Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4051

“Brother Idol, we’ve come to help you heal.”

The sound arrived before the person arrived.

Without waiting for Lin Mo to reply, the door to the room was directly pushed open by the two sisters.

At this moment, Lin Mo on top of the sofa also slowly opened his eyes.

“Has the Second Sect Master’s injury been dealt with?”

“Uh-huh, it’s already been dealt with!”

Although the two sisters were extremely talented and had already broken through the sect master before they reached adulthood.

But after all, they were still children and had not been exposed to the outside world.

Lin Mo asked a question and got the news out of them.

More than half an hour had passed since they were separated.

Apparently the injuries were not lightly ill!

Thinking of this, Lin Mo couldn’t help but relax a few points.

It seemed that Ji Duto was not an invincible existence.

The two sisters did not know that they had been trapped, instead they took out their lightning strike swords with gusto.

“Brother Idol, let’s hurry up and heal our wounds!”

“Sect Master Ji Duo has already said that after you recover from your injuries, let us send you back!”

Good guys!

There was no need for Lin Mo to even ask questions.

The two sisters gave a clean account of the bottom.

“Brother Idol, let’s heal quickly!”

The two sisters looked even more anxious than Lin Mo himself.

And after they finished speaking, the two directly handed the Lightning Strike Sword into Lin Mo’s hands.

Lin Mo looked at the two sisters and at the Western sword in his hand, and could not help but smile bitterly.

Were they not afraid that they would run away with such a divine weapon?

However, when he thought of the two sisters' cultivation level, he dispelled this doubt.

When one possessed sufficient strength, one could indeed be reckless.

After retracting his distracting thoughts, Lin Mo immediately closed his cross-legged legs again and prepared to heal his injuries.

Only after he closed his eyes.

His heart and soul shook violently!

It felt as if there were two fierce beasts staring at him.

However, when he opened his eyes, there were only two sisters in front of him.

In front of him were only the two sisters looking at him with anticipation.

Their huge eyes shone brightly!

The look was very cute.

How could such a person not be associated with fierceness.

Lin Mo also just dismissed it as his own illusion and continued to close his eyes.

And only once, he didn't have that feeling he had before.

Peacefully, he used the Thunder Strike Sword to draw out the residual thunder power within his body.

What he did not know was that the two sisters in the room were currently staring at themselves with greedy faces and bloodshot eyes.

Crystals were even flowing from the corners of their mouths.

Seeing Yun reaching out to touch Lin Mo, his sister Xing instantly regained her wits.

A hand stopped her sister, then shook her head wordlessly and had pointed to Ji Duto's put down.

After a while, Yun this only slowly calmed down.

After wiping away the saliva, after a vicious stare at Lin Mo.

The fierce face also returned to normal.

Waiting for Lin Mo to open his eyes again.

The thunder sword Qi raging within his body had already been absorbed cleanly by the Thunder Strike Sword.

The remaining internal injuries would be healed after just a few days of slow conditioning.

After saying a word of thanks, Lin Mo returned the Western Sword in his hand to the other party.

Since the other party had already asked for it, he could leave.

Lin Mo also did not want to stay any longer.

Only what he did not know was that the two sisters behind him were staring at his back with a deadly stare.

“Sister, I almost couldn’t help myself!”

“I just don’t know when Sect Leader Ji Dou will allow me to do it.”

“Such a good material, I can’t wait to include him in my collection.”

After saying that, five figures suddenly floated in within the room, standing quietly behind Yun.

Surprisingly, these five people were all at the realm of Zong Shi.

Only, a few of them had eyes that were godless and faces that were stiff.

Their grey skin was like tree bark, extremely dry and hard, and even cracked in a few places.

If one were to look closely, one could see that these people were not even alive.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4052

On the way to leave.

Lin Mo inexplicably twisted his head to glance behind him.

Only he saw only the two sisters who kept waving their hands towards him.

The violent aura fluctuation he had just felt was very clear.

There was absolutely no way it could be an illusion.

If it was once, it would be a coincidence, but if it appeared one after another.

Then there was something really wrong.

“These two sisters are very odd!”

After murmuring, Lin Mo once again went on his way.

Only when he was just about to leave Lawrence Castle, he suddenly found several figures hurrying in this direction.

As soon as he looked at their outfits, he knew that they were all senior members of the Lawrence guards.

If it was in normal times, Lin Mo would have passed by with a glance.

But right now, District 2 and District 3 were in the midst of a tense confrontation.

At this time, it seemed extremely abrupt for these senior officers to come all the way to Ji Duto to find him.

And that sneaky look was clearly a sign of distress.

Thinking about this.

Lin Mo concealed his aura and quietly followed him.

After a few people walked into the room where Ji Duto was, Lin Mo took the opportunity to hide silently in the distant tree layer.

Six senses of communication, open!

One of the admirals in the lead bowed his back and spoke straight.

“Mr. Ji Dutuo, we have come here to invite you to join us!”

Ji Dutuo smiled playfully, “Join you?”

“Aren’t I helping your Lawrence family head to cooperate now?”

“What is this talk of joining?”

The admiral explained after a moment’s pause.

“What I mean is that if we take down Clegg, could Mr. Ji Dutuo not intervene.”

“As long as our branch controls the Lawrence family, we will be more obedient than Clegg.”

“At the very least, we won’t choose two masters to serve!”

At these words, Ji Duto’s face, which was still a little bored, instantly took on a look of interest.

“Tell me in detail!”

Obviously, since this person dared to say this, he must know something.

The admiral bowed once again and then said.

“Earlier, our people, by chance, saw that Clegg was in contact with a black-robed man.”

“Although we don’t know the exact conversation, the black robe gave Clegg a wooden box, and a bottle of an unknown liquid.”

He didn’t hold anything back.

Straight away, he gave an account of everything he knew.

After saying that, several people looked at Ji Duto in front of them with apprehension on their faces.

There was an element of gambling in this operation for them as well.

But if they wanted to bring down Clegg, Ji Duto was the one hurdle they could not get around.

With four people always backing him up, even if a pig became the head of the Lawrence family, no one would dare to have the slightest opinion.

In the silence, several people’s breathing became heavier and heavier.

If they were refused, they would undoubtedly die.

Of course, if Ji Duto nodded.

If Ji Dutuo nodded, their branch would be able to turn over a new leaf.

Thinking of this, the admiral couldn't help but swallow his saliva.

"Lord Ji Dutuo, as long as we can master the Lawrence family."

"From now on, you are our heaven, as long as you give the order, even if it is a mountain of swords or a sea of fire, we will definitely follow it."

"And, if we have any second thoughts, heaven will strike us down and we will not be allowed to die!"

After saying this, he waited apprehensively for the final answer.

The few people behind him were even more nervous and sweating profusely.

Ji Dutuo looked up at this man with interest.

Then he spoke slowly.

"Then what if I let you die now!"

At these words, the admiral's face changed greatly.

Only on the next side, he clenched his teeth and showed a touch of determination in his gaze as he directly drew his pistol.

"In accordance with Lord Ji Dutuo's orders."

With that, he placed the muzzle of the gun against his temple.

Just as he was about to pull the trigger.

A flash of invisible qi pa*sed by.

The pistol instantly split in pieces.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4053

"You've done well, I'm satisfied."

The Admiral's face beamed with joy at this reply.

Those who were with him could not help but sigh with relief.

They had bet on the right thing!

"Lord Ji Dutuo, are you planning to help us move down Clegg?"

The admiral asked excitedly.

Ji Dutuo shook his head slightly after stretching lazily.

"I think I have made it clear enough that I will only work with House Master Lawrence."

"As for who your Lawrence's family head is, it's up to you to decide."

After saying that, he slowly lifted his cup of tea.

When the admiral saw this, he also understood his intention of driving the guest away.

"My lord, you go ahead and get busy, we'll take our leave!"

Although it was a little regrettable that he hadn't been able to get Ji Dutuo's support.

But as long as Ji Dutuo did not make a move, they were absolutely confident of taking down Clegg.

It would only take more time and effort.

.....

The leaves of the tree.

Everything that was happening within the room was clearly heard by Lin Mo.

He did not expect it.

This admiral was also such a bold person.

And it had to be said that this Lawrence family was also full of talents.

Compared to Clegg's ability to bend and stretch.

The admiral had a more ruthless streak.

Of course, the presence of two lords in one family is not a good thing for the family.

On the contrary, it was a disaster.

But all this was indeed good news for Lin Mo.

The more serious the infighting in Lawrence was, the better it would be for them in the three districts.

It was also while Lin Mo was thinking about it that his brows frowned slightly.

At this moment, underneath the big tree, the tyrant corpse, who was fat as a mountain, was actually looking at himself quietly.

He didn't say anything.

Just gnawing on this huge hand of beef while staring.

After Lin Mo landed on the ground, he even handed over the beef in his hand.

And there was reluctance in his eyes.

"Do you want to eat it?"

Such a move was a whole lot for Lin Mo.

Originally, he had thought that this tyrant corpse was planning to make a move on himself.

Unexpectedly, he had generously shared the food with himself.

"I'm not eating, thanks!"

After the tyrant corpse gave an oh, he then gladly sat down and continued to enjoy the huge beef in his hand.

A simple contact.

Lin Mo realized that this tyrannical corpse's sanity seemed to be somewhat abnormal.

It seemed to be only similar to that of a four or five year old child.

While Lin Mo was observing.

After Ji Dutuo noticed the movement over here, he also walked over.

"Brother Lin Mo is this already recovered?"

Lin Mo withdrew the distracting thoughts in his mind, "This is thanks to the Second Sect Master's Lightning Strike Sword."

"At the moment, I am basically unharmed!"

"That's good!" After Ji Dutuo nodded slightly, his gaze turned to the side.

"What are you doing here, Tyrannical Corpse?"

"Sleepy, wanted to sleep!" The tyrant corpse's reply was simple.

Lin Mo was originally a little worried that this person would reveal his snooping.

After hearing this, he couldn't help but secretly breathe a sigh of relief.

At this point, although it was harmless.

But it was more or less embarrassing.

Of course, through the actions and words of the tyrant corpse, Lin Mo became more certain of his judgement.

There was indeed something wrong with this person's sanity!

"Second Sect Master, there are still matters over in the third district, so I will leave first."

Thinking of the few people who survived from the Black Garden still waiting for him.

Lin Mo then simply said goodbye.

"Alright, then I won't make any reservations!"

Ji Dutuo arched his hand.

“Let’s get together again next time we have the chance!”

After Lin Mo simply returned his salute, his figure shifted and disappeared from his spot.

If those who were not aware of this scene would have thought that the two were close friends.

Only the word “friend” could not possibly happen between them.

All the friendly things Ji Duto did were just to make Lin, the fish, more tempting.

Once the time came to close the net.

Life and death would have to come to an end!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4054

“Tyrant, how did you spare the food for him?”

Ji Dutuo asked curiously.

After the two had been together for so many years, this was the first time he had seen a tyrannical corpse actually being so generous to a stranger.

One should know that apart from himself and the two Nebula sisters.

If anyone else dared to hit the Tyrannical Corpse’s food, he would kill.

He had never thought that this time, he would offer to give out the food that he regarded as his life.

The tyrant corpse scratched his head.

“I don’t know, I just somehow want to share it with him!”

Getting this, Ji Dutuo no longer dwelled on it.

One could only put it all down to personal charisma!

.....

On the other side.

Lin Mo was flying rapidly, when he was halfway to the road.

Suddenly, he braked sharply and held his ground.

Just at that instant, he sensed a familiar aura.

Although it was vague, he could be sure that there were people of his own around.

After pondering for a moment, he called out tentatively.

“No hate?”

The words came out.

A rustling sound suddenly came from among the quiet woods.

In the next second, Lin Wu Heng's figure steadily appeared in front of him.

Lin Mo did not feel any joy at seeing his disciple.

On the contrary, he looked incomparably anxious.

"You came from crossing the front line to this side?"

Lin Mo asked worriedly.

Seeing Lin Wu Hate nod his head, Lin Mo did not have any words to say, and with one healthy step, he rushed directly to the disciple's body.

After some careful examination, he then heaved a sigh of relief.

Luckily, he had not been infected.

"Why did you come here, didn't I tell you to close up in the Martial Division to cultivate?"

At the mention of this matter, Lin Mo's originally worried face instantly turned gloomy.

The frontline right now was a complete time bomb.

Without the realm of a half-step Patriarch, crossing over from such a place was a complete act of seeking death.

And the most helpless thing was that with a system like Lin Wuyuan's, if she had the intention to hide.

Not to mention ordinary people, even a Patriarch would find it hard to spot her.

The Blade Sect got the barrier line, which was virtually null and void to her.

It was only Lin Mo who was able to detect her presence by virtue of his senses between the creation techniques.

Lin Wu Hate shook.

"I heard that you've come to District 2!"

"I was worried about you, so I followed you here!"

He said and then with an innocent look in his eyes he quietly locked eyes with Lin Mo.

At this moment, Lin Mo was also instantly devoid of any temper.

With such a filial disciple, what else could one say?

"Silly girl, with that strength of yours, even if I were really in danger, you wouldn't be able to save me!"

"By you, you'd better concentrate on your cultivation."

"With your talent, it won't take long to catch up with me, instead you're protecting master me!"

This was not Lin Mo in the words of comfort.

Lin Wu Hate's talent was as terrifying as he had ever seen over the years, bar none.

Even the two mysterious sisters were a little bit inferior compared to her.

At these words, Lin Wu Hate instantly raised his fist in defiance.

"Haterless is also very strong now, and can protect Master even now."

He said as black qi surged from his pink little fist and instantly coalesced into a long sword.

But looking at the appearance it actually had some resemblance to Tai Ah.

What surprised Lin Mo the most was that this black shadow longsword actually gave him a slight sense of scorn.

With such doubts, Lin Mo couldn't help but extend his palm and probe towards the black shadow.

Bared!

When his finger touched it, a light smoke instantly rose.

Looking at Lin Mo's finger, a thin black mark had already appeared.

And Lin Mo could clearly sense that this black mark was frantically eroding his own skin.

Even he felt a slight tingling sensation.

With this discovery.

Lin Mo's gaze when he looked at this disciple of his again was filled with a look of disbelief.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4055

When you reach the realm of the Patriarch.

Not only will your strength increase wildly.

The strength of the flesh also changes drastically.

The best way to describe the strength of a master's body is to see that bullets do not invade and shells do not hurt.

Especially since Lin Mo's body had been tempered many times before he entered the Sovereign.

Nowadays, in terms of physical body level alone, he completely left other Zongshi behind by a large margin.

Yet even so, his own disciple's attack had surprisingly broken through his fleshly defence.

Although it was only a sliver, it could not cause any substantial damage to Lin Mo.

But it was enough, and Lin Mo was shocked.

One should know that it had only been less than a month before and after Lin Wu Hate had stepped into the martial dao.

What kind of monster was this!

If she was given another half a year or a year's time.

How far would this disciple of his own grow to?

Thinking about this, Lin Mo couldn't help but feel a slight sense of urgency.

If his own disciple were to break through the Saint before him, then wouldn't he, as a master, lose face.

In order to prevent such a thing from happening, Lin Mo specially instructed Lin Wu Hate.

"Disciple!"

"If in the future you are ready to transcend the mortal and break the saint, remember to inform my master!"

"When you pour, talk over the insights with my master!"

Although it is good to be better than blue out of blue.

But if it was too much of a victory, wouldn't Blue be embarra*sed!

Although Lin Wu Hate did not know what it meant, but since Lin Mo had spoken, she nodded directly and obediently without any hesitation.

Seeing this, Lin Mo was also satisfied and stroked the top of his disciple's head.

"Good disciple, it's not in vain that my master loves you so much!"

After saying that, Lin Mo took his disciple along on the journey home.

There were no words along the way.

Fortunately, when Lin Mo's master and disciple arrived at the outskirts of the front line of the three districts, the women of the Black Garden were still waiting for them and had not left.

Only a group of women, their faces were extremely anxious.

"What's wrong with you all?"

As soon as the adjutant saw Lin Mo, Shun Jiang's eyes lit up.

That look was as if he had seen a savior.

"Mr. Lin Mo, you've finally come!"

"Our Eldest Miss, the situation is extremely bad right now"

Without waiting for the adjutant to finish, Lin Mo came directly to Black Rose's body with a flash.

After checking a bit.

Lin Mo's complexion also turned grave.

After the delay before and after, Black Rose's injuries had reached a point where she could not afford to wait.

Even with the suppression of the divine Needle of Creation, her body was too weak.

Although she was still hanging on by a thread, she was already in a state of near death.

The internal organs were bleeding continuously.

Black Rose's small abdomen was already bulging high.

With such a serious injury, Lin Mo did not dare to delay and immediately ordered someone to untie Black Rose's outer garment.

The adjutant and the others did not act straight away, instead their faces were hesitant.

Lin Mo immediately scolded angrily.

"What time is it that you still have to worry about this?"

"Is innocence important, or is life important!"

The deputy's expression shook at these words.

Yes!

There was nothing left if you died!

Thinking of this to be difficult, she immediately squatted down and removed the clothes for Black Rose.

All the way until after leaving a single piece of underwear behind, the adjutant then stopped.

"Mr. Lin, I'll trouble you!"

After Lin Mo nodded, he immediately took out the silver needles.

After sealing several key acupuncture points of Black Rose, he immediately inserted the silver needles into the small of Black Rose's abdomen.

Under Lin Mo's guidance, countless bruises of blood began to spill out of Black Rose's body along the silver needles.

She waited until her bulging belly shrank back and eventually returned to its normal form.

Only then did Lin Mo stop his hand movements.

Only at this time, Black Rose's face had already turned pale to the extreme.

Her body also began to turn colder and colder.

This situation was a sign of a massive loss of vitality.

Seeing such a phenomenon, Lin Mo was also greatly anxious in his heart.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4056

In the wilderness, there were no herbs to use at all.

A few silver needles alone could not have healed Black Rose's internal injuries of such severity.

The thought came to this.

Lin Mo simply gritted his big teeth.

"F*ck, it's really a bargain for you!"

After cursing angrily, he immediately pierced his chest directly with his giant sword.

Spiritual Qi ran!

A drop of blood that was even more dazzling than a ruby slowly seeped out from where the wound was.

This was precisely the root of a martial artist's most bloodline, heart blood!

With the appearance of this object, Lin Mo's aura instantly fell.

On his pale face, beads of sweat continued to pour out.

He was already suffering from internal injuries, but at this moment, he was forcing out another drop of heart blood.

It was an act of adding insult to injury.

Lin Mo braced himself for the feeling of spinning in the sky and dropped the precious heart blood into Black Rose's mouth.

With this item in her belly.

The deadly aura around Black Rose's body instantly disappeared without a trace.

The internal organs in her body, which had already been shattered, began to fuse at a rapid pace.

The broken blood veins also began to heal on their own.

However, as her internal injuries were rapidly healed.

The aura around her body also became increasingly messy.

The whole person slowly became bloated.

Not good!

Seeing this, Lin Mo secretly cried out in dismay.

In his haste to heal Black Rose's internal injuries, he had forgotten that her body's foundation was too weak to withstand his heart's blood.

He himself was an expert at the Patriarch realm, plus he had come all this way.

First, he had experienced the Tai Ah bloodline cleansing, and then he had taken a vast amount of heavenly herbs of the level of the disciples of the Hidden Sect.

Plus the transformation of the walking corpse virus and the washing of his flesh again on top of Bashan's body.

All these things have not only forged Lin Mo's super strong physical body and terrifying self-healing ability.

His own blood is a healing elixir, not to mention the root cause of the blood, his heart blood.

This item, at the same time, also contained the terrifying power of his Sovereign Realm.

Now that Black Rose had taken it, it was completely equivalent to swallowing a bomb.

Thinking about this.

Lin Mo immediately asked someone to serve Black Rose, while he himself immediately sat on the ground and lifted his hand and pressed it against Black Rose's back.

He was able to hold on to his swollen brain and the strong feeling of vertigo.

Lin Mo clenched his teeth and began to channel the violent power in Black Rose's body.

It was not known how long had pa*sed.

Lin Mo's consciousness was already blurred, and his eyelids seemed to be hung with scales, drooping downwards.

At this moment, Black Rose had also finally awakened.

Along with a tremor of Qi around his body, a powerful force burst out from his body.

And this became the last straw to crush the camel.

The aura that burst out directly pushed Lin Mo to.

It was only Lin Wu Hate who was quick to see and help the weak Lin Mo.

"Master, are you alright?"

Seeing Lin Mo's pale and godless face.

Her heart couldn't help but tighten, and the gaze she looked at Black Rose again was written with murderous intent.

"Dog woman, how dare you see my master harmed so badly, take your life!"

As the words fell, the pitch-black longsword in his hand once again manifested.

The Ghost Shadow Step activated.

Only a few streaks of shadow were left in the air.

In the blink of an eye, Lin Wu Hate arrived in front of Black Rose's body.

“Give me death!”

With a delicate shout, the long sword in her hand came out here.

If it was in the past.

Black Rose would not have been able to dodge in the face of such a swift strike.

However, at this moment, he subconsciously clicked his foot.

His body retreated backwards like a ghost, easily dodging the fatal blow.

And just when Lin Wu Hate was planning to pursue the attack.

Behind him, Lin Mo suddenly vocalised.

“Wu Hate, stop for me!”

This word also used up the last trace of his energy.

His eyes went black and he collapsed straight down.

Seeing this, Lin Wu Hate gave up the chase and turned to dart away, steadily catching Lin Mo.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4057

Worked until dark.

Lin Mo’s eyelids also became heavier and heavier. Sleepiness struck in bursts.

By the time Black Rose refined the last medicinal juice in her hand and turned back.

Lin Mo was already whistling himself to sleep.

He had seen this man’s magnificent stance.

Defeating two with one, fighting against a sect leader.

He had seen this man’s cold style.

In order to keep himself a secret, he had directly forced himself to swallow the Pill of Erosion.

At the same time, I have also seen his tender side.

When he mentioned his family, the happy smile at the corner of his mouth was extraordinarily sweet.

Black Rose had seen Lin Mo in all his gestures.

The only thing she hadn’t thought of was that this man would be like this before her, so vain and haggard.

That look could not help but make one’s heart ache.

Walking to the bedside, Black Rose picked up the quilt and gently covered Lin Mo with it.

At that moment, the moonlight fell and the silver veil covered Lin Mo's handsome cheeks.

For a moment, Black Rose couldn't help but be mesmerised.

Under the spell, she slowly lifted her arm.

Until the moment her fingertips touched Lin Mo's cheek.

A tingling current instantly ran through Black Rose's entire body, and this caused her to jolt awake.

After she noticed her actions, she immediately drew back her arm, her face instantly flushed red.

In response to the silver moonlight, the shy look was lovely.

"It must be so happy to be married to a man like that!"

After murmuring a sentence, Black Rose felt her cheeks burning even more.

After sensing some movement around her and making sure no one else was around, she nervously raised her hand again.

Her delicate jade hand caressed her handsome face!

At this very moment, Lin Mo suddenly put his hand towards his cheek.

With this move, Black Rose, like a frightened rabbit, immediately retracted her hand in panic.

Her heart violently began to beat violently.

Fortunately, the sleeping Lin Mo only scratched his cheek and then turned over.

His breathing also became even.

Black Rose was so frightened that she did not dare to stay here any longer.

After a reluctant glance at Lin Mo, she covered her burning cheeks and fled the room in a panic.

Inside the room.

Peace returned once again.

It was not until the moon was in the sky that Lin Mo's eyes snapped open.

It was not that he had woken up from his sleep.

Rather, it was his body's instinctive reaction that alerted him to the danger that was approaching.

He turned his eyes.

There was a hunched back standing beside the bed.

Lin Mo's heart tightened and he subconsciously tried to take the tai a from the bed.

However, this impulse was instantly suppressed by him.

Instead, he spoke calmly and composedly.

“Senior Ghosts, you’re not sleeping in the middle of the night and you’ve come to my room.”

“It’s not like you have any bad habits, right!”

The ghostly old man smiled faintly.

Only this smile carried a bit of oozing under the moonlight.

“Mr. Lin, I heard from the people below that you were injured.”

“So I thought I would come over to visit for a while, and in the meantime, help Lin to stand guard.”

“To prevent people with bad intentions!”

The tone between his words was filled with a strong sense of concern.

But Lin Mo was unwilling to believe even a single punctuation mark in this old man’s words.

“I’m sorry for your trouble, senior.”

“But if there are curmudgeons with evil intentions.”

“Just so I can try out whether this sword is still sharp or not.”

Following the words, Lin Mo then grabbed the Tai Ah on the side.

A biting sword qi, if any, drifted through the room.

To a Zong Shi, this sword qi was like a strong light in the dark night.

It was particularly conspicuous.

The ghostly old man naturally sensed it too.

“It is good that Mr. Lin is unharmed, so I am relieved.”

With that he turned his words around and asked with a concerned look.

“I wonder, what kind of opponent did Mr. Lin encounter?”

“Surprisingly, it could make you injured as well.”

Lin Mo cursed in his heart when he heard this.

Old immortal!

How dare you try to set me up.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4058

From the moment the ghostly old man appeared.

Lin Mo knew that this old thing must have had bad intentions when he approached him in the middle of the night.

Right now, the other party was trying to get information from him.

Lin Mo simply played along with him.

“Not long ago, Black Rose was ambushed in an ambush, so I went to rescue her and happened to meet the Seven Deadly Sins on the way.”

“That Ji Dutuo said that he wanted to spar with me no matter what.”

Just as the ghostly old man was concentrating on listening to what was going to happen, Lin Mo stopped talking.

With a rush in his heart, the ghostly old man blurted out.

“Then what happened?”

“Then I got hurt!”

“What about Ji Dutuo?”

Hearing this question, Lin Mo secretly laughed in his heart.

The old immortal, the fox’s tail had finally revealed itself.

Asking so many questions was just to find out Ji Duto’s strength through himself.

“Well, how can I put it, that Ji Dutuo is very strong.”

“A few times it was the bottom card that was used to the fullest, but it only caused him a slight superficial wound.”

Naturally, he could not be truthful when Ji Dutuo was injured.

Seven parts true, three parts false.

It was to interfere with this old thing’s judgment.

As expected.

After hearing this, the ghostly old man couldn’t help but frown.

But from Lin Mo’s words, he couldn’t tell the truth from the falsity at all.

Yet for him to go to District 2 to confirm it himself, he had the fear of exposure.

After a moment of agonising.

He aimed his gaze at Lin Mo and narrowed his eyes slightly.

Judging from his aura alone, Lin Mo was indeed in a weakened state today.

If he could take him down easily, wouldn’t the three districts be his own world?

At the same time, he could also pry the information he wanted out of Lin Mo’s mouth.

This was a two-for-one deal.

Thinking of this, the ghostly old man, with a sinister tone, tried to say.

“Mr. Lin, are your injuries really alright?”

Speaking again, there was no longer a sense of concern between the words.

Instead, there was a hint more of a chill.

Lin Mo naturally sensed this as well.

However, he still maintained that unperturbed look.

“Why don’t we practice, old-timer?”

“Just give it a try, I’ve also long wanted to spar with senior Ghost Southerner for a while!”

With that he gripped Tai Ah in one hand and made a move to get up.

It seemed that he could not wait for the sparring session.

Seeing this, Ghost Sou immediately spoke out to stop him.

“Mr. Lin, you don’t have to do that!”

“You’re injured, you can’t do it.”

“There will be plenty of opportunities for a sparring session in the future, there is no rush for this moment, getting well is the most important thing.”

It wasn’t that he was really worried about Lin Mo’s body.

It was just because he couldn’t afford to gamble!

That glimmer of sword qi just now, if any, had caused the ghostly old man to be on guard.

He didn’t know if Lin Mo was pretending to be weak to try to lure himself in.

Or was it an empty city ploy from the outside.

If he started to fight, the two sides would be in a situation where their faces would be torn apart.

At that time, if he could not press Lin Mo quickly, he would also face the threat of being exposed.

A situation where the darkness turns to light.

His future plans to fight for the Crystal Skull would be very pa*sive.

Thinking of this, the ghostly old man eventually chose to give up.

“Mr. Lin, recuperate well!”

“Are you really not going to cut a deal?” Lin Mo said with some regret.

“The opportunity is rare eh!”

The more he was the more the ghostly old man became suspicious that Lin Mo was deliberately leading himself on.

“No no!”

“I suddenly remembered that there are still some important matters within the gang waiting for me to deal with.”

“Mr. Lin, have a good rest, farewell!”

The words fell to the ground.

The ghostly old man’s figure shifted and disappeared directly into the room.

A long time later.

Only then did Lin Mo put down the Tai Ah in his hand and let out a slight sigh of relief.

Everything just now was just a psychological battle he was playing.

Just by tugging on a trace of Tai Ah’s sword energy, the pitiful amount of spiritual energy in his body had already been drained to nothing.

Let alone doing anything, he could hardly even get out of bed!

“It seems that I still have to recover my strength as soon as possible.”

Lin Mo muttered a sentence to himself.

Since the ghostly old man had had his first try.

He would never give up in the future.

Once he saw how tired he was, the bd would definitely make a move when the time came.

Thinking about this, Lin Mo’s mood to recover his strength could not help but be a little more eager.

The three districts that he had managed to rectify with great difficulty.

How could he be willing to let someone pick the fruit.

Just as he was pondering, he suddenly noticed that he found the room to be exceptionally quiet.

The disciple was not there!

“Disciple!”

He waited until after he had subconsciously called out.

There was no movement at all in the surroundings other than the intermittent chirping of insects.

At this moment, a bad premonition fiercely derived from Lin Mo’s heart.

Hatedless was gone!

.....

The sound of hurried footsteps crossed the corridor.

Ma Bangde, who had been awakened by the intensive knocking on the door, was about to fume.

However, when he heard that it was Lin Mo's urgent summons, he was instantly dumbfounded.

He found a jacket at random and raced to the door.

When he came to the room, Black Rose had already arrived before him.

"Mr. Lin, what's happened?"

"No Hate has disappeared!"

At this moment, Lin Mo's tone had turned extremely low, and his killing aura was constantly around him.

The palms of his hands that were holding the longsword all appeared to tremble faintly.

"What?"

Upon learning this news, Ma Bangde's heart couldn't help but tighten.

He was clear that Lin Mo was devoted to teaching this disciple of his.

It was completely groomed with the purpose of being a successor.

Now this disciple was lost.

It would be a big deal.

After withdrawing his thoughts, Ma Bangde immediately said.

"Mr. Lin, I will immediately send someone to look for it!"

Just as he was turning around and preparing to go to that platoon of men, Lin Mo suddenly called out to him.

"Wait!"

Lin Mo had a number in mind.

If someone had plundered Lin Wu Huan.

The first target of suspicion would be Ji Dutuo of the Seven Deadly Sins.

This person had always wanted to absorb this supremely talented disciple of his into their organization.

The other target of suspicion was the ghostly old man.

This man was the only patriarch who had sneaked into his room.

Only on second thought, it didn't seem necessary for them to do so.

It was only natural that an always expert would not do such a dirty kidnapping tactic.

But if there was someone else in the matter.

Even if it was an ordinary half-step clan master, there was no way they could cross the front line silently.

And still take Lin Wu Huan away without one being aware of it at all.

One should know that although Lin Wu Hate had not been cultivating for long, his strength was not to be underestimated.

In particular, she was able to use a tricky tactic to get around even half-step grandmasters.

Just when Lin Mo was racking his brains to line up clues.

Black Rose, who was at the side, suddenly thought of something.

"Mr. Lin, do you still remember what Hateless asked you during the day?"

As the saying goes, concern is confusing.

Lin Mo had been obsessing over whether someone had kidnapped his disciple.

But it had overlooked one thing.

Hate Free had probably snuck out on her own.

During the day, this little girl had uncharacteristically started to take an interest in Chinese herbal medicine.

He hadn't even paid much attention to it at the time.

Now that he had been reminded of it by Black Rose, Lin Mo also reacted.

But even so.

The feeling of unease in his heart still had not diminished in the slightest.

He always felt that everything was not that simple.

After thinking about it, he still opened his mouth and instructed.

"Old Ma, pay a little more attention to Ghost Sou!"

"What?"

Hearing this name, Ma Bangde's face showed surprise.

"This old immortal, he dares to have the guts to do this, to make a move against Hate Free?"

"D*mn it, I'll drag him over here and make him understand why the flowers are so red!"

After saying that, he squeezed up his crunching hand bones.

Since Lin Mo had asked him to pay extra attention to the ghostly old man.

That side meant that there must be something wrong with this old thing.

“Just calm down!”

Lin Mo said somewhat powerlessly.

It was just that his body did not allow it now, otherwise he would have given Ma Bangde a beating.

Although this bd had opened his wisdom, his head had become much smarter.

But this hairy character really hadn’t changed at all.

“On the other hand, you only need to pay more attention to the ghosts.”

“Also don’t be too obvious, or he’ll find you out.”

Hearing this admonition, Ma Bangde was a bit puzzled.

“That weak old thing has this ability?”

Lin Mo skimmed his eyes, “What, you don’t think I’m lying to you?”

After the two of them exchanged a glance, Ma Bangde shrank his neck resentfully, not daring to be shouting.

“Also Old Ma, without my orders, you absolutely must not make a move against Ghost Souther, remember?”

Lin Mo barked out a warning.

He was also worried to this irascible character of Ma Bangde.

If he accidentally provoked the other party, the bd wouldn’t even know how he would die then.

And the scruples that inadvertently flowed between his words also made Ma Bangde extra attentive.

“Remember!”

Ma Bangde responded, and his expression became a serious face.

It seemed that this old thing was also a deeply hidden expert.

After all, a character that could make even Lin Mo scorned would naturally not be too simple.

But it would be a good idea to try out a few things!

Thinking of this, a wicked smile suddenly appeared at the corner of Ma Bangde’s mouth.

Lin Mo’s side took one look at this guy and he didn’t deflate any good farts.

“Old Ma, you can take it easy for me, this is a critical period.”

“Understood, I’m not that impulsive and reckless.”

The corners of Lin Mo’s mouth twitched, his forehead full of black lines.

This was the most impulsive person in the entire District 3.

I don’t know where this bd got the face to say this nonsense.

Ma Bangde didn’t know what Lin Mo was thinking.

“Mr. Lin, then I will go down first.”

With that, he waved his hand and left the room on the pretext of arranging for someone to search for Lin Wu Huan.

As for Black Rose, who remained in the room in situ, she was dispatched out by Lin Mo to search the nearby mountains and forests for traces of Lin Wuyuan.

And Lin Mo also gave her a picture book.

What was recorded on it were some herbs that Lin Mo needed to use to heal his wounds and to develop the medicinal juice.

As the two of them left.

Lin Mo’s brow furrowed again.

This little girl was becoming more and more lawless.

When she returns, she will definitely teach him a good lesson.

.....

At this moment, far away in the deep layers of forest.

A cliff hundreds of meters high.

The petite body hanging in mid-air suddenly sneezed several times in a row.

“Master must have been badmouthing me behind my back.”

After rubbing her nose, her gaze then turned to the top of a sudden stone step in the middle of the first crag.

Here, a golden five-petalled flower was gently swaying against the mountain peak.

“Finally, I’ve found you!”

Lin Wu Hate’s face instantly showed joy upon seeing this object.

Based on Lin Mo’s detailed introduction, she then firmly remembered the place where the Money Flower grew.

After this whole night of searching.

Now there was finally a result.

With excitement, he leapt a distance of four or five metres.

Just as her body was about to fall, black qi surged around her palm.

In a matter of moments, the black qi coalesced into sharp claws that plunged into the rocks as easily as slicing tofu.

At the same time, the same black sharp claws emerged from her feet.

In the next second, Lin Wuyuan was like a nimble gecko.

The next instant, Lin Wu Huan was like a nimble gecko, speeding up this treacherous 100-metre cliff.

For others, it was a desperate place.

But to her, it was like her own backyard.

In less than ten seconds, she arrived at the money flower.

With the roots and the soil stuffed directly into the backpack behind her.

“Call it a day!”

After all this she hung upside down in mid-air and patted the dirt on top of her palms.

Her demeanour was relaxed.
