Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3951

Early morning.

Thick dark clouds cover the sky.

There was not a single breeze on the front today and the air seemed extraordinarily dreary.

Lin Mo, accompanied by Wang Changxing, brought his disciple Lin Wu Hate along to the top of the mountain.

“It’s going to rain!”

Lin Mo said inexplicably as he looked far into the sky.

At this moment, they could already clearly see that the enemy’s camp was shifting.

Anyone who was a human being knew that war was coming.

“Mr. Lin, do you have any instructions?” Wang Changxing asked.

A great war was about to start!

He hadn’t commanded a battle for over ten years.

Right now, he was facing a million-dollar super war.

Wang Changxing could not help but show some timidity.

Lin Mo also saw what was on his mind and reached out to pat him on the shoulder.

“War is like practicing martial arts, as long as you take this path there is no possibility of retreating.”

“Right now the command has been handed over to you in full.”

“Behind you in the three districts, millions of martial artists are backing you up, so go ahead and do it with confidence and boldness!”

With Ji Dutuo and his party watching from the side.

Lin Mo still could not interfere in this battle.

Everything could only be left to Wang Changxing, the former marshal of the country, to make the arrangements.

The words fell to the ground for a long time.

Wang Changxing saw at the foot of the mountain, the wailing Ma Bangde, and the valiant Black Rose, as well as the mature and stable Director Qiu, and so on.

All the major power lords were already geared up and ready to go.

The members at the bottom were all full of battle spirit too.

Everyone seemed to be impatient to prepare for this great battle.

Morale is at its peak and the army is ready!

All that is missing now is an order.

What else was there to worry about!

Wang Changxing took a deep breath, and his body, which was still hunched, fiercely kept.

Serious wariness appeared at first.

“Mr. Lin, old Wang I will go first, wait for our good report!”

“Go on, I’ll wait for your good news!”

After Lin Mo finished speaking, Wang Changxing ran towards the foot of the mountain in one long stride.

In the same place, Lin Wu Hate looked at the departing back, his emotions suddenly rippled.

At that very moment, a large hand suddenly landed on top of his head.

“Look and learn first.”

Lin Mo pointed to the dense formations on both sides and patiently taught.

“Wars of this scale are rarely seen, so you should first learn how Wang Changxing commands.”

“The war won’t stop for a while, there are plenty of opportunities for you to make your move if you want to.”

He knew that Lin Wu Huan still had a great revenge to avenge.

But right now, with such a good opportunity to learn, he did not want Lin Wu Huan to miss it.

After a moment of silence.

Lin Wu Hate loosened his tightly clenched fist and nodded his head in a good manner.

Lin Mo smiled gratefully.

Not being overwhelmed by hatred, he was a malleable talent.

“The Lawrence Family has 200,000 more people in plain sight than us.”

“There are also a dozen more Half-step Patriarchs than us.”

“That’s their advantage!”

“And our per capita combat power in the three districts is much stronger than theirs, that’s our advantage

.....

Just as Lin Mo was explaining the situation on both sides to his disciple Lin Wu Hate.

Wang Changxing had already arrived at the front of his side's lineup.

With his arrival, the major power lords waved their big hands.

The originally noisy scene was instantly quiet.

Wang Changxing scanned the entire field, and everywhere he looked, there was a strong battle spirit.

"Brothers!"

"The doggone Lawrence has been oppressing our three districts for so long."

"And now they even want to annex us."

"What do you guys think, what should we do?"

At these words, Ma Bonder was the first to correspond.

"Slaughter these motherf*ckers!"

A loud and stout voice floated around.

With him leading the way, the members of the forces, one after another, shouted.

"Kill them!"

"Kill them!"

"Slaughter them!"

The unison shout of a million people shook the air with ripples.

The valley behind them echoed in a burst of sound.

"Good!" Wang Changxing bellowed.

"Who dares to be the vanguard in this battle?"

At these words, the major power lords, their expressions shook and their eyes flamed.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3952

There was the precedent of the Knife Cult.

There was no substantial reward for the great victory at the first stop.

But now the Knife Sect was clearly head and shoulders above the other eight powers, walking with their noses in the air.

The others were naturally extremely unhappy about this.

But the others are helpless, the first battle was a great success, four thousand destroyed 50,000 this is a big credit.

Pride, too, was fought out by themselves.

Now that the opportunity to turn over a new leaf had come, the rest of the forces naturally couldn't let it go.

"I'll do it!"

Accompanied by a thick voice, Wei Wine took a big step.

"We, the Turbid Green Gang, with our three hundred thousand heroes can be the vanguard!"

The Turbid Green Gang had a total of three hundred and fifty thousand members, and they had pulled out almost the entire gang for this battle.

Wei Wine had even made a point of adding accents to the numbers.

The purpose was to target Ma Bangde.

Although the Knife Sect was the strongest per capita, numbers were hard.

It was only 30,000 or so at full count, less than a tenth of his number.

Ma Bangde obviously also heard the off-color message.

"Old Dog Wei, what do you mean? You're deliberately targeting me, aren't you!"

However, he had only just finished speaking.

Someone else came forward at the other end.

"Duo Lan Pavilion, one hundred and eighty thousand disciples, can also be killed for the vanguard!"

"Black Garden, one hundred and fourteen finished towels, petition to take the position of vanguard!"

"Cang Ying Gang ninety thousand"

.....

As more and more power lords stepped forward.

Ma Bangde's face also became darker and darker.

It was obvious that he was being targeted by everyone.

"A bunch of motherf*ckers, when the war is over, I'll get you all killed!"

Just as he grumbled in dissatisfaction, a large hand suddenly landed on his shoulder.

"Old Ma, just resign yourself to your fate!"

"With these 20,000 to 30,000 men of yours, rushing over there is just a sound."

"Take my brother's advice, stay in the green hills for fear of not having wood to burn."

Ma Bangde turned his head, only to see Director Qiu looking at himself with a regretful expression.

“Is this your way of comforting me?”

“No, I’m being heartfelt and happy! Your Knife Cult has been too jumpy for a while now.”

Not waiting for Ma Bangde to come back to his senses, Director Qiu also stepped forward.

“We, the Martial Division, with our 150,000 heroes, can be the vanguard!”

In a flash, the other people looked at Director Qiu.

The Martial Division was the number one power in the three regions.

The Martial Division guards reached a massive half a million, and their per capita strength was just after the Dagger Sect.

But the overall strength, crushed all other forces.

Whether it was the main force, or the pioneer Martial Division was the first choice.

Only Wang Changxing, however, shook his head.

“Director, your old man should just stop for a while!”

“You are still needed to sit at the back, this vanguard position, you should not get together.”

His arrangement for the martial division was the positioning of the bottom main force.

Right now it was only the first head-to-head encounter, so naturally it was impossible to light up.

After hearing this, Director Qiu did not dwell on it and directly retreated to his original position.

Ma Bangde took a look and immediately began to mock back.

“Tsk tsk tsk. Old Qiu you’re the first one to be rejected, how about that, are you happy?”

Director Qiu calmly glanced at him.

“Doesn’t matter, I’m just out to disgust you anyway!”

Ma Bangde: “.....”

I’m so D*mn tired of talking to you.

Mo take the old man!

After a brief moment of arguing.

Wang Changxing eventually topped off the arrangement.

“Wei Wine listen to the order!”

“Do you dare to arrange for 200,000 men from your Turbid Green Gang to be the vanguard?”

At these words, the other people all looked regretful.

Only Wei Wine laughed boldly.

“Hahahaha, gentlemen, I’m sorry, but I’m sorry!”

He stepped forward and took the vanguard banner again, then waved it towards Ma Bangde.

The showmanship was unmistakable.

“That’s disgusting!” Ma Bond could only curse impotently.

The transfer continued.

Black Garden acted as the paid vanguard, assisting from the sidelines.

The Pale Eagle Gang, on the other hand, was the backhand to do aid for the two forces.

As for the indignant Ma Bond, he was appointed as a sharp-edged force.

It was used for offensive purposes.

Although they were not the vanguard, they were still the most important position.

This also helped to calm Ma Bond’s depressed mood considerably.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3953

Above the sky, the dark clouds became denser.

Although it was noon, the dark clouds blocked out all the sunlight.

The whole front line was as dark as night.

At this moment, the two camps were already in full gear and ready to go.

Above the open grassland.

Wei Wine, as the vanguard, was in the lead.

Behind them, a million troops were trailing behind.

As the troops continued to advance, the two sides came to a silent halt when they were less than a thousand metres apart.

Wei Jiake stepped forward with his lance in hand and shouted.

“Is House Master Clegg here?”

As his words fell to the ground, a sound came from the opposite side as well.

“I, House Master Lawrence, have sent word that a little landlord is not worthy to speak to him.”

“If you surrender now and bow down like our Lawrence family, we will give you a way out.”

The words were full of mockery and disdain.

Wei's face darkened and anger rose in his heart.

But it was quickly suppressed.

The purpose of the two armies shouting was to provoke each other.

Whoever was angry first would fall out of the city.

Thinking of Wang Changxing's command earlier, Wei Wine took a deep breath and then shouted.

"Hearing of the Lawrence family bloodbath, we in the three districts express our deepest sympathy."

"I hereby send a thinly veiled token of my respect."

As the words fell, the hand behind him immediately raised a three-foot-long pole.

At the top were two pale human heads hanging.

It was none other than Chen An, the leader of Lawrence's side and the family's half-step Zong Shi donor, who had been cut down by Ma Bangde not long ago.

Seeing this object, the Lawrence side's camp was visibly agitated.

Beating someone's face.

Wei Wine not only laughed at the bloodshed at their Lawrence Castle, but also hung the heads of their side in mid-air visibly.

It was a naked insult.

Yet it did not end there.

As the two heads were sacrificed out.

The 200,000 members of the Turbid Green Gang behind Wei Wine shouted in unison.

"A thin gift for Lawrence!"

"A thin gift for Lawrence!"

.....

Within a moment, the camp of Lawrence's camp stirred.

The loud shouts reached Clegg's ears just as clearly.

Looking at the two pale heads in the distance, coupled with Wei Wine's mockery of the family bloodbath.

Clegg's gloomy face was about to drip with water.

"How dare you bully me!"

"Pa*s on my order, the army will move out and exterminate this group of landlubbers."

With a big wave of his hand.

The leading officer raised his greatsword.

“All of you, listen to my order and follow me to behead this group of landlubbers in District Three.”

Wei Wine laughed and struck a snatching flower.

“Brothers this bunch of motherf*ckers are in a hurry, follow me to exterminate them.”

“Gale!”

“Da Feng!”

With resounding shouts, the 200,000 members of the Turbine Green Gang neatly and uniformly raised their lances and pressed towards each other.

The two sides marched in opposite directions.

The distance of less than a thousand metres was soon completely smoothed out.

At this moment, if one were to look down from directly above the battlefield.

The huge forces on both sides were like two monstrous beasts wielding their claws and fighting to the death.

Blades clashed.

“Thrust!”

Wei Wine bellowed.

The first row of Turbine Green Gang members stabbed their lances in their hands in unison.

There was a splash of blood.

There was the advantage of attacking distance.

In the first round of the encounter, thousands of people on Lawrence’s side were zapped by the belt.

After the first batch of enemies fell, the enemy was quickly replenished with men in the rear.

Wei Wine, in a hurry but not in disarray, bellowed again.

“Retract!”

The long spear was instantly retracted.

“Stab!”

Between one retraction and one thrust, in less than ten seconds, the Qing Turbine Gang had reaped the lives of ten thousand enemy soldiers.

Underneath their feet, blood was already flowing in rivers.

The generals on Lawrence’s side, looking at the battlefield in front of them, quickly made more reactions as well.

“Imperial!”

As soon as the words fell, the sword and shield soldiers in the vanguard immediately went up with large shields in hand.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3954

The situation on the battlefield changed extremely quickly.

With the appearance of the enemy’s swords and shields soldiers.

The attacking force of the Turbid Green Clan was instantly restrained by these sword and shield soldiers.

The lances from the Turbocyte Clan’s side thrust out and were completely blocked by the enemy’s large shields, unable to hurt the other side in the slightest.

The disadvantage of the lances was also exposed at this point.

It took too long to recover.

Taking advantage of this gap, the enemy’s long swords also fell.

Poof, poof, poof!

In a matter of moments, the Turbid Green Gang were killed and injured in countless ways.

And with the gap opened, the swords and shields quickly cut into the Turbine Green Gang’s formation.

When the soldiers met each other.

The disadvantage of the long spears was once again magnified.

As soon as the first shot was blocked by the big shield, in the process of recovering the lance, the enemy’s big swords fell down and frantically reaped lives.

Seeing that the situation had changed drastically, Wei Wine did not care about his men.

Shouting.

“Throw!”

At the command, the members of the Turbine Green Gang at the rear immediately gripped their lances tightly.

In groups of ten thousand each, they threw their lances hard towards the enemy in a staggered and orderly manner.

The order from the vanguard general on Lawrence’s side was also immediately given as a combat command.

“Imperial Air!”

Scuffle!

The gang's formation changed rapidly with the sound of dense footsteps!

The sword and shield soldiers formed into battle formations in groups of ten, covering their companions.

The large shields in their hands were raised high towards the sky, like a giant umbrella.

At that moment, tens of thousands of lances, like raindrops, fell in batches.

Although Lawrence's vanguard troops had the cover of their large shields.

But under such an intense attack, many of them were still hit.

And with that sword and shield formation, as long as one person was injured, once the defence was not replenished in time, the next batch of lances that followed close behind would completely tear the opening.

Poof!

Poof!

After more than ten rounds of lance-throwing attacks, Lawrence's side had fallen tens of thousands of men down the line.

Yet the Turbine Green Gang's attack did not stop there.

After the enemy's sword and shield soldiers were sharply reduced.

The lancers at the forefront once again organised themselves to come in and attack.

One thrust, one retreat!

The technique was old, but the effect was extraordinary.

Now without the sword and shield soldiers the threat was greatly reduced.

The individual strength of the Turbine Green Gang itself was stronger than Lawrence's ordinary soldiers, plus having the advantage of the distance of the lances to attack.

The lances were like meat grinders, not only advancing the battle line.

Clegg watched as his soldiers continued to fall, and his face was incomparably gloomy.

At this moment he suddenly realised that the landlubbers he had thought were no worse off militarily than they were.

The ability to follow orders and unify and collaborate in battle was already not even inferior to that of the top combat troops.

In less than half an hour of fighting between the two sides, their vanguard troops had already fallen by more than 100,000 men.

On the other hand, on the Turbid Green Gang's side, only 20,000 people had died before and after.

A five-to-one loss was clearly not acceptable to Clegg.

Thinking of this, he gave a wink to his deputy at his side.

The next second.

A red banner appeared at the back of Lawrence's camp.

The moment this object appeared.

A mysterious smile also appeared on the face of Wang Changxing in the Second District Command Centre.

"Mr. Lin, they're in a hurry!"

Lin Mo nodded in understanding.

The only one who looked at the battlefield and then at Lin Mo and the two of them was Lin Wu Huan, who was beside the two of them with a puzzled look.

He did not understand why.

After Wang Changxing noticed the young girl's expression, he spoke again.

"If the vanguard troops are not defeated, it will definitely be serious for morale."

"And to salvage such a situation, there are only two ways they can go."

"One is to use gun units, and the other is to send out half-step clan masters to forcefully attack and kill!"

He was clear that Lin Mo was trying to train Lin Wu Huan's combat ability so he explained it particularly clearly.

"However, their Lawrence family has already lost multiple half-step clan masters before and after."

"In a situation like this today, it's obviously impossible for them to let a Half-step Patriarch get involved."

"Then the answer is obvious"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3955

The centre of the battlefield.

When Black Rose saw the command centre banner behind her, she immediately gave the battle orders.

"All of Black Garden, listen to the order, follow the pre-battle plan and move!"

The order came out.

The 70,000 valiant women of the Black Garden instantly split into two teams.

By now the gun units from Lawrence's side on the opposite side had arrived at the front line.

The black and eerie guns were lined up in several rows and pointed at the Turbid Green Gang in unison.

Wei Wine, in order to buy time for Black Garden, then gave the order to fight.

“Throw!”

As soon as the words fell, the group of Turbid Green Gang members at the front threw all the weapons and lances in their hands.

At this point.

The entire vanguard unit, with their main weapons, lances, were all thrown at the enemy.

The only combat weapon left was the dagger at their waist.

Along with this last on finished lances fell.

The sword and shield soldiers on Lawrence B’s side once again stepped forward and blocked the wave of attack for the gunmen behind them with their flesh and blood.

Plop, plop, plop!

Thousands of men fell.

At that moment the sound of gunfire burst forth.

Faced with the long-range attack of hot weapons, the group of good soldiers of the Turbine Green Gang could only dodge desperately even if their strength was high.

Blitz! Blitz! Bust!

The first round of firearms attacked.

Wei Wine could only watch as his men fell by the thousands.

At this moment, he was naturally very anxious in his heart.

Holding back his heartache, Wei gritted his teeth tightly.

“Rear combatants evacuate backwards, front men, hold up for me.”

The huge combat force, after a kind of commotion.

The rear members immediately reversed direction and withdrew from the battlefield.

Clegg saw the retreating troops and also noticed the movement of the Black Garden.

“Oh, a few pussies and they want to eat up the gun units, joke!”

“Have the front line watch out for a sneak attack from the flank? The back up gun units are ready for energetic support! Try to eat them all up.”

At these words, the flag-bearer beside him, immediately gave the order.

By this moment, the game between the two sides had officially begun.

Trap and bait switch turns!

Above the battlefield.

Wei Wine could only watch and watch as his men continued to fall.

“Hold on, give me the top up forward!”

“Those pussies and the brothers behind them need your protection now, retreat and they’re dead.”

At the moment his clenched teeth were beginning to spill blood and tears were welling up in his red eyes.

It wasn’t that he wanted his brothers in front of him to die.

On the one hand, but if the whole army retreated, with the front and rear armies shifting around.

Those brothers who were close to the enemy fell in a row and would only hasten the death of their other companions.

Adding to the trampling would cause even more damage.

On the other hand.

They had to draw fire for the Black Garden.

All the guns in the entire third sector had been given to them to use.

In order to eat up the enemy’s gun units.

At this moment, if the Turbine Green Gang retreated, the Black Garden would definitely become the first target to gather fire.

Stimulated by blood and death, the members of the Turbid Green Gang’s eyes also turned red.

As the most senior member of the gang, Liu Laosan knew the urgency of the situation.

As he watched the enemy’s guns turn towards the Black Garden crowd.

Liu Laosan hissed as loud as he could.

“f*ck you, brothers, hold on!”

“If I go back alive today, I will take a woman from Black Garden and give me a baby!”

The words fell to the ground, and the surrounding companions responded in droves.

“Hahahaha, take me one, when the time comes, we’ll grab one back even if we rob.”

“Take me one!”

“And me!”

With that said, the big men of the Turbine Green Gang who were still dodging stood up one after another.

After hooking their shoulders onto each other, they formed a human love affair of several thousand metres.

“Protect the p*ssy and give birth to a big baby!”

“Protect the p*ssy, give birth to the big baby!”

At this moment, no one feared death!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3956

With a seemingly joking roar, a group of burly men stared at the local hail of bullets as they strutted forward.

Every time a fellow soldier went under, someone would immediately fill in behind him.

Everyone knew that they could not retreat.

If they took just one more bullet, the group of pussies on their flanks would be in one less danger.

Right now the best way to cause a pair makes the foremost use their flesh as a shield.

Measure to deflect more bullets for his companions behind him and try to reduce casualties.

The enemy’s gun unit, on the other hand, did not expect this vanguard unit to be completely desperate.

As they watched, the Turbid Green Gang’s men drew closer and closer.

The gunmen who were originally blocking the Black Garden also immediately turned their guns around and aimed at the wall of brave men in front of them.

They prevented them from rushing into their own formation.

Behind the camp of the three districts.

The members of the other forces who were waiting in place were already red in the eyes.

If it wasn’t for the military order, they would have rushed forward and killed a bloody path for the members of the Turbine Green Gang.

Wang Changxing’s eyes were also misted with water at this time.

Before this, he had always thought that he was a man with a heart of stone.

Knowing that he was deeply shocked by seeing the group of sturdy men of the Turbid Green Gang who were brave enough to die.

“Mr. Lin do you think I made a wrong move with this move!”

Although Lin Mo was not good at this kind of super large-scale battle command, he knew it clearly in his heart.

Wang Changxing’s arrangement was undoubtedly the best.

There was not much cover above the plains.

The only high ground was the small hills that surrounded the area.

Even if they were set up in advance, they would still be shot down by the other side's.

"You're not wrong!"

Lin Mo took a deep breath.

War itself was cruel, and was the reason why he had been opposed to large-scale warfare before.

"The battle unfolding before us is the same as your pre-war predictions."

Once the enemy's vanguard lost, they would definitely send out their gun units to even out the battle damage.

By this time, their Turbine Green Gang was a decoy.

Stalling the enemy's gun units and covering the Black Garden.

To put it simply, their Turbid Green Gang was not only a vanguard, but also a decoy to lure the enemy's firepower.

"Steady your mind, you are now the pointer of the entire battlefield, if you mess up."

"Those men would have died for nothing!"

Hearing this, Wang Changxing squeezed the long banner in his hand with a deadly grip.

His eyes gradually turned from hesitation to determination.

The battle was going on.

Wei's eyes caught a glimpse of the Black Garden women who were still on the run, and he was already as anxious as an ant on a hot pot.

In a short span of half a minute.

The Turbine Green Gang had already fallen by more than 30,000 people.

"Sl*tty b*tch, give me a f*cking hurry!"

They didn't arrive a second later to reach the high ground, and thousands more of their own men would have to die.

At this moment, a group of women from the Black Garden were also running wildly for their lives.

With the turbid green gang attracting the vast majority of firepower, the women were stopped by gunfire from the other side on the way.

But the casualties were not high.

The Black Rose, who was at the head, naturally heard those loud and clear shouts from the battlefield.

Turning her head, she glanced at the group of burly men who were buying time for themselves with their lives.

She quickly wiped the corners of her eyes, only at this time the battle was urgent.

It was simply not up to her to grieve.

When he arrived at his destination, he didn't care to rest, he just slid a shovel and lay on his side.

Topped with a heavy sweat, he quickly removed the black box from his back.

After hurriedly assembling it.

A two-metre long heavy sniper rifle appeared in front of her.

At this moment, conspicuous yellow flags were waving on the surrounding hillsides.

This was the signal that the Black Garden was ready.

At the same time, Wang Changxing, the general commander in the rear, received this signal as well.

The time to counterattack had come.

As soon as the red flag fell from his hand.

Black Rose pulled the trigger straight away.

Pang!

The huge recoil instantly lifted the dust in the sky.

Bullets with cold light roared out.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3957

In the centre of the battlefield, the general of the vanguard.

He had just finished reorganising the vanguard and was about to give the order to set up the battle line.

At that moment, he heard his men call out for caution.

Before the vanguard general had time to dodge, a huge bullet had already pierced his chest.

Pang!

The tremendous force directly tore the upper half of his body into flesh and foam.

"Be careful, the other side has a sniper!"

A gruff alert sounded afterwards.

Dozens of rifles were directed towards Black Rose's direction.

The continuous tongues of fire pinned it down to the point where it was impossible to look up and observe.

In desperation, Black Rose could only continue to hide behind the hill pack.

At the same time, the other Black Garden women around her attacked.

As the only force in the three districts that is based on firearms, they are women though.

But they were no match for the professional robbers in handling all kinds of firearms.

The sniper rifle's point-blank fire and the automatic semi-automatic rifle's sweeping shots were incredibly accurate.

For a while, the gun units on Lawrence's side were constantly under attack from two sides, and soon became confused.

Only the officer at the head of the group was no slouch either.

"Use the bodies of your teammates as cover and give me a counterattack."

Although the tactics were brutal, this method was undoubtedly the best arrangement under the circumstances at hand.

After losing some of their companions, the gun units quickly made a counterattack.

The battle between the two sides officially shifted from a cold weapon encounter to a hot weapon firefight.

At this moment, the tens of thousands of sacrifices made by the Turbine Green Gang were reciprocated.

With the hill as a high point and also the role of a bunker.

The Black Garden's firepower was no match for the enemy's, but it had the advantage of fighting from high up.

The Black Gardens had a clear advantage over their opponents.

As Clegg saw that the situation was not favourable to his side, he gave the order again without delay.

"Send up the gun back-up units!"

"Eat this p*ssy, and they're in the bag for Sector 3."

As long as one side's gun combat troops perished.

The scales of victory tipped in favour of the other side.

This was the tacit agreement shared by the top commanders of both sides.

At the same time Wang Changxing threw down the bait.

Clegg had not also laid the trap.

Just as Black Garden was fighting, Black Rose also took advantage of the gap in the local firefight to shift her position.

With a flip of her heavy sniper, she pulled the trigger.

Another enemy general was shot straight in the head.

Just as she was furiously planning to snipe the enemy again.

But then she suddenly spotted an anomaly in the high magnification lens.

A group of support suddenly emerged from the enemy's camp.

There were not many of them, only about 5,000.

However, the heavy weapons they held in their hands scared Black Rose straight into a cold sweat.

She dared not hesitate in the slightest and hurriedly stood up.

Raising two yellow flags towards the distance, she kept waving them crosswise.

This was the signal that signalled danger!

At the moment, she was in such a hurry to give the signal that she did not have time to shift her position.

The enemy's support troops locked onto Black Rose's position.

A soldier, decisively crouching down, slung the rocket launcher over his shoulder.

As the trigger was pulled.

A rocket, trailing a long tail of flame, raced away.

"Big Sister be careful!"

The member of the Black Garden shouted after noticing the danger.

She then took a healthy step and tackled Black Rose to the ground.

Boom!

An explosion sounded!

Black Rose only felt a whirl of heaven and then her entire body took to the air.

She rolled straight down to the bottom of the small hill.

Getting up again, her mind was buzzing and in her blurred vision, countless sound and shadows were darting towards her.

In a trance, a rush of shouts came to Black Rose's ears.

"Big Sister, Big Sister!"

"Big Sister, wake up!"

“Someone, hurry up and take big sister to the back for treatment!”

Seeing the henchman who had died tragically for saving her.

Black Rose’s heart ached beyond measure and was just about to raise her arm when her consciousness went had sunk.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3958

With a warning from the Black Rose.

A group of female members of Black Garden dodged in time.

Although they were swept away by heavy machine guns as well as rocket-propelled grenades.

However, there was no massive damage.

The first round of head-to-head encounter also came to a halt with Black Rose’s Zhongshan coma.

The sun was setting.

The blood-red earth had been carpeted with bodies.

The stench of blood filled the battlefield.

Crows were flying across the sky, ready to enjoy a feast.

Only with the combat troops sent from both camps, countless crows fondly flew away from the area.

After discussions and negotiations.

Wang Changxing and Clegg reached a unanimous agreement.

Each side sent 50,000 men to retrieve the bodies of their companions.

No interference from each other.

A trembling Wei Wei, covered in bandages, arrived at the front line of the battle.

Looking at the blinding scene in front of him, his hands could no longer stop trembling.

“Brothers, I’ve come to take you home!”

At this point, his voice was already completely more gulped.

Half a day ago it was still laughing and joking underlings, at this time has been turned into a field of dead bodies.

‘Protect my mother-in-law and have a big baby.’ There was no more chance to realise the grand ambition of his life.

But that’s how the battlefield is.

Only countless bones could build the ladder of the throne.

Wei Wine's heart ached but did not regret it.

When he had stepped forward to take up the vanguard position, he had already envisaged this image.

If the Turbid Green Gang wanted to have a place on the island of death in the future.

Something had to give.

"Take the brothers home!"

Wei Wine bellowed.

Behind them, 50,000 men bowed in unison towards the corpses in front of them.

A steady stream of corpses were then transported to the rear.

It was late into the night before the entire front line was completely quiet.

At this time, the battle damage report was also sent to the command centre by the statistician at the first opportunity.

"Report to the Chief Commander, the battle damage results of this great battle have come out."

Wang Changxing turned his head and cast a questioning glance at Lin Mo.

After seeing the latter's nod, Wang Changxing spoke with a heavy tone this this.

"Speak up!"

"Yes!"

"At this point in the battle, the number of battle deaths of the pioneering force, the Turbine Green Clan, eighty-four thousand three hundred and eleven people."

"Twenty-two thousand seriously wounded, and five thousand one hundred and seventy lightly wounded."

"About 178,000 enemy troops destroyed, about 40,000 seriously wounded, and an unknown number of lightly wounded!"

"....."

Ang's long report of the data went on for ten minutes.

The overall result of the battle could only be considered a disastrous victory.

The only good news was.

Although Black Garden had lost more than 10,000 dead and wounded, it had annihilated more than 40,000 of the enemy's gun units.

It was almost not more than a third of the entire gun unit.

This had a huge impact on the later stages of the battle.

Thermal weapons were simply too threatening to their martial-oriented side in the three districts.

It also brought a small measure of relief to the otherwise dull atmosphere of the scene.

Although it was a miserable victory, it was a victory after all.

For a long time.

Lin Mo stood up and clapped his hands, and the attention of the scene instantly gathered on him.

“Wei Wine!”

Being named, Wei Wine immediately stood up.

“You Turbine Green Gang are good, all of you are true men!”

“The deceased has passed away, grieve!”

After Lin Mo briefly consoled him, he pulled out two items from his arms.

Several of the power lords, seeing this, sat up straight.

It looked like they were about to hand out rewards!

“This is a healing pill, try it for effect!”

Wei Wine froze for a moment since then, a trace of disappointment clearly flashed in his eyes.

He had fought hard for his own life, obviously not a healing single could compensate for that.

Only in front of a large audience, he couldn't afford to refute Lin Mo's face.

Thinking, he tilted his head and threw the brown pill into his mouth.

As the pill entered his belly, he also gradually felt itching all over his body.

Feeling the itch that was like ants gnawing at him.

Wei Wine couldn't care less about his image.

In public, he took off his clothes straight away.

However, when he unbounced, he was surprised to find that his original wound from the surgery to remove the bullet had already healed a small amount.

Although there was still a faint blood oozing out, it was largely unharmed.

What a strong trauma medicine!

“How is it, is the effect still okay?”

Faced with Lin Mo's enquiry, Wei Wine nodded directly.

“That’s good, according to this healing pill remains the exclusive property of your Turbid Green Gang.”

Wei Wine hadn’t even reacted to the meaning of Lin Mo’s words before he suddenly felt something extra in his hand.

He looked down.

In the palm of his hand were several densely written slips of paper.

Wei Wine recalled Lin Mo’s words and his expression suddenly shook.

“Mr. Lin this

Lin Mo raised his hand to interrupt him.

“This is an elixir I have just recently researched, the main treatment is for external injuries, but of course it is also useful for internal injuries.”

“The greatest benefit of this dan is that it can be ma*s-produced through equipment.”

“The efficacy you’ve experienced first hand!”

As Lin Mo’s words fell to the ground.

Several other power lords in the room were instantly agitated.

The efficacy of this elixir was evident to them all.

Although it was not quite a spiritual pill, it was still extremely precious.

The main thing was that it could be ma*s-produced!

Once it was put into production, it would be a complete money printing machine!

At first, several of the power lords, still felt that Lin Mo was a bit stingy.

Now, when they looked at the dan recipe in Wei Wine’s hand.

The crowd’s eyes were indescribably envious and hot.

Wei Wine shook his body, his expression excited.

With this Dan recipe, their Turbid Green Gang would usher in a phase of rapid development.

Even this miraculous elixir still had great market potential when viewed globally.

Even if they could not enter the management core in the future when Death Island was unified.

With this elixir, their Turbine Green Gang would still be able to develop into a super power.

“Thank you, Mr. Lin, for the reward!”

Just as Wei Wine was about to bend down to express his gratitude.

Lin Mo suddenly reached out and held him with one hand.

“Don’t be in a hurry to thank first!”

“This is just a compensation for the Turbine Green Gang!”

“This is only a reward for you!”

After saying this, Lin Mo reached out with a point of his hand and pointed it straight at Wei Wine’s brow!

The other power lords could no longer remain calm at the sight of this scene.

Not just before, they had seen with their own eyes the scene of Lin Mo accepting a disciple and teaching a top level heart technique.

Such a way of pa*sing on the Dao by God was naturally not impossibly simple.

Sure enough, it was otherwise.

At this moment, a black shadow holding a lance suddenly appeared in Wei Wine’s mind.

At the feet of the black shadow was the rough sea.

Under the waves, the black shadow did not move.

The spear in his hand was flicked.

The tip of the spear nudged against the rock without any movement.

It was only with a tremor of the black shadow’s arm.

Wei Wine then saw nine lance shadows, stabbing out in a continuous stream.

In a matter of moments, the rock was reduced to a puddle of powder.

And from the beginning to the end, the black shadow only pointed out one shot.

What a powerful spear technique!

Just as Wei Wine was marvelling.

The sound of Lin Mo speaking suddenly came to his ears.

“This was my strongest attack before I broke through to Zongshi.”

“Originally used as a boxing, I named it the Stacked Wave Nine-Fold Spear after reformatting it!”

“Comprehend it well, this spear technique can be used by you for life!”

This was not exaggerated by Lin Mo.

The Stacked Waves Fist was a martial art that he had created himself before he became a sectarian.

Combined with the Bai Family Scattered Hands, it was terrifyingly powerful.

Now that he had broken through to Zongshi, his understanding of the martial dao had become even deeper.

This Stacked Wave Fist has naturally become even more powerful, even if it is reworked into a gun technique.

It was not comparable to ordinary martial arts techniques.

Wei Wine closed his eyes to reflect on it carefully.

Repeatedly watching the black shadow's gun technique in his mind, his thoughts became clearer and clearer.

With his eyes transfixed, a brilliant light appeared and his aura was biting.

“Folded Waves Nine-Fold Gun!”

Accompanied by a loud shout.

The long spear in Wei Wine's hand stabbed straight out.

Three virtual shadows followed behind the body of the spear.

Coax!

The wall in front of him shattered with a crash.

The wall in front of him shattered, but the momentum of the spear did not decrease at all!

With a violent ringing sound, a large tree with a double bag not far away fell down with a sound.

This

All the people present were shocked.

The same three district power lord.

The crowd was naturally clear about Wei Wine's strength.

That shot just now was at least five or six times more powerful compared to Wei Wine's previous strongest strike.

The one who felt it most deeply was Chief Qiu.

As a martial artist who had been a half-step Grandmaster for a long time.

His sense of inscription of martial arts techniques was obviously much higher than the others.

With that shot alone, even if he hadn't been paying attention, he would have perished on the spot.

At this moment, he also finally understood why Ma Bangde had been able to kill a half-step sect master before.

Hopefully, it was purely because he had Lin Mo, an arsenal of earthly martial skills, to provide him with support.

Unlike the restlessness of the other power lords.

After Director Qiu thought about it, he took a deep breath to calm down his fluctuating emotions.

Wei Wine was able to obtain such divine skills entirely because people had used piles of them.

He didn't need to be too anxious.

If he did his job well, Lin Mo would not be stingy with his rewards.

After thinking it over, Director Qiu sat back and took a small sip from his cup of tea.

As for Wei Wine, after using this terrifying blow.

He only felt as if his flesh and blood had been drained.

Not a single ounce of energy could be lifted from his body.

If he hadn't looked at his spear to hold on, he would have fallen to the ground at this moment.

"This is a normal phenomenon!"

Lin Mo saw this and patiently explained.

"Your realm and physical body strength are not strong enough, so using such a strong spear strike will cause after-effects."

He was also giving a secret instruction to pay attention to exercising his fleshly body.

Wei Wine naturally understood and thanked him repeatedly.

Whether it was the Dan formula compensated to the Turbid Green Gang.

Or the gun skill that was rewarded to himself.

These two items were both extremely precious treasures.

In particular, the Nine Heavy Guns of Stacked Waves was a martial art that could be used for a lifetime.

This wave of pioneers was a good one.

Wei Wine only wanted to say.

It smells good!

After the compensation and rewards were distributed.

Lin Mo also instructed Director Qiu to prepare an exponential amount of pension.

This was their lives paving the way for the Three Regions.

Naturally, there should be no shortage of pensions!

And the families of those who died in battle were also asked by Lin Mo to record them one by one.

When Death Island was reunified, there would be a corresponding welfare allowance.

“You guys don’t need to be envious!”

“The Great War is far from over!”

“As long as you all perform well, I won’t lose a single cent of the compensation and rewards you deserve.”

Said Lin Mo with a turn of phrase.

“Of course there are people who are fighting to fish in troubled waters and keep quiet, please leave as early as possible.”

“Otherwise when the time comes, don’t blame me for flipping out.”

With this example from Wei Wine.

The other power lords were already red in the eyes.

They couldn’t wait to go out and drink the Lawrence Clan into a fierce fight right now.

How could they possibly have any other thoughts.

And this was also the result of Lin Mo’s deliberate efforts.

Wei wine is the horse bone that he bought with a thousand dollars.

He wanted his name to grow and his strength to soar.

You have to do well!

After a few words of small talk, Lin Mo left the matter of mourning for his comrades killed in battle to Wang Changxing.

After the big battle.

Perhaps there will be small-scale battle friction.

But both sides’ booster troops had to take a round of recuperation.

And the mourning for those who died in battle.

This process would take at least three to five days.

These trivial matters, Lin Mo would naturally not interfere.

“Did you read it, Haterless?”

On the way out, Lin Mo suddenly asked.

Beside him, Lin Wu Hate held his hand and raised his eyes in confusion.

With an uncomprehending face, he shook his head.

Although he had an unbelievable talent for the martial arts.

However, he rarely interacted with outsiders, and this kind of relationship between people was something she simply did not understand.
