Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3971

Hearing the three words Dead Man's Head.

The ghostly old man's expression changed once again, a look of disbelief written all over his face.

"That fool, the Sea Wolf King, has told you all about the crystal matter."

Lin Mo nodded.

Although it was his own initiative to discover Lan Dieyi's secret.

But at the moment, he didn't want to explain much to the ghostly man.

At this moment, the ghostly old man's expression gradually wilted.

"I never thought that the old man's twenty years of subterfuge would end up looking like a joke."

Saying that, he did not wait for Lin Mo to ask a question and took the initiative to explain his own followings.

It turned out that this ghostly old man was one of the elders of the Five Tombs Sect of China.

By chance, he had learned the secret that Lan Dieyi was carrying a crystal skull.

So, under the pretext of faking his death, he quietly followed the Sea Wolf King to Death Island.

This followed, for over twenty years.

Lin Mo frowned slightly after hearing this.

"With your Patriarch's strength you can completely snatch away Lan Dieyi, why did you leave it in the hands of the Sea Wolf King?"

The ghostly old man smiled helplessly.

"What Mr. Lin thought was too simple."

"I only know that that Lan Dieyi is the host of the Crystal Skeleton, I don't know about this think bloodline transfer technique."

"Plus, that Sea Wolf King is too cunning and the location of his true body's shadow hideout is simply unknown to anyone."

"In addition ....."

When he said this, the ghostly old man suddenly lowered his voice.

"This Death Island is not just a single clan master lurking around with me."

Hmm?

Hearing this news, Lin Mo looked surprised.

Before this, he had only treated Ji Duto as an opponent.

Unexpectedly, while he was fighting the Seven Deadly Sins himself, secretly there was a group of clan masters watching the show.

“What exactly do you know about them?”

The ghostly old man shook his head, “I don’t really know about that.”

“I just happened to find out about this, ten years back, when two clan masters clashed and exchanged blows.”

“I then sneaked in to watch the battle and later discovered that there were actually a number of Patriarchs lurking around as well.”

“But exactly how many there were and what identities I didn’t know.”

This was the main reason why the ghostly old man did not snatch down Lan Dieyi.

Once he made his move, the other lurking clerics would definitely not let him succeed.

By then everyone would strike, not only would they alert the Sea Wolf King, but they would also attract the attention of the outside world.

When that time comes, everyone will be in a bamboo basket.

The constraints of all these conditions had put all the clerics on Death Island in a delicate state of balance.

This news was also of no small value to Lin Mo.

At the very least, he wouldn’t be as foolish as before, giving a tree to be planted and riding on.

“One last question!”

“You’ve been hiding behind the curtain before, so why have you suddenly come forward this time.”

The ghostly old man spoke straight to.

“Because I don’t want the three districts to fail!”

“At the very least, District Three cannot fail before the Sea Wolf King’s big wedding.”

“I think those patriarchs lurking behind the scenes think the same way!”

Speaking here, the ghostly old man turned his words around.

“Mr Lin, one of your aims is to unify Death Island as a back-up base.”

“So that means, before the Sea Wolf King gets married, Mr. Lin we can completely cooperate.”

Lin Mo raised an eyebrow.

“You intend to cooperate with me?”

“To clarify in advance, that group of Patriarchs who are openly hostile to me are from the Seven Deadly Sins!”

Originally, he had thought that the ghostly old man would hesitate for a moment.

After all, the Seven Deadly Sins were recognized as powerful in the world, and although they were not considered top powers, they were not far off.

What he didn’t expect was that the ghostly old man stretched out his palm directly after hearing this.

“They’re just birds standing out in the open.”

Lin Mo understood, and an intriguing smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

The truth that guns beat birds out of the head was constant!

Thinking of this Lin Mo also extended his palm, “Happy cooperation!”

As for the matter of the Crystal Skull afterwards, both sides tacitly agreed to keep their mouths shut.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3972

Lin Mo did not expect that a simple test would have such a big windfall.

The original worry about Ji Duto and the others could now be relaxed quite a bit.

“Things are becoming more and more interesting?”

Lin Mo murmured to himself as he looked away from the huge combat troops.

In his heart, he still began to reorganise his layout and calculations.

It was night.

The border of District Two.

Patrolling guards intertwined back and forth, holding cold weapons and staring warily at the surroundings.

More than 100,000 men built a patrol line that stretched for dozens of kilometres.

In the distance, behind cover, snipers with excellent marksmanship lurk.

If there is even a hint of movement, they can kill the offenders in an instant.

At the same time, they can also transmit the news to the rear of the army.

With such tight protection, a night attack would not have been possible.

However, there was someone who wanted to do the opposite.

Under the cover of the night, Wei led a dozen of his men and quietly felt his way to the vicinity of Lawrence's camp.

"This n*gga is crowded!"

Looking at the dense patrols of people in front of him.

Wei Wine couldn't help but burst out foul.

Only, even so he didn't choose to retreat.

Instead, he hooked a finger towards his back.

When his men saw this, they immediately handed up a lance.

"Give it to Laozi Zhong!"

With a low shout, the ten-meter long steel spear whistled out.

Poof!

The tremendous force directly penetrated the three guards, spilling hot blood all over the ground.

"Enemy attack, enemy attack!"

The other companions saw this and immediately shouted.

The moment the movement was made.

All the patrol guard groups immediately shifted their shaping.

In groups of ten, they formed defensive formations back to back.

At the same time, the snipers in the rear also reacted immediately.

But when they looked around through their high-powered lenses, they could not see any figures at all.

The time pa*sed slowly under intense surveillance.

Half an hour later.

A part of the patrol started to feel its way forward to check the surroundings.

But the result was an empty hand.

Only a few bent gra*s areas were found.

"Report General Maes, the enemy has fled far away."

The situation was unclear, and Lawrence Ma*sie did not dare to act rashly, but could only command his men to continue patrolling.

After an hour, however.

Several lances appeared in the darkness of the night and descended from the sky.

They took the lives of a dozen patrolmen and disappeared again.

In this way, the entire patrol became highly tense again.

As a result, after waiting for more than an hour, the result was still the same.

The incoming attackers simply sneaked in a wave, then turned around and ran away.

By the time the third lance attack came.

Max finally sat up.

A large force of 50,000 men dropped in directly from the rear.

It would then be broken down into fifty squads of a thousand men and ambushed at the front.

As long as the incoming criminals dared to show their heads, they would be directly exterminated.

However, when he had arranged the course of action for the ambush, the group of incomers who had sneaked in with their lances also disappeared.

By early morning, at dawn.

The troops from the ambush were also marched back.

When the number of men was checked, Maes was straight away dumbfounded.

A large force of 50,000 men was directly short by over a thousand.

"I dry ritual food!"

Originally, he thought that the incoming attackers were scared and didn't dare to strike again.

It turned out that people had gone straight to sneak attack and their own ambushed troops went.

This kind of tactic was just a small fight for the overall three million super legions.

But it couldn't stand to be disgusting.

"Pa*s down the order to expand the patrol area."

"Also put the dark guards down!"

Max gave the order with a face full of anger.

On the other side.

Wei Wine, who had returned, was currently eating breakfast with his men with smiles on his face.

"Boss, let's continue this evening!"

"That's a must, let the brothers sleep well during the day, and we'll go jerk them around again at night."

Wei Wine commanded with bravado.

"Also, send someone to feel out the location first."

“Don’t get dumped when the time comes.”

“Yes!”

After the deputy answered, he ran off to set up the task.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3973

In the middle of the camp in Zone 3.

The huge tent is being pulled up by hundreds of people.

With a diameter of more than a hundred metres, it was no problem at all to accommodate a thousand people.

“Mr. Lin, our preparations are ready.”

While directing this men, Ghost Sou explained to Lin Mo.

“Later we will be able to excavate completely, when the time comes, we will also ask for Mr. Lin’s help in arranging the logistics and transporting the soil.”

The width of the planned passage underneath was about two metres, almost enough for four people to walk parallel.

The height, on the other hand, was at two metres.

The total length was sixty kilometres.

With such a huge project, the amount of waste soil produced was naturally massive.

“Don’t worry about that, I’ll have Wang Changxing make the arrangements.”

Lin Mo took a glance at the complete equipment of the members of the White Graveyard species.

Very professional!

“You’ll be working hard next?”

“I should!”

The two exchanged calmly, not even a hint of abnormality could be seen.

It was as if that exchange from yesterday hadn’t happened at all.

After Lin Mo walked out of the tent, he barked a word of advice about transporting the soil.

Before Wang Changxing could say anything back.

Instead, Wei Wine, gasping for air, suddenly came up to him.

“Mr. Lin, we’ve finally found you!”

“Quickly, Mr. Lin, there’s something that I urgently need your help with.”

Lin Mo was just about to ask a question when Wei Wine had already run off in a flash.

This fiery look caused Lin Mo to be baffled.

However, seeing that he was in such a hurry, Lin Mo followed him with Lin Wu Hate.

Arriving at the front line.

Wei Wine was already waiting here with a group of his men.

"What's the situation?" Lin Mo asked curiously.

"Mr. Lin, we've run into trouble!"

Wei Wine explained as he reached out and pointed to the local camp.

"Our original plan was to think that we would disturb the other side's attention."

"As a cover for their White Cemetery operation."

"But ....."

Speaking of this, Wei Wine's face also turned ugly.

"These sons of b*tches have actually started setting up secret posts."

"Several of our brothers have been cold-shot by them secretly and have died for nothing."

Lin Mo had probably guessed Wei Wine's purpose when he heard this.

"So you want me to help you find those secret sentries?"

Wei Wine scratched his head in embarrassment.

"Hey hey, Mr. Lin, aren't you a patriarch?"

"Those few yakuza can't hide under your nose at all!"

"When you shake this tiger's body, that group of secret sentries will definitely be scared sh*tless."

Lin Mo couldn't bear to hear this and hurriedly raised his hand to stop his rainbow farts.

"I would be fine, going over with you to take a look."

"But the other side has a patriarchal constraint, so it's impossible for me to make a move easily!"

This was something that the power lord of the three districts had already known.

And there hadn't been any intention for Lin Mo to make a move.

Just those few little Luo Luo on the opposite side, if they weren't well hidden, plus having a gun in their hands, he wouldn't have bothered Lin Mo to make a move.

"Mr. Lin, please just find out the location of those dark shapes."

"Leave the rough work of doing this to us."

“Fine!” Lin Mo nodded, lifted his feet and walked towards the enemy’s camp.

Behind him, Wei Wine’s expression shook, his eyes full of excitement.

“You are all blessed today, to see with your own eyes the gesture of a clan master expert striking.”

However.

The crowd stared at Lin Mo’s back with rolled eyes, staring at him with dead eyes until they were dry.

Lin Mo still didn’t make any flashy and dazzling movements, just strolling forward unhurriedly.

It felt as if he was out for a sightseeing stroll.

The junior disciples of the Turbid Green Gang swallowed their saliva.

“Boss Wei Wine, do you think there’s a possibility.”

“This Lord Lin, is trying to walk directly in front of the other side.”

Wei Wine’s face changed, “Don’t give me sh*t .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3974

In Wei Wine’s anticipation, Lin Mo should rise up into the sky shortly afterwards.

Once the eye of heaven was opened, the enemy’s group of minions had nothing to hide.

It was as if a celestial being had descended to earth.

Unfortunately, after waiting for a long time, he was finally disappointed.

Lin Mo had actually walked just like that, step by step, without a ripple, to the enemy’s camp.

Meanwhile.

Lawrence’s camp, the dark sentries at the front line were also dumbfounded.

For the first time in all their lives, they had seen someone in such a hurry to cast off.

As they watched a young figure approaching, one of the sentries lifted the sniper rifle in his hand.

“Captain, why don’t I just pop him with one shot and send him on his way!”

“Wait!” The leader, Myron, stopped him.

“Take him alive, and by the way, let’s ask them what the hell District 3 is up to again!”

With a colour from him, two men beside him, wiped forward left and right with their guns.

By now Lin Mo had already arrived at the lurking range of the local concealed stakes.

“Stand still, boy!”

“Kneel down immediately and put your hands on your head, or we’ll shoot.”

The safety was on.

The two very eerie gun muzzles aimed straight at Lin Mo.

Lin Mo froze and slowly raised his hands to clasp the back of his head.

But he didn’t fall to his knees.

The two concealed sentries on the other side saw this and did not have a frown on their faces.

Only when the captain gave the order, the two restrained the impulse to pull the trigger and asked coldly.

“Kid, what is your identity?”

At this moment, Lin Mo suddenly grinned and raised his hand to point at himself.

“Sons, I’m your father, hurry up and come out and be filial to your own father!”

“Gah gah gah!”

The two secret sentries froze, surprisingly not reacting for a moment.

It was behind them that Myron was by now full of rage.

“Idiot, what are you still standing there for, they’ve already run away.”

He said he directly picked up his rifle, and without saying a word, he directly pulled the trigger.

At this moment, a group of other secret sentries also returned to their senses.

D*mn it, this kid dared to take advantage of himself.

“Get him!”

Bullets!

Countless tongues of fire poured bullets wildly towards the fleeing back.

Not far away, Lin Mo laughed loudly as he ran away.

“Hahahaha!”

“You guys can’t even do this shooting skill, you learned it from your master’s mother!”

“Do you want me to teach you guys by hand, your father!”

After a round of taunts, the group of secret sentries were already furious and jumping to their feet.

What was even more annoying was that no matter how much they aimed, the bullets seemed to have gone evil.

It was as if the bullets were possessed, they just couldn’t hit.

However, Lin Mo's taunts didn't stop there, and he didn't have to run out of a few sections.

He actually stopped in his tracks directly under the rain of bullets.

"Keep going, if you don't hit, I'm going to run out of your range!"

Pang!

As soon as the words left his mouth, a large calibre bullet came straight at him.

It was a heavy sniper rifle!

As he watched the roaring bullet about to penetrate the skull.

Lin Mo suddenly a test.

"Pity, it's just two inches short!"

"With that kind of marksmanship, you'd better go into the factory and screw it up!"

"What a disgrace to snipers!"

And with that he raised his arm and gestured a two inch distance.

"D*mn, I'm P*ssed off!"

Between the layers of forest, Myron dropped the heavy sniper in his hand as soon as he got up and pulled out his dagger straight away.

"I'll go sac him to death!"

After saying that, he took a big step and rushed in Lin Mo's direction with red eyes.

Fortunately, his men reacted in time.

With one healthy step, they stopped him.

"Captain, not so much, not so much!"

"That kid, it was on purpose, you mustn't fall for it!"

A crowd of men howled.

It was only after a long time that Myron calmed down his anger.

His eyes were full of killing intent as he stared deadly at the b*tchy figure in the distance.

At this moment.

Lin Mo was also very unhappy and turned his head to shout.

"You guys are f*cking watching the show ....."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3975

Taking advantage of Lin Mo's cover.

Wei Wine took his little brothers all the way to the other side's ambush circle quietly.

They hadn't made a move, mainly because they were also shocked.

Lin Mo's tactic of uncovering the secret sentry really blew his mind.

He was a great master, but he wanted to be a gangster in a joint!

That was it?

It wasn't until Lin Mo's angry roar came from beside his ears.

Only then did Wei Wine come back to his senses.

"Brothers, give me a charge!"

With a command, the Turbine Green Gang members who were prostrate on the ground leapt up.

Ten metres away, they might not be able to do anything about the firearms.

But within ten metres, it was the domain of their long spears.

"No good, enemy attack, enemy attack!"

Myron sensed that the situation was not good and immediately shouted to alert his men.

But just as he was about to pull the trigger.

The cold lance had already arrived in front of his eyes.

It was as fast as a thunderbolt.

He simply had no time to dodge.

Poof!

The spear pierced through Myron's skull without any hindrance.

The person who struck was none other than Wei Wine.

Seeing that the spear had won, a touch of surprise appeared in his eyes.

"I've been watching you for a long time!"

Credit where it's due!

After getting close, the Turbid Green Gang members dodged back and forth continuously.

Using the cover of the big tree, they were like a pack of hungry wolves that had charged into the sheep pen.

In less than five minutes!

The ground was already sprawled with the corpses of the enemy soldiers.

“Yuck!”

Wei Wine spat secretly, his heart happy.

Because of these few secret sentries, he had lost several of his men.

Now it was a revenge.

“Thanks to Mr. Lin, if it wasn’t for your help, we don’t know .....”

Just as he was about to output a wave of rainbow farts.

Lin Mo suddenly raised his hand and interrupted him, and his expression looked a little serious.

“Shut up!”

“Someone is coming over!”

Before the words could land, the space in front of the crowd suddenly shifted.

When it became clear again, only four figures were silently revealed.

“You’ve missed your appointment? ”

As soon as the two sides met, Ji Dutuo narrowed his eyes and said in an icy tone.

Lin Mo did not open his mouth, but it was Wei Wine at the side who took the lead and stood out.

“Who are you kid?”

“How dare you talk to Mr. Lin like that!”

After saying that, the spear in his hand pointed, the tip of the spear directly towards the other party’s face.

Ji Dutuo’s face was playful.

“This henchman of yours is loyal to a fault!”

“But, is he really not afraid of death?”

As the words fell, Wei Wine’s face sank, just as he was about to let loose his fierce words.

His eyes suddenly locked with Ji Dutuo’s. In the next second, Wei Wine snapped to attention.

In the next second, Wei Wine violently discovered that his surroundings had instantly changed.

The feet were covered with blood-soaked corpses and bones, with blinding blood converging into streams.

The four men in front of him had now transformed into four terrifying hellish demons.

With just a glance, Wei Wine felt as if his soul was about to be withdrawn from his body.

At this moment, he could no longer stop his feet from swaying and his body was covered in cold sweat.

Just when he felt that his life was in danger.

A palm suddenly fell on his shoulder.

“Wake up!”

A calm voice rang out, and those horrific images around him disappeared together.

“Mr. Lin .....

Wei Wine was just about to speak, but he saw that Lin Mo was already shaking his head towards him.

“You take the men and go back first!”

“He’s not something you can mess with!”

Hearing these words, Wei Wine nodded helplessly.

A mere glance had almost taken away his own little life.

An expert of this level was indeed not something he could mess with.

“Mr. Lin, you take care of your safety.”

After knowing that Wei Wine had left, Lin Mo then raised his eyebrows and asked.

“Second Sect Master, coming here, it’s not just to scare my men, is it?”

Since the other party didn’t make a move upon meeting.

Obviously, they weren’t here to cause trouble!

Ji Dutuo smiled lightly, “That’s naturally not, but there is something that I would like to talk to you about .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3976

District Two.

Lin Mo did not expect that his second visit to Lawrence Castle would be in the capacity of a guest.

Only.

After a wave of massacre by Lin Wuhen.

The castle was no longer as lively as before, and with a few servants scattered about, it looked extremely cold.

And what had Lin Mo most on his mind was the strength of this group of servants.

If one were to disregard martial skills, these few seemingly ordinary servants in front of him.

In fact, they all had strengths no less than Wei Wine’s.

“Second Sect Master, you’re sort of turtling up the nest!”

Lin Mo asked, somewhat speechlessly.

Having reached this level of strength, he was still willing to do the work of an underling without fear.

Apart from the people of the Seven Deadly Sins, Lin Mo really couldn’t think of the identity of this group of servants.

When Ji Dutuo heard this, he only smiled lightly.

“People think it’s a murderous mansion, none of Lawrence’s people dare to use it.”

“Instead of leaving it so deserted, I would rather lend it to me for rest.”

“Come, please!”

As they took their seats.

The waitress who had been observing them for a long time at the side immediately walked up anxiously.

“Mr. Lin, please have some tea!”

After the waitress placed the tea on the table, her greedy gaze scraped over Lin Mo’s face.

It felt as if she was looking at her desired husband.

Most of all, the maid was not the only one.

Those servants around, who had nothing to do, glanced this way.

“Wow, is this the Lin Mo idol, so handsome!”

“And so young too!”

“If I had such a young and talented husband, I’d be willing to live 50 years less!”

The whispered conversations of young girls continued to reach Lin Mo’s ears.

This also made him feel extremely awkward.

“Cough cough!”

Lin Mo coughed lightly and looked at Ji Duto with a strange gaze.

“Second Sect Leader, are all of you Seven Deadly Sins people so enthusiastic?”

Enthusiasm was already put in a good way.

This was completely abject old pervert.

Ji Dutuo didn’t care much to the extent that he turned to praise.

“It’s mainly because Brother Lin, your personality is too strong.”

“At such a young age all sorts of honours are bestowed upon you, and you’re still a sect master.”

"If I were a young girl, I wouldn't be able to resist my heart."

Lin Mo was wickedly cold.

Something wasn't right with this Second Sect Master!

"Ahem!"

"Let's talk about business."

Although he had the intention to change the subject, Ji Duto grabbed him.

"Brother Lin, why don't you think about it?"

"As long as you join us in the Seven Deadly Sins, feel free to hook your hand."

"This group of little girls who are drooling over you will immediately warm your bed!"

At this point in the conversation.

Lin Mo already had a gradual answer in his heart.

There must be a demon in the opposite direction.

He himself had a deep blood feud with the Seven Deadly Sins.

This Ji Dutuo suddenly started to ask for his membership against his normal pattern.

There must be an intention.

Lin Mo glanced at his disciple Lin Wuxing beside him, and the answer instantly came to his mind again.

"Second Sect Master, have you forgotten that I killed two of your brothers!"

"If I were to join your Seven Deadly Sins, I'm afraid that I would have been chopped to pieces just before I entered and afterwards!"

Faced with Lin Mo's temptation.

Ji Dutuo shook his head without changing his face.

"Look, this group of little girls from our Seven Deadly Sins!"

"They can't wait to eat you, so how can they spare you!"

"And I can guarantee it in my own name, as long as you can join me in the Seven Deadly Sins."

"We can completely let bygones be bygones for past grudges. Brother Lin think about it?"

This remark was made.

The group of young girls around them instantly looked radiant.

There was even anticipation written in their eyes.

Such feelings were not faked.

But Lin Mo did not trust this Ji Dutuo.

“Second Sect Master, we will talk about joining later!”

“Right now, let’s talk about business first!”

Obviously he didn’t want to waste his energy and breath on this matter.

And the other party’s purpose was not really to invite him!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3977

After the group of maids heard the answer given by Lin Mo.

A hint of gloom could not help but appear in their eyes.

As one of the most mysterious organisations in the world, the Seven Deadly Sins not only had strong power.

The intensity of cultivation for young people within their organisation was even more sour to the eyes.

In the case of Ji Dutuo alone, he was surrounded by two masters who were less than 20 years old.

This says it all.

Only if you have talent, the resources for cultivation can make you vomit.

Even for ordinary members, the various benefits were not comparable to those of ordinary clan organisations.

They really couldn’t figure it out.

The Second Patriarch had already given his word not to pursue the previous grudge.

Why did this Lin Mo idol still refuse.

A pair of watery, teary eyes stared at Lin Mo reluctantly.

They were filled with disbelief and regret.

Ji Dutuo glanced at Lin Wu Hate, his eyes flickering with spiritual light.

“Brother Lin, as long as you join the Seven Deadly Sins.”

“I can promise to share that legendary treasure with you and expose the secret of breaking through to the Saints!”

At this moment, Ji Duto gave the greatest welfare condition.

Only Lin Mo continued to shake his head.

“Second Patriarch, the paths are different, so let’s leave this matter at that!”

He knew clearly in his heart how that vast amount of resources from the Seven Deadly Sins came about.

It was through endless killing, endless plundering.

Like wolves and wild dogs, they had killed indiscriminately and forcefully.

It was only through the accumulation of these resources!

It was only through the accumulation of countless innocent souls that the Seven Deadly Sins were forged.

How could Lin Mo possibly join such an organisation.

Along with such a resolved refusal.

The atmosphere in the room had also suddenly become heavy.

A murderous intent had slowly begun to drift.

After a long time, Ji Dutuo's eyebrows gradually loosened before the murderous aura in the room slowly began to dissipate.

"People have their own ambitions!"

"Since Brother Lin, insists on being an enemy with us, then I can still express my regret."

Although these words were calm, the threatening intent was already self-evident.

Lin Mo's mind was already made up, so naturally he would not waver.

"If there is nothing else, then I will take my leave!"

Just as Lin Mo was about to get up and leave.

Ji Dutuo suddenly called out to him.

"Brother Lin might as well cooperate once before you and I make a move?"

"What do you mean?" Lin Mo asked as he stopped in his tracks.

"On Death Island, there are too many stinkbugs hiding! "

Said Ji Dutuo, suddenly showing a scowl on his face.

"I wonder if Mr. Lin is interested in working with us to settle them all?"

Lin Mo heard the implication beyond the words.

Apparently they, the Seven Deadly Sins, had already discovered, on Death Island, those Patriarchs that were lurking about.

What one had to admire was the intelligence ability of their Seven Deadly Sins.

Like the secret that the ghostly old man had lurked for over twenty years before stumbling upon.

In less than half a month, they had given you a clear investigation!

"I'm limited in strength, so I'd better forget it!"

“If Second Sect Master has an idea, feel free to do so!”

Said Lin Mo with a look as if he was looking at a fool, looking at Ji Dutuo.

In the entire Death Island, the Patriarchs that were exposed in plain sight.

Apart from himself there were only the Seven Deadly Sins.

And as strong as an existence like the Seven Deadly Sins, as long as they were on the island for one day.

As long as they were on the island, it would be impossible for a lone Sovereign like them to obtain the Crystal Skull.

Under such circumstances, the Seven Deadly Sins became the enemies of everyone.

The enemy of an enemy is a friend.

Asking oneself to kill one’s friends, how nice to think!

When Ji Dutuo saw Lin Mo’s refusal, he did not dwell on it.

“Brother Lin take care!”

“Also, if next time, Mr. Lin is interfering with this battlefield!”

“Don’t blame us for tearing up the agreement too!”

Lin Mo didn’t reply, and took Hate Free’s small hand and directly left this place.

He could discover the secret of the Crystal Skull and had been lurking on the island for so long.

There was no way that they would be a good fighter.

Let’s deal with them first, then come back and threaten me!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3978

Waiting for Lin Mo to leave.

Inside the room, a young man with white hair, slowly walked out from the darkness.

“Sect Master!”

“Since this Lin Mo is so ungrateful, let’s just kill him!”

“As for that little girl, we can just bring her back to the organisation!”

Ji Dutuo glanced at Lin Mo’s back and shook his head slightly.

“I’d love to kill him too!”

“But right now is not the time!”

“And even if we forcefully bring this little girl back to the organisation, can you guarantee that she won’t hold a grudge against us?”

A top demon with saint potential.

Unless Ji Dutuo was willing to lay down a killer, he did not intend to let it hold a grudge.

Saying this, he added another sentence.

“Put the news out!”

“Say that we, the Seven Deadly Sins, have already reached a partnership with Lin Mo and gifted the Crystal Skeleton with the bloodline transfer method!”

“And that we have found traces of the Sea Wolf King’s original body and have joined forces with Lin Mo to capture it.”

The white-haired youth looked puzzled, “It’s that simple?”

Even if he wanted to frame and taint Lin Mo, then someone had to believe it.

As soon as the words left his mouth, Xing jumped up and lined up a heavy hand on the back of the youth’s head.

“Why are you so stupid!”

“Does Lin Mo and our Seven Deadly Sins have a deep blood feud!”

The youth inevitably so nodded his head.

“Not only did our Seven Deadly Sins not make a move against him, but we had a good conversation with him!”

“Do you think the people outside will think more of it?”

The white-haired youth’s gaze suddenly lit up at this.

Right!

There was no one who wouldn’t think more when faced with the temptation of huge benefits.

If they didn’t dare to make a move against the Seven Deadly Sins, wouldn’t they dare to make a move against a hairy boy?

“Worthy of being sect master Ji Dou, a simple invitation from that has such a deep plan within it!”

“In this way, Lin Mo will definitely die!”

“And we can also follow the trend and save and Lin Wuhen, killing two birds with one stone.”

The words just fell.

Star jumped up and gave another slap.

“Call you stupid and you’re still not convinced.”

“We’re not just aiming to kill someone with a sword.”

“Lin Mo can die, not enough to wait until he draws out enough patriarchs.”

Although the Seven Deadly Sins had also caught the heels of some patriarchs.

But after all, it was a small number.

Wanting to lure out those Patriarchs without affecting them that under the Crystal Skull.

The best way was to put out a bait to lure them all out.

Then break them down one by one.

The more White Hair thought about it, the brighter his gaze became.

Ji Duto looked at his glowing appearance and the corners of his mouth suddenly hooked.

“Do you still think it’s simple now?”

“Not simple, Sect Master Ji Dutuo, this plan of killing two birds with one stone, high!”

Ji Duto said with a smile, “Get a grip and get on with it!”

At these words, White Hair immediately ran out with a faint heart.

Xing looked at that back with an indescribable dislike in his eyes.

“Second Master, how could you leave the intelligence team to such a fool!”

“He just doesn’t like to use his head!”

Ji Dutuo did not explain too much.

After saying that, he went straight to the window and slowly squinted his eyes as he looked at the scenery outside.

“The weather is really nice!” Ji Dutuo muttered to himself.

Since the moment he invited Lin Mo, his entire plan had already unfolded.

All his talk about promises was to interfere with Lin Mo’s judgment.

In the name of this, he wanted to make Lin Mo feel ashamed to refuse his invitation.

The moment Lin Mo set foot in the castle.

Ji Dutuo’s plan would have been completed.

If Lin Mo agreed to join the Seven Deadly Sins, that world-class top genius, Lin Wu Huan, would naturally join as well.

If Lin Mo refused.

Then he would become a bait, one out of those lurking patriarchs.

By then, after Lin Mo died to others, Lin Wu Hate would become a member of the Seven Deadly Sins just the same.

No matter what the answer was.

He, Ji Dutuo, was in a sure win situation.

“Lin Mo, can you escape this deadly situation?”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3979

Time passes.

The date of the Sea Wolf King’s big wedding draws nearer.

The true island of death was becoming a dark tide.

The surrounding sea line has begun to appear closed, allowing only those to enter and not those to leave.

Nowadays, Death Island was becoming more and more like a huge dueling cage.

Whether it is Lin Mo and Ji Duto on the surface or the clerics lurking in the shadows.

While tacitly keeping the Crystal Skull a secret, they have also begun to guard each other.

The originally calm scene was also affected by the appearance of a piece of news.

A restlessness began to appear gradually.

At this moment, Lin Mo did not know that he had unknowingly been forced into a deadly situation.

At this moment, he was still in silence in the congregation.

Above the battlefield, nothing major had happened in the past few days.

Perhaps both sides are gathering strength and preparing to deliver a fatal blow to each other.

There were a few small-scale clashes on the front line and harassment by Wei’s perverts, but nothing major happened either.

In this way, both sides had a rare few days of peace and quiet.

After five days of Lin Mo’s careful guidance, coupled with the top-tier Heart Technique “Creation Technique” and “Free and Easy Technique”.

Lin Wu Hate’s strength was also improving by leaps and bounds.

The only pity was that the various martial arts cultivated by Lin Mo were not suitable for Lin Wu Hate.

The only body technique at the moment was still one that he had scavenged from Director Qiu.

“Ghost Shadow Steps, it’s all about a fast one.”

“Once the speed reaches a limit, using the mind technique, the residual shadow of you will be left in the trajectory of your actions!”

“Come on, try it!”

Lin Mo explained as he demonstrated, and after stopping, he gave up the field.

After Lin Wu Hate closed his eyes for a while to understand, he slowly took his steps.

At first, it was still a bit rusty.

Although the speed was fast, it did not bring out the characteristics of the Ghost Shadow Step as it should be.

However, as the number of attempts increased.

She gradually found the feeling.

“How unjust this world is!”

Lin Mo looked at the courtyard, the five identical figures, and could not help but feel a sense of emotion.

It was only half an hour before and after.

Director Qiu’s unique secret technique had been thoroughly understood by Lin Wu Hate.

Such talent, even Lin Mo’s was a little red in the eyes.

He had not met the two Nebula sisters as well as this disciple in front of him.

Lin Mo had always thought that his own talent was extraordinary.

But since he had seen these three, he only felt that he could be considered a mortal at most.

It was too demonic!

“Master, Master!”

A shout interrupted Lin Mo’s contemplation.

“What’s wrong? Have you encountered any problems?”

Lin Mo shook his body, thinking that it was his chance to revive his master’s platform.

However, Lin Wu Hate frowned with a willow frown and shook his head.

“Master, I feel that this Ghost Shadow Step, it seems to have a flaw.”

“Isn’t the limit that you can only manifest six residual shadows?”

Ha?

Lin Mo almost turned upside down straight away when he heard this question.

This was the limit of cultivation?

Naturally, he had also cultivated this Ghost Shadow Step.

It was indeed as Lin Wu Hate had said.

This stance technique had this flaw, and the limit was that it could only manifest six residual shadows.

But this self of his, so far, had not even been exposed to this body technique for an hour.

“Cough cough!”

Lin Mo coughed lightly, suppressing the shock within.

“Hmm! What you said is indeed correct!”

“Although this Ghost Shadow Step is mysterious, the level is too low, six residual shadows is already the limit.”

“When we return to China, my master will prepare a higher level stance for you, for now, let’s just make do with it!”

This was already his last struggle to save face in front of his disciples.

With such a horrible talent, Lin Mo didn’t know whether he should be happy or sad.

It hurt his pride so much!

However, just at that moment, a cry of pain suddenly came from the courtyard entrance.

“Ouch!”

Turning his head around, he looked.

Director Qiu had fallen to the ground at some point.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3980

“Old Qiu, I say you’re at least a half-step master!”

“You can fall down even when walking, shame on you!”

Lin Mo said with some disgust.

At this moment, Director Qiu didn’t want to pay any attention to him, or to this master and disciple.

The Ghost Shadow Stance!

That was his own technique.

Director Qiu had never expected that after he had generously contributed it.

Not only did he get hit by this demonic master and disciple, he would also be disliked for his own stance.

He would also be disliked for the low level of his body technique.

He knew that he had only been cultivating for more than ten years and had only been able to manifest four residual shadows.

These two animals, to their surprise, had already directly cultivated to perfection.

“Humph!”

The more Director Qiu thought about it, the angrier he became, and after a cold snort, he sullenly spoke.

“News has come from Ghost Southerner’s side, the underground pa*sage has now been almost excavated.”

“The last few hoes are all that’s needed to dig it through!”

After saying this he left the sad place without stopping.

It hurt his pride too much!

“Am I offending him here?”

Lin Mo asked, scratching his head in some confusion.

Beside him, the uncharitable Lin Wu Hate was even more baffled.

By the time the master and disciple arrived.

The nine great power lords at the scene had all arrived.

In the middle of the huge tent, a huge pit appeared in front of the crowd.

“Mr. Lin, for now the underground pa*sage, we have finished preparing!”

“Ready for a surprise attack!”

Lin Mo nodded, “Old Wang, you’re just responsible for the specific combat arrangements!”

“Although I can’t interfere with the battle, I can however give you guys cover from the side.”

“Just let me know before the operation.”

In the past, he would not have been involved at all.

But ever since he had learnt that there were other clansmen lurking on Death Island.

Lin Mo then always felt as if his every word and action was being watched.

He could at most only believe half of what the ghostly old man had said.

If all the clan masters wanted to win in District Three, someone would have secretly stumbled on District Two a long time ago.

But in this situation today, they were just watching the fire from across the river.

So to ensure that this operation went smoothly, he planned to follow along.

“No problem!”

Although Wang Changxing felt that Lin Mo's demeanour was a little unusual, he had no intention of pursuing the matter.

"Mr. Lin we will move at ten o'clock tonight, counting the time consumed in the pa*sage."

"We will make a surprise attack at two o'clock in the morning."

This was the time when people were most likely to be sleepy, and also the time when they slept the heaviest.

The raid was naturally the best.

After the time was set.

Wang Changxing made other arrangements.

When the sky turned dark.

The Black Rose's men also arrived.

In this operation, the Black Garden deployed a total of five thousand men.

Ma Bangde led three thousand swordsmen to a*sist in the battle.

And to ensure the ultimate victory, Director Qiu also brought along a thousand good Martial Division fighters to join the operation.

"Then I will congratulate everyone in advance on the great victory in this battle!"

As Wang Changxing Hua Ying landed on the ground.

Ma Bangde took the lead with his own men and entered the underground pa*sage.

After waiting for everyone in the Martial Division at the end of the team to disappear into it together.

Lin Mo sent a few words across the air to the ghostly man.

"You'll have trouble taking care of this side!"

"If there are any sudden situations, pa*s on the signal in time!"

The next second.

The ghostly man said back in the same manner.

"No problem, Mr. Lin, if outsiders want to harm our people, unless they step over my corpse."

The words were filled with a firm tone.

It was as if he would even be generous enough to die for Lin Mo's sake.

Only for such nonsense, Lin Mo would not believe it unless his head was in the water.

He didn't expect this ghostly man to step in at a critical moment in the three districts.

It was only enough to hope that the ghostly man would be able to inform himself in time.

His main objective was not the Crystal Skull, but the man.
