Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3961

Since the departure of all his relatives, Lin Wu Huan has completely closed himself off.

She has never been in contact with outsiders again.

She had an uncanny understanding of the martial arts.

In less than five days, she was able to cultivate the Cang Ying Clan's supreme martial art to its completion and modify its flaws.

She is also uniquely qualified.

He was so intelligent that he was able to deceive all the people of Lawrence Castle on his own.

He was able to kill everyone in the castle.

Even in the face of Ji Dutuo, he managed to escape from this man with his wisdom.

The only thing she knew nothing about was the human condition.

In her eyes, there was only Lin Mo and the others.

Lin Mo Shen smiled faintly and did not explain too much, only rubbing the top of his disciple's head.

"It's alright, take your time to read if you don't understand, imperialism is a very deep discipline."

"Look and listen more, after a long time, it will become clear."

He understood that such things did not happen overnight.

It takes time and experience to sink in slowly.

One teacher and one disciple, one teaching and one listening.

Slowly the two arrived at the First Hospital in District 2.

The top floor.

Lin Mo's exclusive top class ward had just been vacated for a few days.

Now Black Rose had taken up residence again.

Although she had her men to sacrifice their lives to save her and blocked the fatal blow with their bodies.

However, the strong aftershocks from the rocket explosion still stunned Black Rose.

When Lin Mo arrived at the ward, Black Rose had already woken up.

Bandages were wrapped around her forehead and arms.

“How do you feel?”

It was only after Lin Mo’s words had fallen for a long time that Black Rose responded.

“Ah, Mr. Lin, you’re here!”

“How does it feel?”

Lin Mo asked once more.

From the first moment he saw Black Rose, he felt that there was something abnormal about her.

The look was clearly and obviously a bit dull.

The reactions were also rather sluggish.

Black Rose froze for a few seconds before she spoke.

“Feeling a little dizzy, wanting to vomit but unable to!”

Lin Mo nodded, and was generally able to determine Black Rose’s condition.

Concussion!

Only the severity of it needed to be further examined.

“Has the doctor come to look at you?”

Black Rose nodded and reached out to point to a cupboard off to the side.

“That doctor just bandaged me up briefly, and then I said mild concussion.”

“Told me to take some medication multiple times and just rest a lot.”

There was nothing wrong with the means of treatment.

However, Lin Mo thought it was too slow.

Even if it was a mild brain, there was no way it would recover without half a month.

“It’s better for me to help you heal!”

“This way you can also be discharged earlier!”

Upon hearing this, Black Rose’s small face could not help but float a blush of fat.

After softly mumbling, she obediently laid down on the hospital bed.

After Lin Mo helped Black Rose untie the bandage on her forehead, he reached out and gently massaged her for a while to facilitate relaxation.

“Have a good sleep, you’ll be fine once you wake up!”

After speaking softly, Lin Mo took out the silver needles from his arms.

The Black Rose on the hospital bed was still enjoying this so much.

Being rubbed by Lin Mo on her temples at the same time.

Black Rose couldn't help but feel warm in her heart, especially when she heard that gentle blessing.

Her cheeks couldn't help but start to burn, and her heart was in turmoil.

However, before she could enjoy the feeling, a strong wave of drowsiness hit her violently.

The next second she fell into a deep sleep without any preparation.

After Lin Mo had dropped the first needle to help Black Rose fall asleep, he was about to continue administering needles.

But at this very moment, the door of the ward was suddenly pushed open.

A young doctor, who was about 1.8 metres tall, walked in quickly.

After seeing Lin Mo, he couldn't help but frown.

Recalling all the big names of the upper class in District 3, there was no Lin Mo present among them.

"b*d, what do you want to do to my patient?"

"Hurry up and stop"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3962

Conard, as the youngest attending physician in the First Hospital of the Second District.

Naturally, he has his unique medical talent.

He is also tall and handsome.

Many young nurses in the hospital were attracted to him.

There were even a number of daring people who had sent him love letters in private.

In the face of all this, Ronald was simply unmoved.

It wasn't that he didn't like women, it was purely because he couldn't look at these rouges.

What no one knew was that Ronald had already been attracted to the Black Rose's sultry and gallant bearing a few years earlier.

It was only because of the disparity in status that he had never had the opportunity to make contact with her.

Today, he suddenly learnt that Black Rose had been taken to their hospital in a coma.

The news came to him.

Conard almost jumped up in excitement.

For this reason, he had used his connections to secure a position as Black Rose's treating doctor.

Especially when he saw Black Rose unconscious in her bed, his whole body was like being set on fire.

If it wasn't for the intensive hospital surveillance, he wouldn't have been able to resist the urge to take advantage of the opportunity to have a kiss.

In desperation, he could only still choose to make head-on contact.

He attempted to use his own means to take this gallant woman down.

Only what he never expected was this.

During this routine review, he unexpectedly met a strange man who was moving his hand over the head of his goddess.

The most abominable thing was that this stranger, to his surprise, had even performed the act of sticking needles in his goddess's head.

Lin Mo didn't know why this young doctor, who had suddenly appeared, was so hostile towards him.

"I'm a friend of Black Rose's and know some of the art of Chinese medicine!"

"Want to apply needles to her so that Black Rose can recover sooner."

After all, it was in someone else's territory.

Lin Mo even patiently explained a few words.

However, after Conard heard the word friend.

A surge of anger burned fiercely in his heart.

I'm not even qualified to be friends with a goddess, so you, a mediocre and ordinary person, are also worthy?

Then he looked at Lin Mo's face, which was even more handsome than his own.

Jealousy flared up in Conard's heart, and his eyes were filled with hostility.

"The art of Chinese medicine?"

He laughed contemptuously, his expression full of disdain underneath

"Isn't that just the tactics of charlatans?"

"Listen to me, kid, I don't care where you come from."

"This is no place for you to be reckless, hurry up and get lost!"

And as his words became more and more unpleasant.

Behind him, Lin Wu Huan had slowly narrowed his eyes and was deadly low on Conard's rear end.

The black claws that had been glowing with a ghostly light in her hands had already coalesced into shape.

As long as Lin Mo was willing to head, she would be able to crush the big man in front of her within half a second.

After Lin Mo sensed Lin Wu Huan's abnormal emotions, he immediately shook his head.

He didn't care about other places, but this was his exclusive ward.

It would be unlucky to see blood.

Of course not killing didn't mean that he could tolerate Conard's insults to the Chinese doctor.

"Did you just say that the art of Chinese medicine is the means of a charlatan?"

"Why are you still not convinced are you?"

Conard was also furious at this point.

The medical skill or lack of it was all completely secondary.

Only the phrase friend made him feel insulted by the goddess he was the one who regarded as forbidden.

With such emotions, Conard naturally would not give any good looks.

"A charlatan, how dare you let loose in our hospital!"

"Get the hell out of here!"

The huge voice shook the door frame rattling.

Snap!

Just as Conard was furious.

Lin Mo raised his hand and slapped him to the ground.

"I'll ask you one last time, did you just say that the art of Chinese medicine is the tactics of a fraud."

On the ground.

Kang Nan's covered his cheek in disbelief.

He never thought that this kid in front of him would dare to make a move.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3963

Death Island.

The two rarest kinds of people.

One is the boat runner.

There are numerous reefs around the island and it is extremely easy to run aground.

The other type is the doctor.

On a remote island like this, no doctor would want to come to this remote island, as long as he or she did not want to.

No doctor would want to come here.

And this profession is indispensable.

Therefore, doctors on the island have a very high status.

Although they are not as powerful as the ten major powers in the three districts.

But they are not the kind of people that ordinary islanders can offend.

At the moment, Conard could not have imagined that the other party would dare to slap him.

A strong sense of humiliation arose.

"You you're dead!"

"Kid, you wait for me, our hospital is owned by several power lords."

"Beat me, and you won't walk out of District 3 alive."

As he spoke, he suddenly felt a piercing chill.

It was as if a fierce beast was staring at him.

With this inexplicable feeling of fear, Conard did not linger any longer and fled the place straight away.

"You shouldn't have scared him."

Lin Mo rubbed the top of Hate Free's head, and there seemed to be some grumbling in his tone.

"I haven't even finished asking my words!"

Lin Wu Hate stared at the direction Conard had left with a fierce glint in his eyes and spat out words slowly.

"He disrespected Master, D*mn him!"

Lin Mo was speechless.

Such a dutiful disciple, what could he say!

"Alright, you can rest on the couch now for a while!"

"I'll continue treating this sister."

Lin Mo said before coming to Black Rose's body.

On the sofa, Lin Wu Hate sat docilely and quietly.

With big curious eyes, she quietly watched Lin Mo's subtle techniques.

By the time Lin Mo withdrew his hand, Black Rose's forehead was already filled with silver needles.
Meanwhile.

Director Qiu, leading Ma Bangde and several other power lords, also arrived here in a frenzy.

"What's going on?"

When they received the news from Conard's summons, they rushed over at the first opportunity.

"Lord Director, Sect Master Ma!"

Conard greeted, and then spoke with righteous indignation.

"A charlatan slipped in at some point in the healing room on the top floor."

"Not only did this man treat Lady Black Rose indiscriminately."

"I went up to dissuade him and he even slapped me."

With that, he lifted his palm and displayed the puffy slap mark on his face in front of the duo.

Director Qiu's face sank.

"Didn't you inform security?"

Conard shook his head, "In the rush of my heart just now, I forgot!"

He was not stupid.

Notifying the security guards would, at most, drive that boy out of the hospital.

But if he informed the power lords, the kid would definitely die.

Director Qiu pondered for a few seconds and then did not dwell on the matter.

Instead, Ma Bangde, who was on the side, spoke angrily.

"Let's go up together and take a look!"

"I'd like to see what kind of person is impatient to live and dares to provoke us like that!"

With that he took the lead and rushed straight into the lift.

Several people followed behind him.

The top floor.

After Lin Mo had finished treating Black Rose, he had just withdrawn all the silver needles.

Outside the room, there was the sound of intensive footsteps.

And it was accompanied by a familiar loud voice.

"This is the place, isn't it!"

"He's here to cause trouble, D*mn it, let's see if I can get rid of him."

As soon as the words left his mouth, the door to the room was kicked open with a heavy kick.

“Which one of you unafraid beavers dares

Ma Bangde cursed as he kicked open the door before barging straight in.

However just as he looked inside the room, he instantly froze in his tracks.

Cold sweat was pouring down his back.

This was going to be the end!

And behind him, Conard recapped this Lin Mo’s atrocity over and over again as he introduced a group of power lords into the room.

“Lord Director, it’s this D*mned bd

As soon as he entered the door, he raised his hand and pointed at Lin Mo.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3964

The crowd, which had been in a frenzy, was now standing frozen in the corridor above.

Only Conard in front of him had a resentful face as he retold the atrocities that Lin Mo had committed not long ago.

“My lords of power!”

“This brat, he’s completely plotting against Lady Black Rose.”

After saying that, he looked at Lin Mo with a smug expression.

Let your slap me, let you touch my goddess, let you be my goddess’ friend.

I’ll see if you die today.

Thinking of the scene where Lin Mo was about to be executed by the power lord, deep in Connor’s eyes, he couldn’t help but flash a look of dead excitement.

However, Conard’s words fell for a long time.

Several of the Power Lords remained unmoved.

Dumbfounded, they stood in place.

Could it be that they were mad with anger?

With this dark heart in his heart, Conard’s feet had already taken a step.

“Kid, you didn’t expect it!”

“I said you’re dead!”

“Now kneel down and meekly admit your mistake, and I can help you put in a good word in front of the lords of power.”

With the backing of the power lords behind him, his demeanour at the moment appeared even more arrogant.

The look of contempt in his eyes was unmistakable.

That high and mighty stance seemed to be eating Lin Mo up.

Lin Mo did not faintly frown and raised his eyes to look at him coldly.

“You, have you made enough of this?”

Ha?

Kang Nande froze for a moment, and then a haze flashed across his face.

This bd has the audacity to glare at me.

“Kid, you don’t even look at what form this is in.”

“How you slapped me just now, I’m going to slap you back.”

Slap!

Just as Conard had raised his arm, a clear slap suddenly sounded in the room.

Conard’s whole body took off again.

After landing on the ground, he only felt a whirl of heaven and earth, and his consciousness was in a trance.

Conard covered his cheek, his face full of disbelief.

“Lord Director, you saw it.”

“This kid didn’t even put you guys down in his eyes!”

“If this kind of humongous bandit is not dealt with, will anyone still fear you in the future in the Third District?”

The words were directly filled with provocation.

The stance was as though if they couldn’t kill Lin Mo today, several of their power lords would immediately have to step down.

Director Qiu frowned, indifference written in his gaze.

The rest of the several power lords, looking at Conard, did the same.

It was as if they were looking at a corpse.

Director Qiu had originally intended to speak, after all, Lin Mo had not spoken, and he did not dare to act rashly.

It was just that this madness of Conard jumping across the edge of death was too much for him to bear.

“Do you know who this person is that you’re frantically provoking?”

Conard subconsciously returned, “Isn’t it just a journeyman?”

Oh!

Director Qiu laughed coldly and didn’t bother to pay him any more attention.

It was hard to persuade a D*mned ghost with good words!

It was a waste of breath to say anything more to this kind.

“Mr. Lin, this matter is a dereliction of duty on our part!”

Director Qiu clasped his fist and bowed towards Lin Mo.

Several other power lords beside him also made the same gesture.

Conard looked at this previously unbelievable scene and finally realised something?

The next second, his face changed violently.

Mr. Lin?

Wasn’t that the mysterious big man that had been making the rounds for a while now?

The newly promoted king of the three districts had unified the nine major powers in just a week.

Combined with the respectful posture of Director Qiu and the others in front of him.

Conard’s face suddenly turned white.

In shock, he directly fell to his knees and kowtowed for mercy.

“Mr. Lin, Lord Lin, I was wrong, I was wrong!”

“Your Excellency, forgive me!”

Lin Mo didn’t pay any attention to him, he just said coldly.

“This man is too noisy!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, Ma Bangde immediately warred out and grabbed Conard by the collar of his shirt.

Slap!

Two big mouths, directly slapping Conard unconscious.

Then, without saying a word, Ma Bond threw him straight out of the room and smashed him heavily in the middle of the hallway.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3965

After Conard had been dealt with.

Lin Mo swept a glance at the crowd.

“Are you guys quite free?”

Nowadays, the frontline was still in a tense moment of confronting each other.

This group of people had unexpectedly all run out in one go.

At these words, the bodies of several power lords trembled slightly.

Their hearts were filled with regret.

If they had known that the person inside the hospital was Lin Mo, they wouldn’t have come over to their deaths.

“Mr. Lin, we also heard that someone was trying to misbehave with Black Rose.”

Director Qiu explained desperately.

“A few of us rushed over in a rush in our hearts.”

Ma Bangde also followed this explanation closely.

“Yes, Mr. Lin, Black Rose is also a credit to this battle, and we were too worried, so we rushed over together.”

It was only at this point that Lin Mo’s face looked slightly better.

It was understandable to be able to care for one another’s companions.

“The front line is tight, so you all hurry back, I’ll be fine on the Black Rose side.”

Of all of them, he was the most free.

There was no way he would step in until the war was the last resort.

When the few power lords heard this, they relaxed considerably.

“Mr. Lin, then we will go back first.”

At this moment, all the people wanted to do was to hurry up and get out of here.

“Well, go more! Old Ma, you keep an eye on it.”

Huh?

Ma Bangde felt a great sense of discomfort in his heart.

Apparently the scolding and cursing quality speech he had just made had been taken into account by Lin Mo.

Thinking of this, Ma Bangde immediately revealed a naive smile.

“Hehehe!”

“Mr. Lin, I still have to teach those untalented brats over at the Blade Sect to cultivate the Returning Sea One Blade.”

“If there’s no pressing matters, why don’t we talk about it another time.”

Right now, he only thought that he could escape from here as quickly as possible.

It was a pity that Lin Mo saw through this bd’s small mind at a glance.

“It doesn’t matter, the matter of cultivation, we are not short of such a moment.”

“Let’s just talk about what you said just now about wanting to get me killed.”

Ma Bangde looked at the unsuspecting smile at the corner of Lin Mo’s mouth and felt a great sense of dismay in his heart.

It was going to be bad!

Without the slightest hesitation, he immediately turned around.

Just as he was about to step out of the gate and successfully escape.

A huge suction force suddenly came from behind him.

Even though he had already exerted all his strength, his body continued to move backwards and forwards.

Within a moment, a large hand locked onto his rear end.

“What, old horse, are they all so high and mighty now?”

“Not even bothering to talk to me anymore?”

The calmer Lin Mo was at the moment when he finished, the creepier Ma Bangde became.

“Hey, hey, Mr. Lin how could that be, I’m not in the middle of something, right?”

“By the way, what was this martial art you used just now that could be so amazing.”

The terrifying suction force was not even the slightest bit resistive even for him who was a half-step sect master.

“One of the seventy-twenty masterpieces of the Southern Cloud Temple, the Dragon Capturing Crane Hand, do you want to learn it?”

Lin Mo returned with a smile.

How could Ma Bangde refuse, that head nodded as if a chicken pecked rice.

At the same time, he was smug in his heart.

He had successfully dodged a bullet by changing the topic in just a few words.

I'm such a clever little man.

Just as he was complimenting himself.

Suddenly he felt a sharp pain in his eye.

"You're thinking good thoughts!"

As soon as these words came out, fists like rain rained down straight towards Ma Bangde's cheek.

"Mr. Lin, Mr. Lin, say something properly!"

Ma Bangde screamed in agony, thinking of his previous "pig-headed" experience, he hurriedly begged for mercy.

"Mr. Lin, I'm wrong, don't hit my face, don't hit my face."

However, the louder he begged for forgiveness, the harder Lin Mo's fist came down.

Lin Wuheng, who was at the side, saw her master hitting with such vigour.

She also jumped down from the sofa.

After getting close, she kicked Ma Bangde hard twice on his body.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3966

The loud howl of an owl woke the Black Rose.

"What are you doing here?"

Hearing the sound of talking, Lin Mo also stopped the movement of his hands.

By the time everyone turned their heads, Black Rose couldn't help but puff out a laugh.

That familiar pig head had returned.

Taking advantage of this gap, Ma Bangde didn't hesitate and immediately rushed out of the room.

He had not long escaped from here without incident.

There was a sound of footsteps above the corridor.

Ma Bond folded back, right here in Conard's hair, walking over and over, muttering under his breath.

"If it weren't for you, how would I have ended up in this situation."

"You'll be sent to war in a few days."

Hiss!

The grin tore into the wound on his face at the same time.

Ma Bangde couldn't help but suck in a cold breath.

Inside the room, Lin Mo watched all this and shook his head speechlessly.

He was already an old man, and his form was still so big-hearted.

Lin Mo twisted his head to stop paying attention to this fellow and opened his mouth to ask.

“Does your head still feel dizzy now?”

Black Rose’s concussion had already healed, but wanted to ma*sage Lin Mo’s gentle greetings from before.

He couldn’t help but nod and give a soft mmm.

Lin Mo couldn’t help but frown.

Could it be that his own level of medical skills had dropped.

Thinking of this, he once again allowed Black Rose to be his body.

He carefully examined it.

“Uh, Black Rose you probably slept too much, just get up and move around more.”

At this moment, a distinctly squirmy expression appeared on his face.

Black Rose glanced nervously at Lin Mo and immediately panicked and put her head under again.

Her heart was in a squared circle.

If Mr. Lin found out that I was pretending to be sick, what would I do?

Would he dislike me?

Will he think that I have a deep heart?

Lin Mo was a lot more open-minded, although he could already see the woman’s different thoughts.

But he still sank his temperament and examined the injury on his arm.

“A fracture, a minor problem.”

After correcting Black Rose’s bones and applying the ointment.

Lin Mo then stopped stopping.

“It will be fine after a few days of recuperation!”

After saying that, he took his disciple Lin Wu Huan directly out of here.

“Master, that woman is not like a good person!”

Lin Mo nodded in deep agreement, “I, too, feel the same way, Master.”

“I treat her like a subordinate, and she even thinks ill of me.”

With that, the master and disciple duo began their rebuke of Black Rose with a word from you and a word from me.

.....

On the other side.

Clegg was once again furious.

"You're all a bunch of losers!"

"I equipped you with the first firearms in District 2 and you bring me this result?"

In order to annex all the firepower units in District Three.

He went out of his way to use the lives of over 100,000 pioneer swordsmen and shields as bait.

This was followed by the cost of over 40,000 firearms troops, which led to the Black Garden, the only firearms organisation holding back District Three.

After paying so much, all that came back in return was, less than 100,000 battle losses from the other side.

More than 10,000 members of the Black Garden.

This kind of result was completely like him, Clegg, lifting a stone to smash his own feet.

"All of you are wastes!"

"What use do I have for you all!"

Several commanders, plus army generals, were driven out under Clegg's rebuke and scolding.

"Bah, what the hell?"

One of the generals spat directly after leaving the barracks.

"His own waste, but he blames it on us."

"If he really had that gumption, he would have brought a few half-step clerics and killed his way straight into the other side's command centre."

"A wimpy son of a b*tch, but his temper is not small."

The companion beside him looked anxious and hurriedly stopped him.

"All right, all right, cut the crap!"

"He's in a rage now, so be careful."

"Calm down, so many people have died and we still have to prepare the afterlife for them."

The two men said this over and over again and left the place.

What they didn't notice was that three figures were standing silently in the branches of the trees beside them.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3967

The two men under the tree faded away.

Star grabbed her pigtails and asked curiously.

"Instructor Ji Dok, is this Clegg getting cold feet."

"These men of his, they're getting more and more critical of him."

Beside him, Ji Duo Tuo, with a smile on his face.

Looking at the entire huge military camp from afar, he silently shook his head.

"This Clegg is too eager-hearted."

"He is the only one left in the main vein clan, and he wants to divert the conflict."

"At the same time, he also wants to prove himself with a, well, big victory."

"Only he doesn't know yet that the people underneath are in total chaos."

Gods in the shadows, the private underbelly of the Lawrence family branch of those metaphors.

Ji Dutuo saw it better than anyone.

"So do we still need to support him?" Star asked after him.

Ji Dutuo's smile became even wider.

"My original words were that he could take the three districts and give him the management of Death Island in the future."

"I never said that I would help him take District 3."

"And I did promise Lin Mo that I wouldn't make a move against the people of Death Island."

"Keeping my word is the rule of my life!"

The two Nebula sisters' white eyes rolled straight up.

"It's obvious that you want people to just send them to their deaths and grind up the people of the three districts!"

"That's right, Godfather, you are also too shameless."

Ji Dutuo stroked his chin, his expression gradually becoming suspicious.

"Did I act so obvious?"

"Mmmmmmmmm!" The two sisters nodded their heads in unison.

“You’ve almost carved the word bad guy on your face, hehehe!”

Ji Dutuo pretended to be angry.

“Good, you guys come dare to talk to the Second Master like that, watch the punishment!”

With a burst of chattering laughter.

The two Nebula sisters, hurriedly fled the place.

Behind them, Ji Dutuo followed them without panic.

In a short while, he blocked the way of the two sisters.

Just as Xing was about to beg for mercy.

A white haired young man, suddenly barged in.

“Greetings, Second Patriarch!”

“The little girl you asked us to track down has got a clue.”

Hearing this news, Ji Dutuo instantly withdrew his original scuffling demeanor.

“Speak!”

“The fundamental news is that the little girl is at Lin Mo’s side and has been given the name Lin Wu Hate by Lin Mo.”

“And the two are already in a master-disciple relationship!”

Ji Duto’s brows gradually coalesced as he murmured in a low voice.

“Already a master and disciple?”

“Is it intentional, or is it just a coincidence!”

For Lin Wu Hate, he had the determination that she must be included in the Seven Deadly Sins.

“Have you investigated this woman’s origins!”

Without speaking, the white-haired youth directly presented a volume of files.

After Ji Duto quickly browsed through it, his face instantly turned ugly.

It was unacceptable for the Lawrence family to perish.

The family is a family of geniuses, and they are not being fed.

They even slaughtered their family members.

Nebula sisters two is also the first time to see Ji Duto to a strange little girl so sad.

Xing couldn’t help but ask curiously.

“This Lin Wu Huan, is this the little girl we were chasing before?”

After receiving an affirmative answer, she had a puzzled look on her face.

"It doesn't look like it's strong either, apart from the concealment technique, it doesn't seem to have anything shining about it."

As a top genius of the World Sister who had already become a sect master at the age of eighteen.

He did have the capital to belittle everything.

Only Ji Dutuo shook his head.

"There are people outside of people, and there is heaven outside of heaven."

"That little girl, both in terms of talent and of talent, is a top choice."

"As long as you give her is time, this Lin Wuyuan can be very much like you all."

"Break through to the realm of saints!"

After saying that, he tilted his head and looked into the distance.

His heart was filled with emotion.

In this era, there were many capable people.

There were numerous talents under the sky.

Like the Grand Preceptor, he himself no longer had a chance to break through to sainthood.

Unless he could gather all the crystal skulls and find the legendary treasure.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3968

The front line of Zone 3.

The sky was filled with smoke and fire that shot up to the clouds.

The members of the major powers were all wearing white stripes on their heads at this time, their faces heavy with emotion.

In front of them, amidst the blazing fires, were the warriors who had died in battle.

"Brothers, bon voyage!"

Wang Changxing roared and raised the yellow paper money in his hand.

Behind him, several major power lords then poured out the cups of wine in their hands.

Thin lines of wine spilled onto the earth.

The hearts of the crowd were heavy at this moment.

The huge funeral in front of them was not the end.

It was only the beginning.

In the not too distant future, there would be even more gruelling battles waiting for them.

No one could guarantee that they would not be the next to fall.

But they would not and could not back down in order to fight for the future they had dreamed of.

The simple mourning ceremony came to an end.

Preparations for a new round of battles began in earnest.

In the General Command Centre, all the major power lords were seated.

After waiting for Lin Mo to arrive with his disciple Lin Wu Hate.

Wang Changxing walked over to the military map and began a new round of tactical layout.

“According to the information worn back by the scouts, this location is their Lawrence’s firearms depot.”

The enemy’s firearms were the biggest danger constraining their three districts.

As long as this hidden danger was not pulled up, the less hope they had of swinging Lawrence once and for all.

Tens of thousands of rifles paired with medium and heavy firepower.

Even all the forces in their three districts combined would not be enough for them to kill.

“Does everyone have any ideas on how to give him a complete end to this place?”

Once these words were spoken, the real scene was completely silent.

It wasn’t that a few of the power lords were timid.

The other party must also know the importance of the gun armory.

This kind of material that could determine the course of victory or defeat on the battlefield must be heavily guarded by the enemy.

It was obvious that it was a fantasy to take out such an enemy.

So the crowd looked at me, and I looked at you.

None of them dared to stand up and say anything.

“Shall we try?”

The crowd turned their heads to look.

Only to see a corner of the room, a stooped old man was smoking a dry cigarette in his hand and speaking unhurriedly.

The ghostly old man was not inconspicuous among the nine great power lords.

And he did not have a good relationship with several other power lords.

The main reason was that the reputation of the White Cemetery under the command of this ghostly man was too bad.

Although there were many people under his command, more than 100,000 of them.

But all of them were engaged in fighting.

In layman's terms, they are the ones who throw away people's ancestral graves.

And their activities are not limited to the three districts.

With their ability to dig holes in the ground, the whole island of death is their domain.

It's not just that the masters of the three districts don't want to have too much to do with them.

Not only do the power lords of the three districts not want to have too much to do with them, but also the power lords of other districts and ordinary people hate the White Cemetery to the bone.

If it weren't for the inter-regional restrictions.

If it were not for the inter-regional restrictions, someone would have fought to destroy the White Cemetery.

But right now, as the ghostly old man spoke.

The people in the audience suddenly saw a bright light.

He was a master at making holes in the ground.

If we were to sneak through from underground, it might be feasible.

Thinking of this, Wang Changxing's face was overjoyed.

"Ghostly old man if you say from us, fight your way through an underground pa*sage."

Wang Changxing spent a circle on the map and continued to ask.

"How long will it take to get to this location, roughly?"

As the words fell, the eyes of the other power lords instantly gathered.

The ghostly old man knocked his pipe in his hand and stuck it back into his waist.

Coming to the map, he reached out and measured the distance.

"A week!"

The time was long, but it was also relative.

Seven days to dig the same sixty kilometre underground pa*sage.

Such a speed was enough to stun everyone.

Worthy of being a grave digger, this skill was absolutely cowhide.

"Old ghost, ah, I didn't expect your White Cemetery to have such a skill."

“It looks like you guys are going to take the first credit this time!”

Faced with the boasts of the crowd, the ghostly old man only replied politely.

Resuming his seat.

With a plan to deal with it.

A new round of arguments began among the several power lords.

Wei Wine was the first to stand up.

“Our Turbid Green Clan has experience fighting them.”

“This raid battle is still the most appropriate for us, the Turbid Youth Gang, to fight.”

The compensation and reward from Lin Mo earlier was really too fragrant.

Seeing the opportunity to take credit right in front of him, how could Wei Wine let it go.

“I can go f*ck you.”

Ma Bangde got up and spoke with direct quality.

“Your Clear Turbine Gang has the experience we don’t have in the Blade Sect?”

“Four thousand to destroy fifty thousand, I just ask you who else?”

“I don’t care about this raid battle, it’s not us, the Knife Sect.”

The Black Rose was still not willing to show weakness despite her newly healed wounds.

“Could we, the Black Garden, perform any worse?”

“This land of guns, we can make the most of the battle from where we are.”

“Chief Commander, do you look down on us women?”

DUANG!

A female fist hammered Wang Changxing’s chest so hard that he simply couldn’t find an excuse to retort.

And what Black Rose said did make sense.

Their Black Garden specialized in firearms, and this enemy’s firearms warehouse was most suitable for them to raid.

Seeing Wang Changxing’s face showing intent.

Ma Bangde raised an eyebrow, his face full of a bad smile.

“Old Wang ah, you lust for women also have a separate occasion!”

“I don’t care about other places, but this is a battlefield.”

Poof!

This remark came out!

Angry, Wang Changxing almost vomited blood.

If he disagreed with Black Garden going to war, he was looking down on women.

If he agreed, then he would be lusting after women.

How else could he play!

It was completely putting him on the fire rack to roast.

Suffice it to say that Lin Mo saw Wang Changxing’s dilemma and spoke up for him, saying.

“Come on, Old Ma, he is the commander-in-chief, so he naturally has his own considerations on how to arrange things.”

“Stop it.”

His last sentence was not only addressed to Ma Bangde, but also to the other stupid power masters.

The words fell to the ground and the scene was instantly quiet.

Wang Changxing glanced gratefully at Lin Mo, and then coughed lightly.

The crowd’s spirits shook as they waited with anticipation for his final decision.

“For this surprise attack, the White Cemetery will be responsible for digging the underground passages!”

“The Black Garden is responsible for the frontal combat!”

“The Knife Cult is responsible for support and reception!”

“What else does everyone have to say?”

Lin Mo had already set the tone before.

At this moment, how could the power lords still dare to be bickering.

Only Ma Bangde was full of disdain and coldly snorted softly.

“Old colourful batch!”

The rawness was not loud, but everyone present heard it.

This was closely followed by the sound of clacking bones rubbing together.

Ma Bangde twisted his head to look, only to see Lin Mo chucking his fingers while looking at himself with a gloomy face.

Uh

This is bad!

A sense of crisis rose in his heart.

Ma Bangde immediately got up again.

“The chief commander is wise and wise, this decision is simply perfect.”

“If anyone dares to have an opinion, I, Old Ma, will rip his head off.”

He shouted in a stern and angry voice, matching his look of righteous indignation, like a hardcore supporter of Wang Changxing.

The crowd would have believed him if they hadn’t heard his old colorful criticism earlier.

Lin Mo could only hold his forehead with one hand helplessly.

Ever since this bd had broken through the half-step Patriarch, plus after he was armed with the sword technique Returning Sea One Blade.

The whole person had become even more floating.

Apart from himself, there was no one who could hold him down.

The farce was over.

The course of the surprise attack strategy was thus set.

Just as the whole group was leaving, Lin Mo suddenly frowned.

After Director Qiu at the side noticed it, he asked curiously.

“Mr. Lin, what’s wrong?”

“When did this ghostly old man come to District 3?” Lin Mo asked in a deep voice.

After recalling a bit, Director Qiu opened his mouth and explained.

“It seems to be around twenty years ago!”

“This person, though, doesn’t seem to fit in too well

As the sun was going down.

Halfway down the road, the ghostly man suddenly stopped in his tracks.

A figure in front of him blocked his way.

“Greetings, Mr. Lin!”

The hunched figure slowly bent down his stoop.

Lin Mo was leaning against a large tree, with a dog's tail in his mouth.

He smiled faintly in the face of the ghostly man's salute.

"The late generation has a confusion in mind, I wonder if I can ask senior to help explain a few things."

"Mr. Lin, but say no harm, the word senior, I really can't afford it."

Said the ghostly old man as he bent down again.

This time Lin Mo was not polite again and opened his mouth and said straightforwardly.

"To have a sect master expert hiding on this sh*tty death island."

"What exactly do you think it's for?"

At these words, the ghostly old man's movements stalled.

Only he reacted quickly and cleverly covered it up.

"What do you mean, Mr. Lin, old man, I don't quite understand!"

"Please also speak up, sir!"

The ghostly old man asked in confusion.

However, he did not know that the hint of abnormal movement just now had been caught by Lin Mo.

"It's alright, you'll understand soon!"

Lin Mo squared his body and gently rested his right hand on the hilt of his sword.

In a matter of moments, a cold flash pa*sed.

"Do you understand now?"

At this moment, the tip of Tai Ah was already resting against Ghost Sou's throat.

Lin Mo's expression also gradually turned cold.

"Account or die! You only have one chance?"

In the midst of this rarely seen layered forest, the biting sword qi drove up a faint clear breeze.

The gra*s and trees swayed all around.

After a long time, the ghostly old man sighed faintly.

"Mr. Lin, how did you find me?"

From the moment Lin Mo shot his sword, his identity had been suspected, and it no longer mattered whether he admitted it or not.

As soon as these words were spoken, Lin Mo turned his wrist and after making a sword splash, Tai Ah returned to its sheath.

“Don’t you think you’re a little too indifferent to fame and fortune?”

From the beginning to the end, Lin Mo had never paid any attention to this low-profile old man.

Knowing that today, above this battle meeting.

This ghostly old man had suddenly stood out.

That cloudy and light-hearted style of acting indifferent to fame and fortune was particularly harsh among this group of eager power lords.

When the ghostly old man heard this, his expression froze.

He had not expected that his low-key style of handling things would reveal his identity.

“Mr. Lin is so keenly observant, I admire you!”

After bowing, he asked once again.

“But how did Mr. Lin determine my strength as a clan master?”

The number of times he had exposed his strength after coming to Death Island was few and far between.

Especially in recent years, he hadn’t struck out at all.

This was also the biggest doubt in his mind.

Lin Mo reached out his hand and pointed at the ghostly old man.

“Senior, you’ve hidden yourself too deeply.”

“So much so that there isn’t any hint of spiritual energy fluctuation around you.”

“Back to the basics, the mark of a Patriarch!”

The ghostly old man’s expression changed, but but reluctantly asked rhetorically.

“Couldn’t I just be an ordinary person?”

“Senior, an ordinary person oversees over a hundred thousand white cemeteries, are you teasing me?”

At these words, the ghostly old man shook his head helplessly, and at this moment, he was already convinced.

It wasn’t that he hadn’t hidden himself well enough, but that this young man in front of him was demonically talented.

Even if he corrected all these horses’ feet, other problems would still be discovered.

“Mr. Lin, good eyesight, Old Qiu admires you!”

Lin Mo waved his hand, "Polite words, you'd better keep them!"

"I just want to know, what is the reason why you, the titular Patriarch, have been lurking on Death Island for over twenty years?"

"Or rather, are you also doing it for that dead man's head?"

Once the topic was squared away, Lin Mo began his first test.

According to the information he had learned.

If there was anything on Death Island, especially in these three districts, that was worth the twenty years of light that the Patriarch had waited for revenge.

There was only this Crystal Skull.
