Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4041

Under the night sky.

Lin Mo held the dying Black Rose and raised his hand to shake it.

Only a miserable scream was heard afterwards.

Tai Ah instantly returned to its scabbard.

Just as he was about to leave, the Black Rose in his arms weakly opened her eyes.

“Mr. Lin, please, save them!”

The faint tone was filled with pleading intent.

Lin Mo twisted his head to look at the battlefield behind him.

The only remaining hundreds of Black Garden members were already tightly surrounded by the enemy.

If he wanted to save them, he would have to slaughter the 70,000 to 80,000 guards in front of him.

This would naturally take a lot of time.

Thinking about this, Lin Mo’s could not help but frown.

“Your injuries are very serious now, if I don’t take you back for treatment as soon as possible.”

“You, will die!”

He warned in a heavy tone.

Only after Black Rose heard this, she did not react, her gaze was unmistakable.

“Mr. Lin, I’m the one who brought them into this place of death.”

“If I were to live alone, I would surely spend the rest of my life in remorse as well.”

“That’s not the life I want.”

The meaning of the words was simple.

If he couldn’t leave with those few remaining men, he would rather die!

After hesitating for a second, Lin Mo sighed impotently.

“What a nuisance!”

His tone was full of disgust though.

However, a few moments of appreciation unconsciously showed in his eyes.

Lin Mo eventually put Black Rose down.

“Hold yourself up! Don’t wait for me to bring them back you go first instead.”

The internal injuries that Black Rose was suffering from right now were acute.

Lin Mo could only use silver needles to seal the last trace of life for her for the time being as well.

“Thanks .....

Black Rose squeezed out a miserable smile, and was just about to thank the sudden blackness in front of her eyes.

Immediately afterwards the whole person passed out.

After Lin Mo gave her a look, he folded back and came to the battlefield once again.

“Lord Flood, that boy is back again!”

The guards exclaimed, and then all of them raised their guns once more.

Flood looked in the direction of the man’s finger.

Only to see that the young, ghostly figure had rushed off to another part of the battlefield.

Fred had already guessed what Lin Mo’s intention was, but he simply did not dare to make a rash move.

Not to mention that he was wounded on his own leg.

The speed of Lin Mo’s strike alone was breathtakingly fast.

It was clear to Fred that he was no match for Lin Mo.

The only thing he could hope for now was that his gunmen would be able to deal with this man.

In the middle of the battlefield.

Lin Mo picked a place where the largest number of survivors surrounded him.

After landing on the ground, he directly drew out his Tai Ah.

With a cold flash of light.

Those imposing guards around him directly split in two.

In just one move, hundreds or thousands of enemies were resolved.

The women of the Black Garden, who had stored in their hearts, could not help but stare at this scene.

This was too strong!

They were saved!

The gazes that looked at Lin Mo once again were not only filled with excitement, but were also mixed with a feeling of full admiration.

Lin Mo naturally didn’t have time to enjoy such gazes.

After dealing with a group of the nearest enemies, he immediately shouted.

“Hurry up and follow me!”

After saying this he once again waved his longsword, and the secret enemies in front of him once again fell in a large swath.

The originally watertight encirclement was instantly cleared out of the way.

The women naturally didn’t dare to hesitate when they heard Lin Mo’s instructions, and immediately quickly chased after them.

Thus, a bizarre scene appeared on the battlefield.

Under the original dense encirclement of the enemy.

Rows and rows of gunnery soldiers fell like leeks, in pieces.

In no time.

Lin Mo had penetrated the entire battlefield and gathered all the survivors together.

“Let’s go!”

Lin Mo said in a soft voice before speaking.

Leading the women with him, he directly lifted his steps and left.

This time, he didn’t strike his sword again.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4042

Surrounded by regiments.

Lin Mo merely gave a glance.

The enemies in front of him instantly gave way to a lane.

All the guards were scared by his killing.

In just ten minutes, nearly 30,000 lives were directly buried by Lin Mo’s hands.

Such a terrifying figure shocked all the people around him.

Even though they were carrying firearms, none of them dared to move.

They could only hold their breath as they watched Lin Mo lead the women and leave the area step by step.

However, just as Lin Mo was about to step out of the encirclement, four figures suddenly appeared.

Four figures suddenly appeared behind him.

“Brother Lin Mo, aren’t you going a little too far this time!”

Hearing this familiar voice Lin Mo stopped in his tracks.

What was supposed to come, was always going to come.

From the moment he decided to help Black Rose fulfil her heart's desire.

He had already anticipated the scene of the moment.

"You guys go first!"

Lin Mo turned around and then said lightly towards the Black Garden women.

"Lin ....." The adjutant who had survived was just about to say something.

Lin Mo's silver colour sank: "Hurry up and go!"

"Take the black roses and go to the collar low in the third district and wait for me."

"Remember never to go in to the front line!"

Right now, the front line of Zone 3 was completely covered by an unknown contagion.

If they entered, the only result would be just a few more infected people.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo had added in a deep voice.

"If you do not see me before dawn, you will stay with Black Rose and leave Death Island directly."

The moment these words were spoken.

The adjutant immediately thought of something, and his face instantly turned miserable white to the extreme.

After gritting his teeth, he still held back his hurt feelings and spoke towards his companion beside him.

"Let's not drag our feet for Mr. Lin, retreat!"

As he passed by Lin Mo's side, the adjutant spoke softly.

"Mr. Lin we'll wait for you!"

The words had taken on a few more gulps at this moment.

Black Rose had spoken to her once.

Mr. Lin had made a pact with the Sovereign Master expert who had gone, that both sides could not interfere with the battlefield.

Right now Lin Mo had broken this agreement.

And by what Lin Mo had commanded, one could tell.

Facing the enemy's opponent who was also a clan master, Lin Mo did not have confidence either.

And the root cause of all this was for the sake of just his own group of people.

Thinking of this, the adjutant's eyes had turned red.

And as everyone left.

Lin Mo and Ji Dutuo did not speak.

They just looked at each other in silence.

They waited until the figures of the women disappeared into the vast night.

Only then did Ji Dutuo make a move, breaking the calm with a big mouth.

"Mr. Lin, didn't we have an agreement before, you're putting me in a difficult position!"

At this moment, he was still smiling, but his eyes were already sharp.

Lin Mo rested one hand on the hilt of his sword, his face contemptuous.

"You guys are capable of doing something so heartless."

"Is there any point to the agreement?"

Hearing this, Ji Duto looked a little puzzled.

"Heartless?"

By this moment, Lin Mo already had an answer in his heart.

With his understanding of the Seven Deadly Sins.

If they had really done such a thing, they wouldn't be able to play dumb.

"This is the work of your Laurence family!"

Said Lin Mo, throwing out a wooden box.

With a swing of his sword, the wooden box instantly broke into two halves.

One of the pieces of meat taken from Qiao Mu's chest landed directly in front of Ji Duto.

He was also an expert in the Sovereign Realm.

Ji Dutuo naturally saw at a glance that there was something wrong with this object.

"Tyrannical corpse!"

As soon as the words fell, the mountainous fat man behind him opened his mouth and sucked it in.

The chunks of meat on the ground then instantly entered his belly.

After smashing his mouth, it was spat out by him in no time.

"It contains an unknown virus that is extremely contagious."

"Below half-step Zong Shi, if you contract it, you will die!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4043

As the tyrant corpse's words fell to the ground.

Ji Dutuo couldn't help but frown: "Where did this come from?"

Lin Mo said, "The Lawrence family's minions!"

"The front line of the third district has been fully infected."

There was no need to say too much between wise people.

In a matter of three words.

Ji Dutuo had already understood the reason for what was going on.

At the same time, his face turned a few shades of cold.

He was thinking of using the Lawrence family to wear down the living forces of Lin Mo's men.

But definitely not in such a disastrous way.

If this virus were to spread out, the entire Death Island would be destroyed.

This also included their main target of the Seven Deadly Sins, Lan Dieyi.

And most of all, he suddenly noticed that some dogs seemed to have disobeyed him.

Retract your thoughts!

Ji Dutuo's also returned to normal.

"In this matter, I will talk to Clegg!"

"But once again before that, we still need to talk about this matter of tearing up the agreement."

Lin Mo raised an eyebrow, "Then how do you want to talk about it!"

With that said the longsword in his hand was already sheathed and his body was sideways, ready to strike at any moment.

"After knowing each other for so long, I am curious about Brother Lin Mo's strength!"

Ji Duto's said slowly and methodically.

"Might as well take this opportunity today for us to have a good sparring session!"

"Please do so!"

Although the words were polite.

However, Lin Mo knew that the other party could not resist the urge to fight.

"Come on!"

"Are you all planning to come together, or one by one!"

Ji Dutuo snorted, "Then naturally I'll do it!"

"If we were to come together, wouldn't that seem boring?"

After saying that, he directly lifted his right foot.

By the time he landed again, he had already arrived in front of Lin Mo's body.

Such a terrifying stance made even Lin Mo's pupils shrink.

How fast!

After both sides approached, there were no more words exchanged.

He only saw Ji Dutuo, with a single hand raised, the Western sword at his waist appeared in his hand.

Stab!

The swift speed of the sword was like lightning, and it came directly before his eyes.

Seeing this, Lin Mo immediately swung his Tai Ah.

The two sides' weapons intertwined.

Dazzling sparks erupted!

There was no earth-shattering sound.

The exchange of blows between the two sides only created a faint breeze.

Not far away, watching the battle, Flood was still exploding the wound on his leg.

Sensing the breeze rising around him, a strong sense of crisis grew in his heart.

Looking up.

His face instantly became terrified.

As the breeze brushed by, the few gunmen at the forefront instantly evaporated, not even a trace of blood was left behind.

Seeing this horrifying scene.

He immediately shouted in horror.

"Everyone hurry and run!"

Without waiting for him to finish speaking, tens of thousands of gun-soldiers rolled and crawled towards the rear.

And the group that had fallen at the end of the line and let go were lost to the world forever before they had time to let out a scream.

By the time Flood arrived at the top of the hill, panting, less than half of the men had survived.

And all around the scene of the battle.

There was nothing left.

Trees and rocks alike had been vaporised.

The only ones who were still safe and sound were the mysterious little girl sisters and the big, fat man who looked like a hill.

As for the two combatants, Flood could not even see them.

Only the sparks that continued to erupt showed that the battle was still going on.

Fred knew in his heart.

A battle of this magnitude was beyond his ability to participate in.

And for the first time in his life, he had seen such a terrifying engagement.

The silent aftermath of the battle had the power to destroy the heavens and the earth.

Was this the battle of the Sovereign Realm?

Under this kind of strength, numbers would already become a floating cloud .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4044

Between lightning and fire.

Both sides had already struck hundreds of times.

But whether it was Lin Mo or Ji Dutuo, they were both evenly matched.

No one was able to take advantage of the situation.

Of course, up to this point, they were only testing each other's strength.

After the two sides pulled apart.

Ji Dutuo suddenly laughed out loud with gusto.

"Hahahaha, it's been a long time since I've met an opponent as strong as you in the sword dao."

Lin Mo nodded slightly, why wouldn't he be like that.

All along the way, it was also the first time he had encountered, a master whose sword skills were on par with his own.

"Come again!"

With a soft shout from Lin Mo, the two once again battled into each other.

This time, neither side was moving.

What was being compared was the word fast!

Under the extreme appearing speed, the weapons in their hands could no longer be seen.

Looking from the side, even their arms disappeared into the air.

The two Nebula sisters, looking at both sides of the battle, their big eyes glittered continuously.

“Not bad for our idol, to be able to fight with sect master Ji Dou for so long!”

“How long do you think the idol can still last?”

Seeing his sister shake her head, Yun turned his gaze again to the tyrant corpse that was gnawing on the roast beef leg.

“Big fatty, what do you think?”

“How long will it take for the Godfather to take down the idol?”

If the other members of the Seven Deadly Sins were to hear this name, they would surely be scared to death.

One had to know that anyone who dared to use the word fat to address Tyrannical Corpse had already gone into his stomach.

However, at this moment, not only did the tyrant corpse not show any signs of anger, but he nervously scratched his head.

“Woo, I don’t know!”

After saying that, he continued to start gnawing on the large cow leg in his hand.

“Just know how to eat, huh, big fatty!” Cloud grumbled furiously.

The storm corpse was baffled and didn’t know what he had done wrong.

He could only hand over the beef leg, whose hand was about the same size as Cloud’s, with a few reluctant faces.

“Do you eat it?”

This move was directly exasperated by the seven orifices of smoke.

“You .....

“P*ssed me off!”

After saying this he lifted his foot and kicked the tyrant viciously.

The duo’s antics were out of place with the scene of the engagement.

The main reason they could be with such idleness was that they had absolute confidence in Ji Dutuo.

The realm of Zong Shi, they had not yet seen a match that could Second Sect Master.

The line of sight returned to the scene of battle.

The exchange of blows between the two sides had reached a white-hot level.

In terms of the speed of their strikes, the two were on par with each other.

Their stances and speed of movement had been tested.

At this moment, they both tacitly agreed to stop.

“Not bad!”

Ji Dutuo said with an appreciative face.

“At your young age, you are the first one who can have such a skill!”

“Next, I’m going to get real!”

Lin Mo took a half step back and pointed his long sword in his hand, “Come on!”

“Let me see how powerful the Herculean Thunderstrike Sword really is.”

As one of the most mysterious organisations in the world.

Apart from the Grand Patriarch, the basic information of the other six Patriarchs were all recorded by outsiders.

The weapon in this Ji Dutuo’s hand had been famous for a long time.

This sword was forged from meteorite iron.

When the sword was completed, the maker was struck and killed by a strange, clear lightning bolt before he had time to test the sword.

The sword was then named the Lightning Strike Sword.

Rumour has it that this Western sword, as fast as lightning, can pierce everything in the world.

However, at the moment, both sides were still at the stage of trial and error.

Lin Mo had not seen the true power of this thunderbolt sword.

Hearing this.

Ji Duto let out a loud laugh.

“Good, as you wish over there.”

After saying this, he took a step forward and his body slightly bowed.

It was as if his entire body had transformed into a longbow, and the lightning strike sword in his hand was the sharp arrow that was about to be shot out.

At this moment, Lin Mo’s face was equally serious.

At this moment.

Both sides began to build up their sword momentum.

A violent gale hung around them.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4046

With the deafening sound of the collision rang out.

The entire mountain forest began to shake violently.

Metre-long cracks appeared on the ground, spreading rapidly in all directions.

Those who thought they had hidden far enough away and their men were blown over by the incoming gale.

The screams of misery continued.

After a long time.

It was only after a long time that the violent commotion subsided.

Although Fred's face was full of fear and tension, his curiosity was also overwhelming.

His eyes were fixed on the scene of the battle, which was becoming clearer.

Who had won?

The dust cleared.

Both sides of the battle were standing firmly in place.

But compared to Ji Duto's relaxed expression.

Lin Mo's face was obviously much heavier.

Along with a slight tremor in his body, scarlet blood slowly gushed out from the corners of his mouth.

Above the weapons, both sides were divine weapons.

Only that even though Lin Mo had reached the realm of Zong Shi at the moment, he still could not fully utilise the full effectiveness of Tai Ah.

In terms of cultivation, Lin Mo could only be considered an early Zong Shi, while his opponent was already a peak Zong Shi master.

And his attainments were also significantly higher.

Under the influence of many factors.

In the end, Lin Mo was unable to win this battle against his opponent.

And under the final collision of your most powerful strike, he also suffered a serious internal injury.

The violent thunder power still lingered within his body at this point.

"Hahahaha!"

Ji Dutuo laughed magnificently.

“Look at this for the whole thing!”

“I’ve struck this down, and every lightly, to the extent that I’ve injured Brother Lin Mo.”

As the victor, he was naturally overjoyed at this moment.

The tone of his voice was full of complacency.

“Brother Lin Mo, I see that you seem to be badly injured!”

“Come back with me and I’ll help you clear the residual sword qi in your body.”

“Otherwise, this is hard on my conscience!”

Lin Mo did not say anything and nodded his head in agreement.

He had already anticipated such a situation.

Even if the words were nice, they were just trying to take his captivity.

“Then I’ll trouble Second Sect Master!”

Ji Dutuo was naturally satisfied with such a knowledgeable reply from Lin Mo in his heart.

“Hahahaha, as it should be!”

“Nebula what are you two still standing around for?”

“Can’t you see that brother Lin Mo is injured and hasn’t taken care of it in a hurry!”

When the two Nebula sisters heard this, they instantly understood.

One left and one right, they came to Lin Mo’s side.

“Don’t worry brother idol, we will protect you!”

In their bright smiles, they gave off a sense of innocence.

Especially the two little tiger teeth coupled with the obvious dimples made it even more adorable.

Of course if he didn’t know that his sisters were experts at the Zong Shi realm, Lin Mo would have believed it.

So, Ji Dutuo was in front, the tyrant was behind, plus the two sisters.

The four of them stood in distinct positions, completely blocking Lin Mo’s possible escape direction.

Seeing Lin Mo being taken down.

Flood was overjoyed at this point.

So what if he was a strong master, but in front of their backer, Lawrence, he had to submit.

Wouldn’t they still have to meekly submit.

“Hahahaha!”

“Kid, weren’t you just rampant?”

Thinking about the sword wound on his leg, the already tragic death of his own men at Lin Mo’s hands.

Forrester’s smile instantly became hideous.

“Come, now deign to show me one more!”

“Weren’t you arrogant just now?”

Under the growing excitement, he directly drew over his men’s daggers and stepped forward.

“This dagger is my return to you!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, the dagger in his hand ruthlessly stabbed at Lin Mo’s thigh.

Only to see that he was about to get it.

The epileptic’s expression suddenly stiffened.

With a look of disbelief, he fell down unwillingly.

To his death, he could not understand why Lin Mo, in this situation, had the courage to fight back!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4047

Ji Dutuo just skimmed the corpse on the ground.

There was no change in his expression.

How dare a mole call out to a fierce tiger!

Even if Lin Mo didn’t make a move, he, Ji Dutuo, would have done so.

After Lin Mo retrieved the silver needles, he looked at the little girls on his left and right.

“Didn’t you two say that you would protect me?”

“If I hadn’t fought back, I would have been injured just now.”

In the face of questioning, the two sisters only smiled cheekily, “Brother Idol, so strong, how could he possibly hurt you.”

With a few small talk.

The sky was also gradually flooded with white light.

Without lingering, under the leadership of Ji Dutuo, a group of five swept towards Lawrence’s camp.

It was only at this point that the group of firearms soldiers heaved a sigh of relief.

Many of them even went limp on the ground.

The oppressive feeling of the Grandmaster realm was simply too terrifying.

Even with tens of thousands of companions present, the fear in their hearts was still overwhelming.

Especially when they saw, with their own eyes, such powerful people fighting.

It made this group of people feel even more insignificant .....

During the journey, Lin Mo clearly heard the sound of bones breaking and the sound of chewing from behind him.

Although he did not turn around, the smell of blood came through the tip of his nose.

Lin Mo could already guess what the mob behind him was eating.

Thinking of this, his mind became even more gloomy.

These four Seven Deadly Sins were not a good thing.

The journey was without words.

They came to Lawrence's camp.

The group went straight to the huge tent in the centre of the army.

When they entered, there was a stout figure sitting inside.

The aura around him was drawn out, and his power at the peak of the Half-step Patriarch was unquestionably on display.

Between his eyebrows, a faint hostile aura emanated.

Clearly not an easy person to deal with.

This man was none other than the man at the helm of the Lawrence family, Clegg.

This was also the first time Lin Mo had met precisely with him.

"Mr. Ji Dutuo, you didn't inform me of your big visit earlier!"

"So that I could have my subordinates make some preparations."

"Come, if you don't mind, why don't you have some breakfast together!"

As soon as they met, Clegg's aura of superiority instantly disappeared without a trace.

Instead, he turned into a groveling, fawning face.

And this made Lin Mo give this man a high regard.

He was able to bend and stretch, just as soft as he could.

Such people were often lords.

If you think about it, how could a man who was in charge of the huge Lawrence family be a mediocre person?

And in the process of Clegg's flattery.

Lin Mo then noticed that this person's gaze patriarch intentionally or unintentionally skewed towards himself.

Although the other party's was well hidden.

But Lin Mo still caught the murderous intent in the other party's eyes.

After the two of them locked eyes.

Clegg nodded with a good-natured face, and the originally faint murderous intent instantly disappeared without a trace.

"Mr. Ji Dutuo, is this your new companion?"

"I wonder if I could have this honour to make friends?"

Ji Dutuo could not speak back.

The corner of Lin Mo's mouth curled and he took the initiative to stand out.

"Lin Mo, the current leader of the united forces of the three districts!"

"Meanwhile, that brother and son of yours, both died by my hand."

"Does Clan Chief Clegg still want to befriend one or two now?"

He didn't even bother to play along with the other side, and directly ripped away that layer of hypocritical shame.

The hatred between the two sides was laid bare on the table.

The culprit of the current outbreak of contagious disease in the three districts was Clegg, who was in front of him.

Lin Mo naturally wouldn't have any good looks for him.

If not for the presence of Ji Dutuo and others, this man would have been killed.

The words fell.

The atmosphere in the entire tent was obviously awkward.

Clegg's brow was furrowed.

A flash of hostility passed through his eyes.

But soon the meat on his face returned to normal, smiling.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4048

When Clegg heard such a blatant provocation from Lin Mo, his heart was already furious.

However, his face remained as usual, and even his smile remained wide

“Hahahaha, so it’s Mr. Lin, my respects!”

“It’s really true that we don’t know each other without a fight .....

“My dog’s son doesn’t know how to behave and has broken the rules of the three districts.”

“And my untalented brother, who knows he was in the wrong in the first place, and still went to provoke you.”

“They deserved to die.”

Said Clegg with an apologetic face and a slight curtsy.

“I also have to thank Mr. Lin for being broad-minded enough not to take it out on our Laurence family.”

Faced with such a reply.

Lin Mo was a bit taken aback, as if he had punched a fist on cotton.

Of course, he would not take such nonsense to heart.

Not to mention the murderous machine just now, the millions of guards in the outside world alone were enough to severely smack Clegg’s hypocritical face.

Lin Mo did not reply, and after giving Ji Duto a glance, he sat straight down on a seat to the side.

He began to heal his wounds.

He looked calm on the surface.

But the blood vessels in his body were already completely disordered.

The encounter not long ago had caused him serious and severe internal injuries.

Now the manic lightning power in his body was still rampaging through his internal organs.

If he hadn’t calmed his powerful cultivation to suppress his injuries, he would have fallen into a coma at this moment.

After taking his seat, Lin Mo closed his eyes directly.

He did not know the purpose of Ji Duto’s house arrest.

But it was also clear that they did not intend to kill him at the moment.

So Lin Mo had nothing to worry about.

He could just heal his wounds quietly!

At the same time, Ji Duto and the others also took their seats together.

“Clan Master Clegg, I have one thing in my mind that I do not understand, and I would like to ask the Clan Master to help me with an answer.”

Faced with the query, Clegg immediately returned with an ingratiating smile.

"Sect Master Ji Dou, feel free to ask, I will definitely know everything."

An looked as humble as he could be.

"I heard that there is an outbreak of contagious disease on the front line of District 2, I wonder if you are clear about this matter family."

This remark was made.

Clegg's face instantly showed surprise.

"Contagious disease? Is it serious?"

The tone and demeanor were completely in place, as if he was completely unaware of this matter.

Lin Mo frowned: "Clegg, this contagious disease was brought to District 3 by your man Qiao Mu!"

"Are you sure you don't know?"

Clegg still shook his head with a puzzled look on his face.

There were also a few flashes of anger in his eyes when he heard that Qiao Mu was just that.

"Mr. Lin, you know about this!"

"This person was not watching the guards well, and was severely punished by me."

"Only, I didn't pay attention for a while and he got away, I'm still looking for him."

Hearing this, Lin Mo did not pursue the matter any further.

This person was planning to bite the bullet and deny it.

Asking more questions would just be a waste of words.

Ji Dutuo, who was at the side, also had the same thought.

"Since House Master Clegg doesn't know, then we won't bother."

"Mr. Lin, I'll take you to rest."

Said several people as they got up.

Clegg also stood up right after them and greeted them warmly.

"I'll see you guys off!"

After waiting for Lin Mo to be led away from this place by the four men.

Clegg's originally playful and smiling face suddenly became incomparably gloomy.

"Have those in the know been dealt with more cleanly?"

As soon as these words were spoken, a figure slowly walked out of the dark shadows in one corner of the tent.

"In reply to the family head, they have all been dealt with."

Clegg nodded slightly, and then ordered.

"Send me a message, just tell that one that we should not meet up for a while."

"Also, plant this on the branch vein's side, they seem to be very restless this time!"

"Yes!"

After a resounding response, the tent once again became silent.

At this time, Clegg also took out a box from the hidden compartment under his body.

It was opened.

Inside was the squirming piece of carrion.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4049

The carrion was surrounded by a layer of pitch-black mist.

At the sight of this object, Clegg's smile suddenly became incomparably fierce, while an endless look of madness surged in his eyes.

"Want to use Clegg as a pawn, have you ever thought of the consequences ....."

Ji Duto probably didn't expect that a puppet he had originally set up casually.

It would devour the master someday in the future.

.....

District 2, Lawrence Castle.

Lin Mo had once again, arrived at this place.

Only this time, it was in the capacity of a captive.

The first instant the underlings saw Lin Mo, they suddenly exclaimed in shock.

"My God, the Lin Mo idol is here!"

With a shout of surprise, the originally quiet castle instantly came alive.

Countless hurried footsteps resounded all around.

By the time Lin Mo walked into the castle, two rows of maids were already lined up neatly.

"Welcome Mr. Lin!"

The sudden sound startled Lin Mo.

The next second, the leading maid immediately brought up tight slippers.

“Mr. Lin, let me help you change your shoes!”

With that she directly reached out her hand.

Lin Mo status quo hurriedly took a few steps back, twisted his head and asked.

“Are all of you Seven Deadly Sins playing so fancy now?”

At this moment, Ji Duto was also depressed.

“I say aren’t you guys going a bit too far?”

“I’ve never enjoyed such treatment in all the time I’ve summoned you all over.”

The maids smiled cheekily, “Mr. Lin Mo is not a guest.”

“Isn’t it proper to be warm to guests?”

With that said several people’s gazes were fixed on Lin Mo with a deadly gaze.

That impatient look was like a hungry wolf meeting a lamb.

There was nothing wrong with this statement.

Ji Dutuo could only helplessly slap his forehead.

“Alright, alright, let’s all disperse!”

“If you guys continue like this, Brother Lin Mo will be scared away by you all!”

Hearing this, the group of maids scraped Lin Mo with a reluctant glance, then left resentfully.

Ji Dutuo glared at them before opening his buckle and saying.

“I’m not strict in my royalty, so I’ve made Brother Lin Mo laugh!”

Although the two were from different camps, Lin Mo was still quite appreciative of this Ji Dutuo’s means of imperial control.

“It’s probably lucky for them to follow you!”

The fact that the maids could express themselves so recklessly showed that this Ji Dutuo had usually mingled with them as well.

As they chatted, several people also arrived in the living room.

After both parties had taken their seats.

Lin Mo said straightforwardly.

“Second Sect Master, if you have anything to say, please speak straightforwardly!”

“Over in the third district, there are still millions of people, waiting for me!”

Other matters, to the extent that they could be delayed.

But the matter of the infectious disease was already urgent.

It was impossible for him to keep delaying here.

Ji Dutuo pondered for a while before raising his head and saying.

“Indeed, we cannot delay!”

“However, my brother has just made a slip and caused such a serious internal injury to my brother.”

“If I can’t take care of your internal injuries for you, this is really too much for my conscience.”

Lin Mo knew that all this was just an excuse for the other party to force himself to stay.

But form was stronger than people, and he had no choice.

The injuries in his body were not light, and his strength was no longer one.

Even if he wanted to turn the other cheek, he did not have the ability to do so.

With no choice, Lin Mo could only sigh.

“Then, I’ll trouble Second Sect Master!”

“As it should be!”

After Ji Dutuo politely said, he turned towards his subordinates and said.

“Take Mr. Lin Mo to rest!”

“Then I’ll go and prepare for a while, and then I’ll dispel the injuries in my brother’s body later.”

With that, Ji Dutuo directly stood up and left the living room.

Lin Mo looked at his back and frowned slightly.

Although this Ji Dutuo looked calm.

However, between every word and action, a sense of haste was faintly conveyed.

Thinking about this, Lin Mo suddenly reacted and the corners of his mouth could not help but hook.

After Ji Dutuo returned to his room.

As soon as the door to the room closed, he spurted out a mouthful of blood violently.

He fell to his knees halfway to the ground.

When the two sisters saw this, they looked very anxious and rushed forward to help him.

Ji Dutuo waved his hand, indicating that he was fine.

After exerting his Qi for a while, he then stood up.

“Careless!”

He said with a bitter smile, wiping away the blood from the corner of his mouth.

“I didn’t expect that kid’s sword dao to be so profound.”

“Even I got hit!”

I don’t know if it was overconfidence, or contempt.

He did not defend at all in his match with Lin Mo.

The result.

With the final clash of swords, he also suffered a considerable amount of internal injuries.

All the calmness before was merely his disguise.

As his clothes unraveled, a tiny sword scar appeared on his chest.

As Ji Duto released his suppressive power, the wound instantly opened up and blood gushed out.

And the rampant sword qi could be clearly seen above the wound.

When the two sisters saw this, they gave a blank stare with anger on their faces.

Immediately afterwards, they fetched incoming external wound medicine.

While treating his wounds, Xing complained.

“How did you lecture us before.”

“There are people outside of people, there are people outside of heaven aren’t there!”

“Now to suffer a defeat at the hands of a junior, what a shame!”

Ji Dutuo’s chin was raised and he replied with an arrogant face.

“That was directed at you guys!”

“I am the sky ..... hiss!”

Just halfway through the words, Xing rolled his eyes while pressing down hard in his hand.

Instantly painful, Ji Dutuo sucked in a breath of cold air.

Star grumbled, “All this time, still bragging!”

“No more bragging, lighter and lighter!”

Seeing Ji Dutuo’s submission, Xing then withdrew his force.

On the other side, Yun was also amused and giggled.

"I told you, our idol is very strong, let you look down on people!"

Ji Dutuo said with a bitter smile, "When did I look down on him!"

"I used 80% of my strength in this Penning Thunder Strike!"

"If I had used all my strength, your idol would have perished long ago ..... hiss! It hurts, it hurts, it hurts!"

After once again being pinched by Xing Na's wound.

Ji Duto finally became honest and didn't dare to be reckless anymore.

At this moment, Xing also began to get rid of the sword qi above his wound step by step.

Once the medicinal powder was sprinkled, the wound began to heal at a speed visible to the naked eye.

It took less than five minutes.

In less than five minutes, only a shallow scar remained on Ji Duto's chest.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door in the room.

Only after Ji Dutuo put on his clothes did he speak.

"Come in!"

The person who came was none other than White Hair, who was in charge of intelligence.

"Lord, I've already gone to check over there."

"It is indeed as Lin Mo said, the infectious disease on their front line has risen with rage."

After hearing this news, Ji Dutuo then turned towards the two women and said.

"You two, go and help later as well, Lin Mo his Lin Mo's internal injuries have been cleared up as well!"

"After he has recovered, then let him go back!"

"Yes!" The two sisters got up and left straight away.

The white hair in place hesitated for a moment before finally opening his mouth to ask.

"Lord, since we don't intend to keep him, why do we still need to bring him back!"

Ji Duto said with a smile, "Because the big fish hasn't taken the bait yet!"

"If we injure Lin Mo and leave him alone, how will others still believe the news we put out before!"

"Right, those few patriarchs around just now who were lurking around watching the battle, he's got a good feel for them!"

White Hair nodded, "A total of nine Patriarchs' tails have been found!"

"There are still a few who are hiding too deep, so I put the alarm on the snake and didn't follow them further!"

Ji Dutuo smiled with satisfaction.

“Keep an eye on them!”

“When to close the net, wait for my news!”

“Also, you go and find out what other masters are behind this dog Clegg .....
