Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4031

The reason why Lin Mo did not pull the Sea Wolf Hall into the union of the three district forces.

The main reason was because Lin Mo couldn't trust this Sea Wolf King.

His goal was purely for the Crystal Skull, and when the day Lan Dieyi's bloodline awakened.

That was when the Sea Wolf King would leave.

This kind of person could not guarantee that one day, he would sell all his other companions.

Moreover, Lin Mo had other arrangements for the Sea Wolf Temple.

After Lin Mo finished dealing with the affairs of the Sea Wolf Temple.

He went to the frontline again.

Only when he saw the isolation zone built by the Blade Sect was he relieved.

Right now, the people at the front line were time bombs every day.

No matter what, they must not be allowed to come to the rear.

Otherwise, the consequences would be unthinkable.

The line of sight returned to the Martial Division's side.

Within the hall, Director Qiu was still coming to pace anxiously back and forth.

Not long after, the attendant suddenly stumbled in.

"Director, it's not good, they're people from the Sea Wolf Hall killing over!"

Hearing this, Director Qiu didn't help but frown.

The Sea Wolf Temple killing over?

How could it be so absurd!

With his doubts, he arrived on top of the square.

The immediate scene in front of him did startle him as well.

Dense heads of people scurried back and forth.

The scene was a hundred times more lively than a food market.

It was roughly estimated that there were as many as 10,000 people today.

The crowd was boisterous!

"Why hasn't this Director Qiu come out yet?"

“If we can’t, we should go straight in and find him!”

The crowd suggested anxiously.

At this point, it was no longer possible for them not to be anxious.

They had seen with their own eyes that several of their companions, who had weak legs, had been beaten up by the Sea Wolf King directly on the ground.

They didn’t know why their master was so afraid of that brat.

But the miserable cries of pain were a clear reminder to them.

If they didn’t do as they were told, they would be beaten up!

Not long afterwards.

The crowd had also finally met the right person.

With the appearance of Director Qiu, Zhang Meng’s eyes at the front of the crowd lit up.

“All of you, be quiet!”

With a stern shout, the noisy scene then gradually quietened down.

“What are you guys?” Director Qiu asked with a puzzled expression.

The group of people in front of them all seemed to have an official position in the Sea Wolf Hall.

The least of them was also the captain of a hundred-man squad.

Just as Hua Ying had fallen, Zhang Meng ran up to Director Qiu’s face with a fart.

“Our Palace Master has ordered that from today onwards, all members of the Sea Wolf Palace will follow Director Qiu’s instructions.”

As he said this, Zhang Meng looked at Director Qiu with an anxious face, fearing that he would refuse.

It was only at this moment that Director Qiu also finally understood.

It turned out that this was the solution to the lack of manpower that Lin Mo had mentioned.

The situation was urgent at the moment.

Director Qiu naturally did not have time to exchange pleasantries with him and spoke in a straightforward manner.

“It’s too late for me to explain to you what’s going on.”

“Right now, there is an urgent need for you to arrange for all the residents to return to their homes for quarantine.”

“My request is simple, not a single resident will be allowed to be shadowed on the streets until the sun goes down.”

“Can that be done?”

The Sea Wolf Temple crowd first looked at each other in disbelief.

Then they shouted in unison.

“Can!”

The loud sound shot straight up to the clouds.

Although they too were full of doubts.

However, since their Hall Master had already given the word and Director Qiu had given the task.

Then there was no need to dwell on it do it and be done with it.

After Chief Qiu’s instructions, the crowd directly flew off.

The three districts had a population of tens of millions.

If they wanted to complete this mission before the afternoon, they couldn’t do it without being in a hurry.

As the Seawolf Temple swarmed in all directions.

The true Third District was also thoroughly noisy.

“Listen up everyone, hurry up and get the hell home!”

“On what basis? On the strength of my big slap, I’ll go to your mother

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4032

It was accompanied by a crisp slap sound.

The merchant who was still shouting at the members of the Sea Wolf Hall was directly slapped out several metres away.

After he landed heavily on the ground, the big teeth in his mouth were already missing several pieces.

The passers-by who had been accusing the Seawolf Temple in droves were instantly stunned into speechlessness.

“Anyone else who has a problem with this, step forward!”

By the time the captain in charge of this area had turned his head around.

There was no one behind him.

The only things above the street were a few fallen leaves floating by and ornaments that had fallen east and west

“Humph! Give your faces!”

After the captain coldly snorted, he led his men to immediately rush to the next street.

Such scenes were staged in countless places in the three districts at the same time.

By the time Lin Mo rushed back from the front line, the streets were already empty.

"It seems that the people of this Sea Wolf Gang are still quite efficient!"

Seeing such a scene, he nodded his head in satisfaction.

And just as he was about to continue on, the window of the short house beside him was suddenly pushed open.

Inside, an old man with a ruffled face looked around warily before he shouted.

"Hey, that lad!"

"Calling for me?" Lin Mo pointed at himself curiously.

When the old man saw how cloudy he looked, his face instantly became anxious.

"Young man, you can just skulk around outside!"

"That group of people from the Sea Wolf Temple, they don't know what kind of madness they have, they are beating up people on the streets!"

"I advise you to run home quickly, or you'll be in for a beating!"

At the old man's kindness, Lin Mo smiled and nodded his head.

"Thank you old man, I'll go back now!"

The old man behind him looked at his still slow appearance and his face was anxious.

Just when he wanted to say something.

The afterglow suddenly caught a glimpse of a figure in the distance, darting towards him.

"Take care of yourself lad!"

After muttering a word, he hurriedly closed the window.

Above the street.

Lin Mo had just taken a few steps out.

Head-on.

A group of fierce and fierce Sea Wave Gang members rushed straight in front of him.

"Kid, hurry up and get the hell back home."

"It's forbidden to go out without an order from our Sea Wolf Temple, do you hear me?"

After saying that, several people stood away without moving their bodies.

As soon as they heard a single word of no, they were about to make a direct move.

Lin Mo raised an eyebrow, "Don't you know who I am?"

The leader's face turned black.

It wasn't as if they didn't know the big names in the three districts that had faces.

This kid in front of them definitely did not belong among them.

"Who do I care who you are?"

"Don't know how to cooperate, do you? I'll teach you!"

In the next second, a ca*serole-sized fist was hammered towards Lin Mo's face, directly.

It looked like he was about to get his hands on him.

Lin Mo slightly turned his body sideways.

He raised his hand and gave it a gentle squeeze.

In the next second, heart-breaking screams resounded throughout the street.

"D*mn it, kid you f*cking let go!"

"I'm from the Sea Wolf Temple, and I'm under the instructions of Director Qiu, you dare to touch me for fear that you don't want to live!"

Faced with this man's ruthless words, Lin Mo smiled faintly. The five fingers used a slight force.

A miserable scream rang out once again.

As for the other few companions, they were scared for a moment at the sight.

They didn't dare to make a move at all!

The residents in the surrounding houses, through the gaps in the windows, took in everything.

"This young man is finished, I've reminded him to hurry back."

"Even if he doesn't listen, he still dares to make a move with someone."

The style of action of the Sea Wolf Temple was obvious to everyone.

How many pricks have been beaten to death.

Not a moment later!

The captain who heard the commotion nearby immediately arrived at the scene with a group of fierce and vicious men.

"You're dead, hahaha, our captain is here."

After seeing the visitor, the beaten men who had been subdued by Lin Mo, once again shouted.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4033

The captain who led the group saw his man under his hand and was actually taken.

His face instantly turned ugly.

“What’s going on?”

“Dare to touch my people, are they living living”

At first, he was intending to ask the person making trouble if he was gaining impatience.

However, when the captain saw the other party’s face.

He was directly frightened and his tongue began to frantically snatch.

Back in the days of the Sea Wolf Hall, he had the privilege of seeing Lin Mo’s stance with his own eyes.

In particular, the bowed appearance of the Hall Master, the Sea Wolf King, in front of this man was deeply engraved in his mind.

Thinking of this, the captain’s looked towards that man and instantly raged.

“D*mn you!”

Before the held up henchman could even react, he was kicked solidly in the a*s.

Following the inertia, he fell forward and took a sh*t.

The big incisors were knocked clean out straight away.

But the captain didn’t stop there.

After kicking his man over, he rode him straight on top of the man.

His sandbagged fists rained down on him.

It was only when the captain was also panting that he stopped.

“Mr. Lin Lin Mo, my men don’t know how to behave and have offended you!”

“I hope you are magnanimous!”

He said as he gasped for breath and bent down respectfully.

But in his heart, he was worried.

The big man in front of him was an existence that even his own Hall Master feared.

Let alone a group of minions like them!

Lin Mo didn’t intend to find trouble with them either.

“No harm done, get up!”

“How is the quarantine of the residential area done now?”

Lin Mo was more concerned about the quarantine situation than dwelling on the matter of offense with them.

After the captain let out a slight sigh of relief, he immediately responded.

“We’ve cleared a third of all the streets in the three districts.”

“The rest of those suburbs, as well as other remote places, still need a little more time.”

After hearing this, Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction.

It had to be said.

Professional matters had to be left to professional people.

Of course, Lin Mo was also aware that in dealing with this matter, the style of action of this group of Sea Waves would be a bit violent.

But at the moment, there was no time to lose.

Compared to the safety of the majority of people, there were some things that really needed to be dealt with by unconventional means.

At this point in his thoughts, another question suddenly occurred to Lin Mo.

“By the way, did you guys notice, during this process, that someone existed coughing.”

The captain shook his head immediately after recalling a bit.

This was good news.

It seemed that this large backwater residential area had not been infected.

However, Lin Mo still felt the need to give them a heads up.

“Tell each other that if you find any coughing personnel during the quarantine process, don’t approach without permission.”

“Try to get them out independently!”

Although he did not understand the intention, the captain dutifully agreed.

“Mr. Lin Mo, don’t worry, I promise to complete the task!”

With that, he immediately instructed towards his body behind him.

“All of you heard that!”

“Hurry up and inform the other captains of this wheeze!”

“Yes!”

After several people answered, they instantly scattered in all directions and darted away in their respective directions.

The original place.

Lin Mo took a look at the henchman who had been beaten into a face full of bruises.

“You’re hitting too hard!”

With that, he casually took out an elixir from his pocket.

“This is an external injury elixir, hurry up and give it to let him take it!”

The captain was about to thank the captain after bending down to result.

However, by the time he looked up, Lin Mo had long since disappeared.

The captain looked at the pills in his hands and a hint of greed flashed in his eyes.

Only, in the end, he gave up on the idea of coveting it.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4034

Martial Division Office.

As soon as Director Qiu saw Lin Mo, he immediately gave a brief account of what had just happened when the members of the Sea Wolf Hall came to his door.

“In addition, I’ve gathered all the other eight powers, all the people that I can use.”

“Let’s strive to complete the quarantine before sunset today.”

As he spoke, he wiped the sweat from his forehead.

The look on his face was extremely tense.

No one could be more worried about the safety of District 3 than he was.

Faced with this horrific epidemic, all efforts had been made.

Lin Mo had carefully recalled all the arrangements in the back.

After making sure that nothing had been missed, he then handed over all the maintenance work at the rear to Director Qiu.

“Good, Old Qiu this next rear matter will be left to you to handle.”

“I have to develop a solution for this epidemic as soon as possible!”

After saying that, he was like a fireman, in a frenzy once again, rushing to the front line.

However, when he passed by, the quarantine line set up by the Knife Sect, his heart tightened slightly.

Amongst these swordsmen, there were already many infected people.

This also made Lin Mo feel more urgent.

The front tiger was watching Lawrence.

Behind them, there were the back of the population they were guarding.

If anything went wrong in the middle, the consequences would be unthinkable.

As he thought, Lin Mo's pace couldn't help but speed up a few points.

He came to the hospital specially set up for the front line.

The place was already empty.

Both the medical staff and the wounded who had retired from the battlefield had been transferred to a specific isolation area by Ma Bangde.

The emergency room on the fifth floor.

When Lin Mo pushed open the door to the room, Qiao Mu's body bones above the hospital bed trembled violently.

When he saw Lin Mo, it was as if he had seen a demon crawling out of hell.

There was even a frightened look written in his eyes.

In order to eliminate the suspicion of others, the contagion was brought to the front line of Zone 3.

He did not rest until he had his feet broken, and afterwards he even endured the pain of his heart.

Little by little, he crawled from Zone 2.

Originally, he had absolute confidence in his own willpower.

However, after meeting this young man in front of him, he broke down straight away.

Torture that he had never even heard of in all his years of living, he had experienced in its entirety here!

And it also gave him a deeper sense of the word life is worse than death.

"Please! Kill me!" With a weak tone, Qiao Mu broke off and pleaded.

Lin Mo only smiled faintly after hearing this.

"Didn't I tell you all that before?"

"It's better to die well than to live, ants still steal life!"

As the words fell, ten silver needles slowly burrowed out from within Qiao Mu's nails.

As the silver needles all revealed their forms.

Under Lin Mo's control, they were once again stabbed back in the same way.

The ten fingers were connected, plus Lin Mo had specially raised the spiritual degree of the pain nerves for Qiao Mu.

Double the pleasure!

At this moment, Qiao Mu, a spoke two eyes white.

Seeing that already he was about to be pained to the point of fainting.

Lin Mo waved his big hand and an invisible instantly entered Qiao Mu's body.

"Want to pa*s out? You're thinking beautiful!"

With a cold snort from Lin Mo.

The original as well as almost fainted look fiercely subdued, completely awake.

With that came still the kind of pain that drilled through the heart.

"I what I know, you already know it all."

"Please, please, kill me!"

For the first time in his life, Qiao Mu had such a strong desire to die.

If he had known that, he would have preferred to die at the hands of the Clan Chief.

At the very least, he would not have to suffer this hellish torture.

Lin Mo's face sank: "It's impossible to die!"

"Let's be honest with you, this Art of Creation Xuan Needle of mine, coupled with this Doktor Nine Needles, is a divine art on earth!"

"As long as you have a breath left in you, I can keep you from dying"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4035

Looking at Lin Mo's cruel smile, Qiao Mu's body shivered.

On one hand, it was because of the sharp pain coming from his fingertips, and on the other hand, it was because of the fear he felt towards Lin Mo.

"You're not human, you're evil!"

Qiao Mu fought with that weak voice and hissed.

Lin Mo smiled coldly: "Demon?"

"Spreading this contagious disease, and you still have the face to call me a demon!"

This unknown contagion, once it got out of control.

The entire Death Island would be riddled with corpses.

Faced with such an inhuman bd, Lin Mo absolutely could not let him have an easy time.

Killing him would only be cheaper!

After saying that, he started up and stuck a needle directly into the top of Qiao Mu's head.

"Ugh"

Under the intense pain, Qiao Mu's entire body began to stop and start spasming.

The eyes were so wide that it was as if they were about to burst out of their sockets.

The whites of his eyes were even covered with blood.

When he was already unconscious, Lin Mo took out the silver needle at the right time.

Not to mention death, even unconsciousness was a great luxury for Qiao Mu at this moment!

He had already experienced this kind of torture, which was worse than death, several times before.

At this moment, he saw Lin Mo pull out his long sword.

Qiao Mu's gaze suddenly flashed with a hint of hope.

Was it finally time to die?

How wonderful!

But just as he was celebrating, he had already closed his eyes and prepared to wait for death.

Suddenly, he felt a pain in his chest.

Only it wasn't the feeling of a long sword thrusting into his heart.

Opening his eyes again, Qiao Mu's expression was once again horrified.

His chest cavity had surprisingly been gouged away to see a piece of flesh.

"What are you looking at, it's just a matter of making the best of what you have."

Said Lin Mo as he immediately took out the Cloud Creation Cream.

With a light wipe, the wound on Qiao Mu's chest completely stopped bleeding, and this once again stopped him from trying to bleed to death.

Only after all this last night did Lin Mo stop abusing Qiao Mu.

Turning around, he began, mixing up medicine to combat this vehicular infection.

There was plenty of time to punish Qiao Mu later, there was no rush.

But the deadly contagion of the moment could not wait.

The time to develop the appropriate restraining drug was too soon.

And Qiao Mu, who was on top of the hospital bed, could only watch in horror as Lin Mo used what he had cut off from his body for the experiment.

It was only a short while later.

The door of the hospital room was suddenly pushed open.

Lin Mo, who was concentrating on his research, was interrupted by this, and his face looked a bit ugly.

And when he saw his lover, his expression suddenly became even more gloomy.

“Didn’t I tell you? No one is allowed to enter this place!”

In a change of pace, Ma Bonder did not offer any explanation.

Instead, he reminded with an anxious face.

“Mr. Lin, I suddenly remembered that Black Rose had already been dispatched by Wang Changxing.”

Since this Qiao Mu’s arrival was an outright conspiracy.

Then the information that he had provided out must also be a trap.

The matter was urgent!

As soon as he heard his men report Lin Mo’s whereabouts, he immediately flew here.

There was no need to worry about any ban.

As soon as he heard this, Lin Mo suddenly put down the herbs in his hands, his face bursting with rage.

He had left all the frontline matters to Wang Changxing.

Lin Mo rarely asked about any of Wang Changxing’s arrangements.

With the sudden outbreak of infectious diseases, he could not care about anything else.

If Ma Bangde had not come to report, he would not have known that Black Rose had been dispatched.

When he reacted at this moment, it was as if a blazing fire was burning in Lin Mo’s eyes.

“How dare you conceal it?”

Qiao Mu’s trembling body fought to shake his head.

Terror was written all over his face!

“No!”

“I’m really not hiding anything, I’ve told you everything I know.”

“I swear!”

However at this moment, where would Lin Mo believe what he said.

With a wave of his hand, a cloud of psychedelic powder was sprinkled directly onto Qiao Mu’s face.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4036

After some columns of cross-examination.

Lin Mo reluctantly discovered a fact.

The Qiao Mu in front of him really did not know anything about, the plan of the ambush.

Even the infectious poison he carried was obtained from Clegg.

And from the mouth of Jomu, who had taken the hallucinogenic drug.

Lin Mo also found out an anomaly.

After setting this poisoning plan, this Clegg always intentionally or unintentionally talked about various major operational secrets of the second district in front of Qiaomu.

Although this Qiaomu's status in Lawrence was not low either.

But it was far from the point, where he could hear such secrets openly.

Summing up the above.

Lin Mo suddenly understood a helpless truth.

This Qiao Mu was indeed not lying.

Apart from the poisoning incident.

The rest of the plan, he simply did not know.

Obviously this Clegg had predicted that Qiao Mu would definitely be interrogated for information.

So he deliberately, deliberately told Jomu about the false and important events.

So.

No matter how they were interrogated by the three districts, it was impossible to find out anything.

Thinking about this point.

Lin Mo couldn't help but be secretly anxious, if everything was as he had guessed.

That Black Rose had not gone for a sneak attack at all, but had entered the enemy's trap.

"Old Ma, over here, look at this, help me prepare more herbs, the more types the better."

"I'll go ahead and uncover the black rose!"

Ma Bangde's face paled, "But Mr Lin, you have an appointment."

"One cannot interfere in this matter."

It wasn't that he didn't want Lin Mo to go ahead and rescue him, but he was worried about Lin Mo's comfort.

"No matter!"

Lin Mo waved his hand and raised his step to the bed.

“They can even use such tactics, the agreement or whatever no longer has any meaning.”

“Besides, I, Lin Mo, am not a good person!”

Such a vicious tactic, not to mention Death Island.

Even the whole world had explicitly forbidden it!

Once it was discovered, the world would attack it!

As the words fell to the ground, his figure had already disappeared in front of the window.

He did not even give the Ma Gang’s the chance to open their mouths to persuade him.

.....

The border of District 2.

As the night grew deeper and deeper.

The earth completely fell into a very darkness that was endless.

At this moment, after making a big detour, Black Rose and the others finally arrived at their destination as well.

“Eldest Miss, we have checked the positions of their gun units clearly.”

“It is indeed as Commander Wang said, all of their people are hidden here.”

Black Rose heard this news.

The only trace of apprehension that she had dissipated completely, and the excitement on her face was already unmistakable.

“Inform down that all dive to firing range.”

“Use my shots as a signal to evacuate all within half an hour.”

Considering that this place was not far away from the enemy’s main force.

Black Rose was also greedy.

After all, half an hour was already enough to annihilate the other side.

Once the order was given.

The 50,000 members of the Black Garden took a fan shape and began to slowly feel their way towards the other side’s camp.

After Black Rose’s arrived at a satisfactory sniper position, she made a point of observing the enemy situation with her high powered lens.

Not far away, inside the camp.

Patrols alternated back and forth.

Within the densely packed tents, there were also figures moving about.

Nothing else was found.

She turned the scope around and aimed at the figure inside the tent.

Bang!

But in the blink of an eye, the figure directly fell to the ground.

Along with the sound of gunfire.

The Black Garden crowd also randomly pulled the trigger.

In a flash, blood splattered everywhere.

The guards on patrol didn't even have time to react.

Blood exploded around their bodies.

However.

Before Black Rose could be happy, her face changed violently.

With such a big commotion.

Within the tent, no one had come out.

No!

Black Rose cried out in secret and immediately shouted towards her companions.

"Hurry up and retreat, there's an ambush!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4037

There was no need for Black Rose to remind her.

The crowd also noticed the abnormality at this point.

However, before a few of them could get up, a bright flash of light suddenly lit up behind them.

The original Black Garden crowd's perfect sneak attack position, the various hills should be surrounded by patches of light at this time.

The originally dark mountain pa*s was under so much light.

It instantly became like daylight.

All the Black Gardeners present were exposed to the enemy's guns.

Seeing this scene, Black Rose's heart instantly went cold.

They were completely surrounded.

“Miss Black Rose, you’ve really kept us waiting!”

A hearty laugh accompanied the sound.

From the other side’s camp, a man in formal attire slowly came out.

This man was one of Clegg’s inner circle, Forrest!

His face was full of a small smile of triumph.

With the stance of a victor, he looked down from on high.

“Miss Black Rose!”

“Won’t you meekly choose to surrender?”

“If you lay down your arms now, I can guarantee that you will get what you deserve!”

With such formality, Black Rose knew there was no way out for himself and his men.

Only the word surrender was not in his life’s dictionary.

“Bah, we only die in battle in the Black Garden, not surrender!”

Flood laughed and shook his head.

Then, with a glare from his feet, he had arrived in front of the Black Rose after his toes had clicked in succession.

“As expected of the leader of the Black Garden, you have a backbone.”

After praising him, Fred instantly turned his words around.

“You have backbone and are not afraid to die, but have you not thought about this group of sisters behind you?”

“Could it be that you want to drag them along with you to bury them.”

A playful smile had surfaced on his face after saying that.

It was just like a fierce beast playing with its prey that was already in its hands.

When these words came out, Black Rose, who was still furious, paled.

She herself did not fear death, but what about the 50,000 sisters behind him.

Thinking of this.

Black Rose’s originally stiff aura instantly fell.

As her aura weakened, Flood could not help but feel complacent in his heart.

Continuing to entice, she said.

“As long as you surrender now, I can let you want to be free to move around like ordinary people in a limited range.”

“When the time comes, the war is over and I can even let you all go home.”

“How about that?”

It was exactly top-notch treatment for the captives.

Only Flood knew that.

In a few days’ time, the entire island of death would be completely dead.

Going home?

By then, there would be no home to speak of!

With the poor information, Black Rose did not know the situation in District Three.

At this moment, a battle of ideas had begun in her mind.

She could think about herself, but she also had to think about the sisters behind her.

“What are your conditions?”

Black Rose wasn’t stupid either!

Since the other party was so pending on them, they would naturally condition accordingly.

After hearing this, Flood laughed.

“Talking to a smart person is a pleasure!”

“My conditions are simple too!”

After pausing in his words, an obscene smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth.

“As long as you stay with me for one night, everything is fine.”

After saying that he had raised his hand and reached for Black Rose’s chin.

His eyes kept sweeping over her exquisite figure.

At the same time, the group of men behind Flood had already started to have their eyes glowing.

They were staring intently at the Black Garden group of beauties, like hungry wolves staring at fresh blood and flesh.

Admiral Fraser, was known for his generous amount.

As long as he had a bite to eat.

He would never starve his brothers.

When the time comes, they will also be blessed to be able to enjoy the taste of the beauties of the three districts.

When Black Rose heard such a condition, she was instantly black.

An adjutant behind her, even raised his rifle directly.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4038

Before that.

The Black Garden crowd, hearing Flood's tempting terms of surrender.

They were indeed somewhat tempted.

After all, who wants to die if they can live.

It was only after Flood had heard the terms that they reacted.

After the high-sounding excuses.

It was nothing but a desire to hold them down.

Especially when they saw that this Fureedze had dared to make a move on his own first lady.

The adjutant could no longer hold back, and the black and gritty snatch in his hand aimed directly at Fureed.

"bd, you have the guts to try touching our first lady?"

As soon as these words came out, the other sisters also immediately raised their guns and pointed at Flood one after another.

Under such a situation.

Naturally, the gunmen on Lawrence's side also reacted immediately.

Click, click, click!

The safety was opened continuously.

All the gunmen were ready.

As long as the people of the Black Garden dared to rob them, they would let them sleep here for good.

Fred was not the least bit flustered at the moment.

Just with a playful smile on his face, he locked eyes with Black Rose.

"Such loyal men, Miss Black Rose."

"Could you bear to watch them all die here?"

He continued to bait.

Black Rose closed her eyes and sighed deeply.

It looked as if she had completely given up resistance.

“It’s not impossible to promise you!”

“But then, you must also promise me one condition!”

She lowered her voice and hooked her long fingers towards the other party.

The gesture seemed to be intended to be whispered.

Seeing that his goal was about to be achieved, Fred’s smile became even more intense.

Although he had seen countless women.

But a woman like Black Rose, with a good figure and good temperament, and who was also the leader of a gang.

It was the first time he had ever done so!

The thought of that springtime image.

Without the slightest hesitation, Flood directly sidled up and put his ear to it.

“Say it!”

“And my terms, they’re simple!”

Black Rose said while blowing hot air next to its ear.

Fred only felt his body tingle and his sweat explode.

If it weren’t for the presence of so many people, he would have taken action and killed this enchanting woman on the spot.

As he let his guard down, he didn’t notice that Black Rose’s face had turned extremely gloomy.

“My condition is that you will be cut off from your children!”

The originally charming tone of voice suddenly became bitter.

Fred had just reacted and realised that something was wrong when he fiercely felt a chill in his crotch.

Immediately afterwards, his features twisted right together.

The pain was simply, well, it was worse than death.

“D*mn it, p*ssy you want to die!”

Fred’s face was in the utmost pain as his hands covered his gear.

Although he had the strength of a half-step Patriarch, he had been tempted by Black Rose due to his rashness.

A moment of distraction did not come back hard enough to receive a kick from Black Rose.

And that was a weakness.

Not to mention the half-step master, even if a master of the clan is hit, it may not be able to resist.
At this moment, Black Rose also pulled out the double guns on her waist and just straightened Flood.
He would have been afraid before because of his concern for his men.

But.

But when Flood not only verbally teased but also started to move his hands and feet, as well as the lecherous gaze of the other side of the group.

He was completely disillusioned with the idea of surrender.

They were just trying to trick their group into dropping their guns and satisfying their animalistic desires.

It was not even certain that they would survive in the end.

Instead of that, it would be better to fight them completely.

“Sisters, do it!”

As Black Rose gave the order.

Countless tongues of fire swept across towards the place.

At this moment, the gun units on Lawrence’s side also pulled the triggers in their hands.

The energetic battle between the two sides was also officially underway.

And what made Black Rose feel sorry for herself was this.

Although she had relied on a sneak attack and kicked Flood in the vitals.

But the other party was after all a half-step master of the Sovereign.

After reacting, he dodged all her bullets with a dodge.

Hiding behind a boulder.

Gunfire erupted between the upper forests.

Although the Black Gardeners had fired first, they had taken many of their opponents with them.

But they were still at an absolute disadvantage, both in terms of terrain and numbers.

They were surrounded on all sides.

They had no cover at all.

In addition, the other side was at a high altitude.

In just ten minutes or so, more than half of the Black Garden’s men were left behind forever.

The scarlet blood had even gathered into a small stream, flowing continuously.

Only, even though the form had reached such a point.

The Black Rose and her men were still fearless.

All the time until they ran out of bullets.

“Eldest Miss, we are out of bullets!”

Black Rose touched the ammunition pack at her waist, which was also empty.

“Which one of you has ammunition left!”

“I’m out!”

“I’m out too!”

.....

The successive replies also caused Black Rose’s face to become more and more gloomy.

With the gun in her hand after firing the last round.

She turned her head and shouted at a group of her men.

“Sisters, fight in close quarters!”

“Yes!”

The original 50,000-odd men were now down to less than 20,000.

Facing the imposing enemy.

Without the slightest fear, the group of women directly drew out the daggers above their strapped legs.

Under the leadership of Black Rose, all of them immediately charged towards the local formation.

Lawrence’s side of the camp.

The leader’s deputy was about to give the order to fire.

Flood, who had slowed down, also returned to the front of the position.

“Stop!”

“Do our soldiers in Lawrence not have the courage to fight a bunch of pussies in close quarters?”

He scolded with a grim look on his face.

A group of gunslingers behind him, their faces flushed at the words.

After a cold grunt from Flood, he said angrily.

“Leave this p*ssy Black Rose to me, I’ll show her what happens when she dares to cheat me.”

If before he was drooling over Black Rose’s beauty.

At this moment, he was already completely moved to kill.

That kick from Black Rose had completely enraged him.

Once the order was given.

All the gun soldiers, likewise, pulled out their short swords.

“Kill!”

As he ran down the hill, the two torrents soon engaged in battle.

All at once.

The sounds of hissing and screaming mingled!

The two sides were like two meat grinders as blood splattered all over the scene.

Hundreds and thousands of people were killed in just one encounter.

Although the women of the Black Garden were quite skilled, they could not withstand several times the number of enemies.

As the battle continued.

More and more people fell in a pool of blood.

The number of sisters beside Black Rose also became fewer and fewer.

Yet the enemies continued to come in a steady stream.

“Eldest Miss be careful!”

Just as Black Rose was fighting to kill the enemy, the adjutant beside her pushed her away.

When Black Rose turned her head again.

Fred was standing not far away with a gloomy face.

As for the life lieutenant, he had struck a full blow straight through the chest cavity.

“What an obstructive thing!”

Fred shook off the blood from his palm and walked straight towards Black Rose.

Meeting again, Flood’s face already had hostility written all over it.

A fierce gaze, with a murderous intent surging.

“Shame on you, you shameless bd!”

After cursing angrily.

He arrived at the root with a flash.

Black Rose had just thrust out her dagger when she only felt a pain in her wrist.

“That’s all you’ve got, and you dare to show off in front of me.”

After a vicious taunt from Fred, his arm used force.

Click!

There was a crisp sound of fractures.

Black Rose’s face instantly turned pale, and beads of sweat continued to emerge from her forehead.

The dagger in her hand, directly fell to the ground.

Only although her wrist was broken by the other party, breaking she still had to clench her teeth.

A kick went straight to Flood’s crotch.

Faced with the same attack, Flood’s face became even more ugly.

Click!

The sound of bones breaking rang out again.

Ten minutes later.

The Black Garden side of the camp.

There were less than a thousand people still standing.

Yet the enemy’s numbers did not seem to change at all.

The crowds of people only made people despair.

The Black Rose, cut off in another part of the field, had fallen to the ground and was dying.

All her limbs were broken.

The deputy had also been hit by a fist blast from Flood.

The blood now spitting out of her mouth was laced with bits of entrails.

“Sl*t, isn’t it good to obey me?”

“Just have to be a b*tch!”

Fred crouched down with a mocking face, his mood obviously much better after abusing Black Rose.

As he said that, he even stretched out his palm.

He brushed Black Rose’s handsome face, which was covered with blood.

However, the moment his fingertips touched Black Rose’s skin, he only heard a yuck.

A mouthful of blood came crashing down on him.

Although Flood reacted quickly enough to sidestep in time.

But the collar of his shirt was still stained with blood.

Such a move enraged him completely.

The only remaining sense of playfulness was completely gone.

“D*mn it, if you insist on seeking death, I’ll make it happen.”

After a roar of rage, Fred raised his paw high towards the neck of Black Black Rose.

When the palm of his foot fell, that was the time for Black Rose to die.

When the Black Garden crowd saw this, they panicked.

But now the battlefield had been completely cut out.

Even if they had the intention to rescue them, they were unable to do so.

“Eldest Miss, be careful!”

After turning her head, Black Rose showed a miserable smile towards her men with blood on her face.

Then she slowly closed her eyes.

Quietly waiting for death to come.

Seeing that her neck was about to be cut off, Black Rose could even hear the sound of her feet slicing through the air.

It was at this moment of utmost urgency.

A cold light shot out.

Fred’s heart flinched, his sense of crisis rising in his heart, and he dared not hesitate in the slightest.

He hurriedly leapt back and left his spot.

However, although his reaction was quick, he was still a small step too slow.

Poof!

The sharp longsword instantly penetrated his thigh.

Not caring about the pain, Fred gritted his teeth and looked around him warily.

In a matter of moments.

A figure descended from the sky and landed in front of Black Rose.

Fred saw the visitor and did not feel contempt because of his youthful appearance.

He had to be fast enough to strike like that.

He must not be an ordinary person.

“The Laurens Family Flood is current.”

“May I ask who you are?”

The first to report the family behind his own, thinking is to be able to shock the place.

Yet though he thought so.

But the gunslingers underground did not have such an awareness.

Seeing that Lin Mo did not speak, one of the captains immediately pulled down his face.

“Kid, where is our Furender answer to ask you?”

“Why are you still mute?”

At these words, Ru Ru Ru De secretly exclaimed that he was stupid.

Just as he was about to chastise this person, Lin Mo moved.

With a casual wave of his hand!

The previously arrogant captain’s face stiffened violently.

A wound with a big pinhole smile appeared at the center of his brow.

A breeze pa*sed by!

The man turned rigid and collapsed on top of the bottom surface.

“Touching my people, trying to do so arrogantly!”

Accompanied by a cold snort from Lin Mo.

Its identity was also revealed by itself.

“It’s someone from District 3, brothers, get him for me!”

It wasn’t just He who roared out in anger.

All the guards instantly pulled out their firearms.

Click, click, click!

The safety was C*cked.

Countless tongues of fire instantly poured out.

But!

Although the speed of the bullets was fast, Lin Mo’s speed was even faster.

The group of gunmen only felt that their eyes were shaken before Lin Mo’s and Black Rose’s figures disappeared from sight.

A glimpse of the whole picture!

Seeing such a terrifying speed, Fred had a bad feeling.
