Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4011

Waiting for Lin Mo to leave.

Director Qiu came to the bedside with a gloomy face.

Looking at the drunken Ma Bangde , his pair of icy eyes were already full of killing intent.

“For the sake of our grand plan! Old Ma has condescended to you!”

With a low murmur, Director Qiu already had an extra short knife in his hand.

He had already given too much for the sake of District Three.

Since that same battle over ten years ago, he had been silently guarding these three districts.

All the other powers, big and small, were busy killing each other and annexing other powers.

Only they, the Martial Division, under the leadership of Director Qiu, had fought to the death to resist the invasion of other districts.

Looking at the entire Third District, no one could want it to grow and prosper more than he did.

After all, this was the goal that his father had fought so hard for, as well as his only last wish.

With the appearance of Lin Mo, Director Qiu finally saw hope.

Not only did District Three have a chance to unify Death Island, it might even have the possibility of stepping out into a wider sky.

However, because of the feud between Ma Bangde and Black Garden.

This hope had begun to falter, and it was even possible that District Three would be completely destroyed as a result.

This was the most unacceptable outcome for Director Qiu.

Right now, he wanted to maintain the overall fighting strength of the Three Districts at the same time.

And at the same time, he could keep Lin Mo from risking his life.

The only way was to make Ma Bangde disappear completely.

The Third Region could do without Ma Bangde, and could also do without Director Qiu.

But not without Lin Mo, a patron saint.

Thinking of this, Director Qiu's eyes also became even sharper.

The short knife in his hand was also raised high in the air.

Only just as he was about to strike.

The huffing and puffing Ma Gang's suddenly said scratching his chin.

"Mr. Lin, Old Ma, let's have another drink."

"In the future, on this Island of Death, Mr. Lin will be the boss, I will be the second, and you, Old Qiu, will have to be the third."

He giggled as he spoke in his sleep.

Director Qiu looked at him like this and fiercely stopped the movement of his hands.

Gritting his teeth tightly.

"f*ck you!"

Eventually Director Qiu cursed angrily and dropped the interruption in his hand.

At the same time, a fist slammed heavily on Director Qiu's face.

.....

The next day was clear.

Ma Bangde, who had sobered up after drinking, came to his senses.

As he was about to get up, he couldn't help but suck in a cold breath.

"Hiss! This eye socket smash of mine hurts so much!"

Before he came to hit the mirror, he saw his black and blue eye sockets.

Ma Bangde turned his head to look in the direction of the sofa and asked in a somewhat unhappy manner.

"Old Qiu, what's going on here?"

He said and pointed to his own eye socket.

Director Qiu opened his eyes and gave a cold snort.

"I'm not your father, how should I know?"

"You were so messily drunk yesterday, who knows where you bumped into?"

After a scolding, he drove Ma Bangde straight out.

"I want to recuperate in peace, go to Wang Changxing if you need anything, and don't let Zi bother me again."

Ma Bangde smashed his mouth with a puzzled look.

"What's the matter, wasn't it fine yesterday, how come today it's like taking gunpowder."

Just as he was complaining.

A cold flash suddenly appeared in front of his eyes.

Only it wasn't fast, and Ma Bond easily dodged it.

Looking at the short knife on the wall, Ma Bond muttered again.

"Just go away, how scary to move a knife and a gun!"

With that he walked towards the door.

"Wait!"

Just after he was about to leave, Director Qiu suddenly called out to him.

"Mr. Lin asked me to convey to you that he has already discussed this with Black Rose."

"When you are ready, you can take your wife home!"

The words had just fallen.

Within the room, a breeze lifted.

When he looked at Ma Bangde again, the yah had long since disappeared at this moment.

In situ, Director Qiu shook his head slightly.

He didn't know whether it was right or wrong that last night, that one hadn't fallen.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4012

Lin Mo is discussing the battlefield plan with Wang Changxing.

Considering the unstable factor of Ma Bangde.

Lin Mo had decided to change his previous approach to battle.

Once transferred away from the Black Garden, considering the time constraint.

At most, he could only slaughter most of Lawrence's gun units.

The rest of the battlefield was still needed for Wang Changxing and the others to wrap up.

"During this time, recall all guerrillas for now."

Wang Changxing was naturally a million times more puzzled by this arrangement of Lin Mo's.

Right now, the guerrilla teams formed by various forces were blossoming everywhere by virtue of their crushing strength.

And they had also achieved considerable results.

There was no need to recall those guerrillas at this time.

"Mr. Lin, what is the meaning of this? Is it hard to say that they are planning to activate the half-step clansmen?"

Lin Mo shook his head.

“That way no, it’s just that the situation might change in the next day or two.”

The exact reason Lin Mo did not say.

“I will keep you informed of the specific results, and let the brothers on the front line come back and rest for a few days.”

Wang Changxing was perplexed, but since you Lin Mo had given the order and was resolute.

He also did not pursue the matter any further: “I understand!”

Since this matter had been resolved, Lin Mo did not linger any longer.

“During this period of time, you guys should just get your strength back!”

“There are still tough battles waiting for you guys behind you!”

With that, he directly left the Combat Command Centre.

And when Lin Mo was halfway down the road, an impatient figure suddenly darted towards him on his face.

“Lin Mr. Lin.”

Ma Bangde panted as he looked at Lin Mo.

The look of anxiety was written all over his face.

Even the large knife that the district was inseparable from its form, Ma Bangde didn’t even have it with him.

“What you said to Old Qiu, is it true?”

Lin Mo’s brows knitted, “What the hell?”

He had said more than enough to Old Qiu.

“It’s just, that, Peiran, Peiran thing.”

Anxiously, Ma Bangde had begun to speak a little incoherently.

His expression remembered that he was like an ant on a hot pot.

Only then did Lin Mo understand what he meant.

“That’s right, I went to see Black Rose earlier.”

“And also saw your wife’s spirit tablet as well as the casket.”

At these words, Ma Bangde’s eyes instantly turned red.

Trembling, tears streamed down his body.

It had been nearly twenty years!

At first, after learning of his wife's death, it was not that he had not gone to the door to find Black Garden, his mother-in-law.

To ask for his wife's remains.

Only, at that time, there was only one reply.

Peiran's remains had been thrown out to sea by theirs.

Not only had he not been able to see his wife one last time since her death.

He had not even had the chance to pay his respects with incense.

This matter has always been a matter of regret for Ma Bangde.

Of course it was one of the reasons why Ma he hated the Black Garden so much.

Now that his wife's coffin was actually still alive, how could he not cry tears of joy.

"Mr. Lin, I will go and fetch my wife back immediately!"

Lin Mo saw his fiery appearance and hurriedly reached out and grabbed his back collar with one hand.

"People Black Rose, she doesn't know anything about your previous generation's feud."

"I'm the one who told her these things!"

"And it was also her who came up with the idea of letting you pick up your wife."

When he said this, Lin Mo's expression also became serious.

"I'm warning you, after you come to the door, give me a better attitude."

"If you give me any more trouble, I'll throw you straight into the sea to feed the fish."

Ma Bond wiped a handful of eyes and grinned at the corners of his mouth.

"Don't worry!"

"I know the score, Old Ma!"

By the time Lin Mo had released his fingers, he had already impatiently darted out.

Looking at that back, Lin Mo faintly sighed.

Hopefully, through this matter, the relationship between this niece and her aunt's husband would ease up a bit.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4013

The next day, it was still slightly light.

A noisy burst of firecrackers exploded directly into the sky.

Not to mention the sleepy-eyed residents, who woke up with a stiff noise.

“Who the hell is this? It’s so early in the morning that people can’t even sleep.”

After complaining, many people pushed open their windows straight away and were about to break into a tirade.

However, when they received the bride’s procession, which could not be seen at the end of the day, the person who was leading it was.

Everyone was instantly dumbfounded, shrinking their necks and not daring to speak.

At the same time, they were also puzzled.

This Ma Bangde was actually preparing to marry his bride?

There was no news of such a big event beforehand.

All eyes were on him.

A tall stallion slowly crossed the street, facing the early morning breeze.

The lush, silky mane swayed gently.

Around the horse’s neck was a large, dazzling red flower.

And on top of the horse’s back sits the strutting horse Bond.

He is dressed in a red-coloured cloud dress and has a stout figure.

To the point of being a handsome man.

“Mr. Lin, do you think I look good dressed like this?”

On the side, Lin Mo had a tired face, facing Ma Bangde’s question, he mechanically numbly returned.

“It looks good, the most handsome groom on Death Island is none other than you.”

“Mr. Lin, would you say that the preparation is perfect enough?”

“Enough is enough, it’s perfect.”

How many times had Lin Mo repeated such conversational words?

From the moment he set off, this Ma Bangde had to confirm it once in a while.

Lin Mo had already been distraught by now.

Who would have thought that this person would find himself yesterday and beg him to be a witness to his marriage.

At first, Lin Mo actually refused.

It was only when Ma Bangde poured out his tears and snot to his wife that he owed her.

The two of them had been together until his wife’s death.

He himself had not been able to give her a wedding.

Now although his wife has died, Ma Bond said that he would make up for this regret.

And bite the bullet, put the world, there is no wedding can let the patriarch be the main bride more prestigious pull.

Lin Mo saw that he was sincere in his emotions, so he agreed to do so.

Then.

Ma Bangde then began to toss and turn, visiting all the power lords in the three districts.

Begging for grandparents and asking for the rest from the hands of the ghostly old man, these two batches of steeds.

They were also the only two batches of steeds left in the three districts.

Afterwards, Ma Bangde ordered his men to find the best tailors.

He worked through the night to make the dress.

He worked until dawn, which led to the magnificent scene before him.

Lin Mo turned his head and looked at the wedding procession that could not be seen.

He couldn't help but slap his forehead.

Even crying and howling, he had borrowed this 300,000-strong bridal procession from other power lords!

Just ask who else under this heaven could do such a thing besides Ma Bangde.

"Mr. Lin, just tell me, under this heaven, who can get married with a poker face like mine."

Ma Bangde said smugly as he straightened his clothes and crown.

Lin Mo looked at the back in front of him.

In the end, he also controlled the impulse to make a stormy move.

After all, this was a nominal wedding celebration for him.

Let's just let this bd fool around for a day.

The terrifying bridal party advanced very slowly.

Of course this was also the intention of the horse gang.

Before that, he had specifically sought out a feng shui master.

Twelve o'clock noon was an auspicious time to receive the bride.

So the long procession, like a giant dragon, slowly made its way towards its destination.

Everywhere they pa*sed, people looked at them.

The procession was as huge as anything they had ever seen in their lives.

The people of the Black Garden, after seeing the oncoming procession.

They were straight away baffled!

If they hadn't seen the news in advance.

They thought that someone was coming to attack their Black Garden.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4014

Before the base of the Black Garden forces.

The dense silhouette of people cannot be seen at a glance.

High noon already.

Ma Bond leapt from his horse.

Countless bride-price gifts were placed one by one by the swordsmen before the gates of the Black Garden.

Ancient jade objects, countless.

The gold and silver were dazzling.

Just the large boxes containing the bridal gifts already filled the empty space in front of the Black Garden to the brim.

"This is too extravagant!"

"So much gold and silver jewellery, I'm afraid it's enough to buy our entire third district, right?"

"As expected of a Blade Sect leader, this is a generous offer."

Amidst the exclamations of people who were watching the pa*sers-by.

Lin Mo's originally somewhat depressed aura also instantly shook.

As the witness of the wedding, he cleared his throat and shouted.

"Sect Leader of the Knife Sect, Mr. Ma Bangde has come to receive Miss Peiran in marriage."

The loud and clear voice shot straight up to the clouds.

Whether it was the huge bridal party or the pa*sers-by surrounding them, they could all hear it really well at this moment.

It was only back then that the incident was suppressed by the Black Garden.

Very few people in the entire Third District knew about it, and even fewer knew about Peiran.

With the sound of Lin Mo's chanting salute falling, a crowd of pa*sers-by instantly murmured.

A crowd of passers-by instantly murmured

"Who is this Miss Peiran? I've never heard of her before."

"I've never heard of it either, when did such a woman become available within the Black Garden?"

"And hasn't the relationship between their Knife Cult and the Black Garden always been bad?"

"How come this Ma Bangde has come to marry someone from the Black Garden?"

The deputy's face instantly changed when he heard these gossips.

Just as he was about to lecture those who were talking too much, the leader of the group, Ma Bond, immediately stopped him.

"It's not like I'm marrying a wife, it's not a matter of shame."

"The others can say what they want, the wedding continues."

As his words fell, the deputy also immediately stopped in his tracks.

It didn't take long for the news to come from within the Black Garden.

"Miss Rose, please!"

There was the special nature of Yu Peiran's status.

There were not so many rules for the wedding.

By the time Ma Bangde fell to lead the receiving party, the bride price was dropped.

The few people at the head of the party were then directly invited in by Black Rose.

"Old Ma what's wrong with you, can't you still be shy?"

Lin Mo saw Ma Bangde, who suddenly stopped in his tracks at the front, and opened his mouth to tease him.

Ma Bangde shook his head with a bitter smile.

"In all the years I've lived, this is the first time I've entered the Black Garden."

After his love affair with his wife had been discovered.

The Black Garden then took his wife straight back to the Black Garden.

As for Ma Bond, he was also hunted for a long time.

Then later, when the Knife Cult had grown in strength.

The two sides, which were inseparable, never crossed paths again.

As such, Ma Bangde had never come here before.

After walking through the gate, Ma Bangde's gaze never stopped.

He kept scanning back and forth.

But no matter how much he searched.

Among the unfamiliar faces around him, there were none that he was familiar with.

Twenty years had passed, and the old group of members of the Knife Cult had died and retired.

Those who were still in service today were already the new batch of members.

Lin Mo could also see what was on Ma Bangde's mind at this point.

He raised his hand and lightly patted his shoulder.

"Come on, don't look, I've told you, the Black Garden has changed drastically now!"

"Miss Peiran is waiting for you, go on!"

Said Lin Mo, then reached out and pointed to the old attic not far away.

At this moment, Ma Bangde also immediately withdrew his gaze.

"Thank you, Mr. Lin!"

After leaving a word of gratitude.

Ma Bond once again straightened his clothes.

When he walked here, Lin Mo was not accompanying him.

Everyone else also tacitly stopped in their tracks.

After entering alone, Ma Bangde casually closed the door.

It was not long before the sound of heart-rending cries of pain came from within the attic.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4015

By the time Mabond reappeared in full view of the crowd.

In his hands was a casket and a plaque.

Beneath the casket were several neatly folded pieces of clothing.

It was easy to see by the old look that these were Peyron's clothes.

Seeing this, the deputy immediately rushed over and opened the oil paper umbrella in his hand to hold it over Ma Bangde's head.

"Brother, sister-in-law can't stand the sun."

At this moment the shadow of the paper umbrella wrapped the casket right in the middle.

Ma Bangde did not reply, but nodded wordlessly with reddened eyes.

The look of gloom was written all over his face.

His eyes also looked a little dull.

Lin Mo understood that this was a sign of excessive sadness.

He walked forward, lit three long incense sticks and stuck them behind the door of the attic.

Only then did he turn to Ma Bangde and say.

“Today is your and your sister-in-law’s big wedding day.”

“What kind of groom is so sad on his new wedding, be happy.”

Although it was a joking remark, it was the best means of comfort Lin Mo could come up with.

Ma Bangde gave a soft muffled sound at his words.

A smile was then forced onto his face.

“Come on, Peiran, your man is going home now!”

With that, he walked towards the outside of the courtyard, accompanied by his deputy.

Behind him, Lin Mo once again cleared his throat and shouted.

“Welcome the bride back to her husband’s home!”

The voice was still loud and clear and reached the ears of those present.

The passers-by who had gathered around were also instantly dumbfounded at this point.

Originally they were expecting to catch a glimpse of the bride, but to their surprise, what walked out was an old casket.

The lively scene was also instantly dumbfounded.

Everyone watched in silence as Ma Bond, with tears on his face, gently lowered the casket into the big palanquin.

At that moment the sound of firecrackers rose again and shot up to the sky.

The scene became noisy once again.

But this bustle was mixed with a faint sadness.

“Lift the palanquin!”

The bridal party set off again.

Lin Mo, who had lagged behind at the end, turned his head and looked back at the black garden.

At this moment, Black Rose, who had not shown herself, was standing on top of a high building, quietly watching the situation.

When Lin Mo turned back, he met her eyes.

Black Rose's face flushed red and she did not dare to meet Lin Mo's eyes at all.

With a panicked look, she hurriedly fled from the window.

Lin Mo smiled faintly in exchange for the maid at the side.

"Pa's on a message to Miss Rose for me later."

"Come and meet me at the Martial Division tomorrow."

After saying his direct call, he tumbled over the hill onto his horse and headed towards the main group in pursuit.

After picking up Peiran.

He took his wife's coffin and went straight to the cemetery.

This was also the place where he had buried his only son.

"Peiran, we're all together now!"

After dealing with his wife's funeral.

The time had come to evening.

In front of the grave.

Ma Bangde was half-kneeling on the ground, looking gloomy as he kept adding yellow paper to the burning basin.

As for the rest of his men, he had already dispatched them.

It was getting late.

Lin Mo arrived at this place.

After patting Ma Bangde on the shoulder, he handed over the bottle of wine in his hand.

After accepting it, Ma Bangde took two big gulps.

Only then did he breathe heavily.

Looking at the newly erected tombstone in front of him, Ma Bond suddenly spoke up and said.

"She had a bad life!"

"So what if she's a loser like me."

"By the time I could clothe and feed her, she swam away."

It seemed like he was trying to say it to Lin Mo, and it seemed like he was saying it again to his own ears.

Only when the words landed on his lips, he tilted his head and poured another large gulp down.

"Mr. Lin, do you think there is really a destiny in life?"

Lin Mo gave him a blank look.

"I'm just bringing you wine to quench your thirst."

"I don't have the heart to discuss this kind of life's doctrine with you."

Hearing Gao's dislike so bluntly, Ma Bangde could only shake his head awkwardly.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4016

Before the new tomb.

The two men didn't say much.

By the time the bottle of highly spirited wine had been consumed.

It was already completely dark.

Lin Mo held up the bottle and clinked it with Ma Bangde, completely resolving which bit of dregs were in the bottle.

"Get an early night's rest!"

Lin Mo said and threw the bottle of wine in his hand a long way away.

"Come to the Wushi tomorrow!"

"I won't be accompanying you, I tend to get sleepy at an older age, let's go."

Before leaving, Lin Mo put up three incense sticks for Peiran and burned some yellow paper.

He then rested his hands on the back of his head and walked slowly towards the mountain.

.....

The next day.

Black Rose arrived at the Martial Arts Division early in the morning.

Only to see that within the hall, there was not only the presence of Lin Mo.

There was also the yawning Ma Bangde at the side .

The original joy dissipated instantly.

When Black Rose heard the maid's conveyance, she thought it was Lin Mo who wanted to ask her out alone.

After Ma Bond yawned, he gave a sidelong glance and then withdrew his gaze.

"Coming!"

Lin Mo got up and gave a greeting.

“Please sit down!”

After waiting for Black Rose to take her seat, Lin Mo then continued to speak.

“The meaning of calling you two over is also very simple.”

“Old Ma, now that both of your parties are present, you can give your answer.”

“I can understand if you can’t let go of the hatred back then.”

“Now if you just say the word, I will immediately transfer Black Garden out of District Three.”

There was not much time left for them.

The Great Eye War was ahead.

The Sea Wolf King’s big wedding day was also coming up.

Transferring over 100,000 people from Black Garden would require even more time.

Lin Mo had come not to wait for Mabond to be able to figure it out like he had.

Black Rose was originally unhappy.

At this moment when Lin Mo said so, she was even more aggrieved in her heart.

She was completely innocent.

Why should she be made to bear all this most of all.

She would rather die in battle than be transferred away from Death Island.

Lin Mo, who was waiting in reply, also suddenly felt Black Rose’s resentment at this moment.

Turning around, he scratched his head in a slightly embarra*sed manner.

“Miss Rose, as compensation to you.”

“I will carve out an independent island for you in Da Qu and leave it to your own management.”

“Of course, if there are other places you wish to go.”

“As long as I can do it, I will definitely take it down for you.”

Regarding Da Qu, Black Rose had naturally heard of it.

That was Lin Mo’s real territory.

Compared to the barren Death Island.

Da Qo was simply paradise.

And with Lin Mo’s shelter, their Black Garden could also develop faster.

But.

To Black Rose, all this was a mere floating cloud.

Ever since he could remember, he had been living on this land of Death Island.

This place was her Black Rose's roots.

As she thought of this, a look of death flashed across her eyes.

The gaze of Lin Mo that she looked at once again also had a little more reluctance.

"Mr. Lin!"

Black Rose slowly rose to her feet.

"There's actually a better solution."

Faced with this sudden entry, Lin Mo froze in his tracks.

A better solution?

Just as he was about to ask.

Black Rose spoke up first.

"The mistake my grandmother made back then, naturally someone needs to be held responsible."

"As Grandmother's only offspring, I deserve to make amends."

Speaking up to this point.

Black Rose twisted her cheek over and shifted her gaze.

"Ma Bond, we Black Roses don't owe you anything in the future."

The words fell.

Only to see Black Rose suddenly pull out her dagger and stabbed herself in the chest without hesitation.

Lin Mo's face changed and he was just about to come to his rescue.

Only when he sensed the fluctuation of aura behind him.

He stopped again with a smile on his face.

When he saw the sharp dagger about to pierce his heart.

A large hand suddenly poked out.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4017

Bright red blood continued to drip down the dagger.

With a tight clasp of his five fingers, Ma Bond squeezed the dagger in a death grip.

"Is it bad to be young and alive?"

"What a disgrace to your Black Garden."

With force in his hand, he snatched the dagger and threw it away.

“What a bummer.”

Ma Bangde grumbled as he shook the blood from his hand.

“I have a grave to guard for your great-aunt, I don’t have time, here, to watch you kill yourself.”

With that he muttered and strode out of the Martial Division.

Behind him Lin Mo smiled gratefully.

Although Ma Bangde did not give a direct answer.

But his words and actions had already given his choice.

A big aunt’s voice was enough to say everything.

Ma Bangde was relieved and had figured it out.

As for this matter, it was finally understood as well.

Lin Mo couldn’t help but let out a long breath of relief.

Such an outcome was the best outcome for anyone.

However, before he could relax for long, he fiercely felt that sultry gaze behind him.

“Oh, Miss Rose, there are still matters on the front line waiting for me to attend to.”

“I’ll go first ha!”

With that he slunk out of the Martial Division.

“Wait a minute!”

Hearing these words, Lin Mo’s body shook.

Wait?

Waiting for a hammer!

I’ll slip away!

In just a blink of an eye, Lin Mo turned into a breeze and fled directly from here.

There was no way in the world to get both sides of the story.

From the moment Director Qiu told him about the past.

That difficult choice had already been placed in front of him.

But from a personal point of view.

The Knife Sect was the first force to be subordinated.

At the same time, Lin Mo still owed the Knife Sect a promise.

From the perspective of the bigger picture.

When the time came for the great unification of Death Island, the Knife Sect was an essential presence.

In addition, Ma Bangde was already one of Lin Mo's designated future administrators.

In public and in private.

Lin Mo would choose to transfer away from the Black Garden.

Although right now, Ma Bangde had already released his feelings and at this point, it could be considered as an end to the matter.

But Lin Mo knew that he owed Black Rose another lordly invitation.

Why was this little girl so impulsive?

Thinking about this.

Lin Mo couldn't stop the headache.

If not for the fact that Ma Bangde was now in a period of mourning.

Lin Mo would have beaten him up to take the heat off.

As for the Black Rose who was left in the same place.

When she saw Lin Mo running away, she was furious.

She was so angry that she stomped her feet.

"Am I that terrible?"

"It really is!"

After complaining.

Black Rose's gaze couldn't help but fall on top of the dagger not far away to the

That moment just now.

She had indeed thought about trading her life for her life.

Although there was no way to prove what happened in the past.

Those who knew were no longer alive.

But it was true that her great-aunt had been imprisoned in the Black Garden by her own grandmother.

She died of depression.

She had long thought of letting go of the burden that lay on her shoulders.

It would be a good relief to leave.

It would also be a good way to account for what happened back then.

It was only when Ma Bangde suddenly struck.

The scarlet blood was deeply fresh.

Deeply stimulating to the Black Rose.

Bending down!

She picked up the dagger on the ground and wrapped it up in her jacket.

As for the blood on it, she didn't choose to wipe it off either.

By the time Black Rose returned to the Black Garden again.

Before she had even walked through the gate.

A maid of honour quickly greeted her.

"Eldest Miss, Mr. Lin asked me to give this to you!"

"And asked me to pass it on to say that he owes you a big favour to be repaid later."

Black Rose took the wooden box, and inside it lay a set of martial arts techniques, and as for the corresponding heart techniques, quietly.

"Jing Sleeve Flowing Cloud Strike!"

That was a good name .

After Black Rose flipped through the pages.

Her eyes also became brighter and brighter.

It wasn't that they at Black Garden were obsessed with gun combat.

It was just that on the barren Death Island, it was simply difficult to find a suitable heart technique for women to cultivate.

Guns were just a choice that had no choice.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4018

Black Rose closed her mind and immediately spoke.

"Call A Li over and tell her to wait for her in her room."

After saying that she came straight and hit her boudoir.

Not a moment later, there was a knock on the door of the room.

"Sister Rose you called me!"

Looking at the voice.

There was a girl with a goat-horn braid standing at the door.

The age was not much different from that of Black Rose.

But the personalities were indeed very different indeed.

Black Rose was known for her high and cold face, while this little girl, the smile on her face just never disappeared.

“Ah Li, you’ve come just in time!”

Seeing her deputy, Black Rose directly handed over the Heart Technique in her hand.

“This set of Jing Sleeve Flowing Cloud Strike, you hurry up and learn it quickly.”

“Then pa*s it on to the other sisters as soon as possible.”

Ah Li was unsure at first.

Only when he flipped through it, the corners of his mouth instantly grinned.

“Wow, this looks like a high-ranking heart technique, and it fits right in with our Black Garden.”

“Sister Rose where did you get something so good from?”

Said she, all of which had begun to glow in her extension.

The Heart Method was even more firmly protected by its own greatness.

It was like a rare treasure.

At the mention of this, Black Rose’s face was instantly filled with resentment.

Giving away a set of Heart Techniques and leaving a favour would have been fine!

Couldn’t these things be lost with oneself personally?

A Li just took a glance at Black Rose’s expression and immediately noticed that something was wrong with the scripture.

The two had grown up playing together since they were children.

Although they were subordinates, they were like sisters.

A Li’s understanding of Black Rose even surpa*sed her own.

“Sister Rose, something is wrong with you!”

Hearing this, Black Rose looked flustered, and then immediately returned to normal.

“What ah? Where am I out of sorts.”

“Look, look, you blush when you talk.”

Ari reached out and snickered.

"This isn't from your lover, is it?"

This remark was made.

Black Rose's face instantly turned even redder.

"Go go go, what's all this nonsense?"

"This is someone Mr. Lin's reward to our Black Garden!"

As she said that, she turned around.

Trying to use this to escape Ah Li's scrutinizing gaze.

Only the more she did so.

The more Ali was sure that something was not right with Black Rose.

"Don't die, you're not falling for Mr. Lin Mo, are you?"

It would have been fine if it was anyone else.

But a man like Lin Mo who stood at the top of a mountain peak.

It was simply not something that ordinary people like them could match up to.

At this moment, Ah Li's gaze towards Black Rose was instantly written with worry.

"Sister, I say if we're still not in deep, we should change to another one!"

"An existence like Mr. Lin Mo is only worthy of a heavenly daughter like me."

Between jokes.

She also intentionally or unintentionally reminded her sister.

It was unknown if Black Rose had understood the meaning of it.

It was just that after these words landed, she stood up straight away.

"Little girl, now you even dare to flirt with your sister are you not, begging for a fight!"

In the next second, within the room, there was the sound of A Li's shriek, and a plea for mercy.

.....

On the other side.

Amongst Lawrence's camp, panic had filled the air at this moment.

Ever since the bad news came from the gun store a few days ago.

Clegg's character had become even more violent.

He would simply order the execution of whoever he wanted.

In any case, in the past few days, the strength of his tent was not only a hundred but also eighty.

Such a scene could not help but make the people underneath become frightened and uneasy.

They could not be sure that they would be next.

“bds!”

“A bunch of trash!”

“A hundred thousand people are guarding the land, but they let someone steal it like this.”

“What’s the use of me raising you all!”

Clegg rebuked angrily as he smashed the objects inside the tent.

The front line of Zone 2.

A kind of henchman within the tent, looking at Clegg at this point.

It was as if they were looking at a wild beast in a frenzy.

All of them bowed their heads in a breath and silently prayed for their own.

“Where is the chief of the guard of the gun store, bring him to me.”

The words had not fallen for a moment.

The five-legged Chomu was thrown into the tent by the soldiers under his command.

When Clegg saw this man, he stared at him with a deadly glare of fire.

“What did you promise me before!”

“You said that as long as you were around, not a mosquito could fly into the gun store.”

“And this is how you keep your promise now?”

Clegg became more and more angry as he spoke and kicked him a few metres away.

Qiao Mu only felt a huge pain in his chest.

A mouthful of blood was then spurted out.

Holding back the pain, he spoke with difficulty.

“Clan Chief, this matter is my incompetence.”

“I beg the clan chief, give me a chance to make up for my mistakes.”

After hearing this, Clegg slowly narrowed his eyes.

“Make amends?”

“You have committed such a terrible crime, and you still think you can live?”

His body was already tightly surrounded by a thick killing spirit.

At this moment, if Jomu's next sentence did not satisfy Clegg.

The next moment would be Qiao Mu's death.

"Lord Patriarch, I don't want to live!"

"But I want to use my life to wash away this humiliation."

Qiao Mu's tone was filled with resentment.

The bds in District 3 had caused all of this.

If it wasn't for them themselves why would they have been reduced to such a dire situation.

His eyes instantly became bloodshot at the thought of the humiliation he had suffered that night.

Clegg's angry scowl eased when he heard this.

"What do you want to do about it?"

By the time Qiao Mu had spoken out the plan he had in mind.

The scene was suddenly in an uproar.

Even Clegg nodded his head repeatedly with a satisfied face.

"Good, go ahead and do it, your wife and children, we, the Lawrence family, have helped you raise them."

Loosely bound Joki knelt down towards and kowtowed.

Then walked out of the place with a strong sense of death wish.

.....

The battlefield became calm again as in the old days.

The direct friction between the two sides also became less and less.

If not for the fact that both sides have millions of troops facing each other.

Some people would have thought the war was over.

Wang Changxing received a new round of battle orders and began to deploy.

Deng Deng Deng!

When he heard a knock at the door, Wang Changxing continued to work on his task without raising his head.

"Come in!"

"Your Highness, the brothers outside said they received a half-dead man."

The subordinate reported.

“Looking at the clothes on that man, it seems that he is still a general of no lesser rank on the other side.”

“Do you want to go and take a look!”

Hearing this news, Wang Changxing came to be interested.

“Lead the way!”

Under the leadership of his men, Wang Changxing quickly rushed over.

At this moment, the scene was already surrounded by people in three layers and three layers outside.

And the sound of chatter was also long lasting.

“Tsk, tsk, this is too badly beaten!”

“Are all of Lawrence’s men this hard?”

“This guy is also lucky, he’s still alive even after being beaten like this!”

Under the awe of the crowd.

Wang Changxing walked through the crowd.

At this moment, there was a man covered in blood lying on the ground.

The bloodied legs had been completely smashed.

Pieces of leg bones could still be seen in them.

The upper half of his body was equally miserable.

The chest, as well as the abdomen, appeared to have been dragged over a long period of time, and the ribs could now be seen.

The hands were in a similar condition.

“How did you find him!”

Wang Changxing had just finished asking, when a brother in charge of scouting came out from the middle of the crowd.

“We met him halfway through our reconnaissance.”

“When we saw him, he was crawling towards our side of Zone 3

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4020

Wang Changxing stared at the bloody man in front of him for a long time.

From his clothing alone and the insignia he carried on his shoulder, he could tell that this man's status was not low.

At the very least, he was at the level of a general.

But why would such a person be treated so cruelly?

After pondering for a while, there was no clue.

Wang Changxing directly called for the paramedics.

"Take him to treatment first! If he can be saved, then we can interrogate him to find out his identity."

With the appearance of this man.

The original calm formation could only also have one more topic of conversation.

"What are you talking about?"

Ma Gang was the first to return to the front line after three nights of vigil at his wife's grave.

At the moment, his state was a little tired.

But his eyes were much clearer.

"Greetings, Godfather!"

After seeing Ma Bangde, the swordsman hurriedly greeted him.

Then he spoke about the matter.

"Two days ago, our scouts picked up a half-dead general from the other side on the road."

"And it's all still being resuscitated?"

The opposing general appeared half-dead on the front line of the engagement.

This incident instantly aroused Ma Bond's curiosity.

"Have the identities been investigated?"

The swordsman responded.

"A few of the brothers who were involved in the surprise attack earlier said that the man seemed to be the general of the gun depot."

"But it was so dark at the time that they couldn't be completely sure."

"Moreover, the brothers who found him, said that the man was completely disabled on both legs and had crawled out entirely on his hands."

When Ma Bond heard this, his interest intensified.

He only saw him raise his eyebrows and immediately spoke.

"Take me over there and see!"

.....

Arriving at a nearby hospital.

Through the gla*s window, Ma Bond finally saw the half-dead patient in the resuscitation room.

“Crap, it’s really him!”

The first time he saw this person, Ma Bond immediately recognised him.

This man was indeed the leader of the gun warehouse.

“It seems that he was a bad watchman and was punished by Clegg.”

“Tsk, tsk, tsk, that’s too bad.”

The crowd didn’t have any worries about this man to.

A half-dead invalid, what danger could he become.

Moreover, before coming here, the man’s clothes had been pulled off and examined.

Nothing suspicious was found.

“Let the hospital go through the rescue process! This man is of great use.”

Ma Bangde pondered for a while before speaking up and instructing.

He could lead 100,000 troops and see that the gun store was such an important place.

This man’s position on Lawrence’s side must be very high.

Naturally, he must also know a lot.

If he could save this man, he might be able to get a lot of valuable information out of him.

Thinking of this, he turned his head and left the hospital immediately, and turned his head to look for Lin Mo.

“Mr. Lin, do you still remember our previous surprise attack, when they had a gun store?”

Lin Mo raised his eyebrows and gave him an impatient look.

“Get straight to the point!”

After a while, he would have to instruct these power lords on their cultivation.

Right now, he still had to prepare some corresponding pills, as well as martial techniques to attach to them.

Where was the time to bullsh*t with this bd.

Ma Bangde scratched his head and gave a heated smile.

“The town general of their gun store was picked up by our scouts.”

Picked up?

The word seemed more than a little awkward.

And when Ma Bangde recapped the original story of what happened.

Only then did Lin Mo understand.

“You think this person thought of crawling to our third district to escape after being punished?”

This was too far-fetched.

The two places were dozens of kilometres away from each other.

To crawl over here by hand, isn't that a death wish?

But Ma Bond didn't think so.

“Mr Lim, you think ha, he is desperate.”

“The only hope of staying alive is on our side.”

“At this time, who can think so much, don't you think so
