

“Well, how long have I been asleep?” Lin Mo said as he rubbed his inflamed head.

“From yesterday evening until now!”

“That’s alright!”

Lin Mo was slightly relieved, most afraid that he had slept for too long and had delayed things.

Just as the two of them were talking.

Xiao Liang pushed open the door and came striding in.

The beaming smile on his face was extraordinarily bright.

“Benefactor, you are finally awake!”

Benefactor?

Lin Mo was a little confused, among the people he had saved, there didn’t seem to be this person in front of him!

The black rose at the side saw Lin Mo’s confusion and sidled up to his ear, explaining a few words in a soft voice.

Only after Lin Mo learned of Xiao Liang’s identity did it dawn on him.

“District Chief Xiao, you are welcome, saving the dead and helping the wounded is originally the duty of physicians like us.”

“By the way, how is the condition of those injured.”

Yesterday, he only focused on saving lives and treating the injured.

He had forgotten how many people he had saved.

At the mention of this, Xiao Liang returned with a grateful face.

“Divine Doctor Lin, it’s thanks to you this time.”

“More than five hundred people from the various district management delegations are already out of danger to their lives.”

“With a period of recuperation, they will be able to heal.”

At the mention of this, his gaze towards Lin Mo also became more respectful.

Being able to bring back over five hundred people who were on the verge of death.

It was enough to see that this young man in front of him had unbelievable medical skills.

Thinking of this, Xiao Liang added excitedly.

“Divine Doctor Lin, these five hundred or so survivors are almost all representatives of the administrators of the various districts.”

“Some of those who came to their senses learned that it was you who saved them.”

“Let me pass on their gratitude! When they have healed, they will thank you in person.”

At this moment, the more Xiao Liang spoke, the more excited he became.

This was if these people were still alive, even if the other districts made a scene, they would still have an explanation for themselves.

Lin Mo was also surprised by himself when he heard such a result.

To continuously cast the Art of Creation Divine Needle on over five hundred people, no wonder he felt exhausted!

“There’s no need for thanks or anything, I just happened to catch up at my time.”

For those survivors, it was not a deliberate choice on his part.

As representatives of the administrators of the districts.

They were inherently stronger than normal people, and their life force was naturally a great deal higher than that of ordinary people.

To put it simply, they had hard lives.

After exchanging a few pleasantries.

Lin Mo turned the topic to the murderer.

Through Xiao Liang’s account, Lin Mo had a clear picture of what had happened.

It turned out that not long after they had successfully conducted the meeting.

A group of people in black suddenly appeared on the scene.

A frenzied massacre was carried out.

“This group of people, with short knives in one hand and daggers in the other, were extremely strong and had bizarre methods.”

“Even the several Half-step Patriarchs who were present at the time couldn’t do anything to them.”

“Within one round of the exchange, they were already seriously injured.”

At the mention of this matter, Xiao Liang’s originally joyful face also turned grave.

Such a group of half-step sect master a*sa*sins appeared on Death Island.

Anyone would have to be on their guard.

Lin Mo knew from the start that this must be Ji Dutuo’s handiwork.

It was also clear that these Seven Deadly Sins people had come to Death Island to seek revenge on themselves.

Secondly, they had come to find out about the Crystal Skull.

But this Ji Dutuo didn’t follow the rules at all.

Instead of making a move against himself, he was playing some dirty work behind his back to disgust people.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3926

With his intuition, Lin Mo could roughly guess.

This Ji Duto, should just want to tease himself.

Only when he had had enough fun would he choose to make a move.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo opened his mouth and said.

“District Chief Xiao, you don’t have to worry about the matter of the a*sa*sin.”

“I will help you set things right!”

Xiao Liang’s face showed a different expression when he heard this.

He had no doubts about Lin Mo’s strength.

A glimpse of a spot revealed the whole leopard.

That hand of flying needles, even if it wasn’t a sect master, it was still an existence to look up to.

But the other side was a team of killers with dozens of half-step clan masters.

Trying to find out where this group of people were by relying on one person alone was like looking for a needle in a haystack.

Thinking of this, Xiao Liang proposed.

“Mr. Lin, I will explain this matter to the administrators of the other districts.”

“When the time comes, we will unleash the forces of the entire Death Island and uncover them.”

Having experienced this tragic case.

The entire Death Island wouldn't have bred the existence of such a group of killer organisations.

Only this proposal was rejected outright by Lin Mo.

“I'll handle this matter just fine!”

There were differences in the level of information.

The power lords or managers did not know that the person behind all this was none other than the Seven Deadly Sins.

Even if this group of a*sa*sins were destroyed, it would only be a stopgap measure.

If we wanted to solve this hidden problem, we had to start at the root.

With this in mind, Lin Mo instructed.

“Put the news out, say that I, Lin Mo, am asking him, Ji Dutuo, to have tea!”

“District Chief Xiao, I still need to trouble you to help me prepare the venue.”

Although Xiao Liang was unsure, he readily agreed to do so.

.....

Evening.

The afterglow of the setting sun draped the earth with a layer of golden armour.

Below the foot of the mountain, a group of people approached from a distance, unhurriedly.

“Sect Master Ji Diao, is my idol in a hurry? I can't believe he took the initiative to ask to see you!”

“Perhaps!” Ji Duo Tuo returned carelessly to.

“It's idle anyway, let's first see what this demon level genius from China will have to say in response.”

As the few people chatted idly, they arrived at a tea house halfway up the mountain.

In the courtyard, a sword-wearing young figure was steaming tea unhurriedly.

“Brother Lin, it's so elegant!”

Lin Mo looked up and reached out his hand in an inviting gesture.

“Please sit down!”

The second time they met, it seemed unusually harmonious.

To outsiders, it looked like the two sides had been friends for many years.

After Ji Duto took his seat, he smiled dumbly.

“Brother Lin, this is the first time?”

Lin Mo’s expression did not change when he heard the other party’s mockery.

After filling up the cup of tea on the table by himself, he then opened his mouth to reply.

“People who practice martial arts are used to holding swords!”

“For this kind of dexterity, I am a bit at a loss!”

In his lifetime, this was the first time he had invited a guest to set up tea.

All the techniques, too, had been learnt from others, before.

“Please!”

After saying that, he only saw Lin Mo raise his hand and push it forward.

A strong wind suddenly rose up all around, and the tree branches swayed wildly.

The tea cup on the table turned into a gunshot and flew out.

On the other side, Ji Dutuo was still wearing that trademark smile.

In the face of such a temptation, he merely raised his arm and gave it a light grip.

The teacup came to a steady stop between his two fingers.

At this moment, the gale that was howling around him was instantly stilled.

Ji Dutuo lifted his cup of tea and took a shallow sip.

“The tea is not bad, but this tea ceremony of yours lacks some fire.”

He seemed to be really commenting on the tea ceremony, but in reality, he was implying a lack of strength.

Lin Mo was naturally aware of this and said back in an unperturbed manner.

“I’m still young, I have plenty of time to practice more!”

“Here, the two little sisters try some too!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, he brought two cups of tea and brought them to the two sisters.

The seemingly calm cups of tea actually hid surging sword Qi within.

The two sisters, Xing and Yun, smiled sweetly.

With cute dimples, they glanced at Ji Duto.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3927

“Since it’s someone’s brother Lin’s first time setting up tea, it’s okay to taste it!”

With Ji Dutuo’s authorization, the two sisters then made their move.

“Thank you, Brother Idol!”

Said the two of them, smiling and extending their hands.

As the cup of tea was lifted up again, the sword qi contained within it roared out.

The trees around them snapped.

The gra*s around the stone table continued to show up with sword marks ten metres long.

However, the two sisters were not affected in the slightest.

After putting down the teacups, the two girls smashed their mouths, their beauty tightly frowning.

“Bah, it doesn’t taste good!”

“It’s bitter and not sweet at all!”

The two daughters said while spitting out their tongues, their looks very cute.

But Lin Mo knew that it was all just an illusion.

The tea that the two drank was accompanied by their own sword qi.

An ordinary half-step Zong master would be directly divided if he touched it.

Even an ordinary Zong Master would not dare to drink this tea straight away.

Yet these two young girls were unharmed.

This showed how strong they were.

Ji Dutuo took out two sweets and handed them to Nebula, before the two girls loosened their brows.

“Brother Lin, this tea has also been drunk, let’s get down to business!”

Strength had also been tested, and it was time for the business to be put on the table.

This, Lin Mo and he were thinking the same thing.

After he put away his teacup, he spoke indifferently.

“Death Island, this place is too small!”

“Strong as a power like yours, isn’t it a bit too big to raise a crowd in this place.”

Ji Dutuo shook his head, “What does Brother Lin mean?”

Lin Mo knew that he was playing dumb, so he simply stopped beating around the bush.

“I hope you guys won’t be meddling in, well, anything on Death Island!”

“What about the benefits?”

Ji Duto asked rhetorically, then slowly narrowed his eyes.

“You don’t think you want to order us around with just a word from you, do you!”

“Or is it the great official authority that Lord Zhen Yue wants!”

After saying that, he laughed outright.

The mocking intent was obvious.

Lin Mo ignored it and only spoke indifferently.

“Then what if I were to openly reveal the Crystal Skull?”

“Compared to that, there is no patriarch under this heaven who would not dare to be interested in, say, the secrets of the broken saints?”

At these words, the smile on Ji Duto’s face instantly froze.

This kid actually knew this information as well?

“You’ve already met the Sea Wolf King?”

As the words fell, the atmosphere of the scene also became gloomy.

In the air, a killing intent, if any, gradually filled the air.

It was the first time that Lin Mo had seen Ji Dutuo lose his composure.

And knowing that the other party had lost his composure, Lin Mo took back the initiative.

“It is true that we have met, and we had a good talk.”

“That Sea Wolf King even intended to give me the right to hold the Crystal Skull!”

Of course, all of this was just Lin Mo’s bullsh*t.

The purpose was to interfere with the other party’s judgement.

Ji Dutuo’s face was gloomy and his eyes were fierce.

The two sisters beside him also stopped sipping their candy at the same time.

The tyrant corpse behind him, as fat as a mountain, also waited with bulb-sized eyes, staring deadly at Lin Mo.

Just waiting for Ji Dutuo to say something, several people would be able to strike in an instant.

All was silent at the moment!

The surging murderous intent surrounded Lin Mo.

Under such circumstances, Lin Mo still calmly lifted his cup of tea and began to taste his own handiwork.

His demeanour was calm and unhurried!

A long time later.

Ji Duto smiled faintly.

“Yes!”

Obviously between killing or not killing again, he chose the latter.

“As long as you keep your mouth shut.”

“We of the Seven Deadly Sins will not make a move against the people of Death Island.”

“Except for the Sea Wolf King, of course!”

This man was a traitor to the Seven Deadly Sins.

Together with stealing the organisation’s greatest treasure, the Seawolf King must die.

And Ji Duto also played a word game.

Like Lin Mo did not belong to Death Island.

So he could also be excluded from the promise.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3928

After Ji Dutuo agreed to Lin Mo’s request, he also gave his conditions.

“The Ten Districts are forbidden to interfere in all things of the Lawrence Family!”

“Otherwise, we, the Seven Deadly Sins, will also join in!”

Naturally, he wasn’t someone who was willing to take a loss for nothing.

It’s fine if you want me to stay out of it, but your men from District 3, just wait until they’re ground clean!

Lin Mo agreed directly without much thought.

As long as there were no Seven Deadly Sins to mess things up from.

There would be no need to be afraid of many things.

The negotiations were over!

Lin Mo got up and extended his palm.

“Happy cooperation!”

Seeing that the other party was not paying attention to him, Lin Mo did not feel much embarrassment, humming a little song as he walked straight past the four people.

“Sect Master Ji Dou, our idol is too arrogant!”

“We, my sister and I, will go and make him into our puppet now?”

Zhou looked forward to asking.

She had been drooling over Lin Mo for a long time.

Only this proposal was still rejected by Ji Dutuo.

“Let him live a little longer!”

He had originally planned to tease Lin Mo to death like a cat catching a mouse.

Unexpectedly, Lin Mo knew too much, instead there was some hesitation on his part.

“Let’s wait a little longer!”

“If we kill Lin Mo now, the Chinese side will also send experts to investigate at the first opportunity.”

By then, more eyes would be drawn to the matter.

The matter of the Crystal Skull was also both likely to come to light together.

This was also something he, Ji Duto, was more than scrupulous about.

“Let this kid bounce around for a few days first!”

“When we have that Crystal Skull, perhaps we can invite him to sit with us at the Seven Deadly Sins.”

Thinking about the organisation, those tortures that made people’s lives worse than death.

A cruel smile suddenly surfaced at the corner of Ji Duto’s mouth.

.....

Divide the two ends.

After solving the hidden problem that was the Seven Deadly Sins, Lin Mo once again found Black Rose.

“The matter is resolved!”

“From now on, you don’t have to worry about your comfort anymore.”

Hearing this news.

Xiao Liang, who was present, instantly had a happy face.

He didn’t doubt Lin Mo’s words.

As the administrator of the three districts, there was no need to lie about this and thus tarnish his reputation.

“Many thanks to Divine Doctor Lin!”

“I’ll send someone to inform the administrators of the other districts and together we’ll send out troops to exterminate them Lawrence.”

Just as he was excitedly preparing to go out, Lin Mo suddenly called out to him.

“Wait!”

“You guys should stop meddling in the Lawrence family’s affairs?”

Xiao Liang froze in confusion and asked, “Why?”

Right now the matter of the killers had been settled.

The administrators of the ten districts just needed an object to vent their anger on.

Lin Mo sighed faintly.

“This is the quid pro quo between me and them!”

He had set the appointment at a remote tea house on the one hand to test out the strength of this Ji Dutuo.

If the other party was not strong, he could use Tai Ah.

At the risk of serious injury, he would have to kill these people.

However, it was not to be.

Not only was Ji Dutuo incredibly strong.

Even those two harmless looking little girls were not as strong as Lin Mo.

It was precisely because of this that Lin Mo agreed to the other party’s conditions.

Xiao Liang hesitated for a moment before asking a follow-up question.

“Mr. Lin don’t you have a way to deal with them as well?”

Black Rose’s face changed and she stepped forward to scold, “Unbridled, Sovereign Lin’s strength, its something you can question?”

Patriarch?

When Xiao Liang heard this serving, it was obvious that he was also taken aback.

He knew that Lin Mo was extremely strong, and even guessed that Lin Mo had already reached that level.

However right now, after Black Rose’s mouth had spoken.

Xiao Liang was still stunned.

Lin Mo’s age was at most in his twenties!

At such an age, he was already a Grandmaster.

What astonishing talent he must have had!

Xiao Liang thought that he was almost fifty years old and had only managed to break through to half-step Zong Shi.

In this instant, he suddenly had a feeling that he had grown old.

District Five.

Lin Mo, in order to corroborate Black Rose's words, and to make Xiao Liang die.

He directly released his own aura of a Patriarch.

Inside the room, the air froze.

Xiao Liang only felt a huge mountain suddenly pressed down on his shoulders.

His body was so stiff that he couldn't even think of moving half a muscle.

And when Lin Mo released his own killing aura, Xiao Liang only felt difficulty in breathing.

It was as if there was an invisible hand holding his heart in a death grip!

In such a state, he had become a cow and horse to be slaughtered.

By the time Lin Mo withdrew his aura and killing power.

Xiao Liang knelt directly on the ground, breathing heavily.

The snow-white shirt was by now completely soaked through with his own sweat.

That feeling was as if he had walked through a ghost's gate.

Not waiting for him to get over his strength, Lin Mo's words rang in his ears.

"See? This is the oppressive feeling of a Patriarch!"

"I can tell you unequivocally that the man behind the curtain, and there is no shortage of clan masters either."

"If you are bent on having your own way, they will not show mercy either!"

As for the exact number of Patriarchs, there was already news of the Seven Deadly Sins.

Lin Mo chose to conceal it.

The impact of this news was too great.

He was afraid that these administrators of Death Island wouldn't be able to withstand it for a moment and their minds would directly pop .

Xiao Liang stared woodenly, and after his eyes, there was only endless fear.

It was too strong!

This was still just the aura and killing aura of the Patriarch alone.

If they were to start fighting, even if all of their Death Island experts were put together.

They would only be sharpening their swords for the other party.

It was only after a long time that Xiao Liang barely calmed down.

“Sovereign Lin, I understand!”

Although his heart was reluctant, he ultimately chose to back down.

“Good if you understand!”

Lin Mo nodded and instructed.

“This message, you should send it on to the other power lords as soon as possible!”

“If there is still someone who is not convinced, have him come to me in the third district, don’t die for nothing!”

All the forces of Death Island could be their own minions in the future.

Lin Mo was afraid that they would be foolish enough to send them to their deaths, giving Ji Dutuo a chance to strike.

After Xiao Liang agreed to do so, he then suggested that Lin Mo stay in District Five for a few more days.

“Sovereign Lin, it might be a good idea to wait until the representatives of the administrators of the districts have awakened.”

“It might work well if you show up in person and speak to them!”

Lin Mo’s eyes instantly lit up at this suggestion.

Brilliant!

In this way, by showing his face, he could not only reap a large wave of favours from the districts.

The main thing was to show strength in front of them.

It could also better deter them and remove some blocking voices for the future unification of Death Island.

Just do it.

Early the next morning.

Under Xiao Liang’s leadership, the group arrived at the hospital.

“Mr. Lin, there’s no way to repay the kindness of saving your life, we from District 9 take this kindness down!”

“Benefactor, when I am healed, I must come to our Seventh District as a guest, my big brother has instructed me to invite you over.”

“Mr. Lin Mo, thanks to you this time, otherwise our group of people would have become dead souls underneath.”

The gratitude was not tinged with friendship.

If one could befriend such a young doctor, it would be like having an extra life.

In the face of the crowd’s thanks, Lin Mo also welcomed them with a smile.

“Gentlemen, you are welcome for what you do by the way!”

“As you should, as you should!”

After a few polite pleasantries.

Xiao Liang saw the opportunity and told them about the agreement.

Within the ward, the crowd had suffered such a loss.

Naturally, it was impossible for them to swallow their anger.

They all pointed the finger at Lawrence and argued that they wanted to kill the Lawrence family.

At this time, it was the best time for Lin Mo to make an appearance.

A good speech, coupled with that little bit of aura of a patriarch.

The crowd instantly fell over themselves and were good boys.

Leaving the hospital.

Lin Mo had a satisfied look on his face.

“These managers’ representatives are very knowledgeable about the times!”

Hearing this at the side, Black Rose rolled her big white eyes straight up.

Could they be unwise?

To a group of patients, the aura of a Patriarch was released at full force.

There was also a strong hostile aura mixed with it.

If it wasn’t for the fact that everyone had cultivation, they would have been hiccuped with this wave of action.

They would have been hiccuped!

But Lin Mo obviously hadn’t realised this point.

He was still immersed in joy.

“Rose, let’s go back!”

“Almost, the Sea Wolf King’s wedding banquet is about to start!”

With that he once again upstairs Black Rose’s waist and with a leap of his feet, the two of them shot straight up into mid-air.

Once again, Lin Mo was hugging him as he hurried along.

Black Rose no longer had the trepidation she had before.

Although the wind was howling in her ears.

She could still clearly hear Lin Mo’s resounding heartbeat.

Thinking back on the experiences of the past two or three days, Black Rose felt like she was dreaming.

Inexplicably coming to the scene of a murder and being misunderstood as the murderer.

And this little man beside her had not said anything.

Just with that unbelievable medical skill, he stunned the administrators of District Five straight away.

At the same time, he also got rid of the suspicion of being a murderer.

In a few words the representatives of the administrators of the ten districts were instantly hunkered down.

Of course, this was also due to his own power.

But that didn’t detract from the fact that there seemed to be nothing in the world that this man couldn’t do.

She thought about it and inexplicably felt her heart beat a little faster.

Looking up at the handsome side of her face, Black Rose instantly felt her face burn.

At this moment, Lin Mo just happened to notice the difference and glanced down at her.

The moment her eyes met.

Black Rose only felt that those deep eyes were extraordinarily charming, as if they were hiding a sea of stars.

“What’s wrong?”

Lin Mo asked curiously when he saw her face flushed.

When Black Rose heard this, she instantly reacted.

“Yikes!”

After a startled cry, she panicked and lowered herself.

Is he relating to me?

Thinking back to Lin Mo's greeting, Black Rose only felt a burst of warmth well up in her heart.

However, just as Black Rose was drowning in sweetness, she suddenly felt something being shoved into her mouth.

"Well, what did you give me to eat?"

"Fever-reducing medicine for a cold!"

Lin Mo said in a serious manner.

"Don't be so strong, a cold and fever is what it says."

Black Rose: "....."

You're the one with a cold, your whole family has a cold!

P*ssed off, stinking straight man.

The fire rushed to her face and Black Rose's cheeks turned even redder.

Only she quickly calmed down.

There didn't seem to be any reason for her to be angry with Lin Mo.

The other party was not just a Zong Shi who simultaneously killed two experts of the same realm in a row.

And she wasn't even a half-step Zong Shi.

Thinking about some of this.

Black Rose's originally fiery heart instantly cooled down.

Only intentionally or unintentionally, she leaned her cheek towards Lin Mo's chest.

Gaining that moment of peace.

The journey was wordless.

After rushing back to District 3's again, a huge voice scared Black Rose awake.

"Deh, you Sl*tty old b*tch, shame on you, you even dare to eat our Patriarch Lin's tofu!"

Dispelling her hazy sleep, Black Rose opened her eyes.

I didn't expect that she had fallen asleep on the road against Lin Mo's chest.

Originally, he was still a little shy.

It was only the sound of Ma Bangde's angry scolding that she heard that her violent temper also instantly surged up.

"f*ck you, old thing!"

"What's my business, none of your business!"

With that said, one side raised their swords, while the other held their double guns and directly confronted each other.

Lin Mo was used to this as well.

“Let them make a scene!”

Director Qiu, who was about to go forward to persuade the fight, also stopped after hearing these words and turned to ask

“Mr. Lin, are things still going well?”

“Not too bad!”

After Lin Mo lost a long breath, he led Director Qiu to his study.

A man and a woman were left alone in place to rebuke each other!
